23:36 Jesus refused this drink, which was offered to help deaden the pain.

23:38 an inscription. See note on Matt. 27:37.

23:42 when You come in Your kingdom. Seeing Jesus dying on a cross but believing that He would come into His kingdom shows the amazing faith of the thief.

23:43 paradise. Heaven, the abode of God (16:22; 2 Cor. 12:4).

23:44 the sixth hour = noon.

23:45 the veil of the temple. See note on Matt. 27:51.

23:50 Joseph had been a secret disciple (John 19:38) and likely was not present when the Sanhedrin condemned Jesus (Mark 14:64).

23:51 Arimathea. A town N of Lydda.

23:53 See also Isa. 53:9. wrapped it. The word means "wrap by winding tightly," referring to the linen around the body.

23:54 It was the preparation day. Friday, the day Jesus died, was the time of the preparation for the Sabbath, which began Friday at sunset.

23:56 according to the commandment. I.e., not to work on the Sabbath (Ex. 20:10).

23:56 [b]Ex 20:10f; Deut 5:14

And [b]on the Sabbath they rested according to the commandment.

VI THE VINDICATION OF THE SON OF MAN BEFORE MEN, 24:1–53 (MATT. 28:1–16; MARK 16:1–20; JOHN 20:1–29)

A The Victor over Death, 24:1–12

24:1 [a]Luke 24:1-10; Matt 28:1-8; Mark 16:1-8; John 20:1-8

24 [a]But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came to the tomb bringing the spices which they had prepared.

2 And they found the stone rolled away from the tomb,

24:3 [a]Luke 7:13; Acts 1:21

3 but when they entered, they did not find the body of [a]the Lord Jesus.

*24:4 [a]John 20:12 [b]Luke 2:9; Acts 12:7

4 While they were perplexed about this, behold, [a]two men suddenly [b]stood near them in dazzling clothing;

5 and as the women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, the men said to them, "Why do you seek the living One among the dead?

*24:6 [a]Mark 16:6 [b]Matt 17:22f; Mark 9:30f; Luke 9:44; 24:44

6 "He is not here, but He [a]has risen. Remember how He spoke to you [b]while He was still in Galilee,

24:7 [a]Matt 16:21; Luke 24:46

7 saying that [a]the Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again."

24:8 [a]John 2:22

8 And [a]they remembered His words,

9 and returned from the tomb and reported all these things to the eleven and to all the rest.

24:10 [a]Matt 27:56 [b]Mark 6:30

10 Now they were [a]Mary Magdalene and Joanna and Mary the mother of James; also the other women with them were telling these things to [b]the apostles.

24:11 [a]Mark 16:11

11 But these words appeared to them as nonsense, and they [a]would not believe them.

*24:12 [a]John 20:3-6

12 But Peter got up and [a]ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he *saw the linen wrappings only; and he went away

24:2 the stone rolled away. A circular stone like a solid wheel rolled in front of the entrance to the tomb-cave to keep out intruders. The tomb had been sealed by the Roman authorities and guarded (Matt. 27:62–66).

24:4 The two men were angels (v. 23).

24:6–7 Remember. See 9:31; 18:31–34.

24:12 the linen wrappings. The wide bandage-like strips that were wound around the body (23:53). only. Despite the absence of the body, the clothes retained the same shape and position they had when it was there. If someone had stolen the body but left the clothes, he would have had to unwrap it and the clothes would not have been in this position. See John 20:6–7.

B The Fulfiller of the Prophecies (the Emmaus Disciples), 24:13–35

*24:13 [a]Mark 16:12 13 And behold, [a]two of them were going that very day to a village named Emmaus, which was about seven miles from Jerusalem.

14 And they were talking with each other about all these things which had taken place.

15 While they were talking and discussing, Jesus Himself approached and began traveling with them.

24:16 [a]Luke 24:31; John 20:14; 21:4 16 But [a]their eyes were prevented from recognizing Him.

17 And He said to them, "What are these words that you are exchanging with one another as you are walking?" And they stood still, looking sad.

18 One of them, named Cleopas, answered and said to Him, "Are You the only one visiting Jerusalem and unaware of the things which have happened here in these days?"

24:19 [a]Mark 1:24 [b]Matt 21:11 19 And He said to them, "What things?" And they said to Him, "The things about [a]Jesus the Nazarene, who was a [b]prophet mighty in deed and word in the sight of God and all the people, 24:20 [a]Luke 23:13 20 and how the chief priests and our [a]rulers delivered Him to the sentence of death, and crucified Him.

24:21 [a]Luke 1:68 21"But we were hoping that it was He who was going to [a]redeem Israel. Indeed, besides all this, it is the third day since these things happened.

24:22 [a]Luke 24:1ff 22"But also some women among us amazed us. [a]When they were at the tomb early in the morning,

23 and did not find His body, they came, saying that they had also seen a vision of angels who said that He was alive.

24"Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just exactly as the women also had said; but Him they did not see."

25 And He said to them, "O foolish men and slow of heart to believe in all that [a]the prophets have spoken!

24:25 [a]Matt 26:24

26"[a]Was it not necessary for the Christ to suffer these things and to enter into His glory?"

24:26 [a]Luke 24:7, 44ff; Heb 2:10; 1 Pet 1:11

27 Then beginning with [a]Moses and with all the [b]prophets, He explained to them the things concerning Himself in all the Scriptures.

*24:27 [a]Gen 3:15; 12:3; Num 21:9[John 3:14]; Deut 18:15[John 1:45]; John 5:46 [b]2 Sam 7:12-16; Is 7:14[Matt 1:23]; Is 9:1f[Matt 4:15f]; Is 42:1[Matt 12:18ff]; Is 53:4[Matt 8:17; Luke 22:37]; Dan 7:13[Matt 24:30] Mic 5:2[Matt 2:6]; Zech 9:9[Matt 21:5]; Acts 13:27

28 And they approached the village where they were going, and [a]He acted as though He were going farther.

29 But they urged Him, saying, "Stay with us, for it is getting toward evening, and the day is now nearly over." So He went in to stay with them.

30 When He had reclined at the table with them, He took the bread and [a]blessed it, and breaking it, He began giving it to them.

24:28 [a]Mark 6:48

*24:30 [a]Matt 14:19

31 Then their [a]eyes were opened and they recognized Him; and He vanished from their sight.

*24:31 [a]Luke 24:16

32 They said to one another, "Were not our hearts burning within us while He was speaking to us on the road, while He [a]was explaining the Scriptures to us?"

24:32 [a]Luke 24:45

33 And they got up that very hour and returned to Jerusalem, and [a]found gathered together the eleven and [b]those who were with them,

24:33 [a]Mark 16:13 [b]Acts 1:14

34 saying, "[a]The Lord has

24:13 two of them. One is identified as Cleopas (v. 18); the other may have been his wife (v. 32: "our heart"). Many identify Cleopas with the "Clopas" mentioned in John 19:25, in which case his wife's name was Mary. Emmaus. The location is uncertain, though it was less than seven miles from Jerusalem.

24:27 in all the Scriptures. E.g., passages such as Pss. 16; 22; Isa. 53.

24:30 He took the bread. Christ's assuming the position as host, and perhaps something in His gestures, made them recognize Him.

24:31 He vanished from their sight. Lit., He became invisible.

24:34 appeared to Simon. There is no other record of this event except the mention in 1 Cor.

really risen and [b]has appeared to Simon."

35 They began to relate their experiences on the road and how [a]He was recognized by them in the breaking of the bread.

C The Pattern of Resurrection Life, 24:36–43

36 While they were telling these things, [a]He Himself stood in their midst.

37 But they were startled and frightened and thought that they were seeing [a]a spirit.

38 And He said to them, "Why are you troubled, and why do doubts arise in your hearts?

39"[a]See My hands and My feet, that it is I Myself; [b]touch Me and see, for a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have."

40 And when He had said this, He showed them His hands and His feet.

41 While they still [a]could not believe it because of their joy and amazement, He said to them, "[b]Have you anything here to eat?"

42 They gave Him a piece of a broiled fish;

43 and He took it and [a]ate it before them.

D The Head of the Church, 24:44–48

44 Now He said to them, "[a]These are My words which I spoke to you while I was still with you, that all things which are written about Me in the [b]Law of Moses and the Prophets and [c]the Psalms must be fulfilled."

45 Then He [a]opened their minds to understand the Scriptures,

46 and He said to them, "[a]Thus it is written, that the Christ would suffer and [b]rise again from the dead the third day,

47 and that [a]repentance for forgiveness of sins would be proclaimed in His name to [b]all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem.

48"You are [a]witnesses of these things.

E The Giver of the Holy Spirit, 24:49

49"And behold, [a]I am sending forth the promise of My Father upon you; but [b]you are to stay in the city until you are clothed with power from on high."

F The Ascended Lord, 24:50–53

50 And He led them out as far as [a]Bethany, and He lifted up His hands and blessed them.

51 While He was blessing them, He parted from them and was carried up into heaven.

52 And they, after worshiping Him, returned to Jerusalem with great joy, 53 and were continually in the temple praising God.

JOHN

INTRODUCTION

AUTHOR: The apostle John DATE: 85–90

Authorship The writer of this gospel is identified in the book only as "the disciple whom Jesus loved" (21:20, 24). He obviously was a Palestinian Jew who was an eyewitness of the events of Christ's life, for he displays knowledge of Jewish customs (7:37–39; 18:28) and of the land of Palestine (1:44, 46; 5:2), and he includes details of an eyewitness (2:6; 13:26; 21:8, 11). Eliminating the other disciples that belonged to the "inner circle" (because James had been martyred before this time, Acts 12:1–5, and because Peter is named in close association with the disciple whom Jesus loved, 13:23–24; 20:2–10), one concludes that John was the author. Whether this was the apostle John or a different John (the Elder) is discussed in the Introduction to 1 John.

John the apostle was the son of Zebedee and Salome and was the younger brother of James. He was a Galilean who apparently came from a fairly well-to-do home (Mark 15:40–41). Though often painted centuries later as effeminate, his real character was such that he was known as a "Son of Thunder" (Mark 3:17). He played a leading role in the work of the early church in Jerusalem (Acts 3:1; 8:14; Gal. 2:9). Later he went to Ephesus and for an unknown reason was exiled to the island of Patmos (Rev. 1:9).

Distinctive Approach This is the most theological of the Four Gospels. It deals with the nature and person of Christ and the meaning of faith in Him. John's presentation of Christ as the divine Son of God is seen in the titles given Him in the book: "the Word was God" (1:1), "the Lamb of God" (1:29), "the Messiah (1:41), "the Son of God" and "the King of Israel" (1:49), the "Savior of the world" (4:42), "Lord and . . . God" (20:28). His deity is also asserted in the series of "I am . . ." claims (6:35; 8:12; 10:7, 9, 11, 14; 11:25; 14:6; 15:1, 5). In other "I am" statements Christ made implicit and explicit claim to be the I AM-Yahweh of the Old Testament (4:24, 26; 8:24, 28, 58; 13:19). These are the strongest claims to deity that Jesus could have made.

The structure and style of the gospel are different from those of the synoptics. It contains no parables, only seven miracles (five of which are not recorded elsewhere), and many personal interviews. The author emphasizes the physical actuality of Jesus' hunger, thirst, weariness, pain, and death as a defense against the Gnostic denial of Jesus' true human nature.

Date Though the gospel of John used to be dated by some extreme critics as being written in the middle of the second century, the discovery of the Rylands papyrus fragment (a few verses from John 18 dated about A.D. 135) forced an earlier date. Several decades would have been required between the original writing of the gospel and its being copied and circulated as far as the Egyptian hinterland where the fragment was found. The gospel was apparently being circulated between 89 and 90, though it may have been written from Ephesus earlier (a pre-70 date has been suggested on the basis of 5:2, which may indicate that Jerusalem had not yet been destroyed, but this is far from conclusive). Discoveries at Qumran have attested to the genuineness of the Jewish background and thought patterns seen in the book.

Contents John's statement of purpose is clearly spelled out in 20:30–31. The gospel is sometimes called The Book of the Seven Signs, since the author chose seven sign-miracles to reveal the person and mission of Jesus: (1) the turning of water into wine (2:1–11); (2) the cure of the nobleman's son (4:46–54); (3) the cure of the paralytic (5:1–18); (4) the feeding of the multitude (6:6–13); (5) the walking on the water (6:16–21); (6) the giving of sight to the blind

(9:1–7); and (7) the raising of Lazarus (11:1–45). Other important themes in the book include the Holy Spirit (14:26; 15:26; 16:7–14), Satan and the world (8:44; 12:31; 17:15), the Word (1:1–14), and the new birth (3:1–12).

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JOHN

I INCARNATION OF THE SON OF GOD, 1:1–18

1 [a]In the beginning was [b]the Word, and the Word was [c]with God, and [d]the Word was God.

2 He was in the beginning with God.

3 [a]All things came into being through Him, and apart from Him nothing came into being that has come into being.

4 [a]In Him was life, and the life was [b]the Light of men.

5 [a]The Light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it.

6 There came a man sent from God, whose name was [a]John.

7 He came [a]as a witness, to testify about the Light, [b]so that all might believe through him.

8 [a]He was not the Light, but he came to testify about the Light.

9 There was [a]the true Light which, coming into the world, enlightens every man.

10 He was in the world, and [a]the world was made through Him, and the world did not know Him.

11 He came to His own, and those who were His own did not receive Him.

12 But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become [a]children of God, even [b]to those who believe in His name,

1:1 In the beginning. Before time began, Christ was already in existence with God. That is what is meant by the term "the pre-existent Christ." See Gen. 1:1 and 1 John 1:1. Word (Gk., logos). Logos means "word, thought, concept, and the expressions thereof." In the OT the concept conveyed activity and revelation, and the word or wisdom of God is often personified (Ps. 33:6; Prov. 8). In the Targums (Aramaic paraphrases of the OT) it was a designation of God. To the Greek mind it expressed the ideas of reason and creative control. Revelation is the keynote idea in the logos concept. Here it is applied to Jesus, who is all that God is and the expression of Him (1:1, 14). In this verse the Word (Christ) is said to be with God (i.e., in communion with and yet distinct from God) and to be God (i.e., identical in essence with God).

1:3 All things came into being through Him. Christ was active in the work of creation (cf. Col. 1:16).

1:4–5 life . . . Light. These are two words especially associated with John (8:12; 9:5; 11:25; 14:6). "Light" in John implies revelation that discloses the "life" that is in Christ and brings into judgment those who refuse it (3:19). "Life" denotes salvation and deliverance, based on Christ's atonement. the darkness did not comprehend it. Better, the darkness did not overcome the light.

1:6 John (the Baptizer). His role, made clear in verse 8, was simply as a witness to the Light.

1:9 enlightens every man. Not that every man is redeemed automatically, for redemption comes through faith in the Savior (1:12). But this light is available to all men.

1:10 did not know Him. The world did not recognize Jesus as the Christ, God's Son, the Creator, the Savior, etc.

1:11 He came to His own (thing or place—i.e., the world that He made); His own (people—the Jews) did not receive Him.

1:12 even to those who believe in His name. An explanation of what it means to "receive" Him.

1:13 The new birth is supernatural and therefore completely distinct from natural birth. It is not of blood (lit., bloods), i.e., contains no human element; nor does it lie within the scope of human achievement (it is not of the will of the flesh or man).

1:14 the Word became flesh. Jesus Christ was unique, for He was God from all eternity and yet joined Himself to sinful humanity in the Incarnation. The God-man possessed all the attributes of deity (Phil. 2:6) and the attributes common to hu-

II PRESENTATION OF THE SON OF GOD, 1:19–4:54

A By John the Baptizer, 1:19–34

19 This is [a]the testimony of John, when [b]the Jews sent to him priests and Levites [c]from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?"

20 And he confessed and did not deny, but confessed, "[a]I am not the Christ."

21 They asked him, "What then? Are you [a]Elijah?" And he *said, "I am not." "Are you [b]the Prophet?" And he answered, "No."

22 Then they said to him, "Who are you, so that we may give an answer to those who sent us? What do you say about yourself?"

23 He said, "I am [a]A VOICE OF ONE CRYING IN THE WILDERNESS, 'MAKE STRAIGHT THE WAY OF THE LORD,' as Isaiah the prophet said."

24 Now they had been sent from the Pharisees.

25 They asked him, and said to him, "Why then are you baptizing, if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor [a]the Prophet?"

26 John answered them saying, "[a]I baptize in water, but among you stands One whom you do not know.

27 "It is [a]He who comes after me, the [b]thong of whose sandal I am not worthy to untie."

28 These things took place in Bethany [a]beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

29 The next day he *saw Jesus coming to him and *said, "Be-manity (apart from sin), and He will exist forever as the God-man in His resurrected body (Acts 1:11; Rev. 5:6). Only the God-man could be an adequate Savior; for He must be human in order to be able to suffer and die, and He must be God to make that death effective as a payment for sin. The use of the word flesh contradicts the Gnostic teaching that pure deity could not be united with flesh, which was regarded as entirely evil. glory. In the OT, glory expressed the splendor of divine manifestation and attested the divine presence. Here it means the visible manifestation of God in Christ. the only begotten. Used here (and in 1:18; 3:16, 18) of Christ, meaning the unique Son in a way totally different from any other who believes and is born as a child of God simply because He is equal with God. Also used of the widow of Nain's only son (Luke 7:12), Jairus's only daughter (Luke 8:42), and Isaac, Abraham's unique son (Heb. 11:17).

1:16 grace upon grace. I.e., grace piled upon grace in the experiences of the Christian life.

1:17 grace. Though grace was manifest in the OT (Gen. 6:8; Ex. 34:6; Jer. 31:3), it was but a candle compared to the brightness of grace that appeared at the Incarnation (Titus 2:11). Grace is the unmerited favor of God and is the basis of our salvation, justification, election, faith, and spiritual gifts (Eph. 1:7; Rom. 3:24; 11:5–6; Eph. 2:8–9; Rom. 12:6).

1:18 No one has seen God at any time. I.e., since God is Spirit (4:24), no man has ever seen God in His essence, His Spirit-being. Yet He assumed visible form, which men saw in OT times (Gen. 32:30; Ex. 24:9–10; Judg. 13:22; Isa. 6:1; Dan. 7:9), and in Jesus men could see God (14:8–9). Christ gives life (v. 12); He reveals (vv. 14, 18); He gives grace and truth (vv. 16–17).

1:19 the Jews. I.e., probably the chief priests.

1:21 Elijah. See Mal. 4:5. He was supposed to return to earth before the time of judgment. See note on Matt. 11:14. the Prophet. The prophecy referred to (Deut. 18:15) is of Christ, though the Jews did not understand it correctly, since (v. 25) they distinguished Christ and the Prophet (Acts 3:22–23).

1:24 Pharisees. See note on Matt. 3:7. They numbered about 6,000.

1:25 They seem to be saying: Since you have no authority, what are you doing baptizing and thus gathering followers?

1:29 Lamb. History (the passover lamb, Ex. 12:3) and prophecy (the Messiah, Isa. 53:7) are linked in this metaphor. the sin of the world. No longer just the sins of Israel (Isa. 53:4–12; 1 John 2:2).

hold, [a]the Lamb of God who [b]takes away the sin of the world!
30"This is He on behalf of whom I said, '[a]After me comes a Man who has a higher rank than I, [b]for He existed before me.'
31"I did not recognize Him, but so that He might be manifested to Israel, I came baptizing in water."
32 John [a]testified saying, "[b]I have seen the Spirit descending as a dove out of heaven, and He remained upon Him.
33"I did not recognize Him, but He who sent me to baptize in water said to me, 'He upon whom you see the Spirit descending and remaining upon Him, [a]this is the One who baptizes in the Holy Spirit.'
34"I myself have seen, and have testified that this is [a]the Son of God."

B To John's Disciples, 1:35–51

35 Again [a]the next day John was standing with two of his disciples,
36 and he looked upon Jesus as He walked, and *said, "Behold, [a]the Lamb of God!"
37 The two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.
38 And Jesus turned and saw them following, and *said to them, "What do you seek?" They said to Him, "[a]Rabbi (which translated means Teacher), where are You staying?"
39 He *said to them, "Come, and you will see." So they came and saw where He was staying; and they stayed with Him that day, for it was about the tenth hour.
40 [a]One of the two who heard John speak and followed Him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother.
41 He *found first his own brother Simon and *said to him, "We have found the [a]Messiah" (which translated means Christ).
42 He brought him to Jesus. Jesus looked at him and said, "You are Simon the son of [a]John; you shall be called [b]Cephas" (which is translated [c]Peter).
43 [a]The next day He purposed to go into [b]Galilee, and He *found [c]Philip. And Jesus *said to him, "[d]Follow Me."
44 Now [a]Philip was from [b]Bethsaida, of the city of Andrew and Peter.
45 [a]Philip *found [b]Nathanael and *said to him, "We have found Him of whom [c]Moses in the Law and also [c]the Prophets wrote—Jesus of [d]Nazareth, [e]the son of Joseph."
46 Nathanael said to him, "[a]Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?" [b]Philip *said to him, "Come and see."
47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to Him, and *said of him, "Behold, an [a]Israelite indeed, in whom there is no deceit!"
48 Nathanael *said to Him, "How do You know me?" Jesus answered and said to him, "Before [a]Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you."
49 Nathanael answered Him, "[a]Rabbi, You are [b]the Son of God; You are the [c]King of Israel."
50 Jesus answered and said to him, "Because I said to you that I saw you under the fig tree, do you believe? You will see greater things than these."
51 And He *said to him, "Truly, truly, I say to you, you will see

1:39 the tenth hour. 10 A.M. by Roman time; 4 P.M. by Jewish time.

1:40 The unnamed disciple was likely John, writer of this gospel.

1:41 Messiah. See note on Matt. 1:1.

1:46 Nazareth. The town had a negative reputation at this period (see 7:52).

1:48 when you were under the fig tree, I saw you. Though bodily removed from Philip, the omnipresent Lord was with him under the fig tree.

1:49 Son of God. A messianic title for the One in whom the true destiny of Israel is to be fulfilled; also a claim of deity (5:18). The title King of Israel stated the Jewish political messianic hope.

1:50 greater things. I.e., greater proofs of who I am as revealed in the seven great "signs" that comprise chaps. 2–12.

1:51 the heavens opened. A symbol of the fellowship open to followers of Christ. Son of Man. See note on Matt. 8:20. Notice the titles given to 15 And He made a scourge of cords, and drove them all out of the temple, with the sheep and the oxen; and He poured out the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables;

2:16 [a]Matt 21:12 [b]Luke 2:49

16 and to those who were selling [a]the doves He said, "Take these things away; stop making [b]My Father's house a place of business."

17 His [a]disciples remembered

Jesus in chap. 1: Word (v. 1), God (v. 1), Creator (v. 3), Light (v. 7), only begotten God (v. 18), Lamb of God (vv. 29, 36), Son of God (vv. 34, 49), Messiah (v. 41), King of Israel (v. 49), and Son of Man (v. 51).

2:1 A wedding feast often lasted a week.

2:4 Woman, what does that have to do with us? "Woman" was a term of respectful address (see 19:26). Christ's remark meant "That concerns you, leave Me alone." The hour for manifesting Himself as Messiah had not yet come (see 8:20).

2:5 Although Mary apparently did not fully understand, she trusted and submitted to Jesus.

2:6 Each container held 75–113 lit.

2:10 the good wine. Similarly, God's best, His Son, had now come.

2:11 beginning of His signs. The miracles of Jesus are called signs by John in order to emphasize the significance of the miracles rather than the miracles themselves. They revealed various aspects of the person or work of Christ (here His glory), and their purpose was to encourage faith in His followers. For the specific signs in this book, see Introduction under "Contents."

2:13 Passover. See note on Mark 14:1.

2:14 The many pilgrims that came to Jerusalem for Passover brought a variety of currency and no animals for sacrifice. The outer courts of the Temple became a noisy market for changing money and selling animals. A second cleansing of the Temple occurred on Monday of Holy Week (Matt. 21:12), showing that the money changers went back to their business.

2:17 See Ps. 69:9 for the source of this quote. Christ was jealous for the holiness of God's house. The offense of the money changers was in their defiling it.

2:17 [b]Ps 69:9
that it was written, "[b]ZEAL FOR YOUR HOUSE WILL CONSUME ME."

2:18 [a]John 1:19 [b]Matt 12:38
18 [a]The Jews then answered and said to Him, "[b]What sign do You show us as your authority for doing these things?"

*2:19 [a]Matt 26:61; 27:40; Mark 14:58; 15:29; Acts 6:14
19 Jesus answered and said to them, "[a]Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up."

2:20 [a]John 1:19 [b]Ezra 5:16
20 [a]The Jews then said, "It took [b]forty-six years to build this temple, and will You raise it up in three days?"

2:21 [a]1 Cor 6:19
21 But He was speaking of [a]the temple of His body.

2:22 [a]John 2:2 [b]Luke 24:8; John 2:17; 12:16; 14:26 [c]Ps 16:10; Luke 24:26f; John 20:9; Acts 13:33
22 So when He was raised from the dead, His [a]disciples [b]remembered that He said this; and they believed [c]the Scripture and the word which Jesus had spoken.

2:23 [a]John 2:13 [b]John 2:11
23 Now when He was in Jerusalem at [a]the Passover, during the feast, many believed in His name, [b]observing His signs which He was doing.

2:24 [a]Acts 1:24; 15:8
24 But Jesus, on His part, was not entrusting Himself to them, for [a]He knew all men,

2:25 [a]Matt 9:4; John 1:42,47; 6:61,64; 13:11
25 and because He did not need anyone to testify concerning man, [a]for He Himself knew what was in man.

E To Nicodemus, 3:1–21

*3:1 [a]John 7:50; 19:39 [b]Luke 23:13; John 7:26,48
3 Now there was a man of the Pharisees, named [a]Nicodemus, a [b]ruler of the Jews;

2 this man came to Jesus by night and said to Him, "[a]Rabbi, we know that You have come from God as a teacher; for no one can do these [b]signs that You do unless [c]God is with him."

*3:2 [a]Matt 23:7; John 3:26 [b]John 2:11 [c]John 9:33; 10:38; 14:10f; Acts 2:22; 10:38

3 Jesus answered and said to him, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one [a]is born again he cannot see [b]the kingdom of God."

*3:3 [a]2 Cor 5:17; 1 Pet 1:23 [b]Matt 19:24; 21:31; Mark 9:47; 10:14f; John 3:5

4 Nicodemus *said to Him, "How can a man be born when he is old? He cannot enter a second time into his mother's womb and be born, can he?"

5 Jesus answered, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born of [a]water and the Spirit he cannot enter into [b]the kingdom of God.

*3:5 [a]Ezek 36:25-27; Eph 5:26; Titus 3:5 [b]Matt 19:24; 21:31; Mark 9:47; 10:14f; John 3:3

6"[a]That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

3:6 [a]John 1:13; 1 Cor 15:50

7"Do not be amazed that I said to you, 'You must be born again.'

8"[a]The wind blows where it wishes and you hear the sound of it, but do not know where it comes from and where it is going; so is everyone who is born of the Spirit."

*3:8 [a]Ps 135:7; Eccl 11:5; Ezek 37:9

9 Nicodemus answered and said to Him, "How can these things be?"

10 Jesus answered and said to him, "Are you [a]the teacher of Israel and do not understand these things?

3:10 [a]Luke 2:46; 5:17; Acts 5:34

2:19 in three days I will raise it up. This cryptic expression is explained in verse 21, after a verse that shows how the Jews characteristically misunderstood Jesus. These words were used to condemn Christ before Caiaphas. See note on Matt. 26:61.

3:1 Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. A member of the Sanhedrin. See note on Luke 22:66. He perfectly represents the aristocratic, well-intentioned but unenlightened Judaism of his day. For additional information on Nicodemus, see 7:50–51 and 19:39.

3:2 by night. Perhaps because of fear or simply because he wanted uninterrupted time with Jesus.

3:3 born again. Lit., born from above (as in 3:31; 19:11), though the word also means "born again" (Gal. 4:9). Both ideas (merged in John's gospel) are combined in the translation "be born anew." The new birth, or regeneration (Titus 3:5), is the act of God that gives eternal life to the one who believes in Christ. As a result, he becomes a member of God's family (1 Peter 1:23) with a new capacity and desire to please his heavenly Father (2 Cor. 5:17).

3:5 born of water and the Spirit. Various interpretations have been suggested for the meaning here of "water": (1) it refers to baptism as a requirement for salvation. However, this would contradict many other NT passages (Eph. 2:8–9); (2) it stands for the act of repentance that John the Baptizer's baptism signified; (3) it refers to natural birth (specifically, the fluid released when the amniotic sac breaks prior to labor); thus it means "unless one is born the first time by water and the second time by the Spirit"; (4) it means the Word of God, as in John 15:3; (5) it is a synonym for the Holy Spirit and may be translated, "by water, even the Spirit." One truth is clear: the new birth is from God through the Spirit.

3:8 wind. The Greek word pneuma means both wind and spirit.

11 "Truly, truly, I say to you, [a]we speak of what we know and [b]testify of what we have seen, and [b]you do not accept our testimony.

12 "If I told you earthly things and you do not believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things?

13 "[a]No one has ascended into heaven, but [b]He who descended from heaven: [c]the Son of Man.

14 "As [a]Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must [b]the Son of Man [c]be lifted up;

15 so that whoever believes will [a]in Him have eternal life.

16 "For God so [a]loved the world, that He [b]gave His [c]only begotten Son, that whoever [d]believes in Him shall not perish, but have eternal life.

17 "For God [a]did not send the Son into the world [b]to judge the world, but that the world might be saved through Him.

18 "[a]He who believes in Him is not judged; he who does not believe has been judged already, because he has not believed in the name of [b]the only begotten Son of God.

19 "This is the judgment, that [a]the Light has come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the Light, for [b]their deeds were evil.

20 "[a]For everyone who does evil hates the Light, and does not come to the Light for fear that his deeds will be exposed.

21 "But he who [a]practices the truth comes to the Light, so that his deeds may be manifested as having been wrought in God."

F By John the Baptizer, 3:22-36

22 After these things Jesus and His [a]disciples came into the land of Judea, and there He was spending time with them and [b]baptizing.

23 John also was baptizing in Aenon near Salim, because there was much water there; and they were coming and were being baptized—

24 for [a]John had not yet been thrown into prison.

25 Therefore there arose a discussion on the part of John's disciples with a Jew about [a]purification.

26 And they came to John and said to him, "[a]Rabbi, He who was with you [b]beyond the Jordan, to whom you [c]have testified, behold, He is baptizing and all are coming to Him."

27 John answered and said, "[a]A man can receive nothing unless it [b]has been given him from heaven.

28 "You yourselves are my witnesses that I said, '[a]I am not the Christ,' but, 'I have been sent before Him.'

29 "He who has the bride is [a]the bridegroom; but the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly because of the bridegroom's voice. So this [b]joy of mine has been made full.

30 "He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 "[a]He who comes from above is above all, [b]he who is of the earth is from the earth and speaks of the earth. [a]He who comes from heaven is above all.

3:11 The testimony theme is found throughout John (3:31–36; 5:31–47; 8:12–20).

3:14 Moses. The reference is to Num. 21:5–9.

3:16 eternal life. A new quality of life, not an everlasting "this-life." Here begins another major theme of John: the dual one of redemption and judgment. It reappears at 5:22; 8:15; 9:39; 12:47. Here the emphasis is on the fact that men judge themselves. The acquitted are those who have believed in Him; the condemned are those who have rejected Him.

3:21 truth. I.e., what is true or right.

3:23 Aenon near Salim. Though not positively identified, they are thought to be in Samaria.

3:29 the friend of the bridegroom. As the bridegroom, Christ must occupy the prominent place, though John the Baptizer's place as the friend was unique, and he vicariously participated in the joy of the bridegroom.

3:31 He who comes is the Son of Man.

3:32 [a]John 3:11

32"What He has seen and heard, of that He [a]testifies; and [a]no one receives His testimony.

G To the Samaritan Woman, 4:1–42

*4:1 [a]Luke 7:13 [b]John 3:22,26; 1 Cor 1:17

4 Therefore when [a]the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus was making and [b]baptizing more disciples than John

4:2 [a]John 3:22,26; 1 Cor 1:17 [b]John 2:2

2 (although [a]Jesus Himself was not baptizing, but His [b]disciples were),

4:3 [a]John 3:22 [b]John 2:11f

3 He left [a]Judea and went away [b]again into Galilee.

*4:4 [a]Luke 9:52

4 And He had to pass through [a]Samaria.

4:5 [a]Luke 9:52 [b]Gen 33:19; Josh 24:32 [c]Gen 48:22; John 4:12

5 So He *came to a city of [a]Samaria called Sychar, near [b]the parcel of ground that [c]Jacob gave to his son Joseph;

6 and Jacob's well was there. So Jesus, being wearied from His journey, was sitting thus by the well. It was about the sixth hour.

7 There *came a woman of Samaria to draw water. Jesus *said to her, "Give Me a drink."

4:8 [a]John 2:2 [b]John 4:5,39

8 For His [a]disciples had gone away into [b]the city to buy food.

*4:9 [a]Luke 9:52 [b]Ezra 4:3-6, 11ff; Matt 10:5; John 8:48; Acts 10:28

9 Therefore the [a]Samaritan woman *said to Him, "How is it that You, being a Jew, ask me for a drink since I am a Samaritan woman?" (For [b]Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.)

*4:10 [a]Jer 2:13; John 4:14; 7:37f; Rev 7:17; 21:6; 22:1,17

10 Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who says to you, 'Give Me a drink,' you would have asked Him, and He would have given you [a]living water."

*4:11 [a]Jer 2:13; John 4:14; 7:37f; Rev 7:17; 21:6; 22:1,17

11 She *said to Him, "Sir, You have nothing to draw with and the well is deep; where then do You get that [a]living water?

4:12 [a]John 4:6

12"You are not greater than our father Jacob, are You, who [a]gave us the well, and drank of it himself and his sons and his cattle?"

13 Jesus answered and said to her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will thirst again;

4:14 [a]John 6:35; 7:38 [b]Matt 25:46; John 6:27

14 but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him [a]shall never thirst; but the water that I will give him will become in him a well of water springing up to [b]eternal life."

4:15 [a]John 6:35

15 The woman *said to Him, "Sir, [a]give me this water, so I will not be thirsty nor come all the way here to draw."

16 He *said to her, "Go, call your husband and come here."

3:36 has. Eternal life becomes a present possession as soon as one believes. Likewise, God's wrath remains on the unbeliever in the present.

4:1–3 The meaning is this: When the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that He was making and baptizing more disciples than John (though actually Jesus' disciples did the baptizing, not Jesus Himself), He determined to leave the area and go into Galilee to avoid trouble with the Pharisees.

4:4 Normally Jewish people avoided Samaria by crossing to the E of the Jordan to travel from Judea to Galilee. But Christ wanted to witness to these despised Samaritans. See note on Luke 10:33.

4:6 the sixth hour. 6 A.M. by Roman time and noon by Jewish. The latter, at the sun's zenith, seems indicated.

4:7 a woman of Samaria. For a man to speak in public to a woman who was a stranger and for a Jew to converse with a Samaritan was most unusual.

4:9 have no dealings with may mean that drinking from a Samaritan's vessel would make a Jew unclean.

4:10 living water. New life through the Spirit (see 7:37–39; Jer. 2:13; Zech. 14:8). Salvation is a gift from Jesus Christ, the Son of God and Messiah. Notice that Christ asked the woman to receive Him and His Gift without any prerequisite change in her life. After she believed, and because she believed, her way of living would be changed.

4:11 deep. More than 100 ft (34 m).

4:16–18 Because the woman did not understand the meaning of "living water" (v. 10), the Lord turned the conversation toward showing her

17 The woman answered and said, "I have no husband." Jesus *said to her, "You have well said, 'I have no husband';

18 for you have had five husbands, and the one whom you now have is not your husband; this you have said truly."

4:19 [a]Matt 21:11; Luke 7:16,39; 24:19; John 6:14; 7:40; 9:17

19 The woman *said to Him, "Sir, I perceive that You are [a]a prophet.

her need as a sinner. The rabbis permitted two or three divorces at most, but this woman had exceeded that and was now living in adultery, unmarried to her present partner.

4:20 in this mountain. On Mount Gerizim the Samaritans had built a temple to rival the one in Jerusalem, from which they had long been separated politically and religiously.

4:22 salvation is from the Jews. The Savior was a Jew, and the Jews were the first messengers of the good news.

4:24 must worship in spirit and truth. The English word "worship" was originally spelled "worthship" and means to acknowledge the worth of the object worshiped. We should acknowledge God's worth in spirit (in contrast to material ways) and in truth (in contrast to falsehood).

4:25 The Samaritans also believed in a coming Messiah.

4:26 A clear affirmation from Jesus Himself that He is the Messiah.

4:35 they are white for harvest. The mission fields, Christ says, are ripe and waiting for harvesters.

4:36–38 The disciples would have the joy of reaping souls, the seed having been sown by OT prophets and John the Baptist.

4:39 [b]John 4:29 the Samaritans believed in Him because of the word of the woman who testified, "[b]He told me all the things that I have done."

40 So when the Samaritans came to Jesus, they were asking Him to stay with them; and He stayed there two days.

41 Many more believed because of His word;

4:42 [a]Matt 1:21; Luke 2:11; John 1:29; Acts 5:31; 13:23; 1 Tim 4:10; 1 John 4:14 42 and they were saying to the woman, "It is no longer because of what you said that we believe, for we have heard for ourselves and know that this One is indeed [a]the Savior of the world."

H To an Official of Capernaum, 4:43–54

4:43 [a]John 4:40 43 After [a]the two days He went forth from there into Galilee.

4:44 [a]Matt 13:57; Mark 6:4; Luke 4:24 44 For Jesus Himself testified that [a]a prophet has no honor in his own country.

4:45 [a]John 2:23 45 So when He came to Galilee, the Galileans received Him, [a]having seen all the things that He did in Jerusalem at the feast; for they themselves also went to the feast.

*4:46 [a]John 2:1 [b]John 2:9 [c]Luke 4:23; John 2:12 46 Therefore He came again to [a]Cana of Galilee [b]where He had made the water wine. And there was a royal official whose son was sick at [c]Capernaum.

4:47 [a]John 4:3,54 47 When he heard that Jesus had come [a]out of Judea into Galilee, he went to Him and was imploring Him to come down and heal his son; for he was at the point of death.

4:48 [a]Dan 4:2f; 6:27; Matt 24:24; Mark 13:22; Acts 2:19,22,43; 4:30; 5:12; 6:8; 7:36; 14:3; 15:12; Rom 15:19; 1 Cor 1:22; 2 Cor 12:12; 2 Thess 2:9; Heb 2:4

48 So Jesus said to him, "Unless you people see [a]signs and [a]wonders, you simply will not believe."

4:50 [a]Matt 8:13 49 The royal official *said to Him, "Sir, come down before my child dies."

50 Jesus *said to him, "[a]Go; your son lives." The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him and started off.

51 As he was now going down, his slaves met him, saying that his son was living.

52 So he inquired of them the hour when he began to get better. Then they said to him, "Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him."

4:53 [a]Acts 11:14 53 So the father knew that it was at that hour in which Jesus said to him, "Your son lives"; and he himself believed and [a]his whole household.

4:54 [a]John 2:11 [b]John 4:45f 54 This is again a [a]second sign that Jesus performed when He had [b]come out of Judea into Galilee.

8 Jesus *said to him, "[a]Get up, pick up your pallet and walk."

5:9 [a]John 9:14

9 Immediately the man became well, and picked up his pallet and began to walk.

[a]Now it was the Sabbath on that day.

2 The reaction, 5:10–18

*5:10 [a]John 1:19; 5:15,16,18 [b]Neh 13:19; Jer 17:21f; Matt 12:2; Luke 6:2; John 7:23; 9:16

10 So [a]the Jews were saying to him who was cured, "It is the Sabbath, and [b]it is not permissible for you to carry your pallet."

11 But he answered them, "He who made me well was the one who said to me, 'Pick up your pallet and walk.' "

12 They asked him, "Who is the man who said to you, 'Pick up your pallet and walk'?"

13 But the man who was healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had slipped away while there was a crowd in that place.

5:14 [a]Mark 2:5; John 8:11 [b]Ezra 9:14

14 Afterward Jesus *found him in the temple and said to him, "Behold, you have become well; do not [a]sin anymore, [b]so that nothing worse may befall you."

*5:15 [a]John 1:19; 5:16,18

15 The man went away, and told [a]the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well.

5:16 [a]John 1:19; 5:10,15,18

16 For this reason [a]the Jews were persecuting Jesus, because He was doing these things on the Sabbath.

17 But He answered them, "My Father is working until now, and I Myself am working."

18 For this reason therefore [a]the Jews [b]were seeking all the more to kill Him, because He not only was breaking the Sabbath, but also was calling God His own Father, [c]making Himself equal with God.

5:18 [a]John 1:19; 5:15,16 [b]John 5:16; 7:1 [c]John 10:33; 19:7

5:19 [a]Mark 26:39; John 5:30; 6:38; 8:28; 12:49; 14:10

19 Therefore Jesus answered and was saying to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, [a]the Son can do nothing of Himself, unless it is something He sees the Father doing; for whatever the Father does, these things the Son also does in like manner.

5:20 [a]Matt 3:17; John 3:35; 2 Pet 1:17 [b]John 14:12

5:22 [a]John 5:27; 9:39; Acts 10:42; 17:31

22"For not even the Father judges anyone, but [a]He has given all judgment to the Son,

5:23 [a]Luke 10:16; 1 John 2:23

23 so that all will honor the Son even as they honor the Father. [a]He who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent Him.

5:24 [a]John 3:18; 12:44; 20:31; 1 John 5:13 [b]John 3:18 [c]1 John 3:14

24"Truly, truly, I say to you, he who hears My word, and [a]believes Him who sent Me, has eternal life, and [b]does not come into judgment, but has [c]passed out of death into life.

5:25 [a]John 4:21,23; 5:28 [b]Luke 15:24 [c]John 6:60; 8:43,47; 9:27

25"Truly, truly, I say to you, [a]an hour is coming and now is, when [b]the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who [c]hear will live.

5:26 [a]John 1:4; 6:57

5:10 it is not permissible for you to carry your pallet. Carrying furniture on the Sabbath was a kind of work that, according to the rabbis, the fourth commandment prohibited.

5:15 the Jews. I.e., the Jewish authorities; here as in verses 10, 16, 18.

5:17–47 In this important Christological passage, Jesus asserts His authority, which He bases on His special relation to the Father. The Jews were perfectly aware that Jesus was claiming full deity—equality with God (v. 18).

5:21–27 Christ's authority is seen in the spheres of resurrection (vv. 21, 25, 26) and judgment (vv. 22–23, 27). God will make Christ the judge in order that the Son may be honored. Those who believe will escape judgment (v. 24).

B At Passover Time in Galilee, 6:1-71

1 The miraculous sign, 6:1-21 (Matt. 14:13-33; Mark 6:30-56; Luke 9:10-17)

*6:1 [a]John 6:1-13; Matt 14:13-21; Mark 6:32-44; Luke 9:10-17
6 After these things [a]Jesus went away to the other side of 5:29 The resurrection of life, or first resurrection, will include all believers (in stages), and the resurrection of judgment will involve unbelievers at the end of the Millennium (Rev. 20:11–15).

5:31 Here Christ acquiesces to the arguments of His opponents that His witness alone (without other witnesses) is not true. But He goes on to remind them that another, His Father, witnesses to the validity of His claims (vv. 32, 37). Other witnesses cited are John the Baptist (v. 33), His miracles (v. 36), the Scriptures (v. 39), and Moses (v. 46). In 8:14 He claims that His witness is indeed true.

5:37 The Father bore witness to Jesus through the OT and at His baptism.

5:39 search the Scriptures. This may be either a command or a statement of fact, probably the latter.

5:43 in My Father's name. I.e., as His representative. Though you won't follow Me, Christ says, you will, ironically, follow false messiahs—which the Jews did periodically until finally crushed by Rome in A.D. 135.

6:1 Sea of Galilee. An earlier name for this lake was Gennesaret; later it was called Galilee, and finally Tiberias, after the city built on its shore by 6:1 [b]the Sea of Galilee (or [c]Tiberias).

[b]Matt 4:18; Luke 5:1; [c]John 6:23; 21:1

2 A large crowd followed Him, because they saw the [a]signs which He was performing on those who were sick.
6:2 [a]John 2:11,23; 3:2; 6:14,30; 11:47; 12:18, 37; 20:30

3 Then [a]Jesus went up on the mountain, and there He sat down with His disciples.
6:3 [a]Matt 5:1; Mark 3:13; Luke 6:12; 9:28; John 6:15

4 Now [a]the Passover, the feast of the Jews, was near.
6:4 [a]Deut 16:1; John 2:13

5 Therefore Jesus, lifting up His eyes and seeing that a large crowd was coming to Him, *said to [a]Philip, "Where are we to buy bread, so that these may eat?"
6:5 [a]John 1:43

6 This He was saying to [a]test him, for He Himself knew what He was intending to do.
6:6 [a]2 Cor 13:5; Rev 2:2

7 [a]Philip answered Him, "[b]Two hundred denarii worth of bread is not sufficient for them, for everyone to receive a little."
*6:7 [a]John 1:43 [b]Mark 6:37

8 One of His [a]disciples, [b]Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, *said to Him,
6:8 [a]John 2:2 [b]John 1:40

9 "There is a lad here who has five barley loaves and two [a]fish, but what are these for so many people?"
*6:9 [a]John 6:11; 21:9,10,13

10 Jesus said, "Have the people sit down." Now there was [a]much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about [b]five thousand.
*6:10 [a]Mark 6:39 [b]Matt 14:21

11 Jesus then took the loaves, and [a]having given thanks, He distributed to those who were seated; likewise also of the [b]fish as much as they wanted.
6:11 [a]Matt 15:36; John 6:23 [b]John 6:9; 21:9,10,13

12 When they were filled, He *said to His [a]disciples, "Gather up the leftover fragments so that nothing will be lost."
6:12 [a]John 2:2

13 So they gathered them up, and filled twelve [a]baskets with fragments from the five barley loaves which were left over by those who had eaten.
6:13 [a]Matt 14:20

14 Therefore when the people saw the sign which He had performed, they said, "This is truly the [a]Prophet who is to come into the world."
*6:14 [a]Matt 11:3; 21:11; John 1:21

15 So Jesus, perceiving that they were intending to come and take Him by force [a]to make Him king, [b]withdrew again to [c]the mountain by Himself alone.
*6:15 [a]John 18:36f [b]John 6:15-21; Matt 14:22-33; Mark 6:45-51 [c]John 6:3

16 Now when evening came, His [a]disciples went down to the sea,
6:16 [a]John 2:2

17 and after getting into a boat, they started to cross the sea [a]to Capernaum. It had already become dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them.
6:17 [a]Mark 6:45; John 6:24,59

18 The sea began to be stirred up because a strong wind was blowing.

19 Then, when they had rowed about three or four miles, they *saw Jesus walking on the sea and drawing near to the boat; and they were frightened.

20 But He *said to them, "It is I; [a]do not be afraid."
6:20 [a]Matt 14:27

21 So they were willing to receive Him into the boat, and immediately the boat was at the land to which they were going.

2 The discourse, 6:22–40

22 The next day [a]the crowd that stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other small boat there, except one, and that Jesus [b]had not entered with His disciples into the boat, but that His disciples had gone away alone.
6:22 [a]John 6:2 [b]John 6:15ff

23 There came other small boats from [a]Tiberias near to the place where they ate the bread after the [b]Lord [c]had given thanks.
6:23 [a]John 6:1 [b]Luke 7:13 [c]John 6:11

24 So when the crowd saw that

6:7 Two hundred denarii. About eight months' wages for the average worker. One denarius was a daily wage.

6:9 barley loaves. The cheap food of the common people.

6:10 This number did not include the women and children (Matt. 14:21).

6:14 the Prophet. See 1:21 and Deut. 18:15.

6:15 to make Him king. Jesus had to escape from the enthusiasm of the crowd, which would have forced Him to lead them in revolt against the Roman government. Jesus refused to become a political revolutionist.

6:19 They rowed 4.8–5.6 km.

6:21 immediately. Indication of another miracle.

6:24 [a]Matt 14:34; Mark 6:53; John 6:17,59

Jesus was not there, nor His disciples, they themselves got into the small boats, and [a]came to Capernaum seeking Jesus.

6:25 [a]Matt 23:7

25 When they found Him on the other side of the sea, they said to Him, "[a]Rabbi, when did You get here?"

6:26 [a]John 6:24 [b]John 6:2,14, 30

26 Jesus answered them and said, "Truly, truly, I say to you, you [a]seek Me, not because you saw [b]signs, but because you ate of the loaves and were filled.

6:27 [a]Is 55:2 [b]John 3:15f; 4:14; 6:40,47, 54; 10:28; 17:2f [c]Matt 8:20; John 6:53,62 [d]John 3:33

27"Do not [a]work for the food which perishes, but for the food which endures to [b]eternal life, which [c]the Son of Man will give to you, for on Him the Father, even God, [d]has set His seal."

6:65 [a]John 6:37,44 [b]Matt 13:11; John 3:27
65 And He was saying, "For this reason I have [a]said to you, that no one can come to Me unless [b]it has been granted him from the Father."

★6:66 [a]John 2:2; 7:3 [b]John 6:60,64
66 As a result of this many of His [a]disciples [b]withdrew and were not walking with Him anymore.

6:67 [a]Matt 10:2; John 2:2; 6:70f; 20:24
67 So Jesus said to [a]the twelve, "You do not want to go away also, do you?"

71 Now He meant Judas [a]the son of Simon Iscariot, for he, [b]one of [c]the twelve, was going to betray Him.

6:46 On seeing God, see note on 1:18.

6:51 the bread . . . which I will give . . . is My flesh. A reference to his sacrificial death on the cross.

6:53–56 Just as one eats and drinks in order to have physical life, so it is necessary to appropriate Christ in order to have eternal life.

6:54 has eternal life. I.e., already has it, and so can count on being raised.

6:60 listen to it. I.e., accept it.

6:62 where He was before. A statement of Christ's existence in heaven before His birth.

6:63 profits nothing. I.e., is of no account.

6:66 many deserted Christ because He would not be a political revolutionary and because of His emphasis on the need for personal faith for salvation.

C At the Feast of Booths in Jerusalem, 7:1–10:21

1 Debate #1—the discourse, 7:1–29

7:1 [a]John 4:3; 6:1; 11:54 [b]John 1:19; 7:11,13,15,35 [c]John 5:18; 7:19; 8:37,40; 11:53

7 After these things Jesus [a]was walking in Galilee, for He was unwilling to walk in Judea because [b]the Jews [c]were seeking to kill Him.

★7:2 [a]Lev 23:34; Deut 16:13,16; Zech 14:16-19

2 Now the feast of the Jews, [a]the Feast of Booths, was near.

7:3 [a]Matt 12:46; Mark 3:21; John 7:5,10 [b]John 6:60

3 Therefore His [a]brothers said to Him, "Leave here and go into Judea, so that Your [b]disciples also may see Your works which You are doing.

4 "For no one does anything in secret when he himself seeks to be known publicly. If You do these things, show Yourself to the world."

7:5 [a]Matt 12:46; Mark 3:21; John 7:3,10

5 For not even His [a]brothers were believing in Him.

★7:6 [a]Matt 26:18; John 2:4; 7:8, 30

6 So Jesus *said to them, "[a]My time is not yet here, but your time is always opportune.

★7:7 [a]John 15:18f

7 "[a]The world cannot hate you, but it hates Me because I testify of it, that [b]its deeds are evil.

★7:7 [b]John 3:19f

8 "Go up to the feast yourselves; I do not go up to this feast because [a]My time has not yet fully come."

★7:8 [a]John 7:6

9 Having said these things to them, He stayed in Galilee.

7:10 [a]Matt 12:46; Mark 3:21; John 7:3,5

10 But when His [a]brothers had gone up to the feast, then He Himself also went up, not publicly, but as it were, in secret.

7:11 [a]John 7:13,15, 35 [b]John 11:56

11 [a]So the Jews [b]were seeking Him at the feast and were saying, "Where is He?"

7:12 [a]John 7:40-43

12 There was much grumbling among the crowds concerning Him; [a]some were saying, "He is a good man"; others were saying, "No, on the contrary, He leads the people astray."

★7:13 [a]John 9:22; 12:42; 19:38; 20:19

13 Yet no one was speaking openly of Him for [a]fear of the Jews.

7:14 [a]Matt 26:55; John 7:28

14 But when it was now the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and began to [a]teach.

THE JEWISH YEAR

FEAST	DATE	PURPOSE
The Passover	Nisan 14 (March/April)	To remember the deliverance of Israel from Egyptian bondage.
The Feast of Unleavened Bread	Nisan 15-21	Part of the Passover celebration. Ate unleavened bread and celebrated the beginning of the wheat harvest.
Pentecost (Feast of Weeks)	Sivan 6 (May/June)	Marked the end of the wheat harvest.
The Feast of Trumpets	Tishri 1 (Sept/Oct)	Known as Rosh Hasshanah, it was the celebration of the new year (civil year).
The Day of Atonement	Tishri 10	A day of fast set apart for national repentance and atonement for sin.
The Feast of Booths	Tishri 15-22	Also known as "Tabernacles," it commemorated Israel's wilderness experience.
The Feast of Lights	Kislev 25 (Nov/Dec)	Not found in the Mosiac Law. It was a celebration of the Maccabean cleansing and rededicating of the Temple.
The Feast of Purim	Adar 14-15 (Feb/March)	Not found in the Mosiac law. Purim ("lots") remembered God's deliverance of Israel in the days of Esther.

7:2 Feast of Booths. This was one of the three pilgrimage festivals of the Jewish year, occurring in the autumn after harvest. The Jews dwelt in booths made of the boughs of trees for the seven days of the festival.

7:6 your time is always opportune. I.e., it doesn't make any difference when you come or go.

7:7 The world rejected Jesus because His words and acts were a witness against its evil deeds.

7:8–10 Though Jesus did go to the Feast eventually, He stayed in Galilee for a time.

7:13 the Jews. Since "the crowds" (v. 12) were all Jews, here the Jewish authorities must be meant.

7:15 having never been educated. Jesus was not ished, saying, "How has this man [b]become learned, having never been educated?"

16 So Jesus answered them and said, "[a]My teaching is not Mine, but His who sent Me.

17"[a]If anyone is willing to do His will, he will know of the teaching, whether it is of God or whether I speak from Myself.

18"He who speaks from himself [a]seeks his own glory; but He who is seeking the glory of the One who sent Him, He is true, and there is no unrighteousness in Him.

19"[a]Did not Moses give you the Law, and yet none of you carries out the Law? Why do you [b]seek to kill Me?"

20 The crowd answered, "[a]You have a demon! Who seeks to kill You?"

21 Jesus answered and said to them, "I did [a]one deed, and you all marvel.

22"For this reason [a]Moses has given you circumcision (not because it is from Moses, but from [b]the fathers), and on the Sabbath you circumcise a man.

23"[a]If a man receives circumcision on the Sabbath so that the Law of Moses will not be broken, are you angry with Me because I made an entire man well on the Sabbath?

24"Do not [a]judge according to appearance, but judge with righteous judgment."

25 So some of the people of Jerusalem were saying, "Is this not the man whom they are seeking to kill?

26"Look, He is speaking publicly, and they are saying nothing to Him. [a]The rulers do not really know that this is the Christ, do they?

27"However, [a]we know where this man is from; but whenever the Christ may come, no one knows where He is from."

28 Then Jesus cried out in the temple, [a]teaching and saying, "[b]You both know Me and know where I am from; and [c]I have not come of Myself, but He who sent Me is true, whom you do not know.

29"[a]I know Him, because [b]I am from Him, and [c]He sent Me."

2 The reactions, 7:30–36

30 So they [a]were seeking to seize Him; and no man laid his hand on Him, because His [b]hour had not yet come.

31 But [a]many of the crowd believed in Him; and they were saying, "[b]When the Christ comes, He will not perform more [c]signs than those which this man has, will He?"

32 The Pharisees heard the crowd muttering these things about Him, and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent [a]officers to [b]seize Him.

33 Therefore Jesus said, "[a]For a little while longer I am with you, then [b]I go to Him who sent Me.

34"[a]You will seek Me, and will not find Me; and where I am, you cannot come."

35 [a]The Jews then said to one another, "[b]Where does this man intend to go that we will not find Him? He is not intending to go to [c]the Dispersion among [d]the trained in the rabbinical schools (Acts 4:13).

7:17 The thought is this: Anyone who does the will of God will be able to judge the authority of My teaching.

7:20 a demon (see Mark 3:22). The question of the last half of this verse seems unnecessary in light of 5:18.

7:21 The one deed that, at this time, most turned the authorities against Him was the healing of the man on the Sabbath day (5:1–9).

7:23 If circumcision was allowed on the Sabbath (Lev. 12:3), should not also a deed of mercy like the complete healing of a man (5:5–9)?

7:27 A popular idea associated with the coming of Messiah was that He would be a man of mystery, coming out of nowhere. Jesus was known to have come from Nazareth and so did not fulfill that requirement.

7:28 Christ says, in effect, If you knew God, you would recognize Me.

7:34 The Jewish authorities would die in their sins (8:24) and so could not come to be with Him in heaven.

7:36 [a]John 7:34; 8:21; 13:33

36"What is this statement that He said, '[a]You will seek Me, and will not find Me; and where I am, you cannot come'?"

3 Debate #2—the discourse, 7:37–39

*7:37 [a]Lev 23:36; Num 29:35; Neh 8:18 [b]John 4:10,14; 6:35

37 Now on [a]the last day, the great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried out, saying, "[b]If anyone is thirsty, let him come to Me and drink.

*7:38 [a]Is 44:3; 55:1; 58:11 [b]John 4:10

38"He who believes in Me, [a]as the Scripture said, 'From his innermost being will flow rivers of [b]living water.' "

*7:39 [a]Joel 2:28; John 1:33 [b]John 20:22; Acts 1:4f; 2:4, 33; 19:2 [c]John 12:16, 23; 13:31f; 16:14; 17:1

39 But this He spoke [a]of the Spirit, whom those who believed in Him were to receive; for [b]the Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus was not yet [c]glorified.

4 The reactions, 7:40–53

7:40 [a]Matt 21:11; John 1:21

40 Some of the people therefore, when they heard these words, were saying, "This certainly is [a]the Prophet."

7:41 [a]John 1:46; 7:52

41 Others were saying, "This is the Christ." Still others were saying, "[a]Surely the Christ is not going to come from Galilee, is He?

*7:42 [a]Ps 89:4; Mic 5:2; Matt 1:1; 2:5f; Luke 2:4ff

42"Has not the Scripture said that the Christ comes from [a]the descendants of David, and from Bethlehem, the village where David was?"

*7:43 [a]John 9:16; 10:19

43 So [a]a division occurred in the crowd because of Him.

7:44 [a]John 7:30

44 [a]Some of them wanted to seize Him, but no one laid hands on Him.

7:45 [a]John 7:32

45 The [a]officers then came to the chief priests and Pharisees, and they said to them, "Why did you not bring Him?"

7:46 [a]John 7:32 [b]Matt 7:28

46 The [a]officers answered, "[b]Never did a man speak the way this man speaks."

7:47 [a]John 7:12

47 The Pharisees then answered them, "[a]You have not also been led astray, have you?

7:48 [a]John 12:42 [b]Luke 23:13; John 7:26

48"[a]No one of [b]the rulers or Pharisees has believed in Him, has he?

7:50 [a]John 3:1; 19:39

7:51 [a]Ex 23:1; Deut 17:6; 19:15; Prov 18:13; Acts 23:3

51"[a]Our Law does not judge a man unless it first hears from him and knows what he is doing, does it?"

7:52 [a]John 1:46; 7:41

52 They answered and said to him, "[a]You are not also from Galilee, are you? Search, and see that no prophet arises out of Galilee."

53 [Everyone went to his home.

5 Debate #3—the discourses, 8:1–58

8:1 [a]Matt 21:1

8 But Jesus went to [a]the Mount of Olives.

8:2 [a]Matt 26:55; John 8:20

2 Early in the morning He came again into the temple, and all the people were coming to Him; and [a]He sat down and began to teach them.

3 The scribes and the Pharisees *brought a woman caught in

7:37–39 Though it is not mentioned in the OT, the Jews had a ceremony of carrying water from the Pool of Siloam and pouring it into a silver basin by the altar of burnt offering each day for the first seven days of the Feast of Booths. On the eighth day this was not done, making Christ's offer of the water of eternal life from Himself even more startling.

7:38 innermost being. The OT reference is probably to Isa. 55:1.

7:39 was not yet given. Though the Spirit had been active in the world from the beginning (Gen. 1:2), the epoch of the Spirit, in which He would indwell God's people, empowering and energizing them, would not begin until the Day of Pentecost (see 14:26; 15:26; 16:7).

7:42 descendants of David. See 2 Sam. 7:12. Bethlehem. See Mic. 5:2.

7:43 a division occurred. John records three occasions of division regarding Christ: here concerning His Person; in 9:16 concerning His power; and in 10:19 concerning His Passion.

7:49 this crowd. The am haarez (people of the land), whom the Pharisees despised because they no longer observed the minutiae of the Jewish law.

7:53–8:11 This story, though probably authentic, is omitted in many mss. and may not have been originally a part of this gospel.

adultery, and having set her in the midst,

*8:4 4 they *said to Him, "Teacher, this woman has been caught in adultery, in the very act.

*8:5 5"Now in the Law [a]Moses commanded us to stone such women; what then do You say?"

*8:6 6 They were saying this, [a]testing Him, [b]so that they might have grounds for accusing Him. But Jesus stooped down and with His finger wrote on the ground.

*8:7 7 But when they persisted in asking Him, [a]He straightened up, and said to them, "[b]He who is without sin among you, let him be the [c]first to throw a stone at her."

8 Again He stooped down and wrote on the ground.

9 When they heard it, they began to go out one by one, beginning with the older ones, and He was left alone, and the woman, where she was, in the midst.

8:10 10 [a]Straightening up, Jesus said to her, "Woman, where are they? Did no one condemn you?"

8:11 11 She said, "No one, Lord." And Jesus said, "[a]Neither do I condemn you; go. From now on [b]sin no more."]

*8:12 12 Then Jesus again spoke to them, saying, "[a]I am the Light of the world; [b]he who follows Me will not walk in the darkness, but will have the Light of life."

8:13 13 So the Pharisees said to Him, "[a]You are testifying about Yourself; Your testimony is not true."

*8:14 14 Jesus answered and said to them, "[a]Even if I testify about Myself, My testimony is true, for I know [b]where I came from and where I am going; but [c]you do not know where I come from or where I am going.

15"[a]You judge according to the flesh; [b]I am not judging anyone.

16"But even [a]if I do judge, My judgment is true; for I am not alone in it, but I and the Father who sent Me.

17"Even in [a]your law it has been written that the testimony of [b]two men is true.

18"I am He who testifies about Myself, and [a]the Father who sent Me testifies about Me."

19 So they were saying to Him, "Where is Your Father?" Jesus answered, "You know neither Me nor My Father; [a]if you knew Me, you would know My Father also."

20 These words He spoke in [a]the treasury, as [b]He taught in the temple; and no one seized Him, because [c]His hour had not yet come.

21 Then He said again to them, "I go away, and [a]you will seek Me, and [b]will die in your sin; where I am going, you cannot come."

22 So [a]the Jews were saying, "Surely He will not kill Himself, will He, since He says, '[b]Where I am going, you cannot come'?"

23 And He was saying to them, "[a]You are from below, I am from above; [b]you are of this world, [c]I am not of this world.

*8:24 24 'Therefore I said to you that you [a]will die in your sins; for unless you believe that [b]I am He, [a]you will die in your sins."

25 So they were saying to Him,

8:4 If this were true, why was not the man also charged? Furthermore, was a warning first given, as was required?

8:5 Moses commanded. See Lev. 20:10; Deut. 22:22–24.

8:6 Their motive was clear—to trap Christ. If He recommended leniency, He would alienate the legalists. If He supported the death penalty, He would alienate the many who opposed it even in those days.

8:7 without sin. Either in general, or who had never themselves committed adultery, or who were sinless in their procedure and testimony in this particular case.

8:12 I am the Light of the world. Our Lord here draws an analogy between the sun as the physical light of the world and Himself as the spiritual light of the world (see 9:4–5; 11:9–10). This theme also permeates chap. 9.

8:14 Even if. Even, Christ says, if I am testifying about Myself, My testimony is to be believed and trusted. Furthermore, My testimony is attested to by the Father (v. 18).

8:24 This remark doubtlessly infuriated the Jewish authorities, since it ranked them with sinners.

"Who are You?" Jesus said to them, "What have I been saying to you from the beginning?

8:26 [a]John 3:33; 7:28 [b]John 8:40; 12:49; 15:15

26"I have many things to speak and to judge concerning you, but [a]He who sent Me is true; and [b]the things which I heard from Him, these I speak to the world."

27 They did not realize that He had been speaking to them about the Father.

30 As He spoke these things, [a]many came to believe in Him.

*8:31 [a]John 15:7; 2 John 9 [b]John 2:2

31 So Jesus was saying to those Jews who had believed Him, "[a]If you abide in My word, then you are truly [b]disciples of Mine;

8:33 [a]Matt 3:9; Luke 3:8; John 8:37,39

33 They answered Him, "[a]We are Abraham's descendants and have never yet been enslaved to anyone; how is it that You say, 'You will become free'?"

8:32 the truth. I.e., of the divine revelation, not some current Gnostic truth about the cosmos, the soul, its relation to the body, etc.

8:39 If you are Abraham's children. The Jews were the natural descendants of Abraham (vv. 33, 37) but, because of their unbelief, not all were spiritual descendants. The father of all unbelievers is the devil (v. 44; see also Eph. 2:2–3; 1 John 3:8–10).

8:43 cannot hear. I.e., do not wish to, cannot bear to, accept His teaching. It is not a matter of intellectual capacity but of inner response.

8:44 The true reason for their failure to receive Christ was their relationship to the devil. Notice a similar harsh condemnation in Matt. 23:15.

53 "Surely You [a]are not greater than our father Abraham, who died? The prophets died too; whom do You make Yourself out to be?" birth.

8:51 he will never see death. The believer will not see spiritual death (separation from God), because through faith he possesses spiritual life (5:24). It may also have the meaning that he will not see death forever; that is, though the believer dies physically, this death is only temporary, being eventually overcome by the resurrection of the body.

8:56 My day. How much Abraham knew of a coming deliverer is unspecified in the OT. Various explanations are given for the meaning of "My day": the Incarnation, Resurrection (Heb. 11:19), the heavenly city (Heb. 11:10). Whatever Abraham saw it was most likely from heaven after he died and not while he was living on earth.

8:58 before Abraham was born, I am. The "I am" denotes absolute eternal existence, not simply existence prior to Abraham. It is a claim to be Yahweh of the OT. That the Jews understood the significance of this claim is clear from their reaction (v. 59) to the supposed blasphemy.

9:2 Sickness and suffering were commonly held to be the consequences of one's sin. The religious problem became troublesome, however, when the victim was born with a handicap such as blindness. Jesus first corrected this false idea and then focused on the purpose of this particular suffering, which provided an occasion for revealing God's glory.

9:7 pool of Siloam. This lay at the southern extremity of the Tyropoeon Valley, at the southern end of Hezekiah's tunnel.

he," still others were saying, "No, but he is like him." He kept saying, "I am the one."

10 So they were saying to him, "How then were your eyes opened?"

9:11 [a]John 9:7 11 He answered, "The man who is called Jesus made clay, and anointed my eyes, and said to me, 'Go to [a]Siloam and wash'; so I went away and washed, and I received sight."

12 They said to him, "Where is He?" He *said, "I do not know."

8 The reactions, 9:13–41

13 They *brought to the Pharisees the man who was formerly blind.

9:14 [a]John 5:9 14 [a]Now it was a Sabbath on the day when Jesus made the clay and opened his eyes.

9:15 [a]John 9:10 15 [a]Then the Pharisees also were asking him again how he received his sight. And he said to them, "He applied clay to my eyes, and I washed, and I see."

*9:16 [a]Matt 12:2; Luke 13:14; John 5:10; 7:23 [b]John 2:11 [c]John 6:52; 7:12,43; 10:19 16 Therefore some of the Pharisees were saying, "This man is not from God, because He [a]does not keep the Sabbath." But others were saying, "How can a man who is a sinner perform such [b]signs?" And [c]there was a division among them.

9:17 [a]John 9:15 [b]Deut 18:15; Matt 21:11 17 So they *said to the blind man [a]again, "What do you say about Him, since He opened your eyes?" And he said, "He is a [b]prophet."

9:18 [a]John 1:19; 9:22 18 [a]The Jews then did not believe it of him, that he had been blind and had received sight, until they called the parents of the very one who had received his sight,

19 and questioned them, saying, "Is this your son, who you say was born blind? Then how does he now see?"

20 His parents answered them and said, "We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind;

21 but how he now sees, we do not know; or who opened his eyes, we do not know. Ask him; he is of age, he will speak for himself."

*9:22 [a]John 7:13 [b]John 7:45-52 [c]Luke 6:22; John 12:42; 16:2 22 His parents said this because they [a]were afraid of the Jews; for the Jews [b]had already agreed that if anyone confessed Him to be Christ, [c]he was to be put out of the synagogue.

9:23 [a]John 9:21 23 For this reason his parents said, "[a]He is of age; ask him."

9:24 [a]Josh 7:19; Ezra 10:11; Rev 11:13 [b]John 9:16 24 So a second time they called the man who had been blind, and said to him, "[a]Give glory to God; we know that [b]this man is a sinner."

25 He then answered, "Whether He is a sinner, I do not know; one thing I do know, that though I was blind, now I see."

26 So they said to him, "What did He do to you? How did He open your eyes?"

9:27 [a]John 9:15 [b]John 5:25 27 He answered them, "[a]I told you already and you did not [b]listen; why do you want to hear it again? You do not want to become His disciples too, do you?"

9:28 [a]John 5:45; Rom 2:17 28 They reviled him and said, "You are His disciple, but [a]we are disciples of Moses.

*9:29 [a]John 8:14 29 "We know that God has spoken to Moses, but as for this man, [a]we do not know where He is from."

*9:30 30 The man answered and said to them, "Well, here is an amazing thing, that you do not know where He is from, and yet He opened my eyes.

9:34 Their hostility now bordered on fanaticism.

9:39 For judgment I came into this world. Jesus' coming was not for the purpose of judgment (3:17), but it inevitably resulted in judgment, because some decided against Him. Compare Mark 4:12 and Isa. 6:9.

9:41 The Pharisees' insistence that they could see made their sin willful.

10:1 The fold of the sheep was a walled enclosure open to the sky, with one entrance and holding several flocks.

10:3 The doorkeeper guarded the sheep at night. The shepherd calls his flock out from the others.

10:8 thieves and robbers. I.e., false messiahs, false teachers, of whom Palestine knew many in the first century A.D.

10:9 Christ is the only way to salvation (14:6), and He will supply all our needs (find pasture).

10:11 I am the good shepherd. As the Good Shepherd, Christ gave His life for His sheep and became the door to God's fold (v. 7); as the Great Shepherd (Heb. 13:20–21), He rose from the dead to care for His sheep; as Chief Shepherd (1 Peter 5:4), He will come again for His sheep.

18"[a]No one has taken it away from Me, but I [b]lay it down on My own initiative. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it up again. [c]This commandment I received from My Father."

10 The reactions, 10:19–21

19 [a]A division occurred again among the Jews because of these words.

20 Many of them were saying, "He [a]has a demon and [b]is insane. Why do you listen to Him?"

21 Others were saying, "These are not the sayings of one [a]demon-possessed. [b]A demon cannot open the eyes of the blind, can he?"

D At the Feast of Dedication in Jerusalem, 10:22–42

1 The discourse, 10:22–30

22 At the time the Feast of the Dedication took place at Jerusalem;

23 it was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple in the portico of [a]Solomon.

24 [a]The Jews then gathered around Him, and were saying to Him, "How long will You keep us in suspense? If You are the Christ, tell us [b]plainly."

25 Jesus answered them, "[a]I told you, and you do not believe; [b]the works that I do in My Father's name, these testify of Me.

26"But you do not believe because [a]you are not of My sheep.

27"My sheep [a]hear My voice, and [b]I know them, and they follow Me;

28 and I give [a]eternal life to them, and they will never perish; and [b]no one will snatch them out of My hand.

29"My Father, who has given them to Me, is greater than all; and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand.

30"[a]I and the Father are one."

2 The rejection, 10:31–42

31 The Jews [a]picked up stones again to stone Him.

32 Jesus answered them, "I showed you many good works from the Father; for which of them are you stoning Me?"

33 The Jews answered Him, "For a good work we do not stone You, but for [a]blasphemy; and because You, being a man, [b]make Yourself out to be God."

34 Jesus answered them, "Has it not been written in [a]your [b]Law, '[c]I SAID, YOU ARE GODS'?

35"If he called them gods, to whom the word of God came (and the Scripture cannot be broken),

10:16 I have other sheep. These are the Gentiles who would believe and, with converted Jews, form one spiritual body, the church (Eph. 2:16).

10:18 No individual, group, or government had the power to kill Christ. He voluntarily died for our sins.

10:22 the Feast of the Dedication. This was instituted in 165 B.C. by Judas Maccabeus in commemoration of the cleansing and reopening of the Temple after its desecration by the Syrian ruler Antiochus Epiphanes in 168 B.C. (Dan. 11:31; 1 Macc. 4:52–59). It is also called the Feast of Lights, or Hanukkah. The date falls near the winter solstice, Dec. 22.

10:25 I told you by statements (4:26; 8:58) and by My miracles.

10:30 one. The Father and Son are in perfect unity in their natures and actions, but the neuter form of "one" rules out the meaning that they are one person.

10:33 blasphemy. See note on Mark 14:64.

10:34 written in your Law. I.e., in Ps. 82:6. The term "law" was sometimes applied to the entire OT. Christ's point is that if the OT uses the word "God" (Elohim) of men who were representative of God, then the Jews should not oppose Him for calling Himself the Son of God.

10:35 the Scripture cannot be broken. I.e., deprived of its inerrancy and binding authority. Jesus here employs rather technical exegesis of the OT.

38 but if I do them, though you do not believe Me, believe [a]the works, so that you may know and understand that [b]the Father is in Me, and I in the Father."

39 Therefore [a]they were seeking again to seize Him, and [b]He eluded their grasp.

40 And He went away [a]again beyond the Jordan to the place where John was first baptizing, and He was staying there.

41 Many came to Him and were saying, "While John performed no [a]sign, yet [b]everything John said about this man was true."

42 [a]Many believed in Him there.

*11:4 [a]John 9:3; 10:38; 11:40

11 Now a certain man was sick, Lazarus of [a]Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister [b]Martha.

2 It was the Mary who [a]anointed [b]the Lord with ointment, and wiped His feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.

3 So the sisters sent word to Him, saying, "[a]Lord, behold, [b]he whom You love is sick."

4 But when Jesus heard this, He said, "This sickness is not to end in death, but for [a]the glory of God, so that the Son of God may be glorified by it."

11:5 [a]John 11:1

5 Now Jesus loved [a]Martha and her sister and Lazarus.

6 So when He heard that he was sick, He then stayed two days longer in the place where He was.

11:7 [a]John 10:40

7 Then after this He *said to the disciples, "[a]Let us go to Judea again."

*11:8 [a]Matt 23:7 [b]John 8:59; 10:31

8 The disciples *said to Him, "[a]Rabbi, the Jews were just now seeking [b]to stone You, and are You going there again?"

11:9 [a]Luke 13:33; John 9:4; 12:35

9 Jesus answered, "[a]Are there not twelve hours in the day? If anyone walks in the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world.

10 "But if anyone walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him."

*11:11 [a]John 11:3 [b]Matt 27:52; Mark 5:39; John 11:13; Acts 7:60

11 This He said, and after that He *said to them, "Our [a]friend Lazarus [b]has fallen asleep; but I go, so that I may awaken him out of sleep."

12 The disciples then said to Him, "Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will recover."

11:13 [a]Matt 9:24; Luke 8:52

13 Now [a]Jesus had spoken of his death, but they thought that He was speaking of literal sleep.

14 So Jesus then said to them plainly, "Lazarus is dead,

15 and I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, so that you may believe; but let us go to him."

*11:16 [a]Matt 10:3; Mark 3:18; Luke 6:15; John 14:5; 20:26-28; Acts 1:13 [b]John 20:24; 21:2

16 [a]Therefore Thomas, who is called [b]Didymus, said to his fellow disciples, "Let us also go, so that we may die with Him."

17 So when Jesus came, He

10:38 believe the works. Even if the leaders could not test Jesus' verbal claims, they could see His works, and these miracles should have led them to acknowledge the truth of His claims.

10:39 He eluded their grasp. Apparently He moved without walking, another supernatural phenomenon.

11:2 Mary. See 12:3; Matt. 26:7; Mark 14:3.

11:4 for the glory of God. The resurrection of Lazarus would demonstrate the glory of God even more than restoration from a sick bed.

11:8–10 Jesus states that He could safely go back to Judea, where an attempt had been made to stone Him (11:8), as long as He was walking in the light of His Father's will.

11:11 fallen asleep. Though the disciples understood this to mean natural sleep (v. 12), Jesus used it as a metaphor to denote death (Mark 5:39; cf. Acts 7:60; 1 Thess. 4:13).

11:14 Since Jesus knew Lazarus was dead, He was predicting his restoration to life in verse 4.

11:16 Didymus = twin. Possibly Thomas was a twin of Matthew, with whose name his own is coupled in Matt. 10:3; Mark 3:18; and Luke 6:15.

11:17 four days. Apparently Lazarus died shortly after the messengers left, for it was a day's journey to Jesus beyond the Jordan (10:40). He stayed there two days and spent a day journeying back to Bethany (on the E side of the Mount of Olives).

found that he had already been in the tomb [a]four days.

18 Now [a]Bethany was near Jerusalem, about two miles off;

19 and many of [a]the Jews had come to [b]Martha and Mary, [c]to console them concerning their brother.

20 [a]Martha therefore, when she heard that Jesus was coming, went to meet Him, but [a]Mary stayed at the house.

21 Martha then said to Jesus, "[a]Lord, [b]if You had been here, my brother would not have died.

22 "Even now I know that [a]whatever You ask of God, God will give You."

23 Jesus *said to her, "Your brother will rise again."

24 Martha *said to Him, "[a]I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day."

25 Jesus said to her, "[a]I am the resurrection and the life; he who believes in Me will live even if he dies,

26 and everyone who lives and believes in Me [a]will never die. Do you believe this?"

27 She *said to Him, "Yes, Lord; I have believed that You are [a]the Christ, the Son of God, even [b]He who comes into the world."

28 And when she had said this, she [a]went away and called Mary her sister, saying secretly, "[b]The Teacher is here and is calling for you."

29 And when she heard it, she *got up quickly and was coming to Him.

30 Now Jesus had not yet come into the village, but [a]was still in the place where Martha met Him.

31 [a]Then the Jews who were with her in the house, and [b]consoling her, when they saw that Mary got up quickly and went out, they followed her, supposing that she was going to the tomb to weep there.

32 Therefore, when Mary came where Jesus was, she saw Him, and fell at His feet, saying to Him, "[a]Lord, [b]if You had been here, my brother would not have died."

33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and [a]the Jews who came with her also weeping, He [b]was deeply moved in spirit and [c]was troubled,

34 and said, "Where have you laid him?" They *said to Him, "Lord, come and see."

35 Jesus [a]wept.

36 So [a]the Jews were saying, "See how He [b]loved him!"

37 But some of them said, "Could not this man, who [a]opened the eyes of him who was blind, have kept this man also from dying?"

38 So Jesus, again being deeply moved within, *came to the tomb. Now it was a [a]cave, and a stone was lying against it.

39 Jesus *said, "Remove the stone." Martha, the sister of the deceased, *said to Him, "Lord, by this time there will be a stench, for he has been dead [a]four days."

40 Jesus *said to her, "[a]Did I not say to you that if you believe, you will see the glory of God?"

41 So they removed the [a]stone. Then Jesus [b]raised His eyes, and said, "[c]Father, I thank You that You have heard Me.

42 "I knew that You always hear Me; but [a]because of the people standing around I said it, so that they may believe that [b]You sent Me."

43 When He had said these things, He cried out with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come forth."

44 He who had died came

11:35 wept. The Greek word means to weep quietly in contrast to the wailing in verse 33. This is the shortest verse in the English Bible, though 1 Thess. 5:16 is shorter in the Greek.

11:43 "Lazarus, come forth." Only Jesus can call the dead to life (5:25); others could remove the stone (11:39) and grave clothes (v. 44).

2 The reactions, 11:45–57

45 [a]Therefore many of the Jews [b]who came to Mary, and [c]saw what He had done, believed in Him.

11:45 [a]John 7:31 [b]John 11:19; 12:17f [c]John 2:23

46 But some of them went to the [a]Pharisees and told them the things which Jesus had done.

11:46 [a]John 7:32,45; 11:57

47 Therefore [a]the chief priests and the Pharisees [b]convened a [c]council, and were saying, "What are we doing? For this man is performing many [d]signs.

*11:48 [a]Matt 24:15

49 But one of them, [a]Caiaphas, [b]who was high priest that year, said to them, "You know nothing at all,

50 nor do you take into account that [a]it is expedient for you that one man die for the people, and that the whole nation not perish."

*11:50 [a]John 18:14

51 Now he did not say this on his own initiative, but [a]being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus was going to die for the nation,

11:51 [a]John 18:13

52 and not for the nation only, but in order that He might also [a]gather together into one the children of God who are scattered abroad.

11:52 [a]John 10:16

53 So from that day on they [a]planned together to kill Him.

11:53 [a]Matt 26:4

54 Therefore Jesus [a]no longer continued to walk publicly among the Jews, but went away from there to the country near the wilderness, into a city called [b]Ephraim; and there He stayed with the disciples.

11:54 [b]2 Chr 13:19 mg

56 So they [a]were seeking for Jesus, and were saying to one another as they stood in the temple, "What do you think; that He will not come to the feast at all?"

*11:56 [a]John 7:11

57 Now [a]the chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that if anyone knew where He was, he was to report it, so that they might seize Him.

3 The anointing by Mary, 12:1–8 (Matt. 26:6–13; Mark 14:3–9)

12 [a]Jesus, therefore, six days before [b]the Passover, came to [c]Bethany where Lazarus was, whom Jesus had raised from the dead.

12:1 [a]John 12:1-8; Matt 26:6-13; Mark 14:3-9; Luke 7:37-39 [b]John 11:55; 12:20 [c]Matt 21:17; John 11:43f

2 So they made Him a supper there, and [a]Martha was serving; but Lazarus was one of those reclining at the table with Him.

12:2 [a]Luke 10:38

3 [a]Mary then took a pound of very costly [b]perfume of pure nard, and anointed the feet of Jesus and wiped His feet with her hair; and the house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume.

*12:3 [a]Luke 7:37f; John 11:2 [b]Mark 14:3

4 But [a]Judas Iscariot, one of His disciples, who was intending to betray Him, *said,

12:4 [a]John 6:71

5 "Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred denarii and given to poor people?"

*12:5

6 Now he said this, not because he was concerned about the

*12:6

11:48 our place. I.e., the holy place, the Temple.

11:50 Caiaphas could hardly realize the full meaning of his own words (18:14). He was simply expressing the thought of a political collaborator with Rome; and yet those words express the central doctrine of the Christian faith—the substitutionary atonement of Christ.

11:56 stood in the temple, after undergoing the purification rites (v. 55).

poor, but because he was a thief, and as he [a]had the money box, he used to pilfer [b]what was put into it.

7 Therefore Jesus said, "Let her alone, so that she may keep it for [a]the day of My burial.

8 "[a]For the poor you always have with you, but you do not always have Me."

4 The reactions, 12:9–11

9 The [a]large crowd of the Jews then learned that He was there; and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might also see Lazarus, [b]whom He raised from the dead.

10 But the chief priests planned to put Lazarus to death also;

11 because [a]on account of him [b]many of the Jews were going away and were believing in Jesus.

F At Jerusalem, 12:12–50

1 The triumphal entry, 12:12–19 (Matt. 21:1–11; Mark 11:1–11; Luke 19:28–44)

12 On the next day [a]the large crowd who had come to [b]the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem,

13 took the branches of the palm trees and went out to meet Him, and began to shout, "[a]Hosanna! BLESSED IS HE WHO COMES IN THE NAME OF THE LORD, even the [b]King of Israel."

14 Jesus, finding a young donkey, sat on it; as it is written,

15 "[a]FEAR NOT, DAUGHTER OF ZION; BEHOLD, YOUR KING IS COMING, SEATED ON A DONKEY'S COLT."

16 [a]These things His disciples did not understand at the first; but when Jesus [b]was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written of Him, and that they had done these things to Him.

17 So [a]the people, who were with Him when He called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead, continued to testify about Him.

18 [a]For this reason also the people went and met Him, [b]because they heard that He had performed this sign.

19 So the Pharisees said to one another, "You see that you are not doing any good; look, the world has gone after Him."

2 The teaching, 12:20–50

20 Now there were some [a]Greeks among those who were going up to worship at [b]the feast;

21 these then came to [a]Philip, who was from [b]Bethsaida of Galilee, and began to ask him, saying, "Sir, we wish to see Jesus."

22 Philip *came and *told [a]Andrew; Andrew and Philip *came and *told Jesus.

23 And Jesus *answered them, saying, "[a]The hour has come for the Son of Man to [b]be glorified.

24 "Truly, truly, I say to you, [a]unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it bears much fruit.

25 "[a]He who loves his life loses it, and he who [b]hates his life in this world will keep it to life eternal.

26 "If anyone serves Me, he must follow Me; and [a]where I am, there My servant will be also; if anyone serves Me, the Father will [b]honor him.

27 "[a]Now My soul has become troubled; and what shall I say, '[b]Father, save Me from [c]this 12:7 Mary's anointing of Jesus was in anticipation of His burial (at which time spices were used).

12:13 On Hosanna, see note on Matt. 21:9.

12:14–15 as it is written in Zech. 9:9.

12:16 that these things were written of Him. I.e., in the Hebrew Scriptures, which Christ's followers searched carefully after His death.

12:20 These Greeks, attracted to Judaism, worshiped in their synagogues and attended Feasts, but they were not proselytes.

hour'? But for this purpose I came to this hour.

28 "[a]Father, glorify Your name." There came then a [b]voice out of heaven: "I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again."

29 So the crowd of people who stood by and heard it were saying that it had thundered; others were saying, "[a]An angel has spoken to Him."

30 Jesus answered and said, "[a]This voice has not come for My sake, but for your sakes.

31 "[a]Now judgment is upon this world; now [b]the ruler of this world will be cast out.

32 "And I, if I [a]am lifted up from the earth, will [b]draw all men to Myself."

33 But He was saying this [a]to indicate the kind of death by which He was to die.

34 The crowd then answered Him, "We have heard out of [a]the Law that [b]the Christ is to remain forever; and how can You say, 'The [c]Son of Man must be [d]lifted up'? Who is this [c]Son of Man?"

35 So Jesus said to them, "[a]For a little while longer [b]the Light is among you. [c]Walk while you have the Light, so that darkness will not overtake you; he who [d]walks in the darkness does not know where he goes.

36 "While you have the Light, [a]believe in the Light, so that you may become [b]sons of Light."

These things Jesus spoke, and He went away and [c]hid Himself from them.

37 But though He had performed so many signs before them, yet they were not believing in Him.

38 This was to fulfill the word of Isaiah the prophet which he spoke: "[a]LORD, WHO HAS BELIEVED OUR REPORT? AND TO WHOM HAS THE ARM OF THE LORD BEEN REVEALED?"

39 For this reason they could not believe, for Isaiah said again,

40 "[a]HE HAS BLINDED THEIR EYES AND HE [b]HARDENED THEIR HEART, SO THAT THEY WOULD NOT SEE WITH THEIR EYES AND PERCEIVE WITH THEIR HEART, AND BE CONVERTED AND I HEAL THEM."

41 These things Isaiah said because [a]he saw His glory, and [b]he spoke of Him.

42 Nevertheless [a]many even of [b]the rulers believed in Him, but [c]because of the Pharisees they were not confessing Him, for fear that they would be [d]put out of the synagogue;

43 [a]for they loved the approval of men rather than the approval of God.

44 And Jesus cried out and said, "[a]He who believes in Me, does not believe in Me but in Him who sent Me.

45 "[a]He who sees Me sees the One who sent Me.

46 "[a]I have come as Light into the world, so that everyone who believes in Me will not remain in darkness.

47 "If anyone hears My sayings and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for [a]I did not come to judge the world, but to save the world.

48 "[a]He who rejects Me and does not receive My sayings, has one who judges him; [b]the word I spoke is what will judge him at [c]the last day.

49 "[a]For I did not speak on My own initiative, but the Father Himself who sent Me [b]has given Me a commandment as to what to say and what to speak.

12:28 Father, glorify Your name. This, too, should always be our attitude, especially in times of difficulty.

12:31 judgment is upon this world. The cross is the condemnation of, the judgment upon, those who reject it; it is also the basis for the ultimate victory over Satan.

12:32 lifted up on the cross. will draw all men. His saving grace will be available to Greeks (like those present, v. 20) as well as to Jews.

12:34 They could not conceive of the heavenly Son of Man being lifted up to die.

12:37–50 These verses summarize the public ministry of Jesus Christ and explain the rejections, which are equated with the rejection of God.

12:38–41 The quotes are from Isa. 53:1 and 6:10. The glory Isaiah saw was His (Jesus') glory, which means that Jesus is God (Yahweh).

12:47 I did not come to judge. See note on 9:39.

12:50 [a]John 6:68 [b]John 5:19; 8:28

IV INSTRUCTION BY THE SON OF GOD, 13:1–16:33

A Concerning Forgiveness, 13:1–20

*13:1 [a]John 2:13; 11:55 [b]John 12:23 [c]John 13:3; 16:28

13 Now before the Feast of [a]the Passover, Jesus knowing that [b]His hour had come that He would depart out of this world [c]to the Father, having loved His own who were in the world, He loved them to the end.

13:2 [a]John 6:70; 13:27 [b]John 6:71

2 During supper, [a]the devil having already put into the heart of [b]Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon, to betray Him,

*13:3 [a]John 3:35 [b]John 8:42

3 Jesus, [a]knowing that the Father had given all things into His hands, and that [b]He had come forth from God and was going back to God,

13:4 [a]Luke 12:37; 17:8

4 *got up from supper, and *laid aside His garments; and taking a towel, He [a]girded Himself.

13:5 [a]Gen 18:4; 19:2; 43:24; Judg 19:21; Luke 7:44; 1 Tim 5:10

5 Then He *poured water into the basin, and began to [a]wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel with which He was girded.

6 So He *came to Simon Peter. He *said to Him, "Lord, do You wash my feet?"

13:7 [a]John 13:12ff

7 Jesus answered and said to him, "What I do you do not realize now, but you will understand [a]hereafter."

*13:8 [a]Ps 51:2,7; Ezek 36:25; Acts 22:16; 1 Cor 6:11; Heb 10:22

8 Peter *said to Him, "Never shall You wash my feet!" Jesus answered him, "[a]If I do not wash you, [b]you have no part with Me."

13:8 [b]Deut 12:12; 2 Sam 20:1; 1 Kin 12:16

9 Simon Peter *said to Him, "Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head."

*13:10 [a]John 15:3; Eph 5:26

10 Jesus *said to him, "He who has bathed needs only to wash his feet, but is completely clean; and [a]you are clean, but not all of you."

13:11 [a]John 6:64; 13:2

11 For [a]He knew the one who was betraying Him; for this reason He said, "Not all of you are clean."

13:12 [a]John 13:4

12 So when He had washed their feet, and [a]taken His garments and reclined at the table again, He said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you?

13:13 [a]John 11:28 [b]John 11:2; 1 Cor 12:3; Phil 2:11

13"You call Me [a]Teacher and [b]Lord; and you are right, for so I am.

*13:14 [a]John 11:2; 1 Cor 12:3; Phil 2:11

14"If I then, [a]the Lord and the Teacher, washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet.

13:15 [a]1 Pet 5:3

15"For I gave you [a]an example that you also should do as I did to you.

13:16 [a]Matt 10:24; Luke 6:40; John 15:20 [b]2 Cor 8:23; Phil 2:25

16"Truly, truly, I say to you, [a]a slave is not greater than his master, neither is [b]one who is sent greater than the one who sent him.

13:17 [a]Matt 7:24ff; Luke 11:28; James 1:25

17"If you know these things, you are [a]blessed if you do them.

*13:18 [a]John 13:10f [b]John 6:70; 15:16,19 [c]John 15:25; 17:12; 18:32; 19:24,36 [d]Ps 41:9; Matt 26:21ff; Mark 14:18ff; Luke 22:21ff; John 13:21,22,26

18"[a]I do not speak of all of you. I know the ones I have [b]chosen; but it is [c]that the Scripture may be fulfilled, '[d]HE WHO EATS MY BREAD HAS LIFTED UP HIS HEEL AGAINST ME.'

*13:19 [a]John 14:29; 16:4

19"From now on [a]I am telling you before it comes to pass, so

13:1 to the end. Lit., to the fullest extent.

13:3–11 This dramatic scene of the footwashing is an acted out parable, a lesson in humility, and a vivid portrayal of Christ's self-humiliation. Normally a servant performed this lowly task, further highlighting Christ's coming to serve (Mark 10:45).

13:8 Peter resists because he sees the inequity of Christ's washing his feet; yet not to allow Him to do so would mean that he would not be cleansed.

13:10 He who has bathed needs only to wash his feet. Just as in the natural life a man who has bathed needs only to wash the dust off his sandaled feet when he returns home, so in the spiritual life a man who has been cleansed from sin need not think that all is lost when he sins in his walk through life. He need only confess these sins to be entirely clean again (1 John 1:9).

13:14 you also ought to wash one another's feet. Since the illustration has to do with forgiveness, this phrase means that believers ought to forgive one another and serve each other sacrificially (Matt. 5:23–24; Eph. 4:32).

13:18 Scripture. Ps. 41:9 is referred to.

13:19 I am He. I.e., the one to whom Ps. 41:9 refers.

13:19 [b]John 8:24

that when it does occur, you may believe that [b]I am He.

*13:20 [a]Matt 10:40; Mark 9:37; Luke 9:48; 10:16; Gal 4:14

20"Truly, truly, I say to you, [a]he who receives whomever I send receives Me; and he who receives Me receives Him who sent Me."

B Concerning His Betrayal, 13:21–30 (John 13:21–30; cf. Matt. 26:21–35; Mark 14:18–31; Luke 22:21–38)

13:21 [a]John 11:33 [b]Matt 26:21f; Mark 14:18ff; Luke 22:21ff; John 13:18,22, 26

21 When Jesus had said this, He [a]became troubled in spirit, and testified and said, "Truly, truly, I say to you, that [b]one of you will betray Me."

13:22 [a]Matt 26:21ff; Mark 14:18ff; Luke 22:21ff; John 13:18,21, 26

22 The disciples began looking at one another, [a]at a loss to know of which one He was speaking.

23 There was reclining on [a]Jesus' bosom one of His disciples, [b]whom Jesus loved.

24 So Simon Peter *gestured to him, and *said to him, "Tell us who it is of whom He is speaking."

13:25 [a]John 21:20

25 He, [a]leaning back thus on Jesus' bosom, *said to Him, "Lord, who is it?"

*13:26 [a]John 6:71

26 Jesus then *answered, "That is the one for whom I shall dip the morsel and give it to him." So when He had dipped the morsel, He *took and *gave it to Judas, [a]the son of Simon Iscariot.

13:27 [a]Matt 4:10 [b]Luke 22:3; John 13:2

27 After the morsel, [a]Satan then [b]entered into him. Therefore Jesus *said to him, "What you do, do quickly."

28 Now no one of those reclining at the table knew for what purpose He had said this to him.

13:29 [a]John 12:6

29 For some were supposing, because Judas [a]had the money box, that Jesus was saying to him, "Buy the things we have need of [b]for the feast"; or else, that he should [c]give something to the poor.

13:29 [b]John 13:1 [c]John 12:5

30 So after receiving the morsel he went out immediately; and [a]it was night.

*13:30 [a]Luke 22:53

C Concerning His Departure, 13:31–38

*13:31 [a]Matt 8:20 [b]John 7:39 [c]John 14:13; 17:4; 1 Pet 4:11

31 Therefore when he had gone out, Jesus *said, "Now is [a]the Son of Man [b]glorified, and [c]God is glorified in Him;

13:32 [a]John 17:1

32 if God is glorified in Him, [a]God will also glorify Him in Himself, and will glorify Him immediately.

13:33 [a]1 John 2:1 [b]John 7:33 [c]John 7:34

33"[a]Little children, I am with you [b]a little while longer. [c]You will seek Me; and as I said to the Jews, now I also say to you, 'Where I am going, you cannot come.'

*13:34 [a]John 15:12, 17; 1 John 2:7f; 3:11,23; 2 John 5 [b]Lev 19:18; Matt 5:44; Gal 5:14; 1 Thess 4:9; Heb 13:1; 1 Pet 1:22; 1 John 4:7 [c]Eph 5:2; 1 John 4:10f

34"A [a]new commandment I give to you, [b]that you love one another, [c]even as I have loved you, that you also love one another.

*13:35 [a]1 John 3:14; 4:20

35"[a]By this all men will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another."

13:36 [a]John 13:33; 14:2; 16:5 [b]John 21:18f; 2 Pet 1:14

36 Simon Peter *said to Him, "Lord, where are You going?" Jesus answered, "[a]Where I go, you cannot follow Me now; but [b]you will follow later."

13:37 [a]John 13:37, 38: Matt 26:33-35; Mark 14:29-31; Luke 22:33-34

37 Peter *said to Him, "Lord, why can I not follow You right now? [a]I will lay down my life for You."

13:38 [a]Mark 14:30; John 18:27

38 Jesus *answered, "Will you lay down your life for Me? Truly, truly, I say to you, [a]a rooster will not crow until you deny Me three times.

13:20 Those who are sent are the apostles, as in verse 16.

13:23 one of His disciples. I.e., John.

13:26 the morsel. At Eastern meals it was customary for the host to offer one of the guests a morsel of bread as a gesture of special friendship. By this Jesus was showing His love for Judas, the betrayer.

13:30 and it was night. The "hour" for which Christ, the light of the world, had been waiting, when the powers of darkness would engulf Him, begins in darkness.

13:31–32 In His death Christ and the Father will be glorified (v. 31). In the Resurrection and exaltation the Father will glorify Christ and validate all His claims (v. 32).

13:34 To love is not a new command, but to love as sacrificially as Christ did is (cf. Lev. 19:18 where the standard is "as yourself").

13:35 all men will know. I.e., their mutual love would be the strongest possible argument for the Christian faith.

D Concerning Heaven, 14:1–14

14 "[a]Do not let your heart be troubled; believe in God, believe also in Me.

2"In My Father's house are many dwelling places; if it were not so, I would have told you; for [a]I go to prepare a place for you.

3"If I go and prepare a place for you, [a]I will come again and receive you to Myself, that [b]where I am, there you may be also.

4"And you know the way where I am going."

5 [a]Thomas *said to Him, "Lord, we do not know where You are going, how do we know the way?"

6 Jesus *said to him, "I am [a]the way, and [b]the truth, and [c]the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.

7"[a]If you had known Me, you would have known My Father also; from now on you [b]know Him, and have [c]seen Him."

8 [a]Philip *said to Him, "Lord, show us the Father, and it is enough for us."

9 Jesus *said to him, "Have I been so long with you, and yet you have not come to know Me, Philip? [a]He who has seen Me has seen the Father; how can you say, 'Show us the Father'?

10"Do you not believe that [a]I am in the Father, and the Father is in Me? [b]The words that I say to you I do not speak on My own initiative, but the Father abiding in Me does His works.

11"Believe Me that [a]I am in the Father and the Father is in Me; otherwise [b]believe because of the works themselves.

12"Truly, truly, I say to you, he who believes in Me, the works that I do, he will do also; and [a]greater works than these he will do; because [b]I go to the Father.

13"[a]Whatever you ask in My name, that will I do, so that [b]the Father may be glorified in the Son.

14"If you ask Me anything [a]in My name, I will do it.

E Concerning the Holy Spirit, 14:15–26

15"[a]If you love Me, you will keep My commandments.

16"I will ask the Father, and He will give you another [a]Helper, that He may be with you forever;

17 that is [a]the Spirit of truth, [b]whom the world cannot receive, because it does not see Him or know Him, but you know Him

14:1 In view of His departure from them, Christ gave the disciples (in this chapter) specific encouragements. These include the provision in the Father's house (v. 2), the promise to return (v. 3), the prospect of doing greater works (v. 12), the promise of answered prayer (v. 14), the coming of the Holy Spirit (v. 16), and the legacy of peace (v. 27).

14:2 dwelling places. The same word is used elsewhere in the NT only in verse 23, where it is translated "abode."

14:3 I will come again. See 1 Thess. 4:13–18. This is not the coming of the Spirit nor the believer's death, but Christ's personal return.

14:6 There are not many ways to the Father in heaven, only One—through Jesus (Acts 4:12).

14:9 He who has seen Me has seen the Father. See note on 1:18.

14:12 greater works than these. Greater in extent (through the worldwide preaching of the gospel) and effect (the spiritual redemption and placing in the Body of Christ multitudes of people since the Day of Pentecost). These will be done through prayer in His name (v. 13).

14:13 in My name. This is not a formula to be tacked on to the end of prayers but means praying for the same things that Christ would desire to see accomplished. It is like using a power of attorney that a very dear loved one has given you.

14:16 another Helper. The Holy Spirit is called the Helper (Gk.: paraclete, as also in 14:26; 15:26; 16:7). In the root of this word are the ideas of advising, exhorting, comforting, strengthening, interceding, and encouraging. The only other occurrence of the word outside this discourse in the NT is in 1 John 2:1; it is applied to Christ and translated "Advocate." Here and in the other passages in John cited above, Christ teaches that the Holy Spirit (1) will indwell Christians (vv. 16–17); (2) will help the disciples recall the events of His life (v. 26); (3) will convince the world of sin, righteousness, and judgment (16:7–11); (4) will teach believers the truth (15:26; 16:13–15).

14:17 He abides with you and will be in you. The Holy Spirit was active in OT times, but His dwelling in the lives of believers after Pentecost is different in that (1) it is permanent and (2) it is true of every individual believer.

14:19 you will see Me after My resurrection.

14:21 The Christian faith works through love, and the measure of one's love is the extent to which one keeps Christ's commandments.

14:23 Here the Father's love is conditioned on our obedience to His Word.

14:26 The Spirit reminding them of Jesus' teachings was important for writing the NT.

14:30 he has nothing in Me. Satan (the ruler of the world) possesses nothing in the Person of Christ and has no power over Him whatsoever. This is another evidence of Christ's sinlessness.

15:1 Chapters 15 and 16 contain the second Farewell Discourse. In chap. 15 are the themes of fruit-bearing and the hatred of the world for Christ's disciples. The theme of persecution is continued in chap. 16 along with teaching concerning the ministry of the Holy Spirit.

15:2 takes away. The word may mean this literally (as "Remove" in 11:39) and would therefore be a reference to the physical death of fruitless Christians (1 Cor. 11:30); or it may mean lift up (as "picked up" in 8:59), which would indicate that the vinedresser (v. 1) encourages and makes it easier for the fruitless believer, hoping he will respond and begin to bear fruit. prunes. This is done through the Word of God, which cleans the life (same root word as "clean" in v. 3).

15:4 Abide in Me. John explains what this means when he uses the same word in 1 John 3:24. Abiding depends on keeping Christ's commandments (v. 10).

so neither can you unless you abide in Me.

15:6 burned. This refers to the works of the believer. The Christian who does not abide in Christ cannot do what pleases God; therefore, his works will be burned at the judgment seat of Christ, though he himself will be saved (1 Cor. 3:11–15). Another interpretation understands these branches to represent professing believers who will suffer eternal fire.

15:7 Knowing His words will control and guide our prayers so that He can answer them.

15:8 By this. I.e., by answered prayer. Note the progression: the step from fruit to more fruit involves pruning (cleansing) through the Word of God (v. 2), and the step from more fruit to much fruit involves a life of answered prayer.

15:10 Abiding in His love is conditioned on obedience (as also in 14:23).

15:13 The highest expression of love is a self-sacrifice that spares not life itself (see 1 John 3:16).

15:21 for My name's sake. Better, on My account; i.e., because you are My followers.

15:25 The reference is to Pss. 35:19; 69:4. In this section Christ makes five statements: (1) the world hates Me (v. 18); (2) My followers are aliens in the world (v. 19); (3) the world will persecute you because you are My followers (v. 20); (4) the persecutors do not know God (v. 21); (5) My words (v. 22) and My works (v. 24) rebuke them. These arguments are found in many early Christian writings, as instruction to the faithful and as warning to pagans and Jews.

15:26 Helper. See note on 14:16. who proceeds from the Father. The mission of the Spirit is from the Father; the Spirit's witness, therefore, is also that of the Father Himself.

16:1 stumbling, or falling away.

16:2 everyone who kills you [will] think that he is offering service to God. The history of religious persecution clearly portrays the fulfillment of this prophecy (e.g., Acts 7:57–60).

16:8–11 The Spirit, through apostles, evangelists, and preachers, will convict the world. To convict means to set forth the truth of the gospel in such a clear light that men are able to accept or reject it intelligently; i.e., to convince men of the truthfulness of the gospel. The Spirit will help break down the indifference of the typical pagan who has no conviction of sin, who holds a low regard for righteousness, and who pays no heed to warnings of the coming judgment.

16:9–10 because they do not believe in Me. The greatest, and basic, sin is unbelief. Jesus' return to the Father will vindicate His righteous life and the truthfulness of all He said (v. 10).

16:11 the ruler of this world has been judged. At the cross, Christ triumphed over Satan, serving notice on unbelievers of their judgment to come.

16:12 many more things . . . but you cannot bear them now. These things would become clear after the resurrection.

16:13 He will disclose to you what is to come. These things include the meaning of Christ's death and resurrection (which the disciples did not fully understand) as well as things yet in the future concerning His resurrection, the Christian life, and His return. See Paul's statement in 1 Cor. 2:10.

16:14 take of Mine. I.e., My teachings and whatever relates to Me.

16:15 The teaching ministry of the Holy Spirit has guided the church since the Spirit's coming. Doctrine, therefore, does not have to be traced back to the earthly ministry of Jesus to be au-

J Concerning His Return, 16:16–33

16 "[a]A little while, and [b]you will no longer see Me; and again a little while, and [c]you will see Me."

17 Some of His disciples then said to one another, "What is this thing He is telling us, '[a]A little while, and you will not see Me; and again a little while, and you will see Me'; and, 'because [b]I go to the Father'?"

18 So they were saying, "What is this that He says, 'A little while'? We do not know what He is talking about."

19 [a]Jesus knew that they wished to question Him, and He said to them, "Are you deliberating together about this, that I said, 'A little while, and you will not see Me, and again a little while, and you will see Me'?

20 "Truly, truly, I say to you, that [a]you will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice; you will be sorrowful, but [b]your sorrow will be turned to joy.

21 "[a]Whenever a woman is in labor she has pain, because her hour has come; but when she gives birth to the child, she no longer remembers the anguish because of the joy that a child has been born into the world.

22 "Therefore [a]you too have grief now; but [b]I will see you again, and your heart will rejoice, and no one will take your joy away from you.

23 "[a]In that day [b]you will not question Me about anything. Truly, truly, I say to you, [c]if you ask the Father for anything in My name, He will give it to you.

24 "[a]Until now you have asked for nothing in My name; ask and you will receive, so that your [b]joy may be made full.

25 "These things I have spoken to you in [a]figurative language; [b]an hour is coming when I will speak no more to you in figurative language, but will tell you plainly of the Father.

26 "[a]In that day [b]you will ask in My name, and I do not say to you that I will request of the Father on your behalf;

27 for [a]the Father Himself loves you, because you have loved Me and [b]have believed that [c]I came forth from the Father.

28 "[a]I came forth from the Father and have come into the world; I am leaving the world again and [b]going to the Father."

29 His disciples *said, "Lo, now You are speaking plainly and are not using [a]a figure of speech.

30 "Now we know that You know all things, and have no need for anyone to question You; by this we [a]believe that You [b]came from God."

31 Jesus answered them, "Do you now believe?

32 "Behold, [a]an hour is coming, and has already come, for [b]you to be scattered, each to [c]his own home, and to leave Me alone; and yet [d]I am not alone, because the Father is with Me.

33 "These things I have spoken to you, so that [a]in Me you may have peace. [b]In the world you have tribulation, but [c]take courage; [d]I have overcome the world."

thoritative, because the Spirit takes of Mine (Christ's), and will disclose it to you (the apostles). These truths were then recorded in the NT.

16:16 you will see Me. During the 40 days between His resurrection and ascension.

16:23 In that day. I.e., after His ascension.

16:26 ask in My name. To address the Father through the Son has been the normal Christian practice ever since. See also note on 14:13.

16:33 In the world you have tribulation. There are three aspects of this: (1) general trials that come simply because we live in a sinful world (Rom. 8:35–36); (2) afflictions that God allows to come into our lives (2 Cor. 12:7); and (3) chastisement that comes more directly from God (Heb. 12:6). I have overcome the world. See Rom. 8:37; 1 John 5:4.

V INTERCESSION OF THE SON OF GOD, 17:1–26

17 Jesus spoke these things; and [a]lifting up His eyes to heaven, He said, "Father, the hour has come; [b]glorify Your Son, that the Son may glorify You,

2 even as [a]You gave Him authority over all flesh, that [b]to all whom You have given Him, [c]He may give eternal life.

3 "This is eternal life, that they may know You, [a]the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom [b]You have sent.

4 "[a]I glorified You on the earth, [b]having accomplished the work which You have given Me to do.

5 "Now, Father, [a]glorify Me together with Yourself, with the glory which I had [b]with You before the world was.

6 "[a]I have manifested Your name to the men whom [b]You gave Me out of the world; they were [c]Yours and You gave them to Me, and they have [d]kept Your word.

7 "Now they have come to know that everything You have given Me is from You;

8 for [a]the words which You gave Me [b]I have given to them; and they received them and truly understood that [c]I came forth from You, and they believed that [d]You sent Me.

9 "[a]I ask on their behalf; [b]I do not ask on behalf of the world, but of those whom [c]You have given Me; for [d]they are Yours;

10 and [a]all things that are Mine are Yours, and Yours are Mine; and I have been glorified in them.

11 "I am no more in the world; and yet [a]they themselves are in the world, and [b]I come to You. [c]Holy Father, keep them in Your name, the name [d]which You have given Me, that [e]they may be one even as We are.

12 "While I was with them, I was keeping them in Your name [a]which You have given Me; and I guarded them and [b]not one of them perished but [c]the son of perdition, so that the [d]Scripture would be fulfilled.

13 "But now [a]I come to You; and [b]these things I speak in the world so that they may have My [c]joy made full in themselves.

14 "I have given them Your word; and [a]the world has hated them, because [b]they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

15 "I do not ask You to take them out of the world, but to keep them from [a]the evil one.

16 "[a]They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

17 "[a]Sanctify them in the truth; Your word is truth.

17:1 In this great so-called "high-priestly" prayer the Lord prays for (1) His own glorification (vv. 1, 5), (2) believers' protection (v. 11), (3) believers' sanctification (v. 17), (4) the unity of believers (vv. 21–23), and (5) the ultimate glorification of believers (v. 24). It is essentially an intercession for those who will form the church (vv. 6–26).

17:2 all whom You have given Him. Five times in this prayer the Lord refers to believers as a gift from the Father to Him (vv. 2, 6, 6, 9, 24).

17:3 This is Christ's definition of salvation, especially if we add what is clearly understood: sent to be the Savior of the world (3:16; 4:42; 6:33; 1 John 4:14; 5:20).

17:5 with Yourself. I.e., in Your presence, "at the right hand of God" (Mark 16:19).

17:6 manifested Your name. I.e., revealed Your true nature. This divine revelation is the basis on which the church is established.

17:11 Holy Father. Occurring only here in the NT, this address emphasizes God's separateness ("Holy") and His intimacy ("Father"). keep. Though not expressed, this likely means "keep from evil and disunity."

17:12 the son of perdition. Judas (see Ps. 41:9).

17:15 from the evil one. The word can be neuter (from evil) or masculine (from the evil one, Satan). It should be noted that Christ does not teach withdrawal from the world but, rather, that Christians should be in the world but not of it (vv. 14–16).

17:17 Sanctify means "to set apart for God and His holy purposes"; so also verse 19. The means of sanctification is God's Word.

17:18 A great text for the mission of the church.

Myself, that they themselves also may be [b]sanctified [c]in truth.

20"I do not ask on behalf of these alone, but for those also who believe in Me through their word;

21 that they may all be one; [a]even as You, Father, are in Me and I in You, that they also may be in Us, [b]so that the world may believe that [c]You sent Me.

22"The [a]glory which You have given Me I have given to them, that they may be one, just as We are one;

23 [a]I in them and You in Me, that they may be perfected in unity, so that the world may know that [b]You sent Me, and [c]loved them, even as You have loved Me.

17:21 that they may all be one. All believers belong to the one Body of Christ (1 Cor. 12:13) and to the same household of God (Eph. 2:19). This spiritual unity should be visibly expressed in the exercise of spiritual gifts (Eph. 4:3–16), prayer, and exhortation (2 Cor. 1:11; Heb. 10:25).

17:24 He prays for our glorification, that is, being with Him in eternity.

17:25 righteous Father. Like "Holy Father" in verse 11, this form of address occurs only here in the NT and expresses God's distinction from us and His relation to us.

18:1 ravine of the Kidron. A ravine E of Jerusalem, between the city and the Mount of Olives.

18:3 cohort. A group of 300–600 Roman soldiers.

18:4 [a]John 6:64; 13:1,11 [b]John 18:7

4 So Jesus, [a]knowing all the things that were coming upon Him, went forth and *said to them, "[b]Whom do you seek?"

5 They answered Him, "Jesus the Nazarene." He *said to them, "I am He." And Judas also, who was betraying Him, was standing with them.

6 So when He said to them, "I am He," they drew back and fell to the ground.

18:7 [a]John 18:4

7 Therefore He again asked them, "[a]Whom do you seek?" And they said, "Jesus the Nazarene."

8 Jesus answered, "I told you that I am He; so if you seek Me, let these go their way,"

18:9 [a]John 17:12

18:10 [a]Matt 26:51; Mark 14:47

10 Simon Peter then, [a]having a sword, drew it and struck the high priest's slave, and cut off his right ear; and the slave's name was Malchus.

18:11 [a]Matt 20:22; 26:39; Mark 14:36; Luke 22:42

11 So Jesus said to Peter, "Put the sword into the sheath; [a]the cup which the Father has given Me, shall I not drink it?"

B The Trials, 18:12–19:15

1 Before Annas, 18:12–23

18:12 [a]John 18:12f; Matt 26:57ff [b]John 18:3

12 [a]So [b]the Roman cohort and the commander and the [b]officers of the Jews, arrested Jesus and bound Him,

18:13 [a]Luke 3:2; John 18:24 [b]Matt 26:3; John 11:49,51

13 and led Him to [a]Annas first; for he was father-in-law of [b]Caiaphas, who was high priest that year.

18:14 [a]John 11:50

14 Now Caiaphas was the one who had advised the Jews that [a]it was expedient for one man to die on behalf of the people.

18:15 [a]Matt 26:58; Mark 14:54; Luke 22:54

15 [a]Simon Peter was following Jesus, and so was another disciple. Now that disciple was known to the high priest, and entered with Jesus into [b]the court of the high priest,

18:15 [b]Matt 26:3; John 18:24,28

16 [a]but Peter was standing at the door outside. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to the doorkeeper, and brought in Peter.

18:16 [a]John 18:16-18; Matt 26:69f; Mark 14:66-68; Luke 22:55-57

17 [a]Then the slave-girl who kept the door *said to Peter, "[b]You are not also one of this man's disciples, are you?" He *said, "I am not."

18:17 [a]Acts 12:13 [b]John 18:25

18 Now the slaves and the [a]officers were standing there, having made [b]a charcoal fire, for it was cold and they were [c]warming themselves; and Peter was also with them, standing and warming himself.

18:18 [a]John 18:3 [b]John 21:9 [c]Mark 14:54, 67

19 [a]The high priest then questioned Jesus about His disciples, and about His teaching.

18:19 [a]John 18:19-24; Matt 26:59-68; Mark 14:55-65; Luke 22:63-71

20 Jesus answered him, "I [a]have spoken openly to the world; I always [b]taught in synagogues and [c]in the temple, where all the Jews come together; and I spoke nothing in secret.

18:20 [a]John 7:26; 8:26 [b]Matt 4:23; John 6:59 [c]Matt 26:55

21 "Why do you question Me? Question those who have heard what I spoke to them; these know what I said."

22 When He had said this, one of the [a]officers standing nearby [b]struck Jesus, saying, "Is that the way You answer the high priest?"

18:22 [a]John 18:3 [b]John 19:3

23 [a]Jesus answered him, "If I have spoken wrongly, testify of the wrong; but if rightly, why do you strike Me?"

18:23 [a]Matt 5:39; Acts 23:2-5

2 Before Caiaphas, 18:24–27

24 [a]So Annas sent Him bound to [a]Caiaphas the high priest.

18:24 [a]John 18:13

25 [a]Now [b]Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. So they said to him, "[c]You are not also one of His disciples, are you?" He denied it, and said, "I am not."

18:25 [a]John 18:25-27; Matt 26:71-75; Mark 14:69-72; Luke 22:58-62 [b]John 18:18 [c]John 18:17

26 One of the slaves of the high

18:10 cut off his right ear. For the sequel, see Luke 22:51.

18:12 officers of the Jews. Better, servants of the Jewish authorities (high priests).

18:13 A small inner circle of high priests, headed by Annas and Caiaphas, ruled Jerusalem regardless of who was officially the high priest. See note on Luke 3:2.

18:15 another disciple. John.

18:24 No examination before Caiaphas is reported by John. See note on Matt. 26:57. Under Roman law, as in free societies today, a prisoner was assumed to be innocent until proven guilty.

18:26 [a]John 18:10 [b]John 18:1

priest, being a relative of the one [a]whose ear Peter cut off, *said, "Did I not see you in [b]the garden with Him?"

18:27 [a]John 13:38

27 Peter then denied it again, and immediately [a]a rooster crowed.

3 Before Pilate, 18:28–19:16

18:28 [a]Matt 27:2; Mark 15:1; Luke 23:1 [b]John 18:13 [c]Matt 27:27; John 18:33; 19:9 [d]John 11:55; Acts 11:3

28 [a]Then they *led Jesus from [b]Caiaphas into [c]the Praetorium, and it was early; and they themselves did not enter into [c]the Praetorium so that [d]they would not be defiled, but might eat the Passover.

18:29 [a]John 18:29-38: Matt 27:11-14; Mark 15:2-5; Luke 23:2,3

29 [a]Therefore Pilate went out to them and *said, "What accusation do you bring against this Man?"

30 They answered and said to him, "If this Man were not an evildoer, we would not have delivered Him to you."

31 So Pilate said to them, "Take Him yourselves, and judge Him according to your law." The Jews said to him, "We are not permitted to put anyone to death,"

18:32 [a]Matt 20:19; 26:2; Mark 10:33f; Luke 18:32f; John 3:14; 8:28; 12:32f

32 to fulfill [a]the word of Jesus which He spoke, signifying by what kind of death He was about to die.

18:33 [a]John 18:28, 29; 19:9 [b]Luke 23:3; John 19:12

33 Therefore Pilate [a]entered again into the Praetorium, and summoned Jesus and said to Him, "[b]Are You the King of the Jews?"

34 Jesus answered, "Are you saying this on your own initiative, or did others tell you about Me?"

35 Pilate answered, "I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests delivered You to me; what have You done?"

18:36 [a]Matt 26:53; Luke 17:21; John 6:15

36 Jesus answered, "[a]My kingdom is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, then My servants would be fighting so that I would not be handed over to the Jews; but as it is, My kingdom is not of this realm."

18:37 [a]Matt 27:11; Mark 15:2; Luke 22:70; 23:3 [b]John 1:14; 3:32; 8:14 [c]John 8:47; 1 John 4:6

37 Therefore Pilate said to Him, "So You are a king?" Jesus answered, "[a]You say correctly that I am a king. For this I have been born, and for this I have come into the world, [b]to testify to the truth. [c]Everyone who is of the truth hears My voice."

18:38 [a]John 18:33; 19:4 [b]Luke 23:4; John 19:4,6

38 Pilate *said to Him, "What is truth?"

And when he had said this, he [a]went out again to the Jews and *said to them, "[b]I find no guilt in Him.

18:39 [a]John 18:39-19:16: Matt 27:15-26; Mark 15:6-15; Luke 23:18-25

39"[a]But you have a custom that I release someone for you at the Passover; do you wish then that I release for you the King of the Jews?"

18:40 [a]Acts 3:14

40 So they cried out again, saying, "[a]Not this Man, but Barabbas." Now Barabbas was a robber.

19:1 [a]Matt 27:26

19:2 [a]Matt 27:27-30; Mark 15:16-19

19 Pilate then took Jesus and [a]scourged Him.

2 [a]And the soldiers twisted

18:27 Regarding the steps that led to Peter's denial, see note on Mark 14:72.

18:28 they themselves did not enter into the Praetorium. This was the Roman headquarters, the barracks (also in v. 33). As a dwelling place of Gentiles it was unclean. Thus the Jewish authorities would not enter, lest they be defiled for the Passover. They were willing, however, to see the murder of Jesus committed without fearing defilement! See note on Matt. 27:27.

18:31 We are not permitted. The Sanhedrin could condemn a man to death, but the Roman government had to approve and execute the sentence. See note on Luke 22:66.

18:32 what kind of death. Jewish execution was by stoning; the Roman method was crucifixion. Jesus had to be crucified (1) so that no bone would be broken (19:36; Ps. 34:20), (2) to include both Gentiles and Jews in the responsibility for His death (Acts 4:27), and (3) so that He would literally be lifted up in fulfillment of 3:14.

18:34 Jesus asked whether Pilate's question arose from his own Roman viewpoint (Are you saying this on your own initiative) or from a Jewish viewpoint (or did others tell you about Me?).

18:36 Because Pilate's answer indicated that he was concerned only about a rival political kingdom to Rome (v. 35), our Lord replied as He did in this verse, indicating that His was not such a kingdom. Pilate was then satisfied that Jesus was not a political threat and therefore wished to release Him. kingdom. Better, kingship; i.e., My authority is not of human origin.

18:38 What is truth? Pilate was not being philosophical but was simply expressing frustration and irritation at Jesus' avoidance of a direct answer to what seemed to him to be a simple question. He did not really understand the charges (18:31, 35, 38; 19:4, 12).

18:39–40 Pilate did not have the courage of his conviction that Jesus was innocent (v. 38).

19:1 scourged. See note on Matt. 27:26.

together a crown of thorns and put it on His head, and put a purple robe on Him;

19:3 [a]Matt 27:29; Mark 15:18 [b]John 18:22

3 and they began to come up to Him and say, "[a]Hail, King of the Jews!" and to [b]give Him slaps in the face.

19:4 [a]John 18:33,38 [b]Luke 23:4; John 18:38; 19:6

4 Pilate [a]came out again and *said to them, "Behold, I am bringing Him out to you so that you may know that [b]I find no guilt in Him."

19:5 [a]John 19:2

5 Jesus then came out, [a]wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. Pilate *said to them, "Behold, the Man!"

19:6 [a]Matt 26:58; John 18:3 [b]Luke 23:4; John 18:38; 19:4

6 So when the chief priests and the [a]officers saw Him, they cried out saying, "Crucify, crucify!" Pilate *said to them, "Take Him yourselves and crucify Him, for [b]I find no guilt in Him."

19:7 [a]Lev 24:16; Matt 26:63-66 [b]John 5:18; 10:33

7 The Jews answered him, "[a]We have a law, and by that law He ought to die because He [b]made Himself out to be the Son of God."

19:8

8 Therefore when Pilate heard this statement, he was even more afraid;

19:9 [a]John 18:33

9 and he [a]entered into the Praetorium again and *said to Jesus, "Where are You from?" But [b]Jesus gave him no answer.

19:9 [b]Matt 26:63; 27:12,14; John 18:34-37

10 So Pilate *said to Him, "You do not speak to me? Do You not know that I have authority to release You, and I have authority to crucify You?"

11 Jesus answered, "[a]You would have no authority over Me, unless it had been given you from above; for this reason [b]he who delivered Me to you has the greater sin."

19:11 [a]Rom 13:1 [b]John 18:13f, 28ff; Acts 3:13

12 As a result of this Pilate made efforts to release Him, but the Jews cried out saying, "[a]If you release this Man, you are no friend of Caesar; everyone who makes himself out to be a king opposes Caesar."

19:12 [a]Luke 23:2; John 18:33ff

13 Therefore when Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus out, and [a]sat down on the judgment seat at a place called The Pavement, but [b]in Hebrew, Gabbatha.

19:13 [a]Matt 27:19 [b]John 5:2; 19:17,20

14 Now it was [a]the day of preparation for the Passover; it was about the [b]sixth hour. And

19:14 [a]Matt 27:62; John 19:31,42 [b]Matt 27:45; Mark 15:25

19:5 Behold the Man! Pilate's remark was sarcastic: "Look at your so-called king now!"

19:7 by that law He ought to die. A reference to Jesus' alleged blasphemy because He claimed to be God.

19:8 more afraid. Perhaps of several things: of possible violence; of loss of favor in Rome for his inability to control the turbulent Jews (v. 15); of some sense of Jesus' true nature (which may be indicated by the question in v. 9).

19:9 no answer. As predicted in Isa. 53:7.

19:11 he who delivered Me to you. Evidently a reference to Caiaphas (18:28). greater sin. All sin is sin (including Pilate's, to whom Christ was delivered by Caiaphas), but some sins are worse than others (as also in Matt. 7:3).

19:12 The Jewish authorities reverted to the political charge against Jesus, suggesting a potent threat to a provincial governor who served at the whim of the emperor (Tiberius). The Jews had already protested to Rome Pilate's actions in other matters where he was insensitive to their customs. See note on Mark 15:1.

19:13 The Pavement. Almost certainly the large paved area that was part of the Castle of Antonia at the NW corner of the Temple area beneath Ecce Homo Arch.

19:14–15 Pilate's sarcasm was directed to the chief priests (whom he hated and mistrusted) and to their clique. He drew from them the response, "We have no king but Caesar," a blasphemous denial of the kingship of God over their nation.

19:14 preparation for the Passover. Friday of Passover week. In verse 31 preparation refers to Friday as the day of preparation for the Sabbath. See note on Luke 23:54.

THE SEVEN CRIES FROM THE CROSS

1. "Father, forgive them..."	Luke 23:34
2. "Today you shall be with Me..."	Luke 23:43
3. "Woman, behold, your son!"	John 19:26-27
4. "My God, My God..."	Matt. 27:46-47 Mark 15:34-36
5. "I am thirsty."	John 19:28
6. "It is finished."	John 19:30
7. "Father, into Your hands..."	Luke 23:46

he *said to the Jews, "Behold, [c]your King!"

15 So they cried out, "[a]Away with Him, away with Him, crucify Him!" Pilate *said to them, "Shall I crucify your King?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king but Caesar."

16 So he then [a]handed Him over to them to be crucified.

C The Crucifixion, 19:17–37

17 [a]They took Jesus, therefore, and He went out, [b]bearing His own cross, to the place called [c]the Place of a Skull, which is called [d]in Hebrew, Golgotha.

18 There they crucified Him, and with Him [a]two other men, one on either side, and Jesus in between.

19 Pilate also wrote an inscription and put it on the cross. It was written, "[a]JESUS THE NAZARENE, [b]THE KING OF THE JEWS."

20 Therefore many of the Jews read this inscription, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written [a]in Hebrew, Latin and in Greek.

21 So the chief priests of the Jews were saying to Pilate, "Do not write, '[a]The King of the Jews'; but that He said, 'I am [a]King of the Jews.' "

22 Pilate answered, "[a]What I have written I have written."

23 Then [a]the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took His outer garments and made [b]four parts, a part to every soldier and also the tunic; now the tunic was seamless, woven in one piece.

24 So they said to one another, "[a]Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it, to decide whose it shall be"; [b]this was to fulfill the Scripture:, "THEY [c]DIVIDED MY OUTER GARMENTS AMONG THEM, AND FOR MY CLOTHING THEY CAST LOTS."

25 Therefore the soldiers did these things. [a]But standing by the cross of Jesus were [b]His mother, and His mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and [c]Mary Magdalene.

26 When Jesus then saw His mother, and [a]the disciple whom He loved standing nearby, He *said to His mother, "[b]Woman, behold, your son!"

27 Then He *said to the disciple, "Behold, your mother!" From that hour the disciple took her into [a]his own household.

28 After this, Jesus, [a]knowing that all things had already been accomplished, [b]to fulfill the Scripture, *said, "[c]I am thirsty."

29 A jar full of sour wine was standing there; so [a]they put a sponge full of the sour wine upon a branch of hyssop and brought it up to His mouth.

30 Therefore when Jesus had received the sour wine, He said, "[a]It is finished!" And He bowed His head and [b]gave up His spirit.

31 Then the Jews, because it was [a]the day of preparation, so that [b]the bodies would not remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a [c]high day), asked Pilate that their legs

19:30 "It is finished!" Receipts for taxes found in the papyri have written across them this single Greek word, which means "paid in full." The price for our redemption from sin was paid in full by our Lord's death.
19:31 that Sabbath was a high day. I.e., the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread fell that year on a Sabbath, making it a "high" or "special" festival (Ex. 12:16; Lev. 23:7). They were anxious that the body not remain on the cross (see Deut. 21:22–23). their legs might be broken. This was done to hasten death, since the victim could no longer raise himself up on the nail through his feet in order to allow himself to breathe and thus to delay his ultimate asphyxiation. The skeleton of a crucified body found in 1968 showed that the legs had been broken.

*20:1 [a]John 20:1-8: Matt 28:1-8; Mark 16:1-8; Luke 24:1-10 [b]John 19:25; 20:18 [c]Matt 27:60, 66; 28:2; Mark 15:46; 16:3f; Luke 24:2; John 11:38
20 [a]Now on the first day of the week [b]Mary Magdalene *came early to the tomb, while it *was still dark, and *saw [c]the stone already taken away from the tomb.

20:2 [a]John 13:23 [b]John 20:13
2 So she *ran and *came to Simon Peter and to the other [a]disciple whom Jesus loved, and *said to them, "[b]They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid Him."

20:3 [a]Luke 24:12; John 20:3-10
3 [a]So Peter and the other disciple went forth, and they were going to the tomb.

4 The two were running together; and the other disciple ran ahead faster than Peter and came to the tomb first;

*20:5 [a]John 20:11
5 and [a]stooping and looking

19:34 blood and water. Undebatable proof that He actually died.

19:36 fulfill . . . scripture. See Ex. 12:46; Num. 9:12; Ps. 34:20.

19:37 another Scripture says. See Zech. 12:10.

19:38 Arimathea. A town 20 mi (32 km) NW of Jerusalem.

19:39 Nicodemus apparently had become a secret follower of Christ. a hundred pounds weight (actually about 75 lb, or 34 kg) is an unusually large amount.

19:40 linen wrappings. I.e., long strips of linen.

19:41 tomb. See Isa. 53:9.

20:1 The order of Christ's appearances after His resurrection seems to be as follows: (1) to Mary Magdalene and the other women (vv. 11–18; Matt. 28:8–10; Mark 16:9–10); (2) to Peter, probably in the afternoon (Luke 24:34; 1 Cor. 15:5); (3) to the disciples on the Emmaus road toward evening (Mark 16:12; Luke 24:13–32); (4) to the disciples, except Thomas, in the upper room (vv. 19–25; Luke 24:36–43); (5) to the disciples, including Thomas, on the next Sunday night (vv. 26–29; Mark 16:14); (6) to seven disciples beside the Sea of Galilee (21:1–24); (7) to the apostles and more than 500 brothers and James, the Lord's half brother (1 Cor. 15:6–7); (8) to those who witnessed the ascension (Matt. 28:18–20; Mark 16:19; Luke 24:44–53; Acts 1:3–12).

20:5–6 saw the linen wrappings lying. If the body had been stolen, the thieves would not have taken time to unwrap it; but even if they had, the wrappings would have been strewn around the tomb, not lying in perfect order as they were. See note on Luke 24:12.

20:5 [b]John 19:40 in, he *saw the [b]linen wrappings lying there; but he did not go in.

6 So Simon Peter also *came, following him, and entered the tomb; and he *saw the linen wrappings lying there,

20:7 [a]John 11:44 [b]John 19:40 7 and [a]the face-cloth which had been on His head, not lying with the [b]linen wrappings, but rolled up in a place by itself.

20:8 [a]John 20:4 8 So the other disciple who [a]had first come to the tomb then also entered, and he saw and believed.

20:9 [a]Matt 22:29; John 2:22 [b]Luke 24:26ff, 46 9 For as yet [a]they did not understand the Scripture, [b]that He must rise again from the dead.

B The Appearances of the Risen Lord, 20:10–21:25

1 To Mary Magdalene, 20:10–18

20:10 [a]Luke 24:12 10 So the disciples went away again [a]to their own homes.

20:11 [a]Mark 16:5 [b]John 20:5 11 [a]But Mary was standing outside the tomb weeping; and so, as she wept, she [b]stooped and looked into the tomb;

20:12 [a]Matt 28:2f; Mark 16:5; Luke 24:4 12 and she *saw [a]two angels in white sitting, one at the head and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had been lying.

20:13 [a]John 20:15 [b]John 20:2 13 And they *said to her, "[a]Woman, why are you weeping?" She *said to them, "Because [b]they have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid Him."

20:14 [a]Matt 28:9; Mark 16:9 [b]John 21:4 14 When she had said this, she turned around and * [a]saw Jesus standing there, and [b]did not know that it was Jesus.

20:15 [a]John 20:13 15 Jesus *said to her, "[a]Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you seeking?" Supposing Him to be the gardener, she *said to Him, "Sir, if you have carried Him away, tell me where you have laid Him, and I will take Him away."

20:16 [a]John 5:2 [b]Matt 23:7; Mark 10:51 16 Jesus *said to her, "Mary!" She turned and *said to Him [a]in Hebrew, "[b]Rabboni!" (which means, Teacher).

*20:17 [a]Matt 28:10 [b]Mark 12:26; 16:19; John 7:33 17 Jesus *said to her, "Stop clinging to Me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to [a]My brethren and say to them, 'I [b]ascend to My Father and your Father, and My God and your God.' "

20:18 [a]John 20:1 [b]Mark 16:10; Luke 24:10,23 18 [a]Mary Magdalene *came, [b]announcing to the disciples, "I have seen the Lord," and that He had said these things to her.

2 To the disciples, Thomas absent, 20:19–25

*20:19 [a]John 7:13 [b]Luke 24:36; John 14:27; 20:21,26 19 So when it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and when the doors were shut where the disciples were, for [a]fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and *said to them, "[b]Peace be with you."

20:20 [a]Luke 24:39, 40; John 19:34 [b]John 16:20, 22 20 And when He had said this, [a]He showed them both His hands and His side. The disciples then [b]rejoiced when they saw the Lord.

*20:21 [a]Luke 24:36; John 14:27; 20:19,26 [b]John 17:18 21 So Jesus said to them again, "[a]Peace be with you; [b]as the Father has sent Me, I also send you."

*20:22 22 And when He had said this, He breathed on them and *said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit.

*20:23 [a]Matt 16:19; 18:18 23 "[a]If you forgive the sins of any, their sins have been forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they have been retained."

20:24 [a]John 11:16 [b]John 6:67 24 But [a]Thomas, one of [b]the twelve, called [a]Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came.

20:25 [a]John 20:20 25 So the other disciples were saying to him, "We have seen the Lord!" But he said to them, "Unless I see in [a]His hands the imprint of the nails, and put my finger into the place of the nails,

20:17 Stop clinging to Me. I.e., in order to restrain Me. That would be inappropriate because of His new relationship as resurrected Lord.

20:19 the Jews. I.e., the Jewish authorities.

20:21 Another great verse on the mission of the church (see also 17:18).

20:22 Receive the Holy Spirit. This was a filling with the Spirit for power until the regularized relationship of the Spirit began at Pentecost.

20:23 have been forgiven . . . have been retained. Since only God can forgive sins (Mark 2:7), the disciples and the church are here given the authority to declare what God does when a man either accepts or rejects His Son. See note on Matt. 16:19.

20:25 [b]Mark 16:11 and put my hand into His side, [b]I will not believe."

3 To the disciples, Thomas present, 20:26–31

20:26 [a]Luke 24:36; John 14:27; 20:19,21 26 After eight days His disciples were again inside, and Thomas with them. Jesus *came, the doors having been shut, and stood in their midst and said, "[a]Peace be with you."

20:27 [a]Luke 24:40; John 20:25 27 Then He *said to Thomas, "[a]Reach here with your finger, and see My hands; and reach here your hand and put it into My side; and do not be unbelieving, but believing."

*20:28 28 Thomas answered and said to Him, "My Lord and my God!"

20:29 [a]1 Pet 1:8 29 Jesus *said to him, "Because you have seen Me, have you believed? [a]Blessed are they who did not see, and yet believed."

*20:30 [a]John 21:25 [b]John 2:11 30 [a]Therefore many other [b]signs Jesus also performed in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book;

20:31 [a]John 19:35 [b]Matt 4:3 [c]John 3:15 31 but these have been written [a]so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, [b]the Son of God; and that [c]believing you may have life in His name.

4 To seven disciples, 21:1–14

21:1 [a]Mark 16:12; John 21:14 [b]John 20:19, 26 [c]John 6:1 21 After these things Jesus [a]manifested Himself [b]again to the disciples at the [c]Sea of Tiberias, and He manifested Himself in this way.

21:2 [a]John 11:16 [b]John 1:45ff [c]John 2:1 [d]Matt 4:21; Mark 1:19; Luke 5:10 2 Simon Peter, and [a]Thomas called Didymus, and [b]Nathanael of [c]Cana in Galilee, and [d]the sons of Zebedee, and two others of His disciples were together.

3 Simon Peter *said to them, "I am going fishing." They *said to him, "We will also come with you." They went out and got into the boat; and [a]that night they caught nothing.

21:4 [a]Luke 24:16; John 20:14 4 But when the day was now breaking, Jesus stood on the beach; yet the disciples did not [a]know that it was Jesus.

*21:5 [a]Luke 24:41 5 So Jesus *said to them, "Children, [a]you do not have any fish, do you?" They answered Him, "No."

21:6 [a]Luke 5:4ff 6 And He said to them, "[a]Cast the net on the right-hand side of the boat and you will find a catch." So they cast, and then they were not able to haul it in because of the great number of fish.

*21:7 [a]John 13:23; 21:20 7 [a]Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved *said to Peter, "It is the Lord." So when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put his outer garment on (for he was stripped for work), and threw himself into the sea.

8 But the other disciples came in the little boat, for they were not far from the land, but about one hundred yards away, dragging the net full of fish.

21:9 [a]John 18:18 [b]John 6:9,11; 21:10,13 9 So when they got out on the land, they *saw a charcoal [a]fire already laid and [b]fish placed on it, and bread.

21:10 [a]John 6:9,11; 21:9,13 10 Jesus *said to them, "Bring some of the [a]fish which you have now caught."

11 Simon Peter went up and drew the net to land, full of large fish, a hundred and fifty-three; and although there were so many, the net was not torn.

12 Jesus *said to them, "Come

20:28 "My Lord and my God." Thomas, the doubter, finally recognized the full deity of Jesus Christ. This marks the climax of John's gospel. The Lord had claimed deity throughout His ministry. Notice (1) the names of deity that He uses (8:58; Matt. 22:42–45), (2) the attributes of deity that He claimed (holiness, John 8:46; omnipotence and omnipresence, Matt. 28:20; omniscience, John 11:11–14), (3) the things He claimed to be able to do that only God can do (forgive sins, Mark 2:5–7; raise the dead, John 5:28–30; 11:43; judge all men, 5:22, 27).

20:30–31 John selected only seven of the many miracles Jesus did (35 specific ones are recorded; see charts on pp. 1502 and 1678) as special signs so that people would believe.

21:3 boat. A Galilean fishing boat was about 15 ft (6 m) long.

21:5 Children = Boys or lads.

21:7 stripped for work. I.e., not completely dressed. Peter swam ashore, while others followed in the boat, dragging the net behind them as they rowed ashore.

and have [a]breakfast." None of the disciples ventured to question Him, "Who are You?" knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jesus *came and *took [a]the bread and *gave it to them, and the [b]fish likewise.

14 This is now the [a]third time that Jesus was manifested to the disciples, after He was raised from the dead.

5 To Peter and the beloved disciple, 21:15–25

15 So when they had [a]finished breakfast, Jesus *said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you [b]love Me more than these?" He *said to Him, "Yes, Lord; You know that I love You." He *said to him, "Tend [c]My lambs."

16 He *said to him again a second time, "Simon, son of John, do you love Me?" He *said to Him, "Yes, Lord; You know that I love You." He *said to him, "[a]Shepherd My sheep."

17 He *said to him the third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love Me?" Peter was grieved because He said to him [a]the third time, "Do you love Me?" And he said to Him, "Lord, [b]You know all things; You know that I love You." Jesus *said to him, "[c]Tend My sheep.

18 "Truly, truly, I say to you, when you were younger, you used to gird yourself and walk wherever you wished; but when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands and someone else will gird you, and bring you where you do not wish to go."

19 Now this He said, [a]signifying by [b]what kind of death he would glorify God. And when He had spoken this, He *said to him, "[c]Follow Me!"

20 Peter, turning around, *saw the [a]disciple whom Jesus loved following them; the one who also had [b]leaned back on His bosom at the supper and said, "Lord, who is the one who betrays You?"

21 So Peter seeing him *said to Jesus, "Lord, and what about this man?"

22 Jesus *said to him, "If I want him to remain [a]until I come, what is that to you? You [b]follow Me!"

23 Therefore this saying went out among [a]the brethren that that disciple would not die; yet Jesus did not say to him that he would not die, but only, "If I want him to remain [b]until I come, what is that to you?"

24 This is the disciple who [a]is testifying of these things and wrote these things, and we know that his testimony is true.

25 And there are also [a]many other things which Jesus did, which if they *were written in detail, I suppose that even the world itself would not contain the books that *would be written.

21:12 [a]John 21:15

21:13 [a]John 21:9 [b]John 6:9,11; 21:9,10

*21:14 [a]John 20:19,26

*21:15 [a]John 21:12 [b]Matt 26:33; Mark 14:29; John 13:37 [c]Luke 12:32

21:16 [a]Matt 2:6; Acts 20:28; 1 Pet 5:2; Rev 7:17

21:17 [a]John 13:38 [b]John 16:30 [c]John 21:15,16

*21:18

21:19 [a]John 12:33; 18:32 [b]2 Pet 1:14 [c]Matt 8:22; 16:24; John 21:22

21:20 [a]John 21:7 [b]John 13:25

*21:22 [a]Matt 16:27f; 1 Cor 4:5; 11:26; James 5:7; Rev 2:25 [b]Matt 8:22; 16:24; John 21:19

21:23 [a]Acts 1:15 [b]Matt 16:27f; 1 Cor 4:5; 11:26; James 5:7; Rev 2:25

*21:24 [a]John 15:27

21:14 the third time. See 20:19 and 20:26 for the other two occasions.

21:15–17 Peter's three denials are here offset by three protestations of his love for Christ. John probably used the two different words for love in these verses synonymously to include all aspects (emotional, intellectual, etc.) of love (compare 3:35, agapao, with 5:20, phileo). more than these (v. 15) means "more than the other disciples" (see Matt. 26:33; Mark 14:29).

21:18–19 A prophecy of the martyrdom of Peter.

21:22 The Lord rebuked Peter for being distracted over John's future. Peter's only responsibility was to follow Christ, the top priority for all of us.

21:24 John identifies himself as the writer of this gospel, and others (we, perhaps the elders of the church) attested to its truthfulness.

21:25 The gospels were not intended to be complete accounts of the life of Christ.

ACTS

INTRODUCTION

AUTHOR: Luke DATE: 61

Authorship That the author of Acts was a companion of Paul is clear from the passages in the book in which "we" and "us" are used (16:10–17; 20:5–21:18; 27:1–28:16). These sections themselves eliminate known companions of Paul other than Luke, and Colossians 4:14 and Philemon 24 point affirmatively to Luke, who was a physician. The frequent use of medical terms also substantiates this conclusion (1:3; 3:7ff.; 9:18, 33; 13:11; 28:1–10). Luke answered the Macedonian call with Paul, was in charge of the work at Philippi for about six years, and later was with Paul in Rome during the time of Paul's house arrest. It was probably during this last period that the book was written. If it were written later it would be very difficult to explain the absence of mentioning such momentous events as the burning of Rome, the martyrdom of Paul, or the destruction of Jerusalem.

Importance of the Book (1) Acts gives us the record of the spread of Christianity from the coming of the Spirit on the Day of Pentecost to Paul's arrival in Rome to preach the gospel in the world's capital. In this regard, then, it is the record of the continuation of those things that Jesus began while on earth and that He continued as the risen Head of the Church and the One who sent the Holy Spirit (1:2; 2:33). The book is sometimes called The Acts of the Holy Spirit.

(2) The 30 years covered by the book were important years of transition. The gospel was preached first only to Jews, and the early church was composed largely of Jewish believers. As more and more Gentiles were included, the church became distinct from Judaism.

(3) Doctrines that are later developed in the epistles appear in seed form in Acts (the Spirit, 1:8; the kingdom, 3:21; 15:16; elders, 11:30; Gentile salvation, 15:14). However, the book emphasizes the practice of doctrine more than the statement of doctrine.

(4) Acts furnishes principles for missionary work.

(5) The book reveals patterns for church life.

(6) Archaeological discoveries confirm in a remarkable way the historical accuracy of Luke's writing.

Contents In the first 12 chapters of the book the important figures are Peter, Stephen, Philip, Barnabas, and James. From chap. 13 to the end, the dominant person is Paul. The book may also be divided according to the geographical divisions mentioned in the Great Commission (1:8).

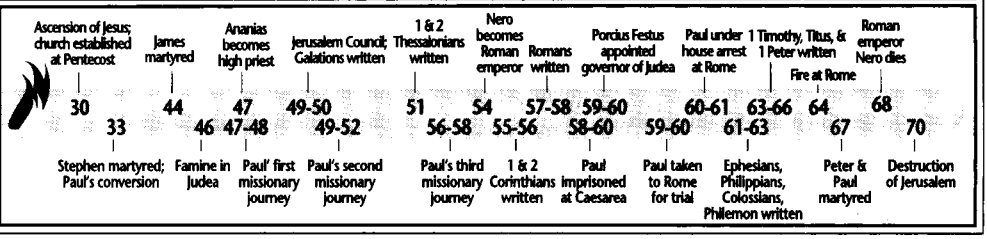
TIMELINE OF ACTS



THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

I CHRISTIANITY IN JERUSALEM, 1:1–8:3

A The Risen Lord, 1:1–26

1 The Lord confirming, 1:1–5

1 The first account I composed, [a]Theophilus, about all that Jesus [b]began to do and teach,

2 until the day when He [a]was taken up to heaven, after He [b]had by the Holy Spirit given orders to [c]the apostles whom He had [d]chosen.

3 To these [a]He also presented Himself alive after His suffering, by many convincing proofs, appearing to them over a period of forty days and speaking of [b]the things concerning the kingdom of God.

4 Gathering them together, He commanded them [a]not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait for [b]what the Father had promised, "Which," He said, "you heard of from Me;

5 for [a]John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit [b]not many days from now."

2 The Lord commissioning, 1:6–11

6 So when they had come together, they were asking Him, saying, "Lord, [a]is it at this time You are restoring the kingdom to Israel?"

7 He said to them, "It is not for you to know times or epochs which [a]the Father has fixed by His own authority;

8 but you will receive power [a]when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be [b]My witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and [c]Samaria, and even to [d]the remotest part of the earth."

9 And after He had said these things, [a]He was lifted up while they were looking on, and a cloud received Him out of their sight.

10 And as they were gazing intently into the sky while He was going, behold, [a]two men in white clothing stood beside them.

11 They also said, "[a]Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into the sky? This Jesus, who [b]has been taken up from you into heaven, will [c]come in just the same way as you have watched Him go into heaven."

3 The Lord choosing, 1:12–26

12 Then they [a]returned to Jerusalem from the [b]mount called

---

1:1 The first account. I.e., the gospel of Luke. Theophilus means "dear to God" or "friend of God." He was probably a Roman official, since the title "most excellent" (Luke 1:3) indicates an official position in Acts 23:26; 24:3; 26:25.

1:3 forty days. The only reference to the length of Christ's ministry on earth between His resurrection and His ascension.

1:5 baptized with the Holy Spirit. This promise was first fulfilled on the Day of Pentecost (see 11:15–16) and affects every believer by joining him to the Body of Christ (1 Cor. 12:13). See note on Matt. 3:11. The mention of the coming of the Spirit made them think the kingdom too was about to be established. Hence the question in verse 6.

1:6 the kingdom to Israel. The messianic, Davidic, millennial kingdom on this earth. The time of its coming is unrevealed (Matt. 24:36, 42).

1:7 There is no rebuke in Christ's answer, for God is not through with Israel, and the kingdom will eventually come (Rom. 11:26). In the meantime, the gospel must be preached throughout the whole world (v. 8).

1:8 Instead of concerning themselves with the time of the coming kingdom, the disciples were instructed to witness to the remotest part of the earth, a reference to Rome, the center of civilization. Acts ends with the gospel reaching Rome (28:16).

1:11 in just the same way. The second coming of Christ, like the ascension, will be personal, visible, and to the Mount of Olives (Rev. 1:7; 19:11–16; Zech. 14:4).

1:12 a Sabbath day's journey. About 2,000 cubits, or a little more than half a mile (almost one km)—the distance the rabbis allowed Jews to journey on the Sabbath. This limitation was apparently arrived at on the basis of Ex. 16:29 interpreted by Num. 35:5.

Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath day's journey away.

13 When they had entered the city, they went up to [a]the upper room where they were staying; [b]that is, Peter and John and James and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon the Zealot, and [c]Judas the son of James.

14 These all with one mind [a]were continually devoting themselves to prayer, along with [b]the women, and Mary the [c]mother of Jesus, and with His [c]brothers.

15 At this time Peter stood up in the midst of [a]the brethren (a gathering of about one hundred and twenty persons was there together), and said,

16"Brethren, [a]the Scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit foretold by the mouth of David concerning Judas, [b]who became a guide to those who arrested Jesus.

17"For he was [a]counted among us and received his share in [b]this ministry."

18 (Now this man [a]acquired a field with [b]the price of his wickedness, and falling headlong, he burst open in the middle and all his intestines gushed out.

19 And it became known to all who were living in Jerusalem; so that in [a]their own language that field was called Hakeldama, that is, Field of Blood.)

20"For it is written in the book of Psalms,

'[a]LET HIS HOMESTEAD BE MADE DESOLATE, AND LET NO ONE DWELL IN IT';

and,

'[b]LET ANOTHER MAN TAKE HIS OFFICE.'

21"Therefore it is necessary that of the men who have accompanied us all the time that [a]the Lord Jesus went in and out among us—

22 [a]beginning with the baptism of John until the day that He [b]was taken up from us—one of these must become a [c]witness with us of His resurrection."

23 So they put forward two men, Joseph called Barsabbas (who was also called Justus), and [a]Matthias.

24 And they [a]prayed and said, "You, Lord, [b]who know the hearts of all men, show which one of these two You have chosen

25 to occupy [a]this ministry and [b]apostleship from which Judas turned aside to go to his own place."

26 And they [a]drew lots for them, and the lot fell to [b]Matthias; and he was added to [c]the eleven apostles.

1:13 Simon the Zealot. See note on Matt. 10:4. Judas. Not Iscariot the betrayer, but Thaddaeus. See note on Mark 3:16–19.

1:15 Peter had made a full recovery of confidence and authority from the night of his denial and was now fulfilling Matt. 16:19.

1:16 Scripture . . . fulfilled. See Ps. 41:9.

1:18 burst open in the middle. Probably due to Judas's ineptness in trying to hang himself (Matt. 27:5).

1:19 Field of Blood. Probably SE of Jerusalem.

1:26 drew lots. Two names were written on stones and placed in an urn. The one that fell out first was taken to be the Lord's choice (cf. Prov. 16:33; Jonah 1:7). The occasion was unique, for the Lord was not there in person to appoint and the Spirit had not been given in the special way of Pentecost.

2:1 the day of Pentecost. The fourth of the annual feasts of the Jews (after Passover, Unleavened Bread, and First Fruits), it came 50 days after First Fruits (a type of the resurrection of Christ, 1 Cor. 15:23). Pentecost was the Greek name for the Jewish Feast of Weeks, so called because it fell seven (a week of) weeks after First Fruits. It celebrated the wheat harvest (Ex. 23:16). This Day of Pentecost in Acts 2 marked the beginning of the church (Matt. 16:18).

2:2 from heaven a noise. It was like a wind but was not wind.

★2:3 3 And there appeared to them tongues as of fire distributing themselves, and they rested on each one of them.

★2:4 4 And they were all [a]filled with the Holy Spirit and began to [b]speak with other tongues, as the Spirit was giving them utterance.

5 Now there were Jews living in Jerusalem, [a]devout men from every nation under heaven.

6 And when [a]this sound occurred, the crowd came together, and were bewildered because they were each one hearing them speak in his own language.

7 [a]They were amazed and astonished, saying, "Why, are not all these who are speaking [b]Galileans?

'THAT I WILL POUR FORTH OF MY SPIRIT ON ALL MANKIND; AND YOUR SONS AND YOUR DAUGHTERS SHALL PROPHESY, AND YOUR YOUNG MEN SHALL SEE VISIONS, AND YOUR OLD MEN SHALL DREAM DREAMS;

I WILL IN THOSE DAYS POUR FORTH OF MY SPIRIT
And they shall prophesy.

AND THE MOON INTO BLOOD,
BEFORE THE GREAT AND GLORIOUS DAY OF THE LORD SHALL COME.

2:17 [a] Joel 2:28-32

2:3 Possibly at this point the group left the house and went to the Temple.

2:4 filled with the Holy Spirit. An experience repeated later (4:8, 31; 6:3, 5; 7:55; 9:17; 13:9, 52). In the context of each of these occasions of filling, people were converted. Though not labeled here, the baptism of the Spirit also occurred (11:15–16), something not repeated, though experienced by every believer at conversion, which joins each to the body of Christ (1 Cor. 12:13). with other tongues. Actual languages unknown to the speakers but understood by the hearers (v. 8).

2:9–11 These countries form a circuit around the Mediterranean Sea.

2:10 visitors from Rome. I.e., Romans who were temporarily residing in Jerusalem.

2:14 Here begins Peter's great sermon, with an explanation of the phenomena they were witnessing (vv. 14–21). He then proclaimed the gospel (vv. 22–35) and applied the message (v. 36).

2:15 the third hour = 9 A.M. Jews engaged in the exercises of the synagogue on feast days abstained from eating and drinking until 10 A.M. or noon; therefore, this could not be drunkenness.

2:16–21 See Joel 2:28–32. The fulfillment of this prophecy will be in the last days, immediately preceding the return of Christ, when all the particulars (e.g., v. 20 and Rev. 6:12) of the prophecy will come to pass. Peter reminded his hearers that, knowing Joel's prophecy, they should have recognized what they were seeing as a work of the Spirit, not a result of drunkenness.

2:22–36 Peter reviewed the life and death of Jesus of Nazareth (vv. 22–24) and then recited the prophecy of the Resurrection (vv. 25–31), quoting Ps. 16:8–11. Since David was speaking of the Messiah (v. 31) and since Jesus was raised from the dead (v. 32), Peter continued, Jesus must be the Messiah (v. 36).

2:27 HADES. The unseen world, sometimes specifically a place of torment (see note on Luke 16:23) and sometimes merely the grave, as here. The meaning is that Christ's body and spirit would not be allowed to remain separated (v. 31).

2:33 Returning to the original point, Peter declared that it is the exalted Jesus who sent the Holy Spirit.

2:34 Peter quotes Ps. 110:1. Messiah is now at the right hand of the Father awaiting the subjugation of His enemies, at which time He will reign on the throne of David. In the meantime, He has sent the Spirit.

2:36 Not only is Jesus the Messiah, but He is also Lord; i.e., God, full deity.

2:37 pierced to the heart. Cut to the heart.

2:38 Repent. To change one's mind; specifically, here, about Jesus of Nazareth, and to acknowledge Him as Lord (= God) and Christ (= Messiah). Such repentance brings salvation. There is also a repentance needed in the Christian life in relation to specific sins (2 Cor. 7:9; Rev. 2:5) and a repentance that has nothing to do with salvation (Matt. 21:28–30). be baptized . . . for the forgiveness of your sins. On baptism, see note on Matt. 3:11. Water baptism is the outward sign of repentance and forgiveness of sins. Forgiveness is through faith in

1 The miracle, 3:1–10

*3:1 [a]Luke 22:8; Acts 3:3,4,11 [b]Ps 55:17; Matt 27:45; Acts 10:30

2 And [a]a man who had been lame from his mother's womb was being carried along, whom they [b]used to set down every day at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, [c]in order to beg alms of those who were entering the temple.

*3:2 [a]Acts 14:8 [b]Luke 16:20 [c]John 9:8; Acts 3:10

3 When he saw [a]Peter and John about to go into the temple, he began asking to receive alms.

4 But Peter, along with John, [a]fixed his gaze on him and said, "Look at us!"

3:4 [a]Acts 10:4

5 And he began to give them his attention, expecting to receive something from them.

6 But Peter said, "I do not possess silver and gold, but what I do have I give to you: [a]In the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene—walk!"

*3:6 [a]Acts 2:22; 3:16; 4:10

7 And seizing him by the right hand, he raised him up; and immediately his feet and his ankles were strengthened.

8 [a]With a leap he stood upright and began to walk; and he entered the temple with them, walking and leaping and praising God.

3:8 [a]Acts 14:10

9 And [a]all the people saw him walking and praising God;

3:9 [a]Acts 4:16,21

10 and they were taking note of him as being the one who used to [a]sit at the Beautiful Gate of the temple to beg alms, and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

3:10 [a]John 9:8; Acts 3:2

Christ, not through the act of baptism (for may here mean "because of," as in Matt. 12:41). the gift of the Holy Spirit. The Spirit is a gift to all who believe, not a reward to some.

2:42 breaking of bread. I.e., celebrating the Lord's Supper.

2:44 had all things in common. This community of goods seems to have been limited to the early years of the Jerusalem church only. It may have been necessitated by the many pilgrims who lingered in Jerusalem to learn more of their new Christian faith.

3:1 the ninth hour = 3 P.M., the hour associated with the evening sacrifice.

3:2 the gate . . . Beautiful. Probably the Nicanor Gate, the eastern gate of the Temple buildings, leading from the Court of the Gentiles into the Women's Court.

3:6 In the name of Jesus Christ. His power and authority are invoked.

2 The message, 3:11–26

11 While he was clinging to [a]Peter and John, all the people ran together to them at the so-called [b]portico of Solomon, full of amazement.

12 But when Peter saw this, he replied to the people, "Men of Israel, why are you amazed at this, or why do you gaze at us, as if by our own power or piety we had made him walk?

14"But you disowned [a]the Holy and Righteous One and [b]asked for a murderer to be granted to you, 15 but put to death the [a]Prince of life, the one whom [b]God raised from the dead, a fact to which we are [c]witnesses.

16"And on the basis of faith [a]in His name, it is the name of Jesus which has strengthened this man whom you see and know; and the faith which comes through Him has given him this perfect health in the presence of you all.

17"And now, brethren, I know that you acted [a]in ignorance, just as your [b]rulers did also.

18"But the things which [a]God announced beforehand by the mouth of all the prophets, [b]that His Christ would suffer, He has thus fulfilled.

19"Therefore [a]repent and return, so that your sins may be wiped away, in order that [b]times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord;

20 and that He may send Jesus, the Christ appointed for you,

21 [a]whom heaven must receive until the period of [b]restoration of all things about which [c]God spoke by the mouth of His holy prophets from ancient time.

22"Moses said, '[a]THE LORD GOD WILL RAISE UP FOR YOU A PROPHET LIKE ME FROM YOUR BRETHREN; TO HIM YOU SHALL GIVE HEED to everything He says to you.

23 '[a]And it will be that every [b]soul that does not heed that prophet [c]shall be utterly destroyed from among the people.'

24"And likewise, [a]all the prophets who have spoken, from Samuel and his successors onward, also announced these days.

25"It is you who are [a]the sons of the prophets and of the [b]covenant which God made with your fathers, saying to Abraham, '[c]AND IN YOUR SEED ALL THE FAMILIES OF THE EARTH SHALL BE BLESSED.'

26"For you [a]first, God [b]raised up His Servant and sent Him to bless you by turning every one of you from your wicked ways."

4 As they were speaking to the people, the priests and [a]the captain of the temple guard and [b]the Sadducees [c]came up to them,

2 being greatly disturbed because they were teaching the people and proclaiming [a]in Jesus the resurrection from the dead.

3:11 the . . . portico of Solomon. A colonnade running the length of the E side of the outer court of the Temple.

3:13 His servant. I.e., the "servant" of Isa. 42:1–9; 49:1–13; 52:13–53:12.

3:15 the Prince of life. I.e., the originator or leader of life.

3:16 on the basis of faith. I.e., through the apostles' faith or possibly the lame man's faith.

3:19 return. I.e., turn from sin to God by reversing their verdict about Jesus and confessing Him as the Messiah. times of refreshing and restoration of all things (v. 21) refer to the millennial kingdom.

3:22 The Jews expected a PROPHET and the Messiah—two distinct persons (John 1:20–21; 7:40–41). The Christian view united them in the one person of Jesus Christ (cf. Deut. 18:15).

3:26 His Servant. See note on 3:13.

4:1 the captain of the temple guard. An official second only to the high priest. He was responsible for order in the Temple. The Sadducees hated the idea of resurrection that the apostles were preaching (v. 2; cf. Matt. 22:23).

3 And they laid hands on them and [a]put them in jail until the next day, for it was already evening.

4 But many of those who had heard the message believed; and [a]the number of the men came to be about five thousand.

5 On the next day, their [a]rulers and elders and scribes were gathered together in Jerusalem;

6 and [a]Annas the high priest was there, and [b]Caiaphas and John and Alexander, and all who were of high-priestly descent.

7 When they had placed them in the center, they began to inquire, "By what power, or in what name, have you done this?"

8 Then Peter, [a]filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "[b]Rulers and elders of the people,

9 if we are on trial today for [a]a benefit done to a sick man, as to how this man has been made well,

10 let it be known to all of you and to all the people of Israel, that [a]by the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene, whom you crucified, whom [b]God raised from the dead—by this name this man stands here before you in good health.

11 "[a]He is the [b]STONE WHICH WAS [c]REJECTED by you, THE BUILDERS, but WHICH BECAME THE CHIEF CORNER stone.

12 "And there is salvation in [a]no one else; for there is no other name under heaven that has been given among men by which we must be saved."

13 Now as they observed the [a]confidence of [b]Peter and John and understood that they were uneducated and untrained men, they were amazed, and [c]began to recognize them as having been with Jesus.

14 And seeing the man who had been healed standing with them, they had nothing to say in reply.

15 But when they had ordered them to go aside out of the [a]Council, they began to confer with one another, 16 saying, "[a]What shall we do with these men? For the fact that a [b]noteworthy miracle has taken place through them is apparent to all who live in Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it.

17 "But in order that it may not spread any further among the people, let us warn them to speak no more to any man [a]in this name."

18 And when they had summoned them, they [a]commanded them not to speak or teach at all in the name of Jesus.

19 But [a]Peter and John answered and said to them, "[b]Whether it is right in the sight of God to give heed to you rather than to God, you be the judge;

20 for [a]we cannot stop speaking about what we have seen and heard."

21 When they had threatened them further, they let them go (finding no basis on which they might punish them) [a]on account of the people, because they were all [b]glorifying God for what had happened;

22 for the man was more than forty years old on whom this miracle of healing had been performed.

4:8–12 In his answer, Peter actually puts his hearers on trial. He calls attention to the fact that the miracle was a good deed, not a crime (v. 9) and that it was performed by the power of Jesus whom they had crucified (v. 10). Jesus' rejection was predicted in the OT (v. 11; Ps. 118:22) and salvation is only through Him (v. 12). All of this in 92 words in the Greek text!

4:13 uneducated and untrained men. This means that Peter and John were not formally trained in the rabbinic schools; they were not professional scholars or ordained teachers (see also John 7:15).

4:15–17 Though the Sanhedrin forbade further preaching, they did not try to disprove the resurrection of Jesus, which would have been the simplest way to discredit the apostles.

4:24–30 A prayer of thanksgiving for the sovereign power of God, not a prayer for deliverance from further opposition. The only petition in the prayer is for boldness (vv. 29–30).

4:24 Lord. Despot, used of the absolute relationship of a master to his slaves (1 Tim. 6:1–2). The disciples were placing themselves in that position as slaves of their Lord.

4:27 Responsibility for the death of Christ is laid upon both Jews and Gentiles.

4:31 the Holy Spirit. There are a number of references to the activity of the Holy Spirit in Acts: (1) He baptizes believers into the Body of Christ, thus forming the church (1:5; 11:15–16); (2) His presence in the believer is evidence of the new birth (2:38; 5:32; 10:44; 15:8); (3) He fills believers for witnessing (4:8), for leadership (6:3), for strength (7:55), and for special discernment (13:9); (4) He leads (13:4; 16:7).

4:32 all things were common property. This display of Christian charity did not abolish the right of personal property. Such community of goods was not compulsory but voluntary, as a way of eliminating need among them.

5:8 [a]Acts 5:2

9 Then Peter said to her, "Why is it that you have agreed together to [a]put [b]the Spirit of the Lord to the test? Behold, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out as well."

16 Also the people from the cities in the vicinity of Jerusalem were coming together, bringing people who were sick or afflicted with unclean spirits, and they were all being healed.

5:3 Satan filled or controlled Ananias's heart. (The same verb appears in the command for believers to be filled with the Spirit in Eph. 5:18.) to lie. The sin of Ananias and Sapphira was not in not selling all their property, or in keeping part of the proceeds of the sale, but in lying about how much they had received. Lying to the Spirit is lying to God, because the Holy Spirit is God (v. 4).

5:9 to put . . . to the test. I.e., to see how far they could go in presuming on God's goodness.

5:12 Solomon's portico. See note on 3:11.

5:17 Again the Sadducees, who did not believe in resurrection (23:8), were particularly riled at the disciples' preaching the resurrection of Christ (4:33).

5:19 an angel of the Lord. Not the preincarnate Christ as was the angel of the Lord in the OT (Stephen refers to Him in 7:30), but one of God's angels (also see 8:26; 12:7; 12:23).

5:21 Council . . . Senate. These refer to the same body, the Jewish Sanhedrin.

Council together, even all the Senate of the sons of Israel, and sent orders to the prison house for them to be brought.

5:22 22 But [a]the officers who came did not find them in the prison; and they returned and reported back,

23 saying, "We found the prison house locked quite securely and the guards standing at the doors; but when we had opened up, we found no one inside."

5:24 24 Now when [a]the captain of the temple guard and the chief priests heard these words, they were greatly perplexed about them as to what would come of this.

25 But someone came and reported to them, "The men whom you put in prison are standing in the temple and teaching the people!"

5:26 26 Then [a]the captain went along with [b]the officers and proceeded to bring them back without violence (for [c]they were afraid of the people, that they might be stoned).

5:27 27 When they had brought them, they stood them before [a]the Council. The high priest questioned them,

5:28 28 saying, "We gave you [a]strict orders not to continue teaching in this name, and yet, you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and [b]intend to bring this man's blood upon us."

*5:29 29 But Peter and the apostles answered and said, "[a]We must obey God rather than men.

5:30 30"[a]The God of our fathers [b]raised up Jesus, whom you had [c]put to death by hanging Him on a cross.

*5:31 31"[a]He is the one whom God exalted to His right hand as a [b]Prince and a [c]Savior, to grant [d]repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins.

32"And we are [a]witnesses of these things; and [b]so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey Him."

33 But when they heard this, they were [a]cut to the quick and were intending to slay them.

34 But a Pharisee named [a]Gamaliel, a [b]teacher of the Law, respected by all the people, stood up in [c]the Council and gave orders to put the men outside for a short time.

35 And he said to them, "Men of Israel, take care what you propose to do with these men.

*5:36 36"For some time ago Theudas rose up, [a]claiming to be somebody, and a group of about four hundred men joined up with him. But he was slain, and all who followed him were dispersed and came to nothing.

*5:37 37"After this man, Judas of Galilee rose up in the days of [a]the census and drew away some people after him; he too perished, and all those who followed him were scattered.

5:38 38"So in the present case, I say to you, stay away from these men and let them alone, for if this plan or action [a]is of men, it will be overthrown;

5:39 39 but if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow them; or else you may even be found [a]fighting against God."

5:40 40 They took his advice; and after calling the apostles in, they [a]flogged them and ordered them to speak no more in the name of Jesus, and then released them.

5:41 41 So they went on their way from the presence of the [a]Council, [b]rejoicing that they had been

6 Now at this time while the [a]disciples were [b]increasing in number, a complaint arose on the part of the [c]Hellenistic Jews against the native [d]Hebrews, because their [e]widows were being overlooked in [f]the daily serving of food.

2 So the twelve summoned the congregation of the disciples and said, "It is not desirable for us to neglect the word of God in order to serve tables.

3 "But select from among you, [a]brethren, seven men of good reputation, [b]full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may put in charge of this task.

4 "But we will [a]devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word."

5 The statement found approval with the whole congregation; and they chose [a]Stephen, a man [b]full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and [c]Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas and Nicolas, a [d]proselyte from [e]Antioch.

6 And these they brought before the apostles; and after [a]praying, they [b]laid their hands on them.

7 [a]The word of God kept on spreading; and [b]the number of the disciples continued to increase greatly in Jerusalem, and a great many of the priests were becoming obedient to [c]the faith.

G Stephen, the First Martyr, 6:8–8:3

1 The stirring of the people, 6:8–15

8 And Stephen, full of grace and power, was performing great [a]wonders and signs among the people.

9 But some men from what was called the Synagogue of the Freedmen, including both [a]Cyrenians and [b]Alexandrians, and some from [c]Cilicia and [d]Asia, rose up and argued with Stephen.

10 But they were unable to cope with the wisdom and the Spirit with which he was speaking.

11 Then they secretly induced men to say, "We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and against God."

12 And they stirred up the people, the elders and the scribes, and they [a]came up to him and dragged him away and brought him before [b]the Council.

13 They put forward [a]false witnesses who said, "This man

6:1 Hellenistic Jews . . . Hebrews. The former were Greek-speaking Jewish Christians from Jewish settlements in lands outside Israel (known as the Dispersion, or Diaspora), and the latter were Aramaic-speaking Jewish Christians.

6:2 serve tables. I.e., tables of food for the widows or of money (as in John 2:15). The Greek word for "serve" is the one from which we derive "deacon," but these men were "deacons" only in the sense of being servants. They were not yet deacons in the later sense of officers in the church. See note on 1 Tim. 3:8.

6:3 Their qualifications were (1) males, (2) believers, (3) reputable, (4) spiritual, and (5) wise.

6:5 All seven had Greek, not Jewish, names; two, Stephen and Philip, quickly achieved prominence for their vigorous evangelism.

6:6 laid their hands on them. The laying on of hands was a formal sign of appointment to this service. The rite indicates a link or association between the parties involved. Sometimes it was related to healing (Mark 5:23) or to the impartation of the Spirit (8:17; 9:17; 19:6) or, as here, was a sign of ordination for special service (13:3; 1 Tim. 4:14).

6:7 The tearing of the veil in the Temple at the time of Christ's death may have been a factor in the conversion of these priests. See note on Matt. 27:51.

6:9 Freedmen. These were Jewish freedmen, or descendants of men freed from slavery, from the various places mentioned in the verse. They had their own synagogue in Jerusalem.

6:12 the Council = the Sanhedrin. See note on Luke 22:66.

6:13–14 Perhaps Stephen had referred to Jesus' words in John 2:19, which his enemies twisted.

2 The sermon of Stephen, 7:1–53

7 The high priest said, "Are these things so?"

2 And he said, "Hear me, [a]brethren and fathers! [b]The God of glory [c]appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran,

3 and said to him, '[a]LEAVE YOUR COUNTRY AND YOUR RELATIVES, AND COME INTO THE LAND THAT I WILL SHOW YOU.'

4"[a]Then he left the land of the Chaldeans and settled in Haran. [b]From there, after his father died, God removed him into this country in which you are now living.

5"But He gave him no inheritance in it, not even a foot of ground, and yet, even when he had no child, [a]He promised that HE WOULD GIVE IT TO HIM AS A POSSESSION, AND TO HIS DESCENDANTS AFTER HIM.

6"But [a]God spoke to this effect, that his DESCENDANTS WOULD BE ALIENS IN A FOREIGN LAND, AND THAT THEY WOULD BE ENSLAVED AND MISTREATED FOR FOUR HUNDRED YEARS.

7" 'AND WHATEVER NATION TO WHICH THEY WILL BE IN BONDAGE I MYSELF WILL JUDGE,' said God, 'AND [a]AFTER THAT THEY WILL COME OUT AND SERVE ME IN THIS PLACE.'

8"And He [a]gave him the covenant of circumcision; and so [b]Abraham became the father of Isaac, and circumcised him on the eighth day; and [c]Isaac became the father of Jacob, and [d]Jacob of the twelve [e]patriarchs.

9"The patriarchs [a]became jealous of Joseph and sold him into Egypt. Yet God was with him,

10 and rescued him from all his afflictions, and [a]granted him favor and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and he made him governor over Egypt and all his household.

11"Now [a]a famine came over all Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction with it, and our fathers could find no food.

12"But [a]when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent our fathers there the first time.

13"On the second visit [a]Joseph made himself known to his brothers, and [b]Joseph's family was disclosed to Pharaoh.

14"Then [a]Joseph sent word and invited Jacob his father and all his relatives to come to him, [b]seventy-five [c]persons in all.

15"And [a]Jacob went down to Egypt and there he and our fathers passed away.

16"From there they were removed to [a]Shechem and laid in the tomb which Abraham had purchased for a sum of money from the sons of Hamor in Shechem.

7:1 The high priest. Caiaphas.

7:2–53 Stephen's sermon is the longest recorded in Acts. The text is "you are doing just as your fathers did" (v. 51). Stephen recited the privileges of the nation Israel and their rejection of God's messengers; then he laid blame for the slaying of Jesus squarely on his hearers (v. 52).

7:2 God's call to Abraham came first when he was in Mesopotamia (Gen. 15:7; Neh. 9:7). Later he went to Haran (Gen. 11:31–32) and later to Palestine.

7:6 FOUR HUNDRED YEARS. Probably a round number. Gal. 3:17 indicates 430 years.

7:8 circumcision. See note on Gen. 17:9–14.

7:14 seventy-five persons. This number follows the LXX, which arrived at 75 by including the son and grandson of Manasseh and two sons and a grandson of Ephraim. See note on Gen. 46:27, which reflects a different way of numbering Jacob's family, totaling 70.

7:15–16 Jacob was buried at Hebron in the Cave of Machpelah, which Abraham bought from Ephron the Hittite (Gen. 23:16). Joseph was buried at Shechem in a piece of ground Jacob bought from the sons of Hamor (Josh. 24:32). The two transactions are simply telescoped in these verses because of the pressure of Stephen's circumstances and need for brevity.

25"And he supposed that his brethren understood that God was granting them deliverance through him, but they did not understand.

7:30 After forty years had passed, in addition to the 40 years of verse 23, making Moses 80 years old.

7:38 the congregation in the wilderness. Lit., the assembly in the wilderness; i.e., the gathering of the people to receive the law. The word translated congregation (or church, assembly, gathering) is used in the NT of four kinds of groups: (1) the children of Israel gathered as a nation; (2) in 19:32, 39, 41, a group of townspeople assembled in a town meeting; (3) in a technical sense, all believers who are gathered together in the one Body of Christ, the church universal (Col. 1:18); and (4) most frequently, in reference to a local group of professing Christians; e.g., the church at Antioch (13:1).

who was speaking to him on Mount Sinai, and who was with our fathers; and he received [c]living [d]oracles to pass on to you.

39 "Our fathers were unwilling to be obedient to him, but [a]repudiated him and in their hearts turned back to Egypt,

40 [a]SAYING TO AARON, 'MAKE FOR US GODS WHO WILL GO BEFORE US; FOR THIS MOSES WHO LED US OUT OF THE LAND OF EGYPT—WE DO NOT KNOW WHAT HAPPENED TO HIM.'

41 "At that time [a]they made a calf and brought a sacrifice to the idol, and were rejoicing in [b]the works of their hands.

42 "But God [a]turned away and delivered them up to serve the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, '[b]IT WAS NOT TO ME THAT YOU OFFERED VICTIMS AND SACRIFICES [c]FORTY YEARS IN THE WILDERNESS, WAS IT, O HOUSE OF ISRAEL?

43 '[a]YOU ALSO TOOK ALONG THE TABERNACLE OF MOLOCH AND THE STAR OF THE GOD ROMPHA, THE IMAGES WHICH YOU MADE TO WORSHIP THEM. I ALSO WILL REMOVE YOU BEYOND BABYLON.'

44 "Our fathers had [a]the tabernacle of testimony in the wilderness, just as He who spoke to Moses directed him to make it [b]according to the pattern which he had seen.

45 "And having received it in their turn, our fathers [a]brought it in with Joshua upon dispossessing the nations whom God drove out before our fathers, until the time of David.

46 "[a]David found favor in God's sight, and [b]asked that he might find a dwelling place for the God of Jacob.

47 "But it was [a]Solomon who built a house for Him.

48 "However, [a]the Most High does not dwell in houses made by human hands; as the prophet says:

49 '[a]HEAVEN IS MY THRONE,
AND EARTH IS THE FOOTSTOOL OF MY FEET;
WHAT KIND OF HOUSE WILL YOU BUILD FOR ME?' says the Lord,
'OR WHAT PLACE IS THERE FOR MY REPOSE?

50 '[a]WAS IT NOT MY HAND WHICH MADE ALL THESE THINGS?'

51 "You men who are [a]stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears are always resisting the Holy Spirit; you are doing just as your fathers did.

52 "[a]Which one of the prophets did your fathers not persecute? They killed those who had previously announced the coming of [b]the Righteous One, whose betrayers and murderers [c]you have now become;

53 you who received the law as [a]ordained by angels, and yet did not keep it."

3 The stoning of Stephen, 7:54–8:3

54 Now when they heard this, they were [a]cut to the quick, and they began gnashing their teeth at him.

55 But being [a]full of the Holy Spirit, he [b]gazed intently into heaven and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing [c]at the right hand of God;

56 and he said, "Behold, I see the [a]heavens opened up and [b]the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God."

57 But they cried out with a loud voice, and covered their ears and rushed at him with one impulse.

7:43 Moloch . . . Romppha. Moloch was a title for various Canaanite deities to whom human sacrifices were offered. Rompha (better, Rephan) was the name of a god connected with the planet Saturn.

7:44 tabernacle of testimony. I.e., the Tabernacle was a testimony to the presence of God in their midst.

7:51–53 Stephen's indictment of unbelieving Jews is amply illustrated in the previously cited history of Israel.

7:55 Jesus standing at the right hand of God. Jesus' priestly work of offering a sacrifice for sin was finished on the cross; He is therefore sometimes pictured as seated at the right hand of God (Heb. 1:3). But His priestly work of sustaining His people continues (as here with Stephen); therefore, He is portrayed as standing to minister (cf. Rev. 2:1).

58 When they had [a]driven him out of the city, they began stoning him; and [b]the witnesses [c]laid aside their robes at the feet of [d]a young man named Saul.

59 They went on stoning Stephen as he [a]called on the Lord and said, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit!"

60 Then [a]falling on his knees, he cried out with a loud voice, "Lord, [b]do not hold this sin against them!" Having said this, he [c]fell asleep.

8 [a]Saul was in hearty agreement with putting him to death.

And on that day a great persecution began against [b]the church in Jerusalem, and they were all [c]scattered throughout the regions of Judea and [d]Samaria, except the apostles.

2 Some devout men buried Stephen, and made loud lamentation over him.

3 But [a]Saul began ravaging the church, entering house after house, and [b]dragging off men and women, he would put them in prison.

II CHRISTIANITY IN PALESTINE AND SYRIA, 8:4–12:25

A The Christians Scattered, 8:4–40

1 The preaching in Samaria, 8:4–25

4 Therefore, those [a]who had been scattered went about [b]preaching the word.

5 [a]Philip went down to the city of Samaria and began proclaiming Christ to them.

6 The crowds with one accord were giving attention to what was said by Philip, as they heard and saw the signs which he was performing.

7 For in the case of many who had [a]unclean spirits, they were coming out of them shouting with a loud voice; and many who had been [b]paralyzed and lame were healed.

8 So there was [a]much rejoicing in that city.

9 Now there was a man named Simon, who formerly was practicing [a]magic in the city and astonishing the people of Samaria, [b]claiming to be someone great;

10 and they all, from smallest to greatest, were giving attention to him, saying, "[a]This man is what is called the Great Power of God."

11 And they were giving him attention because he had for a long time astonished them with his [a]magic arts.

12 But when they believed Philip [a]preaching the good news about the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were being [b]baptized, men and women alike.

13 Even Simon himself believed; and after being baptized, he continued on with Philip, and as he observed [a]signs and [b]great miracles taking place, he was constantly amazed.

14 Now when [a]the apostles in

7:58 The mention of witnesses suggests that they went through the motions of a legal execution (Lev. 24:14), though probably without securing the official approval of Pilate.

7:58–59 In stoning, the first official witness pushed the naked victim off a nine ft (2.75 m) scaffold. Then the second official witness dropped a large stone on his head or chest, and others pelted the dying man.

7:60 he fell asleep. This expression is used of the physical death of believers (John 11:11; 1 Thess. 4:13, 15).

8:3 ravaging. A word meaning "ravaging like a wild beast," describing the intensity of Saul's hatred of Christians.

8:4 went about. See 11:19 for details.

8:5 Philip. See 6:5. the city of Samaria was then called Sebaste. Some texts read "a city of Samaria," which would mean "some smaller city in Samaria." On the Samaritans, see note on Luke 10:33.

8:9 magic. Simon was a practitioner of magic, quackery, and various kinds of sorcery. He may also have made messianic claims.

8:13 Simon himself believed. Peter's denunciation (vv. 20–23) indicates that Simon's faith was not unto salvation (James 2:14–20).

8:14–17 Though the Samaritans had been baptized in water (v. 12), the gift of the Holy Spirit was delayed until Peter and John came and laid their hands on them. Normally the Spirit is given 28 and he was returning and sitting in his chariot, and was reading the prophet Isaiah.

8:29 [a]Acts 8:39; 10:19; 11:12; 13:2; 16:6,7; 20:23; 21:11; 28:25; Heb 3:7

30 Philip ran up and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, and said, "Do you understand what you are reading?"

31 And he said, "Well, how could I, unless someone guides me?" And he invited Philip to come up and sit with him.

32 Now the passage of Scripture which he was reading was this: 8:32 [a]Is 53:7

"[a]HE WAS LED AS A SHEEP TO SLAUGHTER; AND AS A LAMB BEFORE ITS SHEARER IS SILENT,
SO HE DOES NOT OPEN HIS MOUTH.

33 "[a]IN HUMILIATION HIS JUDGMENT WAS TAKEN AWAY;

FOR HIS LIFE IS REMOVED FROM THE EARTH." 8:33 [a]Is 53:8

34 The eunuch answered Philip and said, "Please tell me, of whom does the prophet say this? Of himself or of someone else?"

of God (v. 20). When Peter urged him to repent, Simon replied, in effect, "Pray for me that I may escape punishment" (v. 24). He was still thinking in terms of magical powers rather than repentance of heart.

8:23 bitterness. Refers to Simon's apostasy and idolatry (Deut. 29:18).

8:26 On the angel, see note on 5:19. a desert road. Possibly the road to Desert Gaza, the old city that had been destroyed in 93 B.C. and that was inland from the Gaza of NT times.

8:27 Ethiopia. Not present-day Abyssinia but ancient Nubia, south of Aswan. Apparently he was not yet a full-fledged proselyte. The story shows how far the gospel was spreading. Candace. The hereditary title of Ethiopian queens.

8:35 preached Jesus to him. Before the coming of Jesus, the Jews understood Isa. 53 as referring to the Messiah. This interpretation was abandoned as Christians applied the prophecy to Jesus of Nazareth, and Isa. 53 was then considered by the Jews to be referring either to Isaiah himself or to the people of Israel, who would be a light to the nations, etc.

8:40 Azotus = OT Ashdod, 20 mi (32 km) N of Gaza. Apparently Philip settled in Caesarea, for he was there 20 years later (21:8).

9:1–19 Luke here records Paul's conversion (22:4ff. and 26:12ff. also give accounts of it, to the crowd in Jerusalem and to Herod Agrippa II). In his own writings, Paul refers to it only a few times. He related it to the supernatural purposes of God (Gal. 1:15); he spoke of its suddenness (1 Cor. 15:8; Phil. 3:12); he called it an act of new creation by God (2 Cor. 4:6); he acknowledged the merciful character of it (1 Tim. 1:13); and he claimed that during it he saw the Lord (1 Cor. 9:1). He was, therefore, just as qualified as the other apostles, for his conversion experience was just as objective a reality as their meetings with the risen Christ before the Ascension.

9:2 belonging to the Way. I.e., Christians.

9:3 Damascus was about 150 mi (241 km) from Jerusalem.

9:4 So close is the union of the church with Christ that to persecute the church is to persecute Christ.

9:5 I am Jesus. In this moment Paul identified the Lord Yahweh (or Jehovah) of the OT, whom he had attempted so zealously to serve, with Jesus of Nazareth, whom he had so ferociously persecuted through His saints. The phrase "it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks" (KJV) is not found in most mss.

10 Now there was a disciple at [a]Damascus named [b]Ananias; and the Lord said to him in [c]a vision, "Ananias." And he said, "Here I am, Lord."

9:11 [a]Acts 9:30; 11:25; 21:39; 22:3

11 And the Lord said to him, "Get up and go to the street called Straight, and inquire at the house of Judas for a man from [a]Tarsus named Saul, for he is praying,

9:12 [a]Mark 5:23; Acts 6:6; 9:17

12 and he has seen in a vision a man named Ananias come in and [a]lay his hands on him, so that he might regain his sight."

*9:13 [a]Acts 8:3 [b]Acts 9:32,41; 26:10; Rom 1:7; 15:25,26, 31; 16:2,15; 1 Cor 1:2

13 But Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, [a]how much harm he did to [b]Your saints at Jerusalem;

9:14 [a]Acts 9:2,21 [b]Acts 7:59

14 and here he [a]has authority from the chief priests to bind all who [b]call on Your name."

15 But the Lord said to him, "Go, for [a]he is a chosen instrument of Mine, to bear My name before [b]the Gentiles and [c]kings and the sons of Israel;

9:16 [a]Acts 20:23; 21:4,11,13; 2 Cor 6:4f; 11:23-27; 1 Thess 3:3

17 So Ananias departed and entered the house, and after [a]laying his hands on him said, "[b]Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on the road by which you were coming, has sent me so that you may regain your sight and be [c]filled with the Holy Spirit."

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes something like scales, and he regained his sight, and he got up and was baptized;

21 All those hearing him continued to be amazed, and were saying, "Is this not he who in Jerusalem [a]destroyed those who [b]called on this name, and who had come here for the purpose of bringing them bound before the chief priests?"

9:21 [a]Acts 8:3; 9:13; Gal 1:13, 23 [b]Acts 9:14

24 but [a]their plot became known to Saul. [b]They were also watching the gates day and night so that they might put him to death;

25 but his disciples took him by night and let him down through an opening in the wall, lowering him in a large basket.

9:26 [a]Acts 22:17-20; 26:20

26 [a]When he came to Jerusalem, he was trying to associate with the disciples; but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple.

27 But [a]Barnabas took hold of him and brought him to the apostles and described to them how he had [b]seen the Lord on the road, and that He had talked to him, and how [c]at Damascus he had [d]spoken out boldly in the name of Jesus.

9:28 [a]Acts 4:13,29; 9:29

28 And he was with them, moving about freely in Jerusalem, [a]speaking out boldly in the name of the Lord.

9:10 Ananias. According to 22:12 Ananias was an unimpeachable witness to the reality of Paul's conversion.

9:13 NT believers are first called saints (holy, set apart ones) here.

9:17 Through Ananias's laying his hands on him, Paul is identified with the people he had been persecuting.

9:23 When many days had elapsed. During this time Paul went to Arabia (see note on Gal. 1:17), so three years elapsed between his conversion and his going to Jerusalem (9:26).

9:27 Barnabas means "son of encouragement," and he was that to Paul. See note on 11:22.

29 And he was talking and arguing with the [a]Hellenistic Jews; but they were attempting to put him to death.

30 But when [a]the brethren learned of it, they brought him down to [b]Caesarea and [c]sent him away to [d]Tarsus.

31 So [a]the church throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria enjoyed peace, being built up; and going on in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, it continued to increase.

C The Conversion of Gentiles, 9:32–11:30

1 The preparation of Peter, 9:32–10:23

32 Now as Peter was traveling through all those regions, he came down also to [a]the saints who lived at [b]Lydda.

33 There he found a man named Aeneas, who had been bedridden eight years, for he was paralyzed.

34 Peter said to him, "Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you; get up and make your bed." Immediately he got up.

35 And all who lived at [a]Lydda and [b]Sharon saw him, and they [c]turned to the Lord.

36 Now in [a]Joppa there was a disciple named Tabitha (which translated in Greek is called Dorcas); this woman was abounding with deeds of kindness and charity which she continually did.

37 And it happened at that time that she fell sick and died; and when they had washed her body, they laid it in an [a]upper room.

38 Since Lydda was near [a]Joppa, [b]the disciples, having heard that Peter was there, sent two men to him, imploring him, "Do not delay in coming to us."

39 So Peter arose and went with them. When he arrived, they brought him into the [a]upper room; and all the [b]widows stood beside him, weeping and showing all the tunics and garments that Dorcas used to make while she was with them.

40 But Peter [a]sent them all out and [b]knelt down and prayed, and turning to the body, he said, "[c]Tabitha, arise." And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sat up.

41 And he gave her his hand and raised her up; and calling [a]the saints and [b]widows, he presented her alive.

42 It became known all over [a]Joppa, and [b]many believed in the Lord.

43 And Peter stayed many days in [a]Joppa with [b]a tanner named Simon.

10 Now there was a man at [a]Caesarea named Cornelius, a centurion of what was [b]called the Italian cohort,

2 a devout man and [a]one who feared God with all his household, and [b]gave many alms to the Jewish people and prayed to God continually.

3 About [a]the ninth hour of the day he clearly saw [b]in a vision [c]an angel of God who had just come in and said to him, "Cornelius!"

9:29 Hellenistic Jews = Greek-speaking Jews who were born in lands outside Israel.

9:30 Tarsus. Capital of Cilicia and birthplace of Paul. He remained there about five years before being called by Barnabas to the work at Antioch (11:25–26).

9:32 Lydda = Lod, 11 mi (17.7 km) SE of Joppa.

9:35 Sharon. The plain extending southward for 50 mi (80 km) along the Mediterranean Sea from modern Haifa, which stands on Mount Carmel.

9:36 Tabitha means "gazelle." (Dorcas is Greek for the same.)

9:38 near Joppa. About 12 mi (19 km).

9:43 A tanner was considered to be unclean because he worked with the skins of dead animals (Lev. 11:40). Peter's staying with him may have helped prepare him to preach to Gentiles, whom he considered unclean.

10:1 Caesarea was 30 mi (48 km) N of Joppa. a centurion was a noncommissioned officer in command of 100 men. Cornelius was a commander in the Italian cohort. See note on John 18:3.

10:2 Cornelius was a semi-proselyte to Judaism, accepting Jewish beliefs and practices but stopping short of circumcision.

10:6 [a]Acts 9:43

7 When the angel who was speaking to him had left, he summoned two of his servants and a devout soldier of those who were his personal attendants,

8 and after he had explained everything to them, he sent them to [a]Joppa.

10:8 [a]Acts 9:36

9 On the next day, as they were on their way and approaching the city, [a]Peter went up on [b]the housetop about [c]the sixth hour to pray.

10 But he became hungry and was desiring to eat; but while they were making preparations, he [a]fell into a trance;

10:10 [a]Acts 11:5; 22:17

11 and he *saw [a]the sky opened up, and an object like a great sheet coming down, lowered by four corners to the ground,

10:11 [a]John 1:51

12 and there were in it all kinds of four-footed animals and crawling creatures of the earth and birds of the air.

13 A voice came to him, "Get up, Peter, kill and eat!"

14 But Peter said, "By no means, [a]Lord, for [b]I have never eaten anything unholy and unclean."

*10:14 [a]Matt 8:2ff; John 4:11ff; Acts 9:5; 22:8 [b]Lev 11:20-25; Deut 14:4-20; Ezek 4:14; Dan 1:8; Acts 10:28

16 This happened three times, and immediately the object was taken up into the sky.

17 Now while Peter was greatly perplexed in mind as to what [a]the vision which he had seen might be, behold, [b]the men who had been sent by Cornelius, having asked directions for Simon's house, appeared at the gate;

10:17 [a]Acts 10:17 [b]Acts 10:8

18 and calling out, they were asking whether Simon, who was also called Peter, was staying there.

19 While Peter was reflecting on [a]the vision, [b]the Spirit said to him, "Behold, three men are looking for you.

10:19 [a]Acts 10:3 [b]Acts 8:29

20 "But get up, go downstairs and [a]accompany them without misgivings, for I have sent them Myself."

10:20 [a]Acts 15:7-9

21 Peter went down to the men and said, "Behold, I am the one you are looking for; what is the reason for which you have come?"

22 They said, "Cornelius, a centurion, a righteous and [a]God-fearing man well spoken of by the entire nation of the Jews, [b]was divinely directed by a [c]holy angel to send for you to come to his house and hear [d]a message from you."

10:22 [a]Acts 10:2 [b]Matt 2:12 [c]Mark 8:38; Luke 9:26; Rev 14:10 [d]Acts 11:14

23 So he invited them in and gave them lodging.

*10:23 [a]Acts 10:45; 11:12 [b]Acts 1:15 [c]Acts 9:36

And on the next day he got up and went away with them, and [a]some of [b]the brethren from [c]Joppa accompanied him.

2 The preaching of Peter, 10:24–48

24 On the following day he entered [a]Caesarea. Now Cornelius was waiting for them and had called together his relatives and close friends.

*10:24 [a]Acts 8:40; 10:1

25 When Peter entered, Cornelius met him, and fell at his feet and [a]worshiped him.

10:25 [a]Matt 8:2

26 But Peter raised him up, saying, "[a]Stand up; I too am just a man."

10:26 [a]Acts 14:15; Rev 19:10; 22:8f

27 As he talked with him, he entered and *found [a]many people assembled.

10:27 [a]Acts 10:24

10:14 unholy and unclean. The Mosaic Law prohibited the eating of certain unclean animals (Lev. 11). God was teaching Peter a lesson about people (see v. 28).

10:23 some of the brethren. There were six of them (11:12).

10:24 Cornelius showed great faith by having the audience already present.

10:28 [a]John 4:9; 18:28; Acts 11:3 [b]Acts 10:14f, 35; 15:9

28 And he said to them, "You yourselves know how [a]unlawful it is for a man who is a Jew to associate with a foreigner or to visit him; and yet [b]God has shown me that I should not call any man unholy or unclean.

29 "That is why I came without even raising any objection when I was sent for. So I ask for what reason you have sent for me."

10:30 [a]Acts 10:9,22f [b]Acts 3:1; 10:3 [c]Acts 10:3-6, 30-32

30 Cornelius said, "[a]Four days ago to this hour, I was praying in my house during [b]the ninth hour; and behold, [c]a man stood before me in shining garments,

31 and he *said, 'Cornelius, your prayer has been heard and your alms have been remembered before God.

10:32 [a]John 4:9; 18:28; Acts 11:3

32 'Therefore send to [a]Joppa and invite Simon, who is also called Peter, to come to you; he is staying at the house of Simon the tanner by the sea.

33 "So I sent for you immediately, and you have been kind enough to come. Now then, we are all here present before God to hear all that you have been commanded by the Lord."

34 [a]Opening his mouth, Peter said:

"I most certainly understand now that [b]God is not one to show partiality, 35 but [a]in every nation the man who [b]fears Him and does what is right is welcome to Him.

45 [a]All the circumcised believers who came with Peter were amazed, because the gift of the Holy Spirit had been [b]poured out on the Gentiles also.

10:46 [a]Mark 16:17; Acts 2:4; 19:6

46 For they were hearing them [a]speaking with tongues and exalting God. Then Peter answered,

47 "[a]Surely no one can refuse the water for these to be baptized who [b]have received the Holy Spirit just as we did, can he?"

48 And he [a]ordered them to be baptized [b]in the name of Jesus

---

10:28 The case of Cornelius was the first of its kind and crucial to the spread of Christianity. It answered the question, "Can the new faith (still so closely associated with Judaism) admit into fellowship an uncircumcised Gentile?" The issue, however, would not be completely resolved for some time.

10:34 God is not one to show partiality. This fact was taught in the OT (Deut. 10:17; 2 Chron. 19:7).

10:44 the Holy Spirit fell upon all. In the case of these Gentile converts, the gift of the Spirit came before they were baptized in water (v. 48). The authentication of the gift was the speaking in tongues (v. 46), entirely apart from the laying on of hands. All this demonstrated, especially to the Jewish brethren who accompanied Peter, that God had received these Gentiles into the church on an equal basis with Jewish believers because they had believed in Christ (v. 43).

Christ. Then they asked him to stay on for a few days.

3 The plea of Peter, 11:1–18

11:1 [a]Acts 1:15

11 Now the apostles and [a]the brethren who were throughout Judea heard that the Gentiles also had received the word of God.

11:2 [a]Acts 10:45

2 And when Peter came up to Jerusalem, [a]those who were circumcised took issue with him,

11:3 [a]Matt 9:11; Acts 10:28; Gal 2:12

3 saying, "[a]You went to uncircumcised men and ate with them."

11:4 [a]Luke 1:3

4 But Peter began speaking and proceeded to explain to them [a]in orderly sequence, saying,

11:5 [a]Acts 10:9-32; 11:5-14 [b]Acts 9:10

5"[a]I was in the city of Joppa praying; and in a trance I saw [b]a vision, an object coming down like a great sheet lowered by four corners from the sky; and it came right down to me,

6 and when I had fixed my gaze on it and was observing it I saw the four-footed animals of the earth and the wild beasts and the crawling creatures and the birds of the air.

7"I also heard a voice saying to me, 'Get up, Peter; kill and eat.'

8"But I said, 'By no means, Lord, for nothing unholy or unclean has ever entered my mouth.'

11:9 [a]Acts 10:15

9"But a voice from heaven answered a second time, '[a]What God has cleansed, no longer consider unholy.'

10"This happened three times, and everything was drawn back up into the sky.

11"And behold, at that moment three men appeared at the house in which we were staying, having been sent to me from [a]Caesarea.

11:11 [a]Acts 8:40

12"[a]The Spirit told me to go with them [b]without misgivings. [c]These six brethren also went with me and we entered the man's house.

11:12 [a]Acts 8:29 [b]Acts 15:9; Rom 3:22 [c]Acts 10:23

13"And he reported to us how he had seen the angel standing in his house, and saying, 'Send to Joppa and have Simon, who is also called Peter, brought here;

14 and he will speak [a]words to you by which you will be saved, you and [b]all your household.'

11:14 [a]Acts 10:22 [b]John 4:53; Acts 10:2; 16:15,31-34; 18:8; 1 Cor 1:16

15"And as I began to speak, [a]the Holy Spirit fell upon them just [b]as He did upon us at the beginning.

11:15 [a]Acts 10:44 [b]Acts 2:4

16"And I remembered the word of the Lord, how He used to say, '[a]John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.'

11:16 [a]Acts 1:5

17"Therefore if [a]God gave to them the same gift as He gave to us also after believing in the Lord Jesus Christ, [b]who was I that I could stand in God's way?"

11:17 [a]Acts 10:45,47 [b]Acts 5:39

18 When they heard this, they quieted down and [a]glorified God, saying, "Well then, God has granted to the Gentiles also the [b]repentance that leads to life."

11:18 [a]Matt 9:8 [b]2 Cor 7:10

4 The church at Antioch, 11:19–30

19 [a]So then those who were scattered because of the persecution that occurred in connection with Stephen made their way to [b]Phoenicia and [c]Cyprus and [d]Antioch, speaking the word to no one except to Jews alone.

11:19 [a]Acts 8:1,4 [b]Acts 15:3; 21:2 [c]Acts 4:36 [d]Acts 6:5; 11:20,22,27; 13:1; 14:26; 15:22f,30,35; 18:22; Gal 2:11

20 But there were some of 11:2 those who were circumcised. I.e., Jewish Christians, the so-called "circumcision party," who were unhappy at the report that Gentiles were being saved without ritual induction into Judaism. After Peter's review of what happened, they were satisfied that this was God's doing (v. 18).

11:15 at the beginning. I.e., on the Day of Pentecost. Since God had done for the Gentiles in Cornelius' house the same as He had done for the Jews at Pentecost (baptize them with the Holy Spirit, cf. 1:5), to refuse to accept these Gentile converts would be to resist the work of God (v. 17).

11:19 Antioch on the Orontes River about 300 mi (483 km) from Jerusalem was the capital of the Roman province of Syria. It was the third largest city in the empire, with a population of about 500,000. Antioch was one of the cosmopolitan centers of the world of that day and a center of commerce, Seleucia (16 mi, or 26 km, away) being its seaport (13:4). Replacing Jerusalem as the number one Christian city, it was the center of the early missionary activity of the church (6:5; 13:1; 14:26; 15:35; 18:22).

them, men of [a]Cyprus and [b]Cyrene, who came to [c]Antioch and began speaking to the [d]Greeks also, [e]preaching the Lord Jesus.

21 And [a]the hand of the Lord was with them, and [b]a large number who believed turned to the Lord.

22 The news about them reached the ears of the church at Jerusalem, and they sent [a]Barnabas off to [b]Antioch.

23 Then when he arrived and witnessed [a]the grace of God, he rejoiced and began to encourage them all with resolute heart to remain true to the Lord;

24 for he was a good man, and [a]full of the Holy Spirit and of faith. And [b]considerable numbers were brought to the Lord.

25 And he left for [a]Tarsus to look for Saul;

26 and when he had found him, he brought him to [a]Antioch. And for an entire year they met with the church and taught considerable numbers; and [b]the disciples were first called [c]Christians in [a]Antioch.

27 Now at this time [a]some prophets came down from Jerusalem to [b]Antioch.

28 One of them named [a]Agabus stood up and began to indicate by the Spirit that there would certainly be a great famine [b]all over the world. And this took place in the reign of [c]Claudius.

29 And in the proportion that any of [a]the disciples had means, each of them determined to send a contribution for the relief of [b]the brethren living in Judea.

30 [a]And this they did, sending it in charge of [b]Barnabas and Saul to the [c]elders.

D The Christians Persecuted by Herod, 12:1–25

1 The death of James, 12:1–2

12 Now about that time Herod the king laid hands on some who belonged to the church in order to mistreat them.

2 And he [a]had James the brother of John [b]put to death with a sword.

2 The deliverance of Peter, 12:3–19

3 When he saw that it [a]pleased the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter also. Now it was during [b]the days of Unleavened Bread.

4 When he had seized him, he put him in prison, delivering him to four [a]squads of soldiers to guard him, intending after [b]the Passover to bring him out before the people.

5 So Peter was kept in the prison, but prayer for him was being made fervently by the church to God.

6 On the very night when Herod was about to bring him forward, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, [a]bound with two chains, and guards in front of the door were watching over the prison.

11:22–24 Barnabas. Described by Luke as one who consoles or encourages (4:36). a good man who was full of the Holy Spirit (v. 24), he played an important role in the early life of the church on four occasions: (1) he convinced the apostles of the genuineness of Paul's conversion (9:27); (2) he represented the apostles at Antioch and recognized that the movement there was the work of God (vv. 22–24); (3) he and Paul were sent by the Spirit on the first missionary journey (13:2); and (4) he defended the work among Gentiles at the Jerusalem council (15:12, 22, 25).

11:25 to look for Saul. Paul had been in Tarsus, his home city, and in Syria and Cilicia (Gal. 1:21) about five years since going there from Jerusalem (9:30).

11:26 Christians. The word appears only here, in 26:28, and in 1 Peter 4:16. It means partisans, or followers, of Christ, "Christ's people."

11:28 great famine. Josephus reports that a famine occurred ca. A.D. 46.

11:30 elders. See note on 1 Tim. 3:1.

12:1 Herod. Herod Agrippa I, grandson of the Herod the Great who ruled at the birth of Jesus. Agrippa, at least on the surface, was a zealous practitioner of Jewish rites and a religious patriot.

12:2 James. The first of the Twelve to be martyred.

12:4 four squads. Four soldiers for each six-hour shift. Two were evidently chained to Peter and two stood guard (v. 6). Passover. See note on Mark 14:1.

12:6 Peter was sleeping. He had Christ's promise that he would live to an old age (John 21:18).

12:7 [a]Acts 5:19 [b]Luke 2:9; 24:4 [c]Acts 16:26

7 And behold, [a]an angel of the Lord suddenly [b]appeared and a light shone in the cell; and he struck Peter's side and woke him up, saying, "Get up quickly." And [c]his chains fell off his hands.

8 And the angel said to him, "Gird yourself and put on your sandals." And he did so. And he *said to him, "Wrap your cloak around you and follow me."

12:9 [a]Acts 9:10

9 And he went out and continued to follow, and he did not know that what was being done by the angel was real, but thought he was seeing [a]a vision.

12:10 [a]Acts 5:19; 16:26

10 When they had passed the first and second guard, they came to the iron gate that leads into the city, which [a]opened for them by itself; and they went out and went along one street, and immediately the angel departed from him.

11 When Peter [a]came to himself, he said, "Now I know for sure that [b]the Lord has sent forth His angel and rescued me from the hand of Herod and from all that the Jewish people were expecting."

*12:12 [a]Acts 12:25; 13:5,13; 15:37, 39; Col 4:10; 2 Tim 4:11; Philem 24; 1 Pet 5:13 [b]Acts 12:5

12 And when he realized this, he went to the house of Mary, the mother of [a]John who was also called Mark, where many were gathered together and [b]were praying.

12:13 [a]John 18:16f

13 When he knocked at the door of the gate, [a]a servant-girl named Rhoda came to answer.

12:14 [a]Luke 24:41

14 When she recognized Peter's voice, [a]because of her joy she did not open the gate, but ran in and announced that Peter was standing in front of the gate.

*12:15 [a]Matt 18:10

15 They said to her, "You are out of your mind!" But she kept insisting that it was so. They kept saying, "It is [a]his angel."

16 But Peter continued knocking; and when they had opened the door, they saw him and were amazed.

12:17 [a]Acts 13:16; 19:33; 21:40 [b]Mark 6:3; Acts 15:13; 21:18; 1 Cor 15:7; Gal 1:19; 2:9,12 [c]Acts 1:15

17 But [a]motioning to them with his hand to be silent, he described to them how the Lord had led him out of the prison. And he said, "Report these things to [b]James and [c]the brethren." Then he left and went to another place.

18 Now when day came, there was no small disturbance among the soldiers as to what could have become of Peter.

12:19 [a]Acts 16:27; 27:42 [b]Acts 8:40

19 When Herod had searched for him and had not found him, he examined the guards and ordered that they [a]be led away to execution. Then he went down from Judea to [b]Caesarea and was spending time there.

3 The death of Herod, 12:20–23

*12:20 [a]Matt 11:21 [b]1 Kin 5:11; Ezra 3:7; Ezek 27:17

20 Now he was very angry with the people of [a]Tyre and Sidon; and with one accord they came to him, and having won over Blastus the king's chamberlain, they were asking for peace, because [b]their country was fed by the king's country.

21 On an appointed day Herod, having put on his royal apparel, took his seat on the rostrum and began delivering an address to them.

22 The people kept crying out, "The voice of a god and not of a man!"

*12:23 [a]2 Sam 24:16; 2 Kin 19:35; Acts 5:19

23 And immediately [a]an angel of the Lord struck him because he did not give God the glory, and he was eaten by worms and died.

4 The dissemination of the Word, 12:24–25

12:24 [a]Acts 6:7; 19:20

24 But [a]the word of the Lord

12:11 rescued me. God's ways are inscrutable—Peter was delivered, but James was killed (v. 2).

12:12 the house of Mary. Traditionally it was here that the Last Supper was held and here now was the nerve center of the church in Jerusalem.

12:15 his angel. For other guardian angels in Scripture, see Gen. 48:16; Dan. 10:20–21; 12:1; Matt. 18:10; Heb. 1:14.

12:20 Tyre and Sidon had to import grain from the fields of Galilee, which produced large supplies (1 Kings 5:9).

12:23 Josephus states that Herod was struck down while delivering his oration and, after five days of suffering, died (A.D. 44).

continued to grow and to be multiplied.

*12:25 [a]Acts 4:36; 13:1ff [b]Acts 11:30 [c]Acts 12:12

25 And [a]Barnabas and [a]Saul returned from Jerusalem [b]when they had fulfilled their mission, taking along with them [c]John, who was also called Mark.

13:1 Here begins what has been called "The Acts of Paul," because Paul becomes the dominant figure. Simeon who was called Niger. Niger was his Latin name and probably indicates that he was an African. who had been brought up with. Lit., foster brother, a designation given to boys of the same age as royal children with whom they were brought up. Herod the tetrarch. Herod Antipas, who ruled Galilee during the public ministry of Christ.

13:5 John as their helper. This was John Mark, son of Mary (12:12) and cousin to Barnabas (Col. 4:10; see 13:13; 15:38–40; 2 Tim. 4:11). He did whatever Paul and Barnabas asked him to do—perhaps helping with baptisms and teaching new converts.

13:7 who was with the proconsul. Cyprus was a Roman senatorial province.

13:8 Elymas was the name given to Bar-Jesus by Greek-speaking acquaintances.

13:9 Saul, who was also known as Paul. Saul was his Jewish name and Paul his Roman or Gentile name. Both were given him at the time of his birth, but he now begins to use his Gentile name in this Gentile environment.

13:13 Why Mark returned home is not stated, but Paul evidently considered it unjustified (15:38), though later Mark and Paul were reconciled (2 Tim. 4:11).

13:14 Pisidian Antioch. Actually it was in Phrygia, but near the border of Pisidia. This Antioch was so called to distinguish it from the larger Antioch in Syria.

13:19 The four hundred and fifty years include 400 years in Egypt, plus 40 years in the wilderness wanderings and 10 years to conquer Canaan.

him, He raised up David to be their king, concerning whom He also testified and said, '[b]I HAVE FOUND DAVID the son of Jesse, A MAN AFTER MY HEART, who will do all My will.'

23"[a]From the descendants of this man, [b]according to promise, God has brought to Israel [c]a Savior, Jesus, 24 after [a]John had proclaimed before His coming a [b]baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.

25"And while John [a]was completing his course, [b]he kept saying, 'What do you suppose that I am? I am not He. But behold, one is coming after me the sandals of whose feet I am not worthy to untie.'

26"Brethren, sons of Abraham's family, and those among you who fear God, to us the message of [a]this salvation has been sent.

27"For those who live in Jerusalem, and their [a]rulers, [b]recognizing neither Him nor the utterances of [c]the prophets which are [d]read every Sabbath, fulfilled these by condemning Him.

28"And though they found no ground for putting Him to death, they [a]asked Pilate that He be executed.

29"When they had [a]carried out all that was written concerning Him, [b]they took Him down from [c]the cross and [d]laid Him in a tomb.

30"But God [a]raised Him from the dead;

31 and for many days [a]He appeared to those who came up with Him from Galilee to Jerusalem, the very ones who are now [b]His witnesses to the people.

32"And we [a]preach to you the good news of [b]the promise made to the fathers,

33 that God has fulfilled this promise to our children in that He [a]raised up Jesus, as it is also written in the second Psalm, '[b]YOU ARE MY SON; TODAY I HAVE BEGOTTEN YOU.'

34"As for the fact that He [a]raised Him up from the dead, no more to return to decay, He has spoken in this way: '[b]I WILL GIVE YOU THE HOLY and SURE blessings OF DAVID.'

35"Therefore He also says in another Psalm, '[a]YOU WILL NOT ALLOW YOUR HOLY ONE TO UNDERGO DECAY.'

36"For [a]David, after he had served [b]the purpose of God in his own generation, [c]fell asleep, and was laid among his fathers and underwent decay;

37 but He whom God [a]raised did not undergo decay.

38"Therefore let it be known to you, brethren, that [a]through Him forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you,

39 and through Him [a]everyone who believes is freed from all things, from which you could not be freed through the Law of Moses.

40"Therefore take heed, so that the thing spoken of [a]in the Prophets may not come upon you:

41 '[a]BEHOLD, YOU SCOFFERS, AND MARVEL , AND PERISH;
FOR I AM ACCOMPLISHING A WORK IN YOUR DAYS,
A WORK WHICH YOU WILL NEVER BELIEVE, THOUGH SOMEONE SHOULD DESCRIBE IT TO YOU.' "

42 As Paul and Barnabas were going out, the people kept begging that these things might be spoken to them the next [a]Sabbath.

43 Now when the meeting of the synagogue had broken up, many of the Jews and of the [a]God-fearing [b]proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas, who, speaking to them, were urging them to continue in [c]the grace of God.

13:39 A startling statement: What the law could not do (justify a person, or declare him righteous) Jesus Christ can do (cf. Rom. 3:20, 24).

the whole city assembled to hear the word of the Lord.

13:45 45 But when [a]the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and began contradicting the things spoken by Paul, and were blaspheming.

13:46 46 Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly and said, "It was necessary that the word of God be spoken to you [a]first; since you repudiate it and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, behold, [b]we are turning to the Gentiles.

13:47 47 "For so the Lord has commanded us,

> '[a]I HAVE PLACED YOU AS A
> [b]LIGHT FOR THE GENTILES,
> THAT YOU MAY BRING SALVATION
> TO THE END OF THE EARTH.' "

13:48 48 When the Gentiles heard this, they began rejoicing and glorifying [a]the word of the Lord; and as many as [b]had been appointed to eternal life believed.

13:49 49 And [a]the word of the Lord was being spread through the whole region.

13:50 50 But [a]the Jews incited the [b]devout women [c]of prominence and the leading men of the city, and instigated a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and drove them out of their district.

13:51 51 But [a]they shook off the dust of their feet in protest against them and went to [b]Iconium.

13:52 52 And the disciples were continually [a]filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

14:1 14 In [a]Iconium [b]they entered the synagogue of the Jews together, and spoke in such a manner [c]that a large number of people believed, both of Jews and of [d]Greeks.

14:2 2 But [a]the Jews who [b]disbelieved stirred up the minds of the Gentiles and embittered them against [c]the brethren.

14:3 3 Therefore they spent a long time there [a]speaking boldly with reliance upon the Lord, who was testifying to the word of His grace, granting that [b]signs and wonders be done by their hands.

14:4 4 [a]But the people of the city were divided; and some sided with [b]the Jews, and some with [c]the apostles.

14:5 5 And when an attempt was made by both the Gentiles and [a]the Jews with their rulers, to mistreat and to [b]stone them,

14:6 6 they became aware of it and fled to the cities of [a]Lycaonia, [b]Lystra and [c]Derbe, and the surrounding region;

14:7 7 and there they continued to [a]preach the gospel.

14:8 8 At [a]Lystra [b]a man was sitting who had no strength in his feet, lame from his mother's womb, who had never walked.

14:9 9 This man was listening to Paul as he spoke, who, [a]when he had fixed his gaze on him and had seen that he had [b]faith to be made well,

14:10 10 said with a loud voice, "Stand upright on your feet." [a]And he leaped up and began to walk.

14:11 11 When the crowds saw what Paul had done, they raised their voice, saying in the [a]Lycaonian language, "[b]The gods have become like men and have come down to us."

14:12 12 And they began calling Barnabas, Zeus, and Paul, Hermes, because he was the chief speaker.

13:48 they began rejoicing. The Gentiles' reception and the Jews' rejection (v. 50) of the gospel is, from here on, a recurring theme in Acts.

13:51 they shook off the dust. A good Jew took pains not to carry back into Palestine any dust from non-Jewish countries. To "shake off the dust" was a vivid gesture of complete break of fellowship and renunciation of responsibility for the person or community gestured at. See Christ's command at Luke 9:5; 10:11; and note on Mark 6:11.

14:3 The miraculous signs and wonders confirmed the truthfulness of the message (2 Cor. 12:12).

14:6 Lystra. About 20 mi (32 km) from Iconium.

14:12 Zeus. The chief god of the Greek Pantheon. Hermes. The patron god of orators. In two Greek legends connected with Lystra (and familiar to Paul's listeners), Zeus and Hermes had "become like men" and come down (v. 11).

13 The priest of Zeus, whose temple was just outside the city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, and [a]wanted to offer sacrifice with the crowds.

14 But when [a]the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard of it, they [b]tore their robes and rushed out into the crowd, crying out

15 and saying, "Men, why are you doing these things? We are also [a]men of the same nature as you, and [b]preach the gospel to you that you should turn from these [c]vain things to a [d]living God, [e]WHO MADE THE HEAVEN AND THE EARTH AND THE SEA AND ALL THAT IS IN THEM.

16 "In the generations gone by He [a]permitted all the nations to [b]go their own ways;

17 and yet [a]He did not leave Himself without witness, in that He did good and [b]gave you rains from heaven and fruitful seasons, satisfying your hearts with food and gladness."

18 Even saying these things, with difficulty they restrained the crowds from offering sacrifice to them.

19 But [a]Jews came from [b]Antioch and [c]Iconium, and having won over the crowds, they [d]stoned Paul and dragged him out of the city, supposing him to be dead.

20 But while [a]the disciples stood around him, he got up and entered the city. The next day he went away with Barnabas to [b]Derbe.

4 Events on the return to Antioch, 14:21–28

21 After they had [a]preached the gospel to that city and had [b]made many disciples, they returned to [c]Lystra and to [d]Iconium and to [e]Antioch,

22 strengthening the souls of [a]the disciples, encouraging them to continue in [b]the faith, and saying, "[c]Through many tribulations we must enter the kingdom of God."

23 When [a]they had appointed [b]elders for them in every church, having [c]prayed with fasting, they [d]commended them to the Lord in whom they had believed.

24 They passed through [a]Pisidia and came into [b]Pamphylia.

25 When they had spoken the word in [a]Perga, they went down to Attalia.

26 From there they sailed to [a]Antioch, from [b]which they had been [c]commended to the grace of God for the work that they had accomplished.

27 When they had arrived and gathered the church together, they began to [a]report all things that God had done with them and how He had opened a [b]door of faith to the Gentiles.

28 And they spent a long time with [a]the disciples.

14:19 they stoned Paul. After suffering the crushing blows of the stones, the victim was dragged outside the city and left to the dogs and beasts. It was a miracle that Paul could get up and leave the next day. It is possible that he received the marks spoken of in Gal. 6:17 during this stoning.

14:23 appointed elders. Though recently converted, these elders were likely Jews who knew the Scriptures. See note on 1 Tim. 3:1.

15:1 Unless you are circumcised . . . you cannot be saved. The problems raised by the presence of Gentiles in the church now came to a head. Peter had learned that no man should be called unclean—not even a Gentile (10:34), and the Jerusalem church had accepted the first Gentile converts on an equal basis with Jewish converts, without the necessity of being circumcised. However, some believing Pharisees (v. 5) went on the offensive and insisted that Gentile converts be circumcised. A parallel question was also being raised: Should there be unrestricted social contact between Jewish and Gentile Christians? The Judaistic party separated themselves from those who did not follow the dietary laws and would not partake of the common meals. Chapter 15 is concerned with these two questions: circumcision and foods (socializing). Had the division over these questions prevailed, the unity of the church would have been shattered from the start.

teaching [b]the brethren, "Unless you are [c]circumcised according to [d]the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved."

2 And when Paul and Barnabas had great dissension and [a]debate with them, [b]the brethren determined that Paul and Barnabas and some others of them should go up to Jerusalem to the [c]apostles and elders concerning this issue.

3 Therefore, being [a]sent on their way by the church, they were passing through both [b]Phoenicia and Samaria, [c]describing in detail the conversion of the Gentiles, and were bringing great joy to all [d]the brethren.

4 When they arrived at Jerusalem, they were received by the church and [a]the apostles and the elders, and they [b]reported all that God had done with them.

5 But some of [a]the sect of the [b]Pharisees who had believed stood up, saying, "It is necessary to [c]circumcise them and to direct them to observe the Law of Moses."

2 The discussion, 15:6–18

6 [a]The apostles and the elders came together to look into this matter.

7 After there had been much [a]debate, Peter stood up and said to them, "Brethren, you know that in the early days [b]God made a choice among you, that by my mouth the Gentiles would hear the word of [c]the gospel and believe.

8 "And God, [a]who knows the heart, testified to them [b]giving them the Holy Spirit, just as He also did to us;

9 and [a]He made no distinction between us and them, [b]cleansing their hearts by faith.

10 "Now therefore why do you [a]put God to the test by placing upon the neck of the disciples a yoke which [b]neither our fathers nor we have been able to bear?

11 "But we believe that we are saved through [a]the grace of the Lord Jesus, in the same way as they also are."

12 All the people kept silent, and they were listening to Barnabas and Paul as they were [a]relating what [b]signs and wonders God had done through them among the Gentiles.

13 After they had stopped speaking, [a]James answered, saying, "Brethren, listen to me.

14 "[a]Simeon has related how God first concerned Himself about taking from among the Gentiles a people for His name.

15 "With this the words of [a]the Prophets agree, just as it is written,

16 '[a]AFTER THESE THINGS [b]I will return,
AND I WILL REBUILD THE TABERNACLE OF DAVID WHICH HAS FALLEN, AND I WILL REBUILD ITS RUINS,
AND I WILL RESTORE IT,

17 [a]SO THAT THE REST OF MANKIND MAY SEEK THE LORD,
AND ALL THE GENTILES [b]WHO ARE CALLED BY MY NAME,'

18 [a]SAYS THE LORD, WHO [b]MAKES THESE THINGS KNOWN FROM LONG AGO.

15:7 by my mouth the Gentiles. A reference to Peter's ministry in the house of Cornelius (10:44).

15:10 a yoke. I.e., the law, which with its interpretive additions had become a burden, literally almost impossible to keep.

15:11 Peter means that both Jew and Gentile will be saved through grace without the yoke of the law or the rite of circumcision.

15:13 James. See note on Matt. 4:21 and the Introduction to James.

15:15–17 The quotation is from the LXX version of Amos 9:11–12. James specifies that the prophecy of Amos will be fulfilled AFTER THESE THINGS, i.e., after the present worldwide witness. Then, after the return of Christ, the TABERNACLE OF DAVID (in the millennial kingdom) will be established, and Jew and Gentile will know the Lord. James assured the council that God's program for Israel had not been abandoned by the coming of Gentiles into the church.

15:19 we do not trouble those. The clear verdict of James, as president of the council, was that Gentile converts need not be circumcised.

15:20 In order to promote peace between Jewish and Gentile believers, the Gentiles were asked to abstain from any practice abhorrent to Jewish Christians. The Jewish Christians would then socialize with them (cf. 1 Cor. 8:13). contaminated by idols. Gentiles used idols' temples for banquets (cf. 1 Cor. 10:14–22 and the note there). fornication. It does not seem likely that the word means illicit sexual relations in this instance (though it does elsewhere), for this would be wrong for any Christian, Gentile or Jew. It evidently has the special meaning here of marriages contracted between too-near relatives, as forbidden in Lev. 18. The blood needed to be drained from slaughtered animals.

15:26 risked their lives. For some of the risks incurred, see 13:50; 14:5, 19.

15:29 do well. I.e., act rightly.

C The Second Missionary Journey, 15:36–18:22

1 The personnel chosen, 15:36–40

15:36 36 After some days Paul said to Barnabas, "Let us return and visit the brethren in [a]every city in which we proclaimed [b]the word of the Lord, and see how they are."

15:37 37 Barnabas wanted to take [a]John, called Mark, along with them also.

15:38 38 But Paul kept insisting that they should not take him along who had [a]deserted them in Pamphylia and had not gone with them to the work.

15:39 39 And there occurred such a sharp disagreement that they separated from one another, and Barnabas took [a]Mark with him and sailed away to [b]Cyprus.

15:40 40 But Paul chose [a]Silas and left, being [b]committed by the brethren to the grace of the Lord.

2 The churches revisited, 15:41–16:5

41 And he was traveling through [a]Syria and [b]Cilicia, strengthening the churches.

16 Paul came also to [a]Derbe and to [a]Lystra. And a disciple was there, named [b]Timothy, the son of a [c]Jewish woman who was a believer, but his father was a Greek,

2 and he was well spoken of by [a]the brethren who were in [b]Lystra and [c]Iconium.

3 Paul wanted this man to go with him; and he [a]took him and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those parts, for they all knew that his father was a Greek.

4 Now while they were passing through the cities, they were delivering [a]the decrees which had been decided upon by [b]the apostles and [c]elders who were in Jerusalem, for them to observe.

5 So [a]the churches were being strengthened in the faith, and were [b]increasing in number daily.

3 The call to Europe, 16:6–10

6 They passed through the [a]Phrygian and [b]Galatian region, having been forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in [c]Asia;

7 and after they came to [a]Mysia, they were trying to go into [b]Bithynia, and the [c]Spirit of Jesus did not permit them;

8 and passing by [a]Mysia, they came down to [b]Troas.

9 [a]A vision appeared to Paul in the night: a man of [b]Macedonia was standing and appealing to him, and saying, "Come over to Macedonia and help us."

10 When he had seen [a]the vision, immediately [b]we sought to go into Macedonia, concluding

15:36 The second missionary trip was not planned to reach out to areas beyond those on the first trip but to return to the churches established on the first journey. God, however, had additional plans.

15:39 they separated from one another. Here is an example of separation because of personality or practicality, not doctrine, and it seemed to be the only solution to the problem. God brought good out of it in that two missionary teams were sent out, and Barnabas's continued interest in John Mark rescued him from possible uselessness. (For separation on doctrinal grounds, see Gal. 1:8; 2 Thess. 3:14; 2 Tim. 2:18; 1 John 2:18; 2 John 10.)

16:1 Timothy. See Introduction to 1 Timothy.

16:3 circumcised him. The Jerusalem council had declared that circumcision was not necessary for salvation or for acceptance into the Christian church (15:19), but because of Timothy's part-Jewish background it seemed expedient in his case, in order to enlarge his local usefulness in witnessing. In the case of Gentile Titus, Paul insisted that he not be circumcised (Gal. 2:3).

16:4 the decrees. The decisions arrived at in Jerusalem in 15:23–29.

16:6 Paul traveled in a northwesterly direction around Asia, to Troas and on to Greece. On the location of the Galatian region, see the Introduction to Galatians.

16:9 Although the man of Macedonia represented all the culture, intelligence, religion, and achievements of Greek civilization, he was spiritually bankrupt.

16:10 we. Luke joined Paul and his group at Troas and went with them to Philippi, where he remained when the others left (v. 40). Six or seven years later he rejoined Paul (20:5) and remained with him until the end of the narrative.

12 and from there to [a] Philippi, which is a leading city of the district of [b] Macedonia, [c] a Roman colony; and we were staying in this city for some days.

13 And on [a] the Sabbath day we went outside the gate to a riverside, where we were supposing that there would be a place of prayer; and we sat down and began speaking to the women who had assembled.

14 A woman named Lydia, from the city of [a] Thyatira, a seller of purple fabrics, [b] a worshiper of God, was listening; and the Lord [c] opened her heart to respond to the things spoken by Paul.

*16:15 [a] Acts 11:14

15 And when she and [a] her household had been baptized, she urged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house and stay." And she prevailed upon us.

16:11 Neapolis was the seaport for Philippi, about 10 mi (16 km) away.

16:12 Philippi. See the Introduction to Philippians. a Roman colony was like a piece of Rome transplanted abroad so that those who held citizenship in a colony enjoyed the same rights they would have had if they had lived in Italy. Other colonies mentioned in Acts are Pisidian Antioch, Lystra, Troas, Ptolemais, and Corinth.

16:13 outside the gate to a riverside. Apparently there was no synagogue in Philippi; it required at least 10 Jewish men to organize one.

16:14 seller of purple fabrics. Thyatira in Asia Minor was famous for its purple dye.

16:15 her household. Associates and/or servants and perhaps children.

16:16 16 It happened that as we were going to [a]the place of prayer, a slave-girl having [b]a spirit of divination met us, who was bringing her masters much profit by fortune-telling.

16:17 17 Following after Paul and us, she kept crying out, saying, "These men are bond-servants of [a]the Most High God, who are proclaiming to you the way of salvation."

16:18 18 She continued doing this for many days. But Paul was greatly annoyed, and turned and said to the spirit, "I command you [a]in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her!" And it came out at that very moment.

16:19 19 But when her masters saw that their hope of [a]profit was gone, they seized [b]Paul and Silas and [c]dragged them into the market place before the authorities,

16:20 20 and when they had brought them to the chief magistrates, they said, "These men are throwing our city into confusion, being Jews,

16:21 21 and [a]are proclaiming customs which it is not lawful for us to accept or to observe, being [b]Romans."

16:22 22 The crowd rose up together against them, and the chief magistrates tore their robes off them and proceeded to order them to be [a]beaten with rods.

16:23 23 When they had struck them with many blows, they threw them into prison, commanding [a]the jailer to guard them securely;

16:24 24 and he, having received such a command, threw them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in [a]the stocks.

16:25 25 But about midnight [a]Paul and Silas were praying and [b]singing hymns of praise to God, and the prisoners were listening to them;

16:26 26 and suddenly [a]there came a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison house were shaken; and immediately [b]all the doors were opened and everyone's [c]chains were unfastened.

16:27 27 When [a]the jailer awoke and saw the prison doors opened, he drew his sword and was about [b]to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped.

28 But Paul cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Do not harm yourself, for we are all here!"

16:29 29 And he called for lights and rushed in, and trembling with fear he fell down before [a]Paul and Silas,

16:30 30 and after he brought them out, he said, "Sirs, [a]what must I do to be saved?"

16:31 31 They said, "[a]Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and [b]your household."

32 And they spoke the word of the Lord to him together with all who were in his house.

16:33 33 And he took them [a]that very hour of the night and washed their wounds, and immediately he was baptized, he and all his household.

16:34 34 And he brought them into his house and set food before them, and rejoiced greatly, having believed in God with [a]his whole household.

35 Now when day came, the chief magistrates sent their policemen, saying, "Release those men."

16:36 36 And [a]the jailer reported these words to Paul, saying, "The chief magistrates have sent to release you. Therefore come out now and go [b]in peace."

16:16 a spirit of divination. The girl was demon-possessed and was being exploited by her masters (v. 19).

16:20 throwing our city into confusion, being Jews. Judaism was not a prohibited religion (the cult of the emperor being the official religion), but propagating it was regarded as a menace. Paul and Silas were regarded as Jews, since, at this time, the Romans considered Christianity to be a Jewish sect. See also note on 18:14–16.

16:31 and your household. These words must be connected with "believe" as well as "be saved." Each member of the household must believe in order to be saved.

---

16:37 are Romans. Paul was born a Roman citizen (22:28), which gave him certain rights, including a public hearing. Scourging of any Roman citizen was prohibited by law; the rights of Paul and Silas, therefore, had already been violated.

17:1 Thessalonica. About 100 mi (160 km) from Philippi. See the Introduction to 1 Thessalonians.

17:2 three Sabbaths. The time spent witnessing to the Jews. In addition, Paul must have had a longer ministry speaking to Gentiles outside the synagogue.

17:9 received a pledge from Jason. The authorities made Jason put up a bond, forfeitable if there was further trouble.

17:11 more noble-minded in their character, shown by their open-minded examination of the Scriptures.

17:15 [c]Silas and Timothy to [d]come to him as soon as possible, they left.
16 Now while Paul was waiting for them at [a]Athens, his spirit was being provoked within him as he was observing the city full of idols.
17 So he was reasoning [a]in the synagogue with the Jews and [b]the God-fearing Gentiles, and in the market place every day with those who happened to be present.
18 And also some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers were conversing with him. Some were saying, "What would [a]this idle babbler wish to say?" Others, "He seems to be a proclaimer of strange deities,"—because he was preaching [b]Jesus and the resurrection.
19 And they [a]took him and brought him to the [b]Areopagus, saying, "May we know what [c]this new teaching is which you are proclaiming?
20"For you are bringing some strange things to our ears; so we want to know what these things mean."
21 (Now all the Athenians and the strangers [a]visiting there used to spend their time in nothing other than telling or hearing something new.)
22 So Paul stood in the midst of the Areopagus and said, "Men of [a]Athens, I observe that you are very [b]religious in all respects.
23"For while I was passing through and examining the [a]objects of your worship, I also found an altar with this inscription, 'TO AN UNKNOWN GOD.' Therefore what [b]you worship in ignorance, this I proclaim to you.
24"[a]The God who made the world and all things in it, since He is [b]Lord of heaven and earth, does not [c]dwell in temples made with hands;
25 neither is He served by human hands, [a]as though He needed anything, since He Himself gives to all people life and breath and all things;
26 and [a]He made from one man every nation of mankind to live on all the face of the earth, having [b]determined their appointed times and the boundaries of their habitation,
27 that they would seek God, if perhaps they might grope for Him and find Him, [a]though He is not far from each one of us;
28 for [a]in Him we live and move and exist, as even some of your own poets have said, 'For we also are His children.'

30"Therefore having [a]overlooked [b]the times of ignorance, God is [c]now declaring to men that all people everywhere should repent,
31 because He has fixed [a]a day in which [b]He will judge [c]the world in righteousness through a Man whom He has [d]appointed, having furnished proof to all men by [e]raising Him from the dead."
32 Now when they heard of [a]the resurrection of the dead, some began to sneer, but others

17:18 Epicurean . . . philosophers. Philosopher-followers of Epicurus (341–270 B.C.), who believed that happiness was the chief end of life. The Stoic philosophers, who regarded Zeno (340–265 B.C.) as their founder and whose name came from Stoa Poikile (Painted Porch) where he taught in Athens, emphasized the rational over the emotional. They were pantheistic. Their ethics were characterized by moral earnestness and a high sense of duty, advocating conduct "according to nature."

17:19 Areopagus. The venerable council that had charge of religious and educational matters in Athens in Paul's time. It possibly met on the Hill of Ares W of the Acropolis, the hill also being known as the Areopagus, though some think it met in a building in the agora (marketplace).

17:24 Notice this echo of Stephen's words, which Paul had heard years before (7:48–50).

17:26 God has determined the exact times and places in history during which nations would emerge and live.

17:29 Being then the children of God, not in the sense that all have something of the divine in them, nor that all are His redeemed children, but that all people were created and given life by God.

34 But some men joined him and believed, among whom also were Dionysius the [a]Areopagite and a woman named Damaris and others with them.

18 After these things he left [a]Athens and went to [b]Corinth.

2 And he found a Jew named [a]Aquila, a native of [b]Pontus, having recently come from [c]Italy with his wife [a]Priscilla, because [d]Claudius had commanded all the Jews to leave Rome. He came to them,

3 and because he was of the same trade, he stayed with them and [a]they were working, for by trade they were tent-makers.

4 And he was reasoning [a]in the synagogue every [b]Sabbath and trying to persuade [c]Jews and Greeks.

5 But when [a]Silas and Timothy [b]came down from [c]Macedonia, Paul began devoting himself completely to the word, solemnly [d]testifying to the Jews that [e]Jesus was the Christ.

6 But when they resisted and blasphemed, he [a]shook out his garments and said to them, "Your [b]blood be on your own heads! I am clean. From now on I will go [c]to the Gentiles."

7 Then he left there and went to the house of a man named Titius Justus, [a]a worshiper of God, whose house was next to the synagogue.

11 And he settled there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 But while Gallio was [a]proconsul of [b]Achaia, [c]the Jews with one accord rose up against Paul and brought him before [d]the judgment seat,

18:14 [a] Matt 5:2

15 but if there are [a]questions about words and names and your own law, look after it yourselves; I am unwilling to be a judge of these matters."

16 And he drove them away from [a]the judgment seat.

18:16 [a] Matt 27:19

17 And they all took hold of 18:17

17:34 Dionysius the Areopagite. Membership in the Areopagus was a high distinction. There is no record of a church in Athens. Paul calls certain Corinthians the first converts on mainland Greece (1 Cor. 16:15).

18:1 Corinth. See the Introduction to 1 Corinthians.

18:2 Aquila . . . his wife Priscilla. See Rom. 16:3; 1 Cor. 16:19; 2 Tim. 4:19 (where Priscilla is called Prisca). because Claudius had commanded all the Jews to leave Rome. This imperial edict was issued in A.D. 49 or 50.

18:3 tent-makers. Jewish fathers were urged to teach their sons a trade, and Paul learned tentmaking, an important industry in Tarsus.

18:12 proconsul. Gallio was proconsul of Achaia in A.D. 51. He was characterized by contemporaries as an amiable, witty, and lovable person.

18:14–16 Judaism was a "licensed religion" under Roman law. Christianity could take advantage of this protection as long as it sheltered itself under the tent of Judaism. The Jews must have complained that these Christians were not a division or sect of Judaism, and Gallio refuses to see it their way. He says, in effect, "Settle your own religious squabbles yourselves." This ruling was probably important for the spread of the gospel. See also note on 16:20.

18:17 Sosthenes became the victim of the Greeks' anti-Jewish feelings. Obviously he was the 18:17 [a]Sosthenes, [b]the leader of the synagogue, and began beating him in front of [c]the judgment seat. But Gallio was not concerned about any of these things.

7 The journey completed, 18:18–22

*18:18 18 Paul, having remained many days longer, [a]took leave of [b]the brethren and put out to sea for [c]Syria, and with him were [d]Priscilla and [d]Aquila. In [e]Cenchrea he [f]had his hair cut, for he was keeping a vow.

18:19 19 They came to [a]Ephesus, and he left them there. Now he himself entered [b]the synagogue and reasoned with the Jews.

20 When they asked him to stay for a longer time, he did not consent,

21 but [a]taking leave of them and saying, "I will return to you again [b]if God wills," he set sail from [c]Ephesus.

22 When he had landed at [a]Caesarea, he went up and greeted the church, and went down to [b]Antioch.

D The Third Missionary Journey, 18:23–21:26

18:23 23 And having spent some time there, he left and passed successively through the [a]Galatian region and Phrygia, strengthening all the disciples.

*18:24 24 Now a Jew named [a]Apollos, an [b]Alexandrian by birth, an eloquent man, came to [c]Ephesus; and he was mighty in the Scriptures.

25 This man had been instructed in [a]the way of the Lord; and being fervent in spirit, he was speaking and teaching accurately the things concerning Jesus, being acquainted only with [b]the baptism of John;

18:26 26 and he began to speak out boldly in the synagogue. But when [a]Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside and explained to him [b]the way of God more accurately.

18:27 27 And when he wanted to go across to [a]Achaia, [b]the brethren encouraged him and wrote to [c]the disciples to welcome him; and when he had arrived, he greatly helped those who had believed through grace, 18:28 28 for he powerfully refuted the Jews in public, demonstrating [a]by the Scriptures that [b]Jesus was the Christ.

*19:1 19 It happened that while [a]Apollos was at [b]Corinth, Paul passed through the [c]upper country and came to [d]Ephesus, and found some disciples.

2 He said to them, "[a]Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?" And they said to him, "No, [b]we have not even heard whether there is a Holy Spirit."

3 And he said, "Into what then were you baptized?" And they said, "[a]Into John's baptism."

4 Paul said, "[a]John baptized with the baptism of repentance, telling the people [b]to believe in Him who was coming after him, that is, in Jesus."

head of the anti-Pauline faction in the synagogue and a Jew. If this is the same Sosthenes mentioned in 1 Cor. 1:1, perhaps the beating helped him to become a Christian!

18:18 he had his hair cut. The sign of the conclusion of a Nazirite vow (Num. 6:18; Acts 21:24). Just why he took the vow is not known. Cenchrea. The eastern port of Corinth. During his time in Corinth, Paul wrote 1 and 2 Thessalonians.

18:24 Apollos. See note on 1 Cor. 1:12.

18:25 Apollos's message was deficient since he knew only the baptism of John, in contrast to all that Christian baptism stands for.

19:5 they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. Though these men had been baptized by John the Baptist, baptism in the name of Christ was in order as a testimony to their new faith in Christ.

19:5 were [a]baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

6 And when Paul had [a]laid his hands upon them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they began [b]speaking with tongues and [c]prophesying.

10 This took place for [a]two years, so that all who lived in [b]Asia heard [c]the word of the Lord, both Jews and Greeks.

11 God was performing [a]extraordinary miracles by the hands of Paul,

19:8 synagogue. Again Paul, on arriving at a city, used the synagogue as his center of witness.

19:9 The school (i.e., lecture hall) owned by Tyrannus was probably used by him to teach students of rhetoric. He also made it available to traveling philosophers or teachers.

19:10 It was an astounding accomplishment that all in Asia Minor should have heard (not necessarily believed) the gospel. Undoubtedly accomplished mostly by ordinary believers witnessing as they went about their business throughout the region. Churches in Colossae, Laodicea, Hierapolis, and perhaps some of those in Rev. 2–3 were established during these two to three years.

19:11 extraordinary miracles. On other occasions Paul did not have this power (2 Cor. 12:8; Phil. 2:27; 1 Tim. 5:23; 2 Tim. 4:20).

19:13 These exorcists were magicians who could cast out demons. The lesson of this story (vv. 13–17) is that to use the name of Jesus effec-

19:13 [a]Matt 12:27; Luke 11:19

[a]exorcists, who went from place to place, attempted to name over those who had the evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, "I adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preaches."

14 Seven sons of one Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, were doing this.

15 And the evil spirit answered and said to them, "I recognize Jesus, and I know about Paul, but who are you?"

16 And the man, in whom was the evil spirit, leaped on them and subdued all of them and overpowered them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

19:17 [a]Acts 18:19

17 This became known to all, both Jews and Greeks, who lived in [a]Ephesus; and fear fell upon them all and the name of the Lord Jesus was being magnified.

18 Many also of those who had believed kept coming, confessing and disclosing their practices.

19:19 [a]Luke 15:8

19 And many of those who practiced magic brought their books together and began burning them in the sight of everyone; and they counted up the price of them and found it fifty thousand [a]pieces of silver.

20 So [a]the word of the Lord [b]was growing mightily and prevailing.

21 Now after these things were finished, Paul purposed in the spirit to [a]go to Jerusalem [b]after he had passed through [c]Macedonia and [d]Achaia, saying, "After I have been there, [e]I must also see Rome."

22 And having sent into [a]Macedonia two of [b]those who ministered to him, [c]Timothy and [d]Erastus, he himself stayed in [e]Asia for a while.

tively in exorcism one must be totally devoted to Him. Contrary to theories of magic of the time, the name by itself could do nothing; this misuse, in fact, backfired (v. 16).

19:19 magic. Magical spells written on scrolls. fifty thousand pieces of silver. If the silver drachma is meant, the value would have been the equivalent of about 138 years' pay for a rural worker.

19:24 silver shrines. Small shrines in a niche, representing Artemis (Latin, Diana), for worshipers to dedicate in the temple. No silver ones have been found, only some in terra-cotta. bringing no little business. Big profits are clearly implied.

19:27 The gospel was endangering the business of these idol-makers. In order to stir up opposition against the Christians, the craftsmen appealed to the civic pride of the Ephesians. The temple of Artemis was one of the Seven Wonders of the ancient world—a magnificent structure with 127 columns 60 feet high standing on an area 425 ft long and 220 ft wide (130 x 67 m).

34 But when they recognized that he was a Jew, a single outcry arose from them all as they shouted for about two hours, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"

19:35 [a]Acts 18:19
35 After quieting the crowd, the town clerk *said, "Men of [a]Ephesus, what man is there after all who does not know that the city of the Ephesians is guardian of the temple of the great Artemis and of the image which fell down from heaven?

2 Greece, 20:1–6

20 After the uproar had ceased, Paul sent for [a]the disciples, and when he had exhorted them and taken his leave of them, he left [b]to go to [c]Macedonia.

20:1–4 Luke's brevity here, a mere mention of the missionary team and a journey through Macedonia revisiting established communities, suggests that Acts could have been a much longer book. 2 Cor. 2:12–13; 7:5–7 give further information about this period of Paul's activities.

20:22 Paul was being led by the Holy Spirit to go to Jerusalem, knowing that capture awaited him there (v. 23). Those who later tried to dissuade him (21:4) did so because they knew through the Spirit what was ahead for him.

36 When he had said these things, he [a]knelt down and prayed with them all.

37 And they began to weep aloud and [a]embraced Paul, and repeatedly kissed him,

21 When [a]we had parted from them and had set sail, we ran [b]a straight course to Cos and the next day to Rhodes and from there to Patara;

2 and having found a ship crossing over to [a]Phoenicia, we went aboard and set sail.

3 When we came in sight of [a]Cyprus, leaving it on the left, we kept sailing to [b]Syria and landed at [c]Tyre; for there the ship was to unload its cargo.

4 After looking up [a]the disciples, we stayed there seven days; and they kept telling Paul [b]through the Spirit not to set foot in Jerusalem.

5 When our days there were ended, we left and started on our journey, while they all, with wives and children, [a]escorted us until we were out of the city. After [b]kneeling down on the beach and praying, we said farewell to one another.

6 Then we went on board the ship, and they returned [a]home again.

7 When we had finished the voyage from [a]Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais, and after greeting [b]the brethren, we stayed with them for a day.

8 On the next day we left and came to [a]Caesarea, and entering the house of [b]Philip the [c]evangelist, who was [b]one of the seven, we stayed with him.

12 When we had heard this, we as well as the local residents began begging him [a]not to go up to Jerusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, "What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For [a]I am 21:20 The old division reappears. See note on 15:1.

21:21 Paul proclaimed that circumcision was not necessary to be saved, but the report that he told Gentiles not to circumcise their sons deliberately twisted Paul's words to foster animosity against him.

21:24 pay their expenses. Paul was being asked to pay the expenses involved in the offerings required at the completion of the Nazirite vow these four men had taken (cf. Num. 6:13–21). He was being urged to take actions that would indicate that he was, after all, a "middle-of-the-road" Jewish-Christian.

21:25 we wrote. See notes on 15:19; 15:20.

21:28 brought Greeks into the temple. Verse 29 explains that the crowd assumed (though it was untrue) that Paul had taken Trophimus, a Gentile, into the inner courts of the Temple, which were reserved for Jews only. This was an offense punishable by death.

he might find out the reason why they were shouting against him

25 But when they stretched 22:25 him out with thongs, Paul said to [a] Acts 16:37 the centurion who was standing by, "Is it lawful for you to scourge
[a]a man who is a Roman and uncondemned?"
26 When the centurion heard this, he went to the commander and told him, saying, "What are you about to do? For this man is a Roman."
27 The commander came and said to him, "Tell me, are you a Roman?" And he said, "Yes."
28 The commander answered, *22:28
"I acquired this citizenship with a large sum of money." And Paul said, "But I was actually born a citizen."
29 Therefore those who were 22:29

ately let go of him; and the commander also [b]was afraid when he found out that he was a Roman,

22:16 Lit., "Having arisen, be baptized; and wash away your sins, having called on the name of the Lord." Baptism does not wash away sins.

22:21–23 The reference to the Gentiles, joined with Paul's claiming a divine commission, set off the mob again.

22:24 People were scourged with a whip of leather thongs, the tips of which were imbedded with metal or bone pieces. Christ was scourged in this way (Matt. 27:26).

22:28 a large sum. In the reign of Claudius, contemporaneous with these events, Roman citizenship could be purchased for what would be a princely sum for a soldier. Somehow Paul's parents had earned Roman citizenship before Paul's birth. See note on 16:37.

22:29 [c] Acts 21:33 and because he had [c]put him in chains.

2 Paul brought before the Sanhedrin, 22:30–23:10

*22:30 [a] Acts 23:28 [b] Acts 21:33 [c] Matt 5:22 30 But on the next day, [a]wishing to know for certain why he had been accused by the Jews, he [b]released him and ordered the chief priests and all [c]the Council to assemble, and brought Paul down and set him before them.

23:1 [a] Acts 22:30; 23:6,15,20,28 [b] Acts 22:5 [c] Acts 24:16; 2 Cor 1:12; 2 Tim 1:3 23 Paul, looking intently at [a]the Council, said, "[b]Brethren, [c]I have lived my life with a perfectly good conscience before God up to this day."

*23:2 [a] Acts 24:1 [b] John 18:22 2 The high priest [a]Ananias commanded those standing beside him [b]to strike him on the mouth.

*23:3 [a] Matt 23:27 [b] Lev 19:15; Deut 25:2; John 7:51 3 Then Paul said to him, "God is going to strike you, [a]you whitewashed wall! Do you [b]sit to try me according to the Law, and in violation of the Law order me to be struck?"

4 But the bystanders said, "Do you revile God's high priest?"

*23:5 [a] Ex 22:28 5 And Paul said, "I was not aware, brethren, that he was high priest; for it is written, '[a]YOU SHALL NOT SPEAK EVIL OF A RULER OF YOUR PEOPLE.' "

*23:6 [a] Matt 3:7; 22:23 [b] Acts 22:30; 23:1,15,20,28 [c] Acts 22:5 [d] Acts 26:5; Phil 3:5 [e] Acts 24:15,21; 26:6 6 But perceiving that one group were [a]Sadducees and the other Pharisees, Paul began crying out in [b]the Council, "[c]Brethren, [d]I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees; I am on trial for [e]the hope and resurrection of the dead!"

7 As he said this, there occurred a dissension between the Pharisees and Sadducees, and the assembly was divided.

23:8 [a] Matt 22:23; Mark 12:18; Luke 20:27 8 For [a]the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, nor an angel, nor a spirit, but the Pharisees acknowledge them all.

23:9 [a] Mark 2:16; Luke 5:30 [b] Acts 23:29 [c] John 12:29; Acts 22:6ff 9 And there occurred a great uproar; and some of [a]the scribes of the Pharisaic party stood up and began to argue heatedly, saying, "[b]We find nothing wrong with this man; [c]suppose a spirit or an angel has spoken to him?"

23:10 [a] Acts 21:34; 23:16,32 10 And as a great dissension was developing, the commander was afraid Paul would be torn to pieces by them and ordered the troops to go down and take him away from them by force, and bring him into [a]the barracks.

3 Paul escorted to Caesarea, 23:11–35

*23:11 [a] Acts 18:9 [b] Matt 9:2 [c] Acts 19:21 [d] Luke 16:28; Acts 28:23 11 But on [a]the night immediately following, the Lord stood at his side and said, "[b]Take courage; for [c]as you have [d]solemnly witnessed to My cause at Jerusalem, so you must witness at Rome also."

23:12 [a] Acts 9:23; 23:30; 1 Thess 2:16 [b] Acts 23:14,21 12 When it was day, [a]the Jews formed a conspiracy and [b]bound themselves under an oath, saying that they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Paul.

13 There were more than forty who formed this plot.

23:14 [a] Acts 23:12,21 14 They came to the chief priests and the elders and said, "We have [a]bound ourselves under a solemn oath to taste nothing until we have killed Paul.

23:15 [a] Acts 22:30; 23:1,6,20,28 15 "Now therefore, you and [a]the Council notify the commander to bring him down to

---

22:30 the Council = the Sanhedrin. See note on Luke 22:66. Somehow the Sanhedrin had interposed itself so that Paul's case did not get directly and immediately referred to the Roman governor in Caesarea.

23:2 commanded . . . to strike him. Ananias (high priest about A.D. 48–58) was reportedly insolent and overbearing. He was probably angered at Paul's bold claims and ordered him struck.

23:3 whitewashed wall, meaning "hypocrite."

23:5 I was not aware, brethren, that he was high priest. Some think Paul's weak eyes caused him to fail to recognize the high priest; however, the remark may have been sarcasm—"I didn't think the high priest would ever speak like that!"

23:6 In effect Paul said, "I, a Pharisee by inheritance and training, can hardly be regarded as a subversive teacher!" He then proceeded to split the Sanhedrin into its two factions by mentioning the resurrection, which the Sadducees denied but the Pharisees believed.

23:11 Christ appeared to Paul four times: at his conversion (9:5), in Corinth (18:9–10), on his first visit to Jerusalem (22:17–18), and here during his last visit to Jerusalem.

you, as though you were going to determine his case by a more thorough investigation; and we for our part are ready to slay him before he comes near the place."

23:16 [a] Acts 21:34; 23:10,32

16 But the son of Paul's sister heard of their ambush, and he came and entered [a]the barracks and told Paul.

17 Paul called one of the centurions to him and said, "Lead this young man to the commander, for he has something to report to him."

23:18 [a] Eph 3:1

18 So he took him and led him to the commander and *said, "Paul [a]the prisoner called me to him and asked me to lead this young man to you since he has something to tell you."

19 The commander took him by the hand and stepping aside, began to inquire of him privately, "What is it that you have to report to me?"

23:20 [a] Acts 23:14f [b] Acts 22:30; 23:1,6,15,28

20 And he said, "[a]The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down tomorrow to [b]the Council, as though they were going to inquire somewhat more thoroughly about him.

23:21 [a] Acts 23:12,14 [b] Luke 11:54

21 "So do not listen to them, for more than forty of them are [a]lying in wait for him who have [b]bound themselves under a curse not to eat or drink until they slay him; and now they are ready and waiting for the promise from you."

22 So the commander let the young man go, instructing him, "Tell no one that you have notified me of these things."

23:23 [a] Acts 8:40; 23:33

23 And he called to him two of the centurions and said, "Get two hundred soldiers ready by the third hour of the night to proceed to [a]Caesarea, with seventy horsemen and two hundred spearmen."

24 They were also to provide mounts to put Paul on and bring him safely to [a]Felix the governor.

23:24 [a] Acts 23:26,33; 24:1,3,10; 25:14

25 And he wrote a letter having this form:

23:26 [a] Luke 1:3; Acts 24:3; 26:25 [b] Acts 15:23

26 "Claudius Lysias, to the [a]most excellent governor Felix, [b]greetings.

23:27 [a] Acts 21:32f [b] Acts 22:25-29

27 "When this man was arrested by the Jews and was about to be slain by them, [a]I came up to them with the troops and rescued him, [b]having learned that he was a Roman.

23:28 [a] Acts 22:30 [b] Acts 23:10 [c] Acts 23:1

28 "And [a]wanting to ascertain the charge for which they were accusing him, I [b]brought him down to their [c]Council;

23:29 [a] Acts 18:15; 25:19 [b] Acts 23:9; 25:25; 26:31; 28:18

29 and I found him to be accused over [a]questions about their Law, but under [b]no accusation deserving death or imprisonment.

23:30 [a] Acts 23:20f [b] Acts 9:24; 23:12 [c] Acts 23:35; 24:19; 25:16

30 "When I was [a]informed that there would be [b]a plot against the man, I sent him to you at once, also instructing [c]his accusers to bring charges against him before you."

23:31

31 So the soldiers, in accordance with their orders, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris.

23:32 [a] Acts 23:23 [b] Acts 23:10

32 But the next day, leaving [a]the horsemen to go on with him, they returned to [b]the barracks.

23:33 [a] Acts 8:40; 23:23 [b] Acts 23:24, 26; 24:1,3,10; 25:14

33 When these had come to [a]Caesarea and delivered the letter to [b]the governor, they also presented Paul to him.

34 When he had read it, he

23:16 son of Paul's sister. Only here is any mention made of Paul's immediate relatives.

23:24 Felix the governor. Roman procurator of Judea (A.D. 52 to probably 58) with headquarters in Caesarea.

23:31 Antipatris. A military post about halfway between Jerusalem and Caesarea.

23:34 from what province he was. Roman law required that this question be asked at the opening of a hearing, for Paul had the right to be tried in his home province or in the province where the alleged crime was committed. Tarsus was in Cilicia. Felix was a deputy of the legate of Syria and Cilicia, and so claimed the right to conduct the hearing, whichever choice Paul made. Such a detail is strong proof that Luke was with Paul at the hearing.

asked from what [a]province he was, and when he learned that [b]he was from Cilicia, 35 he said, "I will give you a hearing after your [a]accusers arrive also," giving orders for him to be [b]kept in Herod's Praetorium.

4 Paul's defense before Felix, 24:1–27

24 After [a]five days the high priest [b]Ananias came down with some elders, with an attorney named Tertullus, and they brought charges to [c]the governor against Paul.

2 After Paul had been summoned, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying to the governor,

"Since we have through you attained much peace, and since by your providence reforms are being carried out for this nation,

3 we acknowledge this in every way and everywhere, [a]most excellent Felix, with all thankfulness.

4"But, that I may not weary you any further, I beg you to grant us, by your kindness, a brief hearing.

5"For we have found this man a real pest and a fellow who stirs up dissension among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the [a]sect of the Nazarenes.

6"And he even tried to [a]desecrate the temple; and then we arrested him. [We wanted to judge him according to our own Law.

7"But Lysias the commander came along, and with much violence took him out of our hands,

8 ordering his accusers to come before you.] By examining him yourself concerning all these matters you will be able to ascertain the things of which we accuse him."

9 [a]The Jews also joined in the attack, asserting that these things were so.

10 When [a]the governor had nodded for him to speak, Paul responded:

"Knowing that for many years you have been a judge to this nation, I cheerfully make my defense, 11 since you can take note of the fact that no more than [a]twelve days ago I went up to Jerusalem to worship.

12"[a]Neither in the temple, nor in the synagogues, nor in the city itself did they find me carrying on a discussion with anyone or [b]causing a riot.

13"[a]Nor can they prove to you the charges of which they now accuse me.

14"But this I admit to you, that according to [a]the Way which they call a [b]sect I do serve [c]the God of our fathers, [d]believing everything that is in accordance with the Law and that is written in the Prophets;

15 having a hope in God, which [a]these men cherish themselves, that there shall certainly be a resurrection of both the righteous and the wicked.

16"In view of this, [a]I also do my best to maintain always a blameless conscience both before God and before men.

17"Now [a]after several years I [b]came to bring alms to my nation and to present offerings;

24:1 Ananias headed the group that presented the complaint against Paul. Tertullus (Roman name) was probably a lawyer hired by the Jews in Caesarea to present their case.

24:5 Tertullus broadened the charge and made it more serious in Roman eyes by, for the first time, accusing Paul of being an insurrectionist (stirs up dissension) as well as being a leader of the Nazarenes and desecrating the Temple (v. 6).

24:6–8 [We wanted to judge . . . to come before you] (vv. 6c–8a). Most mss. do not contain this portion of these verses.

24:8 Tertullus now argued that Lysias had exceeded his authority in removing Paul from trial by Jewish authorities on the charge of profaning the Temple.

24:11 twelve days minus the five days in Caesarea (v. 1) meant that Paul was in Jerusalem only seven days, too short a time to instigate a riot.

24:17 alms. The only mention in Acts of the collection Paul brought from the Gentiles to the poor in Jerusalem (cf. Rom. 15:25–28; 2 Cor. 8:13–14; 9:12–13).

cupied in the temple, having been [a]purified, without any [b]crowd or uproar. But there were some [c]Jews from Asia—

19 who ought to have been present before you and to [a]make accusation, if they should have anything against me.

20"Or else let these men themselves tell what misdeed they found when I stood before [a]the Council,

21 other than for this one statement which [a]I shouted out while standing among them, 'For the resurrection of the dead I am on trial before you today.' "

22 But Felix, having a more exact knowledge about [a]the Way, put them off, saying, "When Lysias the commander comes down, I will decide your case."

23 Then he gave orders to the centurion for him to be [a]kept in custody and yet [b]have some freedom, and not to prevent any of [c]his friends from ministering to him.

24 But some days later Felix arrived with Drusilla, his wife who was a Jewess, and sent for Paul and heard him speak about [a]faith in Christ Jesus.

25 But as he was discussing [a]righteousness, [b]self-control and [c]the judgment to come, Felix became frightened and said, "Go away for the present, and when I find time I will summon you."

26 At the same time too, he was hoping that [a]money would be given him by Paul; therefore he also used to send for him quite often and converse with him.

27 But after two years had passed, Felix was succeeded by Porcius [a]Festus, and [b]wishing to do the Jews a favor, Felix left Paul [c]imprisoned.

5 Paul's defense before Festus, 25:1–27

25 Festus then, having arrived in [a]the province, three days later went up to Jerusalem from [b]Caesarea.

2 And the chief priests and the leading men of the Jews [a]brought charges against Paul, and they were urging him,

3 requesting a concession against Paul, that he might have him brought to Jerusalem (at the same time, [a]setting an ambush to kill him on the way).

4 Festus then [a]answered that Paul [b]was being kept in custody at [c]Caesarea and that he himself was about to leave shortly.

5"Therefore," he *said, "let the influential men among you go there with me, and if there is anything wrong about the man, let them prosecute him."

6 After he had spent not more than eight or ten days among them, he went down to [a]Caesarea, and on the next day he took his seat on [b]the tribunal and ordered Paul to be brought.

7 After Paul arrived, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing [a]many and serious charges against him [b]which they could not prove,

8 while Paul said in his own defense, "[a]I have committed no offense either against the Law of the Jews or against the temple or against Caesar."

9 But Festus, [a]wishing to do the Jews a favor, answered Paul and said, "[b]Are you willing to go

25:1 to Jerusalem. Since there was much unrest, Festus thought it prudent to make an early visit to the religious capital, Jerusalem. The Jews saw in this an opportunity to ask that Paul be returned there. If the request were granted they would try to kill him on the way (v. 3).

25:17 [a]Matt 27:19; Acts 25:6,10
17 "So after they had assembled here, I did not delay, but on the next day took my seat on [a]the tribunal and ordered the man to be brought before me.

18 "When the accusers stood up, they began bringing charges against him not of such crimes as I was expecting,

19 but they simply had some [a]points of disagreement with him about their own [b]religion and about a dead man, Jesus, whom Paul asserted to be alive.

25:19 [a]Acts 18:15; 23:29 [b]Acts 17:22

20 "[a]Being at a loss how to investigate such matters, I asked whether he was willing to go to Jerusalem and there stand trial on these matters.

25:20 [a]Acts 25:9

21 "But when Paul [a]appealed to be held in custody for the Emperor's decision, I ordered him to be kept in custody until I send him to Caesar."

25:21 [a]Acts 25:11f

22 Then [a]Agrippa said to Festus, "I also would like to hear the man myself." "Tomorrow," he *said, "you shall hear him."

25:22 [a]Acts 9:15

23 So, on the next day when [a]Agrippa came together with [a]Bernice amid great pomp, and entered the auditorium accompanied by the commanders and the prominent men of the city, at the command of Festus, Paul was brought in.

25:23 [a]Acts 25:13; 26:30

24 Festus *said, "King Agrippa, and all you gentlemen here present with us, you see this man about whom [a]all the people of the Jews appealed to me, both at Jerusalem and here, loudly declaring that [b]he ought not to live any longer.

25:24 [a]Acts 25:2,7 [b]Acts 22:22

25 "But I found that he had committed [a]nothing worthy of death; and since he himself [b]appealed to the Emperor, I decided to send him.

25:25 [a]Luke 23:4; Acts 23:29 [b]Acts 25:11f

26 "Yet I have nothing definite about him to write to my lord. Therefore I have brought him before you all and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that after the investigation has taken place, I may have something to write.

27 "For it seems absurd to me in 25:11 I appeal to Caesar. Festus's suggestion that Paul appear in Jerusalem for trial (v. 9) provoked this appeal to Caesar. Paul realized that the trial would not be impartial if conducted by Festus, especially if the case were transferred to Jerusalem, and that he would be in great danger if he was returned to the jurisdiction of the Sanhedrin. The right of appeal was one of the most ancient and cherished rights of a Roman citizen. Nero was emperor at this time (A.D. 54–68).

25:12 his council. Festus's advisors.

25:13 Agrippa. Herod Agrippa II, son of Herod Agrippa I (12:1) and great-grandson of Herod the Great (Matt. 2:1), both of whose territories he ultimately ruled under Rome's jurisdiction. Bernice was his sister, with whom he was living incestuously. Paul was not required to defend himself before them, since he had already appealed to Caesar, but he took this opportunity to witness to the Jewish king.

sending a prisoner, not to indicate also the charges against him."

6 Paul's defense before Agrippa, 26:1–32

26:1 [a]Acts 9:15

26 [a]Agrippa said to Paul, "You are permitted to speak for yourself." Then Paul stretched out his hand and proceeded to make his defense:

2"In regard to all the things of which I am accused by the Jews, I consider myself fortunate, King Agrippa, that I am about to make my defense before you today;

26:3 [a]Acts 6:14; 25:19; 26:7

3 especially because you are an expert in all [a]customs and questions among the Jews; therefore I beg you to listen to me patiently.

26:4 [a]Gal 1:13f; Phil 3:5

4"So then, all Jews know [a]my manner of life from my youth up, which from the beginning was spent among my own nation and at Jerusalem;

26:5 [a]Acts 23:6; Phil 3:5 [b]Acts 22:3 [c]Acts 15:5

5 since they have known about me for a long time, if they are willing to testify, that I lived as a [a]Pharisee [b]according to the strictest [c]sect of our religion.

26:6 [a]Acts 24:15; 28:20 [b]Acts 13:32

6"And now I am standing trial [a]for the hope of [b]the promise made by God to our fathers;

26:7 [a]James 1:1 [b]Acts 24:15; 28:20 [c]Acts 26:2

7 the promise [a]to which our twelve tribes hope to attain, as they earnestly serve God night and day. And for this [b]hope, O King, I am being [c]accused by Jews.

26:8 [a]Acts 23:6

8"Why is it considered incredible among you people [a]if God does raise the dead?

26:9 [a]John 16:2; 1 Tim 1:13 [b]John 15:21

9"So then, [a]I thought to myself that I had to do many things hostile to [b]the name of Jesus of Nazareth.

26:10 [a]Acts 8:3; 9:13

10"And this is just what I [a]did in Jerusalem; not only did I lock up many of the saints in prisons, having [b]received authority from the chief priests, but also when they were being put to death I [c]cast my vote against them.

26:10 [b]Acts 9:1f [c]Acts 22:20

26:11 [a]Matt 10:17; Acts 22:19 [b]Acts 9:1 [c]Acts 22:5

11"And [a]as I punished them often in all the synagogues, I tried to force them to blaspheme; and being [b]furiously enraged at them, I kept pursuing them [c]even to foreign cities.

26:12 [a]Acts 26:12-18; 9:3-8; 22:6-11

12"While so engaged [a]as I was journeying to Damascus with the authority and commission of the chief priests,

13 at midday, O King, I saw on the way a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, shining all around me and those who were journeying with me.

26:14 [a]Acts 9:7 [b]Acts 21:40

14"And when we had [a]all fallen to the ground, I heard a voice saying to me in the [b]Hebrew dialect, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.'

15"And I said, 'Who are You, Lord?' And the Lord said, 'I am Jesus whom you are persecuting.

26:6 the promise. I.e., the Messiah (Gen. 22:18; 49:10).

26:8 That Paul preached the resurrection of Jesus Christ was the heart of the complaint of the Jewish authorities.

26:10 I cast my vote does not necessarily mean that Paul was a member of the Sanhedrin but simply that he agreed with its action. See note on 1 Cor. 7:8.

26:11 force them to blaspheme. I.e., was forcing them to blaspheme against Christ, which would not have been blasphemy to the Jews.

26:14 kick against the goads. A Greek proverb for useless resistance; i.e., it was useless for Paul to persecute the church—he was only hurting himself. goads were long, wooden rods with a sharp point used to prod oxen while plowing.

26:20 20 but kept declaring both [a]to those of Damascus first, and also [b]at Jerusalem and then throughout all the region of Judea, and even [c]to the Gentiles, that they should [d]repent and turn to God, performing deeds [e]appropriate to repentance.

26:21 21"For this reason some Jews [a]seized me in the temple and tried [b]to put me to death.

26:22 22"So, having obtained help from God, I stand to this day [a]testifying both to small and great, stating nothing but what [b]the Prophets and Moses said was going to take place;

26:23 23 [a]that the Christ was to suffer, and that [b]by reason of His resurrection from the dead He would be the first to proclaim [c]light both to the Jewish people and to the Gentiles."

26:24 24 While Paul was saying this in his defense, Festus *said in a loud voice, "Paul, you are out of your mind! Your great [a]learning is driving you mad."

26:25 25 But Paul *said, "I am not out of my mind, [a]most excellent Festus, but I utter words of sober truth.

26:26 26"For the king [a]knows about these matters, and I speak to him also with confidence, since I am persuaded that none of these things escape his notice; for this has not been done in a corner.

26:27 27"King Agrippa, do you believe the Prophets? I know that you do."

26:28 28 Agrippa replied to Paul, "In a short time you will persuade me to become a [a]Christian."

29 And Paul said, "I would wish to God, that whether in a short or long time, not only you, but also all who hear me this day, might become such as I am, except for these [a]chains."

30 [a]The king stood up and the governor and Bernice, and those who were sitting with them,

31 and when they had gone aside, they began talking to one another, saying, "[a]This man is not doing anything worthy of death or imprisonment."

32 And Agrippa said to Festus, "This man might have been [a]set free if he had not [b]appealed to Caesar."

7 Paul's voyage and shipwreck, 27:1–44

27:1 27 When it was decided that [a]we [b]would sail for [c]Italy, they proceeded to deliver Paul and some other prisoners to a centurion of the Augustan [d]cohort named Julius.

27:2 2 And embarking in an Adramyttian ship, which was about to sail to the regions along the coast of [a]Asia, we put out to sea accompanied by [b]Aristarchus, a [c]Macedonian of [d]Thessalonica.

27:3 3 The next day we put in at [a]Sidon; and Julius [b]treated Paul with consideration and [c]allowed him to go to his friends and receive care.

27:4 4 From there we put out to sea and sailed under the shelter of [a]Cyprus because [b]the winds were contrary.

26:24 Paul, you are out of your mind! Festus, a Roman, simply could not comprehend Paul's line of thought and language, particularly about the idea of resurrection (v. 23). Agrippa, a Jew, had no such semantic problems.

26:27 Paul's question placed Agrippa on the horns of a dilemma. If he said yes, then he would have to acknowledge Jesus as the fulfillment of the prophecies. To say no would have put him at odds with the Jews.

26:28 In a short time (lit., in a little) you will persuade me. This enigmatic statement may mean, "In such a short time are you trying to make a Christian of me?" or, "With so few words you are persuading me to be a Christian."

27:1 we. Luke accompanied Paul to Rome. centurion. A commander of 100 Roman soldiers.

27:2 Adramyttian. A port on the W coast of Asia Minor (modern Turkey), just S of Troas.

27:4 under the shelter of Cyprus. The prevailing early autumn winds came from the NW, making head winds difficult for a coastal vessel to handle in open ocean. So the ship sailed around the E end of Cyprus, the lee side, and headed N for the coast of Cilicia, where it would then head W, close to shore for many miles.

27:5 [a]Acts 6:9 [b]Acts 13:13

5 When we had sailed through the sea along the coast of [a]Cilicia and [b]Pamphylia, we landed at Myra in Lycia.

*27:6 [a]Acts 28:11 [b]Acts 18:2; 27:1

7 When we had sailed slowly for a good many days, and with difficulty had arrived off Cnidus, [a]since the wind did not permit us to go farther, we sailed under the shelter of [b]Crete, off Salmone;

27:8 [a]Acts 27:13

8 and with difficulty [a]sailing past it we came to a place called Fair Havens, near which was the city of Lasea.

*27:9 [a]Lev 16:29-31; 23:27-29; Num 29:7

9 When considerable time had passed and the voyage was now dangerous, since even [a]the fast was already over, Paul began to admonish them,

27:10 [a]Acts 27:21

10 and said to them, "Men, I perceive that the voyage will certainly be with [a]damage and great loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives."

27:11 [a]Rev 18:17

11 But the centurion was more persuaded by the [a]pilot and the captain of the ship than by what was being said by Paul.

27:12 [a]Acts 2:11; 27:13,21; Titus 1:5,12

12 Because the harbor was not suitable for wintering, the majority reached a decision to put out to sea from there, if somehow they could reach Phoenix, a harbor of [a]Crete, facing southwest and northwest, and spend the winter there.

13 When a moderate south wind came up, supposing that 27:6 The group transferred to an Egyptian ship carrying grain (v. 38).

27:9 the fast was already over. Only one fast was prescribed by the law and that was on the Day of Atonement (Lev. 16:29–34). If this was the year A.D. 59, the fast was on Oct. 5. To sail this late was very hazardous. This means Paul left Caesarea in Aug. or Sept. and did not arrive in Rome until the following March.

they had attained their purpose, they weighed anchor and began [a]sailing along [b]Crete, close inshore.

14 But before very long there [a]rushed down from the land a violent wind, called Euraquilo;

15 and when the ship was caught in it and could not face the wind, we gave way to it and let ourselves be driven along.

16 Running under the shelter of a small island called Clauda, we were scarcely able to get the ship's boat under control.

17 After they had hoisted it up, they used supporting cables in undergirding the ship; and fearing that they might [a]run aground on the shallows of Syrtis, they let down the sea anchor and in this way let themselves be driven along.

18 The next day as we were being violently storm-tossed, they began to [a]jettison the cargo;

19 and on the third day they threw the ship's tackle overboard with their own hands.

20 Since neither sun nor stars appeared for many days, and no small storm was assailing us, from then on all hope of our being saved was gradually abandoned.

21 When they had gone a long time without food, then Paul stood up in their midst and said, "[a]Men, you ought to have followed my advice and not to have set sail from [b]Crete and incurred this [a]damage and loss.

22 "Yet now I urge you to [a]keep up your courage, for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship.

23 "For this very night [a]an angel of the God to whom I belong and [b]whom I serve [c]stood before me,

24 saying, 'Do not be afraid, Paul; [a]you must stand before Caesar; and behold, God has granted you [b]all those who are sailing with you.'

25 "Therefore, [a]keep up your courage, men, for I believe God that it will turn out exactly as I have been told.

26 "But we must [a]run aground on a certain [b]island."

27 But when the fourteenth night came, as we were being driven about in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors began to surmise that they were approaching some land.

28 They took soundings and found it to be twenty fathoms; and a little farther on they took another sounding and found it to be fifteen fathoms.

29 Fearing that we might [a]run aground somewhere on the rocks, they cast four anchors from the stern and wished for daybreak.

30 But as the sailors were trying to escape from the ship and had let down [a]the ship's boat into the sea, on the pretense of intending to lay out anchors from the bow,

31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, "Unless these men remain in the ship, you yourselves cannot be saved."

32 Then the soldiers cut away the [a]ropes of the ship's boat and let it fall away.

33 Until the day was about to dawn, Paul was encouraging them all to take some food, saying, "Today is the fourteenth day that you have been constantly watching and going without eating, having taken nothing.

34 "Therefore I encourage you

27:16 to get the ship's boat under control. I.e., the dinghy, probably being towed and starting to fill up.

27:17 supporting cables in undergirding the ship. Some sort of rope truss to keep the beams from separating.

27:27 the Adriatic Sea. In this period the Adriatic Sea was a name applied to the Mediterranean E of Sicily, and not merely to the present Adriatic Sea.

27:28 fathoms. A fathom is about six ft.

27:39 [a]Acts 28:1 39 When day came, [a]they could not recognize the land; but they did observe a bay with a beach, and they resolved to drive the ship onto it if they could.

27:40 [a]Acts 27:29 40 And casting off [a]the anchors, they left them in the sea while at the same time they were loosening the ropes of the rudders; and hoisting the foresail to the wind, they were heading for the beach.

*27:41 41 But striking a reef where two seas met, they ran the vessel aground; and the prow stuck fast and remained immovable, but the stern began to be broken up by the force of the waves.

*27:42 [a]Acts 12:19 42 The soldiers' plan was to [a]kill the prisoners, so that none of them would swim away and escape;

27:43 [a]Acts 27:3 43 but the centurion, [a]wanting to bring Paul safely through, kept them from their intention, and commanded that those who could swim should jump overboard first and get to land,

44 and the rest should follow, some on planks, and others on various things from the ship. And so it happened that [a]they all were brought safely to land. 27:44 [a]Acts 27:22,31

28 When [a]they had been brought safely through, [b]then we found out that [c]the island was called Malta. *28:1 [a]we Acts 16:10; 27:1 [b]Acts 27:39 [c]Acts 27:26

28:25–27 Paul's citation of this passage (Isa. 6:9–10) has been regarded as a parting shot at their obtuseness. He followed it with a declaration that henceforth salvation will be preached to the Gentiles, the Jews having refused it.

28:30 two full years in his own rented quarters. During this time of confinement Paul wrote Ephesians, Philippians, Colossians, and Philemon. See the Introduction to Ephesians. Knowing that they could not get a verdict of guilty, his accusers probably never showed up and therefore lost the case by default. Paul would then have been released and become free to engage in the ministry reflected in the pastoral epistles before being rearrested and finally martyred. See the Introduction to Titus. welcoming all. One of those who met Paul was Onesimus, who became a Christian (see Introduction to Philemon under "Background").

ROMANS

INTRODUCTION

AUTHOR: Paul DATE: 57-58

The Church at Rome Though both Paul and Peter were apparently martyred in Rome, it is unlikely that either was the founder of the church in that city. Possibly some who were converted on the Day of Pentecost (Acts 2:10) carried the gospel back to the imperial city; or it may be that converts of Paul or of other apostles founded the church there. The membership was predominantly Gentile (1:13; 11:13; 15:15–16).

Occasion of the Letter Paul was anxious to minister in this church that was already widely known (1:8), so he wrote the letter to prepare the way for his visit (15:14–17). It was written from Corinth, where Paul was completing the collection for the poor in Palestine. From there he went to Jerusalem to deliver the money, intending to continue on to Rome and Spain (15:24). These plans were, of course, changed by his arrest in Jerusalem, though Paul did eventually get to Rome as a prisoner. Phoebe, who belonged to the church at Cenchrea near Corinth (16:1), probably carried the letter to Rome.

The Question about Chapter 16 The mention by name of 26 people in a church Paul had never visited (and particularly Priscilla and Aquila, who were most recently associated with Ephesus, Acts 18:18–19) has caused some scholars to consider chap. 16 as part of an epistle sent to Ephesus. It would be natural, however, for Paul to mention to a church to which he was a stranger his acquaintance with mutual friends. Paul's only other long series of greetings is in Colossians—a letter also sent to a church he had not visited.

Contents More formal than Paul's other letters, Romans sets forth the doctrine of justification by faith (and its ramifications) in a systematic way. The theme of the epistle is the righteousness of God (1:16–17). A number of basic Christian doctrines are discussed: natural revelation (1:19–20), universality of sin (3:9–20), justification (3:24), propitiation (3:25), faith (chap. 4), original sin (5:12), union with Christ (chap. 6), the election and rejection of Israel (chaps. 9–11), spiritual gifts (12:3–8), and respect for government (13:1–7).

THE LETTER OF PAUL TO THE ROMANS

I SALUTATION AND STATEMENT OF THEME, 1:1–17

A Greeting, 1:1–7

1 Paul, a bond-servant of Christ Jesus, [a]called as an apostle, [b]set apart for [c]the gospel of God,

2 which He [a]promised beforehand through His [b]prophets in the holy Scriptures,

3 concerning His Son, who was born [a]of a descendant of David [b]according to the flesh,

4 who was declared [a]the Son of God with power by the resurrection from the dead, according to the Spirit of holiness, Jesus Christ our Lord,

5 through whom we have received grace and [a]apostleship to bring about the [b]obedience of faith among [c]all the Gentiles for His name's sake,

6 among whom you also are the [a]called of Jesus Christ;

7 to all who are [a]beloved of God in Rome, called as [b]saints: [c]Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

B Paul's Interest, 1:8–15

8 First, [a]I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, because [b]your faith is being proclaimed throughout the whole world.

9 For [a]God, whom I [b]serve in my spirit in the preaching of the gospel of His Son, is my witness as to how unceasingly [c]I make mention of you,

10 always in my prayers making request, if perhaps now at last by [a]the will of God I may succeed in coming to you.

11 For [a]I long to see you so that I may impart some spiritual gift to you, that you may be established;

12 that is, that I may be encouraged together with you while among you, each of us by the other's faith, both yours and mine.

13 [a]I do not want you to be unaware, [b]brethren, that often I [c]have planned to come to you (and have been prevented so far) so that I may obtain some [d]fruit among you also, even as among the rest of the Gentiles.

14 [a]I am under obligation both to Greeks and to [b]barbarians, both to the wise and to the foolish.

15 So, for my part, I am eager to [a]preach the gospel to you also who are in Rome.

1:15 [a]Rom 15:20

1:1 bond-servant. Lit., slave, from a word that means "to bind." The believer who voluntarily takes the position of slave to Christ has no rights or will of his own. He does always and only the will of his Master. For His part, the Lord binds Himself to care for His servant (cf. Deut. 15:12–18). apostle. On the meaning and qualifications, see note on Matt. 10:2. the gospel is the good news that the death of Jesus Christ provided the full payment for the penalty of sin and that anyone who trusts that living Christ is forgiven and has eternal life.

1:3 born of a descendant of David according to the flesh. Jesus was descended from David. See notes on Matt. 1:1, 11; John 1:14.

1:4 declared. Better, designated; i.e., Jesus was designated or proved to be the Son of God by His own resurrection from the dead. Some understand according to the Spirit of holiness to refer to the Holy Spirit, whereas others consider it a reference to Christ's own holy being. Thus the verse may be understood this way: the resurrection of Jesus is the mighty proof of His deity, and this is declared by the Holy Spirit.

1:5 obedience of faith. Either obedience that leads to initial faith (as in Acts 6:7) or obedience that results from faith.

1:6 the called. I.e., those who have been summoned by God to salvation (8:30).

1:7 saints. The word means "holy ones" or "set-apart ones." The NT designates all believers as "saints" because they are by position holy and set apart to God (Phil. 4:21; Col. 1:2).

1:10 making request. Arrest, trial, two years' languishing in prison (Acts 24:27), and shipwreck intervened before Paul's prayer was answered.

1:11 impart. I.e., exercise his gifts for their benefit (as explained in v. 12).

1:14 Greeks. Those who spoke Greek and who had adopted Hellenistic culture, in contrast to barbarians who had not. However, in verse 16 Greek means "Gentile." wise = educated.

C Theme, 1:16–17

1:16 16 For I am not [a]ashamed of the gospel, for [b]it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the [c]Jew first and also to [d]the Greek.

17 For in it [a]the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith; as it is written, "[b]BUT THE RIGHTEOUS man SHALL LIVE BY FAITH."

II RIGHTEOUSNESS NEEDED; CONDEMNATION, SIN, 1:18–3:20

A The Condemnation of the Gentile, 1:18–32

1 The cause of the condemnation: willful ignorance, 1:18–23

1:18 18 For [a]the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men who [b]suppress the truth in unrighteousness,

1:19 19 because [a]that which is known about God is evident within them; for God made it evident to them.

1:20 20 For [a]since the creation of the world His invisible attributes, His eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly seen, [b]being understood through what has been made, so that they are without excuse.

- 1:18 [a]Rom 5:9; Eph 5:6; Col 3:6; [b]2 Thess 2:6f
- 1:19 [a]Acts 14:17; 17:24ff
- 1:20 [a]Mark 10:6; [b]Job 12:7-9; Ps 19:1-6; Jer 5:21f

21 For even though they knew God, they did not honor Him as God or give thanks, but they became [a]futile in their speculations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

22 [a]Professing to be wise, they became fools,

23 and [a]exchanged the glory of the incorruptible God for an image in the form of corruptible man and of birds and four-footed animals and crawling creatures.

- 1:21 [a]2 Kin 17:15; Jer 2:5; Eph 4:17f
- 1:22 [a]Jer 10:14; 1 Cor 1:20
- 1:23 [a]Deut 4:16-18; Ps 106:20; Jer 2:11; Acts 17:29

2 The consequences of the condemnation: divine abandonment, 1:24–32

1:24 24 Therefore [a]God gave them over in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, so that their bodies would be [b]dishonored among them.

1:25 25 For they exchanged the truth of God for a [a]lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, [b]who is blessed forever. Amen.

1:26 26 For this reason [a]God gave them over to [b]degrading passions; for their women exchanged the natural function for that which is unnatural,

27 and in the same way also the

- 1:26 [a]Rom 1:24; [b]1 Thess 4:5

1:16 salvation has three facets: past salvation from the penalties of sin (Luke 7:50; Eph. 2:8); present salvation from the power of sin in the daily life (Rom. 5:10); and future salvation from the actual presence of sin (in heaven; 1 Cor. 3:15; 5:5). This salvation comes to everyone who believes. We receive and experience it through faith, which is both assent to the truths of the gospel and genuine confidence in the Savior Himself. to the Jew first. A chronological priority that Paul followed in his ministry (Acts 13:5; 14:1; 17:2; 18:4; 19:8) but that Jewish rejection abrogated so that Paul and others turned to the Gentiles (Acts 13:46; 18:6; 28:25–28).

1:17 the righteousness of God. I.e., the restoration of right relations between man and God, which proceeds from God's gift through His Son. See note on 3:21. from faith to faith. I.e., faith from start to finish. THE RIGHTEOUS man SHALL LIVE BY FAITH. Quoting Hab. 2:4, Paul is emphasizing that one can be righteous in God's sight only through faith; i.e., he who is just through faith shall live now and forever by faith. See notes on Gal. 3:11 and Heb. 10:38. In verses 16–17 is the essence of Paul's theology: Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved.

1:18 From here to 3:20 is God's indictment of the world, showing why man needs the righteousness of God. suppress. Man is condemned because truth was given to him (vv. 19–20) and because he by his actions rejected it (vv. 21–32).

1:20 they are without excuse. The things that are made (creation) reveal to all men the eternal power and divine nature of the true God, so that the rejection of this truth makes a man without excuse before God. divine nature. Characteristics that distinguish God from all others.

1:24 God gave them over. Note the repetition of this phrase in verses 26 and 28. Paul is attacking the flagrant idolatry of most of the Gentile world, in which animals were considered gods (v. 23), sexual perversion was prevalent (vv. 26–27), and sin in general was rampant (vv. 29–32).

1:26–27 Both lesbian and homosexual activities are condemned in these verses. God only approves of monogamous, heterosexual relationships in marriage, condemning adultery before marriage and within marriage.

men abandoned the natural function of the woman and burned in their desire toward one another, [a]men with men committing indecent acts and receiving in their own persons the due penalty of their error.

28 And just as they did not see fit to acknowledge God any longer, [a]God gave them over to a depraved mind, to do those things which are not proper,

29 being filled with all unrighteousness, wickedness, greed, evil; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, malice; they are [a]gossips,

30 slanderers, [a]haters of God, insolent, arrogant, boastful, inventors of evil, [b]disobedient to parents,

31 without understanding, untrustworthy, [a]unloving, unmerciful;

32 and although they know the ordinance of God, that those who practice such things are worthy of [a]death, they not only do the same, but also [b]give hearty approval to those who practice them.

B The Condemnation of the Moralist, 2:1–16

2 Therefore you have [a]no excuse, [b]everyone of you who passes judgment, for in that which [c]you judge another, you condemn yourself; for you who judge practice the same things.

2 And we know that the judgment of God rightly falls upon those who practice such things.

3 But do you suppose this, [a]O man, when you pass judgment on those who practice such things and do the same yourself, that you will escape the judgment of God?

4 Or do you think lightly of [a]the riches of His [b]kindness and [c]tolerance and [d]patience, not knowing that the kindness of God leads you to repentance?

5 But because of your stubbornness and unrepentant heart [a]you are storing up wrath for yourself [b]in the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God,

6 [a]who WILL RENDER TO EACH PERSON ACCORDING TO HIS DEEDS:

7 to those who by [a]perseverance in doing good seek for [b]glory and honor and [c]immortality, [d]eternal life;

8 but to those who are [a]selfishly ambitious and [b]do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, wrath and indignation.

9 There will be [a]tribulation and distress for every soul of man who does evil, of the Jew [b]first and also of the Greek,

10 but [a]glory and honor and peace to everyone who does good, to the Jew [b]first and also to the Greek.

11 For [a]there is no partiality with God.

12 For all who have sinned [a]without the Law will also perish without the Law, and all who have sinned under the Law will be judged by the Law;

13 for it is [a]not the hearers of the Law who are just before God, but the doers of the Law will be justified.

14 For when Gentiles who do not have the Law do [a]instinc-

1:32 give hearty approval to those who practice them. Not only did the people themselves sin but they encouraged and vicariously enjoyed the sins of others.

2:1 Paul now shows that even those who may not have committed the sins described in chap. 1 are also guilty before God.

2:2 rightly. Better, according to truth. God, who is truth, judges according to truth (John 17:3; Titus 1:2).

2:5 God's wrath results when grace is rejected.

2:7 eternal life. Good works do not save (Eph. 2:8–9) but are evidence of a changed life. Much of Romans is devoted to this extremely important thesis (cf. v. 13).

2:9–10 the Jew first. The Jews' priority of privilege was also one of responsibility, and the principles of God's judgment are the same for all (v. 11).

2:12 without the Law. I.e., Gentiles, to whom the Mosaic Law had not been given (9:4). Gentiles will not escape judgment, but their judgment will not be on the basis of the Mosaic Law.

2:14 do instinctively. The interaction of conscience and innate morality may result in a good life. To such persons God sends the gospel (Acts 4:12; Rom. 10:4).

tively the things of the Law, these, not having the Law, are a law to themselves,

2:15 15 in that they show [a]the work of the Law written in their hearts, their conscience bearing witness and their thoughts alternately accusing or else defending them,

*2:16 16 on the day when, [a]according to my gospel, [b]God will judge the secrets of men through Christ Jesus.

C The Condemnation of the Jew, 2:17–3:8

1 He did not keep the law of God, 2:17–29

*2:17 17 But if you bear the name "Jew" and [a]rely upon the Law and boast in God,

2:18 18 and know His will and [a]approve the things that are essential, being instructed out of the Law,

19 and are confident that you yourself are a guide to the blind, a light to those who are in darkness,

2:20 20 a corrector of the foolish, a teacher of the immature, having in the Law [a]the embodiment of knowledge and of the truth,

*2:21 21 you, therefore, [a]who teach another, do you not teach yourself? You who preach that one shall not steal, do you steal?

2:22 22 You who say that one should not commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, do you [a]rob temples?

2:23 23 You who [a]boast in the Law, through your breaking the Law, do you dishonor God?

24 For "[a]THE NAME OF GOD IS BLASPHEMED AMONG THE GENTILES [b]BECAUSE OF YOU," just as it is written. 2:24

25 For indeed circumcision is of value if you [a]practice the Law; but if you are a transgressor of the Law, [b]your circumcision has become uncircumcision. *2:25

26 [a]So if [b]the uncircumcised man [c]keeps the requirements of the Law, will not his uncircumcision be regarded as circumcision? 2:26

27 And [a]he who is physically uncircumcised, if he keeps the Law, will he not [b]judge you who though having the letter of the Law and circumcision are a transgressor of the Law? 2:27

28 For [a]he is not a Jew who is one outwardly, nor is circumcision that which is outward in the flesh. 2:28

29 But [a]he is a Jew who is one inwardly; and [b]circumcision is that which is of the heart, by the [c]Spirit, not by the letter; [d]and his praise is not from men, but from God. *2:29

2 He did not believe the promises of God, 3:1–8

3 Then what advantage has the Jew? Or what is the benefit of circumcision? *3:1

2 Great in every respect. First of all, that [a]they were entrusted with the [b]oracles of God. *3:2

*3:3 [a]Rom 10:16; Heb 4:2

2:16 Judgment is a basic part of Paul's gospel. The thought goes back to verse 13, verses 14–15 being a parenthesis.

2:17 you bear the name "Jew." The failure of the Jew makes him culpable because of privileges he had in the law and the promises of God. He could and should have become a "guide" and "light" to those in darkness (v. 19).

2:21–24 Paul charges the Jews with hypocrisy and guilt.

2:25 your circumcision has become uncircumcision. I.e., a Jewish lawbreaker stands before God in the same place as a pagan. Paul emphasizes that the Jewish law was impossible to keep perfectly.

2:29 circumcision is that which is of the heart. Circumcision is used in three senses in this passage: (1) it stands for the Jews (notice that the "uncircumcised" in v. 27 means Gentiles; see also Gen. 17:10); (2) it indicates the physical rite commanded in the law (v. 25a and Lev. 12:3); (3) it represents, as here, a life that is separated from the flesh and unto God (v. 27 and Deut. 10:16). See note on Acts 16:3.

3:1 advantage. A Jew had the advantage of special revelation of God's law. Yet that could not save him, for he was not able to keep it. The law increased his responsibility but demonstrated his inability to live up to God's standards.

3:2 the oracles of God. The promises of God to the Jews, found in the Scriptures.

3:3 did not believe. May also mean "were unfaithful." In either case, God remains faithful to His promises.

not believe, their unbelief will not nullify the faithfulness of God, will it?

III RIGHTEOUSNESS IMPUTED; JUSTIFICATION, SALVATION, 3:21–5:21

[c] Acts 3:16; Gal 2:16,20; 3:22; Eph 3:12

3:4 though every man be found a liar. Men should believe that they all have broken their word rather than that God has broken His. See Ps. 51:4.

3:5 Does God use man's sin to glorify Himself? No, otherwise He would have to abandon all judgment.

3:10–18 In these verses Paul quotes and paraphrases a number of OT passages—Pss. 5:9; 10:7; 14:1–3; 36:1; 140:3; Isa. 59:7–8. His indictment of the Jews has the authority of Scripture behind it.

3:13–18 Notice how various parts of the body are involved in sin.

3:20 The function of the law, Paul says, is to give knowledge of or about sin, not to save from sin (Acts 13:39; 1 Tim. 1:9–10).

3:21 righteousness. Used in various ways in the Bible, righteousness refers (1) to God's character (John 17:25), (2) to the gift that is given to everyone who receives Christ (here and 5:17), and (3) to standards of right living (6:18; 2 Tim. 2:22). The OT witnessed to God's righteousness in places like Gen. 15:6; Ps. 7:8–13; Isa. 53:11. (This verse links justification to God's righteous servant, Jesus.)

Christ for [d]all those who believe; for [e]there is no distinction;

23 for all [a]have sinned and fall short of the glory of God,

24 being justified as a gift [a]by His grace through [b]the redemption which is in Christ Jesus;

25 whom God displayed publicly as [a]a propitiation [b]in His blood through faith. This was to demonstrate His righteousness, because in the [c]forbearance of God He [d]passed over the sins previously committed;

26 for the demonstration, I say, of His righteousness at the present time, so that He would be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus.

27 Where then is [a]boasting? It is excluded. By [b]what kind of law? Of works? No, but by a law of faith.

28 For [a]we maintain that a man is justified by faith apart from works of the Law.

29 Or [a]is God the God of Jews only? Is He not the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also,

30 since indeed [a]God [b]who will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith [c]is one.

31 Do we then nullify the Law through faith? [a]May it never be! On the contrary, we [b]establish the Law. 3:31 [b]Matt 5:17; Rom 3:4,6; 8:4

B The Illustration of Righteousness, 4:1–25

1 Abraham's faith was apart from works, 4:1–8

4 What then shall we say that Abraham, our forefather [a]according to the flesh, has found? 4:1 [a]Rom 1:3

2 For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about, but [a]not before God. 4:2 [a]1 Cor 1:31

3 For what does the Scripture say? "[a]ABRAHAM BELIEVED GOD, AND IT WAS CREDITED TO HIM AS RIGHTEOUSNESS." 4:3 [a]Gen 15:6; Rom 4:9,22; Gal 3:6; James 2:23

4 Now to the one who [a]works, his wage is not credited as a favor, but as what is due. 4:4 [a]Rom 11:6

5 But to the one who does not work, but [a]believes in Him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is credited as righteousness, 4:5 [a]John 6:29; Rom 3:22

6 just as David also speaks of the blessing on the man to whom God reckons righteousness apart from works: 4:6

7 "[a]BLESSED ARE THOSE WHOSE LAWLESS DEEDS HAVE BEEN FORGIVEN,
AND WHOSE SINS HAVE BEEN COVERED. 4:7 [a]Ps 32:1

3:23 all have sinned. Lit., all sinned, the same verb and form as in 5:12, which associates the entire human race with Adam's sin. fall short is in the present tense, indicating continuing action. Sin is defined in 1 John 3:4 as lawlessness and here as lack of conformity to the glory of God. These are complementary ideas, since the law of God is an expression of His character.

3:24 justified. To justify was a legal term meaning to secure a favorable verdict, to acquit, to vindicate, to declare righteous (Deut. 25:1). as a gift. I.e., "without a cause" to be found in us (same word is in John 15:25). by His grace. Unmerited favor. It is an act of God (8:33), who takes the initiative and provides the means through the redemption which is in Christ Jesus. The sinner who believes in Christ receives God's gift of righteousness (5:17), which then enables God to pronounce him righteous. On redemption, see note on Eph. 1:7.

3:25 propitiation. Here this may mean the "place of propitiation"; i.e., the Mercy Seat (as in Heb. 9:5). Christ is pictured as the Mercy Seat where God's holy demands were satisfied (cf. Lev. 16:14). See note on Heb. 2:17. in His blood through faith. Faith in the blood (death) of Christ redeems us, places us in Christ, gives us the gift of righteousness (5:17), thus enabling God to truthfully declare us righteous, because we are in Him. sins previously committed. The death of Christ also paid fully for sins committed before He died.

3:26 that He would be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. Because of the death of Christ, God can remain just when declaring righteous the one who believes in Jesus and who is thus forgiven of his sins and made righteous in Christ (2 Cor. 5:21).

3:31 we establish the Law. The role of the law in making men conscious of sin (v. 20) is confirmed by everyone who acknowledges sin and turns to Christ in faith.

4:1ff Paul's point in this chapter is that the faith-righteousness principle is not new, and he uses Abraham as proof.

4:3 ABRAHAM was justified by faith, not by works (Gen. 15:6).

4:4 Wages have nothing to do with grace (unmerited favor) but with what is due.

4:6–8 Like Abraham, David also knew the righteousness of God apart from any works.

4:8 [a]Ps 32:2 [b]2 Cor 5:19

8 "[a]BLESSED IS THE MAN WHOSE SIN THE LORD WILL NOT [b]TAKE INTO ACCOUNT."

2 Abraham's faith was apart from circumcision, 4:9–12

*4:9 [a]Rom 3:30 [b]Rom 4:3 [c]Gen 15:6

9 Is this blessing then on [a]the circumcised, or on the uncircumcised also? For [b]we say, "[c]FAITH WAS CREDITED TO ABRAHAM AS RIGHTEOUSNESS."

10 How then was it credited? While he was circumcised, or uncircumcised? Not while circumcised, but while uncircumcised;

*4:11 [a]Gen 17:10f [b]John 3:33 [c]Luke 19:9; Rom 4:16f [d]Rom 3:22; 4:16

11 and he [a]received the sign of circumcision, [b]a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while uncircumcised, so that he might be [c]the father of [d]all who believe without being circumcised, that righteousness might be credited to them,

12 and the father of circumcision to those who not only are of the circumcision, but who also follow in the steps of the faith of our father Abraham which he had while uncircumcised.

3 Abraham's faith was apart from the law, 4:13–15

4:13 [a]Rom 9:8; Gal 3:16,29 [b]Gen 17:4-6; 22:17f

13 For [a]the promise to Abraham or to his descendants [b]that he would be heir of the world was not through the Law, but through the righteousness of faith.

4:14 [a]Gal 3:18

14 For [a]if those who are of the Law are heirs, faith is made void and the promise is nullified;

4:15 [a]Rom 7:7, 10-25; 1 Cor 15:56; Gal 3:10 [b]Rom 3:20

15 for [a]the Law brings about wrath, but [b]where there is no law, neither is there violation.

4 Abraham's faith was in God, 4:16–25

4:16 [a]Rom 3:24 [b]Rom 4:11; 9:8; 15:8 [c]Gal 3:7 [d]Luke 19:9; Rom 4:11

16 For this reason it is by faith, in order that it may be in accordance with [a]grace, so that the promise will be guaranteed to [b]all the descendants, not only to those who are of the Law, but also to [c]those who are of the faith of Abraham, who is [d]the father of us all,

4:17 [a]Gen 17:5 [b]John 5:21 [c]Is 48:13; 51:2 [d]1 Cor 1:28

17 (as it is written, "[a]A FATHER OF MANY NATIONS HAVE I MADE YOU") in the presence of Him whom he believed, even God, [b]who gives life to the dead and [c]calls into being [d]that which does not exist.

4:18 [a]Rom 4:17 [b]Gen 15:5

18 In hope against hope he believed, so that he might become [a]a father of many nations according to that which had been spoken, "[b]SO SHALL YOUR DESCENDANTS BE."

*4:19 [a]Heb 11:12 [b]Gen 17:17 [c]Gen 18:11

19 Without becoming weak in faith he contemplated his own body, now [a]as good as dead since [b]he was about a hundred years old, and [c]the deadness of Sarah's womb;

4:20 [a]Matt 9:8

20 yet, with respect to the promise of God, he did not waver in unbelief but grew strong in faith, [a]giving glory to God,

4:21 [a]Rom 14:5 [b]Gen 18:14; Heb 11:19

21 and [a]being fully assured that [b]what God had promised, He was able also to perform.

4:22 [a]Gen 15:6; Rom 4:3

22 Therefore also [a]IT WAS CREDITED TO HIM AS RIGHTEOUSNESS.

*4:23 [a]Rom 15:4; 1 Cor 9:9f; 10:11; 2 Tim 3:16f

23 Now [a]not for his sake only was it written that it was credited to him,

*4:24 [a]Rom 10:9; 1 Pet 1:21 [b]Acts 2:24

24 but for our sake also, to whom it will be credited, as those [a]who believe in Him who [b]raised Jesus our Lord from the dead,

---

4:9–25 The points Paul makes from the illustrations are these: (1) justification did not come to Abraham by faith plus circumcision (vv. 9–12); (2) justification was not by faith plus keeping the law (vv. 13–17); (3) justification was by faith alone (vv. 18–25).

4:10 Abraham's acceptance by God on the basis of faith preceded his circumcision (Gen. 15 is before Gen. 17).

4:11 Circumcision served as God's seal to Abraham that he was righteous.

4:12 Paul makes clear that circumcision alone cannot save—only faith can.

4:19 Abraham fully faced the difficulty, yet he believed God.

4:23 All need to learn that justification is a gift of grace, that circumcision does not justify (since Abraham was justified before he was circumcised), and that the law does not justify (since Abraham lived centuries before the law).

4:24 Saving faith is faith in the Giver of miraculous life, demonstrated in the resurrection of Jesus.

25 He who was [a]delivered over because of our transgressions, and was [b]raised because of our justification.

C The Benefits of Righteousness, 5:1–11

5 [a]Therefore, having been justified by faith, [b]we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ,

2 through whom also we have [a]obtained our introduction by faith into this grace [b]in which we stand; and we exult in hope of the glory of God.

3 [a]And not only this, but we also [b]exult in our tribulations, knowing that tribulation brings about [c]perseverance;

4 and [a]perseverance, [b]proven character; and proven character, hope;

5 and hope [a]does not disappoint, because the love of God has been [b]poured out within our hearts through the Holy Spirit who was given to us.

6 For while we were still [a]helpless, [b]at the right time [c]Christ died for the ungodly.

7 For one will hardly die for a righteous man; though perhaps for the good man someone would dare even to die.

8 But God [a]demonstrates [b]His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, [c]Christ died for us.

9 Much more then, having now been justified [a]by His blood, we shall be saved [b]from the wrath of God through Him.

10 For if while we were [a]enemies we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, much more, having been reconciled, we shall be saved [b]by His life.

11 [a]And not only this, but we also exult in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received [b]the reconciliation.

12 Therefore, just as through [a]one man sin entered into the world, and [b]death through sin, and [c]so death spread to all men, because all sinned—

4:25 because of our justification. Christ's resurrection was for our justification; i.e., as a proof of God's acceptance of His Son's sacrifice.

5:1–11 For Paul, justification is not sterile doctrine, but a source of present blessing in one's life. we have (v. 1). Some mss. read "let us have."

5:2 The Christian has confidence that all of God's purposes (glory) will be accomplished.

5:3–5 Suffering produces good results in the believer's life.

5:6–10 Unbelievers are described as helpless, ungodly, sinners, and enemies. Enemies can mean either that we have enmity against God or that He considers us as enemies.

5:6–8 The extent of God's love is shown in the fact that Christ died for men in whom there was nothing that evoked that love.

5:9 Much more. Notice the repetition of this emphasis in verses 10, 15, 17, 20. Paul is teaching the vicarious, sacrificial significance of Christ's death.

5:10 we shall be saved by His life. Christ's present resurrection ministry in heaven keeps us saved (Heb. 7:25).

5:11 the reconciliation means "change." God changes us from enemies to family. On reconciliation, see note on 2 Cor. 5:18.

5:12–21 In the closely worded argument of this section Paul contrasts death in Adam with life in Christ. Just as Adam's sin brought certain results, so did the death of Christ. Yet this does not mean automatic salvation, for men must receive the grace God offers (v. 17).

5:12 as through one man sin entered into the world. After Adam sinned, he and his descendants could only beget sinners, so all men are under the sentence of death, the penalty of sin. all sinned. True because of the solidarity of the race just explained (see Heb. 7:9–10 for the principle of imputation).

5:13 sin is not imputed. I.e., sin is not charged as a specific violation of a particular command when there is no law. However, this does not mean that sin was not sin during the period from Adam to Moses, as proved by the fact of death during that period (v. 14). Sin could never be anything but evil.

Adam, who is a [b]type of Him who was to come.

15 But the free gift is not like the transgression. For if by the transgression of [a]the one [b]the many died, much more did the grace of God and the gift by [c]the grace of the one Man, Jesus Christ, abound to the many.

16 The gift is not like that which came through the one who sinned; for on the one hand [a]the judgment arose from one transgression resulting in condemnation, but on the other hand the free gift arose from many transgressions resulting in justification.

17 For if by the transgression of the one, death reigned [a]through the one, much more those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness will [b]reign in life through the One, Jesus Christ.

18 So then as through [a]one transgression there resulted condemnation to all men, even so through one [b]act of righteousness there resulted [c]justification of life to all men.

19 For as through the one man's disobedience [a]the many [b]were made sinners, even so through [c]the obedience of the One [a]the many will be made righteous.

20 [a]The Law came in so that the transgression would increase; but where sin increased, [b]grace abounded all the more,

21 so that, as [a]sin reigned in death, even so [b]grace would reign through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

IV RIGHTEOUSNESS IMPARTED; SANCTIFICATION, SEPARATION, 6:1–8:39

A The Principles of Sanctification; The Question of License, 6:1–23

1 Shall we continue in sin? 6:1–14

6 [a]What shall we say then? Are we to [b]continue in sin so that grace may increase?

2 [a]May it never be! How shall we who [b]died to sin still live in it?

3 Or do you not know that all of us who have been [a]baptized into [b]Christ Jesus have been baptized into His death?

4 Therefore we have been [a]buried with Him through baptism into death, so that as Christ was [b]raised from the dead through the [c]glory of the Father, so we too might walk in [d]newness of life.

5 For [a]if we have become united with Him in the likeness of His death, certainly we shall also be in the likeness of His resurrection,

5:18 Notice here, and often in this passage, the contrasts between Adam and Christ—between their deeds and the results of those deeds. The contrasts would lose meaning if Adam had not been a historical person. all men. Not that all are actually saved (2:12) but that justification, though offered to all, must be received through faith (v. 17; 3:24–25).

5:19 many will be made righteous. Through the process of sanctification, which culminates in our glorification.

5:20 The law added transgressions, showing even more vividly the superabundant (the word is heightened) grace of God.

6:1 If grace abounds in the presence of sin (5:20), then shouldn't we continue in sin that grace might increase?

6:2 May it never be! Grace cannot be exploited for evil ends! Because of our union with Christ we died to sin and are alive to God (v. 11). The new moral life is based on (1) our union with Christ (vv. 1–14), (2) our being slaves to righteousness (vv. 15–23), and (3) the new marriage union we have with Christ (7:1–6). died to sin. Death is separation, not extinction: (1) physical death is the separation of body from spirit (James 2:26); (2) spiritual death is the separation of a person from God (Eph. 2:1); (3) the second death is eternal separation from God (Rev. 20:14); (4) death to sin is separation from the ruling power of sin in one's own life (v. 14).

6:3 baptized into Christ Jesus. Baptism with the Holy Spirit joins the believer to Christ, separating him from the old life and associating him with the new. He is no longer "in Adam" but is "in Christ." Water baptism portrays this truth.

6 knowing this, that our [a]old self was [b]crucified with Him, in order that our [c]body of sin might be done away with, so that we would no longer be slaves to sin;

7 for [a]he who has died is freed from sin.

8 Now [a]if we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with Him,

9 knowing that Christ, having been [a]raised from the dead, is never to die again; [b]death no longer is master over Him.

10 For the death that He died, He died to sin once for all; but the life that He lives, He lives to God.

11 Even so consider yourselves to be [a]dead to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus.

12 Therefore do not let sin [a]reign in your mortal body so that you obey its lusts,

13 and do not go on [a]presenting the members of your body to sin as instruments of unrighteousness; but [b]present yourselves to God as those alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God.

14 For [a]sin shall not [b]be master over you, for [c]you are not under law but [d]under grace.

2 Shall we continue to sin? 6:15–23

15 What then? [a]Shall we sin because we are not under law but under grace? [b]May it never be!

16 Do you not [a]know that when you present yourselves to someone as [b]slaves for obedience, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of [c]sin resulting in death, or of obedience resulting in righteousness?

17 But [a]thanks be to God that though you were slaves of sin, you became obedient from the heart to that [b]form of teaching to which you were committed,

18 and having been [a]freed from sin, you became slaves of righteousness.

19 [a]I am speaking in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh. For just [b]as you presented your members as slaves to impurity and to lawlessness, resulting in further lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness, resulting in sanctification.

20 For [a]when you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness.

21 Therefore what [a]benefit were you then deriving from the things of which you are now ashamed? For the outcome of those things is [b]death.

22 But now having been [a]freed from sin and [b]enslaved to God, you derive your [c]benefit, resulting in sanctification, and [d]the outcome, eternal life.

23 For the wages of [a]sin is death, but the free gift of God is 6:6 old self. I.e., all that a person is before salvation, which is made "old" by reason of the presence of the new life in Christ. Though separated from its power, its presence has not been eradicated; therefore, we are exhorted to lay it aside (Eph. 4:22). body of sin does not mean that the physical body is itself sinful but that our body can become the instrument of sin. done away with. I.e., made ineffective or impotent (as in 2 Thess. 2:8).

6:7 freed. Lit., justified; i.e., sin has no legal right to be the master over us.

6:10 once for all. Therefore, sin can never legally regain its mastery over us, though in practice we can yield to its temptations.

6:11 consider. This means "calculate," i.e., by adding up the facts presented in verses 1–10 and then acting accordingly.

6:12 We must either dethrone sin or obey its evil desires.

6:13 do not go on presenting the members of your body . . . but present yourselves to God. The tenses may imply "stop presenting your members . . . but present yourselves once for all unto God." Paul exhorts us to make our experience conform to our position. present. A decision to dedicate the years of one's life to God (as also in 12:1).

6:15–23 This passage is the ethical application of 5:12–21. When we were in Adam sin was master, demanding shameful living and repaying with death. In Christ we can be slaves of righteousness.

6:17 that form of teaching. I.e., Christian truth.

6:19 Paul uses the illustration of slaves and masters because of the dullness of understanding of those to whom he wrote.

6:21 then. I.e., when you were slaves to sin what benefit did you have?

6:23 the free gift of God. Sanctification of life does not earn eternal life; it is still God's gracious gift.

B The Practice of Sanctification; The Question of Law, 7:1–25

1 Is the believer under law? 7:1–6

*7:1 [a]Rom 1:13

7 Or do you not know, [a]brethren (for I am speaking to those who know the law), that the law has jurisdiction over a person as long as he lives?

7:2 [a]1 Cor 7:39

2 For [a]the married woman is bound by law to her husband while he is living; but if her husband dies, she is released from the law concerning the husband.

3 So then, if while her husband is living she is joined to another man, she shall be called an adulteress; but if her husband dies, she is free from the law, so that she is not an adulteress though she is joined to another man.

*7:4 [a]Rom 6:2; 7:6 [b]Rom 8:2; Gal 2:19; 5:18 [c]Col 1:22

4 Therefore, my brethren, you also were [a]made to die [b]to the Law [c]through the body of Christ, so that you might be joined to another, to Him who was raised from the dead, in order that we might bear fruit for God.

*7:5 [a]Rom 8:8f; 2 Cor 10:3 [b]Rom 7:7f [c]Rom 6:13,21, 23

5 For while we were [a]in the flesh, the sinful passions, which were [b]aroused by the Law, were at work [c]in the members of our body to bear fruit for death.

7:6 [a]Rom 7:2 [b]Rom 6:2 [c]Rom 6:4 [d]Rom 2:29

6 But now we have been [a]released from the Law, having [b]died to that by which we were bound, so that we serve in [c]newness of [d]the Spirit and not in oldness of the letter.

2 Is the law evil? 7:7–12

*7:7 [a]Rom 3:5 [b]Luke 20:16 [c]Rom 3:20; 4:15; 5:20 [d]Ex 20:17; Deut 5:21

7 [a]What shall we say then? Is the Law sin? [b]May it never be! On the contrary, [c]I would not have come to know sin except through the Law; for I would not have known about coveting if the Law had not said, "[d]YOU SHALL NOT COVET."

7:8 [a]Rom 7:11 [b]Rom 3:20. 7:11 [c]1 Cor 15:56

8 But sin, [a]taking opportunity [b]through the commandment, produced in me coveting of every kind; for [c]apart from the Law sin is dead.

9 I was once alive apart from the Law; but when the commandment came, sin became alive and I died;

7:10 [a]Lev 18:5; Luke 10:28; Rom 10:5; Gal 3:12

10 and this commandment, which was [a]to result in life, proved to result in death for me;

7:11 [a]Rom 7:8 [b]Rom 3:20; 7:8 [c]Gen 3:13

11 for sin, [a]taking an opportunity [b]through the commandment, [c]deceived me and through it killed me.

*7:12 [a]Rom 7:16; 1 Tim 1:8

12 [a]So then, the Law is holy, and the commandment is holy and righteous and good.

3 Is the law a cause of death? 7:13–14

7:13 [a]Luke 20:16

13 Therefore did that which is good become a cause of death for me? [a]May it never be! Rather it was sin, in order that it might be shown to be sin by effecting my death through that which is good, so that through the commandment sin would become utterly sinful.

7:14 [a]1 Cor 3:1 [b]1 Kin 21:20, 25; 2 Kin 17:17; Rom 6:6; Gal 4:3 [c]Rom 3:9

14 For we know that the Law is [a]spiritual, but I am [a]of flesh, [b]sold [c]into bondage to sin.

7:1–6 Paul here introduces a new metaphor, that of a fruitful marriage. The Christian, because of his death with Christ, is free from his marriage to the law and is brought into a new marriage with Christ. The new union demands good living as its progeny.

7:1 know the law. Legal principles, not the Mosaic Law here.

7:4 The believer who has died with Christ is released from bondage to the law and hence from bondage to sin and is free to experience the abundant life of Christ.

7:5 while we were in the flesh. I.e., before we were saved.

7:7–8 Though the law is not itself sinful (cf. v. 12), it arouses sin in me.

7:9 When Paul came to understand the true meaning of the law, he realized that he was a sinner and worthy of death.

7:12 The law is fundamentally good, but the result of the law is to bring into the open the power of sin. It is sin, not the law that exposes it, that deceives and kills (v. 11).

4 How can I resolve the struggle within myself? 7:15–25

15 For what I am doing, [a]I do not understand; for I am not practicing [b]what I would like to do, but I am doing the very thing I hate.

16 But if I do the very thing I do not want to do, I agree with [a]the Law, confessing that the Law is good.

17 So now, [a]no longer am I the one doing it, but sin which dwells in me.

18 For I know that nothing good dwells in me, that is, in my [a]flesh; for the willing is present in me, but the doing of the good is not.

19 For [a]the good that I want, I do not do, but I practice the very evil that I do not want.

20 But if I am doing the very thing I do not want, [a]I am no longer the one doing it, but sin which dwells in me.

21 I find then [a]the principle that evil is present in me, the one who wants to do good.

22 For I joyfully concur with the law of God in [a]the inner man,

23 but I see [a]a different law in the members of my body, waging war against the [b]law of my mind and making me a prisoner of [c]the law of sin which is in my members.

24 Wretched man that I am! Who will set me free from [a]the body of this [b]death?

25 [a]Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, on the one hand I myself with my mind am serving the law of God, but on the other, with my flesh [b]the law of sin.

C The Power of Sanctification; The Question of Living, 8:1–39

1 Emancipated living, 8:1–11

8 Therefore there is now no [a]condemnation for those who are [b]in [c]Christ Jesus.

2 For [a]the law of the Spirit of life in [b]Christ Jesus [c]has set you free from the law of sin and of death.

3 For [a]what the Law could not do, [b]weak as it was through the flesh, God did: sending His own Son in [c]the likeness of sinful flesh and as an offering for sin, He condemned sin in the flesh,

4 so that the [a]requirement of the Law might be fulfilled in us, who [b]do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.

5 For those who are according to the flesh set their minds on [a]the things of the flesh, but those who are according to the Spirit, [b]the things of the Spirit.

6 [a]For the mind set on the flesh is [b]death, but the mind set on the Spirit is life and peace,

7 because the mind set on the flesh is [a]hostile toward God; for 7:15–25 The intensely personal character of these verses and the use of present tenses indicate that this was Paul's own experience as a believer. This is his diagnosis of what happens when one tries to be sanctified by keeping the law.

7:17 sin which indwells me. Though Paul has written of acts of sin (1:21–32), here he speaks of sin as a disposition deep in a man's life that produces those acts.

7:18 flesh. Paul uses "flesh" in several ways. (1) It denotes the personality of man controlled by sin and directed to selfish pursuits rather than to the service of God (here; v. 25; 8:5–7; Gal. 5:17). (2) It sometimes refers simply to physical descent (1:3; 9:3). (3) It also stands for the physical existence of a person, i.e., being in the body (Eph. 2:15; Philem. 16). There is no blame attached to the last two meanings of the word.

7:22 An unbeliever would not say this, further supporting the view that Paul is relating his experience as a believer.

7:24 The body dominated by sin endures a "living" death.

8:2 the law of the Spirit of life. The working of the Holy Spirit in the life of a believer is regular (like a law) but not mechanical (for it is life).

8:3 in the likeness of sinful flesh. The word "likeness" is crucial, for it indicates that Jesus was a true man but not a sinful man. flesh = body.

8:4–8 The contrast here is between an unregenerate life dominated by the flesh (= sinful nature within) and one controlled by the Holy Spirit.

it does not subject itself to the law of God, for it is not even able to do so,

8:8 [a]Rom 7:5

8 and those who are [a]in the flesh cannot please God.

*8:9 [a]Rom 7:5 [b]John 14:23; Rom 8:11; 1 Cor 3:16; 6:19; 2 Cor 6:16; Gal 4:6; Phil 1:19; 2 Tim 1:14; 1 John 4:13 [c]John 14:17

9 However, you are not [a]in the flesh but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God [b]dwells in you. But [c]if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to Him.

8:10 [a]John 17:23; Gal 2:20; Eph 3:17; Col 1:27

10 [a]If Christ is in you, though the body is dead because of sin, yet the spirit is alive because of righteousness.

11 But if the Spirit of Him who [a]raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, [b]He who raised [c]Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Spirit who dwells in you.

2 Exalted living, 8:12–17

12 So then, brethren, we are under obligation, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh—

*8:13 [a]Rom 8:6 [b]Col 3:5

13 for [a]if you are living according to the flesh, you must die; but if by the Spirit you are [b]putting to death the deeds of the body, you will live.

17 and if children, [a]heirs also, heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, [b]if indeed we suffer with Him so that we may also be glorified with Him.

3 Expectant living, 8:18–30

18 For I consider that the sufferings of this present time [a]are not worthy to be compared with the [b]glory that is to be revealed to us.

19 For the [a]anxious longing of the creation waits eagerly for [b]the revealing of the [c]sons of God.

20 For the creation [a]was subjected to [b]futility, not willingly, but [c]because of Him who subjected it, in hope

21 that [a]the creation itself also will be set free from its slavery to corruption into the freedom of the glory of the children of God.

22 For we know that the whole creation [a]groans and suffers the pains of childbirth together until now.

23 [a]And not only this, but also we ourselves, having [b]the first fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves [c]groan within ourselves, [d]waiting eagerly for our adoption as sons, [e]the redemption of our body.

8:13 putting to death. I.e., separating from the deeds of the body (see Col. 3:5).

8:15 adoption. The act of God that places the believer in His family as an adult son (v. 23; 9:4; Gal. 4:5; Eph. 1:5). At the same time he is born into the family of God as a child who needs to grow and develop. His position is one of full privilege; his practice involves growth in grace. Abba. Aramaic for father.

8:16 children. Not the same word as in verses 14 and 15 but one that means "born ones" (as in John 1:12).

8:18–25 A statement of the Christian hope as it affects the individual (v. 18) and the entire creation (vv. 19–25). Compare 2 Cor. 4:17.

8:20 was subjected to futility. After Adam sinned, God was obliged to subject the creation to futility so that man in his sinful state might retain some measure of dominion over creation. Nature was involved for evil in man's fall; she will be emancipated when man receives the adoption as sons (v. 23).

8:23 first fruits of the Spirit. "Spirit" is an appositive genitive meaning that first fruits is the Spirit, whose presence in us guarantees the full completion of our salvation. The culmination of our position as adopted sons is the resurrection state.

8:24 in hope. I.e., in the just-expressed hope (vv. 21–23) of the future redemption of the body.

8:26 The Holy Spirit helps our weakness (our inability to pray intelligently about situations) by praying with unutterable groanings. This is not the gift of tongues, for these groans are not in words. Such intercession is in accord with God's will (v. 27).

8:28 A promise only for those who love God. The good is conformity to Christ (v. 29).

8:29 predestined. See note on Eph. 1:5. The destiny of the elect is to be conformed to Christ.

8:30 called. See note on 1:6. justified. See note on 3:24. glorified. The tense of this word shows that our future glorification is so certain that it can be said to be accomplished. Those who were foreknown will all be glorified without loss of a single one.

8:33–34 The Father has declared us righteous; therefore, He will not condemn us. Christ died, rose, and lives for us; therefore neither will He condemn us.

8:36 Difficulties are not necessarily obstacles for God's children, but His appointed way.

8:39 nor any other created thing. Nothing in the universe is outside God's control; therefore, nothing (including ourselves) can separate us from His eternal love.

9:1 Here begins Paul's discussion of perplexing questions about the Jewish people. Why were they refusing the gospel? How does this new scheme of righteousness apart from the law relate to the privileged position of the Jews? Have the promises contained in their covenants failed?

conscience testifies with me in the Holy Spirit,

2 that I have great sorrow and unceasing grief in my heart.

3 For [a]I could wish that I myself were [b]accursed, separated from Christ for the sake of my brethren, my kinsmen [c]according to the flesh,

4 who are [a]Israelites, to whom belongs [b]the adoption as sons, and [c]the glory and [d]the covenants and [e]the giving of the Law and [f]the temple service and [g]the promises,

5 whose are [a]the fathers, and [b]from whom is the Christ according to the flesh, [c]who is over all, [d]God [e]blessed forever. Amen.

2 God's sovereignty, 9:6–29

6 But it is not as though [a]the word of God has failed. [b]For they are not all Israel who are descended from Israel;

7 neither are they all children [a]because they are Abraham's descendants, but: "[b]THROUGH ISAAC YOUR DESCENDANTS WILL BE NAMED."

8 That is, it is not the children of the flesh who are [a]children of God, but the [b]children of the promise are regarded as descendants.

9 For this is the word of promise: "[a]AT THIS TIME I WILL COME, AND SARAH SHALL HAVE A SON."

10 [a]And not only this, but there was [b]Rebekah also, when she had conceived twins by one man, our father Isaac;

11 for though the twins were not yet born and had not done anything good or bad, so that [a]God's purpose according to His choice would stand, not because of works but because of Him who calls,

12 it was said to her, "[a]THE OLDER WILL SERVE THE YOUNGER."

13 Just as it is written, "[a]JACOB I LOVED, BUT ESAU I HATED."

14 [a]What shall we say then? [b]There is no injustice with God, is there? [c]May it never be!

15 For He says to Moses, "[a]I WILL HAVE MERCY ON WHOM I HAVE MERCY, AND I WILL HAVE COMPASSION ON WHOM I HAVE COMPASSION."

16 So then it does not depend on the man who wills or the man who [a]runs, but on [b]God who has mercy.

17 For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, "[a]FOR THIS VERY PURPOSE I RAISED YOU UP, TO DEMONSTRATE MY POWER IN YOU, AND THAT MY NAME MIGHT BE PROCLAIMED THROUGHOUT THE WHOLE EARTH."

18 So then He has mercy on whom He desires, and He [a]hardens whom He desires.

19 [a]You will say to me then, "[b]Why does He still find fault? For [c]who resists His will?"

20 On the contrary, who are you, [a]O man, who [b]answers back to God? [c]The thing molded will not say to the molder, "Why did you make me like this," will it?

21 Or does not the potter have a right over the clay, to make from the same lump one vessel for honorable use and another for common use?

9:4–5 The privileges of the Jewish people included adoption as a nation (Ex. 4:22), glory (Ex. 16:10), covenants (Eph. 2:12), the Mosaic Law, service in the Tabernacle and Temple, thousands of promises, the patriarchs, and Christ.

9:5 who is over all . . . Amen. Some regard these words as comprising a grammatically separate sentence, a doxology. Although early mss. were not punctuated, the punctuation in the present text seems correct. Paul's anguish over the Jews' rejection of Christ drives him to avow his own recognition of Him as God. A doxology does not fit the train of thought here.

9:6–13 Not all Israelites (physically) are Israel (spiritually; cf. 2:28–29). Proof of God's sovereign selection: God chose Isaac, not Ishmael, and Jacob, not Esau.

9:13 LOVED . . . HATED. Chosen, rejected.

9:15 If God were not free to show His mercy, no one would be blessed, for no one deserves His grace, and it cannot be earned.

9:19–21 An opponent might say that Paul's conclusion in verse 18 leads to fatalism. Paul, however, does not give an analytical answer but rebukes the questioner for such a preposterous conclusion. If a potter can do what he wishes with his vessels, certainly God can with His.

9:22 prepared for destruction. Ripe for destrucing to demonstrate His wrath and to make His power known, endured with much [a]patience vessels of wrath [b]prepared for destruction?

23 And He did so to make known [a]the riches of His glory upon [b]vessels of mercy, which He [c]prepared beforehand for glory, 24 even us, whom He also [a]called, [b]not from among Jews only, but also from among Gentiles.

25 As He says also in Hosea,

"[a]I WILL CALL THOSE WHO WERE NOT MY PEOPLE, 'MY PEOPLE,' AND HER WHO WAS NOT BELOVED, 'BELOVED.' "

26 "[a]AND IT SHALL BE THAT IN THE PLACE WHERE IT WAS SAID TO THEM, 'YOU ARE NOT MY PEOPLE,' THERE THEY SHALL BE CALLED SONS OF [b]THE LIVING GOD."

27 Isaiah cries out concerning Israel, "[a]THOUGH THE NUMBER OF THE SONS OF ISRAEL BE [b]LIKE THE SAND OF THE SEA, IT IS [c]THE REMNANT THAT WILL BE SAVED;

28 [a]FOR THE LORD WILL EXECUTE HIS WORD ON THE EARTH, THOROUGHLY AND QUICKLY."

29 And just as Isaiah foretold,

"[a]UNLESS [b]THE LORD OF SABAOTH HAD LEFT TO US A POSTERITY, [c]WE WOULD HAVE BECOME LIKE SODOM, AND WOULD HAVE RESEMBLED GOMORRAH."

B Israel's Present; Rejection, 9:30–10:21

30 [a]What shall we say then? That Gentiles, who did not pursue righteousness, attained righteousness, even [b]the righteousness which is by faith;

31 but Israel, [a]pursuing a law of righteousness, did not [b]arrive at that law.

32 Why? Because they did not pursue it by faith, but as though it were by works. They stumbled over [a]the stumbling stone,

33 just as it is written,

"[a]BEHOLD, I LAY IN ZION [b]A STONE OF STUMBLING AND A ROCK OF OFFENSE, [c]AND HE WHO BELIEVES IN HIM [d]WILL NOT BE DISAPPOINTED."

10 Brethren, my heart's desire and my prayer to God for them is for their salvation.

2 For I testify about them that they have [a]a zeal for God, but not in accordance with knowledge.

3 For not knowing about [a]God's righteousness and [b]seeking to establish their own, they did not subject themselves to the righteousness of God.

4 For [a]Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to [b]everyone who believes.

5 For Moses writes that the man who practices the righteousness which is based on law [a]shall live by that righteousness.

6 But [a]the righteousness based on faith speaks as follows: "[b]DO NOT SAY IN YOUR HEART, 'WHO WILL ASCEND INTO HEAVEN?' (that is, to bring Christ down),

7 or 'WHO WILL DESCEND INTO THE [a]ABYSS?' (that is, to [b]bring Christ up from the dead)."

8 But what does it say? "[a]THE WORD IS NEAR YOU, in your mouth and in your heart"—that is, the word of faith which we are preaching, tion because of their own actions of rejecting the truth.

9:33 See note on Isa. 28:16. The STONE OF STUMBLING was Christ (1 Peter 2:8).

10:1–21 Paul expresses his deep longing for the salvation of Israel (v. 1), who tried to substitute law-righteousness for faith-righteousness (vv. 2–4), though the latter was universally available (vv. 5–13). God gave the Jews every opportunity to receive the gospel, but they had not responded in faith (vv. 14–21).

10:4 Christ is the termination of the law. It could not provide righteousness based on merit, but Christ provides righteousness based on God's grace in response to faith (3:20; Acts 13:39).

10:6–8 To find righteousness, which is by faith, there is no need to ascend to heaven or descend to the abyss, since Christ has come and been raised and offers that righteousness. That is the word proclaimed by Paul.

9 that [a]if you confess with your mouth Jesus as Lord, and [b]believe in your heart that [c]God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved;

10 for with the heart a person believes, resulting in righteousness, and with the mouth he confesses, resulting in salvation.

11 For the Scripture says, "[a]WHOEVER BELIEVES IN HIM WILL NOT BE DISAPPOINTED."

12 For [a]there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord is [b]Lord of [c]all, abounding in riches for all who call on Him;

13 for "[a]WHOEVER WILL CALL ON THE NAME OF THE LORD WILL BE SAVED."

14 How then will they call on Him in whom they have not believed? How will they believe in Him [a]whom they have not heard? And how will they hear without [b]a preacher?

15 How will they preach unless they are sent? Just as it is written, "[a]HOW BEAUTIFUL ARE THE FEET OF THOSE WHO [b]BRING GOOD NEWS OF GOOD THINGS!"

16 However, they [a]did not all heed the good news; for Isaiah says, "[b]LORD, WHO HAS BELIEVED OUR REPORT?"

17 So faith comes from [a]hearing, and hearing by [b]the word of Christ.

18 But I say, surely they have never heard, have they? Indeed they have;

"[a]THEIR VOICE HAS GONE OUT INTO ALL THE EARTH, AND THEIR WORDS TO THE ENDS OF THE WORLD."

19 But I say, surely Israel did not know, did they? First Moses says,

"[a]I WILL [b]MAKE YOU JEALOUS BY THAT WHICH IS NOT A NATION, BY A NATION WITHOUT UNDERSTANDING WILL I ANGER
YOU."

20 And Isaiah is very bold and says,

"[a]I WAS FOUND BY THOSE WHO DID NOT SEEK ME,
I BECAME MANIFEST TO THOSE WHO DID NOT ASK FOR ME."

21 But as for Israel He says, "[a]ALL THE DAY LONG I HAVE STRETCHED OUT MY HANDS TO A DISOBEDIENT AND OBSTINATE PEOPLE."

C Israel's Future; Salvation, 11:1–36

1 The extent of Israel's rejection (partial), 11:1–10

11 I say then, God has not [a]rejected His people, has He? [b]May it never be! For [c]I too am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God [a]has not rejected His people whom He [b]foreknew. [c]Or do you not know what the Scripture says in the passage about Elijah, how he pleads with God against Israel?

3 "Lord, [a]THEY HAVE KILLED YOUR PROPHETS, THEY HAVE TORN DOWN YOUR ALTARS, AND I ALONE AM LEFT, AND THEY ARE SEEKING MY LIFE."

4 But what is the divine response to him? "[a]I HAVE KEPT for Myself SEVEN THOUSAND MEN WHO HAVE NOT BOWED THE KNEE TO BAAL."

5 In the same way then, there has also come to be at the present

---

10:9 Jesus as Lord. Lord, or Yahweh, is the OT name for God; thus he who confesses that Jesus is Lord affirms His deity.

10:10 These are simultaneous actions: one inward (heart) and the other outward (mouth).

10:14–15 Though God's election of His people is of His own free choice and not based on human merit (9:11, 23), the elect are not saved without believing the message that is preached by those who are sent (Isa. 52:7).

10:17 by the word of Christ. The spoken word rather than the written Word (Bible). Our oral testimony (our preaching of Christ) is, of course, based on the Bible.

10:21 God implores Israel to turn to Him, but they continue in disobedience.

11:1–36 In this chapter Paul assures us that God has not forgotten His people, the Jews, and His promises to them. After the full number of Gentiles have been incorporated into the church, all Jews will turn to the Lord, not a mere handful as now. Paul does not assert that the OT promises to Israel have been transferred to the largely Gentile church.

time [a]a remnant according to God's gracious choice.

6 But [a]if it is by grace, it is no longer on the basis of works, otherwise grace is no longer grace.

7 What then? What [a]Israel is seeking, it has not obtained, but those who were chosen obtained it, and the rest were [b]hardened;

8 just as it is written,

"[a]GOD GAVE THEM A SPIRIT OF STUPOR, EYES TO SEE NOT AND EARS TO HEAR NOT, DOWN TO THIS VERY DAY."

9 And David says,

"[a]LET THEIR TABLE BECOME A SNARE AND A TRAP,
AND A STUMBLING BLOCK AND A RETRIBUTION TO THEM.

10 "[a]LET THEIR EYES BE DARKENED TO SEE NOT,
AND BEND THEIR BACKS FOREVER."

2 The purpose of Israel's rejection, 11:11–24

11 [a]I say then, they did not stumble so as to fall, did they? [b]May it never be! But by their transgression [c]salvation has come to the Gentiles, to [d]make them jealous.

12 Now if their transgression is riches for the world and their failure is riches for the Gentiles, how much more will their [a]fulfillment be!

13 But I am speaking to you who are Gentiles. Inasmuch then as [a]I am an apostle of Gentiles, I magnify my ministry, 14 if somehow I might [a]move to jealousy [b]my fellow countrymen and [c]save some of them.

15 For if their rejection is the [a]reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance be but [b]life from the dead?

16 If the [a]first piece of dough is holy, the lump is also; and if the root is holy, the branches are too.

17 But if some of the [a]branches were broken off, and [b]you, being a wild olive, were grafted in among them and became partaker with them of the rich root of the olive tree,

18 do not be arrogant toward the branches; but if you are arrogant, remember that [a]it is not you who supports the root, but the root supports you.

19 [a]You will say then, "Branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in."

20 Quite right, they were broken off for their unbelief, but you [a]stand by your faith. [b]Do not be conceited, but fear;

21 for if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will He spare you.

22 Behold then the kindness and severity of God; to those who fell, severity, but to you, God's [a]kindness, [b]if you continue in His kindness; otherwise you also [c]will be cut off.

23 And they also, [a]if they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again.

24 For if you were cut off from what is by nature a wild olive tree, and were grafted contrary to nature into a cultivated olive tree, how much more will these who are the natural branches be grafted into their own olive tree?

11:9 God's blessings (THEIR TABLE) actually became a STUMBLING BLOCK to their receiving God's righteousness.

11:11 so as to fall. I.e., fall beyond recovery. The answer is an emphatic no.

11:15 When Israel rejected Jesus Christ, the nation lost her favored position before God, and the gospel was then preached also to Gentiles. Hopefully the Jews would become jealous and be saved (v. 11). But the casting off is only temporary. When the Lord returns, the Jewish people will be regathered, judged, restored to favor, and redeemed (v. 26). This will be for them life from the dead.

11:17–24 The olive tree is the place of privilege that was first occupied by the natural branches (the Jews). The wild branches are Gentiles who, because of the unbelief of Israel, now occupy the place of privilege. The root of the tree is the Abrahamic covenant that promised blessing to both Jew and Gentile through Christ.

11:21 If God set aside Israel for their unbelief, He could do the same to Gentiles for their pride.

2 And do not [a]be conformed to [b]this world, but be transformed by the [c]renewing of your mind, so that you may [d]prove what the will of God is, that which is good and acceptable and perfect.

B In Relation to the Church, 12:3–8

12:3 [a]Rom 1:5; 15:15; 1 Cor 3:10; 15:10; Gal 2:9; Eph 3:7f

3 For through [a]the grace giv-

11:25 Israel's hardening is partial (Jews are being saved today) and temporary (until they acknowledge Jesus at His second coming). the fulness of the Gentiles. I.e., the full number of Gentiles who will be saved (Acts 15:14). After that, God will turn again to the Jews and will save "all Israel" at the Lord's return (v. 26).

11:28–29 Because the promises made to the patriarchs are irrevocable, Israel must be restored.

11:32 all . . . all. I.e., Jews and Gentiles alike.

11:33–36 The thought of God's mercy to Jews and Gentiles (v. 32) calls forth this great doxology.

11:36 God is the source (from Him), sustainer (through Him), and goal (to Him) of all things.

12:1 brethren. This appeal for dedication of life is addressed to believers (as also in 1 Cor. 6:20; James 4:7). by the mercies of God, which has been described in the preceding chapters. present. A decisive decision as in 6:13. living . . . sacrifice in contrast to dead animal sacrifices. spiritual service. Intelligent, rational, and deliberate.

12:2 do not be conformed. I.e., do not live according to the style or manner of this present age. The only other occurrence of this Greek word in the NT is in 1 Peter 1:14. be transformed. A continual process of change from inside out. The word is used of Christ's transfiguration (Matt. 17:2; also in 2 Cor. 3:18). mind. The center for this change (cf. Eph. 4:23; 2 Cor. 10:5). prove. Ascertain. Dedication gives the ability to discern God's will.

12:3 In introducing the subject of the use of spiritual gifts, Paul warns against high-mindedness and exhorts sober-mindedness, en to me I say to everyone among you [b]not to think more highly of himself than he ought to think; but to think so as to have sound judgment, as God has allotted to [c]each a measure of faith.

4 For [a]just as we have many members in one body and all the members do not have the same function,

5 so we, [a]who are many, are [b]one body in Christ, and individually members one of another.

6 Since we have gifts that [a]differ according to the grace given to us, each of us is to exercise them accordingly: if [b]prophecy, according to the proportion of his faith;

7 if [a]service, in his serving; or he who [b]teaches, in his teaching;

8 or he who [a]exhorts, in his exhortation; he who gives, with [b]liberality; [c]he who leads, with diligence; he who shows mercy, with [d]cheerfulness.

C In Relation to Society, 12:9–21

9 Let [a]love be without hypocrisy. [b]Abhor what is evil; cling to what is good.

10 Be [a]devoted to one another in brotherly love; give preference to one another [b]in honor;

11 not lagging behind in diligence, [a]fervent in spirit, [b]serving the Lord;

12 [a]rejoicing in hope, [b]persevering in tribulation, [c]devoted to prayer,

13 [a]contributing to the needs of the saints, [b]practicing hospitality.

14 [a]Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse.

15 [a]Rejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep.

16 [a]Be of the same mind toward one another; [b]do not be haughty in mind, but associate with the lowly. [c]Do not be wise in your own estimation.

17 [a]Never pay back evil for evil to anyone. [b]Respect what is right in the sight of all men.

18 If possible, [a]so far as it depends on you, [b]be at peace with all men.

19 [a]Never take your own revenge, beloved, but leave room for the wrath of God, for it is written, "[b]VENGEANCE IS MINE, I WILL REPAY," says the Lord.

20 "[a]BUT IF YOUR ENEMY IS HUNGRY, FEED HIM, AND IF HE IS THIRSTY, GIVE HIM A DRINK; FOR IN SO DOING YOU WILL HEAP BURNING COALS ON HIS HEAD."

21 Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

D In Relation to Government, 13:1–14

13 Every [a]person is to be in [b]subjection to the governing authorities. For [c]there is no authority except from God, and those which exist are established by God.

2 Therefore whoever resists authority has opposed the ordinance of God; and they who have opposed will receive condemnation upon themselves.

3 For [a]rulers are not a cause of fear for good behavior, but for evil. Do you want to have no fear based on the measure of faith to work for God that has been given each one.

12:4 one body. For this concept, see the note on 1 Cor. 12:12–31.

12:6 gifts. On spiritual gifts, see note on 1 Cor. 1:7. according to the proportion of his faith I.e., the revelations that come through the prophet must be in agreement with the body of truth already revealed.

12:11 not lagging behind in diligence. Do not let your zeal slacken. fervent in = boiling with.

12:17–21 Exhortations concerning believers' relations with unbelievers.

12:20 BURNING COALS. The burning pangs of shame and guilt may lead to his repentance.

13:1 be in subjection. From the same Greek verb used by Paul in Titus 3:1 and by Peter in 1 Peter 2:13, where essentially the same view of the individual's proper attitude to the state is set forth. there is no authority except from God. This does not say that only certain forms of government are ordained of God. God established and upholds the principle of government even though some governments do not fulfill His desires.

of authority? Do what is good and you will have praise from the same;

★13:4 4 for it is a minister of God to you for good. But if you do what is evil, be afraid; for it does not bear the sword for nothing; for it is a minister of God, an [a]avenger who brings wrath on the one who practices evil.

13:5 5 Therefore it is necessary to be in subjection, not only because of wrath, but also [a]for conscience' sake.

★13:6 6 For because of this you also pay taxes, for rulers are servants of God, devoting themselves to this very thing.

13:7 7 [a]Render to all what is due them: [b]tax to whom tax is due; [c]custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honor to whom honor.

13:8 8 Owe nothing to anyone except to love one another; for [a]he who loves his neighbor has fulfilled the law.

13:9 9 For this, "[a]YOU SHALL NOT COMMIT ADULTERY, YOU SHALL NOT MURDER, YOU SHALL NOT STEAL, YOU SHALL NOT COVET," and if there is any other commandment, it is summed up in this saying, "[b]YOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF."

13:10 10 Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore [a]love is the fulfillment of the law.

★13:11 11 Do this, knowing the time, that it is [a]already the hour for you to [b]awaken from sleep; for now salvation is nearer to us than when we believed.

13:12 12 [a]The night is almost gone, and [b]the day is near. Therefore let us lay aside [c]the deeds of darkness and put on [d]the armor of light.

13:13 13 Let us [a]behave properly as in the day, [b]not in carousing and drunkenness, not in sexual promiscuity and sensuality, not in strife and jealousy.

★13:14 14 But [a]put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh [b]in regard to its lusts.

E In Relation to Other Believers, 14:1–15:13

1 Do not judge one another, 14:1–12

14:1 14 Now [a]accept the one who is [b]weak in faith, but not for the purpose of passing judgment on his opinions.

14:2 2 [a]One person has faith that he may eat all things, but he who is [b]weak eats vegetables only.

14:3 3 The one who eats is not to [a]regard with contempt the one who does not eat, and the one who does not eat is not to [b]judge the one who eats, for God has [c]accepted him.

14:4 4 [a]Who are you to judge the servant of another? To his own master he stands or falls; and he will stand, for the Lord is able to make him stand.

14:5 5 [a]One person regards one day above another, another regards every day alike. Each person must be [b]fully convinced in his own mind.

6 He who observes the day, observes it for the Lord, and he 13:4 it does not bear the sword for nothing. God has given the state the power of life and death over its subjects in order to maintain order. This word for sword indicates one that was shaped like a sabre and was carried by magistrates to show that they had the power to punish, even to death. Therefore, one should hold government in healthy respect.

13:6–7 taxes. Paid to Caesar (as in Luke 20:22). custom. Toll or duty.

13:8 Some debt may be permitted because of Matt. 5:42, but the command is, literally, not to continue in debt. Love is a debt one can never fully discharge.

13:11 from sleep. I.e., out of insensitivity to sin. salvation. The future culmination of our salvation at the return of the Lord is nearer every day.

13:14 An illustration of obedience to this command is the book burning in Acts 19:19.

14:1–12 Paul here discusses the proper attitude Christians should have toward each other in debatable areas of conduct (things that are not clearly stated to be wrong). He says that we are not to judge one another in such matters because God has received both the weaker and stronger believer (vv. 1–3), because we can differ in good conscience (vv. 4–6) and because we shall all be judged by the Lord (vv. 7–12).

14:1 weak in faith. I.e., one who does not yet have full knowledge of how to live as a Christian. In this case it is one who eats only "vegetables" (v. 2) and not meat.

2 Do not hinder one another, 14:13–23

*14:13 [a] Matt 7:1; Rom 14:3 [b] 1 Cor 8:13

14:15 [a] Eph 5:2 [b] Rom 14:20; 1 Cor 8:11

16 Therefore [a]do not let what is for you a good thing be spoken of as evil;

19 So then let us [a]pursue the things which make for peace and the [b]building up of one another.

14:19 [a] Ps 34:14; Rom 12:18; 1 Cor 7:15; 2 Tim 2:22; Heb 12:14 [b] Rom 15:2; 1 Cor 10:23; 14:3f,26; 2 Cor 12:19; Eph 4:12,29

20 [a]Do not tear down the work of God for the sake of food. [b]All things indeed are clean, but [c]they are evil for the man who eats and gives offense.

14:20 [a] Rom 14:15 [b] Acts 10:15; Rom 14:2,14 [c] 1 Cor 8:9-12

21 [a]It is good not to eat meat or to drink wine, or to do anything by which your brother stumbles.

14:21 [a] 1 Cor 8:13

22 The faith which you have, have as your own conviction before God. Happy is he who [a]does not condemn himself in what he approves.

*14:22 [a] 1 John 3:21

*14:23 [a] Rom 14:5

23 But [a]he who doubts is condemned if he eats, because his eating is not from faith; and whatever is not from faith is sin.

3 Do imitate Christ, 15:1–13

*15:1 [a] Rom 14:1; Gal 6:2; 1 Thess 5:14

15 Now we who are strong ought to bear the weaknesses of [a]those without strength and not just please ourselves.

15:2 [a] 1 Cor 9:22; 10:24,33; 2 Cor 13:9 [b] Rom 14:19; 1 Cor 10:23; 14:3f,26; 2 Cor 12:19; Eph 4:12,29

2 Each of us is to [a]please his neighbor for his good, to his [b]edification.

14:10 Believers are not judges of other believers; all, whether weaker or stronger, will be judged by God (1 Cor. 3:10–15; 2 Cor. 5:10).

14:13 The stronger Christian who allows himself certain liberties must be careful that his lifestyle does not place a stumbling block (something that leads to sin) or an obstacle (something to trip over in the Christian walk) in the path of another believer.

14:14–21 unclean. This refers to foods not permitted by the law (Lev. 11). Though these restrictions no longer applied (v. 20), some immature believers still applied them to their own lives. The mature brother is exhorted to abstain from those foods and also from wine, so as not to be a hindrance to his less mature brothers (v. 21). Abstention, though one may personally think it unnecessary, is better than placing temptation in a brother's way.

14:22 faith. I.e., a conviction or standard in regard to these matters. Every believer should have standards, but should see that they are used to help others, never to hinder them (15:2).

14:23 whatever. I.e., of these matters about which there is legitimate difference of opinion, not about conduct that is clearly sinful.

15:1 Paul counts himself among the strong, yet he gladly placed restrictions on his conduct for the sake of his witness (1 Cor. 9:19–27).

15:3 3 For even [a]Christ did not please Himself; but as it is written, "[b]THE REPROACHES OF THOSE WHO REPROACHED YOU FELL ON ME."

15:4 4 For [a]whatever was written in earlier times was written for our instruction, so that through perseverance and the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope.

15:5 5 Now may the [a]God who gives perseverance and encouragement grant you [b]to be of the same mind with one another according to Christ Jesus, 15:6 6 so that with one accord you may with one voice glorify [a]the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

15:7 7 Therefore, [a]accept one another, just as Christ also accepted us to the glory of God.

15:8 8 For I say that Christ has become a servant to [a]the circumcision on behalf of the truth of God to confirm [b]the promises given to the fathers,

15:9 9 and for [a]the Gentiles to [b]glorify God for His mercy; as it is written,

"[c]THEREFORE I WILL GIVE PRAISE TO YOU AMONG THE GENTILES, AND I WILL SING TO YOUR NAME."

15:10 10 Again he says,

"[a]REJOICE, O GENTILES, WITH HIS PEOPLE."

15:11 11 And again,

"[a]PRAISE THE LORD ALL YOU
GENTILES, AND LET ALL THE PEOPLES PRAISE HIM."

15:12 12 Again Isaiah says,

"[a]THERE SHALL COME [b]THE ROOT OF JESSE,
AND HE WHO ARISES TO RULE
OVER THE GENTILES,
[c]IN HIM SHALL THE GENTILES
HOPE."

13 Now may the God of hope fill you with all [a]joy and peace in believing, so that you will abound in hope [b]by the power of the Holy Spirit.

VII PERSONAL MESSAGES AND BENEDICTION, 15:14–16:27

A Paul's Plans, 15:14–33

15:14 14 And concerning you, my brethren, I myself also am convinced that you yourselves are full of [a]goodness, filled with [b]all knowledge and able also to admonish one another.

15:15 15 But I have written very boldly to you on some points so as to remind you again, because of [a]the grace that was given me from God,

15:16 16 to be [a]a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles, ministering as a priest the [b]gospel of God, so that my [c]offering of the Gentiles may become acceptable, sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

15:17 17 Therefore in Christ Jesus I have found [a]reason for boasting in [b]things pertaining to God.

15:18 18 For I will not presume to speak of anything except what [a]Christ has accomplished through me, resulting in the obedience of the Gentiles by word and deed,

15:19 19 in the power of [a]signs and wonders, [b]in the power of the Spirit; so that [c]from Jerusalem and round about as [d]far as Illyricum I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

15:20 20 And thus I aspired to [a]preach the gospel, not where Christ was already named, [b]so

---

15:3 By pointing to the example of Christ and quoting from Ps. 69:9, Paul answers the question, Why should I restrict myself?

15:8–9 a servant to the circumcision. Jesus ministered to His fellow-Jews to confirm the promises made to Israel (9:4) and to Gentiles who, though without covenants, received the mercy of God.

15:9–12 All the quotations in these verses (from Ps. 18:49; Deut. 32:43; Ps. 117:1; Isa. 11:10) are from the LXX version of the OT and are cited to validate Christ's ministry to Gentiles.

15:16 to the Gentiles. See Gal. 2:9.

15:19 Illyricum. The area on the eastern shore of the Adriatic, extending from NE Italy to Macedonia (the former nation of Yugoslavia).

15:20 not where Christ was already named. I.e., where Christ was unknown.

that I would not build on another man's foundation;

15:21 [a]Is 52:15
21 but as it is written,
"[a]THEY WHO HAD NO NEWS OF HIM SHALL SEE,
AND THEY WHO HAVE NOT HEARD SHALL UNDERSTAND."

15:22 [a]Rom 1:13; 1 Thess 2:18
22 For this reason [a]I have often been prevented from coming to you;

*15:23 [a]Acts 19:21; Rom 1:10f; 15:29,32
23 but now, with no further place for me in these regions, and since I [a]have had for many years a longing to come to you

15:24 [a]Rom 15:28 [b]Acts 15:3 [c]Rom 1:12
24 whenever I [a]go to Spain—for I hope to see you in passing, and to be [b]helped on my way there by you, when I have first [c]enjoyed your company for a while—

*15:25 [a]Acts 19:21 [b]Acts 24:17
25 but now, [a]I am going to Jerusalem [b]serving the saints.

15:26 [a]Acts 16:9; 1 Cor 16:5; 2 Cor 1:16; 2:13; 7:5; 8:1; 9:2,4; 11:9; Phil 4:15; 1 Thess 1:7f; 4:10; 1 Tim 1:3 [b]Acts 18:12; 19:21
26 For [a]Macedonia and [b]Achaia have been pleased to make a contribution for the poor among the saints in Jerusalem.

15:27 [a]1 Cor 9:11
27 Yes, they were pleased to do so, and they are indebted to them. For [a]if the Gentiles have shared in their spiritual things, they are indebted to minister to them also in material things.

*15:28 [a]John 3:33 [b]Rom 15:24
28 Therefore, when I have finished this, and [a]have put my seal on this fruit of theirs, I will [b]go on by way of you to Spain.

15:29 [a]Acts 19:21; Rom 1:10f; 15:23,32
29 I know that when [a]I come to you, I will come in the fullness of the blessing of Christ.

15:30 [a]Gal 5:22; Col 1:8 [b]2 Cor 1:11; Col 4:12
30 Now I urge you, brethren, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by [a]the love of the Spirit, to [b]strive together with me in your prayers to God for me,

*15:31 [a]2 Cor 1:10; 2 Thess 3:2; 2 Tim 3:11; 4:17 [b]Rom 15:25f; 2 Cor 8:4; 9:1 [c]Acts 9:13,15
31 that I may be [a]rescued from those who are disobedient in Judea, and that my [b]service for Jerusalem may prove acceptable to the [c]saints;

15:32 [a]Rom 15:23 [b]Acts 18:21; Rom 1:10
32 so that [a]I may come to you in joy by [b]the will of God and find refreshing rest in your company.

15:33 [a]Rom 16:20; 2 Cor 13:11; Phil 4:9; 1 Thess 5:23; 2 Thess 3:16; Heb 13:20
33 Now [a]the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

B Paul's Personal Greetings, 16:1–16

*16:1 [a]2 Cor 3:1 [b]Acts 18:18
16 I [a]commend to you our sister Phoebe, who is a servant of the church which is at [b]Cenchrea;

16:2 [a]Phil 2:29 [b]Acts 9:13,15
2 that you [a]receive her in the Lord in a manner worthy of the [b]saints, and that you help her in whatever matter she may have need of you; for she herself has also been a helper of many, and of myself as well.

*16:3 [a]Acts 18:2 [b]Rom 8:11ff; 16:7,9,10; 2 Cor 5:17; 12:2; Gal 1:22 [c]Rom 8:1
3 Greet [a]Prisca and Aquila, my fellow workers [b]in [c]Christ Jesus,

4 who for my life risked their own necks, to whom not only do I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles;

*16:5 [a]1 Cor 16:19; Col 4:15; Philem 2 [b]1 Cor 16:15 [c]Acts 16:6
5 also greet [a]the church that is in their house. Greet Epaenetus, my beloved, who is the [b]first convert to Christ from [c]Asia.

6 Greet Mary, who has worked hard for you.

*16:7 [a]Rom 9:3; 16:11,21 [b]Col 4:10; Philem 23 [c]Rom 8:11ff; 16:3,9,10; 2 Cor 5:17; 12:2; Gal 1:22
7 Greet Andronicus and Junias, my [a]kinsmen and my [b]fellow prisoners, who are outstanding among the apostles, who also were [c]in Christ before me.

15:23 no further place. I.e., no more opportunity to preach Christ where He was unknown. Therefore, Paul proposed to go to Spain, stopping off in Rome on his way (v. 24).

15:25 serving. I.e., to take the money that had been collected in Greece (see 2 Cor. 8–9).

15:28 this fruit. I.e., the money he was collecting.

15:31 Paul was aware of the difficulties that faced him in Jerusalem (Acts 20:22–23).

16:1 Phoebe . . . a servant of the church. The word here translated "servant" is often translated "deacon," which leads some to believe that Phoebe was a deaconess. However, the word is more likely used here in an unofficial sense of helper. Cenchrea. The eastern port of Corinth.

16:3 Prisca and Aquila. See Acts 18:2, 26; 1 Cor. 16:19; 2 Tim. 4:19. Just how they risked their lives for Paul (v. 4), he does not say.

16:5 the church that is in their house. Early congregations met in homes (1 Cor. 16:19; Col. 4:15; Philem. 2). The several house churches in one city would constitute the church in that city (1 Cor. 1:2).

16:7 outstanding among the apostles. Better, well known to the apostles. Where they were prisoners with Paul is not stated (cf. 2 Cor. 11:23).

8 Greet Ampliatus, my beloved in the Lord.

9 Greet Urbanus, our fellow worker [a]in Christ, and Stachys my beloved.

10 Greet Apelles, the approved [a]in Christ. Greet those who are of the household of Aristobulus.

11 Greet Herodion, my [a]kinsman. Greet those of the household of Narcissus, who are in the Lord.

12 Greet Tryphaena and Tryphosa, workers in the Lord. Greet Persis the beloved, who has worked hard in the Lord.

13 Greet [a]Rufus, a choice man in the Lord, also his mother and mine.

14 Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas and the brethren with them.

15 Greet Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all [a]the saints who are with them.

16 [a]Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the churches of Christ greet you.

C Paul's Concluding Admonition and Benediction, 16:17–27

17 Now I urge you, brethren, keep your eye on those who cause dissensions and hindrances [a]contrary to the teaching which you learned, and [b]turn away from them.

18 For such men are [a]slaves, not of our Lord Christ but of [b]their own appetites; and by their [c]smooth and flattering speech they deceive the hearts of the unsuspecting.

19 For the report of your obedience [a]has reached to all; therefore I am rejoicing over you, but [b]I want you to be wise in what is good and innocent in what is evil.

20 [a]The God of peace will soon crush [b]Satan under your feet.

[c]The grace of our Lord Jesus be with you.

21 [a]Timothy my fellow worker greets you, and so do [b]Lucius and [c]Jason and [d]Sosipater, my [e]kinsmen.

22 I, Tertius, who [a]write this letter, greet you in the Lord.

23 [a]Gaius, host to me and to the whole church, greets you. [b]Erastus, the city treasurer greets you, and Quartus, the brother.

24 [The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.]

25 [a]Now to Him who is able to establish you [b]according to my gospel and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of [c]the mystery which has been kept secret for [d]long ages past,

26 but now is manifested, and by [a]the Scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the eternal God, has been made known to all the nations, leading to [b]obedience of faith;

27 to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, [a]be the glory forever. Amen.

16:16 On the holy kiss, see note on 1 Peter 5:14.

16:19 innocent in what is evil I.e., guileless. The believer should not mix with evil; rather, he should be knowledgeable about good things.

16:21 my kinsmen. Not actual relatives, but fellow countrymen (also vv. 7, 11).

16:22 Tertius. Paul's stenographer.

16:23 Gaius. Presumably the Gaius of 1 Cor. 1:14, whom Paul had baptized. Erastus's name has been found on a pavement that he donated to Corinth.

16:24 Many mss. do not contain this verse.

16:25–26 the mystery. A definition of a scriptural mystery: something unknown in times past but revealed in the NT. See note on Eph. 3:3. Here the mystery is the gospel of Christ. OT prophecies of Messiah could now be understood, once the mystery was revealed (cf. Luke 24:44–45; 1 Peter 1:10–12).

1 CORINTHIANS

INTRODUCTION

AUTHOR: Paul DATE: 55

The City of Corinth Located on the narrow isthmus between the Aegean and Adriatic Seas, Corinth was a port city and wealthy commercial center. Ships wanting to avoid the dangerous trip around the southern tip of Greece were dragged across that isthmus. The city boasted an outdoor theater that accommodated 20,000 people, athletic games second only to the Olympics, a Greek, Roman, and Oriental population, and the great temple of Aphrodite with its 1,000 prostitutes. The immoral condition of Corinth is vividly seen in the fact that the Greek term Korinthiazomai (lit., to act the Corinthian) came to mean "to practice fornication." There were taverns on the south side of the marketplace, and many drinking vessels have been dug up from those liquor lockers. Corinth was noted for everything sinful.

The Church in Corinth The gospel was first preached in Corinth by Paul on his second missionary journey (A.D. 50). While living and working with Aquila and Priscilla, he preached in the synagogue until opposition forced him to move next door, to the house of Titius Justus. The Jews accused him before the Roman governor Gallio, but the charge was dismissed, and Paul remained 18 months in the city (Acts 18:1–17; 1 Cor. 2:3). After leaving, Paul wrote the church a letter, which has been lost (5:9), but disturbing news about the believers and questions they asked Paul in a letter they sent to him (7:1) prompted the writing of 1 Corinthians. Problems there included divisions in the church (1:11), immorality (chap. 5; 6:9–20), and the questions concerning marriage, food, worship, and the resurrection. Aberrant beliefs and practices of an astonishing variety characterized this church.

Place of Writing This letter was written from Ephesus (16:8).

Contents The letter is largely practical in emphasis, dealing with spiritual and moral problems and questions. It is a casebook of pastoral theology. Important emphases include the judgment seat of Christ (3:11–15), the temple of the Holy Spirit (6:19–20), the glory of God (10:31), the Lord's Supper (11:23–34), love (chap. 13), the exercise of gifts (chaps. 12–14), and resurrection (chap. 15).

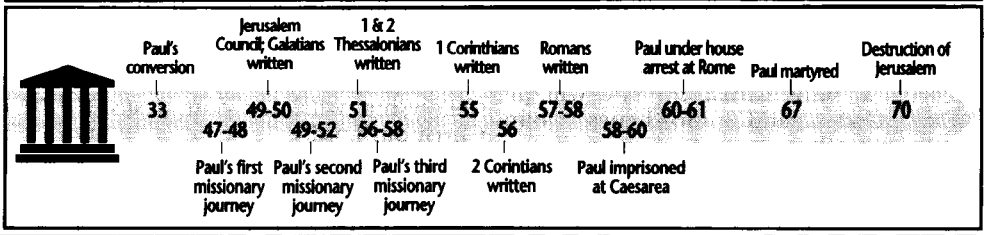
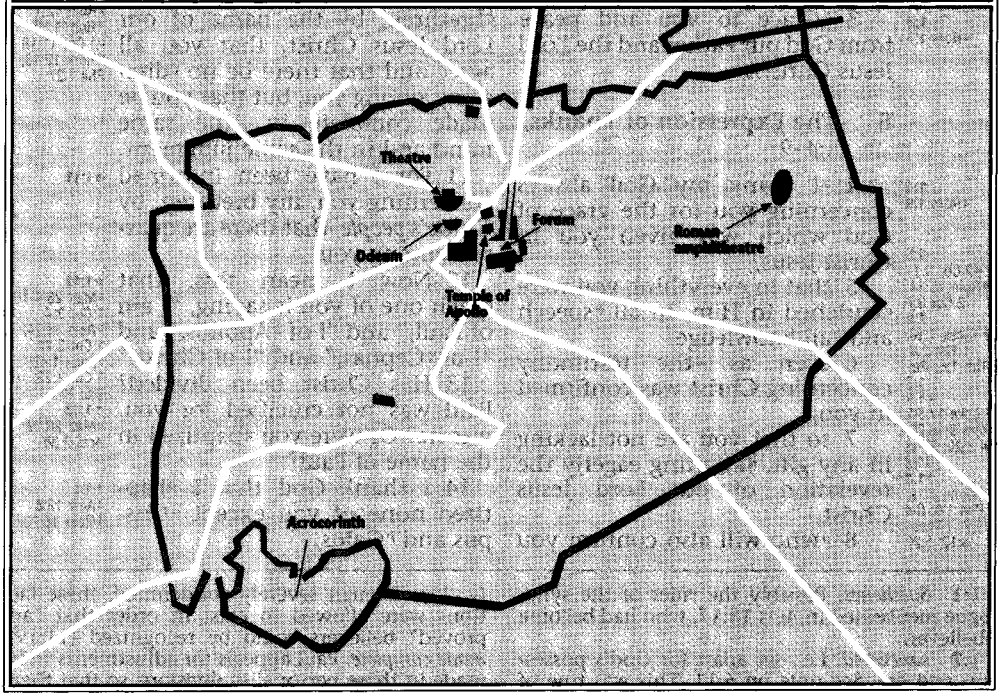
TIMELINE OF 1 CORINTHIANS



CITY OF CORINTH



THE FIRST LETTER OF PAUL TO THE CORINTHIANS

I INTRODUCTION, 1:1–9

A The Salutation, 1:1–3

1 Paul, [a]called as an apostle of Jesus Christ by [b]the will of God, and [c]Sosthenes our [d]brother,

2 to [a]the church of God which is at [b]Corinth, to those who have been sanctified in Christ Jesus, saints [c]by calling, with all who in every place [d]call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours:

3 [a]Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

B The Expression of Thanks, 1:4–9

4 [a]I thank my God always concerning you for the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus,

5 that in everything you were [a]enriched in Him, in all [b]speech and [b]all knowledge,

6 even as [a]the testimony concerning Christ was confirmed in you,

7 so that you are not lacking in any gift, [a]awaiting eagerly the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ,

8 [a]who will also confirm you to the end, blameless in [b]the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 [a]God is faithful, through whom you were [b]called into [c]fellowship with His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

II DIVISIONS IN THE CHURCH, 1:10–4:21

A The Fact of Divisions, 1:10–17

10 Now [a]I exhort you, [b]brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all agree and that there be no [c]divisions among you, but that you be made complete in [d]the same mind and in the same judgment.

11 For I have been informed concerning you, my brethren, by Chloe's people, that there are quarrels among you.

12 Now I mean this, that [a]each one of you is saying, "I am of Paul," and "I of [b]Apollos," and "I of [c]Cephas," and "I of Christ."

13 Has Christ been divided? Paul was not crucified for you, was he? Or were you [a]baptized in the name of Paul?

14 I thank God that I [a]baptized none of you except [a]Crispus and [b]Gaius,

1:1 Sosthenes. Possibly the ruler of the synagogue mentioned in Acts 18:17, who had become a believer.

1:2 sanctified. I.e., set apart for God's possession and use. See note on 6:11. This was true of the Corinthians because of their position in Christ (12:13), in spite of their blatant imperfections.

1:7 gift. I.e., spiritual gift (cf. 12:4–11). Spiritual gifts are abilities that God gives believers in order that they may serve Him. Every Christian has at least one gift (1 Peter 4:10). At Corinth all the various gifts were found within the group. Spiritual gifts are discussed in Rom. 12:3–8; 1 Cor. 12:1–14:40; and Eph. 4:7–16.

1:8 confirm = guarantee. The Corinthians had God's guarantee that they would be in Christ's presence when He returns and that they would then be blameless. This assurance is based on the wonderful fact that God is faithful (v. 9).

1:10 divisions, or schisms, parties. This letter was written to a church divided over personalities (v. 12). Though severely condemned, these factions were allowed to exist in order that "approved" believers could be recognized (11:19). made complete. Paul appeals for adjustments to be made in these personality divisions so that there might be unity in the church. Other issues that divided the church included libertinism (6:13), the relation of men and women in the church (11:2–16), food laws (8:10; 10:25), speaking in tongues (chap. 14), and resurrection of the dead (chap. 15).

1:11 quarrels, or strife, which, according to Gal. 5:20, is a work of the flesh, or old nature.

1:12 The party of Apollos apparently preferred a polished style in preaching (Acts 18:24). The party of Cephas (Peter) appealed to the traditionalists, who wanted a leader who had walked with Christ. The party of Christ included those who disdained attachment to any group and flaunted their liberty in Christ (6:12).

1:13 The impossibility of these things being true demonstrates the fallacies of these factions.

15 so that no one would say you were baptized in my name.
16 Now I did baptize also the [a]household of Stephanas; beyond that, I do not know whether I baptized any other.
17 [a]For Christ did not send me to baptize, but to preach the gospel, [b]not in cleverness of speech, so that the cross of Christ would not be made void.

B The Causes of Divisions, 1:18–2:16

1 The misunderstanding of God's message of the cross,* 1:18–2:5

18 For the word of the cross is [a]foolishness to [b]those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is [c]the power of God.
19 For it is written,
"[a]I WILL DESTROY THE WISDOM OF THE WISE, AND THE CLEVERNESS OF THE CLEVER I WILL SET ASIDE."
20 [a]Where is the wise man? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of [b]this age? Has not God [c]made foolish the wisdom of [d]the world?
21 For since in the wisdom of God [a]the world through its wisdom did not come to know God, [b]God was well-pleased through the [c]foolishness of the message preached to [d]save those who believe.
22 For indeed [a]Jews ask for signs and Greeks search for wisdom;
23 but we preach [a]Christ crucified, [b]to Jews a stumbling block and to Gentiles [c]foolishness,
24 but to those who are [a]the called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ [b]the power of God and [c]the wisdom of God.
25 Because the [a]foolishness of God is wiser than men, and [b]the weakness of God is stronger than men.
26 For consider your [a]calling, brethren, that there were [b]not many wise according to the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble;
27 but [a]God has chosen the foolish things of [b]the world to shame the wise, and God has chosen the weak things of [b]the world to shame the things which are strong,
28 and the base things of [a]the world and the despised God has chosen, [b]the things that are not, so that He may [c]nullify the things that are,
29 so that [a]no man may boast before God.
30 But by His doing you are in [a]Christ Jesus, who became to us [b]wisdom from God, and [c]righteousness and [d]sanctification, and [e]redemption,
31 so that, just as it is written, "[a]LET HIM WHO BOASTS, BOAST IN THE LORD."

2 And when I came to you, brethren, I [a]did not come with superiority of speech or of wisdom, proclaiming to you [b]the testimony of God.
2 For I determined to know nothing among you except [a]Jesus Christ, and Him crucified.
3 I was with you in [a]weak-

1:17 For Christ did not send me to baptize, but to preach the gospel. Though Paul did baptize some (vv. 14, 16), it is clear from this statement that he did not consider baptism necessary for salvation. not in cleverness of speech. Not with persuasive eloquence or argumentation.

1:18–25 In these verses Paul shows that worldly wisdom, which the Corinthians prized so highly, is the very antithesis of the wisdom of God.

1:23 Christ crucified was a stumbling block to Jews, who expected a political savior, and foolishness to Greeks, who considered anyone who would be crucified of no account.

1:26–31 Not only is the message of the cross foolishness to the perishing (v. 18), God uses those who would commonly be considered foolish, weak, and of no consequence to convey that message. An illustration of this truth was their own church group, which did not include many wise, mighty, or noble (v. 26). God's purpose is to exclude all boasting in self (v. 29).

1:30 righteousness of justification. sanctification. Present, progressive sanctification. redemption. Future glorification.

2:3 Paul arrived in Corinth after a discouraging experience in Athens and was anxious about the believers he had just left in Thessalonica (Acts ness and in [b]fear and in much trembling,

4 and my message and my preaching were [a]not in persuasive words of wisdom, but in demonstration of [b]the Spirit and of power,
5 so that your faith would not rest on the wisdom of men, but on [a]the power of God.

2 The misunderstanding of the Spirit's ministry of revealing, 2:6–16

6 Yet we do speak wisdom among those who are [a]mature; a wisdom, however, not of [b]this age nor of the rulers of [b]this age, who are [c]passing away;
7 but we speak God's wisdom in a [a]mystery, the hidden wisdom which God [b]predestined before the [c]ages to our glory;
8 the wisdom [a]which none of the rulers of [b]this age has understood; for if they had understood it they would not have crucified [c]the Lord of glory;
9 but just as it is written,

"[a]THINGS WHICH EYE HAS NOT SEEN AND EAR HAS NOT HEARD,
AND WHICH HAVE NOT ENTERED THE HEART OF MAN,
ALL THAT GOD HAS PREPARED FOR THOSE WHO LOVE HIM."

10 [a]For to us God revealed them [b]through the Spirit; for the Spirit searches all things, even the [c]depths of God.
11 For who among men knows the thoughts of a man except the [a]spirit of the man which is in him? Even so the thoughts of God no one knows except the Spirit of God.
12 Now we [a]have received, not the spirit of [b]the world, but the Spirit who is from God, so that we may know the things freely given to us by God,
13 which things we also speak, [a]not in words taught by human wisdom, but in those taught by the Spirit, combining spiritual thoughts with spiritual words.
14 But a [a]natural man [b]does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are [c]foolishness to him; and he cannot understand them, because they are spiritually appraised.
15 But he who is [a]spiritual appraises all things, yet he himself is appraised by no one.
16 For [a]WHO HAS KNOWN THE MIND OF THE LORD, THAT HE WILL INSTRUCT HIM? But [b]we have the mind of Christ.

C The Consequences of Divisions, 3:1–4:5

1 Spiritual growth is stunted, 3:1–9

3 And I, brethren, could not speak to you as to [a]spiritual men, but as to [b]men of flesh, as to [c]infants in Christ.
2 I gave you [a]milk to drink, not solid food; for you [b]were not yet able to receive it. Indeed, even now you are not yet able,
3 for you are still fleshly. For 17). The overwhelming wickedness of Corinth undoubtedly added to his anxiety.

2:5 wisdom of men. Paul did not want their faith to be placed in clever arguments but in the power of God.

2:7 mystery. The gospel Paul proclaimed, which is understood only by divine revelation.

2:8 the rulers of this age. I.e., those who crucified Christ.

2:9 A free quotation of Isa. 64:4. These things, long hidden, are now revealed by the Spirit (v. 10).

2:13 combining spiritual thoughts with spiritual words. This difficult phrase may perhaps mean "interpreting spiritual truths to spiritual minds."

2:14 a natural man. I.e., an unsaved man. See Jude 19, where the same word is used (translated "worldly-minded") to indicate a person who does not have the Spirit (see also Rom. 8:9).

2:15 he who is spiritual. The mature Christian, who is led and taught by the Spirit, appraises all things; i.e., he can scrutinize, sift, and thereby understand all things; but unbelievers and even carnally-minded Christians cannot appraise (understand) him.

3:1 men of flesh. The Greek word sarkinos means "fleshly" or "of the flesh," with the idea of weakness; in verse 3 fleshly has the overtone of willfulness. Fleshly Christians (brethren) are infants in Christ (i.e., undeveloped) who cannot understand the deeper truths of the Word of God (v. 2) and who are characterized by strife (v. 3).

3:3 still. Their condition was inexcusable, for they had been saved long enough to have grown since there is [a]jealousy and strife among you, are you not fleshly, and are you not walking [b]like mere men?

4 For when [a]one says, "I am of Paul," and another, "I am of Apollos," are you not mere [b]men?

5 What then is Apollos? And what is Paul? [a]Servants through whom you believed, even [b]as the Lord gave opportunity to each one.

6 [a]I planted, [b]Apollos watered, but [c]God was causing the growth.

7 So then neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but God who causes the growth.

8 Now he who plants and he who waters are one; but each will [a]receive his own reward according to his own labor.

9 For we are God's [a]fellow workers; you are God's [b]field, God's [c]building.

up. walking like mere men. Carnal Christians are scarcely distinguishable from natural or unsaved men.

3:6 Paul was the evangelist, Apollos the edifier; but God made it all happen.

3:8 are one. I.e., in harmony, not competition.

2 Rewards will be lost, 3:10–4:5

3:10 10 According to [a]the grace of God which was given to me, like a wise master builder [b]I laid a foundation, and [c]another is building on it. But each man must be careful how he builds on it.

3:11 11 For no man can lay a [a]foundation other than the one which is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

3:12 12 Now if any man builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw,

3:13 13 [a]each man's work will become evident; for [b]the day will show it because it is to be revealed with fire, and the fire itself will test the quality of each man's work.

3:14 14 If any man's work which he has built on it remains, he will [a]receive a reward.

3:15 15 If any man's work is burned up, he will suffer loss; but he himself will be saved, yet [a]so as through fire.

3:16 16 [a]Do you not know that [b]you are a temple of God and that the Spirit of God dwells in you?

3:17 17 If any man destroys the temple of God, God will destroy him, for the temple of God is holy, and that is what you are.

3:18 18 [a]Let no man deceive himself. [b]If any man among you thinks that he is wise in [c]this age, he must become foolish, so that he may become wise.

19 For [a]the wisdom of this world is foolishness before God. For it is written, "He is [b]THE ONE WHO CATCHES THE WISE IN THEIR CRAFTINESS";

20 and again, "[a]THE LORD KNOWS THE REASONINGS of the wise, THAT THEY ARE USELESS."

21 So then [a]let no one boast in men. For [b]all things belong to you,

22 [a]whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas or the world or [b]life or death or things present or things to come; all things belong to you,

23 and [a]you belong to Christ; and [b]Christ belongs to God.

4 Let a man regard us in this manner, as [a]servants of Christ and [b]stewards of [c]the mysteries of God.

2 In this case, moreover, it is required of stewards that one be found trustworthy.

3 But to me it is a very small thing that I may be examined by you, or by any human court; in fact, I do not even examine myself.

4 For I [a]am conscious of nothing against myself, yet I am not by this [b]acquitted; but the one who examines me is the Lord.

5 Therefore [a]do not go on passing judgment before the time, but wait [b]until the Lord comes who will both [c]bring to light the 3:10–15 This passage refers to the judgment seat of Christ (cf. 2 Cor. 5:10). The works discussed here have nothing to do with earning or losing salvation. The rewards (or loss of them) pertain only to Christians.

3:12 gold. Those works that are valuable and enduring. wood. Those that are ultimately worthless.

3:13 Quality, not quantity, of works is the basis of judgment.

3:14 reward. Salvation is a free gift, but rewards, for those who are saved, are earned. The quality of our service (v. 13) is the criterion. Rewards are often spoken of as crowns (cf. 9:25; 1 Thess. 2:19; 2 Tim. 4:8; James 1:12; 1 Peter 5:4; Rev. 2:10; 3:11; 4:4, 10).

3:15 suffer loss. I.e., of reward not salvation, as is made clear in the latter part of the verse.

3:16 a temple of God. Here the local church is viewed as a temple of God inhabited by the Spirit; in 6:19 the individual is a temple of God.

3:17 If any man contributes to the collapse of a local church (whether a believer or a professing believer) he will be severely disciplined by God.

3:18 he must become foolish by accepting God's wisdom, which the world regards as folly.

4:1 servants. The word denotes subordination (originally an under-rower in a trireme, a ship with three banks of oars) and is different from the "servants" used in 3:5. mysteries. See note on Eph. 3:3.

4:2 trustworthy. Reliability was the one necessary virtue for stewards, who were managers or administrators of large estates.

4:4 against myself. Paul is saying, "I have a clear conscience, but my final judgment rests with God."

4:5 At the judgment seat of Christ, when motives are revealed, all believers will receive some praise from God, for all will bear some fruit.

things hidden in the darkness and disclose the motives of men's hearts; and then each man's [d]praise will come to him from God.

D The Example of Paul, 4:6–21

4:6 6 Now these things, brethren, I have figuratively applied to myself and Apollos for your sakes, so that in us you may learn not to exceed [a]what is written, so that no one of you will [b]become arrogant [c]in behalf of one against the other.

4:7 7 For who regards you as superior? [a]What do you have that you did not receive? And if you did receive it, why do you boast as if you had not received it?

4:8 8 You are [a]already filled, you have already become rich, you have become kings without us; and indeed, I wish that you had become kings so that we also might reign with you.

4:9 9 For, I think, God has exhibited us apostles last of all, as men [a]condemned to death; because we [b]have become a spectacle to the world, both to angels and to men.

4:10 10 We are [a]fools for Christ's sake, but [b]you are prudent in Christ; [c]we are weak, but you are strong; you are distinguished, but we are without honor.

4:11 11 To this present hour we are both [a]hungry and thirsty, and are poorly clothed, and are roughly treated, and are homeless;

4:12 12 and we toil, [a]working with our own hands; when we are [b]reviled, we bless; when we are [c]persecuted, we endure;

13 when we are slandered, we try to conciliate; we have [a]become as the scum of the world, the dregs of all things, even until now.

4:14 14 I do not write these things to [a]shame you, but to admonish you as my beloved [b]children.

15 For if you were to have countless [a]tutors in Christ, yet you would not have many fathers, for in [b]Christ Jesus I [c]became your father through the [d]gospel.

16 Therefore I exhort you, be [a]imitators of me.

4:17 17 For this reason I [a]have sent to you [b]Timothy, who is my [c]beloved and faithful child in the Lord, and he will remind you of my ways which are in Christ, [d]just as I teach everywhere in every church.

18 Now some have become [a]arrogant, as though I were not [b]coming to you.

19 But I [a]will come to you soon, [b]if the Lord wills, and I shall find out, not the words of those who are [c]arrogant but their power.

20 For the kingdom of God does [a]not consist in words but in power.

21 What do you desire? [a]Shall I come to you with a rod, or with love and a spirit of gentleness?

III MORAL DISORDERS IN THE CHURCH, 5:1–6:20

A The Case of Incest, 5:1–13

1 The problem stated, 5:1–2

5:1 5 It is actually reported that there is immorality among

4:6 I have figuratively applied. I.e., though Paul had been speaking of himself and Apollos (3:5–4:5), others, whom he did not name, were the real culprits. that in us you may learn not to exceed what is written. I.e., that you might learn by us to live faithfully according to the Scriptures.

4:8–13 With biting irony, Paul contrasts the imagined exaltation of the Corinthians with the degradation and distress that were the apostles' daily lot.

4:9 spectacle. Lit., a theater, referring either to gladiator contests or to a triumphal procession of a Roman general bringing captured soldiers to the arena. Likewise, the apostles in the arena of this world were fighting to the death.

4:15 tutors. The same word is used in Gal. 3:24. See the note there. The Corinthians had many instructors but only one spiritual father, Paul.

4:21 As their spiritual father, Paul would exert discipline (rod) if necessary.

5:1 immorality. I.e., incest, forbidden by both OT and Roman law (Lev. 18:8; Deut. 22:22). has. Suggesting some sort of permanent relationship. his father's wife. Not the offender's mother, but a stepmother, possibly divorced from his father.

5:1 you, and immorality of such a kind as does not exist even among the Gentiles, that someone has [a]his father's wife.
[a] Lev 18:8; Deut 22:30; 27:20

★5:2 2 You [a]have become arrogant and have not [b]mourned instead, so that the one who had done this deed would be [c]removed from your midst.
[a] 1 Cor 4:6 [b] 2 Cor 7:7-10 [c] 1 Cor 5:13

2 The punishment prescribed, 5:3–13

5:3 3 For I, on my part, though [a]absent in body but present in spirit, have already judged him who has so committed this, as though I were present.
[a] Col 2:5; 1 Thess 2:17

5:4 4 [a]In the name of our Lord Jesus, when you are assembled, and I with you in spirit, [b]with the power of our Lord Jesus,
[a] 2 Thess 3:6 [b] John 20:23; 2 Cor 2:10; 13:3,10

★5:5 5 I have decided to [a]deliver such a one to [b]Satan for the destruction of his flesh, so that his spirit may be saved in [c]the day of the Lord Jesus.
[a] Prov 23:14; Luke 22:31; 1 Tim 1:20 [b] Matt 4:10 [c] 1 Cor 1:8

5:6 6 [a]Your boasting is not good. [b]Do you not know that [c]a little leaven leavens the whole lump of dough?
[a] 1 Cor 5:2; James 4:16 [b] Rom 6:16 [c] Hos 7:4; Matt 16:6,12; Gal 5:9

★5:7 7 Clean out the old leaven so that you may be a new lump, just as you are in fact unleavened. For Christ our [a]Passover also has been sacrificed.
[a] Mark 14:12; 1 Pet 1:19

★5:8 8 Therefore let us celebrate the feast, [a]not with old leaven, nor with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.
[a] Ex 12:19; 13:7; Deut 16:3

★5:9 9 I wrote you in my letter [a]not to associate with immoral people;
[a] 2 Cor 6:14; Eph 5:11; 2 Thess 3:6

5:10 10 I did not at all mean with the immoral people of this world, or with the covetous and swindlers, or with [a]idolaters, for then you would have to go out of the world.
[a] 1 Cor 10:27

★5:11 11 But actually, I wrote to you not to associate with any so-called [a]brother if he is an immoral person, or covetous, or [b]an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or a swindler—not even to eat with such a one.
[a] Acts 1:15; 2 Thess 3:6 [b] 1 Cor 10:7,14, 20f

★5:12 12 For what have I to do with judging [a]outsiders? [b]Do you not judge those who are within the church?
[a] Mark 4:11 [b] 1 Cor 5:3-5; 6:1-4

5:13 13 But those who are outside, God judges. [a]REMOVE THE WICKED MAN FROM AMONG YOURSELVES.

B The Problem of Litigation in Heathen Courts, 6:1–8

★6:1 6 Does any one of you, when he has a case against his neighbor, dare to go to law before the unrighteous and [a]not before the saints?
[a] Matt 18:17

★6:2 2 Or [a]do you not know that [b]the saints will judge [c]the
[a] Rom 6:16 [b] Dan 7:18,22, 27; Matt 19:28 [c] 1 Cor 1:20

That nothing is said about disciplining the woman seems to indicate that she was not a Christian.

5:2 removed refers to church discipline and excommunication.

5:5 to deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of his flesh. This evidently means that the church was to discipline this sinning brother by committing him to Satan's domain, the world (1 John 5:19), and to Satan's chastisement, the destruction or ruin of his body (flesh means "body" here) through sickness or even death. destruction does not mean annihilation but ruin. Persistent sin often leads to physical punishment (11:30; 1 John 5:16–17).

5:7 leaven. A symbol of impurity. See note on Matt. 13:33. By position they were unleavened. Paul urges that their practice correspond. Passover. See Ex. 12:1–28. Christ was already sacrificed, and, just as Passover was followed by the Feast of Unleavened Bread (during which all leaven was removed from the houses), so should the Corinthians, who were already cleansed, now walk in holiness.

5:8 the feast. I.e., of Unleavened Bread (cf. Ex. 12:15–20; 13:1–10).

5:9 to associate. I.e., have familiar fellowship. It is impossible not to have some contact with the evil people of the world in the daily pursuits of life (v. 10). But, Paul says, it is improper to have fellowship with a Christian who is under discipline (v. 11).

5:11 To have familiar fellowship with someone under discipline might indicate approval of what he did. So do not even eat with such—an obvious act of fellowship.

5:12–13 The church should leave the judgment of unbelievers to God and concentrate on setting its own house in order.

6:1 a case. Cases involving property, not criminal cases that the state would try.

6:2 the saints will judge the world. Because of our union with Christ, we will be associated with Him in this judgment (during the Millennium; see Matt. 19:28). We will also judge angels (v. 3; see 2 Peter 2:4, 9; Jude 6).

world? If the world is judged by you, are you not competent to constitute the smallest law courts?

6:3 [a]Rom 6:16
3 [a]Do you not know that we will judge angels? How much more matters of this life?

6:4
4 So if you have law courts dealing with matters of this life, do you appoint them as judges who are of no account in the church?

6 but brother goes to law with brother, and that before [a]unbelievers?

6:7 [a]Matt 5:39f
7 Actually, then, it is already a defeat for you, that you have lawsuits with one another. [a]Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be defrauded?

6:10
10 nor thieves, nor the covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor swindlers, will [a]inherit the kingdom of God.

11 [a]Such were some of you; but you were [b]washed, but you were [c]sanctified, but you were [d]justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and in the Spirit of our God.

6:12 [a]1 Cor 10:23
12 [a]All things are lawful for me, but not all things are profitable. All things are lawful for me, but I will not be mastered by anything.

6:13 [a]Matt 15:17 [b]Col 2:22 [c]1 Cor 6:15,19 [d]Gal 5:24; Eph 5:23
13 [a]Food is for the stomach and the stomach is for food, but God will [b]do away with both of them. Yet the body is not for immorality, but [c]for the Lord, and [d]the Lord is for the body.

6:14 [a]Acts 2:24 [b]John 6:39f; 1 Cor 15:23
14 Now God has not only [a]raised the Lord, but [b]will also raise us up through His power.

6:15 [a]1 Cor 6:3 [b]Rom 12:5; 1 Cor 6:13; 12:27; Eph 5:30 [c]Luke 20:16
15 [a]Do you not know that [b]your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I then take away the members of Christ and make them members of a prostitute? [c]May it never be!

6:16 [a]1 Cor 6:3 [b]Gen 2:24; Matt 19:5; Mark 10:8; Eph 5:31
16 Or [a]do you not know that the one who joins himself to a prostitute is one body with her? For He says, "[b]THE TWO SHALL BECOME ONE FLESH."

6:17 [a]John 17:21-23; Rom 8:9-11; 1 Cor 6:15; Gal 2:20
17 But the one who joins himself to the Lord is [a]one spirit with Him.

6:4 appoint them. Better, are you appointing them ... (expressing irony that believers would prefer to take their cases to unbelievers)?

6:7 a defeat. Going to court against a brother brings defeat (because greed or vengeance win) before the case is even heard. It is better to be wronged and take a loss.

6:9 effeminate, nor homosexuals. Both expressions refer to homosexuals, the first to those who allow themselves to be used unnaturally and the second to active homosexuals. Paul's warning is given against the background of incest, homosexuality, pederasty, and other unnatural sexual vices that were prevalent among the Greeks and Romans. Socrates and 14 of the first 15 Roman emperors practiced homosexuality. Paul did not want Christianity confused with sects that permitted such things.

6:10 People whose lifestyles exhibit wickedness, not fruit, show they are unsaved and will, therefore, not inherit the kingdom of God.

6:11 washed. I.e., regenerated (Titus 3:5). sanctified. I.e., set apart for God's use. There are three aspects to sanctification: (1) positional sanctification, possessed by every believer from the moment of his conversion (his perfect standing in holiness, Acts 20:32; 1 Cor. 1:2); (2) progressive sanctification, the daily growth in grace, becoming in practice more and more set apart for God's use (John 17:17; Eph. 5:26); and (3) ultimate sanctification, attained only when we are fully and completely set apart to God in heaven (1 Thess. 5:23). justified. See note on Rom. 3:24.

6:12 are lawful. Apparently some of the Corinthians were trying to use their Christian freedom to justify their sins. Paul here insists that Christian liberty is limited by two considerations: Is the practice expedient (helpful) and will it enslave?

6:13 Some were saying that just as food and the stomach necessarily go together, so the body and sexual indulgence go together. Not so, says Paul. Rather, the body should always glorify the Lord.

6:16 Adultery creates a union but not a marriage.

18 [a]Flee immorality. Every other sin that a man commits is outside the body, but the immoral man sins against his own body.

19 Or [a]do you not know that [b]your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have from God, and that [c]you are not your own?

20 For [a]you have been bought with a price: therefore glorify God in [b]your body.

IV DISCUSSION CONCERNING MARRIAGE, 7:1–40

A Marriage and Celibacy, 7:1–9

7 Now concerning the things about which you wrote, it is [a]good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 But because of immoralities, each man is to have his own wife, and each woman is to have her own husband.

3 The husband must fulfill his duty to his wife, and likewise also the wife to her husband.

4 The wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband does; and likewise also the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife does.

5 [a]Stop depriving one another, except by agreement for a time, so that you may devote yourselves to prayer, and come together again so that [b]Satan will not tempt you because of your lack of self-control.

6 But this I say by way of concession, [a]not of command.

7 Yet I wish that all men were [a]even as I myself am. However, [b]each man has his own gift from God, one in this manner, and another in that.

8 But I say to the unmarried and to widows that it is [a]good for them if they remain [b]even as I.

9 But if they do not have self-control, [a]let them marry; for it is better to marry than to burn with passion.

B Marriage and Divorce, 7:10–24

10 But to the married I give instructions, [a]not I, but the Lord, that the wife should not leave her husband

11 (but if she does leave, she must remain unmarried, or else be reconciled to her husband), and that the husband should not divorce his wife.

12 But to the rest [a]I say, not the Lord, that if any brother has a

*7:12 [a]1 Cor 7:6; 2Cor 11:17

6:18 Flee immorality. I.e., make it your habit to flee immorality. Joseph's reaction to the advances of Potiphar's wife (Gen. 39:12) literally illustrates this principle.

6:19 your body is a temple. A sharp contrast to the temple of Aphrodite in Corinth where the priestesses were prostitutes.

6:20 glorify. Show God's character in our bodies.

7:1 you wrote. In this chapter Paul is not writing a treatise on marriage but answering questions that had been sent to him. We have only one side of the correspondence. It is clear that Paul favored celibacy (vv. 1, 7, 8, 9, 27, 38), though he approved marriage (vv. 2, 27, 28). For more complete NT teaching concerning marriage, see John 2:1–11; Eph. 5:21–33; 1 Tim. 5:14; Heb. 13:4; 1 Peter 3:1–7. it is good . . . Probably a position taken by some at Corinth. Paul grants its validity but states that marriage is better for those who might be overcome by the practices of the evil society in which they live (v. 2).

7:2–5 In the mutuality of marriage, each partner has rights of his or her own and debts to the other.

7:6 this refers back to the advice of verse 2. by way of concession because marriage is not a must.

7:7 one in this manner (i.e., celibate), and another in that (i.e., married).

7:8 even as I. Paul was obviously unmarried when he wrote these words. He might have been a widower. It is difficult, however, to substantiate that he had been married on the basis that he was a member of the Sanhedrin (Acts 26:10). It is uncertain that he was a member and also uncertain that members had to be married in the period before A.D. 70.

7:9 burn. I.e., with passion.

7:10–11 According to both Paul's and Christ's teachings (Mark 10:1–12), believers should not divorce. If separation does occur, the believer must either remain unmarried permanently or be reconciled permanently.

7:12–13 These verses deal with marriages in which one partner becomes a believer after the marriage. I say, not the Lord. I.e., Christ did not give any teaching concerning spiritually mixed marriages, but Paul does, and his teaching is auwife who is an unbeliever, and she consents to live with him, he must not divorce her.

13 And a woman who has an unbelieving husband, and he consents to live with her, she must not send her husband away.

7:14 14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified through his wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified through her believing husband; for otherwise your children are unclean, but now they are [a]holy.

thoritative. Such spiritually mixed marriages are to stay together if at all possible.

7:14 sanctified. The presence of a believer in the home sets the home apart and gives it a Christian influence it would not otherwise have. A believing partner, therefore, should stay with the unbeliever. However, this does not mean that children born into such a home are automatically Christians. They are holy in the sense of being set apart by the presence of one believing parent.

7:15 leaves. If the unbelieving partner chooses to separate, the believer must accept it, though everything should be done to prevent the separation. Nothing is said about a second marriage for the believer.

7:17–24 The principle of remaining in one's marital relationship is part of a more general principle: In everything the Christian is to remain in his calling, unless it is immoral (v. 24).

7:25–35 Celibacy is presented as desirable, though not necessary.

7:26 the present distress. Probably a particularly difficult circumstance through which the Corinthian Christians were passing.

7:27–28 Because difficulties or persecution may come (v. 28), stay either married (v. 27a) or single (v. 27b); still, if one marries, it is not sin.

7:29–35 Because time to serve Christ is short, all should live for Him in every circumstance of life.

did not rejoice; and those who buy, as though they did not possess;

7:31 31 and those who use the world, as though they did not [a]make full use of it; for [b]the form of this world is passing away.

7:32 32 But I want you to be free from concern. One who is [a]unmarried is concerned about the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord;

33 but one who is married is concerned about the things of the world, how he may please his wife,

34 and his interests are divided. The woman who is unmarried, and the virgin, is concerned about the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and spirit; but one who is married is concerned about the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 This I say for your own benefit; not to put a restraint upon you, but to promote what is seemly and to secure undistracted devotion to the Lord.

★7:36 36 But if any man thinks that he is acting unbecomingly toward his virgin daughter, if she is past her youth, and if it must be so, let him do what he wishes, he does not sin; let her marry.

37 But he who stands firm in his heart, being under no constraint, but has authority over his own will, and has decided this in his own heart, to keep his own virgin daughter, he will do well.

38 So then both he who gives his own virgin daughter in marriage does well, and he who does not give her in marriage will do better.

D Marriage and Remarriage, 7:39–40

★7:39 39 [a]A wife is bound as long as her husband lives; but if her husband is dead, she is free to be married to whom she wishes, only [b]in the Lord.

7:40 40 But [a]in my opinion she is happier if she remains as she is; and I think that I also have the Spirit of God.

V DISCUSSION CONCERNING FOOD OFFERED TO IDOLS, 8:1–11:1

A Enquiry: May a Christian Eat Food Consecrated to a Pagan God? 8:1–13

★8:1 8 Now concerning [a]things sacrificed to idols, we know that we all have [b]knowledge. Knowledge [c]makes arrogant, but love [d]edifies.

8:2 2 [a]If anyone supposes that he knows anything, he has not yet [b]known as he ought to know;

8:3 3 but if anyone loves God, he [a]is known by Him.

★8:4 4 Therefore concerning the eating of [a]things sacrificed to idols, we know that there is [b]no such thing as an idol in the world, and that [c]there is no God but one.

8:5 5 For even if [a]there are so-called gods whether in heaven or on earth, as indeed there are many gods and many lords,

8:6 6 yet for us [a]there is but one God, [b]the Father, [c]from whom are all things and we exist for Him; and [d]one Lord, Jesus Christ, [e]by whom are all things, and we exist through Him.

8:7 7 However not all men [a]have

7:36 Some translations understand any man to refer to the bridegroom, but it is better to understand it as the father, since the verb in verse 38 usually means "to give in marriage," and bridegrooms do not do that, fathers do. if she is past her youth. I.e., if a virgin daughter is getting beyond marriageable age, then her father may arrange a marriage if it must be so.

7:39 only in the Lord. I.e., only another Christian.

8:1 things sacrificed to idols. The remainders of animals that had been sacrificed to heathen idols. If the offering was private, the remainders were claimed by the offerer; if public, they were sold in the market. The questions discussed here concerned what a Christian should do about buying such meat, eating it when served to him at a banquet, and whether to eat in the temple of an idol.

8:4 there is no such thing as an idol in the world. Yet Paul recognizes (v. 5) that there are those that "are so-called gods" and that demons can be behind idols (10:20).

this knowledge; but [b]some, being accustomed to the idol until now, eat food as if it were sacrificed to an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled.

8:7 [b]Rom 14:14, 22f

8 But [a]food will not commend us to God; we are neither the worse if we do not eat, nor the better if we do eat.

8:8 [a]Rom 14:17

9 But [a]take care that this liberty of yours does not somehow become a stumbling block to the [b]weak.

*8:9 [a]Rom 14:13, 21; 1 Cor 10:28; Gal 5:13 [b]Rom 14:1; 1 Cor 8:10f

10 For if someone sees you, who have [a]knowledge, dining in an idol's temple, will not his conscience, if he is weak, be strengthened to eat [b]things sacrificed to idols?

*8:10 [a]1 Cor 8:4ff [b]Acts 15:20; 1 Cor 8:1,4,7

11 For through [a]your knowledge he who is weak [b]is ruined, the brother for whose sake Christ died.

*8:11 [a]1 Cor 8:4ff [b]Rom 14:15,20

B Example of Paul, 9:1–27

9 Am I not [a]free? Am I not an [b]apostle? Have I not [c]seen Jesus our Lord? Are you not [d]my work in the Lord?

9:2 [a]John 3:33; 2 Cor 3:2f [b]Acts 1:25

2 If to others I am not an apostle, at least I am to you; for you are the [a]seal of my [b]apostleship in the Lord.

3 My defense to those who examine me is this:

4 [a]Do we not have a right to eat and drink?

*9:4 [a]1 Cor 9:14; 1 Thess 2:6,9; 2 Thess 3:8f

5 [a]Do we not have a right to take along a believing wife, even as the rest of the apostles and the [b]brothers of the Lord and [c]Cephas?

*9:5 [a]1 Cor 7:7f [b]Matt 12:46 [c]Matt 8:14; John 1:42

6 Or do only [a]Barnabas and I not have a right to refrain from working?

*9:6 [a]Acts 4:36

7 Who at any time serves [a]as a soldier at his own expense? Who [b]plants a vineyard and does not eat the fruit of it? Or who tends a flock and does not use the milk of the flock?

*9:7 [a]2 Cor 10:4; 1 Tim 1:18; 2 Tim 2:3f [b]Deut 20:6; Prov 27:18; 1 Cor 3:6,8 8 I am not speaking these things [a]according to human judgment, am I? Or does not the Law also say these things?

9:8 [a]Rom 3:5

9 For it is written in the Law of Moses, "[a]YOU SHALL NOT MUZZLE THE OX WHILE HE IS THRESHING." God is not concerned about [b]oxen, is He?

*9:9 [a]Deut 25:4; 1 Tim 5:18 [b]Deut 22:1-4; Prov 12:10

10 Or is He speaking altogether for our sake? Yes, [a]for our sake it was written, because [b]the plowman ought to plow in hope, and the thresher to thresh in hope of sharing the crops.

9:10 [a]Rom 4:23f [b]2 Tim 2:6

11 [a]If we sowed spiritual things in you, is it too much if we reap material things from you?

*9:11 [a]Rom 15:27; 1 Cor 9:14

12 If others share the right over you, do we not more? Nevertheless, we [a]did not use this right, but we endure all things [b]so that we will cause no hindrance to the [c]gospel of Christ.

*9:12 [a]Acts 18:3; 20:33; 1 Cor 9:15,18 [b]2 Cor 6:3; 11:12 [c]1 Cor 4:15; 9:14,16,18,23; 2 Cor 2:12

8:9 liberty to eat.

8:10 in an idol's temple. Probably refers to some official function or festival.

8:11 ruined, not eternally, but in his spiritual life.

8:12 sin against Christ because of the union of all believers with Christ.

8:13 Here is the great principle that regulates conduct in morally indifferent matters. It is the principle of love voluntarily regulating liberty (Gal. 5:13).

9:1 This chapter gives an illustration from Paul's own life of the principle of 8:13. He did not take advantage of the rightful privileges he had as an apostle.

9:5 to take along a believing wife. I.e., to be married. Peter was married (Matt. 8:14), as were the rest of the apostles and Christ's brothers.

9:6 to refrain from working. I.e., is it only I and Barnabas who must work for a living? Paul had the right to be supported by those to whom he ministered, but he did not insist on this right (1 Thess. 2:9).

9:7 Others derive their living from their occupation.

9:9 the Law (Deut. 25:4) vindicates Paul's claim.

9:11 material things. I.e., your material support.

9:12 If the Corinthian church supported others, was not Paul even more deserving of their support? Yet he did not take it.

13 [a]Do you not know that those who [b]perform sacred services eat the food of the temple, and those who attend regularly to the altar have their share from the altar?

14 So also [a]the Lord directed those who proclaim the [b]gospel to [c]get their living from the gospel.

2 Paul's restrictions, 9:15–27

15 But I have [a]used none of these things. And I am not writing these things so that it will be done so in my case; for it would be better for me to die than have any man make [b]my boast an empty one.

16 For if I preach the gospel, I have nothing to boast of, for [a]I am under compulsion; for woe is me if I do not preach [b]the gospel.

17 For if I do this voluntarily, I have a [a]reward; but if against my will, I have a [b]stewardship entrusted to me.

18 What then is my [a]reward? That, when I preach the gospel, I may offer the gospel [b]without charge, so as [c]not to make full use of my right in the gospel.

19 For though I am [a]free from all men, I have made myself [b]a slave to all, so that I may [c]win more.

20 [a]To the Jews I became as a Jew, so that I might win Jews; to those who are under the Law, as under the Law though [b]not being myself under the Law, so that I might win those who are under the Law;

21 to those who are [a]without law, [b]as without law, though not being without the law of God but [c]under the law of Christ, so that I might win those who are without law.

22 To the [a]weak I became weak, that I might win the weak; I have become [b]all things to all men, [c]so that I may by all means save some.

23 I do all things for the sake of the gospel, so that I may become a fellow partaker of it.

24 [a]Do you not know that those who run in a race all run, but only one receives [b]the prize? [c]Run in such a way that you may win.

25 Everyone who [a]competes in the games exercises self-control in all things. They then do it to receive a perishable [b]wreath, but we an imperishable.

26 Therefore I [a]run in such a way, as not without aim; I box in such a way, as not [b]beating the air;

27 but I beat [a]my body and make it my slave, so that, after I have preached to others, I myself will not be disqualified.

C Exhortations, 10:1–11:1

1 Avoid self-indulgence, 10:1–13

10 For [a]I do not want you to be unaware, brethren, that our fathers were all [b]under the

---

9:13 The priests were supported by the people (Num. 18:8–24).

9:17 Willingly or unwillingly, Paul could not escape his responsibility to preach the gospel, because a stewardship (responsibility) had been committed to him, and he was under orders to preach even though he was never paid (cf. Luke 17:10).

9:20–21 as under the Law. When ministering to Jews, Paul became as one under the Mosaic Law. When working with Gentiles (those who are without law), he accommodated to them. But in neither case was he lawless, always submitting himself to the highest law, the law of Christ.

9:22 the weak. With weak Christians, Paul restricted his liberty (8:9–13). all things to all men. Not at the same time (an impossibility), but in each differing situation Paul accommodated so as to win as many as possible.

9:24 race. Paul draws on his readers' knowledge of the Isthmian games, which were held every two years near Corinth.

9:25 exercises self-control. To be a winner one must train diligently. a perishable wreath. In the Isthmian games it was a wreath of pine.

9:26 as not beating the air. This does not refer to shadowboxing but to wild misses during an actual boxing match.

9:27 I beat my body. Paul changes the metaphor: his opponent is now his own body. By self-discipline he gives it knockout blows. disqualified. A reference to the possible loss of reward. See note on 3:14; cf. 2 John 8.

10:1 our fathers. The nation Israel is now used as an illustration of some who were disqualified cloud and all [c]passed through the sea;

2 and all were [a]baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea;

3 and all [a]ate the same spiritual food;

4 and all [a]drank the same spiritual drink, for they were drinking from a spiritual rock which followed them; and the rock was Christ.

5 Nevertheless, with most of them God was not well-pleased; for [a]they were laid low in the wilderness.

6 Now these things happened as [a]examples for us, so that we would not crave evil things as [b]they also craved.

7 Do not be [a]idolaters, as some of them were; as it is written, "[b]THE PEOPLE SAT DOWN TO EAT AND DRINK, AND STOOD UP TO [c]PLAY."

8 Nor let us act immorally, as [a]some of them did, and [b]twenty-three thousand fell in one day.

9 Nor let us try the Lord, as [a]some of them did, and were destroyed by the serpents.

10 Nor [a]grumble, as some of them did, and [b]were destroyed by the [c]destroyer.

11 Now these things happened to them as an [a]example, and [b]they were written for our instruction, upon whom [c]the ends of the ages have come.

12 Therefore let him who [a]thinks he stands take heed that he does not fall.

13 No temptation has overtaken you but such as is common to man; and [a]God is faithful, who will not allow you to be [b]tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will provide the way of escape also, so that you will be able to endure it.

2 Do not participate in idol feasts, 10:14–22

14 Therefore, my [a]beloved, flee from [b]idolatry.

15 I speak as to wise men; you judge what I say.

16 Is not the [a]cup of blessing which we bless a sharing in the blood of Christ? Is not the [b]bread which we break a sharing in the body of Christ?

17 Since there is one bread, we [a]who are many are one body; for we all partake of the one bread.

18 Look at the nation [a]Israel; are not those who [b]eat the sacrifices sharers in the altar?

19 What do I mean then? That a thing sacrificed to idols is anything, or [a]that an idol is anything?

20 No, but I say that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they [a]sacrifice to demons and not to God; and I do not want you to become sharers in demons.

21 [a]You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of de-

(9:27). under the cloud that guided them (Ex. 13:21–22; 14:19). through the sea. See Ex. 14:15–22.

10:2 baptized into Moses. I.e., united to Moses as their leader.

10:3 spiritual food. I.e., the manna (Ex. 16:1–36; Ps. 78:25).

10:4 from a spiritual rock that provided water (Ex. 17:1–9; Num. 20:1–13). Since the rock is mentioned twice, and is in different settings, a rabbinic legend held that a material rock actually followed the Israelites. Paul, however, says that it was Christ who was with Israel all the way.

10:5 most of them. God was displeased with all but two—Joshua and Caleb.

10:6 craved. I.e., desired. The Israelites preferred the food of Egypt to God's manna (Num. 11:4).

10:7 idolaters. See Ex. 32:1–14 for the making of the golden calf.

10:8 twenty-three thousand was the number killed in one day. Num. 25:9 indicates that there were additional deaths afterward.

10:9 try the Lord . . . destroyed by the serpents. See Num. 21:6.

10:10 grumble, as some did after the judgment on the rebels who were led by Korah (Num. 16:41–50).

10:13 the way of escape. Lit., the way out. Not necessarily relief but power to be able to bear the testing.

10:14–22 Paul's point is that partaking in a religious feast means fellowshipping with the one worshiped at that feast. This is true of the Lord's Supper (vv. 16–17), it was true of Israel in OT times (v. 18), and it is true of a pagan feast (vv. 19–22). Therefore, believers must not fellowship at pagan feasts since they may thereby open themselves to demonic attacks (v. 20).

mons; you cannot partake of the table of the Lord and [b]the table of demons.

22 Or do we [a]provoke the Lord to jealousy? We are not [b]stronger than He, are we?

3 Glorify God by seeking the welfare of your brother, 10:23–11:1

23 [a]All things are lawful, but not all things are profitable. All things are lawful, but not all things [b]edify.

24 Let no one [a]seek his own good, but that of his neighbor.

25 [a]Eat anything that is sold in the meat market without asking questions for conscience' sake;

26 [a]FOR THE EARTH IS THE LORD'S, AND ALL IT CONTAINS.

27 If [a]one of the unbelievers invites you and you want to go, [b]eat anything that is set before you without asking questions for conscience' sake.

28 But [a]if anyone says to you, "This is meat sacrificed to idols," do not eat it, for the sake of the one who informed you, and for conscience' sake;

29 I mean not your own conscience, but the other man's; for [a]why is my freedom judged by another's conscience?

30 If I partake with thankfulness, [a]why am I slandered concerning that for which I [b]give thanks?

31 Whether, then, you eat or drink or [a]whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.

32 [a]Give no offense either to Jews or to Greeks or to [b]the church of God;

33 just as I also [a]please all men in all things, [b]not seeking my own profit but the profit of the many, [c]so that they may be saved.

11 [a]Be imitators of me, just as I also am of Christ.

VI DISCUSSION CONCERNING PUBLIC WORSHIP, 11:2–14:40

A The Veiling of Women, 11:2–16

2 Now [a]I praise you because you [b]remember me in everything and [c]hold firmly to the traditions, just as I delivered them to you.

3 But I want you to understand that Christ is the [a]head of every man, and [b]the man is the head of a woman, and God is the [c]head of Christ.

4 Every man who has something on his head while praying or [a]prophesying disgraces his head.

5 But every [a]woman who has her head uncovered while praying or prophesying disgraces her head, for she is one and the same

10:24 good = welfare.

10:25–28 the meat market. The subject now changes from meat sacrificed to idols and served at pagan feasts to meat sacrificed to idols that is bought in the market and served at private dinner parties (v. 27). A believer has the liberty to eat such meat unless questioned, in which case he should restrict his liberty (v. 28).

10:30 Because Paul does not want his liberty to provide a reason for condemning him, he will voluntarily restrict it for the glory of God.

10:31 do all to the glory of God. This is the all-inclusive principle concluding the discussion that began in 8:1: Test all conduct by whether or not it manifests the characteristics of God. Other principles for guiding the believer's conduct in this book are (1) is it beneficial (6:12)? (2) is it enslaving (6:12)? (3) will it hinder the spiritual growth of a brother (8:13)? (4) does it "edify" (build up, 10:23)?

10:32 The mention of Jews separate from the church shows that Israel was not replaced by the NT church but remains distinct in this age.

11:1 This verse belongs in thought with chap. 10. The Corinthians are urged to imitate the self-sacrificing example of Paul and Christ.

11:2 traditions. I.e., oral teaching.

11:3 the man is the head of a woman. This teaching is based on Gen. 3:16, and Paul makes it the basis for the wearing of a covering.

11:5 who has her head uncovered. Women should be veiled or covered in the meeting of the church, and men should not. Paul's reasons were based on theology (headship, v. 3), the order in creation (vv. 7–9), and the presence of angels in the meeting (v. 10). None of these reasons was based on contemporary social custom. praying or prophesying. In the light of what he says in 14:34–35, it is doubtful that Paul approved of those activities by the women at Corinth. He simply acknowledges that these were unauthorized practices. shaved. A sign of disgrace.

11:5 [b]Deut 21:12 as the woman whose head is [b]shaved.

6 For if a woman does not cover her head, let her also have her hair cut off; but if it is disgraceful for a woman to have her hair cut off or her head shaved, let her cover her head.

11:7 [a]Gen 1:26; 5:1; 9:6; James 3:9 7 For a man ought not to have his head covered, since he is the [a]image and glory of God; but the woman is the glory of man.

*11:8 [a]Gen 2:21-23; 1 Tim 2:13 8 For [a]man does not originate from woman, but woman from man;

11:9 [a]Gen 2:18 9 for indeed man was not created for the woman's sake, but [a]woman for the man's sake.

*11:10 10 Therefore the woman ought to have a symbol of authority on her head, because of the angels.

*11:11 11 However, in the Lord, neither is woman independent of man, nor is man independent of woman.

11:12 [a]2 Cor 5:18 [b]Rom 11:36 12 For as the woman originates from the man, so also the man has his birth through the woman; and [a]all things originate [b]from God.

11:13 [a]Luke 12:57 13 [a]Judge for yourselves: is it proper for a woman to pray to God with her head uncovered?

14 Does not even nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a dishonor to him,

*11:15 15 but if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her? For her hair is given to her for a covering.

*11:16 16 But if one is inclined to be contentious, [a]we have no other practice, nor have [b]the churches of God.

11:16 [a]1 Cor 4:5; 9:1-3,6 [b]1 Cor 7:17

B The Lord's Supper, 11:17–34

11:17 [a]1 Cor 11:2,22 17 But in giving this instruction, [a]I do not praise you, because you come together not for the better but for the worse.

11:18 [a]1 Cor 1:10; 3:3 18 For, in the first place, when you come together as a church, I hear that [a]divisions exist among you; and in part I believe it.

*11:19 [a]Matt 18:7; Luke 17:1; 1 Tim 4:1; 2 Pet 2:1 [b]Deut 13:3; 1 John 2:19 19 For there [a]must also be factions among you, [b]so that those who are approved may become evident among you.

*11:20 20 Therefore when you meet together, it is not to eat the Lord's Supper, 11:21 [a]Jude 12 21 for in your eating each one takes his own supper first; and one is hungry and [a]another is drunk.

11:22 [a]1 Cor 10:32 [b]James 2:6 [c]1 Cor 11:2,17 22 What! Do you not have houses in which to eat and drink? Or do you despise the [a]church of God and [b]shame those who have nothing? What shall I say to you? Shall [c]I praise you? In this I will not praise you.

11:8–9 Woman came from man's body and was made for the sake of man (Gen. 2:22).

11:10 a symbol. I.e., the covering is the sign of man's authority over the woman. because of the angels. The insubordination of an uncovered woman (signifying her refusal to recognize the authority of her husband) would offend the angels who observe the conduct of believers in their church gatherings (Eph. 3:10; 1 Peter 1:12).

11:11–12 Men and women are interdependent, and women are not inferior to men since they give birth to all.

11:15 her hair is given to her for a covering. This is not the same word as that used in verses 5–6. The point here is that as the hair represents the proper covering in the natural realm, so the veil is the proper covering in the religious.

11:16 no other practice. I.e., no custom of women worshiping without some form of a covering.

11:19 factions. When this happens, it can serve the good purpose of distinguishing those who are faithful.

11:20 when you meet together. The early Christians held a love feast in connection with the Lord's Supper, during which they gathered for a fellowship meal, sent and received communications from other churches, and collected money for widows and orphans. Apparently some of the wealthier members were not sharing their food but greedily consumed it before the poor showed up (v. 21). If the purposes of the love feast were not being realized, it was better to eat at home (v. 22).

11:23 received from the Lord. Not necessarily directly, but likely through others, though nonetheless authoritatively.

11:24 This is My body. The bread represents Christ's body and the "cup" (v. 25) His blood. See note on Luke 22:19.

is My body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of Me."

*11:25 [a]1 Cor 10:16 [b]Ex 24:6-8; Luke 22:20; 2 Cor 3:6

25 In the same way He took [a]the cup also after supper, saying, "This cup is the [b]new covenant in My blood; do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me."

*11:26 [a]John 21:22; 1 Cor 4:5

26 For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death [a]until He comes.

*11:27 [a]Heb 10:29

27 Therefore whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner, shall be [a]guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord.

11:28 [a]Matt 26:22; 2 Cor 13:5; Gal 6:4

28 But a man must [a]examine himself, and in so doing he is to eat of the bread and drink of the cup.

29 For he who eats and drinks, eats and drinks judgment to himself if he does not judge the body rightly.

11:30 [a]Acts 7:60

30 For this reason many among you are weak and sick, and a number [a]sleep.

31 But if we judged ourselves rightly, we would not be judged.

11:32 [a]2 Sam 7:14; Ps 94:12; Heb 12:7-10; Rev 3:19 [b]1 Cor 1:20

32 But when we are judged, we are [a]disciplined by the Lord so that we will not be condemned along with [b]the world.

33 So then, my brethren, when you come together to eat, wait for one another.

11:34 [a]1 Cor 11:21 [b]1 Cor 11:22

34 If anyone is [a]hungry, let him eat [b]at home, so that you will not come together for judgment. The remaining matters I will [c]arrange [d]when I come.

C The Use of Spiritual Gifts, 12:1–14:40

1 The varieties of gifts, 12:1–11

12 Now concerning [a]spiritual gifts, brethren, [b]I do not want you to be unaware.

*12:1 [a]1 Cor 12:4; 14:1 [b]Rom 1:13

2 [a]You know that when you were pagans, you were [b]led astray to the [c]mute idols, however you were led.

*12:2 [a]1 Cor 6:11; Eph 2:11f; 1 Pet 4:3 [b]1 Thess 1:9 [c]Ps 115:5; Is 46:7; Jer 10:5; Hab 2:18f

3 Therefore I make known to you that no one speaking [a]by the Spirit of God says, "Jesus is [b]accursed"; and no one can say, "Jesus is [c]Lord," except [a]by the Holy Spirit.

12:3 [a]Matt 22:43; 1 John 4:2f; Rev 1:10 [b]Rom 9:3 [c]John 13:13; Rom 10:9

4 Now there are [a]varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit.

12:4 [a]Rom 12:6f; 1 Cor 12:11; Eph 4:4ff,11; Heb 2:4

5 And there are varieties of ministries, and the same Lord.

6 There are varieties of effects, but the same [a]God who works all things in all persons.

12:6 [a]1 Cor 15:28; Eph 1:23; 4:6

7 But to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit [a]for the common good.

12:7 [a]1 Cor 12:12-30; 14:26; Eph 4:12

8 For to one is given the word of [a]wisdom through the Spirit, and to another the word of [b]knowledge according to the same Spirit;

*12:8 [a]1 Cor 2:6; 2 Cor 1:12 [b]Rom 15:14; 1 Cor 2:11,16; 2 Cor 2:14; 4:6; 8:7; 11:6

9 to another [a]faith by the same Spirit, and to another [b]gifts of healing by the one Spirit,

12:9 [a]1 Cor 13:2; 2 Cor 4:13 [b]1 Cor 12:28, 30

10 and to another the effecting of [a]miracles, and to another

12:10 [a]1 Cor 12:28f; Gal 3:5

11:25 the new covenant. See note on Matt. 26:28.

11:26 you proclaim the Lord's death until He comes. The Lord's Supper is an acted sermon (proclaim), looking back on Christ's life and death and looking forward to His second coming.

11:27 in an unworthy manner. I.e., with unconfessed sin. This may result in judgment, even sickness or physical death (v. 30). Therefore, each one is to examine himself before partaking (vv. 28, 31).

12:1 In chaps. 12–14 Paul deals with the subject of spiritual gifts against the background of divisions and moral laxity in a church that lacked no gift (1:7, see note). Chapter 12 deals with the unity and diversity of the gifts, chap. 13 with the power of love, and chap. 14 with the specific gifts of prophecy and tongues.

12:2–3 Paul infers that in their pagan days they were led to worship idols by powers outside themselves; i.e., demons. A believer, led by the Spirit of God, would never curse Jesus but rather acknowledge His supreme lordship; i.e., His complete deity as Yahweh.

12:8–10 the word of wisdom (v. 8). I.e., the communication of spiritual wisdom. the word of knowledge (v. 8). I.e., the communication of practical truth. faith (v. 9). I.e., unusual reliance on God. gifts of healing (v. 9) included restoration of life (Acts 9:40; 20:12). prophecy (v. 10). The ability to proclaim new revelation from God. distinguishing of spirits (v. 10). To discern true prophecies from false, satanic ones. tongues and interpretation of tongues (v. 10). Ability to speak and interpret languages unknown to the speaker or the interpreter. These gifts were necessary before the Word of God was written.

12:10 [b]prophecy, and to another the [c]distinguishing of spirits, to another various [d]kinds of tongues, and to another the [e]interpretation of tongues.

11 But one and the same Spirit works all these things, [a]distributing to each one individually just as He wills.

2 The purpose of gifts: unity in diversity, 12:12–31

12 For even [a]as the body is one and yet has many members, and all the members of the body, though they are many, are one body, [b]so also is Christ.

13 For [a]by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether [b]Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free, and we were all made to [c]drink of one Spirit.

14 For [a]the body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot says, "Because I am not a hand, I am not a part of the body," it is not for this reason any the less a part of the body.

16 And if the ear says, "Because I am not an eye, I am not a part of the body," it is not for this reason any the less a part of the body.

17 If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?

18 But now God has [a]placed the members, each one of them, in the body, [b]just as He desired.

19 If they were all one member, where would the body be?

20 But now [a]there are many members, but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you"; or again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you."

22 On the contrary, it is much truer that the members of the body which seem to be weaker are necessary;

23 and those members of the body which we deem less honorable, on these we bestow more abundant honor, and our unseemly members come to have more abundant seemliness,

24 whereas our seemly members have no need of it. But God has so composed the body, giving more abundant honor to that member which lacked,

25 so that there may be no division in the body, but that the members may have the same care for one another.

26 And if one member suffers, all the members suffer with it; if one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it.

27 Now you are [a]Christ's body, and [b]individually members of it.

28 And God has [a]appointed in [b]the church, first [c]apostles, second [d]prophets, third [e]teachers, then [f]miracles, then [g]gifts of healings, helps, [h]administrations, various [i]kinds of tongues.

29 All are not apostles, are they? All are not prophets, are they? All are not teachers, are they? All are not workers of miracles, are they?

30 All do not have gifts of healings, do they? All do not speak

12:12–31 Here Paul describes the relationship of gifted believers to each other, using the analogy of the human body. The Spirit has formed a spiritual organic unity of the many dissimilar members of the Body of Christ (vv. 12–13). The constitutions both of the human body and of the Body of Christ demand that all members (even those that seem unimportant) function in harmony (vv. 14–20). Finally, the need for mutual dependence, respect, and care for each other is emphasized (vv. 21–31).

12:13 we were all baptized. The Spirit joins all believers to the Body of Christ. The tense of the verb indicates a past action, and it is something all believers (even carnal ones) have experienced. all made to drink of one Spirit. A reference to the Spirit's living and dwelling within us (John 7:37–39).

12:23 we bestow more abundant honor. I.e., by way of clothing.

12:25 care. We take the cares of others on ourselves; we cast our own cares on our Lord. (See 1 Peter 5:7, where the same word is used.)

12:28 first . . . The gifts are ranked in order of honor. The Corinthians were dislodging the more important gifts by promoting of the spectacular gift of tongues.

12:29–30 The answer expected to all of these questions is no.

12:30 [a] 1 Cor 12:10

with tongues, do they? All do not [a]interpret, do they?

*12:31 [a] 1 Cor 14:1,39

31 But [a]earnestly desire the greater gifts.

And I show you a still more excellent way.

3 The supremacy of love over gifts, 13:1–13

*13:1 [a] 1 Cor 12:10 [b] 2 Cor 12:4; Rev 14:2 [c] Ps 150:5

13 If I speak with the [a]tongues of men and of [b]angels, but do not have love, I have become a noisy gong or a [c]clanging cymbal.

13:2 [a] Matt 7:22; Acts 13:1; 1 Cor 11:4; 13:8; 14:1,39 [b] 1 Cor 14:2; 15:51 [c] Rom 15:14 [d] 1 Cor 12:9 [e] Matt 17:20; 21:21; Mark 11:23

2 If I have the gift of [a]prophecy, and know all [b]mysteries and all [c]knowledge; and if I have [d]all faith, so as to [e]remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing.

*13:3 [a] Matt 6:2 [b] Dan 3:28

3 And if I [a]give all my possessions to feed the poor, and if I [b]surrender my body to be burned, but do not have love, it profits me nothing.

13:4 [a] Prov 10:12; 17:9; 1 Thess 5:14; 1 Pet 4:8 [b] Acts 7:9 [c] 1 Cor 4:6

4 Love [a]is patient, love is kind and [b]is not jealous; love does not brag and is not [c]arrogant,

*13:5 [a] 1 Cor 10:24; Phil 2:21 [b] 2 Cor 5:19

5 does not act unbecomingly; it [a]does not seek its own, is not provoked, [b]does not take into account a wrong suffered,

*13:6 [a] 2 Thess 2:12

6 [a]does not rejoice in unrighteousness, but [b]rejoices with the truth;

13:6 [b] 2 John 4; 3 John 3f

13:7 [a] 1 Cor 9:12

7 [a]bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

*13:8 [a] 1 Cor 13:2 [b] 1 Cor 13:1

8 Love never fails; but if there are gifts of [a]prophecy, they will be done away; if there are [b]tongues, they will cease; if there is knowledge, it will be done away.

13:9 [a] 1 Cor 8:2; 13:12

9 For we [a]know in part and we prophesy in part;

*13:10

10 but when the perfect comes, the partial will be done away.

*13:11

11 When I was a child, I used to speak like a child, think like a child, reason like a child; when I became a man, I did away with childish things.

13:12 [a] 2 Cor 5:7; Phil 3:12; James 1:23 [b] Gen 32:30; Num 12:8; 1 John 3:2 [c] 1 Cor 8:3

12 For now we [a]see in a mirror dimly, but then [b]face to face; now I know in part, but then I will know fully just as I also [c]have been fully known.

*13:13 [a] Gal 5:6

13 But now faith, hope, love, abide these three; but the greatest of these is [a]love.

4 The superiority of prophecy over tongues, 14:1–25

*14:1 [a] 1 Cor 16:14 [b] 1 Cor 12:31; 14:39 [c] 1 Cor 12:1 [d] 1 Cor 13:2

14 [a]Pursue love, yet [b]desire earnestly [c]spiritual gifts, but especially that you may [d]prophesy.

12:31 the greater gifts (as ranked in v. 28). The more excellent way means "an entire manner of life that always displays love rather than always seeking to display one's spiritual gifts."

13:1 love. The Greek word is agape. The Greek word for love of an adorable object, especially for love between man and woman, is eros. Another Greek word, phileo, refers to the love of friendship. Agape characterizes God (1 John 4:8) and what He manifested in the gift of His Son (John 3:16). It is more than mutual affection; it expresses unselfish esteem of the object loved. Christ's love for us is undeserved and without thought of return. The love that His followers show, Paul now says, should be the same. a noisy gong, along with the clanging cymbal, was associated with pagan worship.

13:3 Philanthropy and martyrdom without love can be egotistic.

13:5 unbecomingly. See 7:36; 11:5–6, 21. does not seek its own. See 6:7.

13:6 The Corinthians were rejoicing in evil according to 5:2.

13:8 Love will never come to an end, but gifts will, though not necessarily all at the same time. Prophecy, for example, was a gift given for the founding of the Body of Christ (Eph. 2:20).

13:10 the perfect. A reference to Christ's second coming. Some understand this to refer to the completion of the canon of Scripture, but that would mean that we now see more clearly than Paul did.

13:11 There are stages of growth within the present imperfect time before Christ's return. After the church began, there was a period of immaturity, during which spectacular gifts were needed for growth and authentication (Heb. 2:3–4). With the completion of the NT and the growing maturity of the church, the need for such gifts disappeared.

13:13 abide. Since these three virtues remain after all the gifts have ceased, they should be cultivated. Love is the greatest, since it expresses God and Calvary.

14:1 especially that you may prophesy. Prophecy is preferred over tongues because it is clear (v. 3) and it edifies the church (v. 4).

14:2 [a]Mark 16:17; 1 Cor 12:10,28, 30; 13:1; 14:18ff [b]1 Cor 13:2

2 For one who [a]speaks in a tongue does not speak to men but to God; for no one understands, but in his spirit he speaks [b]mysteries.

14:3 [a]Rom 14:19; 1 Cor 14:5,12, 17,26 [b]Acts 4:36

3 But one who prophesies speaks to men for [a]edification and [b]exhortation and consolation.

14:4 [a]Mark 16:17; 1 Cor 12:10,28, 30; 13:1; 14:18ff,26f [b]Rom 14:19; 1 Cor 14:5,12, 17,26 [c]1 Cor 13:2

4 One who [a]speaks in a tongue [b]edifies himself; but one who [c]prophesies [b]edifies the church.

14:5 [a]Mark 16:17; 1 Cor 12:10,28, 30; 13:1; 14:18ff,26f [b]Num 11:29 [c]Rom 14:19; 1 Cor 14:4,12, 17,26

5 Now I wish that you all [a]spoke in tongues, but [b]even more that you would prophesy; and greater is one who prophesies than one who [a]speaks in tongues, unless he interprets, so that the church may receive [c]edifying.

14:6 [a]1 Cor 14:26; Eph 1:17 [b]1 Cor 12:8 [c]1 Cor 13:2 [d]Acts 2:42; Rom 6:17; 1 Cor 14:26

6 But now, brethren, if I come to you speaking in tongues, what will I profit you unless I speak to you either by way of [a]revelation or of [b]knowledge or of [c]prophecy or of [d]teaching?

14:7

7 Yet even lifeless things, either flute or harp, in producing a sound, if they do not produce a distinction in the tones, how will it be known what is played on the flute or on the harp?

14:8 [a]Num 10:9; Jer 4:19; Ezek 33:3-6; Joel 2:1

8 For if [a]the bugle produces an indistinct sound, who will prepare himself for battle?

14:9 [a]1 Cor 9:26

9 So also you, unless you utter by the tongue speech that is clear, how will it be known what is spoken? For you will be [a]speaking into the air.

10 There are, perhaps, a great many kinds of languages in the world, and no kind is without meaning.

11 If then I do not know the meaning of the language, I will be to the one who speaks a [a]barbarian, and the one who speaks will be a barbarian to me.

14:11 [a]Acts 28:2

12 So also you, since you are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek to abound for the [a]edification of the church.

14:12 [a]Rom 14:19; 1 Cor 14:4,5, 17,26

13 Therefore let one who speaks in a tongue pray that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my mind is unfruitful.

14:14

14:15 [a]Acts 21:22; 1 Cor 14:26 [b]Eph 5:19; Col 3:16

15 [a]What is the outcome then? I will pray with the spirit and I will pray with the mind also; I will [b]sing with the spirit and I will sing with the mind also.

14:16 [a]Deut 27:15-26; 1 Chr 16:36; Neh 5:13; 8:6; Ps 106:48; Jer 11:5; 28:6; Rev 5:14; 7:12 [b]Matt 15:36

16 Otherwise if you bless in the spirit only, how will the one who fills the place of the ungifted say [a]the "Amen" at your [b]giving of thanks, since he does not know what you are saying?

14:17 [a]Rom 14:19; 1 Cor 14:4,5, 12,26

17 For you are giving thanks well enough, but the other person is not [a]edified.

18 I thank God, I speak in tongues more than you all;

19 however, in the church I desire to speak five words with my mind so that I may instruct others also, rather than ten thousand words in a tongue.

14:20 [a]Rom 1:13 [b]Eph 4:14; Heb 5:12f [c]Ps 131:2; Matt 18:3; Rom 16:19; 1 Pet 2:2

20 [a]Brethren, [b]do not be children in your thinking; yet in evil [c]be infants, but in your thinking be mature.

14:21 [a]John 10:34; 1 Cor 14:34

21 In [a]the Law it is written,

14:2 a tongue. The burden of proof rests on those who understand this to be ecstatic speech, since tongues on the Day of Pentecost clearly were intelligible human languages (Acts 2:4, 6, 8, 11), and one should always interpret the less clear by the clear.

14:4 edifies himself. In his emotions and worship but not in his mind, since, without interpretation, he does not understand what he is saying.

14:5 Interpreted tongues benefit as much as prophecy, since both are understood by the hearers.

14:6–15 tongues are useless without interpretation.

14:7–9 Just as musical sounds need to be distinct to be useful, so speech should be in intelligible language.

14:14–15 Since praying or singing (in church or in private) in uninterpreted tongues does not engage the mind, it is better to pray or sing in a language everyone understands so that the gift may be used fruitfully.

14:16 the place of the ungifted. I.e., the untaught believer, or perhaps the outsider.

14:20–25 Prophecy is not only more profitable for those within the church, but also for outsiders.

14:21–22 Just as the Assyrian foreign language was a sign to unbelieving Jews of coming judgment (Isa. 28:11–12), so also tongues (languages) were a sign of the truth of Christianity and a warning to those who reject its message.

14:21 [b]Is 28:11f

"[b]BY MEN OF STRANGE TONGUES AND BY THE LIPS OF STRANGERS I WILL SPEAK TO THIS PEOPLE, AND EVEN SO THEY WILL NOT LISTEN TO ME," says the Lord.

14:22 [a]1 Cor 14:1

22 So then tongues are for a sign, not to those who believe but to unbelievers; but [a]prophecy is for a sign, not to unbelievers but to those who believe.

14:23 [a]Acts 2:13

23 Therefore if the whole church assembles together and all speak in tongues, and ungifted men or unbelievers enter, will they not say that [a]you are mad?

14:24 [a]1 Cor 14:1 [b]John 16:8

24 But if all [a]prophesy, and an unbeliever or an ungifted man enters, he is [b]convicted by all, he is called to account by all;

14:25 [a]John 4:19 [b]Luke 17:16 [c]Is 45:14; Dan 2:47; Zech 8:23; Acts 4:13

25 [a]the secrets of his heart are disclosed; and so he will [b]fall on his face and worship God, [c]declaring that God is certainly among you.

5 The regulations for the use of gifts, 14:26–40

*14:26 [a]1 Cor 14:15 [b]Rom 1:13 [c]1 Cor 12:8-10 [d]Eph 5:19 [e]1 Cor 14:6 [f]1 Cor 14:2 [g]1 Cor 12:10; 14:5,13,27f [h]Rom 14:19

26 [a]What is the outcome then, [b]brethren? When you assemble, [c]each one has a [d]psalm, has a [e]teaching, has a [e]revelation, has a [f]tongue, has an [g]interpretation. Let [h]all things be done for edification.

*14:27 [a]1 Cor 14:2 [b]1 Cor 12:10; 14:5,13,26ff

27 If anyone speaks in a [a]tongue, it should be by two or at the most three, and each in turn, and one must [b]interpret;

28 but if there is no interpreter, he must keep silent in the church; and let him speak to himself and to God.

*14:29 [a]1 Cor 13:2; 14:32,37 [b]1 Cor 12:10

29 Let two or three [a]prophets speak, and let the others [b]pass judgment.

30 But if a revelation is made to another who is seated, the first one must keep silent.

31 For you can all prophesy one by one, so that all may learn and all may be exhorted;

32 and the spirits of prophets are subject to prophets;

*14:32

14:33 [a]1 Cor 14:40 [b]1 Cor 4:17; 7:17 [c]Acts 9:13

33 for God is not a God of [a]confusion but of peace, as in [b]all the churches of the [c]saints.

*14:34 [a]1 Cor 11:5,13 [b]1 Tim 2:11f; 1 Pet 3:1 [c]1 Cor 14:21

34 The women are to [a]keep silent in the churches; for they are not permitted to speak, but [b]are to subject themselves, just as [c]the Law also says.

35 If they desire to learn anything, let them ask their own husbands at home; for it is improper for a woman to speak in church.

36 Was it from you that the word of God first went forth? Or has it come to you only?

14:37 [a]2 Cor 10:7 [b]1 Cor 2:15 [c]1 John 4:6

37 [a]If anyone thinks he is a prophet or [b]spiritual, let him recognize that the things which I write to you [c]are the Lord's commandment.

38 But if anyone does not recognize this, he is not recognized.

*14:39 [a]1 Cor 12:31 [b]1 Cor 13:2; 14:1

39 Therefore, my brethren, [a]desire earnestly to [b]prophesy, and do not forbid to speak in tongues.

14:40 [a]1 Cor 14:33

40 But [a]all things must be done properly and in an orderly manner.

14:26 Free participation in the service is indicated by this verse, but not to the point of disorder.

14:27 in turn. Only two or three should speak in tongues in a service—never at the same time, but in turn, and not at all if no interpreter is present (v. 28).

14:29 two or three prophets can be heard profitably during a meeting.

14:32 I.e., the spiritual activities of the prophets are under the full control of the prophets. No true prophet can claim a hearing on the ground that he is under a power over which he has no control.

14:34 The women are to keep silent in the churches. Whatever this restriction means, it must include tongues and prophecy. See verses 27 and 29, where the same Greek verb for speak is used, and note on 1 Tim. 2:12.

14:36 I.e., Is Corinth the sole repository of the truth?

14:38 he is not recognized. One who does not respect and accept Paul's words should not have his own words respected or accepted. A variant translation is "he is ignored" (i.e., by God).

14:39–40 The remedies to the Corinthians' abuses of tongues were to (1) give proper importance to prophecy and (2) regulate the use of tongues.

VII THE DOCTRINE OF THE RESURRECTION, 15:1–58

A The Importance of the Resurrection, 15:1–11

15:1 [a]Rom 2:16; Gal 1:11 [b]Rom 2:16; 1 Cor 3:6; 4:15 [c]Rom 5:2; 11:20; 2 Cor 1:24 ★15:2 [a]Rom 11:22 [b]Gal 3:4 15:3 [a]1 Cor 11:23 [b]John 1:29; Gal 1:4; Heb 5:1,3; 1 Pet 2:24 [c]Is 53:5-12; Matt 26:24; Luke 24:25-27; Acts 8:32f; 17:2f; 26:22 ★15:4 [a]Matt 16:21; John 2:20ff; Acts 2:24 [b]Ps 16:8ff; Acts 2:31; 26:22f 15:5 [a]Luke 24:34 [b]1 Cor 1:12 [c]Mark 16:14; Luke 24:36; John 20:19 ★15:6 [a]Acts 7:60; 1 Cor 15:18,20 ★15:7 [a]Acts 12:17 [b]Luke 24:33, 36f; Acts 1:3f ★15:8 [a]Acts 9:3-8; 22:6-11; 26:12-18; 1 Cor 9:1 15:9 [a]2 Cor 12:11; Eph 3:8; 1 Tim 1:15 [b]Acts 8:3 15:10 [a]Rom 12:3

15 Now [a]I make known to you, brethren, the [b]gospel which I preached to you, which also you received, [c]in which also you stand,

2 by which also you are saved, [a]if you hold fast the word which I preached to you, [b]unless you believed in vain.

3 For [a]I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received, that Christ died [b]for our sins [c]according to the Scriptures,

4 and that He was buried, and that He was [a]raised on the third day [b]according to the Scriptures,

5 and that [a]He appeared to [b]Cephas, then [c]to the twelve.

6 After that He appeared to more than five hundred brethren at one time, most of whom remain until now, but some [a]have fallen asleep;

7 then He appeared to [a]James, then to [b]all the apostles;

8 and last of all, as it were to one untimely born, [a]He appeared to me also.

9 For I am [a]the least of the apostles, and not fit to be called an apostle, because I [b]persecuted the church of God.

10 But by [a]the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace toward me did not prove vain; but I [b]labored even more than all of them, yet [c]not I, but the grace of God with me.

11 Whether then it was I or they, so we preach and so you believed.

15:10 [b]2 Cor 11:23; Col 1:29; 1 Tim 4:10 [c]1 Cor 3:6; 2 Cor 3:5; Phil 2:13

B The Consequences of Denying the Resurrection, 15:12–19

★15:12 [a]Acts 17:32; 23:8; 2 Tim 2:18 ★15:13 15:14 [a]1 Thess 4:14 15:15 [a]Acts 2:24 15:17 [a]Rom 4:25 15:18 [a]1 Cor 15:6; 1 Thess 4:16; Rev 14:13

12 Now if Christ is preached, that He has been raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there [a]is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if there is no resurrection of the dead, not even Christ has been raised;

14 and [a]if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is vain, your faith also is vain.

15 Moreover we are even found to be false witnesses of God, because we testified against God that He [a]raised Christ, whom He did not raise, if in fact the dead are not raised.

16 For if the dead are not raised, not even Christ has been raised;

17 and if Christ has not been raised, your faith is worthless; [a]you are still in your sins.

18 Then those also who [a]have fallen asleep in Christ have perished.

19 If we have hoped in Christ

15:2 unless you believed in vain. That would be the case if the resurrection of Christ were not true.

15:4 that He was buried. Certain proof that Christ actually died. that He was raised is attested to by the main witnesses and the perfect tense, which indicates that He is still alive.

15:6 five hundred brethren. The citation of these and other witnesses to Christ's resurrection is of great apologetic value, especially in view of the fact that the Resurrection was still being attested to by living witnesses 25 years after the event.

15:7 He appeared to James. Our Lord's half brother, the author of the letter of James (see John 7:5; Acts 1:14). This appearance is nowhere else recorded in the NT.

15:8 one untimely born. Paul may be referring to his own conversion as premature when viewed in relation to Israel's future conversion (Rom. 11:26). Or, more likely, he is regarding himself as a miscarried infant when compared to the other apostles; that is, one thrust suddenly into apostleship without the nurture of Christ's friendship and direct teaching.

15:12 no resurrection of the dead. Nothing in the Greek background of the Gentile converts at Corinth led them to believe in the resurrection of the dead. In general, they believed in the immortality of the soul, but not the resurrection of the body. To them, the body was the source of man's weakness and sin; death, therefore, was the welcomed means by which the soul was liberated from the body. Resurrection, in their thinking, would only enslave the soul again.

15:13–19 If there is no resurrection, the bodily resurrection of Christ is untrue (vv. 13, 16), the preaching the gospel is a lie (v. 15), the Christian faith is without meaningful content (v. 17), and Christians are hopeless concerning their prospects for the future (vv. 18–19).

15:19 [a]1 Cor 4:9; 2 Tim 3:12

in this life only, we are [a]of all men most to be pitied.

15:21 [a]Rom 5:12

*15:22 [a]Rom 5:14-18

20 But now Christ [a]has been raised from the dead, the [b]first fruits of those who [c]are asleep.

21 For since [a]by a man came death, by a man also came the resurrection of the dead.

22 For [a]as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive.

*15:23 [a]Acts 26:23; 1 Cor 15:20; Rev 1:5 [b]1 Cor 6:14; 15:52; 1 Thess 4:16 [c]1 Cor 2:19

23 But each in his own order: Christ [a]the first fruits, after that [b]those who are Christ's at [c]His coming,

24 then comes the end, when He hands over [a]the kingdom to the [b]God and Father, when He has abolished [c]all rule and all authority and power.

25 For He must reign [a]until He has put all His enemies under His feet.

15:26 [a]2 Tim 1:10; Rev 20:14; 21:4

*15:27 [a]Ps 8:6 [b]Matt 11:27; 28:18; Eph 1:22; Heb 2:8

26 The last enemy that will be [a]abolished is death.

27 For [a]HE HAS PUT ALL THINGS IN SUBJECTION UNDER HIS FEET. But when He says, "[b]All things are put in subjection," it is evident that He is excepted who put all things in subjection to Him.

15:28 [a]Phil 3:21

28 When [a]all things are subjected to Him, then the Son Himself also will be subjected to the One who subjected all things to Him, so that [b]God may be all in all.

15:28 [b]1 Cor 3:23; 12:6

*15:29

29 Otherwise, what will those do who are baptized for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why then are they baptized for them?

15:30 [a]2 Cor 11:26

30 Why are we also [a]in danger every hour?

*15:31 [a]Rom 8:36

31 I affirm, brethren, by the boasting in you which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, [a]I die daily.

15:32 [a]2 Cor 1:8 [b]Acts 18:19; 1 Cor 16:8 [c]Is 22:13; 56:12; Luke 12:19

32 If from human motives I [a]fought with wild beasts at [b]Ephesus, what does it profit me? If the dead are not raised, [c]LET US EAT AND DRINK, FOR TOMORROW WE DIE.

*15:33 [a]1 Cor 6:9

33 [a]Do not be deceived: "Bad company corrupts good morals."

15:34 [a]Rom 13:11 [b]Matt 22:29; Acts 26:8 [c]1 Cor 6:5

34 [a]Become sober-minded as you ought, and stop sinning; for some have [b]no knowledge of God. [c]I speak this to your shame.

D The Resurrection Body, 15:35–50

*15:35 [a]Rom 9:19 [b]Ezek 37:3

35 But [a]someone will say, "How are [b]the dead raised? And with what kind of body do they come?"

15:36 [a]Luke 11:40

36 [a]You fool! That which you

15:20 the first fruits. Christ's resurrection is an earnest or prototype of resurrections to come. See note on Lev. 23:10–14.

15:22 in Christ all will be made alive. This refers only to the resurrection of believers (those in Christ).

15:23–24 The order of resurrections is as follows: first, Christ's; then that of believers at His coming (1 Thess. 4:13–18); and finally, the resurrection at the end of the millennial kingdom.

15:27–28 This is not to imply that the Son is inferior to the Father, but, when death is conquered at the end of the Millennium, then all things will be under the administration of the triune God.

15:29 baptized for the dead. Various interpretations have been given for this difficult expression. (1) It sanctions being baptized vicariously for another in order to assure him a place in heaven—a view that is heretical. (2) It refers to those who were baptized because of the testimony of those who had died. (3) Most likely it means being baptized in the place of those who had died; i.e., new converts taking the place of older ones who had died. Paul's point is, unless one believes in the resurrection of the dead (rather than the Greek idea of "immortality"), what's the point of such a practice?

15:31 I die daily. Paul was exposed to so many physical dangers and to such violent attacks on himself and on his teachings that "daily" is hardly an exaggeration.

15:33 Do not be deceived. The same Greek phrase occurs in 6:9; Gal. 6:7; James 1:16. The verse is a Greek proverb, first appearing in a play by Menander.

15:35–50 Here Paul deals with two common errors in regard to the nature of the resurrection body: (1) that it is the same body that was laid in the grave, simply reconstituted; and (2) that the new body is unrelated to the original one. Paul here explains that it is the body God has chosen (v. 38), related to the former (v. 36) yet different (vv. 39–41).

15:36 [b]John 12:24
[b]sow does not come to life unless it dies;

37 and that which you sow, you do not sow the body which is to be, but a bare grain, perhaps of wheat or of something else.

15:38 [a]Gen 1:11
38 But God gives it a body just as He wished, and [a]to each of the seeds a body of its own.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another flesh of birds, and another of fish.

40 There are also heavenly bodies and earthly bodies, but the glory of the heavenly is one, and the glory of the earthly is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for star differs from star in glory.

★15:42 [a]Dan 12:3; Matt 13:43 [b]Rom 8:21; 1 Cor 15:50; Gal 6:8 [c]Rom 2:7
42 [a]So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown [b]a perishable body, it is raised [c]an imperishable body;

15:43 [a]Phil 3:21; Col 3:4
43 it is sown in dishonor, it is raised in [a]glory; it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power;

15:44 [a]1 Cor 2:14 [b]1 Cor 15:50
44 it is sown a [a]natural body, it is raised a [b]spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body.

15:45 [a]Gen 2:7 [b]Rom 5:14 [c]John 5:21; 6:57f; Rom 8:2
45 So also it is written, "The first [a]MAN, Adam, BECAME A LIVING SOUL." The [b]last Adam became a [c]life-giving spirit.

46 However, the spiritual is not first, but the natural; then the spiritual.

15:47 [a]John 3:31 [b]Gen 2:7; 3:19
47 The first man is [a]from the earth, [b]earthy; the second man is from heaven.

48 As is the earthy, so also are those who are earthy; and as is the heavenly, [a]so also are those who are heavenly.

15:48 [a]Phil 3:20f

49 Just as we have [a]borne the image of the earthy, we [b]will also bear the image of the heavenly.

★15:49 [a]Gen 5:3 [b]Rom 8:29

50 Now I say this, brethren, that [a]flesh and blood cannot [b]inherit the kingdom of God; nor does the perishable inherit [c]the imperishable.

E The Christian's Victory Through Christ, 15:51–58

★15:51 [a]1 Cor 13:2 [b]2 Cor 5:2,4
51 Behold, I tell you a [a]mystery; we will not all sleep, but we will all be [b]changed,

15:52 [a]Matt 24:31 [b]John 5:28 [c]1 Thess 4:15, 17
52 in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet; for [a]the trumpet will sound, and [b]the dead will be raised imperishable, and [c]we will be changed.

★15:53 [a]Rom 2:7 [b]2 Cor 5:4
53 For this perishable must put on [a]the imperishable, and this [b]mortal must put on immortality.

15:54 [a]Is 25:8
54 But when this perishable will have put on the imperishable, and this mortal will have put on immortality, then will come about the saying that is written, "[a]DEATH IS SWALLOWED UP in victory.

15:55 [a]Hos 13:14
55 "[a]O DEATH, WHERE IS YOUR VICTORY? O DEATH, WHERE IS YOUR STING?"

★15:56 [a]Rom 5:12 [b]Rom 3:20; 4:15; 7:8
56 The sting of [a]death is sin, and [b]the power of sin is the law;

15:57 [a]Rom 7:25; 2 Cor 2:14 [b]Rom 8:37; Heb 2:14f; 1 John 5:4; Rev 21:4
57 but [a]thanks be to God, who gives us the [b]victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

★15:58 [a]2 Pet 3:14
58 [a]Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immov-

15:42 raised an imperishable body, with no possibility of decay.

15:49 the image of the heavenly. I.e., the resurrection body will be like Christ's.

15:51–58 Here Paul answers the question, What happens to those who do not die?

15:51 The rapture of the church described in verses 51–58 was a mystery unknown in the OT but now revealed. we will not all sleep. I.e., not all die (1 Thess. 4:15). Some will be alive when the Lord returns, but all will be changed.

15:53 perishable. I.e., those who have died. mortal. I.e., those who are living.

15:56 The sting of death is sin because it is by sin that death gains authority over man, and the power of sin is the law because the law stirs up sin (Rom. 5:12; 7:8–11).

15:58 A firm belief in the resurrection and a solid hope for the future gives incentive for service in the present.

15:58 [b]1 Cor 16:10 able, always abounding in [b]the work of the Lord, knowing that your toil is not in vain in the Lord.

16:1 the saints. I.e., believers in Jerusalem.

16:2 The Christian's giving is to be done (1) regularly on Sunday, (2) into a private fund (put aside and save) at home from which fund he makes distributions, and (3) in proportion to God's prospering.

16:3 Paul would let others handle the money (2 Cor. 8:16–20).

16:9 door. I.e., of opportunity.

16:12 his desire. I.e., Apollos's.

16:15 first fruits. I.e., first converts.

16:17 Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus probably brought Paul the letter from the Corinthians mentioned in 7:1.

16:19 Aquila and Prisca, tentmakers whom Paul first met at Corinth (Acts 18:2), had moved to Ephesus and made their home available to the church.

16:24 In spite of the stern rebukes in this letter, Paul assures the Corinthians of his love for all of them.

2 CORINTHIANS

INTRODUCTION

AUTHOR: Paul DATE: 56

Occasion After writing 1 Corinthians, Paul found it necessary to make a hurried, painful visit to Corinth, since the problems that occasioned the first letter had not been resolved (2 Cor. 2:1; 12:14; 13:1–2). Following this visit, he wrote the church a severe and sorrowful letter, to which he refers in 2:4 but which has been lost to us. Titus delivered that letter. Paul, unable to wait to meet Titus on his return to Troas, hurried on to Macedonia, where Titus related the good news that the church finally had repented of their rebelliousness against Paul. From Macedonia Paul wrote 2 Corinthians and followed it up with his final recorded visit to the church (Acts 20:1–4).

A popular theory claims that chaps. 10–13 are part of that lost "sorrowful letter." Although some features of those chapters correspond to what must have been the contents of the lost letter, the principal subject of that letter (the offender of 2 Cor. 2:5) is nowhere mentioned in these chapters. Further, there is no evidence for so partitioning 2 Corinthians.

Purpose The purpose of this letter was threefold: (1) to express joy at the favorable response of the church to Paul's ministry (chaps. 1–7); (2) to remind the believers of their commitment to the offering for the Christians in Judea (chaps. 8–9); and (3) to defend Paul's apostolic authority (chaps. 10–13).

Contents The letter contains many personal and autobiographical glimpses into Paul's life (4:8–18; 11:22–33). The longest discussion of giving in the New Testament is in chaps. 8 and 9. Important verses include 5:10, 20–21; 6:14; 8:9; 10:5; 11:14; 12:9; and 13:14.

THE SECOND LETTER OF PAUL TO THE CORINTHIANS

I INTRODUCTION, 1:1–11

A Salutation, 1:1–2

1 Paul, [a]an apostle of [b]Christ Jesus [c]by the will of God, and [d]Timothy our brother, to [e]the church of God which is at [f]Corinth with all the saints who are throughout [g]Achaia:

2 [a]Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

B Paul's Gratitude for God's Goodness, 1:3–11

3 [a]Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and [b]God of all comfort,

4 who [a]comforts us in all our affliction so that we will be able to comfort those who are in any affliction with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.

5 For just [a]as the sufferings of Christ are ours in abundance, so also our comfort is abundant through Christ.

6 But if we are afflicted, it is [a]for your comfort and salvation; or if we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which is effective in the patient enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer;

7 and our hope for you is firmly grounded, knowing that [a]as you are sharers of our sufferings, so also you are sharers of our comfort.

8 For [a]we do not want you to be unaware, brethren, of our [b]affliction which came to us in [c]Asia, that we were burdened excessively, beyond our strength, so that we despaired even of life;

9 indeed, we had the sentence of death within ourselves so that we would not trust in ourselves, but in God who raises the dead;

10 who [a]delivered us from so great a peril of death, and will deliver us, He [b]on whom we have set our hope. And He will yet deliver us, 11 you also joining in [a]helping us through your prayers, so that thanks may be given by [b]many persons on our behalf for the favor bestowed on us through the prayers of many.

II THE APOSTLE'S CONCILIATION WITH RESPECT TO THE PROBLEM AT CORINTH, 1:12–2:13

A The Change in Paul's Plans, 1:12–2:4

12 For our proud confidence is this: the testimony of [a]our conscience, that in holiness and [b]godly sincerity, [c]not in fleshly wisdom but in the grace of God,

*1:1 [a]Rom 1:1; Gal 1:1; Eph 1:1; Col 1:1; 2 Tim 1:1; Titus 1:1 [b]Gal 3:26 [c]1 Cor 1:1 [d]Acts 16:1; 1 Cor 16:10; 2 Cor 1:19 [e]1 Cor 10:32 [f]Acts 18:1 [g]Acts 18:12

*1:2 [a]Rom 1:7

1:3 [a]Eph 1:3; 1 Pet 1:3 [b]Rom 15:5

*1:4 [a]Is 51:12; 66:13; 2 Cor 7:6,7,13

*1:5 [a]2 Cor 4:10; Phil 3:10; Col 1:24

1:6 [a]2 Cor 4:15; 12:15; Eph 3:1, 13; 2 Tim 2:10

1:7 [a]Rom 8:17

*1:8 [a]Rom 1:13 [b]Acts 19:23; 1 Cor 15:32 [c]Acts 16:6

1:10 [a]Rom 15:31 [b]1 Tim 4:10

*1:11 [a]Rom 15:30; Phil 1:19; Philem 22 [b]2 Cor 4:15; 9:11f

1:12 [a]Acts 23:1; 1 Thess 2:10; Heb 13:18 [b]2 Cor 2:17 [c]1 Cor 1:17; James 3:15

1:1 Achaia. The Roman province comprising all of southern Greece below Macedonia, including Athens and Corinth, the capital.

1:2 God our Father. Paul teaches a number of truths about God the Father in this epistle: (1) He is the living God (3:3; 6:16); (2) He is the God of grace, mercy, and comfort (1:2–3); (3) He is faithful (1:18); (4) His power is available to His people (4:7; 6:7; 13:4); and (5) He is the Father of Christ (1:3) and of His people (6:18). Concerning the Lord Jesus Christ, Paul says (1) He is the Son of God (1:19), (2) He is the image of God (4:4), and (3) He is sinless (5:21). But Paul seems to be most interested in explaining what Christ does: (1) He gives victory (2:14); (2) He judges (5:10); (3) He reconciles (5:19; 8:9); (4) He appoints and motivates His ambassadors (5:20); and (5) He makes men new creatures (5:17).

1:4 affliction. The Greek word is referred to 12 times in this letter (1:4 [twice]; 1:6, 8; 2:4; 4:8, 17; 6:4; 7:4, 5; 8:2, 13). God allows us to suffer so that we can comfort others and trust more in Him (v. 9).

1:5 the sufferings of Christ are ours in abundance. Paul's own sufferings are identified as Christ's sufferings (see 4:10; Phil. 3:10; Col. 1:24). What Paul suffered was intended to encourage others (v. 6).

1:8 our affliction which came to us in Asia. Since Paul offers no details, it seems probable that the Corinthians knew what the trouble was. It may have been one of the dangers described in 11:23–26, the mob violence of Acts 19:23–41, or some serious illness (we despaired even of life).

1:11 your prayers. The good report of the church brought by Titus encouraged Paul to exhort the Corinthians to prayer. Paul's great confidence in intercessory prayer is seen also in Rom. 15:30–31; Phil. 1:9; Col. 4:12.

we have conducted ourselves in the world, and especially toward you.

1:13 a1 Cor 1:8 13 For we write nothing else to you than what you read and understand, and I hope you will understand [a]until the end;

1:14 a1 Cor 1:8 14 just as you also partially did understand us, that we are your reason to be proud as you also are ours, in [a]the day of our Lord Jesus.

1:15 a1 Cor 4:19 bRom 1:11; 15:29 15 In this confidence I intended at first to [a]come to you, so that you might twice receive a [b]blessing;

*1:16 aActs 19:21; 1 Cor 16:5-7 bActs 19:21; Rom 15:26 cActs 15:3; 1 Cor 16:6,11 16 that is, to [a]pass your way into [b]Macedonia, and again from Macedonia to come to you, and by you to be [c]helped on my journey to Judea.

*1:17 a2 Cor 10:2f; 11:18 17 Therefore, I was not vacillating when I intended to do this, was I? Or what I purpose, do I purpose [a]according to the flesh, so that with me there will be yes, yes and no, no at the same time?

1:18 a1 Cor 1:9 b2 Cor 2:17 18 But as [a]God is faithful, [b]our word to you is not yes and no.

1:19 aMatt 4:3; 16:16; 26:63 bActs 15:22; 1 Thess 1:1; 2 Thess 1:1; 1 Pet 5:12 cActs 18:5; 2 Cor 1:1 dHeb 13:8 19 For [a]the Son of God, Christ Jesus, who was preached among you by us—by me and [b]Silvanus and [c]Timothy—was not yes and no, but is yes [d]in Him.

*1:20 aRom 15:8 bHeb 13:8 c1 Cor 14:16; Rev 3:14 20 For [a]as many as are the promises of God, [b]in Him they are yes; therefore also through Him is [c]our Amen to the glory of God through us.

1:21 a1 Cor 1:8 21 Now He who [a]establishes us with you in Christ and [b]anointed us is God,

1:21 b1 John 2:20, 27

*1:22 aJohn 3:33 bRom 8:16; 2 Cor 5:5; Eph 1:14 22 who also [a]sealed us and [b]gave us the Spirit in our hearts as a pledge.

1:23 aRom 1:9; Gal 1:20 b1 Cor 4:21; 2 Cor 2:1,3 c2 Cor 1:1 23 But [a]I call God as witness to my soul, that [b]to spare you I came no more to [c]Corinth.

*1:24 a2 Cor 4:5; 11:20; 1 Pet 5:3 bRom 11:20; 1 Cor 15:1 24 Not that we [a]lord it over your faith, but are workers with you for your joy; for in your faith you are [b]standing firm.

2:1 a1 Cor 4:21; 2 Cor 12:21 2 But I determined this for my own sake, that I [a]would not come to you in sorrow again.

*2:2 a2 Cor 7:8 2 For if I [a]cause you sorrow, who then makes me glad but the one whom I made sorrowful?

2:3 a2 Cor 2:9; 7:8,12 b1 Cor 4:21; 2 Cor 12:21 cGal 5:10; 2 Thess 3:4; Philem 21 3 This is the very thing I [a]wrote you, so that [b]when I came, I would not have sorrow from those who ought to make me rejoice; having [c]confidence in you all that my joy would be the joy of you all.

*2:4 a2 Cor 2:9; 7:8,12 4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I [a]wrote to you with many tears; not so that you would be made sorrowful, but that you might know the love which I have especially for you.

B The Change in the Offender's Punishment, 2:5–11

*2:5 a1 Cor 5:1f 5 But [a]if any has caused sorrow, he has caused sorrow not to me, but in some degree— in order not to say too much—to all of you.

1:16 Paul intended to visit them twice, going to and returning from Macedonia, but he changed his plans. This change was dubbed vacillation and unspirituality ("according to the flesh," v. 17) by his opponents, charges he denies.

1:17 The verse may be paraphrased like this: Did my change of plans indicate that I couldn't make up my mind? Am I like a worldly man who says yes and no at the same time? In 1 Cor. 16:5 Paul had promised to go to Corinth. In the second (lost) letter (between 1 and 2 Corinthians) he may have said something different, which seemed to make him say yes and no at the same time. His present itinerary was Ephesus to Troas to Macedonia to Corinth.

1:20 in Him they are yes. I.e., the promises of God find their certain fulfillment, their Yes, in Christ. through Him is our Amen. I.e., we give our concurrence by saying Amen.

1:22 The seal indicates security, and the pledge is a guarantee that God will fulfill His promises. See notes on Eph. 1:13, 14.

1:24 Not that we lord it over your faith. Apostolic authority did not give Paul any such right (see 1 Peter 5:1–3). They stand in . . . faith. I.e., their own faith, not by Paul's control.

2:2 The meaning is this: If I hurt you, who will be left to make me glad but sad people? That wouldn't be any comfort!

2:4 I wrote to you. See the Introduction to 2 Corinthians for a discussion of this "sorrowful letter."

2:5 any. A reference to someone who had been censured by the church for something he did. Not likely the same person as the incestuous man of 1 Cor. 5.

6 Sufficient for such a one is [a]this punishment which was inflicted by the majority,

7 so that on the contrary you should rather [a]forgive and comfort him, otherwise such a one might be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow.

8 Wherefore I urge you to reaffirm your love for him.

9 For to this end also [a]I wrote, so that I might [b]put you to the test, whether you are [c]obedient in all things.

10 But one whom you forgive anything, I forgive also; for indeed what I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, I did it for your sakes [a]in the presence of Christ,

11 so that no advantage would be taken of us by [a]Satan, for [b]we are not ignorant of his schemes.

C The Meeting with Titus, 2:12–13

12 Now when I came to [a]Troas for the [b]gospel of Christ and when a [c]door was opened for me in the Lord,

13 I [a]had no rest for my spirit, not finding [b]Titus my brother; but [c]taking my leave of them, I went on to [d]Macedonia.

III THE APOSTOLIC MINISTRY, 2:14–6:10

A The Confidence of the Ministry: Victory, 2:14–17

14 [a]But thanks be to God, who always [b]leads us in triumph in Christ, and manifests through us the [c]sweet aroma of the [d]knowledge of Him in every place.

15 For we are a [a]fragrance of Christ to God among [b]those who are being saved and among those who are perishing;

16 [a]to the one an aroma from death to death, to the other an aroma from life to life. And who is [b]adequate for these things?

17 For we are not like many, [a]peddling the word of God, but [b]as from sincerity, but as from God, we speak in Christ [c]in the sight of God.

B The Commendation of the Ministry: Changed Lives, 3:1–3

3 Are we beginning to [a]commend ourselves again? Or do we need, as some, [b]letters of commendation to you or from you?

2 [a]You are our letter, written in our hearts, known and read by all men;

3 being manifested that you are a letter of Christ, [a]cared for by us, written not with ink but with the Spirit of [b]the living God, not on [c]tablets of stone but on [d]tablets of [e]human hearts.

C The Covenant for the Ministry: The New Covenant, 3:4–18

4 Such [a]confidence we have through Christ toward God.

2:6 by the majority. The rebel had been punished sufficiently and had repented. Apparently some wanted a severer penalty (vv. 6–8).

2:7–8 Paul feared that excessive punishment might cause the offender to be overcome by inordinate grief. Therefore, he urged the church to affirm their love for him.

2:9 whether you are obedient. Though they had accepted Paul's authority in the case of the rebel, they had yet to prove that they accepted it in all things (cf. 10:6).

2:11 that no advantage would be taken of us by Satan. The forgiven brother needed to be restored to fellowship, lest Satan put him under the pressure of continued self-accusation and introspection. Also, as long as the matter was not settled, Satan kept Paul and the church estranged.

2:13 I had no rest, because of wondering how his severe letter had been received.

2:14 who always leads us in triumph in Christ. The picture is of a Roman conqueror leading his captives in triumph. Paul gladly considered himself one of Christ's captives being led in triumph, to the glory of Christ.

2:15–16 Similar to the incense burned in a Roman parade, the believer's service in spreading the gospel is a sweet fragrance to the Lord. The same gospel brings life to the believer and death to the rejector.

2:17 False teachers peddled the Word for profit, whereas Paul had preached free of charge.

3:1–3 The work of the Spirit in the changed lives of the Corinthians was sufficient recommendation of Paul's ministry.

5 Not that we are adequate in ourselves to consider anything as coming from ourselves, but [a]our adequacy is from God,

6 who also made us adequate as [a]servants of a [b]new covenant, not of [c]the letter but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, but [d]the Spirit gives life.

7 But if the [a]ministry of death, [b]in letters engraved on stones, came with glory, [c]so that the sons of Israel could not look intently at the face of Moses because of the glory of his face, fading as it was,

8 how will the ministry of the Spirit fail to be even more with glory?

9 For if [a]the ministry of condemnation has glory, much more does the [b]ministry of righteousness abound in glory.

10 For indeed what had glory, in this case has no glory because of the glory that surpasses it.

11 For if that which fades away was with glory, much more that which remains is in glory.

12 [a]Therefore having such a hope, [b]we use great boldness in our speech,

13 and are not like Moses, [a]who used to put a veil over his face so that the sons of Israel would not look intently at the end of what was fading away.

14 But their minds were [a]hardened; for until this very day at the [b]reading of [c]the old covenant the same veil remains unlifted, because it is removed in Christ.

15 But to this day whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their heart;

16 [a]but whenever a person turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away.

17 Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where [a]the Spirit of the Lord is, [b]there is liberty.

18 But we all, with unveiled face, [a]beholding as in a mirror the [b]glory of the Lord, are being [c]transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as from [d]the Lord, the Spirit.

D The Character of the Ministry: Supernatural, 4:1–6

4 Therefore, since we have this [a]ministry, as we [b]received mercy, we [c]do not lose heart,

2 but we have renounced the [a]things hidden because of shame, not walking in craftiness or [b]adulterating the word of

*4:2 [a] Rom 6:21; 1 Cor 4:5 [b] 2 Cor 2:17

3:5 our adequacy is from God. This answers the question raised in 2:16.

3:6 a new covenant. The message of the grace of Christ (Matt. 26:28). the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life. The letter stands for the whole Mosaic Law. It kills because, of itself, it could not give life (Acts 13:39; Rom. 3:20). The work of the law was to make men conscious of sin (Gal. 3:21–25; 1 Tim. 1:9). The Spirit, by contrast, gives life to believers.

3:7 the ministry of death. Refers to the law and particularly to the Ten Commandments, which were engraved on stones (Deut. 9:10). Since the law showed man his sinfulness and gave him no power to break out of it, it ministered death. Note that the law "fades away" (v. 11). When Moses descended from Mount Sinai with the law, his face shone so that the people were afraid to approach him (Ex. 34:29–30). But just as his radiance faded so also the Mosaic Law was temporary.

3:8 The dispensation of the Spirit comes with even more glory than the old order.

3:11 There is no question that the law was glorious for its time and purpose, but its temporariness and limited purpose caused that glory to fade in the blazing light of the grace of Christ, which has as its eternal purpose the bringing of many sons into glory (John 1:17; Heb. 2:10).

3:13 Paul means here that Moses veiled his face that the Israelites might not see the fading away of the transitory glory reflected in his countenance.

3:15 a veil lies over their heart. I.e., as long as they consider the law as permanent and do not turn to Christ, who takes away the veil (v. 14).

3:17 Now the Lord is the Spirit. A strong statement that Christ and the Holy Spirit are one in essence, though Paul also recognized the distinctions between them (13:14).

3:18 with unveiled face, beholding. Paul builds on the experience of Moses in Ex. 34:29–35. We Christians, he says, behold constantly Christ's divine glory, and this beholding changes or transforms us from glory to glory; i.e., from one degree of glory to another.

4:1 we do not lose heart. Cf. verse 16; Luke 18:1; Gal. 6:9; Eph. 3:13; 2 Thess. 3:13. Paul credits his effectiveness to the mercy of God.

4:2 Paul contrasts the deceitfulness of the false teachers with his own openness.

God, but by the manifestation of truth [c]commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

3 And even if our [a]gospel is [b]veiled, it is veiled to [c]those who are perishing,

4 in whose case [a]the god of [b]this world has [c]blinded the minds of the unbelieving so that they might not see the [d]light of the gospel of the [e]glory of Christ, who is the [f]image of God.

5 For we [a]do not preach ourselves but Christ Jesus as Lord, and ourselves as your bond-servants for Jesus' sake.

6 For God, who said, "[a]Light shall shine out of darkness," is the One who has [b]shone in our hearts to give the [c]Light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Christ.

E The Circumstances of the Ministry, 4:7–18

7 But we have this treasure in [a]earthen vessels, so that the surpassing greatness of [b]the power will be of God and not from ourselves;

8 we are [a]afflicted in every way, but not [b]crushed; [c]perplexed, but not despairing;

9 [a]persecuted, but not [b]forsaken; [c]struck down, but not destroyed;

10 [a]always carrying about in the body the dying of Jesus, so that [b]the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our body.

11 For we who live are constantly being delivered over to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our mortal flesh.

12 So death works in us, but life in you.

13 But having the same [a]spirit of faith, according to what is written, "[b]I BELIEVED, THEREFORE I SPOKE," we also believe, therefore we also speak,

14 knowing that He who [a]raised the Lord Jesus [b]will raise us also with Jesus and will [c]present us with you.

15 For all things are [a]for your sakes, so that the grace which is [b]spreading to more and more people may cause the giving of thanks to abound to the glory of God.

16 Therefore we [a]do not lose heart, but though our outer man is decaying, yet our [b]inner man is [c]being renewed day by day.

17 For momentary, [a]light affliction is producing for us an eternal weight of glory far beyond all comparison, 18 while we [a]look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen; for the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal.

F The Compulsions of the Ministry, 5:1–21

1 The assurance of resurrection, 5:1–9

5 For we know that if the [a]earthly [b]tent which is our house is torn down, we have a building from God, a house [c]not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

4:4 the god of this world. I.e., Satan.

4:6 Just as physical light shined at creation, so spiritual light shines in the hearts of those who become new creations in Christ.

4:7 this treasure. I.e., the glorious gospel of Jesus Christ. in earthen vessels. I.e., in our frail human bodies. the surpassing greatness of the power. Paul makes clear that this power belongs to God, not to any leader within the church (see 1 Cor. 1:12).

4:8–9 Paul suffered both physically and emotionally.

4:10–11 Paul here compares his own constant persecution and suffering with that of Jesus, in whose death and resurrection life the apostle will consequently share (Gal. 2:20; Col. 1:24).

4:12 Paul's physical sufferings (death works in us) are the means by which spiritual life comes to the Corinthians.

4:13–18 Though he is oppressed, Paul's outlook is one of hope (v. 14). Therefore, he does not lose heart (v. 16), though his outer man is decaying, for this affliction is light and temporary when viewed from the perspective of eternity.

5:1 the earthly tent . . . a house not made with hands. The present, temporary earthly body is contrasted with the eternal resurrection body.

2 For indeed in this house we
*5:2 [a]Rom 8:23; 2 Cor 5:4 [b]1 Cor 15:53f; 2 Cor 5:4 *5:3 [a]groan, longing to be [b]clothed with our dwelling from heaven,
3 inasmuch as we, having put it on, will not be found naked.
*5:4 [a]2 Cor 5:2 [b]1 Cor 15:53f; 2 Cor 5:2 [c]1 Cor 15:54 4 For indeed while we are in this tent, we [a]groan, being burdened, because we do not want to be unclothed but to be [b]clothed, so that what is [c]mortal will be swallowed up by life.
*5:5 [a]Rom 8:23; 2 Cor 1:22 5 Now He who prepared us for this very purpose is God, who [a]gave to us the Spirit as a pledge.
*5:6 [a]Heb 11:13f 6 Therefore, being always of good courage, and knowing that [a]while we are at home in the body we are absent from the Lord—
*5:7 [a]1 Cor 13:12; 2 Cor 4:18 7 for [a]we walk by faith, not by sight—
*5:8 [a]Phil 1:23 [b]John 12:26; Phil 1:23 8 we are of good courage, I say, and [a]prefer rather to be absent from the body and [b]to be at home with the Lord.
*5:9 [a]Rom 14:18; Col 1:10; 1 Thess 4:1 9 Therefore also we have as our ambition, whether at home or absent, to be [a]pleasing to Him.

2 The judgment seat of Christ, 5:10–13

*5:10 [a]Matt 16:27; Acts 10:42; Rom 2:16; 14:10,12; Eph 6:8 10 For we must all appear before [a]the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may be recompensed for his deeds in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad.
*5:11 [a]Heb 10:31; 12:29; Jude 23 [b]2 Cor 4:2 11 Therefore, knowing the [a]fear of the Lord, we persuade men, but we are made manifest to God; and I hope that we are [b]made manifest also in your consciences.
*5:12 [a]2 Cor 3:1 [b]2 Cor 1:14; Phil 1:26 12 We are not [a]again commending ourselves to you but are giving you an [b]occasion to be proud of us, so that you will have an answer for those who take pride in appearance and not in heart.
*5:13 [a]Mark 3:21; 2 Cor 11:1,16ff; 12:11 13 For if we are [a]beside ourselves, it is for God; if we are of sound mind, it is for you.

3 The love of Christ, 5:14–21

*5:14 [a]Acts 18:5 [b]Rom 5:15; 6:6f; Gal 2:20; Col 3:3 14 For the love of Christ [a]controls us, having concluded this, that [b]one died for all, therefore all died;
*5:15 [a]Rom 14:7-9 15 and He died for all, so that they who live might no longer [a]live for themselves, but for Him who died and rose again on their behalf.
*5:16 [a]John 8:15; 2 Cor 11:18; Phil 3:4 16 Therefore from now on we recognize no one [a]according to the flesh; even though we have known Christ according to the flesh, yet now we know Him in this way no longer.
*5:17 [a]Rom 16:7 17 Therefore if anyone is [a]in

5:2 In this earthly body we groan because of the burdens of life (cf. Rom. 8:23). our dwelling from heaven. Lit., dwelling place that is from heaven.
5:3 we . . . will not be found naked. We shall not be bodiless after resurrection.
5:4 While in this body we are burdened; however, we do not long to be disembodied but to have the resurrection body God will give us (v. 5).
5:7 Though Christ is not visibly present today, we live by faith in the reality of His presence with us and the certainty of all the promises concerning our future.
5:9 we have as our ambition. The Greek word is found elsewhere only in Rom. 15:20 and 1 Thess. 4:11. at home = alive. absent = dead.
5:10 the judgment seat of Christ. The bema (judgment seat) was well known to the Corinthians (see Acts 18:12). Believers will be judged in a review of their works for the purpose of rewards. See note on 1 Cor. 3:14. bad = worthless.
5:11 fear, or awe, of the Lord (Christ) in view of His judging us. we persuade men to be reconciled to God (v. 20).
5:13 we are beside ourselves. Lit., we went mad, probably referring to some specific occasion when Paul's critics charged him with madness. (For a similar charge against Jesus, see Mark 3:21; see also Acts 26:24.)
5:14 For the love of Christ controls us. Christ's love for us (and possibly it may also mean our love for Christ) controls us; i.e., keeps us within bounds. therefore all died. Believers are regarded by God as having died in Christ so that they may be able to live to please Him (Rom. 6:8).
5:15 Christ's death was, in part, for the purpose of bringing His followers into the experience of unselfish living for others.
5:16 Before his conversion, Paul regarded Christ as merely another man.
5:17 a new creature. Lit., a new creation. old things passed away (aorist tense indicating the decisive change salvation brings); behold, new things have come (perfect tense indicating abiding results of the new life in Christ.) The grace of God not only justifies but also makes a new creation, which results in a changed style of life (v. 15).

Christ, he is [b]a new creature; [c]the old things passed away; behold, new things have come.

18 Now [a]all these things are from God, [b]who reconciled us to Himself through Christ and gave us the [c]ministry of reconciliation,

19 namely, that [a]God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, [b]not counting their trespasses against them, and He has committed to us the word of reconciliation.

20 Therefore, we are [a]ambassadors for Christ, [b]as though God were making an appeal through us; we beg you on behalf of Christ, be [c]reconciled to God.

21 He made Him who [a]knew no sin to be [b]sin on our behalf, so that we might become the [c]righteousness of God in Him.

G The Conduct of the Ministry, 6:1–10

6 And [a]working together with Him, [b]we also urge you not to receive [c]the grace of God in vain—

2 for He says,

"[a]AT THE ACCEPTABLE TIME I LISTENED TO YOU,
AND ON THE DAY OF SALVATION I HELPED YOU."

Behold, now is "THE ACCEPTABLE TIME," behold, now is "THE DAY OF SALVATION"—

3 [a]giving no cause for offense in anything, so that the ministry will not be discredited,

4 but in everything [a]commending ourselves as [b]servants of God, [c]in much endurance, in afflictions, in hardships, in distresses,

5 in [a]beatings, in imprisonments, in [b]tumults, in labors, in sleeplessness, in [c]hunger,

6 in purity, in [a]knowledge, in [b]patience, in kindness, in the [c]Holy Spirit, in [d]genuine love,

7 in [a]the word of truth, in [b]the power of God; by [c]the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and the left,

8 by glory and [a]dishonor, by [b]evil report and good report; regarded as [c]deceivers and yet [d]true;

9 as unknown yet well-known, as [a]dying yet behold, [b]we live; as punished yet not put to death,

10 as [a]sorrowful yet always [a]rejoicing, as [b]poor yet making many rich, as [c]having nothing yet possessing [d]all things.

5:18 reconciliation involves a changed relationship because our trespasses are not counted against us (v. 19). We are now to announce to others this message of God's grace.

5:19 reconciling the world to Himself. The death of Christ "changed" (the meaning of "reconcile") the position of all people (not only the elect) from being enemies (Rom. 5:10) to being savable (though actual salvation does not come until one believes, v. 20).

5:21 Here is the heart of the gospel: The sinless Savior has taken our sins that we might have God's righteousness.

6:2 The quotation is from the LXX version of Isa. 49:8. Paul's emphasis is on the now as the day of grace, not to be spurned for the message of false teachers (v. 1).

6:3–10 The theme of the apostolic ministry, first introduced in 2:14, is here recapitulated.

6:5 See 11:23–24 for more of Paul's hardships.

6:6 God-given qualities of character are proof of Paul's integrity.

6:8 as deceivers. Paul was hardly a deceiver, but apparently he was called one by his enemies (cf. Matt. 27:63). Paul says he fights his way through the slanders and faithfully carries on for Christ.

6:9 as unknown. His opponents said Paul was an insignificant teacher, a "nobody."

6:10 Even though Paul experienced many hardships, he was always rejoicing. Even though he was poor in material things, he made many rich by his ministry.

6:11 I.e., our speech is frank and our hearts are ready to take you in.

6:12–13 Because the Corinthians' refusal to reciprocate love was making them miserable, Paul pleads with them to open their hearts to him.

6:12 [a]2 Cor 7:2

but [a]you are restrained in your own affections.

6:13 [a]Gal 4:12 [b]1 Cor 4:14

13 Now in a like [a]exchange—I speak as to [b]children—open wide to us also.

B Be Separated from Evil, 6:14–7:1

*6:14 [a]Deut 22:10; 1 Cor 5:9f [b]1 Cor 6:6 [c]Eph 5:7,11; 1 John 1:6

14 [a]Do not be bound together with [b]unbelievers; for what [c]partnership have righteousness and lawlessness, or what fellowship has light with darkness?

*6:15 [a]1 Cor 10:21 [b]Acts 5:14; 1 Pet 1:21 [c]1 Cor 6:6

15 Or what [a]harmony has Christ with Belial, or what has a [b]believer in common with an [c]unbeliever?

6:16 [a]1 Cor 10:21 [b]1 Cor 3:16; 6:19 [c]Matt 16:16 [d]Ex 29:45; Lev 26:12; Jer 31:1; Ezek 37:27 [e]Ex 25:8; John 14:23 [f]Rev 2:1

16 Or [a]what agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are [b]the temple of [c]the living God; just as God said,

"[d]I WILL [e]DWELL IN THEM AND [f]WALK AMONG THEM;
AND I WILL BE THEIR GOD, AND THEY SHALL BE MY PEOPLE.

*6:17 [a]Is 52:11 [b]Rev 18:4

17"[a]Therefore, [b]COME OUT
FROM THEIR MIDST AND BE SEPARATE," says the Lord.
"AND DO NOT TOUCH WHAT IS UNCLEAN;
And I will welcome you.

6:18 [a]2 Sam 7:14; 1 Chr 17:13; Is 43:6; Hos 1:10 [b]Rom 8:14

18"[a]And I will be a father to
you,
And you shall be [b]sons and daughters to Me,"
Says the Lord Almighty.

*7:1 [a]Heb 6:9 [b]1 Pet 1:15f

7 Therefore, having these promises, [a]beloved, [b]let us cleanse ourselves from all defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

C Be Assured of His Joy over Their Repentance, 7:2–16

7:2 [a]2 Cor 6:12f; 12:15

2 [a]Make room for us in your hearts; we wronged no one, we corrupted no one, we took advantage of no one.

7:3 [a]2 Cor 6:11f [b]Phil 1:7

3 I do not speak to condemn you, for I have said [a]before that you are [b]in our hearts to die together and to live together.

7:4 [a]2 Cor 3:12 [b]2 Cor 7:14; 8:24; 9:2f; 10:8; Phil 1:26; 2 Thess 1:4 [c]2 Cor 1:4 [d]2 Cor 6:10

4 Great is my [a]confidence in you; great is my [b]boasting on your behalf. I am filled with [c]comfort; I am overflowing with [d]joy in all our affliction.

*7:5 [a]Rom 15:26; 2 Cor 2:13 [b]2 Cor 4:8 [c]Deut 32:25

5 For even when we came into [a]Macedonia our flesh had no rest, but we were [b]afflicted on every side: [c]conflicts without, fears within.

*7:6 [a]2 Cor 1:3f [b]2 Cor 7:13 [c]2 Cor 2:13; 7:13f

6 But [a]God, who comforts the depressed, [b]comforted us by the coming of [c]Titus;

7 and not only by his coming, but also by the comfort with which he was comforted in you, as he reported to us your longing, your mourning, your zeal for me; so that I rejoiced even more.

7:8 [a]2 Cor 2:2

8 For though I [a]caused you sorrow by my letter, I do not regret it; though I did regret it—for I see that that letter caused you sorrow, though only for a while—

9 I now rejoice, not that you were made sorrowful, but that you were made sorrowful to the point of repentance; for you were made sorrowful according to the will of God, so that you might not suffer loss in anything through us.

10 For the sorrow that is ac-

6:14 Do not be bound together with unbelievers. Primarily this relates to separation from the false teachers troubling the church, though it may apply to other alliances like marriage and business.

6:15 Belial = Satan.

6:17 BE SEPARATE. Personal separation involves not being unequally yoked (v. 14), not loving the world (1 John 2:15–17) though using it (1 Cor. 7:31), not having fellowship with sinning brethren (1 Cor. 5:11), and, on the positive side, exhibiting Christlikeness. See note on Acts 15:39.

7:1 A strong plea for personal holiness to mature externally (flesh) and internally (spirit).

7:5–13a Resumes the discussion of Paul's journey to Macedonia introduced in 2:13. He describes his relief because of the good news Titus brought (vv. 5–7) and his reflections on the severe letter he had written and its consequences.

7:5 Paul candidly reveals his emotional state while waiting to hear the Corinthians' response to his letter.

7:6 the coming of Titus. I.e., from Corinth, with the news that the church had accepted the severe letter.

7:10–12 Their repentance (1) solved the problem (v. 10), (2) showed them to be innocent (v. 11), and (3) taught them an important lesson (v. 12).

cording to the will of God produces a [a]repentance without regret, leading to salvation, but the sorrow of the world produces death.

11 For behold what earnestness this very thing, this godly sorrow, has produced in you: what vindication of yourselves, what indignation, what fear, what [a]longing, what zeal, what [b]avenging of wrong! In everything you [c]demonstrated yourselves to be innocent in the matter.

12 So although [a]I wrote to you, it was not for the sake of [b]the offender nor for the sake of the one offended, but that your earnestness on our behalf might be made known to you in the sight of God.

13 For this reason we have been [a]comforted.

And besides our comfort, we rejoiced even much more for the joy of [b]Titus, because his [c]spirit has been refreshed by you all.

14 For if in anything I have [a]boasted to him about you, I was not put to shame; but as we spoke all things to you in truth, so also our boasting before [b]Titus proved to be the truth.

15 His affection abounds all the more toward you, as he remembers the [a]obedience of you all, how you received him with [b]fear and trembling.

16 I rejoice that in everything [a]I have confidence in you.

V THE APOSTLE'S SOLICITATION (OR COLLECTION) FOR THE JUDEAN SAINTS, 8:1–9:15

A Principles for Giving, 8:1–6

8 Now, brethren, we wish to make known to you the grace of God which has been [a]given in the churches of [b]Macedonia,

2 that in a great ordeal of affliction their abundance of joy and their deep poverty overflowed in the [a]wealth of their liberality.

3 For I testify that [a]according to their ability, and beyond their ability, they gave of their own accord,

4 begging us with much urging for the [a]favor of participation in the [b]support of the saints,

5 and this, not as we had expected, but they first [a]gave themselves to the Lord and to us by [b]the will of God.

6 So we [a]urged [b]Titus that as he had previously [c]made a beginning, so he would also complete in you [d]this gracious work as well.

B Purposes for Giving, 8:7–15

7 But just as you [a]abound [b]in everything, in faith and utterance and knowledge and in all earnestness and in the love we inspired in you, see that you [a]abound in this gracious work also.

8 I [a]am not speaking this as a command, but as proving

7:11 vindication of yourselves. I.e., with regard to Paul's accusations by their change of behavior. Their sorrow had worked the right kind of repentance.

7:12 the offender. See 2:6. the one offended. I.e., Paul.

8:1–6 Truths about NT giving are presented here: (1) it is a grace (vv. 1, 6); (2) it can be exercised even during poverty (v. 2); (3) it is a form of fellowship (v. 4); and (4) it should be preceded by the dedication of self (v. 5). Apparently the church at Corinth had never, up to this time at least, supported Paul financially (see 11:8–9; 12:13; 1 Cor. 9:11–12).

8:1–2 the churches of Macedonia. Philippi, Thessalonica, Berea. Although the church at Philippi had contributed to Paul (Phil. 4:10), apparently financial conditions had worsened.

8:6 Perhaps the collection had been stalled because of the problems in the Corinthian church.

8:7–15 Some purposes in giving are (1) to abound in all aspects of Christian experience (v. 7), (2) to prove the reality of one's love (v. 8), (3) to imitate Christ (v. 9), and (4) to help meet the needs of others (v. 14).

through the earnestness of others the sincerity of your love also.

8:9 [a]2 Cor 13:14 [b]Matt 20:28; 2 Cor 6:10; Phil 2:6f

9 For you know [a]the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that [b]though He was rich, yet for your sake He became poor, so that you through His poverty might become rich.

8:10 [a]1 Cor 7:25,40 [b]1 Cor 16:2f; 2 Cor 9:2

10 I [a]give my opinion in this matter, for this is to your advantage, who were the first to begin [b]a year ago not only to do this, but also to desire to do it.

8:11 [a]2 Cor 8:12,19; 9:2

11 But now finish doing it also, so that just as there was the [a]readiness to desire it, so there may be also the completion of it by your ability.

8:12 [a]Mark 12:43f; Luke 21:3,4; 2 Cor 9:7

12 For if the readiness is present, it is acceptable [a]according to what a person has, not according to what he does not have.

13 For this is not for the ease of others and for your affliction, but by way of equality—

8:14 [a]Acts 4:34; 2 Cor 9:12

14 at this present time your abundance being a supply for [a]their need, so that their abundance also may become a supply for [a]your need, that there may be equality;

8:9 A concise statement of the gospel and the motivation for giving.

8:12 Giving should be commensurate with what one has (1 Cor. 16:2).

8:14–15 Paul is saying that, though now it is the believers in Jerusalem who need help from the Corinthians, some day the reverse might be true. In either case God will supply the need just as He did with the manna for Israel in the wilderness (v. 15).

8:18 the brother. I.e., fellow Christian. Although we do not know who he was (perhaps Luke or Trophimus), this man was obviously well known for preaching the gospel. Titus, this unnamed brother, and a third brother (also unnamed, v. 22), acted as trustees of the money to insure complete propriety in the handling of it (v. 21).

8:21 Especially in handling money there must be accountability to men as well as to God.

9:2 readiness = eagerness (8:10). The Corinthians' zeal had been an example and incentive to others to give also. If they did not now fulfill their promise, it would be a disgrace to them and to Paul (v. 4).

this case, so that, [b]as I was saying, you may be prepared;
4 otherwise if any [a]Macedonians come with me and find you unprepared, we—not to speak of you—will be put to shame by this confidence.
5 So I thought it necessary to urge the [a]brethren that they would go on ahead to you and arrange beforehand your previously promised [b]bountiful gift, so that the same would be ready as a [c]bountiful gift and not [d]affected by covetousness.

D Promises in Giving, 9:6–15

6 Now this I say, [a]he who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully.
7 Each one must do just as he has purposed in his heart, not [a]grudgingly or under compulsion, for [b]God loves a cheerful giver.
8 And [a]God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that always having all sufficiency in everything, you may have an abundance for every good deed;
9 as it is written,

"[a]He scattered abroad, he gave to the poor,
His righteousness endures forever."

10 Now He who supplies [a]seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and [b]increase the harvest of your righteousness;
11 you will be [a]enriched in everything for all liberality, which through us is producing [b]thanksgiving to God.
12 For the ministry of this service is not only fully supplying [a]the needs of the saints, but is also overflowing [b]through many thanksgivings to God.
13 Because of the proof given by this [a]ministry, they will [b]glorify God for your obedience to your [c]confession of the [d]gospel of Christ and for the liberality of your contribution to them and to all,
14 while they also, by prayer on your behalf, yearn for you because of the surpassing grace of God in you.
15 [a]Thanks be to God for His indescribable [b]gift!

VI THE APOSTLE'S VINDICATION OF HIMSELF, 10:1–12:18

A The Authority of His Apostleship, 10:1–18

10 Now [a]I, Paul, myself [b]urge you by the [c]meekness and gentleness of Christ—I who [d]am meek when face to face with you, but bold toward you when absent!
2 I ask that [a]when I am present I need not be bold with the confidence with which I propose to be courageous against [b]some, who regard us as if we walked [c]according to the flesh.
3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war [a]according to the flesh,

*10:3 [a]Rom 8:4; 2 Cor 1:17

9:6 For similar sayings, see Prov. 11:24; 19:17; Luke 6:38.

9:8 God will supply the generous giver with enough to meet his own needs and enough to give for every good deed.

9:9 His righteousness. I.e., acts of giving bring rewards in this life and the one to come.

9:10 The generous giver will be given increasing means to give (multiply your seed for sowing) and increasing fruit. See Hos. 10:12.

9:12–14 The gift of money will (1) supply need (v. 12), (2) be a cause for thanksgiving (v. 12), (3) prove their obedience (v. 13), (4) draw the Jerusalem Christians to them (v. 14, yearn for you). According to Rom. 15:26–27 (written several months after 1 Corinthians), Paul's appeal was successful.

9:15 indescribable. A word found only here in the NT, having the idea of ineffable and wonderful beyond description.

10:1 In spite of Paul's general satisfaction with the Corinthian church, there were still some there who challenged his apostolic authority and followed certain leaders Paul calls "false apostles" (11:13). These leaders were apparently Jewish Christians (11:22) who claimed higher authority than Paul's (10:7) and who lorded over the church (11:20).

10:3 in the flesh. I.e., in the human body (with its limitations). according to the flesh. I.e., after the impulses of the sinful nature.

4 for the [a]weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but divinely powerful [b]for the destruction of fortresses.

5 We are destroying speculations and every [a]lofty thing raised up against the knowledge of God, and we are taking every thought captive to the [b]obedience of Christ,

6 and we are ready to punish all disobedience, whenever [a]your obedience is complete.

7 [a]You are looking at things as they are outwardly. [b]If anyone is confident in himself that he is Christ's, let him consider this again within himself, that just as he is Christ's, [c]so also are we.

8 For even if [a]I boast somewhat further about our [b]authority, which the Lord gave for building you up and not for destroying you, I will not be put to shame,

9 for I do not wish to seem as if I would terrify you by my letters.

10 For they say, "His letters are weighty and strong, but his personal presence is [a]unimpressive and [b]his speech contemptible."

11 Let such a person consider this, that what we are in word by letters when absent, such persons we are also in deed when present.

12 For we are not bold to class or compare ourselves with some of those who [a]commend themselves; but when they measure themselves by themselves and compare themselves with themselves, they are without understanding.

13 But we will not boast [a]beyond our measure, but [b]within the measure of the sphere which God apportioned to us as a measure, to reach even as far as you.

14 For we are not overextending ourselves, as if we did not reach to you, for [a]we were the first to come even as far as you in the [b]gospel of Christ;

15 not boasting [a]beyond our measure, that is, in [b]other men's labors, but with the hope that as [c]your faith grows, we will be, within our sphere, [d]enlarged even more by you,

16 so as to [a]preach the gospel even to [b]the regions beyond you, and not to boast [c]in what has been accomplished in the sphere of another.

17 But [a]HE WHO BOASTS IS TO BOAST IN THE LORD.

18 For it is not he who [a]commends himself that is approved, but he [b]whom the Lord commends.

B The Marks of His Apostleship, 11:1–12:18

1 Paul's conduct, 11:1–15

11 I wish that you would [a]bear with me in a little [b]foolishness; but indeed you are bearing with me.

2 For I am jealous for you with a godly jealousy; for I [a]betrothed you to one husband, so that to Christ I might [b]present you as a pure virgin.

3 But I am afraid that, as the [a]serpent deceived Eve by his craftiness, your minds will be led astray from the simplicity and purity of devotion to Christ.

10:4–6 In contrast to those of the false teachers, Paul used spiritual weapons in combating their arguments and pretentiousness.

10:7–9 You look, Paul says, only at what lies before your eyes. I belong to Christ as much as they do (v. 7). As a matter of fact, I could claim higher authority (v. 8), but that might frighten you (v. 9)!

10:10 contemptible = of no account.

10:12 The false teachers compared themselves to themselves and not to God and His standards.

10:13 beyond our measure. I.e., beyond his limits or assigned region, the territory God had assigned to Paul. In that territory, which included Corinth, he would boast, but not in areas in which others had labored.

10:15–16 As their faith grows and his presence is no longer necessary, Paul could turn to other fields. regions beyond. Paul likely had Spain in mind (Rom. 15:23–24).

11:1 a little foolishness. I.e., the boasting of verses 21–33. But Paul knows he must do it to make the false apostles appear in their true colors.

11:2–3 As their spiritual father, Paul pledged the Corinthians to Christ but feared that they were being deceived as Eve was.

4 For if one comes and preaches [a]another Jesus whom we have not preached, or you receive a [b]different spirit which you have not received, or a [c]different gospel which you have not accepted, you [d]bear this [e]beautifully.

5 For I consider myself [a]not in the least inferior to the most eminent apostles.

6 But even if I am [a]unskilled in speech, yet I am not so in [b]knowledge; in fact, in every way we have [c]made this evident to you in all things.

7 Or [a]did I commit a sin in humbling myself so that you might be exalted, because I preached the [b]gospel of God to you [c]without charge?

8 I robbed other churches by [a]taking wages from them to serve you;

9 and when I was present with you and was in need, I was [a]not a burden to anyone; for when [b]the brethren came from [c]Macedonia they fully supplied my need, and in everything I kept myself from [a]being a burden to you, and will continue to do so.

10 [a]As the truth of Christ is in me, [b]this boasting of mine will not be stopped in the regions of [c]Achaia.

11 Why? [a]Because I do not love you? [b]God knows I do!

12 But what I am doing I will continue to do, [a]so that I may cut off opportunity from those who desire an opportunity to be regarded just as we are in the matter about which they are boasting.

13 For such men are [a]false apostles, [b]deceitful workers, disguising themselves as apostles of Christ.

14 No wonder, for even [a]Satan disguises himself as an [b]angel of light.

15 Therefore it is not surprising if his servants also disguise themselves as servants of righteousness, [a]whose end will be according to their deeds.

2 Paul's sufferings, 11:16–33

16 [a]Again I say, let no one think me foolish; but if you do, receive me even as foolish, so that I also may boast a little.

17 What I am saying, I am not saying [a]as the Lord would, but as [b]in foolishness, in this confidence of boasting.

18 Since [a]many boast [b]according to the flesh, I will boast also.

19 For you, [a]being so wise, tolerate the foolish gladly.

20 For you tolerate it if anyone [a]enslaves you, anyone [b]devours you, anyone [c]takes advantage of you, anyone [d]exalts himself, anyone [e]hits you in the face.

21 To my [a]shame I must say that we have been [b]weak by comparison. But in whatever respect anyone else [c]is bold—I [d]speak in foolishness—I am just as bold myself.

22 Are they [a]Hebrews? [b]So

11:4 Paul here and in verse 5 is speaking sarcastically. Of course, he did not want them to submit to false teachers nor did he regard these smooth talkers as "apostles" in any sense.

11:5 the most eminent apostles. The original 12 apostles.

11:6 unskilled in speech. I.e., not an orator.

11:8 robbed. In the sense of having accepted gifts from other churches who could ill afford to give them, in order not to be a financial burden to the Corinthians.

11:9 When Paul first arrived at Corinth he worked as a tentmaker, but then he devoted himself entirely to preaching when gifts for his support came from Macedonia (Acts 18:3–5; Phil. 4:15).

11:12 By not accepting support, Paul cut off his opponents' opportunity, or opening, for attacking him.

11:14–15 Satan's masterful deception is to appear in the guise of an angel of light. These teachers, Satan's servants, appeared as preachers of righteousness.

11:17 not . . . as the Lord would. Paul means that his forced boasting finds no example in the life of Christ. He had to indulge in it, he says, against his natural instincts so that he could call some significant facts to their attention.

11:20 devours. I.e., by exacting money (cf. Mark 12:40).

11:22 Hebrews. Those who spoke Hebrew or Aramaic (Acts 6:1). Israelites. Those who belonged to that nation. Paul was a descendant of Abraham through the tribe of Benjamin.

11:22 [c]Rom 9:4 [d]Gal 3:16 [e]Rom 11:1

7 Because of the surpassing greatness of the [a]revelations, for

---

11:23 Paul states the false teachers' claim to be servants of Christ only for the sake of argument.

11:24 thirty-nine lashes. This refers to beatings administered in the synagogue. The law prescribed 40 lashes (Deut. 25:1–3), but only 39 were given in order to be certain of not exceeding the limit.

11:25 beaten with rods. A Roman punishment, administered to Paul at Philippi (Acts 16:23). stoned. At Lystra (Acts 14:11–19). shipwrecked. These are not specifically recorded in Acts (the one in 27:27–44 was after 2 Corinthians was written).

11:28 Painful as Paul's physical difficulties were, his spiritual burdens were even greater.

11:30 Paul boasted of his weakness, not his strength and power (cf. 12:12; Acts 19:11).

12:2–4 Paul here speaks of a personal and actual experience when he was caught up into heaven and given revelations he could not speak about. This occurred ca. A.D. 43 before Paul's first missionary trip. caught up. Seized, as in the future rapture of believers (1 Thess. 4:17). the third heaven or Paradise. God's dwelling place.

12:6 Paul wanted to be judged only on the evidence before their eyes.

12:7 a thorn in the flesh. This seems to have been some recurrent physical affliction. Migraine headaches, eye trouble (ophthalmia), malaria, and epilepsy have all been seriously suggested. But see note on Gal. 4:12–15. Paul views it as the work of Satan, permitted by God for a good purpose (keeping him humble). It could not be relieved through prayer (v. 8).

this reason, to keep me from exalting myself, there was given me a [b]thorn in the flesh, a [c]messenger of Satan to torment me—to keep me from exalting myself!

8 Concerning this I implored the Lord [a]three times that it might leave me.

9 And He has said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for [a]power is perfected in weakness." Most gladly, therefore, I will rather [b]boast about my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may dwell in me.

10 Therefore [a]I am well content with weaknesses, with insults, with [b]distresses, with [c]persecutions, with [b]difficulties, [d]for Christ's sake; for [e]when I am weak, then I am strong.

4 Paul's unselfishness, 12:11–18

11 I have become [a]foolish; you yourselves compelled me. Actually I should have been commended by you, for [b]in no respect was I inferior to the most eminent apostles, even though [c]I am a nobody.

12 The [a]signs of a true apostle were performed among you with all perseverance, by signs and wonders and miracles.

13 For in what respect were you treated as inferior to the rest of the churches, except that [a]I myself did not become a burden to you? Forgive me [b]this wrong!

14 Here [a]for this third time I am ready to come to you, and I [b]will not be a burden to you; for I [c]do not seek what is yours, but [d]you; for [e]children are not responsible to save up for their parents, but [f]parents for their children.

15 I will [a]most gladly spend and be expended for your souls. If [b]I love you more, am I to be loved less?

16 But be that as it may, I [a]did not burden you myself; nevertheless, crafty fellow that I am, I [b]took you in by deceit.

17 [a]Certainly I have not taken advantage of you through any of those whom I have sent to you, have I?

18 I [a]urged [b]Titus to go, and I sent [c]the brother with him. Titus did not take any advantage of you, did he? Did we not conduct ourselves in the same [d]spirit and walk [e]in the same steps?

12:11 Having to boast and defend himself made Paul feel foolish.

12:13 Do you think I made you inferior to the rest of the churches because I did not take money from you?

12:15 for your souls. I.e., for your spiritual good.

12:16 After nevertheless, add "they say." To be sure, they said, he didn't take any money while he was here, but what about that collection for the saints? Who knows in whose pockets that will go?

12:21 God may humiliate me before you. I.e., if when Paul comes he finds them still acting like pagans (v. 20).

4 For indeed He was [a]crucified because of weakness, yet He lives [b]because of the power of God. For we also are [c]weak in Him, yet [d]we will live with Him because of the power of God directed toward you.

*13:5 aJohn 6:6 b1 Cor 11:28 c1 Cor 9:27

5 [a]Test yourselves to see if you are in the faith; [b]examine yourselves! Or do you not recognize this about yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you—unless indeed you [c]fail the test?

*13:6

6 But I trust that you will realize that we ourselves do not fail the test.

7 Now we pray to God that you do no wrong; not that we ourselves may appear approved, but that you may do what is right, even though we may appear unapproved.

8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but only for the truth.

*13:9 a2 Cor 12:10; 13:4 b1 Cor 1:10; 2 Cor 13:11; Eph 4:12; 1 Thess 3:10

13:10 a2 Cor 2:3 bTitus 1:13 c1 Cor 5:4; 2 Cor 10:8

10 For this reason I am writing these things while absent, so that when present [a]I need not use [b]severity, in accordance with the [c]authority which the Lord gave me for building up and not for tearing down.

14 [a]The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the [b]love of God, and the [c]fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

13:1 the third time I am coming to you. Acts 18:1 records the first visit; the second was likely the "painful visit" (2 Cor. 2:1); and the third is the one he is about to undertake. BY THE TESTIMONY OF TWO OR THREE WITNESSES. Paul warned that, if necessary, trials were going to be held when he came, in which Jewish rules of evidence-giving would be applied (Deut. 19:15).

13:5 yourselves is emphatic; i.e., it is yourselves, not I, whom you should examine. fail the test. I.e., they failed to pass the test and were not members of the household of faith (also cf. v. 6).

13:6 The genuineness of their faith also proved the genuineness of Paul's ministry among them.

13:9 that you be made complete. I.e., that they be fully restored to spiritual health (also v. 11).

13:12 a holy kiss. See note on 1 Peter 5:14.

13:14 An early and clear witness to belief in the Trinity.

GALATIANS

INTRODUCTION

AUTHOR: Paul DATE: 49 or 55

Galatia At the time of the writing of this letter the term "Galatia" was used both in a geographical and in a political sense. The former referred to north-central Asia Minor, north of the cities of Pisidian Antioch, Iconium, Lystra, and Derbe; the latter referred to the Roman province (organized in 25 B.C.) that included southern districts and those cities just mentioned. If the letter was written to Christians in North Galatia, the churches were founded on the second missionary journey and the epistle was written on the third missionary journey, either early from Ephesus (about A.D. 53) or later (about 55) from Macedonia. In favor of this is the fact that Luke seems to use "Galatia" only to describe North Galatia (Acts 16:6; 18:23).

If the letter was written to Christians in South Galatia, the churches were founded on the first missionary journey, the letter was written after the end of the journey (probably from Antioch, ca. A.D. 49, making it the earliest of Paul's epistles), and the Jerusalem council (Acts 15) convened shortly afterward. In favor of this dating is the fact that Paul does not mention the decision of the Jerusalem council that bore directly on his Galatian argument concerning the Judaizers, indicating that the council had not yet taken place.

The Problem How can men (sinful by nature) come to God (holy by nature)? Paul's answer is this: There is only one way—accept the salvation God's grace makes available through Christ's death and resurrection. Forget about merit-salvation through obedience to the law of Moses. Man is too weak by nature to accomplish self-salvation or self-sanctification. Certain Jewish Christians (the Judaizers) were teaching that such works are necessary, that Paul's gospel was not correct, and that he was not a genuine apostle. Paul's answer was to proclaim the doctrine of justification by faith plus nothing, and of sanctification by the Holy Spirit, not the Mosaic Law. This answer was given in the full apostolic authority received from Christ. All theologies that teach salvation by faith plus human effort are forcefully negated by this great letter.

Contents The theme, justification by faith, is defended, explained, and applied. Other significant subjects include Paul's three years in Arabia (1:17), his correcting Peter (2:11), the law as a tutor (3:24), and the fruit of the Spirit (5:22–23).

THE LETTER OF PAUL TO THE GALATIANS

I INTRODUCTION: THE RIGHTNESS OF PAUL'S GOSPEL ASSERTED, 1:1–10

1:1 1 Paul, [a]an apostle ([b]not sent from men nor through the agency of man, but [c]through Jesus Christ and God the Father, who [d]raised Him from the dead),

1:2 2 and all [a]the brethren who are with me, to [b]the churches of Galatia:

1:3 3 [a]Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ,

1:4 4 who [a]gave Himself for our sins so that He might rescue us from [b]this present evil age, according to the will of [c]our God and Father,

1:5 5 [a]to whom be the glory forevermore. Amen.

1:6 6 I am amazed that you are so quickly deserting [a]Him who called you by the grace of Christ, for a [b]different gospel;

7 which is really not another; only there are some who are [a]disturbing you and want to distort the gospel of Christ.

1:8 8 But even if we, or [a]an angel from heaven, should preach to you a gospel contrary to what we have preached to you, he is to be [b]accursed!

1:9 9 As we [a]have said before, so I say again now, [b]if any man is preaching to you a gospel contrary to what you received, he is to be [c]accursed!

10 For am I now [a]seeking the favor of men, or of God? Or am I striving to please men? If I were still trying to please men, I would not be a [b]bond-servant of Christ.

II JUSTIFICATION BY FAITH DEFENDED: PAUL'S AUTHORITY, 1:11–2:21

A His Authority Acquired Through Revelation, 1:11–24

1:11 11 For [a]I would have you know, brethren, that the gospel which was preached by me is [b]not according to man.

1:12 12 For [a]I neither received it from man, nor was I taught it, but I received it through a [b]revelation of Jesus Christ.

1:13 13 For you have heard of [a]my former manner of life in Judaism, how I [b]used to persecute [c]the church of God beyond measure and [d]tried to destroy it;

1:14 14 and I [a]was advancing in Judaism beyond many of my contemporaries among my countrymen, being more extremely zealous for my [b]ancestral traditions.

15 But when God, who had set

1:1 Paul's apostleship was not . . . from men. I.e., it did not originate from any man but came from God. nor through the agency of man. I.e., it was not mediated through any man but came directly from Jesus Christ.

1:3–5 In this greeting Paul neatly summarizes his whole preaching message.

1:6 deserting Him who called you. I.e., God the Father. They were deserting grace to retreat into law, and they bore the responsibility for their defection.

1:7 the gospel of Christ. The good news of God's grace in Christ, who gave Himself for our sins (v. 4). Those who taught any other way threatened the true gospel.

1:8 accursed. Lit., anathema, or devoted to destruction. Ecclesiastically, it was accompanied by excommunication. Those who do not love the Lord are also accursed.

1:10 seeking the favor of men. I.e., by toning down his message. Paul was being accused of preaching a cheap form of admission to God's kingdom. He counters by saying that he is a bond-servant of Christ (lit., slave). How can this cross-centered way be viewed as seeking to please men?

1:11–17 In these verses Paul defends his authority as an apostle. On the one hand, he shows that his teaching was not derived from any human agency and, on the other, that it was acknowledged by the other apostles as truly from God.

1:12 Since Paul received his message and authority from Christ, how could the Galatians question either?

1:15 Paul was set apart from birth for his work (as was Jeremiah, 1:5).

me apart even from my mother's womb and [a]called me through His grace, was pleased

16 to reveal His Son in me so that I might [a]preach Him among the Gentiles, [b]I did not immediately consult with [c]flesh and blood,

17 [a]nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me; but I went away to Arabia, and returned once more to [b]Damascus.

18 Then [a]three years later I went up [b]to Jerusalem to become acquainted with [c]Cephas, and stayed with him fifteen days.

19 But I did not see any other of the apostles except [a]James, the Lord's brother.

20 (Now in what I am writing to you, I assure you [a]before God that I am not lying.)

21 Then [a]I went into the regions of [b]Syria and [c]Cilicia.

22 I was still unknown by sight to [a]the churches of Judea which were [b]in Christ;

23 but only, they kept hearing, "He who once persecuted us is now preaching [a]the faith which he once [b]tried to destroy."

24 And they [a]were glorifying God because of me.

B His Authority Approved by the Church in Jerusalem, 2:1–10

2 Then after an interval of fourteen years I [a]went up again to Jerusalem with [b]Barnabas, taking [c]Titus along also.

2 It was because of a [a]revelation that I went up; and I submitted to them the [b]gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but I did so in private to those who were of reputation, for fear that I might be [c]running, or had run, in vain.

3 But not even [a]Titus, who was with me, though he was a Greek, was [b]compelled to be circumcised.

4 But it was because of the [a]false brethren secretly brought in, who [b]had sneaked in to spy out our [c]liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, in order to [d]bring us into bondage.

5 But we did not yield in subjection to them for even an hour, so that [a]the truth of the gospel would remain with you.

6 But from those who were of high [a]reputation (what they were makes no difference to me; [b]God shows no partiality)—well, those who were of reputation contributed nothing to me.

7 But on the contrary, seeing

2:1 [a]Acts 15:2 [b]Acts 4:36; Gal 2:9,13 [c]2 Cor 2:13; Gal 2:3
2:2 [a]Acts 15:2; Gal 1:12 [b]Gal 1:6 [c]Rom 9:16; 1 Cor 9:24ff; Gal 5:7; Phil 2:16; 2 Tim 4:7; Heb 12:1

1:16 with flesh and blood. I.e., with other people.

1:17 Arabia. This may mean anywhere in the kingdom of the Nabataeans, from near Damascus down to the Sinaitic peninsula. Paul's intent is not to pinpoint the location but to emphasize that it was a place (in contrast to Jerusalem) where there was no apostle to instruct him. In Arabia he was alone with God, thinking through the implications of his encounter with the risen Christ on the Damascus road. Though not mentioned in Acts, this period in Paul's life would probably fit between Acts 9:22 and 9:23.

1:18–2:21 This passage is Paul's account of his relations with the Jerusalem apostles. Though independent of men, Paul makes clear that he is within the stream of apostolic tradition represented by James, Peter, and John.

1:18 The purpose of Paul's visit to Peter was to become acquainted with him rather than to confer with him. He also saw James, the Lord's half brother (v. 19), but did not visit the Judean churches (v. 22). Acts 9:26–30 records this visit.

1:21 Syria and Cilicia. On his way to Tarsus, his home city (Acts 9:30).

2:1–10 Paul's account of the events recorded in Acts 11 (if the letter was written to the churches in South Galatia) or, less likely, Acts 15 (if written to North Galatia).

2:3 Titus. A test case: if he were compelled to be circumcised, then other Gentile believers could be too; if not, then freedom from the law was confirmed.

2:4 false brethren. Judaizers who wanted to enslave Gentile converts by requiring circumcision and keeping the law of Moses.

2:5 the truth of the gospel. I.e., grace is everything and for everyone; to compromise these truths was unthinkable.

2:6 these who were of high reputation. James, Peter, John (v. 9), who the Judaizers link up with even though they had approved of Paul's ministry to Gentiles.

2:7 the gospel to the uncircumcised. Better, the gospel to the Gentiles. Paul was especially responsible for spreading the gospel to the Gentiles (Rom. 1:5) and Peter to the circumcised, the Jews.

that I had been [a]entrusted with the [b]gospel to the uncircumcised, just as [c]Peter had been to the circumcised

8 (for He who effectually worked for Peter in his [a]apostleship to the circumcised effectually worked for me also to the Gentiles),

9 and recognizing [a]the grace that had been given to me, [b]James and [c]Cephas and John, who were [d]reputed to be [e]pillars, gave to me and [f]Barnabas the [g]right hand of fellowship, so that we might [h]go to the Gentiles and they to the circumcised.

10 They only asked us to remember the poor—[a]the very thing I also was eager to do.

C His Authority Acknowledged in the Rebuke of Peter, 2:11–21

11 But when [a]Cephas came to [b]Antioch, I opposed him to his face, because he stood condemned.

12 For prior to the coming of certain men from [a]James, he used to [b]eat with the Gentiles; but when they came, he began to withdraw and hold himself aloof, [c]fearing the party of the circumcision.

13 The rest of the Jews joined him in hypocrisy, with the result that even [a]Barnabas was carried away by their hypocrisy.

14 But when I saw that they [a]were not straightforward about [b]the truth of the gospel, I said to [c]Cephas in the presence of all, "If you, being a Jew, [d]live like the Gentiles and not like the Jews, how is it that you compel the Gentiles to live like Jews?

15 "We are [a]Jews by nature and not [b]sinners from among the Gentiles;

16 nevertheless knowing that [a]a man is not justified by the works of the Law but through faith in Christ Jesus, even we have believed in Christ Jesus, so that we may be justified by [b]faith in Christ and not by the works of the Law; since [c]by the works of the Law no flesh will be justified.

17 "But if, while seeking to be justified in Christ, we ourselves have also been found [a]sinners, is Christ then a minister of sin? [b]May it never be!

18 "For if I rebuild what I have once destroyed, I [a]prove myself to be a transgressor.

19 "For through the Law I [a]died to the Law, so that I might live to God.

20 "I have been [a]crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I who live, but [b]Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in [c]the Son of God, who [d]loved me and [e]gave Himself up for me.

21 "I do not nullify the grace of God, for [a]if righteousness comes through the Law, then Christ died needlessly."

2:9 right hand of fellowship. A pledge of agreement and support of Paul.

2:10 the poor. The saints in Jerusalem were notoriously poor (Rom. 15:26; see also 1 Cor. 16:1–4).

2:11–13 Cephas (Peter) was not preaching heresy but neither was he consistently practicing the gospel of grace. He withdrew from eating with uncircumcised Gentile believers when pressured to do so by some of the Hebrew Christians.

2:14 Peter was negating the truth of the gospel by not accepting Jews and Gentiles equally when he withdrew from fellowship with Gentile believers.

2:16 justified. I.e., declared righteous in God's sight and vindicated of any charge of sin in connection with failure to keep God's law.

2:19 died to the Law, because Christ paid the penalty for sin that the law demanded. Paul could cease giving further thought to legal obedience as a means of winning God's acceptance.

2:20 I have been crucified with Christ. Crucifixion with Christ means "death to or separation from the reigning power of the old sinful life and freedom to experience the power of the resurrection life of Christ by faith" (see Rom. 6:6). it is no longer I who live, but Christ . . . . Christ had taken up His abode in Paul, yet He did so without submerging Paul's own personality.

2:21 nullify = set aside. It was the Galatians, not Paul, who nullified the grace of God by wanting to retain law. If the law could have provided the righteousness necessary for justification, why did Christ have to die?

III JUSTIFICATION BY FAITH EXPLAINED: PAUL'S GOSPEL, 3:1–4:31

A The Argument from Experience, 3:1–5

*3:1 [a]Gal 1:2 [b]1 Cor 1:23; Gal 5:11

3 You foolish [a]Galatians, who has bewitched you, before whose eyes Jesus Christ [b]was publicly portrayed as crucified?

3:2 [a]Rom 10:17

2 This is the only thing I want to find out from you: did you receive the Spirit by the works of the Law, or by [a]hearing with faith?

3 Are you so foolish? Having begun by the Spirit, are you now being perfected by the flesh?

3:4 [a]1 Cor 15:2

4 Did you suffer so many things in vain— [a]if indeed it was in vain?

*3:5 [a]2 Cor 9:10; Phil 1:19 [b]1 Cor 12:10 [c]Rom 10:17

5 So then, does He who [a]provides you with the Spirit and [b]works miracles among you, do it by the works of the Law, or by [c]hearing with faith?

B The Argument from Abraham, 3:6–9

*3:6 [a]Rom 4:3 [b]Gen 15:6

6 Even so [a]Abraham [b]BELIEVED GOD, AND IT WAS RECKONED TO HIM AS RIGHTEOUSNESS.

*3:7 [a]Rom 4:16; Gal 3:9 [b]Luke 19:9; Gal 6:16

7 Therefore, be sure that [a]it is those who are of faith who are [b]sons of Abraham.

8 The Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand to Abraham, saying, "[a]ALL THE NATIONS WILL BE BLESSED IN YOU." 3:8 [a]Gen 12:3

9 So then [a]those who are of faith are blessed with Abraham, the believer. 3:9 [a]Gal 3:7

C The Argument from the Law, 3:10–4:11

10 For as many as are of the works of the Law are under a curse; for it is written, "[a]CURSED IS EVERYONE WHO DOES NOT ABIDE BY ALL THINGS WRITTEN IN THE BOOK OF THE LAW, TO PERFORM THEM." *3:10 [a]Deut 27:26

11 Now that [a]no one is justified by the Law before God is evident; for, "[b]THE RIGHTEOUS MAN SHALL LIVE BY FAITH." *3:11 [a]Gal 2:16 [b]Hab 2:4; Rom 1:17; Heb 10:38

12 However, the Law is not of faith; on the contrary, "[a]HE WHO PRACTICES THEM SHALL LIVE BY THEM." 3:12 [a]Lev 18:5; Rom 10:5

13 Christ [a]redeemed us from the curse of the Law, having become a curse for us—for it is written, "[b]CURSED IS EVERYONE WHO HANGS ON [c]A TREE"— *3:13 [a]Gal 4:5 [b]Deut 21:23 [c]Acts 5:30

14 in order that [a]in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we [b]would receive [c]the promise of the Spirit through faith. 3:14 [a]Rom 4:9,16; Gal 3:28 [b]Gal 3:2 [c]Acts 2:33; Eph 1:13

15 [a]Brethren, [b]I speak in terms of human relations: [c]even though it is only a man's covenant, yet when it has been ratified, no one sets it aside or adds conditions to it. 3:15 [a]Acts 1:15; Rom 1:13; Gal 6:18 [b]Rom 3:5 [c]Heb 6:16

16 Now the promises were spo- *3:16

3:1–2 To return to law and negate the necessity of the death of Christ (2:21) was to act as if bewitched. Works of the law did not give them the Holy Spirit. See note on Judg. 3:10.

3:3 Paul brought the gospel to them and the Spirit worked in them. Yet now they were reverting to flesh-works in the hope that a combination of faith (Spirit) and works (flesh) would work more easily or better.

3:5 Some of these miracles are recorded in Acts 14:3, 8–11, and they were not done by the law.

3:6 Paul now appealed to Scripture (Gen. 15:6) to show that the patriarch Abraham depended on faith for RIGHTEOUSNESS.

3:7 sons of Abraham. Abraham's physical descendants through Isaac and Jacob are the Jewish people, but his spiritual descendants are those who believe in God for salvation—men of faith as contrasted with men of works or men of circumcision.

3:10 Having shattered the Jews' confidence in their physical relation to Abraham, Paul now shows that the law brings a curse. He quotes Deut. 27:26 (from the LXX) and argues that man cannot possibly keep all the laws, hence his bondage (cf. James 2:10).

3:11 "THE RIGHTEOUS MAN SHALL LIVE BY FAITH." Paul's use of this quotation from Hab. 2:4 is to stress that one can become justified in God's sight only by faith; i.e., he who is righteous by faith (rather than works) shall live. See note on Heb. 10:38.

3:13 The law brings a curse. The believer is delivered from that curse through Christ, who became a curse for us. The Crucifixion brought Him under the curse of the law, as explained in the last half of the verse (quoted from Deut. 21:23).

3:16 seed. Since Paul's argument here is based on the singular form of the word in the OT (Gen. 22:17–18), he must have believed in the accuracy of the very words of Scripture.

ken [a]to Abraham and to his seed. He does not say, "And to seeds," as referring to many, but rather to one, "[b]And to your seed," that is, Christ.

17 What I am saying is this: the Law, which came [a]four hundred and thirty years later, does not invalidate a covenant previously ratified by God, so as to nullify the promise.

18 For [a]if the inheritance is based on law, it is no longer based on a promise; but [b]God has granted it to Abraham by means of a promise.

19 [a]Why the Law then? It was added because of transgressions, having been [b]ordained through angels [c]by the agency of a mediator, until [d]the seed would come to whom the promise had been made.

20 Now [a]a mediator is not for one party only; whereas God is only one.

21 Is the Law then contrary to the promises of God? [a]May it never be! For [b]if a law had been given which was able to impart life, then righteousness would indeed have been based on law.

22 But the Scripture has [a]shut up everyone under sin, so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.

23 But before faith came, we were kept in custody under the law, [a]being shut up to the faith which was later to be revealed.

24 Therefore the Law has become our [a]tutor to lead us to Christ, so that [b]we may be justified by faith.

25 But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a [a]tutor.

26 For you are all [a]sons of God through faith in [b]Christ Jesus.

27 For all of you who were [a]baptized into Christ have [b]clothed yourselves with Christ.

28 [a]There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free man, there is neither male nor female; for [b]you are all one in [c]Christ Jesus.

29 And if [a]you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's descendants, heirs according to [b]promise.

4 Now I say, as long as the heir is a child, he does not differ at all from a slave although he is owner of everything,

2 but he is under guardians and managers until the date set by the father.

3 So also we, while we were children, were held [a]in bondage under the [b]elemental things of the world.

4 But when [a]the fullness of

*4:4 [a]Mark 1:15

3:17 The Mosaic Law did not set aside the promises made to Abraham. And, during those hundreds of years before the law, God had also justified men only by faith. On the 430 year period, see note on Ex. 12:40.

3:19–20 because of transgressions. I.e., to make sins known and to restrain them. The law was mediated through angels and Moses, whereas the covenant with Abraham was given directly by God (Gen. 15:18). The presence of a mediator assumes two parties, and the need of a mediator shows the inferiority of the law.

3:22 The law shows the world to be under sin so that people will realize that works cannot save, only Christ can.

3:24 tutor. The Greek word used here means not a "teacher" but "an attendant, custodian, or guardian," usually a slave whose job it was to accompany the child, train him, and discipline him. The law was such a disciplinarian until Christ the teacher came.

3:26 sons of God. Full adults and heirs because of adoption into God's family (4:5).

3:27 baptized into Christ. Not water baptism but Spirit baptism, which brings believers into a living union with Christ (cf. 1 Cor. 12:13). have clothed yourselves with Christ. A responsible act of appropriating all that Jesus Christ is.

3:28 In the unity of the Body of Christ, differences of race, status, and gender lose their significance. Spiritual position is the same for all, but that does not mean that distinctions cease to exist, nor that all have the same functions within the body (1 Cor. 11:3; 1 Tim. 2:12).

3:29 Christ is the seed of Abraham (v. 16); being in Christ makes the believer a descendant of Abraham and heir of the promise of justification by faith (v. 8). National promises made to Abraham as the father of the Jewish people are not in view in this verse, only the universal promise is (v. 8).

4:3 the elemental things of the world. I.e., the bondage of a legalistic practice of Judaism or (for Gentiles) the bondage of heathenism (also v. 9).

4:4 born of a woman. The divine Son was also human. born under the Law. Christ was reared in conformity to the Mosaic Law.

4:4 [b]John 1:14; Rom 1:3; 8:3; Phil 2:7 [c]Luke 2:21f,27 the time came, God sent forth His Son, [b]born of a woman, born [c]under the Law,

*4:5 [a]Rom 8:14; Gal 3:26
5 so that He might redeem those who were under the Law, that we might receive the adoption as [a]sons.

*4:6 [a]Acts 16:7; Rom 5:5; 8:9, 16; 2 Cor 3:17 [b]Mark 14:36; Rom 8:15
6 Because you are sons, [a]God has sent forth the Spirit of His Son into our hearts, crying, "[b]Abba! Father!"

4:7 [a]Rom 8:17
7 Therefore you are no longer a slave, but a son; and [a]if a son, then an heir through God.

*4:8 [a]1 Cor 1:21; Eph 2:12; 1 Thess 4:5; 2 Thess 1:8 [b]Gal 4:3 [c]2 Chr 13:9; Is 37:19; Jer 2:11; 1 Cor 8:4f; 10:20
8 However at that time, [a]when you did not know God, you were [b]slaves to [c]those which by nature are no gods.

4:9 [a]1 Cor 8:3 [b]Col 2:20 [c]Gal 4:3
9 But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be [a]known by God, [b]how is it that you turn back again to the weak and worthless [c]elemental things, to which you desire to be enslaved all over again?

*4:10 [a]Rom 14:5; Col 2:16
10 You [a]observe days and months and seasons and years.

11 I fear for you, that perhaps I have labored over you in vain.

D The Argument from Personal Testimony, 4:12–20

*4:12 [a]Gal 6:18 [b]2 Cor 6:11,13
12 I beg of you, [a]brethren, [b]become as I am, for I also have become as you are. You have done me no wrong;

13 but you know that it was because of a bodily illness that I preached the gospel to you the first time;

14 and that which was a trial to you in my bodily condition you did not despise or loathe, but [a]you received me as an angel of God, as [b]Christ Jesus Himself.

4:14 [a]Matt 10:40; 1 Thess 2:13 [b]Gal 3:26

15 Where then is that sense of blessing you had? For I bear you witness that, if possible, you would have plucked out your eyes and given them to me.

4:16 [a]Amos 5:10
16 So have I become your enemy [a]by telling you the truth?

*4:17
17 They eagerly seek you, not commendably, but they wish to shut you out so that you will seek them.

*4:18 [a]Gal 4:13f
18 But it is good always to be eagerly sought in a commendable manner, and [a]not only when I am present with you.

4:19 [a]1 John 2:1 [b]1 Cor 4:15 [c]Eph 4:13
19 [a]My children, with whom [b]I am again in labor until [c]Christ is formed in you—

4:20 [a]2 Cor 4:8
20 but I could wish to be present with you now and to change my tone, for [a]I am perplexed about you.

E The Argument from an Allegory, 4:21–31

4:21 [a]Luke 16:29
21 Tell me, you who want to be under law, do you not [a]listen to the law?

*4:22 [a]Gen 16:15 [b]Gen 21:2
22 For it is written that Abraham had two sons, [a]one by the bondwoman and [b]one by the free woman.

4:23 [a]Rom 9:7; Gal 4:29 [b]Gen 17:16ff; 18:10ff; 21:1; Gal 4:28; Heb 11:11
23 But [a]the son by the bondwoman was born according to the flesh, and [b]the son by the free woman through the promise.

*4:24 [a]1 Cor 10:11
24 [a]This is allegorically speaking, for these women are two cov-

---

4:5 the adoption as sons. See note on Rom. 8:15.

4:6 The Holy Spirit in the heart of the believer shows his acceptance with God as a son and heir (v. 7). Abba is the Aramaic word for father.

4:8–11 Paul tells the Galatians that they are not acting like heirs of God!

4:10 Influenced by the Judaizers, some Galatians had begun to observe the festivals of the Jewish calendar.

4:12–15 Paul is saying that he has had a good relationship with the Galatians: you have in the past been ready to "pluck out your eyes for me" (a common expression of the time for giving up everything for another, not an indication of eye trouble). Though he was ill on his former visit, they had not scorned him but had treated him as Christ had treated them. Now he wanted them to hold firm to the truth he had taught them.

4:17 The Judaizers were apparently using flattery and threats on the Galatians.

4:18 not only when I am present with you. I.e., Paul was not averse to having others minister to them, as long as it was done sincerely in the truth.

4:22–23 Isaac was born of a free woman (Sarah) in a miraculous way. Ishmael was born of the slave (Hagar) in the ordinary way.

4:24–31 Without denying the historicity of these accounts from Genesis, Paul draws lessons from them. Hagar stands for the Mosaic Law, slavery, Mount Sinai, Jerusalem then under slavery to Rome, and flesh. Sarah and Isaac stand for the enants: one proceeding from [b]Mount Sinai bearing children who are to be [c]slaves; she is Hagar.

25 Now this Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia and corresponds to the present Jerusalem, for she is in slavery with her children.

26 But [a]the Jerusalem above is free; she is our mother.

27 For it is written,

"[a]REJOICE, BARREN WOMAN WHO DOES NOT BEAR;
BREAK FORTH AND SHOUT, YOU WHO ARE NOT IN LABOR;
FOR MORE NUMEROUS ARE THE CHILDREN OF THE DESOLATE THAN OF THE ONE WHO HAS A HUSBAND."

28 And you brethren, [a]like Isaac, are [b]children of promise.

29 But as at that time [a]he who was born according to the flesh [b]persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, [c]so it is now also.

30 But what does the Scripture say?

"[a]CAST OUT THE BONDWOMAN AND HER SON, FOR [b]THE SON OF THE BONDWOMAN SHALL NOT BE AN HEIR WITH THE SON OF THE FREE WOMAN."

31 So then, brethren, we are not children of a bondwoman, but of the free woman.

IV JUSTIFICATION BY FAITH APPLIED: PAUL'S ETHICS, 5:1–6:10

A In Relation to Christian Liberty, 5:1–12

5 [a]It was for freedom that Christ set us free; therefore [b]keep standing firm and do not be subject again to a [c]yoke of slavery.

2 Behold I, [a]Paul, say to you that if you receive [b]circumcision, Christ will be of no benefit to you.

3 And I [a]testify again to every man who receives [b]circumcision, that he is under obligation to [c]keep the whole Law.

4 You have been severed from Christ, you who are seeking to be justified by law; you have [a]fallen from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit, by faith, are [a]waiting for the hope of righteousness.

6 For in [a]Christ Jesus [b]neither circumcision nor uncircumcision means anything, but [c]faith working through love.

7 You were [a]running well; who hindered you from obeying the truth?

8 This persuasion did not come from [a]Him who calls you.

9 [a]A little leaven leavens the whole lump of dough.

10 [a]I have confidence in you in the Lord that you [b]will adopt no other view; but the one who is [c]disturbing you will bear his judgment, whoever he is.

11 But I, brethren, if I still preach circumcision, why am I still [a]persecuted? Then [b]the stumbling block of the cross has been abolished.

12 I wish that [a]those who are troubling you would even [b]mutilate themselves.

Abrahamic covenant, the heavenly Jerusalem, the Spirit, and freedom.

5:2 Law (circumcision) and grace (Christ) simply do not mix, Paul says.

5:3 Because the law is a unit, obedience to it cannot be selective (3:10; James 2:10).

5:4 fallen from grace. To use the impossible ground of justification by law is to leave, abandon, fall from the way of grace as the only basis for justification.

5:9 False teaching in one area can easily lead to defection in more areas, in this case affecting the doctrines of grace.

5:11 the stumbling block of the cross. That a man can be saved only by faith is an offense to his pride.

5:12 Paul suggests, sarcastically, that if the Judaizers are so interested in circumcision they should go the whole way and castrate (mutilate) themselves as some pagan priests of the day did.

5:13 A great principle for Christian conduct: Do not allow liberty to become license, but do all out of love for others.

not turn your freedom into an opportunity for the flesh, but through love [c]serve one another.

14 For [a]the whole Law is fulfilled in one word, in the statement, "[b]YOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF."

15 But if you [a]bite and devour one another, take care that you are not consumed by one another.

17 For [a]the flesh sets its desire against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; for these are in opposition to one another, [b]so that you may not do the things that you please.

18 But if you are [a]led by the Spirit, [b]you are not under the Law.

19 Now the deeds of the flesh are evident, which are: [a]immorality, impurity, sensuality,

20 idolatry, [a]sorcery, enmities, [b]strife, jealousy, outbursts of anger, [c]disputes, dissensions, [d]factions,

21 envying, [a]drunkenness, carousing, and things like these, of which I forewarn you, just as I have forewarned you, that those who practice such things will not [b]inherit the kingdom of God.

22 But [a]the fruit of the Spirit is [b]love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, 23 gentleness, [a]self-control; against such things [b]there is no law.

24 Now those who belong to [a]Christ Jesus have [b]crucified the flesh with its passions and [c]desires.

25 If we live by the Spirit, let us also walk [a]by the Spirit.

26 Let us not become [a]boastful, challenging one another, envying one another.

6 [a]Brethren, even if anyone is caught in any trespass, you who are [b]spiritual, [c]restore such a one [d]in a spirit of gentleness; each one looking to yourself, so that you too will not be tempted.

2 [a]Bear one another's burdens, and thereby fulfill [b]the law of Christ.

3 For [a]if anyone thinks he is something when he is nothing, he deceives himself.

4 But each one must [a]examine his own work, and then he will have reason for [b]boasting in regard to himself alone, and not in regard to another.

5 For [a]each one will bear his own load.

E In Relation to Giving, 6:6–10

*6:6 [a] 1 Cor 9:11,14

6 [a]The one who is taught

5:16 walk. I.e., take each step of the Christian life in dependence on the Spirit to have victory over the flesh and its works. flesh. The sinful nature is received at birth and never eradicated in this life. But it can be controlled by the Spirit.

5:18 The Spirit, not the law, sanctifies us.

5:19 evident = plain or open, with overtones of being unashamed and blatant.

5:20 sorcery. The use of drugs and magical potions (see also Rev. 9:21; 18:23; 21:8; 22:15).

5:21 those who practice. The tense indicates habitually practicing these sins, exhibiting a lifestyle that shows an unsaved condition.

5:22–23 fruit. Singular, indicating the crop of nine qualities produced by the Spirit in those who walk in dependence on Him (v. 16). Since they also depict our Lord, one may say that He should be seen in our lives.

5:24 have crucified. I.e., become separated from the dominion of the sinful nature by our identification with Christ in His death. See notes on 2:20 and Rom. 6:2, 3, 6.

6:1 caught = apprehended, taken by surprise, caught red-handed. For the meaning of spiritual, see note on 1 Cor. 2:15. restore. Used of setting broken bones and mending fishing nets.

6:2 burdens. I.e., the excess burdens that we need to share with one another, in contrast to the "load" (different Greek word) in verse 5, which means the normal amount each must carry for himself. the law of Christ. I.e., the commands of Christ, especially the new commandment to love one another (John 13:34). Living under grace is not license; it is a life of love and service (5:6, 13).

6:6 share all good things. I.e., share material things.

6:6 [b]2 Tim 4:2
[b]the word is to share all good things with the one who teaches him.

6:7 [a]1 Cor 6:9 [b]Job 13:9 [c]2 Cor 9:6
7 [a]Do not be deceived, [b]God is not mocked; for [c]whatever a man sows, this he will also reap.

6:8 [a]Job 4:8; Hos 8:7; Rom 6:21 [b]1 Cor 15:42 [c]Rom 8:11; James 3:18
8 [a]For the one who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap [b]corruption, but [c]the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life.

*6:9 [a]1 Cor 15:58; 2 Cor 4:1 [b]Matt 10:22; Heb 12:3,5; James 5:7f
9 [a]Let us not lose heart in doing good, for in due time we will reap if we [b]do not grow weary.

*6:10 [a]Prov 3:27; John 12:35 [b]Eph 2:19; Heb 3:6; 1 Pet 2:5; 4:17 [c]Acts 6:7; Gal 1:23
10 So then, [a]while we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, and especially to those who are of the [b]household of [c]the faith.

V CONCLUSION: THE SUBSTANCE OF PAUL'S INSTRUCTION, 6:11–18

*6:11 [a]1 Cor 16:21
11 See with what large letters I am writing to you [a]with my own hand.

6:12 [a]Matt 23:27f
12 Those who desire [a]to make a good showing in the flesh try to [b]compel you to be circumcised, simply so that they [c]will not be persecuted for the cross of Christ.

6:12 [b]Acts 15:1 [c]Gal 5:11

13 For those who are circumcised do not even [a]keep the Law themselves, but they desire to have you circumcised so that they may [b]boast in your flesh.

6:13 [a]Rom 2:25 [b]Phil 3:3

*6:14 [a]Luke 20:16; Gal 2:17; 3:21 [b]1 Cor 2:2 [c]Gal 2:20; Col 2:20 [d]Rom 6:2,6; Gal 2:19f; 5:24
14 But [a]may it never be that I would boast, [b]except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, [c]through which the world has been crucified to me, and [d]I to the world.

*6:15 [a]Rom 2:26,28; 1 Cor 7:19; Gal 5:6 [b]2 Cor 5:17; Eph 2:10,15; 4:24; Col 3:10
15 For [a]neither is circumcision anything, nor uncircumcision, but a [b]new creation.

*6:16 [a]Rom 9:6; Gal 3:7,29; Phil 3:3
16 And those who will walk by this rule, peace and mercy be upon them, and upon the [a]Israel of God.

*6:17 [a]Is 44:5; Ezek 9:4; 2 Cor 4:10; 11:23; Rev 13:16
17 From now on let no one cause trouble for me, for I bear on my body the [a]brand-marks of Jesus.

6:18 [a]Rom 16:20 [b]2 Tim 4:22 [c]Acts 1:15; Rom 1:13; Gal 3:15; 4:12,28, 31
18 [a]The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be [b]with your spirit, [c]brethren. Amen.

6:9 lose heart. For use of this word, see note on 2 Cor. 4:1.

6:10 the household of the faith = believers. Concern for this group is a special obligation of the children of God.

6:11 with what large letters. Paul took the pen from his scribe to write this closing section in large letters for emphasis (though some think this indicates that his illness was in his eyes; cf. 4:15).

6:14 Paul was separated (crucified) from this world system with all its attractions and religions and separated to Christ.

6:15 Only becoming a new creation through faith in Christ matters (2 Cor. 5:17).

6:16 the Israel of God. I.e., Christian Jews, those who are both the physical and spiritual seed of Abraham. The church is not equated with the new Israel of God; rather two groups are mentioned here—all believing Galatians and especially believing Jews in that group.

6:17 brand-marks. I.e., scars suffered in persecution, which spoke more eloquently than the mark of circumcision that the Judaizers sought to impose.

EPHESIANS

INTRODUCTION

AUTHOR: Paul DATE: 61

The Prison Epistles Ephesians, Philippians, Colossians, and Philemon are sometimes referred to as the Prison Epistles, since they were all written during Paul's Roman imprisonment (Eph. 3:1; Phil. 1:7; Col. 4:10; Philem. 9). Whether he was imprisoned once or twice in Rome is debated, though two imprisonments seem to fit the facts better. During the first, Paul was kept in or near the barracks of the Praetorian Guard or in rental quarters at his own expense for two years (Acts 28:30), during which these epistles were written. He anticipated being released (Philem. 22), and following his release he made several trips, wrote 1 Timothy and Titus, was rearrested, wrote 2 Timothy, and was martyred (see the Introduction to Titus). These, then, are the first Roman imprisonment letters, whereas 2 Timothy is the second Roman imprisonment letter.

An Encyclical Several things indicate that Ephesians was a circular letter, a doctrinal treatise in the form of a letter, to the churches in Asia Minor. Some good Greek mss. omit the words "at Ephesus" in 1:1. There is an absence of controversy in this epistle, and it does not deal with problems of particular churches. Since Paul had worked at Ephesus for about three years and since he normally mentioned many friends in the churches to whom he wrote, the absence of personal names in this letter strongly supports the idea of its encyclical character. It was likely sent first to Ephesus by Tychicus (Eph. 6:21–22; Col. 4:7–8) and is probably the same letter that is called "my letter . . . from Laodicea" in Col. 4:16.

The City of Ephesus Christianity probably came first to Ephesus with Aquila and Priscilla when Paul made a brief stop there on his second missionary journey (Acts 18:18–19). On his third journey he stayed in the city for about three years, and the gospel spread throughout all of Asia Minor (Acts 19:10). The city was a commercial, political, and religious center, the great temple of Artemis (Diana) being there. See note on Acts 19:27. As a major trading center, it ranked with Alexandria and Antioch. After Paul, Timothy had charge of the church in Ephesus for a time (1 Tim. 1:3), and later the apostle John made the city his headquarters.

Contents The great theme of this letter is God's eternal purpose to establish and complete His body, the church of Christ. In developing this theme, Paul discusses predestination (1:3–14), Christ's headship over the body (1:22–23; 4:15–16), the church as the building and temple of God (2:21–22), the mystery of Christ (3:1–21), spiritual gifts (4:7–16), and the church as the bride of Christ.

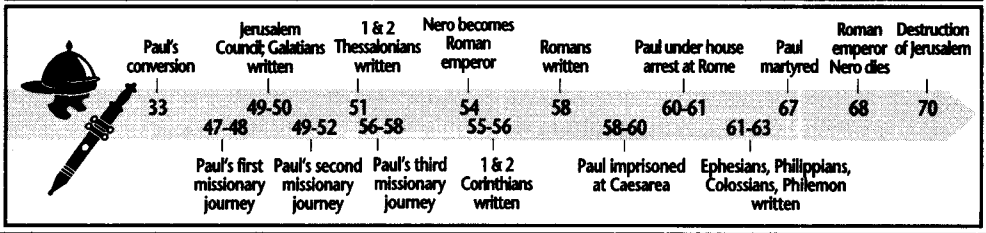
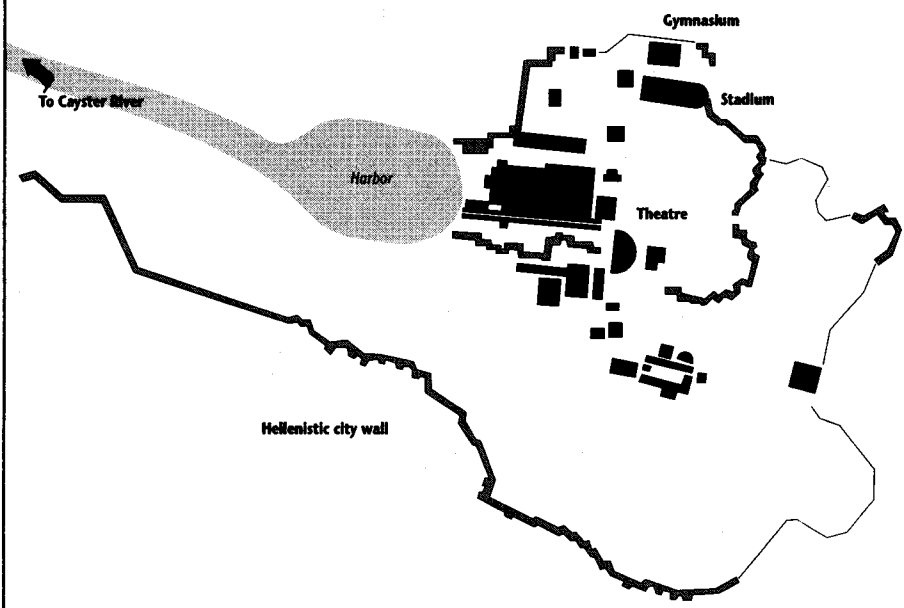
TIMELINE OF EPHESIANS



EPHESUS



THE LETTER OF PAUL TO THE EPHESIANS

I GREETINGS, 1:1–2

1:1 1 Paul, [a]an apostle of [b]Christ Jesus [c]by the will of God, to the [d]saints who are at [e]Ephesus and [f]who are faithful in [b]Christ Jesus:

1:2 2 [a]Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

II THE POSITION OF BELIEVERS, 1:3–3:21

A Chosen and Sealed, 1:3–23

1:3 3 [a]Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in [b]the heavenly places in Christ,

1:4 4 just as [a]He chose us in Him before [b]the foundation of the world, that we would be [c]holy and blameless before Him. [d]In love

1:5 5 He [a]predestined us to [b]adoption as sons through Jesus Christ to Himself, [c]according to the kind intention of His will,

1:6 6 [a]to the praise of the glory of His grace, which He freely bestowed on us in [b]the Beloved.

1:7 7 [a]In Him we have [b]redemption [c]through His blood, the [d]forgiveness of our trespasses, according to [e]the riches of His grace

8 which He lavished on us. In all wisdom and insight

1:9 9 He [a]made known to us the mystery of His will, [b]according to His kind intention which He [c]purposed in Him

1:10 10 with a view to an administration suitable to [a]the fullness of the times, that is, [b]the summing up of all things in Christ, things in the heavens and things on the earth. In Him

1:11 11 also we [a]have obtained an inheritance, having been [b]predestined [c]according to His purpose who works all things [d]after the counsel of His will,

12 to the end that we who were the first to hope in Christ would be [a]to the praise of His glory.

1:13 13 In Him, you also, after listening to [a]the message of truth, the gospel of your salvation—having also believed, you were [b]sealed in Him with [c]the Holy Spirit of promise,

---

1:1 saints. Holy ones, consecrated to God, sacred. All Christians are saints.

1:3–14 These verses comprise one long and magnificent sentence in the Greek text.

1:3 in the heavenly places. Lit., in the heavenlies; i.e., in the realm of heavenly possessions and experiences into which the Christian is brought because of his association with the risen Christ. The term also occurs in 1:20; 2:6; 3:10; 6:12; cf. John 3:12.

1:4 chose us. Election—God's choice of some individuals who would believe—occurred before creation and was for the purpose of those believers being holy.

1:5 predestined. God has determined beforehand that those who believe in Christ will be adopted into His family and conformed to His Son (cf. Rom. 8:29). It involves a choice on His part (v. 4); it is done in love (v. 4); it is based on the good pleasure of His perfect will (vv. 5, 9, 11); its purpose is to glorify God (v. 14); but it does not relieve man of his responsibility to believe the gospel in order to bring to pass personally God's predestination (v. 13). adoption as sons. See note on Rom. 8:15.

1:6 in the Beloved. I.e., in Christ.

1:7 redemption. Three ideas are involved in the doctrine of redemption: (1) paying the ransom with the blood of Christ (1 Cor. 6:20; Rev. 5:9); (2) removal from the curse of the law (Gal. 3:13; 4:5); and (3) release from the bondage of sin into the freedom of grace (here and in 1 Peter 1:18). Redemption is always through His blood; i.e., through the death of Christ (Col. 1:14).

1:9 mystery. See note on 3:3.

1:10 an administration suitable to the fullness of the times. I.e., the plan, the arrangement, of the millennial kingdom. the summing up of all things in Christ. I.e., that God might head up everything in Christ and bring everything into harmony (Col. 1:16).

1:11 we have obtained an inheritance. May be translated "we were made His inheritance." Both ideas are true: we are Christ's inheritance as He is ours.

1:12 His glory. The display of His character.

1:13 having also believed. The time of sealing coincides with the time of believing. sealed . . . with the Holy Spirit. A seal indicates possession and security. The presence of the Holy Spirit, the seal, is the believer's guarantee of the security of his salvation.

14 who is [a]given as a pledge of [b]our inheritance, with a view to the [c]redemption of [d]God's own possession, [e]to the praise of His glory.

15 For this reason I too, [a]having heard of the faith in the Lord Jesus which exists among you and your love for [b]all the saints,

16 [a]do not cease giving thanks for you, [b]while making mention of you in my prayers;

17 that the [a]God of our Lord Jesus Christ, [b]the Father of glory, may give to you a spirit of [c]wisdom and of [d]revelation in the knowledge of Him.

18 I pray that [a]the eyes of your heart may be enlightened, so that you will know what is the [b]hope of His [c]calling, what are [d]the riches of the glory of [e]His inheritance in [f]the saints,

19 and what is the surpassing greatness of His power toward us who believe. [a]These are in accordance with the working of the [b]strength of His might

20 which He brought about in Christ, when He [a]raised Him from the dead and [b]seated Him at His right hand in [c]the heavenly places,

21 far above [a]all rule and authority and power and dominion, and every [b]name that is named, not only in [c]this age but also in the one to come.

22 And He [a]put all things in subjection under His feet, and gave Him as [b]head over all things to the church,

23 which is His [a]body, the [b]fullness of Him who [c]fills [d]all in all.

B Saved by Grace, 2:1–10

2 And you were [a]dead in your trespasses and sins,

2 in which you [a]formerly walked according to the course of [b]this world, according to [c]the prince of the power of the air, of the spirit that is now working in [d]the sons of disobedience.

3 Among them we too all [a]formerly lived in [b]the lusts of our flesh, indulging the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and were [c]by nature [d]children of wrath, [e]even as the rest.

4 But God, being [a]rich in mercy, because of [b]His great love with which He loved us,

5 even when we were [a]dead in our transgressions, made us alive together with Christ ([b]by grace you have been saved),

6 and [a]raised us up with Him, and [b]seated us with Him in

2:5 [a]Eph 2:1 [b]Acts 15:11

2:6 [a]Col 2:12 [b]Eph 1:20

1:14 pledge = deposit, down payment. The presence of the Spirit is God's pledge that our salvation will be consummated.

1:18–19 of your heart. "Heart" in Scripture is considered the very center and core of life. Paul prayed that believers would know (1) the hope of God's calling, (2) the riches of God's inheritance (which the saints are), and (3) the great power of God displayed in Christ's resurrection and exaltation (v. 20).

1:20 at His right hand. See Ps. 110:1. The right hand is a figure for the place of honor and sovereign power.

1:21 rule and authority and power and dominion. These words, in rabbinic thought of the time, described different orders of angels (see Rom. 8:38; Eph. 3:10; 6:12; Col. 1:16; 2:10, 15; Titus 3:1).

1:22–23 the church, which is His body. The universal church to which every true believer belongs, regardless of local church affiliation. It is a spiritual organism entered by means of the baptism of the Spirit (1 Cor. 12:13). Christ is the risen Head of the church, and its members are subject to Him (Eph. 5:24). Local churches should be miniatures of the Body of Christ, though it is possible to have unbelieving members in local churches who are not, therefore, members of the Body of Christ.

2:1–10 In this paragraph Paul gives three reasons why God wanted to save people: (1) to show His love (vv. 1–6); (2) to show His grace (vv. 7–9); and (3) to show His workmanship by our doing good works (v. 10).

2:1 dead. I.e., separated from God because of sins. This is spiritual death. If a man continues in this state, by continuing to reject Christ, spiritual death becomes the second death, eternal separation from God (Rev. 20:14).

2:2 prince . . . spirit. Both words refer to Satan. sons of disobedience. A Hebraism for "disobedient people."

2:3 Man's basic nature has been affected by sin. children of wrath. A Hebraism difficult to translate but meaning "deserving of wrath."

2:5 grace. Unmerited favor. See note on John 1:17.

2:6 For the meaning of heavenly places, see note on 1:3.

2:6 [c]Eph 1:3 [d]Eph 1:1; 2:10, 13
2:7 [a]Rom 2:4; Eph 1:7 [b]Titus 3:4
2:8 [a]Acts 15:11; Eph 2:5 [b]1 Pet 1:5 [c]John 4:10
2:9 [a]Rom 3:28; 2 Tim 1:9 [b]1 Cor 1:29
2:10 [a]Eph 2:15; 4:24; Col 3:10 [b]Eph 1:1; 2:6, 13 [c]Titus 2:14 [d]Eph 1:4 [e]Eph 4:1

[c]the heavenly places in [d]Christ Jesus,

7 so that in the ages to come He might show the surpassing [a]riches of His grace in [b]kindness toward us in Christ Jesus.

8 For [a]by grace you have been saved [b]through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is [c]the gift of God;

9 [a]not as a result of works, so that [b]no one may boast.

10 For we are His workmanship, [a]created in [b]Christ Jesus for [c]good works, which God [d]prepared beforehand so that we would [e]walk in them.

C United in One Body, 2:11–22

2:11 [a]Eph 2:2 [b]1 Cor 12:2; Eph 5:8 [c]Rom 2:28f; Col 2:11
2:12 [a]Rom 9:4; Col 1:21 [b]Gal 3:17; Heb 8:6 [c]1 Thess 4:13 [d]Gal 4:8; 1 Thess 4:5
2:13 [a]Eph 1:1; 2:6 [b]Eph 2:2 [c]Is 57:19; Acts 2:39; Eph 2:17 [d]Rom 3:25; Col 1:20
2:14 [a]Is 9:6; Eph 2:15; Col 3:15 [b]1 Cor 12:13; Gal 3:28; Col 3:11

11 Therefore remember that [a]formerly [b]you, the Gentiles in the flesh, who are called "[c]Uncircumcision" by the so-called "[c]Circumcision," which is performed in the flesh by human hands—

12 remember that you were at that time separate from Christ, [a]excluded from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers to [b]the covenants of promise, having [c]no hope and [d]without God in the world.

13 But now in [a]Christ Jesus you who [b]formerly were [c]far off have [c]been brought near [d]by the blood of Christ.

14 For He Himself is [a]our peace, [b]who made both groups into one and broke down the barrier of the dividing wall,

15 by [a]abolishing in His flesh the enmity, which is [b]the Law of commandments contained in ordinances, so that in Himself He might [c]make the two into [d]one new man, thus establishing [e]peace,

16 and might [a]reconcile them both in [b]one body to God through the cross, by it having [c]put to death the enmity.

17 AND [a]HE CAME AND PREACHED [b]PEACE TO YOU WHO WERE [c]FAR AWAY, AND PEACE TO THOSE WHO WERE [c]NEAR;

18 for through Him we both have [a]our access in [b]one Spirit to [c]the Father.

19 So then you are no longer [a]strangers and aliens, but you are [b]fellow citizens with the saints, and are of [c]God's household,

20 having been [a]built on [b]the foundation of [c]the apostles and prophets, [d]Christ Jesus Himself being the [e]corner stone,

21 [a]in whom the whole building, being fitted together, is growing into [b]a holy temple in the Lord,

22 in whom you also are being [a]built together into a [b]dwelling of God in the Spirit.

D Equal in the Body (the Mystery), 3:1–21

3 For this reason I, Paul, [a]the prisoner of [b]Christ Jesus [c]for the sake of you [d]Gentiles—

2:15 [a]Eph 2:16; Col 1:21f [b]Col 2:14,20 [c]Gal 3:28; Eph 2:10; Col 3:10, 11 [d]Gal 3:28; Col 3:10f [e]Is 9:6; Eph 2:14; Col 3:15

2:19 [a]Eph 2:12; Heb 11:13; 1 Pet 2:11 [b]Phil 3:20; Heb 12:22f [c]Gal 6:10
2:20 [a]1 Cor 3:9 [b]Matt 16:18; 1 Cor 3:10; Rev 21:14 [c]1 Cor 12:28; Eph 3:5 [d]1 Cor 3:11 [e]Ps 118:22; Luke 20:17
2:21 [a]Eph 4:15f; Col 2:19 [b]1 Cor 3:16f
2:22 [a]1 Cor 3:9,16; 2 Cor 6:16 [b]Eph 3:17
3:1 [a]Acts 23:18; Eph 4:1; 2 Tim 1:8; Philem 1, 9,23 [b]Gal 5:24 [c]2 Cor 1:6; Eph 3:13 [d]Eph 3:8

2:7 Believers will be an eternal display of the grace of God.

2:8 Salvation is by grace . . . through faith. Faith involves knowledge of the gospel (Rom. 10:14), acknowledgment of the truth of its message, and personal reception of the Savior (John 1:12). Works cannot save (v. 9), but good works always accompany salvation (v. 10; James 2:17).

2:11–22 Paul now expands the concept of the Body of Christ put forward in 1:23: (1) He brings us near (vv. 11–13); (2) He gives us peace (vv. 14–17); (3) He gives us access (v. 18); and (4) He gives us a new family (vv. 19–22).

2:12 Unbelieving Gentiles are (1) without Christ (contrast v. 13), (2) aliens (cf. v. 19), (3) strangers (cf. v. 19), (4) without hope (cf. 1:18), and (5) without God (cf. v. 18).

2:13 near (to God).

2:14 the barrier of the dividing wall. Possibly an allusion to the wall that separated the Court of the Gentiles from the Court of the Jews in the Temple. An inscription warned Gentiles of the death penalty for going beyond it. But Paul's reference is likely to the barrier raised by the enmity between Jews and Gentiles.

2:15 in His flesh. Refers to the physical death of Christ, possible because He was human (Gal. 4:4). the Law. The whole Jewish legal system. the two. I.e., Jew and Gentile.

2:20–21 In the figure of the church as a temple, Christ is the corner stone, the apostles and NT prophets are the foundation, and each Christian is a stone in the building (1 Peter 2:4–8). In 1 Cor. 3:11 Paul speaks of Christ as the sole foundation.

2 if indeed you have heard of the [a]stewardship of God's grace which was given to me for you;

3 [a]that [b]by revelation there was [c]made known to me [d]the mystery, [e]as I wrote before in brief.

4 By referring to this, when you read you can understand [a]my insight into the [b]mystery of Christ,

5 which in other generations was not made known to the sons of men, as it has now been revealed to His holy [a]apostles and prophets in the Spirit;

6 to be specific, that the Gentiles are [a]fellow heirs and [b]fellow members of the body, and [c]fellow partakers of the promise in [d]Christ Jesus through the gospel,

7 [a]of which I was made a [b]minister, according to the gift of [c]God's grace which was given to me [d]according to the working of His power.

8 To me, [a]the very least of all saints, this grace was given, to [b]preach to the Gentiles the unfathomable [c]riches of Christ,

9 and to bring to light what is the administration of the [a]mystery which for ages has been [b]hidden in God [c]who created all things;

10 so that the manifold [a]wisdom of God might now be [b]made known through the church to the [c]rulers and the authorities in [d]the heavenly places.

11 This was in [a]accordance with the eternal purpose which He carried out in [b]Christ Jesus our Lord, 12 in whom we have boldness and [a]confident [b]access through faith in Him.

13 Therefore I ask you not [a]to lose heart at my tribulations [b]on your behalf, for they are your glory.

14 For this reason I [a]bow my knees before the Father,

15 from whom every family in heaven and on earth derives its name,

16 that He would grant you, according to [a]the riches of His glory, to be [b]strengthened with power through His Spirit in [c]the inner man,

17 so that [a]Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; and that you, being [b]rooted and [c]grounded in love,

18 may be able to comprehend with [a]all the saints what is [b]the breadth and length and height and depth,

19 and to know [a]the love of Christ which [b]surpasses knowledge, that you may be [c]filled up to all the [d]fullness of God.

3:19 [a]Rom 8:35,39 [b]Phil 4:7 [c]Col 2:10 [d]Eph 1:23

3:2 stewardship. Paul was entrusted with the message of the grace of God as the apostle to the Gentiles (v. 1; Gal. 2:7).

3:3 the mystery. A mystery was not something mysterious (in the modern sense) but something unknown until revealed to the initiated (cf. Rom. 16:25). The mystery spoken of here is not that Gentiles would be blessed (for that was predicted in the OT) but that Jews and Gentiles would be equal heirs in the one body of Christ (v. 6). This was unknown in OT prophecy but was revealed by the NT apostles and prophets (v. 5). Other mysteries revealed in the NT are found in Matt. 13:11; Rom. 11:25; 1 Cor. 15:51–52; Eph. 5:32; 6:19; Col. 1:27; 2:2; 4:3; 2 Thess. 2:7; 1 Tim. 3:16; Rev. 1:20; 17:5, 7.

3:5 as. Not a comparison (the mystery was not so much revealed in the OT as it is in the NT). Rather, it introduces new information (as in Acts 2:15; see also Col. 1:26).

3:6 The content of the mystery is that in the Body of Christ all are fellow heirs, fellow members, and fellow partakers.

3:7–10 Paul here gives his concept of his own mission. Notice that this was God's doing (v. 7), that he was to make available to all mankind Israel's hope for a Messiah (v. 8), that he was to be a theologian-teacher as well as a missionary (v. 9), that his ministry would even bring angelic beings to see the wisdom of God in His plan for the church (v. 10). On rulers and . . . authorities, see note on 1:21.

3:13 lose heart. We should not be disheartened because of trials that come to others (here) or in prayer (Luke 18:1) or in doing good (Gal. 6:9; 2 Thess. 3:13) or in serving (2 Cor. 4:1) or because of the burdens of life (2 Cor. 4:16).

3:14 For this reason. Here Paul resumes the thought begun in 3:1.

3:17 dwell = be completely at home.

3:18 The love of Christ includes all, extends from eternity to eternity, seats us in the heavenlies, and reaches down to our alienated position.

3:20 [a]Rom 16:25 [b]2 Cor 9:8 [c]Eph 3:7

20 [a]Now to Him who is [b]able to do exceeding abundantly beyond all that we ask or think, [c]according to the power that works within us,

3:21 [a]Rom 11:36

21 [a]to Him be the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations forever and ever. Amen.

III THE PRACTICE OF BELIEVERS, 4:1–6:9

A In Relation to Other Believers, 4:1–6

4:1 [a]Eph 3:1 [b]Rom 12:1 [c]Eph 2:10; Col 1:10; 2:6; 1 Thess 2:12 [d]Rom 11:29 [e]Rom 8:28f

4:2 [a]Col 3:12f [b]Eph 1:4

4:3 [a]Col 3:14f

4:4 [a]1 Cor 12:4ff; Eph 2:16,18 [b]Eph 1:18

4:5 [a]1 Cor 8:6

4:6 [a]Rom 11:36

4 Therefore I, [a]the prisoner of the Lord, [b]implore you to [c]walk in a manner worthy of the [d]calling with which you have been [e]called,

2 with all [a]humility and gentleness, with patience, showing tolerance for one another [b]in love,

3 being diligent to preserve the unity of the Spirit in the [a]bond of peace.

4 There is [a]one body and one Spirit, just as also you were called in one [b]hope of your calling;

5 [a]one Lord, one faith, one baptism,

6 one God and Father of all [a]who is over all and through all and in all.

B In Relation to Spiritual Gifts, 4:7–16

4:7 [a]1 Cor 12:7,11 [b]Eph 3:2 [c]Rom 12:3

4:8 [a]Ps 68:18 [b]Col 2:15

7 But [a]to each one of us [b]grace was given [c]according to the measure of Christ's gift.

8 Therefore it says,

"[a]WHEN HE ASCENDED ON HIGH,
HE [b]LED CAPTIVE A HOST OF CAPTIVES,
AND HE GAVE GIFTS TO MEN."

4:9 [a]John 3:13 [b]Is 44:23

9 (Now this expression, "He [a]ascended," what does it mean except that He also had descended into [b]the lower parts of the earth?

4:10 [a]Eph 1:20f; Heb 4:14; 7:26 [b]Eph 1:23

10 He who descended is Himself also He who ascended [a]far above all the heavens, so that He might [b]fill all things.)

4:11 [a]Eph 4:8 [b]Acts 13:1; 1 Cor 12:28 [c]Acts 21:8 [d]Acts 13:1

11 And He [a]gave [b]some as apostles, and some as prophets, and some as [c]evangelists, and some as pastors and [d]teachers,

4:12 [a]2 Cor 13:9 [b]1 Cor 12:27; Eph 1:23

12 [a]for the equipping of the saints for the work of service, to the building up of [b]the body of Christ;

4:13 [a]Eph 4:3,5 [b]John 6:69; Eph 1:17; Phil 3:10 [c]1 Cor 14:20; Col 1:28; Heb 5:14 [d]John 1:16; Eph 1:23

13 until we all attain to [a]the unity of the faith, and of the [b]knowledge of the Son of God, to a [c]mature man, to the measure of the stature which belongs to the [d]fullness of Christ.

4:14 [a]1 Cor 14:20 [b]James 1:6; Jude 12

14 As a result, we are [a]no longer to be children, [b]tossed here

---

3:20 exceeding abundantly. A doubly compounded word meaning super-superabundantly (used here and in 1 Thess. 3:10 and 5:13 only). the power that works within us. I.e., the Holy Spirit.

4:1 Here begins Paul's exhortation for his readers to promote the unity of the church through godly living (vv. 1–6) and, through a diversity of gifts, to contribute to the common welfare (vv. 7–16).

4:5 one baptism. I.e., the baptism of the Spirit, which brings us into the unity of the Body of Christ.

4:6 God is Father in four relationships: (1) here, of all men by virtue of being their Creator; (2) of the Lord Jesus Christ (Matt. 3:17); (3) of Israel (Ex. 4:22); and (4) of believers in the Lord Jesus Christ (Gal. 3:26).

4:7 In 1 Cor. 12:7–11 Paul attributes the giving of spiritual gifts to the Spirit; here he ascribes it to the ascended Christ.

4:8 HE LED CAPTIVE A HOST OF CAPTIVES. Paul uses an illustration from Ps. 68:18 in which the triumphant warrior is elevated when he returns with hosts of prisoners, receiving gifts from the conquered people and distributing gifts to his followers. Christ conquered Satan and all that had conquered us.

4:9–10 These verses are a parenthetical aside, to comment on "He ascended" (v. 8) and to prove that only Christ fits the description.

4:9 lower parts of the earth. Could mean that Christ descended into Hades between His death and resurrection. Or, more likely, "of the earth" is better understood as an appositional phrase, meaning that Christ descended (at His incarnation) into the lower parts (of the universe), namely, the earth.

4:11 apostles. See note on Matt. 10:2. prophets. Strictly speaking, those who were given direct revelation by God to communicate to men. evangelists. I.e., preachers of the gospel. pastors and teachers. The two ministries are linked together here, though separated elsewhere (Rom. 12:7; 1 Peter 5:2).

4:12–13 equipping. Gifts (see note on 1 Cor. 1:7) should be used to equip (see note on Heb. 13:21) others for service and maturity.

and there by waves and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, by [c]craftiness in [d]deceitful scheming;

15 but speaking the truth [a]in love, we are to [b]grow up in all aspects into Him who is the [c]head, even Christ,

16 from whom [a]the whole body, being fitted and held together by what every joint supplies, according to the proper working of each individual part, causes the growth of the body for the building up of itself [b]in love.

C In Relation to the Former Life, 4:17–32

17 [a]So this I say, and affirm together with the Lord, [b]that you walk no longer just as the Gentiles also walk, in the [c]futility of their mind,

18 being [a]darkened in their understanding, [b]excluded from the life of God because of the [c]ignorance that is in them, because of the [d]hardness of their heart;

19 and they, having [a]become callous, [b]have given themselves over to [c]sensuality for the practice of every kind of impurity with greediness.

20 But you did not [a]learn Christ in this way,

21 if indeed you [a]have heard Him and have [b]been taught in Him, just as truth is in Jesus,

22 that, in reference to your former manner of life, you [a]lay aside the [b]old self, which is being corrupted in accordance with the [c]lusts of deceit,

23 and that you be [a]renewed in the spirit of your mind,

24 and [a]put on the [b]new self, which [c]in the likeness of God has been created in righteousness and holiness of the truth.

25 Therefore, [a]laying aside falsehood, [b]SPEAK TRUTH EACH ONE OF YOU WITH HIS NEIGHBOR, for we are [c]members of one another.

26 [a]BE ANGRY, AND YET DO NOT SIN; do not let the sun go down on your anger, 27 and do not [a]give the devil an opportunity.

28 He who steals must steal no longer; but rather [a]he must labor, [b]performing with his own hands what is good, [c]so that he will have something to share with one who has need.

29 Let no [a]unwholesome word proceed from your mouth, but only such a word as is good for [b]edification according to the need of the moment, so that it will give grace to those who hear.

30 [a]Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were [b]sealed for the day of redemption.

31 [a]Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be [b]put away from you, along with all [c]malice.

32 [a]Be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving each other, [b]just as God in Christ also has forgiven you.

D In Relation to Evil, 5:1–17

5 [a]Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children;

2 and [a]walk in love, just as Christ also [b]loved you and [c]gave Himself up for us, an [d]offering and a sacrifice to God as a [e]fragrant aroma.

3 But [a]immorality or any im-

4:17 Here begins a long passage (ending at 6:9) in which Paul draws the logical conclusions, in terms of life and morals, that follow from membership in Christ's body.

4:22–24 The laying aside and putting on are statements of facts that they had learned to be true, but the renewing (v. 23) is something to be done continually. the old self . . . the new self. The old is what we were before we were saved, and the new is the new life we have in Christ (see 2 Cor. 5:17; Gal. 2:20).

4:26–27 There is an anger that is not sinful, but even this must not be allowed to stay and fester and give the devil an opportunity.

4:29 unwholesome, or rotten.

4:30 the Holy Spirit is grieved or pained by sin, especially the sins of the tongue (vv. 29, 31). sealed. See note on 1:13.

5:2 a fragrant aroma. The soothing aroma offerings of Lev. 1–3 prefigured the voluntary character of Christ's sacrifice.

purity or greed must not even be named among you, as is proper among saints;

*5:4 [a]Matt 12:34; Eph 4:29; Col 3:8 [b]Rom 1:28 [c]Eph 5:20

4 and there must be no [a]filthiness and silly talk, or coarse jesting, which [b]are not fitting, but rather [c]giving of thanks.

*5:5 [a]1 Cor 6:9; Col 3:5 [b]Col 1:13

5 For this you know with certainty, that [a]no immoral or impure person or covetous man, who is an idolater, has an inheritance in the kingdom [b]of Christ and God.

5:6 [a]Col 2:8 [b]Rom 1:18; Col 3:6 [c]Eph 2:2

6 [a]Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things [b]the wrath of God comes upon [c]the sons of disobedience.

5:7 [a]Eph 3:6

7 Therefore do not be [a]partakers with them;

5:8 [a]Eph 2:2 [b]Acts 26:18; Col 1:12f [c]John 12:36; Rom 13:12

8 for [a]you were formerly [b]darkness, but now you are light in the Lord; walk as [c]children of Light

5:9 [a]Gal 5:22 [b]Rom 15:14

9 (for [a]the fruit of the Light consists in all [b]goodness and righteousness and truth),

5:10 [a]Rom 12:2

10 [a]trying to learn what is pleasing to the Lord.

*5:11 [a]1 Cor 5:9; 2 Cor 6:14 [b]Rom 13:12 [c]Acts 26:18; Col 1:12f [d]1 Tim 5:20

11 [a]Do not participate in the unfruitful [b]deeds of [c]darkness, but instead even [d]expose them;

12 for it is disgraceful even to speak of the things which are done by them in secret.

5:13 [a]John 3:20f

13 But all things become visible [a]when they are exposed by the light, for everything that becomes visible is light.

*5:14 [a]Is 26:19; 51:17; 52:1; 60:1; Rom 13:11 [b]Eph 2:1

14 For this reason it says,

"[a]Awake, sleeper,
And arise from [b]the dead,
And Christ [c]will shine on you."

5:14 [c]Luke 1:78f

*5:15 [a]Eph 5:2 [b]Col 4:5

15 Therefore be careful how you [a]walk, not [b]as unwise men but as wise,

*5:16 [a]Col 4:5 [b]Gal 1:4; Eph 6:13

16 [a]making the most of your time, because [b]the days are evil.

5:17 [a]Rom 12:2; Col 1:9; 1 Thess 4:3

17 So then do not be foolish, but [a]understand what the will of the Lord is.

E In Relation to the Holy Spirit, 5:18–21

*5:18 [a]Prov 20:1; 23:31f; Rom 13:13; 1 Cor 5:11; 1 Thess 5:7 [b]Titus 1:6; 1 Pet 4:4 [c]Luke 1:15

18 And [a]do not get drunk with wine, for that is [b]dissipation, but be [c]filled with the Spirit,

*5:19 [a]Col 3:16 [b]1 Cor 14:26 [c]Acts 16:25 [d]Rev 5:9 [e]1 Cor 14:15

19 [a]speaking to one another in [b]psalms and [c]hymns and spiritual [d]songs, [e]singing and making melody with your heart to the Lord;

5:20 [a]Rom 1:8; Eph 5:4; Col 3:17 [b]1 Cor 15:24

20 [a]always giving thanks for all things in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to [b]God, even the Father;

*5:21 [a]Gal 5:13; Phil 2:3; 1 Pet 5:5 [b]2 Cor 5:11

21 [a]and be subject to one another in the [b]fear of Christ.

F In Relation to Home Life, 5:22–6:4

*5:22 [a]Eph 5:22-6:9; Col 3:18-4:1 [b]1 Cor 14:34f; Titus 2:5; 1 Pet 3:1 [c]Eph 6:5

22 [a]Wives, [b]be subject to your own husbands, [c]as to the Lord.

5:23 [a]1 Cor 11:3 [b]Eph 1:22 [c]1 Cor 6:13

23 For [a]the husband is the head of the wife, as Christ also is the [b]head of the church, He Himself [c]being the Savior of the body.

24 But as the church is subject to Christ, so also the wives ought

5:4 silly talk, or coarse jesting. I.e., unclean speech, often veiled in innuendo or double meaning.

5:5 A greedy person is an idolater because he puts things before God.

5:11 Believers expose the sins of other believers through church discipline (1 Cor. 5).

5:14 Perhaps a portion of an early Christian hymn exhorting the sinning believer to Awake and arise.

5:18 be filled with the Spirit. Paul has taught in this epistle that all believers are sealed with the Spirit when they believe (1:13–14; 4:30), but not all are filled, since that depends on yieldedness to God's will (v. 17). "Filling" describes an experience that can be repeated (Acts 2:4; 4:31), and here, as in Acts, it is connected with joy, courage, spirituality, and Christian character. Though contrasted with drunkenness, the filling of the Spirit compares the idea of control, either of wine over a person or the Spirit over the believer.

5:19 to one another. Making music in one's heart is mentioned at the end of this verse.

5:21 be subject. The key thought for understanding Paul's view of proper personal relationships in a Christian household; the subjection is to be mutual and based on reverence for God. The differing responsibilities, if followed, bring harmony, but, if ignored, they bring difficulties.

5:22 Wives are to submit to the leadership of their husbands in the home (vv. 22, 24); they are to respect their husbands (v. 33); they are to love their husbands (Titus 2:4) and live with them until death (Rom. 7:2–3).

to be to their husbands in everything.

5:25 [a]Eph 5:28,33; Col 3:19; 1 Pet 3:7 [b]Eph 5:2

25 [a]Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ also loved the church and [b]gave Himself up for her,

5:28 [a]Eph 5:25,33; 1 Pet 3:7

28 So husbands ought also to [a]love their own wives as their own bodies. He who loves his own wife loves himself;

29 for no one ever hated his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, just as Christ also does the church,

5:30 [a]1 Cor 6:15; 12:27 [b]Eph 1:23

6:12 [a]1 Cor 9:25

12 For our [a]struggle is not

5:25 Husbands are to love their wives, lead them (v. 23), nurture them in the things of Christ (v. 29), and live with them faithfully for life (Matt. 19:3–9).

5:26–27 The ultimate purpose of Christ's death is to present us to Himself blameless.

5:32 The relationship between believing husbands and wives illustrates that which exists between Christ (the bridegroom) and the church (His bride). See also Matt. 25:1–13; Rev. 19:7–8; 21:2.

6:1 in the Lord. I.e., obedience to parents is part of a child's obligation to Christ whether or not the parents are believers. See the example of Christ in Luke 2:51 and Heb. 5:8.

6:2 first. Of primary importance. A rebel has less chance of living long (1 Sam. 4:11). When a child marries, his relationship to his parents changes (5:31) but not his responsibility to provide for them (1 Tim. 5:4).

6:4 do not provoke. I.e., do not nag or arbitrarily assert authority.

6:9 do the same things as described for slaves in verses 5–6.

6:11 Put on. This is the believer's responsibility. armor. At this time Paul was being guarded by Roman soldiers. schemes = craftiness.

6:12 The believer's enemies are the demonic hosts of Satan, always assembled for mortal

6:12 against [b]flesh and blood, but [c]against the rulers, against the powers, against the [d]world forces of this [e]darkness, against the [f]spiritual forces of wickedness in [g]the heavenly places.

B With What? 6:13–20 combat.

6:14 TRUTH holds everything together and refers to the believer's integrity. BREASTPLATE OF RIGHTEOUSNESS. Righteousness practiced by the believer to protect the chest and heart from Satan.

6:15 The gospel gives our feet (and lives) support and stability.

6:16 The large (2.5 x 4 ft, or .75 x 1.2 m) Roman shield, covered with leather, could extinguish flaming arrows. The shield consists of faith.

6:17 The HELMET guards our mind and thoughts. The sword, the only offensive weapon mentioned, is the Word spoken to our hearts.

6:18 Prayer should be said on all occasions, in the power of the Spirit, persistent, and for all believers, since all are targets of Satan.

6:19 Even in prison Paul was not thinking of his own welfare but of his testimony for Christ.

PHILIPPIANS

INTRODUCTION

AUTHOR: Paul DATE: 61

The Church at Philippi Founded by Paul on his second missionary journey, this was the first church to be established by him in Europe (Acts 16). Philippi was a small city, founded by King Philip of Macedonia, father of Alexander the Great. Its greatest fame came from the battle fought nearby, in 42 B.C., between the forces of Brutus and Cassius and those of Antony and Octavian (later Caesar Augustus). It became a Roman "colony," a military outpost city with special privileges.

Paul's relationship with the church at Philippi was always close and cordial. Having helped him financially at least two times before this letter was written (4:16) and having heard of his confinement in Rome, the church sent Epaphroditus with another gift. Philippians is a thank-you letter for that gift, and it is the most personal letter Paul wrote to a church. Epaphroditus had become almost fatally ill while with Paul (2:27), and on his recovery Paul sent him back with this letter. Though somewhat obscured by Paul's gentleness in this letter, some of the problems in the church are seen beneath the surface. These included rivalries and personal ambition (2:3–4; 4:2), the teaching of the Judaizers (3:1–3), perfectionism (3:12–14), and the influence of antinomian libertines (3:18–19).

Place of Writing Paul was imprisoned when this letter was written, but there is disagreement as to where. Some think he was in Caesarea, others Ephesus; yet he must undoubtedly have been in Rome. In 1:13 (see note there) he mentions the praetorian guard, a Roman body of troops assigned to the emperor in Rome (see also 4:22). It is also clear that, in the trial facing Paul, his life was at stake, indicating that the trial was before Caesar in Rome (1:20). Although Paul was confined in Caesarea for two years, no final decision of his case was even in prospect there (Acts 24). Ephesus has been suggested as the place of writing on the basis of 1 Cor. 15:32, but there is no clear reference in that verse to an imprisonment.

Contents One of the most important doctrinal passages in the New Testament is Phil. 2:5–8, in which Paul presents the doctrine of the kenosis—the self-humiliating, or self-emptying, of Christ. Important verses on prayer are 4:6–7. Other favorite verses include 1:21, 23b; 3:10, 20; 4:8, 13. A significant autobiographical sketch appears in 3:4–14.

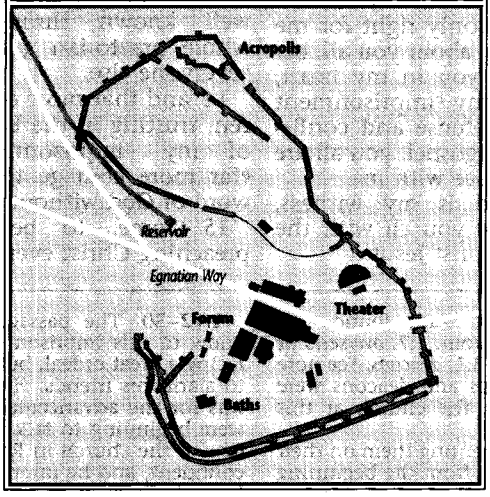
PHILIPPI



THE LETTER OF PAUL TO THE PHILIPPIANS

I GREETINGS AND EXPRESSIONS OF GRATITUDE, 1:1–11

1 [a]Paul and [b]Timothy, [c]bond-servants of [d]Christ Jesus, to [e]all the [f]saints in Christ Jesus who are in [g]Philippi, including the [h]overseers and [i]deacons:

2 [a]Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 [a]I thank my God in all my remembrance of you,

4 always offering prayer with joy in [a]my every prayer for you all,

5 in view of your [a]participation in the [b]gospel [c]from the first day until now.

6 For I am confident of this very thing, that He who began a good work in you will perfect it until [a]the day of Christ Jesus.

7 For [a]it is only right for me to feel this way about you all, because I [b]have you in my heart, since both in my [c]imprisonment and in the [d]defense and confirmation of the [e]gospel, you all are partakers of grace with me.

8 For [a]God is my witness, how I long for you all with the affection of [b]Christ Jesus.

9 And this I pray, that [a]your love may abound still more and more in [b]real knowledge and all discernment,

10 so that you may [a]approve the things that are excellent, in order to be sincere and blameless until [b]the day of Christ;

11 having been filled with the [a]fruit of righteousness which comes through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

II PAUL'S PERSONAL CIRCUMSTANCES: THE PREACHING OF CHRIST, 1:12–30

12 Now I want you to know, brethren, that my circumstances [a]have turned out for the greater progress of the [b]gospel,

13 so that my [a]imprisonment in the cause of Christ has become well known throughout the whole praetorian guard and to [b]everyone else,

14 and that most of the brethren, trusting in the Lord because of my [a]imprisonment, have [b]far more courage to speak the word of God without fear.

15 [a]Some, to be sure, are preaching Christ even from envy

1:1 Timothy had helped Paul found this church. saints. See note on Rom. 1:7. overseers or bishops. See note on 1 Tim. 3:1. deacons. See note on 1 Tim. 3:8. Both bishops and deacons were recognizable groups within the church at this time.

1:5 Paul is here complimenting them on their having cooperated with him from the beginning and sending him financial gifts (see 4:15–16; Acts 16:11–40).

1:6 God who began. God will continue His good work of grace in them until the consummation at the day of Christ Jesus (the day when Christ returns).

1:7 The Greek words underlying imprisonment, defense, and confirmation were courtroom terms. Paul is saying that the Philippian believers shared with him in his courageous witness in the law court in Rome.

1:10 approve the things that are excellent. I.e., to differentiate between highest matters and side issues.

1:12–30 The passage tells us about all we know of this imprisonment. Paul knew he was facing a great ordeal, but he took great pains not to alarm his friends. His all-consuming concern was for the advancement of the gospel. People were beginning to talk about his bonds and his Christ, the church in Rome was becoming more confident, and he intended to follow his course. He existed only to help forward the cause of Christ (v. 21).

1:13 praetorian guard. This group of imperial guards, distinct from the army or Roman police, was about 9,000 strong in Rome. They had heard the gospel through their various members who had been assigned the duty of guarding Paul. Guard and prisoner were chained together, making a captive audience for the gospel (see Eph. 6:20).

1:14–17 Paul's example of steadfastness and witness under adverse circumstances made others bold to witness, though not always from right motives.

and strife, but some also from good will;

1:16 16 the latter do it out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the defense of the [a]gospel;

1:17 17 the former proclaim Christ [a]out of selfish ambition rather than from pure motives, thinking to cause me distress in my [b]imprisonment.

*1:18 18 What then? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is proclaimed; and in this I rejoice, yes, and I will rejoice.

*1:19 19 For I know that this will turn out for my deliverance [a]through your prayers and the provision of [b]the Spirit of Jesus Christ,

1:20 20 according to my [a]earnest expectation and [b]hope, that I will not be put to shame in anything, but that with [c]all boldness, Christ will even now, as always, be [d]exalted in my body, [e]whether by life or by death.

*1:21 21 For to me, [a]to live is Christ and to die is gain.

1:22 22 But if I am to live on in the flesh, this will mean [a]fruitful labor for me; and I do not know which to choose.

*1:23 23 But I am hard-pressed from both directions, having the [a]desire to depart and [b]be with Christ, for that is very much better;

24 yet to remain on in the flesh is more necessary for your sake.

*1:25 25 [a]Convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with you all for your progress and joy in the faith,

26 so that your [a]proud confidence in me may abound in Christ Jesus through my coming to you again.

1:26 [a]2 Cor 5:12; 7:4; Phil 2:16

*1:27 27 Only conduct yourselves in a manner [a]worthy of the [b]gospel of Christ, so that whether I come and see you or remain absent, I will hear of you that you are [c]standing firm in [d]one spirit, with one mind [e]striving together for the faith of the gospel;

[a]Eph 4:1 [b]Phil 1:5 [c]1 Cor 16:13; Phil 4:1 [d]Acts 4:32 [e]Jude 3

28 in no way alarmed by your opponents—which is a [a]sign of destruction for them, but of salvation for you, and that too, from God.

1:28 [a]2 Thess 1:5

29 For to you [a]it has been granted for Christ's sake, not only to believe in Him, but also to [b]suffer for His sake,

1:29 [a]Matt 5:11,12 [b]Acts 14:22

30 experiencing the same [a]conflict which [b]you saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

III THE PATTERN OF THE CHRISTIAN LIFE: THE HUMILITY OF CHRIST, 2:1–30

A The Exhortation to Humility, 2:1–4

2 Therefore if there is any encouragement in Christ, if there is any consolation of love, if there is any [a]fellowship of the Spirit, if any [b]affection and compassion,

*2:1 [a]2 Cor 13:14 [b]Col 3:12

2 [a]make my joy complete by [b]being of the same mind, maintaining the same love, united in spirit, intent on one purpose.

*2:2 [a]John 3:29 [b]Rom 12:16; Phil 4:2

3 Do nothing from [a]selfish-

*2:3 [a]Rom 2:8; Phil 1:17

1:18 Regardless of the motive (cf. v. 15), if Christ was preached, Paul rejoiced.

1:19–20 my deliverance. Paul's trial had probably begun. He was confident that either release or death would advance the cause of Christ.

1:21 to me, to live is Christ. I.e., his life found all its meaning in Christ. to die is gain. Has the idea of profit, because then there will be union with Christ, without the limitations of this life.

1:23 to depart means "to loose from all the confinements, pain, and limitations of this life" (same word used in 2 Tim. 4:6). be with Christ. Death brings us immediately into the presence of Christ—no soul sleep or no purgatory in between.

1:25 Here Paul seems certain that he will be acquitted, but the only reason one can see for his momentary confidence is that he believed he was still needed on earth in the Lord's service.

1:27–29 conduct. A political term meaning "live as citizens" (of heaven, 3:20). To do this, believers should stand, strive, and suffer.

1:30 The Philippians were in the same basic conflict he was in from those who opposed the gospel.

2:1 If men will count on Christ, they can do the things described in the following verses.

2:2 make my joy complete. I.e., they would cap off his pleasure if they would work together harmoniously and clear up their petty quarrels. Paul particularly had in mind the division caused by two women, Euodia and Syntyche (4:2).

2:3 To be united they must put away selfishness or [b]empty conceit, but with humility of mind [c]regard one another as more important than yourselves; ness, personal vanity, haughtiness, and self-interests.

2:4 The church was apparently evidencing petty jealousies among members over honors and rewards. Paul commends humility and the right disposition that Christ Himself demonstrated and wants to give to His followers (v. 5).

2:5–11 This passage on the humility of Christ is the high mark of the epistle. Unlike the informal, conversational style of the rest of the letter, verses 5–11 are highly polished. It is also noteworthy in that they convey in a few verses Paul's conception of the uniqueness of the person and work of Christ. Paul's point is that the disposition, the temper, of church members ought always to be that of Christ's.

2:6 in the form of God. Christ is the same nature and essence as God. to be grasped. The verse may be paraphrased: "Who, though of the same nature as God, did not think this something to be exploited to His own advantage."

2:7 emptied Himself. The kenosis (emptying) of Christ during His incarnation does not mean that He surrendered any attributes of deity, but that He took on the limitations of humanity. This involved a veiling of His preincarnate glory (John 17:5) and the voluntary nonuse of some of His divine prerogatives during the time He was on earth (Matt. 24:36). form. The same word as in verse 6. He was completely God and truly man. To deny either the deity or humanity of Christ requires denying the other.

2:8 a cross. I.e., a cross kind of death, the most despicable.

2:9 Through self-denial and obedience Christ won sovereignty over all peoples and things (v. 10).

2:11 Jesus Christ is Lord. He is God (Yahweh of the OT). Obviously this cannot mean personal Lord and Master of one's life, since those "under the earth" (v. 10) could not acknowledge this.

2:12–18 Paul now turns to the obligations that the example of Christ lays on the Philippian Christians. They must learn to stand on their own feet, with a sense of human frailty but knowing that God was behind them (v. 13). They should so live in corrupt human society that they reflect the light that comes from a heavenly source (vv. 14–15), constantly proclaiming the gospel of the new life (v. 16a). Thus at Christ's coming Paul would have reason to rejoice in them (v. 16b). In verses 17–18 Paul employed the language of the Jewish offerings and compares his death to a drink offering that accompanied the Philippians' presentation of themselves as a burnt offering. On the drink offering, see note on Lev. 23:10–14. On the burnt offering, see notes on Lev. 1.

2:12 work out your salvation. Not work for it, but work it out in the personal and church problems at Philippi.

2:13 for indicates that we do not work alone and also that we experience His working in us as we work for Him.

tion, among whom you [d]appear as lights in the world,
16 holding fast the word of life, so that in [a]the day of Christ I will have reason to glory because I did not [b]run in vain nor [c]toil in vain.
17 But even if I am being [a]poured out as a drink offering upon [b]the sacrifice and service of your faith, I rejoice and share my joy with you all.
18 You too, I urge you, rejoice in the same way and share your joy with me.

D The Examples of Timothy and Epaphroditus, 2:19–30

19 But I hope in the Lord Jesus to [a]send [b]Timothy to you shortly, so that I also may be encouraged when I learn of your condition.
20 For I have no one else [a]of kindred spirit who will genuinely be concerned for your welfare.
21 For they all [a]seek after their own interests, not those of Christ Jesus.
22 But you know [a]of his proven worth, that [b]he served with me in the furtherance of the gospel [c]like a child serving his father.
23 [a]Therefore I hope to send him immediately, as soon as I see how things go with me;
24 and [a]I trust in the Lord that I myself also will be coming shortly.
25 But I thought it necessary to send to you [a]Epaphroditus, my brother and [b]fellow worker and [c]fellow soldier, who is also your [d]messenger and [a]minister to my need;
26 because he was longing for you all and was distressed because you had heard that he was sick.
27 For indeed he was sick to the point of death, but God had mercy on him, and not on him only but also on me, so that I would not have sorrow upon sorrow.
28 Therefore I have sent him all the more eagerly so that when you see him again you may rejoice and I may be less concerned about you.
29 [a]Receive him then in the Lord with all joy, and [b]hold men like him in high regard;
30 because he came close to death [a]for the work of Christ, risking his life to [b]complete what was deficient in your service to me.

IV THE PRIZE OF THE CHRISTIAN LIFE: THE KNOWLEDGE OF CHRIST, 3:1–21

A The Warning Against Judaizers, 3:1–4a

3 Finally, my brethren, [a]rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things again is no trouble to me, and it is a safeguard for you.
2 Beware of the [a]dogs, beware of the [b]evil workers, beware of the false circumcision;

3:3 [a]Rom 2:29; 9:6; Gal 6:15 [b]Gal 5:25

2:19–30 The letter now returns to personal matters. Paul was going to send Timothy later and Epaphroditus right away; he wanted them to be accepted as his representative with his authority. No one else with him then, except Timothy, had the interest of Christ at heart (v. 21). Epaphroditus was a leader in the Philippian church who brought the financial gift to Paul and whom Paul sent home with this letter (v. 25).

2:20–22 Paul highly commends Timothy because he was of kindred spirit (lit., equal souled) with Paul, he was proven, and he was as a slave with Paul.

2:30 he came close to death. Epaphroditus was dangerously ill from overwork. Sickness may also be due to specific sin (1 Cor. 11:30) or to prevent sin (2 Cor. 12:7) or to test (Job. 2:7) or to display the glory of God (John 9:2), and because of demons (Acts 5:16). Of course, sickness, for whatever reason, ultimately is related to our fallen humanity.

3:1 the same things. I.e., the content of verses 2–3, a basic lesson that Paul as their teacher had undoubtedly gone over with them many times while with them: Do not let Christianity be debased into some form of the Jewish ritualistic religion, obviously a danger then in Philippi.

3:2 Paul here becomes polemical. He labels the Judaizers (who taught that circumcision was necessary for salvation) dogs (a term they used to describe Gentiles), evil workers, and false circumcision (which meant mutilators). All three epithets are directed at the same people.

it of God and [c]glory in [d]Christ Jesus and put no confidence in the flesh,

4 although [a]I myself might have confidence even in the flesh.

B The Example of Paul, 3:4b–14

If anyone else has a mind to put confidence in the flesh, I far more:

5 [a]circumcised the eighth day, of the [b]nation of Israel, of the [c]tribe of Benjamin, a [b]Hebrew of Hebrews; as to the Law, [d]a Pharisee;

6 as to zeal, [a]a persecutor of the church; as to the [b]righteousness which is in the Law, found [c]blameless.

7 But [a]whatever things were gain to me, those things I have counted as loss for the sake of Christ.

8 More than that, I count all things to be loss in view of the surpassing value of [a]knowing [b]Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them but rubbish so that I may gain Christ,

9 and may be found in Him, not having [a]a righteousness of my own derived from the Law, but that which is through faith in Christ, [b]the righteousness which comes from God on the basis of faith,

10 that I may [a]know Him and [b]the power of His resurrection and [c]the fellowship of His sufferings, being [d]conformed to His death;

11 in order that I may [a]attain to the resurrection from the dead.

12 Not that I have already [a]obtained it or have already [b]become perfect, but I press on so that I may [c]lay hold of that for which also I [d]was laid hold of by [e]Christ Jesus.

13 Brethren, I do not regard myself as having laid hold of it yet; but one thing I do: [a]forgetting what lies behind and reaching forward to what lies ahead,

14 I [a]press on toward the goal for the prize of the [b]upward call of God in [c]Christ Jesus.

C The Exhortation to Others, 3:15–21

15 Let us therefore, as many as are [a]perfect, have this attitude; and if in anything you have a [b]different attitude, [c]God will reveal that also to you;

16 however, let us keep [a]living by that same standard to which we have attained.

17 Brethren, [a]join in following my example, and observe those who walk according to the [b]pattern you have in us.

18 For [a]many walk, of whom I often told you, and now tell you even [b]weeping, that they are enemies of [c]the cross of Christ,

3:4–14 Paul reflected on the whole course of his life, which gave him the right to criticize the Judaizers.

3:4–8 Paul counted his impeccable pedigree as rubbish (v. 8), even though he could boast in the rite of circumcision (v. 5), in his race (v. 5), in his religion (v. 5), in his record of persecuting the church (v. 6), and in his righteous life (v. 6).

3:9 Here Paul contrasts works-righteousness, which is based on the law, with faith-righteousness, which is from God through faith in Christ. Rom. 3:21–5:21 is a commentary on this truth.

3:10 being conformed to His death means "becoming like him in his death"—passing through death into a new life, dying and rising with Christ (cf. Rom. 6).

3:11 the resurrection. A compound word (used only here) meaning the out-resurrection from among the dead. Likely a reference to the rapture of the church. See note on 1 Thess. 4:16–17.

3:12 Paul makes clear that he had not "arrived" but was still very much in the race of the Christian life.

3:13 forgetting what lies behind. Whether sins that might overwhelm or good things that might cause one to rest on his accomplishments.

3:15 perfect = mature. In the latter half of the verse Paul says, in effect, "If you don't agree, God will give you light on the subject."

3:17 Not many believers can exhort others to imitate them (the literal meaning of follow).

3:18 enemies of the cross of Christ. Evil living (by the libertines) is in view. Their principal concern was their "appetite" (v. 19); i.e., all sensual indulgences.

3:19 The destiny of the wicked is destruction, not annihilation but ruin in the lake of fire forever.

14 Nevertheless, you have done

3:20 citizenship. This figure would have been particularly appreciated by the Philippians who were colonists living away from Rome, though citizens of Rome. Similarly, Christians live away from the place of their citizenship, heaven.

3:21 body of our humble state. Our present state of mortality is a lowly one.

4:1 Here begins Paul's closing section, consisting first of practical advice followed by personal messages.

4:2 What the difficulty was between these two women is not stated.

4:3 The identity of the true companion is not revealed.

4:6–7 Be anxious for nothing (as in Matt. 6:25, 31). Then the peace of God (supernatural, not psychological) will guard your feelings and thoughts.

4:8 honorable = worthy of respect. lovely = winsome.

4:11 content. Lit., self-sufficient, independent of external circumstances. The secret of such contentment is found in verse 13.

4:12 In these opposite circumstances, Paul was in the will of God. Lack is not necessarily a sign of God's disfavor, nor plenty of His approval.

4:14 to share with me. Paul refers to the sending of monetary gifts (vv. 10, 16).

4:14 [a]Heb 10:33; Rev 1:9

15 You yourselves also know, Philippians, that at the [a]first preaching of the gospel, after I left [b]Macedonia, no church [c]shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving but you alone;

4:16 [a]Acts 17:1; 1 Thess 2:9
16 for even in [a]Thessalonica you sent a gift more than once for my needs.

4:17 [a]1 Cor 9:11f; 2 Cor 9:5
17 [a]Not that I seek the gift itself, but I seek for the profit which increases to your account.

4:18 [a]Phil 2:25
18 But I have received everything in full and have an abundance; I am amply supplied, having received from [a]Epaphroditus what you have sent, [b]a fragrant aroma, an acceptable sacrifice, well-pleasing to God.

19 And [a]my God will supply all your needs according to His [b]riches in glory in Christ Jesus.

4:20 [a]Gal 1:4 [b]Rom 11:36
20 Now to [a]our God and Father [b]be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

4:21 [a]Gal 1:2
21 Greet every saint in Christ Jesus. [a]The brethren who are with me greet you.

4:23 [a]Rom 16:20 [b]2 Tim 4:22
23 [a]The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ [b]be with your spirit.

4:19 The church that gives to missionaries will have its own needs supplied.

4:22 Caesar's household. Probably employees in the emperor's palace. There is no evidence of the conversion of a member of the imperial family until a generation later.

COLOSSIANS

INTRODUCTION

AUTHOR: Paul DATE: 61

The Church at Colossae About 100 miles east of Ephesus and near Laodicea and Hierapolis (4:13), Colossae was an ancient but declining commercial center. The gospel may have been taken there during Paul's ministry at Ephesus (Acts 19:10), though it was Epaphras who played the major role in the evangelism and growth of the Colossians. Paul was personally unacquainted with the believers there (2:1), but Epaphras either visited Paul in prison or was imprisoned with him (Philem. 23) and reported on conditions in this church.

Place of Writing Like Ephesians, Philippians, and Philemon, Colossians was written during Paul's first imprisonment in Rome. (See the Introduction to Titus and the Introduction to Philippians for other suggestions as to the place of writing.) The many personal references common to Colossians and Philemon and the many similarities of ideas in Colossians and Ephesians link these letters. Tychicus was apparently the bearer of the letter (Eph. 6:21; Col. 4:7).

The Colossian Heresy From Paul's counteremphases in the epistle, we can discern some of the features of the false teaching at Colossae. It was syncretistic, fusing Jewish legalism, Greek philosophic speculation, and Oriental mysticism. Specifics included dietary and Sabbath observances and circumcision rites (2:11, 16), the worship of angels (2:18), and the practice of asceticism, which stemmed from the belief that the body was inherently evil (2:21–23). In combating this heresy, Paul emphasizes the cosmic significance of Christ as Lord of creation and Head of the Church. Any teaching, practice, or intermediary that detracts from the uniqueness and centrality of Christ is against the faith.

Contents The theme is the supremacy and all-sufficiency of Christ. Important subjects include Christ's person and work (1:15–23), heresy (2:8–23), and believers' union with Christ (3:1–4).

3 [a]We give thanks to God, [b]the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,

4 [a]since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and the [b]love which you have for [c]all the saints;

5 because of the [a]hope [b]laid up for you in heaven, of which you previously [c]heard in the word of truth, the gospel

6 which has come to you, just as [a]in all the world also it is constantly bearing [b]fruit and increasing, even as it has been doing in you also since the day you [c]heard of it and understood the grace of God in truth;

7 just as you learned it from [a]Epaphras, our [b]beloved fellow bond-servant, who is a faithful servant of Christ on our behalf,

8 and he also informed us of your [a]love in the Spirit.

9 For this reason also, [a]since the day we heard of it, [b]we have not ceased to pray for you and to ask that you may be filled with the [c]knowledge of His will in all spiritual [d]wisdom and understanding,

10 so that you will [a]walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, [b]to please Him in all respects, [c]bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God;

11 [a]strengthened with all power, according to His glorious might, for the attaining of all steadfastness and patience; [b]joyously

12 giving thanks to [a]the Father, who has qualified us to share in [b]the inheritance of the saints in [c]Light.

13 For He rescued us from the [a]domain of darkness, and transferred us to the kingdom of [b]His beloved Son, 14 [a]in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

---

1:4–5 Notice the Colossian believers' triad of Christian graces: faith, love, and hope (cf. 1 Cor. 13:13).

1:6 in all the world. What happened in Colossae was happening in all the Roman Empire.

1:7 Epaphras (see 4:12; Philem. 23). Apparently the man who evangelized the cities of the Lycus Valley and founded the churches of Colossae, Hierapolis, and Laodicea. It was his report, brought to Paul in Rome, about the condition of these churches that prompted the writing of this letter. The Epaphroditus of Phil. 2:25 and 4:18 is evidently a different individual.

1:10–12 walk in a manner worthy of the Lord. Live a life worthy of the Lord, which results in fruitfulness, increased knowledge of God (v. 10), strength to endure (v. 11), and thankfulness (v. 12).

1:11 joyously. This is what distinguishes the Christian's steadfastness and patience from the Stoic's.

1:13 the kingdom of His beloved Son. Lit., the kingdom of the Son of His love. Believers have been rescued from the authority of Satan to that of Christ.

1:14 redemption. See note on Eph. 1:7.

1:15 the firstborn of all creation. I.e., the Son has all the rights belonging to the firstborn, because of His preeminent position over all creation (v. 16).

1:16 rulers or authorities. See note on Eph. 1:21.

on earth, visible and invisible, whether [b]thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—[c]all things have been created through Him and for Him.

17 He [a]is before all things, and in Him all things hold together.

18 He is also [a]head of [b]the body, the church; and He is [c]the beginning, [d]the firstborn from the dead, so that He Himself will come to have first place in everything.

19 For it was [a]the Father's good pleasure for all [b]the fullness to dwell in Him,

20 and through Him to [a]reconcile all things to Himself, having made [b]peace through [c]the blood of His cross; through Him, I say, [d]whether things on earth or things in heaven.

21 And although you were [a]formerly alienated and hostile in mind, engaged in evil deeds,

22 yet He has now [a]reconciled you in His fleshly [b]body through death, in order to [c]present you before Him [d]holy and blameless and beyond reproach—

23 if indeed you continue in the faith firmly [a]established and steadfast, and not moved away from the [b]hope of the gospel that you have heard, which was proclaimed [c]in all creation under heaven, [d]and of which I, Paul, was made a [e]minister.

B Christ's Commission to Paul, 1:24–29

24 [a]Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh [b]I do my share on behalf of [c]His body, which is the church, in filling up what is lacking in Christ's afflictions.

25 [a]Of this church I was made a minister according to the [b]stewardship from God bestowed on me for your benefit, so that I might fully carry out the preaching of the word of God,

26 that is, [a]the mystery which has been hidden from the past ages and generations, but has now been manifested to His saints,

27 to whom [a]God willed to make known what is [b]the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is [c]Christ in you, the [d]hope of glory.

28 We proclaim Him, [a]admonishing every man and teaching every man with all [b]wisdom, so that we may [c]present every man [d]complete in Christ.

29 For this purpose also I [a]labor, [b]striving [c]according to His power, which mightily works within me.

1:17 before all things. In time.

1:18 the church. See note on Eph. 1:22–23. the firstborn from the dead. I.e., the first one to rise from the dead with a resurrection body (Rev. 1:5).

1:19 all the fullness. The full essence (powers and attributes) of deity dwells in Christ (see 2:9).

1:20 to reconcile all things to Himself. Christ is the remedy for alienation from God, and eventually all things will be changed and brought into a unity in Him, even though this will involve judgment (1 Cor. 15:24–28).

1:24 Because of the union of believers with Christ, Paul's sufferings for the sake of the church can be called Christ's afflictions as well.

1:25 the stewardship, assignment, office (1 Cor. 4:1).

1:26–27 the mystery. The secret unknown in OT times but known now only by divine revelation of the indwelling of Christ. See note on Eph. 3:3.

1:28 complete. Mature. The word was used by the mystery religions to designate those who had been initiated into the "secrets" of those religions. In Christ all can have wisdom and maturity.

2:1 False teaching had spread to Laodicea, 11 mi (17.6 km) from Colossae.

2:2–3 God's mystery, that is, Christ. He is the one who reveals God to man, and in Him is everything we need.

15 When He had [a]disarmed the [b]rulers and authorities, He [a]made a public display of them, having [c]triumphed over them through Him.

★2:16 [a]Rom 14:3 [b]Mark 7:19; Rom 14:17; Heb 9:10 [c]Lev 23:2; Rom 14:5 [d]1 Chr 23:31; 2 Chr 31:3; Neh 10:33 [e]Mark 2:27f; Gal 4:10

16 Therefore no one is to [a]act as your judge in regard to [b]food or [b]drink or in respect to a [c]festival or a [d]new moon or a [e]Sabbath day—

2:6 Just as Christ is received by faith, the believer is also to walk (live) by faith, acknowledging the lordship of Christ over his life (2 Cor. 5:7).

2:8 empty deception. Paul's belittlement of the Colossian "philosophy." according to the elementary principles. After the elemental spirits of the universe; i.e., the cosmic spirits of Hellenistic syncretism. Apparently their philosophy involved regulating their religious life by observing the movements of the stars, which they associated with the powers of the angels who were worshiped by some (v. 18). In this passage Paul uses the vocabulary of the heretics, giving the words their proper meaning. He confutes them with their own terms (e.g., complete, 1:28; mystery, v. 2; wisdom and knowledge, v. 3; elementary principles of the world, v. 8; head, v. 10).

2:9 In Jesus Christ, deity (the divine attributes and nature) dwelt in His earthly body—a strong statement of the deity and humanity of the God-man.

2:11–12 the removal of the body of the flesh (the old nature, which is corrupt in its unregenerate state of rebellion against God) is illustrated in the rite of circumcision and the ordinance of baptism but is accomplished by a spiritual circumcision and Spirit baptism.

2:14 certificate of debt = an acknowledgment of debt in the handwriting of the debtor. The Mosaic Law (which Paul's phrase symbolizes) put us in debt to God with sin; this debt He has canceled by nailing it to the cross of Christ. Christ has made full payment.

2:15 disarmed. Lit., stripped (as was done to enemies).

2:16 False teachers were evidently insisting on abstinence from certain foods and observance of certain days. These, Paul says, are shadows that have been dispersed by the coming of Christ (v. 17). The command to observe the Sabbath is the only one of the Ten Commandments not repeated after Pentecost.

2:17 [a]Heb 8:5; 10:1

19 and not holding fast to [a]the head, from whom [b]the entire body, being supplied and held together by the joints and ligaments, grows with a growth which is from God.

D Exalted over Asceticism, 2:20–23

*2:20 [a]Rom 6:2 [b]Col 2:8 [c]Gal 4:9 [d]Col 2:14,16

20 [a]If you have died with Christ to the [b]elementary principles of the world, [c]why, as if you were living in the world, do you submit yourself to [d]decrees, such as,

21 "Do not handle, do not taste, do not touch!"

2:22 [a]1 Cor 6:13 [b]Is 29:13; Matt 15:9; Titus 1:14

22 (which all refer [a]to things destined to perish with the using)—in accordance with the [b]commandments and teachings of men?

2:23 [a]Col 2:18 [b]1 Tim 4:3 [c]Rom 13:14; 1 Tim 4:8

23 These are matters which have, to be sure, the appearance of wisdom in [a]self-made religion and self-abasement and [b]severe treatment of the body, but are of no value against [c]fleshly indulgence.

IV THE EXALTED CALLING, 3:1–4:6

A The Certainties of Our Calling, 3:1–4

*3:1 [a]Col 2:12 [b]Ps 110:1; Mark 16:19

3 Therefore if you have been [a]raised up with Christ, keep seeking the things above, where Christ is, [b]seated at the right hand of God.

3:2 [a]Matt 16:23; Phil 3:19,20

2 [a]Set your mind on the things above, not on the things that are on earth.

3:3 [a]Rom 6:2; 2 Cor 5:14; Col 2:20

3 For you have [a]died and your life is hidden with Christ in God.

*3:4 [a]John 11:25; Gal 2:20 [b]1 Cor 1:7; Phil 3:21; 1 Pet 1:13; 1 John 2:28; 3:2

4 When Christ, [a]who is our life, is revealed, [b]then you also will be revealed with Him in glory.

B The Characteristics of Our Calling, 3:5–4:6

1 In everyday life, 3:5–17

*3:5 [a]Rom 8:13 [b]Col 2:11 [c]Mark 7:21f; 1 Cor 6:9f,18; 2 Cor 12:21; Gal 5:19f; Eph 4:19; 5:3,5

5 [a]Therefore consider [b]the members of your earthly body as dead to [c]immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and greed, which amounts to idolatry.

3:6 [a]Rom 1:18; Eph 5:6

6 For it is because of these things that [a]the wrath of God will come upon the sons of disobedience,

3:7 [a]Eph 2:2

7 and [a]in them you also once walked, when you were living in them.

3:8 [a]Eph 4:22 [b]Eph 4:31 [c]Eph 4:29

8 But now you also, [a]put them all aside: [b]anger, wrath, malice, slander, and [c]abusive speech from your mouth.

*3:9 [a]Eph 4:25 [b]Eph 4:22

9 [a]Do not lie to one another, since you [b]laid aside the old self with its evil practices,

*3:10 [a]Eph 4:24

10 and have [a]put on the new

2:18 Some were also teaching a false humility and the worship of angels as proper, claiming special mystic insights by way of visions (taking his stand on visions he has seen). The basic problem was their egoistic or fleshly mind.

2:19 True spirituality comes from tenaciously holding on to Christ, the Head of His body.

2:20–23 Christ had freed them from the taboos of asceticism, which can only give a pretense of wisdom, promote a self-made religion, and deal severely with the body. Yet it cannot succeed in combating the desires of the flesh.

3:1 Here begins the ethical section of the letter. Paul's appeal is simple: Become in experience what you already are by God's grace. The Christian is risen with Christ; let him exhibit that new life.

3:4 When Christ . . . is revealed at His second coming.

3:5 consider . . . as dead = put to death; i.e., separate yourselves from the deeds of the old nature.

3:9 laid aside, like stripping off clothes. the old self. I.e., the old nature, the predisposition to leave God out of one's life and actions, which characterized the unregenerate state.

3:10 the new self. I.e., the new nature, or capacity, received when one is saved, with which one may serve God and righteousness (Rom.

self who is being [b]renewed to a true knowledge [c]according to the image of the One who [d]created him—

11 a renewal in which [a]there is no distinction between Greek and Jew, [b]circumcised and uncircumcised, [c]barbarian, Scythian, [d]slave and freeman, but [e]Christ is all, and in all.

12 So, as those who have been [a]chosen of God, holy and beloved, [b]put on a [c]heart of compassion, kindness, [d]humility, gentleness and [e]patience;

13 [a]bearing with one another, and [b]forgiving each other, whoever has a complaint against anyone; [b]just as the Lord forgave you, so also should you.

14 Beyond all these things put on love, which is [a]the perfect bond of [b]unity.

15 Let [a]the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in [b]one body; and be thankful.

16 Let [a]the word of Christ richly dwell within you, with all wisdom [b]teaching and admonishing one another [c]with psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, [d]singing with thankfulness in your hearts to God.

17 [a]Whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, [b]giving thanks through Him to God the Father.

2 In the home, 3:18–21

18 [a]Wives, [b]be subject to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord.

19 [a]Husbands, love your wives and do not be embittered against them.

20 [a]Children, be obedient to your parents in all things, for this is well-pleasing to the Lord.

21 [a]Fathers, do not exasperate your children, so that they will not lose heart.

3 In slave-master relationships, 3:22–4:1

22 [a]Slaves, in all things obey those who are your masters on earth, [b]not with external service, as those who merely please men, but with sincerity of heart, fearing the Lord.

23 Whatever you do, do your work heartily, [a]as for the Lord rather than for men, 24 [a]knowing that from the Lord you will receive the reward of [b]the inheritance. It is the Lord Christ whom you [c]serve.

25 For [a]he who does wrong will receive the consequences of the wrong which he has done, and [b]that without partiality.

4 Masters, grant to your slaves justice and fairness, [a]knowing that you too have a Master in heaven.

4 In prayer, 4:2–4

2 [a]Devote yourselves to prayer, keeping alert in it with an attitude of thanksgiving;

3 praying at the same time

6:18). Continual renewing is necessary, however, in order that the new life may have full dominion over moral conduct.

3:11 barbarian. At this time the word was applied to those who did not speak Greek or had not adopted Greek culture. Scythian represents the lowest type of uncouth barbarian nomads of southern Russia. In Christ, distinctions of race, class, and culture are transcended.

3:12 holy. Separated from all that is unclean and unto God.

3:15 The peace of Christ should rule, arbitrate, or umpire every circumstance of life.

3:16 The psalms and hymns and spiritual songs must be those that teach and admonish.

3:17 in the name. Representing Him with His approval.

3:18 Wives. See note on Eph. 5:22.

3:19 Husbands. See note on Eph. 5:25.

3:20–21 On child-parent relationships, see notes on Eph. 6:1, 2, 4.

3:22–23 Slaves are to work wholeheartedly unto the Lord, whether their masters are checking on them or not. Undesirable as slavery was, the NT does not promote or sanction revolt of slaves (1 Cor. 7:20–24). Had it done so, many would doubtless have flocked to the antislavery cause and not to Christ.

3:25 without partiality. God will show no favoritism, either for the unfaithful slave or for the unjust master (4:1).

4:2 We should persist in prayer with alertness and thanksgiving.

4:3 a door for the word. I.e., an opportunity to

4:3 [a]Eph 6:19 [b]Acts 14:27 [c]2 Tim 4:2 [d]Eph 3:3,4; 6:19 [e]Eph 6:20 for us as well, that God will open up to us a [b]door for [c]the word, so that we may speak forth [d]the mystery of Christ, for which I have also [e]been imprisoned;

4:4 [a]Eph 6:20
4 that I may make it clear [a]in the way I ought to speak.

5 In witness and speech, 4:5–6

★4:5 [a]Eph 5:15 [b]Mark 4:11 [c]Eph 5:16
5 [a]Conduct yourselves with wisdom toward [b]outsiders, [c]making the most of the opportunity.

★4:6 [a]Eph 4:29 [b]Mark 9:50 [c]1 Pet 3:15
6 [a]Let your speech always be with grace, seasoned, as it were, with [b]salt, so that you will know how you should [c]respond to each person.

1 THESSALONIANS

INTRODUCTION

AUTHOR: Paul DATE: 51

The Work at Thessalonica Paul, Silas, and Timothy first went to the Macedonian port city of Thessalonica on the second missionary journey (Acts 17:1–14). This was the second place the gospel was preached in Europe, Philippi being the first. Because the preaching of the gospel depleted the ranks of the synagogue, the Jews charged Paul's host, Jason, with harboring traitors to Caesar. The rulers of the city took Jason as security (like a peace bond) and let the missionaries leave the city. When they arrived in Athens, Paul sent Timothy back to Thessalonica (1 Thess. 3:1–2, 5) to encourage the believers and then to report back on the condition of the church there. Timothy rejoined Paul in Corinth (3:6), where the two Thessalonian letters were written.

Some feel that Paul was in Thessalonica less than a month (only three Sabbaths are mentioned in Acts 17:2). He must, however, have had an extended ministry outside the synagogue and the Jewish community, since the church was largely Gentile. See note on 1 Thess. 1:9. In any case, he was concerned about his departing under pressure and about having to leave the church without experienced leadership. Timothy's report gave Paul cause only for praise for the healthy state of the church. This is a letter from a relieved and grateful pastor to his growing flock.

Purpose In addition (1) to expressing his thankfulness, (2) Paul defended himself against a campaign to slander his ministry, which asserted that it was done only for profit (2:9–10); (3) he encouraged the new converts to stand not only against persecution but also against the pressure to revert to their former pagan standards (3:2–3; 4:1–12); (4) he answered the question about what happens to Christians who die before the return of the Lord (4:13–18); and finally (5) Paul discussed some problems in their church life that needed to be dealt with (5:12–13, 19–20).

Contents The key passages in this letter are eschatological; that is, related to events of the last days, such as the rapture of the church (4:13–18) and the Day of the Lord (5:1–11).

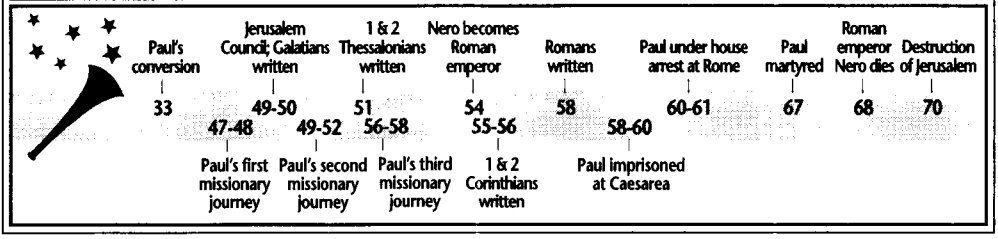
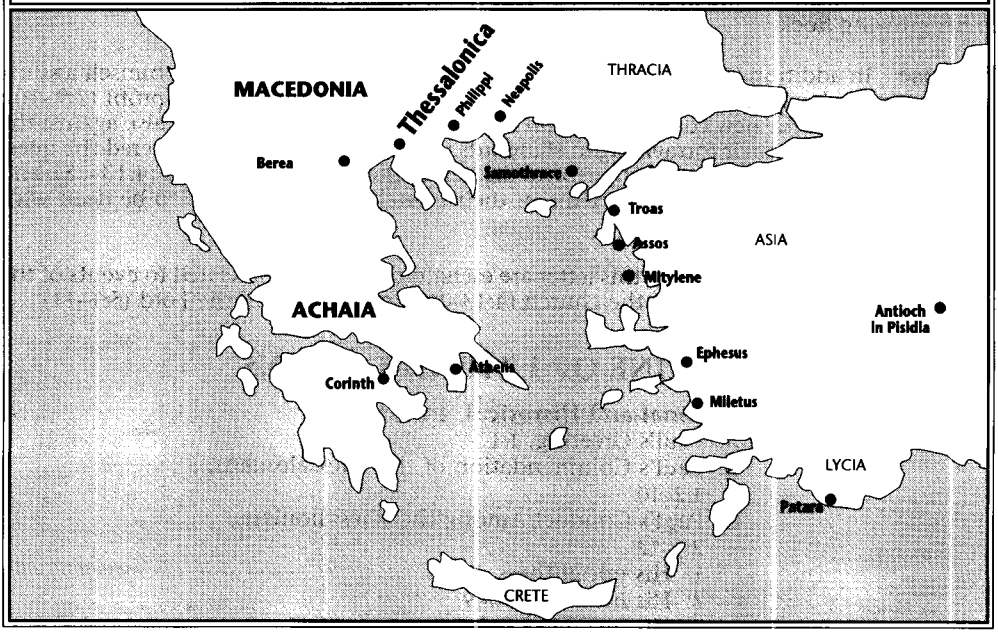
TIMELINE OF 1 THESSALONIANS



THESSALONICA AND ITS WORLD



THE FIRST LETTER OF PAUL TO THE THESSALONIANS

I PERSONAL AND HISTORICAL, 1:1–3:13

A Paul's Greeting, 1:1

1 [a]Paul and [b]Silvanus and [c]Timothy to the [d]church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:
[e]Grace to you and peace.

B Paul's Commendation of the Thessalonians, 1:2–10

2 [a]We give thanks to God always for all of you, [b]making mention of you in our prayers;

3 constantly bearing in mind your [a]work of faith and labor of [b]love and [c]steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ in the presence of [d]our God and Father,

4 knowing, [a]brethren beloved by God, [b]His choice of you;

5 for our [a]gospel did not come to you in word only, but also [b]in power and in the Holy Spirit and with [c]full conviction; just as you know [d]what kind of men we proved to be among you for your sake.

6 You also became [a]imitators of us and of the Lord, [b]having received [c]the word in much tribulation with the [d]joy of the Holy Spirit,

7 so that you became an example to all the believers in [a]Macedonia and in [b]Achaia.

8 For [a]the word of the Lord has [b]sounded forth from you, not only in [c]Macedonia and [d]Achaia, but also [e]in every place your faith toward God has gone forth, so that we have no need to say anything.

9 For they themselves report about us what kind of a [a]reception we had with you, and how you [b]turned to God [c]from idols to serve [d]a living and true God,

10 and to [a]wait for His Son from heaven, whom He [b]raised from the dead, that is Jesus, who [c]rescues us from [d]the wrath to come.

C Paul's Conduct Among the Thessalonians, 2:1–12

1 His uprightness, 2:1–4

2 For you yourselves know, brethren, that our [a]coming to you [b]was not in vain,

2 but after we had already suffered and been [a]mistreated in

---

1:1 Silvanus = Silas, who replaced Barnabas on the second missionary journey (Acts 15:22–18:5).

1:3 steadfastness of hope. Patient endurance while waiting for Christ's return (v. 10).

1:4 His choice. In relation to believers, God's choosing is sovereign (Rom. 9:11), it is pretemporal (Eph. 1:4), it is for salvation (2 Thess. 2:13), and it is proved by the fruit that accompany salvation (v. 5; Col. 3:12).

1:5 what kind of men we proved to be. Paul elaborates on this in 2:3–12.

1:6 imitators. See 1 Cor. 4:16; 11:1. The Thessalonian Christians imitated the Lord and the apostles in that they responded to the gospel in spite of affliction.

1:7 an example = pattern or model. Macedonia was the northern province of Greece; Achaia was the southern.

1:8 sounded forth. Echoed, reverberated. Paul's message was relayed by the Thessalonians into all of Greece.

1:9 they themselves. I.e., people everywhere gave testimony to the conversion of the Thessalonians. turned to God from idols. This church was composed largely of converts from pagan religions and not from Judaism (see also 2:14–16). Verses 9b–10 summarize the message Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy preached. to serve, as bondslaves. a living (in contrast to lifeless idols) and true God (not false gods).

1:10 to wait. The Christian's hope of the return of Christ is rooted in the fact that He was raised from the dead. who rescues = the Deliverer. the wrath to come. I.e., the judgments to come in the Tribulation (called "wrath" in Rev. 6:16; to be delivered from this would indicate a pretribulation rapture of believers).

2:1 This verse builds on 1:5. not in vain = not without results. Paul returns to this subject in verse 13, after reviewing his ministry (vv. 1–12).

2:2 in Philippi. The account of Paul's beating and imprisonment there is found in Acts 16:12–40.

2:2 [b]Philippi, as you know, we had the boldness in our God [c]to speak to you the [d]gospel of God amid much [e]opposition.

3 For our [a]exhortation does not come from [b]error or [c]impurity or by way of [d]deceit;

4 [a]but just as we have been approved by God to be [b]entrusted with the gospel, so we speak, [c]not as pleasing men, but God who [d]examines our hearts.

2 His industry, 2:5–9

5 For we never came with flattering speech, as you know, nor with [a]a pretext for greed—[b]God is witness—

6 nor did we [a]seek glory from men, either from you or from others, even though as [b]apostles of Christ we might have asserted our authority.

7 But we proved to be [a]gentle among you, [b]as a nursing mother tenderly cares for her own children.

8 Having so fond an affection for you, we were well-pleased to [a]impart to you not only the [b]gospel of God but also our own lives, because you had become very dear to us.

9 For you recall, brethren, our [a]labor and hardship, how [b]working night and day so as not to be a [c]burden to any of you, we proclaimed to you the [d]gospel of God.

3 His blameless behavior, 2:10–12

10 You are witnesses, and so is [a]God, [b]how devoutly and uprightly and blamelessly we behaved toward you believers;

11 just as you know how we were [a]exhorting and encouraging and [b]imploring each one of you as [c]a father would his own children,

12 so that you would [a]walk in a manner worthy of the God who [b]calls you into His own kingdom and [c]glory.

D Paul's Concern for the Thessalonians, 2:13–3:13

1 For their sufferings, 2:13–20

13 For this reason we also constantly [a]thank God that when you received the [b]word of God which you heard from us, you accepted it [c]not as the word of men, but for what it really is, the word of God, [d]which also performs its work in you who believe.

14 For you, brethren, became [a]imitators of [b]the churches of God in Christ Jesus that are [c]in Judea, for [d]you also endured the same sufferings at the hands of your own countrymen, [e]even as they did from the Jews,

15 [a]who both killed the Lord Jesus and [b]the prophets, and drove us out. They are not pleasing to God, but hostile to all men,

16 [a]hindering us from speaking to the Gentiles [b]so that they

2:3 Paul attacks what must have been charges brought against him: of error (i.e., that the gospel he preached was based on error); of impurity (that Christianity encouraged sexual immorality); and of deceit (that his methods were underhanded).

2:4 approved. Paul was already a veteran of local church ministry (Acts 11:25–26), of an evangelistic, missionary trip (Acts 13–14), a potentially explosive churchwide debate (Acts 15), and now part of a second missionary trip. In all this he was approved by God.

2:5 flattering speech = cajolery; i.e., an attempt to persuade by use of insincere speech.

2:6 asserted our authority. Better, made demands (on you); i.e., for support. Paul makes clear his right as an apostle to financial support but says he behaved as selflessly as a nursing mother (v. 7).

2:8 fond . . . affection. An unusual word indicating the yearning love of a mother for her children. Paul's pastoral heart is laid bare in these verses.

2:9 labor and hardship. Paul did manual labor (likely making tents) in order to give the gospel without charge.

2:12 walk = live.

2:14 imitators. Paul compared the problems of the Christians at Thessalonica among their fellow Greeks with those of the Christians in Judea, persecuted by Jews.

2:16 fill up the measure of their sins. God sometimes allows His people to be persecuted in order to show the evil nature of men and the rightness of His judgment when it falls (cf. Gen. 15:16). These persecutors were heaping sin upon sin. wrath. The coming Tribulation (1:10) and/or the destruction of Jerusalem in A.D. 70.

2:16 [c]Gen 15:16; Dan 8:23; Matt 23:32 [d]1 Thess 1:10 may be saved; with the result that they always [c]fill up the measure of their sins. But [d]wrath has come upon them to the utmost.

*2:17 [a]1 Cor 5:3 [b]1 Thess 3:10
17 But we, brethren, having been taken away from you for a short while—[a]in person, not in spirit—were all the more eager with great desire [b]to see your face.

2:18 [a]Rom 15:22 [b]Phil 4:16 [c]Matt 4:10 [d]Rom 1:13; 15:22
18 For [a]we wanted to come to you—I, Paul, [b]more than once—and yet [c]Satan [d]hindered us.

*2:19 [a]Phil 4:1 [b]Matt 16:27; Mark 8:38; John 21:22; 1 Thess 3:13; 4:15; 5:23
19 For who is our hope or [a]joy or crown of exultation? Is it not even you, in the presence of our Lord Jesus at His [b]coming?

2:20 [a]2 Cor 1:14
20 For you are [a]our glory and joy.

2 For their testings (Timothy's visit), 3:1–8

3:1 [a]1 Thess 3:5 [b]Acts 17:15f
3 Therefore [a]when we could endure it no longer, we thought it best to be left behind at [b]Athens alone,

3:2 [a]2 Cor 1:1; Col 1:1
2 and we sent [a]Timothy, our brother and God's fellow worker in the gospel of Christ, to strengthen and encourage you as to your faith,

*3:3 [a]Acts 9:16; 14:22
3 so that no one would be disturbed by these afflictions; for you yourselves know that [a]we have been destined for this.

*3:4 [a]1 Thess 2:14
4 For indeed when we were with you, we kept telling you in advance that we were going to suffer affliction; [a]and so it came to pass, as you know.

*3:5 [a]Phil 2:19; 1 Thess 3:1 [b]1 Thess 3:2 [c]Matt 4:3 [d]2 Cor 6:1; Phil 2:16
5 For this reason, [a]when I could endure it no longer, I also [b]sent to find out about your faith, for fear that [c]the tempter might have tempted you, and [d]our labor would be in vain.

*3:6 [a]Acts 18:5 [b]1 Thess 1:3 [c]1 Cor 11:2
6 But now that [a]Timothy has come to us from you, and has brought us good news of [b]your faith and love, and that you always [c]think kindly of us, longing to see us just as we also long to see you,

7 for this reason, brethren, in all our distress and affliction we were comforted about you through your faith;

*3:8 [a]1 Cor 16:13
8 for now we really live, if you [a]stand firm in the Lord.

3 For their continued growth, 3:9–13

3:9 [a]1 Thess 1:2
9 For [a]what thanks can we render to God for you in return for all the joy with which we rejoice before our God on your account,

*3:10 [a]2 Tim 1:3 [b]1 Thess 2:17 [c]2 Cor 13:9
10 as we [a]night and day keep praying most earnestly that we may [b]see your face, and may [c]complete what is lacking in your faith?

3:11 [a]2 Thess 2:16 [b]Gal 1:4; 1 Thess 3:13 [c]1 Thess 4:16; 5:23; 2 Thess 2:16; 3:16; Rev 21:3 [d]2 Thess 3:5
11 [a]Now may [b]our God and Father [c]Himself and Jesus our Lord [d]direct our way to you;

3:12 [a]Phil 1:9; 1 Thess 4:1,10; 2 Thess 1:3
12 and may the Lord cause you to increase and [a]abound in love for one another, and for all people, just as we also do for you;

*3:13 [a]1 Cor 1:8; 1 Thess 3:2
13 so that He may [a]establish

2:17–18 Paul planned several times to return to Thessalonica. Satan hindered us likely refers to the security taken of Jason (Acts 17:9), which probably included a guarantee that Paul would not return to the city.

2:19 crown. Alluding to the wreath given to winners in the games. On rewards at the judgment seat of Christ, see note on 1 Cor. 3:14.

3:3 disturbed. I.e., that they not be seduced away from the faith by the heathen who were urging them to reject their faith.

3:4 suffer affliction. To endure the normal afflictions that come to a believer in this life. Their trials were probably social and economic pressures placed on them by unbelievers. Paul had told them these would come (v. 3).

3:5 the tempter. Again (as in 2:18) Paul traces events to Satan's working.

3:6 good news. The same word as gospel. Both messages (the gospel Paul preached and the report brought by Timothy) were good news.

3:8 The good news of their spiritual well-being was a breath of life to Paul.

3:10 most earnestly. A strong, doubly compounded word indicating the intensity of Paul's night and day praying. See note on Eph. 3:20. complete. I.e., to make complete as one might repair fishing nets (Matt. 4:21) or restore saints (cf. Gal. 6:1; Eph. 4:12). There will always be lacks in our faith until we reach heaven where, at last, we will be "without blame" (v. 13).

3:13 saints. Lit., holy ones. Probably refers here to angels who will accompany the return of Christ (Mark 8:38), or possibly also holy men (cf. 4:14).

3:13 your hearts [b]without blame in holiness before [c]our God and Father at the [d]coming of our Lord Jesus [e]with all His saints.

II PRACTICAL AND HORTATORY, 4:1–5:28

A Teaching Concerning Development, 4:1–12

1 In sexual relations, 4:1–8

4:1 4 [a]Finally then, [b]brethren, we request and exhort you in the Lord Jesus, that as you received from us instruction as to how you ought to [c]walk and [d]please God (just as you actually do walk), that you [e]excel still more.

2 For you know what commandments we gave you by the authority of the Lord Jesus.

★4:3 3 For this is the will of God, your sanctification; that is, that you [a]abstain from sexual immorality;

★4:4 4 that [a]each of you know how to possess his own [b]vessel in sanctification and [c]honor,

4:5 5 not in [a]lustful passion, like the Gentiles who [b]do not know God;

★4:6 6 and that no man transgress and [a]defraud his brother [b]in the matter because [c]the Lord is the avenger in all these things, just as we also [d]told you before and solemnly warned you.

4:7 7 For [a]God has not called us for [b]the purpose of impurity, but in sanctification.

★4:8 8 So, he who rejects this is not rejecting man but the God who [a]gives His Holy Spirit to you.

2 In brotherly love, 4:9–10

4:9 9 Now as to the [a]love of the brethren, you [b]have no need for anyone to write to you, for you yourselves are [c]taught by God to love one another;

★4:10 10 for indeed [a]you do practice it toward all the brethren who are in all Macedonia. But we urge you, brethren, to [b]excel still more,

3 In orderly living, 4:11–12

★4:11 11 and to make it your ambition [a]to lead a quiet life and [b]attend to your own business and [c]work with your hands, just as we commanded you,

★4:12 12 so that you will [a]behave properly toward [b]outsiders and [c]not be in any need.

B Teaching Concerning the Dead, 4:13–18

★4:13 13 But [a]we do not want you to be uninformed, brethren, about those who [b]are asleep, so that you will not grieve as do [c]the rest who have [d]no hope.

★4:14 14 For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, [a]even so

---

4:3 the will of God. I.e., His desire or purpose. sanctification, or holiness, is viewed in three aspects in the NT: (1) a position of being set apart to God, which every believer has at the moment of his salvation (1 Cor. 6:11); (2) a progressive holiness of life that ought to be true of every believer (here in v. 3); and (3) our condition in heaven, in which we shall be "without blame" (3:13). immorality. The Greek word means "all kinds of illicit or unnatural sexual indulgence." Greek cities like Thessalonica were wide open to all kinds of sexual looseness, even in connection with religious rites.

4:4 possess his own vessel. This means either mastery over one's body, keeping it pure (1 Cor. 9:24–27), or refers to an honorable marriage (vessel = wife, as in 1 Peter 3:7).

4:6 transgress. In this context (vv. 3–8), the reference is to sexual conduct. brother refers to any other human being (believer or unbeliever) who is a partner in illicit sex.

4:8 rejects. Treats lightly these commands for sexual purity.

4:10 excel still more. I.e., practice brotherly love more and more with your fellow Macedonian Christians.

4:11 make it your ambition, or aspire. The Greek word is used only here and in Rom. 15:20 and 2 Cor. 5:9. The problems mentioned in 2 Thess. 3:11–12 gave rise to these exhortations.

4:12 outsiders. I.e., non-Christians.

4:13–18 The question is this: Does the death of a believer before the Lord comes cause him to lose all hope of sharing in the glorious reign of Christ? Paul's answer is the reassuring affirmation that the dead will be raised and will share in the kingdom.

4:13 are asleep. The body (not the soul) of the believer who dies is said to sleep during the time between death and resurrection. See note on Phil. 1:23.

4:14 if we believe. Better, since we do believe. The certainty of the Christian's resurrection is God will bring with Him [b]those who have fallen asleep in Jesus.

15 For this we say to you [a]by the word of the Lord, that [b]we who are alive and remain until [c]the coming of the Lord, will not precede [d]those who have fallen asleep.

16 For the Lord [a]Himself [b]will descend from heaven with a [c]shout, with the voice of [d]the archangel and with the [e]trumpet of God, and [f]the dead in Christ will rise first.

17 Then [a]we who are alive and remain will be [b]caught up together with them [c]in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we shall always [d]be with the Lord.

18 Therefore comfort one another with these words.

C Teaching Concerning the Day of the Lord, 5:1–11

5 Now as to the [a]times and the epochs, brethren, you [b]have no need of anything to be written to you.

2 For you yourselves know full well that [a]the day of the Lord will come [b]just like a thief in the night.

3 While they are saying, "[a]Peace and safety!" then [b]destruction will come upon them suddenly like [c]labor pains upon a woman with child, and they will not escape.

4 But you, brethren, are not in [a]darkness, that the day would overtake you [b]like a thief;

5 for you are all [a]sons of light and sons of day. We are not of night nor of [b]darkness;

6 so then let us not [a]sleep as [b]others do, but let us be alert and [c]sober.

7 For those who sleep do their sleeping at night, and those who get drunk get [a]drunk at night.

8 But since [a]we are of the day, let us [b]be sober, having put on the [c]breastplate of [d]faith and love, and as a [e]helmet, the [f]hope of salvation.

9 For God has not destined us for [a]wrath, but for [b]obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ,

10 [a]who died for us, so that whether we are awake or asleep, we will live together with Him.

11 Therefore encourage one another and [a]build up one another, just as you also are doing.

based on the fact of Christ's resurrection.

4:16–17 voice of the archangel. Michael is the only archangel named in the Bible (Jude 9). the trumpet of God. See 1 Cor. 15:52. the dead in Christ will rise first, when the Lord comes for His people (v. 17). Then living believers will be caught up. From the Latin for "caught up" comes the term "rapture." The rapture, or catching up of believers, described here involves both those who have died and those who are living when the Lord comes. His coming here is in the air, not to the earth, and will occur just prior to the beginning of the Tribulation (see 1:10; Rev. 3:10). That period will end with His coming to the earth (see Matt. 24:29–30; Rev. 19:11–16). The event here described includes (1) a return of Christ in the air, (2) a resurrection of the dead in Christ, (3) a rapture of living believers, and (4) a reunion with those who have died.

4:18 The encouragement or comfort of the Christian's hope in resurrection is in sharp contrast to the hopelessness of the heathen in the face of death.

5:2 the day of the Lord. An extended period of time, beginning with the Tribulation and including the events of the second coming of Christ and the millennial kingdom on earth. See the Introduction to Joel. Here Paul focuses on the beginning of that day, which will begin (come) unexpectedly (like a thief in the night).

5:4 darkness. A figure of the unbeliever's moral state and separation from God.

5:6 sleep. Not physically but morally (as in Mark 13:36; Eph. 5:14).

5:9 wrath. I.e., the anguish and tribulation associated with the beginning of the Day of the Lord (v. 3), from which the believer is to be delivered (1:10).

5:11 Believers need to be alert (v. 6), sober or self-disciplined (vv. 6, 8), encouraging and edifying to others (v. 11).

5:12–14 Church leaders should labor, preside (= over you), and admonish those in their charge.

5:12–13 Church members should appreciate, esteem, and Live in peace.

5:12 [c]Heb 13:17

14 We urge you, brethren, admonish [a]the unruly, encourage [b]the fainthearted, help [c]the weak, be [d]patient with everyone.

5:15 [a]Matt 5:44; Rom 12:17; 1 Pet 3:9 [b]Rom 12:9; Gal 6:10; 1 Thess 5:21
15 See that [a]no one repays another with evil for evil, but always [b]seek after that which is good for one another and for all people.

16 [a]Rejoice always;

*5:17 [a]Eph 6:18
17 [a]pray without ceasing;

*5:18 [a]Eph 5:20
18 in everything [a]give thanks; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.

*5:19 [a]Eph 4:30
19 [a]Do not quench the Spirit;

*5:20 [a]Acts 13:1; 1 Cor 14:31
20 do not despise [a]prophetic utterances.

5:21 [a]1 Cor 14:29; 1 John 4:1 [b]Rom 12:9; Gal 6:10; 1 Thess 5:15
21 But [a]examine everything carefully; [b]hold fast to that which is good;
22 abstain from every form of evil.

*5:23 [a]Rom 15:33 [b]1 Thess 3:11 [c]Luke 1:46f; Heb 4:12 [d]James 1:4; 2 Pet 3:14 [e]1 Thess 2:19
23 Now [a]may the God of peace [b]Himself sanctify you entirely; and may your [c]spirit and soul and body be preserved complete, [d]without blame at [e]the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

5:24 [a]1 Cor 1:9; 2 Thess 3:3 [b]1 Thess 2:12
24 [a]Faithful is He who [b]calls you, and He also will bring it to pass.

5:25 [a]Eph 6:19; 2 Thess 3:1; Heb 13:18
25 Brethren, [a]pray for us.

*5:26 [a]Rom 16:16
26 [a]Greet all the brethren with a holy kiss.

5:27 [a]Col 4:16 [b]Acts 1:15
27 I adjure you by the Lord to [a]have this letter read to all the [b]brethren.

5:28 [a]Rom 16:20; 2 Thess 3:18
28 [a]The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

5:14 unruly. Better, the idle who had given up working because they expected the Lord's return soon (see 2 Thess. 3:11).

5:16 This, not John 11:35, is the shortest verse in the Greek NT. We rejoice in the Lord (Phil. 3:1), in the gospel (Acts 13:48), and in others' spiritual growth (3 John 4).

5:17 without ceasing. The word is used for a hacking cough. Paul prayed thus for the Thessalonians (1:3; 2:13).

5:18 In everything. In every circumstance.

5:19 The Holy Spirit is often likened to fire (Matt. 3:11; Luke 3:16; Acts 2:3). The Spirit is quenched whenever His ministry is stifled in an individual or in the church.

5:20 Prophecy was the ability to deliver direct revelation from God.

5:23–24 spirit and soul and body should not be understood as defining the parts of man, but as representing the whole man.

5:26 holy kiss. For the kiss as a symbol of welcome in Jewish life, see Luke 7:45; 22:48. As a symbol of Christian fellowship, see note on 1 Peter 5:14. Paul uses the phrase in Rom. 16:16; 1 Cor. 16:20; and 2 Cor. 13:12.

2 THESSALONIANS

INTRODUCTION

AUTHOR: Paul DATE: 51

Purpose This letter was sent by Paul to the church at Thessalonica, not long after 1 Thessalonians, to meet a new situation. Word had reached Paul that somehow there had been misunderstanding, if not misrepresentation (2:2), of his teaching concerning the coming of the Day of the Lord (1 Thess. 5:1–11). Some thought that its judgments had already begun; yet they understood Paul to have taught that they would be exempt from those judgments. The practical ramification of this doctrinal confusion was that some, thinking the end of the world was at hand, had stopped working and were creating an embarrassing situation (3:6, 11). Paul corrects the teaching and reprimands the idlers.

Contents The major section on the man of sin (2:1–12) should be compared with other passages that tell of this Antichrist (Dan. 9:27; Matt. 24:15; Rev. 11:7; 13:1–10).

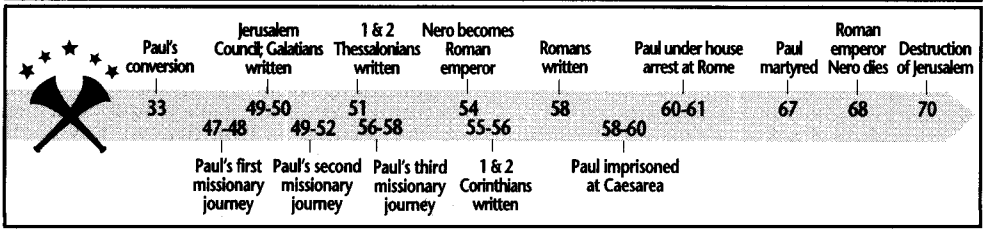
TIMELINE OF 2 THESSALONIANS



THE SECOND LETTER OF PAUL TO THE THESSALONIANS

I SALUTATION, 1:1–2

1:1 1 [a]Paul and [b]Silvanus and [c]Timothy to the [d]church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

1:2 2 [a]Grace to you and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

II THANKSGIVING AND ENCOURAGEMENT IN PERSECUTION, 1:3–12

★1:3 3 We ought always [a]to give thanks to God for you, [b]brethren, as is only fitting, because your faith is greatly enlarged, and the [c]love of each one of you toward one another grows ever greater;

1:4 4 therefore, we ourselves [a]speak proudly of you among [b]the churches of God for your perseverance and faith [b]in the midst of all your persecutions and afflictions which you endure.

★1:5 5 This is a [a]plain indication of God's righteous judgment so that you will be [b]considered worthy of the kingdom of God, for which indeed you are suffering.

1:6 6 For after all [a]it is only just for God to repay with affliction those who afflict you,

★1:7 7 and to give relief to you who are afflicted and to us as well [a]when the Lord Jesus will be revealed [b]from heaven [c]with His mighty angels [d]in flaming fire,

8 dealing out retribution to those who [a]do not know God and to those who [b]do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus.

9 These will pay the penalty of [a]eternal destruction, [b]away from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of His power,

10 when He comes to be [a]glorified in His saints on that [b]day, and to be marveled at among all who have believed—for our [c]testimony to you was believed.

11 To this end also we [a]pray for you always, that our God will [b]count you worthy of your [c]calling, and fulfill every desire for [d]goodness and the [e]work of faith with power,

12 so that the [a]name of our Lord Jesus will be glorified in you, and you in Him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

III CORRECTION CONCERNING THE DAY OF THE LORD, 2:1–17

A Its Relation to the Present, 2:1–2

2 Now we request you, [a]brethren, with regard to the [b]coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our [c]gathering together to Him,

2 that you not be quickly ★2:2

1:3–4 your faith is greatly enlarged. Paul's earlier fears about their faith (1 Thess. 3:5, 10) have disappeared in light of their exceptional growth. love. See 1 Thess. 3:12. Paul used them as an example to other churches.

1:5 Endurance in suffering proves that God's judgment of them was right and shows their fitness for the kingdom.

1:7 relief . . . to us. I.e., to Paul, Silvanus (= Silas), and Timothy who knew what it was to be under persecution and pressure for their faith (1 Thess. 1:6; 2:14–18). Relief is promised at the return of Christ, who will then judge those who afflict His people (v. 6). Of course, those who die experience relief from suffering at death, but they (as well as those who live) will not be vindicated until their enemies are punished (cf. Rev. 6:9–11, where those who have died were waiting in heaven for vindication over their enemies on earth).

1:9 eternal destruction. Not annihilation, but ruin by reason of separation from the presence of the Lord. In 1 Thess. 5:3 the destruction is said to be sudden; here it is eternal.

1:10 When Christ returns He shall be glorified not by His saints but in them; i.e., in what they are (saints) by His grace.

2:1 with regard to the coming of our Lord Jesus. I.e., concerning, or in the interest of the truth concerning, the Lord's coming. Paul denies the teaching, ascribed to him, that the Day of the Lord had already begun. our gathering together. A reference to the rapture of the church (1 Thess. 4:13–18).

2:2 shaken = excited, violently disturbed. The Thessalonians were being greatly disturbed by false teaching concerning future events, and Paul seeks to bring them back to true doctrine (2:1–12) and proper living (3:6–15). The false teaching was

2:2 shaken from your composure or be disturbed either by a [a]spirit or a [b]message or a [c]letter as if from us, to the effect that [d]the day of the Lord [e]has come.

and the [c]man of lawlessness is revealed, the [d]son of destruction, by a spirit (some prophetic utterance), by a message (some spoken teaching), and by a letter as if from us (some written communication purporting to be from Paul). The source of these teachings is not given. day of the Lord. See note on 1 Thess. 5:2. Apparently the believers thought their present troubles meant that the Day of the Lord had already come.

2:3 the apostasy. An aggressive and climactic revolt against God that will prepare the way for the appearance of the man of sin (see 1 Tim. 4:1–5; 2 Tim. 3:1–5). man of lawlessness. Although it is true that the forces of lawlessness were at work in Paul's time and are at work today (notice v. 7, "the mystery of lawlessness is already at work"), the man of lawlessness (also called "that lawless one," v. 8) is an individual of the future who will come to power during the tribulation days. John also recognized the presence of many antichrists in his time (1 John 2:18) as well as the coming of one great Antichrist in the future (Rev. 11:7; 13:1–10). is revealed. When Antichrist signs the covenant with Israel at the beginning of the Tribulation (Dan. 9:27), he will be identified by some for who he is.

2:4 takes his seat in the temple of God. At the midpoint of the tribulation period the Antichrist will desecrate the rebuilt Jewish Temple in Jerusalem by placing himself there to be worshiped. See note on Matt. 24:15. This will be the climax of man's great sin of self-deification, in open defiance of God.

2:6 what. Here the restrainer is neuter; in verse 7 it is masculine. The neuter would not eliminate the Spirit, which is a neuter word.

2:7 he who now restrains will do so until. Antichrist is now being held back by a restrainer. Some understand this to be God indwelling His church by the Holy Spirit, while others see human government as the restraint. According to the former view, the removal will be at the rapture of the church (1 Thess. 4:13–18) but, according to the latter, at the overthrow of human government by Antichrist.

2:8 Then that lawless one will be revealed. Paul's argument is this: The Day of the Lord will not begin until the Antichrist is revealed (v. 3); the Antichrist cannot begin to act until the restrainer is removed (v. 7); since the restrainer has not yet been removed, the Thessalonians could be certain that the Day of the Lord had not yet begun, regardless of what the false teachers were saying.

2:9 The man of sin will be able to do powerful miracles in the tribulation days (cf. Rev. 13:2–4; 17:8).

2:11–12 The deluding influence comes from God; it is both a punishment and a moral result of their rejection of the truth (vv. 10, 12). These verses reflect the OT concept that God is sovereign even in the activities of the powers of evil (cf. Ex. 4:21; Josh. 11:20; 1 Kings 22:19–23; 1 Chron. 21:1; cf. 2 Sam. 24:1). The result will be that men will believe what is false, as Satan works through Antichrist.

F Its Relation to Believers, 2:13–17

*2:13 13 [a]But we should always give thanks to God for you, [b]brethren beloved by the Lord, because [c]God has chosen you from the beginning [d]for salvation [e]through sanctification by the Spirit and faith in the truth.

IV EXHORTATIONS TO PRAYER AND DISCIPLINE, 3:1–15

A Paul's Confidence, 3:1–5

3:1 3 [a]Finally, brethren, [b]pray for us that [c]the word of the Lord will spread rapidly and be glorified, just as it did also with you;
a 1 Thess 4:1
b 1 Thess 5:25

B Paul's Commands, 3:6–15

*3:6 6 Now we command you, brethren, [a]in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you [b]keep away from every brother who leads an [c]unruly life and not according to [d]the tradition which you received from us.

*a 2 Thess 3:6

2:13 through sanctification by the Spirit and faith in the truth. God's activity (the Holy Spirit's work of regeneration) and man's responsibility (faith) are equally necessary in salvation.

2:15 the traditions. I.e., all the teachings Paul had shared with the Thessalonians.

2:16–17 Paul's prayer for steadfastness on the part of the Thessalonians closes this crucial section. Notice the closing prayers of this letter: for their lives to be such as could be commended by the Lord (1:11–12), for their love and steadfastness (3:5), and for their peace (3:16).

3:2 perverse and evil men. Those "who did not believe the truth" (2:10–12), Jews and Gentiles, whom Paul encountered in virtually every city he visited. His experiences at Thessalonica are recorded in Acts 17:5–10 and those at Corinth (where he wrote this letter) in Acts 18:6–17.

3:3 But. I.e., in contrast to this wickedness of men.

3:5 steadfastness of Christ. This may refer to our expectation of Christ's coming, or it may mean that the endurance or steadfastness of Christ during His life on earth should be our example.

3:6 who leads an unruly life. Some were not working. Paul had instructed them on this point earlier (1 Thess. 4:1; 5:14).

3:7–10 Paul cites his own example of working so as not to burden others (though he had the right to do so as an apostle).

3:11 In addition to not working, some were busybodies, meddling in the affairs of others.

3:14 do not associate with him. Idlers were to be ostracized from the company of believers in order to shame them into changing their ways. This was not formal excommunication but group disapproval and social ostracism, a serious thing for a believer in a heathen society at that time.

3:15 admonish him. The aim of the discipline was reformation and restoration of the offender.

1 TIMOTHY

INTRODUCTION

AUTHOR: Paul DATE: 63-66

The Pastoral Epistles The two letters to Timothy and the one to Titus are called the "pastoral epistles" because they contain principles for the pastoral care of churches and qualifications for ministers.

Authorship Some have questioned whether Paul himself wrote these letters on the grounds that (1) Paul's travels described in the pastorals do not fit anywhere into the historical account of the book of Acts, (2) the church organization described in them is that of the second century, and (3) the vocabulary and style are significantly different from that of the other Pauline letters. Those who hold to the Pauline authorship reply: (1) there is no compelling reason to believe that Acts contains the complete history of the life of Paul. Since his death is not recorded in Acts, he was apparently released from his first imprisonment in Rome, traveled over the empire for several years (perhaps even to Spain), was rearrested, imprisoned a second time in Rome, and martyred under Nero; (2) nothing in the church organization reflected in the pastorals requires a later date (see Acts 14:23; Phil. 1:1); and (3) the question of authorship cannot be decided solely on the basis of vocabulary without considering how subject matter affects a writer's choice of words. Vocabulary used to describe church organization, for instance, would be expected to be different from that used to teach the doctrine of the Holy Spirit. There is no argument against Pauline authorship that does not have a reasonable answer. And, of course, the letters themselves claim to have been written by Paul.

Background Timothy, the son of a Greek Gentile father and a devout Jewish mother named Eunice, was intimately associated with Paul from the time of the second missionary journey on (2 Tim. 1:5; Acts 16:1–3). When Paul wrote 1 Timothy, probably from Macedonia (1:3), he was on his way to Nicopolis (Titus 3:12), but Timothy had been left in charge of the work in Ephesus and Asia Minor. Though Paul desired to visit Timothy (3:14; 4:13), this letter, in the meantime, would guide Timothy in the conduct of his pastoral responsibilities.

Contents In relation to Timothy personally, the theme is fighting "the good fight" (1:18). In relation to the church corporately, the theme is behaving in the house of God (3:15). Important subjects discussed in the epistle include the law (1:7–11), prayer (2:1–8), appearance and activity of women (2:9–15), qualifications for bishops or elders and for deacons (3:1–13), the last days (4:1–3), care of widows (5:3–16), and use of money (6:6–19).

THE FIRST LETTER OF PAUL TO TIMOTHY

I OPENING GREETINGS, 1:1–2

1 Paul, [a]an apostle of [b]Christ Jesus [c]according to the commandment of [c]God our Savior, and of [b]Christ Jesus, who is our [d]hope,

2 to [a]Timothy, [a]my true child in the faith: [b]Grace, mercy and peace from God the Father and [c]Christ Jesus our Lord.

II INSTRUCTION CONCERNING DOCTRINE, 1:3–20

A Paul's Warning Against False Doctrines, 1:3–11

3 As I urged you upon my departure for [a]Macedonia, remain on at [b]Ephesus so that you may instruct certain men not to [c]teach strange doctrines,

4 nor to pay attention to [a]myths and endless [b]genealogies, which give rise to mere [c]speculation rather than [d]furthering the administration of God which is by faith.

5 But the goal of our [a]instruction is love [b]from a pure heart and a [c]good conscience and a sincere [d]faith.

6 For some men, straying from these things, have turned aside to [a]fruitless discussion,

7 [a]wanting to be [b]teachers of the Law, even though they do not understand either what they are saying or the matters about which they make confident assertions.

8 But we know that [a]the Law is good, if one uses it lawfully,

9 realizing the fact that [a]law is not made for a righteous person, but for those who are lawless and [b]rebellious, for the [c]ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and [d]profane, for those who kill their fathers or mothers, for murderers

10 and [a]immoral men and [b]homosexuals and [c]kidnappers and [d]liars and [e]perjurers, and whatever else is contrary to [f]sound teaching,

11 according to [a]the glorious gospel of [b]the blessed God, with which I have been [c]entrusted.

B Paul's Testimony Concerning the Grace of God, 1:12–17

12 I thank [a]Christ Jesus our Lord, who has [b]strengthened me, because He considered me faithful, [c]putting me into service,

13 even though I was formerly a blasphemer and a [a]persecutor and a violent aggressor. Yet I was [b]shown mercy because [c]I acted ignorantly in unbelief;

14 and the [a]grace of our Lord

1:14 [a]Rom 5:20; 1 Cor 3:10; 2 Cor 4:15; Gal 1:13-16

1:1 apostle. Paul's title of authority, indicating his status above elders and deacons. An apostle had the right to expect obedience from the churches. God our Savior. 1 Timothy (here; 2:3; 4:10) and Titus (Titus 1:3; 2:10; 3:4) especially among NT books continue the OT title "Savior" applied to God, so frequent in the Psalms (e.g., 106:21) and in Isaiah (e.g., 45:21). The title also came to be ascribed to Christ (Phil. 3:20; Titus 1:4).

1:3 my departure for Macedonia. This journey evidently occurred after the close of Acts (see the Introduction to Titus). strange doctrines. I.e., doctrines different from what Paul taught.

1:4 myths and endless genealogies. Mythical legends added to OT history that may have led to Gnostic teachings concerning emanations extending from God to the creation (see discussion of Gnosticism in the Introduction to 1 John).

1:6–7 The teaching of some in the congregation was fruitless discussion (useless talk) though they wanted to be recognized as great teachers of the Law.

1:8 the Law is good. When used lawfully, it restrains evil people.

1:10 sound teaching. Lit., healthy or wholesome doctrine in contrast to false, which is diseased. See also 6:3; 2 Tim. 1:13; 4:3; Titus 1:9, 13; 2:1, 2.

1:12–14 Paul's gratitude was heightened by remembering the kind of man he was before he experienced the grace of Christ.

1:14 was more than abundant, with the [b]faith and love which are found in Christ Jesus.

15 [a]It is a trustworthy statement, deserving full acceptance, that [b]Christ Jesus came into the world to [c]save sinners, among whom [d]I am foremost of all.

16 Yet for this reason I [a]found mercy, so that in me as the foremost, Jesus Christ might [b]demonstrate His perfect patience as an example for those who would believe in Him for eternal life.

17 Now to the [a]King eternal, [b]immortal, [c]invisible, the [d]only God, [e]be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

C Paul's Charge to Timothy, 1:18–20

18 This [a]command I entrust to you, Timothy, [b]my son, in accordance with the [c]prophecies previously made concerning you, that by them you [d]fight the good fight,

19 keeping [a]faith and a good conscience, which some have rejected and suffered shipwreck in regard to [b]their faith.

20 Among these are [a]Hymenaeus and [b]Alexander, whom I have [c]handed over to Satan, so that they will be [d]taught not to blaspheme.

III INSTRUCTION CONCERNING WORSHIP, 2:1–15

A Prayer in the Church, 2:1–8

2 First of all, then, I urge that [a]entreaties and prayers, petitions and thanksgivings, be made on behalf of all men,

2 [a]for kings and all who are in authority, so that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and dignity.

3 This is good and acceptable in the sight of [a]God our Savior,

4 [a]who desires all men to be [b]saved and to [c]come to the knowledge of the truth.

5 For there is [a]one God, and [b]one mediator also between God and men, the [c]man Christ Jesus,

6 who [a]gave Himself as a ransom for all, the [b]testimony given at [c]the proper time.

7 [a]For this I was appointed a preacher and [b]an apostle ([c]I am telling the truth, I am not lying) as a teacher of [d]the Gentiles in faith and truth.

8 Therefore [a]I want the men [b]in every place to pray, [c]lifting up [d]holy hands, without wrath and dissension.

B Women in the Church, 2:9–15

9 Likewise, I want [a]women to

★2:9 [a]1 Pet 3:3

1:15 It is a trustworthy statement. This formula, which introduces an axiomatic truth, appears only in the pastoral letters (here; 3:1; 4:9; 2 Tim. 2:11; Titus 3:8). I am foremost. Paul considered himself the worst of sinners even at the end of his illustrious life.

1:18 Timothy was to be encouraged in the fight by the prophecies made about his fitness for service some time earlier.

1:20 Hymenaeus and Alexander. How they made shipwreck of their faith (v. 19) is not stated, though the false teaching of Hymenaeus is described in 2 Tim. 2:17–18. I have handed over to Satan. A remedial discipline (as in 1 Cor. 5:5), which excluded such persons from the help and fellowship of the church—a kind of last-resort punishment.

2:2 kings. Infamous Nero was in power at this time.

2:4 who desires. An expression of God's wish, not His decree, since not all will be saved, because they refuse to believe.

2:5 one mediator. All other mediators are ruled out in bringing God and man together; Jesus mediates through His death on the cross (Heb. 9:15; 12:24).

2:6 ransom. Lit., a substitute payment. Christ's death in our place (the prepositional prefix on this word means "substitution," as also in Matt. 20:28) paid the ransom for all.

2:8 men. The word means "males" (not females) who are to lead in public prayer. lifting up holy hands. A common posture for prayer and representative of the purity of life that is necessary for proper fellowship in prayer. without wrath and dissension. When these attitudes are present, prayer is impossible.

2:9–10 proper clothing. Respectable and honorable apparel reflects a godly woman's inner life. Elaborate interweaving of the hair with gold and pearls was discouraged; and orderliness, not ostentation, was the standard. good works will be adorn themselves with proper clothing, modestly and discreetly, not with braided hair and gold or pearls or costly garments,

10 but rather by means of good works, as is proper for women making a claim to godliness.

2:11 11 [a]A woman must quietly receive instruction with entire submissiveness.
[a] 1 Cor 14:34; Titus 2:5

2:12 12 [a]But I do not allow a woman to teach or exercise authority over a man, but to remain quiet.
[a] 1 Cor 14:34; Titus 2:5

2:13 13 [a]For it was Adam who was first created, and then Eve.
[a] Gen 2:7,22; 3:16; 1 Cor 11:8ff

2:14 14 And it was not Adam who was deceived, but [a]the woman being deceived, fell into transgression.
[a] Gen 3:6,13; 2 Cor 11:3

2:15 15 But women will be preserved through the bearing of children if they continue in [a]faith and love and sanctity with self-restraint.

IV INSTRUCTION CONCERNING LEADERS, 3:1–16

A Bishops, 3:1–7

3:1 3 [a]It is a trustworthy statement: if any man aspires to the [b]office of overseer, it is a fine work he desires to do.
[a] 1 Tim 1:15
3:1 [b] Acts 20:28; Phil 1:1

2 [a]An overseer, then, must be above reproach, [b]the husband of one wife, [c]temperate, prudent, respectable, [d]hospitable, [e]able to teach,
3:2 [a] 1 Tim 3:2-4; Titus 1:6-8 [b] Luke 2:36f; 1 Tim 5:9; Titus 1:6 [c] 1 Tim 3:8,11; Titus 2:2 [d] Rom 12:13 Titus 1:8; Heb 13:2; 1 Pet 4:9 [e] 2 Tim 2:24

3 [a]not addicted to wine or pugnacious, but gentle, peaceable, [b]free from the love of money.
3:3 [a] Titus 1:7 [b] 1 Tim 3:8; 6:10; Titus 1:7; Heb 13:5

4 He must be one who [a]manages his own household well, keeping his children under control with all dignity
3:4 [a] 1 Tim 3:12

5 (but if a man does not know how to manage his own household, how will he take care of [a]the church of God?),
3:5 [a] 1 Cor 10:32; 1 Tim 3:15

6 and not a new convert, so that he will not become [a]conceited and fall into the [b]condemnation incurred by the devil.
3:6 [a] 1 Tim 6:4; 2 Tim 3:4 [b] 1 Tim 3:7

7 And he must [a]have a good reputation with [b]those outside the church, so that he will not fall into reproach and [c]the snare of the devil.
3:7 [a] 2 Cor 8:21 [b] Mark 4:11 [c] 1 Tim 6:9; 2 Tim 2:26

B Deacons, 3:8–16

8 [a]Deacons likewise must be their ornament.

2:12 I do not allow a woman to teach. Women are not to assume the office of teacher in the church (see 1 Cor. 14:34). Women may teach as long as they do not usurp the place of leadership and authority of men in the church. Older women are specifically entrusted with teaching younger women (Titus 2:3–5). The injunction is based on the relationship of man and woman in the original creation (Gen. 2:18; 3:6).

2:14 Paul is not saying that Adam was blameless (Rom. 5:12–21) but that Eve's being deceived and taking leadership from Adam are reasons for women not assuming the office of teacher. This office in the church involved authoritative teaching of doctrine.

2:15 preserved through the bearing of children. This may mean (1) brought safely through childbirth, (2) saved through the birth of a Child (Jesus the Savior), or (3) that a woman's greatest achievement is found in her devotion to her divinely ordained role: to help her husband, to bear children, and to follow a faithful, chaste way of life.

3:1 overseer, or bishop. Also referred to as an elder in the NT (see Titus 1:5, 7, where the terms are used interchangeably). The elder, the principal official in a local church, was called by the Holy Spirit (Acts 20:28), recognized by other elders (4:14), and qualified according to the standards listed in this passage. His duties included ruling (5:17), pastoring or shepherding the flock (Acts 20:28; 1 Peter 5:2), guarding the truth (Titus 1:9), and general oversight of the work, including finances (Acts 11:30).

3:2 the husband of one wife. Lit., a one-woman man. Some think this means having only one wife at a time, others, only one living wife (see 5:14 and 1 Cor. 7:39, where remarriage of a widow is permitted), but more likely married only once. The reverse phrase, "one-man woman" in 5:9 can only mean "married only once" in the case of the enrolled widow.

3:4–5 The elder's home provides him with a training ground for the exercise of his leadership duties in the church.

3:6 not a new convert. Lest rapid advancement into a place of leadership cause him to become proud.

3:8 Deacons. The word means "minister" or "servant." Deacons were originally the helpers of the elders. Thus their qualifications were practically the same as those for the elders. The office had its beginnings in Jerusalem (Acts 6:1–6). However, the word deacon is used in an unofficial sense throughout the NT of anyone who serves (cf. Eph. 6:21), as well as in an official sense, designating those who occupy the office of deacon (cf.

men of dignity, not double-tongued, [b]or addicted to much wine [c]or fond of sordid gain, 9 [a]but holding to the mystery of the faith with a clear conscience.

10 [a]These men must also first be tested; then let them serve as deacons if they are beyond reproach.

11 Women must likewise be dignified, [a]not malicious gossips, but [b]temperate, faithful in all things.

12 [a]Deacons must be [b]husbands of only one wife, and [c]good managers of their children and their own households.

13 For those who have served well as deacons [a]obtain for themselves a high standing and great confidence in the faith that is in Christ Jesus.

14 I am writing these things to you, hoping to come to you before long;

15 but in case I am delayed, I write so that you will know how one ought to conduct himself in [a]the household of God, which is the [b]church of [c]the living God, the [d]pillar and support of the truth.

16 By common confession, great is [a]the mystery of godliness:

He who was [b]revealed in the flesh,
Was [c]vindicated in the Spirit,
[d]Seen by angels,
[e]Proclaimed among the nations,
[f]Believed on in the world,
[g]Taken up in glory.

V INSTRUCTION CONCERNING DANGERS, 4:1–16

A Description of the Dangers, 4:1–5

4 But [a]the Spirit explicitly says that [b]in later times some will fall away from the faith, paying attention to [c]deceitful spirits and [d]doctrines of demons,

2 by means of the hypocrisy of liars [a]seared in their own conscience as with a branding iron,

3 men who [a]forbid marriage and advocate [b]abstaining from foods which [c]God has created to be [d]gratefully shared in by those who believe and know the truth.

4 For [a]everything created by God is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is [b]received with gratitude;

5 for it is sanctified by means of [a]the word of God and prayer.

B Defenses Against the Dangers, 4:6–16

6 In pointing out these things to [a]the brethren, you will be a good [b]servant of Christ Jesus, constantly nourished on the words of the faith and of the [c]sound doctrine which you [d]have been following.

7 But have nothing to do with Phil. 1:1). not double-tongued. Not hypocritical or spreading differing stories among the congregation.

3:9 the mystery of the faith. I.e., the body of revealed doctrine. Truth must be united to a life lived with a clear conscience.

3:11 Women. Most likely a reference to the wives of the deacons, rather than to a separate office of deaconess, since the qualifications for deacons are continued in verse 12. If he had a different group in mind, it would seem more natural for Paul to have finished the qualifications for deacons before introducing the office of deaconess.

3:12 Same as for elders. See notes on 3:2, 4–5.

3:15 the truth. I.e., the Christian faith.

3:16 This seems to be a summary of the truth contained in what was likely a part of an early Christian hymn. He who was revealed in the flesh refers to the incarnation of Christ (cf. 2 Tim. 1:10; Titus 2:11). vindicated in the Spirit. The vindication of Christ by the Spirit in His resurrection (Rom. 8:11). Taken up in glory. Christ's ascension into heaven.

4:1–5 Paul returns to his attack on heresy. False teaching is inspired by demons and promulgated by means of the hypocrisy of liars. The Christian should live affirmatively, neither renouncing the world for a life of self-denial nor plunging into indulgence (vv. 3–5).

4:3 Both marriage and food are gifts from God to be gratefully used.

4:5 Setting things apart (the meaning of sanctify) by the word and prayer guards the believer from misusing even good things.

4:7 fables . . . for old women. See note on 1:4.

worldly [b]fables fit only for old women. On the other hand, discipline yourself for the purpose of [c]godliness;

8 for [a]bodily discipline is only of little profit, but [b]godliness is profitable for all things, since it [c]holds promise for the [d]present life and also for the life to come.

9 [a]It is a trustworthy statement deserving full acceptance.

10 For it is for this we labor and strive, because we have fixed [a]our hope on [b]the living God, who is [c]the Savior of all men, especially of believers.

11 [a]Prescribe and teach these things.

12 [a]Let no one look down on your youthfulness, but rather in speech, conduct, [b]love, faith and purity, show yourself [c]an example of those who believe.

13 [a]Until I come, give attention to the public [b]reading of Scripture, to exhortation and teaching.

14 Do not neglect the spiritual gift within you, which was bestowed on you through [a]prophetic utterance with [b]the laying on of hands by the [c]presbytery.

15 Take pains with these things; be absorbed in them, so that your progress will be evident to all.

16 [a]Pay close attention to yourself and to your teaching; persevere in these things, for as you do this you will [b]ensure salvation both for yourself and for those who hear you.

VI INSTRUCTION CONCERNING VARIOUS DUTIES, 5:1–6:21

A Toward Those Older and Younger, 5:1–2

5 [a]Do not sharply rebuke an [b]older man, but rather appeal to him as a father, to [c]the younger men as brothers,

2 the older women as mothers, and the younger women as sisters, in all purity.

B Toward Widows, 5:3–16

3 Honor widows who are [a]widows indeed;

4 but if any widow has children or grandchildren, [a]they must first learn to practice piety in regard to their own family and to make some return to their parents; for this is [b]acceptable in the sight of God.

5 Now she who is a [a]widow indeed and who has been left alone, [b]has fixed her hope on God and continues in [c]entreaties and prayers night and day.

6 But she who [a]gives herself to wanton pleasure is [b]dead even while she lives.

7 [a]Prescribe these things as well, so that they may be above reproach.

8 But if anyone does not provide for his own, and especially for those of his household, he has [a]denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.

9 A widow is to be [a]put on the list only if she is not less than

4:8 little. The benefits of bodily training are limited and transient when contrasted with the extensive and permanent benefits of godliness.

4:10 the Savior of all men, in that He paid the ransom for all (2:6), though only believers are born again.

4:12 Timothy was somewhere in his thirties.

4:13 The public reading of the Scriptures was to be accompanied by exhortation (preaching) and teaching.

4:14 On prophecy, see note on 1:18. the presbytery. The body of elders.

5:3–16 Widows, who ordinarily would have no financial means of support, were to be cared for by their families, if possible (v. 4). If support were not available from that source, the church should care for them (in such cases the women were called widows indeed, v. 3). Younger widows were encouraged to remarry (v. 14), but those over 60 and destitute could be placed on the official relief roll of the church (v. 9). These "enrolled widows" constituted a kind of "order of widows," who were expected to devote themselves to prayer and good works (vv. 5, 10).

5:7 The meaning is this: See that these regulations are followed so that both widows and their families will be above criticism in their conduct.

5:8 Providing for one's own relatives, and especially immediate family (household), is a believer's duty.

5:9 Being put on the list apparently meant that the congregation supported them. wife of one man.

sixty years old, having been [b]the wife of one man,

10 having a reputation for [a]good works; and if she has brought up children, if she has [b]shown hospitality to strangers, if she [c]has washed the saints' feet, if she has [d]assisted those in distress, and if she has devoted herself to every good work.

11 But refuse to put younger widows on the list, for when they feel [a]sensual desires in disregard of Christ, they want to get married, 12 thus incurring condemnation, because they have set aside their previous pledge.

13 At the same time they also learn to be idle, as they go around from house to house; and not merely idle, but also [a]gossips and [b]busybodies, talking about [c]things not proper to mention.

14 Therefore, I want younger widows to get [a]married, bear children, [b]keep house, and [c]give the enemy no occasion for reproach;

15 for some [a]have already turned aside to follow [b]Satan.

16 If any woman who is a believer [a]has dependent widows, she must [b]assist them and the church must not be burdened, so that it may assist those who are [c]widows indeed.

C Toward Elders, 5:17–25

17 [a]The elders who [b]rule well are to be considered worthy of double honor, especially those who [c]work hard at preaching and teaching.

18 For the Scripture says, "[a]YOU SHALL NOT MUZZLE THE OX WHILE HE IS THRESHING," and "[b]The laborer is worthy of his wages."

19 Do not receive an accusation against an [a]elder except on the basis of [b]two or three witnesses.

20 Those who continue in sin, [a]rebuke in the presence of all, [b]so that the rest also will be fearful of sinning.

21 [a]I solemnly charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus and of His chosen angels, to maintain these principles without bias, doing nothing in a spirit of partiality.

22 [a]Do not lay hands upon anyone too hastily and thereby share [b]responsibility for the sins of others; keep yourself free from sin.

23 No longer drink water exclusively, but [a]use a little wine for the sake of your stomach and your frequent ailments.

24 The sins of some men are quite evident, going before them to judgment; for others, their sins [a]follow after.

25 Likewise also, deeds that are good are quite evident, and [a]those which are otherwise cannot be concealed.

Lit., one-man woman. Married only once, not remarried. See note on 3:2.

5:10 washed the saints' feet. A menial task to remove dust from sandaled feet. See note on John 13:10.

5:12 Apparently these younger widows had pledged not to remarry.

5:13–14 Rather than becoming idle gossips, younger widows are advised to marry and have children.

5:16 Women as well as men should assume the support of widows in their family (cf. vv. 4, 8).

5:17 double honor. Respect and remuneration (v. 18). Some understand this to mean double pay. In either case the church was beginning to face the problem of financial support of its workers.

5:18 A quotation from Deut. 25:4 and one from Luke 10:7 (written perhaps five years before) are both called Scripture, a term reserved for canonical writings.

5:20 Those who continue in sin. I.e., elders who sin.

5:21 Angels observe what goes on in the church (1 Cor. 11:10).

5:22 lay hands ... too hastily. Often understood as forbidding hasty ordination, it may possibly refer to overhasty receiving of a penitent backslider back into full fellowship.

5:23 use a little wine. The words imply that Timothy was a total abstainer and that the advice is given in relation to a medical problem.

5:24 The sins of some are obvious (going before), whereas those of others are hidden (follow after).

D Toward Masters and Slaves, 6:1–2

6 *a*All who are under the yoke as slaves are to regard their own masters as worthy of all honor so *b*that the name of God and our doctrine will not be spoken against.

2 Those who have believers as their masters must not be disrespectful to them because they are *a*brethren, but must serve them all the more, because those who partake of the benefit are believers and beloved. *b*Teach and preach these principles.

E Toward False Teachers, 6:3–5

3 If anyone *a*advocates a different doctrine and does not agree with *b*sound words, those of our Lord Jesus Christ, and with the doctrine *c*conforming to godliness,

4 he is *a*conceited and understands nothing; but he has a morbid interest in *b*controversial questions and *c*disputes about words, out of which arise envy, strife, abusive language, evil suspicions,

5 and constant friction between *a*men of depraved mind and deprived of the truth, who *b*suppose that godliness is a means of gain.

F Toward Money and Godliness, 6:6–19

6 *a*But godliness actually is a means of *b*great gain when accompanied by *c*contentment.

7 For *a*we have brought nothing into the world, so we cannot take anything out of it either.

8 If we *a*have food and covering, with these we shall be content.

9 *a*But those who want to get rich fall into temptation and *b*a snare and many foolish and harmful desires which plunge men into ruin and destruction.

10 For *a*the love of money is a root of all sorts of evil, and some by longing for it have *b*wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many griefs.

11 But *a*flee from these things, you *b*man of God, and pursue righteousness, godliness, *c*faith, *d*love, perseverance and gentleness.

12 *a*Fight the good fight of *b*faith; *c*take hold of the eternal life *d*to which you were called, and you made the good *e*confession in the presence of *f*many witnesses.

13 *a*I charge you in the presence of God, who gives life to all things, and of *b*Christ Jesus, who testified the *c*good confession *d*before Pontius Pilate,

14 that you keep the commandment without stain or reproach until the *a*appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ,

15 which He will bring about at *a*the proper time—He who is *b*the blessed and *c*only Sover-

6:1–2 The problems of the master-slave relationship are discussed in 1 Cor. 7:21; Eph. 6:5–9; Col. 3:22–4:1; Titus 2:9–10; and Philem. 10–17. The NT writers do not question the institution of slavery but try to mitigate it through improved attitudes of both masters and slaves. In the church, they met on equal terms as members of the fellowship, though there may have been instances when slaves were elders and thus, in the church, were over masters whom they served all week. See note on Col. 3:22–23.

6:4–5 Again heretical teachers are excoriated. Perhaps they charged fees (v. 5).

6:6 In contrast to the material gain of the heretics (v. 5), the Christian finds his gain of a nonfinancial sort, godliness and contentment, or self-sufficiency, which results from an inner satisfaction with the situation that God has ordained for him.

6:10 pierced themselves. Their love of money brought pangs of conscience, disillusionment, and barrenness.

6:12 made the good confession. Timothy's public confession of Christ at his baptism.

6:15 This (His "appearing," v. 14) will be manifest at the proper time by the blessed and only Sovereign. In other words, the return of Christ (v. 14) will occur at the time ordered and appointed by God.

2 TIMOTHY

INTRODUCTION

AUTHOR: Paul DATE: 67

Authorship See Introduction to 1 Timothy.

Background See Introduction to Titus under "Probable Order of Events." Paul, imprisoned in Rome as the result of persecution under Nero, realized, when he wrote this letter, that his death was near (1:8, 16; 4:6–8). Alone and cold in his dungeon (4:10–12), the veteran missionary wrote to his young son in the faith this intensely personal letter. Soon afterward, according to tradition, he was beheaded on the Ostian Way, west of Rome.

Contents The theme may be taken from 2:3, "a good soldier of Christ Jesus." Important subjects mentioned include the apostasy of the last days (3:1–9; cf. 1 Tim. 4:1–3), the inspiration of the Scriptures (3:16), and the crown of righteousness (4:8).

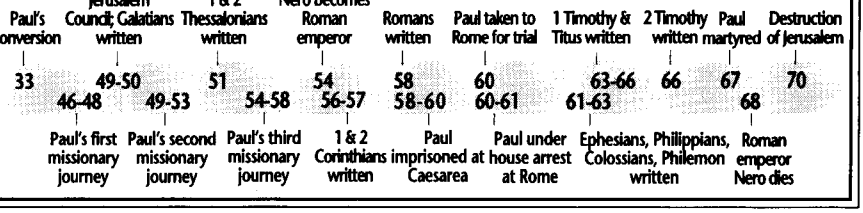
TIMELINE OF 2 TIMOTHY



THE SECOND LETTER OF PAUL TO TIMOTHY

I THE SALUTATION, 1:1–2

1 Paul, [a]an apostle of [b]Christ Jesus [c]by the will of God, according to the promise of [d]life in Christ Jesus,

2 to [a]Timothy, my beloved [b]son: [c]Grace, mercy and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

II THE EXPRESSION OF THANKS FOR TIMOTHY, 1:3–7

3 [a]I thank God, whom I [b]serve with a [c]clear conscience the way my forefathers did, [d]as I constantly remember you in my prayers night and day,

4 [a]longing to see you, [b]even as I recall your tears, so that I may be filled with joy.

5 For I am mindful of the [a]sincere faith within you, which first dwelt in your grandmother Lois and [b]your mother Eunice, and I am sure that it is in you as well.

6 For this reason I remind you to kindle afresh [a]the gift of God which is in you through [a]the laying on of my hands.

7 For God has not given us a [a]spirit of timidity, but of power and love and discipline.

III THE CALL OF A SOLDIER OF CHRIST, 1:8–18

A A Call to Courage, 1:8–12

8 Therefore [a]do not be ashamed of the [b]testimony of our Lord or of me [c]His prisoner, but join with me in [d]suffering for the [e]gospel according to the power of God,

9 who has [a]saved us and [b]called us with a holy [c]calling, [d]not according to our works, but according to His own [b]purpose and grace which was granted us in [e]Christ Jesus from [f]all eternity,

10 but [a]now has been revealed by the [b]appearing of our Savior [c]Christ Jesus, who [d]abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel,

1:1 life in Christ Jesus. I.e., in union with Christ Jesus.

1:3 Paul's Jewish forefathers taught him to serve the true God.

1:4 your tears. Possibly those shed at some parting, such as in Acts 20:37; or perhaps a reference to tears Paul knows Timothy has shed in the course of his service for Christ.

1:5 Lois is mentioned nowhere else. your mother Eunice. See Acts 16:1. Apparently both women had been converted under Paul's ministry.

1:6 Paul was evidently included with the elders who ordained Timothy (1 Tim. 1:18; 4:14). Timothy's responsibility was to keep rekindling his spiritual gift.

1:7 timidity. See John 14:27 and Rev. 21:8, where similar words occur. The believer is to have fear in the sense of awe (1 Peter 1:17; 2:17) but not cowardice.

1:8 the testimony of our Lord. I.e., testifying, including by suffering, to our Lord.

1:9–10 Made in eternity past, God's plan for salvation was revealed at the incarnation of Christ.

a preacher and an apostle and a teacher.

12 For this reason I also suffer these things, but [a]I am not ashamed; for I know [b]whom I have believed and I am convinced that He is able to [c]guard what I have entrusted to Him until [d]that day.

B A Call to Faithfulness, 1:13–18

13 [a]Retain the [b]standard of [c]sound words [d]which you have heard from me, in the [e]faith and love which are in [f]Christ Jesus.

14 Guard, through the Holy Spirit who [a]dwells in us, the [b]treasure which has been entrusted to you.

15 You are aware of the fact that all who are in [a]Asia [b]turned away from me, among whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord grant mercy to [a]the house of Onesiphorus, for he often refreshed me and [b]was not ashamed of my [c]chains;

17 but when he was in Rome, he eagerly searched for me and found me—

18 the Lord grant to him to find mercy from the Lord on [a]that day—and you know very well what services he rendered at [b]Ephesus.

IV THE CHARACTER OF A SOLDIER OF CHRIST, 2:1–26

A He Is Strong, 2:1–2

2 You therefore, my [a]son, [b]be strong in the grace that is in [c]Christ Jesus.

2 The things [a]which you have heard from me in the presence of [b]many witnesses, [c]entrust these to [d]faithful men who will be [e]able to teach others also.

B He Is Single-minded, 2:3–4

3 [a]Suffer hardship with me, as a good [b]soldier of [c]Christ Jesus.

4 No soldier in active service [a]entangles himself in the affairs of everyday life, so that he may please the one who enlisted him as a soldier.

C He Is Strict, 2:5–10

5 Also if anyone [a]competes as an athlete, he does not win the prize unless he competes according to the rules.

6 [a]The hard-working farmer ought to be the first to receive his share of the crops.

7 Consider what I say, for the

2:5 a 1 Cor 9:25

2:6 a 1 Cor 9:10

1:12 whom I have believed. I.e., on whose trustworthiness I have staked my faith. what I have entrusted. Lit., the deposit. Paul's trust is well founded, for God will preserve this deposit of faith in Christ until the Day of Judgment, when all dangers will be past. Some understand this to refer to God's deposit of gifts in Paul's life (as in v. 14 and 1 Tim. 6:20).

1:13 sound words. Lit., healthy teaching. See note on 1 Tim. 1:10 for other uses of this word.

1:14 the treasure. Lit., the good deposit; i.e., the gospel.

1:15 all who are in Asia. Some who could have helped Paul apparently had declined to do so. Asia was the Roman province embracing the western part of what is now called Asia Minor (Turkey). Timothy was in Ephesus, the capital. Phygelus and Hermogenes were a special disappointment to Paul and were known to Timothy.

1:16–18 Onesiphorus, who had ministered to Paul in Ephesus, sought him out in the dungeon where Paul was confined in Rome and ministered to him.

2:1 This verse seems to sum up the teaching of chap. 1: Timothy, you have the gift of power from God through Christ (1:7); now find your strength in this gift of grace.

2:2 heard from me. The content of Paul's teaching is not stated but was clearly understood by Timothy. many witnesses. Perhaps the elders at Timothy's ordination or, more likely, the many who had at different times heard Paul's preaching.

2:4 entangles. A minister must put priority on his calling and be completely dedicated to his task and his Commander.

2:5 The picture in this verse is of an athlete who must play according to the rules. A minister must adhere to the requirements of his calling, making the Word and will of God his standard in all things.

2:6 The hard-working farmer receives the first share of the crops, just as the dedicated soldier is approved by his commander (v. 3) and the trained athlete wins (v. 5).

2:7 Consider. If they would reflect on his Lord will give you understanding in everything.

8 Remember Jesus Christ, [a]risen from the dead, [b]descendant of David, [c]according to my gospel,

9 for which I [a]suffer hardship even to [b]imprisonment as a [c]criminal; but [d]the word of God [e]is not imprisoned.

10 For this reason [a]I endure all things for [b]the sake of those who are chosen, [c]so that they also may obtain the [d]salvation which is in [e]Christ Jesus and with it [f]eternal glory.

D He Is Secure, 2:11–13

11 [a]It is a trustworthy statement:

For [b]if we died with Him,
we will also live with Him;

12 If we endure, [a]we will also reign with Him;
If we [b]deny Him, He also will deny us;

13 If we are faithless, [a]He remains faithful, for [b]He cannot deny Himself.

E He Is Sound of Faith, 2:14–19

14 Remind them of these things, and solemnly [a]charge them in the presence of God not to [b]wrangle about words, which is useless and leads to the ruin of the hearers.

15 Be diligent to [a]present yourself approved to God as a workman who does not need to be ashamed, accurately handling [b]the word of truth.

16 But [a]avoid [b]worldly and empty chatter, for it will lead to further ungodliness,

17 and their talk will spread like gangrene. Among them are [a]Hymenaeus and Philetus, 18 men who have gone astray from the truth saying that [a]the resurrection has already taken place, and they upset [b]the faith of some.

19 Nevertheless, the [a]firm foundation of God stands, having this [b]seal, "[c]The Lord knows those who are His," and, "[d]Everyone who names the name of the Lord is to abstain from wickedness."

F He Is Sanctified, 2:20–23

20 Now in a large house there are not only gold and silver vessels, but also vessels of wood and of earthenware, and [a]some to honor and some to dishonor.

21 Therefore, if anyone cleanses himself from [a]these things, he will be a vessel for honor, sanctified, useful to the Master, [b]prepared for every good work.

22 Now [a]flee from youthful teachings (in the previous verses), Christ would open up for them depths of meaning.

2:10 For this reason. I.e., because the Word of God remains unimprisoned (v. 9).

2:11 died. Perhaps a reference to the crucifixion of the sin nature, as in Gal. 2:20, or a reference to physical death. I.e., if we die physically, we shall be raised physically.

2:12 If we endure in this life, we shall reign in our glorified state. Those who deny are professing people who will in turn be disowned by Him (Matt. 10:33; 2 John 9).

2:13 If we are faithless, He remains faithful. A statement of the consistency of God's character, a strong promise to the believer of the security of his salvation even though he may lose all rewards (see 1 Cor. 3:15).

2:14 Do not wrangle about words. I.e., do not indulge in word battles, wordy controversies, and quibbling about words. These are not only profitless but harmful to those who hear them.

2:15 accurately handling. I.e., correctly handling the Word of God in both analysis and presentation—in contrast to the inane interpretations of false teachers.

2:17 Hymenaeus and Philetus. These troublemakers (Hymenaeus is also mentioned in 1 Tim. 1:20) were probably teaching that the doctrine of the resurrection had only an allegorical or spiritual meaning. Gnostic teaching conceived of resurrection allegorically, as referring to acquaintance with truth and as occurring at baptism.

2:19 seal. A mark of authentication and ownership.

2:20–21 There will be some wicked persons (vessels of wood and of earthenware) in every church, but no one need remain wicked (v. 21).

2:22 lusts. Not only for immoral but also foolish things. Temptation is to be avoided by fleeing what hinders, by following what helps, and by lusts and pursue righteousness, [b]faith, love and peace, with those who [c]call on the Lord [d]from a pure heart.

23 But refuse foolish and ignorant [a]speculations, knowing that they [b]produce quarrels.

G He Is a Servant, 2:24–26

24 [a]The Lord's bond-servant must not be quarrelsome, but be kind to all, [b]able to teach, patient when wronged,

25 [a]with gentleness correcting those who are in opposition, [b]if perhaps God may grant them repentance leading to [c]the knowledge of the truth,

26 and they may come to their senses and escape from [a]the snare of the devil, having been [b]held captive by him to do his will.

V THE CAUTION FOR A SOLDIER OF CHRIST, 3:1–17

A The Peril of Apostasy, 3:1–9

3 But realize this, that [a]in the last days difficult times will come.

2 For men will be [a]lovers of self, [b]lovers of money, [c]boastful, [d]arrogant, [e]revilers, [f]disobedient to parents, [g]ungrateful, [h]unholy,

3 [a]unloving, irreconcilable, [b]malicious gossips, without self-control, brutal, [c]haters of good,

4 [a]treacherous, [b]reckless, [c]conceited, [d]lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God,

5 holding to a form of [a]godliness, although they have [b]denied its power; [c]Avoid such men as these.

6 For among them are those who [a]enter into households and captivate [b]weak women weighed down with sins, led on by [c]various impulses,

7 always learning and never able to [a]come to the knowledge of the truth.

8 Just as [a]Jannes and Jambres [b]opposed Moses, so these men also oppose the truth, [c]men of depraved mind, rejected in regard to the faith.

9 But they will not make further progress; for their [a]folly will be obvious to all, just [b]as Jannes' and Jambres' folly was also.

B The Protection from Apostasy, 3:10–17

10 But you [a]followed my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, patience, [b]love, perseverance,

11 [a]persecutions, and [b]sufferings, such as happened to me at [c]Antioch, at [d]Iconium and at [e]Lystra; what [f]persecutions I endured, and out of them all [g]the Lord rescued me!

12 Indeed, all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus [a]will be persecuted.

13 But evil men and impostors seeking the company of spiritual people.

2:24–26 The purpose of gentle and patient correction is remedial: (1) to bring repentance; (2) to acknowledge the truth; and (3) to release from Satan's trap.

2:26 held captive. I.e., by Satan at Satan's will (see Eph. 2:3). Some understand this to mean "release from Satan to do His (God's) will."

3:1 in the last days. The whole period between the writing of this letter and the Lord's return. As His return draws near, these characteristics will intensify (see 1 Tim. 4:1–5). The description that follows (vv. 2–9) is of mass corruption, of a breakdown of law and tradition.

3:3 brutal. The Greek word is really a noun meaning "untamed beasts."

3:5 holding to a form of godliness. Having the outer semblance of it without its spiritual dynamic.

3:6–7 weak women. These women, apparently because of sin, were changeable of mind, prone to accept new ideas, and swayed by impulses. They were never able to come to a saving knowledge of Christ.

3:8 Jannes and Jambres. Though these names do not appear in the OT, in late Jewish, pagan, and certain early Christian writings they are applied to the Egyptian magicians who performed counterfeit miracles in opposition to Moses (Ex. 7:11, 22). They are symbols of the folly of opposing the truth.

3:11 persecutions. See Acts 13–14.

3:12 To live godly apparently involves an aggressive witness such as that Paul gave at the places listed in verse 11.

3:13 [a]will proceed from bad to worse, [b]deceiving and being deceived.

14 You, however, [a]continue in the things you have learned and become convinced of, knowing from whom you have learned them,

15 and that [a]from childhood you have known [b]the sacred writings which are able to [c]give you the wisdom that leads to [d]salvation through faith which is in [e]Christ Jesus.

16 [a]All Scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness;

17 so that [a]the man of God may be adequate, [b]equipped for every good work.

VI THE CHARGE TO A SOLDIER OF CHRIST, 4:1–5

4 [a]I solemnly charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to [b]judge the living and the dead, and by His [c]appearing and His kingdom:

2 preach [a]the word; be ready in season and out of season; [b]reprove, rebuke, exhort, with great [c]patience and instruction.

3 For [a]the time will come when they will not endure [b]sound doctrine; but wanting to have their ears tickled, they will accumulate for themselves teachers in accordance to their own desires,

4 and [a]will turn away their ears from the truth and [b]will turn aside to myths.

5 But you, [a]be sober in all things, [b]endure hardship, do the work of an [c]evangelist, fulfill your [d]ministry.

VII THE COMFORT OF A SOLDIER OF CHRIST, 4:6–18

A A Good Finish to Life, 4:6–7

6 For I am already being [a]poured out as a drink offering, and the time of [b]my departure has come.

7 [a]I have fought the good fight, I have finished [b]the course, I have kept [c]the faith;

B A Good Future After Life, 4:8

8 in the future there [a]is laid up for me [b]the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on [c]that day; and not only to

---

3:16 All Scripture is inspired (lit., God-breathed). I.e., the Bible came from God through the men who wrote it (see 2 Peter 1:21). God superintended these human authors so that, using their individual personalities, they composed and recorded without error God's Word to man. Christ attested to the fact that inspiration extends to the very words. See notes on Matt. 5:18 and John 10:35. In the same verse, Paul quoted Deuteronomy and Luke as Scripture. See note on 1 Tim. 5:18. Peter declared Paul's epistles to be Scripture. See note on 2 Peter 3:16. Inspiration does not involve mechanical dictation but the accurate recording of God's words. Inspiration does not extend beyond the original mss., though the texts we possess today have been transmitted with high accuracy. Scripture is useful for teaching, reproof (rebuking those in sin), correction of those in error, and training in righteousness.

3:17 The purpose of the proper use of Scripture is that the man of God may be equipped—thoroughly equipped for every good work.

4:1 His appearing and His kingdom. When Christ appears, He will inaugurate the judgment and His faithful will be gathered into His kingdom.

4:2 be ready in season and out of season. I.e., always be ready, whether the time is opportune for preaching the gospel or not.

4:3–4 A description of people who were no longer content to hear the sound teaching of Paul, but who were impelled to turn to many different teachers of novelty and untruth.

4:5 be sober. The word means "abstain from wine," thus, metaphorically, "sober in judgment" (cf. 1 Tim. 3:2). In his pastoral work Timothy was not to forget to evangelize the unsaved.

4:6 poured out as a drink offering. See note on Lev. 23:10–14. Paul viewed his death as pouring out his life as an offering to God. departure = release. I.e., his death. Paul knew that this time he would not be freed.

4:7 the faith. I.e., the recognized body of Christian doctrine (cf. Jude 3). Paul kept the faith in two senses: he was obedient to it, and he passed it on as he received it.

4:8 laid up. I.e., safely kept. crown of righteousness. One of the rewards (prizes) offered Christians, in this case for loving the coming of Christ. See note on 1 Cor. 3:14.

4:8 me, but also to [d]all who have loved His [e]appearing.

18 The Lord will rescue me from every evil deed, and will [a]bring me safely to His [b]heavenly kingdom; [c]to Him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

4:9–22 After a climactic testimony (vv. 6–8), Paul returns to treat worrisome, immediate personnel affairs.

4:10 Why Demas deserted Paul is not known.

4:11 Mark and Paul had overcome the differences that caused their earlier separation (Acts 15:36–41).

4:13 cloak to protect from the cold and damp of his dungeon. the books. Papyrus rolls. the parchments. Skins of vellum, used for more precious documents, in this case probably Paul's personal copies of portions of the OT. This missionary-prisoner still wanted to study!

4:14 Alexander. Possibly not the same as the one mentioned in 1 Tim. 1:20. We may infer from verse 15 that he may have caused the arrest of Paul in some city, that he was still active, and that he was hostile to Paul's teachings.

4:16 my first defense. I.e., the preliminary hearing with which Paul's final trial opened.

4:17 rescued out of the lion's mouth. Paul was not immediately condemned then and was spared from execution.

4:19 Prisca and Aquila. Devoted friends of Paul (Acts 18:2, 26; Rom. 16:3; 1 Cor. 16:19). Onesiphorus. See note on 1:16–18.

4:20 Trophimus I left sick. This happening cannot be fitted into Acts and thus indicates two imprisonments in Rome for Paul. Trophimus was an Ephesian (Acts 20:4; 21:29).

4:21 At least the four persons named here had not deserted Paul (v. 16). Nothing more is known of them.

TITUS

INTRODUCTION

AUTHOR: Paul DATE: 63-66

Authorship See the Introduction to 1 Timothy.

Historical Background The probable order of significant events is this: (1) Paul was released from his house arrest in Rome (where we find him at the end of Acts), probably because his accusers did not choose to press their charges against him before Caesar (Acts 24:1; 28:30). Their case, therefore, was lost by default, and Paul was freed. (2) Paul visited Ephesus, left Timothy there to supervise the churches, and went on to Macedonia (northern Greece). (3) From there he wrote 1 Timothy (1 Tim. 1:3). (4) He visited Crete, left Titus there to supervise those churches, and went to Nicopolis in Achaia (southern Greece, Titus 3:12). (5) Either from Macedonia or Nicopolis, he wrote this letter to encourage Titus. (6) He visited Troas (2 Tim. 4:13), where he was suddenly arrested, taken to Rome, imprisoned, and finally beheaded. (7) From Rome, during this second imprisonment, he wrote 2 Timothy.

Titus A Gentile by birth (Gal. 2:3), Titus was converted through the ministry of Paul (Titus 1:4). He accompanied Paul to Jerusalem at the time of the apostolic council (Acts 15:2; Gal. 2:1–3). He was Paul's emissary to the church at Corinth during the third missionary journey (2 Cor. 7:6–7; 8:6, 16). Titus and two others took the letter we call 2 Corinthians to Corinth and urged the Corinthians to make good their promise to give to the poor in Jerusalem. Paul left Titus in Crete to use his administrative gifts to consolidate the work there. Artemas or Tychicus probably relieved Titus in Crete so he could join Paul in Nicopolis (Titus 3:12), from where Paul sent him to Dalmatia, the former Yugoslavia (2 Tim. 4:10). Tradition says he returned to Crete and died there.

Contents Important topics discussed in the letter include qualifications for elders (1:5–9), instructions to various age groups (2:1–8), relationship to government (3:1–2), and the relation of regeneration to human works and to the Spirit (3:5).

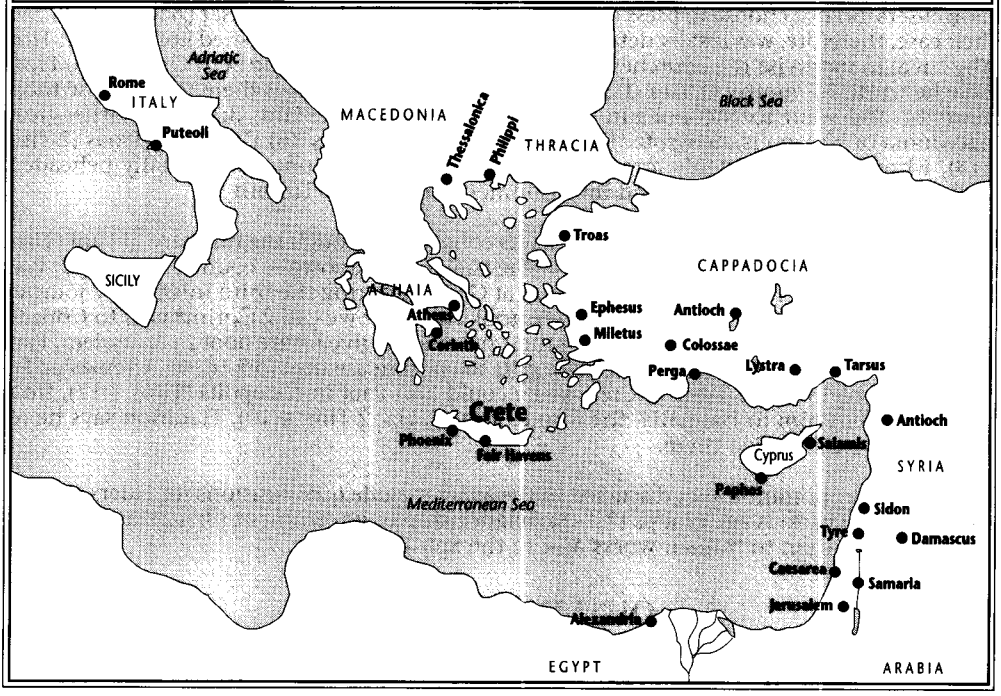
ISLAND OF CRETE AND ITS WORLD



THE LETTER OF PAUL TO TITUS

I OPENING GREETINGS, 1:1–4

1 Paul, [a]a bond-servant of God and an [b]apostle of Jesus Christ, for the faith of those [c]chosen of God and [d]the knowledge of the truth which is [e]according to godliness,

2 in [a]the hope of eternal life, which God, [b]who cannot lie, [c]promised [d]long ages ago,

3 but [a]at the proper time manifested, even His word, in [b]the proclamation [c]with which I was entrusted [d]according to the commandment of [e]God our Savior,

4 to [a]Titus, [b]my true child in a [c]common faith: [d]Grace and peace from God the Father and [e]Christ Jesus our Savior.

II ELDERS IN THE CHURCH, 1:5–9

A Their Desirability, 1:5

5 For this reason I left you in [a]Crete, that you would set in order what remains and [b]appoint [c]elders in every city as I directed you,

B Their Qualifications, 1:6–9

6 namely, [a]if any man is above reproach, the [b]husband of one wife, having children who believe, not accused of [c]dissipation or [d]rebellion.

7 For the [a]overseer must be above reproach as [b]God's steward, not [c]self-willed, not quick-tempered, not [d]addicted to wine, not pugnacious, [e]not fond of sordid gain,

8 but [a]hospitable, [b]loving what is good, sensible, just, devout, self-controlled,

9 [a]holding fast the faithful word which is in accordance with the teaching, so that he will be able both to exhort in [b]sound doctrine and to refute those who contradict.

III OFFENDERS IN THE CHURCH, 1:10–16

10 [a]For there are many [b]rebellious men, [c]empty talkers and deceivers, especially [d]those of the circumcision,

11 who must be silenced because they are upsetting [a]whole families, teaching [b]things they should not teach [c]for the sake of sordid gain.

12 One of themselves, a prophet of their own, said, "[a]Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons."

13 This testimony is true. For this reason [a]reprove them [b]se-

1:1 for the faith . . . according to godliness. Paul was commissioned to further the faith of God's elect so that they might acquire full knowledge of Christian truth.

1:4 Titus. He is not mentioned in Acts, but NT references to Titus's activities are found in 2 Cor. 2:13; 7:5–7, 13–14; 8:6, 16–17, 23; 12:18; Gal. 2:1, 3; 2 Tim. 4:10. child. A term of affection used also by Paul of Timothy and Onesimus.

1:5 what remains. A church is defective unless it has constituted leaders. In Crete these were appointed (= ordained) by Titus. See note on the elders at 1 Tim. 3:1.

1:6 husband of one wife. Lit., one-woman man. Wherever mentioned in the NT, elders are seen as being married and as having children. Some think this phrase means "one wife at a time," others "one living wife"; but most likely it means "only one wife." (See 1 Tim. 5:9, where the similar phrase can only support the latter.) See also 1 Cor. 7:39 and 1 Tim. 5:14, where remarriage of a widow is permitted. children who believe. May mean "believing children" as translated here, or "faithful children," even though unbelievers.

1:7 overseer. Used interchangeably with "elder," emphasizing function. In Greek cities of the first century A.D. the vices described here were common.

1:9 sound doctrine. Lit., healthy doctrine. See note on 1 Tim. 1:10. Good doctrine always results in good practice, and good practice is always based on good doctrine.

1:10 those of the circumcision. The group that required keeping the law for salvation and/or sanctification (Gal. 2:12). They also were interested in money (v. 11), held to Jewish myths (v. 14), and encouraged asceticism (vv. 14–15).

1:12 Quoted from the Cretan poet Epimenides, who exaggerated for effect. To Cretanize was to lie.

IV OPERATION OF THE CHURCH, 2:1–3:11

A Duties of the Minister, 2:1–10

*2:1 [a] Titus 1:9

2 But as for you, speak the things which are fitting for [a]sound doctrine.

*2:2 [a] Philem 9 [b] 1 Tim 3:2 [c] Titus 1:13 [d] 1 Tim 1:2,14

2 [a]Older men are to be [b]temperate, dignified, sensible, [c]sound [d]in faith, in love, in perseverance.

*2:3 [a] 1 Tim 3:11 [b] 1 Tim 3:8

3 Older women likewise are to be reverent in their behavior, [a]not malicious gossips nor [b]enslaved to much wine, teaching what is good,

4 so that they may encourage the young women to love their husbands, to love their children,

2:5 [a] 1 Tim 5:14 [b] Eph 5:22 [c] 1 Tim 6:1

5 to be sensible, pure, [a]workers at home, kind, being [b]subject to their own husbands, [c]so that the word of God will not be dishonored.

6 Likewise urge [a]the young men to be sensible;

*2:6 [a] 1 Tim 5:1

7 in all things show yourself to be [a]an example of good deeds, with purity in doctrine, dignified,

2:7 [a] 1 Tim 4:12

8 sound in speech which is beyond reproach, so [a]that the opponent will be put to shame, having nothing bad to say about us.

*2:8 [a] 2 Thess 3:14; 1 Pet 2:12

9 Urge [a]bondslaves to be subject to their own masters in everything, to be well-pleasing, not argumentative,

*2:9 [a] Eph 6:5; 1 Tim 6:1

10 not pilfering, but showing all good faith so that they will adorn the doctrine of [a]God our Savior in every respect.

11 For the grace of God has [a]appeared, [b]bringing salvation to all men,

12 instructing us to deny ungodliness and [a]worldly desires and [b]to live sensibly, righteously and godly [c]in the present age,

13 looking for the blessed hope and the [a]appearing of the glory of [b]our great God and Savior, Christ Jesus,

14 who [a]gave Himself for us [b]to redeem us from every lawless deed, and to [c]purify for Himself a [d]people for His own possession, [e]zealous for good deeds.

1:14 Jewish myths. Speculations, of a Gnostic sort, supposedly based on OT Scripture. For Gnosticism, see the Introduction to 1 John.

1:15 Purity is an internal matter, of the mind and conscience, not external. See Luke 11:41.

1:16 worthless. Tested and found unfit, disapproved (1 Cor. 9:27).

2:1 But. I.e., in contrast to false teachers. sound doctrine. Lit., healthy teaching (as in 1:9, 13; 2:2), that which causes behavior to be in accord with belief.

2:2 Older men need to set a good example. temperate. Wineless and thus sober in judgment. See note on 2 Tim. 4:5. sensible. Self-controlled.

2:3 malicious gossips. Apparently some of the older women were given to gossiping and drinking.

2:4–5 A list of things that should be a young wife and mother's priorities. workers at home. Not busybodies. being subject. Under the leadership of the husband (Eph. 5:22; Col. 3:18). that the word of God will not be dishonored. Failure to observe the matters mentioned in this verse would expose the Word of God to contempt by the world.

2:6–8 Titus, close to 40, but still considered a young man himself, was to be an example to other young men in his life and teaching.

2:8 sound in speech. Lit., healthy speech.

2:9 On slavery, see note on Col. 3:22–23.

2:11 appeared. The tense of the verb indicates a reference to the Incarnation, Christ's first appearing.

2:12 ungodliness = irreverence. worldly desires. I.e., passions, overpowering attractions for the secular world.

2:13 blessed hope. Christ's second coming.

2:14 redeem us from every lawless deed. I.e., release us from the bondage of sin. See note on redemption at Eph. 1:7.

2:15 a1 Tim 4:13; 5:20; 2 Tim 4:2 b1 Tim 4:12

15 These things speak and [a]exhort and [a]reprove with all authority. [b]Let no one disregard you.

V PERSONAL MESSAGES AND GREETINGS, 3:12–15

*3:12 aActs 20:4; Eph 6:21f; Col 4:7f; 2 Tim 4:12 b2 Tim 4:9 c2 Tim 4:21

12 When I send Artemas or [a]Tychicus to you, [b]make every effort to come to me at Nicopolis, for I have decided to [c]spend the winter there.

*3:13 aMatt 22:35 bActs 18:24; 1 Cor 16:12

13 Diligently help Zenas the [a]lawyer and [b]Apollos on their way so that nothing is lacking for them.

3:1 be subject = to submit or subject oneself. The same Greek word is used in Rom. 13:1 and 1 Peter 2:13. rulers . . . authorities usually refer to angels (good angels as in Eph. 3:10 or evil angels as in Eph. 6:12), but here the reference is to human, governmental rulers. Though Christians are a "special" people elected by God, redeemed from the world and no longer dependent upon it, they are not above the necessity of getting along with the civil authorities who govern them. When Paul wrote this, Nero had become an evil ruler.

3:2 to be peaceable. Quarreling only arouses the hostility of non-Christians. Christian virtues are of an opposite sort.

3:5 not . . . but. Personal salvation is not achieved through good deeds but through the cleansing of the new birth. renewing by the Holy Spirit means either the initial act of conversion or, possibly, continual renewing by the Spirit throughout the life of the believer. In any case, salvation is God's gracious work, not a reward for man's worthwhile acts.

3:7 On justification, see note on Rom. 3:24.

3:8 these things. I.e., the counsels of verses 1–7. engage in good deeds probably has the general meaning of "apply oneself to good deeds," though the phrase may have the technical meaning of "enter honorable occupations."

3:9 Teachings of the circumcision party. See note on 1:10.

3:10 factious. One who willfully chooses for himself and sets up a faction (see 1 Cor. 11:19; Gal. 5:20). Our responsibility is to reprimand such a person twice, then avoid him if he does not change.

3:11 perverted. Turned aside, and hence, self-condemned.

3:12 Artemas. Nothing more is known of him. Tychicus. See Acts 20:4; Eph. 6:21; Col. 4:7; 2 Tim. 4:12.

3:13 Zenas. Nothing more is known of him. Apollos. The well-known associate of Paul.

PHILEMON

INTRODUCTION

AUTHOR: Paul DATE: 61

Background Like Ephesians, Philippians, and Colossians, Philemon is one of the Prison Epistles, written during Paul's first confinement in Rome. Onesimus, one of the millions of slaves in the Roman Empire, had stolen from his master, Philemon, and had run away. Eventually, he made his way to Rome, where he crossed the path of the apostle Paul, who led him to faith in Christ (v. 10). Now Onesimus was faced with doing His Christian duty toward his master by returning to him. Since death would normally have been his punishment, Paul wrote this wonderful letter of intercession on Onesimus's behalf.

Philemon was not the only slave holder in the Colossian church (see Col. 4:1), so this letter gave guidelines for other Christian masters in their relationships to their slave-brothers. Paul did not deny the rights of Philemon over his slave, but he asked Philemon to relate the principle of Christian brotherhood to the situation with Onesimus (v. 16). At the same time, Paul offered to pay personally whatever Onesimus owed. This letter is not an attack against slavery as such, but a suggestion as to how Christian masters and slaves could live their faith within that evil system. It is possible that Philemon did free Onesimus and send him back to Paul (v. 14). It has also been suggested that Onesimus became a minister and later bishop of the church at Ephesus (Ignatius, To the Ephesians, 1).

This is the most personal of all Paul's letters.

THE LETTER OF PAUL TO PHILEMON

I GREETINGS, 1–3

1 [a]Paul, [b]a prisoner of [c]Christ Jesus, and [d]Timothy our brother, to Philemon our beloved brother and [e]fellow worker,

2 and to Apphia [a]our sister, and to [b]Archippus our [c]fellow soldier, and to [d]the church in your house:

3 [a]Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

II PRAISE OF PHILEMON, 4–7

4 [a]I thank my God always, making mention of you in my prayers,

5 because I [a]hear of your love and of the faith which you have toward the Lord Jesus and toward all the saints;

6 and I pray that the fellowship of your faith may become effective through the [a]knowledge of every good thing which is in you for Christ's sake.

7 For I have come to have much [a]joy and comfort in your love, because the hearts of the saints have been [b]refreshed through you, brother.

III PLEA TO PHILEMON, 8–17

8 Therefore, [a]though I have enough confidence in Christ to order you to do what is [b]proper,

9 yet for love's sake I rather [a]appeal to you—since I am such a person as Paul, the [b]aged, and now also [c]a prisoner of [d]Christ Jesus—

10 I [a]appeal to you for my [b]child [c]Onesimus, whom I have begotten in my imprisonment,

11 who formerly was useless to you, but now is useful both to you and to me.

12 I have sent him back to you in person, that is, sending my very heart,

13 whom I wished to keep with me, so that on your behalf he might minister to me in my [a]imprisonment for the gospel;

14 but without your consent I did not want to do anything, so that your goodness would [a]not be as it were by compulsion but of your own free will.

15 For perhaps [a]he was for this reason separated from you for a while, that you would have him back forever,

16 [a]no longer as a slave, but more than a slave, [b]a beloved brother, especially to me, but how much more to you, both [c]in the flesh and in the Lord.

17 If then you regard me a [a]partner, accept him as you would me.

IV PLEDGE TO PHILEMON, 18–21

18 But if he has wronged you in

---

1 a prisoner of Christ Jesus. Better, a prisoner for Jesus Christ; i.e., for His sake, in His service.

2 Apphia was likely Philemon's wife, and Archippus his son. On churches in homes, see 1 Cor. 16:19; Col. 4:15; and note on Rom. 16:5.

6 fellowship = sharing.

8–10 Paul could use his authority as an apostle to order Philemon. Instead Paul used the persuasions of love, age, and his imprisoned state, and simply appealed to Philemon (v. 10). The name Onesimus means "useful, beneficial."

11 By running away, Onesimus belied the meaning of his name. Now, because he had been saved, he could live up to it.

13 on your behalf. Had Paul kept him in Rome, Onesimus could have been a substitute for Philemon's serving Paul. The Greek preposition used here (huper) clearly means "substitution," as it does also in passages speaking of Christ's death (e.g., 2 Cor. 5:21; 1 Peter 3:18).

14 your goodness. I.e., Philemon's goodness if he decided to send Onesimus back to serve Paul.

15 perhaps. A suggestion of a deeper purpose of God's providence in Onesimus's running away.

16 a beloved brother. Not legal emancipation for Onesimus, but a practical emancipation because of Philemon's changed attitude toward his slave, who was now also his brother in Christ.

18 charge that to my account. This Greek phrase is translated "imputed" in Rom. 5:13. It seems any way or owes you anything, charge that to my account;

1:19 19 [a]I, Paul, am writing this with my own hand, I will repay it ([b]not to mention to you that you owe to me even your own self as well).

1:20 20 Yes, brother, let me benefit from you in the Lord; [a]refresh my heart in Christ.

1:21 21 [a]Having confidence in your obedience, I write to you, since I know that you will do even more than what I say.

V PERSONAL MATTERS, 22–25

22 At the same time also prepare me a [a]lodging, for [b]I hope that through [c]your prayers [d]I will be given to you.

23 [a]Epaphras, my [b]fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, greets you,

24 as do [a]Mark, [b]Aristarchus, [c]Demas, [c]Luke, my [d]fellow workers.

25 [a]The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be [b]with your spirit.

that Onesimus's offense included monetary loss to Philemon in addition to loss caused by the slave's running away. Paul asked Philemon to impute or reckon Onesimus's debt against Paul's account and to accept him as you would me (v. 17), a beautiful illustration of our sin imputed to Christ, wherein God receives us in the merit of His Son (2 Cor. 5:21).

19 my own hand. Paul was signing the pledge he made in verse 18. you owe to me even your own self. Philemon was apparently converted under Paul's ministry.

22 I will be given to you. Paul expected to be released from prison soon (see Phil. 1:25–26).

24 During Paul's second imprisonment Demas deserted him (2 Tim. 4:10).

HEBREWS

INTRODUCTION

AUTHOR: Uncertain DATE: 64–68

Authorship Many suggestions have been made for the author of this anonymous book—Paul, Barnabas, Apollos, Silas, Aquila and Priscilla, and Clement of Rome. There are both resemblances and dissimilarities to the theology and style of Paul, but Paul frequently appeals to his own apostolic authority in his letters, while this writer appeals to others who were eyewitnesses of Jesus' ministry (2:3). It is safest to say, as did the theologian Origen in the third century, that only God knows who wrote Hebrews.

Readership Three questions are involved in determining the readership of this letter. (1) What was the racial background of these readers? Although some have held that they were Gentiles, all evidence points to their Jewish background—the title of the book, "to the Hebrews," the references to the prophets and angels ministering to Israel, and the citations concerning the Levitical worship. (2) Where did they live? Palestine or Italy have been the answers most often given. The preference seems to be Italy, for these readers were not poor (and the saints in Palestine were, 6:10; 10:34; Rom. 15:26); the Septuagint is used exclusively for quotations from the Old Testament (one would not expect this if the readers were Palestinian); and "Those from Italy greet you" (13:24) sounds as though Italians outside of Italy are sending greetings back home. (3) What was their spiritual condition? Most were believers (3:1), though, as in every church group, there were doubtless some who merely professed Christianity. The author calls this letter a "word of exhortation" (13:22) necessitated by the fact that some were in danger of abandoning their faith in Christ and reverting to Judaism. The readers were being persecuted, though not to the point of being martyrs (10:32–34; 12:4), and, in the face of this, some were running the risk of becoming apostate. The letter is a stirring apologetic for the superiority of Christ and Christianity over Judaism in terms of priesthood and sacrifice.

Date Various dates have been suggested for the writing of Hebrews, from the 60s to the 90s. However, its use in the book of 1 Clement, which was written in A.D. 95, requires a date some time before that. The lack in the book of any reference to the destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem as the divine proof that the Old Testament sacrificial system was finished argues strongly for a date before A.D. 70. In addition, the mention of Timothy's recent release (13:23), if it was in connection with his ministry to Paul in Rome, requires a date in the late 60s.

Style The author displays outstanding literary and rhetorical skill. His style is a model of Hellenistic prose. Both the author and his readers are very familiar with the Old Testament in the Greek translation (the Septuagint). There are 29 direct quotations from the Old Testament plus 53 clear allusions to various other passages. These are used to demonstrate both the finality of the Christian revelation and its superiority to the old covenant.

Contents The theme of the book is the superiority of Christ and thus of Christianity. The words "better," "perfect," and "heavenly" appear frequently. The outline shows how the theme is developed by proving that Christ is superior both in His person and His priesthood. Favorite passages include 2:3 (so great a salvation), 4:12 (the living Word of God), 4:16 (the throne of grace), 7:25 (the intercession of Christ), 11:1 (the description of faith), 11:4–40 (the heroes of faith), 12:1–2 (the Christian race), and 13:20–21 (a great benediction).

OUTLINE OF HEBREWS

      2. In relation to spiritual duties, 13:7–19

IV. Concluding Benedictions, 13:20–25

THE LETTER TO THE HEBREWS

I THE SUPERIORITY OF THE PERSON OF CHRIST, 1:1–4:16

A Christ Is Superior to the Prophets, 1:1–4

1 God, after He [a]spoke long ago to the fathers in [b]the prophets in many portions and [c]in many ways,

2 [a]in these last days [b]has spoken to us in [c]His Son, whom He appointed [d]heir of all things, [e]through whom also He made the [f]world.

3 And He is the radiance of His glory and the exact [a]representation of His nature, and [b]upholds all things by the word of His power. When He had made [c]purification of sins, He [d]sat down at the right hand of the [e]Majesty on high,

4 having become as much better than the angels, as He has inherited a more excellent [a]name than they.

B Christ Is Superior to the Angels, 1:5–2:18

1 In His divine person, 1:5–14

5 For to which of the angels did He ever say,

"[a]YOU ARE MY SON,
TODAY I HAVE BEGOTTEN YOU"?

And again,

"[b]I WILL BE A FATHER TO HIM

[a]Ps 2:7; Acts 13:33; Heb 5:5
[b]2 Sam 7:14

1:1–4 These verses comprise one majestic sentence in the Greek text and read like the opening of a formal Greek oration rather than the customary "greetings" of a letter.

1:1 fathers. I.e., forefathers. in many portions and in many ways. I.e., in many parts of Israel's history and in various ways (through laws, institutions, ceremonies, kings, judges, prophets).

1:2 in these last days. The last days here means "the entire gospel dispensation extending from the first to the second advent of Christ." the world. Lit., the ages, including time, space, and the material world.

1:3 radiance = effulgence or flood of resplendent light. The word means "an outshining," not a reflection. the exact representation of God's essence or nature. These expressions in verse 3 are strong assertions of the deity of Christ. sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high. The picture of Christ being seated indicates the finished character of His once-for-all sacrifice for sin (10:10, 12), and the right hand indicates the place of honor that He occupies.

1:5 the angels. The word angel means "messenger." It usually refers to an order of spirit beings, rarely to human beings (as in Luke 7:24; James 2:25). All angels were originally created in a holy state, but some followed Satan in his revolt against God and became the demons. Some demons are loose and some are confined. See notes on Matt. 7:22; 2 Peter 2:4; Jude 6. Angels are created beings who must ultimately answer to their Creator (Col. 1:16). Since they are spirit beings, they are not bound by some of the restrictions that limit human beings (cf. v. 14; Acts 12:5–10). They are organized and ranked (Isa. 6:1–3; Dan. 10:13; Eph. 3:10; Jude 9). Angels ministered to Christ often during His first advent and will accompany Him at His return (Matt. 2:13; 4:11; 26:53; 28:2, 5; Luke 22:43; 2 Thess. 1:7–8). They serve believers (v. 14) and observe them (1 Cor. 4:9; 11:10). Michael is the only one designated an archangel (Dan. 10:13, 21; Jude 9), though Gabriel also has an important position (Luke 1:19, 26). did He . . . say? Quoting 2 Sam. 7:14 and Ps. 2:7. Never to an angel did God say that he was a son, only to and of Christ. 2 Sam. 7:14 was addressed to Solomon, and Ps. 2:7 may have been sung to a monarch on the day of his coronation. Christ, explains the writer of Hebrews, is the ultimate fulfillment of these words.

AND HE SHALL BE A SON TO ME"?

★1:6 6 And when He again [a]brings the firstborn into [b]the world, He says,
[a] Heb 10:5
[b] Matt 24:14
[c] Ps 97:7
"[c]AND LET ALL THE ANGELS OF GOD WORSHIP HIM."

★1:7 7 And of the angels He says,
[a] Ps 104:4
"[a]WHO MAKES HIS ANGELS WINDS, AND HIS MINISTERS A FLAME OF FIRE."

★1:8 8 But of the Son He says,
[a] Ps 45:6
"[a]YOUR THRONE, O GOD, IS FOREVER AND EVER,
AND THE RIGHTEOUS SCEPTER IS THE SCEPTER OF HIS KINGDOM.

1:9 9"[a]YOU HAVE LOVED RIGHTEOUSNESS AND HATED LAWLESSNESS;
[a] Ps 45:7
[b] John 10:17; Phil 2:9; Heb 2:9
[c] Is 61:1,3
[b]THEREFORE GOD, YOUR GOD, HAS [c]ANOINTED YOU WITH THE OIL OF GLADNESS ABOVE YOUR COMPANIONS."

★1:10 10 And,
[a] Ps 102:25
"[a]YOU, LORD, IN THE BEGINNING LAID THE FOUNDATION OF THE EARTH, AND THE HEAVENS ARE THE WORKS OF YOUR HANDS;

1:11 11 [a]THEY WILL PERISH, BUT YOU REMAIN;
[a] Ps 102:26
[b] Is 51:6; Heb 8:13
[b]AND THEY ALL WILL BECOME OLD LIKE A GARMENT,

1:12 12 [a]AND LIKE A MANTLE YOU WILL ROLL THEM UP;
[a] Ps 102:26,27
[b] Heb 13:8
LIKE A GARMENT THEY WILL ALSO BE CHANGED.
BUT YOU ARE [b]THE SAME,
AND YOUR YEARS WILL NOT COME TO AN END."

★1:13 13 But to which of the angels has He ever said,
[a] Ps 110:1; Matt 22:44; Heb 1:3
[b] Josh 10:24; Heb 10:13
"[a]SIT AT MY RIGHT HAND, [b]UNTIL I MAKE YOUR ENEMIES A FOOTSTOOL FOR YOUR FEET"?

★1:14 14 Are they not all [a]ministering spirits, sent out to render service for the sake of those who will [b]inherit [c]salvation?
[a] Ps 103:20f; Dan 7:10
[b] Matt 25:34; Mark 10:17; Titus 3:7; Heb 6:12
[c] Rom 11:14; 1 Cor 1:21; Heb 2:3; 5:9; 9:28

2 In His saving proclamation, 2:1–4

2 For this reason we must pay much closer attention to what we have heard, so that [a]we do not drift away from it.

[a] John 4:48
[b] Mark 6:14
[c] 1 Cor 12:4,11; Eph 4:7
[d] Eph 1:5

3 In His delivering purpose, 2:5–18

5 For He did not subject to angels [a]the world to come, concerning which we are speaking.
★2:5
[a] Matt 24:14; Heb 6:5

6 But one has testified [a]somewhere, saying,
2:6
[a] Heb 4:4

1:6 This refers to the second coming of Christ. A combination of Ps. 97:7 with Deut. 32:43 (LXX).

1:7 WINDS. A quote of Ps. 104:4. Angels are servants (as wind and fire are) and therefore subordinate to the Son.

1:8–9 Historically, the psalm quoted (Ps. 45:6–7) was probably sung at a Hebrew monarch's wedding. What was true of the ancient king by virtue of his office, the writer to the Hebrews sees to be wholly true of Christ by virtue of His nature. YOUR COMPANIONS. I.e., beyond all others.

1:10–12 Quoting Ps. 102:25–27. Christ is the Creator of all things and the One who, in the midst of change, is unchanging.

1:13 Ps. 110:1 is applied to the Lord Jesus' final victory over His enemies.

1:14 ministering spirits. The ministry of angels on behalf of believers continues today. The mention of salvation leads the writer into a discussion of this topic (2:1–18).

2:1 drift away or loose from their moorings if they forget how superior Christ is.

2:2 the word spoken through angels. Refers to the Mosaic Law (Ps. 68:17; Acts 7:53). In later Judaism it was held that angels had delivered the law.

2:3–4 The revelation of grace in contrast to law came through the Lord (John 1:17) and was confirmed to the writer and readers of Hebrews by those who heard Him and by God, who authenticated it by signs and wonders.

2:5 the world to come. Lit., the coming inhabited earth (as in Luke 2:1). A reference to the millennial kingdom on earth, which will not be ruled by angels but by Christ and the redeemed.

2:6 [b]Ps 8:4
"[b]WHAT IS MAN, THAT YOU
REMEMBER HIM?
OR THE SON OF MAN, THAT YOU ARE CONCERNED ABOUT HIM?
*2:7 [a]Ps 8:5,6
7"[a]YOU HAVE MADE HIM FOR A LITTLE WHILE LOWER THAN THE ANGELS;
YOU HAVE CROWNED HIM WITH GLORY AND HONOR,
AND HAVE APPOINTED HIM OVER
THE WORKS OF YOUR HANDS;
*2:8 [a]Ps 8:6; 1 Cor 15:27 [b]1 Cor 15:25
8 [a]YOU HAVE PUT ALL THINGS IN SUBJECTION UNDER HIS FEET."
For in subjecting all things to him, He left nothing that is not subject to him. But now [b]we do not yet see all things subjected to him.

*2:9 [a]Heb 2:7 [b]Acts 2:33; 3:13; 1 Pet 1:21 [c]Phil 2:9; Heb 1:9 [d]John 3:16 [e]Matt 16:28; John 8:52 [f]Heb 7:25
9 But we do see Him who was [a]made for a little while lower than the angels, namely, Jesus, [b]because of the suffering of death [c]crowned with glory and honor, so that [d]by the grace of God He might [e]taste death [f]for everyone.

*2:10 [a]Luke 24:26 [b]Rom 11:36 [c]Heb 5:9; 7:28 [d]Acts 3:15; 5:31
10 For [a]it was fitting for Him, [b]for whom are all things, and through whom are all things, in bringing many sons to glory, to [c]perfect the [d]author of their salvation through sufferings.

*2:11 [a]Heb 13:12 [b]Heb 10:10 [c]Acts 17:28 [d]Matt 25:40; Mark 3:34f; John 20:17
11 For both He who [a]sanctifies and those who [b]are sanctified are all [c]from one Father; for which reason He is not ashamed to call them [d]brethren,
12 saying,
"[a]I WILL PROCLAIM YOUR NAME
TO MY BRETHREN, IN THE MIDST OF THE CONGREGATION I WILL SING YOUR PRAISE."
13 And again,
"[a]I WILL PUT MY TRUST IN HIM."
And again,
"[b]BEHOLD, I AND THE CHILDREN WHOM GOD HAS GIVEN ME."
2:12 [a]Ps 22:22
2:13 [a]Is 8:17 [b]Is 8:18
14 Since then the children share in [a]flesh and blood, [b]He Himself likewise also partook of the same, so that [c]through death He might render powerless [d]him who had the power of death, that is, the devil,
*2:14 [a]Matt 16:17 [b]John 1:14 [c]1 Cor 15:54-57; 2 Tim 1:10 [d]John 12:31; 1 John 3:8
15 and might free those who through [a]fear of death were subject to slavery all their lives.
*2:15 [a]Rom 8:15
16 For assuredly He does not give help to angels, but He gives help to the descendant of Abraham.
*2:16
17 Therefore, He had [a]to be made like His brethren in all things, so that He might [b]become a merciful and faithful [c]high priest in [d]things pertaining to God, to [e]make propitiation for the sins of the people.
*2:17 [a]Phil 2:7; Heb 2:14 [b]Heb 4:15f; 5:2 [c]Heb 3:1; 4:14f; 5:5,10; 6:20; 7:26,28; 8:1,3; 9:11; 10:21 [d]Rom 15:17; Heb 5:1 [e]Dan 9:24; 1 John 2:2; 4:10
18 For since He Himself was [a]tempted in that which He has suffered, He is able to come to the aid of those who are tempted.
*2:18 [a]Heb 4:15

2:7 FOR A LITTLE WHILE. This may mean (1) for a short time, or (2) more likely a little lower in rank. In the order of creation, man is lower than angels, and, in the Incarnation, Christ took this lower place.

2:8 HIS FEET . . . to him . . . to him. This refers to man (not Christ) who was given dominion over the creation (Gen. 1:28) but who lost it when he sinned (Rom. 8:20) and who will regain it in the future millennial kingdom because of Christ's death for sin (v. 10).

2:9 Jesus made possible man's future dominion over this earth by Himself becoming incarnate, dying, and being exalted.

2:10 to perfect. I.e., the sufferings of Jesus made Him qualified to be the leader of man's salvation.

2:11–13 Believers are united in Christ as brothers in the family of God.

2:14 flesh and blood was an OT figure for human nature. partook of the same = partook of the same human nature. render powerless. Lit., bring to nought or make inoperative or useless, but not annihilate, for the devil will exist in torment in the lake of fire forever (Rev. 20:10). This verse states the overriding purpose of Christ's accepting "a lower state."

2:15 free. Give absolute freedom. The word is used outside the NT of divorce.

2:16 help to angels . . . descendant of Abraham. Christ did not come to save fallen angels but to save fallen men.

2:17 to make propitiation or expiation. Propitiation refers to God's wrath being satisfied by the death of Christ (Rom. 3:25; 1 John 2:2). Expiation emphasizes the removal of sin by the sacrifice that satisfied God. Sin interrupts normal relations with God; expiation removes sin and restores the relationship.

2:18 Christ not only was tempted by trials that befall humans generally but also by those that were designed to sidetrack Him in the purpose of His coming to earth.

C Christ Is Superior to Moses, 3:1–6

3 Therefore, [a]holy brethren, partakers of a [b]heavenly calling, consider Jesus, [c]the Apostle and [d]High Priest of our [e]confession.

2 He was faithful to Him who appointed Him, as [a]Moses also was in all His house.

3 [a]For He has been counted worthy of more glory than Moses, by just so much as the builder of the house has more honor than the house.

4 For every house is built by someone, but the builder of all things is God.

5 Now [a]Moses was faithful in all His house as [b]a servant, [c]for a testimony of those things [d]which were to be spoken later;

6 but Christ was faithful as [a]a Son over His house—[b]whose house we are, [c]if we hold fast our [d]confidence and the boast of our [e]hope firm until the end.

D Christ Is the Supreme Object of Faith, 3:7–4:16

1 The catastrophe of unbelief, 3:7–19

7 Therefore, just as [a]the Holy Spirit says,

"[b]TODAY IF YOU HEAR HIS VOICE,
8 [a]DO NOT HARDEN YOUR HEARTS
AS WHEN THEY PROVOKED ME, AS IN THE DAY OF TRIAL IN THE WILDERNESS,
9 [a]WHERE YOUR FATHERS TRIED
Me BY TESTING Me,
AND SAW MY WORKS FOR
[b]FORTY YEARS.
10 "[a]THEREFORE I WAS ANGRY WITH THIS GENERATION,
AND SAID, 'THEY ALWAYS GO ASTRAY IN THEIR HEART, AND THEY DID NOT KNOW MY WAYS';
11 [a]AS I SWORE IN MY WRATH,
'THEY SHALL NOT ENTER MY REST.' "

12 [a]Take care, brethren, that there not be in any one of you an evil, unbelieving heart that falls away from [b]the living God.

13 But [a]encourage one another day after day, as long as it is still called "Today," so that none of you will be hardened by the [b]deceitfulness of sin.

14 For we have become partakers of Christ, [a]if we hold fast the beginning of our [b]assurance firm until the end,

15 while it is said,
"[a]TODAY IF YOU HEAR HIS VOICE,
DO NOT HARDEN YOUR HEARTS, AS WHEN THEY PROVOKED ME."

16 For who [a]provoked Him when they had heard? Indeed, [b]did not all those who came out of Egypt led by Moses?

17 And with whom was He angry for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, [a]whose bodies fell in the wilderness?

18 And to whom did He swear [a]that they would not enter His rest, but to those who were [b]disobedient?

19 So we see that they were not able to enter because of [a]unbelief.

*3:1 [a]Acts 1:15; Heb 2:11; 3:12; 10:19; 13:22 [b]Phil 3:14 [c]John 17:3 [d]Heb 2:17; 4:14f; 5:5,10; 6:20; 7:26,28; 8:1,3; 9:11; 10:21 [e]2 Cor 9:13; Heb 4:14; 10:23
3:2 [a]Ex 40:16; Num 12:7; Heb 3:5
*3:3 [a]2 Cor 3:7-11
*3:5 [a]Ex 40:16; Num 12:7; Heb 3:2 [b]Ex 14:31; Num 12:7 [c]Deut 18:18f [d]Heb 1:1
*3:6 [a]Heb 1:2 [b]1 Cor 3:16; 1 Tim 3:15 [c]Rom 11:22; Heb 3:14; 4:14 [d]Eph 3:12; Heb 4:16; 10:19,35 [e]Heb 6:11; 7:19; 10:23; 11:1; 1 Pet 1:3
*3:7 [a]Acts 28:25; Heb 9:8; 10:15 [b]Ps 95:7; Heb 3:15; 4:7
3:8 [a]Ps 95:8
3:9 [a]Ps 95:9-11
3:9 [b]Acts 7:36
3:10 [a]Ps 95:10
3:11 [a]Ps 95:11; Heb 4:3,5
*3:12 [a]Col 2:8; Heb 12:25 [b]Matt 16:16; Heb 9:14; 10:31; 12:22
3:13 [a]Heb 10:24f [b]Eph 4:22
3:14 [a]Heb 3:6 [b]Heb 11:1
3:15 [a]Ps 95:7f; Heb 3:7; 4:7
*3:16 [a]Jer 32:29; 44:3,8 [b]Num 14:2,11, 30; Deut 1:35, 36,38
3:17 [a]Num 14:29; 1 Cor 10:5
3:18 [a]Num 14:23; Deut 1:34f; Heb 4:2 [b]Rom 11:30-32; Heb 4:6,11
3:19 [a]John 3:18,36; Rom 11:23; Heb 3:12

3:1 holy brethren (found only here in the NT) because we have been sanctified (cf. 2:11). Jesus is the Apostle, meaning "the one sent from God to represent God to us" (John 5:24), and High Priest, meaning "the one who represents us to God."

3:3 Christ is better than Moses because Christ is the builder of God's house whereas Moses was but a servant in the house.

3:5–6 Christ as a Son and the one over the house is therefore superior to Moses, the servant and the one in the house.

3:6 we believers are now God's house(hold), but to enjoy that position requires that we hold fast to our moorings (same word in v. 14; 10:23).

3:7–11 The quote is from Ps. 95:7–11. The children of Israel challenged God's authority over them by their rebellion in the wilderness. See note on Num. 14:22. Because of this, they failed to enter into the rest of dwelling in Canaan and they perished in the wilderness.

3:12–15 The writer now applies Israel's experience to the dangers facing his readers.

3:16–19 Israel's sin is described as provocation or rebellion (v. 16), sin (v. 17), disobedience (v. 18), and unbelief (v. 19).

2 The consequences of unbelief, 4:1–10

4 Therefore, let us fear if, while a promise remains of entering His rest, any one of you may seem to have [a]come short of it.

2 For indeed we have had good news preached to us, just as they also; but [a]the word they heard did not profit them, because it was not united by faith in those who heard.

3 For we who have believed enter that rest, just as He has said,

"[a]As I swore in My wrath,
They shall not enter My rest," although His works were finished [b]from the foundation of the world.

4 For He has said [a]somewhere concerning the seventh day: "[b]And God [c]rested on the seventh day from all His works";

5 and again in this passage, "[a]They shall not enter My rest."

6 Therefore, since it remains for some to enter it, and those who formerly had good news preached to them failed to enter because of [a]disobedience,

7 He again fixes a certain day, "Today," saying through David after so long a time just [a]as has been said before,

"[b]Today if you hear His voice,
Do not harden your hearts."

8 For [a]if Joshua had given them rest, He would not have spoken of another day after that.

9 So there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God.

10 For the one who has entered His rest has himself also [a]rested from his works, as [b]God did from His.

3 The cure for unbelief, 4:11–16

11 Therefore let us be diligent to enter that rest, so that no one will fall, through following the same [a]example of [b]disobedience.

12 For [a]the word of God is [b]living and [c]active and sharper than any two-edged [d]sword, and piercing as far as the division of [e]soul and [e]spirit, of both joints and marrow, and [f]able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

13 And [a]there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are [b]open and laid bare to the eyes of Him with whom we have to do.

4:1 Although God has promised believers today that they may enter His rest, some may fail to experience it because of unbelief.

4:3–4 Only believers enter into salvation rest.

4:4 He . . . said in Gen. 2:2. After the work of creation was finished, God rested; i.e., He enjoyed the sense of satisfaction and repose that comes with the completion of a task. It is in this sense that rest is used in verses 1 and 3.

4:5–9 The divine promise still holds good: the believer may enter into God's rest through faith. This is true of both salvation and sanctification. Rest in the Christian life comes through complete reliance on God's promises and full surrender to His will (2 Cor. 5:7; Col. 2:6). The word in verse 9 (rest) indicates that, just as God ceased from His creative activity on the seventh day (v. 4), so believers may cease from working for their salvation and self-reliance in sanctification. Or this sabbath-rest may look forward to believers' future rest in heaven.

4:8 Joshua (Moses' successor) could not lead all the people into the rest of dwelling in their promised land because of their unbelief. Likewise the believer today cannot enjoy a fully satisfying Christian life unless he believes all the promises of God, and even then he looks forward to that perfect future rest.

4:11 We must be diligent in our experience to enter the rest into which we have already entered. let us be diligent. The same Greek word is used in Eph. 4:3; 2 Tim. 2:15; 2 Peter 1:10; 3:14.

4:12 the word of God. Here meaning His inspired Word, the Scriptures. living and active. It has the power to reach to the inmost parts of one's personality and to judge the innermost thoughts. soul and spirit. The meaning is that the Word pierces to the depths of soul and spirit, not between the two. They stand for the innermost facets of our immaterial nature, just as joints and marrow the material aspect. Both soul and spirit can be involved in what pleases or displeases God. (For soul, see Mark 12:30 and 1 Peter 2:11; for spirit, see 1 Cor. 2:11 and 2 Cor. 7:1). Also see note on 1 Thess. 5:23–24.

4:13 with whom we have to do. Better, to whom we must give an account—lit., to whom is our word. A play on the Greek term for "word"; i.e., if our lives conform to "the word of God" (v. 12), then our word (account) in the day of judgment will be acceptable to God.

14 Since then we have a great [a]high priest who has [b]passed through the heavens, Jesus [c]the Son of God, let us hold fast our [d]confession.

15 For we do not have [a]a high priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but One who has been [b]tempted in all things as we are, yet [c]without sin.

16 Therefore let us [a]draw near with [b]confidence to the throne of grace, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

II THE SUPERIORITY OF THE PRIESTHOOD OF CHRIST, 5:1–10:39

A Christ Is Superior in His Qualifications, 5:1–10

5 For every high priest [a]taken from among men is appointed on behalf of men in [b]things pertaining to God, in order to [c]offer both gifts and sacrifices [d]for sins;

2 [a]he can deal gently with the [b]ignorant and [c]misguided, since he himself also is [d]beset with weakness;

3 and because of it he is obligated to offer sacrifices [a]for sins, [b]as for the people, so also for himself.

4 And [a]no one takes the honor to himself, but receives it when he is called by God, even [b]as Aaron was.

5 So also Christ [a]did not glorify Himself so as to become a [b]high priest, but He who [c]said to Him,

"[d]YOU ARE MY SON,
TODAY I HAVE BEGOTTEN YOU";

6 just as He says also in another passage,

"[a]YOU ARE A PRIEST FOREVER
ACCORDING TO [b]THE ORDER OF MELCHIZEDEK."

7 In the days of His flesh, [a]He offered up both prayers and supplications with [b]loud crying and tears to the One [c]able to save Him from death, and He was heard because of His [d]piety.

8 Although He was [a]a Son, He learned [b]obedience from the things which He suffered.

9 And having been made [a]perfect, He became to all those who obey Him the source of eternal salvation,

10 being designated by God as [a]a high priest according to [b]the order of Melchizedek.

B Parenthetical Warning: Don't Degenerate from Christ, 5:11–6:20

11 Concerning him we have much to say, and it is hard to explain, since you have become dull of hearing.

4:15 has been tempted in all things as we are, yet without sin. Not that Christ experienced every temptation man does, but rather that He was tempted in all areas in which man is tempted (the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, 1 John 2:16), and with particular temptations specially suited to Him. This testing was possible only because He took the likeness of sinful flesh (Rom. 8:3), for had there not been an incarnation, Jesus could not have been tempted (cf. James 1:13). Yet our Lord was distinct from all other men in that He was without sin; i.e., He possessed no sin nature as we do. Because He endured and successfully passed His tests, He can now offer us mercy and grace to help in time of need, for He knows what we are going through.

4:16 His grace comes when we come in our time of need, and not until.

5:1–10 The qualifications for high priest are stated in these verses, Aaron serving as the model: (1) he had to be a man (v. 1); (2) he had to be compassionate (v. 2); (3) he had to be chosen by God (vv. 4–6); (4) he had to learn through suffering (vv. 7–8).

5:4 called . . . as Aaron was. See Ex. 28:1.

5:7 offered up both prayers and supplications with loud crying and tears. Refers to occasions like those of John 12:27 and the experience in Gethsemane (Matt. 26:39–44).

5:8 Son (and thus God) though He was, as the incarnate one He learned obedience through suffering (Isa. 50:5–6) for maturing and proving (Luke 2:52).

5:10 according to the order of Melchizedek. Our Lord could never have been a Levitical priest because He was born of the tribe of Judah (7:14) and not the tribe of Levi. Thus He must be associated with another order of priests, that of Melchizedek. Both Christ and Melchizedek were men (7:4; 1 Tim. 2:5); both were king-priests (Gen. 14:18; Zech. 6:12–13); both were appointed directly by God (7:21); both were called "King of righteousness" and "King of peace" (7:2; Isa. 11:5–9).

5:12 [a]Gal 4:3 [b]Heb 6:1 [c]Acts 7:38 [d]1 Cor 3:2; 1 Pet 2:2

12 For though by this time you ought to be teachers, you have need again for someone to teach you [a]the [b]elementary principles of the [c]oracles of God, and you have come to need [d]milk and not solid food.

5:13 [a]1 Cor 3:1; 14:20; 1 Pet 2:2

13 For everyone who partakes only of milk is not accustomed to the word of righteousness, for he is an [a]infant.

5:14 [a]1 Cor 2:6; Eph 4:13; Heb 6:1 [b]1 Tim 4:7 [c]Rom 14:1ff

14 But solid food is for [a]the mature, who because of practice have their senses [b]trained to [c]discern good and evil.

6:1 [a]Phil 3:13f [b]Heb 5:12 [c]Heb 5:14 [d]Heb 9:14

6 Therefore [a]leaving [b]the elementary teaching about the Christ, let us press on to [c]maturity, not laying again a foundation of repentance from [d]dead works and of faith toward God,

6:2 [a]John 3:25; Acts 19:3f [b]Acts 6:6 [c]Acts 17:31f

2 of [a]instruction about washings and [b]laying on of hands, and the [c]resurrection of the dead and [c]eternal judgment.

6:3 [a]Acts 18:21

3 And this we will do, [a]if God permits.

6:4 [a]2 Cor 4:4,6; Heb 10:32 [b]John 4:10; Eph 2:8

4 For in the case of those who have once been [a]enlightened and have tasted of [b]the heavenly gift and have been made [c]partakers of the Holy Spirit,

6:5 [a]1 Pet 2:3 [b]Eph 6:17 [c]Heb 2:5

5 and [a]have tasted the good [b]word of God and the powers of [c]the age to come,

6:6 [a]Matt 19:26; Heb 10:26f; 2 Pet 2:21; 1 John 5:16 [b]Heb 10:29

6 and then have fallen away, it is [a]impossible to renew them again to repentance, [b]since they again crucify to themselves the Son of God and put Him to open shame.

6:7 [a]2 Tim 2:6

7 For ground that drinks the rain which often falls on it and brings forth vegetation useful to those [a]for whose sake it is also tilled, receives a blessing from God;

6:8 [a]Gen 3:17f; Deut 29:22ff

8 but if it yields thorns and thistles, it is worthless and [a]close to being cursed, and it ends up being burned.

6:9 [a]1 Cor 10:14; 2 Cor 7:1; 12:19; 1 Pet 2:11; 2 Pet 3:1; 1 John 2:7; Jude 3

10 For [a]God is not unjust so as to forget [b]your work and the love which you have shown toward His name, in having [c]ministered

---

5:12 though by this time. Better, although by now. I.e., in consideration of the time they had been believers. milk. I.e., elementary truth (see 1 Cor. 3:1–3). solid food. Deeper truths of the Word; e.g., the teaching about Melchizedek.

5:13 Immature believers do not know about or put into practice teachings of righteousness.

5:14 the mature. Christian maturity involves (1) time (v. 12), (2) growth in the knowledge of the Word of God (v. 13), and (3) experience in the use of the Word in discerning between good and evil (vv. 13–14).

6:1 elementary teaching about the Christ. I.e., the basic teachings about Christ and the Christian religion. maturity. The exhortation to these people is for them to go on to Christian maturity and to stop wasting time and opportunities. They knew the first principles, or basics, of Christianity and are being exhorted to go on from there. dead works. I.e., all that an unsaved person does, whether good or evil, since one who is dead in sin can only do dead works that can never gain saving merit before God.

6:2 instruction about washings (or, as in some versions, baptisms). The distinction between various baptisms is a necessary part of basic Christian doctrine (e.g., the baptism of Jewish proselytes, baptism by John the Baptist, Christian baptism).

6:4–6 This much-debated passage has been understood in several ways. (1) Arminians hold that the people described in these verses are Christians who actually lose their salvation. If this be so, notice that the passage also teaches that it is impossible to be saved a second time. (2) Some hold that the passage refers not to genuine believers but to those who only profess to be believers. Thus the phrases in verses 4–5 are understood to refer to experiences short of salvation (cf. v. 9). The "falling away" is from the knowledge of the truth, not personal possession of it. (3) Others understand the passage to be a warning to genuine believers to urge them on in Christian growth and maturity. To "fall away" is impossible (since, according to this view, true believers are eternally secure), but the phrase is placed in the sentence to strengthen the warning. It is similar to saying something like this to a class of students: "It is impossible for a student, once enrolled in this course, if he turns the clock back [which cannot be done,] to start the course over. Therefore, let all students go on to deeper knowledge." In this view the phrases in verses 4–5 are understood to refer to the conversion experience. Notice how the words "enlightened" (10:32), "taste" (2:9), and "partakers" ("share," 12:10) are used elsewhere in Hebrews of genuine experiences.

6:7–8 Not to go on to fruitful maturity will result in loss of reward (1 Cor. 3:15).

6:9 An expression of confidence, though the writer speaks severely. things that accompany salvation. I.e., fruit in the Christian life.

and in still ministering to the saints.

6:11 11 And we desire that each one of you show the same diligence so as to realize the [a]full assurance of [b]hope until the end,

6:12 12 so that you will not be sluggish, but [a]imitators of those who through [b]faith and patience [c]inherit the promises.

6:13 13 For [a]when God made the promise to Abraham, since He could swear by no one greater, He [b]swore by Himself,

6:14 14 saying, "[a]I WILL SURELY BLESS YOU AND I WILL SURELY MULTIPLY YOU."

6:15 15 And so, [a]having patiently waited, he obtained the promise.

6:16 16 [a]For men swear by one greater than themselves, and with them [b]an oath given as confirmation is an end of every dispute.

6:17 17 In the same way God, desiring even more to show to [a]the heirs of the promise [b]the unchangeableness of His purpose, interposed with an oath,

6:18 18 so that by two unchangeable things in which [a]it is impossible for God to lie, we who have taken refuge would have strong encouragement to take hold of [b]the hope set before us.

6:19 19 This [a]hope we have as an anchor of the soul, a hope both sure and steadfast and one which [b]enters within the veil,

6:20 20 [a]where Jesus has entered as a forerunner for us, having become a [b]high priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.

C Christ Is Superior in the Order of His Priesthood, 7:1–8:13

1 The portrait of Melchizedek, 7:1–3

7:1 7 For this [a]Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of the [b]Most High God, who met Abraham as he was returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him,

2 to whom also Abraham apportioned a tenth part of all the spoils, was first of all, by the translation of his name, king of righteousness, and then also king of Salem, which is king of peace.

7:3 3 Without father, without mother, [a]without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like [b]the Son of God, he remains a priest perpetually.

2 The preeminence of the Melchizedek priesthood, 7:4–8:13

7:4 4 Now observe how great this man was to whom Abraham, the [a]patriarch, [b]gave a tenth of the choicest spoils.

7:5 5 And those indeed of [a]the sons of Levi who receive the priest's office have commandment in the Law to collect a tenth from the people, that is, from their brethren, although these are descended from Abraham.

6:11–15 Be diligent in the Christian life, just as OT saints—particularly Abraham—were, knowing that what has been promised will be fulfilled (cf. chap. 11).

6:18 two unchangeable things. The promise made to Abraham and the oath that rests on the very being of God.

6:19 within the veil. I.e., in the presence of God. Believers have as strong encouragement as Abraham had in his time, because Jesus has already entered into the presence of God and assures us of our entrance into heaven as well. Christ has gone ahead into heaven, and as our hope/anchor, though out of sight, He holds us secure, especially in times of storm. Other nautical concepts in this book are found in 2:1; 3:6, 14; 10:23, 38.

6:20 forerunner. A word used of a scout reconnoitering or of a herald announcing the coming of a king; both concepts imply that others are to follow.

7:1 Melchizedek is clearly a type of Christ. Everything known about him from the OT is found in Gen. 14:17–20 and Ps. 110:4. He was a great king-priest, and it is to his order of priesthood that Christ belongs. See note on 5:10.

7:3 Without father . . . This does not mean that Melchizedek had no parents or that he was not born or did not die, but only that the Scriptures contain no record of these events so that he might be more perfectly likened to Christ.

7:4 gave a tenth. By taking the role of the one who tithed and the one who received the blessing (v. 1), Abraham, to whom God gave the promises, doubly acknowledged his inferiority to Melchizedek.

6 But the one [a]whose genealogy is not traced from them [b]collected a tenth from Abraham and [b]blessed the one who [c]had the promises.

7 But without any dispute the lesser is blessed by the greater.

8 In this case mortal men receive tithes, but in that case one receives them, [a]of whom it is witnessed that he lives on.

9 And, so to speak, through Abraham even Levi, who received tithes, paid tithes,

10 for he was still in the loins of his father when Melchizedek met him.

11 [a]Now if perfection was through the Levitical priesthood (for on the basis of it [b]the people received the Law), what further need was there for another priest to arise [c]according to the order of Melchizedek, and not be designated according to the order of Aaron?

12 For when the priesthood is changed, of necessity there takes place a change of law also.

13 For [a]the one concerning whom [b]these things are spoken belongs to another tribe, from which no one has officiated at the altar.

14 For it is evident that our Lord was [a]descended from Judah, a tribe with reference to which Moses spoke nothing concerning priests.

15 And this is clearer still, if another priest arises according to the likeness of Melchizedek, 16 who has become such not on the basis of a law of [a]physical requirement, but according to the power of [b]an indestructible life.

17 For it is witnessed of Him,

"[a]YOU ARE A PRIEST FOREVER
ACCORDING TO THE ORDER OF MELCHIZEDEK."

18 For, on the one hand, there is a setting aside of a former commandment [a]because of its weakness and uselessness

19 (for [a]the Law made nothing perfect), and on the other hand there is a bringing in of a better [b]hope, through which we [c]draw near to God.

20 Inasmuch as it was not without an oath

21 (for they indeed became priests without an oath, but He with an oath through the One who said to Him,

"[a]THE LORD HAS SWORN AND [b]WILL NOT CHANGE HIS MIND,
'YOU ARE A PRIEST [c]FOREVER' ");

22 so much the more also Jesus has become the [a]guarantee of [b]a better covenant.

23 The former priests, on the one hand, existed in greater numbers because they were prevented by death from continuing,

24 but Jesus, on the other hand, because He continues [a]forever, holds His priesthood permanently.

7:6 The proof that the Melchizedekan priesthood (and Christ's) is superior to the Aaronic, or Levitical, priesthood is that Levi's great-grandfather Abraham paid tithes to Melchizedek, and that Levi, though unborn, was involved (v. 9).

7:8 In this case. Refers to the Levitical priests. in that case. Refers to Melchizedek and his priesthood. he lives on. Nowhere in the record is it said that Melchizedek lost his priestly office by death, in contrast to the Levitical priests who died generation after generation.

7:10 in the loins. Abraham, the ancestor, is seen as containing within himself his descendant, Levi (cf. Adam and the human race, Rom. 5:12).

7:11 Another proof that Christ is superior to the law and its priesthood is that the law could not give the people perfection, i.e., complete communion with God. The sacrificial Levitical system never achieved its aim.

7:12 A change in the priesthood from the Levitical to Christ as Melchizedekan priest requires an end to the Mosaic Law. For Paul's different, but nonconflicting, argument on the abrogation of the Mosaic Law, see Rom. 7:1–6; 2 Cor. 3:7–11; Gal. 3:19–25.

7:13–17 Since our Lord came from the nonpriestly tribe of Judah, He could not have served as priest without there being another order of priests, the Melchizedekan.

7:18–19 a former commandment. The Mosaic Law had to be set aside. A better hope for effecting full and final removal of sin has been introduced, along with a new way of access to God.

7:21 The appointment of Melchizedek was accompanied by an oath; not so in the case of Levitical priests.

7:22 a better covenant. The new covenant.

25 Therefore He is able also to [a]save forever those who [b]draw near to God through Him, since He always lives to [c]make intercession for them.

26 For it was fitting for us to have such a [a]high priest, [b]holy, [c]innocent, undefiled, separated from sinners and [d]exalted above the heavens;

27 who does not need daily, like those high priests, to [a]offer up sacrifices, [b]first for His own sins and then for the sins of the people, because this He did [c]once for all when He [d]offered up Himself.

28 For the Law appoints men as high priests [a]who are weak, but the word of the oath, which came after the Law, appoints [b]a Son, [c]made perfect forever.

8 Now the main point in what has been said is this: we have such a [a]high priest, who has taken His seat at [b]the right hand of the throne of the [b]Majesty in the heavens,

2 a [a]minister in the sanctuary and in the [b]true tabernacle, which the Lord [c]pitched, not man.

3 For every [a]high priest is appointed [b]to offer both gifts and sacrifices; so it is necessary that this high priest also have something to offer.

4 Now if He were on earth, He would not be a priest at all, since there are those who [a]offer the gifts according to the Law;

5 who serve [a]a copy and [b]shadow of the heavenly things, just as Moses was [c]warned by God when he was about to erect the tabernacle; for, "[d]SEE," He says, "THAT YOU MAKE all things ACCORDING TO THE PATTERN WHICH WAS SHOWN YOU ON THE MOUNTAIN."

6 But now He has obtained a more excellent ministry, by as much as He is also the [a]mediator of [b]a better covenant, which has been enacted on better promises.

7 For [a]if that first covenant had been faultless, there would have been no occasion sought for a second.

8 For finding fault with them, He says,

"[a]BEHOLD, DAYS ARE COMING, SAYS THE LORD,
WHEN I WILL EFFECT [b]A NEW COVENANT
WITH THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL AND WITH THE HOUSE OF JUDAH;
9 [a]NOT LIKE THE COVENANT WHICH I MADE WITH THEIR FATHERS
ON THE DAY WHEN I TOOK THEM BY THE HAND
TO LEAD THEM OUT OF THE LAND OF EGYPT;
FOR THEY DID NOT CONTINUE IN MY COVENANT,
AND I DID NOT CARE FOR THEM, SAYS THE LORD.
10 "[a]FOR THIS IS THE COVENANT THAT I WILL MAKE WITH THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL
AFTER THOSE DAYS, SAYS THE LORD:
I WILL PUT MY LAWS INTO THEIR MINDS,
AND I WILL WRITE THEM [b]ON THEIR HEARTS.
AND I WILL BE THEIR GOD,
AND THEY SHALL BE MY PEOPLE.
11 "[a]AND THEY SHALL NOT TEACH EVERYONE HIS FELLOW CITIZEN,

7:25 forever. Completely (Luke 13:11, the only other place this phrase is used) and permanently.

7:27 Our Lord, being perfect, did not need to offer sacrifices for Himself; instead, He offered Himself for our sins once for all.

8:1–3 the main point. A priest must have something to offer (v. 3) and a sanctuary in which to do it. Christ was disqualified from using the earthly sanctuary because of His descent from the tribe of Judah; therefore, His sphere of service must be heaven, and His offering was Himself.

8:5 THE PATTERN. See Ex. 25:40.

8:6 The covenant Christ mediates is a better covenant, since it is enacted on better promises. In verses 6–13, the new covenant is contrasted with that first covenant (v. 7); i.e., the Mosaic Law (Ex. 19:5). Christ's blood is the basis of the new covenant and pays for the sins of all (Matt. 26:28); Christians are ministers of it (2 Cor. 3:6); and it will yet have an aspect of its fulfillment in relation to Israel and Judah in the Millennium (as predicted in Jer. 31:31–34).

8:7–13 The prediction and promise of a new covenant in Jer. 31:31–34 proves the inadequacy and temporary nature of the Mosaic Law.

9:4 a golden altar. Though the altar stood before the veil in the Holy Place, its ritual use was connected with the "Holy of Holies" (v. 3), especially on the Day of Atonement, which is being described in these verses (see Lev. 16:12–13).

*9:13 [a]Lev 16:15; Heb 9:19; 10:4 [b]Num 19:9,17f

13 For if [a]the blood of goats and bulls and [b]the ashes of a heifer sprinkling those who have been defiled sanctify for the cleansing of the flesh,

15 For this reason [a]He is the [b]mediator of a [c]new covenant, so that, since a death has taken place for the redemption of the transgressions that were committed under the first covenant, those who have been [d]called may [e]receive the promise of [f]the eternal inheritance.

16 For where a covenant is, there must of necessity be the death of the one who made it.

17 For a covenant is valid only when men are dead, for it is never in force while the one who made it lives.

9:7–10 The fact that only the high priest could go into the Holy of Holies and that he had to go each year signified that no final offering for sin was made in OT times and that the offerings that were made could not cleanse the conscience.

reformation. I.e., the change brought about by the completed sacrifice of Christ and His entering into heaven (vv. 11–12).

9:12 Our Lord's sacrifice was His own blood (not that of animals), offered once for all (not repeatedly), and resulted in eternal redemption (not temporal covering).

9:13 ashes of a heifer. The red heifer offering for cleansing from contact with a corpse. See note on Num. 19:2–10.

9:16 the one who made it. I.e., the one who made the covenant or will. This is strong proof that it is the death of Christ, not His life, that put into effect the new covenant with all its blessings. His sinless life qualified Him to be the suitable sacrifice for sin, but it was His death that made the payment for sin.

9:18 without blood. The death of animals in Ex. 24:3–8.

9:22 almost. For exceptions to the requirement of blood for cleansing permitted by the law,

9:22 [b]Lev 17:11 are cleansed with blood, and [b]without shedding of blood there is no forgiveness.

*9:23 [a]Heb 8:5 23 Therefore it was necessary for the [a]copies of the things in the heavens to be cleansed with these, but [a]the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

9:24 [a]Heb 4:14; 9:12 [b]Heb 8:2 [c]Heb 9:12 [d]Matt 18:10; Heb 7:25 24 For Christ [a]did not enter a holy place made with hands, a mere copy of [b]the true one, but into [c]heaven itself, now [d]to appear in the presence of God for us;

9:25 [a]Heb 9:7 [b]Heb 9:2; 10:19 25 nor was it that He would offer Himself often, as [a]the high priest enters [b]the holy place [a]year by year with blood not his own.

*9:26 [a]Matt 25:34; Heb 4:3 [b]Heb 7:27; 9:12 [c]Matt 13:39; Heb 1:2 [d]1 John 3:5,8 [e]Heb 9:12,14 26 Otherwise, He would have needed to suffer often since [a]the foundation of the world; but now [b]once at [c]the consummation of the ages He has been [d]manifested to put away sin [e]by the sacrifice of Himself.

9:27 [a]Gen 3:19 [b]2 Cor 5:10; 1 John 4:17 27 And inasmuch as [a]it is appointed for men to die once and after this [b]comes judgment,

*9:28 [a]Heb 7:27 [b]Is 53:12; 1 Pet 2:24 [c]Acts 1:11 [d]Heb 5:9 [e]Heb 4:15 [f]1 Cor 1:7; Titus 2:13 28 so Christ also, having been [a]offered once to [b]bear the sins of many, will appear [c]a second time for [d]salvation [e]without reference to sin, to those who [f]eagerly await Him.

*10:1 [a]Heb 8:5 [b]Heb 9:11 [c]Rom 8:3; Heb 9:9; 10:4,11 10 For the Law, since it has only [a]a shadow of [b]the good things to come and not the very form of things, can [c]never, by the same sacrifices which they offer continually year by year, [d]make perfect those who draw near.

10:1 [d]Heb 7:19

10:2 [a]1 Pet 2:19 2 Otherwise, would they not have ceased to be offered, because the worshipers, having once been cleansed, would no longer have had [a]consciousness of sins?

10:3 [a]Heb 9:7 3 But [a]in those sacrifices there is a reminder of sins year by year.

10:4 [a]Heb 10:1,11 [b]Heb 9:12f 4 For it is [a]impossible for the [b]blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.

*10:5 [a]Heb 1:6 [b]Ps 40:6 [c]Heb 2:14; 5:7; 1 Pet 2:24 5 Therefore, [a]when He comes into the world, He says,

"[b]SACRIFICE AND OFFERING YOU HAVE NOT DESIRED,
BUT [c]A BODY YOU HAVE PREPARED FOR ME;

10:6 [a]Ps 40:6 6 [a]IN WHOLE BURNT OFFERINGS AND sacrifices FOR SIN YOU HAVE TAKEN NO PLEASURE.

10:7 [a]Ps 40:7,8 [b]Ezra 6:2; Jer 36:2; Ezek 2:9; 3:1f 7 "[a]THEN I SAID, 'BEHOLD, I HAVE COME
(IN [b]THE SCROLL OF THE BOOK IT IS WRITTEN OF ME)
TO DO YOUR WILL, O GOD.' "

10:8 [a]Ps 40:6; Heb 10:5f [b]Mark 12:33 [c]Rom 8:3 8 After saying above, "[a]SACRIFICES AND OFFERINGS AND [b]WHOLE BURNT OFFERINGS AND sacrifices [c]FOR SIN YOU HAVE NOT DESIRED, NOR HAVE YOU TAKEN PLEASURE in them" (which are offered according to the Law),

10:9 [a]Ps 40:7,8; Heb 10:7 9 then He said, "[a]BEHOLD, I HAVE COME TO DO YOUR WILL." He takes away the first in order to establish the second.

*10:10 [a]John 17:19; Eph 5:26; Heb 2:11; 10:14,29; 13:12 [b]John 6:51; Eph 5:2; Heb 7:27; 9:14,28; 10:12 [c]Heb 2:14; 5:7; 1 Pet 2:24 [d]Heb 7:27 10 By this will we have been [a]sanctified through [b]the offering of [c]the body of Jesus Christ [d]once for all.

see Lev. 5:11–13; Num. 16:46; 31:50.

9:23–24 The heavenly sanctuary had to be purified by Christ's sacrifice. Most refer this to heaven itself, but some to the cleansing of believers whom God inhabits (Eph. 2:22).

9:26 once = once for all. at the consummation of the ages. The first coming of Christ (cf. 1 Peter 1:20).

9:28 to bear the sins of many. Quoted from Isa. 53:12. Isaiah was a significant source of early Christian interpretation of Christ. without reference to sin. I.e., apart from the sin question. In His first coming Christ dealt with sin once for all; in His second coming He will take redeemed sinners to Himself in the consummation of their salvation.

10:1–39 In this chapter the author emphasizes the finality of Christ's sacrifice by contrasting it with the lack of finality of the OT system of law and sacrifices. Christ's redemption needs no repetition and no supplementation. Therefore, a rejection of His sacrifice is final and unforgivable.

10:1–4 The Mosaic Law, with its Levitical priests and their continual and inadequate offerings, was a shadow of Christ's coming and once-for-all offering.

10:5 He comes. I.e., Christ comes. BODY, representing the whole, replaces "ears," representing a part, in Ps. 40:6 (see note there). Complete submission is meant.

10:10 By this will. I.e., by Christ's doing the will of God in becoming the sacrifice for sin. sanctified, or set apart, in our position before God.

ministering and [a]offering time after time the same sacrifices, which [b]can never take away sins;

12 but He, having offered one sacrifice [a]for sins [b]for all time, [c]SAT DOWN AT THE RIGHT HAND OF GOD, 13 waiting from that time onward [a]UNTIL HIS ENEMIES BE MADE A FOOTSTOOL FOR HIS FEET.

14 For by one offering He has [a]perfected [b]for all time those who are sanctified.

15 And [a]the Holy Spirit also testifies to us; for after saying,

16 "[a]THIS IS THE COVENANT THAT I WILL MAKE WITH THEM
AFTER THOSE DAYS, SAYS THE LORD:
I WILL PUT MY LAWS UPON THEIR HEART,
AND ON THEIR MIND I WILL WRITE THEM,"

He then says,

17 "[a]AND THEIR SINS AND THEIR LAWLESS DEEDS
I WILL REMEMBER NO MORE."

18 Now where there is forgiveness of these things, there is no longer any offering for sin.

E Parenthetical Warning: Don't Despise Christ, 10:19–39

19 Therefore, brethren, since we [a]have confidence to [b]enter the holy place by the blood of Jesus,

20 by [a]a new and living way which He inaugurated for us through [b]the veil, that is, His flesh,

21 and since we have [a]a great priest [b]over the house of God,

22 let us [a]draw near with a sincere heart in [b]full assurance of faith, having our hearts [c]sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies [d]washed with pure water.

23 Let us hold fast the [a]confession of our [b]hope without wavering, for [c]He who promised is faithful;

24 and let us consider how [a]to stimulate one another to love and [b]good deeds,

25 not forsaking our own [a]assembling together, as is the habit of some, but [b]encouraging one another; and all the more as you see [c]the day drawing near.

26 For if we go on [a]sinning willfully after receiving [b]the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins,

27 but a terrifying expectation of [a]judgment and [b]THE FURY OF A FIRE WHICH WILL CONSUME THE ADVERSARIES.

28 [a]Anyone who has set aside the Law of Moses dies without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses.

29 [a]How much severer punishment do you think he will deserve [b]who has trampled under foot the Son of God, and has regarded as unclean [c]the blood of the covenant [d]by which he was sanctified, and has [e]insulted the Spirit of grace?

10:12–13 Though exalted and honored now AT THE RIGHT HAND OF GOD, ruling over His enemies awaits His second coming.

10:14 perfected in the sense of making acceptable to God those who are sanctified (v. 10).

10:16–17 For this OT quotation, see Jer. 31:33–34, quoted earlier in 8:10–12.

10:20 a new and living way. Christ is that way (cf. 4:14; 6:20; 7:24–25; John 14:6). The torn veil opening the way to the Holy of Holies symbolizes Christ's flesh (body) on the cross, which opens access to God for us (Matt. 27:51).

10:24 to stimulate. I.e., to stir up to an incitement or paroxysm of love and good works. To understand how strong this Greek word is, see its use in Acts 15:39 (sharp disagreement); 17:16 (being provoked); 1 Cor. 13:5 (provoked); Eph. 6:4 (provoke).

10:25 our own assembling together. I.e., the gathering of Christians for worship and edification. the day. I.e., of Christ's coming (also v. 37; 1 Cor. 3:13; Phil. 1:10).

10:26 sinning willfully. The background is the defiant sin of Num. 15:30–31 (see note there) for which there was no propitiatory offering. there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins. If a person rejects the truth of Christ's death for sin, there is no other sacrifice for sin available and no other way to come to God. Only judgment remains (v. 27).

10:29 The three indictments specified in this verse describe the enormity of the sin of unbelief.

10:30 These are quotes from Deut. 32:35–36 and Ps. 135:14.

2 The examples of faith, 11:3–40

*11:3 [a] John 1:3; Heb 1:2 [b] Gen ch 1; Ps 33:6,9; Heb 6:5; 2 Pet 3:5 [c] Rom 4:17

3 By faith we understand that the [a]worlds were prepared [b]by the word of God, so that what is seen [c]was not made out of things which are visible.

*11:4 [a] Gen 4:4; Matt 23:35; 1 John 3:12 [b] Heb 11:2 [c] Heb 5:1 [d] Gen 4:8-10; Heb 12:24

4 By faith [a]Abel offered to God a better sacrifice than Cain, through which he [b]obtained the testimony that he was righteous, God testifying about his [c]gifts, and through faith, though [d]he is dead, he still speaks.

*11:5 [a] Gen 5:21-24 [b] Luke 2:26; John 8:51; Heb 2:9

5 By faith [a]Enoch was taken up so that he would not [b]see death; AND HE WAS NOT FOUND BECAUSE GOD TOOK HIM UP; for he obtained the witness that before his being taken up he was pleasing to God.

10:32 conflict of sufferings = struggle with sufferings.

10:34 to the prisoners. Some Christians apparently had been imprisoned for their faith, whereas others had experienced the seizure of their possessions.

10:37 This quotation is from Hab. 2:3.

10:38 This quotation from Hab. 2:4 is used to teach that the person who has been made righteous by God lives (and survives the coming ordeal) by faith. The believer trusts God in everything. Hab. 2:4 is also quoted in Rom. 1:17 and Gal. 3:11, where Paul uses it to teach that the one who is righteous by faith (rather than by works) shall live. Paul's emphasis is on salvation by faith; this writer's is on living by faith.

11:1 Faith is described in this great verse as the assurance (or reality, the same word translated "nature" in 1:3) of things hoped for, the conviction (as in John 16:8) of things not seen. Faith gives reality and proof of things unseen, treating them as if they were already objects of sight rather than of hope.

11:2 men of old. I.e., the OT patriarchs and heroes.

11:3 the worlds were prepared. Lit., the ages have been prepared (cf. 1:2). This refers to the preparation of all that the successive periods of time would contain.

11:4 By faith. Abel came in faith; Cain did not. Abel. Actually nothing is said here or in Gen. 4:3–5 as to why Abel's sacrifice in itself was more acceptable, though the fact that it involved blood sacrifice is significant (see 12:24). though he is dead, he still speaks as a witness to succeeding generations, or possibly speaking to God for ultimate vindication at the coming judgment (like the martyrs in Rev. 6:9–11).

11:5 Enoch. Enoch was saved from death by being taken up (Gen. 5:22–24).

6 And without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who [a]comes to God must believe that He is and that He is a rewarder of those who seek Him.

7 By faith [a]Noah, being [b]warned by God about [c]things not yet seen, [d]in reverence [e]prepared an ark for the salvation of his household, by which he condemned the world, and became an heir of [f]the righteousness which is according to faith.

8 By faith [a]Abraham, when he was called, obeyed by going out to a place which he was to [b]receive for an inheritance; and he went out, not knowing where he was going.

9 By faith he lived as an alien in [a]the land of promise, as in a foreign land, [b]dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, [c]fellow heirs of the same promise;

10 for he was looking for [a]the city which has [b]foundations, [c]whose architect and builder is God.

11 By faith even [a]Sarah herself received ability to conceive, even beyond the proper time of life, since she considered Him [b]faithful who had promised.

12 Therefore, also, there was born of one man, and [a]him as good as dead at that, as many descendants [b]AS THE STARS OF HEAVEN IN NUMBER, AND INNUMERABLE AS THE SAND WHICH IS BY THE SEASHORE.

13 [a]All these died in faith, [b]without receiving the promises, but [c]having seen them and having welcomed them from a distance, and [d]having confessed that they were strangers and exiles on the earth.

14 For those who say such things make it clear that they are seeking a country of their own.

15 And indeed if they had been thinking of that country from which they went out, [a]they would have had opportunity to return.

16 But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a [a]heavenly one. Therefore [b]God is not ashamed to be [c]called their God; for [d]He has prepared a city for them.

17 By faith [a]Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac, and he who had [b]received the promises was offering up his only begotten son;

18 it was he to whom it was said, "[a]IN ISAAC YOUR DESCENDANTS SHALL BE CALLED."

19 He considered that [a]God is able to raise men even from the dead, from which he also received him back as a [b]type.

20 By faith [a]Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau, even regarding things to come.

21 By faith [a]Jacob, as he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, and [b]worshiped, leaning on the top of his staff.

22 By faith [a]Joseph, when he was dying, made mention of the exodus of the sons of Israel, and gave orders concerning his bones.

23 By faith [a]Moses, when he was born, was hidden for three months by his parents, because they saw he was a beautiful child; and they were not afraid of the [b]king's edict.

24 By faith Moses, [a]when he had grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter,

25 choosing rather to [a]endure ill-treatment with the people of 11:16 The pilgrim's true homeland is heaven.

11:17 offered up Isaac. See Gen. 22:1 and James 2:21. This was a severe test, for only through Isaac could Abraham have received the promises of the Lord.

11:20 Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau. See Gen. 27:26–40.

11:21 Jacob . . . blessed each of the sons of Joseph. See Gen. 48:1–22.

11:22 Joseph. See Gen. 50:24–25. Joseph showed his faith in God's promise to Abraham by requesting that his bones be buried in the land of promise.

11:26 the reproach of Christ. Reproach because Moses hoped (however dimly) for the coming Messiah. Or this may mean the reproach any anointed envoy or messiah (in this case Moses himself) suffers in a hostile world.

11:27 he left Egypt. Either when he fled to Midian at age 40 (Ex. 2:11–15) or when he left at the time of the Exodus (Ex. 12:37).

11:28 the Passover. See Ex. 12:1–28.

11:29 they passed through the Red Sea. See Ex. 14:13–31.

11:33 shut the mouths of lions. See Dan. 6 (Daniel); Judg. 14:5 (Samson); 1 Sam. 17:34 (David).

11:34 quenched the power of fire. See Dan. 3:23–28.

11:35–38 The background for much of what is in these verses is likely from the apocryphal book of 2 Maccabees (2 Macc. 6:18–7:42).

11:35 Women received back their dead by resurrection. See 1 Kings 17:22–23 (the widow of Zarephath's son); 2 Kings 4:35–36 (the Shunammite's son).

11:37 Tradition says that Isaiah was sawn in two.

11:39 what was promised. I.e., all that was included in the actual coming of the Messiah.

11:40 better for us because we live on this side of the Cross.

"[a]MY SON, DO NOT REGARD
LIGHTLY THE DISCIPLINE OF THE LORD, NOR [b]FAINT WHEN YOU ARE
REPROVED BY HIM;

6 [a]FOR THOSE [b]WHOM THE LORD
LOVES HE DISCIPLINES, AND HE SCOURGES EVERY SON WHOM HE RECEIVES."

12:6 [a]Prov 3:12 [b]Ps 119:75; Rev 3:19

7 It is for discipline that you endure; [a]God deals with you as with sons; for what son is there whom his father does not discipline?

12:7 [a]Deut 8:5; 2 Sam 7:14; Prov 13:24; 19:18; 23:13f

8 But if you are without discipline, [a]of which all have become partakers, then you are illegitimate children and not sons.

12:8 [a]1 Pet 5:9

9 Furthermore, we had earthly fathers to discipline us, and we [a]respected them; shall we not much rather be subject to [b]the Father of spirits, and [c]live?

THE COVENANTS OF SCRIPTURE

Eternal Covenant Heb. 13:20. The redemptive covenant before time began.

Adamic Covenant Gen. 3:14-19. The covenant conditioning fallen man's life on the earth.

Noahic Covenant Gen. 8:20-9:6. The covenant preserving human life and the covenant of human government.

Abrahamic Covenant Gen. 12:1-3; confirmed, 13:14-17; 15:1-7; 17:1-8. The covenant of promise regarding blessing, seed, and promise.

Mosaic Covenant Ex. 20:1-31:18. The legal covenant, given solely to Israel—laws governing all aspects of life.

Palestinian Covenant Deut. 30:1-10. The covenant regulating Israel's possession and enjoyment of the land of Canaan.

Davidic Covenant 2 Sam. 7:4-17; 1 Chron. 17:4-15. The kingdom covenant regulating the temporal and eternal rule of David's posterity.

New Covenant Jer. 31:31-33; Matt. 26:28; Mark 14:24; Luke 22:20; Heb. 8:8-12. The covenant of millennial blessings for Israel based on the death of Christ.

12:2 On the meaning of author, see note on 2:10. Nothing entailed more shame than crucifixion.

12:4 You have not yet resisted to the point of shedding blood. None of the readers of this book had yet been martyred.

12:5–11 In these verses the writer discusses why Christians are disciplined. (1) It is part of the educational process by which a believer is fitted to share God's holiness (v. 10). (2) It is proof of a genuine love relationship between the heavenly Father and His children (vv. 6, 8). (3) It helps train them to be obedient (v. 9). (4) It produces the fruit of righteousness in their lives (v. 11). For additional teaching on this subject, see the book of Job; Rom. 8:18; 2 Cor. 1:3–4; 4:16–17; 12:7–9; Phil. 1:29; 2 Tim. 3:12.

5 The duty of life, 12:25–29

12:25 [a]Heb 3:12 [b]Heb 1:1 [c]Heb 2:2f; 10:28f [d]Heb 12:19 [e]Ex 20:22; Heb 8:5; 11:7

25 [a]See to it that you do not refuse Him who is [b]speaking. For [c]if those did not escape when they [d]refused him who [e]warned them on earth, much less will we escape who turn away from Him who [e]warns from heaven.

*12:26 [a]Ex 19:18; Judg 5:4f [b]Hag 2:6

26 And [a]His voice shook the earth then, but now He has promised, saying, "[b]YET ONCE MORE I WILL SHAKE NOT ONLY THE EARTH, BUT ALSO THE HEAVEN."

*12:27 [a]Is 34:4; 54:10; 65:17; Rom 8:19,21; 1 Cor 7:31; Heb 1:10ff

27 This expression, "Yet once more," denotes [a]the removing of those things which can be shaken, as of created things, so that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.

12:28 [a]Dan 2:44 [b]Heb 13:15,21

28 Therefore, since we receive a [a]kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us show gratitude, by which we may [b]offer to God an acceptable service with reverence and awe;

12:14 Without sanctification in life we cannot see the Lord; i.e., worship Him acceptably.

12:15 Failing to keep pace with what the grace of God wants to do in our lives can result in bitterness in us, which causes trouble to others.

12:16 Esau. See Gen. 25:33. Though he may not have been immoral in the physical sense, Esau was immoral in the spiritual sense, being worldly and materialistic.

12:17 Esau could not repent (cf. Gen. 27:41) even though he sought for it (the blessing, not repentance) with tears.

12:18–24 The old covenant (the law) and the new covenant (the gospel) are contrasted by comparing Mount Sinai, where the law was given, with Mount Zion, the spiritual city, eternal in the heavens and symbolic of the gospel of grace.

12:23 church of the firstborn. Lit., church of firstborn ones. NT believers who belong to the church, the Body of Christ. spirits of the righteous made perfect. Believers of OT times.

12:26 This refers to cataclysmic events connected with Christ's return. The quote is from Hag. 2:6.

12:27 those things which cannot be shaken. I.e., the eternal kingdom to which Christians belong (v. 28).

13:2 some have entertained angels without knowing it. The word "angel" may refer to superhuman beings (see Gen. 18:1–8 for an example of such entertaining) or it may refer to a human being who is a messenger from God (see James 2:25 for an example of such entertaining).

13:5 He Himself has said. See Deut. 31:6. The idea is that Christians need not be anxious (cf. Matt. 6:25–34).

13:21 equip, or fully provide, adjust, make ready. Some other occurrences of the Greek word are in Matt. 4:21; Gal. 6:1; 1 Thess. 3:10.

13:22 bear = be patient with. briefly. Perhaps also outspokenly.

13:23 Timothy. Apparently he had been imprisoned (see Acts 16:1; Rom. 16:21).

13:24 saints = believers. Those from Italy. Probably some Italians living outside Italy sending their greetings home.

JAMES

INTRODUCTION

AUTHOR: James DATE: 45–50

The General Epistles James, 1 and 2 Peter, 1, 2, and 3 John, and Jude were called by the early church the "General," "Universal," or "Catholic" epistles because their addresses (with the exception of 2 and 3 John) were not limited to a single locality. James, for example, is addressed "to the twelve tribes who are dispersed abroad" (1:1)—a designation for believers everywhere (likely all Jewish Christians at that early date).

Authorship Of the four men bearing the name James in the New Testament, only two have been proposed as the author of this letter—James the son of Zebedee (and brother of John) and James the half brother of Jesus. It is unlikely that the son of Zebedee was the author, for he was martyred in A.D. 44 (Acts 12:2). The authoritative tone of the letter not only rules out the two lesser known Jameses of the New Testament ("James the Less" and the James of Luke 6:16) but points to the half brother of Jesus who became the recognized leader of the Jerusalem church (Acts 12:17; 15:13; 21:18). This conclusion is supported by the resemblances in the Greek between this epistle and the speech of James at the Council of Jerusalem (1:1 and Acts 15:23; 1:27 and Acts 15:14; 2:5 and Acts 15:13).

Date Some, denying the authorship by James because of the excellent Greek used, place the writing of the book at the very end of the first century. However, Galileans knew and used Greek well, along with Aramaic and Hebrew. Further, an early date is indicated by the lack of reference to the Jerusalem Council (A.D. 49), by the use of the word "assembly" (synagogue) for the church in 2:2, and by the strong expectation of the Lord's soon return (5:7–9).

Canonicity The canonical status of this letter was questioned until the church realized that its author was almost surely the half brother of Jesus. Luther did not question the genuineness of James, only its usefulness in comparison with Paul's epistles, because it says little about justification by faith, while emphasizing works.

Contents The book is concerned with the practical aspects of Christian conduct; it tells how faith works in everyday life. James's purpose was to provide concrete ethical instruction. Compared to Paul, James shows much less interest in formal theology, though the letter is not without theological statements (1:12; 2:1, 10–12, 19; 3:9; 5:7–9, 12, 14). Many subjects are discussed in this book, making it like a series of brief sayings arranged in the form of a letter. While there is little formal structure to the book, its many instructions explain how to be doers of the Word (1:22). In the 108 verses of the epistle there are references or allusions from 22 books of the Old Testament and at least 15 allusions to the teachings of Christ as embodied in the Sermon on the Mount. Among the key subjects discussed are faith and works (2:14–26), the use of the tongue (3:1–12), and prayer for the sick (5:13–16).

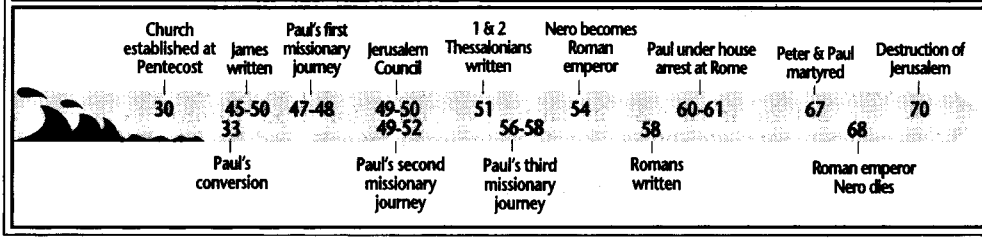
TIMELINE OF JAMES



THE LETTER OF JAMES

I GREETING, 1:1

1 [a]James, a [b]bond-servant of God and [c]of the Lord Jesus Christ, to [d]the twelve tribes who are [e]dispersed abroad: [f]Greetings.

II TRIALS, 1:2–18

A The Purpose of Trials, 1:2–12

2 [a]Consider it all joy, my brethren, when you encounter [b]various trials,

3 knowing that [a]the testing of your [b]faith produces [c]endurance.

4 And let [a]endurance have its perfect result, so that you may be [b]perfect and complete, lacking in nothing.

5 But if any of you [a]lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all generously and without reproach, and [b]it will be given to him.

6 But he must [a]ask in faith [b]without any doubting, for the one who doubts is like the surf of the sea, [c]driven and tossed by the wind.

7 For that man ought not to expect that he will receive anything from the Lord,

8 being a [a]double-minded man, [b]unstable in all his ways.

9 [a]But the brother of humble circumstances is to glory in his high position;

10 and the rich man is to glory in his humiliation, because [a]like flowering grass he will pass away.

11 For the sun rises with [a]a scorching wind and [b]withers the grass; and its flower falls off and the beauty of its appearance is destroyed; so too the rich man in the midst of his pursuits will fade away.

12 [a]Blessed is a man who perseveres under trial; for once he has been approved, he will receive [b]the crown of life which the Lord [c]has promised to those who [d]love Him.

B The Pedigree of Trials, 1:13–15

13 Let no one say when he is tempted, "[a]I am being tempted by God"; for God cannot be tempted by evil, and He Himself does not tempt anyone.

14 But each one is tempted when he is carried away and enticed by his own lust.

15 Then [a]when lust has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and when [b]sin is accomplished, it brings forth death.

*1:15 [a]Job 15:35; Ps 7:14; Is 59:4 [b]Rom 5:12; 6:23

1:1 to the twelve tribes who are dispersed abroad. The letter is addressed to Jewish Christians (cf. 2:1; 5:7) scattered throughout the world.

1:2–4 Trials faced with joy result in endurance, which leads to maturity (being perfect) and full (complete) development.

1:5 God gives wisdom abundantly and graciously when we ask.

1:6 doubting. I.e., going back and forth between belief and unbelief (cf. Rom. 4:20).

1:8 a double-minded man. I.e., a man of divided allegiance.

1:10 his humiliation. Either by losing his money or by being brought through some circumstance in order to realize that money means little and is at best transitory.

1:12 once he has been approved. After having stood the test. crown of life. The crown is eternal life, one of the rewards or prizes for the Christian. See note on 1 Cor. 3:14.

1:13 tempted. To tempt is to test, try, prove, or solicit to evil. In verses 2 and 12, the same Greek word is used to mean those trials that are designed to prove the quality of one's character. In this verse the word means "a solicitation to evil," and this, James says, is not from God but from man's own inner lust (v. 14). Any attempt at self-excuse is based on ignorance both of God and of the nature of temptation.

1:14 carried away and enticed. The picture behind these words is that of the hunter or fisherman luring his prey from its safe retreat.

1:15 The progression is frightening and certain: lust, sin, death (cf. Eve's temptation, Gen. 3:6–22).

C The Purpose of God, 1:16–18

16 [a]Do not be deceived, [b]my beloved brethren.

17 Every good thing given and every perfect gift is [a]from above, coming down from [b]the Father of lights, [c]with whom there is no variation or shifting shadow.

18 In the exercise of [a]His will He [b]brought us forth by [c]the word of truth, so that we would be, as it were, the [d]first fruits among His creatures.

III THE WORD, 1:19–27

19 This [a]you know, [b]my beloved brethren. But everyone must be quick to hear, [c]slow to speak and [d]slow to anger;

20 for [a]the anger of man does not achieve the righteousness of God.

21 Therefore, [a]putting aside all filthiness and all that remains of wickedness, in humility receive [b]the word implanted, which is able to save your souls.

22 [a]But prove yourselves doers of the word, and not merely hearers who delude themselves.

23 For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks at his natural face [a]in a mirror;

24 for once he has looked at himself and gone away, he has immediately forgotten what kind of person he was.

25 But one who looks intently at the perfect law, [a]the law of liberty, and abides by it, not having become a forgetful hearer but an effectual doer, this man will be [b]blessed in what he does.

26 If anyone thinks himself to be religious, and yet does not [a]bridle his tongue but deceives his own heart, this man's religion is worthless.

27 Pure and undefiled religion [a]in the sight of our God and Father is this: to [b]visit [c]orphans and widows in their distress, and to keep oneself unstained by [d]the world.

IV PARTIALITY, 2:1–13

A The Command, 2:1

2 [a]My brethren, [b]do not hold your faith in our [c]glorious Lord Jesus Christ with an attitude of [d]personal favoritism.

B The Conduct, 2:2–3

2 For if a man comes into your assembly with a gold ring and

2:2

1:16 Do not be deceived. Used also in 1 Cor. 6:9; 15:33; and Gal. 6:7.

1:17 Every good thing given. Both the gift and the act of giving. The point is that all these good things come from above. This statement may have come from an early Christian hymn. Father of lights. God is the source of all light—physical, intellectual, moral, and spiritual—and He does not change.

1:18 His will. God's will or purpose is the cause of our regeneration (He brought us forth) by means of the gospel message. first fruits. These first believers, largely Jewish in background, were the guarantee of a fuller harvest of believers to come.

1:21 the word implanted. I.e., the gospel received as the word of truth to further our Christian growth.

1:23 his natural face. Lit., the face of his birth, his physical features. The contrast in verses 23–25 is a simple one: The careless man looks in a mirror and forgets what he sees. The earnest man looks into the Word of God and acts upon what he sees there. like a man. The word for man is "male" and indicates that men, in contrast to women, who are more sensitive by nature, need this exhortation to careful observance of what they see in the Word.

1:25 the perfect law, the law of liberty. The Bible itself, though at the time this letter was written only the OT and the teachings of Christ had scriptural authority. The Word of God is the means of regeneration (v. 18), the vehicle for Christian growth (v. 21), a mirror reflecting man's defects (v. 23), the ethical guide for Christian living (v. 25; 2:8), and the standard for judgment (2:12).

1:26–27 Three characteristics of worthwhile religion: controlling the tongue, visiting (looking after) orphans and widows, and keeping unstained (as Christ was, 1 Peter 1:19) by this world system.

2:1 Do not show personal favoritism. I.e., show no partiality, especially in regard to people of position or wealth who might come into the congregation. our glorious Lord Jesus Christ. Better, the Lord, the Glory. He is glory (Heb. 1:3).

2:2 assembly. Lit., synagogue, though not indicating a Jewish synagogue but the meeting place for the church (cf. 5:14). gold ring. It was not uncommon for several to be worn as a mark of wealth and social distinction (Luke 15:22).

dressed in [a]fine clothes, and there also comes in a poor man in [b]dirty clothes,

3 and you pay special attention to the one who is wearing the [a]fine clothes, and say, "You sit here in a good place," and you say to the poor man, "You stand over there, or sit down by my footstool,"

C The Consequences, 2:4–13

4 have you not made distinctions among yourselves, and become judges [a]with evil motives?

5 Listen, [a]my beloved brethren: did not [b]God choose the poor of this world to be [c]rich in faith and [d]heirs of the kingdom which He [e]promised to those who love Him?

6 But you have dishonored the poor man. Is it not the rich who oppress you and personally [a]drag you into court?

7 [a]Do they not blaspheme the fair name by which you have been called?

8 If, however, you [a]are fulfilling the royal law according to the Scripture, "[b]YOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF," you are doing well.

9 But if you [a]show partiality, you are committing sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors.

10 For whoever keeps the whole law and yet [a]stumbles in one point, he has become [b]guilty of all.

11 For He who said, "[a]DO NOT COMMIT ADULTERY," also said, "[b]DO NOT COMMIT MURDER." Now if you do not commit adultery, but do commit murder, you have become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak and so act as those who are to be judged by [a]the law of liberty.

13 For [a]judgment will be merciless to one who has shown no mercy; mercy triumphs over judgment.

V FAITH AND WORKS, 2:14–26

A The Inquiry, 2:14

14 [a]What use is it, [b]my brethren, if someone says he has faith but he has no works? Can that faith save him?

B The Illustration, 2:15–17

15 [a]If a brother or sister is without clothing and in need of daily food,

16 and one of you says to them, "[a]Go in peace, be warmed and be filled," and yet you do not give them what is necessary for their body, what use is that?

17 Even so [a]faith, if it has no works, is dead, being by itself.

2:17 [a]Gal 5:6; James 2:20,26

2:18 [a]Rom 9:19

2:3 by my footstool. I.e., in a lowly place, on the floor.

2:4 judges with evil motives. To show favoritism to the rich is wrong in a number of ways. It shows one's value system to be false (v. 3); it is discrimination (v. 4); it fails to honor the poor, whom God honors (v. 5); it favors those who oppress you (v. 6); it is sin (v. 9).

2:8 the royal law because it was given by the King and because it is the king of laws. When this command is quoted in the NT, various "neighbors" are focused on: the desperate person in Luke 10:27; the weaker brother in Gal. 5:14; everyone in Rom. 13:9; and the poor man here.

2:10 has become guilty of all. One sin, small or great, makes a man a sinner and brings him under condemnation.

2:12 the law of liberty. Obedience to God's commands brings true freedom; disobedience brings bondage.

2:14 Can that faith save him? I.e., can a nonworking, dead, spurious faith save a person? James is not saying that we are saved by works but that a faith that does not produce good works is a dead faith. James was not refuting the Pauline doctrine of justification by true faith but a perversion of it. Both Paul and James define faith as a living, productive trust in Christ. Genuine faith cannot be "dead" to morality or barren to works. An illustration of spurious faith is given in verses 15–16.

2:17 A workless faith is a worthless faith.

2:18 The challenger's statement ends before the first occurrence of the word show. James's reply begins there.

say, "You have faith and I have works; show me your [b]faith without the works, and I will [c]show you my faith [d]by my works."

19 You believe that [a]God is one. [b]You do well; [c]the demons also believe, and shudder.

20 But are you willing to recognize, [a]you foolish fellow, that [b]faith without works is useless?

21 [a]Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he offered up Isaac his son on the altar?

22 You see that [a]faith was working with his works, and as a result of the [b]works, faith was perfected;

23 and the Scripture was fulfilled which says, "[a]AND ABRAHAM BELIEVED GOD, AND IT WAS RECKONED TO HIM AS RIGHTEOUSNESS," and he was called [b]the friend of God.

24 You see that a man is justified by works and not by faith alone.

25 In the same way, was not [a]Rahab the harlot also justified by works [b]when she received the messengers and sent them out by another way?

26 For just as the body without the spirit is dead, so also [a]faith without works is dead.

VI SINS OF THE TONGUE, 3:1–12

A Its Bridling, 3:1–4

3 [a]Let not many of you become teachers, [b]my brethren, knowing that as such we will incur a stricter judgment.

2 For we all [a]stumble in many ways. [b]If anyone does not stumble in what he says, he is a [c]perfect man, able to [d]bridle the whole body as well.

3 Now [a]if we put the bits into the horses' mouths so that they will obey us, we direct their entire body as well.

4 Look at the ships also, though they are so great and are driven by strong winds, are still directed by a very small rudder wherever the inclination of the pilot desires.

B Its Boasting, 3:5–12

5 So also the tongue is a small part of the body, and yet it [a]boasts of great things. [b]See how great a forest is set aflame by such a small fire!

6 And [a]the tongue is a fire, the very world of iniquity; the tongue is set among our members as that which [b]defiles the entire body, and sets on fire the course of our life, and is set on fire by [c]hell.

2:19 God is one. The unity of God was a fundamental belief in Judaism, but if that belief did not produce good deeds it was no better than the monotheism of the demons.

2:21 justified by works. In Paul's writings, "to justify" means "to declare a sinner righteous in the sight of God"; here in James it means "to vindicate" or "show to be righteous" before God and men. Abraham's justification in Paul's sense is recorded in Gen. 15:6; Abraham's justification in James's sense took place 30 or more years later in the patriarch's crowning act of obedience in offering Isaac (Gen. 22). By this act he proved the reality of his Gen. 15 faith.

2:23 friend of God. This title comes from 2 Chron. 20:7 and Isa. 41:8.

2:24 This verse is the reply to the question of verse 14. Unproductive faith cannot save, because it is not genuine faith. Faith and works are like a two-coupon ticket to heaven. The coupon of works is not good for passage, and the coupon of faith is not valid if detached from works.

2:25 In sharp contrast to Abraham, Rahab was a Gentile, a woman, a pagan, and a prostitute, but she believed that God had given Canaan to the Israelites and acted on that faith by sending the spies another way. Her story is told in Josh. 2:1–21.

3:1 teachers. Since teachers use their tongues (to instruct others) more, they will be judged more strictly.

3:2 The theme of verses 1–12 is found in the second clause: If anyone . . . he is a perfect man. Perfect means "mature, of full moral and spiritual growth." The word for man is male, indicating that men particularly need to guard the use of the tongue.

3:3–5 Small but powerful is the tongue, like a bit, a rudder, and a small fire (spark).

3:6 the course of our life. I.e., the whole course of human existence. The tremendous destructive power of the tongue comes from hell (lit., Gehenna). See note on Matt. 5:22.

7 For every species of beasts and birds, of reptiles and creatures of the sea, is tamed and has been tamed by the human race.

3:8 8 But no one can tame the tongue; it is a restless evil and full of [a]deadly poison.

3:9 9 With it we bless [a]our Lord and Father, and with it we curse men, [b]who have been made in the likeness of God;

3:10 10 from the same mouth come both blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not to be this way.

11 Does a fountain send out from the same opening both fresh and bitter water?

3:12 12 [a]Can a fig tree, my brethren, produce olives, or a vine produce figs? Neither can salt water produce fresh.

VII TRUE WISDOM, 3:13–18

3:13 13 Who among you is wise and understanding? [a]Let him show by his [b]good behavior his deeds in the gentleness of wisdom.

14 But if you have bitter [a]jealousy and selfish ambition in your heart, do not be arrogant and so lie against [b]the truth.

15 This wisdom is not that which comes down [a]from above, but is [b]earthly, [c]natural, [d]demonic.

16 For where [a]jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there is disorder and every evil thing.

17 But the wisdom [a]from above is first [b]pure, then [c]peaceable, [d]gentle, reasonable, [e]full of mercy and good fruits, [f]unwavering, without [g]hypocrisy.

18 And the [a]seed whose fruit is righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

VIII WORLDLINESS, 4:1–17

A Its Cause, 4:1–2

4:1 4 What is the source of quarrels and [a]conflicts among you? Is not the source your pleasures that wage [b]war in your members?

4:2 2 You lust and do not have; so you [a]commit murder. You are envious and cannot obtain; so you fight and quarrel. You do not have because you do not ask.

B Its Consequences, 4:3–6

4:3 3 You ask and [a]do not receive, because you ask with wrong motives, so that you may spend it on your pleasures.

4:4 4 You [a]adulteresses, do you not know that friendship with [b]the world is [c]hostility toward God? [d]Therefore whoever wishes to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.

4:5 5 Or do you think that the Scripture [a]speaks to no purpose: "He jealously desires [b]the Spirit which He has made to dwell in us"?

4:6 6 But [a]He gives a greater grace. Therefore it says, "[b]GOD IS OPPOSED TO THE PROUD, BUT GIVES GRACE TO THE HUMBLE."

C Its Cure, 4:7–10

4:7 7 [a]Submit therefore to God.

3:9 in the likeness of God. The divine image has been marred by sin but not totally obliterated. Our being made in the image of God is the basis for not cursing our fellow man.

3:10–12 The point is that a believer's tongue should not speak inconsistencies.

3:13 The question that opens this verse sets the theme for verses 13–18. The answer is this: The person who remembers his moral responsibilities.

3:18 whose fruit is righteousness. In contrast to 1:20.

4:2 commit murder. The logical, but not necessarily usual, outcome of lust. See Matt. 5:21–22.

4:3 with wrong motives. Lit., evilly, for selfish purposes.

4:4 adulteresses. Symbolic language for unfaithful people, as often in the OT. friendship with the world. The Greek word is philia, indicating a reciprocal relationship. Unfaithful people love the world, and the world loves them.

4:5 The thought may also be expressed thus: Do you imagine there is no meaning to the Scripture that says, "The Spirit that dwells in us longs jealously over us"? The Spirit does not want us to have divided allegiance.

4:7–10 There are 10 verbs, all commands, in these verses, in a tense that indicates the need for a decisive and urgent break with the old life.

*4:15 [a]Acts 18:21

[b]Resist the devil and he will flee from you.

8 [a]Draw near to God and He will draw near to you. [b]Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and [c]purify your hearts, you [d]double-minded.

9 [a]Be miserable and mourn and weep; let your laughter be turned into mourning and your joy to gloom.

10 [a]Humble yourselves in the presence of the Lord, and He will exalt you.

D Its Characteristics, 4:11–17

11 [a]Do not speak against one another, [b]brethren. He who speaks against a brother or [c]judges his brother, speaks against [d]the law and judges the law; but if you judge the law, you are not [e]a doer of the law but a judge of it.

12 There is only one [a]Lawgiver and Judge, the One who is [b]able to save and to destroy; but [c]who are you who judge your neighbor?

13 [a]Come now, you who say, "[b]Today or tomorrow we will go to such and such a city, and spend a year there and engage in business and make a profit."

14 Yet you do not know what your life will be like tomorrow. [a]You are just a vapor that appears for a little while and then vanishes away.

15 Instead, you ought to say, "[a]If the Lord wills, we will live and also do this or that."

16 But as it is, you boast in your arrogance; [a]all such boasting is evil.

17 Therefore, [a]to one who knows the right thing to do and does not do it, to him it is sin.

5 [a]Come now, [b]you rich, [c]weep and howl for your miseries which are coming upon you.

2 [a]Your riches have rotted and your garments have become moth-eaten.

3 Your gold and your silver have rusted; and their rust will be a witness against you and will consume your flesh like fire. It is [a]in the last days that you have stored up your treasure!

4 Behold, [a]the pay of the laborers who mowed your fields, and which has been withheld by you, cries out against you; and [b]the outcry of those who did the harvesting has reached the ears of [c]the Lord of Sabaoth.

5 You have [a]lived luxuriously on the earth and led a life of wanton pleasure; you have fattened your hearts in [b]a day of slaughter.

6 You have condemned and [a]put to death [b]the righteous man; he does not resist you.

7 Therefore be patient, [a]brethren, [b]until the coming of the Lord. [c]The farmer waits for the precious produce of the soil, being patient about it, until it gets [d]the early and late rains.

4:8 double-minded. See note on 1:8. Worldliness is basically divided allegiance.

4:9 The cleansing of verse 8 requires a serious spirit of confession and repentance. laughter. Laughter is sometimes desirable (cf. Ps. 126:2), but not when it reflects worldly frivolity.

4:11–12 The person who judges his brother disobeys the law, thus putting himself above it and treating it with contempt.

4:13–16 The folly of forgetting God in business is another manifestation of worldliness. The itinerant merchants addressed here were Jews who carried on a lucrative trade throughout the world.

4:15 If the Lord wills. Not to be used as a cliché but as a sober reflection of a heart attitude of total dependence on God's will.

4:17 Like doing evil, failing to do good (i.e., obey all the exhortations of this letter) is also sin.

5:1 rich. Unsaved people (cf. 2:6–7).

5:3 have rusted. The rich did not realize that the last days were already present (cf. 2 Tim. 3:1).

5:4 Lord of Sabaoth = Lord of Hosts (a familiar OT title). See note on 1 Sam. 1:3. The Lord Almighty, the omnipotent sovereign, who is not oblivious to injustice.

5:6 put to death the righteous. This probably refers to the practice of the rich taking the poor ("the righteous") to court to take away what little they might have, thus "murdering" them.

5:7 the early (Oct.-Nov.) and late (April-May) rains. Palestine has two rainy seasons annually.

8 [a]You too be patient; [b]strengthen your hearts, for [c]the coming of the Lord is [d]near.

9 [a]Do not complain, [b]brethren, against one another, so that you yourselves may not be judged; behold, [c]the Judge is standing [d]right at the door.

10 As an example, [a]brethren, of suffering and patience, take [b]the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.

11 We count those [a]blessed who endured. You have heard of [b]the endurance of Job and have seen [c]the outcome of the Lord's dealings, that [d]the Lord is full of compassion and is merciful.

12 But above all, [a]my brethren, [b]do not swear, either by heaven or by earth or with any other oath; but your yes is to be yes, and your no, no, so that you may not fall under judgment.

X PRAYER, 5:13–18

13 Is anyone among you [a]suffering? [b]Then he must pray. Is anyone cheerful? He is to [c]sing praises.

14 Is anyone among you sick? Then he must call for [a]the elders of the church and they are to pray over him, [b]anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord;

15 and the [a]prayer offered in faith will [b]restore the one who is sick, and the Lord will [c]raise him up, and if he has committed sins, they will be forgiven him.

16 Therefore, [a]confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another so that you may be [b]healed. [c]The effective prayer of a righteous man can accomplish much.

17 Elijah was [a]a man with a nature like ours, and [b]he prayed earnestly that it would not rain, and it did not rain on the earth for [c]three years and six months.

18 Then he [a]prayed again, and [b]the sky poured rain and the earth produced its fruit.

XI THE CONVERSION OF THE ERRING, 5:19–20

19 My brethren, [a]if any among you strays from [b]the truth and one turns him back,

20 let him know that he who turns a sinner from the error of his way will [a]save his soul from death and will [b]cover a multitude of sins.

5:8 [a]Luke 21:19; [b]1 Thess 3:13; [c]John 21:22; 1 Thess 2:19; [d]Rom 13:11, 12; 1 Pet 4:7

*5:19 [a]Matt 18:15; Gal 6:1; [b]James 3:14
5:20 [a]Rom 11:14; 1 Cor 1:21; James 1:21; [b]Prov 10:12; 1 Pet 4:8

5:11 the endurance of Job. Job was steadfast in his moral integrity. See Job 1:21; 2:10; 13:15; 16:19; 19:25.

5:12 do not swear. Not all oaths are forbidden by this verse, only flippant, profane, or blasphemous ones. Oaths in the sense of solemn affirmations were enjoined in the law (Ex. 22:11) and were practiced by Christ (Matt. 26:63–64) and Paul (Rom. 1:9).

5:13 Suffering should be the cause for prayer, happiness the reason for praise.

5:14–15 God may heal directly, through medicine, or in answer to prayer, as here. The oil is a symbol of the presence of God (cf. Ps. 23:5); it may also have been considered medicinal in James's day (cf. Luke 10:34), though hardly as being effective for all diseases. Prayers of faith are answered not simply because they are prayed in faith but only if they are prayed in the will of God (1 John 5:14). God does not always think it best to heal (cf. 2 Cor. 12:8; 2 Tim. 4:20). Here the healing is dependent on confession of sin. Historically, the Roman Catholic sacrament of extreme unction developed out of this practice, but the significance is entirely changed, for the Roman Catholic rite has death in view, not recovery. Some understand the word sick in verse 14 to refer to spiritual, not physical, weakness and the different word translated sick in verse 15 to mean "weary" (these meanings are legitimate). Thus the discouraged person will be restored to spiritual vigor by the elders' prayer and anointing.

5:14 the elders of the church. Elders are first mentioned in Acts 11:30 as recognized leaders of the churches. Their mention here and in Acts 14:23 relates to about the same period in the early church; they were the first leaders, before deacons and long before bishops.

5:16 confess . . . to one another (not to a priest in a confessional) so that we can pray more intelligently for one another. healed either in body or in spirit (depending on one's view of vv. 14–15), or perhaps both are included here. A righteous person knows how best to pray according to the will of God.

5:17–18 Elijah's prayers are inferred from 1 Kings 17:1 and 18:42.

5:19–20 any among you. The reference is evidently to Christians, and the death is physical death, which sin may cause (1 Cor. 11:30).

1 PETER

INTRODUCTION

AUTHOR: Peter DATE: 63-64

Readership This letter is addressed to "aliens, scattered" or, literally, the "sojourners of the dispersion" (1:1). These were Christians who, like Israel of old, were scattered throughout the world, though the readers of this epistle were predominantly of Gentile rather than Jewish background (1:14; 2:9–10; 4:3–4). Their situation was one of suffering and trial (4:12), but not because of the empire-wide ban on Christianity, since that came later. The sufferings referred to are those that often come to Christians as they live faithfully in a pagan and hostile society. Persecution took the forms of slander, riots, local police action, and social ostracism. The readers are encouraged to rejoice and live above such reproach.

Circumstances of Writing That the apostle Peter was the writer (as stated in 1:1) is confirmed by the many similarities between this letter and Peter's sermons recorded in Acts (1:20 and Acts 2:23; 4:5 and Acts 10:42). The same Silvanus (also called Silas) who accompanied Paul on the second missionary journey was his amanuensis, or secretary (5:12; Acts 15:40).

The place of writing was "Babylon" (5:13), a symbolic name for Rome much used by writers who wished to avoid trouble with the Roman authorities. Peter was in Rome during the last decade of his life and wrote this epistle about A.D. 63, just before the outbreak of Nero's persecution in A.D. 64. Peter was martyred about 67.

Contents Peter himself states the theme of the letter in 5:12, "the true grace of God" in the life of a believer.

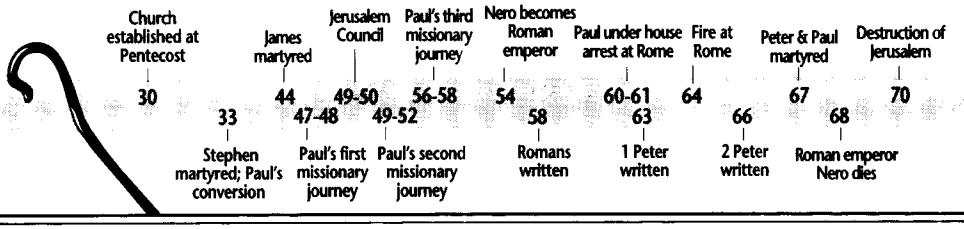
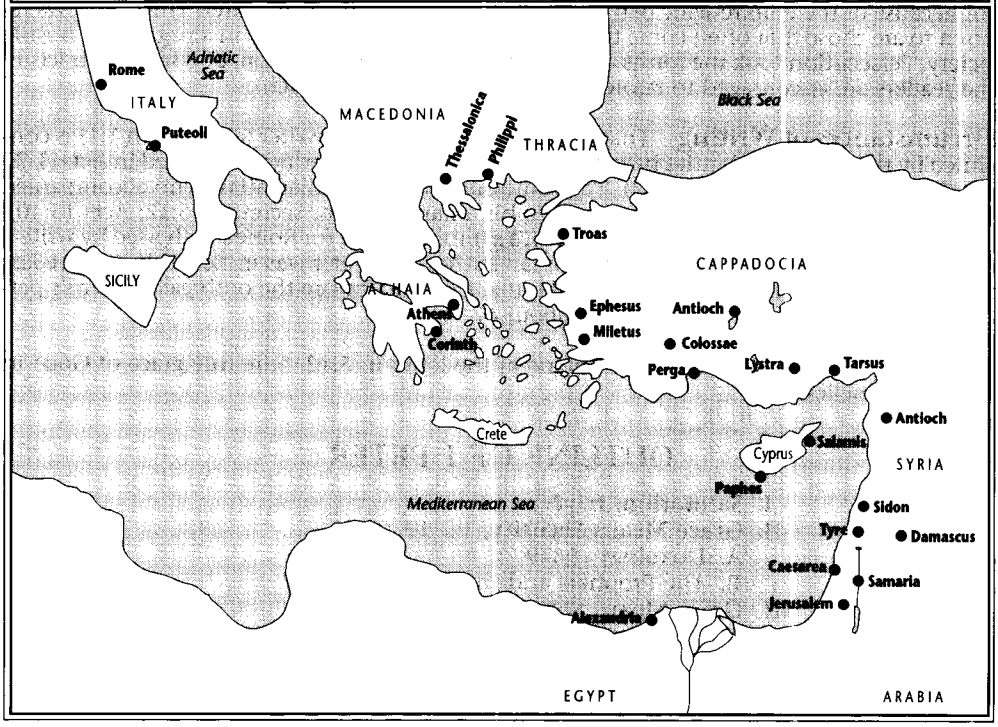
TIMELINE OF 1 PETER



THE NEW TESTAMENT WORLD



THE FIRST LETTER OF PETER

I SALUTATION, 1:1–2

1 [a]Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who reside as [b]aliens, [c]scattered throughout [d]Pontus, [e]Galatia, [d]Cappadocia, [d]Asia, and [f]Bithynia, [g]who are chosen

2 according to the [a]foreknowledge of God the Father, [b]by the sanctifying work of the Spirit, to [c]obey Jesus Christ and be [d]sprinkled with His blood: [e]May grace and peace be yours in the fullest measure.

II GRACE MEANS SECURITY, 1:3–12

A Doxology, 1:3–9

3 [a]Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who [b]according to His great mercy [c]has caused us to be born again to [d]a living hope through the [e]resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

4 to obtain an [a]inheritance which is imperishable and undefiled and [b]will not fade away, [c]reserved in heaven for you,

5 who are [a]protected by the power of God [b]through faith for [c]a salvation ready [d]to be revealed in the last time.

6 [a]In this you greatly rejoice, even though now [b]for a little while, [c]if necessary, you have been distressed by [d]various trials,

7 so that the [a]proof of your faith, being more precious than gold which is perishable, [b]even though tested by fire, [c]may be found to result in praise and glory and honor at [d]the revelation of Jesus Christ;

8 and [a]though you have not seen Him, you [b]love Him, and though you do not see Him now, but believe in Him, you greatly rejoice with joy inexpressible and full of glory,

9 obtaining as [a]the outcome of your faith the salvation of your souls.

B The Prophets and the Gospel, 1:10–12

10 [a]As to this salvation, the prophets who [b]prophesied of the [c]grace that would come to you made careful searches and inquiries,

11 seeking to know what person or time [a]the Spirit of Christ within them was indicating as He [b]predicted the sufferings of Christ and the glories to follow.

1:1 aliens = sojourners, exiles, foreign residents. The word is applied to those who settled in a town or region without making it their permanent place of residence. The readers, whose true citizenship was in heaven, are viewed as temporary residents of the provinces of Asia Minor named in this verse.

1:2 The idea expressed in this verse is that God in His wisdom has chosen us to salvation through the work of the Holy Spirit, applying in us the worth of the death of Christ so that we might be obedient to Him. foreknowledge. God's prior knowledge of all things, based on His relation to them, is the basis of our election. More than passive foresight, foreknowledge involves God's active consciousness of all that is to come to pass. (See 1:20; Rom. 8:29; 11:2 for the same word and concept; and see note on Eph. 1:5). Father . . . Spirit . . . Christ. An early formulation of the doctrine of the Trinity. sprinkled with His blood signifies the personal application of the sacrifice of Christ.

1:3 Here begins Peter's recital of the blessings of God's redeemed children, concluding at 2:10.

1:4 undefiled = unstained by evil. will not fade away. I.e., unimpaired by time. reserved. Perfect tense indicating that our inheritance has already been put in safe keeping and continues there.

1:5 We, too, are being protected (present tense of a different word meaning "guarded") by God's power through faith.

1:6–9 Knowledge of our secure position and inheritance brings (1) rejoicing (v. 6), (2) the proof of the reality of our faith (v. 7), (3) increasing love for Him (v. 8), and (4) assurance of the completion of our salvation (v. 9).

1:10–12 Though the OT prophets spoke of grace being given to Gentiles, they did not understand all that was involved in God's saving Gentiles through a suffering Messiah (see Col. 1:26–27). The OT prophets did predict both the suffering (Isa. 53) and glory (Isa. 11) of the Messiah, without distinguishing that the former would be fulfilled at His first coming and the latter at His second.

12 It was revealed to them that they were not serving themselves, but you, in these things which now have been announced to you through those who [a]preached the gospel to you by [b]the Holy Spirit sent from heaven—things into which [c]angels long to look.

1:12 [a] 1 Pet 1:25; 4:6 [b] Acts 2:2-4 [c] 1 Tim 3:16

III GRACE MEANS SOBRIETY, 1:13–2:10

A In Holiness, 1:13–16

13 Therefore, [a]prepare your minds for action, [b]keep sober in spirit, fix your [c]hope completely on the [d]grace to be brought to you at [e]the revelation of Jesus Christ.

1:13 [a] Eph 6:14 [b] 1 Thess 5:6,8; 2 Tim 4:5; 1 Pet 4:7; 5:8 [c] 1 Pet 1:3 [d] 1 Pet 1:10 [e] 1 Pet 1:7

14 As [a]obedient children, do not [b]be conformed to the former lusts which were yours in your [c]ignorance,

1:14 [a] 1 Pet 1:2 [b] Rom 12:2; 1 Pet 4:2f [c] Eph 4:18

15 but [a]like the Holy One who called you, [b]be holy yourselves also [c]in all your behavior;

1:15 [a] 1 Thess 4:7; 1 John 3:3 [b] 2 Cor 7:1 [c] James 3:13

16 because it is written, "[a]YOU SHALL BE HOLY, FOR I AM HOLY."

1:16 [a] Lev 11:44f; 19:2; 20:7

B In Fear, 1:17–21

17 And if you [a]address as Father the One who [b]impartially [c]judges according to each one's work, conduct yourselves [d]in fear during the time of your [e]stay on earth;

1:17 [a] Ps 89:26; Jer 3:19; Matt 6:9 [b] Acts 10:34 [c] Matt 16:27 [d] 2 Cor 7:1; Heb 12:28; 1 Pet 3:15 [e] 1 Pet 2:11

18 knowing that you were not [a]redeemed with perishable things like silver or gold from your [b]futile way of life inherited from your forefathers,

1:18 [a] Is 52:3; 1 Cor 6:20; Titus 2:14; Heb 9:12 [b] Eph 4:17

19 but with precious [a]blood, as of a [b]lamb unblemished and spotless, the blood of Christ.

1:19 [a] Acts 20:28; 1 Pet 1:2 [b] John 1:29

20 For He was [a]foreknown before [b]the foundation of the world, but has [c]appeared in these last times [d]for the sake of you

1:20 [a] Acts 2:23; Eph 1:4; 1 Pet 1:2; Rev 13:8 [b] Matt 25:34 [c] Heb 9:26 [d] Heb 2:14

21 who through Him are [a]believers in God, who raised Him from the dead and [b]gave Him glory, so that your faith and [c]hope are in God.

1:21 [a] Rom 4:24; 10:9 [b] John 17:5,24; 1 Tim 3:16; Heb 2:9 [c] 1 Pet 1:3

C In Love, 1:22–25

22 Since you have [a]in obedience to the truth [b]purified your souls for a [c]sincere love of the brethren, fervently love one another from the heart,

1:22 [a] 1 Pet 1:2 [b] James 4:8 [c] John 13:34; Rom 12:10; Heb 13:1; 1 Pet 2:17; 3:8

23 for you have been [a]born again [b]not of seed which is perishable but imperishable, that is, through the living and enduring [c]word of God.

1:23 [a] John 3:3; 1 Pet 1:3 [b] John 1:13 [c] Heb 4:12

24 For,

"[a]ALL FLESH IS LIKE GRASS,
AND ALL ITS GLORY LIKE THE FLOWER OF GRASS.
THE GRASS WITHERS,
AND THE FLOWER FALLS OFF,

1:24 [a] Is 40:6ff; James 1:10f

25 [a]BUT THE WORD OF THE LORD ENDURES FOREVER."

1:25 [a] Is 40:8 [b] Heb 6:5

And this is [b]the word which was preached to you.

D In Growth, 2:1–10

2 Therefore, [a]putting aside all malice and all deceit and hypocrisy and envy and all [b]slander,

2:1 [a] Eph 4:22,25, 31; James 1:21 [b] James 4:11

2 [a]like newborn babies, long for the [b]pure milk of the word, so

2:2 [a] Matt 18:3; 19:14; Mark 10:15; Luke 18:17; 1 Cor 14:20 [b] 1 Cor 3:2

1:12 angels desire to look (lit., look intently, as in John 20:5, 11) into God's work of saving people.

1:13 prepare your minds for action = be disciplined in your thinking. A figure of speech (lit., gird up the loins of your mind) based on the gathering and fastening up of the long Eastern garments so that they would not interfere with the individual's activity.

1:14 do not be conformed. The only other occurrence of this term is in Rom. 12:2.

1:15–16 To be holy means "to be set apart from sin and to God" and is motivated by God's perfect holiness.

1:17 fear. A sense of awe from having been struck with who God is and an alertness that results from that. See note on 2 Tim. 1:7.

1:19 unblemished and spotless. Refers to the sinlessness of Christ (see Lev. 22:19–25).

1:20 foreknown. Same root word translated "foreknowledge" in 1:3, obviously not meaning "passive foresight" but "active involvement."

1:23 The new birth involves the imperishable Word of God (as also in James 1:18).

2:1–2 A proper diet for Christian growth eliminates the items in verse 1 and has a good appetite for (long for) pure milk as a baby does. Milk here does not stand in contrast to solid food (as it does in 1 Cor. 3:2 and Heb. 5:12) but includes all of the Word.

that by it you may [c]grow in respect to salvation,

3 if you have [a]tasted [b]the kindness of the Lord.

4 And coming to Him as to a living stone which has been [a]rejected by men, but is choice and precious in the sight of God,

5 [a]you also, as living stones, are being built up as a [b]spiritual house for a holy [c]priesthood, to [d]offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

6 For this is contained in Scripture:

"[a]BEHOLD, I LAY IN ZION A CHOICE STONE, A [b]PRECIOUS CORNER stone, AND HE WHO BELIEVES IN HIM WILL NOT BE DISAPPOINTED."

7 [a]This precious value, then, is for you who believe; but for those who disbelieve,

"[b]THE STONE WHICH THE BUILDERS [c]REJECTED,
THIS BECAME THE VERY CORNER stone,"

8 and,

"[a]A STONE OF STUMBLING AND A ROCK OF OFFENSE";

[b]for they stumble because they are disobedient to the word, [c]and to this doom they were also appointed.

9 But you are [a]A CHOSEN RACE, A royal [b]PRIESTHOOD, A [c]HOLY NATION, [d]A PEOPLE FOR God's OWN POSSESSION, so that you may proclaim the excellencies of Him who has called you [e]out of darkness into His marvelous light;

10 [a]for you once were NOT A PEOPLE, but now you are THE PEOPLE OF GOD; you had NOT RECEIVED MERCY, but now you have RECEIVED MERCY.

IV GRACE MEANS SUBMISSION, 2:11–3:12

A To Governments, 2:11–17

11 [a]Beloved, [b]I urge you as [c]aliens and strangers to abstain from [d]fleshly lusts which wage [e]war against the soul.

12 [a]Keep your behavior excellent among the Gentiles, so that in the thing in which they [b]slander you as evildoers, they may because of your good deeds, as they observe them, [c]glorify God [d]in the day of visitation.

13 [a]Submit yourselves for the Lord's sake to every human institution, whether to a king as the one in authority, 14 or to governors as sent by him [a]for the punishment of evildoers and the [b]praise of those who do right.

15 For [a]such is the will of God that by doing right you may [b]silence the ignorance of foolish men.

16 Act as [a]free men, and do not use your freedom as a covering for evil, but use it as [b]bond-slaves of God.

17 [a]Honor all people, [b]love the brotherhood, [c]fear God, [d]honor the king.

B To Masters, 2:18–25

18 [a]Servants, be submissive to your masters with all respect, not only to those who are good and [b]gentle, but also to those who are unreasonable.

2:3 if = since. tasted at conversion.

2:4–8 Christ is the living stone (v. 4), the corner stone (v. 6), the rejected stone (v. 7), and the stumbling stone (v. 8).

2:5 Believers (living stones) not only make up the church, but we also serve in it as priests offering spiritual sacrifices. See note on Heb. 13:15–16.

2:8 appointed. The same divine purpose that has chosen some has ordained others (those who are disobedient) to the only alternative.

2:9–10 The church possesses blessings similar to those Israel had, though it has not become the "new Israel." Similarity does not per se mean "identity."

2:11 Beginning here and ending at 4:11, Peter sets forth the duties of Christians in the world.

2:13–17 Christians are to be law-abiding citizens. If the law of one's government violates the revealed will of God, then, of course, the believer must obey God, though he may have to suffer the penalties of that government's laws. See Rom. 13:1–7 and Titus 3:1–2.

2:15 foolish men. I.e., the slanderers mentioned in verse 12.

2:16 Christian freedom must never be used as a covering (lit., veil) for doing evil. Freedom is the freedom to be slaves of God.

2:18 On Servants, see note on Col. 3:22–23.

19 For this finds favor, if for the sake of [a]conscience toward God a person bears up under sorrows when suffering unjustly.

20 For what credit is there if, when you sin and are harshly treated, you endure it with patience? But if [a]when you do what is right and suffer for it you patiently endure it, this finds favor with God.

21 For [a]you have been called for this purpose, [b]since Christ also suffered for you, leaving you [c]an example for you to follow in His steps,

22 WHO [a]COMMITTED NO SIN, NOR WAS ANY DECEIT FOUND IN HIS MOUTH;

23 and while being [a]reviled, He did not revile in return; while suffering, He uttered no threats, but kept entrusting Himself to Him who judges righteously;

24 and He Himself [a]bore our sins in His body on the [b]cross, so that we [c]might die to sin and live to righteousness; for [d]by His wounds you were [e]healed.

25 For you were [a]continually straying like sheep, but now you have returned to the [b]Shepherd and Guardian of your souls.

C To Husbands, 3:1–7

3 [a]In the same way, you wives, [b]be submissive to your own husbands so that even if any of them are disobedient to the word, they may be [c]won without a word by the behavior of their wives,

2 as they observe your chaste and respectful behavior.

3 [a]Your adornment must not be merely external—braiding the hair, and wearing gold jewelry, or putting on dresses;

4 but let it be [a]the hidden person of the heart, with the imperishable quality of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is precious in the sight of God.

5 For in this way in former times the holy women also, [a]who hoped in God, used to adorn themselves, being submissive to their own husbands;

6 just as Sarah obeyed Abraham, [a]calling him lord, and you have become her children if you do what is right [b]without being frightened by any fear.

7 [a]You husbands likewise, live with your wives in an understanding way, as with a weaker [b]vessel, since she is a woman, and grant her honor as a fellow heir of the grace of life, so that your prayers will not be hindered.

D Recapitulation, 3:8–12

8 To sum up, [a]all of you be harmonious, sympathetic, [b]brotherly, [c]kindhearted, and [d]humble in spirit;

9 [a]not returning evil for evil or [b]insult for insult, but giving a [c]blessing instead; for [d]you were called for the very purpose that you might [e]inherit a blessing.

10 For,

"[a]THE ONE WHO DESIRES LIFE, TO LOVE AND SEE GOOD DAYS, MUST KEEP HIS TONGUE FROM EVIL AND HIS LIPS FROM SPEAKING DECEIT.

11 "[a]HE MUST TURN AWAY FROM EVIL AND DO GOOD;

3:10 [a]Ps 34:12,13
3:11 [a]Ps 34:14

2:21 To illustrate his words to slaves, Peter cites Christ's example of suffering unjustly.

2:22–24 WHO COMMITTED NO SIN . . . bore our sins. The sinless Jesus was the perfect substitute, in His death, for the sins of mankind.

2:23 reviled. Verbally abused. Matt. 27:12–14 gives an example of our Lord's silent submission when insulted.

2:24 healed. Spiritual salvation.

3:1 be submissive. Lit., be under authority (same word as used in 2:17 for the duty of citizens and in 2:18 for slaves). without a word. I.e., an unsaved husband can better be won to Christianity by seeing it work in his wife's godly life than by always hearing about it from her lips.

3:3 This verse does not prohibit all jewelry; if it did, it would also prohibit all clothing! It condemns ostentation and enjoins modesty and meekness.

3:5–6 Submissive women become as children of Sarah when they submit, as she did to Abraham (Gen. 18:12).

3:7 weaker vessel physically. that your prayers will not be hindered. The man who fails to give his wife due consideration can hardly pray with her.

3:9 This verse is an echo of Christ's words (Luke 6:27–28).

HE MUST SEEK PEACE AND PURSUE IT.
3:12 [a]Ps 34:15,16
12 "[a]FOR THE EYES OF THE LORD ARE TOWARD THE RIGHTEOUS, AND HIS EARS ATTEND TO THEIR PRAYER, BUT THE FACE OF THE LORD IS AGAINST THOSE WHO DO EVIL."

13 [a]Who is there to harm you if you prove zealous for what is good?
3:14 [a]Matt 5:10; 1 Pet 2:19ff; 4:15f [b]James 5:11 [c]Is 8:12f; 1 Pet 3:6

*3:15 [a]1 Pet 1:3 [b]Col 4:6 [c]2 Tim 2:25 [d]1 Pet 1:17
15 but sanctify [a]Christ as Lord in your hearts, always being ready [b]to make a defense to everyone who asks you to give an account for the [a]hope that is in you, yet [c]with gentleness and [d]reverence;
3:16 [a]1 Tim 1:5; Heb 13:18; 1 Pet 3:21 [b]1 Pet 2:12,15
16 and keep a [a]good conscience so that in the thing in which [b]you are slandered, those who revile your good behavior in Christ will be put to shame.
3:17 [a]1 Pet 2:20; 4:15f [b]Acts 18:21; 1 Pet 1:6; 2:15; 4:19
17 For [a]it is better, [b]if God should will it so, that you suffer for doing what is right rather than for doing what is wrong.
*3:18 [a]1 Pet 2:21 [b]Heb 9:26,28; 10:10 [c]Rom 5:2; Eph 3:12 [d]Col 1:22; 1 Pet 4:1 [e]1 Pet 4:6
18 For [a]Christ also died for sins [b]once for all, the just for the unjust, so that He might [c]bring us to God, having been put to death [d]in the flesh, but made alive [e]in the spirit;
*3:19
19 in which also He went and made proclamation to the spirits now in prison,
3:20 [a]Rom 2:4 [b]Gen 6:3,5,13f [c]Heb 11:7 [d]Gen 8:18; 2 Pet 2:5 [e]Acts 2:41; 1 Pet 1:9,22; 2:25; 4:19
20 who once were disobedient, when the [a]patience of God [b]kept waiting in the days of Noah, during the construction of [c]the ark, in which a few, that is, [d]eight [e]persons, were brought safely through the water.

21 [a]Corresponding to that, baptism now saves you—[b]not the removal of dirt from the flesh, but an appeal to God for a [c]good conscience—through [d]the resurrection of Jesus Christ,
3:22 [a]Mark 16:19 [b]Heb 4:14; 6:20 [c]Rom 8:38f; Heb 1:6
22 [a]who is at the right hand of God, [b]having gone into heaven, [c]after angels and authorities and powers had been subjected to Him.
*4:1 [a]1 Pet 2:21 [b]Eph 6:13 [c]Rom 6:7
4 Therefore, since [a]Christ has suffered in the flesh, [b]arm yourselves also with the same purpose, because [c]he who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin,
4:2 [a]Rom 6:2; Col 3:3 [b]1 Pet 1:14 [c]Mark 3:35
2 [a]so as to live [b]the rest of the time in the flesh no longer for the lusts of men, but for the [c]will of God.
4:3 [a]1 Cor 12:2 [b]Rom 13:13; Eph 2:2; 4:17ff
3 For [a]the time already past is sufficient for you to have carried out the desire of the Gentiles, [b]having pursued a course of sensuality, lusts, drunkenness, carousing, drinking parties and abominable idolatries.
4:4 [a]Eph 5:18 [b]1 Pet 3:16
4 In all this, they are surprised that you do not run with them into the same excesses of [a]dissipation, and they [b]malign you;
*4:5
5 but they will give account to

3:13–14 Doing good will not harm anyone, but one may suffer for so doing.

3:15 sanctify Christ as Lord in your hearts = set Christ apart as Lord.

3:18 made alive in the Spirit. Either a reference to the Holy Spirit's part in Christ's resurrection or to Christ's own spirit sustaining Him on the cross.

3:19 made proclamation to the spirits now in prison. Some understand this to mean that Christ, between His death and resurrection, descended into Hades and offered to those who lived before Noah (v. 20) a second chance for salvation. But this doctrine is without scriptural support. Others say that it was simply an announcement of His victory over sin to those in Hades without offering a second chance. Most likely this is a reference to the preincarnate Christ's preaching through Noah to those who, because they rejected that message, are now spirits in prison.

3:21 baptism. Though water itself cannot save, baptism with water is the vivid symbol of the changed life of one who has a conscience at peace with God through faith in Christ.

4:1 The thought is this: Christ suffered in the flesh. He is your example. So, arm yourselves by taking the same view of suffering as Christ took, which is to accept it in the will of God. Thereby the dominion of sin is broken in practical experience.

4:5 the living and the dead. I.e., all generations.

4:5 [a]Acts 10:42; Rom 14:9; 2 Tim 4:1
Him who is ready to judge [a]the living and the dead.

*4:6 [a]1 Pet 3:18
6 For [a]the gospel has for this purpose been preached even to those who are dead, that though they are judged in the flesh as men, they may live in the spirit according to the will of God.

B Reactions in Suffering, 4:7–19

4:7 [a]Rom 13:11; Heb 9:26; James 5:8; 1 John 2:18 [b]1 Pet 1:13
7 [a]The end of all things is near; therefore, [b]be of sound judgment and sober spirit for the purpose of prayer.

*4:8 [a]1 Pet 1:22 [b]Prov 10:12; 1 Cor 13:4ff; James 5:20
8 Above all, [a]keep fervent in your love for one another, because [b]love covers a multitude of sins.

4:9 [a]1 Tim 3:2; Heb 13:2 [b]Phil 2:14
9 [a]Be hospitable to one another without [b]complaint.

*4:10 [a]Rom 12:6f [b]1 Cor 4:1
10 [a]As each one has received a special gift, employ it in serving one another as good [b]stewards of the manifold grace of God.

*4:11 [a]1 Thess 2:4; Titus 2:1,15; Heb 13:7 [b]Acts 7:38 [c]Eph 1:19; 6:10 [d]1 Cor 10:31; 1 Pet 2:12 [e]Rom 11:36; 1 Pet 5:11; Rev 1:6; 5:13
11 [a]Whoever speaks is to speak, as it were, the [b]utterances of God; whoever serves is to do so as one who is serving [c]by the strength which God supplies; so that [d]in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, [e]to whom belongs the glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

4:12 [a]1 Pet 2:11 [b]1 Pet 1:6f
12 [a]Beloved, do not be surprised at the [b]fiery ordeal among you, which comes upon you for your testing, as though some strange thing were happening to you;

4:13 [a]Rom 8:17; 2 Cor 1:5; 4:10; Phil 3:10
13 but to the degree that you [a]share the sufferings of Christ, keep on rejoicing, so that also at the [b]revelation of His glory [c]you may rejoice with exultation.

4:13 [b]2 Tim 2:12 [c]1 Pet 1:7; 5:1

14 If you are reviled [a]for the name of Christ, [b]you are blessed, [c]because the Spirit of glory and of God rests on you.

4:14 [a]John 15:21; Heb 11:26; 1 Pet 4:16 [b]Matt 5:11; Luke 6:22; Acts 5:41 [c]2 Cor 4:10f,16

15 Make sure that [a]none of you suffers as a murderer, or thief, or evildoer, or a [b]troublesome meddler;

*4:15 [a]1 Pet 2:19f; 3:17 [b]1 Thess 4:11; 2 Thess 3:11; 1 Tim 5:13

16 but if anyone suffers as a [a]Christian, he is not to be ashamed, but is to [b]glorify God in this name.

*4:16 [a]Acts 5:41; 28:22; James 2:7 [b]1 Pet 4:11

17 For it is time for judgment [a]to begin with [b]the household of God; and if it[c]begins with us first, what will be the outcome for those [d]who do not obey the [e]gospel of God?

*4:17 [a]Jer 25:29; Ezek 9:6; Amos 3:2 [b]1 Tim 3:15; Heb 3:6; 1 Pet 2:5 [c]Rom 2:9 [d]2 Thess 1:8 [e]Rom 1:1

18 [a]AND IF IT IS WITH DIFFICULTY THAT THE RIGHTEOUS IS SAVED, WHAT WILL BECOME OF THE [b]GODLESS MAN AND THE SINNER?

*4:18 [a]Prov 11:31; Luke 23:31 [b]1 Tim 1:9

19 Therefore, those also who suffer according to [a]the will of God shall entrust their souls to a faithful Creator in doing what is right.

4:19 [a]1 Pet 3:17

VI GRACE MEANS SERVICE, 5:1–11

*5:1 [a]Acts 11:30 [b]2 John 1; 3 John 1 [c]Luke 24:48; Heb 12:1 [d]1 Pet 1:5,7; 4:13; Rev 1:9
5 [a]Therefore, I exhort the elders among you, as your [b]fellow elder and [c]witness of the sufferings of Christ, and a [d]partaker also of the glory that is to be revealed,

5:2 [a]John 21:16; Acts 20:28 [b]Philem 14
2 shepherd [a]the flock of God among you, exercising oversight [b]not under compulsion, but voluntarily, according to the will of

4:6 those who are dead. I.e., deceased Christians. The gospel was preached to those martyrs now dead. They were judged in the flesh and condemned to martyrdom according to human standards, but they are alive in the spirit after death. Another interpretation relates this preaching to that of 3:19.

4:8 Love forgives over and over (Prov. 10:12; Matt. 18:21–35).

4:10 a special gift. I.e., a spiritual gift. See note on 1 Cor. 1:7. This is the only occurrence of the word in the NT outside the writings of Paul.

4:11 utterances of God. One who speaks should preach God's words.

4:15 Even Christians can commit the sins listed in this verse.

4:16 For the meaning of Christian, see note on Acts 11:26.

4:17 The idea is this: If even Christians must be judged (by purging), what fate must await unbelievers who will be punished for their sins?

4:18 Because of suffering (v. 16) and discipline (v. 17), the righteous work out their salvation with difficulty.

5:1–3 elders. See note on 1 Tim. 3:1. Elders are to feed, lead (but not lord it over), and be an example to their people.

5:2 [c] 1 Tim 3:8
God; and [c]not for sordid gain, but with eagerness;

5:3 [a] Ezek 34:4; Matt 20:25f [b] John 13:15; Phil 3:17; 1 Thess 1:7; 2 Thess 3:9; 1 Tim 4:12; Titus 2:7

4 And when the Chief [a]Shepherd appears, you will receive the [b]unfading [c]crown of glory.

★5:5 [a] Luke 22:26; 1 Tim 5:1 [b] Eph 5:21 [c] 1 Pet 3:8 [d] Prov 3:34; James 4:6
5 [a]You younger men, likewise, [b]be subject to your elders; and all of you, clothe yourselves with [c]humility toward one another, for [d]GOD IS OPPOSED TO THE PROUD, BUT GIVES GRACE TO THE HUMBLE.

5:6 [a] Matt 23:12; Luke 14:11; 18:14; James 4:10
6 Therefore [a]humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you at the proper time,

★5:7 [a] Ps 55:22; Matt 6:25
7 casting all your [a]anxiety on Him, because He cares for you.

★5:8 [a] 1 Pet 1:13 [b] Matt 24:42 [c] James 4:7 [d] 2 Tim 4:17
8 [a]Be of sober spirit, [b]be on the alert. Your adversary, [c]the devil, prowls around like a roaring [d]lion, seeking someone to devour.

★5:9 [a] James 4:7 [b] Col 2:5 [c] Acts 14:22
9 [a]But resist him, [b]firm in your faith, knowing that [c]the same experiences of suffering are being accomplished by your brethren who are in the world.

10 After you have suffered [a]for a little while, the [b]God of all grace, who [c]called you to His [d]eternal glory in Christ, will Himself [e]perfect, [f]confirm, strengthen and establish you.

5:11 [a] Rom 11:36; 1 Pet 4:11
11 [a]To Him be dominion forever and ever. Amen.

VII CONCLUDING REMARKS, 5:12–14

★5:12 [a] 2 Cor 1:19 [b] Heb 13:22 [c] Acts 11:23; 1 Pet 1:13; 4:10 [d] 1 Cor 15:1
12 Through [a]Silvanus, our faithful brother (for so I regard him), [b]I have written to you briefly, exhorting and testifying that this is [c]the true grace of God. [d]Stand firm in it!

★5:13 [a] Acts 12:12,25; 15:37,39; Col 4:10; Philem 24
13 She who is in Babylon, chosen together with you, sends you greetings, and so does my son, [a]Mark.

★5:14 [a] Rom 16:16 [b] Eph 6:23
14 [a]Greet one another with a kiss of love.

[b]Peace be to you all who are in Christ.

5:4 Christ is also the Good Shepherd (John 10:11, 14) and the Great Shepherd (Heb. 13:20). crown of glory. Faithful church leaders, who are often dishonored on earth, will receive glory in heaven from Christ, the chief Shepherd. Victorious athletes were awarded floral crowns, which quickly faded away. See note on 1 Cor. 3:14.

5:5 humility. Christianity made humility a major virtue. It is an attitude of mind that realizes that one is without any reason for distinction in God's sight.

5:7 He cares for you. Lit., it matters to Him concerning you. See note on 1 Cor. 12:25.

5:8 The word devour also describes what the Red Sea did to the pursuing Egyptians (Heb. 11:29). Satan wants to completely drown or swallow up our testimony.

5:9 Knowing that other Christians were also suffering should help strengthen them.

5:12 Silas (Silvanus) evidently served as Paul's and Peter's secretary and may also have delivered this letter to those mentioned in 1:1.

5:13 She who is in Babylon. The church in Rome, where Peter evidently was writing this letter. my son, Mark. John Mark, the writer of the gospel, who was not Peter's natural son but his son in the faith.

5:14 kiss of love. The "holy kiss" (Paul's term, Rom. 16:16) was an expression of Christian love and was apparently restricted to one's own sex.

2 PETER

INTRODUCTION

AUTHOR: Peter DATE: 66

Authorship Many have suggested that someone other than Peter wrote this letter after A.D. 80 because of (1) differences in style, (2) its supposed dependence on Jude, and (3) the mention of Paul's letters having been collected (3:16). However, using a different scribe or no scribe would also have resulted in stylistic changes; there is no reason why Peter should not have borrowed from Jude, though it is more likely that Jude was written later than 2 Peter; and 3:16 does not necessarily refer to all of Paul's letters but only those written up to that time. Furthermore, similarities between 1 and 2 Peter point to the same author, and its acceptance in the canon demands apostolic authority behind it. Assuming Petrine authorship, the letter was written just before his martyrdom in A.D. 67 and most likely from Rome.

Contents The letter is a reminder (1:12; 3:1) of the truth of Christianity as opposed to the heresies of false teachers. Important passages include those concerning the Transfiguration (1:16–18), the inspiration of Scripture (1:21), and the certainty of the second coming of Christ (3:4–10).

THE SECOND LETTER OF PETER

I GREETINGS, 1:1–2

1:1 1 Simon Peter, a [a]bond-servant and [b]apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who have received [c]a faith of the same kind as ours, by [d]the righteousness of [e]our God and Savior, Jesus Christ:

1:2 2 [a]Grace and peace be multiplied to you in [b]the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord;

II THE DEVELOPMENT OF FAITH, 1:3–21

A The Growth of Faith, 1:3–11

1:3 3 seeing that His [a]divine power has granted to us everything pertaining to life and godliness, through the true [b]knowledge of Him who [c]called us by His own glory and excellence.

1:4 4 For by these He has granted to us His precious and magnificent [a]promises, so that by them you may become [b]partakers of the divine nature, having [c]escaped the [d]corruption that is in [e]the world by lust.

1:5 5 Now for this very reason also, applying all diligence, in your faith [a]supply [b]moral excellence, and in your moral excellence, [c]knowledge,

1:6 6 and in your knowledge, [a]self-control, and in your self-control, [b]perseverance, and in your perseverance, [c]godliness,

1:7 7 and in your godliness, [a]brotherly kindness, and in your brotherly kindness, love.

1:8 8 For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they render you neither useless nor [a]unfruitful in the true [b]knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

1:9 9 For he who lacks these qualities is [a]blind or short-sighted, having forgotten his [b]purification from his former sins.

1:10 10 Therefore, brethren, be all the more diligent to make certain about His [a]calling and [b]choosing you; for as long as you practice these things, you will never [c]stumble;

1:11 11 for in this way the entrance into [a]the eternal kingdom of our [b]Lord and Savior Jesus Christ will be [c]abundantly [d]supplied to you.

B The Ground of Faith, 1:12–21

1:12 12 Therefore, [a]I will always be ready to remind you of these things, even though you already know them, and have been established in [b]the truth which is present with you.

1:13 13 I consider it [a]right, as long as I am in [b]this earthly dwelling, to [c]stir you up by way of reminder,

1:14 14 knowing that [a]the laying aside of my earthly dwelling is im-

---

1:1 to those who have received a faith of the same kind as ours. The thought is this: I write to those who have obtained a faith of equal standing with ours (i.e., the apostles') by reason of the impartiality of Christ's blessings.

1:2 knowledge. Lit., full or true knowledge (also in v. 3).

1:4 by them. I.e., through the glory and excellence (v. 3). partakers of the divine nature. The believer shares in the life of God by means of Christ and the Spirit living in him (Rom. 8:9; Gal. 2:20).

1:5–7 Because of (for this very reason) what God has done for us (v. 4), we need to actively supply to our lives the qualities listed in verses 5–7.

1:6 self-control, as in Gal. 5:23. godliness. The attitude and conduct of a person who is God-fearing.

1:8–9 Without these qualities a believer will be useless and unfruitful, having closed his eyes to his responsibilities and having forgotten the former sins from which he was saved.

1:10 make certain about His calling and choosing. I.e., confirm one's profession of faith by godly living.

1:11 abundantly. A Christian life that can be rewarded will provide that abundant entrance into heaven.

1:13 this earthly dwelling. I.e., Peter's human body.

1:14 the laying aside of my earthly dwelling. Because of Christ's prediction (John 21:18), Peter minent, [b]as also our Lord Jesus Christ has made clear to me.

15 And I will also be diligent that at any time after my [a]departure you will be able to call these things to mind.

16 For we did not follow cleverly devised [a]tales when we made known to you the [b]power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were [c]eyewitnesses of His majesty.

17 For when He received honor and glory from God the Father, such an [a]utterance as this was made to Him by the [b]Majestic Glory, "This is My beloved Son with whom I am well-pleased"—

18 and we ourselves heard this utterance made from heaven when we were with Him on the [a]holy mountain.

19 So we have [a]the prophetic word made more [b]sure, to which you do well to pay attention as to [c]a lamp shining in a dark place, until the [d]day dawns and the [e]morning star arises [f]in your hearts.

20 But [a]know this first of all, that [b]no prophecy of Scripture is a matter of one's own interpretation,

21 for [a]no prophecy was ever made by an act of human will, but men [b]moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

III THE DENOUNCING OF FALSE TEACHERS, 2:1–22

A Their Conduct, 2:1–3

2 But [a]false prophets also arose among the people, just as there will also be [b]false teachers [c]among you, who will [d]secretly introduce [e]destructive heresies, even [f]denying the [g]Master who [h]bought them, bringing swift destruction upon themselves.

2 Many will follow their [a]sensuality, and because of them [b]the way of the truth will be [c]maligned;

3 and in their [a]greed they will [b]exploit you with [c]false words; [d]their judgment from long ago is not idle, and their destruction is not asleep.

B Their Condemnation, 2:4–9

4 For [a]if God did not spare angels when they sinned, but cast them into hell and [b]committed them to pits of darkness, reserved for judgment;

5 and did not spare [a]the ancient world, but preserved [b]Noah, a preacher of righteousness, with seven others, when He brought a [c]flood upon the world of the ungodly;

6 and if He [a]condemned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to knew that he would soon die.

1:16 eyewitnesses of His majesty. Peter is referring here to his witnessing the transfiguration of Christ (Matt. 17:1–8). This event confirmed the truth of the OT prophecies and made them even more sure from a human viewpoint (v. 19).

1:19 The Transfiguration, which was a preview of Christ's coming kingdom (Matt. 16:28), made prophecies of it more sure. They serve as a lamp to guide us until He comes (the day dawns).

1:20 one's own interpretation. Several meanings are possible: (1) prophecies must be interpreted in the light of other Scriptures; (2) prophecies are often capable of several fulfillments; (3) prophecies must be interpreted only with God's help, since they were given only as the prophets were moved by God and not by any impulse of man.

1:21 made . . . moved translate the same word, "carried, borne" (as in Acts 27:15, 17), indicating that man's will did not originate Scripture. Yet men were involved as the Holy Spirit bore them along as they wrote, guarding them from writing error and guiding them to write God's Word to us. See note on 2 Tim. 3:16.

2:1 denying the Master who bought them. The price for the sins of all men (including these false teachers) was paid by the death of Christ, though no man can have benefit of this forgiveness except through faith in the Savior (see 1 Cor. 6:20; 1 Peter 1:18–19). See note on 1 Tim. 4:10.

2:3 Though it may seem that God has delayed judging these false teachers, that judgment will surely come (is not asleep).

2:4 angels when they sinned. These are the fallen angels who sinned grievously by cohabiting with women, as described in Gen. 6:1–4 (see Jude 6). Or this may refer to angels who rebelled with Satan before Adam and Eve sinned. In either case they were consigned to hell, lit., tartarus, a prison holding them until their final judgment. Some evil angels, the demons, are still free and doing Satan's will. The logic is that if God so punishes angels, surely He will not spare these false teachers.

2:5 with seven others. Noah was the eighth, along with the seven other members of his family (his wife and his three sons and their wives).

2:6 [b]Is 1:9; Matt 10:15; 11:23; Rom 9:29; Jude 7 [c]Jude 15 destruction by reducing them to ashes, having made them an [b]example to those who would [c]live ungodly lives thereafter;

2:7 righteous Lot. He was a righteous man in that he believed God and was vexed at the licentiousness of the wicked people about him, though his life was lived for himself.

2:9 The unrighteous not only will be punished in the lake of fire but also are being punished either in this life while alive or in the intermediate place of hades between death and the lake of fire (Luke 16:19–31).

2:10 indulge the flesh. Some sexual perversion, likely homosexuality, since he has just written about Sodom and Gomorrah. despise authority, especially God's. False teachers speak rashly in disbelief of the power and authority of angels, or perhaps this is a reference to church leaders.

2:11 against them. Probably a reference to the false teachers. In other words, even though the false teachers speak evil of angels, angels do not denounce them but leave all judgment to God. Some interpret them to refer to evil angels; i.e., good angels do not accuse evil angels.

2:13 reveling in their deceptions. The false teachers turned Christian fellowship meals into riotous drinking parties.

2:14 eyes full of adultery. Lit., eyes full of an adulteress. The false teachers desired to commit adultery with every woman they saw. trained like an athlete, only for greed. accursed children. A phrase that simply means that the false teachers themselves, not their children, are accursed.

2:15 the way of Balaam. The covetousness of one who hires himself to do religious work for personal gain. See Num. 22:7, 17 and note on Jude 11. This "way" is contrasted with the right way.

2:17 springs without water. The barrenness of the false teachers mocks the thirsty soul who sincerely wants to learn God's way from them. mists driven by a storm. These mists, like the false teachers, seem to promise refreshment but in reality do no good. the black darkness. I.e., eternal torment (cf. Matt. 8:12).

2:18 sensuality = sexual excesses.

2:19 They promise freedom from moral restraints, though they themselves are enslaved by their own depravity.

man is overcome, by this he is enslaved.

20 For if, after they have [a]escaped the defilements of the world by [b]the knowledge of the [c]Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again [d]entangled in them and are overcome, [e]the last state has become worse for them than the first.

21 [a]For it would be better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than having known it, to turn away from [b]the holy commandment [c]handed on to them.

22 It has happened to them according to the true proverb, "[a]A DOG RETURNS TO ITS OWN VOMIT," and, "A sow, after washing, returns to wallowing in the mire."

IV THE DESIGN OF THE FUTURE, 3:1–18

A Derision, 3:1–7

3 This is now, [a]beloved, the second letter I am writing to you in which I am [b]stirring up your sincere mind by way of reminder,

2 that you should [a]remember the words spoken beforehand by [b]the holy prophets and [c]the commandment of the Lord and Savior spoken by your apostles.

3 [a]Know this first of all, that [b]in the last days [c]mockers will come with their mocking, [d]following after their own lusts,

4 and saying, "[a]Where is the promise of His [b]coming? For ever since the fathers [c]fell asleep, all continues just as it was [d]from the beginning of creation."

5 For when they maintain this, it escapes their notice that [a]by the word of God the heavens existed long ago and the earth was [b]formed out of water and by water,

6 through which [a]the world at that time was [b]destroyed, being flooded with water.

7 But by His word [a]the present heavens and earth are being reserved for [b]fire, kept for [c]the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men.

B Delay, 3:8–9

8 But do not let this one fact escape your notice, [a]beloved, that with the Lord one day is like a thousand years, and [b]a thousand years like one day.

9 [a]The Lord is not slow about His promise, as some count slowness, but [b]is patient toward you, [c]not wishing for any to perish but for all to come to repentance.

C Dissolution, 3:10–13

10 But [a]the day of the Lord [b]will come like a thief, in which [c]the heavens [d]will pass away with a roar and the [e]elements will be destroyed with intense heat, and [f]the earth and its works will be burned up.

11 Since all these things are to be destroyed in this way, what sort of people ought you to be in holy conduct and godliness,

3:6 [a]2 Pet 2:5 [b]Gen 7:11,12, 21f

3:7 [a]2 Pet 3:10,12 [b]Is 66:15; Dan 7:9f; 2 Thess 1:7; Heb 12:29 [c]Matt 10:15; 1 Cor 3:13; Jude 7

3:8 [a]2 Pet 3:1 [b]Ps 90:4

3:9 [a]Hab 2:3; Rom 13:11; Heb 10:37 [b]Rom 2:4; Rev 2:21 [c]1 Tim 2:4; Rev 2:21

3:10 [a]1 Cor 1:8 [b]Matt 24:43; Luke 12:39; 1 Thess 5:2; Rev 3:3; 16:15 [c]Is 34:4; 2 Pet 3:7,12 [d]Matt 24:35; Rev 21:1 [e]Is 24:19; Mic 1:4 [f]2 Pet 3:7

2:20 escaped the defilements of the world. These teachers had apparently made some sort of profession of the truth without possessing the new life of Christ. They then rejected what they professed, becoming slaves of corruption (v. 19) and showing their true, natural, unchanged condition (v. 22).

2:21 Knowledge increases responsibility.

3:2 Peter gives OT prophets and NT apostles equal authority.

3:3 first in importance. mockers. Evidently the same false teachers described in chap. 2.

3:4 the fathers = OT patriarchs.

3:5 it escapes their notice, or they willfully ignore. Peter begins his attack on those who doubt the truth of Christ's return by referring to the dependability of God's word as demonstrated in Creation.

3:6 flooded with water. The judgment of the Flood in the days of Noah also demonstrates the truthfulness of God's word and the fact that He has dramatically intervened in the past.

3:8–9 To believers, Peter now says that the seeming delay of Christ's return is (1) because God does not view time as we do and (2) because He wants more people to repent.

3:10 the day of the Lord. It will begin unexpectedly at the beginning of the Tribulation (like a thief, 1 Thess. 5:2) and end at the conclusion of the Millennium with the destruction of the heavens and earth (Rev. 21:1). See note on 1 Thess. 5:2.

12 [a]looking for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which [b]the heavens will be destroyed by burning, and the [c]elements will melt with intense heat!

13 But according to His [a]promise we are looking for [b]new heavens and a new earth, [c]in which righteousness dwells.

D Diligence, 3:14–18

14 [a]Therefore, [b]beloved, since you look for these things, be diligent to be [c]found by Him in peace, [d]spotless and blameless,

15 and regard the [a]patience of our Lord as salvation; just as also [b]our beloved brother Paul, [c]according to the wisdom given him, wrote to you,

16 as also in all his letters, speaking in them of [a]these things, [b]in which are some things hard to understand, which the untaught and [c]unstable distort, as they do also [d]the rest of the Scriptures, to their own destruction.

17 You therefore, [a]beloved, knowing this beforehand, [b]be on your guard so that you are not carried away by [c]the error of [d]unprincipled men and [e]fall from your own steadfastness,

18 but grow in the grace and [a]knowledge of our [b]Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. [c]To Him be the glory, both now and to the day of eternity. Amen.

3:12 on account of which. I.e., after the dissolution of the present heavens, the day of God, which is eternity (Rev. 21:1), will come. The certainty of this dissolution makes doubly urgent a life of godliness now.

3:14 spotless and blameless, like Christ. (See 1 Peter 1:19, where these same two words describe Him.)

3:15 regard . . . as salvation. I.e., understand that the delay of the return of the Lord is intended as an opportunity for men to be saved (see v. 9).

3:16 Paul's epistles are here put on a par with the rest of the Scriptures.

3:18 grow. Be continually increasing in grace (as described in 1:5–7) and knowledge (to counteract false teachings).

1 JOHN

INTRODUCTION

AUTHOR: John DATE: 90

Authorship Though it is generally agreed that the same person wrote the gospel of John and these three epistles, some feel that they were not written (as traditionally held) by John the apostle, the son of Zebedee, but by another John (the elder or presbyter, 2 John 1; 3 John 1). It is argued that (1) an uneducated man (Acts 4:13) could not have written something so profound as this gospel; (2) a fisherman's son would not have known the high priest as did John the apostle; and (3) an apostle would not have called himself an elder. But "uneducated" did not mean illiterate, only without formal training in the rabbinic schools; some fishermen were well-to-do (cf. Mark 1:20); and Peter, though an apostle, called himself an elder (1 Peter 5:1). Further, if John the elder is the "beloved disciple" and the author of the gospel, why did he not mention John the son of Zebedee, an important figure in the life of Christ, in that gospel? Every evidence points to John the elder being the same as John the apostle and the author of this letter.

Date and Place of Writing Strong tradition says that John spent his old age in Ephesus. Lack of personal references in this letter indicates that it was written in sermonic style to Christians all over Asia Minor (much like Ephesians). It was probably written after the gospel and before the persecution under Domitian in A.D. 95, which places its writing in the late 80s or early 90s.

Gnosticism The heresy of Gnosticism had begun to make inroads among churches in John's day. Among its teachings were (1) knowledge is superior to virtue, (2) the nonliteral sense of Scripture is correct and can be understood only by a select few, (3) evil in the world precludes God's being the only Creator, (4) the Incarnation is incredible because deity cannot unite itself with anything material such as a body (Docetism), and (5) there is no resurrection of the flesh. The ethical standards of many Gnostics were low, so John emphasized the reality of the Incarnation and the high ethical standard of the earthly life of Christ.

Contents The letter shows John's obvious affection for his "little children" and concern for their spiritual welfare. The book is filled with contrasts—light and darkness (1:6–7; 2:8–11); love of world and love of God (2:15–17); children of God and children of the devil (3:4–10); the Spirit of God and the spirit of Antichrist (4:1–3); love and hate (4:7–12, 16–21).

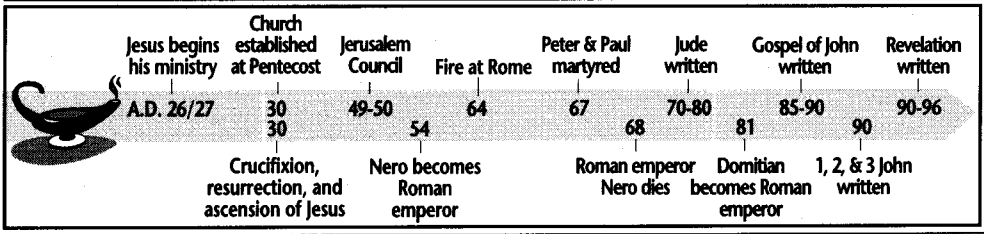
TIMELINE OF 1, 2 & 3 JOHN



THE FIRST LETTER OF JOHN

I INTRODUCTION: THE PURPOSE OF THE LETTER, 1:1–4

1 What was [a]from the beginning, what we have [b]heard, what we have [c]seen with our eyes, what we [d]have looked at and [e]touched with our hands, concerning the [f]Word of Life—

2 and [a]the life was manifested, and we have [b]seen and [c]testify and proclaim to you [d]the eternal life, which was [e]with the Father and was [a]manifested to us—

3 what we have [a]seen and [b]heard we proclaim to you also, so that you too may have fellowship with us; and indeed our [c]fellowship is with the Father, and with His Son Jesus Christ.

4 [a]These things we write, so that our [b]joy may be made complete.

II CONDITIONS FOR FELLOWSHIP, 1:5–2:2

A Conformity to a Standard, 1:5–7

5 [a]This is the message we have heard from Him and announce to you, that [b]God is Light, and in Him there is no darkness at all.

6 [a]If we say that we have fellowship with Him and yet walk in the darkness, we [b]lie and [c]do not practice the truth;

7 but if we [a]walk in the Light as [b]He Himself is in the Light, we have fellowship with one another, and [c]the blood of Jesus His Son cleanses us from all sin.

B Confession of Sin, 1:8–2:2

8 [a]If we say that we have no sin, we are deceiving ourselves and the [b]truth is not in us.

9 [a]If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and [b]to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

10 [a]If we say that we have not sinned, we [b]make Him a liar and [c]His word is not in us.

2 [a]My little children, I am [b]writing these things to you so that you may not sin. And if anyone sins, [c]we have an [d]Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous;

2 and He Himself is [a]the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also [b]for those of the whole world.

1:10 [a]Job 15:14 [b]John 3:33; 1 John 5:10 [c]1 John 2:14
2:1 [a]John 13:33; Gal 4:19; 1 John 2:12,28; 3:7,18; 4:4; 5:21 [b]1 John 1:4 [c]Rom 8:34; 1 Tim 2:5; Heb 7:25; 9:24 [d]John 14:16
2:2 [a]Rom 3:25; Heb 2:17; 1 John 4:10 [b]John 4:42; 11:51f; 1 John 4:14

1:1 was. The verb means "was already in existence," not "came into existence." I.e., at creation, the beginning. touched. The same Greek word is used in one of Christ's postresurrection appearances ("touch," Luke 24:39). the Word of Life. The message concerning life, which appeared at the Incarnation (v. 2).

1:2 was manifested. A reference to the incarnation of Christ. with the Father. Christ is equal with the Father (and also distinct).

1:3 fellowship of redeemed people with the apostles and ultimately with the Father and the Son is the theme of this letter.

1:5 from Him. I.e., from Christ. God is Light. I.e., God is holy and pure. This symbol was much used by John (John 1:4; 3:19–21; 8:12). Notice also the other "God is . . ." phrases in John 4:24 and 1 John 4:8.

1:7 but if we walk in the Light. To walk in the light is to live in obedience to God's commandments. Two things result from walking in the light: (1) fellowship with other believers; (2) continual cleansing from sin (since walking in the light brings to light other sins that need cleansing). The contrast of light and darkness characterizes the section 1:5–2:17.

1:8 have no sin. A reference to the indwelling principle of sin rather than to acts of sin.

1:9 confess means "to say the same thing about sin that God does." Forgiveness and fellowship within the family of God is restored when we confess.

1:10 we have not sinned. I.e., we have not committed sin. Even believers sin; if we deny past sin and present guilt, we are deceiving ourselves, mocking God, and not walking in the light.

2:1 Advocate. Lit., one summoned alongside, a helper or patron in a lawsuit. Used only by John in the NT and translated "Helper" in John 14:16, 26; 15:26; 16:7. Our defender in the courtroom of God is righteous and therefore effective.

2:2 propitiation = satisfaction. Christ is the only offering that satisfied God concerning sin (cf. Rom. 3:25). See note on Heb. 2:17. Christ died for the sins of the whole world, the entire human race.

III CONDUCT IN FELLOWSHIP, 2:3–27

A The Character of Our Conduct—Imitation, 2:3–11

3 [a]By this we know that we have come to [b]know Him, if we [c]keep His commandments.

4 The one who says, "[a]I have come to [b]know Him," and does not keep His commandments, is a [c]liar, and [d]the truth is not in him;

5 but whoever [a]keeps His word, in him the [b]love of God has truly been perfected. [c]By this we know that we are in Him:

6 the one who says he [a]abides in Him [b]ought himself to walk in the same manner as He walked.

7 [a]Beloved, I am [b]not writing a new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you have had [c]from the beginning; the old commandment is the word which you have heard.

8 On the other hand, I am writing [a]a new commandment to you, which is true in Him and in you, because [b]the darkness is passing away and [c]the true Light is already shining.

9 The one who says he is in the Light and yet [a]hates his [b]brother is in the darkness until now.

10 [a]The one who loves his brother abides in the Light and there is no cause for stumbling in him.

11 But the one who [a]hates his brother is in the darkness and [b]walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going because the darkness has [c]blinded his eyes.

B The Commandment for Our Conduct—Separation, 2:12–17

12 I am writing to you, [a]little children, because [b]your sins have been forgiven you for His name's sake.

13 I am writing to you, fathers, because you know Him [a]who has been from the beginning. I am writing to you, young men, because [b]you have overcome [c]the evil one. I have written to you, children, because [d]you know the Father.

14 I have written to you, fathers, because you know Him [a]who has been from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, because you are [b]strong, and the [c]word of God abides in you, and [d]you have overcome the evil one.

15 Do not love [a]the world nor the things in the world. [b]If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, [a]the lust of the flesh and [b]the lust of the eyes and [c]the boastful pride of life, is not from the Father, but is from the world.

2:3–5 Obedience to Christ's commandments is the down-to-earth test of our faith.

2:4 truth. Not merely correct knowledge, but the demonstration of the reality of God's love.

2:5 perfected. I.e., realized in practice.

2:6 abides in fellowship by keeping His commandments (3:24). ought. An obligation, not an option. as He walked in self-sacrificing humility.

2:7 from the beginning of their Christian experience.

2:8 a new commandment to love sacrificially as our Lord did. the darkness of our unsaved state is passing away, and the true light of Christ is shining in our lives.

2:10 there is no cause of stumbling in him. I.e., there is nothing in him that would cause others to stumble.

2:12 little children. All of John's readers.

2:13 Some understand fathers to mean the older ones among John's readers and young men the young. Others refer these to all the readers. the evil one. I.e., the devil.

2:15 the world (Gk., cosmos) is that organized system headed by Satan that leaves God out and is a rival to Him. Though God loves the world of men (John 3:16), believers are not to love at all that which organizes them against God (see 5:19; John 3:19; James 1:27; 4:4). love of the Father. Our love for the Father.

2:16 the lust of the flesh. Lusts, which have their base in our sinful nature. lust of the eyes, which often leads to greed and covetousness. pride of life. Vainglory, display, or boasting about one's possessions.

*2:17 a1 Cor 7:31 bMark 3:35

17 aThe world is passing away, and also its lusts; but the one who bdoes the will of God lives forever.

2:17 Doing the will of God (the opposite of loving the world) proves the possession of eternal life and of living forever.

2:18–27 The author now contrasts truth and falsehood.

2:18 the last hour. The entire period between the first and second comings of Christ. antichrist. John speaks about (1) the spirit of antichrist (4:3), which refers to demonic forces behind anti-Christian teaching and activity, (2) the great coming Antichrist (Rev. 13:1–10), and (3) many antichrists present and active in his time and throughout church history. The ones of whom John is here speaking belonged to the visible church but were not believers (v. 19). They denied the reality of the incarnation of Christ and His relationship to the Father (vv. 21–23; cf. 2 John 7).

2:20 you have an anointing from the Holy One. I.e., you have been anointed by the Holy Spirit and thus can discern between truth and error. See also note on 2:27.

2:22 the liar. The supreme liar is the one who denies that Jesus Christ came in the flesh, i.e., that He was both man and God. The separation of the human and the divine was an early (Docetic) heresy.

2:23 To deny the Son makes it impossible to become part of God's family and have God as Father.

2:27 you have no need for anyone to teach you. The Spirit whom they had received would teach them how to distinguish truth from error (John 16:13). The Spirit may use human teachers to accomplish this (Eph. 4:11–14).

2:28–3:24 John's third great contrast is between life and death. See notes on 1:7 and 2:18.

2:28 Abiding (keeping His commands, 3:24) assures no shame at His coming, when He will judge us. See note on 4:17.

3:1 children of God. Born ones of God, as in John 1:12. We can, even now, know Him as a child knows its father; the future relationship no words can describe.

III CONDUCT IN FELLOWSHIP, 2:3–27

A The Character of Our Conduct—Imitation, 2:3–11

3 [a]By this we know that we have come to [b]know Him, if we [c]keep His commandments.

4 The one who says, "[a]I have come to [b]know Him," and does not keep His commandments, is a [c]liar, and [d]the truth is not in him;

5 but whoever [a]keeps His word, in him the [b]love of God has truly been perfected. [c]By this we know that we are in Him:

6 the one who says he [a]abides in Him [b]ought himself to walk in the same manner as He walked.

7 [a]Beloved, I am [b]not writing a new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you have had [c]from the beginning; the old commandment is the word which you have heard.

8 On the other hand, I am writing [a]a new commandment to you, which is true in Him and in you, because [b]the darkness is passing away and [c]the true Light is already shining.

9 The one who says he is in the Light and yet [a]hates his [b]brother is in the darkness until now.

10 [a]The one who loves his brother abides in the Light and there is no cause for stumbling in him.

11 But the one who [a]hates his brother is in the darkness and [b]walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going because the darkness has [c]blinded his eyes.

B The Commandment for Our Conduct—Separation, 2:12–17

12 I am writing to you, [a]little children, because [b]your sins have been forgiven you for His name's sake.

13 I am writing to you, fathers, because you know Him [a]who has been from the beginning. I am writing to you, young men, because [b]you have overcome [c]the evil one. I have written to you, children, because [d]you know the Father.

14 I have written to you, fathers, because you know Him [a]who has been from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, because you are [b]strong, and the [c]word of God abides in you, and [d]you have overcome the evil one.

15 Do not love [a]the world nor the things in the world. [b]If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, [a]the lust of the flesh and [b]the lust of the eyes and [c]the boastful pride of life, is not from the Father, but is from the world.

2:3–5 Obedience to Christ's commandments is the down-to-earth test of our faith.

2:4 truth. Not merely correct knowledge, but the demonstration of the reality of God's love.

2:5 perfected. I.e., realized in practice.

2:6 abides in fellowship by keeping His commandments (3:24). ought. An obligation, not an option. as He walked in self-sacrificing humility.

2:7 from the beginning of their Christian experience.

2:8 a new commandment to love sacrificially as our Lord did. the darkness of our unsaved state is passing away, and the true light of Christ is shining in our lives.

2:10 there is no cause for stumbling in him. I.e., there is nothing in him that would cause others to stumble.

2:12 little children. All of John's readers.

2:13 Some understand fathers to mean the older ones among John's readers and young men the young. Others refer these to all the readers. the evil one. I.e., the devil.

2:15 the world (Gk., cosmos) is that organized system headed by Satan that leaves God out and is a rival to Him. Though God loves the world of men (John 3:16), believers are not to love at all that which organizes them against God (see 5:19; John 3:19; James 1:27; 4:4). love of the Father. Our love for the Father.

2:16 the lust of the flesh. Lusts, which have their base in our sinful nature. lust of the eyes, which often leads to greed and covetousness. pride of life. Vainglory, display, or boasting about one's possessions.

17 [a]The world is passing away, and also its lusts; but the one who [b]does the will of God lives forever.

son the world does not know us, because [c]it did not know Him.

2 [a]Beloved, now we are [b]children of God, and [c]it has not appeared as yet what we will be. We know that when He [d]appears, we will be [e]like Him, because we will [f]see Him just as He is.

3 And everyone who has this [a]hope fixed on Him [b]purifies himself, just as He is pure.

B In Relation to Our Position: Righteousness and Brotherly Love, 3:4–18

4 Everyone who practices sin also practices lawlessness; and [a]sin is lawlessness.

5 You know that He [a]appeared in order to [b]take away sins; and [c]in Him there is no sin.

6 No one who abides in Him [a]sins; no one who sins has seen Him or [b]knows Him.

7 [a]Little children, make sure no one [b]deceives you; [c]the one who practices righteousness is righteous, just as He is righteous;

8 the one who practices sin is [a]of the devil; for the devil has sinned from the beginning. [b]The Son of God [c]appeared for this purpose, [d]to destroy the works of the devil.

9 No one who is [a]born of God [b]practices sin, because His seed abides in him; and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.

10 By this the [a]children of God and the [b]children of the devil are obvious: anyone who does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor the one who [c]does not love his [d]brother.

11 [a]For this is the message [b]which you have heard from the beginning, [c]that we should love one another;

12 not as [a]Cain, who was of [b]the evil one and slew his brother. And for what reason did he slay him? Because [c]his deeds were evil, and his brother's were righteous.

13 Do not be surprised, brethren, if [a]the world hates you.

14 We know that we have [a]passed out of death into life, [b]because we love the brethren. He who does not love abides in death.

15 Everyone who [a]hates his brother is a murderer; and you know that [b]no murderer has eternal life abiding in him.

16 We know love by this, that [a]He laid down His life for us; and [b]we ought to lay down our lives for the [c]brethren.

17 But [a]whoever has the world's goods, and sees his brother in need and [b]closes his heart against him, [c]how does the love of God abide in him?

18 [a]Little children, let us not love with word or with tongue, but in deed and [b]truth.

3:2 like Him includes both physical changes of the resurrection body and spiritual changes of purity (v. 3), no sin (v. 5) and righteousness (v. 7).

3:4 sin is lawlessness. Lawlessness is used here in its broadest sense—defection from any of God's standards.

3:6 The lifestyle of the believer who keeps God's commands (abides) will be obedience, not sin. The lifestyle of the one who keeps on sinning demonstrates that he does not know God.

3:8 practices = continually practices. I.e., sins as a regular way of life.

3:9 No one . . . practices sin . . . he cannot sin. I.e., cannot sin habitually. See note on verse 8. Habitual actions indicate one's character. seed. I.e., the divine nature given the one born of God (cf. John 1:13; 2 Peter 1:4). This nature prevents the Christian from habitually sinning.

3:15 a murderer. The heart that is full of hate is potentially capable of murder (cf. Matt. 5:21–22).

3:16–17 Self-sacrificing love is required of the believer. Though not many are called on to sacrifice their lives, all can give sacrificially of their substance. world's goods = the material necessities of life.

3:20 God is greater than our heart. We may be either too strict or too lenient in examining our lives; therefore, John's word of comfort is, God the all-knowing is also the all-loving.

demns us; for God is greater than our heart and knows all things.

21 [a]Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have [b]confidence before God;

22 and [a]whatever we ask we receive from Him, because we [b]keep His commandments and do [c]the things that are pleasing in His sight.

23 This is His commandment, that we [a]believe in [b]the name of His Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, just as [c]He commanded us.

24 The one who [a]keeps His commandments [b]abides in Him, and He in him. [c]We know by this that [d]He abides in us, by the Spirit whom He has given us.

V CAUTIONS OF FELLOWSHIP, 4:1–21

A Concerning False, Lying Spirits, 4:1–6

4 [a]Beloved, do not believe every [b]spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, because [c]many false prophets have gone out into the world.

2 By this you know the Spirit of God: [a]every spirit that [b]confesses that [c]Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God;

3 and every spirit that [a]does not confess Jesus is not from God; this is the spirit of the [b]antichrist, of which you have heard that it is coming, and [c]now it is already in the world.

4 You are from God, [a]little children, and [b]have overcome them; because [c]greater is He who is in you than [d]he who is in the world.

5 [a]They are from the world; therefore they speak as from the world, and the world listens to them.

6 [a]We are from God; [b]he who knows God listens to us; [c]he who is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know [d]the spirit of truth and [e]the spirit of error.

B Concerning a True, Loving Spirit, 4:7–21

1 The ground of brotherly love, 4:7–10

7 [a]Beloved, let us [b]love one another, for love is from God; and [c]everyone who loves is [d]born of God and [e]knows God.

8 The one who does not love does not know God, for [a]God is love.

9 By this the love of God was manifested [a]in us, that [b]God has sent His only begotten Son into the world so that we might live through Him.

10 In this is love, [a]not that we loved God, but that [b]He loved us and sent His Son to be [c]the propitiation for our sins.

2 The glories of love, 4:11–21

11 [a]Beloved, if God so loved us, [b]we also ought to love one another.

12 [a]No one has seen God at 3:23 believe all that Christ is, not for salvation but for answered prayer. Loving one another keeps prayer from being self-centered.

3:24 abides. The same word as in John 15:1–10. To abide (live) in Christ requires keeping His commandments.

4:1 do not believe every spirit. Apparently some of John's readers were being led astray by Gnosticism (see Introduction to 1 John).

4:2 A true teacher must openly confess the reality and permanence of the incarnation of Christ.

4:3 spirit of the antichrist. The false prophets were influenced by demonic spirits.

4:4 them. I.e., false teachers. He who is in you. I.e., the Holy Spirit (cf. 3:24). he who is in the world. I.e., Satan (cf. John 12:31).

4:6 By this. Whether or not one accepts the teaching of the apostles.

4:7–21 This is one of John's greatest passages. God is love (vv. 8, 16). Love is His supreme quality. God can be known only by those who live in love (v. 16). Yet we could not know how, nor be able, to love Him if He had not first loved us (v. 19). if we love one another, God abides in us and His love is perfected or matured in us (vv. 12).

4:10 For the meaning of propitiation, see note on Heb. 2:17.

4:12 On seeing God, see note on John 1:18.

*4:12 b1 John 2:5; 4:17f

*4:16 aJohn 6:69 bJohn 9:3; 1 John 4:9 c1 John 4:7,8 d1 John 4:12f
16 [a]We have come to know and have believed the love which God has [b]for us. [c]God is love, and the one who [d]abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him.

*4:17 a1 John 2:5; 4:12 b1 John 2:28 cMatt 10:15 dJohn 17:22; 1 John 2:6; 3:1,7,16

*4:18 aRom 8:15 b1 John 4:12
18 There is no fear in love; but [a]perfect love casts out fear, because fear involves punishment, and the one who fears is not [b]perfected in love.

VI CONSEQUENCES OF FELLOWSHIP, 5:1–21

A Love for the Brethren, 5:1–3

*5:1 a1 John 2:22f; 4:2,15 bJohn 1:3; 3:3; 1 John 2:29; 5:4,18 cJohn 8:42

*5:3 aJohn 14:15; 2 John 6 b1 John 2:3 cMatt 11:30; 23:4
3 For [a]this is the love of God, that we [b]keep His commandments; and [c]His commandments are not burdensome.

B Victory over the World, 5:4–5

*5:4 aJohn 1:13; 3:3; 1 John 2:29; 5:1,18 b1 John 2:13; 4:4
4 For whatever is [a]born of God [b]overcomes the world; and this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith.

5:5 a1 John 4:15; 5:1
5 Who is the one who overcomes the world, but he who [a]believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

C Verification of Christ's Credentials, 5:6–12

*5:6 aJohn 19:34 bMatt 3:16f; John 15:26; 16:13-15
6 This is the One who came [a]by water and blood, Jesus Christ; not with the water only, but with the water and with the blood. It is [b]the Spirit who bears witness, because the Spirit is the truth.

5:7 aMatt 18:16
7 For there are [a]three that bear witness,

8 the Spirit and the water and

4:13 Though we cannot see God, His Spirit confirms the reciprocal abiding.

4:16 To live a love-filled life is to be God-filled.

4:17 confidence in the day of judgment. The believer who has practiced love during his earthly life will be able to approach the judgment seat of Christ without any shame. Such assurance is not presumption, because as He is, so also are we in this world; i.e., we are like Him in love.

4:18 Love prompts us to seek others; fear causes us to shrink from others. Fear brings its own punishment to the one who has not perfected (completed) his love.

5:1 The first part of this verse answers an unexpressed question from 4:21, namely, Who is my brother? Answer: Everyone born of God.

5:3 What does it mean to have love of (for) God? Answer: To keep His commandments, which are not burdensome because we have the Holy Spirit in us.

5:4–5 Our faith in the Son of God overcomes the world. See note on 2:15.

5:6 by water and blood. The water refers to the inauguration of Christ's earthly ministry at His baptism by John (Mark 1:9–11); the blood refers to the close of His earthly life at His crucifixion. Jesus proved Himself to be the Christ (Messiah) at His baptism and by pouring out His soul to death. not with the water only, but with the water and with the blood. This counters the teaching of Cerinthus, who said that the divine Christ left Jesus before His crucifixion.

the blood; and the three are in agreement.

5:9 [a]John 5:34,37; 8:18 [b]Matt 3:17; John 5:32,37

9 [a]If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater; for the testimony of God is this, that [b]He has testified concerning His Son.

5:10 [a]Rom 8:16; Gal 4-6; Rev 12:17 [b]John 3:18,33; 1 John 1:10

10 The one who believes in the Son of God [a]has the testimony in himself; the one who does not believe God has [b]made Him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has given concerning His Son.

5:11 [a]John 3:36; 1 John 1:2; 2:25; 4:9; 5:13, 20 [b]John 1:4

11 And the testimony is this, that God has given us [a]eternal life, and [b]this life is in His Son.

5:12 [a]John 3:15f,36

12 [a]He who has the Son has the life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have the life.

D Assurance of Eternal Life, 5:13

5:13 [a]John 20:31 [b]1 John 3:23 [c]1 John 1:2; 2:25; 4:9; 5:11, 20

13 [a]These things I have written to you who [b]believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have [c]eternal life.

E Guidance in Prayer, 5:14–17

*5:14 [a]1 John 2:28; 3:21f [b]Matt 7:7; John 14:13; 1 John 3:22

14 This is [a]the confidence which we have before Him, that, [b]if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us.

5:15 [a]1 John 5:18-20

15 And if we know that He hears us in whatever we ask, [a]we know that we have the requests which we have asked from Him.

*5:16 [a]James 5:15 [b]Num 15:30; Heb 6:4-6; 10:26 [c]Jer 7:16; 14:11

16 If anyone sees his brother committing a sin not leading to death, [a]he shall ask and God will for him give life to those who commit sin not leading to death. [b]There is a sin leading to death; [c]I do not say that he should make request for this.

5:17 [a]1 John 3:4 [b]1 John 2:1f; 5:16

17 [a]All unrighteousness is sin, and [b]there is a sin not leading to death.

F Freedom from Habitual Sin, 5:18–21

*5:18 [a]1 John 5:15, 19,20 [b]1 John 3:9 [c]James 1:27; Jude 21 [d]1 John 2:13 [e]John 14:30

18 [a]We know that [b]no one who is born of God sins; but He who was born of God [c]keeps him, and [d]the evil one does not [e]touch him.

*5:19 [a]1 John 5:15, 18,20 [b]1 John 4:6 [c]John 12:31; 17:15; Gal 1:4

19 [a]We know that [b]we are of God, and that [c]the whole world lies in the power of the evil one.

5:20 [a]1 John 5:15, 18,19 [b]John 8:42; 1 John 5:5 [c]Luke 24:45 [d]John 17:3; Rev 3:7 [e]John 1:18; 14:9; 1 John 2:23; Rev 3:7 [f]1 John 1:2 [g]1 John 5:11

20 And [a]we know that [b]the Son of God has come, and has [c]given us understanding so that we may know [d]Him who is true; and we [e]are in Him who is true, in His Son Jesus Christ. [f]This is the true God and [g]eternal life.

*5:21 [a]1 John 2:1 [b]1 Cor 10:7,14; 1 Thess 1:9

21 [a]Little children, guard yourselves from [b]idols.

5:14 according to His will. A gracious limitation, because God's will is always best for His children.

5:16 sin leading to death. Believers can sin to the point where physical death results as the judgment of God (cf. 1 Cor. 11:30). The Greek reads sin, not a sin, in verses 16 and 17, implying not a single act but acts that have the character of sin leading to death.

5:18 The believer cannot lead a life of sin because God's Son keeps him, and Satan cannot hold on to him. (The Greek verb translated "touch," used here and in John 20:17 only, does not indicate a superficial touch but a grasping and holding on.)

5:19 whole world. The world system with its godless ruler, people, teachings, ideas, and temptations.

5:21 idols. An idol is anything that substitutes for God.

INTRODUCTION

AUTHOR: John DATE: 90

Destination The destination of this second letter is enigmatic. Some believe that the "chosen lady" is a figurative way of designating a particular church ("chosen sister," v. 13, would then mean a different church). Others hold that the letter was addressed to an individual Christian and her family (in which case the "sister" would be her natural sister).

Date The circumstances and subjects of this letter indicate that it was written about the same time as the other letters of John and from the same place, Ephesus. See the Introduction to 1 John.

Contents The main teaching of 2 John is walking in Christ's commandments.

THE SECOND LETTER OF JOHN

I INTRODUCTION AND GREETING, 1–3

1 [a]The elder to the [b]chosen [c]lady and her children, whom I [d]love in truth; and not only I, but also all who [e]know the truth,

2 for [a]the sake of the truth which abides [b]in us and will be [c]with us forever:

3 [a]Grace, mercy and peace will be with us, from God the Father and from Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

II COMMENDATION FOR WALKING IN TRUTH, 4

4 [a]I was very glad to find some of your children walking in truth, just as we have received commandment to do from the Father.

III COMMANDMENT TO LOVE ONE ANOTHER, 5–6

5 Now I ask you, lady, [a]not as though I were writing to you a new commandment, but the one which we have had [a]from the beginning, that we [b]love one another.

6 And [a]this is love, that we walk according to His commandments. This is the commandment, [b]just as you have heard [c]from the beginning, that you should walk in it.

IV CAUTIONS CONCERNING FALSE TEACHERS, 7–11

7 For [a]many deceivers have [b]gone out into the world, those who [c]do not acknowledge Jesus Christ as coming in the flesh. This is [a]the deceiver and the [d]antichrist.

8 [a]Watch yourselves, [b]that you do not lose what we have accomplished, but that you may receive a full reward.

9 Anyone who goes too far and [a]does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God; the one who abides in the teaching, he has both the Father and the Son.

10 If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, [a]do not receive him into your house, and do not give him a greeting;

11 for the one who gives him a greeting [a]participates in his evil deeds.

V CONCLUDING REMARKS AND GREETINGS, 12–13

12 [a]Though I have many

---

1 The elder. John was an elder (perhaps in the Ephesian church) as well as an apostle. See Introduction to 1 John under "Authorship." her children. Either the congregation (if the chosen lady was a local church) or her natural offspring (if she was an individual Christian). the truth. I.e., the gospel message (also in v. 2).

3 Grace is God's unmerited favor, mercy is God's compassion for us in our misery, and peace is the resulting wholeness of salvation.

4 John had evidently encountered some of the members of the congregation or the lady's household. walking in truth. Ordering one's life by the Word of God.

5 from the beginning of their Christian experience (as in 1 John 2:7).

6 love is defined as obeying His commandments.

7 coming. This present tense participle seems to include the past coming of Christ in flesh at the Incarnation, the present continuance of His risen humanity, as well as His future coming to earth. By contrast, the perfect tense participle in 1 John 4:2 emphasizes only His incarnation. antichrist. See note on 1 John 2:18.

8 we. Better mss. read "you" (plural). a full reward. All believers will receive praise at the judgment seat of Christ (1 Cor. 4:5), but some will receive more rewards than others (1 Cor. 3:11–15).

9 The false teachers should be tested as to whether or not they continue in the teaching of Christ.

10 do not receive him into your house. I.e., do not give a false teacher hospitality. To do so would be investing in his deceiving ministry.

11 participates. Lit., fellowships. He who gives such a person a greeting actually fellowships in the work of Antichrist.

12 paper and ink. The pith from papyrus reeds was cut into strips, which were laid across each other at right angles, pressed, and pasted together to form sheets of writing material. The word ink things to write to you, I do not want to do so with paper and ink; but I hope to come to you and speak face to face, so that your [b]joy may be made full.

13 The children of your [a]chosen sister greet you.

INTRODUCTION

AUTHOR: John DATE: 90

Characteristics of the Letter This is a very personal letter, addressed to Gaius, which focuses on an ecclesiastical problem regarding traveling teachers. Gaius had given them hospitality, whereas Diotrephes, a self-assertive leader in one of the churches, had refused to receive them. John exhibits his apostolic authority in his rebuke of Diotrephes (v. 10). Demetrius, who himself may have been a traveling teacher, probably delivered the letter to Gaius.

THE THIRD LETTER OF JOHN

I OPENING GREETINGS, 1

1 [a]The elder to the beloved [b]Gaius, whom I [c]love in truth.

*1:1 [a]2 John 1 [b]Acts 19:29; 20:4; Rom 16:23; 1 Cor 1:14 [c]1 John 3:18; 2 John 1

II THE INFLUENCE OF GAIUS, 2–8

A His Godly Life, 2–4

*1:2 2 Beloved, I pray that in all respects you may prosper and be in good health, just as your soul prospers.

*1:3 [a]2 John 4 [b]Acts 1:15; Gal 6:10; 3 John 5, 10

3 For I [a]was very glad when [b]brethren came and testified to your truth, that is, how you [a]are walking in truth.

*1:4 [a]1 Cor 4:14f; 2 Cor 6:13; Gal 4:19; 1 Thess 2:11; 1 Tim 1:2; 2 Tim 1:2; Philem 10; 1 John 2:1 [b]2 John 4

4 I have no greater joy than this, to hear of [a]my children [b]walking in the truth.

B His Generous Treatment of Traveling Ministers, 5–8

*1:5 [a]Acts 1:15; Gal 6:10; 3 John 3, 10 [b]Rom 12:13; Heb 13:2

5 Beloved, you are acting faithfully in whatever you accomplish for the [a]brethren, and especially when they are [b]strangers;

*1:6 [a]Acts 15:3; Titus 3:13 [b]Col 1:10; 1 Thess 2:12

6 and they have testified to your love before the church. You will do well to [a]send them on their way in a manner [b]worthy of God.

*1:7 [a]John 15:21; Acts 5:41; Phil 2:9 [b]Acts 20:33,35

7 For they went out for the sake of [a]the Name, [b]accepting nothing from the Gentiles.

*1:8 8 Therefore we ought to support such men, so that we may be fellow workers with the truth.

III THE INDICTMENT OF DIOTREPHES, 9–11

A His Selfish Ambition, 9

9 I wrote something to the church; but Diotrephes, who loves to [a]be first among them, does not accept what we say.

*1:9 [a]2 John 9

B His Selfish Activities, 10–11

10 For this reason, [a]if I come, I will call attention to his deeds which he does, unjustly accusing us with wicked words; and not satisfied with this, neither does he himself [b]receive the [c]brethren, and he forbids those who desire to do so and [d]puts them out of the church.

*1:10 [a]2 John 12 [b]2 John 10; 3 John 5 [c]Acts 1:15; Gal 6:10; 3 John 3, 5 [d]John 9:34

11 Beloved, [a]do not imitate what is evil, but what is good. [b]The one who does good is of God; [c]the one who does evil has not seen God.

1:11 [a]Ps 34:14; 37:27 [b]1 John 2:29; 3:10 [c]1 John 3:6

IV THE INTRODUCTION OF DEMETRIUS, 12

12 Demetrius [a]has received a good testimony from everyone, and from the truth itself; and we also bear witness, and [b]you know that our testimony is true.

*1:12 [a]Acts 6:3; 1 Tim 3:7 [b]John 19:35; 21:24

---

1 The elder. See Introduction to 1 John under "Authorship" and note on 2 John 1. This is an unusually brief, though affectionate, greeting.

2 be in good health. I.e., physical health. Perhaps Gaius had been ill. Nevertheless, his inner life (soul) was prospering.

3 Others testified that Gaius lived in accord with God's truth.

4 my children. I.e., beneficiaries of John's ministry, whom he had probably led to Christ.

5 for the brethren, and . . . strangers. Gaius had aided both "brethren" and "strangers," the latter being the more difficult and therefore the more praiseworthy form of hospitality (cf. Heb. 13:2). Traveling evangelists and teachers were dependent on men like Gaius for shelter and sustenance.

6 Recipients of Gaius's hospitality had told of his love before the church where John was (probably Ephesus). to send them on their way. I.e., to help them on their journey with food, money, arrangements for companions, means of travel, and so on.

7 accepting nothing from the Gentiles. These traveling missionaries declined to receive help from those who were not converted, lest they should appear to be selling the gospel.

8 Those who support traveling teachers become partners in their work.

9 Previously John had written a letter to Gaius's church, but Diotrephes had not obeyed it and perhaps even suppressed it.

10 puts them out of the church. Some sort of exclusion, whether formal excommunication or not.

12 Paul recommends Demetrius to Gaius's hospitality.

V CONCLUDING REMARKS AND BENEDICTION, 13–14

13 [a]I had many things to write to you, but I am not willing to write them to you with pen and ink;

14 but I hope to see you shortly, and we will speak face to face. [a]Peace be to you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends [b]by name.

*1:13 [a]2 John 12

*1:14 [a]John 20:19, 21,26; Eph 6:23; 1 Pet 5:14 [b]John 10:3

13 pen. This pen was a reed pointed at the end. ink was compounded of charcoal, gum, and water.

14 Peace be to you. In some texts and translations this phrase begins a new verse (15). by name. Individual and separate greetings. John, the undershepherd, follows the example of the Good Shepherd (see John 10:3, the only other occurrence of by name).

JUDE

INTRODUCTION

AUTHOR: Jude DATE: 70–80

Authorship Jude identifies himself as the brother of James (v. 1), the leader of the Jerusalem church (Acts 15), and the half brother of the Lord Jesus. Jude is listed among Christ's half brothers in Matthew 13:55 and Mark 6:3. Although, by his own statement, he intended to write a treatise on salvation, pressing circumstances required him to deal instead with the false teachers (v. 3).

Purpose This letter was written to defend the apostolic faith against false teachings that were arising in the churches. Alarming advances were being made by an incipient form of Gnosticism—not ascetic, like that attacked by Paul in Colossians, but antinomian. The Gnostics viewed everything material as evil and everything spiritual as good. They therefore cultivated their "spiritual" lives and allowed their flesh to do anything it liked, with the result that they were guilty of all kinds of lawlessness. (See "Gnosticism" in the Introduction to 1 John.)

Extrabiblical Quotations In verses 14 and 15, Jude quotes the pseudepigraphal apocalypse of 1 Enoch and in verse 9 alludes to a reference in another pseudepigraphal book, The Assumption of Moses. This does not mean that he considered these books to be inspired as the canonical Scriptures were. Paul quoted from heathen poets without implying their inspiration (Acts 17:28; 1 Cor. 15:33; Titus 1:12).

Readership The readers are not identified, but we know that they were beset by false teachers who were immoral, covetous, proud, and divisive.

Contents Condemning the heretics in no uncertain terms, Jude exhorts his readers to "contend earnestly for the faith" (v. 3).

THE LETTER OF JUDE

I THE SALUTATION AND PURPOSE, 1–4

1 [a]Jude, a [b]bond-servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to [c]those who are the called, beloved in God the Father, and [d]kept for Jesus Christ:

2 [a]May mercy and peace and love [b]be multiplied to you.

3 [a]Beloved, while I was making every effort to write you about our [b]common salvation, I felt the necessity to write to you appealing that you [c]contend earnestly for [d]the faith which was once for all [e]handed down to [f]the saints.

4 For certain persons have [a]crept in unnoticed, those who were long beforehand [b]marked out for this condemnation, ungodly persons who turn [c]the grace of our God into [d]licentiousness and [e]deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

II EXPOSURE OF THE FALSE TEACHERS, 5–16

A Their Doom, 5–7

5 Now I desire to [a]remind you, though [b]you know all things once for all, that the Lord, [c]after saving a people out of the land of Egypt, subsequently destroyed those who did not believe.

6 And [a]angels who did not keep their own domain, but abandoned their proper abode, He has [b]kept in eternal bonds under darkness for the judgment of the great day,

7 just as [a]Sodom and Gomorrah and the [b]cities around them, since they in the same way as these indulged in gross immorality and [c]went after strange flesh, are exhibited as an [d]example in undergoing the [e]punishment of eternal fire.

1 Jude addresses the called; i.e., all Christians who have been called to a knowledge of God through Christ. They are beloved in God and kept for Jesus Christ at His second coming.

3 contend earnestly for the faith which was once for all handed down. I.e., stand (lit., earnestly agonize) for the body of truth once for all given, not to be added to or subtracted from (cf. Gal. 1:23).

4 crept in to the local churches, posing as believers, though in reality they were ungodly (i.e., unsaved, cf. v. 19). They taught that the more believers sinned the more they magnified grace. deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ. The Greek word here for Master may be translated "despot" (cf. Acts 4:24; 1 Tim. 6:1) and is applied here to Jesus. To deny Jesus as Lord was to disbelieve the most basic Christian tenet.

5–7 These three examples of judgment reinforce the certainty of the false teachers' judgment (v. 4).

5 destroyed those who did not believe. The possibility of lapsing is illustrated by the disbelieving Israelites who were saved out of Egypt but were subsequently destroyed.

6 angels who did not keep their own domain. A reference to that group of fallen angels whom Satan persuaded to cohabit with women (Gen. 6:1–4) and who were confined immediately because of the gross nature of that sin. The apocryphal book of Enoch describes their dramatic end. See note on 2 Peter 2:4.

7 On the homosexual practices of Sodom and Gomorrah, see note on Gen. 19:5.

B Their Denunciation, 8–10

8 Yet in the same way these men, also by dreaming, [a]defile the flesh, and reject authority, and revile angelic majesties.

9 But [a]Michael [b]the archangel, when he disputed with the devil and argued about [c]the body of Moses, did not dare pronounce against him a railing judgment, but said, "[d]The Lord rebuke you!"

10 But [a]these men revile the things which they do not understand; and [b]the things which they know by instinct, [a]like unreasoning animals, by these things they are destroyed.

C Their Description, 11–16

11 Woe to them! For they have gone [a]the way of Cain, and for pay they have rushed headlong into [b]the error of Balaam, and [c]perished in the rebellion of Korah.

12 These are the men who are hidden reefs [a]in your love feasts when they feast with you [b]without fear, caring for themselves; [c]clouds without water, [d]carried along by winds; autumn trees without fruit, doubly dead, [e]uprooted;

13 [a]wild waves of the sea, casting up [b]their own shame like foam; wandering stars, [c]for whom the black darkness has been reserved forever.

14 And it was also about these men that [a]Enoch, in the seventh generation from Adam, prophesied, saying, "[b]Behold, the Lord came with many thousands of His holy ones,

15 [a]to execute judgment upon all, and to convict all the ungodly of all their ungodly deeds which they have done in an ungodly way, and of all the harsh things which [b]ungodly sinners have spoken against Him."

16 These are [a]grumblers, finding fault, [b]following after their own lusts; they speak [c]arrogantly, flattering people [d]for the sake of gaining an advantage.

III EXHORTATIONS TO BELIEVERS, 17–23

17 But you, [a]beloved, [b]ought to remember the words that were spoken beforehand by [c]the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ,

18 that they were saying to you, "[a]In the last time there will be mockers, [b]following after their own ungodly lusts."

19 These are the ones who cause divisions, [a]worldly-minded, devoid of the Spirit.

20 But you, [a]beloved, [b]build-

8 dreaming means that they were either unrealistic or justified their teachings by citing visions they supposedly had. defile the flesh. Homosexuality, which had just been mentioned in verse 7. angelic majesties. Refers to angels (cf. 2 Peter 2:10), though it may include leaders of the church as well.

9 Even Michael showed respect for authority, in sharp contrast to the false teachers who do not.

10 Rather than having superior knowledge as they claimed, the false teachers had only brute animal knowledge.

11 the way of Cain. I.e., his rejection of God's provision for acceptance with Himself (Gen. 4:1–12). Today, it is the rejection of God's offer of forgiveness through Christ. the error of Balaam. Balaam hired himself out as a prophet and epitomizes deceit and covetousness (cf. Num. 22–24; 2 Peter 2:15; Rev. 2:14). the rebellion of Korah. The sin of Korah was rebellion against duly constituted authority. See note on Num. 16:1–3.

12–13 love feasts. These fellowship meals were eaten in connection with the Lord's Supper. See note on 1 Cor. 11:20. Pride, greed, and rebellion summarize the iniquities of the ungodly men (v. 4) who corrupted these love feasts. These false teachers (1) were selfish, (2) had no water to offer thirsty souls, (3) were unstable, (4) fruitless, (5) without spiritual roots, (6) frothy, and (7) like momentary shooting stars.

14 Enoch. Though this prophecy is found in the noncanonical book of Enoch (1:9), the original prophecy was uttered by the Enoch of the Bible (Gen. 5:19–24; cf. Heb. 11:5–6) and was later expanded and incorporated in the book of Enoch. holy ones. I.e., angels.

16 These characteristics describe false teachers of all times.

19 ones who cause divisions. I.e., heretical groups, who are worldly-minded or, as they are called in 1 Cor. 2:14, "natural." Jude declares that these false teachers were not truly redeemed (cf. Rom. 8:9).

20–21 To keep oneself in the love of God (a command) is done by building (on the truth of God), praying (while guided by the Spirit of God),

1:20 [c]Jude 3 [d]Eph 6:18 ing yourselves up on your most holy [c]faith, [d]praying in the Holy Spirit,

1:21 [a]Titus 2:13; Heb 9:28; 2 Pet 3:12 21 keep yourselves in the love of God, [a]waiting anxiously for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to eternal life.

*1:22 22 And have mercy on some, who are doubting;

*1:23 [a]Amos 4:11; Zech 3:2; 1 Cor 3:15 [b]Zech 3:3f; Rev 3:4 23 save others, [a]snatching them out of the fire; and on some have mercy with fear, [b]hating even the garment polluted by the flesh.

IV THE BENEDICTION, 24–25

*1:24 [a]Rom 16:25 [b]2 Cor 4:14 [c]1 Pet 4:13 24 [a]Now to Him who is able to keep you from stumbling, and to [b]make you stand in the presence of His glory blameless with [c]great joy,

1:25 [a]John 5:44; 1 Tim 1:17 [b]Luke 1:47 [c]Rom 11:36 [d]Heb 13:8 25 to the [a]only [b]God our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord, [c]be glory, majesty, dominion and authority, [d]before all time and now and forever. Amen.

---

and waiting (with an eternal perspective). All three activities are participles in the Greek.

22 have mercy. Some mss. read "convince." who are doubting. Thus the verse says, "Have mercy on, or convince, those who are doubting."

23 others. The unsaved need to be snatched from the fire of hell. To still others, show mercy while being fearful of contamination.

24–25 One of the great benedictions of the NT. Savior. God is the Savior of the OT, and in the NT that title survives, occurring seven times.

REVELATION

INTRODUCTION

AUTHOR: John DATE: 90s

Authorship According to the book itself the author's name was John (1:4, 9; 22:8), a prophet (22:9). Traditionally this John has been identified as John the apostle, the son of Zebedee (see the Introduction to 1 John). That the style of the Revelation is different from that of the gospel and the three epistles of John does not prove that the Revelation was written by a different John. The nature of apocalyptic literature, the fact that this revelation was given in a vision, and the circumstances of John's being a prisoner could easily account for the differences in style.

Date Clearly the Revelation was written in a period when Christians were threatened by Rome, undoubtedly by pressure to make them recant their faith and accept the cult of emperor worship. Some maintain that the book was written during Nero's persecution of Christians after the burning of Rome in A.D. 64. However, the more probable date is during the harsh reign of that warped personality Domitian (A.D. 81–96). This later date for the book was held by the church Father Irenaeus and other early Christian writers, and it agrees better with the picture of complacency and defection of the churches in chaps. 2 and 3. This dating is widely accepted by modern scholars.

Interpretation There are four principal viewpoints concerning the interpretation of this book: (1) the preterist, which views the prophecies of the book as having been fulfilled in the early history of the church; (2) the historical, which understands the book as portraying a panorama of the history of the church from the days of John to the end of time; (3) the idealist, which considers the book a pictorial unfolding of great principles in constant conflict, without reference to actual events; and (4) the futurist, which views most of the book (chaps. 4–22) as prophecy yet to be fulfilled. The futurist is the viewpoint taken in these notes, based on the principle of interpreting the text plainly.

The book is a revelation, or apocalypse (1:1), and as such is expected to be understood. Much of it is frighteningly clear. Some symbols are explained (1:20; 17:1, 15), others are not. It is always important to notice carefully the words "like" and "as" (6:1; 9:7), for these words indicate a comparison, not an identification.

Contents This is the revelation of Jesus Christ, and He is the center of the entire book (1:1). In His risen glory (chap. 1) He directs His churches on earth (chaps. 2–3). He is the slain and risen Lamb to whom all worship is directed (chaps. 4–5). The judgments of the coming seven-year period of tribulation on this earth are the display of the wrath of the Lamb (chaps. 6–19; see especially 6:16–17), and the return of Christ to this earth is described in 19:11–21. The millennial reign of Christ is described in chap. 20, and the new heavens and new earth in chaps. 21 and 22.

The outline of the book is indicated in 1:19. The things that John had seen include the vision of the risen Christ in chap. 1. "The things which are" is described in the letters to the seven churches of Asia Minor in chaps. 2 and 3. "The things which shall take place after these things" are the prophecies of chaps. 4–22.

THE REVELATION TO JOHN

I THE PROLOGUE, 1:1–8

A The Superscription, 1:1–3

1 The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which [a]God gave Him to [b]show to His bond-servants, [c]the things which must soon take place; and He sent and communicated it [d]by His angel to His bond-servant [e]John,

2 who testified to [a]the word of God and to [b]the testimony of Jesus Christ, even to all that he saw.

3 [a]Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of the prophecy, and heed the things which are written in it; [b]for the time is near.

B The Salutation, 1:4–8

4 [a]John to [b]the seven churches that are in [c]Asia: [d]Grace to you and peace, from [e]Him who is and who was and who is to come, and from [f]the seven Spirits who are before His throne,

5 and from Jesus Christ, [a]the faithful witness, the [b]firstborn of the dead, and the [c]ruler of the kings of the earth. To Him who [d]loves us and released us from our sins by His blood—

6 and He has made us to be a [a]kingdom, [a]priests to [b]His God and Father— [c]to Him be the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.

1:10 [a]Matt 22:43; Rev 4:2; 17:3; 21:10 [b]Acts 20:7

1:1 of Jesus Christ = from Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ gave this revelation from God, by means of an angel, to John. soon. This word does not indicate that the events described in this book will necessarily occur soon but that when they do begin to happen they will come to pass swiftly. (The same Greek word is translated "quickly" in Luke 18:8.)

1:3 Blessed. There are seven beatitudes in Revelation. This is the first; the others are found at 14:13; 16:15; 19:9; 20:6; 22:7, 14. John wanted the book read at once, and preferably aloud, in the churches.

1:4 seven. The number seven, occurring 54 times in the book, appears more frequently than any other number. In the Bible it is associated with completion, fulfillment, and perfection (cf. Gen. 2:2; Ex. 20:10; Lev. 14:7; Acts 6:3). In Revelation there are seven churches and seven spirits (1:4), seven lampstands, (1:12), seven stars (1:16), seven seals on the scroll (5:1), seven horns and seven eyes of the Lamb (5:6), seven angels and seven trumpets (8:2), seven thunders (10:3), seven heads of the dragon (12:3), seven heads of the beast (13:1), seven golden bowls (15:7), and seven kings (17:10). the seven Spirits. Many understand this to refer to the Holy Spirit in His perfect fullness (see 4:5; Isa. 11:2), though some take this as a reference to seven angels who are before God's throne.

1:5 firstborn of the dead. I.e., Christ was the first to receive a resurrection body that is immortal. See Col. 1:15 where He is designated the firstborn of every creature (cf. Ps. 89:27).

1:6 a kingdom, priests. Description of both Israel (Ex. 19:6) and the church (see note on 1 Peter 2:9–10), indicating that we shall minister to Him forever.

1:7 On pierced, see note on Zech. 12:10. all . . . will mourn. See Matt. 24:29–30.

1:8 the Alpha and the Omega. The first and last letters of the Greek alphabet, indicating that the Lord God is the beginning and end of all things.

1:9 Patmos. A small island in the Aegean Sea, SW of Ephesus.

1:10 in the Spirit. I.e., in a state of spiritual ecstasy. on the Lord's day. Likely not a reference to Sunday (which is called the first day of the week in the NT) but literally a "lordian day," or an "imperial day" (the same adjective is used elsewhere only in 1 Cor. 11:20), referring to the contents of

III "THE THINGS WHICH ARE," 2:1–3:22

A The Message to Ephesus, 2:1–7

*2:1 [a] Rev 1:11

2 "To the angel of the church in [a]Ephesus write:

---

the vision that reveal the future time when Christ will judge and rule.

1:12 lampstands. These represent the seven churches mentioned in verse 11 (see also v. 20).

1:13 Christ's clothing designates Him as priest and judge. Notice the description of the Ancient of Days in Dan. 7:9.

1:14 like white wool . . . snow. Pictures Christ's wisdom and purity. His eyes were like a flame of fire. Piercing and penetrating in holiness. Compare the figure used in 1 Cor. 3:13 in relation to judgment.

1:15 His feet walked through the trials and limitations of His earthly life. No one will talk back to one who has such a voice.

1:16–20 In His right hand He held seven stars. The right hand is the place of honor (cf. Eph. 1:20). The stars are the "angels of the seven churches" (v. 20). The word angel may mean "a superhuman being," implying that each church has a special guardian angel or, more likely, it refers to the human leader of each local church. (See Luke 9:52 and James 2:25, where the word angels, translated "messengers," is used of human beings.) sword. A symbol both of the truth and of the severity of the Word of God (Heb. 4:12).

1:17 I am the first and the last. In verse 8 God is called "the Alpha and the Omega." Here Christ gives Himself a similar title.

1:18 the keys of death and of Hades. The keys denote the authority of Christ over physical death and Hades, the place that temporarily holds the immaterial part of the unbeliever between death and the ultimate casting into the lake of fire (see 20:14).

1:19 This verse gives the basic outline of the book: (1) things which you (John) have seen, as recorded in chap. 1; (2) things which are; i.e., the present state of the churches (chaps. 2–3); and (3) things which will take place after these things. The third section clearly begins with 4:1, since the same phrase is used there.

1:20 the . . . stars are the angels. See note on v. 16.

2:1 The seven churches addressed in chaps. 2 and 3 were actual churches of John's day. But they also represent types and conditions of churches in all generations. This idea is supported by the fact that only seven were selected out of the many that existed and flourished in John's time and by the statement at the close of each letter that the Spirit was speaking to the churches (vv. 7, 11, etc.). Ephesus. Under Caesar Augustus, Ephesus became the capital of the Roman province called Asia, which today is the western portion of Turkey (Pergamum had been the capital earlier). It was the residence of the apostle John before and after his exile on Patmos, and it was the site of the great temple of Artemis (Latin, Diana). See the Introduction to Ephesians.

2:3 not grown weary. I.e., have not given up.

2:4 you have left your first love. "Left" implies an intentional, not accidental, act. More than 30 years before, this church had been commended for its love (Eph. 1:15–16). Most were second generation Christians whose purity of doctrine and endurance in service were unquestioned, but they had abandoned that eagerness to please and devotion that characterizes first love.

2:5 remove your lampstand. I.e., remove the usefulness of that local church.

2:6 the Nicolaitans. Followers of Nicolas (see Acts 6:5), according to early church Fathers. These were apparently a sect that advocated license in matters of Christian conduct, including free love, though some understand from the meaning of the name ("conquering of the people") that they were a group that promoted a clerical hierarchy (see v. 15 also).

2:7 To him who overcomes. Not a reference to an especially spiritual group among the believers, but to all true Christians (cf. 1 John 5:5). Paradise. A reference to heaven and the New Jerusalem (Luke 23:43; 2 Cor. 12:4; Rev. 21:2).

2:8 Smyrna. A seaport city about 35 mi (56 km) N of Ephesus (called Izmir today). It was a center of the imperial cult of Rome and emperor worship.

2:9 Apostate Jews in Smyrna were in reality instruments of Satan.

2:10 you will have tribulation for ten days. This may refer to a 10-day period of intense persecution to come, or it may indicate 10 periods of persecution from Nero to Diocletian. crown of life. The reward of one who is faithful under trial or unto death. See James 1:12 and note on 1 Cor. 3:14.

2:11 the second death. I.e., eternal separation from God in the lake of fire. See 20:14 and note on Rom. 6:2.

2:12 Pergamum. About 45 mi (72 km) N of Smyrna, it boasted one of the finest libraries of antiquity and was the place where parchment was first used. It had once been the capital of the Roman province of Asia.

2:13 where Satan dwells. Lit., where Satan's throne is—a reference to Pergamum's worship either of the Roman emperor or of Zeus at his altar on the local acropolis (or both).

2:14 the teaching of Balaam. See notes on 2 Peter 2:15 and Jude 11.

2:15 On the Nicolaitans, see note on 2:6.

2:17 hidden manna. Refers to the sufficiency of Christ for the believer's needs, as manna was for the Hebrews' during the wilderness wanderings. The white stone may refer to the custom of voting for the acquittal of an accused person by using a white stone (indicating that the believer can be assured of his acquittal before God, cf. Rom. 8:1); or it may refer to the sufficiency of Christ (from the custom of wearing amulets around the neck).

2:20 Jezebel. This false prophetess may actually have been named Jezebel; more probably, however, she was a well-known woman whose actions made her a contemporary counterpart of the notorious Jezebel of 1 Kings 16 and 21, and 2 Kings 9.

2:22 bed of sickness, perhaps as a result of immorality.

2:23 her children. Her followers.

2:24 the deep things of Satan. John is saying, "To those of you who have not been seduced by these false doctrines, these deep things of Satan, I say only . . ."

2:26–27 Believers will share the millennial rule of Christ. HE SHALL RULE THEM WITH A ROD OF IRON. A reference to Christ's reign on earth (see 12:5; 19:15; Ps. 2:9).

2:28 the morning star. Probably a reference to Christ Himself (cf. 22:16; 2 Peter 1:19) or, perhaps, the immortal life that one will receive from Christ.

3:1 Sardis. The capital of ancient Lydia, situated about 30 mi (48 km) S of Thyatira. The imperial cult was strong there. you are dead. I.e., devoid of spiritual life and power.

3:4 who have not soiled their garments. I.e., persons who had remained faithful to Christ. in white. In purity and righteousness (cf. 19:8).

[b]He who is holy, [c]who is true, who has [d]the key of David, who opens and no one will shut, and who shuts and no one opens, says this:

3:5 I will not erase his name. Not a threat but an assurance that saved peoples' names will always be in the book of life.

3:7 Philadelphia. The word means "brotherly love." A lesser city than the others addressed, it was located about 38 mi (61 km) SE of Sardis. Its chief deity was Dionysus, the god of wine. the key of David. A quotation from Isa. 22:22, where it is a symbol of authority. Compare the "keys of death and of Hades" (1:18) and the "keys of the kingdom" (Matt. 16:19).

3:8 a little power. Not because of spiritual weakness but because of the few believers in the church.

3:9 Unsaved Jews who opposed Christians composed the synagogue of Satan (cf. 2:9).

3:10 I also will keep you from the hour of testing. A promise that believers will be delivered from the time of the Tribulation that will come upon the entire earth (Matt. 24:14–21). See note on 1 Thess. 4:16–17.

3:11 Though salvation cannot be lost, a reward (crown) can be (1 Cor. 3:15; 2 John 8).

3:12 a pillar in the temple of My God. A promise that believers will be honored in the New Jerusalem, referring to the custom of honoring a magistrate by placing a pillar, in his name, in one of the temples in Philadelphia.

3:14 Laodicea. A city about 90 mi (145 km) due E of Ephesus and 45 mi (72 km) SE of Philadelphia. Under Roman rule it was a wealthy city. The Amen. The One who guarantees confirmation and certainty of all He says.

3:16 The lukewarm or neutral or compromising or accommodating church is repulsive to the Lord and damaging to His purpose. I will spit you out of My mouth. Lit., I will vomit. . . .

3:17 This church, so wrapped up with material things, did not recognize its true condition.

IV "THE THINGS WHICH WILL TAKE PLACE AFTER THESE THINGS," 4:1–22:5

A The Tribulation Period, 4:1–19:21

1 The throne in heaven, 4:1–11

a The throne, 4:1–3

4:1 4 After [a]these things I looked, and behold, [b]a door standing open in heaven, and the first voice which I had heard, [c]like the sound of a trumpet speaking with me, said, "[d]Come up here, and I will [e]show you what must take place after these things."

4:2 2 Immediately I was [a]in the Spirit; and behold, [b]a throne was standing in heaven, and [c]One sitting on the throne.

4:3 3 And He who was sitting was like a [a]jasper stone and a [b]sardius in appearance; and there was a [c]rainbow around the throne, like an [d]emerald in appearance.

b The throng, 4:4–8

4:4 4 [a]Around the throne were [b]twenty-four thrones; and upon the thrones I saw [c]twenty-four elders [d]sitting, clothed in [e]white garments, and [f]golden crowns on their heads.

4:5 5 Out from the throne come [a]flashes of lightning and sounds and peals of thunder. And there were [b]seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are [c]the seven Spirits of God;

4:6 6 and before the throne there was, something like, a [a]sea of glass like crystal; and in the center and [b]around the throne, [c]four living creatures [d]full of eyes in front and behind.

4:7 7 [a]The first creature was like a lion, and the second creature like a calf, and the third creature had a face like that of a man, and perhaps refer to the city's three main sources of wealth—banking, production of wool cloth, and medicines. Laodicea was a center for making medicines, including a tablet that was powdered, mixed with water, and smeared on the eyes.

3:20 I stand at the door and knock. How incredible that Christ should be kept outside His own church! How gracious that He should still seek entrance! Christ is appealing to the worldly, compromising believers in the church to return and enjoy full fellowship with Him.

3:21 Believers will be co-rulers with Christ in His coming kingdom (cf. 20:4).

4:1 Here begins the third section of the book (see 1:19 and note there) describing what is yet future. This section can be divided into three parts: the coming Tribulation (chaps. 6–19), the Millennium (chap. 20), and the new heavens and new earth (chaps. 21–22).

4:2 I was in the Spirit, as in 1:10.

4:3 jasper. Clear as crystal (cf. 21:11). sardius. Blood red. emerald. Light green.

4:4 twenty-four elders. Some understand these to be angelic beings, though it is likely that the 24 elders represent redeemed people who are glorified, crowned, and enthroned. Angels are never said to be given crowns, though believers are (2 Tim. 4:8; James 1:12; 1 Peter 5:4; Rev. 2:10).

4:5 seven Spirits of God. See note on 1:4.

4:6 four living creatures, or living ones. These may be angels, probably cherubim (cf. Ezek. 10:15–20), or they may be representations of the attributes of God Himself (since they are said to be in the center of the throne).

4:7 Many see a similarity between the four living ones and the fourfold manner in which Christ is portrayed in the Gospels. In Matthew He appears as the Lion of the tribe of Judah; in Mark He is the Servant who became the sacrifice for sin (the calf was a sacrificial animal, Heb. 9:12, 19); Luke's emphasis is on the Son of Man; and a flying eagle links Him with heaven, as does John's gospel.

the fourth creature was like a flying eagle.

4:8 8 And the [a]four living creatures, each one of them having [b]six wings, are [c]full of eyes around and within; and [d]day and night they do not cease to say,

"[e]HOLY, HOLY, HOLY IS THE [f]LORD GOD, THE ALMIGHTY, [g]WHO WAS AND WHO IS AND WHO IS TO COME."

c The theme, 4:9–11

4:9 9 And when the living creatures give glory and honor and thanks to Him who [a]sits on the throne, to [b]Him who lives forever and ever,

4:10 10 the [a]twenty-four elders will [b]fall down before Him who [c]sits on the throne, and will worship [d]Him who lives forever and ever, and will cast their [e]crowns before the throne, saying,

4:11 11 "[a]Worthy are You, our Lord and our God, to receive glory and honor and power; for You [b]created all things, and because of Your will they existed, and were created."

2 The book in heaven, 5:1–14

a The book, 5:1

5:1 5 I saw in the right hand of Him who [a]sat on the throne a [b]book written inside and on the back, [c]sealed up with seven seals.

b The search, 5:2–5

5:2 2 And I saw a [a]strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, "Who is worthy to open the book and to break its seals?"

5:3 3 And no one [a]in heaven or on the earth or under the earth was able to open the book or to look into it.

4 Then I began to weep greatly because no one was found worthy to open the book or to look into it;

5:5 5 and one of the elders *said to me, "Stop weeping; behold, the [a]Lion that is [b]from the tribe of Judah, the [c]Root of David, has overcome so as to open the book and its seven seals."

c The Savior-Sovereign, 5:6–7

5:6 6 And I saw between the throne (with the four living creatures) and [a]the elders a [b]Lamb standing, as if [c]slain, having seven [d]horns and [e]seven eyes, which are [f]the seven Spirits of God, sent out into all the earth.

7 And He came and took [a]the book out of the right hand of Him who [a]sat on the throne.

d The song, 5:8–14

5:8 8 When He had taken the book, the [a]four living creatures and the [b]twenty-four elders [c]fell down before the [d]Lamb, each one holding a [e]harp and [f]golden bowls full of incense, which are the [g]prayers of the saints.

5:9 9 And they *sang a [a]new song, saying,

"[b]Worthy are You to take

4:8–11 Here is a great anthem of praise by the four living ones and the 24 elders to God as creator. In 5:11–14 the focus of worship is on God as Redeemer.

5:1 a book. Lit., a scroll. This may be called the "Book of Redemption," as it contains the story of man's fall through sin and rise through Christ (Heb. 2:5–9).

5:5 the Lion that is from the tribe of Judah. The noblest and victorious of the kingly tribe (cf. Gen. 49:9). the Root of David. The one who fulfills the covenant with David (cf. Isa. 11:1, 10). The Messiah, John is assured, is competent and worthy to break the seven seals and open the scroll to release the plagues.

5:6 as if slain. Christ, the Lamb, bears the marks of His death (see Luke 24:40; John 20:20, 27) even in His glorified state. horns are a symbol of strength (cf. 1 Kings 22:11; Zech. 1:18).

5:8 bowls, like saucers.

5:9–10 The Lamb is worthy because He died in the past to pay the ransom price for the sins of the world, positioned us in the present as a kingdom and priests before God, and gave us a promise of reigning on the earth in the future. A few mss. read "us" and "we" in verse 10 instead of them and they. In either case, the elders could be singing of their own redemption in either the first or third person.

the book and to break its seals; for You were [c]slain, and [d]purchased for God with Your blood men from [e]every tribe and tongue and people and nation.
10 "You have made them to be a [a]kingdom and [a]priests to our God; and they will [b]reign upon the earth."
11 Then I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels [a]around the throne and the [b]living creatures and the [c]elders; and the number of them was [d]myriads of myriads, and thousands of thousands,
12 saying with a loud voice,
"[a]Worthy is the [b]Lamb that was [b]slain to receive power and riches and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing."
13 And [a]every created thing which is in heaven and on the earth and under the earth and on the sea, and all things in them, I heard saying,
"To Him who [b]sits on the throne, and to the [c]Lamb, [d]be blessing and honor and glory and dominion forever and ever."
14 And the [a]four living creatures kept saying, "[b]Amen." And the [c]elders [d]fell down and worshiped.

3 The seal judgments, 6:1–17

a First seal: cold war, 6:1–2

6 Then I saw when the [a]Lamb broke one of the [b]seven seals, and I heard one of the [c]four living creatures saying as with a [d]voice of thunder, "Come."
2 I looked, and behold, a [a]white horse, and he who sat on it had a bow; and [b]a crown was given to him, and he went out [c]conquering and to conquer.

b Second seal: open war, 6:3–4

3 When He broke the second seal, I heard the [a]second living creature saying, "Come."
4 And another, [a]a red horse, went out; and to him who sat on it, it was granted to [b]take peace from the earth, and that men would slay one another; and a great sword was given to him.

c Third seal: famine, 6:5–6

5 When He broke the third seal, I heard the [a]third living creature saying, "Come." I looked, and behold, a [b]black horse; and he who sat on it had a [c]pair of scales in his hand.
6 And I heard something like a voice in the center of the [a]four living creatures saying, "A quart of wheat for a denarius, and three quarts of barley for a denarius; and [b]do not damage the oil and the wine."

d Fourth seal: death, 6:7–8

7 When the Lamb broke the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the [a]fourth living creature saying, "Come."
8 I looked, and behold, an

5:13 All creation joins in praise to God and the Lamb.

5:14 The heavenly scene of chaps. 4 and 5 give heaven's perspective on the need for the awful judgments to follow, for Christ's right to reign must be realized and sin must be punished.

6:1 Here begins the first of three series of judgments in the book (seals, chap. 6; trumpets, chaps. 8–9; bowls, chap. 16). Some see the later series as recapitulating the earlier series. But more likely the three series are consecutive, each succeeding one following the preceding one.

6:2 he who sat on it. Evidently a reference to Antichrist. See note on 1 John 2:18. His method of conquest at first does not seem to include open warfare, since peace is not removed from the earth until the second seal is opened (v. 3). This corresponds to the description of delusion in 1 Thess. 5:3.

6:3–4 Everything about the second seal judgment indicates bloodshed (e.g., red horse, take peace from, sword).

6:6 a denarius. A Roman silver coin that had a normal purchasing power of 10 qt (9.5 lit) of wheat or 30 qt (28.5 lit) of barley. One qt (.95 lit) of wheat was the daily ration for a soldier. Thus a daily wage will buy food for only one person, who will have to share with his family.

6:8 ashen = a sickly, yellowish-green. Probably representing the inevitable result of disease that ashen horse; and he who sat on it had the name [b]Death; and [b]Hades was following with him. Authority was given to them over a fourth of the earth, [c]to kill with sword and with famine and with pestilence and by the wild beasts of the earth.

e Fifth seal: martyrdom, 6:9–11

9 When the Lamb broke the fifth seal, I saw [a]underneath the [b]altar the [c]souls of those who had been slain [d]because of the word of God, and because of the [e]testimony which they had maintained;

10 and they cried out with a loud voice, saying, "[a]How long, O [b]Lord, [c]holy and true, will You refrain from [d]judging and avenging our blood on [e]those who dwell on the earth?"

11 And [a]there was given to each of them a white robe; and they were told that they should [b]rest for a little while longer, [c]until the number of their fellow servants and their brethren who were to be killed even as they had been, would be [d]completed also.

f Sixth seal: physical disturbances, 6:12–17

12 I looked when He broke the sixth seal, and there was a great [a]earthquake; and the [b]sun became black as [c]sackcloth made of hair, and the whole moon became like blood;

13 and [a]the stars of the sky fell to the earth, [b]as a fig tree casts its unripe figs when shaken by a great wind.

14 [a]The sky was split apart like a scroll when it is rolled up, and [b]every mountain and island were moved out of their places.

15 Then [a]the kings of the earth and the great men and the commanders and the rich and the strong and every slave and free man hid themselves in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains;

16 and they *[a]said to the mountains and to the rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the presence of Him [b]who sits on the throne, and from the [c]wrath of the Lamb;

17 for [a]the great day of their wrath has come, and [b]who is able to stand?"

4 Interlude: the redeemed of the Tribulation, 7:1–17

a The 144,000 Jews, 7:1–8

7 After this I saw [a]four angels standing at the [b]four corners of the earth, holding back [c]the four winds of the earth, [d]so that no wind would blow on the earth or on the sea or on any tree.

2 And I saw another angel ascending [a]from the rising of the sun, having the [b]seal of [c]the living God; and he cried out with a loud voice to the [d]four angels to whom it was granted to harm the earth and the sea,

3 saying, "[a]Do not harm the earth or the sea or the trees until we have [b]sealed the bond-servants of our God on their [c]foreheads."

4 And I heard the [a]number of those who were sealed, [b]one hundred and forty-four thousand accompanies war and famine. Death claims the bodies and Hades the souls and spirits of one-fourth of the world's population in this single judgment (cf. 9:18).

6:9 the souls of those who had been slain. Evidently the martyrs of the first months of the tribulation period.

6:10 Notice that these martyrs are alive and conversing with the Lord in His presence.

6:11 rest for a little while longer. I.e., wait a little while. It is difficult for these martyrs to understand why God would allow their murderers to live; yet God asks these saints to trust Him.

6:12 These cosmic disturbances are predicted elsewhere in Scripture (Isa. 34:4; Joel 2:30–31; Matt. 24:29).

6:16 When the Tribulation comes, men will act as if they believe the end of the world is at hand, not simply talk as if it were.

7:3 The judgments are delayed until these 144,000 Jewish people can be sealed; i.e., protected supernaturally.

7:4 one hundred and forty-four thousand. These are Jews from the 12 tribes (12,000 each) who are protected in order to perform some service for God during these days. Perhaps they are evangesealed from every tribe of the sons of Israel:

5 from the tribe of Judah, twelve thousand were sealed, from the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand, from the tribe of Gad twelve thousand,

6 from the tribe of Asher twelve thousand, from the tribe of Naphtali twelve thousand, from the tribe of Manasseh twelve thousand,

7 from the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand, from the tribe of Levi twelve thousand, from the tribe of Issachar twelve thousand,

8 from the tribe of Zebulun twelve thousand, from the tribe of Joseph twelve thousand, from the tribe of Benjamin, twelve thousand were sealed.

b The multitude of Gentiles, 7:9–17

7:9 9 After these things I looked, and behold, a great multitude which no one could count, from [a]every nation and all tribes and peoples and tongues, standing [b]before the throne and [c]before the Lamb, clothed in [d]white robes, and [e]palm branches were in their hands;

7:10 10 and they cry out with a loud voice, saying,

"[a]Salvation to our God [b]who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb."

7:11 11 And all the angels were standing [a]around the throne and around [a]the elders and the [b]four living creatures; and they [c]fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God,

7:12 12 saying,

"[a]Amen, [b]blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might, be to our God forever and ever. [a]Amen."

7:13 13 Then one of the elders [a]answered, saying to me, "These who are clothed in the [b]white robes, who are they, and where have they come from?"

7:14 14 I said to him, "My lord, you know." And he said to me, "These are the ones who come out of the [a]great tribulation, and they have [b]washed their robes and made them [c]white in the [d]blood of the Lamb.

7:15 15"For this reason, they are [a]before the throne of God; and they [b]serve Him day and night in His [c]temple; and [d]He who sits on the throne will spread His [e]tabernacle over them.

7:16 16"[a]They will hunger no more, nor thirst anymore; nor will the sun beat down on them, nor any heat;

7:17 17 for the Lamb in the center of the throne will be their [a]shepherd, and will guide them to springs of the [b]water of life; and [c]God will wipe every tear from their eyes."

5 The six trumpet judgments, 8:1–9:21

a The seventh seal opened, 8:1–6

8:1 8 When the Lamb broke the [a]seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour.

8:2 2 And I saw [a]the seven angels who stand before God, and seven [b]trumpets were given to them.

8:3 3 [a]Another angel came and stood at the [b]altar, holding a [c]golden censer; and much [d]incense was given to him, so that he might add it to the [d]prayers of all the saints on the [e]golden altar which was before the throne.

lists. The omission of the tribe of Dan may be because Dan was guilty of idolatry on many occasions (Lev. 24:11; Judg. 18; 1 Kings 12:28, 29).

7:9 a great multitude. This multitude is composed of many racial and geographic groups who will be redeemed during the Tribulation (v. 14). In these difficult days, many will find Christ as Savior.

7:15–17 Having died or been martyred during the Tribulation, this great multitude ~~are seen~~ in heaven enjoying its blessings.

8:1 broke the seventh seal. With the breaking of the seventh seal comes the second series of judgments—the seven trumpets. Apparently the judgments announced by the trumpets follow chronologically those of the other seals.

4 And [a]the smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, went up before God out of the angel's hand.

5 Then the angel took the censer and [a]filled it with the fire of the altar, and [b]threw it to the earth; and there followed [c]peals of thunder and sounds and flashes of lightning and an [d]earthquake.

6 [a]And the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound them.

JUDGMENTS

Judgment Series Identified	Judgment Series Interrelated
The Seven Seals (6:1–8:6)	1. Antichrist 2. War 3. Famine 4. Death 5. Martyrs' prayers 6. Great earthquakes 7. Announcement of Trumpets
The Seven Trumpets (8:7–9:21)	1. A third of vegetation burned 2. A third of the sea judged 3. A third of fresh water judged 4. A third of the luminaries darkened 5. Increased demonic activity 6. A third of mankind killed 7. Announcement of Bowls
The Seven Bowls (15:1–16:21)	1. Malignant sores 2. Sea turned to blood 3. Fresh waters to blood 4. Men scorched with fire 5. Darkness over the kingdom of the Beast 6. Invasion from the east 7. Greatest earthquake and widespread destruction

8:4 The prayers likely petition God to judge evil and to inaugurate His kingdom quickly. A token judgment follows (v. 5).

8:7 Though the implications are staggering, there is no reason not to understand this and the other judgments plainly.

8:8–9 The impact of this judgment on the world economy is beyond imagination.

8:11 Wormwood. Many species of wormwood (a woody herb) grow in Palestine, and all have a strong, bitter (but not poisonous) taste, which causes the plant to be used as a symbol of bitterness, sorrow, and calamity. This plague will make a third part of the fresh water supply of the earth unfit for human consumption.

12 The fourth angel sounded, and a [a]third of the [b]sun and a third of the [b]moon and a [a]third of the [b]stars were smitten, so that a [a]third of them would be darkened and the day would not shine for a [a]third of it, and the night in the same way.

9 Then the [a]fifth angel sounded, and I saw a [b]star from heaven which had fallen to the earth; and the [c]key of the [d]bottomless pit was given to him.

9:2 [a]Gen 19:28; Ex 19:18 [b]Joel 2:2,10

2 He opened the bottomless pit, and [a]smoke went up out of the pit, like the smoke of a great furnace; and [b]the sun and the air were darkened by the smoke of the pit.

*9:3 [a]Ex 10:12-15; Rev 9:7 [b]2 Chr 10:11, 14; Ezek 2:6; Rev 9:5,10

8:12 This could mean that the 24-hour cycle of day and night will be shortened to 16 hours or that the power of the sun, moon, and stars will be reduced by one-third.

9:1 a star represents an intelligent creature, apparently "the angel of the abyss" (v. 11). Notice the "he" in verse 2. the bottomless pit. Lit., the shaft of the abyss. For other uses of this phrase, see Luke 8:31; Rom. 10:7; Rev. 9:11; 11:7; 17:8; 20:1, 3. Luke 8:31 indicates that this is the abode of the demons.

9:3 locusts. That these creatures come from the abyss and are described in unusual terms in verses 7–11 indicate that they are demonic.

9:4–5 The limitations that God places upon the activities of these creatures show that He is still in full control of these events. Only the 144,000 will escape the torment on people.

9:6 Suicide, though desired, will be impossible.

9:7–10 In describing these creatures John often has to use the word like.

9:10 Two glands in the tail of a scorpion emit a poison that produces a painful, but usually not lethal, wound.

9:11 Abaddon . . . Apollyon. Both words mean "destruction."

9:14–15 These four angels (demons) are re-

9:14 the [a]four angels who are bound at the [b]great river Euphrates."
15 And the four angels, who had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, were [a]released, so that they would kill a [b]third of mankind.
*9:16 16 The number of the armies of the horsemen was [a]two hundred million; [b]I heard the number of them.
9:17 17 And this is how I saw [a]in the vision the horses and those who sat on them: the riders had breastplates the color of fire and of hyacinth and of [b]brimstone; and the heads of the horses are like the heads of lions; and [c]out of their mouths proceed fire and smoke and [b]brimstone.
*9:18 18 A [a]third of mankind was killed by these three plagues, by the [b]fire and the smoke and the brimstone which proceeded out of their mouths.
19 For the power of the horses is in their mouths and in their tails; for their tails are like serpents and have heads, and with them they do harm.
*9:20 20 And the rest of mankind, who were not killed by these plagues, [a]did not repent of [b]the works of their hands, so as not to [c]worship demons, and [d]the idols of gold and of silver and of brass and of stone and of wood, which can neither see nor hear nor walk;
*9:21 21 and they [a]did not repent of their murders nor of their [b]sorceries nor of their [c]immorality nor of their thefts.

6 The little book, 10:1–11

10 I saw another [a]strong angel [b]coming down out of heaven, clothed with a cloud; and the [c]rainbow was upon his head, and [d]his face was like the sun, and his [e]feet like pillars of fire;
2 and he had in his hand a [a]little book which was open. He placed [b]his right foot on the sea and his left on the land;
3 and he cried out with a loud voice, [a]as when a lion roars; and when he had cried out, the [b]seven peals of thunder uttered their voices.
4 When the seven peals of thunder had spoken, [a]I was about to write; and I [b]heard a voice from heaven saying, "[c]Seal up the things which the seven peals of thunder have spoken and do not write them."
5 Then the angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land [a]lifted up his right hand to heaven,
6 [a]and swore by [b]Him who lives forever and ever, [c]WHO CREATED HEAVEN AND THE THINGS IN IT, AND THE EARTH AND THE THINGS IN IT, AND THE SEA AND THE THINGS IN IT, that [d]there will be delay no longer,
7 but in the days of the voice of the [a]seventh angel, when he is about to sound, then [b]the mystery of God is finished, as He preached to His servants the prophets.
8 And [a]the voice which I heard from heaven, I heard again speaking with me, and saying, leased in order to kill one-third of the remaining population of the earth. Added to the one-fourth who were killed under the fourth seal judgment (6:4) these two judgments alone destroy one-half of the population, not including those who are killed by wars, famines, and diseases. the hour (v. 15). Lit., this particular hour.

9:16 the armies. The 200,000,000 creatures who compose this supernatural cavalry may be human beings or demons or demon-possessed humans. For other supernatural armies, see 2 Kings 2:11; 6:14–17; Rev. 19:14.

9:18 by these three plagues. I.e., by the fire, smoke, and brimstone.

9:20 The religion of many will involve demon and idol worship.

9:21 sorceries. I.e., magical arts, potions, and poisons (see Gal. 5:20; Rev. 18:23; 21:8; 22:15). From the Greek word, we derive the English word "pharmacies." This chapter shows (1) the reality and some of the activity of the unseen world of Satan and demons and (2) the hardness of human hearts.

10:6 there will be delay no longer. I.e., when the seventh angel sounds his trumpet (11:15), the bowl judgments will be poured out (16:1–21) and the Tribulation will come to an end with the return of Christ. This will be good news to the martyrs awaiting their vindication (6:10–11).

10:7 the mystery of God. Truth concerning God Himself, which will not be revealed until His kingdom is established on earth.

10:9–10 The eating of the little book (scroll) was to remind John that, although these truths from God may be pleasant to his taste, they were bitter when digested because they spoke of judgment. The revelation of God's judgment, on careful reflection, should always bring heaviness of heart to the child of God. Compare Ezek. 2:8–3:3.

11:1 the temple of God. Apparently the temple that will be built during the Tribulation, in which Jewish worship will be carried on during the first part of that seven-year period and in which, at the midpoint, the man of sin will exalt himself to be worshiped (2 Thess. 2:4).

11:2 forty-two months. This equals 3 ½ years and probably refers to the last half of the tribulation period during which Jerusalem will be under some sort of Gentile (the nations) control. Thus "the times of the Gentiles" (see Luke 21:24 and note there) will not conclude until the end of the Tribulation.

11:3 twelve hundred and sixty days. This also equals 3 ½ years and refers to the period of the ministry of the two witnesses. Whether the two witnesses will prophesy during the first half or the last half of the Tribulation is not stated, though the first half seems more likely, since their termination by Antichrist (v. 7) fits better at the midpoint of the Tribulation than at the end.

11:4 two olive trees. For the symbolism, see notes on Zech. 4:12 and 14. two lampstands that give out a witness (v. 3).

11:5–6 The miraculous powers of the two unnamed witnesses are reminiscent of those of Elijah and Moses (cf. Ex. 7:20; 8:1–12:29; 1 Kings 17:1; 18:41–45; 2 Kings 1:10–12).

11:7 the beast. The Antichrist (see note on 1 John 2:18), also called "the man of lawlessness" (2 Thess. 2:3). The same person is mentioned in 6:2; 13:1; 14:9, 11; 15:2; 16:2; 17:3, 13; 19:20; 20:10. He cannot kill these two witnesses until God allows him to.

11:8 the great city. I.e., Jerusalem, which in these coming days will be like Sodom (filled with perverted sex) and Egypt (persecuting God's people).

11:8 [c]Ezek 23:3,8, 19,27
om and [c]Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified.

*11:9 [a]Rev 5:9; 10:11 [b]1 Kin 13:22; Ps 79:2f

10 And [a]those who dwell on the earth will rejoice over them and celebrate; and they will [b]send gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented [a]those who dwell on the earth.

*11:11 [a]Ezek 37:5,9, 10,14
11 But after the three and a half days, [a]the breath of life from God came into them, and they stood on their feet; and great fear fell upon those who were watching them.

11:12 [a]Rev 4:1 [b]2 Kin 2:11; Acts 1:9
12 And they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "[a]Come up here." Then they [b]went up into heaven in the cloud, and their enemies watched them.

*11:15 [a]Rev 8:2; 10:7 [b]Rev 16:17; 19:1 [c]Rev 12:10
15 Then the [a]seventh angel sounded; and there were [b]loud voices in heaven, saying,
"[c]The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of [d]His Christ; and [e]He will reign forever and ever."

11:15 [d]Ps 2:2; Acts 4:26 [e]Ex 15:18; Dan 2:44; 7:14,27; Luke 1:33

"We give You thanks, [a]O Lord God, the Almighty, who are and who were, because You have taken Your great power and have begun to [b]reign.

11:17 [a]Rev 1:8 [b]Rev 19:6
18 "And [a]the nations were enraged, and [b]Your wrath came, and [c]the time came for the dead to be judged, and the time to reward Your [d]bond-servants the prophets and the saints and those who fear Your name, [e]the small and the great, and to destroy those who destroy the earth."

a War on earth: phase I, 12:1–6

*12:1 [a]Matt 24:30; Rev 12:3 [b]Rev 11:19 [c]Gal 4:26 [d]Ps 104:2; Song 6:10
12 A great [a]sign appeared [b]in heaven: [c]a woman [d]clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars;

12:2 [a]Is 26:17; 66:6-9; Mic 4:9f
2 and she was with child; and she *[a]cried out, being in labor and in pain to give birth.

*12:3 [a]Rev 12:1; 15:1 [b]Is 27:1; Rev 12:4,7,9,13,16f; 13:2,4,11; 16:13; 20:2 [c]Rev 13:1; 17:3,7,9ff [d]Dan 7:7,20, 24; Rev 13:1; 17:12,16 [e]Rev 13:1; 19:12
3 Then [a]another sign appeared in heaven: and behold, a great red [b]dragon having [c]seven heads and [d]ten horns, and on his heads were [e]seven diadems.

11:9–10 So corrupt are peoples' hearts that they will refuse burial and have a 3 ½ day celebration of Antichrist's victory over the two witnesses.

11:11 and they stood on their feet. Imagine the effect the resurrection of these two men will have on those who, only the moment before, were viewing their corpses in the street or were watching TV news!

11:13 the rest. Those who were not killed by the earthquake. gave glory to the God of heaven momentarily, for soon they would again curse the God of heaven (16:11).

11:15 The end is near enough now that the announcement of it can be made.

11:16–19 The announcement evokes praise from the elders (vv. 16–17) and anger from the nations; and soon will come judgment on the dead and the rewarding of the saints.

12:1 a woman. She represents Israel, who gave Christ to the world (v. 5) and who will be persecuted severely during the Tribulation (v. 13).

12:3 a great red dragon. Satan (v. 9).

*12:4 [a]Rev 8:7,12 [b]Dan 8:10 [c]Is 27:1; Rev 12:3,7,9,13,16f; 13:2,4,11; 16:13; 20:2 [d]Matt 2:16

4 And his tail *swept away a [a]third of the stars of heaven and [b]threw them to the earth. And the [c]dragon stood before the woman who was about to give birth, so that when she gave birth [d]he might devour her child.

*12:5 [a]Is 66:7 [b]Ps 2:9; Rev 2:27 [c]2 Cor 12:2ff

5 And [a]she gave birth to a son, a male child, who is to [b]rule all the nations with a rod of iron; and her child was [c]caught up to God and to His throne.

6 Then the woman fled into the wilderness where she *had a place prepared by God, so that there she would be nourished for [a]one thousand two hundred and sixty days.

12:4 a third of the stars of heaven. This may refer to Satan's past rebellion against God (Ezek. 28:15); if so, it suggests that a third of the angels joined Satan and were cast out of heaven with him. Or the reference may be to a meteor shower judgment on the earth.

12:5 The earthly life and death of Christ are not mentioned, only His birth and ascension.

12:6 one thousand two hundred and sixty days. The last 3 ½ years of the Tribulation will see intense persecution of Israel. Details are given in verses 13–17. No mention is made of the many hundreds of years between the Ascension (v. 5) and the future Tribulation (v. 6). See Dan. 9:27; Matt. 24:14, 21; 1 Thess. 4:17.

12:7 Michael . . . the dragon. This likely will oc-enough, and there was no longer a place found for them in heaven.

cur at the midpoint of the Tribulation. Michael is the only angel designated an archangel in the Bible (Jude 9).

12:9–11 Notice two of Satan's activities in these verses: to deceive the world and to accuse the brethren. The believer's defense against Satan is (1) to bank on the merits of the death of Christ, (2) to be active in witnessing, and (3) to be willing to make any sacrifice, including death (v. 11).

12:9 Several judgments have and will be passed on Satan: (1) his removal from guarding the throne of God (Ezek. 28:14, 16); (2) the prophecy in the garden of Eden (Gen. 3:15); (3) his defeat at the Cross (John 12:31); (4) his being barred from heaven (here in v. 9); (5) his confinement in the abyss (20:3); and (6) his torment in the lake of fire forever (20:10).

12:14 Persecuted Israel will flee quickly as if on wings to an unspecified place in the wilderness where she will have protection and care.

12:15–16 In an attempt to dislodge the Jews, Satan will bring a flood. God then will cause the earth to open and swallow the water.

12:17 Satan will then attack those who did not flee to the place of asylum.

13:1 a beast. The Antichrist. See note on 11:7. Many emperors of Rome deified themselves, but Antichrist will far outstrip all his predecessors in his blasphemous ways. ten horns. The 10 kings that will give their power and authority to the Antichrist (17:12–13).

13:2 the dragon gave him his power. Satan gives Antichrist his power.

power and his [e]throne and great authority.

3 I saw one of his heads as if it had been slain, and his [a]fatal wound was healed. And the whole earth [b]was amazed and followed after the beast;

4 they worshiped the [a]dragon because he [a]gave his authority to the beast; and they worshiped the beast, saying, "[b]Who is like the beast, and who is able to wage war with him?"

5 There was given to him a mouth [a]speaking arrogant words and blasphemies, and authority to act for [b]forty-two months was given to him.

6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemies against God, to blaspheme His name and His tabernacle, that is, [a]those who dwell in heaven.

7 It was also given to him to [a]make war with the saints and to overcome them, and authority over [b]every tribe and people and tongue and nation was given to him.

8 All who [a]dwell on the earth will worship him, everyone [b]whose name has not been written [c]from the foundation of the world in the [d]book of life of [e]the Lamb who has been slain.

9 [a]If anyone has an ear, let him hear.

10 [a]If anyone is destined for captivity, to captivity he goes; [b]if anyone kills with the sword, with the sword he must be killed. Here is [c]the perseverance and the faith of the saints.

b The false prophet, 13:11–18

11 Then [a]I saw another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had [b]two horns like a lamb and he spoke as a [c]dragon.

12 He [a]exercises all the authority of the first beast [b]in his presence. And he makes [c]the earth and those who dwell in it to [d]worship the first beast, whose [e]fatal wound was healed.

13 He [a]performs great signs, so that he even makes [b]fire come down out of heaven to the earth in the presence of men.

14 And he [a]deceives [b]those who dwell on the earth because of [c]the signs which it was given him to perform [d]in the presence of the beast, telling those who dwell on the earth to make an image to the beast who *had the [e]wound of the sword and has come to life.

15 And it was given to him to give breath to the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast would even speak and cause [a]as many as do not [b]worship the image of the beast to be killed.

16 And he causes all, [a]the small and the great, and the rich and the poor, and the free men and the slaves, to be given a [b]mark on their right hand or on their forehead,

17 and he provides that no one will be able to buy or to sell, except the one who has the [a]mark, either [b]the name of the beast or [c]the number of his name.

18 [a]Here is wisdom. Let him

13:3 had been slain. The same word is used in 5:6 of Christ's actual death, though here it may indicate a wound that normally would be fatal. his fatal wound was healed. Apparently Satan will miraculously restore Antichrist to life in imitation of the resurrection of Christ. No wonder the world will acclaim Antichrist.

13:5 forty-two months. Apparently the last 3 ½ years of the tribulation period during which Antichrist's power is practically unrestrained.

13:6 His tabernacle. God's dwelling place, heaven.

13:7–8 Antichrist's rule will extend to all except believers whose names have been written in the book of life. The phrase from the foundation of the world relates to the writing of the names, not to the crucifixion (cf. 17:8).

13:10 Assurance that God will punish evildoers sustains the faith of those who are persecuted during these days. See also note on 14:12.

13:11 another beast. This man is Antichrist's lieutenant, who will enforce the worship of Antichrist by performing miracles (v. 13), by making and animating an image of Antichrist (vv. 14–15), by sentencing to death those who disobey (v. 15), and by requiring a mark on the hand or forehead in order that men may buy and sell (vv. 16–17). Satan, the Antichrist, and this second beast form an evil trinity.

13:18 his number is 666. Somehow, unknown to us, this number will play an important part in the identification of the Antichrist in a future day.

14:1 the Lamb. I.e., Christ. one hundred and forty-four thousand. Evidently the same group introduced in 7:4, though now their work on earth is finished and they are in heaven. Another interpretation takes Mount Zion as the earthly Jerusalem and the 144,000 as surviving the Tribulation on earth.

14:4 not . . . defiled with women. This may simply mean that the 144,000 were unmarried, or it may indicate their state of separation unto God (cf. 2 Cor. 11:2). first fruits. The salvation of the 144,000 will precede the salvation of a larger group of Israelites, who will turn to the Lord at the end of the Tribulation (cf. d Concerning the harvesting of the earth, 14:14–20

14 Then I looked, and behold, a [a]white cloud, and sitting on the cloud was one [b]like a son of man, having a golden [c]crown on His head and a sharp sickle in His hand.

15 And another angel [a]came out of the temple, crying out with a loud voice to Him who sat on the cloud, "[b]Put in your sickle and reap, for the hour to reap has come, because the [c]harvest of the earth is ripe."

16 Then He who sat on the cloud swung His sickle over the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel [a]came out of the temple which is in heaven, and he also had a sharp sickle.

18 Then another angel, [a]the one who has power over fire, came out from [b]the altar; and he called with a loud voice to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, "[c]Put in your sharp sickle and gather the clusters from the vine of the earth, [d]because her grapes are ripe."

19 So the angel swung his sickle to the earth and gathered the clusters from the vine of the earth, and threw them into [a]the great wine press of the wrath of God.

20 And [a]the wine press was trodden [b]outside the city, and [c]blood came out from the wine press, up to the horses' bridles, for a distance of two hundred miles.

11 Prelude to the bowl judgments, 15:1–8

15 Then I saw [a]another sign in heaven, great and marvelous, [b]seven angels who had [c]seven plagues, which are [d]the last, because in them the wrath of God is finished.

2 And I saw something like a [a]sea of glass mixed with fire, and those who had [b]been victorious over the [c]beast and [d]his image and the [e]number of his name, standing on the [a]sea of glass, holding [f]harps of God.

3 And they *sang the [a]song of Moses, [b]the bond-servant of God, and the [c]song of the Lamb, saying,

"[d]Great and marvelous are
Your works,
[e]O Lord God, the Almighty;
Righteous and true are
Your ways,
[f]King of the nations!
4"[a]Who will not fear,
O Lord, and glorify Your name?
For You alone are holy;
For [b]ALL THE NATIONS WILL COME AND WORSHIP BEFORE
YOU,
FOR YOUR [c]RIGHTEOUS ACTS
HAVE BEEN REVEALED."

5 After these things I looked, and [a]the temple of the [b]tabernacle of testimony in heaven was opened,

6 and the [a]seven angels who had the seven plagues [b]came out

14:20 Apparently a reference to Armageddon (16:16; cf. 19:17–19), when the blood from the slaughter will flow 180 mi (290 km), to the depth of about 4.5 ft (1.3 m). The blood of horses added to that of the large armies of human soldiers could easily cause such an enormous river of blood.

15:2–3 The martyrs sing the song of Moses, praising God for His faithfulness and deliverance (Ex. 15 and Deut. 32) and magnifying God's holiness and righteousness.

*16:3 [a] Ex 7:17-21; Rev 8:8f; 11:6 3 The second angel poured out his bowl [a]into the sea, and it became blood like that of a dead man; and every living thing in the sea died.

16:1 Though there are similarities between the bowl judgments and some of the trumpet judgments in chaps. 8–9 there are differences as well, the bowl judgments being more intensive and extensive. Thus it is best not to see the bowls as repeating the trumpets but as a distinct series of judgments following the trumpets.

16:2 a loathsome and malignant sore. Lit., foul and evil sore. Probably a plague of ulcers. The brief descriptions of these last seven judgments (vv. 2–12, 17–21) may suggest that they occur in rapid succession upon a world already badly battered and bloodied.

16:3 every living thing in the sea died (see 8:9). Imagine the stench and disease that will accompany this event.

16:4 Though drinking bloody salt water would be toxic, drinking bloody fresh water, though disgusting, would not be.

16:6 They deserve it. I.e., they deserve to drink blood because they shed the blood of saints and prophets.

16:8 Side effects of this scorching heat will drastically affect the climate, possibly including excessive evaporation and melting of the great ice areas of the world.

16:9 they did not repent. See verse 11 and 9:21.

16:11 their sores. I.e., those referred to in verse 2.

16:11 [b]God of heaven because of their pains and their [c]sores; and they [d]did not repent of their deeds.

f Sixth bowl: Euphrates dried, 16:12–16

*16:12 12 The sixth angel poured out his bowl on the [a]great river, the Euphrates; and [b]its water was dried up, so that [c]the way would be prepared for the kings [d]from the east.

*16:13 13 And I saw coming out of the mouth of the [a]dragon and out of the mouth of the [b]beast and out of the mouth of the [c]false prophet, three [d]unclean spirits like [e]frogs;

*16:14 14 for they are [a]spirits of demons, [b]performing signs, which go out to the kings of the [c]whole world, to [d]gather them together for the war of the [e]great day of God, the Almighty.

g Seventh bowl: widespread destruction, 16:17–21

16:17 17 Then the seventh angel poured out his bowl upon [a]the air, and a [b]loud voice came out of the [c]temple from the throne, saying, "[d]It is done."

18 And there were flashes of [a]lightning and sounds and peals of thunder; and there was [b]a great earthquake, [c]such as there had not been since man came to be upon the earth, so great an earthquake was it, and so mighty.

*16:19 19 [a]The great city was split into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. [b]Babylon the great was [c]remembered before God, to give her [d]the cup of the wine of His fierce wrath.

*16:20 20 And [a]every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.

16:21 21 And [a]huge hailstones, about one hundred pounds each, *came down from heaven upon men; and men [b]blasphemed God because of the [c]plague of the hail, because its plague *was extremely severe.

16:12 the kings from the east. Lit., the kings from the rising of the sun. The armies of the nations of the Orient will be aided in their march toward Armageddon by the supernatural drying up of the Euphrates River.

16:13 the dragon. Satan. the beast. Antichrist (13:1–10). the false prophet. The lieutenant (13:11–18).

16:14 the war of the great day of God, the Almighty. The war will consist of several battles, beginning with Antichrist's campaign into Egypt (Dan. 11:40–45) and including a siege of Jerusalem (Zech. 14:2) as well as the final battle at Armageddon (v. 16).

16:15 A call to surviving believers to watch and be alert. The clothes of a guard caught asleep on duty were taken from him, leaving him naked and disgraced.

16:16 Har-Magedon, or Armageddon. Lit., Mount of Megiddo, near the city of Megiddo at the head of the plain of Esdraelon. This area was the scene of many OT battles, notably those of Barak with the Canaanites (Judg. 4) and of Gideon with the Midianites (Judg. 7).

16:19 The great city. Either Jerusalem (11:8; cf. Zech. 14:4) or Babylon (18:2).

16:20–21 The topography of the earth will be drastically changed, and unbelieving survivors of the hailstorm will curse God instead of turning to Him.

17:1 Babylon is represented as a whore whose unfaithfulness affects many people and nations (the waters as explained in v. 15).

17:3 a scarlet beast. A reference to Antichrist

17:3 [d]scarlet beast, full of [e]blasphemous names, having [f]seven heads and ten horns.

4 The woman [a]was clothed in purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls, having in her hand [b]a gold cup full of abominations and of the unclean things of her immorality,

5 and on her forehead a name was written, a [a]mystery, "[b]BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND OF [c]THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH."

6 And I saw the woman drunk with [a]the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the witnesses of Jesus. When I saw her, I wondered greatly.

7 And the angel said to me, "Why do you wonder? I will tell you the [a]mystery of the woman and of the beast that carries her, which has the [b]seven heads and the ten horns.

b The interpretation, 17:8–18

8"[a]The beast that you saw [b]was, and is not, and is about to [c]come up out of the [d]abyss and [e]go to destruction. And [f]those who dwell on the earth, [g]whose name has not been written in the book of life [h]from the foundation of the world, will [i]wonder when they see the beast, that he was and is not and will come.

9"[a]Here is the mind which has wisdom. The [b]seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sits,

10 and they are seven [a]kings; five have fallen, one is, the other has not yet come; and when he comes, he must remain a little while.

11"The beast which [a]was and is not, is himself also an eighth and is one of the seven, and he [b]goes to destruction.

12"The [a]ten horns which you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but they receive authority as kings with the beast [b]for one hour.

13"These have [a]one purpose, and they give their power and authority to the beast.

14"These will wage [a]war against the Lamb, and the Lamb will [b]overcome them, because He is [c]Lord of lords and [c]King of kings, and [d]those who are with Him are the [e]called and chosen and faithful."

15 And he *said to me, "The [a]waters which you saw where the harlot sits, are [b]peoples and multitudes and nations and tongues.

16"And the [a]ten horns which you saw, and the beast, these will hate the harlot and will make her [b]desolate and [c]naked, and will [d]eat her flesh and will [e]burn her up with fire.

and his allies (see note on 13:1) on whom Babylon sits (controls).

17:5 BABYLON THE GREAT. Though the famous city of Babylon was on the Euphrates River, the name here seems to be a symbolic reference to Rome (see v. 9 and 1 Peter 5:13). In chap. 17 Babylon represents the false religious system that will center in Rome during the Tribulation. In chap. 18 it represents more the political and commercial aspect of the revived Roman Empire headed by Antichrist. Thus the term stands both for a city and for a system (religious and commercial) related to the city (much like "Wall Street," which is both a place and system). For other references to Babylon, see Gen. 10:10; 11:9 ("Babel"); Isa. 13:19–20; Jer. 50–51. MOTHER OF HARLOTS. The family of false religions is unfaithful to the Lord and thus is described as a harlot (vv. 1, 15–16).

17:8 This would place the events of this chapter in the first half of the Tribulation before Antichrist comes out of the abyss at its midpoint (cf. 11:7; 13:11).

17:9 seven mountains. Though Rome is built on more than seven hills, it has been known as the legendary city on seven hills, indicating that the center of Antichrist's power will be Rome.

17:10 In addition, the seven heads of verse 9 are seven kings, probably a selective list either of Roman emperors or world empires.

17:12 ten kings. The 10-nation federation that will form in the West and will be headed by Antichrist. See notes on 13:1 and Dan. 7:24. one hour. I.e., for one purpose (as in Luke 22:53).

17:15 The apostate church will be ecumenical, or worldwide.

17:16 these will hate the harlot. The political power headed by Antichrist will overthrow the false church organization (probably at the midpoint of the Tribulation).

18:2 fallen. A different event from 17:16, where the political power destroys religious Babylon in the middle of the Tribulation. Here the kings lament this destruction (v. 9), which apparently will occur at the end of the Tribulation. 18:12–13 The 28 commodities listed show that a wide variety of luxury items will still be available in spite of the upheavals of the tribulation years. citron wood. A dark, hard, and fragrant wood, valued by the Greeks and Romans for use in cabinet making.

14"The fruit you long for has gone from you, and all things that were luxurious and splendid have passed away from you and men will no longer find them.

15"The [a]merchants of [b]these things, who became rich from her, will [c]stand at a distance because of the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning,

16 saying, '[a]Woe, woe, [b]the great city, she who [c]was clothed in fine linen and purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls;

17 for in [a]one hour such great wealth has been laid [b]waste!' And [c]every shipmaster and every passenger and sailor, and as many as make their living by the sea, [a]stood at a distance,

18 and were [a]crying out as they [b]saw the smoke of her burning, saying, '[c]What city is like [d]the great city?'

19"And they threw [a]dust on their heads and were crying out, weeping and mourning, saying, '[b]Woe, woe, the great city, in which all who had ships at sea [c]became rich by her wealth, for in [b]one hour she has been laid [d]waste!'

d Acclaim, 18:20–24

20"[a]Rejoice over her, O heaven, and you saints and [b]apostles and prophets, because [c]God has pronounced judgment for you against her."

21 Then a [a]strong angel [b]took up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea, saying, "So will Babylon, [c]the great city, be thrown down with violence, and [d]will not be found any longer.

22"And [a]the sound of harpists and musicians and flute-players and trumpeters will not be heard in you any longer; and no craftsman of any craft will be found in you any longer; and the [b]sound of a mill will not be heard in you any longer;

23 and the light of a lamp will not shine in you any longer; and the [a]voice of the bridegroom and bride will not be heard in you any longer; for your [b]merchants were the great men of the earth, because all the nations were deceived [c]by your sorcery.

24"And in her was found the [a]blood of prophets and of saints and of [b]all who have been slain on the earth."

15 The second coming of Christ, 19:1–21

a Announcements, 19:1–10

19 After these things I heard something like a [a]loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying,

"[b]Hallelujah! [c]Salvation and [d]glory and power belong to our God;

2 [a]BECAUSE HIS [b]JUDGMENTS ARE [c]TRUE AND RIGHTEOUS; for He has judged the [d]great harlot who was corrupting the earth with her immorality, and HE HAS [e]AVENGED THE BLOOD OF HIS BOND-SERVANTS ON HER."

3 And a second time they said, "[a]Hallelujah! [b]HER SMOKE RISES UP FOREVER AND EVER."

4 And the [a]twenty-four elders and the [b]four living creatures [c]fell down and worshiped God who sits on the throne saying, "[d]Amen. [e]Hallelujah!"

5 And a voice came from the throne, saying,

18:20 God has pronounced judgment for you against her. I.e., God has judged her for her treatment of you. Heaven and the martyrs may now rejoice.

18:21 Babylon will sink into the sea like a rock.

18:22–23 No music, no worker, no machinery, no light, no happiness shall be found in Babylon anymore.

19:1–6 Hallelujah = Praise the Lord. The word occurs only in this chapter in the entire NT. It does appear as a brief doxology in several psalms, e.g., 150:1, 6. The praise is for salvation (v. 1), for righteous retribution (vv. 2–3), for God Himself (vv. 4–5), and for His reign (v. 6).

"[a]Give praise to our God, all you His bond-servants, [b]you who fear Him, the small and the great."

6 Then I heard something like [a]the voice of a great multitude and like [b]the sound of many waters and like the [c]sound of mighty peals of thunder, saying,

"[a]Hallelujah! For the [d]Lord our God, the Almighty, reigns.

7 "Let us rejoice and be glad and [a]give the glory to Him, for [b]the marriage of the Lamb has come and His [c]bride has made herself ready."

8 It was given to her to clothe herself in [a]fine linen, bright and clean; for the fine linen is the [b]righteous acts of the saints.

9 Then [a]he *said to me, "[b]Write, '[c]Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb.'" And he *said to me, "[d]These are true words of God."

10 Then [a]I fell at his feet to worship him. [b]But he *said to me, "Do not do that; I am a [c]fellow servant of yours and your brethren who [d]hold the testimony of Jesus; worship God. For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy."

b Advent of Christ, 19:11–16

11 And I saw [a]heaven opened, and behold, a [b]white horse, and He who sat on it is called [c]Faithful and True, and in [d]righteousness He judges and wages war.

12 His [a]eyes are a flame of fire, and on His head are many [b]diadems; and He has a [c]name written on Him which no one knows except Himself.

13 He is clothed with a [a]robe dipped in blood, and His name is called [b]The Word of God.

14 And the armies which are in heaven, clothed in [a]fine linen, [b]white and clean, were following Him on white horses.

15 [a]From His mouth comes a sharp sword, so that [b]with it He may strike the nations, and He will [c]rule them with a rod of iron; and [d]He treads the wine press of the fierce wrath of God, the Almighty.

16 And on His robe and on His thigh He has [a]a name written, "[b]KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS."

c Armageddon, 19:17–21

17 Then I saw an angel standing in the sun, and he cried out with a loud voice, saying to [a]all the birds which fly in [b]midheaven, "[c]Come, assemble for the great supper of God,

18 so that you may [a]eat the flesh of kings and the flesh of commanders and the flesh of mighty men and the flesh of horses and of those who sit on them and the flesh of all men,

19:8 the righteous acts of the saints. The good works of believers will constitute the wedding garment when the congregation of the faithful are joined to Christ in marriage (cf. 2 Cor. 11:2; Eph. 5:26–27).

19:9 marriage supper. On Jewish weddings, see note on Matt. 25:1.

19:10 Do not do that. Men are not to worship angels, only God. For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy. Prophecy is designed to reveal the Lord Jesus.

19:11 heaven opened. This is the second coming of Christ to the earth—during the war of Armageddon, in which He will be the Victor and in which all who oppose Him will be slain (vv. 19, 21). See notes on 14:20; 16:14, 16. Faithful and True. These terms have been used previously of Christ (1:5; 3:7).

19:12 His eyes are a flame of fire. See 1:14; 2:18. a name written . . . which no one knows. This is perhaps the same name He will write on the overcomer (2:17; 3:12).

19:13 dipped in the blood of the enemies He conquers at His coming. The Word. This name, applied here to Christ, is found only in the writings of John (cf. John 1:1, 14; 1 John 1:1).

19:15 rule. Lit., shepherd. Christ will be a shepherding autocrat. wine press. It consisted of two receptacles, or vats, placed at different levels, in the upper one of which the grapes were trodden, while the lower one received the juice (cf. 14:20).

19:17–18 So great will be the slaughter in the war of Armageddon that an angel will call together the fowls of heaven to eat the flesh of those who fall in battle.

19:18 [b]both free men and slaves, and [c]small and great."

19 And I saw [a]the beast and [b]the kings of the earth and their armies assembled to make war against Him who [c]sat on the horse and against His army.

*19:20 20 And the beast was seized, and with him the [a]false prophet who [b]performed the signs [c]in his presence, by which he [d]deceived those who had received the [e]mark of the beast and those who [f]worshiped his image; these two were thrown alive into the [g]lake of [h]fire which burns with brimstone.

19:21 21 And the rest were killed with the sword which [a]came from the mouth of Him who [b]sat on the horse, and [c]all the birds were filled with their flesh.

B The Millennium, 20:1–15

1 Satan bound, 20:1–3

*20:1 20 Then I saw [a]an angel coming down from heaven, holding the [b]key of the abyss and a great chain in his hand.

*20:2 2 And he laid hold of the [a]dragon, the serpent of old, who is the devil and Satan, and [b]bound him for a thousand years;

20:3 3 and he threw him into the [a]abyss, and shut it and [b]sealed it over him, so that he would [c]not deceive the nations any longer, until the thousand years were completed; after these things he must be released for a short time.

2 Saints resurrected, 20:4–6

*20:4 4 Then I saw [a]thrones, and [b]they sat on them, and [c]judgment was given to them. And I saw [d]the souls of those who had been beheaded because of the [e]testimony of Jesus and because of the word of God, and those who had not [f]worshiped the beast or his image, and had not received the [g]mark on their forehead and on their hand; and they [h]came to life and [i]reigned with Christ for a thousand years.

*20:5 5 The rest of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years were completed. [a]This is the first resurrection.

20:6 6 [a]Blessed and holy is the one who has a part in the first resurrection; over these the [b]second death has no power, but they will be [c]priests of God and of Christ and will [d]reign with Him for a thousand years.

3 Sinners rebelling, 20:7–9

20:7 7 When the thousand years are completed, Satan will be [a]released from his prison,

*20:8 8 and will come out to [a]deceive the nations which are in the [b]four corners of the earth, [c]Gog and Magog, to [d]gather them together for the war; the number of 19:20 The beast and his false prophet will be the first occupants of the lake of fire; other unbelievers, now in hades, will join them at the end of the Millennium (20:14).

20:1 the abyss. The place where all evil spirits will ultimately be consigned. See note on Luke 8:31.

20:2 a thousand years (mentioned six times in this chapter). Since the Latin equivalent for these words is "millennium," this period of time is called the Millennium. It is the time when Christ shall reign on this earth (Isa. 2:3; Dan. 7:14; Zech. 14:9). Satan will not be free to work (here in v. 2), righteousness will flourish (Isa. 11:3–5), peace will be universal (Isa. 2:4), and the productivity of the earth will be greatly increased (Isa. 35:1–2). At the conclusion of the time Satan will be loosed to make one final attempt to overthrow Christ, but without success (vv. 7–9).

20:4 The occupants of the thrones are not identified. Some think they are the 12 disciples (Luke 22:29–30), others that they are the church saints (1 Cor. 6:2; 2 Tim. 2:12). the souls of those who had been beheaded because of the testimony of Jesus. These are the martyrs of the tribulation days who will be resurrected to share the joys of the millennial kingdom.

20:5 The rest of the dead. The wicked dead will be raised and judged after the Millennium. the first resurrection. Refers back to the end of verse 4. This resurrection includes all the righteous (the resurrection of life, John 5:29, and the resurrection of the righteous, Luke 14:14), who will be raised before the Millennium begins.

20:8 Gog and Magog. The worldwide enemies of Christ. Not the same battle as described in Ezek. 38–39. See note on Ezek. 38:1. The large number of rebels will come from the many people born during the Millennium who, though giving outward obedience to the King, never accept Him.

20:11–15 Here is pictured the judgment of the unbelieving dead. It occurs at the close of the Millennium; it is based on works in order to show that the punishment is deserved (v. 12, though of course these unsaved people are first of all in this judgment because they rejected Christ as Savior during their lifetimes); and it results in everyone in this judgment being cast into the lake of fire. This is the resurrection of judgment. See note on John 5:29.

20:12 before the throne, upon which Christ sits as Judge (see v. 11; John 5:22, 27).

20:13 The wicked dead will receive some kind of resurrection body in which they will be tormented forever.

21:1 a new heaven and a new earth. The present creation will be destroyed so that it may be cleansed from all the effects of sin (2 Peter 3:7, 10, 12). No more sea because climatic and human conditions will be completely different.

21:2 new Jerusalem. This heavenly city will be the abode of all the saints (Heb. 12:22–24), the bride of Christ (vv. 9–10), and the place Christ is preparing for His people (John 14:2). During the Millennium the New Jerusalem (described in detail in Rev. 21:9–22:5) apparently will be suspended over the earth, and it will be the dwelling place of all believers during eternity (as is emphasized in 21:1–8).

21:3–4 People will enjoy a new intimacy with God and the elimination of those sorrows that sin brings.

Omega, the beginning and the end. [c]I will give to the one who thirsts from the spring of the [d]water of life without cost.

7"[a]He who overcomes will inherit these things, and [b]I will be his God and he will be My son.

8"[a]But for the cowardly and unbelieving and abominable and murderers and immoral persons and sorcerers and idolaters and all liars, their part will be in [b]the lake that burns with fire and brimstone, which is the [c]second death."

2 Description of the New Jerusalem, 21:9–27

9 [a]Then one of the seven angels who had the [b]seven bowls full of the [c]seven last plagues came and spoke with me, saying, "[a]Come here, I will show you the [d]bride, the wife of the Lamb."

10 And [a]he carried me away [b]in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me [c]the holy city, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God,

11 having [a]the glory of God. Her brilliance was like a very costly stone, as a [b]stone of [c]crystal-clear jasper.

12 It had a great and high wall, [a]with twelve [b]gates, and at the gates twelve angels; and names were written on them, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel.

13 There were three gates on the east and three gates on the north and three gates on the south and three gates on the west.

14 And the wall of the city had [a]twelve foundation stones, and on them were the twelve names of the [b]twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 The one who spoke with me had a gold measuring [a]rod to measure the city, and its [b]gates and its wall.

16 The city is laid out as a square, and its length is as great as the width; and he measured the city with the rod, fifteen hundred miles; its length and width and height are equal.

17 And he measured its wall, seventy-two yards, according to [a]human measurements, which are also [b]angelic measurements.

18 The material of the wall was [a]jasper; and the city was [b]pure gold, like clear [c]glass.

19 [a]The foundation stones of the city wall were adorned with every kind of precious stone. The first foundation stone was [b]jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, chalcedony; the fourth, [c]emerald;

20 the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, [a]sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprase; the eleventh, jacinth; the twelfth, amethyst.

21 And the twelve [a]gates were twelve [b]pearls; each one of the gates was a single pearl. And the street of the city was [c]pure gold, like transparent [d]glass.

22 I saw [a]no temple in it, for the [b]Lord God the Almighty and the [c]Lamb are its temple.

23 And the city [a]has no need of the sun or of the moon to shine on it, for [b]the glory of God has illumined it, and its lamp is the [c]Lamb.

21:8 Those whose lives can be characterized in these ways will be cast into the lake of fire, because they have shown themselves to be unbelievers. brimstone = sulphur.

21:11 The city will shine with the glory of God, like crystal-clear jasper, which will allow that glory to shine brilliantly.

21:12–14 Though both Jewish saints and Christian saints will inhabit the city, the names of the twelve tribes and the twelve apostles are a witness to their continued distinction.

21:16–17 Shaped foursquare like a cube, the city is 1,380 mi (2,220 km) on each face, including height, with a wall 72 yd (66 m) thick. It has been calculated that even if only 25 percent of this space were used for dwellings, 20 billion people could be accommodated spaciously.

21:19–20 chalcedony. Probably a greenish-blue agate stone. (The exact composition and color of all these precious stones is unknown.) sardonyx. Red and white stone. sardius. Bright red. chrysolite. Golden in color. beryl. Sea green. topaz. Yellow-green. chrysoprase. Apple green. jacinth. Blue. amethyst. Purple.

26 and [a]they will bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it;
27 and [a]nothing unclean, and no one who practices abomination and lying, shall ever come into it, but only those whose names are [b]written in the Lamb's book of life.

3 [a]There will no longer be any curse; and [b]the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and His bond-servants will [c]serve Him;
4 they will [a]see His face, and His [b]name will be on their [c]foreheads.
5 And [a]there will no longer be any night; and they will not have need [b]of the light of a lamp nor the light of the sun, because the Lord God will illumine them; and they will [c]reign forever and ever.

6 And [a]he said to me, "[b]These words are faithful and true"; and the Lord, the [c]God of the spirits of the prophets, [d]sent His angel to show to His bond-servants the things which must soon take place.
7 "And behold, [a]I am coming quickly. [b]Blessed is he who heeds [c]the words of the prophecy of this book."
8 [a]I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things. And when I heard and saw, [b]I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel who showed me these things.
9 But [a]he *said to me, "Do not do that. I am a [b]fellow servant of yours and of your brethren the prophets and of those who heed the words of [c]this book. Worship God."
10 And he *said to me, "[a]Do not seal up [b]the words of the prophecy of this book, [c]for the time is near.
11 "[a]Let the one who does wrong, still do wrong; and the one who is filthy, still be filthy; and let the one who is righteous, still practice righteousness; and the one who is holy, still keep himself holy."
12 "Behold, [a]I am coming quickly, and My [b]reward is with Me, [c]to render to every man according to what he has done.
13 "I am the [a]Alpha and the Omega, [b]the first and the last, [c]the beginning and the end."
14 Blessed are those who [a]wash their robes, so that they may have the right to [b]the tree

---

21:24 Whether these nations and kings are millennial people or resurrected people in the eternal state is unclear. In either case, only the redeemed will be allowed to enter the city (v. 27).

22:1–2 These descriptive phrases indicate fullness of life and continuous blessing in the New Jerusalem.

22:3–5 The curse and all darkness will be excluded, and service, communion, and reigning will be the believers' privileges.

22:8–9 Again John is commanded not to worship angels (see 19:10).

22:11 When Christ comes there will be no more opportunity for a man to change his destiny. What he is then he will be forever.

22:12 Salvation is not of works but rewards are.

22:14 Blessed are those who wash their robes. I.e., believers.

B Words of Warning, 22:18–19

★22:18
18 I testify to everyone who hears [a]the words of the prophecy of this book: if anyone [b]adds to them, God will add to him [c]the plagues which are written in [a]this book;

22:18 [a]Rev 22:7 [b]Deut 4:2; 12:32; Prov 30:6 [c]Rev 15:6-16:21

19 and if anyone [a]takes away from the [b]words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away his part from [c]the tree of life and from the holy city, [d]which are written in this book.

22:19 [a]Deut 4:2; 12:32; Prov 30:6 [b]Rev 22:7 [c]Rev 22:2 [d]Rev 21:10-22:5

C Closing Benediction, 22:20–21

★22:20 [a]Rev 1:2 [b]Rev 22:7 [c]1Cor 16:22
20 He who [a]testifies to these things says, "Yes, [b]I am coming quickly." Amen. [c]Come, Lord Jesus.

22:21 [a]Rom 16:20
21 [a]The grace of the Lord Jesus be with all. Amen.

22:15 dogs. Not animals, but people of low character (cf. Phil. 3:2).

22:16–17 Jesus is gracious because (1) He gave the book of Revelation to the churches, (2) as the son of David He will fulfill Israel's promises, (3) He is the morning star, the precursor of the new day, and (4) He offers the water of life freely.

22:18 For similar OT warnings against additions or omissions, see Deut. 4:2; 12:32; Prov. 30:6.

22:20 Yes, I am coming quickly. The third occurrence of this promise (see vv. 7, 12). The believer's reaction is, "Do come quickly, Lord Jesus!"

A SYNOPSIS OF BIBLE DOCTRINE

by Charles C. Ryrie

DOCTRINE OF THE SCRIPTURES

I. INTRODUCTION

A. Terminology. 1. Bible. Derived from biblion, "roll" or "book" (Luke 4:17). 2. Scripture. Used in NT of the sacred books of OT, which were regarded as inspired (2 Tim. 3:16; Rom. 3:2). Also used in NT of other parts of NT (2 Pet. 3:16). 3. Word of God. Used of both OT and NT in written form (Matt. 15:6; John 10:35; Heb. 4:12).
B. Attitudes Toward the Bible. 1. Rationalism. a. Extreme form denies the possibility of any supernatural revelation. b. Moderate form admits possibility of divine revelation, but human mind is final judge of revelation. 2. Romanism. Bible is the product of the church; therefore, the Bible is not the sole or final authority. 3. Mysticism. Experience is authoritative along with the Bible. 4. Neoorthodoxy. The Bible is a fallible witness to the revelation of God in the Word, Christ. 5. Cults. The Bible and the writings of the particular cult's leader are equally authoritative. 6. Orthodoxy. The Bible alone is the ground of authority.
C. The Wonders of the Bible. 1. Its formation. 1,500 years. 2. Its unity. About forty different authors, yet one book. 3. Its preservation. 4. Its subject matter. 5. Its influence.

II. REVELATION

A. Definition. A disclosure; especially God's communicating His message to man.
B. Means of Revelation. 1. Through nature (Rom. 1:18–21; Ps. 19). 2. Through providential dealings (Rom. 8:28). 3. Through preservation of the universe (Col. 1:17). 4.Through miracles (John 2:11). 5. Through direct communication (Acts 22:17–21). 6. Through Christ (John 1:14). 7. Through the Bible (1 John 5:39).

III. INSPIRATION*

A. Definition. Inspiration is God's superintending of human authors so that, using their own individual personalities, they composed and recorded without error in the words of the original autographs His revelation to man.
B. Theories of Inspiration. 1. Natural—no supernatural element involved. Bible was written by men of great genius. 2. Mystical or illumination. Writers of Scripture were Spirit-filled just as Christians today can be. 3. Dictation or mechanical. Writers of Scripture were passive instruments in God's hand, like typewriters on which He wrote. Admittedly, parts of the Bible were dictated (e.g., Ten Commandments). 4. Partial. Only the unknowable parts of the Bible were inspired (e.g., creation, spiritual concepts). 5. Conceptual. Concepts but not words were inspired. 6. Degree. Writers were more inspired than ordinary men. 7. Neoorthodox. Human writers could only produce a record with errors. 8. Verbal, plenary. This is the true doctrine and means that the very words (verbal) and all of them (plenary) were inspired in the sense of the definition above. 9. Fallible inspiration. An increasingly popular theory that the Bible is inspired but is not without error.
C. Distinctives of Verbal, Plenary Inspiration. 1. The true doctrine concerns the original manuscripts. 2. It extends to the actual words. 3. It views God as superintending, not dictating. 4. It includes inerrancy.

*For further study of the subjects marked with an asterisk, first look up that word in the "Index to Principal Subjects in the Notes," then read the notes at the Bible verses listed under that entry.

D. Proof of Verbal, Plenary Inspiration. 1. 2 Timothy 3:16. Theopneustos, God-breathed. Affirms that God is author of Scripture and that Scripture is the product of His creative breath. 2. 2 Peter 1:21. The "how" of inspiration—men "borne along" by the Spirit. 3. Specific commands to write the word of the Lord (Ex. 17:14; Jer. 30:2). 4. The use of quotation (Matt. 15:4; Acts 28:25). 5. Jesus' use of Scripture (Matt. 5:17; John 10:35). 6. NT asserts that other parts of the NT are Scripture (1 Tim. 5:17; 2 Pet. 3:16). 7. Writers were conscious of writing God's word (1 Cor. 2:13; 1 Pet. 1:11–12).
E. Proofs of Inerrancy. 1. The trustworthiness of God's character (John 17:3; Rom. 3:4). 2. The teaching of Christ (Matt. 5:17; John 10:35). 3. Arguments based on a word or form of a word (Gal. 3:16, "seed"; Matt. 22:31–32, "am").

IV. CANONICITY (SEE ALSO "HOW WE GOT OUR BIBLE," p. 2084)

A. Fundamental Considerations. 1. The Bible is self-authenticating and church councils have only recognized the authority inherent in the books themselves. 2. God guided the councils so that the canon was recognized.
B. The Canon of the OT. 1. Some assert that all books of the OT canon were collected and recognized by Ezra (fifth cent. B.C.). 2. The NT refers to the OT as Scripture (Matt. 23:35, the equivalent of saying, "From Genesis to Malachi"; cf. Matt. 21:42; 22:29). 3. The Synod of Jamnia (A.D. 90). A teaching house of rabbis who recognized the books of the OT, though some questioned Esther, Ecclesiastes, and Song of Songs.
C. The Principles of the Canonicity of NT Books. 1. Apostolicity. Was the book written or backed by an apostle? 2. Content. Was it of sufficient spiritual character? 3. Universality. Was it widely accepted? 4. Inspiration. Did it give internal evidence of inspiration?
D. The Formation of the NT Canon. 1. The period of the apostles. They claimed authority for their writings (1 Thess. 5:27; Col. 4:16). 2. The postapostolic period. All recognized except Hebrews, 2 Peter, 2 and 3 John. 3. The Council of Carthage, 397, listed the twenty-seven canonical NT books.

V. ILLUMINATION

A. In Relation to the Unsaved. 1. The need for (1 Cor. 2:14; 2 Cor. 4:4). 2. The Spirit's convicting ministry (John 16:7–11).
B. In Relation to the Christian. 1. The need for (1 Cor. 2:10–12; 3:2). 2. The Spirit's teaching ministry (John 16:13–15).

VI. INTERPRETATION

A. Principles of Interpretation. 1. Interpret grammatically and historically. 2. Interpret according to the immediate and wider contexts. 3. Interpret in harmony with the whole Bible by comparing Scripture with Scripture.
B. General Divisions of the Bible. 1. OT. a. Historical books—Genesis to Esther. b. Poetical books—Job to Song of Solomon. c. Prophetic books—Isaiah to Malachi. 2. NT. a. Gospels—Matthew to John. b. History—Acts. c. Epistles—Romans to Jude. d. Prophecy—Revelation.
C. Biblical Covenants.* 1. Noahic covenant (Gen. 8:20–22). 2. Abrahamic covenant (Gen. 12:1–3). 3. Mosaic covenant (Ex. 19:3—40:38). 4. Palestinian covenant (Deut. 30). 5. Davidic covenant (2 Sam. 7:5–17). 6. New covenant (Jer. 31:31–34; Matt. 26:28).

THE DOCTRINE OF GOD

I. THE EXISTENCE OF GOD

A. Naturalistic Arguments for Existence. 1. Cosmological (cosmos, "world"). The universe is an effect that requires an adequate cause, and the only sufficient cause is God (Ps. 19:1). 2. Teleological (telos, "end"). The universe not only proves a maker but also a designer (Rom. 1:18–20). There is observable purpose in the universe that argues for the existence of God as its designer. 3. Anthropological (anthropos, "man"). Since man is a moral and intellectual being, he must have had a maker who is also a moral and intelligent being (Acts 17:29). Man's moral nature, religious instincts, conscience, and emotional nature argue for existence of God. 4. Ontological (on, "being"). Man has the idea of the Most Perfect Being. This idea includes the idea of existence, since a being, otherwise perfect, who did not exist would not be as perfect as a perfect being who did exist. Therefore, since the idea of existence is contained in the idea of the Most Perfect Being, the Most Perfect Being must exist.

B. Biblical Arguments for Existence. Biblical writers both assume and argue for the existence of God.

II. THE ATTRIBUTES OF GOD

A. Definition. An attribute is a property intrinsic to its subject and by which the subject is distinguished or identified.

B. Classifications. Most systems of classifying the attributes are based on the fact that some attributes belong to God alone (e.g., infinity) and some are found in a limited and relative sense in man (e.g., love); thus, incommunicable and communicable; absolute and relative; immanent and transitive; constitutional and those pertaining to personality.

C. Description. (Absolute, incommunicable, or constitutional attributes Nos. 1–9.) 1. Simplicity. a. Meaning. God is uncompounded, incomplex, indivisible. b. Scripture. John 4:24. c. Problem. Does simplicity invalidate doctrine of the Trinity? No, because simplicity has to do with God's essence, and Trinity with His subsistence. 2. Unity. a. Meaning. God is one. b. Scripture. Deuteronomy 6:4. 3. Infinity. a. Meaning. Without termination and finitude. b. Scripture. 1 Kings 8:27; Acts 17:28. 4. Eternity. a. Meaning. Free from succession of time. b. Scripture. Genesis 21:33; Psalm 90:2. c. Problem. Is time unreal to God? No, He recognizes successiveness of events, but all past, present, and future events are equally vivid to Him. 5. Immutability. a. Meaning. God is unchanging and unchangeable. b. Scripture. James 1:17. c. Problem. Does God change His mind or repent (Gen. 6:6), as seems apparent from our viewpoint; or is this an expression of God's permissive decree? 6. Omnipresence. a. Meaning. God is everywhere (not in everything; that is pantheism). b. Scripture. Psalm 139:7–12. 7. Sovereignty. a. Meaning. God is the supreme ruler. b. Scripture. Ephesians 1. 8. Omniscience. a. Meaning. God knows all actual and possible things. b. Scripture. Matthew 11:21. 9. Omnipotence. a. Meaning. All power. b. Scripture. Revelation 19:6. (Relative, communicable, or personality attributes Nos. 10–14.) 10. Justice. a. Meaning. Moral equity, "no respect of persons." b. Scripture. Acts 17:31. 11. Love. a. Meaning. God seeking the highest good of displaying His own will. b. Scripture. Ephesians 2:4–5. 12. Truth. a. Meaning. Agreement to and consistency with all that is represented by God Himself. b. Scripture. John 14:6. 13. Freedom. a. Meaning. Independence from His creatures. b. Scripture. Isaiah 40:13–14. 14. Holiness. a. Meaning. Separate and pure. b. Scripture. 1 John 1:5.

III. THE NAMES OF GOD

A. Primary OT Names. 1. Jehovah (YHWH). a. Meaning. Self-existent One (from Ex. 3:14, "I AM WHO I AM"). b. Characteristics. It is a name of relationship between the true God and His people and, when used, emphasizes God's holiness, hatred of sin, and love of sinners. 2. Elohim. a. Meaning. Strong one. b. Characteristics. Used of the true God and heathen gods. It is a plural word and is the plural of majesty. The plural does allow for the subsequent revelation of the Trinity in the NT but does not teach the Trinity per se. 3. Adonai. a. Meaning. Lord. b.Characteristics. Used of men and of God and indicates the master-servant relationship.

B. Compound OT Names. 1. With El. a. El Elyon, translated the Most High (lit., the strongest strong one, Isa. 14:13–14). b. El Roi, the Strong One who sees (Gen. 16:13). c. El Shaddai, Almighty God (Gen. 17:1–20). d. El Olam, Everlasting God (Isa. 40:28). 2. With Jehovah. a. Jehovah Jireh, the Lord will provide (Gen. 22:13–14). b. Jehovah Nissi, the Lord my banner (Ex. 17:15). c. Jehovah Shalom, the Lord is peace (Judg. 6:24). d. Jehovah Sabbaoth, the Lord of hosts (1 Sam. 1:3). e. Jehovah Maccaddeshcem, the Lord your Sanctifier (Ex. 31:13). f. Jehovah Raah, the Lord is my Shepherd (Ps. 23:1). g. Jehovah Tsidkenu, the Lord our righteousness (Jer. 23:6). h. Jehovah El Gmolah, the Lord God of recompense (Jer. 51:56). i. Jehovah Nakeh, the Lord who smites (Ezek. 7:9). j. Jehovah Shammah, the Lord who is present (Ezek. 48:35).

IV. THE DECREE OF GOD

A. Definition. "The decree of God is His eternal purpose, according to the counsel of His own will, whereby, for His own glory, He hath foreordained whatsoever comes to pass."

B. Terms Involved. 1. Omniscience. Knowledge of all things, actual and possible. 2. Foreknowledge. Prior knowledge of all things included in the actual course of events. 3. Predestination. The predetermining of the destiny of the elect. 4. Retribution. Deserved punishment. 5. Election. God's choosing a people for Himself. 6. Preterition. Passing by of the nonelect.

C. Nature of the Decree. 1. There is only one decree involving everything, though in the outworking of events there is successiveness. There is also a convenient distinction between directive and permissive decrees. 2. The decree is all-inclusive (Eph. 1:11), although God does not sustain the same relationship to each thing in the decree. 3. All the desires of God are not necessarily incorporated into His plan. 4. What God has decreed is ultimately for His own glory. 5. Wrong is never made right simply because sin was included as part of God's purpose.

D. Objections to the Decree. 1. It is inconsistent with human freedom. (But all means like prayer and witnessing are part of His plan.) 2. The decree makes God the author of sin. (Although God has included sin in His plan, He is never responsible for the committing of sin.) 3. The doctrine of decree is the same as fatalism. (Fatalism emphasizes only ends, and makes chance, not God, the governing power.)

V. THE TRINITY*

A. Definition. There is only one God, but in the unity of the Godhead there are three eternal and coequal Persons, the same in substance but distinct in subsistence.

B. Proof. 1. OT intimations. The OT does not reveal the Trinity but it allows for the later revelation of it. a. Passages that use the plural word Elohim and plural pronouns referring to God (Gen. 1:1, 26; Isa. 6:8). b. Passages that speak of the Angel of Jehovah (Gen. 22:11, 15–16). 2. NT confirmation. In the NT there is clear revelation that Father, Son, and Spirit are God; thus a Triunity or Trinity (neither is a biblical word). a. The Father is God (John 6:27; Eph. 4:6). b. Jesus Christ is God (Heb. 1:8). c. The Spirit is God (Acts 5:3–4). d. The three Persons are associated equally and as one (Matt. 28:19, "name"; 2 Cor. 13:14).

VI. THE FATHER

A. The Relationships of the Father. 1. Father over all creation (Acts 17:29). 2. Father of the nation Israel (Ex. 4:22). 3. Father of the Lord Jesus Christ (Matt. 3:17). 4. Father of believers in Christ (Gal. 3:26).

B. The Particular Works of the Father. 1. Author of the decree (Ps. 2:7–9). 2. Author of election (Eph. 1:3–6). 3. Begetter and sender of Christ (John 3:16). 4. Disciplinarian of His children (Heb. 12:9).

THE DOCTRINE OF CHRIST*

I. HIS PREEXISTENCE

A. Proved by the OT. (Mic. 5:2; Isa. 9:6, "Father of eternity," author's translation).
B. Proved by the NT. 1. John 1:1 in comparison with verse 14. 2. John 8:58, "Before Abraham came into being I was already in existence" (author's translation).
C. Proved by Works ascribed to Christ, which works require preexistence (e.g., creation, Col. 1:16).
D. Proved by the Appearance of the Angel of Jehovah (Ex. 3:2, 4).
E. Proved by His Names. 1. Logos. 2. Son of God. 3. Jehovah.

II. HIS INCARNATION

A. Meaning. In flesh.
B. Means. The Virgin Birth.* 1. Predicted (Isa. 7:14). 2. Proved. Feminine relative pronoun used in Matthew 1:16, which declares that the birth of Jesus was of Mary only and not of Joseph.
C. Reasons. 1. To reveal God to men (John 1:18). 2. To provide an example for living (1 Pet. 2:21). 3. To provide the sacrifice for sin (Heb. 10:1–10). 4. To destroy the works of the devil (1 John 3:8). 5. To be a merciful High Priest (Heb. 5:1–2). 6. To fulfill the Davidic covenant (Luke 1:31–33). 7. To be highly exalted (Phil. 2:9).
D. The Person. The Person of the incarnate Christ included: 1. Undiminished deity. 2. Perfect humanity. 3. United in one Person forever.

III. HIS HUMANITY

A. He Had a Human Body. 1. Born of a woman (Gal. 4:4). 2. Subject to growth (Luke 2:52). 3. Seen and handled by men (1 John 1:1; Matt. 26:12). 4. Sinless (Heb. 4:15).
B. He Had a Human Soul and Spirit (Matt. 26:38; Luke 23:46).
C. He Was Subject to the Limitations of Humanity. 1. He hungered (Matt. 4:2). 2. He was thirsty (John 19:28). 3. He grew tired (John 4:6). 4. He wept (John 11:35). 5. He was tested (Heb. 4:15).
D. He Had Human Names. 1. Son of Man (Luke 19:10). 2. Jesus (Matt. 1:21). 3. Son of David (Mark 10:47). 4. Man (Isa. 53:3; 1 Tim. 2:5).
E. He Was Able to Die.

IV. HIS DEITY

A. Proved by His Names. 1. God (Heb. 1:8). 2. Son of God (Matt. 16:16; 26:61–64a). 3. Lord (Matt. 22:43–45). 4. King of kings and Lord of lords (Rev. 19:16).
B. Proved by His Characteristics. 1. Omnipotence (Matt. 28:18). 2. Omniscience (John 1:48). 3. Omnipresence (Matt. 18:20). 4. Life (John 1:4). 5. Truth (John 14:6). 6. Immutability (Heb. 13:8).
C. Proved by His Works. 1. Creates (John 1:3). 2. Sustains (Col. 1:17). 3. Forgives sin (Luke 7:48). 4. Raises the dead (John 5:25). 5. Judges (John 5:27). 6. Sends the Holy Spirit (John 15:26).
D. Proved by Worship that Is Given Him. 1. By angels (Heb. 1:6). 2. By men (Matt. 14:33). 3. By all (Phil. 2:10).

E. Proved by Equality in the Trinity. 1. With the Father (John 14:23; 10:30). 2. With the Father and the Spirit (Matt. 28:19; 2 Cor. 13:14).

V. HIS EARTHLY LIFE

A. His Preparation. 1. Birth. 2. Infancy, childhood, and growth to maturity. 3. Baptism. 4. Temptation.
B. His Preaching. 1. Early ministry in Judea (John 2:13–4:3). 2. Ministry in Galilee (Mark 1:14–9:50). 3. Perean ministry (Luke 9:51–19:28).
C. His Passion. 1. The last week in Jerusalem (Luke 19:29–22:46). 2. Betrayal and arrest (John 18:2–13). 3. Trial before Annas (John 18:12–24). 4. Trial before Caiaphas (Mark 14:53–15:1). 5. Trial before Pilate (Mark 15:1–5). 6. Trial before Herod (Luke 23:8–12). 7. Second trial before Pilate (Mark 15:6–15). 8. Crucifixion. 9. Burial. 10. Resurrection.
D. His Postresurrection Ministry and Ascension.

VI. THE KENOSIS

A. Meaning. Literally, emptying; i.e., What were the limitations of the incarnate Christ on earth?
B. Scripture. Philippians 2:7, "made himself of no reputation" (author's translation).
C. True Doctrine of Kenosis. It involves: 1. The veiling of His preincarnate glory. 2. His condescension in taking the likeness of sinful flesh in the incarnation. 3. The voluntary nonuse of certain attributes during His earthly life.
D. False Theory of Kenosis. Christ gave up certain attributes during His earthly life. If so, then He ceased to be God during that time.

VII. HIS IMPECCABILITY

A. Meaning. Christ was not able to sin. It does not mean merely that Christ was able not to sin.
B. Objection. If Christ was unable to sin, He could not have been tempted genuinely and therefore could not be a sympathetic High Priest (Heb. 4:15).
C. Answer. The reality of testing does not lie in the moral nature of the one tested, and the possibility of sympathizing does not depend on one-to-one correspondence in the problems faced.
D. Results. 1. Testing proved sinlessness of Christ. 2. Testing made Him a sympathizing High Priest.

VIII. HIS DEATH (SEE ALSO DOCTRINE OF SALVATION)

A. Its Prominence. 1. In OT it is the scarlet thread of which Christ Himself spoke (Luke 24:27, 44). 2. In NT it is mentioned at least 175 times. 3. In relation to the Incarnation it is its purpose (Matt. 20:28; Heb. 2:14). 4. In relation to the gospel it is its heart (1 Cor. 15:1–3).
B. Its Description. 1. A ransom. The death of Christ paid the price of the penalty for sin (Matt. 20:28; 1 Tim. 2:6). 2. A reconciliation. The position of the world was changed by Christ's death so that all men are able now to be saved (2 Cor. 5:18–19). 3. A propitiation. God is satisfied with that which Christ's death accomplished (1 John 2:2). 4. A substitution. Christ died in the place of the sinner (2 Cor. 5:21). 5. A proof of the love of God (Rom. 5:8).
C. False Theories of Christ's Death. Almost all false theories can be classified into three categories. 1. Moral influence or example theory. Christ's death was only for the purpose of exerting a good influence on us. 2. Governmental. God's government necessitated His making an example of Christ to show His displeasure toward sin. 3. Neoorthodox view. Christ's death was a revelation of the love of God and the sinfulness of man but not a substitution for man's sin. 4. The ransom to Satan view, which held that Christ's death was a ransom to Satan.

IX. HIS RESURRECTION*

A. The Fact of the Resurrection. 1. The empty tomb. 2. The appearances. a. To Mary Magdalene (John 20:11–17). b. To the other women (Matt. 28:9–10). c. To Peter (1 Cor. 15:5). d. To disciples on road to Emmaus (Luke 24:13–35). e. To the ten disciples (Luke 24:36–43). f. To the eleven disciples (John 20:26–29). g. To seven disciples by Galilee (John 21:1–23). h. To more than five hundred (1 Cor. 15:6). i. To the eleven at the ascension (Matt. 28:16–20). 3. The existence of the Christian church. 4. The change in the disciples. 5. The Day of Pentecost. 6. The change of the day of worship to Sunday.

B. The Nature of His Resurrection Body. 1. It was a real body (John 20:20). 2. It was identified as the same one laid in the tomb (John 20:25–29). 3. It was changed so as never again to be subject to death and limitations.

C. The Significance of the Resurrection. 1. To Christ. a. It proved Him to be the Son of God (Rom. 1:4). b. It confirmed the truth of all He said (Matt. 28:6). 2. To all men. a. It makes certain the resurrection of all (1 Cor. 15:20–22). b. It makes certain the coming judgment (Acts 17:31). 3. To believers. a. It gives assurance of acceptance with God (Rom. 4:25). b. It guarantees power for service (Eph. 1:19–22). c. It guarantees the believer's resurrection (2 Cor. 4:14). d. It designates Christ as Head of the church (Eph. 1:19–22). e. It means a sympathetic High Priest in heaven (Heb. 4:14–16).

X. HIS ASCENSION

A. Characteristics (Acts 1:9–11).

B. Significance. 1. End of period of limitation. 2. Exaltation (Eph. 1:20–23). 3. Forerunner (Heb. 6:20). 4. High priestly ministry (Heb. 4:14–16). 5. Preparing a place (John 14:2). 6. Headship over the church (Col. 1:18).

XI. HIS PRESENT MINISTRY

Christ's present ministry in heaven is all directly or indirectly related to His mediatorship and is revealed under seven figures.

A. Last Adam and New Creation (1 Cor. 15:45; 2 Cor. 5:17). Meaning: to give life.

B. Head and Body of Christ (Col. 1:18, 24). Meaning: direction, nurture, giving of gifts.

C. Shepherd and Sheep (John 10). Meaning: leading, caring.

D. Vine and Branches (John 15). Meaning: fruit.

E. Chief Cornerstone and Stone of the Building (1 Cor. 3:11; 1 Pet. 2:4–8). Meaning: life, security.

F. High Priest and Royal Priesthood (1 Pet. 2:5–9). Meaning: sacrifice, intercession.

G. Bridegroom and Bride (Eph. 5:25–27). Meaning: preparedness.

XII. HIS RETURN (SEE DOCTRINE OF FUTURE THINGS)

THE DOCTRINE OF THE HOLY SPIRIT*

I. THE PERSONALITY OF THE SPIRIT

A. Proved by His Characteristics. 1. He is intelligent (1 Cor. 2:10–11). 2. He has feelings (Eph. 4:30). 3. He has will (1 Cor. 12:11).

B. Proved by His Works. 1. He teaches (John 14:26). 2. He guides (Rom. 8:14). 3. He commissions (Acts 13:4). 4. He commands men (Acts 8:29). 5. He restrains (Gen. 6:3). 6. He intercedes (Rom. 8:26). 7. He speaks (John 15:26; 2 Pet. 1:21).

C. Proved by What Is Ascribed to Him. 1. He can be obeyed (Acts 10:19–21). 2. He can be lied to (Acts 5:3). 3. He can be resisted (Acts 7:51). 4. He can be reverenced (Ps. 51:11). 5. He can be blasphemed (Matt. 12:31). 6. He can be grieved (Eph. 4:30). 7. He can be outraged (Heb. 10:29).

D. Proved by Unusual Grammar. In spite of the fact that the Greek word for Spirit is neuter in gender, several times masculine pronouns are used to replace the neuter noun, contradicting all normal rules of grammar but indicating the personality of the Spirit (John 16:13–14; 15:26; 16:7–8).

II. THE DEITY OF THE SPIRIT

A. Proved by His Names. 1. Names that relate the Spirit equally to other Persons of the Trinity (1 Cor. 6:11). 2. Names that show Him doing works that only God can do (Rom. 8:15; John 14:16).

B. Proved by His Characteristics. The Spirit possesses divine attributes. 1. Omniscience (1 Cor. 2:10–11). 2. Omnipresence (Ps. 139:7). 3. Omnipotence (Gen. 1:2). 4. Truth (1 John 5:6). 5. Holiness (Luke 11:13). 6. Life (Rom. 8:2). 7. Wisdom (Isa. 40:13).

C. Proved by His Works. Works that only God can do are said to be done by the Spirit. 1. Creating (Gen. 1:2). 2. Inspiring (2 Pet. 1:21). 3. Begetting Christ (Luke 1:35). 4. Convincing men (John 16:8). 5. Regenerating (John 3:5–6). 6. Comforting (John 14:16). 7. Interceding (Rom. 8:26–27). 8. Sanctifying (2 Thess. 2:13).

D. Proved by His Being Equally Associated with other Persons of the Trinity (Acts 5:3–4; Matt. 28:19; 2 Cor. 13:14).

III. THE PROCESSION OF THE SPIRIT

A. Definition. Procession is an attempt to describe the eternal relationship between the Spirit and the other two Persons of the Trinity. He proceeded from them eternally and without any dividing of or change in God's nature.

B. History. This concept was formulated in the Constantinopolitan Creed in 381. In 589 the Synod of Toledo added the famous "filioque" clause, which stated that the Spirit proceeded from the Father and the Son.

C. Scripture. John 15:26 expressly says the Spirit proceeds from the Father, whereas the idea of His proceeding from the Son also comes from such verses as Galatians 4:6, Romans 8:9, and John 16:7.

IV. TYPES AND ILLUSTRATIONS OF THE SPIRIT

A. Clothing (Luke 24:49).
B. Dove (Matt. 3:16; Mark 1:10; Luke 3:22; John 1:32).
C. Earnest (2 Cor. 1:22; 5:5; Eph. 1:14).
D. Fire (Acts 2:3).
E. Oil (Luke 4:18; Acts 10:38; 2 Cor. 1:21; 1 John 2:20).
F. Seal (2 Cor. 1:22; Eph. 1:13; 4:30).
G. Servant (Gen. 24).
H. Water (John 4:14; 7:38–39).
I. Wind (John 3:8; Acts 2:1–2).

V. THE WORK OF THE SPIRIT IN THE OT

A. In Creation. The Spirit gave to the creation: 1. Life (Ps. 104:30; Job 33:4). 2. Order (Isa. 40:12; Job 26:13). 3. Adornment (Ps. 33:6; Job 26:13). 4. Preservation (Ps. 104:30).

B. In Man. 1. Selective indwelling. a. The Spirit was in certain people in OT times (Gen. 41:38; Num. 27:18; Dan. 4:8; 5:11–14; 6:3). b. The Spirit came upon many (Judg.

3:10; 6:34; 11:29; 13:25; 1 Sam. 10:9–10; 16:13). c. The Spirit filled some (Ex. 31:3; 35:31). Thus His personal relationship to men in the OT was limited, for not all experienced His work nor was it necessarily permanent in each case (Ps. 51:11). 2. Enablement for service (especially in the construction of the Tabernacle, Ex. 31:3, but also in other instances, Judg. 14:6). 3. General restraint of sin (Gen. 6:3).

VI. THE WORK OF THE SPIRIT IN REVELATION AND INSPIRATION

A. Definitions. 1. Revelation means the disclosure of that which was previously unknown. Revelation concerns the material (i.e., what). 2. Inspiration* is God's superintending of human authors so that, using their own individual personalities, they composed and recorded without error His revelation to man in the words of the original autographs. Inspiration concerns the manner (i.e., how).
B. The Author of Revelation Is the Holy Spirit (2 Pet. 1:21; cf. 2 Sam. 23:2; Ezek. 2:2; Mic. 3:8; Matt. 22:43; Acts 1:16; 4:25).
C. The Means of Revelation. The Spirit used: 1. Spoken word (Ex. 19:9). 2. Dreams (Gen. 20; 31). 3. Visions (Isa. 6:1). 4. Written Word (John 14:26; 1 Cor. 2:13). 5. Christ.
D. The Author of Inspiration Is the Spirit. 1. Of the OT (2 Sam. 23:2–3; 2 Tim. 3:16; Mark 12:36; Acts 1:16; 28:25; Heb. 3:7; 10:15–16). 2. Of the NT. a. NT inspiration was preauthenticated by Christ (John 14:26). b. It is asserted by the writers of the NT (1 Cor. 14:37; Gal. 1:7–8; 1 Thess. 4:2, 15; 2 Thess. 3:6, 12, 14). c. It is attested to by the apostles of each other's writings (1 Tim. 5:18; 2 Pet. 3:16).

VII. THE WORK OF THE SPIRIT IN THE LIFE OF CHRIST

A. In His Virgin Birth. The Spirit caused Christ's conception in Mary's womb (Luke 1:35).
B. In His Life. 1. Christ was anointed by the Spirit (Luke 4:18; Acts 10:38). It occurred at His baptism but was not the same as baptism (John 1:32). Anointing meant empowering for service. 2. Christ was filled with the Spirit (Luke 4:1). 3. Christ was sealed with the Spirit (John 6:27). 4. Christ was led by the Spirit (Luke 4:1). 5. Christ was empowered by the Spirit (Matt. 12:28).
C. In His Death (Heb. 9:14, and some use Rom. 1:4).
D. In His Resurrection (1 Peter 3:18 possibly).

VIII. THE WORK OF THE SPIRIT IN SALVATION

A. Convicting (John 16:8–11). 1. Definition. To convict (John 16:8) means to place the truth of the gospel in a clear light before the unsaved so that it is acknowledged as truth, whether or not Christ is received as Savior. 2. Detail. a. Of sin. Man's state of sin is because of his unbelief. b. Of righteousness. Man is convinced of Christ's righteousness because He ascended to the Father. c. Of judgment. The Spirit convicts of coming judgment because Satan (the greatest enemy) has already been judged.
B. Regenerating* (Titus 3:5). 1. Definition. The act of begetting by God, which imparts eternal life. 2. Means. It is a work of God, particularly of the Spirit (John 3:3–7; Titus 3:5). Faith is the human requirement that enables the Spirit to regenerate, and the Word of God provides the content for faith. 3. Characteristics. a. It is instantaneous, not a process (though its antecedents and consequences may be processes). b. It is nonexperiential (not derived from or based on experience, though the experiences of the Christian life will follow). 4. Consequences. a. A new nature (2 Cor. 5:17). b. A new life (1 John 2:29).
C. Indwelling (1 Cor. 6:19). 1. The persons indwelt. All true believers because: a. Sinning Christians are said to be indwelt (1 Cor. 6:19). b. The Spirit is a gift (Rom.

5:5). c. The absence of the Spirit is a proof of being unsaved (Rom. 8:9b). 2. The permanence of indwelling. Believers may lose the filling but not the indwelling (John 14:16). 3. Some problems in indwelling. a. Is obedience a condition (Acts 5:32)? Yes, but it is obedience to the faith (Acts 6:7; Rom. 1:5). b. Were not some only temporarily indwelt? Yes, but not since Pentecost (1 Sam. 16:14). c. What is the relation of anointing to indwelling? They occur at the same time but for different purposes: indwelling to bring the presence of God into the Christian's life, and anointing to enable the Christian to be taught (1 John 2:20, 27).

D. Baptizing (1 Cor. 12:13). 1. Characteristics of baptizing. a. It occurs only in the church age (it was still future in Acts 1:5). b. It involves all believers (1 Cor. 12:13; Eph. 4:5). c. It happens only once (aorist tense in 1 Cor. 12:13). 2. Consequences of baptizing. a. It makes believers members of the Body of Christ. b. It unites them with Christ in His death with respect to the sin nature (Rom. 6:1–10).

E. Sealing. 1. The agent—the Father (2 Cor. 1:22; Eph. 1:13; 4:30). 2. The means—the Spirit is the seal. 3. The extent—for all believers. 4. The time—at the time of conversion. 5. The purpose. Sealing means the certainty of being possessed by God and preserved until the day of redemption. It is a guarantee of the Christian's security.

IX. THE GIFTS OF THE SPIRIT

A. Definition. A spiritual gift is a God-given ability for service. It is not a place of service nor a ministry to an age group nor a procedure.

B. Distribution. 1. Source—the Spirit (1 Cor. 12:11). 2. Extent. Every believer has some but not all gifts (1 Pet. 4:10). 3. Time. Every generation may or may not have all the gifts. Some gifts were for the founding of the church (Eph. 2:20) and would not be expected to be given after the foundation had been laid. Certain spectacular gifts were given to the first generation of Christians but not to the second (Heb. 2:3–4).

C. Development. Abilities can and must be developed by the one to whom given; e.g., the gift of teaching needs development by study.

D. Description. Lists of gifts are found in Romans 12:6–8; 1 Corinthians 12:8–10, 28–30; Ephesians 4:11.

X. THE FILLING OF THE SPIRIT

A. Definition. Being filled means being controlled by the Spirit (Eph. 5:18).

B. Characteristics. 1. Filling is commanded (Eph. 5:18, the verb is imperative). 2. Filling is repeated (Acts 2:4; 4:31). 3. Filling produces Christlikeness (Gal. 5:22–23).

C. Conditions for Being Filled. 1. A dedicated life. Yielding to the Spirit's control, though commanded, is voluntary and necessitates an act of dedication. This includes two aspects: initial dedication (Rom. 12:1–2) and continual dedication of one's life (Rom. 8:14). 2. An undefeated life. Victory over sin in daily experience is necessary in being controlled by the Spirit (Eph. 4:30). This means responding to the light of the Word as it is continually revealed (1 John 1:7). 3. A dependent life (Gal. 5:16).

D. Consequences. Being filled or controlled by the Spirit means: 1. A Christlike character (Gal. 5:22–23). 2. Worship and praise (Eph. 5:18–20). 3. Submissiveness (Eph. 5:21). 4. Service (John 7:37–39).

XI. OTHER MINISTRIES OF THE SPIRIT

A. Teaching (John 16:12–15).

B. Guiding (Rom. 8:14).

C. Assuring (Rom. 8:16).

D. Praying (Rom. 8:26; Eph. 6:18).

XII. THE WORK OF THE SPIRIT IN THE FUTURE

A. In the Tribulation. The Spirit will work in salvation and filling (Joel 2:28–32; Zech. 12:10).

B. In the Kingdom. 1. The Spirit will be upon the King (Isa. 11:2–3). 2. The Spirit will be in God's people (Jer. 31:33).

THE DOCTRINE OF ANGELS*

I. THE EXISTENCE OF ANGELS

A. The Teaching of Scripture. Existence taught in at least thirty-four books of Bible. The word angel occurs about 275 times.

B. The Teaching of Christ. Christ knew of and taught the existence of angels (Matt. 18:10; 26:53).

II. THE CREATION OF ANGELS

A. Fact of their creation is shown in Colossians 1:16.

B. Time. Before the creation of the world (Job 38:6–7).

C. State of their creation was in holiness (Jude 6).

III. THE PERSONALITY OF ANGELS

A. Intellect (1 Pet. 1:12).

B. Emotion (Luke 2:13).

C. Will (Jude 6).

IV. THE NATURE OF ANGELS

A. They Are Spirit Beings (Heb. 1:14).

B. They Are Without Power to Reproduce after their kind (Mark 12:25). Angels are designated by masculine gender in Scripture (Gen. 18:1–2; cf. Zech. 5:9 for possible exception).

C. They Do Not Die (Luke 20:36).

D. They Are Distinct from Human Beings (Ps. 8:4–5).

E. They Have Great Power (2 Pet. 2:11).

V. NUMBER OF THE ANGELS.

Innumerable (Heb. 12:22).

VI. ORGANIZATION OF THE ANGELS

A. One Archangel Is Named, Michael* (Jude 9).

B. Chief Princes (Dan. 10:13).

C. Ruling Angels (Eph. 3:10).

D. Guardian Angels (for all, Heb. 1:14; for children, Matt. 18:10).

E. Seraphim* (Isa. 6:1–3). Have to do with worship of God.

F. Cherubim* (Gen. 3:22–24). Guarding the holiness of God.

G. Elect Angels (1 Tim. 5:21).

VII. THE MINISTRIES OF ANGELS

A. To Christ. 1. Predicted His birth (Luke 1:26–33). 2. Announced His birth (Luke 2:13). 3. Protected the Baby (Matt. 2:13). 4. Strengthened Christ after temptation (Matt. 4:11). 5. Prepared to defend Him (Matt. 26:53). 6. Strengthened Him in Gethsemane (Luke 22:43). 7. Rolled away stone from tomb (Matt. 28:2). 8. Announced the Resurrection (Matt. 28:6).

B. To Believers. 1. General ministry of aiding (Heb. 1:14). 2. Involved in answering prayer (Acts 12:7). 3. Observe Christians' experiences (1 Cor. 4:9; 1 Tim. 5:21). 4. Encourage in time of danger (Acts 27:23–24). 5. Interested in evangelistic effort of Christians (Luke 15:10; Acts 8:26). 6. Care for righteous at death (Luke 16:22; Jude 9).

C. To the Nations. 1. Michael seems to have a special relationship to Israel (Dan. 12:1). 2. Angels are God's agents in the execution of His providence (Dan. 10:21). 3. Angels will be involved in the judgments of the Tribulation (Rev. 8, 9, 16).

D. To Unbelievers. 1. Announce impending judgments (Gen. 19:13; Rev. 14:6–7). 2. Inflict punishment (Acts 12:23). 3. Act as reapers in the separation at end of the age (Matt. 13:39).

THE DOCTRINE OF SATAN*

I. THE EXISTENCE OF SATAN

A. The Teaching of Scripture. The existence of Satan is taught in seven OT books and by every NT writer.

B. The Teaching of Christ. He acknowledged and taught the existence of Satan (Matt. 13:39; Luke 10:18; 11:18).

II. THE PERSONALITY OF SATAN

A. He Possesses Intellect (2 Cor. 11:3).

B. He Has Emotions (Rev. 12:17).

C. He Has a Will (2 Tim. 2:26).

D. He Is Treated as a Morally Responsible Person (Matt. 25:41).

E. Personal Pronouns Are Used of Him (Job 1).

III. THE DESIGNATIONS OF SATAN

A. Names. 1. Satan (adversary). 2. Devil (slanderer). 3. Lucifer (son of the morning). 4. Beelzebub (Matt. 12:24). 5. Belial (2 Cor. 6:15).

B. Titles. 1. Evil one (1 John 5:19). 2. Tempter (1 Thess. 3:5). 3. Prince of this world (John 12:31). 4. God of this age (2 Cor. 4:4). 5. Ruler of the Kingdom of the air (Eph. 2:2). 6. Accuser of the brothers (Rev. 12:10).

C. Representations. 1. Serpent (Rev. 12:9). 2. Dragon (Rev. 12:3). 3. Angel of light (2 Cor. 11:14).

IV. THE NATURE OF SATAN

A. His Character. 1. He is a creature (Ezek. 28:14). 2. He is a spirit being (Eph. 6:11–12). 3. He is of the order of angels called cherubim (Ezek. 28:14). 4. He was the highest of all angelic creatures (Ezek. 28:12).

B. His Personality Traits. 1. He is a murderer (John 8:44). 2. He is a liar (John 8:44). 3. He is a confirmed sinner (1 John 3:8). 4. He is an accuser (Rev. 12:10). 5. He is an adversary (1 Pet. 5:8).

C. His Limitations. 1. He is a creature and therefore not omniscient or infinite. 2. He can be resisted by the Christian (James 4:7). 3. God places limitations on him (Job 1:12).

V. THE ORIGINAL STATE AND FALL OF SATAN

A. Satan's Privileges (Ezek. 28:11–15).

B. Satan's Sin (Isa. 14:12–20). 1. The Person (vv. 12, 15–20). a. His name (v. 12). b. His power (vv. 15–20). 2. The Sin (vv. 13–14). a. "I will ascend to heaven." b. "I will raise my throne above the stars of God." (Either actual stars or other angels.) c. "I will sit on the mount of assembly in the recesses of the north." (Either assembly of angels or of Israel under messianic rule.) d. "I will ascend above the heights of the clouds [usurp the glory of God]." e. "I will make myself like the Most High." (Satan wanted to be the possessor of heaven and earth.) His sin is called pride in 1 Timothy 3:6, and it may be characterized as counterfeiting God (like the Most High).
C. Satan's Punishment (Ezek. 28:16–19).

VI. SATAN'S JUDGMENTS*

A. Cast Out of His Original Position in Heaven (Ezek. 28:16).
B. Judgment Pronounced in Eden (Gen. 3:14–15).
C. Judged at the Cross (John 12:31).
D. Cast Out in the Midst of the Tribulation Period (Rev. 12:13).
E. Confined in the Abyss at the Beginning of the Millennium (Rev. 20:2).
F. Cast into the Lake of Fire at the End of the Millennium (Rev. 20:10).

VII. THE WORK OF SATAN

A. In Relation to the Redemptive Work of Christ. 1. Prediction of conflict (Gen. 3:15). 2. Temptation of Christ (Matt. 4:1–11). 3. Satan used various people to attempt to thwart the work of Christ (Matt. 2:16; John 8:44; Matt. 16:23). 4. He possessed Judas's body for the betrayal (John 13:27).
B. In Relation to the Nations. 1. He deceives them now (Rev. 20:3). 2. He will gather them to the battle of Armageddon (Rev. 16:13–14).
C. In Relation to Unbelievers. 1. He blinds their minds (2 Cor. 4:4). 2. He snatches the Word from their hearts (Luke 8:12). 3. He uses men to oppose God's work (Rev. 2:13).
D. In Relation to the Christian. 1. He tempts him to lie (Acts 5:3). 2. He accuses and slanders him (Rev. 12:10). 3. He hinders his work (1 Thess. 2:18). 4. He employs demons to attempt to defeat him (Eph. 6:11–12). 5. He tempts to immorality (1 Cor. 7:5). 6. He sows tares (weeds) among believers (Matt. 13:38–39). 7. He incites persecutions against them (Rev. 2:10).

VIII. THE DEFENSE OF THE BELIEVER AGAINST SATAN

A. The Present Intercessory Work of Christ (John 17:15).
B. The Purpose of God May Include Using Satan for Beneficial Purposes in the Life of the Christian (2 Cor. 12:7).
C. The Christian Should Never Speak of Satan Contemptuously (Jude 8–9).
D. The Believer Should Be on Guard (1 Pet. 5:8).
E. The Believer Should Take a Stand Against Satan (James 4:7).
F. The Believer Should Use His Armor (Eph. 6:11–18).

DOCTRINE OF DEMONS*

I. ORIGIN OF DEMONS

A. Souls of Departed Evil People. A heathen Greek view.
B. Disembodied Spirits of a Pre-Adamic Race. The Bible nowhere speaks of such a race.
C. The Offspring of Angels and Antediluvian Women (Gen. 6:1–4).
D. Fallen Angels. Satan is an angel and is called prince of the demons (Matt. 12:24), indicating that the demons are angels, not a pre-Adamic race. Furthermore, Satan has well-organized ranks of angels (Eph. 6:11–12), and it is reasonable to suppose that these are the demons. Some demons are confined already (2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6) and some are loose to do Satan's work. It is thought by some that the reason certain demons are presently confined is that they participated in the sin of Gen. 6:1–4.

II. CHARACTERISTICS OF DEMONS

A. Their Nature. They are spirit beings. Note that the demon in Matt. 17:18 is called an unclean spirit in the parallel account in Mark 9:25. See also Ephesians 6:12.
B. Their Intellect. They know Jesus (Mark 1:24), their own doom (Matt. 8:29), the plan of salvation (James 2:19). They have a well-developed system of doctrine of their own (1 Tim. 4:1–3).
C. Their Morality. They are called unclean spirits, and their doctrine leads to immoral conduct (1 Tim. 4:1–2).

III. ACTIVITY OF DEMONS

A. In General. 1. Demons attempt to thwart the purpose of God (Dan. 10:10–14; Rev. 16:13–16). 2. Demons extend the authority of Satan by doing his bidding (Eph. 6:11–12). 3. Demons may be used by God in the carrying out of His purposes (1 Sam. 16:14; 2 Cor. 12:7).
B. In Particular. 1. Demons can inflict diseases (Matt. 9:33; Luke 13:11, 16). 2. Demons can possess men (Matt. 4:24). 3. Demons can possess animals (Mark 5:13). 4. Demons oppose the spiritual growth of God's children (Eph. 6:12). 5. Demons disseminate false doctrine (1 Tim. 4:1).

IV. DEMON POSSESSION

A. Definition of Demon Possession. Demon possession means a demon residing in a person, exerting direct control and influence over that person, with certain derangement of mind and/or body. Demon possession is to be distinguished from demon influence or demon activity in relation to a person. The work of the demon in the latter is from the outside; in demon possession it is from within. By this definition a Christian cannot be possessed by a demon since he is indwelt by the Holy Spirit. However, a believer can be the target of demonic activity to such an extent that he may give the appearance of demon possession.
B. Effects of Demon Possession. 1. Sometimes physical disease (Matt. 9:32–33), but physical disease and demon possession are distinguished in Scripture (Acts 5:16). 2. Sometimes mental derangement is due to demon possession (Matt. 17:15) but not always (Dan. 4).
C. Extent of Demon Possession. 1. As to persons. Only unbelievers may be possessed. In the time of Christ, most instances of demon possession were among non-Israelites. 2. As to time. Usually there is an outbreak of demon activity when truth and light are the strongest (e.g., time of Christ).

V. DESTINATION OF DEMONS

A. Temporary Destiny. 1. Some free ones were cast into the abyss (Luke 8:31; cf. Rev. 9:11). 2. Some confined ones will be loosed in the Tribulation (Rev. 9:1–11; 16:13–14).
B. Permanent Destiny. Eventually all demons will be cast with Satan into the lake of fire (Matt. 25:41).

THE DOCTRINE OF MAN

I. THE ORIGIN OF MAN

A. Types of Evolutionary Theories. 1. Atheistic evolution sees spontaneous generation as the original cause. 2. Theistic evolution sees a Divine Power as the original cause and guiding force. Both may include accidental variation, natural selection, and inheritability of acquired characteristics.

B. Creationism. 1. The evidence of biblical revelation. a. Extent of evidence. Although the Bible is not a textbook of science, whenever it relates a scientific fact it records it without error. b. Authority of evidence. Whatever is said as truth is authoritative. 2. The facts in the evidence. a. Bara' is used in Genesis 1:1, 21, 27. b. The word day is used of what we now calibrate in twenty-four hours, and it is used also of a longer period of time. c. Creation is regarded as historical fact in many places in Scripture (Ex. 20; Ps. 8; Matt. 19; Heb. 4). d. The beginning of the first day is at Gen. 1:3. A long period of time may be involved in verse 2. e. The geological ages may be due to a catastrophe (related or not to the fall of Satan) after the original creation, or they may have been caused by the Flood.

II. THE MATERIAL PART OF MAN (BODY)

A. Its Creation (Gen. 2:7; 3:19).

B. Its Designations. 1. Body (Matt. 6:22). 2. Flesh (Gal. 2:20, where it is a synonym for body). Flesh sometimes stands for the whole person (1 Pet. 1:24) and sometimes for the sin nature (Rom. 7:18). 3. Body of humiliation (Phil. 3:21). 4. Earthen vessel (2 Cor. 4:7). 5. Temple of the Holy Spirit (1 Cor. 6:19).

C. Its Future. All men will be raised from the dead (John 5:28–29). The unredeemed will be resurrected to eternal existence in the lake of fire (Rev. 20:12, 15) and the redeemed to heaven.

III. THE IMMATERIAL PART OF MAN (SOUL AND SPIRIT)

A. Its Origin (Gen. 2:7).

B. Its Characteristic—"image and likeness of God." Adam's original state was one of unconfirmed creaturely holiness. He lost this by the Fall, but man still retains vestiges of God's image and likeness (1 Cor. 11:7; James 3:9).

C. The Transmission of the Immaterial Part of Man. 1. Preexistent theory. The souls of all men were created at the beginning and are confined in physical bodies. 2. Creationism. The soul of man is created by God when the body is born. 3. Traducianism. The soul is transmitted by natural generation just as the body is.

D. The Facets of the Immaterial Part of Man. 1. Soul. Soul stands for the personal life or for the individual. It has emotion (Jer. 31:25) and wars against the lusts of the flesh (1 Pet. 2:11). 2. Spirit. Spirit is related to higher aspects of man (Rom. 8:16). All men have a spirit (1 Cor. 2:11). It may also be corrupted (2 Cor. 7:1). Although there is distinction between soul and spirit, they both are facets of the immaterial nature of man. 3. Heart. Heart is the largest concept of all the facets of man's immaterial nature. It is the seat of intellectual, emotional, volitional, and spiritual life of man (Heb. 4:12; Matt. 22:37; Heb. 4:7). 4. Conscience. Conscience is a witness within that has been affected by the Fall but which nevertheless can be a safe guide at times (1 Pet. 2:19; Heb. 10:22). 5. Mind. The mind is the facet of man's immaterial nature in which understanding is centered. The mind was affected by the Fall but is able to be renewed in Christ (Rom. 12:2). 6. Flesh. When flesh means the sin nature, then this too is an aspect of man's immaterial nature. It is completely corrupt and cannot be renewed but will be eradicated at death.

IV. THE FALL OF MAN

A. Attitudes Toward Genesis 3. 1. The liberal view—a legend, a general picture of religion and morals in the light of a later period. 2. The neoorthodox view—myth, primal history, or "true myth." Barthians consider the account as not being historical but as expressing truths; i.e., truth without fact (if that is possible).
B. The Test. The prohibition not to eat of the fruit of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil ultimately was a test of obedience to the revealed will of God. It was certainly not merely a matter of proper diet!
C. The Fall. First, Satan attempted to get Eve to doubt the goodness of God because He had held back one tree from them (Gen. 3:1, "every"). Second, Satan offered Eve his substitute plan, which would allow eating without the penalty (vv. 4–5). Third, Eve prejustified her eating (v. 6). Fourth, Eve ate and Adam followed.
D. The Penalties. 1. On the serpent (Gen. 3:14). 2. On Satan (v. 15). a. Enmity between hosts of evil and seed of the woman. b. Satan would be allowed to give Christ a painful but not deadly wound ("heel"). c. Satan would be given a fatal wound ("head"). 3. On Eve and women (v. 16). a. Pain in childbirth. b. Submission to husband. 4. On Adam and man (vv. 17–19). a. Cursing of the ground. b. Hard labor. 5. On the race (vv. 20–24). a. Broken fellowship with God. b. Physical death. c. Expulsion from Eden.

THE DOCTRINE OF SIN*

I. THE ORIGIN OF SIN

A. In Relation to God. God cannot sin, and yet God's plan must have included the allowing of sin to enter the world, because it included a Savior from before the foundation of the world.
B. In Relation to Satan. Sin was found in Satan (Ezek. 28:15). This is the closest the Bible comes to stating definitely the origin of sin.
C. In Relation to the Angels. Some followed Satan in his sin.
D. In Relation to Man. Sin originated in Eden.

II. THE DEFINITION OF SIN

A. Sin Is an Illusion. This idea has taken a variety of forms of expression; e.g., our lack of knowledge is the reason we have the illusion of sin; or when evolution has had time to help us progress further, sin will disappear.
B. Sin Is that Eternal Principle of Dualism, outside of God and independent of Him.
C. Sin Is Selfishness. This is the most frequently heard definition of sin. It is scriptural but inadequate.
D. Sin Is a Violation of the Law. This too is scriptural but inadequate, unless the concept of law is expanded to include the character of God Himself.
E. Sin Is Anything Contrary to the Character of God.

III. PERSONAL SIN

A. Meaning. Sins committed by individuals. They may be willful or in ignorance. Missing the mark also involves hitting the wrong mark.
B. Penalty. Loss of fellowship.

C. Remedy. 1. Forgiveness—takes away the guilt of sin. 2. Justification—the declaration of the addition of Christ's righteousness to the believing sinner.

IV. THE SIN NATURE

A. Meaning. The sin nature is the capacity and inclination to do those things that can in no way commend us to God.
B. Scriptures. 2 Corinthians 4:4; Ephesians 4:18; Romans 1:18–3:20.
C. Results of the Sin Nature. 1. Total depravity (unmeritoriousness of man in the sight of God). 2. Spiritual death.
D. Transmission of the Sin Nature—from parents to children (Ps. 51:5).
E. Remedy. 1. Redemption, which brings a new nature or new capacity to serve Christ. 2. The power of the indwelling Holy Spirit to give victory over the judged sin nature.

V. IMPUTED SIN

A. Meaning. That which resulted from man's participation in Adam's first sin.
B. Scripture. Romans 5:12. All mankind was in Adam participating in his sin and bearing the resultant guilt.
C. Transmission of Imputed Sin. Transmitted directly from Adam to each individual member of the race.
D. Penalty—physical death.
E. Remedy—imputed righteousness of Christ (2 Cor. 5:21).

VI. SIN IN THE CHRISTIAN'S LIFE

A. The Fact of the Believer's Sinning (1 John 1:8–10).
B. The Standard for the Christian—"Walk in the light" (1 John 1:7).
C. The Preventives for Sin in the Christian's Life. 1. The Word of God (Ps. 119:11). 2. The intercession of Christ (John 17:15). 3. The indwelling Holy Spirit (John 7:37–39).
D. The Penalties for Sin in the Christian's Life. 1. Loss of fellowship (1 John 1:6). 2. Church excommunication (1 Cor. 5:4–5). 3. Chastisement (Heb. 12:6). 4. Sometimes physical death (1 Cor. 11:30).
E. The Remedy for Sin in the Christian's Life—confession (1 John 1:9).

THE DOCTRINE OF SALVATION

I. THE DOCTRINE OF ELECTION*

A. Proof of Election. 1. From nature. Selectivity is obvious in God's creative activity everywhere. 2. From Scripture (Rom. 9; Eph. 1; Acts 13:48; Rom. 8:27–30).
B. Meaning of Election. God's unconditioned and pretemporal choice of those individuals whom He would save.

II. THE DEATH OF CHRIST

A. The Accomplishments of the Death of Christ. 1. Substitution. a. Meaning. Christ died in the place of sinners. b. Words involved. (1) Anti is a Greek preposition that clearly means "in the place of" (Matt. 20:28). (2) Huper is a Greek preposition that sometimes means "for the benefit of" and sometimes "in the place of" (as in a non-atonement passage like Philem. 13 and in atonement passages like 2 Cor. 5:21 and 1 Pet. 3:18). c. Results. (1) Sins are removed by substitution. (2) The righteousness of Christ is added. 2. Redemption. a. Meaning. (1) To pay the ransom price (1 Pet. 2:1). (2) To remove from the marketplace (slave market, Greek of Gal. 3:13). (3) To effect a full release (Matt. 20:28). b. Benefits. Sin paid for and the sinner released from all the consequences of sin. 3. Reconciliation. a. Meaning. Man's state of alienation from God is changed so that he is able to be saved (2 Cor. 5:19). b. Need for reconciliation—man's enmity (Rom. 5:10). 4. Propitiation. a. Need—wrath of God (Rom. 1:18). b. Meaning. God is satisfied with the death of Christ for sin. c. Scripture. 1 John 2:2. d. Means—blood of Christ (Rom. 3:25). 5. Judgment of the sin nature. a. Meaning. The death of Christ made inoperative the reigning power of the sin nature (Rom. 6:1–10). b. Results. Possibility of holy living through the reigning power of the Spirit. 6. End of the Mosaic Law (Rom. 10:4; Col. 2:14; 2 Cor. 3:7–11). 7. Ground for the Christian's cleansing from sin (1 John 1:7–9). 8. Basis for removal of precross sins (Rom. 3:25). 9. Basis for the judgment of Satan and his hosts (Col. 2:15; John 12:31).

B. The Types of the Death of Christ. 1. Offering of Isaac (Gen. 22). 2. The Passover (Ex. 12). 3. The Levitical offerings (Lev. 1–5). 4. The red heifer (Num. 19). 5. The Day of Atonement (Lev. 16). 6. The Tabernacle.

C. The Theories of the Death of Christ. 1. Ransom to Satan. The death of Christ constituted a ransom paid to Satan for sin. 2. Recapitulation theory. Christ recapitulated in Himself all the stages of human life and by His life reversed the course started by Adam. His obedience compensated for the disobedience of Adam. 3. Satisfaction theory of Anselm. Satisfaction made to the honor of God which was offended by man's sin. 4. Moral influence theory. Christ's death manifested the love of God, and this should influence man to do good. Taught by Abelard. 5. Example theory of Socinus. Christ was a martyr who is our example. 6. Governmental theory. The death of Christ was required to show God's displeasure over sin. The setup of God's government required Christ's death. Held by Grotius, Dale, Cave, Miley. 7. Mystical theory. Similar to the moral influence, though the influence in the mystical theory occurs in a more mystical way.

D. The Extent of the Death of Christ. Limited or unlimited atonement? Did Christ die for the elect or for all men? 1. The meaning of redemption, reconciliation, and propitiation. a. Redemption extends to all men as far as paying the price for sin is concerned (2 Pet. 2:1). b. The whole world was reconciled to God (2 Cor. 5:19). c. Propitiation concerns the sins of the whole world, not simply of the elect (1 John 2:2). 2. The relevance of the universal gospel offer. Does limited atonement vitiate the whosoever gospel invitations? 3. The testimony of Scripture (1 Tim. 4:10; 1 John 2:2). 4. The necessity of faith. Christ is not defeated in having died for all even though all are not ultimately saved, because personal faith is as necessary for salvation as the death of Christ. Summary: The death of Christ is unlimited in its value—it was for all men; but the death of Christ is effective only for the elect—it is applied only to those who believe.

III. THE WORK OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

A. The Need for the Spirit's Ministry. Man's depravity (Rom. 3:10–18; 1 Cor. 2:14; 2 Cor. 4:3–4; Eph. 2:1–3).

B. The Nature of the Spirit's Ministry. 1. The Spirit convicts (John 16:7–11). See Doctrine of the Holy Spirit. 2. The Spirit regenerates (Titus 3:5).

IV. THE BLESSINGS OF SALVATION

A. The Blessing of Acceptance. This is expressed by such terms as: 1. Redeemed (Rom. 3:24). 2. Reconciled (2 Cor. 5:19–21). 3. Forgiven (Rom. 3:25). 4. Delivered (Col. 1:13). 5. Accepted (Eph. 1:6). 6. Justified (Rom. 3:24). 7. Glorified (Rom. 8:30).

B. The Blessing of Position. The Christian's position is: 1. Citizen of heaven (Phil. 3:20). 2. Member of a holy and royal priesthood (1 Pet. 2:5, 9). 3. Member of the family of God (Eph. 2:19). 4. Adopted (Gal. 4:5). 5. Member of a peculiar people (1 Pet. 2:9).

C. The Blessing of an Inheritance. The child of God: 1. Is complete in Christ (Col. 2:9–10). 2. Possesses every spiritual blessing (Eph. 1:3). 3. Is an heir of heaven (1 Pet. 1:4).

D. The Blessing of Enablement. Enablement is assured because the believer is: 1. Under grace (Rom. 6:14). 2. Freed from the law (2 Cor. 3:6–13). 3. Indwelt by the Persons of the Godhead (Gal. 2:20; 1 Cor. 6:19).

V. THE SECURITY OF THE BELIEVER

A. The Issue. Can a true believer ever lose his salvation by sinning, ceasing to believe, or in any other way?

B. The Proof of Security. The doctrine of eternal security rests on a proper concept of what God actually does when He saves a soul. 1. He loves to the uttermost (John 13:1). 2. He purposes to keep in spite of everything (John 10:28–30). 3. He intends to present us faultless before Himself (Jude 24). 4. His Son ever lives to make intercession to keep us saved (Heb. 7:25; 1 John 2:1). 5. His Spirit has placed us into the Body of Christ (1 Cor. 12:13). 6. His Spirit has sealed us until the day of redemption (Eph. 4:30). 7. His Word guarantees that nothing (including ourselves) can separate us from Christ (Rom. 8:28–39). In order to lose one's salvation all of these works of God would have to be undone, and the Bible nowhere even hints that this is possible.

C. The Problem Passages. 1. Hebrews 6:4–6. If this teaches that one can lose his salvation, it also teaches that one can never be saved a second time. 2. John 15:6. Probably refers to the judgment seat of Christ. 3. James 2:14–26. Nonworking faith is not a faith that saves in the first place. 4. 2 Peter 2 and Jude are referring to false teachers, who in Jude's estimation were not true believers (Jude 19; cf. Rom. 8:9). 5. Matthew 24:13. End of what? The Great Tribulation.

VI. THE CONDITION FOR SALVATION

A. The Condition. Salvation is conditioned solely on faith* in Jesus Christ. Nearly 200 times faith, or belief, is stated as the single condition in the NT (John 1:12; Acts 16:31). That faith must be placed in Christ as one's substitute for and Savior from sin. It is not easy to believe someone whom you have never seen about the most important matter of eternal destiny, but this and only this is the way to be saved.

B. The False Additions to Faith. Through the ages other requirements in addition to faith have been wrongly added. Some of these are: 1. Surrender to the lordship of Christ. Christ must be Lord in the sense of Jehovah in order to be a qualified Savior (Rom. 10:9), but Christ's personal lordship over the individual's life is not a condition for salvation. It should be a consequence of salvation and is a condition for dedication in full discipleship. 2. Baptism. Baptism is the visible testimony to one's salvation, but not a condition for it. Acts 2:38 is best translated, "Repent and be baptized on the basis of the remission of sins." Acts 22:16 teaches that baptism followed the arising, just as forgiveness followed the calling on the name of the Lord. The two parts of the verse should be kept distinct. Mark 16:16 is probably not a genuine part of Mark's gospel. 3. Repentance. This is a valid condition for salvation when understood as a synonym for faith. It is a false addition to faith when understood as a prerequisite, requiring the cleansing of the life in order to be saved. 4. Confession. Confession is a normal result of being saved, though it may also accompany the initial act of believing. Nowhere is public confession required. In this connection, prayer may be helpful in clinching a decision, but it is not in itself a requirement for salvation.

THE DOCTRINE OF THE CHURCH*

I. THE MEANING OF THE CONCEPT OF THE CHURCH

A. Negative Considerations. 1. The church is not Judaism continued and enlarged. Although there is a continuity between the redeemed of all ages, the church is a "new man" (Eph. 2:15). 2. The church is not the kingdom. The kingdom* is God's rule; the church is Christ's Bride.

B. The Meaning and Uses of the Word. 1. Literally, called-out group or assembly. 2. By usage the word church may refer to: a. The assembly of the Jewish people (Acts 7:38). b. A heathen assembly (Acts 19:32, 39, 41). c. The Body of Christ (Col. 1:18). d. The local assembly (1 Cor. 1:2).

C. The Meaning of the Body of Christ. It is that spiritual organism of which Christ is the Head and is composed of all regenerated people from Pentecost to the rapture.

D. The Meaning of Church in the Local Sense. A local church is a group of professing believers in Christ who have been baptized and who have organized themselves for the purpose of doing God's will.

II. THE LOCAL CHURCH

A. Its Organization (Heb. 13:7, 17). 1. Elders. a. Meaning and distinctions. Elder emphasizes the office as leader in the church. Bishop emphasizes the function as overseer. Pastor is the gift of shepherding (Acts 20:28). b. Number. Every city had plurality of elders (Acts 14:23), but each house-church may have had only one or more (1 Tim. 3:1–7). c. Duties. To oversee (1 Tim. 3:1), to rule (1 Tim. 5:17), to guard right doctrine (Titus 1:9). d. Qualifications (1 Tim. 3:1–6; Titus 1:7–9). e. Ordination (1 Tim. 4:14; Titus 1:5). 2. Deacons. a. Meaning. Servant. b. Qualifications (1 Tim. 3:8–10, 12–13). c. Duties. Deacons were the servants of the elders (Acts 6:1–6) and an officially recognized group in the church (Phil. 1:1). 3. Deaconesses. Some justify the order of deaconess from Romans 16:1 and 1 Timothy 3:11.

B. Its Ordinances. 1. Definition. An outward rite prescribed by Christ to be performed by His church. The word sacrament adds the idea of directly conveying grace through the ordinance. 2. The Lord's Supper. a. The order (1 Cor. 11:23–26). b. The meaning. (1) True view—it is a memorial. (2) Consubstantiation (Lutheran view). Body and blood of Christ are present and combined with the elements. (3) Transubstantiation (Roman Catholic view). Elements are changed into body and blood of Christ. (4) Spiritual presence (Calvin). c. Frequency. "As oft," though the early church seemed to observe once a week (Acts 20:7). 3. Baptism. a. Meaning. Baptism means identification or association with a message and/or a group. b. Arguments for nonimmersion. (1) The Greek word baptizo is used in a secondary sense, "to bring under the influence," and affusion best pictures this. (2) Affusion pictures the Spirit's coming upon the believer. (3) Immersion was impossible or improbable in Acts 2:41; 8:38; 10:47; 16:33. (4) In Hebrews 9:10 the word "baptize" is used to include OT rituals of sprinkling. (5) Three-fourths of the church does not immerse. c. Arguments for immersion. (1) This is the primary meaning of the Greek word baptizo. (2) The normal understanding of "into" and "out of" the water indicates immersion. (3) Jewish proselyte baptism was a total immersion, which points to John's and Christian baptism being the same. (4) The practice of the early church was immersion. (5) Every case allows for it. (6) The Greek language has words for "sprinkle" and "pour" but these are never used of baptism. (7) Immersion best pictures what the baptizing work of the Spirit accomplishes according to Romans 6. 4. Infant baptism. a. Arguments for. (1) Baptism in the New Covenant is analogous to circumcision in the Old, which was done to infants. (2) Household baptisms in the NT must have included infants (Acts 16:33). (3) Household promises allow for infant baptism (1 Cor. 7:14). b. Arguments against. (1) The meaning of baptism restricts it to those who can consciously exercise faith. (2) Household baptisms do not specify infants, though children may have been included.

C. Its Government. Types of church government. 1. National church (Lutheran in Scandinavia). 2. No government (Plymouth Brethren). 3. Hierarchical church (Roman Catholic). 4. Federal government (Presbyterian with congregation vesting powers in ruling board of elders and deacons). 5. Congregational (such as Baptists, with congregation itself deciding most questions).

D. Its Purpose. 1. To glorify God. 2. To evangelize. 3. To produce holy Christians. 4. To care for its own (1 Tim. 5). 5. To do good in the world (Gal. 6:10).

III. THE UNIVERSAL CHURCH

A. The Fact of Its Existence (Matt. 16:18; Col. 1:18; Eph. 3:10).

B. The Founding of It. 1. Christ was the founder in the sense that He was its teacher, builder, and the sender of the Spirit who actually formed the Body of Christ. 2. Pentecost was the beginning since the Body of Christ is formed by the baptizing work of the Spirit (1 Cor. 12:13) and this was first performed on Pentecost (Acts 1:5; 11:15).

C. The Foundation of It—Christ (Matt. 16:18; 1 Pet. 2:4–8).

D. The Figures of It. 1. The Shepherd and the sheep (John 10). 2. The Vine and the branches (John 15). 3. The Cornerstone and the stones of the building (Eph. 2:19–21). 4. The High Priest and a kingdom of priests (1 Pet. 2). 5. The Head and the Body (1 Cor. 12). 6. The Last Adam and the new creation (Rom. 5). 7. The Bridegroom and the Bride (Eph. 5).

E. The End of the Church Age—at the Rapture (2 Thess. 2; Rev. 3:10–11; 1 Thess. 1:10).

THE DOCTRINE OF FUTURE THINGS

I. THE SECOND COMING OF CHRIST

A. Postmillennial View. 1. Meaning. The second coming of Christ is after the Millennium. 2. Order of events. The latter part of the church age (that is, the last 1,000 years of it) is the Millennium, which will be an era of peace and abundance brought about through the efforts of the church. After this, Christ will come. Then will follow general resurrection and judgment and eternity. 3. Method of interpretation. Postmillennial interpretation is largely spiritualized with regard to prophecy. However, Revelation 20 will be fulfilled in the earthly kingdom that is brought in through the church's efforts.

B. Amillennial View. 1. Meaning. The second coming of Christ is at the end of the church age and there is no earthly Millennium. Strictly, amillenarians believe that the present state of the righteous in heaven is the Millennium, but there is no earthly Millennium. 2. Order of events. The church age will end in a time of trouble, Christ will come, there will be general resurrection and judgment, then eternity. 3. Method of interpretation. Amillennial interpretation spiritualizes the promises made to Israel as a nation and says they are fulfilled in the church. According to this view, Revelation 20 describes the scene of souls in heaven during the time between the first and second comings of Christ.

C. Premillennial View. 1. Meaning. The second coming of Christ will occur before the Millennium. 2. Order of events. The church age ends in the time of Tribulation, Christ returns to the earth, He sets up and rules His kingdom for 1,000 years, the resurrection and judgment of the unsaved occur, then eternity. 3. Method of interpre- tation. Premillennialism follows the plain, normal, literal, historical, and grammatical method of interpretation. Revelation 20 is understood literally. 4. The question of the Rapture. Among premillennialists there is no agreement as to the time of the Rapture (see next section).

II. THE RAPTURE* OF THE CHURCH

A. The Time of the Rapture. Postmillennialists and amillennialists both see the rapture of the church at the close of this age and concurrent with the second coming of Christ. Among premillennialists there are several views. 1. Pretribulation rapture. a. Meaning. The rapture of the church (i.e., the coming of the Lord in the air for His saints) will take place before the seven-year period of the Tribulation begins. Therefore, the church will not go through any of the Tribulation period according to this view. b. Proof cited. (1) The promise to be kept out of the hour of trouble (Rev. 3:10). (2) The removal of the residence aspect of the indwelling Spirit's work in believers requires the removal of believers too (2 Thess. 2). (3) The Tribulation is a time of the outpouring of the wrath of God and the church is exempt from wrath (Rev. 6:17; cf. 1 Thess. 1:10; 5:9). (4) The rapture can be imminent only if it is pretribulational (1 Thess. 5:6). 2. Midtribulation rapture. a. Meaning. The Rapture will occur after three and a half years of the Tribulation have passed. b. Proof cited. (1) The last trumpet of 1 Corinthians 15:52 is the same as the seventh trumpet of Revelation 11:15, and that is sounded at the middle of the Tribulation. (2) The Great Tribulation is only the last half of Daniel's 70th week, and the church is promised deliverance only from that (Rev. 11:2; 12:6). (3) The resurrection of the two witnesses pictures the rapture of the church, and their resurrection occurs at the middle of the period (Rev. 11). 3. Posttribulation rapture. a. Meaning. The Rapture will occur at the end of the Tribulation. The church will be on earth during the entire Tribulation. The Rapture is distinct from the Second Coming though separated by only a very short interval of time. b. Proof cited. (1) The Rapture and the Second Coming are described by the same words. (2) Preservation from the wrath means supernatural protection while living in that time, not deliverance from the period (as Israel was protected from the plagues while living in Egypt). (3) Saints are seen on the earth during the Tribulation (Matt. 24:22). 4. Partial rapture. a. Meaning. Only saints who are worthy will be raptured before the wrath of God is poured out; those who have not been faithful will remain on the earth to endure the Tribulation. b. Proof cited—verses like Heb. 9:28, which require preparedness.

B. The Description of the Rapture. 1. The Scripture. 1 Thessalonians 4:13–18; 1 Corinthians 15:51–57; John 14:1–3. 2. The events. a. The descent of Christ. b. The resurrection of the dead in Christ. c. The change from mortal to immortal bodies for Christian living at the time. d. The meeting with Christ in the air to ascend to heaven.

III. THE TRIBULATION*

A. Its Duration. It is the 70th week of Daniel and is therefore of seven years' duration (Dan. 9:27). Half the period is said to be 42 months or 1,260 days (Rev. 11:2–3).

B. Its Distinctiveness (Matt. 24:21; Rev. 6:15–17).

C. Its Description. 1. Judgment upon the world. The three series of judgments describe these judgments (seals, Rev. 6; trumpets, Rev. 8–9; bowls, Rev. 16). 2. Persecution of Israel (Matt. 24:9; 22; Rev. 12:17). 3. Salvation of multitudes (Rev. 7). 4. Rise and dominion of Antichrist (2 Thess. 2; Rev. 13).

D. Its End. The Tribulation ends in the gathering of the nations to the battle of Armageddon and the return of Christ to the earth (Rev. 19).

IV. THE MILLENNIUM*

A. Definition. The Millennium is the 1,000-year period of the earthly reign of Christ in fulfillment of the Abrahamic, Davidic, and new covenants.
B. Its Designations. The Millennium is called the kingdom of heaven (Matt. 6:10), the kingdom of God (Luke 19:11), the kingdom of Christ (Rev. 11:15), the regeneration (Matt. 19:28), the times of refreshing (Acts 3:19), and the world to come (Heb. 2:5).
C. Its Government. 1. Its Head will be Christ (Rev. 19:16). 2. Its character. A spiritual reign that will bring in peace, equity, justice, prosperity, and glory (Isa. 11:2–5). 3. Its capital will be Jerusalem (Isa. 2:3).
D. Its Relation to Satan. During this period Satan will be bound until the very end, when he will be loosed in order to deceive the nations and lead one final revolt against Christ (Rev. 20). Satan will be defeated and cast into the lake of fire forever.

V. THE FUTURE JUDGMENTS*

A. Judgment of Believers' Works. 1. Time. After the church is raptured. 2. Place. In heaven. 3. Judge. Christ. 4. Subjects judged. All in the Body of Christ. 5. Basis. Works done since time of salvation. 6. Result. Rewards or loss of rewards. 7. Scripture. 1 Corinthians 3:11–15; 2 Corinthians 5:10.
B. Judgment of the Gentiles (or Nations). 1. Time. At the second coming of Christ. 2. Place. Valley of Jehoshaphat. 3. Judge. Christ. 4. Subjects judged. Gentiles living when Christ comes. 5. Basis. Treatment of Christ's "brothers," i.e., Israel. 6. Result. Saved to enter the kingdom, or lost and cast into lake of fire. 7. Scripture. Matthew 25:31–46; Joel 3:2.
C. Judgment of Israel. 1. Time. At the second coming of Christ. 2. Place. On the earth. 3. Judge. Christ. 4. Subjects judged. Jews who are living when Christ comes. 5. Basis. Acceptance of Messiah. 6. Result. Saved to enter the kingdom, or lost. 7. Scripture. Ezekiel 20:37–38.
D. Judgment of Fallen Angels. 1. Time. Probably after the Millennium. 2. Place. Unspecified. 3. Judges. Christ and believers. 4. Subjects judged. Fallen angels. 5. Basis. Disobedience to God in following Satan in his revolt. 6. Result. Cast into the lake of fire. 7. Scripture. Jude 6; 1 Corinthians 6:3.
E. Judgment of the Unsaved Dead. 1. Time. After the Millennium. 2. Place. Before the Great White Throne. 3. Judge. Christ. 4. Subjects judged. All unsaved men who have died from the beginning to this time. 5. Basis. Rejection of the Savior places them in this judgment, but they are shown on the basis of their own works that they deserve eternal punishment. 6. Result. Lake of fire. 7. Scripture. Revelation 20:11–15.

VI. THE RESURRECTIONS*

A. The Resurrection of the Just (Luke 14:14; John 5:28–29). 1. Includes the dead in Christ, who are raised at the rapture of the church (1 Thess. 4:16). 2. Includes those saved during the Tribulation period (Rev. 20:4). 3. Includes OT saints (Dan. 12:2 —some believe they will be raised at the Rapture; others, at the second coming). All these are included in the first resurrection.
B. The Resurrection of the Unjust. All unsaved people will be raised after the Millennium to stand before the Great White Throne in judgment (Rev. 20:11–15). This second resurrection results in the second death for all involved.

THE INSPIRATION OF THE BIBLE

by Charles C. Ryrie

Every man has a basis of authority on which he thinks and acts. For the Christian this is the Bible, claimed to be a book that is different from all others. Let's examine this claim.

The English word Bible is derived from the Greek word that means "roll" or "book"—actually a roll of papyrus (Luke 4:17; Dan. 9:2). The term scripture is used in the New Testament of the sacred books of the Old Testament, which were regarded as inspired (2 Tim. 3:16; and Rom. 3:2) and also of other parts of the New Testament (2 Pet. 3:16). The phrase, "Word of God," is used in the New Testament of both Old and New Testaments in written form (Matt. 15:6, ASV; John 10:35; Heb. 4:12). Each of these terms refers to the Book par excellence, the unique and recognized record of God's revelation to man.

By some very obvious tests the Bible is a unique book. It was written over a period of 1,500 years by about forty different authors, and yet it is one book without contradictions in what it says. And what it says is remarkable, for it speaks with equal ease and authority of the known and unknowable, of the pleasant and unpleasant, of man's accomplishments and failures, of the past and the future. Few books ever attempt such scope; none is completely accurate except the Bible.

The Meaning and Means of Revelation

The word revelation simply means "unveiling." It is often defined in relation to the Bible as God making known to men what otherwise would be unknown. However, this is really not a good definition because there are many things in the Bible that were known simply because men were eyewitnesses to the events. But there are also many things that we would never know except for divine revelation. The word is also used in 1 Corinthians 2:10 in the sense of the illuminating work of the Spirit. Thus revelation can be through natural means or supernatural means; it can relate to persons or propositions; it can refer to particular parts of the Bible ("God revealed the future to the prophets") or to the entire Bible, and it can refer to the content of the Bible or to the interpretation of that content (illumination).

The means of revelation have generally been divided into the two categories: general and special revelation. General revelation includes all means apart from Christ and the Bible; that is, God's revelation through nature (Rom. 1:18–21), through His providential dealings with man (Rom. 8:28), through His preservation of the universe (Col. 1:17), and through man's moral nature (Gen. 1:26; Acts 17:29). Special revelation is that which has come through Christ (John 1:18) and through the Bible (1 John 5:9–12). General revelation is sufficient to alert a man to his need of God and to condemn him if he rejects what he can learn through nature, but only faith in Christ is sufficient to save (Acts 4:12). If this does not seem fair, look at it this way: Suppose you knew of a student who needed $400 to pay his school bill, and you gave him $3 to help pay that debt (the $3 being more than you could really afford). If he returned it to you, asking sarcastically what good that little bit would do toward a $400 debt, would you feel any obligation at all to give him $100 the next day if you received a large gift in the mail? Undoubtedly not. But if he gratefully took the $3 you offered, you would be anxious to help him further as soon as you were able. Just so, God's general revelation if rejected brings just condemnation; but if accepted, He will bring the further necessary message of the gospel in order that that man might be saved (Acts 10:3–6).

What Is Meant by "Inspiration"?

Revelation concerns the material or content by which God is disclosed, and inspiration concerns the record of that content, the Bible. Strictly speaking, inspiration means "filling or breathing into." In 2 Timothy 3:16 the word usually translated "inspiration" is more accurately "spiration," that is, "God-breathed." In other words, the verse simply says that Scripture is God-produced, and it does not actually indicate any of the means that God may have used in producing it.

A Definition

My own definition of biblical inspiration is that it is God's superintendence of the human authors so that, using their own individual personalities, they composed and recorded without error His revelation to man in the words of the original autographs. Several features of the definition are worth emphasizing: (1) God superintended but did not dictate the material; (2) He used human authors and their own individual styles; (3) nevertheless, the product was, in its original manuscripts, without error.

Views of Inspiration

Not all agree with the above definition and its implications.

(1) Some hold that the writers of the Bible were men of great genius but that their writings were inspired no more than other geniuses throughout history. This has been called the view of natural inspiration, for there is no supernatural dimension to it.

(2) A step up is the view that may be labeled the mystical or illumination view of inspiration, which sees the writers of the Bible as Spirit-filled and guided believers just as any believer may be even today. Logically, one might conclude that any Spirit-filled Christian could write Scripture today. Similar to this is the idea that the biblical writers were inspired to a greater degree than others.

(3) The usual caricature of verbal inspiration is that it means dictation; that is, the writers were completely passive and God simply dictated to them what was to be recorded. Of course, it is true that some parts of the Bible were dictated (like the Ten Commandments and the rest of the law), but the definition proposed above incorporates the idea that God allowed the writers varying degrees of self-expression as they wrote.

(4) Partial inspiration views certain parts of the Bible as supernaturally inspired, namely, portions that would otherwise have been unknowable (accounts of creation, prophecy, etc.).

(5) A very popular concept of inspiration is that only the concepts but not the very words were inspired. This seems to allow for a measure of authority without the necessity of the words being completely accurate.

(6) The neoorthodox, or Barthian, view of inspiration is that the Bible is a witness to the Word of God, though a Barthian would not be adverse to saying also that the Bible is the Word of God. But this is true only in a secondary sense (Christ being primarily the Word), and his Bible is full of errors because it is merely the product of fallible writers. The Barthian accepts the teachings of liberalism concerning the Bible and then tries to give it a measure of authority on the ground that in a fallible way it does point to Christ.

(7) Among many conservatives today a view is held that might be labeled the inspired purpose view of the Bible. This simply means that whereas the Bible contains factual errors and insoluble discrepancies in its content, it does have "doctrinal integrity" and thus accomplishes perfectly God's purpose for it. Those who hold this idea can and do use the words infallible and inerrant, but it is important to notice that they carefully limit the Bible's infallibility to the main purpose or principal emphasis of the Bible and do not extend it to include the accuracy of all its historical facts and parallel accounts. One recent writer put it this way: "I confess the infallibility and inerrancy of the Scriptures in accomplishing God's purpose for them—to give man the revelation of God in His redemptive love through Jesus Christ." In other words, the principal revelation of God—salvation—has been transmitted infallibly by means of the records that, nevertheless, are quite fallible. In contrast to Barthians, those who hold this concept of inspiration would hold a more conservative view toward matters like authorship and dates of the books of the Bible and would in general consider the Bible as a whole more trustworthy. But it is still fallible and errant; and if that be so in historical matters, who can be sure it is not also fallible in doctrinal matters? Besides, how can one separate doctrine and history? Try to do that in relation to the great events of Christ's life. Those doctrines depend on the accuracy of the historical facts.

The Biblical Testimony

Just to illustrate how times have changed, not many years ago all one had to say to affirm his belief in the full inspiration of the Bible was that he believed it was "the Word of God." Then it became necessary to add "the inspired Word of God." Later he had to include "the verbally inspired Word of God." Then to mean the same thing he had to say "the plenary (fully), verbally inspired Word of God." Then came the necessity to say "the plenary, verbally infallible, inspired Word of God." Today one has to say "the plenary, verbally, infallible, inspired, and inerrant-in-the original-manuscripts Word of God." And even then, he may not communicate clearly!

What does the Bible claim for itself?

(1) It claims that all Scripture is God-breathed (2 Tim. 3:16). This means that God, who is true (Rom. 3:4), breathed out truth.

(2) But did man corrupt that truth in the process of recording it? No, for the Bible also testifies that the men who wrote were "moved by the Holy Spirit" (2 Pet. 1:21). The Spirit thus became a coauthor with each human writer of the Bible. Notice a number of places in the New Testament where portions of the Old Testament that were written by various men are assigned to the Holy Spirit as the author. The only way to account for this phenomenon is to recognize a dual authorship (see Mark 12:36, where the Spirit is said to be the author of what David wrote in Ps. 110; Acts 1:16 and 4:24–25, where Ps. 41 and Ps. 2 are ascribed to the Holy Spirit; and Heb. 3:7; 10:15–16).

(3) But sometimes the record quite obviously reflects the styles and expressions of the human authors. This is to be expected in a book of dual authorship and does not mean at all that in employing their own styles the authors recorded error (see Rom. 9:1–3 for one such example).

(4) Indeed, the Bible claims inerrancy for itself. How else is it possible to explain the Lord's claim for the abiding character of the letters that spell the words of Scripture: "For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled" (Matt. 5:18, KJV)? The "jot" is the Hebrew letter yod, the smallest one in that alphabet. The"tittle" is the minor stroke that distinguishes certain Hebrew letters from others (like a dalet from a res). In a normal font of type it would not be more than 1/32 of an inch. In other words, the Lord was saying that every letter or every word is important, and the Old Testament would be fulfilled exactly as spelled out letter by letter and word by word.

The Lord also insisted on the importance of a present tense in Matt. 22:32. In order to reinforce the truth of resurrection, He reminded the Sadducees that God is the God of the living because He identified Himself to Moses by saying "I am" the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob though they had died hundreds of years before. If resurrection were not a fact He should have said, "I was" their God. The Lord also based a crucial argument concerning His own deity on the word Lord (Matt. 22:41–46) as quoted from Psalm 110:1. If He did not consider the words of Scripture to be inerrant, the argument would have been meaningless. On another occasion He vindicated Himself from the charge of blasphemy by focusing on a single word in Psalm 82:6 (John 10:34). Then He enforced His argument by reminding His accusers that the Scripture cannot be broken. Paul, too, insisted on the importance of a singular in contrast to a plural in his argument in Galatians 3:16. Such an argument would be invalid unless the difference between singulars and plurals can be trusted. All of these examples force us to admit that the Bible claims inerrancy for itself.

(5) No one who holds to inerrancy denies that the Bible uses ordinary figures of speech (like "corners of the earth," Rev. 7:1), but they are accurately used.

(6) Nor do we deny that authors sometimes researched their facts before writing (Luke 1:1–4). But the product, we believe, was kept from error by this superintending work of the Spirit.

(7) Neither do we deny that there are problems in the text that we presently have. But problems are quite different from errors. Indeed, in the face of the claims that the Bible apparently makes for itself about inspiration and inerrancy, it would seem more reasonable when confronted with problems to place one's faith in the Scriptures, which have been proved to be true again and again, than in any fallible human opinion. Man's knowledge of these problems is limited and has in some instances been proved to be wrong. Time will undoubtedly continue to bring to light facts that will help solve the yet unsolved problems in the Bible.

UNDERSTANDING THE BIBLE

by Charles C. Ryrie

A proper understanding of the Bible depends on two things: (1) the illuminating work of the Holy Spirit, and (2) the interpreting work of the reader.

Illumination

Although the word illumination has been applied to several aspects of doctrine (like the general enlightenment that the coming of Christ brought to all men, John 1:9, and the illumination theory of inspiration), it is generally thought of in connection with the ministry of the Holy Spirit that makes clear the truth of the written revelation in the Bible. In reference to the Bible, revelation relates to its content or material, inspiration to the method of recording that material, and illumination to the meaning of the record. The unsaved man cannot experience the illumination ministry of the Spirit since he is blinded to the truth of God (1 Cor. 2:14). This does not mean that he cannot learn anything of the facts of the Bible, but he considers what he knows as foolishness.

On the other hand, the Christian has been promised this illumination of the text (John 16:12–15; 1 Cor. 2:9–3:2). Taking these two passages together, several facts emerge:

(1) The most obvious is that the Spirit Himself is the teacher, and His presence in the life of the believer is the guarantee of the effectiveness of this ministry.

(2) The content of His teaching encompasses "all the truth" (the definite article is present in John 16:13). It specifically includes an understanding of prophecy ("things to come").

(3) The purpose of the Spirit's illumination is to glorify Christ, not Himself.

(4) Carnality in the believer can hinder and even nullify this ministry of the Spirit (1 Cor. 3:1–2).

Interpretation

Illumination, though assured, does not always guarantee automatic understanding. As indicated above, the believer must be in fellowship with the Lord in order to experience this ministry. But also he must study, using the teachers God has given to the church (Rom. 12:7) and the abilities and means at his own disposal.

The basic principle of interpretation is to interpret plainly. The word literal is avoided here because it creates connotations that have to be corrected. Plain, straightforward interpretation includes at least the following concepts:

(1) To interpret plainly one must first of all understand what each word means in its normal grammatical-historical sense.

(2) Plain interpretation does not exclude the use of figures of speech. Indeed, a figure of speech may communicate more clearly, but what it communicates is plain. In other words, behind every figure of speech is a plain meaning, and that is what the interpreter seeks.

(3) Always read with understanding the context in which a verse or passage appears, for this will throw light on its meaning. Beware, for instance, of the speaker who says, "Now you don't need to turn to this verse." He may be taking it out of its context and giving it another meaning. It is not only always safe but prudent to read what precedes and what follows.

(4) Recognize the progress of revelation. Remember that the Bible was not handed down all at once as a complete book but that it came from God through many different writers over a period of about 1,600 years. This meant that in the progress of revealing His message to man, God may add or even change in one era what He had given in another. The New Testament adds much that was not revealed in the Old. Furthermore, what God revealed as binding in one period may be rescinded in another (as the prohibition of eating pork, once binding on God's people, has been lifted today, 1 Tim. 4:3). This is most important; otherwise, the Bible would contain apparently unresolvable contradictions (as Matt. 10:5–7 compared with 28:18–20).

(5) Expect the Bible to use what is technically called phenomenal language. This simply means that it often describes things as they appear to be rather than in precise scientific terms. Speaking of the sun rising or setting (neither of which it does) is an example of this (Matt. 5:45; Mark 1:32), but this is a plain and normal way to communicate.

(6) Recognize the important divisions of the Bible when interpreting it. The most basic is the difference between the Old and New Testaments. But there are also different kinds of writings—historical, poetic, prophetic—that must be recognized as different if they are to be interpreted correctly. Other landmarks in the Bible that affect proper interpretation are things like the great covenant made with Abraham (Gen. 12:1–3) and the one with David (2 Sam. 7), the mystery of the church as the Body of Christ (Eph. 3:6), and the difference between law and grace (John 1:17; Rom. 6:14).

These suggestions are simply facets of the basic concept of plain interpretation. And that is the way God intended His inspired Bible to be understood.

HOW WE GOT OUR BIBLE

by Charles C. Ryrie

The question of which books belong in the Bible is called the question of the canon. The word canon means rule or measuring rod, and in relation to the Bible it refers to the collection of books that passed a test of authenticity and authority; it also means that those books are our rule of life. How was the collection made?

The Tests for Canonicity

First of all, it is important to remember that certain books were canonical even before any tests were put to them. That's like saying some students are intelligent before any tests are given to them. The tests only prove what is already intrinsically there. In the same way, neither the church nor councils made any book canonical or authentic; either the book was authentic or it was not when it was written. The church or its councils recognized and verified certain books as the Word of God, and in time those so recognized were collected together in what we now call the Bible.

What tests did the church apply?

(1) There was the test of the authority of the writer. In relation to the Old Testament, this meant the authority of the lawgiver or the prophet or the leader in Israel. In relation to the New Testament, a book had to be written or backed by an apostle in order to be recognized. In other words, it had to have an apostolic signature or apostolic authorization. Peter, for instance, was the backer of Mark, and Paul of Luke.

(2) The books themselves should give some internal evidences of their unique character, as inspired and authoritative. The content should commend itself to the reader as being different from an ordinary book in communicating the revelation of God.

(3) The verdict of the churches as to the canonical nature of the books was important. There was in reality surprising unanimity among the early churches as to which books belonged in the inspired number. Although it is true that a few books were temporarily doubted by a minority, no book whose authenticity was doubted by any large number of churches was later accepted.

The Formation of the Canon

The canon of Scripture was, of course, being formed as each book was written, and it was complete when the last book was finished. When we speak of the "formation" of the canon we actually mean the recognition of the canonical books by the church. This took time. Some assert that all the books of the Old Testament canon were collected and recognized by Ezra in the fifth century B.C. References by Josephus (A.D. 95) and in 2 Esdras 14 (A.D. 100) indicate the extent of the Old Testament canon as the thirty-nine books we know. The discussions by the teaching-house at Jamnia (A.D. 70–100) seemed to assume this existing canon. Our Lord delimited the extent of the canonical books of the Old Testament when He accused the scribes of being guilty of slaying all the prophets God had sent Israel, from Abel to Zechariah (Luke 11:51). The account of Abel's death is, of course, in Genesis; that of Zechariah is in 2 Chronicles 24:20–21, which is the last book in the order of the books in the Hebrew Bible (not Malachi as in our English Bibles). Therefore, it is as if the Lord had said, "Your guilt is recorded all through the Bible—from Genesis to Malachi." And He did not include any of the apocryphal books that were in existence at that time and which contained the accounts of other martyrs.

The first church council to list all twenty-seven books of the New Testament was the Council of Carthage in A.D. 397. Individual books of the New Testament were acknowledged as Scripture before this time (2 Pet. 3:16; 1 Tim. 5:17), and most were accepted in the era just after the apostles (Hebrews, James, 2 Peter, 2 and 3 John and Jude were debated for some time). The selection of the canon was a process that went on until each book proved its own worth by passing the tests of canonicity.

The twelve books of the Apocrypha were never accepted by the Jews or by our Lord on a par with the books of the Old Testament. They were revered but were not considered Scripture. The Septuagint (the Greek translation of the Old Testament done in the third century B.C.) included the Apocrypha with the Old Testament canonical books. Jerome (ca. A.D. 340–420) in translating the Vulgate distinguished the canonical books from the ecclesiastical books (the Apocrypha), which had the effect of according them a secondary status. The Council of Trent (1548) recognized them as canonical, though the Reformers rejected this decree. In our English Bibles the Apocrypha was set apart in the Coverdale, Geneva, and King James versions. The first English Bible to exclude it entirely as a matter of policy was an Amsterdam edition of the Geneva Bible published in 1640, and the first English Bible printed in America (the Aitken Bible, 1782) omitted it.

Is Our Present Text Reliable?

The original copies of the Old Testament were written on leather or papyrus from the time of Moses (ca. 1450 B.C.) to the time of Malachi (400 B.C.). Until the sensational discovery of the Dead Sea Scrolls in 1947 we did not possess copies of the Old Testament earlier than A.D. 895. The reason for this is simply that the Jews had an almost superstitious veneration for the text, which impelled them to bury copies that had become too old for use. Indeed, the Masoretes (traditionalists), who between A.D. 600 and 950 added accents and vowel points and in general standardized the Hebrew text, devised complicated safeguards for the making of copies. They checked each copy carefully by counting the middle letter of pages, books, and sections. Someone has said that everything countable was counted. When the Dead Sea Scrolls were discovered, they gave us a Hebrew text from the second to first century B.C. of all but one of the books (Esther) of the Old Testament. This was of the greatest importance, for it provided a much earlier check on the accuracy of the Masoretic text, which has now proved to be extremely accurate.

Other early checks on the Hebrew text include the Septuagint translation (middle of third century B.C.), the Aramaic Targums (paraphrases and quotes of the Old Testament), quotations in early Christian writers, and the Latin translation of Jerome (A.D. 400) that was made directly from the Hebrew text of his day. All of these give us the data for being assured of having an accurate text of the Old Testament.

More than 5,000 manuscripts of the New Testament exist today, which makes the New Testament the best-attested document of all ancient writings. The contrast is quite startling.

Not only are there so many copies of the New Testament in existence, but many of them are early. The approximately seventy-five papyri fragments date from A.D. 135 to the eighth century and cover parts of twenty-five of the twenty-seven books and about 40 percent of the text. The many hundreds of parchment copies include the great Codex Sinaiticus (fourth century), the Codex Vaticanus (also fourth century), and the Codex Alexandrinus (fifth century). In addition, there are 2,000 lectionaries (church service books containing many Scripture portions), more than 86,000 quotations of the

New Testament in the church Fathers, old Latin, Syriac and Egyptian translations dating from the third century, and Jerome's Latin translation. All of the data plus all of the scholarly work that has been done with it assures us that we possess today an accurate and reliable text of the New Testament.

THE MEANING AND BLESSINGS OF SALVATION

by Charles C. Ryrie

The doctrine of salvation is both simple and complex. On the one hand, most of us can quote at least a part of John 3:16 or of Paul's response to the Philippian jailor's question about how to be saved (Acts 16:31). On the other hand, who can explain how a holy God-man could become sin and die for the sake of sinful and rebellious men?

Salvation is extremely important to understand correctly. An anathema (curse) is placed on anyone (including angels or preachers) who presumes to teach a different gospel of salvation from what is taught in Scripture (Gal. 1:8). What then is true salvation? How is it provided? How is it gained? What are its benefits and blessings?

True salvation is that which is provided by God Himself through the sacrificial death of His Son Jesus Christ. There is no other way that a man can be saved from eternal condemnation and to eternal life (Acts 4:12).

Some Accomplishments of Christ's Death

It was a Substitution for Sin

There are many facets to the meaning of Christ's death, but the central one—without which the others have no eternal meaning—is substitution. This simply means that Christ died in the place of sinners. The use of the Greek preposition anti clearly teaches this because it means "in the place of." It is used, for instance, with this meaning in a passage that has nothing to do with the death of Christ (Luke 11:11). But more significantly, it is used in a passage that gives our Lord's own interpretation of the meaning of His death (Matt. 20:28; Mark 10:45). His death, He said, was to be a payment in the place of many.

However, another preposition, huper, is also used in the New Testament, and it has two meanings: sometimes it means "for the benefit of" and sometimes "in the place of." Of course, the death of Christ was both in our place and for our benefit, and there is no reason that huper when it is used in relation to His death does not include both ideas. (See, for instance, 2 Cor. 5:21 and 1 Pet. 3:18.)

It Provided Redemption from Sin

The doctrine of redemption is built on three words in the New Testament. The first is a simple word that means "to buy or purchase or pay a price for something." It is used, for instance, with this ordinary, everyday meaning in the parable of the treasure hid in a field that motivated the man to buy (redeem) the field (Matt. 13:44). In relation to our salvation, the word means "to pay the price that our sin demanded so that we could be redeemed."

The second word is the same basic word indicated above, prefixed with a preposition that has the force of intensifying the meaning. This can be easily expressed in English because the preposition means "out of," thus making the second word mean "to purchase out of the market." Thus the idea in this second word is that Christ's death not only paid the price for sin but also removed us from the marketplace of sin in order to give us full assurance that we will never be returned to the bondage and penalties of sin.

The third word for redemption is an entirely different one. Its basic meaning is "to loose" and thus it signifies that the purchased person is also released and set free in the fullest sense. The means of this release is through the substitution Christ made (see 1 Tim. 2:6 where the prepositional prefix to this third word is anti); the basis is the blood of Christ (Heb. 9:12); and the intended result is to purify a people zealous for good works (Titus 2:14). Thus, the doctrine of redemption means that, because of the shedding of the blood of Christ, believers have been purchased, removed from bondage, and liberated.

It Effected Reconciliation

To reconcile means "to change." Reconciliation by the death of Christ means that man's state of alienation from God is changed so that he is now able to be saved (2 Cor. 5:19). When a man believes, then his former state of alienation from God is changed into one of being a member of His family.

It Provides Propitiation

To propitiate means "to appease or to satisfy a god." This naturally brings to mind the question, Why does the deity need to be appeased? The biblical answer to that question is simply that the true God is angry with mankind because of their sin. The theme of the wrath of God appears throughout the Bible, including the teachings of Christ (Mark 3:29; 14:21). Wrath is not merely the impersonal and inevitable working out of the law of cause and effect, but it is a personal intervention of God in the affairs of mankind (Rom. 1:18; Eph. 5:6).

The death of Christ propitiated God, averting His wrath and enabling Him to receive into His family those who place their faith in the one who satisfied Him. The extent of the propitiatory work of Christ is the whole world (1 John 2:2), and the basis of propitiation is His shed blood (Rom. 3:25).

Because Christ has died, God is satisfied. Therefore, we should not ask anyone to try to do anything to satisfy Him. This would mean trying to appease someone who is already appeased, which is totally unnecessary. Before the cross a person could not be certain that God was satisfied with whatever he brought to Him. That is why the tax collector prayed (literally) "God be propitiated toward me a sinner" (Luke 18:13). Today such a prayer would be a waste of breath, for God is propitiated by the death of Christ. Therefore, our message to men today should not suggest in any way that they can please God by doing something, but only that they be satisfied with the sacrifice of Christ that completely satisfied the wrath of God.

It Judged the Sin Nature

The death of Christ had an important benefit for us in making inoperative the reigning power of our sin nature (Rom. 6:1–10). Though this is not an easy concept to understand, Paul says that our union with Christ by baptism involves sharing His death so that we are dead to sin. The baptism must be that of the Holy Spirit, for no water, in whatever amount, could accomplish what is said to have been accomplished in this passage. The idea of death, so prominent in this passage, does not mean either extinction or cessation, but, as always, separation.

The crucifixion of the Christian with Christ means separation from the domination of sin over his life. The question "Shall we continue in sin?" is answered by an emphatic no on the basis of our dying with Christ (Rom. 6:1). This "destroyed" the body of sin. That word "destroy" does not mean to annihilate, for if it did, then the sin nature would be eradicated, a fact that our experience scarcely confirms! It means to make the sin nature ineffective.

The believer is therefore now free to live a life pleasing to God. Although it is still possible to listen to and follow the prompting of sin, it will never be possible for sin to regain the domination and control it had before conversion.

It Brought the End of the Law

The fact that the death of Christ brought an end to the Mosaic law is quite clearly stated in the New Testament (Rom. 10:4; Col. 2:14). The importance of this fact is related to (1) justification and (2) sanctification, the former being much easier to see than the latter. The reason is simply that the law could not justify a sinner (Acts 13:39; Rom. 3.20); therefore, if men are to be justified, another way must be provided. The law can show man his need but it cannot provide the answer to that need (Gal. 3:23–25). Thus the death of Christ provided the way for justification by faith in Him alone.

But the relation of the end of the law to sanctification is more difficult to comprehend simply because portions of the Mosaic Law are repeated in the New Testament in relation to the believer's sanctification. Furthermore, those specifics that are repeated are not from just one section of the law (like the Ten Commandments). As a matter of fact, nine of the Ten Commandments are repeated, and other parts of the law are too (Rom. 13:9). This makes it impossible to say that the law is done away with except for the Ten Commandments.

Furthermore, 2 Corinthians 3:7–11 states quite clearly that the Ten Commandments (that which was "engraved on stones") were done away with. How do you put all these facts together? Is the Christian under the Mosaic Law in relation to sanctification or not?

The only realistic solution that has ever appealed to the present author is that which distinguishes a code and the commandments contained in that code. The Mosaic Law was one of several codes that God has given throughout history, and as a code it is finished. The code under which the believer lives today is called the law of Christ (Gal. 6:2) or the law of the Spirit of life (Rom. 8:2).

As one code ends and another is instituted, not all of the commands in the new one will themselves be new and different. The permission to eat meat in the law of Christ (1 Tim. 4:3) was also part of the code under which Noah lived after the Flood (Gen. 9:3). Likewise, some of the specifics that were part of the Mosaic code have been incorporated into the law of Christ and some have not. But the entire code, as a code, has been done away with.

It Is the Ground for the Believer's Cleansing from Sin

The blood (death) of Christ is the basis of our constant cleansing from sin (1 John 1:7). This does not mean that there is a recrucifixion or a dipping into blood with which to touch the erring Christian, but that the once-for-all death of our Lord provides constant cleansing when we sin as believers. Our family relationship is kept right by His death; our family fellowship is restored by our confession.

Some Benefits of Christ's Death

Among the almost innumerable blessings of salvation are many that are obvious to believers because they can be experienced—for example, prayer. But there are also many benefits that in themselves are not experienced (though their results are) and that are often not so well understood. And yet these are the vital bases for a normal Christian life.

Justification

That Christ's death makes us acceptable before God is expressed in such doctrines as redemption (Rom. 3:24), reconciliation (2 Cor. 5:19–21), forgiveness (Rom. 3:25), deliverance (Col. 1:13), acceptance in the Beloved (Eph. 1:6), assured future glorification (Rom. 8:30), and justification (Rom. 3:24).

To justify is to declare righteous. It is a judicial term indicating that a verdict of acquittal has been announced, excluding all possibility of condemnation. Indeed, in Scripture, justification is invariably set over against condemnation (Deut. 25:1; Rom. 5:16; 8:33–34). The claims of God's law against the sinner have been fully satisfied. Justification is not because of any overlooking, suspending, or altering of God's righteous demands, but because in Christ all of His demands have been fulfilled. Christ's perfect life of obedience to the law and His atoning death that paid its penalty are the bases for our justification (Rom. 5:9). Justification could never be based on our good works, for God requires perfect obedience, which is impossible for man.

The means of justification is faith (Rom. 3:22, 25, 28, 30). Faith is never the ground of justification; it is the means or channel through which God's grace can impute to the believing sinner the righteousness of Christ. When we believe, all that Christ is, God puts to our account; thus we stand acquitted. Then God can justly announce that acquittal, and that pronouncement is justification.

Adoption

Adoption is a particularly wonderful benefit of Christ's death for the believer. The doctrine is taught explicitly only by Paul. Every time you read "son" in relation to a believer (not of Christ) in John's writings, for instance, you should translate it "child," for John does not write of the sonship of the believer. Only Paul reveals that we are adopted as sons. It is true that we are children of God by the new birth, but it is also true that we are adopted into God's family at the same time. In the act of adoption a child is taken by a man from a family not his own, introduced into a new family, and regarded as a true son with all the privileges and responsibilities that belong to this new relationship. The imagery in the idea of a child of God is one of birth, growth, development into maturity; the idea in sonship is that of full-fledged privileges in the new family of God. Adoption bestows a new status on the one who receives Christ.

The results of adoption are deliverance from slavery, from guardians, and from the flesh (Gal. 4:1–5; Rom. 8:14–17), and it is the Holy Spirit who enables us to enjoy the privileges of our position.

Sanctification

The word sanctify means "to set apart" (it has the same root as the words saint and holy). For the Christian, sanctification has three aspects. First, the believer has been set apart by his position in the family of God. This is usually called positional sanctification. It means being set apart as a member of the household of God. It is true of every believer regardless of his spiritual condition, for this concerns his spiritual state. (Read 1 Cor. 6:11 and remember the carnal condition of those believers.) That this positional sanctification is based on the death of Christ is clear from Hebrews 10:10.

Of course, there is also the experiential aspect of sanctification. Because we have been set apart we are to be increasingly set apart in our daily lives (1 Pet. 1:16). In the positional sense no one is more sanctified than another, but in the experiential aspect it is quite correct to speak of one believer as being more sanctified than another. All the exhortations of the New Testament concerning spiritual growth are pertinent to this progressive and experiential facet of sanctification.

There is also a sense in which we will not be fully set apart to God until our position and practice are brought into perfect accord, and this will occur only when we see Christ and become as He is (1 John 3:1–3). This is our ultimate or future sanctification, which awaits our complete glorification with resurrection bodies (Eph. 5:26–27; Jude 24–25).

ARCHAEOLOGY AND THE BIBLE

by Howard F. Vos

Nature and Purpose of Biblical Archaeology

The word archaeology comes from two Greek words, archaios and logos, which mean literally "a study of ancient things." But the term now usually applies to a study of excavated materials belonging to a former era. Bible archaeology may be defined as an examination of ancient things that have been lost and found again, as those recovered objects relate to the study of Scripture and the portrayal of life in Bible times.

Archaeology is basically a science. Knowledge in the field is acquired by systematic observation or study, and facts discovered are evaluated and classified into an organized body of information. Archaeology is a composite science because it seeks assistance from many other sciences, such as chemistry, anthropology, and zoology.

Of course, some subjects of archaeological investigation (such as obelisks and temples of Egypt and the Parthenon at Athens) have never been "lost" at all, but perhaps some knowledge of their original form and purpose and the meaning of inscriptions on them have been lost.

Functions of Biblical Archaeology

Archaeology helps us understand the Bible. It reveals what life was like in biblical times, what obscure passages of Scripture really mean, and how the historical narratives and contexts of the Bible are to be understood.

Archaeology also helps confirm the accuracy of biblical texts and contents. It has shown the falsity of some theories of biblical interpretation. It has helped to establish the accuracy of the Greek and Hebrew originals and to show that the biblical text has been transmitted with a remarkable degree of accuracy. And it has confirmed the accuracy of many passages of Scripture, e.g., statements concerning numerous kings and the whole patriarchal narrative.

One should not be dogmatic in his statements concerning confirmation, however. Archaeology has also created numerous problems for the Bible student. For instance, recovered Babylonian and Sumerian accounts of the creation and the Flood, having striking parallels to the Old Testament, puzzle the Bible scholar. There is also the problem of interpreting the relationship between the Ras Shamra texts and the Mosaic code and the known facts of Hittite and Philistine history to the story of Abraham. But one can confidently believe that answers to the problems will be forthcoming. To date there has not been an instance of archaeology conclusively demonstrating the Bible to be in error!

Why Ancient Cities and Civilizations Disappeared

We know that many ancient civilizations and cities disappeared because of the direct judgment of God. Scripture is full of such indications. But some natural explanations should also be briefly noted.

Cities were usually built on easily defensible sites possessing a good water supply and located near important trade routes. Such sites were at a premium in the ancient Near East. So if some catastrophe brought about the destruction of a town, the tendency was to rebuild on the same location. A town might be largely destroyed by earthquake or invasion. Famine or pestilence might depopulate a city or territory. In the latter instance, the inhabitants might conclude that the gods had leveled a curse on them and they might fear to return. Uninhabited sites would quickly fall into ruins. And when former inhabitants returned or when new settlers came into the area, they usually simply smoothed out the rubble and built a new city. Thus mounds, or tells, rose up with many superimposed layers of habitation. Sometimes the water supply dried up, rivers changed their courses, trade arteries were rerouted or political fortunes changed—resulting in permanent abandonment of a site.

Excavating a Mound

The biblical archaeologist may undertake excavation of a mound for many reasons. If the mound he is studying is known to cover a biblical site, he probably seeks to uncover the layer or layers of occupation having relevance for the biblical narrative. He may be looking for a city that is known to have existed but has not yet been identified. Perhaps he seeks to resolve doubts concerning proposed identification of a site. Possibly he is searching for information concerning Bible characters or events that will help illuminate the Scripture narrative.

Once the excavator has chosen a site to dig and has made proper arrangements (including permits, finances, equipment, and staff), he is ready to begin operations. A careful surface exploration is usually carried out first to learn all that is possible from pottery or other artifacts on the surface, to discover whether a configuration of ground houses the remains of a building, or to figure out something of the history of the mound. Then a contour map of the mound is drawn and a sector or sectors chosen where digging is to be carried on during a season of excavation. These sectors are then usually subdivided into ten meter squares to facilitate labeling of finds.

Archaeology and the Text of the Bible

While most people think of huge monuments and museum pieces and exploits of kings when biblical archaeology is referred to, they have become increasingly aware that inscriptions and manuscripts also have an important contribution to make to biblical study. Although most archaeological work used to center on biblical history, today it is increasingly concerned with the text of the Bible.

Intensive study of the more than 2,700 New Testament Greek manuscripts dating from the second century A.D. and following has shown that the New Testament text has been remarkably preserved in transmission from that time to the present. Not one doctrine has been perverted. Westcott and Hort concluded that only about one word in a thousand of the Greek original has serious question upon it.

It is one thing to demonstrate that the New Testament text has been remarkably preserved from the second century to the present; it is quite another to show that the Gospels, for instance, did not gradually evolve into their present form during the early centuries of the Christian era or that Christ was not gradually deified by Christian legend. At the turn of the twentieth century a new science was born that would help to show that neither the Gospels nor the Christian view of Christ evolved into their present form. B. P. Grenfell and A. S. Hunt excavated in the Fayum district of Egypt (1896–1906), finding large quantities of papyri and launching the science of papyrology.

The papyri, written on a kind of paper made from the papyrus reed of Egypt, include a wide variety of topics presented in several languages. The number of fragmentary papyrus manuscripts containing portions of the New Testament now stands at seventy-seven. These fragments help to confirm the general text found in the longer vellum manuscripts dating to the fourth and following centuries, and to bridge more of the gap between the later manuscripts and the originals.

The impact of papyrology upon biblical study has been phenomenal. Many of the papyri date to the first three centuries after Christ. Thus it is possible to establish the development in the grammar of that period, and on the basis of the argument from historical grammar, to date the composition of New Testament books to the first century A.D. In fact, one fragment of the gospel of John found in Egypt can be dated on the basis of paleography to about A.D. 125. Allowing time for the book to get into circulation, a date toward the end of the first century must be assigned to the fourth gospel—and that is what Christian tradition has always assigned to it. No one doubts that the other three gospels date to a period somewhat earlier than John. If the New Testament books were written during the first century, they were written close to the events they record and there was no time for an evolutionary development to occur.

But the contributions of the mass of papyri of all types do not stop here. They have shown that New Testament Greek is not some form of language invented by New Testament writers, as formerly thought. Instead it was generally the language of the people of the first centuries of the Christian era. Fewer than fifty words in the New Testament were coined by the apostles. Moreover, the papyri have shown that New Testament grammar was good grammar, judged by first century standards rather than those of the classical period. Furthermore, the nonbiblical Greek papyri have helped to clear up the meaning of uncertainly understood New Testament words and to throw new light on others fairly well understood.

The story of Old Testament textual criticism can hardly be told here. Suffice it to say that Old Testament manuscripts are not as close to their originals in time as those of the New Testament, but they were copied with even greater care and have fewer variations.

Until recently, the oldest known Hebrew manuscript of any length did not date earlier than the first part of the tenth century after Christ, and the oldest complete Hebrew Bible dates about a century later. Then, in the spring of 1948, the religious and academic worlds were rocked with the announcement that an ancient Isaiah manuscript had been found in a cave near the NW corner of the Dead Sea. Since that time a total of eleven caves in that area have disgorged their treasures of scrolls and fragments. Tens of thousands of leather fragments and some of papyrus have been recovered. While most of the materials are nonbiblical, fragments representing more than a hundred manuscripts contain Scripture portions. So far, all Old Testament books except Esther are represented in the finds. As might be expected, fragments of Old Testament books quoted most in the New Testament (Deuteronomy, Isaiah, Psalms) are most numerous there also. The longest and most nearly intact biblical scrolls include two of Isaiah, one of Psalms, and one of Leviticus.

The significance of the Dead Sea Scrolls is tremendous. They have pushed the history of the Old Testament text back one thousand years (after much controversy the date has been assigned to the first centuries B.C. and A.D.). They have provided an abundance of critical material for research on the Old Testament comparable to what has been available to New Testament scholars for many years. Third, the Dead Sea Scrolls have provided a more adequate context for the New Testament, demonstrating, for instance, the essential Jewish background of the gospel of John—rather than a Greek background as scholars have frequently asserted. Fourth, they help to establish the accuracy of the Old Testament text. The Septuagint (Greek Old Testament) has been shown by studies in the scrolls to be more accurate than often thought. Fifth, the scrolls provide new material to help establish the meaning of Hebrew words.

A BRIEF SURVEY OF CHURCH HISTORY

by Earl E. Cairns, Ph.D.

DEFINITION, MEANING AND VALUES

1. Church history may be defined as the organized interpreted record of the origin, development, and impact upon man of Christianity. 2. Church historians may be optimistic interpreters, such as Latourette, who believe the church triumphs in history by an evolutionary process, or pessimistic-optimists, such as Augustine, who despair of man but look for Christ's supernatural intervention in history by His Second Advent. 3. Church history provides a synthesis of the past, an explanation of the present, a guide to correct conduct, and inspirational motive to good, practical illustrations for the preacher, and it is a liberalizing study.

PART I. EARLY CHURCH HISTORY TO 590

I. EARLY DEVELOPMENT TO 150

A. PREPARATION. 1. Roman law and citizenship unified man. Roman peace and roads aided spread of the gospel. 2. Greeks provided a common language for preaching and writing the New Testament. 3. Jews provided monotheism, ethics, Old Testament and the hope of a Messiah (Gal. 4:4).

B. FOUNDATION. 1. Christ, a historic person (Tacitus, Pliny, Lucian, Josephus). 2. His ministry and death were a part of His message of the kingdom. 3. Christ gave the church two sacraments, a message, basic discipline, and the Holy Spirit, but left the formulation of organization and theology to the apostles.

C. THE SPREAD OF THE GOSPEL. 1. Among Jews (a) Church founded in Jerusalem by Holy Spirit with rapid growth under apostolic leadership (Acts 2:41; 4:4; 5:14; 6:7). (b) Persecution, which came from political (Herod) and ecclesiastical (Sanhedrin) authorities, provided the first martyr (Stephen). (c) Social revolution was demonstrated by voluntary, temporary communalism, equality of sex and class, and relief of the Christian poor. (d) Apostolic preaching proclaimed the crucified risen Christ as the predicted Messiah and Savior (Acts 17:2–3; 1 Cor. 15:3–4). 2. Among Gentiles by Paul (Acts 13–28). (a) Paul, with a universal gospel for a universal empire, preached in strategic cities and organized churches. (b) He wrote letters to meet special crises (e.g. Galatians vs. legalism). (c) He formulated the first systematic theology (Romans). (d) Paul at the Jerusalem Council maintained the principles that the gospel is universal and is to be received by faith only.

D. THE APOSTOLIC FATHERS (96–150) were linked with apostolic tradition. They loved the Old Testament and by stress on typology and prophecy fulfilled in Christ sought edification of the church. 1. Epistles: Clement of Rome wrote to Corinth to promote unity against schism by obedience to church offices. He mentioned Paul's trip to Spain (5:5–7). Ignatius wrote letters to the churches of Asia opposing docetism, which denied Christ's real humanity, and urging obedience to the ruling bishops, the elders, and the deacons (first mention of a threefold order). The so-called Epistle of Barnabas by type and allegory presented Christ's death, which made the Mosaic Law unnecessary for salvation. The Second Epistle of Clement to the Corinthians illustrates the form and content of second-century preaching. 2. Apocalyptic literature, such as the Shepherd of Hermes, stressed repentance and holy living by vision, commandment, and parable. 3. Catechetical literature, such as the Didache. was used to instruct catechumens concerning ethics, liturgy, and safeguards against false leaders.

II. CONFLICT WITH THE EMPIRE AND HERESY, 150–313

A. EXTERNAL PERSECUTION. 1. The church faced persecution by Jews, intellectuals, and the Roman state. The basic political cause was the Roman fear of exclusive Christianity threatening the religiously syncretistic state. 2. Persecution (a) before 250 was local and sporadic by Jews, Nero, Domitian, Tragan (Ignatius martyred) and Marcus Aurelius (Justin Martyr slain). (b) After 250 there were periods of violent and general persecution under Decius and Dioletian, who in 303 banned meetings, ownership of the Scriptures, and imprisoned church leaders. Freedom of religion came with Constantine's Edict of Milan in 313. 3. Persecution (a) purified the church as it spread among Jews, Greeks, and Latins; (b) forced it to think about the canon of Scripture; (c) and created the problem of the treatment of those who denied the faith and later reaffirmed it.

B. INTERNAL HERESY. 1. Gnosticism at its peak (about 150) equated evil with the Demiurge (Jehovah) and the flesh, but good with the good God. This God by emanation created a hierarchy of beings. The problem of evil flesh and good spirit in Christ was solved by considering His physical body as a phantom, or stating that Christ was in Jesus between His baptism and crucifixion. Marcion, often classified as a Gnostic, set up his own New Testament canon. Gnosticism forced the church to think about the need for a canon and creed and the importance of the bishop as the center of unity. 2. Neoplatonism, a mystical form of Platonic philosophy, developed in Alexandria by Ammonius Saccas, was put in written form in the Enneads by Plotinus. Julian (361–363) tried to make it the imperial state religion. 3. Montanism, developed by Montanus to combat formalism and organization in the church, stressed direct and continued revelation by the Holy Spirit and the immediacy of Christ's return. 4. Adoptionist Monarchians, such as Paul of Samosata, anxious to defend the unity of God, held that Christ was a good man so penetrated by the Holy Spirit that He became a divine Savior. Modal Monarchians, such as Sabelius, believed in a trinity of manifestation instead of essence. Summary: heresy stimulated the rise of canon, creed, and powerful bishops.

C. APOLOGISTS AND POLEMICISTS. 1. Apologist refuted false charges against Christianity and by showing the superiority of Christianity to Judaism and paganism hoped the emperors would grant it legal status. (a) Justin Martyr in his First Apology asserted the fulfillment of prophecy in Christ and superior Christian morality as reasons why Christianity should be legalized. In his Dialogue with Trypho he attempted to convince Jews of Christ's Messiahship. 2. The polemicists fought heresy by argumentative writings and used the New Testament as a source for doctrine. (a) Irenaeus in Against heresies used historical, philosophical, and scriptural argument against the Gnostics to uphold the deity of Christ and the physical resurrection of the body. (b) Origen developed allegorism, a reading into the text of ideas alien to the writer, began textural criticism in his Hexapla, and wrote the first systematic theology, De Principiis. (c) Tertullian first used the term Trinity and formulated that doctrine in Against Praxeas. (d) Cyprian upheld the idea of apostolic succession and the primacy of Peter's successors.

D. ORGANIZATION, CANON, AND LITURGY. 1. The monarch-bishop (of Ignatius's day) became in Rome the first among equals because of the need of leadership against heresy and in eras of persecution. 2. In this era the Apostles' Creed appeared as a test of orthodoxy and a summary of the faith. 3. The New Testament canon was nearly completed by 180. 4. Cycles of feasts, such as Easter and Christmas, appear by the end of the period.

III. VICTORIES OF THE OLD CATHOLIC IMPERIAL CHURCH, 313–590

A. CHRISTIAN CONQUEST OF THE EMPIRE. 1. Constantine granted freedom of religion in 313, later favored Christianity by subsidies, exemption of clergy from civil obligations, and adoption of Sunday as a day of rest. He unconsciously provided for the preservation in the Dark Ages of Greco-Roman culture by making Constantinople his new capital 330. 2. Theodosius's edict of 380 made Christianity the exclusive religion of the state.

B. THE CONVERSION OF THE BARBARIANS. 1. The barbarian invasions gave the church a new missionary task. Ulfilas won the Goths to Arian Christianity. 2. The Franks, whose leader Clovis became a Christian, later became supporters of the papacy. 3. Roman Christians won the Celtic Britons to Christianity. 4. Patrick won Ireland in the fifth century. 5. From Ireland Columba later carried the gospel to Scotland.

C. CREEDAL CONTROVERSY, 325–45 1. The Arian controversy led to definition of the relationships of the persons in the Trinity. Arius believed that Christ was a created being of a different essence from God, but Athanasius taught that He was of the same essence and existed from all eternity. At the Council of Nicaea in 325, sponsored by Constantine, Athanasius's ideas won and at the Council of Constantinople in 381 the present Nicene Creed, probably developed by Cyril of Jerusalem, was adopted. 2. Definition of the relationship of Christ's human and divine natures grew out of disputes over Apollinaris's teaching that Christ's human spirit was replaced by the Logos, and over Eutyches's teaching of the fusion of natures in one divine nature. Nestorius's separation of the two natures overemphasized the humanity of Christ and presented a defective person. The Tome of Leo I and the statement of the Council of Chalcedon (451) expressed the orthodox view of the two natures united in one Person by the Incarnation. 3. Pelagius's view in salvation was opposed by Augustine's concept of total depravity and the necessity of grace for salvation. Summary: this era gave creeds and united the church at the cost of imperial interference.

D. POST-NICENE CHURCH FATHERS. 1. Eastern Fathers. (a) Chrysostom was an outstanding expositor and preacher. (b) Theodore of Mopsuestia was an able exegete, who used grammar and history in biblical interpretation in seeking a literal rather than allegorical meaning. (c) Eusebius, the father of church history, wrote the story of the church to his day. 2. Able fathers of the West were Jerome, who made the Latin translation of the Bible, the Vulgate, which became the official Roman Catholic Bible at the Council of Trent; and Augustine whose outstanding philosophy of history, The City of God, had wide influence. Augustine also opposed Pelagius's heresy and introduced the principle of analogy of faith (the whole teaching of Scripture on a given doctrine).

E. MONASTICISM. 1. In the East, Anthony founded solitary monasticism and Pachomius developed communal monasticism to which Basil gave a rule. Athanasius and Jerome introduced it to the West, and Benedict of Nursia provided a rule and organization for the Benedictines. 2. Monks developed better agriculture, preserved literature (Cassiodorus), became missionaries (Columba, Aidan), and provided inns and hospitals.

F. CENTRALIZATION OF POWER AND ELABORATION OF RITUAL. 1. Because of location in world capital, reputation for orthodoxy, the Petrine theory of Matthew 16:16–18, the decline of rival bishops, the winning of peoples, such as the British by Augustine, and able men, such as Leo I, the Roman bishop was recognized as first of all bishops. 2. The secularization of the church through imperial patronage and the influx of barbarians led to elaboration of church festivals, increase in the number of sacraments, the rise of the idea of the Mass as a sacrifice, and the veneration of Mary and the saints. 3. State aid brought the building of churches modeled on the Roman basilica.

PART II. MEDIEVAL CHURCH HISTORY, 590–1517

Medieval church history deals with the fate of the parts of the Roman Empire after its fall. In the eastern or Asiatic section, the church continued under imperial control; the southern or African section came under the Moslems; and in the western European section the dual institutions of the Holy Roman Empire and the Roman Catholic Church competed for control after the kingdoms of the germanic invaders merged under Charlemagne and later Otto.

I. LATIN-TEUTONIC CHRISTIANITY, 590–1054

A. GREGORY I. This influential bishop of Rome (590–604), though refusing the papal title, exercised its power against rivals, won the British to Roman Christianity, wrote allegorical commentaries, and was the foremost medieval popular theologian. He emphasized the concept of purgatory and the sacrificial nature of the Mass.

B. LOSSES AND GAINS. 1. Islam took North Africa and Spain from the church and expanded to Constantinople until checked by Leo III in 717. Charles Martel stopped their advance in the west in 732. Islam influenced the Western church by transmitting Aristotle's philosophy to the scholastics through Arabic translations and by provoking the Crusades, a European Christian migration to recapture the Holy Land from the Moslems. 2. Barbarian Germanic invaders of western Europe were converted by professional missionaries, the monks. Celtic Christianity, founded in northern Britain by Aidan, competed with southern Roman Catholicism, planted by Augustine in 597, until the Roman Catholic form won at the Synod of Whitby in 663. Bede's Ecclesiastical History recounts the story. Boniface won the Germans, and the Arian heretics in Spain became orthodox in 589.

C. REVIVAL OF EMPIRE IN THE WEST. 1. The Carolingian rulers took the Frankish state from Clovis's descendants. (a) Charles Martel stopped Mohammedan expansion at Tours in 732. (b) Pepin III laid the foundations of papal temporal sovereignty by the grant of land in Italy, known as the Donation of Pepin, to the pope in 756. (c) Charlemagne built up a European empire and was crowned "Emperor of the Romans" by the pope in 800, thus uniting Franks and Germans. He promoted culture, our cursive writing, and the palace school, a forerunner of the university. 2. Otto, a German ruler, created an empire centering in Germany, which lasted after his coronation in 963 as the Holy Roman Empire until 1806.

D. RELIGIOUS ZEAL IN THE WEST. 1. The eighth-century Donation of Constantine supported papal control of land in Italy, and the midnineth-century Pseudo-Isidorian Decretals buttressed the power of the pope over churchmen. 2. Ansgar's work helped eventually to bring Scandinavia under papal control. 3. Radbertus's teaching of the idea of transubstantiation made the Mass the major means of grace. 4. The centralized Cluniac Congregations of monks after 931 supported reform and religious independence from lay control. 5. Able popes, such as Nicholas I, upheld and enforced standards of morality upon powerful rulers and church leaders.

E. RISE OF THE ORTHODOX CHURCH. 1. John of Damascus (eighth century) systematized conciliar theology (325–451) in his Fountain of Knowledge. 2. Separation of the Eastern and Western churches resulted from disputes over the date of Easter, conflict after 726 over images in the churches, which the Orthodox Church rejected, and over the use of unleavened bread in the Mass. This last dispute was the occasion for the Schism of 1054, which created the Orthodox Church. 3. The Orthodox Church won the Russians under Vladimir in 989 and the Moravians through the missionary work of Methodius and Cyril.

II. PAPAL VICTORIES, 1054–1305

A. PEAK OF PAPAL POWER. The Lateran Council of 1059 permitted the College of Cardinals to elect the pope. 1. Gregory VII (Hildebrand), in keeping with the spirit of the Dictatus Papae, which upheld papal supremacy, put down simony, clerical marriage, and humiliated Henry IV, the Holy Roman emperor, at Canossa in 1076 in a dispute over investiture. This was finally ended in a compromise at Worms in 1122. 2. Innocent III (1198–1216) (a) humbled Philip Augustus of France in a dispute over divorce and John of England in a clash over the appointment of the Archbishop of Canterbury and brought the Holy Roman emperor under his control. (b) He sponsored the Fourth Crusade, which captured Constantinople and set up a Latin kingdom (1204–1261), and a Crusade against the Albigensians. (c) He had the Fourth Lateran Council (1215) assert transubstantiation and annual confession.

B. CRUSADES AND REFORMS. 1. Crusades were directed against the Moors in Spain, the Albigenses of France, and the Moslems in Palestine. (a) Crusaders mainly went to Palestine for religious reasons, to accomplish the Christian reconquest of Palestine, and to accomplish the Christian reconquest of Palestine, and to aid the Eastern Empire against Moslem pressure. (b) The First Crusade had two parts: the lay crusade, a failure; and the crusade of feudal lords, who set up the Latin kingdom of Jerusalem (1099–1187). The Fourth Crusade created the Latin kingdom of Constantinople (1204–1261), thus deepening the animosity between the Eastern and Western churches. (c) The Crusades failed to hold Palestine permanently, strengthened the power of national rulers, weakened the eastern Empire, and acquainted the West with Greco-Moslem learning and culture. 2. Monastic reform came through the monks of the new Cistercian order, led by the godly Bernard of Clairvaux—mystic, hymn-writer (e.g., "Jesus the Very Thought of Thee"), and theologian; through the military orders (Knights Templars and Knights Hospitallers); through the mendicants or friars of the missionary-minded Franciscan order (of Francis of Assissi); and the educator-mendicants of the Dominican order, such as Thomas Aquinas and Savonarola. 3. Lay movements arose: some with a philosophical basis, such as the Waldensian Movement of Peter Waldo in Italy. 4. The church used crusades, a ban on the use of the Bible, and the Inquisition against the latter two.

C. MEDIEVAL CULTURE. 1. Scholasticism. (a) An attempt to reconcile the natural philosophy of Aristotle and biblical revelation, it used Aristotle's logic and philosophy to synthesize the canon, creeds, and writings of the church Fathers. (b) The realists, such as Anselm, who wrote Cur Deus Homo on the atonement and the Monologium, a deductive argument for the existence of God, believed that Ideas existed before created things. Faith precedes reason. Moderate realists, such as Aquinas in his Summa Theologiae, believed that one used reason to the point where faith must take over to reveal such ideas as the Incarnation and Trinity. Aquinas's theology is the official position of the Roman Catholic Church. The nominalists, such as William of Occam, denied the objective existence of Ideas, except as class names for things, and separated faith and reason. (c) Realists and moderate realists put the corporate organization and hierarchy of the church above the individual. Nominalism, leaving theological authority to the church, so emphasized human learning and activity by the individual that it stimulated science and mysticism. 2. Universities rose in this era (a) around great teachers, such as Abelard in Paris; (b) as cathedral schools, such as that of Notre Dame; and (c) from student migrations, such as from Paris to Oxford.

D. MEDIEVAL WORSHIP. Centered in the Gothic cathedral with its cruciform floor plan, flying buttresses, pointed arches, rose window and triple facade. Notre Dame, Rheims, Milan, and Salisbury cathedrals well illustrate these tendencies. The cathedral was used for worship, biblical education (carvings, stained-glass window), and for social activity.

III. ATTEMPTS TO REFORM THE CHURCH, 1305–1517

A. INTERNAL REFORMERS. 1. The immorality of many clergymen, feudalism that secularized the church by creating a dual allegiance, heavy papal taxes and fees, the rise of nation-states whose rulers were opposed to the interference of a universal church in national affairs, the Babylonian Captivity during which popes resided at Avignon instead of Rome from 1309 and 1377, and the Great Schism between 1378 and 1417 (when there were rival popes at Avignon and Rome), presented conditions necessitating reform. 2. Internal reform was attempted by (a) the mystics who sought direct communion with God. One of the Friends of God wrote the Theologia Germanica, which helped Luther. From the Brethren of the Common Life came the Imitation of Christ. (b) John Wycliffe of England changed from reform of the clergy to attacks on papal authority and the Mass after 1378. He began an English translation of the Bible, founded the Lollards, and influenced Hus of Bohemia, whose ideas resulted in the founding of the United Brethren. (c) Between 1409 and 1449 reforming councils, representative of the church as suggested by Marsilius in Defensor pacis, sought at Pisa to end the Great Schism, put down heresy, and reform the church. The Council at Constance selected a new pope to replace the three claimants, burned Hus, and asserted its authority above the pope. The papacy finally defeated this attempt to give the church a constitutional instead of an absolute monarchy. (d) The Renaissance in Teutonic lands stressed biblical sources. But in Italy Leo X under classical influence rebuilt St. Peter's in Rome, and Nicholas V began the Vatican Library. Reuchlin's Hebrew grammar and dictionary and Erasmus's Greek New Testament (1516) enabled scholars to compare the medieval and early churches to the disadvantage of the former, and Erasmus's critical works, such as In Praise of Folly, demanded reform.

B. EXTERNAL DEMANDS FOR REFORM. Rulers of nation-states, such as France and England, considered church taxation and courts and land ownership by a universal church as infringements on national sovereignty. They cooperated with reform movements.

C. THE ORTHODOX CHURCH. In Russia it became more independent of Constantinople by the removal of its head from Kiev to Moscow in 1325 and became a national church in 1589.

PART III. MODERN CHURCH HISTORY 1517 TO PRESENT

I. PROTESTANT AND ROMAN CATHOLIC REFORMATION, 1517–1648

A. CAUSES. The Reformation was not a revolt in polity from the universal church but a reformation in doctrine based on biblical patterns. The direct cause was Luther's protest in his 95 Theses (October 31, 1517) against the abuse of indulgences as practiced by Tetzel under the sponsorships of Albert and Leo X.

B. THE LUTHERAN REFORMATION. 1. Nominalist teaching of William of Occam, who denied to reason any real role in theology, the spiritual guidance of Staupitz, a visit to Rome, the Theologia Germanica, and studies of his Bible as professor at the University of Wittenberg were indirect influences in Luther's conversion and break with Rome. 2. After conferences failed to heal the breach, Luther attacked the Mass, the hierarchy, and theology of Rome in his three pamphlets of 1520. This brought about his excommunication and in 1521 at the Diet of the Holy Roman Empire at Worms the declaration that he was an outlaw. While in hiding at Wartburg he translated the New Testament into German. 3. The creed of the emerging Lutheran Church, the Augsburg Confession of Melanchthon, appeared in 1530. In 1535 Lutheran ordination to the ministry began. 4. War between Protestant and Roman Catholic princes was settled by toleration of Lutheranism in the Peace of Augsburg, 1555. 5. Disputes in Lutheranism led to the definitive Formula of Concord and the Book of Concord. 6. Luther's theology, hymns, such as "A Mighty Fortress," stress on education to read the Bible and to prepare for leadership in church and state, and the Bible in the vernacular were carried to Denmark by Hans Tausen, and to Norway, Iceland, Finland, and Sweden by Olavus Petri, with the help of the ruler, who liberated Sweden from Denmark.

C. THE REFORMED FAITH. 1. Reformation in Switzerland with its democratic and humanistic tradition came in Zurich and Berne in the north through Zwingli's debates with Roman Catholics and formal decrees by the city councils. Farel and Calvin in the south brought Reformed ideas to Geneva after Calvin published his Institutes of the Christian Religion (1536), which emphasized the sovereignty of God. His Ecclesiastical Ordinances (1541) created a church that influenced state action and administered moral discipline on all citizens. 2. The Huguenots, who created a Reformed church in France in 1559, were the target of the horrible massacre of St. Bartholomew's day and became embroiled in a series of religious wars. The Edict of Nantes in 1598 gave them toleration until 1685, when its revocation forced them to emigrate. 3. John Knox between 1560 and 1567, with the aid of Scottish nobles and middle class merchants, defeated Mary Stuart's attempt to keep Scotland in the Roman fold and created a church that was Calvinistic in theology and Presbyterian in polity. 4. The fight to establish the Reformed faith in Holland was linked with the bloody fight to gain independence from Spain. The former was achieved by 1571 and the latter by 1581. William of Orange was the great leader. Jacobus Arminius, who opposed Calvinism as making God the author of sin and man an automaton, believed that election was based on foreknowledge, the atonement was unlimited, and grace resistible. The Synod of Dort decided against the Arminian position but Arminianism lives on in Methodism and other groups. 5. Reformed theology was brought to Northern Ireland by James I, who planted Scottish Presbyterians in Northern Ireland after 1603. This partly explains the present division of Ireland. 6. Calvinism also spread to Hungary, Bohemia, and the German Palatinate.

D. THE ANABAPTISTS. 1. Anabaptists emerged in Zurich in 1521 when Conrad Grebel and others opposed infant baptism into a state church and favored adult baptism into a church of believers. 2. Persecution in Zurich spread the movement throughout the Holy Roman Empire, although the millennarian, communal polygamous acts of John of Leyden in Münster in 1535 gave it a bad name. 3. Menno Simons in Holland organized the refugees into a church that held to the ideas of a pure church, adult believers' baptism, the Bible as authority, and the separation of church and state.

E. ANGLICANISM, PURITANISM, AND JANSENISM. 1. Henry VIII created a national Catholic church by the Act of Supremacy because the pope would not grant him a divorce from Catherine to marry Anne Boleyn, who, he hoped, would give him a male heir. The English clergy under Thomas Cranmer gave him the divorce. Henry supported Roman Catholic doctrine in the Six Articles but despoiled the monasteries and gave the people a vernacular Bible based on Tyndale's and Coverdale's work. A Protestant church developed its creed (42 Articles) and the prayer book. Mary sought to reestablish the Roman Catholic religion, but her marriage to Philip of Spain and martyrdom at the stake of nearly 300 people helped to make England Protestant. Elizabeth created the Anglican system by the adoption of 39 Articles and the Book of Common Prayer. The papal threat was ended by the defeat of the Spanish Armada in 1588. 2. Puritans opposed Elizabeth's settlement as too "Romish" and wanted Calvinistic theology, a presbyterian (Thomas Cartwright) or congregational (Henry Jacob) state church, simpler liturgy and clerical garments, and strict keeping of Sunday. Separatists, following Robert Browne, wanted each church to be one of believers united to Christ and to each other by a covenant. John Robinson's Scrooby Congregation, which settled in Plymouth, held this opinion. General Baptists, influenced by Mennonites in Holland, held to affusion and Arminianism, but the Particular Baptists, who separated from Jacob's church in 1633, adopted Calvinism and immersion. These Putitan forces cooperated against James I, who approved the translation of the King James Version. Nearly 20,000 went to New England between 1629 and 1640. The rest, under Cromwell, as the result of a royal attempt to force the Book of Common Prayer on Scotland, engaged in civil war with Charles I and executed him in 1649. The Westminister Assembly gave to Presbyterianism its Confession, catechisms, form of government, Book of Discipline and Book of Worship. The restoration of Charles II in 1660 ended the Puritan movement but not its influence.

F. THE COUNTER REFORMATION. 1. The Oratory of Divine Love, a group of Roman Catholic leaders, sought to deepen spiritual life and bring reform. 2. Religious orders, such as the Theatines, which bound secular priests by the threefold monastic vow, served the people. 3. Popes, such as Paul III, approved the Jesuit order, the Inquisition, and the Index of Prohibited Books. 4. The rulers of the Holy Roman Empire and Spain, especially Philip II, supported the church with armed force. 5. The Inquisition, modeled upon the Spanish pattern, was used against heretics. 6. The Index was a list of books Roman Catholics could not read. 7. The Jesuit order founded by Ignatius Loyola, was absolutely obedient to the Pope and helped to reconquer Poland. 8. The Council of Trent (1545–63) adopted Thomistic theology as that of the church and the Vulgate of Jerome as its authorized Bible.

G. THE THIRTY YEARS WAR. 1. It was caused by the exclusion of Calvinists from toleration in the Empire. Jesuit interference in politics, and the rise of rival leagues of princes. A dispute in Prague was the occasion for war. 2. The Bohemian and Danish phases were victories for Rome; the Swedish phase freed northern Germany from Rome; and the final French phase led to peace. 3. The Treaty of Westphalia (1648) recognized Calvinism.

H. RESULTS OF THE REFORMATION. 1. National Protestant churches replaced the universal church in many countries. 2. Protestants accepted the authority of the Bible, justification by faith, and the priesthood of believers. 3. Numerous Protestant creeds were formulated. 4. Three-level systems of education were set up. 5. Political equality was taught by many Calvinists. 6. Capitalism was stimulated. 7. Preaching was revived.

II. DEISM, DENOMINATIONS AND REVIVALS, 1648–1789

A. COLONIAL AMERICAN CHRISTIANITY. 1. Beginnings. (a) Directors of the Virginia Company brought settlers with Anglican ministers to Virginia. Blair and Bray improved the colonial ministry. Anglicanism also became the established church in New York, Maryland, South and North Carolina, and Georgia. (b) New England Congregationalism grew out of the migration of the Scrooby Separatists to Plymouth in 1620, and of the Massachusetts Bay Company stockholders to Salem and Boston to form Massachusetts Colony. Later, Thomas Hooker and his friends from Massachusetts and Davenport's Bible commonwealth united to form Connecticut. The Cambridge Platform of 1648 decreed Calvinistic theology and congregational polity for these churches. (c) Rhode Island Baptists emerged from the enforced migrations of Roger Williams and Anne Hutchinson for insistence on separation of church and state and freedom of conscience. (d) For economic reasons the Calverts founded Maryland as a colony with religious toleration. (e) Quakerism took roots in West Jersey and Pennsylvania where religious freedom drew many sects. (6) Swedish Lutherans in Delaware and later in Pennsylvania were united by Muhlenburg. (g) Francis Makemie established a Presbyterianism augmented by Scotch-Irish settlers (1710–1750). (h) Robert Strawbridge and Philip Embury planted Methodism, which was organized by Francis Asbury. 2. Higher education was fostered to provide leaders in church and state by the founding of Harvard (1636), William and Mary (1696), Yale (1701), Princeton (1746), Brown (1764), Rutgers (1825), and Haverford (1833). 3. The Great Awakening began in the Middle Colonies with Frelinghuysen's and Gilbert Tennent's preaching, spread to New England by the efforts of Jonathan Edwards, Calvinism's defender, and to the South among Presbyterians, Methodists, and Baptists. Whitefield was the coordinator. Revival resulted in new members, colleges, and schisms. 4. Most churches, except the neutral Methodists and pacifist Quakers, supported the Revolution; and nearly all formed national organizations after the Revolution. Separation of church and state began in Virginia.

B. DEISM AND REVIVAL. 1. Deism, the result of Newtonian science, Lockean psychology, and rationalistic philosophy, was a natural religion whose dogmas as stated by Herbert of Cherbury were belief in a transcendent God, an ethical life, and immortality with rewards and punishment. It spread to North America and the Continent. Man's goodness and perfectibility were stressed. 2. Biblical revivalism was manifested in (a) the Pietist revival through the efforts of Philip Spener in German Lutheranism. The Moravian Church under Zinzendorf and the revitalizing of German Lutheranism were results. (b) Whitefield and the Wesleys revived lower-class England, and after John Wesley's death the Arminian and socially-minded Methodist Church emerged. 3. Inner light revivalism appeared through George Fox, the founder of English Quakerism. Robert Barclay, its theologian, declared that the inner light provided men with continuing inspiration and revelation.

III. ROMANISM, REVIVALS, MISSIONS, AND LIBERALISM, 1789–1914

A. ROMAN CATHOLICISM suffered setbacks during the French Revolution, but aided by the Jesuit order and the able Pius IX, who declared the Immanaculate Conception of Mary in 1854 and the dogma of papal infallibility at the Vatican Council in 1870, it made great gains. After 1870 loss of the Papal States to a united Italy and anticlerical legislation in Germany, France, and other lands again weakened it.

B. RELIGION IN GREAT BRITAIN. 1. The Anglican Church consisted of (a) Upper-class Evangelicals, including minsters such as Newton, the "Clapham Sect" of Wilberforce, and others interested in evangelism and social reforms. They espoused abolition of slave trade (1807) and slavery (1833) and improvement of the social and economic condition of workers (Shaftesbury). (b) The Broad church with biblical critics such as Bishop Cloenso or Christian socialists such as Charles Kingsley. (c) The Oxford Movement of John Keble, Edward Pusey, and John Newman—he and nearly 900 others became Roman Catholics—which emphasized ritualism and sacramentalism. 2. Booth's Salvation Army (1878), John Darby's Plymouth Brethren, and George Williams's YMCA were new nonconformist organizations. 3. English missionaries, beginning with William Carey in 1792, who were sent out and supported by newly organized societies, became missionary explorers (Livingstone opened Africa and fought the slave trade), linguists (Moffat), and missionary statesmen (Tucker brought Uganda into the British Empire). 4. Patronage, the right of the Crown or landowners to appoint ministers, and revivalism led to schisms in Scottish Presbyterianism, such as the revivalistic Free Church of Thomas Chalmers. 5. In 1869 Roman Catholics were aided by the disestablishment of the Anglican Church in Ireland.

C. NEW FOES OF THE CHURCH. 1. Idealistic philosophy making the Bible only a historic book to be analyzed by biblical critics, such as Wellhausen and Baur, resulted in a Bible that only contained God's Word. 2. Darwinian evolution denied original sin and stimulated the concept of the evolution of religion. 3. The atheistic and materialistic system of Communism set forth in The Communist Manifesto of Marx and Engels was to become a bitter foe of Christianity.

D. NATIONAL AMERICAN CHRISTIANITY. 1. The Second Awakening, beginning at Yale under Timothy Dwight after 1789, spread on the frontier by the new camp meeting technique (Cane Ridge, 1801). It resulted in new churches such as the Disciples and the Unitarians, new seminaries such as Andover, and foreign missions through Adoniram Judson's work. 2. Social reforms, such as temperance and the abolition of slavery, were supported by the Church. 3. Schisms over slavery split Methodists, Presbyterians, and Baptists. 4. Joseph Smith's Mormonism and William Miller's Adventism were new frontier sects, and Mrs. Eddy's Christian Science as well as spiritualism emerged in the cities. 5. Rural and foreign immigration into industrial cities brought social settlements (Hull House), the YMCA, and the institutional church to meet the needs of the whole man. Walter Rauschenbusch's social gospel sought to improve conditions by democratic action in economic and political life. 6. Horace Bushnell's Christian Nurture (1847) stressed religious education as a substitute for evangelism of children, and John Vincent's uniform lessons stimulated the growth of Sunday schools.

IV. THE TWENTIETH-CENTURY CHURCH

A. THE CHURCH AND STATE. 1. The church in World War II, while engaging in humanitarian and religious activity, did not become the chauvinistic, bond-selling, recruiting, hate-Germany organization it was in World War I. 2. Roman Catholicism, which suffered losses from Communism and desertion by Latin American intellectuals, sought to regain ground by accommodations with Mussolini and Hitler, by courting the U.S.A., and by the new dogma of Mary's Assumption (1950). 3. Communism in Russia and elsewhere fought Christianity by state legislation, atheistic propaganda, and persecution. 4. But by the end of the century, European Communism had collapsed, due largely to the spiritual impact of the persecuted Christians in those countries. The Soviet Union was broken up into several republics, Yugoslavia dissolved, and Germany reunited.

B. ABSOLUTISM AND ECUMENISM. 1. Immanental, relativistic, and subjective liberalism was opposed by a return to absolutism in theology evidenced in (a) conservatism negatively opposing evolution (Scopes Case) and liberalism (Machen) and positively promoting apologetic literature (e.g. The Fundamentals), Bible schools (Moody), and colleges (Wheaton, Ill.). (b) Neoorthodoxy, begun by Karl Barth, accepted liberal biblical criticism but advocated a transcendent God known by the Holy Spirit revealing Christ in the Bible. It stimulated a return to biblical theology. (c) Neo-Thomism attempted to accommodate the theology of Aquinas to modern science and the problems of our century. (d) New cults, such as Unity, Jehovah's Witnesses, and the Oxford Group of Buchman, offered absolutist panaceas to modern problems. 2. Ecumenism began with (a) interdenominational cooperation in youth organizations, such as the Student Volunteer Movement and Youth for Christ, and in missionary organizations, such as the International Missionary Council or Evangelical Foreign Missions Association. (b) It was stimulated by organic reunion of like denominations, such as the Methodist Church in 1939, and unlike denominations, such as the United Church of Canada. (c) Ecumenical confederation, begun with the doctrinally based Evangelical Alliance (1846) has resulted in loose confederations of like denominations, e.g., the Lutheran World Federation. Liberalism and Neoorthodoxy have promoted local confederated churches, national confederations, such as the National Council (1950; organized as the Federal Council, 1908) and the international World Council of Churches (1950). Evangelicals have countered with organizations such as the National Association of Evangelicals and the World Evangelical Fellowship.

C. NEW CHALLENGES TO THE CHURCH. 1. Secularism, with its stress on materialism, relativism, and man's wisdom, technology, and science. 2. Extreme poverty in the Third World. 3. The resurgence of non-Christian religions. 4. Threats to the family worldwide. 5. The shifting of mission-sending from America to Third-World countries. 6. The liberalizing of the Roman Catholic Church.

TOPICAL INDEX OF SCRIPTURE

ANGER, Human

Ps. 37:8 Cease from anger and forsake wrath; Do not fret; it leads only to evildoing.

Prov. 15:1 A gentle answer turns away wrath, But a harsh word stirs up anger.

Prov. 22:24 Do not associate with a man given to anger; Or go with a hot-tempered man.

Prov. 25:23 The north wind brings forth rain, And a backbiting tongue, an angry countenance.

Prov. 29:8 Scorners set a city aflame, But wise men turn away anger.

Prov. 29:11 A fool always loses his temper, But a wise man holds it back.

Prov. 29:22 An angry man stirs up strife, And a hot-tempered man abounds in transgression.

Prov. 30:33 For the churning of milk produces butter, And pressing the nose brings forth blood; So the churning of anger produces strife.

Eccl. 7:9 Do not be eager in your heart to be angry, For anger resides in the bosom of fools.

Matt. 5:22 "But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother shall be guilty before the court; and whoever says to his brother, 'You good-for-nothing,' shall be guilty before the supreme court; and whoever says, 'You fool,' shall be guilty enough to go into the fiery hell."

1 Cor. 13:5 [Love] does not act unbecomingly; it does not seek its own, is not provoked, does not take into account a wrong suffered.

2 Cor. 12:20 For I am afraid that perhaps when I come I may find you to be not what I wish and may be found by you to be not what you wish; that perhaps there will be strife, jealousy, angry tempers, disputes, slanders, gossip, arrogance, disturbances.

Eph. 4:26 BE ANGRY, AND YET DO NOT SIN; do not let the sun go down on your anger.

Eph. 4:31 Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice.

James 1:19–20 This you know, my beloved brethren. But everyone must be quick to hear, slow to speak and slow to anger; for the anger of man does not achieve the righteousness of God.

Ps. 4:4; Prov. 20:2; 21:14; Col. 3:8; 1 Tim. 2:8.

ANGER, God's

Ps. 2:12 Do homage to the Son, that He not become angry, and you perish in the way, For His wrath may soon be kindled. How blessed are all who take refuge in Him!

Ps. 30:5 For His anger is but for a moment, His favor is for a lifetime; Weeping may last for the night, But a shout of joy comes in the morning.

Ps. 86:15 But You, O Lord, are a God merciful and gracious, Slow to anger and abundant in lovingkindness and truth.

Isa. 13:9 Behold, the day of the LORD is coming, Cruel, with fury and burning anger, To make the land a desolation; And He will exterminate its sinners from it.

Isa. 57:16 "For I will not contend forever, Neither will I always be angry; For the spirit would grow faint before Me, And the breath of those whom I have made."

Jer. 10:10 But the LORD is the true God; He is the living God and the everlasting King. At His wrath the earth quakes, And the nations cannot endure His indignation.

Jer. 10:24 Correct me, O LORD, but with justice; Not with Your anger, or You will bring me to nothing.

Joel 2:13 "Rend your heart and not your garments." Now return to the LORD your God, For He is gracious and compassionate, Slow to anger, abounding in lovingkindness And relenting of evil.

Mic. 7:18 Who is a God like You, who pardons iniquity And passes over the rebellious act of the remnant of His possession? He does not retain His anger forever, Because He delights in unchanging love.

Nah. 1:6 Who can stand before His indignation? Who can endure the burning of His anger? His wrath is poured out like fire And the rocks are broken up by Him.

Zeph. 2:3 Seek the LORD, All you humble of the earth Who have carried out His ordinances; Seek righteousness, seek humility. Perhaps you will be hidden In the day of the LORD'S anger.

Rom. 2:8 but to those who are selfishly ambitious and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, wrath and indignation.

Heb. 3:10–11, 17 "THEREFORE I WAS ANGRY WITH THIS GENERATION, AND SAID, 'THEY ALWAYS GO ASTRAY IN THEIR HEART, AND THEY DID NOT KNOW MY WAYS'; AS I SWORE IN MY WRATH, 'THEY SHALL NOT ENTER MY REST'. . . And with whom was He angry for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness?"

Num. 14:18; Pss. 90:11; 103:8–9; 145:8; Isa. 13:13; 30:27, 30; 34:2; 42:25; 63:3, 6; 66:15; Jer. 23:20; 30:24; Ezek. 13:13; 22:20, 31; Jon. 4:2; Mic. 5:15; Nah. 1:3; Zeph. 3:8.

ASSURANCE

Ps. 4:3 But know that the LORD has set apart the godly man for Himself; The LORD hears when I call to Him.

Rom. 8:16 The Spirit Himself testifies with our spirit that we are children of God.

Rom. 8:38–39 For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Eph. 3:12 In whom we have boldness and confident access through faith in Him.

2 Tim. 1:12 For this reason I also suffer these things, but I am not ashamed; for I know whom I have believed and I am convinced that He is able to guard what I have entrusted to Him until that day.

Heb. 6:11, 19a And we desire that each one of you show the same diligence so as to realize the full assurance of hope until the end. . . . This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, a hope both sure and steadfast.

Heb. 12:28 Therefore, since we receive a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us show gratitude, by which we may offer to God an acceptable service with reverence and awe.

1 John 3:14 We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brethren. He who does not love abides in death.

1 John 4:18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear involves punishment, and the one who fears is not perfected in love.

1 John 5:13 These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life.

Job 19:25–26; Phil. 3:21; Col. 2:2; 1 Thess. 1:5.

BACKSLIDING

Deut. 4:9 "Only give heed to yourself and keep your soul diligently, so that you do not forget the things which your eyes have seen and they do not depart from your heart all the days of your life; but make them known to your sons and your grandsons."

Ps. 37:31 The law of his God is in his heart; His steps do not slip.

Ps. 121:3 He will not allow your foot to slip; He who keeps you will not slumber.

Mark 8:38 "For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man will also be ashamed of him when He comes in the glory of His Father with the holy angels."

John 15:4–10 "Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself unless it abides in the vine, so neither can you unless you abide in Me. I am the vine, you are the branches; he who abides in Me and I in him, he bears much fruit, for apart from Me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in Me, he is thrown away as a branch and dries up; and they gather them, and cast them into the fire and they are burned. If you abide in Me, and My words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. By this is My Father glorified, that you bear much fruit, and so prove to be My disciples. Just as the Father has loved Me, I have also loved you; abide in My love. If you keep My commandments, you will abide in My love; just as I have kept My Father's commandments and abide in His love."

Gal. 1:6 I am amazed that you are so quickly deserting Him who called you by the grace of Christ, for a different gospel.

1 Tim. 6:10 For the love of money is a root of all sorts of evil, and some by longing for it have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many griefs.

2 Tim. 1:8 Therefore do not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord or of me His prisoner, but join with me in suffering for the gospel according to the power of God.

2 Tim. 2:12–13 If we endure, we will also reign with Him; If we deny Him, He also will deny us; If we are faithless, He remains faithful, for He cannot deny Himself.

Heb. 10:26–27, 38 For if we go on sinning willfully after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, but a terrifying expectation of judgment and THE FURY OF A FIRE WHICH WILL CONSUME THE ADVERSARIES. . . . BUT MY RIGHTEOUS ONE SHALL LIVE BY FAITH; AND IF HE SHRINKS BACK, MY SOUL HAS NO PLEASURE IN HIM.

Heb. 12:15 See to it that no one comes short of the grace of God; that no root of bitterness springing up causes trouble, and by it many be defiled.

2 Peter 2:20–21 For if, after they have escaped the defilements of the world by the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and are overcome, the last state has become worse for them than the first. For it would be better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than having known it, to turn away from the holy commandment handed on to them.

1 John 2:24 As for you, let that abide in you which you heard from the beginning. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, you also will abide in the Son and in the Father.

Deut. 4:9; 8:11–14; Matt. 24:12; Luke 9:26, 62; Heb. 6:4–6.

BLESSING

Ps. 55:22 Cast your burden upon the LORD and He will sustain you; He will never allow the righteous to be shaken.

Ps. 103:1–5, 11–14 Bless the LORD, O my soul, And all that is within me, bless His holy name. Bless the LORD, O my soul, And forget none of His benefits; Who pardons all your iniquities, Who heals all your diseases; Who redeems your life from the pit, Who crowns you with lovingkindness and compassion; Who satisfies your years with good things, So that your youth is renewed like the eagle. . . . For as high as the heavens are above the earth, So great is His lovingkindness toward those who fear Him. As far as the east is from the west, So far has He removed our transgressions from us. Just as a father has compassion on his children, So the LORD has compassion on those who fear Him. For He Himself knows our frame; He is mindful that we are but dust.

Acts 20:32 "And now I commend you to God and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up and to give you the inheritance among all those who are sanctified."

1 Cor. 2:9 Just as it is written, "THINGS WHICH EYE HAS NOT SEEN AND EAR HAS NOT HEARD, AND WHICH HAVE NOT ENTERED THE HEART OF MAN, ALL THAT GOD HAS PREPARED FOR THOSE WHO LOVE HIM."

2 Cor. 9:8 And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that always having all sufficiency in everything, you may have an abundance for every good deed.

Eph. 3:20 Now to Him who is able to do exceeding abundantly beyond all that we ask or think, according to the power that works within us.

Phil. 4:7 And the peace of God, which surpasses all comprehension, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

James 1:17 Every good thing given and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shifting shadow.

Rev. 2:10 "Do not fear what you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to cast some of you into prison, so that you will be tested, and you will have tribulation for ten days. Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life."

CHILDREN

Ps. 8:2 From the mouth of infants and nursing babes You have established strength Because of Your adversaries, To make the enemy and the revengeful cease.

Ps. 78:4–6 We will not conceal them from their children, But tell to the generation to come the praises of the LORD, And His strength and His wondrous works that He has done. For He established a testimony in Jacob And appointed a law in Israel, Which He commanded our fathers That they should teach them to their children, That the generation to come might know, even the children yet to be born, That they may arise and tell them to their children.

Ps. 103:17 But the lovingkindness of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting on those who fear Him, And His righteousness to children's children.

Ps. 127:3 Behold, children are a gift of the LORD, The fruit of the womb is a reward.

Prov. 17:6 Grandchildren are the crown of old men, And the glory of sons is their fathers.

Prov. 20:11 It is by his deeds that a lad distinguishes himself If his conduct is pure and right.

Prov. 22:6, 15 Train up a child in the way he should go, Even when he is old he will not depart from it. . . . Foolishness is bound up in the heart of a child; The rod of discipline will remove it far from him.

Prov. 29:15 The rod and reproof give wisdom, But a child who gets his own way brings shame to his mother.

Matt. 11:25 At that time Jesus said, "I praise You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and intelligent and have revealed them to infants."

Matt. 21:15–16 But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that He had done, and the children who were shouting in the temple, "Hosanna to the Son of David," they became indignant and said to Him, "Do You hear what these children are saying?" And Jesus said to them, "Yes; have you never read, 'OUT OF THE MOUTH OF INFANTS AND NURSING BABIES YOU HAVE PREPARED PRAISE FOR YOURSELF'?"

Mark 10:13–16 And they were bringing children to Him so that He might touch them; but the disciples rebuked them. But when Jesus saw this, He was indignant and said to them, "Permit the children to come to Me; do not hinder them; for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. Truly I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child will not enter it at all." And He took them in His arms and began blessing them, laying His hands on them.

Acts 2:39 "For the promise is for you and your children and for all who are far off, as many as the Lord our God will call to Himself."

1 Cor. 7:14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified through his wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified through her believing husband; for otherwise your children are unclean, but now they are holy.

Eph. 6:1, 4 Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. . . . Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.

Col. 3:20–21 Children, be obedient to your parents in all things, for this is well-pleasing to the Lord. Fathers, do not exasperate your children, so that they will not lose heart.

Pss. 37:25–26; 72:4; 102:28; 113:9; Prov. 13:22; 14:26; 20:7; 23:13; Matt. 18:2–5; 19:13–14; Mark 9:36–37; Luke 9:47–48; 10:21; 18:16–17; Titus 1:6; 2:4.

CHRISTIAN LIVING. See SANCTIFICATION

CHURCH

Matt. 16:18 "I also say to you that you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build My church; and the gates of Hades will not overpower it."

Acts 11:26b And for an entire year they met with the church and taught considerable numbers; and the disciples were first called Christians in Antioch.

1 Cor. 1:2 To the church of God which is at Corinth, to those who have been sanctified in Christ Jesus, saints by calling, with all who in every place call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours.

1 Cor. 5:12 For what have I to do with judging outsiders? Do you not judge those who are within the church?

1 Cor. 12:28 God has appointed in the church, first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, administrations, various kinds of tongues.

1 Cor. 16:19 The churches of Asia greet you. Aquila and Prisca greet you heartily in the Lord, with the church that is in their house.

Eph. 1:22 [God] put all things in subjection under His feet, and gave Him as head over all things to the church.

Eph. 3:10 That the manifold wisdom of God might now be made known through the church to the rulers and the authorities in the heavenly places.

Eph. 5:25–27 Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ also loved the church and gave Himself up for her, so that He might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word, that He might present to Himself the church in all her glory, having no spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that she would be holy and blameless.

Col. 1:18 He is also head of the body, the church; and He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that He Himself will come to have first place in everything.

1 Tim. 3:15 In case I am delayed, I write so that you will know how one ought to conduct himself in the household of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and support of the truth.

1 Tim. 5:17 The elders who rule well are to be considered worthy of double honor, especially those who work hard at preaching and teaching.

Acts 9:31; 13:1; 14:23; 15:3, 22; 20:28; Rom. 16:5.

CONSCIENCE

Rom. 2:14–15 For when Gentiles who do not have the Law do instinctively the things of the Law, these, not having the Law, are a law to themselves, in that they show the work of the Law written in their hearts, their conscience bearing witness and their thoughts alternately accusing or else defending them.

1 Cor. 8:12 By sinning against the brethren and wounding their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ.

1 Cor. 10:27–29 If one of the unbelievers invites you and you want to go, eat anything that is set before you without asking questions for conscience' sake. But if anyone says to you, "This is meat sacrificed to idols," do not eat it, for the sake of the one who informed you, and for conscience' sake; I mean not your own conscience, but the other man's; for why is my freedom judged by another's conscience?

2 Cor. 1:12 For our proud confidence is this: the testimony of our conscience, that in holiness and godly sincerity, not in fleshly wisdom but in the grace of God, we have conducted ourselves in the world, and especially toward you.

1 Tim. 1:5 But the goal of our instruction is love from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith.

1 Tim. 3:9 Hold to the mystery of the faith with a clear conscience.

1 Tim. 4:2 By means of the hypocrisy of liars seared in their own conscience as with a branding iron.

2 Tim. 1:3 I thank God, whom I serve with a clear conscience the way my forefathers did, as I constantly remember you in my prayers night and day.

Titus 1:15 To the pure, all things are pure; but to those who are defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure, but both their mind and their conscience are defiled.

Heb. 9:9, 14 [The tabernacle] is a symbol for the present time. Accordingly both gifts and sacrifices are offered which cannot make the worshiper perfect in conscience. . . . How much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without blemish to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

Heb. 10:22 Let us draw near with a sincere heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water.

Heb. 13:18 Pray for us, for we are sure that we have a good conscience, desiring to conduct ourselves honorably in all things.

1 Peter 3:15–16 Sanctify Christ as Lord in your hearts, always being ready to make a defense to everyone who asks you to give an account for the hope that is in you, yet with gentleness and reverence; and keep a good conscience so that in the thing in which you are slandered, those who revile your good behavior in Christ will be put to shame.

1 Peter 3:21 Corresponding to that, baptism now saves you—not the removal of dirt from the flesh, but an appeal to God for a good conscience—through the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Job 27:6; Acts 23:1; 24:16; Rom. 13:5; 1 Cor. 4:4.

CONTENTMENT

Job 36:11 "If they hear and serve Him, They shall end their days in prosperity And their years in pleasures."

Ps. 37:7–8 Rest in the LORD and wait patiently for Him; Do not fret because of him who prospers in his way, Because of the man who carries out wicked schemes. Cease from anger and forsake wrath; Do not fret; it leads only to evildoing.

Ps. 90:14 O satisfy us in the morning with Your lovingkindness, That we may sing for joy and be glad all our days.

Ps. 107:9 For He has satisfied the thirsty soul, And the hungry soul He has filled with what is good.

Prov. 19:23 The fear of the LORD leads to life, So that one may sleep satisfied, untouched by evil.

Prov. 24:19 Do not fret because of evildoers Or be envious of the wicked.

Eccl. 3:13 Every man who eats and drinks sees good in all his labor—it is the gift of God.

Eccl. 5:10, 18 He who loves money will not be satisfied with money, nor he who loves abundance with its income. This too is vanity. . . . Here is what I have seen to be good and fitting: to eat, to drink and enjoy oneself in all one's labor in which he toils under the sun during the few years of his life which God has given him; for this is his reward.

Isa. 55:2 "Why do you spend money for what is not bread, And your wages for what does not satisfy? Listen carefully to Me, and eat what is good, And delight yourself in abundance."

Phil. 4:11–12 Not that I speak from want, for I have learned to be content in whatever circumstances I am. I know how to get along with humble means, and I also know how to live in prosperity; in any and every circumstance I have learned the secret of being filled and going hungry, both of having abundance and suffering need.

1 Tim. 6:6, 8 But godliness actually is a means of great gain when accompanied by contentment. . . . If we have food and covering, with these we shall be content.

Heb. 13:5 Make sure that your character is free from the love of money, being content with what you have; for He Himself has said, "I WILL NEVER DESERT YOU, NOR WILL I EVER FORSAKE YOU."

Pss. 17:15; 22:26; 91:16; 103:5; Prov. 13:4; Eccl. 4:8.

COURAGE

Ps. 138:3 On the day I called, You answered me; You made me bold with strength in my soul.

Prov. 28:1 The wicked flee when no one is pursuing, But the righteous are bold as a lion.

Mark 15:43 Joseph of Arimathea came, a prominent member of the Council, who himself was waiting for the kingdom of God; and he gathered up courage and went in before Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus.

Acts 4:13 Now as they observed the confidence of Peter and John and understood that they were uneducated and untrained men, they were amazed, and began to recognize them as having been with Jesus.

Acts 4:29, 31 "And now, Lord, take note of their threats, and grant that Your bond-servants may speak Your word with all confidence. . . . And when they had prayed, the place where they had gathered together was shaken, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak the word of God with boldness."

Acts 14:3 Therefore they spent a long time there speaking boldly with reliance upon the Lord, who was testifying to the word of His grace, granting that signs and wonders be done by their hands.

Acts 19:8 He entered the synagogue and continued speaking out boldly for three months, reasoning and persuading them about the kingdom of God.

Acts 28:31 [Paul was] preaching the kingdom of God and teaching concerning the Lord Jesus Christ with all openness, unhindered.

1 Cor. 16:13 Be on the alert, stand firm in the faith, act like men, be strong.

2 Cor. 3:12 Therefore having such a hope, we use great boldness in our speech.

Phil. 1:20 According to my earnest expectation and hope, that I will not be put to shame in anything, but that with all boldness, Christ will even now, as always, be exalted in my body, whether by life or by death.

1 Thess. 5:14 We urge you, brethren, admonish the unruly, encourage the fainthearted, help the weak, be patient with everyone.

2 Tim. 1:7 For God has not given us a spirit of timidity, but of power and love and discipline.

Heb. 3:6 Christ was faithful as a Son over His house—whose house we are, if we hold fast our confidence and the boast of our hope firm until the end.

Acts 9:28; 13:46; 18:26; 27:22–25.

COVETOUSNESS

Ex. 20:17 "You shall not covet your neighbor's house; you shall not covet your neighbor's wife or his male servant or his female servant or his ox or his donkey or anything that belongs to your neighbor."

Prov. 30:15 The leech has two daughters, "Give," "Give." There are three things that will not be satisfied, Four that will not say, "Enough."

Acts 20:33 "I have coveted no one's silver or gold or clothes."

Rom. 7:7–8 What shall we say then? Is the Law sin? May it never be! On the contrary, I would not have come to know sin except through the Law; for I would not have known about coveting if the Law had not said, "YOU SHALL NOT COVET." But sin, taking opportunity through the commandment, produced in me coveting of every kind; for apart from the Law sin is dead.

Rom. 13:9 For this, "YOU SHALL NOT COMMIT ADULTERY, YOU SHALL NOT MURDER, YOU SHALL NOT STEAL, YOU SHALL NOT COVET," and if there is any other commandment, it is summed up in this saying, "YOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF."

James 4:2 You lust and do not have; so you commit murder. You are envious and cannot obtain; so you fight and quarrel. You do not have because you do not ask.

Deut. 5:21; Mic. 2:2.

DEATH

Job 30:23 "For I know that You will bring me to death And to the house of meeting for all living."

Ps. 68:20 God is to us a God of deliverances; And to GOD the Lord belong escapes from death.

Ps. 89:48 What man can live and not see death? Can he deliver his soul from the power of Sheol? Selah.

Ps. 116:15 Precious in the sight of the LORD Is the death of His godly ones.

Prov. 11:4 Riches do not profit in the day of wrath, But righteousness delivers from death.

Prov. 14:12 There is a way which seems right to a man, But its end is the way of death.

Prov. 24:11 Deliver those who are being taken away to death, And those who are staggering to slaughter, Oh hold them back.

Eccl. 7:2 It is better to go to a house of mourning Than to go to a house of feasting, Because that is the end of every man, And the living takes it to heart.

Eccl. 8:8 No man has authority to restrain the wind with the wind, or authority over the day of death; and there is no discharge in the time of war, and evil will not deliver those who practice it.

Isa. 25:8 He will swallow up death for all time, And the Lord GOD will wipe tears away from all faces, And He will remove the reproach of His people from all the earth; For the LORD has spoken.

Ezek. 33:11 "Say to them, 'As I live!' declares the Lord GOD, 'I take no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but rather that the wicked turn from his way and live. Turn back, turn back from your evil ways! Why then will you die, O house of Israel?' "

John 8:51–52 "Truly, truly, I say to you, if anyone keeps My word he will never see death." The Jews said to Him, "Now we know that You have a demon. Abraham died, and the prophets also; and You say, 'If anyone keeps My word, he will never taste of death.' "

Rom. 1:32 Although they know the ordinance of God, that those who practice such things are worthy of death, they not only do the same, but also give hearty approval to those who practice them.

Rom. 5:14, 17, 21 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over those who had not sinned in the likeness of the offense of Adam, who is a type of Him who was to come. . . . For if by the transgression of the one, death reigned through the one, much more those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness will reign in life through the One, Jesus Christ, . . . that, as sin reigned in death, even so grace would reign through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Rom. 6:23 For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Rom. 8:6 For the mind set on the flesh is death, but the mind set on the Spirit is life and peace.

1 Cor. 15:21 For since by a man came death, by a man also came the resurrection of the dead.

1 Cor. 15:26 The last enemy that will be abolished is death.

1 Cor. 15:54–56 But when this perishable will have put on the imperishable, and this mortal will have put on immortality, then will come about the saying that is written, "DEATH IS SWALLOWED UP in victory. O DEATH, WHERE IS YOUR VICTORY? O DEATH, WHERE IS YOUR STING?" The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law.

Heb. 2:9, 14–15 But we do see Him who was made for a little while lower than the angels, namely, Jesus, because of the suffering of death crowned with glory and honor, so that by the grace of God He might taste death for everyone. . . . Since then the children share in flesh and blood, He Himself likewise also partook of the same, so that through death He might render powerless him who had the power of death, that is, the devil, and might free those who through fear of death were subject to slavery all their lives.

Rev. 20:13–14 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it, and death and Hades gave up the dead which were in them; and they were judged, every one of them according to their deeds. Then death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire.

Rev. 21:4 "He will wipe away every tear from their eyes; and there will no longer be any death; there will no longer be any mourning, or crying, or pain; the first things have passed away."

Pss. 23:4; 72:13; 90:5; 94:17; 116:8; 141:8; Prov. 10:2; 11:19; 13:14; 14:27, 32; 16:25; 18:21; 27:20; Isa. 57:2; Ezek. 18:23, 32; John 5:24; Acts 2:23–24; Rom. 6:3–5; 8:13, 36; 2 Cor. 7:10; 2 Tim. 1:10; Heb. 9:14; James 1:15; 5:20; 1 John 3:14; 5:16–17; Rev. 21:8.

DISCIPLESHIP

Matt. 10:32–39 "Therefore everyone who confesses Me before men, I will also confess him before My Father who is in heaven. But whoever denies Me before men, I will also deny him before My Father who is in heaven. Do not think that I came to bring peace on the earth; I did not come to bring peace, but a sword. For I came to SET A MAN AGAINST HIS FATHER, AND A DAUGHTER AGAINST HER MOTHER, AND A DAUGHTER-IN-LAW AGAINST HER MOTHER-IN-LAW; and A MAN'S ENEMIES WILL BE THE MEMBERS OF HIS HOUSEHOLD. He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me; and he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who has found his life will lose it, and he who has lost his life for My sake will find it."

Luke 14:27–35 "Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after Me cannot be My disciple. For which one of you, when he wants to build a tower, does not first sit down and calculate the cost to see if he has enough to complete it? Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who observe it begin to ridicule him, saying, 'This man began to build and was not able to finish.' Or what king, when he sets out to meet another king in battle, will not first sit down and consider whether he is strong enough with ten thousand men to encounter the one coming against him with twenty thousand? Or else, while the other is still far away, he sends a delegation and asks for terms of peace. So then, none of you can be My disciple who does not give up all his own possessions. Therefore, salt is good; but if even salt has become tasteless, with what will it be seasoned? It is useless either for the soil or for the manure pile; it is thrown out. He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

John 21:15–17 So when they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love Me more than these?" He said to Him, "Yes, Lord; You know that I love You." He said to him, "Tend My lambs." He said to him again a second time, "Simon, son of John, do you love Me?" He said to Him, "Yes, Lord; You know that I love You." He said to him, "Shepherd My sheep." He said to him the third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love Me?" Peter was grieved because He said to him the third time, "Do you love Me?" And he said to Him, "Lord, You know all things; You know that I love You." Jesus said to him, "Tend My sheep."

DISCIPLINE

Matt. 18:15–17 "If your brother sins , go and show him his fault in private; if he listens to you, you have won your brother. But if he does not listen to you, take one or two more with you, so that BY THE MOUTH OF TWO OR THREE WITNESSES EVERY FACT MAY BE CONFIRMED. If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if he refuses to listen even to the church, let him be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector."

Rom. 16:17 Now I urge you, brethren, keep your eye on those who cause dissensions and hindrances contrary to the teaching which you learned, and turn away from them.

1 Cor. 5:1–5 It is actually reported that there is immorality among you, and immorality of such a kind as does not exist even among the Gentiles, that someone has his father's wife. You have become arrogant and have not mourned instead, so that the one who had done this deed would be removed from your midst. For I, on my part, though absent in body but present in spirit, have already judged him who has so committed this, as though I were present. In the name of our Lord Jesus, when you are assembled, and I with you in spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus, I have decided to deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of his flesh, so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

2 Cor. 2:6–8 Sufficient for such a one is this punishment which was inflicted by the majority, so that on the contrary you should rather forgive and comfort him, otherwise such a one might be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow. Wherefore I urge you to reaffirm your love for him.

Heb. 12:4–11 You have not yet resisted to the point of shedding blood in your striving against sin; and you have forgotten the exhortation which is addressed to you as sons, "MY SON, DO NOT REGARD LIGHTLY THE DISCIPLINE OF THE LORD, NOR FAINT WHEN YOU ARE REPROVED BY HIM; FOR THOSE WHOM THE LORD LOVES HE DISCIPLINES, AND HE SCOURGES EVERY SON WHOM HE RECEIVES." It is for discipline that you endure; God deals with you as with sons; for what son is there whom his father does not discipline? But if you are without discipline, of which all have become partakers, then you are illegitimate children and not sons. Furthermore, we had earthly fathers to discipline us, and we respected them; shall we not much rather be subject to the Father of spirits, and live? For they disciplined us for a short time as seemed best to them, but He disciplines us for our good, so that we may share His holiness. All discipline for the moment seems not to be joyful, but sorrowful; yet to those who have been trained by it, afterwards it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness.

DIVORCE

Mal. 2:16 "For I hate divorce," says the LORD, the God of Israel, "and him who covers his garment with wrong," says the LORD of hosts. "So take heed to your spirit, that you do not deal treacherously."

Matt. 5:31 "It was said, 'WHOEVER SENDS HIS WIFE AWAY, LET HIM GIVE HER A CERTIFICATE OF DIVORCE'."

Matt. 19:7–8 They said to Him, "Why then did Moses command to GIVE HER A CERTIFICATE OF DIVORCE AND SEND her AWAY?" He said to them, "Because of your hardness of heart Moses permitted you to divorce your wives; but from the beginning it has not been this way."

1 Cor. 7:10b–13 The wife should not leave her husband (but if she does leave, she must remain unmarried, or else be reconciled to her husband), and that the husband should not divorce his wife. But to the rest I say, not the Lord, that if any brother has a wife who is an unbeliever, and she consents to live with him, he must not divorce her. And a woman who has an unbelieving husband, and he consents to live with her, she must not send her husband away.

Mark 10:2–9; 1 Cor. 7:27.

DOUBT

Ps. 42:5 Why are you in despair, O my soul? And why have you become disturbed within me? Hope in God, for I shall again praise Him For the help of His presence.

Isa. 40:27–29 Why do you say, O Jacob, and assert, O Israel, "My way is hidden from the LORD, And the justice due me escapes the notice of my God"? Do you not know? Have you not heard? The Everlasting God, the LORD, the Creator of the ends of the earth Does not become weary or tired. His understanding is inscrutable. He gives strength to the weary, And to him who lacks might He increases power.

Matt. 6:30 "But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the furnace, will He not much more clothe you? You of little faith!"

Matt. 8:25–26 They came to Him and woke Him, saying, "Save us, Lord; we are perishing!" He said to them, "Why are you afraid, you men of little faith?" Then He got up and rebuked the winds and the sea, and it became perfectly calm.

Matt. 13:58 He did not do many miracles there because of their unbelief.

Matt. 14:31 Immediately Jesus stretched out His hand and took hold of him, and said to him, "You of little faith, why did you doubt?"

Matt. 16:8 But Jesus, aware of this, said, "You men of little faith, why do you discuss among yourselves that you have no bread?"

Matt. 17:20 And He said to them, "Because of the littleness of your faith; for truly I say to you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move; and nothing will be impossible to you."

John 20:25–27 So the other disciples were saying to him, "We have seen the Lord!" But he said to them, "Unless I see in His hands the imprint of the nails, and put my finger into the place of the nails, and put my hand into His side, I will not believe." After eight days His disciples were again inside, and Thomas with them. Jesus came, the doors having been shut, and stood in their midst and said, "Peace be with you." Then He said to Thomas, "Reach here with your finger, and see My hands; and reach here your hand and put it into My side; and do not be unbelieving, but believing."

ENVY

Job 5:2 "For vexation slays the foolish man, And anger kills the simple."

Ps. 37:1 Do not fret because of evildoers, Be not envious toward wrongdoers.

Prov. 14:30 A tranquil heart is life to the body, But passion is rottenness to the bones.

Prov. 23:17 Do not let your heart envy sinners, But live in the fear of the LORD always.

Prov. 24:1 Do not be envious of evil men, Nor desire to be with them.

Eccl. 4:4 I have seen that every labor and every skill which is done is the result of rivalry between a man and his neighbor. This too is vanity and striving after wind.

Mark 7:20–22 And He was saying, "That which proceeds out of the man, that is what defiles the man. For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed the evil thoughts, fornications, thefts, murders, adulteries, deeds of coveting and wickedness, as well as deceit, sensuality, envy, slander, pride and foolishness."

Rom. 1:29 [They are] filled with all unrighteousness, wickedness, greed, evil; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, malice; they are gossips.

1 Cor. 13:4 Love is patient, love is kind and is not jealous; love does not brag and is not arrogant.

Gal. 5:19–21 Now the deeds of the flesh are evident, which are: . . . enmities, strife, jealousy, outbursts of anger, disputes, dissensions, factions, envying, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these, of which I forewarn you, just as I have forewarned you, that those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

Titus 3:3 For we also once were foolish ourselves, disobedient, deceived, enslaved to various lusts and pleasures, spending our life in malice and envy, hateful, hating one another.

James 3:14–16 But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your heart, do not be arrogant and so lie against the truth. This wisdom is not that which comes down from above, but is earthly, natural, demonic. For where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there is disorder and every evil thing.

1 Peter 2:1 Therefore, putting aside all malice and all deceit and hypocrisy and envy and all slander.

Prov. 3:31; 24:19; 1 Tim. 6:4.

FAITH

Ps. 118:8 It is better to take refuge in the LORD Than to trust in man.

Prov. 3:5 Trust in the LORD with all your heart And do not lean on your own understanding.

Isa. 26:3 "The steadfast of mind You will keep in perfect peace, Because he trusts in You."

Matt. 15:28 Then Jesus said to her, "O woman, your faith is great; it shall be done for you as you wish." And her daughter was healed at once.

Luke 17:5–6 The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith!" And the Lord said, "If you had faith like a mustard seed, you would say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and be planted in the sea'; and it would obey you."

Rom. 1:17 For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith; as it is written, "BUT THE RIGHTEOUS man SHALL LIVE BY FAITH."

Rom. 3:22–31 The righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all those who believe; for there is no distinction; for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, being justified as a gift by His grace through the redemption which is in Christ Jesus; whom God displayed publicly as a propitiation in His blood through faith. This was to demonstrate His righteousness, because in the forbearance of God He passed over the sins previously committed; for the demonstration, I say, of His righteousness at the present time, so that He would be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. Where then is boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? Of works? No, but by a law of faith. For we maintain that a man is justified by faith apart from works of the Law. Or is God the God of Jews only? Is He not the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also, since indeed God who will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith is one. Do we then nullify the Law through faith? May it never be! On the contrary, we establish the Law.

Rom. 5:1–2 Therefore, having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom also we have obtained our introduction by faith into this grace in which we stand; and we exult in hope of the glory of God.

Rom. 10:17 So faith comes from hearing, and hearing by the word of Christ.

2 Cor. 5:7 For we walk by faith, not by sight.

Gal. 2:16 Nevertheless knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the Law but through faith in Christ Jesus, even we have believed in Christ Jesus, so that we may be justified by faith in Christ and not by the works of the Law; since by the works of the Law no flesh will be justified.

Eph. 2:8 For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God.

Titus 1:1–2 Paul, a bond-servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, for the faith of those chosen of God and the knowledge of the truth which is according to godliness, in the hope of eternal life, which God, who cannot lie, promised long ages ago.

Heb. 11:1–2 Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. For by it the men of old gained approval.

Heb. 13:7 Remember those who led you, who spoke the word of God to you; and considering the result of their conduct, imitate their faith.

James 2:17–18 Even so faith, if it has no works, is dead, being by itself. But someone may well say, "You have faith and I have works; show me your faith without the works, and I will show you my faith by my works."

Matt. 8:10, 26; 9:2, 22, 29; 21:21; Mark 2:5; 4:40; 11:22; 16:14; Luke 7:9; 8:25; 12:28; 18:8; 22:32; John 2:11; 7:31; 8:30; 12:11, 42; 14:12; Acts 3:16; 11:24; 14:27; 16:5; 20:21; Rom. 1:5, 8; 4:5, 9–20; 9:30–32; 10:6–8; 11:20; 12:3–6; 14:1–2, 23; 1 Cor. 2:5; 12:9; 13:2, 13; 16:13; 2 Cor. 1:24; 4:13; Gal. 2:20; 3:8–26; 5:5–6; Eph. 3:12, 17; 6:16, 23; Phil. 1:25; 2:17; 3:9; Col. 1:4–5, 23; 2:12; 1 Thess. 1:8; 3:5–7; 5:8; 2 Thess. 1:3–4; 1 Tim. 1:4–5, 19; 3:13; 2 Tim. 3:15; 4:7; Titus 1:4, 13; 2:2; 3:15; Philem. 5–6; Heb. 4:2, 14; 6:12; 10:22; 11:3–39; James 2:5, 14; 2:20–26; 5:15; 1 Peter 1:7–9, 21; 1 John 5:4.

FAITHFULNESS by God

Ex. 34:6 Then the LORD passed by in front of him and proclaimed, "The LORD, the LORD God, compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in lovingkindness and truth."

Deut. 7:9 "Know therefore that the LORD your God, He is God, the faithful God, who keeps His covenant and His lovingkindness to a thousandth generation with those who love Him and keep His commandments."

Deut. 32:4 "The Rock! His work is perfect, For all His ways are just; A God of faithfulness and without injustice, Righteous and upright is He."

2 Sam. 22:26 "With the kind You show Yourself kind, With the blameless You show Yourself blameless."

Ps. 89:2, 14 For I have said, "Lovingkindness will be built up forever; In the heavens You will establish Your faithfulness."... Righteousness and justice are the foundation of Your throne; Lovingkindness and truth go before You.

Ps. 111:7–8 The works of His hands are truth and justice; All His precepts are sure. They are upheld forever and ever; They are performed in truth and uprightness.

Ps. 119:75 I know, O LORD, that Your judgments are righteous, And that in faithfulness You have afflicted me.

Ps. 145:13 Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, And Your dominion endures throughout all generations.

Isa. 16:5 A throne will even be established in lovingkindness, And a judge will sit on it in faithfulness in the tent of David; Moreover, he will seek justice And be prompt in righteousness.

Isa. 25:1 O Lord, You are my God; I will exalt You, I will give thanks to Your name; For You have worked wonders, Plans formed long ago, with perfect faithfulness.

Isa. 42:3 "A bruised reed He will not break And a dimly burning wick He will not extinguish; He will faithfully bring forth justice."

Isa. 61:8 For I, the LORD, love justice, I hate robbery in the burnt offering; And I will faithfully give them their recompense And make an everlasting covenant with them.

1 Cor. 1:9 God is faithful, through whom you were called into fellowship with His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

1 Cor. 10:13 No temptation has overtaken you but such as is common to man; and God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will provide the way of escape also, so that you will be able to endure it.

2 Thess. 3:3 But the Lord is faithful, and He will strengthen and protect you from the evil one.

2 Tim. 2:13 If we are faithless, He remains faithful, for He cannot deny Himself.

Heb. 2:17 Therefore, He had to be made like His brethren in all things, so that He might become a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people.

Heb. 3:2, 5–6 [Jesus] was faithful to Him who appointed Him, as Moses also was in all His house. . . . Now Moses was faithful in all His house as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken later; but Christ was faithful as a Son over His house—whose house we are, if we hold fast our confidence and the boast of our hope firm until the end.

1 John 1:9 If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Rev. 19:11 And I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse, and He who sat on it is called Faithful and True, and in righteousness He judges and wages war.

FAITHFULNESS to God

Ps. 31:23 O love the LORD, all you His godly ones! The LORD preserves the faithful And fully recompenses the proud doer.

Ps. 37:28 For the LORD loves justice And does not forsake His godly ones; They are preserved forever, But the descendants of the wicked will be cut off.

Ps. 85:10–11 Lovingkindness and truth have met together; Righteousness and peace have kissed each other. Truth springs from the earth, And righteousness looks down from heaven.

Ps. 97:10 Hate evil, you who love the LORD, Who preserves the souls of His godly ones; He delivers them from the hand of the wicked.

Prov. 3:3 Do not let kindness and truth leave you; Bind them around your neck, Write them on the tablet of your heart.

Prov. 16:6 By lovingkindness and truth iniquity is atoned for, And by the fear of the LORD one keeps away from evil.

Prov. 20:6 Many a man proclaims his own loyalty, But who can find a trustworthy man?

Matt. 23:23 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe mint and dill and cummin, and have neglected the weightier provisions of the law: justice and mercy and faithfulness; but these are the things you should have done without neglecting the others."

Matt. 25:23 "His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful slave. You were faithful with a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.' "

Rom. 12:12 Rejoicing in hope, persevering in tribulation, devoted to prayer.

1 Cor. 4:2 In this case, moreover, it is required of stewards that one be found trustworthy.

Gal. 5:22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness.

1 Tim. 1:12 I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has strengthened me, because He considered me faithful, putting me into service.

1 Peter 4:10 As each one has received a special gift, employ it in serving one another as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.

Rev. 2:10 "Do not fear what you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to cast some of you into prison, so that you will be tested, and you will have tribulation for ten days. Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life."

Josh. 24:14; 1 Sam. 12:24; Ps. 101:6; Prov. 2:8; 14:22; 28:20; Ezek. 18:9; 1 Cor. 4:17; Eph. 1:1; 6:21; Col. 1:2; 1 Peter 5:12; 3 John 3, 5; Rev. 14:12; 17:14.

FAMILY

Deut. 11:19 "You shall teach them to your sons, talking of them when you sit in your house and when you walk along the road and when you lie down and when you rise up."

Ps. 127:3–5 Behold, children are a gift of the LORD, The fruit of the womb is a reward. Like arrows in the hand of a warrior, So are the children of one's youth. How blessed is the man whose quiver is full of them; They shall not be ashamed When they speak with their enemies in the gate.

Eph. 5:22–24 Wives, be subject to your own husbands, as to the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife, as Christ also is the head of the church, He Himself being the Savior of the body. But as the church is subject to Christ, so also the wives ought to be to their husbands in everything.

1 Tim. 3:2–5 An overseer, then, must be above reproach, the husband of one wife, temperate, prudent, respectable, hospitable, able to teach, not addicted to wine or pugnacious, but gentle, peaceable, free from the love of money. He must be one who manages his own household well, keeping his children under control with all dignity (but if a man does not know how to manage his own household, how will he take care of the church of God?).

FEAR. See COURAGE

FEAR OF THE LORD

Job 28:28 "And to man He said, 'Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; And to depart from evil is understanding.' "

Ps. 19:9 The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring forever; The judgments of the LORD are true; they are righteous altogether.

Ps. 111:10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; A good understanding have all those who do His commandments; His praise endures forever.

Prov. 1:7 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge; Fools despise wisdom and instruction.

Prov. 9:10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom, And the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.

Prov. 14:27 The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life, That one may avoid the snares of death.

Prov. 15:33 The fear of the LORD is the instruction for wisdom, And before honor comes humility.

Prov. 16:6 By lovingkindness and truth iniquity is atoned for, And by the fear of the LORD one keeps away from evil.

Prov. 22:4 The reward of humility and the fear of the LORD Are riches, honor and life.

Prov. 23:17 Do not let your heart envy sinners, But live in the fear of the LORD always.

Isa. 11:2–3 The Spirit of the LORD will rest on Him, The spirit of wisdom and understanding, The spirit of counsel and strength, The spirit of knowledge and the fear of the LORD. And He will delight in the fear of the LORD, And He will not judge by what His eyes see, Nor make a decision by what His ears hear.

Acts 9:31 So the church throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria enjoyed peace, being built up; and going on in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, it continued to increase.

2 Chron. 17:10; 19:7, 9; Prov. 2:5; 10:27; 15:16; 19:23; Isa. 33:6.

FELLOWSHIP

Acts 2:42 They were continually devoting themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer.

1 Cor. 1:9 God is faithful, through whom you were called into fellowship with His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

2 Cor. 6:14 Do not be bound together with unbelievers; for what partnership have righteousness and lawlessness, or what fellowship has light with darkness?

2 Cor. 13:14 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

Gal. 2:9 Recognizing the grace that had been given to me, James and Cephas and John, who were reputed to be pillars, gave to me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship, so that we might go to the Gentiles and they to the circumcised.

Phil. 3:10 That I may know Him and the power of His resurrection and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death.

1 John 1:3, 6–7 What we have seen and heard we proclaim to you also, so that you too may have fellowship with us; and indeed our fellowship is with the Father, and with His Son Jesus Christ. . . . If we say that we have fellowship with Him and yet walk in the darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth; but if we walk in the Light as He Himself is in the Light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus His Son cleanses us from all sin.

FORGIVENESS

Ps. 32:1 How blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, Whose sin is covered!

Matt. 6:12, 14–15 "'And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. . . .' For if you forgive others for their transgressions, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. But if you do not forgive others, then your Father will not forgive your transgressions."

Matt. 9:2, 5–6 And they brought to Him a paralytic lying on a bed. Seeing their faith, Jesus said to the paralytic, "Take courage, son; your sins are forgiven. . . . Which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up, and walk'? But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins"—then He said to the paralytic, "Get up, pick up your bed and go home."

Matt. 18:21–22 Then Peter came and said to Him, "Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me and I forgive him? Up to seven times?" Jesus said to him, "I do not say to you, up to seven times, but up to seventy times seven."

Matt. 26:28 This is My blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for forgiveness of sins.

Mark 11:25 "Whenever you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone, so that your Father who is in heaven will also forgive you your transgressions."

Luke 6:37 "Do not judge, and you will not be judged; and do not condemn, and you will not be condemned; pardon, and you will be pardoned."

Luke 7:47–49 "For this reason I say to you, her sins, which are many, have been forgiven, for she loved much; but he who is forgiven little, loves little." Then He said to her, "Your sins have been forgiven." Those who were reclining at the table with Him began to say to themselves, "Who is this man who even forgives sins?"

Luke 17:3–4 "Be on your guard! If your brother sins, rebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him. And if he sins against you seven times a day, and returns to you seven times, saying, 'I repent,' forgive him."

Luke 24:47 That repentance for forgiveness of sins would be proclaimed in His name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem.

Acts 2:38 Peter said to them, "Repent, and each of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit."

Eph. 1:7 In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of His grace.

Eph. 4:32 Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving each other, just as God in Christ also has forgiven you.

Col. 3:13 Bearing with one another, and forgiving each other, whoever has a complaint against anyone; just as the Lord forgave you, so also should you.

James 5:15 The prayer offered in faith will restore the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up, and if he has committed sins, they will be forgiven him.

1 John 1:9 If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Ps. 86:5; Matt. 12:31–32; 18:35; Mark 1:4; 2:5–10; 3:28–29; 4:12; Luke 1:77; 3:3; 5:20–24; 11:4; 12:10; 23:34; John 20:23; Acts 5:31; 8:22; 10:43; 13:38; 26:18; Rom. 4:7; 2 Cor. 2:7, 10; 12:13; Col. 1:14; Heb. 8:12; 9:22; 10:18; 1 John 2:12.

FRIENDSHIP

1 Sam. 20:42 Jonathan said to David, "Go in safety, inasmuch as we have sworn to each other in the name of the LORD, saying, 'The LORD will be between me and you, and between my descendants and your descendants forever.' " Then he rose and departed, while Jonathan went into the city.

Job 17:5 "He who informs against friends for a share of the spoil, The eyes of his children also shall languish."

Prov. 12:26 The righteous is a guide to his neighbor, But the way of the wicked leads them astray.

Prov. 14:20 The poor is hated even by his neighbor, But those who love the rich are many.

Prov. 16:28 A perverse man spreads strife, And a slanderer separates intimate friends.

Prov. 17:9 He who covers a transgression seeks love, But he who repeats a matter separates intimate friends.

Prov. 17:17 A friend loves at all times, And a brother is born for adversity.

Prov. 18:24 A man of many friends comes to ruin, But there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.

Prov. 22:24 Do not associate with a man given to anger; Or go with a hot-tempered man.

Prov. 27:6 Faithful are the wounds of a friend, But deceitful are the kisses of an enemy.

Prov. 27:9–10 Oil and perfume make the heart glad, So a man's counsel is sweet to his friend. Do not forsake your own friend or your father's friend, And do not go to your brother's house in the day of your calamity; Better is a neighbor who is near than a brother far away.

Eccl. 4:10 For if either of them falls, the one will lift up his companion. But woe to the one who falls when there is not another to lift him up.

Matt. 11:19 "The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Behold, a gluttonous man and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' Yet wisdom is vindicated by her deeds."

John 15:13–15 "Greater love has no one than this, that one lay down his life for his friends. You are My friends if you do what I command you. No longer do I call you slaves, for the slave does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all things that I have heard from My Father I have made known to you."

James 4:4 You adulteresses, do you not know that friendship with the world is hostility toward God? Therefore whoever wishes to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.

Job 2:11; Ps. 119:63; Prov. 19:4; 19:6–7; 22:11; Mic. 7:5; Luke 7:34; 11:5–8; 16:9; Acts 19:3; 24:23; 27:3.

Ps. 145:18 The LORD is near to all who call upon Him, To all who call upon Him in truth.

John 14:6 Jesus said to him, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me."

Heb. 4:16 Therefore let us draw near with confidence to the throne of grace, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

James 4:8 Draw near to God and He will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double-minded.

GOD, Creator

Gen. 1:1, 21, 26–27 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. . . . God created the great sea monsters and every living creature that moves, with which the waters swarmed after their kind, and every winged bird after its kind; and God saw that it was good. . . . Then God said, "Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness; and let them rule over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the sky and over the cattle and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth." God created man in His own image, in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them.

Gen. 5:1–2 This is the book of the generations of Adam. In the day when God created man, He made him in the likeness of God. He created them male and female, and He blessed them and named them Man in the day when they were created.

Ps. 148:5 Let them praise the name of the LORD, For He commanded and they were created.

Eccl. 12:1 Remember also your Creator in the days of your youth, before the evil days come and the years draw near when you will say, "I have no delight in them."

Isa. 40:28 Do you not know? Have you not heard? The Everlasting God, the LORD, the Creator of the ends of the earth Does not become weary or tired. His understanding is inscrutable.

Isa. 45:8 "Drip down, O heavens, from above, And let the clouds pour down righteousness; Let the earth open up and salvation bear fruit, And righteousness spring up with it. I, the LORD, have created it."

Isa. 65:17–18 "For behold, I create new heavens and a new earth; And the former things shall not be remembered or come to mind. But be glad and rejoice forever in what I create; For behold, I create Jerusalem for rejoicing And her people for gladness."

Rom. 1:25 For they exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen.

Col. 1:16 For by Him all things were created, both in the heavens and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—all things have been created through Him and for Him.

1 Tim. 4:3–4 [Some] forbid marriage and advocate abstaining from foods which God has created to be gratefully shared in by those who believe and know the truth. [But] everything created by God is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is received with gratitude.

Rev. 4:11 "Worthy are You, our Lord and our God, to receive glory and honor and power; for You created all things, and because of Your will they existed, and were created."

Ps. 139:13; Isa. 40:26; 42:5; 45:7, 12, 18; 57:16; Rev. 10:6.

GOD, grace of

Prov. 3:34 Though He scoffs at the scoffers, Yet He gives grace to the afflicted.

Zech. 12:10 "I will pour out on the house of David and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the Spirit of grace and of supplication, so that they will look on Me whom they have pierced; and they will mourn for Him, as one mourns for an only son, and they will weep bitterly over Him like the bitter weeping over a firstborn."

John 1:14–17 And the Word became flesh, and dwelt among us, and we saw His glory, glory as of the only begotten from the Father, full of grace and truth. John testified about Him and cried out, saying, "This was He of whom I said, 'He who comes after me has a higher rank than I, for He existed before me.' " For of His fullness we have all received, and grace upon grace. For the Law was given through Moses; grace and truth were realized through Jesus Christ.

Acts 11:23 Then when he arrived and witnessed the grace of God, he rejoiced and began to encourage them all with resolute heart to remain true to the Lord.

Acts 18:27 And when he wanted to go across to Achaia, the brethren encouraged him and wrote to the disciples to welcome him; and when he had arrived, he greatly helped those who had believed through grace.

Rom. 3:24 [We are] justified as a gift by His grace through the redemption which is in Christ Jesus.

Rom. 5:20–21 The Law came in so that the transgression would increase; but where sin increased, grace abounded all the more, so that, as sin reigned in death, even so grace would reign through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Rom. 11:5–6 In the same way then, there has also come to be at the present time a remnant according to God's gracious choice. But if it is by grace, it is no longer on the basis of works, otherwise grace is no longer grace.

1 Cor. 15:10 But by the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace toward me did not prove vain; but I labored even more than all of them, yet not I, but the grace of God with me.

2 Cor. 9:8 And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that always having all sufficiency in everything, you may have an abundance for every good deed.

Eph. 2:6–8 [God] raised us up with Him, and seated us with Him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the ages to come He might show the surpassing riches of His grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God.

Eph. 4:7 But to each one of us grace was given according to the measure of Christ's gift.

2 Tim. 1:9 [God] has saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to His own purpose and grace which was granted us in Christ Jesus from all eternity.

Heb. 12:15 See to it that no one comes short of the grace of God; that no root of bitterness springing up causes trouble, and by it many be defiled.

1 Peter 4:10 As each one has received a special gift, employ it in serving one another as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.

1 Peter 5:5 You younger men, likewise, be subject to your elders; and all of you, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another, for GOD IS OPPOSED TO THE PROUD, BUT GIVES GRACE TO THE HUMBLE.

Lev. 11:44–45 "For I am the LORD your God. Consecrate yourselves therefore, and be holy, for I am holy. And you shall not make yourselves unclean with any of the swarming things that swarm on the earth. For I am the LORD who brought you up from the land of Egypt to be your God; thus you shall be holy, for I am holy."

1 Sam. 2:2 "There is no one holy like the LORD, Indeed, there is no one besides You, Nor is there any rock like our God."

1 Sam. 6:20 The men of Beth-shemesh said, "Who is able to stand before the LORD, this holy God? And to whom shall He go up from us?"

Ps. 99:9 Exalt the LORD our God And worship at His holy hill, For holy is the LORD our God.

Isa. 5:16 But the LORD of hosts will be exalted in judgment, And the holy God will show Himself holy in righteousness.

Isa. 6:1–3 In the year of King Uzziah's death I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, lofty and exalted, with the train of His robe filling the temple. Seraphim stood above Him, each having six wings: with two he covered his face, and with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. And one called out to another and said, "Holy, Holy, Holy, is the LORD of hosts, The whole earth is full of His glory."

Hab. 1:12–13 Are You not from everlasting, O LORD, my God, my Holy One? We will not die. You, O LORD, have appointed them to judge; And You, O Rock, have established them to correct. Your eyes are too pure to approve evil, And You can not look on wickedness with favor. Why do You look with favor On those who deal treacherously? Why are You silent when the wicked swallow up Those more righteous than they?

Rom. 1:4 [He] was declared the Son of God with power by the resurrection from the dead, according to the Spirit of holiness, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Rev. 4:8 And the four living creatures, each one of them having six wings, are full of eyes around and within; and day and night they do not cease to say, "HOLY, HOLY, HOLY IS THE LORD GOD, THE ALMIGHTY, WHO WAS AND WHO IS AND WHO IS TO COME."

1 Kings 8:23 He said, "O LORD, the God of Israel, there is no God like You in heaven above or on earth beneath, keeping covenant and showing lovingkindness to Your servants who walk before You with all their heart."

1 Chron. 16:34 O give thanks to the LORD, for He is good; For His lovingkindness is everlasting.

Ps. 23:6 Surely goodness and lovingkindness will follow me all the days of my life, And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Ps. 25:6–7 Remember, O LORD, Your compassion and Your lovingkindnesses, For they have been from of old. Do not remember the sins of my youth or my transgressions; According to Your lovingkindness remember me, For Your goodness' sake, O LORD.

Ps. 33:5 He loves righteousness and justice; The earth is full of the lovingkindness of the LORD.

Ps. 86:5 For You, Lord, are good, and ready to forgive, And abundant in lovingkindness to all who call upon You.

Ps. 106:1 Praise the LORD! Oh give thanks to the LORD, for He is good; For His lovingkindness is everlasting.

Ps. 130:7 O Israel, hope in the LORD; For with the LORD there is lovingkindness, And with Him is abundant redemption.

Isa. 54:10 "For the mountains may be removed and the hills may shake, But My lovingkindness will not be removed from you, And My covenant of peace will not be shaken," Says the LORD who has compassion on you.

Jer. 31:3 The LORD appeared to him from afar, saying, "I have loved you with an everlasting love; Therefore I have drawn you with lovingkindness."

Zeph. 3:17 "The LORD your God is in your midst, A victorious warrior. He will exult over you with joy, He will be quiet in His love, He will rejoice over you with shouts of joy."

John 3:16 "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish, but have eternal life."

Rom. 8:38–39 For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Rom. 15:30 Now I urge you, brethren, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to strive together with me in your prayers to God for me.

2 Cor. 13:14 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

2 Thess. 3:5 May the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God and into the steadfastness of Christ.

1 Tim. 1:14 The grace of our Lord was more than abundant, with the faith and love which are found in Christ Jesus.

Jude 21 Keep yourselves in the love of God, waiting anxiously for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to eternal life.

GOD, sovereignty of

Ex. 15:18 "The LORD shall reign forever and ever."

Ps. 9:7 But the LORD abides forever; He has established His throne for judgment.

Ps. 11:4 The LORD is in His holy temple; the LORD's throne is in heaven; His eyes behold, His eyelids test the sons of men.

Ps. 93:1 The LORD reigns, He is clothed with majesty; The LORD has clothed and girded Himself with strength; Indeed, the world is firmly established, it will not be moved.

Ps. 97:1 The LORD reigns, let the earth rejoice; Let the many islands be glad.

Ps. 103:19 The LORD has established His throne in the heavens, And His sovereignty rules over all.

Isa. 9:7 There will be no end to the increase of His government or of peace, On the throne of David and over his kingdom, To establish it and to uphold it with justice and righteousness From then on and forevermore. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will accomplish this.

Isa. 40:21–26 Do you not know? Have you not heard? Has it not been declared to you from the beginning? Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth? It is He who sits above the circle of the earth, And its inhabitants are like grasshoppers, Who stretches out the heavens like a curtain And spreads them out like a tent to dwell in. He it is who reduces rulers to nothing, Who makes the judges of the earth meaningless. Scarcely have they been planted, Scarcely have they been sown, Scarcely has their stock taken root in the earth, But He merely blows on them, and they wither, And the storm carries them away like stubble. "To whom then will you liken Me That I would be his equal?" says the Holy One. Lift up your eyes on high And see who has created these stars, The One who leads forth their host by number, He calls them all by name; Because of the greatness of His might and the strength of His power, Not one of them is missing.

Isa. 45:9–10 "Woe to the one who quarrels with his Maker— An earthenware vessel among the vessels of earth! Will the clay say to the potter, 'What are you doing?' Or the thing you are making say, 'He has no hands'? Woe to him who says to a father, 'What are you begetting?' Or to a woman, 'To what are you giving birth?' "

Isa. 66:1 Thus says the LORD, "Heaven is My throne and the earth is My footstool. Where then is a house you could build for Me? And where is a place that I may rest?"

Jer. 23:5 "Behold, the days are coming," declares the LORD, "When I shall raise up for David a righteous Branch; And He will reign as king and act wisely And do justice and righteousness in the land."

Dan. 4:34–35 "But at the end of that period, I, Nebuchadnezzar, raised my eyes toward heaven and my reason returned to me, and I blessed the Most High and praised and honored Him who lives forever; For His dominion is an everlasting dominion, And His kingdom endures from generation to generation. All the inhabitants of the earth are accounted as nothing, But He does according to His will in the host of heaven And among the inhabitants of earth; And no one can ward off His hand Or say to Him, 'What have You done?' "

Luke 1:32 "He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High; and the Lord God will give Him the throne of His father David."

Acts 7:49 "HEAVEN IS MY THRONE, AND EARTH IS THE FOOTSTOOL OF MY FEET; WHAT KIND OF HOUSE WILL YOU BUILD FOR ME?" says the Lord, "OR WHAT PLACE IS THERE FOR MY REPOSE?" (cf. Isa. 66:1).

Rom. 14:11 For it is written, "AS I LIVE, SAYS THE LORD, EVERY KNEE SHALL BOW TO ME, AND EVERY TONGUE SHALL GIVE PRAISE TO GOD."

Rev. 11:15 Then the seventh angel sounded; and there were loud voices in heaven, saying, "The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ; and He will reign forever and ever."

Rev. 19:6 Then I heard something like the voice of a great multitude and like the sound of many waters and like the sound of mighty peals of thunder, saying, "Hallelujah! For the Lord our God, the Almighty, reigns."

1 Kings 22:19; 2 Chron. 18:18; Ps. 96:10; 99:1; 146:10; Lam. 5:19.

GOD, triunity of

Gen. 1:26 Then God said, "Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness; and let them rule over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the sky and over the cattle and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth."

Isa. 6:3 And one called out to another and said, "Holy, Holy, Holy, is the LORD of hosts, The whole earth is full of His glory."

Matt. 3:16–17 After being baptized, Jesus came up immediately from the water; and behold, the heavens were opened, and he saw the Spirit of God descending as a dove and lighting on Him, and behold, a voice out of the heavens said, "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well-pleased."

Matt. 28:19 "Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit."

John 14:16–18, 23 "I will ask the Father, and He will give you another Helper, that He may be with you forever; that is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it does not see Him or know Him, but you know Him because He abides with you and will be in you. I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. . . . If anyone loves Me, he will keep My word; and My Father will love him, and We will come to him and make Our abode with him."

John 15:26 "When the Helper comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, that is the Spirit of truth who proceeds from the Father, He will bear witness of Me."

John 16:7–16 "But I tell you the truth, it is to your advantage that I go away; for if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you; but if I go, I will send Him to you. And He, when He comes, will convict the world concerning sin and righteousness and judgment; concerning sin, because they do not believe in Me; and concerning righteousness, because I go to the Father and you no longer see Me; and concerning judgment, because the ruler of this world has been judged. I have many more things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. But when He, the Spirit of truth, comes, He will guide you into all the truth; for He will not speak on His own initiative, but whatever He hears, He will speak; and He will disclose to you what is to come. He will glorify Me, for He will take of Mine and will disclose it to you. All things that the Father has are Mine; therefore I said that He takes of Mine and will disclose it to you. A little while, and you will no longer see Me; and again a little while, and you will see Me."

Rom. 15:15–16 But I have written . . . because of the grace that was given me from God, to be a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles, ministering as a priest the gospel of God, so that my offering of the Gentiles may become acceptable, sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

Rom. 15:30 Now I urge you, brethren, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to strive together with me in your prayers to God for me.

2 Cor. 13:14 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

Eph. 4:4–6 There is one body and one Spirit, just as also you were called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all who is over all and through all and in all.

1 Peter 1:1–2 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who reside as aliens, scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, who are chosen according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, by the sanctifying work of the Spirit, to obey Jesus Christ and be sprinkled with His blood: May grace and peace be yours in the fullest measure.

Rev. 1:4–6 John to the seven churches that are in Asia: Grace to you and peace, from Him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven Spirits who are before His throne, and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To Him who loves us and released us from our sins by His blood— and He has made us to be a kingdom, priests to His God and Father—to Him be the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Rev. 4:8 And the four living creatures, each one of them having six wings, are full of eyes around and within; and day and night they do not cease to say, "HOLY, HOLY, HOLY IS THE LORD GOD, THE ALMIGHTY, WHO WAS AND WHO IS AND WHO IS TO COME."

Gen. 3:22; 11:6–7; Isa. 63:7–14.

GRACE. See GOD, grace of HAPPINESS

Ps. 1:1 How blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked, Nor stand in the path of sinners, Nor sit in the seat of scoffers!

Ps. 32:1–2 How blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, Whose sin is covered! How blessed is the man to whom the LORD does not impute iniquity, And in whose spirit there is no deceit!

Ps. 34:8 O taste and see that the LORD is good; How blessed is the man who takes refuge in Him!

Ps. 68:3 But let the righteous be glad; let them exult before God; Yes, let them rejoice with gladness.

Ps. 84:12 O LORD of hosts, How blessed is the man who trusts in You!

Ps. 113:9 He makes the barren woman abide in the house As a joyful mother of children. Praise the LORD!

Prov. 15:13 A joyful heart makes a cheerful face, But when the heart is sad, the spirit is broken.

Prov. 22:9 He who is generous will be blessed, For he gives some of his food to the poor.

Eccl. 3:12 I know that there is nothing better for them than to rejoice and to do good in one's lifetime.

Eccl. 5:19 Furthermore, as for every man to whom God has given riches and wealth, He has also empowered him to eat from them and to receive his reward and rejoice in his labor; this is the gift of God.

Eccl. 7:14 In the day of prosperity be happy, But in the day of adversity consider— God has made the one as well as the other So that man may not discover anything that will be after him.

Eccl. 11:9 Rejoice, young man, during your childhood, and let your heart be pleasant during the days of young manhood. And follow the impulses of your heart and the desires of your eyes. Yet know that God will bring you to judgment for all these things.

Matt. 5:3–11 "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. Blessed are the gentle, for they shall inherit the earth. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied. Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God. Blessed are those who have been persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when people insult you and persecute you, and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of Me."

Luke 6:20–22 And turning His gaze toward His disciples, He began to say, "Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. Blessed are you who hunger now, for you shall be satisfied. Blessed are you who weep now, for you shall laugh. Blessed are you when men hate you, and ostracize you, and insult you, and scorn your name as evil, for the sake of the Son of Man."

2 Cor. 7:13 For this reason we have been comforted. And besides our comfort, we rejoiced even much more for the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed by you all.

Eph. 1:3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ,

James 5:13 Is anyone among you suffering? Then he must pray. Is anyone cheerful? He is to sing praises.

Job 5:17; 29:4; Pss. 10:6; 40:4; 65:4; 84:5; 89:15; 94:12; 106:3; 112:1; 119:1–2; 128:1–4; 146:5; Prov. 3:13; 16:20; 20:7; 28:14; Jer. 17:7; Luke 11:28; James 1:12, 25; 1 Peter 3:14; 4:14.

HEAVEN

Isa. 66:1 Thus says the LORD, "Heaven is My throne and the earth is My footstool. Where then is a house you could build for Me? And where is a place that I may rest?"

Mark 16:19 So then, when the Lord Jesus had spoken to them, He was received up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God.

John 14:2–3 "In My Father's house are many dwelling places; if it were not so, I would have told you; for I go to prepare a place for you. If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself, that where I am, there you may be also."

2 Peter 3:13 But according to His promise we are looking for new heavens and a new earth, in which righteousness dwells.

Rev. 7:9 After these things I looked, and behold, a great multitude which no one could count, from every nation and all tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, and palm branches were in their hands.

Rev. 22:1–5 Then he showed me a river of the water of life, clear as crystal, coming from the throne of God and of the Lamb, in the middle of its street. On either side of the river was the tree of life, bearing twelve kinds of fruit, yielding its fruit every month; and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. There will no longer be any curse; and the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and His bond-servants will serve Him; they will see His face, and His name will be on their foreheads. And there will no longer be any night; and they will not have need of the light of a lamp nor the light of the sun, because the Lord God will illumine them; and they will reign forever and ever.

HELL

1 Sam. 2:6 "The LORD kills and makes alive; He brings down to Sheol and raises up."

Eccl. 9:10 Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with all your might; for there is no activity or planning or knowledge or wisdom in Sheol where you are going.

Matt. 5:22, 29–30 "But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother shall be guilty before the court; and whoever says to his brother, 'You good-for-nothing,' shall be guilty before the supreme court; and whoever says, 'You fool,' shall be guilty enough to go into the fiery hell. . . . If your right eye makes you stumble, tear it out and throw it from you; for it is better for you to lose one of the parts of your body, than for your whole body to be thrown into hell. If your right hand makes you stumble, cut it off and throw it from you; for it is better for you to lose one of the parts of your body, than for your whole body to go into hell."

Mark 9:47–48 "If your eye causes you to stumble, throw it out; it is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye, than, having two eyes, to be cast into hell, where THEIR WORM DOES NOT DIE, AND THE FIRE IS NOT QUENCHED."

Luke 12:5 "But I will warn you whom to fear: fear the One who, after He has killed, has authority to cast into hell; yes, I tell you, fear Him!"

Luke 16:23 "In Hades he lifted up his eyes, being in torment, and saw Abraham far away and Lazarus in his bosom."

James 3:6 And the tongue is a fire, the very world of iniquity; the tongue is set among our members as that which defiles the entire body, and sets on fire the course of our life, and is set on fire by hell.

2 Peter 2:4 For if God did not spare angels when they sinned, but cast them into hell and committed them to pits of darkness, reserved for judgment.

Rev. 1:18 "[I am] the living One; and I was dead, and behold, I am alive forevermore, and I have the keys of death and of Hades."

Rev. 6:8 I looked, and behold, an ashen horse; and he who sat on it had the name Death; and Hades was following with him. Authority was given to them over a fourth of the earth, to kill with sword and with famine and with pestilence and by the wild beasts of the earth.

Rev. 20:13–15 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it, and death and Hades gave up the dead which were in them; and they were judged, every one of them according to their deeds. Then death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire. And if anyone's name was not found written in the book of life, he was thrown into the lake of fire.

Ps. 9:17; Isa. 5:14; Matt. 10:28; 18:9; Mark 9:43–45.

HOLINESS, personal

Lev. 11:45 "For I am the LORD who brought you up from the land of Egypt to be your God; thus you shall be holy, for I am holy."

Ps. 119:1–3 How blessed are those whose way is blameless, Who walk in the law of the LORD. How blessed are those who observe His testimonies, Who seek Him with all their heart. They also do no unrighteousness; They walk in His ways.

Rom. 6:12–14 Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body so that you obey its lusts, and do not go on presenting the members of your body to sin as instruments of unrighteousness; but present yourselves to God as those alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God. For sin shall not be master over you, for you are not under law but under grace.

1 Cor. 1:2 To the church of God which is at Corinth, to those who have been sanctified in Christ Jesus, saints by calling, with all who in every place call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours.

Eph. 1:4 He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we would be holy and blameless before Him.

Phil. 2:14–15 Do all things without grumbling or disputing; so that you will prove yourselves to be blameless and innocent, children of God above reproach in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you appear as lights in the world.

Heb. 12:14 Pursue peace with all men, and the sanctification without which no one will see the Lord.

1 Peter 1:15–16 Like the Holy One who called you, be holy yourselves also in all your behavior; because it is written, "YOU SHALL BE HOLY, FOR I AM HOLY."

Rev. 22:11 "Let the one who does wrong, still do wrong; and the one who is filthy, still be filthy; and let the one who is righteous, still practice righteousness; and the one who is holy, still keep himself holy."

Lev. 19:2; 20:7, 26.

HOLY SPIRIT

Isa. 11:2 The Spirit of the LORD will rest on Him, The spirit of wisdom and understanding, The spirit of counsel and strength, The spirit of knowledge and the fear of the LORD.

Zech. 4:6 Then he answered and said to me, "This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel saying, 'Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit,' says the LORD of hosts."

Matt. 1:18, 20 Now the birth of Jesus Christ was as follows: when His mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together she was found to be with child by the Holy Spirit. But when he had considered this, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife; for the Child who has been conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit."

Matt. 3:11 "As for me, I baptize you with water for repentance, but He who is coming after me is mightier than I, and I am not fit to remove His sandals; He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire."

Matt. 12:32 "Whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man, it shall be forgiven him; but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven him, either in this age or in the age to come."

Luke 3:22 The Holy Spirit descended upon Him in bodily form like a dove, and a voice came out of heaven, "You are My beloved Son, in You I am well-pleased."

Luke 4:1 Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led around by the Spirit in the wilderness.

Luke 4:18 "THE SPIRIT OF THE LORD IS UPON ME, BECAUSE HE ANOINTED ME TO PREACH THE GOSPEL TO THE POOR. HE HAS SENT ME TO PROCLAIM RELEASE TO THE CAPTIVES, AND RECOVERY OF SIGHT TO THE BLIND, TO SET FREE THOSE WHO ARE DOWNTRODDEN,"

Luke 11:13 "If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him?"

John 14:26 "But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I said to you."

Acts 1:5, 8 "John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now. . . . But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be My witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and even to the remotest part of the earth."

Acts 2:38 Peter said to them, "Repent, and each of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit."

Acts 4:31 And when they had prayed, the place where they had gathered together was shaken, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak the word of God with boldness.

Rom. 14:17 The kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit.

Rom. 15:13 Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you will abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

1 Cor. 6:11 Such were some of you; but you were washed, but you were sanctified, but you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and in the Spirit of our God.

1 Cor. 12:3 Therefore I make known to you that no one speaking by the Spirit of God says, "Jesus is accursed"; and no one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit.

Eph. 1:13 In Him, you also, after listening to the message of truth, the gospel of your salvation—having also believed, you were sealed in Him with the Holy Spirit of promise.

Eph. 4:30 Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption.

2 Tim. 1:14 Guard, through the Holy Spirit who dwells in us, the treasure which has been entrusted to you.

Titus 3:5 He saved us, not on the basis of deeds which we have done in righteousness, but according to His mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewing by the Holy Spirit.

Heb. 2:4 God also testifying with them, both by signs and wonders and by various miracles and by gifts of the Holy Spirit according to His own will.

2 Peter 1:21 No prophecy was ever made by an act of human will, but men moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

Gen. 1:2; Isa. 61:1; Ezek. 37:14; 39:29; Mic. 2:7; 3:8; Luke 1:35; 2:25–26; 3:16; 12:10–12; John 1:33; Acts 2:4; 9:31; 13:2; 15:8; Rom. 15:16; Eph. 1:17; 1 Thess. 1:6; 1 Peter 1:12.

HOLY SPIRIT, deity of

Matt. 28:19 "Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit."

Acts 5:3–4 But Peter said, "Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and to keep back some of the price of the land? While it remained unsold, did it not remain your own? And after it was sold, was it not under your control? Why is it that you have conceived this deed in your heart? You have not lied to men but to God."

Acts 15:28 "For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us to lay upon you no greater burden than these essentials."

Acts 21:11 And coming to us, he took Paul's belt and bound his own feet and hands, and said, "This is what the Holy Spirit says: 'In this way the Jews at Jerusalem will bind the man who owns this belt and deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.' "

Acts 20:28 "Be on guard for yourselves and for all the flock, among which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the church of God which He purchased with His own blood."

1 Cor. 3:16 Do you not know that you are a temple of God and that the Spirit of God dwells in you?

1 Cor. 6:19 Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have from God, and that you are not your own?

2 Cor. 3:16–18 Whenever a person turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away. Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. But we all, with unveiled face, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as from the Lord, the Spirit.

2 Cor. 13:14 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

Heb. 3:7–11 Therefore, just as the Holy Spirit says, "TODAY IF YOU HEAR HIS VOICE, DO NOT HARDEN YOUR HEARTS AS WHEN THEY PROVOKED ME, AS IN THE DAY OF TRIAL IN THE WILDERNESS, WHERE YOUR FATHERS TRIED Me BY TESTING Me, AND SAW MY WORKS FOR FORTY YEARS. THEREFORE I WAS ANGRY WITH THIS GENERATION, AND SAID, 'THEY ALWAYS GO ASTRAY IN THEIR HEART, AND THEY DID NOT KNOW MY WAYS'; AS I SWORE IN MY WRATH, 'THEY SHALL NOT ENTER MY REST.' "

Heb. 9:14 How much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without blemish to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

HONESTY

Ex. 23:7 "Keep far from a false charge, and do not kill the innocent or the righteous, for I will not acquit the guilty."

Lev. 19:35–36 "You shall do no wrong in judgment, in measurement of weight, or capacity." You shall have just balances, just weights, a just ephah, and a just hin; I am the LORD your God, who brought you out from the land of Egypt."

1 Chron. 29:17 "Since I know, O my God, that You try the heart and delight in uprightness, I, in the integrity of my heart, have willingly offered all these things; so now with joy I have seen Your people, who are present here, make their offerings willingly to You."

Job 2:3 The LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered My servant Job? For there is no one like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man fearing God and turning away from evil. And he still holds fast his integrity, although you incited Me against him to ruin him without cause."

Prov. 10:9 He who walks in integrity walks securely, But he who perverts his ways will be found out.

Prov. 12:17 He who speaks truth tells what is right, But a false witness, deceit.

Prov. 13:6 Righteousness guards the one whose way is blameless, But wickedness subverts the sinner.

Prov. 13:11 Wealth obtained by fraud dwindles, But the one who gathers by labor increases it.

Prov. 16:13 Righteous lips are the delight of kings, And he who speaks right is loved.

Prov. 17:26 It is also not good to fine the righteous, Nor to strike the noble for their uprightness.

Prov. 24:26 He kisses the lips Who gives a right answer.

Jer. 5:1 "Roam to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, And look now and take note. And seek in her open squares, If you can find a man, If there is one who does justice, who seeks truth, Then I will pardon her."

Luke 16:10 "He who is faithful in a very little thing is faithful also in much; and he who is unrighteous in a very little thing is unrighteous also in much."

1 Tim. 3:8 Deacons likewise must be men of dignity, not double-tongued, or addicted to much wine or fond of sordid gain.

Titus 1:7 For the overseer must be above reproach as God's steward, not self-willed, not quick-tempered, not addicted to wine, not pugnacious, not fond of sordid gain.

Titus 2:7–8a Be an example of good deeds, with purity in doctrine, dignified, sound in speech which is beyond reproach.

HOPE

Ps. 33:18, 20, 22 Behold, the eye of the LORD is on those who fear Him, On those who hope for His lovingkindness. . . . Our soul waits for the LORD; He is our help and our shield. . . . Let Your lovingkindness, O LORD, be upon us, According as we have hoped in You.

Ps. 130:5, 7 I wait for the LORD, my soul does wait, And in His word do I hope. . . . O Israel, hope in the LORD; For with the LORD there is lovingkindness, And with Him is abundant redemption.

Isa. 40:31 Yet those who wait for the LORD Will gain new strength; They will mount up with wings like eagles, They will run and not get tired, They will walk and not become weary.

Isa. 49:23 "Kings will be your guardians, And their princesses your nurses. They will bow down to you with their faces to the earth And lick the dust of your feet; And you will know that I am the LORD; Those who hopefully wait for Me will not be put to shame."

Jer. 29:11 "For I know the plans that I have for you," declares the LORD, "plans for welfare and not for calamity to give you a future and a hope."

Lam. 3:25 The LORD is good to those who wait for Him, To the person who seeks Him.

Col. 1:4–5 We heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and the love which you have for all the saints; because of the hope laid up for you in heaven, of which you previously heard in the word of truth, the gospel.

1 Thess. 1:3 Constantly bearing in mind your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ in the presence of our God and Father.

1 Peter 1:3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to His great mercy has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

1 Peter 3:15 Sanctify Christ as Lord in your hearts, always being ready to make a defense to everyone who asks you to give an account for the hope that is in you, yet with gentleness and reverence.

Ps. 37:9; 71:5; 131:3; 146:5; 147:11; Jer. 14:22; Mic. 7:7; 1 Thess. 2:19.

HUMILITY

Num. 12:3 Now the man Moses was very humble, more than any man who was on the face of the earth.

2 Sam. 22:28 "And You save an afflicted people; But Your eyes are on the haughty whom You abase."

2 Chron. 7:14 "[If] My people who are called by My name humble themselves and pray and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, will forgive their sin and will heal their land."

Ps. 18:27 For You save an afflicted people, But haughty eyes You abase.

Ps. 25:9 He leads the humble in justice, And He teaches the humble His way.

Ps. 45:4 In Your majesty ride on victoriously, For the cause of truth and meekness and righteousness; Let Your right hand teach You awesome things.

Prov. 3:34 Though He scoffs at the scoffers, Yet He gives grace to the afflicted.

Prov. 11:2 When pride comes, then comes dishonor, But with the humble is wisdom.

Prov. 18:12 Before destruction the heart of man is haughty, But humility goes before honor.

Isa. 13:11 "Thus I will punish the world for its evil And the wicked for their iniquity; I will also put an end to the arrogance of the proud And abase the haughtiness of the ruthless."

Dan. 4:37 "Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise, exalt and honor the King of heaven, for all His works are true and His ways just, and He is able to humble those who walk in pride."

Zeph. 2:3 Seek the LORD, All you humble of the earth Who have carried out His ordinances; Seek righteousness, seek humility. Perhaps you will be hidden In the day of the LORD'S anger.

Matt. 11:29 "Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and YOU WILL FIND REST FOR YOUR SOULS."

Eph. 4:2 With all humility and gentleness, with patience, showing tolerance for one another in love.

Phil. 2:3 Do nothing from selfishness or empty conceit, but with humility of mind regard one another as more important than yourselves.

Col. 2:18 Let no one keep defrauding you of your prize by delighting in self-abasement and the worship of the angels, taking his stand on visions he has seen, inflated without cause by his fleshly mind.

Col. 2:23 These are matters which have, to be sure, the appearance of wisdom in self-made religion and self-abasement and severe treatment of the body, but are of no value against fleshly indulgence.

Col. 3:12 So, as those who have been chosen of God, holy and beloved, put on a heart of compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience.

Titus 3:1–2 Remind them to be subject to rulers, to authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good deed, to malign no one, to be peaceable, gentle, showing every consideration for all men.

James 3:13 Who among you is wise and understanding? Let him show by his good behavior his deeds in the gentleness of wisdom.

James 4:6 But He gives a greater grace. Therefore it says, "GOD IS OPPOSED TO THE PROUD, BUT GIVES GRACE TO THE HUMBLE."

James 4:10 Humble yourselves in the presence of the Lord, and He will exalt you.

1 Peter 3:8 To sum up, all of you be harmonious, sympathetic, brotherly, kindhearted, and humble in spirit.

1 Peter 5:5–6 You younger men, likewise, be subject to your elders; and all of you, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another, for GOD IS OPPOSED TO THE PROUD, BUT GIVES GRACE TO THE HUMBLE. Therefore humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you at the proper time.

JESUS CHRIST, deity of

Matt. 1:23 "BEHOLD, THE VIRGIN SHALL BE WITH CHILD AND SHALL BEAR A SON, AND THEY SHALL CALL HIS NAME IMMANUEL," which translated means, "GOD WITH US."

Matt. 3:17 Behold, a voice out of the heavens said, "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well-pleased."

John 1:1–3 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came into being through Him, and apart from Him nothing came into being that has come into being.

John 1:14–18 And the Word became flesh, and dwelt among us, and we saw His glory, glory as of the only begotten from the Father, full of grace and truth. John testified about Him and cried out, saying, "This was He of whom I said, 'He who comes after me has a higher rank than I, for He existed before me.' " For of His fullness we have all received, and grace upon grace. For the Law was given through Moses; grace and truth were realized through Jesus Christ. No one has seen God at any time; the only begotten God who is in the bosom of the Father, He has explained Him.

John 5:17 But He answered them, "My Father is working until now, and I Myself am working."

John 5:22–23 "For not even the Father judges anyone, but He has given all judgment to the Son, so that all will honor the Son even as they honor the Father. He who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent Him."

John 10:30–33 "I and the Father are one." The Jews picked up stones again to stone Him. Jesus answered them, "I showed you many good works from the Father; for which of them are you stoning Me?" The Jews answered Him, "For a good work we do not stone You, but for blasphemy; and because You, being a man, make Yourself out to be God."

John 20:28 Thomas answered and said to Him, "My Lord and my God!"

Phil. 2:5–8 Have this attitude in yourselves which was also in Christ Jesus, who, although He existed in the form of God, did not regard equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied Himself, taking the form of a bond-servant, and being made in the likeness of men. Being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.

Col. 1:15–20 And He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For by Him all things were created, both in the heavens and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—all things have been created through Him and for Him. He is before all things, and in Him all things hold together. He is also head of the body, the church; and He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that He Himself will come to have first place in everything. For it was the Father's good pleasure for all the fullness to dwell in Him, and through Him to reconcile all things to Himself, having made peace through the blood of His cross; through Him, I say, whether things on earth or things in heaven.

Heb. 1:8–9 But of the Son He says, "YOUR THRONE, O GOD, IS FOREVER AND EVER, AND THE RIGHTEOUS SCEPTER IS THE SCEPTER OF HIS KINGDOM. YOU HAVE LOVED RIGHTEOUSNESS AND HATED LAWLESSNESS; THEREFORE GOD, YOUR GOD, HAS ANOINTED YOU WITH THE OIL OF GLADNESS ABOVE YOUR COMPANIONS."

Heb. 13:8 Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today, yes and forever.

Rev. 1:17–18 When I saw Him, I fell at His feet like a dead man. And He placed His right hand on me, saying, "Do not be afraid; I am the first and the last, and the living One; and I was dead, and behold, I am alive forevermore, and I have the keys of death and of Hades."

JESUS CHRIST, Savior

Matt. 1:21 "She will bear a Son; and you shall call His name Jesus, for He will save His people from their sins."

Luke 2:11 "For today in the city of David there has been born for you a Savior, who is Christ the Lord."

John 4:42 They were saying to the woman, "It is no longer because of what you said that we believe, for we have heard for ourselves and know that this One is indeed the Savior of the world."

Acts 5:31 "He is the one whom God exalted to His right hand as a Prince and a Savior, to grant repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins."

Acts 13:23 "From the descendants of this man, according to promise, God has brought to Israel a Savior, Jesus."

Acts 16:31 They said, "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household."

Rom. 6:23 For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Eph. 5:23 For the husband is the head of the wife, as Christ also is the head of the church, He Himself being the Savior of the body.

Phil. 3:20 For our citizenship is in heaven, from which also we eagerly wait for a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Tim. 4:10b We have fixed our hope on the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of believers.

2 Tim. 1:10 But now has been revealed by the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.

Titus 1:4 To Titus, my true child in a common faith: Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior.

Titus 2:13 [We are] looking for the blessed hope and the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Christ Jesus.

2 Peter 1:1 Simon Peter, a bond-servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who have received a faith of the same kind as ours, by the righteousness of our God and Savior, Jesus Christ.

2 Peter 3:18 Grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To Him be the glory, both now and to the day of eternity. Amen.

1 John 4:14 We have seen and testify that the Father has sent the Son to be the Savior of the world.

Titus 2:10; 3:6; 2 Peter 1:11; 2:20; 3:2.

JESUS CHRIST, Lord

Luke 2:11 "For today in the city of David there has been born for you a Savior, who is Christ the Lord."

Luke 6:46 "Why do you call Me, 'Lord, Lord,' and do not do what I say?"

John 13:13 "You call Me Teacher and Lord; and you are right, for so I am."

Acts 9:5 And he said, "Who are You, Lord?" And He said, "I am Jesus whom you are persecuting."

Rom. 10:9 If you confess with your mouth Jesus as Lord, and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved.

Rom. 14:8–9 If we live, we live for the Lord, or if we die, we die for the Lord; therefore whether we live or die, we are the Lord's. For to this end Christ died and lived again, that He might be Lord both of the dead and of the living.

1 Cor. 8:6 For us there is but one God, the Father, from whom are all things and we exist for Him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we exist through Him.

1 Cor. 12:3 Therefore I make known to you that no one speaking by the Spirit of God says, "Jesus is accursed"; and no one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit.

2 Cor. 4:5 For we do not preach ourselves but Christ Jesus as Lord, and ourselves as your bond-servants for Jesus' sake.

Phil. 2:9–11 Therefore also God highly exalted Him, and bestowed on Him the name which is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus EVERY KNEE WILL BOW, of those who are in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and that every tongue will confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Col. 2:6–7 Therefore as you have received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in Him, having been firmly rooted and now being built up in Him and established in your faith, just as you were instructed, and overflowing with gratitude.

Col. 3:17, 23–24 Whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks through Him to God the Father. . . . Whatever you do, do your work heartily, as for the Lord rather than for men, knowing that from the Lord you will receive the reward of the inheritance. It is the Lord Christ whom you serve.

2 Tim. 4:8 In the future there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day; and not only to me, but also to all who have loved His appearing.

1 Peter 3:15 Sanctify Christ as Lord in your hearts, always being ready to make a defense to everyone who asks you to give an account for the hope that is in you, yet with gentleness and reverence.

2 Peter 3:18 Grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To Him be the glory, both now and to the day of eternity. Amen.

Rev. 17:14 "These will wage war against the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, because He is Lord of lords and King of kings, and those who are with Him are the called and chosen and faithful."

Matt. 12:8; Luke 11:1; 24:34; Acts 8:16; Rom. 4:24; 5:11; 6:23; 8:39; 13:14; 1 Cor. 4:5; 6:14; 15:57–58; 6:14; Phil. 3:8; 1 Thess. 5:23; 2 Thess. 1:7, 12; 2:1, 8; 2 Peter 1:16; Rev. 22:20.

JESUS CHRIST, second coming of Acts 1:9–11 And after He had said these things, He was lifted up while they were looking on, and a cloud received Him out of their sight. And as they were gazing intently into the sky while He was going, behold, two men in white clothing stood beside them. They also said, "Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into the sky? This Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will come in just the same way as you have watched Him go into heaven."

1 Cor. 15:23–26 But each [will be raised] in his own order: Christ the first fruits, after that those who are Christ's at His coming, then comes the end, when He hands over the kingdom to the God and Father, when He has abolished all rule and all authority and power. For He must reign until He has put all His enemies under His feet. The last enemy that will be abolished is death.

1 Cor. 15:51–53 Behold, I tell you a mystery; we will not all sleep, but we will all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet; for the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed. For this perishable must put on the imperishable, and this mortal must put on immortality.

1 Thess. 4:13–17 But we do not want you to be uninformed, brethren, about those who are asleep, so that you will not grieve as do the rest who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will bring with Him those who have fallen asleep in Jesus. For this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord, will not precede those who have fallen asleep. For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive and remain will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we shall always be with the Lord.

1 Tim. 6:13–15 I charge you in the presence of God, who gives life to all things, and of Christ Jesus, who testified the good confession before Pontius Pilate, that you keep the commandment without stain or reproach until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ, which He will bring about at the proper time—He who is the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords.

2 Tim. 4:8 In the future there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day; and not only to me, but also to all who have loved His appearing.

Titus 2:11–13 For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all men, instructing us to deny ungodliness and worldly desires and to live sensibly, righteously and godly in the present age, looking for the blessed hope and the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Christ Jesus.

JUDGMENT

Ps. 1:5 Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment, Nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous.

Ps. 9:7 But the LORD abides forever; He has established His throne for judgment.

Ps. 94:15 For judgment will again be righteous, And all the upright in heart will follow it.

Ps. 143:2 And do not enter into judgment with Your servant, For in Your sight no man living is righteous.

Eccl. 3:17 I said to myself, "God will judge both the righteous man and the wicked man," for a time for every matter and for every deed is there.

Eccl. 11:9 Rejoice, young man, during your childhood, and let your heart be pleasant during the days of young manhood. And follow the impulses of your heart and the desires of your eyes. Yet know that God will bring you to judgment for all these things.

Isa. 16:5 A throne will even be established in lovingkindness, And a judge will sit on it in faithfulness in the tent of David; Moreover, he will seek justice And be prompt in righteousness.

Matt. 5:21–22 "You have heard that the ancients were told, 'YOU SHALL NOT COMMIT MURDER' and 'Whoever commits murder shall be liable to the court.' But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother shall be guilty before the court; and whoever says to his brother, 'You good-for-nothing,' shall be guilty before the supreme court; and whoever says, 'You fool,' shall be guilty enough to go into the fiery hell."

Matt. 12:36 "But I tell you that every careless word that people speak, they shall give an accounting for it in the day of judgment."

Matt. 12:41–42 "The men of Nineveh will stand up with this generation at the judgment, and will condemn it because they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, something greater than Jonah is here. The Queen of the South will rise up with this generation at the judgment and will condemn it, because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, something greater than Solomon is here."

John 5:22 "For not even the Father judges anyone, but He has given all judgment to the Son."

Rom. 2:1–3, 5 Therefore you have no excuse, everyone of you who passes judgment, for in that which you judge another, you condemn yourself; for you who judge practice the same things. And we know that the judgment of God rightly falls upon those who practice such things. But do you suppose this, O man, when you pass judgment on those who practice such things and do the same yourself, that you will escape the judgment of God? . . . But because of your stubbornness and unrepentant heart you are storing up wrath for yourself in the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God.

Rom. 14:10, 13 But you, why do you judge your brother? Or you again, why do you regard your brother with contempt? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God. . . . Therefore let us not judge one another anymore, but rather determine this—not to put an obstacle or a stumbling block in a brother's way.

1 Cor. 2:15 But he who is spiritual appraises all things, yet he himself is appraised by no one.

1 Cor. 11:29, 31, 34 For he who eats and drinks, eats and drinks judgment to himself if he does not judge the body rightly. . . . But if we judged ourselves rightly, we would not be judged. . . . If anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, so that you will not come together for judgment. The remaining matters I will arrange when I come.

2 Cor. 5:10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may be recompensed for his deeds in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad.

2 Thess. 1:5 This is a plain indication of God's righteous judgment so that you will be considered worthy of the kingdom of God, for which indeed you are suffering.

1 Tim. 5:24 The sins of some men are quite evident, going before them to judgment; for others, their sins follow after.

Heb. 9:27 It is appointed for men to die once and after this comes judgment.

James 2:13 For judgment will be merciless to one who has shown no mercy; mercy triumphs over judgment.

James 4:11 Do not speak against one another, brethren. He who speaks against a brother or judges his brother, speaks against the law and judges the law; but if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but a judge of it.

1 Peter 4:17 For it is time for judgment to begin with the household of God; and if itbegins with us first, what will be the outcome for those who do not obey the gospel of God?

2 Peter 3:7 But by His word the present heavens and earth are being reserved for fire, kept for the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men.

1 John 4:17 By this, love is perfected with us, so that we may have confidence in the day of judgment; because as He is, so also are we in this world.

Rev. 20:12 And I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne, and books were opened; and another book was opened, which is the book of life; and the dead were judged from the things which were written in the books, according to their deeds.

John 5:30; 7:24; 8:15, 26; 9:39; 12:31; 16:8, 11; Rom. 5:16; 13:2; 1 Tim. 3:6; 5:12; Heb. 10:27; 2 Peter 2:4–9; Jude 6.

JUSTICE

Lev. 19:15 "You shall do no injustice in judgment; you shall not be partial to the poor nor defer to the great, but you are to judge your neighbor fairly."

Deut. 16:19 "You shall not distort justice; you shall not be partial, and you shall not take a bribe, for a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise and perverts the words of the righteous."

Ps. 45:6 Your throne, O God, is forever and ever; A scepter of uprightness is the scepter of Your kingdom.

Ps. 99:4 The strength of the King loves justice; You have established equity; You have executed justice and righteousness in Jacob.

Ps. 103:6 The LORD performs righteous deeds And judgments for all who are oppressed.

Ps. 106:3 How blessed are those who keep justice, Who practice righteousness at all times!

Ps. 112:5 It is well with the man who is gracious and lends; He will maintain his cause in judgment.

Prov. 28:5 Evil men do not understand justice, But those who seek the LORD understand all things.

Prov. 29:4 The king gives stability to the land by justice, But a man who takes bribes overthrows it.

Prov. 29:7 The righteous is concerned for the rights of the poor, The wicked does not understand such concern.

Isa. 9:7 There will be no end to the increase of His government or of peace, On the throne of David and over his kingdom, To establish it and to uphold it with justice and righteousness From then on and forevermore. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will accomplish this.

Isa. 30:18 Therefore the LORD longs to be gracious to you, And therefore He waits on high to have compassion on you. For the LORD is a God of justice; How blessed are all those who long for Him.

Isa. 42:1, 3–4 "Behold, My Servant, whom I uphold; My chosen one in whom My soul delights. I have put My Spirit upon Him; He will bring forth justice to the nations. . . . A bruised reed He will not break And a dimly burning wick He will not extinguish; He will faithfully bring forth justice. He will not be disheartened or crushed Until He has established justice in the earth; And the coastlands will wait expectantly for His law."

Isa. 59:8–9, 11, 14–15 They do not know the way of peace, And there is no justice in their tracks; They have made their paths crooked, Whoever treads on them does not know peace. Therefore justice is far from us, And righteousness does not overtake us; We hope for light, but behold, darkness, For brightness, but we walk in gloom. . . . All of us growl like bears, And moan sadly like doves; We hope for justice, but there is none, For salvation, but it is far from us. . . . Justice is turned back, And righteousness stands far away; For truth has stumbled in the street, And uprightness cannot enter. Yes, truth is lacking; And he who turns aside from evil makes himself a prey. Now the LORD saw, And it was displeasing in His sight that there was no justice.

Isa. 61:8 "For I, the LORD, love justice, I hate robbery in the burnt offering; And I will faithfully give them their recompense And make an everlasting covenant with them."

Amos 5:24 "But let justice roll down like waters And righteousness like an ever-flowing stream."

Mic. 3:8 On the other hand I am filled with power— With the Spirit of the LORD— And with justice and courage To make known to Jacob his rebellious act, Even to Israel his sin.

Hab. 1:4 Therefore the law is ignored And justice is never upheld. For the wicked surround the righteous; Therefore justice comes out perverted.

Zech. 7:9 "Thus has the LORD of hosts said, 'Dispense true justice and practice kindness and compassion each to his brother.'"

Matt. 12:18 "BEHOLD, MY SERVANT WHOM I HAVE CHOSEN; MY BELOVED IN WHOM MY SOUL IS WELL-PLEASED; I WILL PUT MY SPIRIT UPON HIM, AND HE SHALL PROCLAIM JUSTICE TO THE GENTILES."

Matt. 12:20 "A BATTERED REED HE WILL NOT BREAK OFF, AND A SMOLDERING WICK HE WILL NOT PUT OUT, UNTIL HE LEADS JUSTICE TO VICTORY."

Matt. 23:23 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe mint and dill and cummin, and have neglected the weightier provisions of the law: justice and mercy and faithfulness; but these are the things you should have done without neglecting the others."

Luke 18:7–8 Now, will not God bring about justice for His elect who cry to Him day and night, and will He delay long over them? "I tell you that He will bring about justice for them quickly. However, when the Son of Man comes, will He find faith on the earth?"

Acts 17:31 "He has fixed a day in which He will judge the world in righteousness through a Man whom He has appointed, having furnished proof to all men by raising Him from the dead."

Rom. 3:25–26 God displayed [Jesus] publicly as a propitiation in His blood through faith. This was to demonstrate His righteousness, because in the forbearance of God He passed over the sins previously committed; for the demonstration, I say, of His righteousness at the present time, so that He would be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus.

2 Cor. 7:11 For behold what earnestness this very thing, this godly sorrow, has produced in you: what vindication of yourselves, what indignation, what fear, what longing, what zeal, what avenging of wrong! In everything you demonstrated yourselves to be innocent in the matter.

Rev. 19:11 And I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse, and He who sat on it is called Faithful and True, and in righteousness He judges and wages war.

KINDNESS of God

Isa. 54:8 "In an outburst of anger I hid My face from you for a moment, But with everlasting lovingkindness I will have compassion on you," Says the LORD your Redeemer.

Isa. 63:7 I shall make mention of the lovingkindnesses of the LORD, the praises of the LORD, According to all that the LORD has granted us, And the great goodness toward the house of Israel, Which He has granted them according to His compassion And according to the multitude of His lovingkindnesses.

Jer. 9:24 "Let him who boasts boast of this, that he understands and knows Me, that I am the LORD who exercises lovingkindness, justice and righteousness on earth; for I delight in these things," declares the LORD.

Jer. 31:3 The LORD appeared to him from afar, saying, "I have loved you with an everlasting love; Therefore I have drawn you with lovingkindness."

Acts 14:17 "He did not leave Himself without witness, in that He did good and gave you rains from heaven and fruitful seasons, satisfying your hearts with food and gladness."

Rom. 2:4 Or do you think lightly of the riches of His kindness and tolerance and patience, not knowing that the kindness of God leads you to repentance?

Rom. 11:22 Behold then the kindness and severity of God; to those who fell, severity, but to you, God's kindness, if you continue in His kindness; otherwise you also will be cut off.

Eph. 2:6–7 [God] raised us up with Him, and seated us with Him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the ages to come He might show the surpassing riches of His grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus.

Titus 3:4–5 But when the kindness of God our Savior and His love for mankind appeared, He saved us, not on the basis of deeds which we have done in righteousness, but according to His mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewing by the Holy Spirit.

KINDNESS toward others

Prov. 11:16–17 A gracious woman attains honor, And violent men attain riches. The merciful man does himself good, But the cruel man does himself harm.

Prov. 12:25 Anxiety in the heart of a man weighs it down, But a good word makes it glad.

Prov. 19:17 He who is gracious to a poor man lends to the LORD, And He will repay him for his good deed.

Luke 6:35 "But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return; and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High; for He Himself is kind to ungrateful and evil men."

1 Cor. 13:4 Love is patient, love is kind and is not jealous; love does not brag and is not arrogant.

Gal. 5:22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness. . . .

Eph. 4:32 Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving each other, just as God in Christ also has forgiven you.

Col. 3:12 So, as those who have been chosen of God, holy and beloved, put on a heart of compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience.

1 Thess. 5:15 See that no one repays another with evil for evil, but always seek after that which is good for one another and for all people.

2 Tim. 2:24 The Lord's bond-servant must not be quarrelsome, but be kind to all, able to teach, patient when wronged.

2 Peter 1:5–7 Now for this very reason also, applying all diligence, in your faith supply moral excellence, and in your moral excellence, knowledge, and in your knowledge, self-control, and in your self-control, perseverance, and in your perseverance, godliness, and in your godliness, brotherly kindness, and in your brotherly kindness, love.

Prov. 14:21, 31; 28:8; Dan. 4:27; Hos. 11:4; Acts 4:9; 2 Cor. 6:6; Titus 2:5.

THE LAW

Ps. 1:1–3 How blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked, Nor stand in the path of sinners, Nor sit in the seat of scoffers! But his delight is in the law of the LORD, And in His law he meditates day and night. He will be like a tree firmly planted by streams of water, Which yields its fruit in its season And its leaf does not wither; And in whatever he does, he prospers.

Ps. 19:7–11 The law of the LORD is perfect, restoring the soul; The testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple. The precepts of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart; The commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes. The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring forever; The judgments of the LORD are true; they are righteous altogether. They are more desirable than gold, yes, than much fine gold; Sweeter also than honey and the drippings of the honeycomb. Moreover, by them Your servant is warned; In keeping them there is great reward.

Ps. 119:97–104 O how I love Your law! It is my meditation all the day. Your commandments make me wiser than my enemies, For they are ever mine. I have more insight than all my teachers, For Your testimonies are my meditation. I understand more than the aged, Because I have observed Your precepts. I have restrained my feet from every evil way, That I may keep Your word. I have not turned aside from Your ordinances, For You Yourself have taught me. How sweet are Your words to my taste! Yes, sweeter than honey to my mouth! From Your precepts I get understanding; Therefore I hate every false way.

Matt. 5:17–20 "Do not think that I came to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I did not come to abolish but to fulfill. For truly I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not the smallest letter or stroke shall pass from the Law until all is accomplished. Whoever then annuls one of the least of these commandments, and teaches others to do the same, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever keeps and teaches them, he shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I say to you that unless your righteousness surpasses that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven."

Rom. 7:4–8, 12 Therefore, my brethren, you also were made to die to the Law through the body of Christ, so that you might be joined to another, to Him who was raised from the dead, in order that we might bear fruit for God. For while we were in the flesh, the sinful passions, which were aroused by the Law, were at work in the members of our body to bear fruit for death. But now we have been released from the Law, having died to that by which we were bound, so that we serve in newness of the Spirit and not in oldness of the letter. What shall we say then? Is the Law sin? May it never be! On the contrary, I would not have come to know sin except through the Law; for I would not have known about coveting if the Law had not said, "YOU SHALL NOT COVET." But sin, taking opportunity through the commandment, produced in me coveting of every kind; for apart from the Law sin is dead. . . . So then, the Law is holy, and the commandment is holy and righteous and good.

Rom. 8:1–3 Therefore there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set you free from the law of sin and of death. For what the Law could not do, weak as it was through the flesh, God did: sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and as an offering for sin, He condemned sin in the flesh.

Gal. 3:10–14 For as many as are of the works of the Law are under a curse; for it is written, "CURSED IS EVERYONE WHO DOES NOT ABIDE BY ALL THINGS WRITTEN IN THE BOOK OF THE LAW, TO PERFORM THEM." Now that no one is justified by the Law before God is evident; for, "THE RIGHTEOUS MAN SHALL LIVE BY FAITH." However, the Law is not of faith; on the contrary, "HE WHO PRACTICES THEM SHALL LIVE BY THEM." Christ redeemed us from the curse of the Law, having become a curse for us—for it is written, "CURSED IS EVERYONE WHO HANGS ON A TREE"— in order that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we would receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

LAZINESS

Prov. 6:6, 9 Go to the ant, O sluggard, Observe her ways and be wise. . . . How long will you lie down, O sluggard? When will you arise from your sleep?

Prov. 10:4 Poor is he who works with a negligent hand, But the hand of the diligent makes rich.

Prov. 13:4 The soul of the sluggard craves and gets nothing, But the soul of the diligent is made fat.

Prov. 15:19 The way of the sluggard is as a hedge of thorns, But the path of the upright is a highway.

Prov. 19:15, 24 Laziness casts into a deep sleep, And an idle man will suffer hunger. . . . The sluggard buries his hand in the dish, And will not even bring it back to his mouth.

Prov. 20:4 The sluggard does not plow after the autumn, So he begs during the harvest and has nothing.

Prov. 22:13 The sluggard says, "There is a lion outside; I shall be slain in the streets!"

Prov. 26:14 As the door turns on its hinges, So does the sluggard on his bed.

Prov. 26:15 The sluggard buries his hand in the dish; He is weary of bringing it to his mouth again.

Prov. 26:16 The sluggard is wiser in his own eyes Than seven men who can give a discreet answer.

Eccl. 10:18 Through indolence the rafters sag, and through slackness the house leaks.

Matt. 25:26–27 "But his master answered and said to him, 'You wicked, lazy slave, you knew that I reap where I did not sow and gather where I scattered no seed. 'Then you ought to have put my money in the bank, and on my arrival I would have received my money back with interest."

Heb. 6:12 So that you will not be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

Prov. 10:26; 12:24, 27; 24:30; 26:13; Titus 1:12.

LIFE, spiritual, eternal

Ps. 23:6 Surely goodness and lovingkindness will follow me all the days of my life, And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Isa. 32:17 And the work of righteousness will be peace, And the service of righteousness, quietness and confidence forever.

John 3:14–16 "As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up; so that whoever believes will in Him have eternal life. For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish, but have eternal life."

John 3:36 "He who believes in the Son has eternal life; but he who does not obey the Son will not see life, but the wrath of God abides on him."

John 4:14 Whoever drinks of the water that I will give him shall never thirst; but the water that I will give him will become in him a well of water springing up to eternal life."

John 5:24 "Truly, truly, I say to you, he who hears My word, and believes Him who sent Me, has eternal life, and does not come into judgment, but has passed out of death into life."

John 6:27 "Do not work for the food which perishes, but for the food which endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you, for on Him the Father, even God, has set His seal."

John 6:40 "For this is the will of My Father, that everyone who beholds the Son and believes in Him will have eternal life, and I Myself will raise him up on the last day."

John 6:51, 54, 58 "I am the living bread that came down out of heaven; if anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever; and the bread also which I will give for the life of the world is My flesh. . . . He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. . . . This is the bread which came down out of heaven; not as the fathers ate and died; he who eats this bread will live forever."

John 10:28 "I give eternal life to them, and they will never perish; and no one will snatch them out of My hand."

John 12:25 "He who loves his life loses it, and he who hates his life in this world will keep it to life eternal."

John 17:2–3 "You gave Him authority over all flesh, that to all whom You have given Him, He may give eternal life. This is eternal life, that they may know You, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom You have sent."

Rom. 5:20–21 The Law came in so that the transgression would increase; but where sin increased, grace abounded all the more, so that, as sin reigned in death, even so grace would reign through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Rom. 6:22–23 But now having been freed from sin and enslaved to God, you derive your benefit, resulting in sanctification, and the outcome, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

1 Cor. 9:25 Everyone who competes in the games exercises self-control in all things. They then do it to receive a perishable wreath, but we an imperishable.

2 Cor. 4:17–5:1 For momentary, light affliction is producing for us an eternal weight of glory far beyond all comparison, while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen; for the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal. For we know that if the earthly tent which is our house is torn down, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

1 Tim. 6:12 Fight the good fight of faith; take hold of the eternal life to which you were called, and you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses.

1 John 2:17 The world is passing away, and also its lusts; but the one who does the will of God lives forever.

1 John 4:12 No one has seen God at any time; if we love one another, God abides in us, and His love is perfected in us.

1 John 5:11–13, 20 And the testimony is this, that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. He who has the Son has the life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have the life. These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life. . . . And we know that the Son of God has come, and has given us understanding so that we may know Him who is true; and we are in Him who is true, in His Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God and eternal life.

LISTENING to advice, truth, rebuke

Prov. 1:8 Hear, my son, your father's instruction And do not forsake your mother's teaching.

Prov. 12:15 The way of a fool is right in his own eyes, But a wise man is he who listens to counsel.

Prov. 13:1 A wise son accepts his father's discipline, But a scoffer does not listen to rebuke.

Prov. 13:10 Through presumption comes nothing but strife, But with those who receive counsel is wisdom.

Prov. 15:22 Without consultation, plans are frustrated, But with many counselors they succeed.

Prov. 15:31 He whose ear listens to the life-giving reproof Will dwell among the wise.

Prov. 19:20 Listen to counsel and accept discipline, That you may be wise the rest of your days.

Prov. 20:18 Prepare plans by consultation, And make war by wise guidance.

Prov. 25:12 Like an earring of gold and an ornament of fine gold Is a wise reprover to a listening ear.

Prov. 27:9 Oil and perfume make the heart glad, So a man's counsel is sweet to his friend.

Matt. 18:15–17 "If your brother sins, go and show him his fault in private; if he listens to you, you have won your brother. But if he does not listen to you, take one or two more with you, so that BY THE MOUTH OF TWO OR THREE WITNESSES EVERY FACT MAY BE CONFIRMED. If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if he refuses to listen even to the church, let him be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector."

Mark 9:7 Then a cloud formed, overshadowing them, and a voice came out of the cloud, "This is My beloved Son, listen to Him!"

John 6:45 "It is written in the prophets, 'AND THEY SHALL ALL BE TAUGHT OF GOD.' Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father, comes to Me."

John 10:27 "My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me."

John 18:37 Therefore Pilate said to Him, "So You are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say correctly that I am a king. For this I have been born, and for this I have come into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth hears My voice."

James 1:19 This you know, my beloved brethren. But everyone must be quick to hear, slow to speak and slow to anger.

James 1:22–24 But prove yourselves doers of the word, and not merely hearers who delude themselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks at his natural face in a mirror; for once he has looked at himself and gone away, he has immediately forgotten what kind of person he was.

1 John 4:6 We are from God; he who knows God listens to us; he who is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

Prov. 4:1, 10; 19:27; 22:17; 23:22; Eccl. 7:5; Ezek. 3:7; Matt. 17:5; Luke 9:35; 10:16.

LONELINESS

Ps. 25:16 Turn to me and be gracious to me, For I am lonely and afflicted.

Ps. 68:6 God makes a home for the lonely; He leads out the prisoners into prosperity, Only the rebellious dwell in a parched land.

Prov. 19:4 Wealth adds many friends, But a poor man is separated from his friend.

2 Tim. 1:15 You are aware of the fact that all who are in Asia turned away from me, among whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes.

2 Tim. 4:9–10 Make every effort to come to me soon; for Demas, having loved this present world, has deserted me and gone to Thessalonica; Crescens has gone to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia.

2 Tim. 4:16 At my first defense no one supported me, but all deserted me; may it not be counted against them.

LOVE for God

Deut. 6:5 "You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might."

Deut. 7:9 "Know therefore that the LORD your God, He is God, the faithful God, who keeps His covenant and His lovingkindness to a thousandth generation with those who love Him and keep His commandments."

Ps. 31:23 O love the LORD, all you His godly ones! The LORD preserves the faithful And fully recompenses the proud doer.

Ps. 73:25 Whom have I in heaven but You? And besides You, I desire nothing on earth.

Ps. 73:26 My flesh and my heart may fail, But God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.

Mark 12:29–33 Jesus answered, "The foremost is, 'HEAR, O ISRAEL! THE LORD OUR GOD IS ONE LORD; AND YOU SHALL LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART, AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL, AND WITH ALL YOUR MIND, AND WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH.' The second is this, 'YOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF.' There is no other commandment greater than these." The scribe said to Him, "Right, Teacher; You have truly stated that HE IS ONE, AND THERE IS NO ONE ELSE BESIDES HIM; AND TO LOVE HIM WITH ALL THE HEART AND WITH ALL THE UNDERSTANDING AND WITH ALL THE STRENGTH, AND TO LOVE ONE'S NEIGHBOR AS HIMSELF, is much more than all burnt offerings and sacrifices."

Luke 11:42 "But woe to you Pharisees! For you pay tithe of mint and rue and every kind of garden herb, and yet disregard justice and the love of God; but these are the things you should have done without neglecting the others."

Rom. 5:5 Hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out within our hearts through the Holy Spirit who was given to us.

1 Cor. 8:3 If anyone loves God, he is known by Him.

1 Cor. 16:22 If anyone does not love the Lord, he is to be accursed. Maranatha.

2 Thess. 3:5 May the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God and into the steadfastness of Christ.

2 Tim. 1:7 For God has not given us a spirit of timidity, but of power and love and discipline.

1 John 4:19–5:3 We love, because He first loved us. If someone says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for the one who does not love his brother whom he has seen, cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from Him, that the one who loves God should love his brother also. Whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God, and whoever loves the Father loves the child born of Him. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and observe His commandments. For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments; and His commandments are not burdensome.

Ex. 20:6; Deut. 10:12; Josh. 22:5; Ps. 91:14; Jer. 2:2; John 16:27.

LOVE for others

Deut. 10:19 "So show your love for the alien, for you were aliens in the land of Egypt."

Ps. 133:1–3 Behold, how good and how pleasant it is For brothers to dwell together in unity! It is like the precious oil upon the head, Coming down upon the beard, Even Aaron's beard, Coming down upon the edge of his robes. It is like the dew of Hermon Coming down upon the mountains of Zion; For there the LORD commanded the blessing— life forever.

John 13:14 "If I then, the Lord and the Teacher, washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet."

John 15:12 "This is My commandment, that you love one another, just as I have loved you."

Rom. 12:9–10 Let love be without hypocrisy. Abhor what is evil; cling to what is good. Be devoted to one another in brotherly love; give preference to one another in honor.

Rom. 13:8–10 Owe nothing to anyone except to love one another; for he who loves his neighbor has fulfilled the law. For this, "YOU SHALL NOT COMMIT ADULTERY, YOU SHALL NOT MURDER, YOU SHALL NOT STEAL, YOU SHALL NOT COVET," and if there is any other commandment, it is summed up in this saying, "YOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF." Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfillment of the law.

1 Cor. 13:1–9, 13 If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but do not have love, I have become a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. If I have the gift of prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. And if I give all my possessions to feed the poor, and if I surrender my body to be burned, but do not have love, it profits me nothing. Love is patient, love is kind and is not jealous; love does not brag and is not arrogant, does not act unbecomingly; it does not seek its own, is not provoked, does not take into account a wrong suffered, does not rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth; bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails; but if there are gifts of prophecy, they will be done away; if there are tongues, they will cease; if there is knowledge, it will be done away. For we know in part and we prophesy in part. . . . But now faith, hope, love, abide these three; but the greatest of these is love.

Eph. 5:2 Walk in love, just as Christ also loved you and gave Himself up for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God as a fragrant aroma.

Heb. 13:1 Let love of the brethren continue.

1 John 2:9–11 The one who says he is in the Light and yet hates his brother is in the darkness until now. The one who loves his brother abides in the Light and there is no cause for stumbling in him. But the one who hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

1 John 3:10–11, 16–18 By this the children of God and the children of the devil are obvious: anyone who does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor the one who does not love his brother. For this is the message which you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. . . . We know love by this, that He laid down His life for us; and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. But whoever has the world's goods, and sees his brother in need and closes his heart against him, how does the love of God abide in him? Little children, let us not love with word or with tongue, but in deed and truth.

1 John 4:7–12 Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God; and everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. The one who does not love does not know God, for God is love. By this the love of God was manifested in us, that God has sent His only begotten Son into the world so that we might live through Him. In this is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has seen God at any time; if we love one another, God abides in us, and His love is perfected in us.

LOVE, God's. See GOD, love of MARRIAGE

Gen. 2:24–25 For this cause a man shall leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave to his wife; and they shall become one flesh. And the man and his wife were both naked and were not ashamed.

Prov. 5:18 Let your fountain be blessed, And rejoice in the wife of your youth.

Prov. 12:4 An excellent wife is the crown of her husband, But she who shames him is as rottenness in his bones.

Prov. 18:22 He who finds a wife finds a good thing And obtains favor from the LORD.

Prov. 19:13–14 A foolish son is destruction to his father, And the contentions of a wife are a constant dripping. House and wealth are an inheritance from fathers, But a prudent wife is from the LORD.

Prov. 21:19 It is better to live in a desert land Than with a contentious and vexing woman.

Prov. 31:10, 30–31 An excellent wife, who can find? For her worth is far above jewels. . . . Charm is deceitful and beauty is vain, But a woman who fears the LORD, she shall be praised. Give her the product of her hands, And let her works praise her in the gates.

Matt. 5:31–32 "It was said, 'WHOEVER SENDS HIS WIFE AWAY, LET HIM GIVE HER A CERTIFICATE OF DIVORCE'; but I say to you that everyone who divorces his wife, except for the reason of unchastity, makes her commit adultery; and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery."

Rom. 7:2–3 For the married woman is bound by law to her husband while he is living; but if her husband dies, she is released from the law concerning the husband. So then, if while her husband is living she is joined to another man, she shall be called an adulteress; but if her husband dies, she is free from the law, so that she is not an adulteress though she is joined to another man.

1 Cor. 7:2–4, 10–14 But because of immorali-ties, each man is to have his own wife, and each woman is to have her own husband. The husband must fulfill his duty to his wife, and likewise also the wife to her husband. The wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband does; and likewise also the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife does. . . . But to the married I give instructions, not I, but the Lord, that the wife should not leave her husband (but if she does leave, she must remain unmarried, or else be reconciled to her husband), and that the husband should not divorce his wife. But to the rest I say, not the Lord, that if any brother has a wife who is an unbeliever, and she consents to live with him, he must not divorce her. And a woman who has an unbelieving husband, and he consents to live with her, she must not send her husband away. For the unbelieving husband is sanctified through his wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified through her believing husband; for otherwise your children are unclean, but now they are holy.

Eph. 5:22–28, 33 Wives, be subject to your own husbands, as to the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife, as Christ also is the head of the church, He Himself being the Savior of the body. But as the church is subject to Christ, so also the wives ought to be to their husbands in everything. Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ also loved the church and gave Himself up for her, so that He might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word, that He might present to Himself the church in all her glory, having no spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that she would be holy and blameless. So husbands ought also to love their own wives as their own bodies. He who loves his own wife loves himself. . . . Nevertheless, each individual among you also is to love his own wife even as himself, and the wife must see to it that she respects her husband.

Heb. 13:4 Marriage is to be held in honor among all, and the marriage bed is to be undefiled; for fornicators and adulterers God will judge.

Ps. 128:3; Prov. 21:9; 25:24; 27:15; 31:11–29; Eccl. 9:9; Matt. 19:3–10; Luke 16:18; 1 Cor. 5:1; 7:16, 27–39; 9:5; 1 Tim. 3:2, 12; 5:9; Titus 1:6.

MONEY

Prov. 13:11 Wealth obtained by fraud dwindles, But the one who gathers by labor increases it.

Prov. 17:16 Why is there a price in the hand of a fool to buy wisdom, When he has no sense?

Eccl. 5:10 He who loves money will not be satisfied with money, nor he who loves abundance with its income. This too is vanity.

Eccl. 7:12 For wisdom is protection just as money is protection, But the advantage of knowledge is that wisdom preserves the lives of its possessors.

Eccl. 10:19 Men prepare a meal for enjoyment, and wine makes life merry, and money is the answer to everything.

Isa. 55:2 "Why do you spend money for what is not bread, And your wages for what does not satisfy? Listen carefully to Me, and eat what is good, And delight yourself in abundance."

Matt. 6:24 "No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth."

Matt. 20:15 "Is it not lawful for me to do what I wish with what is my own? Or is your eye envious because I am generous?"

Acts 8:20 But Peter said to him, "May your silver perish with you, because you thought you could obtain the gift of God with money!"

1 Cor. 16:2 On the first day of every week each one of you is to put aside and save, as he may prosper, so that no collections be made when I come.

1 Tim. 3:3 [Be] not addicted to wine or pugnacious, but gentle, peaceable, free from the love of money.

1 Tim. 6:10 For the love of money is a root of all sorts of evil, and some by longing for it have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many griefs.

2 Tim. 3:2 For men will be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, arrogant, revilers, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy.

Heb. 13:5 Make sure that your character is free from the love of money, being content with what you have; for He Himself has said, "I WILL NEVER DESERT YOU, NOR WILL I EVER FORSAKE YOU."

1 Peter 5:2 Shepherd the flock of God among you, exercising oversight not under compulsion, but voluntarily, according to the will of God; and not for sordid gain, but with eagerness.

OLD AGE

Job 12:12 "Wisdom is with aged men, With long life is understanding."

Ps. 71:18 And even when I am old and gray, O God, do not forsake me, Until I declare Your strength to this generation, Your power to all who are to come.

Ps. 90:10 As for the days of our life, they contain seventy years, Or if due to strength, eighty years, Yet their pride is but labor and sorrow; For soon it is gone and we fly away.

Prov. 16:31 A gray head is a crown of glory; It is found in the way of righteousness.

Eccl. 12:1–7 Remember also your Creator in the days of your youth, before the evil days come and the years draw near when you will say, "I have no delight in them"; before the sun and the light, the moon and the stars are darkened, and clouds return after the rain; in the day that the watchmen of the house tremble, and mighty men stoop, the grinding ones stand idle because they are few, and those who look through windows grow dim; and the doors on the street are shut as the sound of the grinding mill is low, and one will arise at the sound of the bird, and all the daughters of song will sing softly. Furthermore, men are afraid of a high place and of terrors on the road; the almond tree blossoms, the grasshopper drags himself along, and the caperberry is ineffective. For man goes to his eternal home while mourners go about in the street. Remember Him before the silver cord is broken and the golden bowl is crushed, the pitcher by the well is shattered and the wheel at the cistern is crushed; then the dust will return to the earth as it was, and the spirit will return to God who gave it.

Isa. 46:4 Even to your old age I shall be the same, And even to your graying years I shall bear you! I have done it, and I shall carry you; And I shall bear you and I shall deliver you.

Titus 2:2–3 Older men are to be temperate, dignified, sensible, sound in faith, in love, in perseverance. Older women likewise are to be reverent in their behavior, not malicious gossips nor enslaved to much wine, teaching what is good.

PATIENCE

Ps. 37:7 Rest in the LORD and wait patiently for Him; Do not fret because of him who prospers in his way, Because of the man who carries out wicked schemes.

Prov. 14:29 He who is slow to anger has great understanding, But he who is quick-tempered exalts folly.

Prov. 15:18 A hot-tempered man stirs up strife, But the slow to anger pacifies contention.

Prov. 16:32 He who is slow to anger is better than the mighty, And he who rules his spirit, than he who captures a city.

Prov. 19:11 A man's discretion makes him slow to anger, And it is his glory to overlook a transgression.

Rom. 8:25 But if we hope for what we do not see, with perseverance we wait eagerly for it.

Rom. 12:12 Rejoicing in hope, persevering in tribulation, devoted to prayer.

1 Cor. 13:4a Love is patient, love is kind.

2 Cor. 1:6 But if we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation; or if we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which is effective in the patient enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer.

Gal. 5:22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness. . . .

Eph. 4:2 With all humility and gentleness, with patience, showing tolerance for one another in love.

Col. 3:12 So, as those who have been chosen of God, holy and beloved, put on a heart of compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience.

1 Thess. 5:14 We urge you, brethren, admonish the unruly, encourage the fainthearted, help the weak, be patient with everyone.

1 Tim. 1:16 Yet for this reason I found mercy, so that in me as the foremost, Jesus Christ might demonstrate His perfect patience as an example for those who would believe in Him for eternal life.

2 Tim. 3:10 But you followed my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, patience, love, perseverance.

2 Tim. 4:2 Preach the word; be ready in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort, with great patience and instruction.

Heb. 6:12 So that you will not be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

James 5:7–10 Therefore be patient, brethren, until the coming of the Lord. The farmer waits for the precious produce of the soil, being patient about it, until it gets the early and late rains. You too be patient; strengthen your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is near. Do not complain, brethren, against one another, so that you yourselves may not be judged; behold, the Judge is standing right at the door. As an example, brethren, of suffering and patience, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.

2 Peter 3:9 The Lord is not slow about His promise, as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not wishing for any to perish but for all to come to repentance.

2 Peter 3:15 Regard the patience of our Lord as salvation; just as also our beloved brother Paul, according to the wisdom given him, wrote to you.

Rev. 1:9 I, John, your brother and fellow partaker in the tribulation and kingdom and perseverance which are in Jesus, was on the island called Patmos because of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus.

Ps. 40:1; Prov. 25:15; Eccl. 7:8; Isa. 7:13; Rom. 9:22; 2 Cor. 6:6; Col. 1:11; 1 Peter 3:20; Rev. 3:10.

POWER

Prov. 3:27 Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, When it is in your power to do it.

Prov. 11:7 When a wicked man dies, his expectation will perish, And the hope of strong men perishes.

Prov. 24:5 A wise man is strong, And a man of knowledge increases power.

Prov. 30:26 The badgers are not mighty folk, Yet they make their houses in the rocks.

Eccl. 8:8 No man has authority to restrain the wind with the wind, or authority over the day of death; and there is no discharge in the time of war, and evil will not deliver those who practice it.

Isa. 40:29 He gives strength to the weary, And to him who lacks might He increases power.

Luke 1:17 "It is he who will go as a forerunner before Him in the spirit and power of Elijah, TO TURN THE HEARTS OF THE FATHERS BACK TO THE CHILDREN, and the disobedient to the attitude of the righteous, so as to make ready a people prepared for the Lord."

Luke 1:35 The angel answered and said to her, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; and for that reason the holy Child shall be called the Son of God."

Luke 4:36 And amazement came upon them all, and they began talking with one another saying, "What is this message? For with authority and power He commands the unclean spirits and they come out."

Luke 6:19 And all the people were trying to touch Him, for power was coming from Him and healing them all.

Acts 1:8 "You will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be My witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and even to the remotest part of the earth."

Acts 4:33 And with great power the apostles were giving testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and abundant grace was upon them all.

Acts 6:8 And Stephen, full of grace and power, was performing great wonders and signs among the people.

Rom. 1:16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek.

1 Cor. 1:18 For the word of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.

1 Cor. 4:20 For the kingdom of God does not consist in words but in power.

2 Cor. 4:7 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, so that the surpassing greatness of the power will be of God and not from ourselves.

2 Cor. 10:4 For the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but divinely powerful for the destruction of fortresses.

2 Cor. 12:9 And He has said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for power is perfected in weakness." Most gladly, therefore, I will rather boast about my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may dwell in me.

Eph. 3:16 That He would grant you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with power through His Spirit in the inner man.

Eph. 6:10 Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the strength of His might.

2 Tim. 1:7–8 For God has not given us a spirit of timidity, but of power and love and discipline. Therefore do not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord or of me His prisoner, but join with me in suffering for the gospel according to the power of God.

2 Peter 1:3 Seeing that His divine power has granted to us everything pertaining to life and godliness, through the true knowledge of Him who called us by His own glory and excellence.

PRAISE

Ps. 34:1 I will bless the LORD at all times; His praise shall continually be in my mouth.

Ps. 71:22–23 I will also praise You with a harp, Even Your truth, O my God; To You I will sing praises with the lyre, O Holy One of Israel. My lips will shout for joy when I sing praises to You; And my soul, which You have redeemed.

Ps. 100:1–5 Shout joyfully to the LORD, all the earth. Serve the LORD with gladness; Come before Him with joyful singing. Know that the LORD Himself is God; It is He who has made us, and not we ourselves; We are His people and the sheep of His pasture. Enter His gates with thanksgiving And His courts with praise. Give thanks to Him, bless His name. For the LORD is good; His lovingkindness is everlasting And His faithfulness to all generations.

Ps. 103:1–5, 20–22 Bless the LORD, O my soul, And all that is within me, bless His holy name. Bless the LORD, O my soul, And forget none of His benefits; Who pardons all your iniquities, Who heals all your diseases; Who redeems your life from the pit, Who crowns you with lovingkindness and compassion; Who satisfies your years with good things, So that your youth is renewed like the eagle. . . . Bless the LORD, you His angels, Mighty in strength, who perform His word, Obeying the voice of His word! Bless the LORD, all you His hosts, You who serve Him, doing His will. Bless the LORD, all you works of His, In all places of His dominion; Bless the LORD, O my soul!

Ps. 113:1–4 Praise the LORD! Praise, O servants of the LORD, Praise the name of the LORD. Blessed be the name of the LORD From this time forth and forever. From the rising of the sun to its setting The name of the LORD is to be praised. The LORD is high above all nations; His glory is above the heavens.

Ps. 145:1–7 I will extol You, my God, O King, And I will bless Your name forever and ever. Every day I will bless You, And I will praise Your name forever and ever. Great is the LORD, and highly to be praised, And His greatness is unsearchable. One generation shall praise Your works to another, And shall declare Your mighty acts. On the glorious splendor of Your majesty And on Your wonderful works, I will meditate. Men shall speak of the power of Your awesome acts, And I will tell of Your greatness. They shall eagerly utter the memory of Your abundant goodness And shall shout joyfully of Your righteousness.

Ps. 148:1–5 Praise the LORD! Praise the LORD from the heavens; Praise Him in the heights! Praise Him, all His angels; Praise Him, all His hosts! Praise Him, sun and moon; Praise Him, all stars of light! Praise Him, highest heavens, And the waters that are above the heavens! Let them praise the name of the LORD, For He commanded and they were created.

Rom. 15:7 Therefore, accept one another, just as Christ also accepted us to the glory of God.

Eph. 1:3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ; who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ.

Heb. 13:15 Through Him then, let us continually offer up a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that give thanks to His name.

James 5:13 Is anyone among you suffering? Then he must pray. Is anyone cheerful? He is to sing praises.

Rev. 5:12 "Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power and riches and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing."

Rev. 7:12 "Amen, blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might, be to our God forever and ever. Amen."

Rev. 19:6–7 Then I heard something like the voice of a great multitude and like the sound of many waters and like the sound of mighty peals of thunder, saying, "Hallelujah! For the Lord our God, the Almighty, reigns. Let us rejoice and be glad and give the glory to Him, for the marriage of the Lamb has come and His bride has made herself ready."

PRAYER

2 Chron. 7:14 [If] My people who are called by My name humble themselves and pray and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, will forgive their sin and will heal their land.

Ps. 145:18 The LORD is near to all who call upon Him, To all who call upon Him in truth.

Matt. 6:6 "But you, when you pray, go into your inner room, close your door and pray to your Father who is in secret, and your Father who sees what is done in secret will reward you."

Matt. 7:7–8 "Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened."

Matt. 21:22 "And all things you ask in prayer, believing, you will receive."

John 14:13–14 "Whatever you ask in My name, that will I do, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If you ask Me anything in My name, I will do it."

John 15:17 "This I command you, that you love one another."

1 Tim. 2:8 Therefore I want the men in every place to pray, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and dissension.

James 5:17–18 Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed earnestly that it would not rain, and it did not rain on the earth for three years and six months. Then he prayed again, and the sky poured rain and the earth produced its fruit.

PRIDE

Ps. 10:4 The wicked, in the haughtiness of his countenance, does not seek Him. All his thoughts are, "There is no God."

Ps. 94:2 Rise up, O Judge of the earth, Render recompense to the proud.

Prov. 3:34 Though He scoffs at the scoffers, Yet He gives grace to the afflicted.

Prov. 8:13 "The fear of the LORD is to hate evil; Pride and arrogance and the evil way And the perverted mouth, I hate."

Prov. 16:5 Everyone who is proud in heart is an abomination to the LORD; Assuredly, he will not be unpunished.

Prov. 16:18 Pride goes before destruction, And a haughty spirit before stumbling.

Prov. 16:19 It is better to be of a humble spirit with the lowly Than to divide the spoil with the proud.

Prov. 18:12 Before destruction the heart of man is haughty, But humility goes before honor.

Prov. 21:4 Haughty eyes and a proud heart, The lamp of the wicked, is sin.

Prov. 21:24 "Proud," "Haughty," "Scoffer," are his names, Who acts with insolent pride.

Eccl. 7:8 The end of a matter is better than its beginning; Patience of spirit is better than haughtiness of spirit.

Isa. 13:11 Thus I will punish the world for its evil And the wicked for their iniquity; I will also put an end to the arrogance of the proud And abase the haughtiness of the ruthless.

Ezek. 28:2 "Son of man, say to the leader of Tyre, 'Thus says the Lord GOD, Because your heart is lifted up And you have said, 'I am a god, I sit in the seat of gods In the heart of the seas'; Yet you are a man and not God, Although you make your heart like the heart of God."

Dan. 4:37 "Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise, exalt and honor the King of heaven, for all His works are true and His ways just, and He is able to humble those who walk in pride."

Rom. 12:16 Be of the same mind toward one another; do not be haughty in mind, but associate with the lowly. Do not be wise in your own estimation.

1 Cor. 4:6 Now these things, brethren, I have figuratively applied to myself and Apollos for your sakes, so that in us you may learn not to exceed what is written, so that no one of you will become arrogant in behalf of one against the other.

1 Cor. 5:2 You have become arrogant and have not mourned instead, so that the one who had done this deed would be removed from your midst.

1 Cor. 13:4 Love is patient, love is kind and is not jealous; love does not brag and is not arrogant.

2 Cor. 5:12 We are not again commending ourselves to you but are giving you an occasion to be proud of us, so that you will have an answer for those who take pride in appearance and not in heart.

Gal. 6:4 But each one must examine his own work, and then he will have reason for boasting in regard to himself alone, and not in regard to another.

2 Tim. 3:2 For men will be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, arrogant, revilers, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy.

James 1:9–10 But the brother of humble circumstances is to glory in his high position. . . . and the rich man is to glory in his humiliation, because like flowering grass he will pass away.

James 4:6 But He gives a greater grace. Therefore it says, "GOD IS OPPOSED TO THE PROUD, BUT GIVES GRACE TO THE HUMBLE."

1 Peter 5:5 You younger men, likewise, be subject to your elders; and all of you, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another, for GOD IS OPPOSED TO THE PROUD, BUT GIVES GRACE TO THE HUMBLE.

Pss. 31:18; 31:23; 36:11; 40:4; 56:2; 59:12; 62:10; 73:6; 101:5; 123:4; 131:1; 138:6; 140:8; Prov. 11:2; 143:14; Jer. 13:17; 48:29; 49:16; Ezek. 7:20; 7:24; 28:2–19; Dan. 5:20; 11:12; Hos. 13:6; Obad. 3; Zeph. 2:10; 3:11; Luke 1:51; 2 Cor. 7:4; 8:24.

PURITY. See SANCTIFICATION

REPENTANCE

Isa. 30:15 For thus the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel, has said, "In repentance and rest you shall be saved, In quietness and trust is your strength." But you were not willing.

Isa. 59:20 "A Redeemer will come to Zion, And to those who turn from transgression in Jacob," declares the LORD.

Ezek. 18:32 "For I have no pleasure in the death of anyone who dies," declares the Lord GOD. "Therefore, repent and live."

Matt. 3:8 "Therefore bear fruit in keeping with repentance."

Matt. 4:17 From that time Jesus began to preach and say, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

Mark 1:15 "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent and believe in the gospel."

Luke 5:32 "I have not come to call the righteous but sinners to repentance."

Luke 10:13 "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles had been performed in Tyre and Sidon which occurred in you, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes."

Luke 13:3 "I tell you, no, but unless you repent, you will all likewise perish."

Luke 15:7 "I tell you that in the same way, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance."

Luke 17:3–4 "Be on your guard! If your brother sins, rebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him. And if he sins against you seven times a day, and returns to you seven times, saying, 'I repent,' forgive him."

Luke 24:47 And that repentance for forgiveness of sins would be proclaimed in His name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem.

Acts 2:38 Peter said to them, "Repent, and each of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit."

Acts 3:19 "Therefore repent and return, so that your sins may be wiped away, in order that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord."

Acts 5:31 "He is the one whom God exalted to His right hand as a Prince and a Savior, to grant repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins."

Acts 11:18 When they heard this, they quieted down and glorified God, saying, "Well then, God has granted to the Gentiles also the repentance that leads to life."

Acts 17:30 "Therefore having overlooked the times of ignorance, God is now declaring to men that all people everywhere should repent."

Acts 20:21 Solemnly testifying to both Jews and Greeks of repentance toward God and faith in our Lord Jesus Christ.

Acts 26:20 "[I] kept declaring both to those of Damascus first, and also at Jerusalem and then throughout all the region of Judea, and even to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, performing deeds appropriate to repentance."

Rom. 2:4 Or do you think lightly of the riches of His kindness and tolerance and patience, not knowing that the kindness of God leads you to repentance?

2 Cor. 7:10 For the sorrow that is according to the will of God produces a repentance without regret, leading to salvation, but the sorrow of the world produces death.

2 Tim. 2:25 With gentleness correcting those who are in opposition, if perhaps God may grant them repentance leading to the knowledge of the truth.

2 Peter 3:9 The Lord is not slow about His promise, as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not wishing for any to perish but for all to come to repentance.

Rev. 3:19 "Those whom I love, I reprove and discipline; therefore be zealous and repent."

Jer. 8:6; 15:19; 18:8; 34:15; Ezek. 14:6; 18:30; Zech. 1:6; Matt. 3:2, 11; 11:20–21; 12:41; 21:32; Mark 1:4; 6:12; Luke 3:3, 8; 11:32; 13:5; 15:10; 16:30; Acts 8:22; 13:24; 19:4; 2 Cor. 7:9; 12:21; Heb. 6:1, 6; Rev. 2:5, 16, 21–22; 3:3; 9:20–21; 16:9–11.

RESURRECTION

Job 19:25–27 "As for me, I know that my Redeemer lives, And at the last He will take His stand on the earth. Even after my skin is destroyed, Yet from my flesh I shall see God; Whom I myself shall behold, And whom my eyes shall see and not another. My heart faints within me!"

Ps. 49:15 But God will redeem my soul from the power of Sheol, For He will receive me. Selah.

John 6:39–40, 44, 54 "This is the will of Him who sent Me, that of all that He has given Me I lose nothing, but raise it up on the last day. For this is the will of My Father, that everyone who beholds the Son and believes in Him will have eternal life, and I Myself will raise him up on the last day. . . . No one can come to Me unless the Father who sent Me draws him; and I will raise him up on the last day. . . . He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day."

John 11:24–25 Martha said to Him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day." Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life; he who believes in Me will live even if he dies,"

Acts 4:33 And with great power the apostles were giving testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and abundant grace was upon them all.

Acts 17:18 And also some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers were conversing with him. Some were saying, "What would this idle babbler wish to say?" Others, "He seems to be a proclaimer of strange deities,"—because he was preaching Jesus and the resurrection.

Acts 24:15 "[We have] a hope in God, which these men cherish themselves, that there shall certainly be a resurrection of both the righteous and the wicked."

Rom. 1:4 [He] was declared the Son of God with power by the resurrection from the dead, according to the Spirit of holiness, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Rom. 6:5 For if we have become united with Him in the likeness of His death, certainly we shall also be in the likeness of His resurrection.

1 Cor. 15:12–21 Now if Christ is preached, that He has been raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? But if there is no resurrection of the dead, not even Christ has been raised; and if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is vain, your faith also is vain. Moreover we are even found to be false witnesses of God, because we testified against God that He raised Christ, whom He did not raise, if in fact the dead are not raised. For if the dead are not raised, not even Christ has been raised; and if Christ has not been raised, your faith is worthless; you are still in your sins. Then those also who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished. If we have hoped in Christ in this life only, we are of all men most to be pitied. But now Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who are asleep. For since by a man came death, by a man also came the resurrection of the dead.

1 Cor. 15:35–42 But someone will say, "How are the dead raised? And with what kind of body do they come?" You fool! That which you sow does not come to life unless it dies; and that which you sow, you do not sow the body which is to be, but a bare grain, perhaps of wheat or of something else. But God gives it a body just as He wished, and to each of the seeds a body of its own. All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another flesh of birds, and another of fish. There are also heavenly bodies and earthly bodies, but the glory of the heavenly is one, and the glory of the earthly is another. There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for star differs from star in glory. So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown a perishable body, it is raised an imperishable body.

Phil. 3:10–11 That I may know Him and the power of His resurrection and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death; in order that I may attain to the resurrection from the dead.

1 Peter 1:3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to His great mercy has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

1 Peter 3:21 Corresponding to that, baptism now saves you—not the removal of dirt from the flesh, but an appeal to God for a good conscience —through the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Rev. 20:5–6 The rest of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years were completed. This is the first resurrection. Blessed and holy is the one who has a part in the first resurrection; over these the second death has no power, but they will be priests of God and of Christ and will reign with Him for a thousand years.

Matt. 22:23–31; 27:53; Mark 12:18, 23; Luke 14:14; 20:27–36; Acts 1:22; 2:31; 4:2; 17:32; 23:6–8.

REWARDS

Ps. 58:11 And men will say, "Surely there is a reward for the righteous; Surely there is a God who judges on earth!"

Ps. 62:12 And lovingkindness is Yours, O Lord, For You recompense a man according to his work.

Ps. 127:3 Behold, children are a gift of the LORD, The fruit of the womb is a reward.

Isa. 40:10 Behold, the Lord GOD will come with might, With His arm ruling for Him. Behold, His reward is with Him And His recompense before Him.

Jer. 17:10 "I, the LORD, search the heart, I test the mind, Even to give to each man according to his ways, According to the results of his deeds."

Matt. 5:12 "Rejoice and be glad, for your reward in heaven is great; for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you."

Matt. 6:1–6 "Beware of practicing your righteousness before men to be noticed by them; otherwise you have no reward with your Father who is in heaven. So when you give to the poor, do not sound a trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, so that they may be honored by men. Truly I say to you, they have their reward in full. But when you give to the poor, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, so that your giving will be in secret; and your Father who sees what is done in secret will reward you. When you pray, you are not to be like the hypocrites; for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and on the street corners so that they may be seen by men. Truly I say to you, they have their reward in full. But you, when you pray, go into your inner room, close your door and pray to your Father who is in secret, and your Father who sees what is done in secret will reward you."

Matt. 10:42 "And whoever in the name of a disciple gives to one of these little ones even a cup of cold water to drink, truly I say to you, he shall not lose his reward."

Matt. 16:27 "For the Son of Man is going to come in the glory of His Father with His angels, and WILL THEN REPAY EVERY MAN ACCORDING TO HIS DEEDS."

Luke 6:35 "But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return; and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High; for He Himself is kind to ungrateful and evil men."

1 Cor. 3:8, 13–14 Now he who plants and he who waters are one; but each will receive his own reward according to his own labor. . . . Each man's work will become evident; for the day will show it because it is to be revealed with fire, and the fire itself will test the quality of each man's work. If any man's work which he has built on it remains, he will receive a reward.

Eph. 6:8 Knowing that whatever good thing each one does, this he will receive back from the Lord, whether slave or free.

Col. 3:24 Knowing that from the Lord you will receive the reward of the inheritance. It is the Lord Christ whom you serve.

Heb. 10:35 Therefore, do not throw away your confidence, which has a great reward.

Heb. 11:6 And without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is and that He is a rewarder of those who seek Him.

2 John 8 Watch yourselves, that you do not lose what we have accomplished, but that you may receive a full reward.

Rev. 22:12 "Behold, I am coming quickly, and My reward is with Me, to render to every man according to what he has done."

Pss. 18:20, 24; 19:11; Prov. 9:12; 11:18; 12:14; 13:13, 21; 14:14; 19:17; 25:22; 31:31; Eccl. 9:5; Isa. 3:10; 49:4; 61:8; 62:11; Jer. 31:16; Matt. 5:46; 6:16–18; 10:41; Mark 9:41; Luke 1:51; 6:23; 23:41; Heb. 11:26; Rev. 14:13.

RIGHTEOUSNESS

Gen. 15:6 Then he believed in the LORD; and He reckoned it to him as righteousness.

Ps. 24:3–5 Who may ascend into the hill of the LORD? And who may stand in His holy place? He who has clean hands and a pure heart, Who has not lifted up his soul to falsehood And has not sworn deceitfully. He shall receive a blessing from the LORD And righteousness from the God of his salvation.

Ps. 34:15 The eyes of the LORD are toward the righteous And His ears are open to their cry.

Prov. 4:18 But the path of the righteous is like the light of dawn, That shines brighter and brighter until the full day.

Prov. 11:30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life, And he who is wise wins souls.

Prov. 15:28–29 The heart of the righteous ponders how to answer, But the mouth of the wicked pours out evil things. The LORD is far from the wicked, But He hears the prayer of the righteous.

Matt. 5:20 "For I say to you that unless your righteousness surpasses that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven."

Rom. 1:17 For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith; as it is written, "BUT THE RIGHTEOUS man SHALL LIVE BY FAITH."

Rom. 3:10–20 As it is written, "THERE IS NONE RIGHTEOUS, NOT EVEN ONE; THERE IS NONE WHO UNDERSTANDS, THERE IS NONE WHO SEEKS FOR GOD; ALL HAVE TURNED ASIDE, TOGETHER THEY HAVE BECOME USELESS; THERE IS NONE WHO DOES GOOD, THERE IS NOT EVEN ONE." "THEIR THROAT IS AN OPEN GRAVE, WITH THEIR TONGUES THEY KEEP DECEIVING," "THE POISON OF ASPS IS UNDER THEIR LIPS"; "WHOSE MOUTH IS FULL OF CURSING AND BITTERNESS"; "THEIR FEET ARE SWIFT TO SHED BLOOD, DESTRUCTION AND MISERY ARE IN THEIR PATHS, AND THE PATH OF PEACE THEY HAVE NOT KNOWN." "THERE IS NO FEAR OF GOD BEFORE THEIR EYES." Now we know that whatever the Law says, it speaks to those who are under the Law, so that every mouth may be closed and all the world may become accountable to God; because by the works of the Law no flesh will be justified in His sight; for through the Law comes the knowledge of sin.

1 Tim. 1:9 Law is not made for a righteous person, but for those who are lawless and rebellious, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for those who kill their fathers or mothers, for murderers.

James 5:16 Therefore, confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another so that you may be healed. The effective prayer of a righteous man can accomplish much.

1 Peter 3:12–18 "FOR THE EYES OF THE LORD ARE TOWARD THE RIGHTEOUS, AND HIS EARS ATTEND TO THEIR PRAYER, BUT THE FACE OF THE LORD IS AGAINST THOSE WHO DO EVIL." Who is there to harm you if you prove zealous for what is good? But even if you should suffer for the sake of righteousness, you are blessed. AND DO NOT FEAR THEIR INTIMIDATION, AND DO NOT BE TROUBLED, but sanctify Christ as Lord in your hearts, always being ready to make a defense to everyone who asks you to give an account for the hope that is in you, yet with gentleness and reverence; and keep a good conscience so that in the thing in which you are slandered, those who revile your good behavior in Christ will be put to shame. For it is better, if God should will it so, that you suffer for doing what is right rather than for doing what is wrong. For Christ also died for sins once for all, the just for the unjust, so that He might bring us to God, having been put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit.

1 John 3:7 Little children, make sure no one de-ceives you; the one who practices righteousness is righteous, just as He is righteous.

SALVATION

Ex. 15:2 "The LORD is my strength and song, And He has become my salvation; This is my God, and I will praise Him; My father's God, and I will extol Him."

Ps. 46:4 There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, The holy dwelling places of the Most High.

Isa. 1:18 "Come now, and let us reason together," Says the LORD, "Though your sins are as scarlet, They will be as white as snow; Though they are red like crimson, They will be like wool."

Matt. 18:3 "Truly I say to you, unless you are converted and become like children, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven."

Luke 19:10 "For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost."

John 3:14–17 "As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up; so that whoever believes will in Him have eternal life. For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish, but have eternal life. For God did not send the Son into the world to judge the world, but that the world might be saved through Him."

John 5:24 "Truly, truly, I say to you, he who hears My word, and believes Him who sent Me, has eternal life, and does not come into judgment, but has passed out of death into life."

John 6:44–47 "No one can come to Me unless the Father who sent Me draws him; and I will raise him up on the last day. It is written in the prophets, 'AND THEY SHALL ALL BE TAUGHT OF GOD.' Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father, comes to Me. Not that anyone has seen the Father, except the One who is from God; He has seen the Father. Truly, truly, I say to you, he who believes has eternal life."

Acts 4:12 "And there is salvation in no one else; for there is no other name under heaven that has been given among men by which we must be saved."

Rom. 5:1–2 Therefore, having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom also we have obtained our introduction by faith into this grace in which we stand; and we exult in hope of the glory of God.

Rom. 11:6 But if it is by grace, it is no longer on the basis of works, otherwise grace is no longer grace.

1 Cor. 1:21 For since in the wisdom of God the world through its wisdom did not come to know God, God was well-pleased through the foolishness of the message preached to save those who believe.

Eph. 2:1–9 And you were dead in your trespasses and sins, in which you formerly walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, of the spirit that is now working in the sons of disobedience. Among them we too all formerly lived in the lusts of our flesh, indulging the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, even as the rest. But God, being rich in mercy, because of His great love with which He loved us, even when we were dead in our transgressions, made us alive together with Christ (by grace you have been saved), and raised us up with Him, and seated us with Him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the ages to come He might show the surpassing riches of His grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; not as a result of works, so that no one may boast.

Col. 1:19–20 For it was the Father's good pleasure for all the fullness to dwell in Him, and through Him to reconcile all things to Himself, having made peace through the blood of His cross; through Him, I say, whether things on earth or things in heaven.

SANCTIFICATION

John 17:17, 19 "Sanctify them in the truth; Your word is truth. For their sakes I sanctify Myself, that they themselves also may be sanctified in truth."

Acts 20:32 "And now I commend you to God and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up and to give you the inheritance among all those who are sanctified."

Acts 26:17–18 "[I rescued] you from the Jewish people and from the Gentiles, to whom I am sending you, to open their eyes so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the dominion of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and an inheritance among those who have been sanctified by faith in Me."

Rom. 15:15–16 But I have written . . . because of the grace that was given me from God, to be a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles, ministering as a priest the gospel of God, so that my offering of the Gentiles may become acceptable, sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

1 Cor. 1:2 To the church of God which is at Corinth, to those who have been sanctified in Christ Jesus, saints by calling, with all who in every place call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours.

1 Cor. 6:11 Such were some of you; but you were washed, but you were sanctified, but you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and in the Spirit of our God.

1 Cor. 7:14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified through his wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified through her believing husband; for otherwise your children are unclean, but now they are holy.

1 Thess. 4:3 For this is the will of God, your sanctification; that is, that you abstain from sexual immorality.

1 Thess. 5:23 Now may the God of peace Himself sanctify you entirely; and may your spirit and soul and body be preserved complete, without blame at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Thess. 2:13 But we should always give thanks to God for you, brethren beloved by the Lord, because God has chosen you from the beginning for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and faith in the truth.

Heb. 9:13 For if the blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling those who have been defiled sanctify for the cleansing of the flesh.

Heb. 10:29 How much severer punishment do you think he will deserve who has trampled under foot the Son of God, and has regarded as unclean the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified, and has insulted the Spirit of grace?

1 Peter 1:1–2 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who reside as aliens, scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, who are chosen according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, by the sanctifying work of the Spirit, to obey Jesus Christ and be sprinkled with His blood: May grace and peace be yours in the fullest measure.

SATAN

1 Chron. 21:1 Then Satan stood up against Israel and moved David to number Israel.

Job 1:6–9, 12 Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came among them. The LORD said to Satan, "From where do you come?" Then Satan answered the LORD and said, "From roaming about on the earth and walking around on it." The LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered My servant Job? For there is no one like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, fearing God and turning away from evil." Then Satan answered the LORD, "Does Job fear God for nothing? Then the LORD said to Satan, Behold, all that he has is in your power, only do not put forth your hand on him." So Satan departed from the presence of the LORD.

Matt. 4:10 Then Jesus said to him, "Go, Satan! For it is written, 'YOU SHALL WORSHIP THE LORD YOUR GOD, AND SERVE HIM ONLY.' "

Matt. 16:23 But He turned and said to Peter, "Get behind Me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to Me; for you are not setting your mind on God's interests, but man's."

Mark 1:13 And He was in the wilderness forty days being tempted by Satan; and He was with the wild beasts, and the angels were ministering to Him.

Mark 3:23, 26 And He called them to Himself and began speaking to them in parables, "How can Satan cast out Satan? If Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but he is finished!"

Mark 4:15 "These are the ones who are beside the road where the word is sown; and when they hear, immediately Satan comes and takes away the word which has been sown in them."

Luke 10:18 And He said to them, "I was watching Satan fall from heaven like lightning."

Luke 13:16 "And this woman, a daughter of Abraham as she is, whom Satan has bound for eighteen long years, should she not have been released from this bond on the Sabbath day?"

Luke 22:3 And Satan entered into Judas who was called Iscariot, belonging to the number of the twelve.

Luke 22:31 "Simon, Simon, behold, Satan has demanded permission to sift you like wheat."

John 8:44 "You are of your father the devil, and you want to do the desires of your father. He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand in the truth because there is no truth in him. Whenever he speaks a lie, he speaks from his own nature, for he is a liar and the father of lies."

Acts 5:3 But Peter said, "Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and to keep back some of the price of the land?"

Acts 26:18 "To open their eyes so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the dominion of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and an inheritance among those who have been sanctified by faith in Me."

Rom. 16:20 The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus be with you.

2 Cor. 11:14 No wonder, for even Satan disguises himself as an angel of light.

1 Tim. 5:15 Some have already turned aside to follow Satan.

Heb. 2:14 Since then the children share in flesh and blood, He Himself likewise also partook of the same, so that through death He might render powerless him who had the power of death, that is, the devil.

Rev. 12:9 And the great dragon was thrown down, the serpent of old who is called the devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world; he was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him.

Rev. 20:2, 7 And he laid hold of the dragon, the serpent of old, who is the devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years. . . . When the thousand years are completed, Satan will be released from his prison.

Job 2:1–7; Zech. 3:1–2; Matt. 12:26; Mark 8:33; Luke 11:18; John 13:27; 1 Cor. 5:5; 7:5; 2 Cor. 2:11; 12:7; 1 Thess. 2:18; 2 Thess. 2:9; 1 Tim. 1:20; Rev. 2:9, 13; 3:9.

SELFISHNESS

Prov. 11:26 He who withholds grain, the people will curse him, But blessing will be on the head of him who sells it.

Prov. 18:1 He who separates himself seeks his own desire, He quarrels against all sound wisdom.

Prov. 28:27 He who gives to the poor will never want, But he who shuts his eyes will have many curses.

Rom. 2:8 To those who are selfishly ambitious and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, wrath and indignation.

Rom. 15:1–2 Now we who are strong ought to bear the weaknesses of those without strength and not just please ourselves. Each of us is to please his neighbor for his good, to his edification.

1 Cor. 13:5 [Love] does not act unbecomingly; it does not seek its own, is not provoked, does not take into account a wrong suffered.

Gal. 5:19–21a Now the deeds of the flesh are evident, which are: . . . enmities, strife, jealousy, outbursts of anger, disputes, dissensions, factions, envying. . . .

Gal. 6:2 Bear one another's burdens, and thereby fulfill the law of Christ.

Phil. 2:3–4 Do nothing from selfishness or empty conceit, but with humility of mind regard one another as more important than yourselves; do not merely look out for your own personal interests, but also for the interests of others.

2 Tim. 3:2–4 For men will be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, arrogant, revilers, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy, unloving, irreconcilable, malicious gossips, without self-control, brutal, haters of good, treacherous, reckless, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God.

James 2:15–16 If a brother or sister is without clothing and in need of daily food, and one of you says to them, "Go in peace, be warmed and be filled," and yet you do not give them what is necessary for their body, what use is that?

James 3:14–16 But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your heart, do not be arrogant and so lie against the truth. This wisdom is not that which comes down from above, but is earthly, natural, demonic. For where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there is disorder and every evil thing.

1 John 3:17 But whoever has the world's goods, and sees his brother in need and closes his heart against him, how does the love of God abide in him?

SEX. See also MARRIAGE

Lev. 18:6–18, 20 "None of you shall approach any blood relative of his to uncover nakedness; I am the LORD. You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father, that is, the nakedness of your mother. She is your mother; you are not to uncover her nakedness. You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's wife; it is your father's nakedness. The nakedness of your sister, either your father's daughter or your mother's daughter, whether born at home or born outside, their nakedness you shall not uncover. The nakedness of your son's daughter or your daughter's daughter, their nakedness you shall not uncover; for their nakedness is yours. The nakedness of your father's wife's daughter, born to your father, she is your sister, you shall not uncover her nakedness. You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's sister; she is your father's blood relative. You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's sister, for she is your mother's blood relative. You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's brother; you shall not approach his wife, she is your aunt. You shall not uncover the nakedness of your daughter-in-law; she is your son's wife, you shall not uncover her nakedness. You shall not uncover the nakedness of your brother's wife; it is your brother's nakedness. You shall not uncover the nakedness of a woman and of her daughter, nor shall you take her son's daughter or her daughter's daughter, to uncover her nakedness; they are blood relatives. It is lewdness. You shall not marry a woman in addition to her sister as a rival while she is alive, to uncover her nakedness. . . . You shall not have intercourse with your neighbor's wife, to be defiled with her."

Lev. 20:15–16 "If there is a man who lies with an animal, he shall surely be put to death; you shall also kill the animal. If there is a woman who approaches any animal to mate with it, you shall kill the woman and the animal; they shall surely be put to death. Their bloodguiltiness is upon them."

Matt. 15:19 "For out of the heart come evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, slanders."

Rom. 1:24 Therefore God gave them over in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, so that their bodies would be dishonored among them.

Rom. 13:13 Let us behave properly as in the day, not in carousing and drunkenness, not in sexual promiscuity and sensuality, not in strife and jealousy.

1 Cor. 5:9, 11 I wrote you in my letter not to associate with immoral people. . . . But actually, I wrote to you not to associate with any so-called brother if he is an immoral person, or covetous, or an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or a swindler—not even to eat with such a one.

1 Cor. 6:9, 13, 18 Or do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived; neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor homosexuals. . . . Food is for the stomach and the stomach is for food, but God will do away with both of them. Yet the body is not for immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord is for the body. . . . Flee immorality. Every other sin that a man commits is outside the body, but the immoral man sins against his own body.

Gal. 5:19 Now the deeds of the flesh are evident, which are: immorality, impurity, sensuality.

Eph. 5:3 But immorality or any impurity or greed must not even be named among you, as is proper among saints.

Col. 3:5 Therefore consider the members of your earthly body as dead to immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and greed, which amounts to idolatry.

1 Thess. 4:3 For this is the will of God, your sanctification; that is, that you abstain from sexual immorality.

Jude 7 Sodom and Gomorrah . . . , since they . . . indulged in gross immorality and went after strange flesh, are exhibited as an example in undergoing the punishment of eternal fire.

SIN

Ps. 38:3 There is no soundness in my flesh because of Your indignation; There is no health in my bones because of my sin.

Ps. 38:4 For my iniquities are gone over my head; As a heavy burden they weigh too much for me.

Ps. 51:2–4 Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity And cleanse me from my sin. For I know my transgressions, And my sin is ever before me. Against You, You only, I have sinned And done what is evil in Your sight, So that You are justified when You speak And blameless when You judge.

Isa. 1:18 "Come now, and let us reason together," Says the LORD, "Though your sins are as scarlet, They will be as white as snow; Though they are red like crimson, They will be like wool."

Isa. 59:1 Behold, the LORD's hand is not so short That it cannot save; Neither is His ear so dull That it cannot hear.

Matt. 26:28 This is My blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for forgiveness of sins.

Rom. 5:8–17 But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, having now been justified by His blood, we shall be saved from the wrath of God through Him. For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, much more, having been reconciled, we shall be saved by His life. And not only this, but we also exult in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation. Therefore, just as through one man sin entered into the world, and death through sin, and so death spread to all men, because all sinned— for until the Law sin was in the world, but sin is not imputed when there is no law. Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over those who had not sinned in the likeness of the offense of Adam, who is a type of Him who was to come. But the free gift is not like the transgression. For if by the transgression of the one the many died, much more did the grace of God and the gift by the grace of the one Man, Jesus Christ, abound to the many. The gift is not like that which came through the one who sinned; for on the one hand the judgment arose from one transgression resulting in condemnation, but on the other hand the free gift arose from many transgressions resulting in justification. For if by the transgression of the one, death reigned through the one, much more those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness will reign in life through the One, Jesus Christ.

Gal. 5:19–21 Now the deeds of the flesh are evident, which are: immorality, impurity, sensuality, idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousy, outbursts of anger, disputes, dissensions, factions, envying, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these, of which I forewarn you, just as I have forewarned you, that those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

Gal. 6:7–9 Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, this he will also reap. For the one who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption, but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life. Let us not lose heart in doing good, for in due time we will reap if we do not grow weary.

1 John 1:5–10 This is the message we have heard from Him and announce to you, that God is Light, and in Him there is no darkness at all. If we say that we have fellowship with Him and yet walk in the darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth; but if we walk in the Light as He Himself is in the Light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus His Son cleanses us from all sin. If we say that we have no sin, we are deceiving ourselves and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar and His word is not in us.

1 John 2:1–2 My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. And if anyone sins, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; and He Himself is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for those of the whole world.

SPIRITUAL GIFTS

Rom. 12:6–8 Since we have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, each of us is to exercise them accordingly: if prophecy, according to the proportion of his faith; if service, in his serving; or he who teaches, in his teaching; or he who exhorts, in his exhortation; he who gives, with liberality; he who leads, with diligence; he who shows mercy, with cheerfulness.

1 Cor. 12:8–28 For to one is given the word of wisdom through the Spirit, and to another the word of knowledge according to the same Spirit; to another faith by the same Spirit, and to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, and to another the effecting of miracles, and to another prophecy, and to another the distinguishing of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, and to another the interpretation of tongues. But one and the same Spirit works all these things, distributing to each one individually just as He wills. For even as the body is one and yet has many members, and all the members of the body, though they are many, are one body, so also is Christ. For by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free, and we were all made to drink of one Spirit. For the body is not one member, but many. If the foot says, "Because I am not a hand, I am not a part of the body," it is not for this reason any the less a part of the body. And if the ear says, "Because I am not an eye, I am not a part of the body," it is not for this reason any the less a part of the body. If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole were hearing, where would the sense of smell be? But now God has placed the members, each one of them, in the body, just as He desired. If they were all one member, where would the body be? But now there are many members, but one body. And the eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you"; or again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you." On the contrary, it is much truer that the members of the body which seem to be weaker are necessary; and those members of the body which we deem less honorable, on these we bestow more abundant honor, and our unseemly members come to have more abundant seemliness, whereas our seemly members have no need of it. But God has so composed the body, giving more abundant honor to that member which lacked, so that there may be no division in the body, but that the members may have the same care for one another. And if one member suffers, all the members suffer with it; if one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it. Now you are Christ's body, and individually members of it. And God has appointed in the church, first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, administrations, various kinds of tongues.

1 Cor. 13:1–3 If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but do not have love, I have become a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. If I have the gift of prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. And if I give all my possessions to feed the poor, and if I surrender my body to be burned, but do not have love, it profits me nothing.

1 Cor. 14:26 What is the outcome then, brethren? When you assemble, each one has a psalm, has a teaching, has a revelation, has a tongue, has an interpretation. Let all things be done for edification.

Eph. 4:11–13 And He gave some as apostles, and some as prophets, and some as evangelists, and some as pastors and teachers, for the equipping of the saints for the work of service, to the building up of the body of Christ; until we all attain to the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a mature man, to the measure of the stature which belongs to the fullness of Christ.

1 Peter 4:10–11 As each one has received a special gift, employ it in serving one another as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. Whoever speaks is to speak, as it were, the utterances of God; whoever serves is to do so as one who is serving by the strength which God supplies; so that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom belongs the glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

SUFFERING

Eccl. 7:14 In the day of prosperity be happy, But in the day of adversity consider— God has made the one as well as the other So that man may not discover anything that will be after him.

Rom. 5:3 And not only this, but we also exult in our tribulations, knowing that tribulation brings about perseverance.

Rom. 8:17 If children, heirs also, heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, if indeed we suffer with Him so that we may also be glorified with Him.

Rom. 8:35 Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

Phil. 1:29 For to you it has been granted for Christ's sake, not only to believe in Him, but also to suffer for His sake.

2 Tim. 1:8 Therefore do not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord or of me His prisoner, but join with me in suffering for the gospel according to the power of God.

1 Peter 2:21 For you have been called for this purpose, since Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example for you to follow in His steps.

1 Peter 3:14–17 But even if you should suffer for the sake of righteousness, you are blessed. AND DO NOT FEAR THEIR INTIMIDATION, AND DO NOT BE TROUBLED, but sanctify Christ as Lord in your hearts, always being ready to make a defense to everyone who asks you to give an account for the hope that is in you, yet with gentleness and reverence; and keep a good conscience so that in the thing in which you are slandered, those who revile your good behavior in Christ will be put to shame. For it is better, if God should will it so, that you suffer for doing what is right rather than for doing what is wrong.

1 Peter 4:16 If anyone suffers as a Christian, he is not to be ashamed, but is to glorify God in this name.

1 Peter 5:10 After you have suffered for a little while, the God of all grace, who called you to His eternal glory in Christ, will Himself perfect, confirm, strengthen and establish you.

TEMPTATION

Gen. 3:1–6 Now the serpent was more crafty than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said to the woman, "Indeed, has God said, 'You shall not eat from any tree of the garden'?" The woman said to the serpent, "From the fruit of the trees of the garden we may eat; but from the fruit of the tree which is in the middle of the garden, God has said, 'You shall not eat from it or touch it, or you will die.' " The serpent said to the woman, "You surely shall not die! For God knows that in the day you eat from it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil." When the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was desirable to make one wise, she took from its fruit and ate; and she gave also to her husband with her, and he ate.

Prov. 1:10 My son, if sinners entice you, Do not consent.

Matt. 6:9–13 "Pray, then, in this way: 'Our Father who is in heaven, Hallowed be Your name. 'Your kingdom come. Your will be done, On earth as it is in heaven. 'Give us this day our daily bread. 'And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. 'And do not lead us into temptation, but deliver us from evil. [For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.]' "

1 Cor. 10:13 No temptation has overtaken you but such as is common to man; and God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will provide the way of escape also, so that you will be able to endure it.

Gal. 6:1 Brethren, even if anyone is caught in any trespass, you who are spiritual, restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness; each one looking to yourself, so that you too will not be tempted.

1 Tim. 6:9 But those who want to get rich fall into temptation and a snare and many foolish and harmful desires which plunge men into ruin and destruction.

Heb. 2:14, 18 Since then the children share in flesh and blood, He Himself likewise also partook of the same, so that through death He might render powerless him who had the power of death, that is, the devil. . . . For since He Himself was tempted in that which He has suffered, He is able to come to the aid of those who are tempted.

James 1:13–15 Let no one say when he is tempted, "I am being tempted by God"; for God cannot be tempted by evil, and He Himself does not tempt anyone. But each one is tempted when he is carried away and enticed by his own lust. Then when lust has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and when sin is accomplished, it brings forth death.

TONGUE

Ps. 19:14 Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart Be acceptable in Your sight, O LORD, my rock and my Redeemer.

Ps. 35:28 And my tongue shall declare Your righteousness And Your praise all day long.

Ps. 37:30 The mouth of the righteous utters wisdom, And his tongue speaks justice.

Ps. 39:1 I said, "I will guard my ways That I may not sin with my tongue; I will guard my mouth as with a muzzle While the wicked are in my presence."

Ps. 40:3 He put a new song in my mouth, a song of praise to our God; Many will see and fear And will trust in the LORD.

Ps. 71:23 My lips will shout for joy when I sing praises to You; And my soul, which You have redeemed.

Ps. 141:3 Set a guard, O LORD, over my mouth; Keep watch over the door of my lips.

Prov. 4:24 Put away from you a deceitful mouth And put devious lips far from you.

Prov. 10:11 The mouth of the righteous is a fountain of life, But the mouth of the wicked conceals violence.

Prov. 10:18–19 He who conceals hatred has lying lips, And he who spreads slander is a fool. When there are many words, transgression is unavoidable, But he who restrains his lips is wise.

Prov. 12:14 A man will be satisfied with good by the fruit of his words, And the deeds of a man's hands will return to him.

Prov. 12:18 There is one who speaks rashly like the thrusts of a sword, But the tongue of the wise brings healing.

Prov. 17:28 Even a fool, when he keeps silent, is considered wise; When he closes his lips, he is counted prudent.

Prov. 18:4 The words of a man's mouth are deep waters; The fountain of wisdom is a bubbling brook.

Prov. 20:15 There is gold, and an abundance of jewels; But the lips of knowledge are a more precious thing.

Prov. 21:23 He who guards his mouth and his tongue, Guards his soul from troubles.

Prov. 24:26 He kisses the lips Who gives a right answer.

Prov. 26:23 Like an earthen vessel overlaid with silver dross Are burning lips and a wicked heart.

Prov. 27:2 Let another praise you, and not your own mouth; A stranger, and not your own lips.

Matt. 15:17–18 "Do you not understand that everything that goes into the mouth passes into the stomach, and is eliminated? But the things that proceed out of the mouth come from the heart, and those defile the man."

Rom. 10:8–10 But what does it say? "THE WORD IS NEAR YOU, in your mouth and in your heart" —that is, the word of faith which we are preaching, that if you confess with your mouth Jesus as Lord, and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved; for with the heart a person believes, resulting in righteousness, and with the mouth he confesses, resulting in salvation.

Col. 3:8 But now you also, put them all aside: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and abusive speech from your mouth.

Heb. 13:15 Through Him then, let us continually offer up a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that give thanks to His name.

James 1:26 If anyone thinks himself to be religious, and yet does not bridle his tongue but deceives his own heart, this man's religion is worthless.

1 Peter 3:10 For, "THE ONE WHO DESIRES LIFE, TO LOVE AND SEE GOOD DAYS, MUST KEEP HIS TONGUE FROM EVIL AND HIS LIPS FROM SPEAKING DECEIT."

1 John 3:18 Little children, let us not love with word or with tongue, but in deed and truth.

TRUTH

Ps. 43:3 O send out Your light and Your truth, let them lead me; Let them bring me to Your holy hill And to Your dwelling places.

Ps. 51:6 Behold, You desire truth in the innermost being, And in the hidden part You will make me know wisdom.

Ps. 119:30 I have chosen the faithful way; I have placed Your ordinances before me.

Ps. 145:18 The LORD is near to all who call upon Him, To all who call upon Him in truth.

Prov. 23:23 Buy truth, and do not sell it, Get wisdom and instruction and understanding.

Isa. 59:14–15 Justice is turned back, And righteousness stands far away; For truth has stumbled in the street, And uprightness cannot enter. Yes, truth is lacking; And he who turns aside from evil makes himself a prey. Now the LORD saw, And it was displeasing in His sight that there was no justice.

Zech. 8:16 "These are the things which you should do: speak the truth to one another; judge with truth and judgment for peace in your gates."

John 1:14, 17 And the Word became flesh, and dwelt among us, and we saw His glory, glory as of the only begotten from the Father, full of grace and truth. . . . For the Law was given through Moses; grace and truth were realized through Jesus Christ.

John 3:21 "But he who practices the truth comes to the Light, so that his deeds may be manifested as having been wrought in God."

John 4:23–24 "But an hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth; for such people the Father seeks to be His worshipers. God is spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth."

John 8:32 You will know the truth, and the truth will make you free."

John 14:6 Jesus said to him, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me."

John 16:13 "But when He, the Spirit of truth, comes, He will guide you into all the truth; for He will not speak on His own initiative, but whatever He hears, He will speak; and He will disclose to you what is to come."

John 17:17 "Sanctify them in the truth; Your word is truth."

John 19:35 And he who has seen has testified, and his testimony is true; and he knows that he is telling the truth, so that you also may believe.

Acts 20:30 "From among your own selves men will arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after them."

Rom. 1:18, 25 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men who suppress the truth in unrighteousness. . . . For they exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen.

Rom. 2:8 But to those who are selfishly ambitious and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, wrath and indignation.

1 Cor. 5:8 Therefore let us celebrate the feast, not with old leaven, nor with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

1 Cor. 13:6 [Love] does not rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth.

2 Cor. 4:2 We have renounced the things hidden because of shame, not walking in craftiness or adulterating the word of God, but by the manifestation of truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

Eph. 1:13 In Him, you also, after listening to the message of truth, the gospel of your salvation—having also believed, you were sealed in Him with the Holy Spirit of promise.

Eph. 4:15 But speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in all aspects into Him who is the head, even Christ.

James 1:18 In the exercise of His will He brought us forth by the word of truth, so that we would be, as it were, the first fruits among His creatures.

2 Peter 2:2 Many will follow their sensuality, and because of them the way of the truth will be maligned.

1 John 1:6, 8 If we say that we have fellowship with Him and yet walk in the darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. . . . If we say that we have no sin, we are deceiving ourselves and the truth is not in us.

1 John 3:18–19 Little children, let us not love with word or with tongue, but in deed and truth. We will know by this that we are of the truth, and will assure our heart before Him.

WORD OF GOD

Ps. 119:9–16 How can a young man keep his way pure? By keeping it according to Your word. With all my heart I have sought You; Do not let me wander from Your commandments. Your word I have treasured in my heart, That I may not sin against You. Blessed are You, O LORD; Teach me Your statutes. With my lips I have told of All the ordinances of Your mouth. I have rejoiced in the way of Your testimonies, As much as in all riches. I will meditate on Your precepts And regard Your ways. I shall delight in Your statutes; I shall not forget Your word.

Ps. 119:97–106 O how I love Your law! It is my meditation all the day. Your commandments make me wiser than my enemies, For they are ever mine. I have more insight than all my teachers, For Your testimonies are my meditation. I understand more than the aged, Because I have observed Your precepts. I have restrained my feet from every evil way, That I may keep Your word. I have not turned aside from Your ordinances, For You Yourself have taught me. How sweet are Your words to my taste! Yes, sweeter than honey to my mouth! From Your precepts I get understanding; Therefore I hate every false way. Your word is a lamp to my feet And a light to my path. I have sworn and I will confirm it, That I will keep Your righteous ordinances.

Ps. 119:129–130 Your testimonies are wonderful; Therefore my soul observes them. The unfolding of Your words gives light; It gives understanding to the simple.

Prov. 30:5–6 Every word of God is tested; He is a shield to those who take refuge in Him. Do not add to His words Or He will reprove you, and you will be proved a liar.

Matt. 4:4 But He answered and said, "It is written, 'MAN SHALL NOT LIVE ON BREAD ALONE, BUT ON EVERY WORD THAT PROCEEDS OUT OF THE MOUTH OF GOD.' "

Matt. 24:35 "Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will not pass away."

John 1:1–4, 14 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came into being through Him, and apart from Him nothing came into being that has come into being. In Him was life, and the life was the Light of men. . . . And the Word became flesh, and dwelt among us, and we saw His glory, glory as of the only begotten from the Father, full of grace and truth.

John 17:17 "Sanctify them in the truth; Your word is truth."

Col. 3:16 Let the word of Christ richly dwell within you, with all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another with psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with thankfulness in your hearts to God.

2 Tim. 2:15 Be diligent to present yourself approved to God as a workman who does not need to be ashamed, accurately handling the word of truth.

Heb. 4:12–13 For the word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing as far as the division of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are open and laid bare to the eyes of Him with whom we have to do.

2 Peter 1:19–21 So we have the prophetic word made more sure, to which you do well to pay attention as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star arises in your hearts. But know this first of all, that no prophecy of Scripture is a matter of one's own interpretation, for no prophecy was ever made by an act of human will, but men moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

Rev. 22:18–19 I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: if anyone adds to them, God will add to him the plagues which are written in this book; and if anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away his part from the tree of life and from the holy city, which are written in this book.

WORLDLINESS

Job 21:11–15 "They send forth their little ones like the flock, And their children skip about. They sing to the timbrel and harp And rejoice at the sound of the flute. They spend their days in prosperity, And suddenly they go down to Sheol. They say to God, 'Depart from us! We do not even desire the knowledge of Your ways. 'Who is the Almighty, that we should serve Him, And what would we gain if we entreat Him?' "

Prov. 14:12 There is a way which seems right to a man, But its end is the way of death.

John 5:44 "How can you believe, when you receive glory from one another and you do not seek the glory that is from the one and only God?"

John 12:43 They loved the approval of men rather than the approval of God.

John 15:19 "If you were of the world, the world would love its own; but because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, because of this the world hates you."

Rom. 12:2 And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may prove what the will of God is, that which is good and acceptable and perfect.

Col. 3:2 Set your mind on the things above, not on the things that are on earth.

1 Tim. 5:6 But she who gives herself to wanton pleasure is dead even while she lives.

James 4:4 You adulteresses, do you not know that friendship with the world is hostility toward God? Therefore whoever wishes to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.

1 Peter 2:11 Beloved, I urge you as aliens and strangers to abstain from fleshly lusts which wage war against the soul.

1 John 2:15–17 Do not love the world nor the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes and the boastful pride of life, is not from the Father, but is from the world. The world is passing away, and also its lusts; but the one who does the will of God lives forever.

WORRY (anxiety)

Ps. 94:19 When my anxious thoughts multiply within me, Your consolations delight my soul.

Ps. 139:23 Search me, O God, and know my heart; Try me and know my anxious thoughts.

Prov. 12:25 Anxiety in the heart of a man weighs it down, But a good word makes it glad.

Eccl. 2:22 For what does a man get in all his labor and in his striving with which he labors under the sun?

Eccl. 11:10 So, remove vexation from your heart and put away pain from your body, because childhood and the prime of life are fleeting.

Matt. 6:25–34 "For this reason I say to you, do not be worried about your life, as to what you will eat or what you will drink; nor for your body, as to what you will put on. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air, that they do not sow, nor do they reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not worth much more than they? And who of you by being worried can add a single hour to his life? And why are you worried about clothing? Observe how the lilies of the field grow; they do not toil nor do they spin, yet I say to you that not even Solomon in all his glory clothed himself like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the furnace, will He not much more clothe you? You of little faith! Do not worry then, saying, 'What will we eat?' or 'What will we drink?' or 'What will we wear for clothing?' For the Gentiles eagerly seek all these things; for your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. But seek first His kingdom and His righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. So do not worry about tomorrow; for tomorrow will care for itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own."

Mark 13:11 "When they arrest you and hand you over, do not worry beforehand about what you are to say, but say whatever is given you in that hour; for it is not you who speak, but it is the Holy Spirit."

Phil. 4:6 Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God.

1 Peter 5:7 Cast all your anxiety on Him, because He cares for you.

Luke 12:22–31; 21:14; Phil. 2:28.

WORSHIP

Ex. 20:3–5 "You shall have no other gods before Me. You shall not make for yourself an idol, or any likeness of what is in heaven above or on the earth beneath or in the water under the earth. You shall not worship them or serve them; for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children, on the third and the fourth generations of those who hate Me."

1 Sam. 15:22–23 Samuel said, "Has the LORD as much delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices As in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, And to heed than the fat of rams. For rebellion is as the sin of divination, And insubordination is as iniquity and idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of the LORD, He has also rejected you from being king."

Ps. 29:2 Ascribe to the LORD the glory due to His name; Worship the LORD in holy array.

Ps. 95:6 Come, let us worship and bow down, Let us kneel before the LORD our Maker.

Ps. 100:2 Serve the LORD with gladness; Come before Him with joyful singing.

Isa. 29:13 Then the Lord said, "Because this people draw near with their words And honor Me with their lip service, But they remove their hearts far from Me, And their reverence for Me consists of tradition learned by rote."

Matt. 2:2 "Where is He who has been born King of the Jews? For we saw His star in the east and have come to worship Him."

Matt. 4:9–10 [Satan said,] "All these things I will give You, if You fall down and worship me." Then Jesus said to him, "Go, Satan! For it is written, 'YOU SHALL WORSHIP THE LORD YOUR GOD, AND SERVE HIM ONLY.' "

John 4:20–24 "Our fathers worshiped in this mountain, and you people say that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship." Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe Me, an hour is coming when neither in this mountain nor in Jerusalem will you worship the Father. You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews. But an hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth; for such people the Father seeks to be His worshipers. God is spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth."

Rom. 12:1 Therefore I urge you, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living and holy sacrifice, acceptable to God, which is your spiritual service of worship.

Heb. 10:1 For the Law, since it has only a shadow of the good things to come and not the very form of things, can never, by the same sacrifices which they offer continually year by year, make perfect those who draw near.

Heb. 12:28 Therefore, since we receive a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us show gratitude, by which we may offer to God an acceptable service with reverence and awe.

Rev. 14:7 and he said with a loud voice, "Fear God, and give Him glory, because the hour of His judgment has come; worship Him who made the heaven and the earth and sea and springs of waters."

Rev. 15:4 "Who will not fear, O Lord, and glorify Your name? For You alone are holy; For ALL THE NATIONS WILL COME AND WORSHIP BEFORE YOU, FOR YOUR RIGHTEOUS ACTS HAVE BEEN REVEALED."

Rev. 19:10 Then I fell at his feet to worship him. But he said to me, "Do not do that; I am a fellow servant of yours and your brethren who hold the testimony of Jesus; worship God. For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy."

CONCORDANCE

Old and New Testaments

A collection of the principal common words with their most widely used examples in text and lesser usages in reference. Related words, or synonyms follow the key word. The key word is abbreviated in the text to its first letter, e.g., "abide" is "a." Variants add suffixes or prefixes, e.g., "abides" appears as "a-s."
