PREFACE TO THE FIRST EDITION

"Every Scripture (is) God-breathed, and (is) profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, so that the man of God may be fitted out, having been fully furnished for every good work" - 2 Timothy 3:16.

You now have in your hand the fourth and final volume of The Interlinear Hebrew-Greek-English Bible, which is presented to you and to all the Christian community with much exultation, tempered by fear and trembling and awe toward our almighty God and Savior, Jesus Christ.

It is hoped that you will discern that we have fully believed all the words of this Holy Book, handling it with reverence, knowing that "Men shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God" - Matthew 4:4. For we recognize that these words did not come "by the will of man, but men spoke from God, being borne along by (the) Holy Spirit" - 2 Peter 1:21. It also has been written that each of the sons of men shall be judged by the words of this Book: "And if anyone hears My words, and does not believe, I do not judge him, . . . the word which I spoke is that which will judge him in the last day" - John 12:47,48. Considering that the words of this Book are the ones that will judge every person who has lived in all the ages, then how important it must be that the very words of God, and no other, shall be contained in a portable book, to be distributed far and wide, in a form and in a commonly understood language which can be easily and immediately taken into the heart and into the consciousness of all who have the privilege to read them. With these considerations in mind, and in holy fear inculcated by our God, we have sought to provide within The Interlinear Hebrew-Greek-English Bible all the original God-breathed Hebrew, Aramaic and Greek words. And after much prayer and laborious study, it was concluded that this could best be done by providing you with the two attested texts that alone have been uniquely preserved whole, and accepted in all generations, in all lands, by the vast majority of God's people as their 'received texts.' Other texts have been put forth from time to time, but none have been found true and powerful enough to displace these two texts: The Masoretic Text of the Old Testament, and the Received Text of the New Testament.

WHY ANOTHER INTERLINEAR NEW TESTAMENT NOW?

The marketplace is being glutted with new books which are being represented as versions of the Bible. Each one claims to be the very word of God, yet there are literally thousands of differences between them - and such differences as to cause one to discern that there is much disagreement as to which Greek words are to be translated, or paraphrased. In one way the new versions agree: they all leave out dozens of references to the deity of Jesus Christ, and they add words which tend to question His virgin birth, His substitutionary, fully satisfying atonement. This is due to their decision to depend on an Alexandrian text-base, instead of that body of God's words which has been universally received and believed in for nineteen centuries, known to us as the Received Text. These new versions are not only marked by additions, but also by subtractions, since some four whole pages of words, phrases, sentences, and verses have been omitted by these new versions. And these are words attested to as God's words by overwhelming evidence contained in all the Greek manuscripts, in the ancient versions, in the writings of the early fathers - and these from every inhabited land on the earth where Christianity has been.

It is for these reasons that we conclude that another interlinear New Testament is needed, so that those who love every word of God, and who live by every word of God, may be able to compare any version to the original Greek, and to thereby know if any of the words of God are being withheld from their hearts. They will know that it is important to their spiritual life to be reading the right version, one that is true in its translation of the original language, complete with all the words of God.

Again, then, let this question be posed: Has Satan, like a slight-of-hand shell-game artist, finally brought God's children to the point where they are searching desperately for the true Word of God? Are we to believe that it cannot now be intact, having been run through the shredder of unholy hands and heads? Let it not be said! Let your answer be a resounding, crashing NO!

For remember that it has been written: "For I say to you, Until the heavens and the earth pass away, in no way shall pass away one iota or one point from the Law, until all things come to pass" - Matthew 5:18. Who, then, will you believe? If our almighty, omniscient God assures us that not even an iota, or a point, of His word shall pass away, then an original word, or phrase, or sentence, or verse surely cannot be lost! But still we see version after version after version pouring from the presses without hundreds and hundreds of authentic, well-attested words which have always been properly held to be the very words of God.

Then should you not ask, Who are these men who tell us these are not God's words? And what evidence do they present to you to persuade you to give up these historically accepted, venerable words that have stood the test of time - and this despite the onslaughts of emperors, heathen hordes, philosophers, popes, and all fleshly inducements men and devils could conceive? And what is the nature of the words they are so determined to steal from your Bible? How did these words come to be questioned in the first place? What is behind these omissions?

A cardinal rule for the Bible reader should be: "Let God be true, and every man a liar" - Romans 3:4. The Lord Jesus did not trust Himself to men, and not one of us should do so. Instead, let the Bible reader put his faith in God, for it is only by faith that the word of God can be apprehended. Being thus armed with faith toward God, depending on Him to verify the words which are truly His words, and at the same time being armed with a healthy suspicion of men, one can ask, Who are these men who are assuring us that this or that word, or phrase, or verse does not belong in our Bible? If they are learned scholars, should we not allow their scholarly minds to guide us as to what words to believe? No! For it is written: "And we have not received the spirit of the world, but the Spirit from God, that we may know the things freely given to us by God; which things we also speak, not in words taught of human wisdom, but in (words) taught of (the) Holy Spirit" - 1 Corinthians 2:12,13. And, again, "But the Paraclete, the Holy Spirit which the Father will send in My name, that One will teach you all things and remind you (of) all things which I have said to you" - John 16:13. Through faith, we believe. And through faith it is that we are equipped to judge which words to believe - faith in God, not faith in men.

What then is the evidence these Bible-alterers offer to persuade you to give up the precious words they have removed from their versions? Mainly they cite two manuscripts, admittedly old, from the fourth century AD., but also admittedly carelessly executed. One, the Sinaiticus, was so poorly executed that ten different hands of 'textual critics' can be discerned as they tried to impose their views on this already corrupted manuscript. They twisted it like a nose of wax to meet their purposes at the time. It is no wonder that it was discarded, finally found in a wastebasket fourteen centuries after it was executed. The other, the Vaticanus, manuscript lay on a shelf in the Vatican library at Rome until 1431, and was considered so corrupt that no one would use it. Erasmus, the noted Roman Catholic scholar, refused to consider it as a source when he formed the Received Text. This Vaticanus manuscript has errors so absurd that the books purporting to teach 'textual science' carefully avoid mentioning these gross errors in their favorite manuscript. They take these two corrupt, carelessly executed manuscripts, and add a handful of later manuscripts from the Alexandrian text-base - all of them loose and disrespectful in their handling of the Scriptures, and from responsibility for the assignment of English equivalents belongs to Jay P. Green, Sr., since he was the sole judge of what would, or would not, be allowed in either of the English translations.

In each printed volume an invitation will be given to all lovers of God's word to submit suggestions for improvement of these translations. May God be pleased to use us collectively to achieve the most accurate translation possible in the English language!

PREFACE TO THIS THIRD EDITION (1996)

In the sixteen years since the appearance of the first edition, the editor has been more thoroughly instructed by his Guide, God the Holy Spirit, both by a constant reading and rereading of the Scriptures, and by reference to a multitude of volumes produced by others, especially by those before the current rash of authors who persist in a cultic-like adherence to the theory that altering what God actually wrote is not a mortal sin. The editor holds the contrary belief, that any adding to, or subtracting from, the God-breathed of the Scriptures is the defining sin of our present age. The warnings contained in the preface to the first edition were not strong enough. Where in the mid-century, hundreds of words were deleted or added, beginning in the 1960's wholesale changes were introduced in modern pseudo-translations, so that actually tens of thousands of deletions, and more than 100,000 thousand man-breathed words have been added, none of which can be said to be God-breathed. This misrepresentation of what God actually wrote has fostered a scandalous confusion, and predictably, a disrespect regarding the Holy Scriptures. Surely Satan could not be more pleased in any result from his insinuations since Adam and Eve fell prey to his innocent-appearing questioning of what God actually said.

This edition has been thoroughly revised and improved by the editor, often inserting the many suggestions supplied by the thousands and thousands of readers of the first two editions. We trust that these voluntary contributions may be recorded in Heaven, as well as in this new edition. Readers will note much correspondence between the literal translations and those contained in the notes of the Geneva Bible and the Authorised, KJV Version.

This edition includes a second marginal column with the AV/KJV text on the right-hand side (1769 Cambridge edition English). This is in response to an often expressed desire of the readers of earlier editions of this work. [Because of space problems, the One Volume Edition of the INTERLINEAR HEBREW-GREEK-ENGLISH BIBLE will not contain the AV/KJV. in the right-hand margin.]

This edition has been newly typeset throughout, including the Greek, the English underneath the Greek, the English in the side columns, and the Strong's numbers. Because of the complexity and extent of this completely new typesetting, the potentiality of error in the typesetting process was multiplied. To offset this a very thorough proofreading has been applied. Volunteer proofreaders, as well as staff members, have spent thousands of hours in an attempt to make certain that no errors would remain. However, both typesetting and proofreading is done by human beings, and thus imperfection will creep in. This is particularly true in the case of the accents and breathings in the Greek typesetting (which was done by the editor, then was much improved in the proofreading by others). As in previous editions, we appeal to the readers to advise the editor of any imperfection noted. Send notes on a separate page, in care of the publisher. All this edition is stored on computer, which will permit quick and certain changes to be made, and thus to insure that future printings will not include such imperfections.

the time the apostle John died, gnosticism had gotten a toehold in many Christian churches. And quickly thereafter the gnostics expanded their poisonous influence at a rapid pace. Justin Martyr, Valentinus, Clement of Alexandria, Marcion, Tatian, and a horde of others practiced their 'textual science' by operating on manuscripts, or by writing their own versions. To this we have many testimonies, such as this one:

"The worst corruptions to which the New Testament has ever been subjected originated within a hundred years after it was composed; that Ireneus (AD. 150), and the African fathers, and the whole Western, . . . used far inferior manuscripts to those employed by Stunica, or Erasmus, or Stephens thirteen centuries later, when molding the Textus Receptus" - Scrivener, Introduction to the New Testament, third edition, p. 511. And Eusebius quotes a second century father, writing shortly after the death of the apostle John: "Wherefore, they have no fear to lay hands on the divine Scriptures under pretense of correcting them . . . As for their denying their guilt, the thing is impossible, since the copies were written in their own hand; and they did not receive the Scriptures in this condition from their teachers, nor can they show the originals from which they made their copies" - Eusebius, Ecclesiastical History, LCS, Vol. 1, pp. 522-524. Even Origen condemned Marcion and Lucian for altering the Scriptures, though he himself can be shown to have quoted the same verse of Scripture in two contradictory words in many places. Like many 'textual critics' of our day, Origen molded the Scriptures according to his philosophy, or his fancy based on the allegory of the day, having no twinge of conscience for doing so. And it is this Origen, considered by his pupils Jerome and Eusebius, to be the master textual critic, that has left us much of the legacy of the invidious deletions from our modern versions. Do we see the Godhood of Jesus being surreptitiously removed from these modern versions? Origen believed Jesus Christ to be a created being. And by his reputation, and his influence on his pupils, the Latin Vulgate, the ornate manuscripts made for the libraries and the rulers of his day, he influenced many, such as those in the Alexandrian school. This in turn has caused many of the latter-day attackers of the Majority Text to attempt to keep out many references in the Scriptures which plainly reveal Jesus Christ to be God the Son, our original Creator ("because in Him were created all things, the things in the heavens, and the things in the earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones, or lordships, or rulers, or authorities, all things through Him and for Him have been created. . . " - Colossians 1:16). We who love every word that has proceeded from the mouth of God are asked by nearly all of the modern versions to do without a host of testimonies to the Godhead of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. For example, in John 3:13, "who is in Heaven" is omitted from modern versions because it makes the Son to be in Heaven at the same time that He is on earth. In other words, these words make Jesus Christ as God the Son to be omnipresent; that is, He was in the body on earth, yet in spirit He was also still reigning in Heaven. To this day, all the later versions continue to deny this attribute of omnipresence to Jesus Christ, which attribute is absolutely essential to Godhood. By omitting from the Scriptures these words, "who is in Heaven," or by putting down "whose home is in Heaven," these men throw doubt on the Scriptures which make Jesus Christ to be equal in the Godhead. The fact is, those words, "whose home is in Heaven," are a gloss, a reading that cannot be shown to appear in a single one of the 5,000 or more Greek manuscripts - it is a fraud to cover up the theft of those important four words which testify that our God, Jesus Christ, was omnipresent even while He was on earth in the body. Of the twenty best-selling New Testaments of this century, only the KJV, KJVII, New KJB, NKJV, Modern King James Version of the Holy Bible and Green's Literal Translation of the Bible retain this testimony to the coequal Godhood of Jesus Christ.

THE PROVIDENTIAL PRESERVATION OF THE SCRIPTURES

We believe wholeheartedly that God has preserved His word, that He guided His true followers to carefully copy, and to use the whole Bible, as it is represented in the vast majority of the extant manuscripts. We believe that this was done in the same way God guarded the Canon of the New Testament, using the Greek Orthodox Church and the Greek manuscripts used by the churches in all the habitable world to safeguard the deposit which He had given to us. It took the churches two centuries to finally form and to defend the Canon, the sixty-six books of the Bible as we now have them. And it took them another century and a half to finally discard those manuscripts with spurious words added, or with serious omissions of the true words of God. All modern-day critics will admit that the text as essentially displayed in the vast majority of the extant manuscripts has been virtually identical in copy after copy from the period from the fourth century until the invention of the printing press. In fact the Received Text was so widely and so completely accepted in all countries, and in all denominations except the Roman Catholic, that Westcott and Hort felt compelled to invent a mythical council of church fathers, who supposedly met and fixed the text as we now know it. Such a council is unknown to history, and being totally undemonstrable by evidence, it must be considered a myth proposed in order to deceive.

Truly God in His mercy did not leave His people to grope after the true New Testament text. Through the leading of God the Spirit He guided them to preserve it during the manuscript period. God brought this to pass through the working of His preserving and governing providence. First, many trustworthy copies were produced by faithful scribes. Secondly, these were read, used, and recopied by true believers when those original copies were worn out. Thirdly, untrustworthy copies (such as the Vaticanus and the Sinaiticus) were laid aside, not copied, but consigned to oblivion. Today there are more than 5,000 manuscripts and lectionaries in Greek as witnesses to the New Testament text. And 90% or more of these witness to the Received Text readings.

Partly due to the fact those ancient manuscripts containing the Received Text were worn out by use, while the Alexandrian text-base manuscripts were preserved by the dry conditions in Egypt, some have sought to discredit the Received Text, saying that it is not ancient. But now the manuscript portions from the second century are being unearthed, and lo and behold, many of the readings of the Received Text which had been tagged scornfully as 'late readings' by nearly unanimous consent of the 'textual scientists' are now showing up in these earliest manuscripts. Readings which were before being called late and spurious have been found in these early date manuscripts. For example, the Chester Beatty Papyri contained sixty-five readings which had before been ejected from the Bible by the critics. And Papyrus Bodmer II, of the second century, actually was found to contain thirteen percent of all the so called late readings of the critic-despised Majority Text. Yet strangely, in textual criticism classes, such discoveries are swept under the rug, not being reported to the students. And so it goes. Day by day we see the conjectures of these reputed experts being swept away, along with their hypotheses. Next, we trust, will be the discrediting of their versions.

In the light of these facts, should we then allow these 'scientists' (falsely so-called - "O Timothy, guard the deposit, having turned away from the profane, empty babblings and opposing theories of the falsely-named knowledge, which some having asserted have missed the mark concerning the faith"- 1 Timothy 6:20, 21). A man of faith is not spiritually blind. A true believer should not be found following these men without serious investigation of their claims that they are able to tell us which are and which are not the words of God. All who do follow the current crop of 'textual scientists' are apt to wind up in the spiritual ditch with them, being chastised by God for not putting trust in God the Spirit to preserve the words He caused the prophets and apostles to write as the Scriptures. Keep in mind that which is written: "You shall not add to the word which I (am) commanding you, and not take away from it" - Deuteronomy 4:2. Also, "Do not add to His words, lest He reprove you, and you be found a liar" - Proverbs 30:6. Also, "If anyone take away from the words of (the) Book of this Prophecy, God will take away his part from the Book of Life" - Revelation 22:19. Do not be misled by an appeal to your reason. Try the spirits, whether they are of God.

THE GREEK TEXT IN THIS VOLUME

The Greek text herein is purportedly that which underlies the King James Version, as reconstructed by F. H. A. Scrivener in 1894. It thus differs to a degree from all previously printed editions of the Received Text (there are more than 250 differences, most of them quite minor, between this text and the Stephens 1550 'standard' Textus Receptus). The present text was typeset in England for the Trinitarian Bible Society, and corresponds to The New Testament in the Original Greek according to the Text Followed in the Authorized Version, edited by F. H. A. Scrivener, and originally published by Cambridge University Press in 1894 and 1902. The present Trinitarian Bible Society edition of the Greek New Testament was published in 1976.

Careful study, however, will show that this present text does not agree 100% with the text used by the KJV translators, though virtually always it does so. In places it has a different reading than that found in the KJV (e.g. Matthew 12:24, 27, Gk. "Beelzeboul"; KJV has "Beelzebub" - John 8:21, Gk. "sin"; KJV, "sins" - John 10:16, Gk. "one flock"; KJV, "one fold" - 1 Corinthians 14:10, KJV has "of these," but it is omitted in the Greek - 1 Corinthians 16:1, the KJV has "churches," without any MSS support at all; the Greek has "church." In other places the present text gives Greek words where the KJV translators indicated by italics that they had none (the following KJV italicized words are actually given in the Greek of this TBS edition: Mark 8:14, the disciples; Mark 9:42, these; John 8:6, as though he heard them not; Acts 1:4, them; 1 John 3:16; of God. Some of these readings do have minority MSS support.- It seems clear that these readings were not in the text chosen by the KJV translators. Nevertheless, to all intents and purposes, the TBS edition faithfully reproduces the KJV Greek text, as nearly as could be done at this date.

Although it is admitted that Erasmus has added to his Received Text two or three readings from the Latin Vulgate, without Greek manuscript authority (e.g., Acts 9:5, 6); and, also one from the Complutension Bible has virtually no Greek manuscript authority (1 John 5:7). We have not deleted these from the Greek text as supplied by the Trinitarian Bible Society, though we do not accept them as part of the true deposit of the Holy Scriptures.

THE ENGLISH TRANSLATIONS

There are two translations in this volume, one appearing as the literal translation of the Greek words, with English equivalents placed directly under each of the Greek words, and the other, A Literal Translation of the Holy Bible on the side of the page, serving to provide a straightforward translation for the purpose of making it easy for the reader to see the proper word order in English, and thus to easily assimilate the message given in God's word on that page. Both translations are accomplished in a word-for-word translation. The 'conceptual idea' form of 'translating' the word of God has been rejected, studiously avoided because no person has the right, nor the inspiration, to rewrite God's word to conform it to his or her own concepts. Those passing off their conceptual ideas are, in our opinion, despising the words originally given, and carefully preserved, by God the Spirit through the prophets and apostles. It is only a dodge to give the paraphraser an opportunity to "be as God, "as Satan promised in his lie to Eve.

It is hoped that these literal word-for-word translations will demonstrate that a true, literal word-for-word translation also can be a readable and easily understood representation of the Holy Scriptures

INTERPRETATIONS

In the matter of interpretation, or as some would call it, bias, there is no hesitation on our part to admit to the fact that there are many interpretive decisions that must be made in any translation of the Bible. It has been our determination to let the text say what it says. And so no particular set of beliefs has been inserted into the text by these translations. Nevertheless, by the very fact that a true translation must take into consideration the entire context of a word, or phrase, or sentence, or verse, interpretation must be present in making that translation. This is especially so in those places where a Greek word, apart from the context, may be correctly translated by several different English words. For instance, it does make a difference whether a person is "saved," or "cured." And conceivably there could be differences of opinion in the choice of an English word to express a Greek word in such cases.

If a list of interpretive renditions were to be compiled, these at least should be noted as present in this volume: (a) Punctuation has been added, and the original manuscripts have none; (b) capitals and small letters have been added, and the original manuscripts had only capital letters. Especially we have attempted to aid the reader by capitalizing pronouns connected to a Person of the Godhead. Without a doubt, there is room for differences of opinion here. In those places quoted from the Old Testament, the New Testament writers nearly always have fixed the deity of the Persons quoted, so these are not so interpretative. But in another class of places, where we have endeavored to capitalize, or not to capitalize pronouns according to whether the persons addressing Jesus acknowledged Him as God - there is room for much difference of opinion. (c) Words have sometimes been added to aid the English reader to follow the sense, in which case, an attempt has been made to indicate those supplied words in parentheses under the Greek, or in italics in the marginal English translation.

PRESUPPOSITIONS

Being a willing slave of our God and Savior, Jesus Christ, and joyfully submitting to His higher thoughts, we gladly admit to a number of presuppositions: (a) We have acted on the premise that "the Scriptures cannot be broken" (John 10:35), meaning that not an iota or a point of them has been lost; and having the firm conviction that each word was God-breathed (2 Timothy 3:16 - Greek), and that having had such an origin God Himself has taken it upon Himself to also carefully preserve His words for us even to this day, we have not dared to change a word, or to supply a word without designating it as uninspired by parentheses or by italics. If God has appeared at places to use an ambiguous word, we have tried to leave it that way, etc. (b) We have presupposed that Jesus Christ is not only our personal Savior and Lord, but that the Scriptures clearly reveal Him as equal with God the Father and with God the Holy Spirit, that He is in fact one of the three Persons in the Godhead; that He came to earth to give Himself as a fully paid ransom for many; that He both lived and died as a substitute for the sins of all those who shall come to a saving knowledge and belief in Him; that He has risen to sit at the right of God the Father, ruling the world from there, interceding for and providentially guiding His own, until that day when He will destroy the earth by fire, and shall then come to receive all of them to a place at His right hand; and finally that He will sit as supreme Judge of all men of all ages, and that He will use the words of the Bible to judge the deeds of each and every person who will have inhabited the earth, casting all unbelievers into everlasting fiery punishment, and sitting all true believers at His feet to learn from Him "the depths of the riches and of (the) wisdom and knowledge of God" throughout all eternity.

DISTINCTIVE TRANSLATIONS

For easy apprehension, and continuity with the Old Testament, we have translated the Greek representing the names of the Old Testament characters and places by the same English names that were used there.

Due to the principle of translating each Greek word literally, a number of translations have emerged that are quite different from other versions:

The Greek word designating the mother of Jesus has always been translated "Mary," but most often the Greek word is actually MariaAM, properly meaning Mariam, or Miriam, rather than Mary. So we have given it. It is not that we think we can at this late date change her name in the mind of others from Mary to Mariam, but that we simply translated its literal meaning. It does answer to the question that some have raised, as to why there would be two Marys in one family.

In translating the Greek words for "I am" in certain places we have capitalized these words: viz. I AM (see John 8:59 and other places). It is our firm conviction that in those cases Jesus is identifying Himself as Jehovah (Jehovah properly translated meaning I AM THAT I AM). Jesus is of course the English name assigned to a word that means Jehovah is salvation.

Under the Greek we have translated literally, "to the ages," though we surely believe that the words are a clear idiomatic expression for "forever." In the translation in the margin we have reversed this. Likewise we have translated under the Greek "clean" heart, but firmly believe that "pure" could be idiomatically used.

We have tried to translate various places in a way that would not be misleading as to sex. Many times other translators have put "any man" where "anyone" was literally correct. Male pronouns and male references abound in the Scriptures. There is no good reason for supplying additional male references.

This is now the only interlinear New Testament in current, proper English. All others continue to use Elizabethan-age English. The Bible was written in simple, common Hebrew and Greek words, with no special language used when addressing God. Why now encase the Bible in a stilted language of another age, whether it be Latin or Elizabethan English. As Tyndale wrote that every plowboy should be able to understand the Scriptures in his own language. Otherwise, why not leave it in the original languages?

Our constant aim in translation has been to represent the meaning of the Greek words in English as precisely and accurately as the English language will allow. This has included an attempt to display the meaning of compound Greek words so that the parts of them are expressed in the translation. For example, in John 8:7, Jesus did not merely rise, or stand up - He had bent down, and now he was bending back up - by which words we can visualize exactly what He was doing. This principle may have been imperfectly applied, but in succeeding editions an attempt will be made to achieve more of this type of accuracy. There has been a conscious recognition of the value of consistency in translation. And although we believe we have achieved more consistency than in other versions, there is recognition on our part that there is yet more to be done in this area.

TRANSLATION PROBLEMS AND CHALLENGES

Just as there are difficult places to understand, so there are difficult places to translate. And sometimes the difficulty is not so much in assigning meanings to the Greek words as it is in punctuating them so as to catch the apostle's meaning. One example of this is 1 Corinthians 12:2.

Among the many decisions made, some may want to challenge the choice of a translation at some place or other. For instance, in many places a Greek word has been left untranslated, usually a particle or an article, where it would be redundant or otherwise unsuitable to English transmission.

Where the Greek order or word is difficult to English readers, superior numbers have not been used, because it is believed that the reader may more easily see the English order by referring to the translation in the margin. In most cases the literal translation of each word is given, rather than an idiomatic phrase, where it was considered more explanatory of the meaning than the idiom would supply. In some places where the present tense in Greek takes an English past for proper English, the past tense has been used in translation. But in a great many cases this has not been done, depending on the reader to realize the differences in the two languages. This is also true of the aorist. In fact it is doubted that the New Testament writers themselves used the aorist in the strict (or, restricted) way that Greek grammarians interpret it today.

Due to space problems, a true translation of the participle has not always been given under the Greek. For example, where the English words "having been" would be proper, "being" has often been given. In other places where the Greek word is short, but the English equivalent is long, a substitution may have been given (e.g., "by" instead of "through"). In the case of the double negative construction in the Greek, it is often left as literally translated, rather than to change one negative to a positive in order to make good English out of it. In some cases the added strength of the double-negative, as intended in the Greek, has been transmitted by the use of punctuation.

Many other problems are encountered in rendering Greek into English. The reader is referred to other introductions to the Greek New Testament, especially to those in other interlinear New Testaments.

THE MAJORITY TEXT NOTES *

A healthy debate is beginning to rage between adherents of the Alexandrian text-base (which was developed by a school of critics in Alexandria, Egypt in the early centuries, and which underlies most of the modern versions) and those who believe that the Byzantine/Majority text-base, as represented in nearly all cases in the Received Text, is the only true text of the New Testament. William G. Pierpont of Wichita, Kansas has prepared The Majority Text Notes that appear in the appendix. By the use of these notes, one can make a direct comparison between the Received Text in this volume, and the manuscript evidence. These notes represent years of research, and it is a privilege to share them with the reader here.

PREFACE TO THE SECOND EDITION

This much-improved Second Edition of The Interlinear Greek-English New Testament has been made more useful in many ways:

First, much credit must go to the host of serious students of the Bible who have purchased the tens of thousands of copies of the First Edition. Many of these have sent in suggestions for improvement, and most of those suggestions have been incorporated into this Second Edition.

Secondly, being convinced that they would save much more time and energy to those studying the New Testament, we have added to this volume the numbers assigned to each Greek word by James Strong in his Strong's Exhaustive Concordance. This has added one hundred pages to the volume, but it should prove to be well worth the extra cost.

Thirdly, the First Edition of A Literal Translation of the Holy Bible has been printed in the margin. This also has benefited from a host of suggestions by others who are vitally interested in achieving the most accurate Bible translation possible in the English language. Proofreading by Philip Rosenbaum, and others, has been invaluable in eliminating errors and in improving the English translation in a goodly number of places.

Fourthly, the introduction of A Literal Translation of the Holy Bible in the margins, and the re-typesetting of thousands of the lines of the interlinear portion of this volume, has now given it a far better appearance, and a much more readable character.

As General Editor and Translator, my heartfelt thanks must be expressed to all of you who have followed the leading of God the Spirit to participate in this effort to aid the readers and users of this volume.

SOME NOTES ON THE NUMBERING SYSTEM

In order to save both time and energy, and also to enhance general knowledge of the meaning of the individual Greek words, James Strong devised a number system for the Greek words of the New Testament, and he incorporated those numbers into his Greek Lexicon, which appeared in his Exhaustive Concordance in the last century. In recent years these numbers have been added to many of the Hebrew and Greek study volumes, such as The Englishman's Greek Concordance, Thayer's Greek-English Lexicon, Englishman's Hebrew Concordance, Gesenius Hebrew-Chaldee Lexicon. Also, the new Concise Lexicon to the Biblical Languages has the Strong's numbers in both the Hebrew and Greek sections. To complete the perfect circle of usefulness for serious Bible students, it was important that the Bible itself be numbered with these numbers. This has now been done in this volume, and in the other three volumes of The Interlinear Hebrew-Greek-English Bible.

Please note the following suggestions for the numbering system:

1. Because some Greek words are shorter than the numbers, where they appear close together, they are sometimes separated by a /. Also, in cases where many of these shorter words follow one another, there is not enough room to allow for all the numbers to be placed above the Greek words. In such a case the use of an asterisk above one or more of the words will indicate to the reader that the number for that word or words will appear in the verse margin to the left of the line.

2. In order to avoid confusion and congestion which would be caused by the numbering of the many very common, short Greek words, these numbers have not been given above the words. The reader should not have any difficulty in finding the numbers of these words, which are usually articles and/or conjunctions, nearly always the following:

NOTE: Frequent words not numbered; and, but, (1161, 2532); the (3588) **.

3. Since some combinations of Greek words, usually two or three words following one another, have a combined meaning, or an idiomatic meaning, Strong assigned different numbers to the combination. In such cases you will find equal signs preceding and following the number, so that it will be seen that the one number covers all the words between the equal signs.

Your assistance will be appreciated in the reporting of any error found in this volume.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE TRANSLATIONS

The English translations in this volume, both the literal translation under the Greek words, and the translation named A Literal Translation of the Holy Bible, are the work of Jay P. Green, Sr., improved and corrected by the suggestions of others who have reviewed these pages (both in the original manuscript, and in the many printings of this volume since). The these they give you their never-ending theories, hypotheses, glosses, and doubts. Yea, year after year there is a new crop, and the new ones explode the old theories of the past year.

But let them be known by their fruits. What are these words which they have so freely removed from their versions of the Scriptures? (a) They have made Joseph to be the begetter of Jesus, rather than following the Scriptures which say that God the Spirit begot the human body of the Lord Jesus (check Luke 2:33); (b) they have made Jesus to be a begotten creature, rather than the third person of the eternal Godhead (see John 1:18, where some of these proposed versions refer to an "only-begotten God" - an impossibility, since God cannot be begotten - God is an eternal Being, having always existed, and Jesus is God; (c) they have deleted "Son of God" from Mark 1:1; (d) and they have removed from their so-called versions Christ, or Jesus, or Christ Jesus, or Christ as God, twenty-five or more times; (e) and in 1 Cor. 5:7, they have Christ suffering, but not for us; (f) in 1 Peter 4:1, they have Christ sacrificed, but not "for us"; (g) in Luke 24:3, 6, 12, 37, 40, 51, and 52, they have systematically removed Luke's witness to the ascension of Christ - and of course they have done away entirely with Mark's witness to the ascension, simply by removing the last twelve verses of Mark (this they do, they claim, because the two oldest manuscripts do not have those verses - but note this: the Vaticanus manuscript has left an empty space at the end of Mark exactly large enough to contain those twelve verses; how did the copyist know how much space to leave if he was not looking at a still older manuscript with the last 12 verses of Mark in it? As for the Sinaiticus manuscript, it is written in the same-size letters throughout until you come to the place where the last twelve verses of Mark belong, then the letters become large and spread out, taking up enough extra space to allow the last twelve verses of Mark to appear in the smaller letters that had been used up until this time. So much for the so-called evidence from the two 'oldest' manuscripts; if anything they testify to the authenticity of the last twelve verses of Mark.) Shall we allow the words of God to be stolen from us before our very eyes by such specious reasoning?

You can see that the words they are taking away from us are very important words. Then why should we give them up without overwhelming evidence, and the inward assurance of God the Holy Spirit that they are spurious? The fact is, history is repeating itself again. In the beginning, it was the old Serpent, Satan, who was the first textual critic, as well as the first murderer, when he succeeded in insinuating into the itching ear of Eve, "You shall not surely die . . . , you shall be as God" - Genesis 3:1-5. From that point on, men became unbelieving sinners ("only evil continually" - Genesis 6:5). As sinners without saving grace men are disposed to believe the lie, especially if the lie suits their fancy better than what God has written for us. Like Origen, an early textual critic, too many men believe what Origen said, "that the Scriptures are of little use to those who understand them as they are written" (quoted by McClintock and Strong Cyclopedia's article on Origen). And given the opportunity, many men will do as Origen did, actually altering the manuscripts to make them say what they understand them to mean, or what they want them to mean. Such things were done as soon as the Word of God was complete. In fact the apostles, Paul, Peter and John all warned that corrupters of the word of God were already plying their trade within the first century churches. For example, God warned His children through Paul: "I am amazed that you are quickly being transported away from Him who has called you by (the) grace of Christ, to a different gospel, which is not another, except there are some troubling you and desire to pervert the gospel of Christ" - Galatians 1:6, 7. And borne along by God the Spirit, the apostle John wrote: "For many false prophets have gone out into the world" - 1 John 4:1. And through the apostle Peter we learn that perverters of Scripture were already rampant among those calling themselves Christians: "even as our beloved brother Paul wrote to you, according to the wisdom given to him . . . among which things are some things hard to understand, which the ignorant and unsettled ones pervert, as also the other Scriptures, to their own destruction" - 2 Peter 3:15, 16.

By these and other Scriptures we see that the apostles were not yet in the bosom of Abraham before the Bible-tinkerers began to distort and to adulterate the word of God. By

NOTES TO AID THE READER IN THE USE OF THIS EDITION

On the whole, the punctuation in the Greek text has been followed in the English wording under the Greek. Since no punctuation was present in the original manuscripts, any punctuation is editorial. The present editor has varied from the punctuation in the Greek in a few cases. An example is the emphasis added by an exclamation mark, especially after the words Behold(!), and woe (!). By these words God the Holy Spirit, the ultimate Author of the Scriptures, intends to alert the reader that a very important statement is to be made directly after these words. Another variation appears when direct speech follows the Greek word ὅτι when it precedes direct speech, no translation of this Greek word is given in such cases; instead the first word of the direct speech is capitalized, as in English compositions. Quotation marks are not used for direct speech, but the reader can discern that it is direct speech from the format.

An effort is made to retain the tenses, the figures of speech, and other distinctives of the koine Greek, at times the editor has added such English helper words as "do," to assist the reader's understanding.. The use of participles and the frequent of the aorist in Greek, which impedes the rhythm and flow of the English, yet in most cases we have retained the Greek usage. Since most readers will not be familiar with Greek grammar, it might be mentioned that there are idiomatic combinations in Greek usage. In some cases we have chosen to literally translate the words, while in most cases we have given the idiomatic. An example is in Titus 1:5, where κατα πολιν is translated "every city," or in other cases where κατα precedes a word it could have been given as "(city by) city;" "(day by) day;" "(house to) house," etc.

The double negative is common in Greek, which intends to add strong emphasis to what is being said. ου μη (not, not) is commonly translated as "not at all," "by no means," "in no way," etc. where in English one would say "never ever."

Interrogative questions in Greek are often preceded by "Not," in which case the other half of the negative is omitted.

As mentioned in the preface to the first edition (which each new reader should carefully use as an introduction to this work), capitalization is strictly interpretative in this work. The guidelines we have established include the capitalization of Deity, including pronouns, wherever it is clear that members of the Trinity, or personifications of them, plainly indicate that Deity is in mind. However, where a speaker is clearly an unbeliever (such as when a Pharisee addressed Jesus), we do not capitalize the pronouns, etc. in their statements since they plainly do not believe that Jesus is God). Other capitalizations include persons and their offices (such as Savior, Intercessor, Mediator for offices of Jesus); names (such as, the Bush, the ever-burning bush that attracted Moses), well-known Biblical events (such, as the Deluge or Flood); places (such as the Valley of Giants where David did many of his heroic deeds; Gethsemane; Mount of Olives, etc.), this in addition to the capitalization of the beginning of sentences, the first word of direct speech, etc.

And important one is the capitalization of "Heaven," the abode of God. In the Greek this word is not capitalized..There are numerous places where the Greek says, "the heaven," or even "the heavens" indicating the sky, or that part of the universe which is above the earth. However, in many of the places where these words appear in Greek the meaning is clearly "Heaven," such as may be seen in the scenes in the book of Revelation, and in a host of other places.

In the Greek the word for miracles is "signs," so we translate literally. However, the saints of God need not allow anyone to use this fact to deny the multitude of miracles which were performed by God, the prophets, and the apostles. Ultimately, of course, the laws of nature can only be suspended by God Himself, so any miracle by others (including those by Satan, such as calling down fire), required that God give this miraculous act His personal power.

DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE LITERAL TRANSLATION (LITV) AND INTERLINEAR

In this third edition of the LITV an effort is made to more closely relate it to the meanings under the Greek in the interlinear column. Where formerly we may have translated with a different word, yet one having an equally correct meaning, we intended to expand the understanding of the reader. Or in some cases, an alternative translation appeared. This caused some confusion. Therefore, in this edition we have endeavored to have the LITV column match closely with the interlinear section. However, sentence structure, punctuation, and other differences which do not reflect any different meaning still may be seen in the LITV side column. By far the most important aim of this work is for the reader to comprehend what God has said to him or her, and so to assimilate this knowledge into the personal life and practice of each individual reader.

As in all editions we make mention of the privilege God has granted us to feed His lambs by way of a literal English rendition of the God-breathed words in the original language, we have ever been burdened with the awesome responsibility attached to such a task. He has been most gracious to us in the past when hundreds of thousands of His saints have read and profited by previous editions of this work, yet we found that with closer examination the translation could be improved by getting even closer to the literal translation of His Word. Until we sit at the feet of Jesus in eternity, we may not know all that there is to know about what God meant in each word of the Scriptures. In the light of this obvious fact, no claim to infallibility is made by the editor-translator.

INVITATION TO THE READER TO PARTICIPATE IN FUTURE EDITIONS

Repeating our invitation in the first edition, "an invitation is given to all lovers of God's Word to submit suggestions for improvement of these translations". Although correspondence is prohibited by the volume of such suggestions, be assured that each suggestion will be carefully considered, independent study will be made, and in many cases will appear in the next edition. Put all suggestions on a separate page from any correspondence. Include your name and address for our files.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First, I want to thank my wife, Mary Virginia Green, whose patience and support have allowed me the long hours necessary to translate, edit and typeset the Interlinear Bibles.

Much recognition and praise is due to many persons who have contributed to this revised and improved edition. Among these are our staff members:

Jay P. Green, Jr., our information systems administrator, designer, typographer and stylist, without whom this volume could not have been produced on computer.

Tina Green and Tracy Funkhouser who rendered invaluable help in the nuts and bolts phases of the work, including computer keyboarding, typesetting the Strong's numbers, and proofing, etc.

Our many keen proofreaders, some of whom spent a multitude of voluntary hours to ensure the veracity of the work. These include the following, alphabetically rather than the amount of work contributed: No academic degrees are indicated lest some consider them as indication of their greater importance to the work.

13. And they having departed, an angel of (the) Lord appeared to Joseph by a dream, saying, Rise up! Take the child and His mother with you, and flee into Egypt. And be there until I shall tell you. For Herod is about to seek the child in order to destroy Him.

14 And rising up, he took along the child and His mother by night and withdrew into Egypt.

15 And he was there until the end of Herod, that might be fulfilled that spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, "Out of Egypt I have called My Son." (Hosea 11:1)

16 Then seeing that he was mocked by the wise men, Herod was greatly enraged, and having sent, he killed all the boys in Bethlehem and in all its districts, from two years old and under, according to the time which he exactly asked from the wise men.

17 Then was fulfilled that spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying:

18 "A voice was heard in Ramah, lamenting and wailing and great mourning, Rachel weeping (for) her children and was not willing to be comforted, because they were not." (Jer. 31:15)

19. But Herod having expired, behold, an angel of (the) Lord appears (to) Joseph by a dream in Egypt,

14 When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt:

15 And was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, Out of Egypt have I called my son.

16 Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently enquired of the wise men.

17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying,

18 In Rama was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping (for) her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

19. But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, 20 Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the young child's life.

21 And he arose,

4 And Jesus says to him, See that you tell no one, but go, show yourself to the priest and offer the gift which Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.

5. And Jesus, entering into Capernaum, a centurion came near to Him, begging Him,
6 and saying, Lord, my child has been laid in the house, a paralytic, being terribly tormented.

7 And Jesus says to him, I will come and heal him.

8 And answering, the centurion said, Lord, I am not worthy that You should enter under my roof, but only speak a word and my child will be healed.
9 For I am also a man under authority, having soldiers under myself. And I say to this (one), Go; and he goes; and to another, Come; and he comes; and to my slave, Do this; and he does (it).

10 And hearing, Jesus marveled, and said to those following, Truly I say to you, Not even in Israel did I find such faith.

11 But I say to you that many will come from east and west, and will recline with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of Heaven,

1 And entering into the boat, He passed over and came to (His) own city.
2 And, behold! They were bringing to Him a paralytic laid out on a cot. And seeing their faith, Jesus said to the paralytic, Be comforted, child. Your sins have been remitted to you.

4 And seeing their thoughts, Jesus said, Why do you think evil in your hearts?

5 For what is easier, to say, (Your) sins have been remitted to you; or to say, Rise up and walk?
6 But that you may know that the Son of man has authority on earth to remit sins, then He said to the paralytic, Rising up, lift up your cot and go to your house.

2 And, behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed: and Jesus seeing their faith said unto the sick of the palsy; Son, be of good cheer; thy sins be forgiven thee.

3 And, behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, This (man) blasphemeth.
4 And Jesus knowing their thoughts said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts?

5 For whether is easier, to say, (Thy) sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and walk?
6 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (then saith he to the sick of the palsy,) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house.

7 And he arose, and departed to his house.

8 But when the multitudes saw (it), they marvelled, and glorified God, which had given such power unto men.

23 But when they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come.

24 The disciple is not above (his) master, nor the servant above his lord.
25 It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more (shall they call) them of his household?

26 Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known.
27 What I tell you in darkness, (that) speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, (that) preach ye upon the housetops.
28 And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

29 Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father.

30 But the very hairs of your head are all numbered.
31 Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows.

32 Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven.

15 He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.
16 But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows,

17 And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented.
18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a devil.
19 The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners. But wisdom is justified of her children.
20. Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not:
21 Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works, which were done in you, had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.
22 But I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you.
23 And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.
24 But I say unto you, That it

10. And coming near, the disciples said to Him, Why do You speak to them in parables?
11 And answering, He said to them, Because it has been given to you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of Heaven, but it has not been given to those.
12 For whoever has, to him will be given, and he will have overabundance. But whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken from him.
13 Because of this, I speak to them in parables, because seeing they do not see, and hearing they do not hear, nor do they understand.
14 And the prophecy of Isaiah is being fulfilled on them, which says, "In hearing you will hear, yet in no way understand, and seeing you will see, yet in no way perceive.
15 For the heart of this people has grown fat, and they heard sluggishly with the ears, and they have closed their eyes, that they not see with the eyes, or hear with the ears, and understand with the heart, and be converted, and I heal them." (Isa. 6:9, 10)
16 But your eyes (are) blessed because they see; and your ears because they hear.
17 For truly I tell you that many prophets and righteous ones desired to see what you see and did not see, and to hear what you hear and

18. Then hear the parable of the sower:

19 Everyone hearing the Word of the kingdom, and not understanding, (then) the evil one comes and catches away that which was sown in his heart. This is that sown by the roadside.

20 And the (Word) sown on the stony places is this: the (one) hearing the Word, and immediately receiving it with joy,
21 but has no root in himself, but is temporary, and tribulation, or persecution occurring because of the Word, he is at once offended.
22 And that sown into the thornbushes is this: the (one) hearing the Word, and the anxiety of this age, and the deceit of riches, choke the Word, and it becomes unfruitful.

23 But that sown on the good ground is this: the (one) hearing the Word, and understanding it, who indeed bears fruit and yields one truly a hundred(fold), and one sixty, and one thirty.

24. He put before them another parable, saying: The kingdom of Heaven is compared to a man sowing good seed in his fields.
25 But while the men were sleeping, his enemy came and sowed darnel in the midst of the wheat, and went away.

26 And when the blade sprouted and produced fruit, then the darnel also appeared.

18. Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower.

19 When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth (it) not, then cometh the wicked (one), and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side.

20 But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it;
21 Yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended.
22 He also that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful.
23 But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth (it); which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

24. Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field:
25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.

26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

38 And the field is the world; and the good seed, these are the sons of the kingdom; but the darnel are the sons of the evil (one).

39 And the enemy who sowed them is the Devil, and the harvest is the completion of the age, and the angels are the reapers.

38 The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked (one);

39 The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.

40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world.

14 And Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick.
15. And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time is now past; send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves victuals.

16 But Jesus said unto them, They need not depart; give ye them to eat.
17 And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes.

8 This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with (their) lips; but their heart is far from me.
9 But in vain they do worship me, teaching (for) doctrines the commandments of men.
10. And he called the multitude, and said unto them, Hear, and understand:
11 Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man; but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man.

12 Then came his disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were offended, after they heard this saying?
13 But he answered and said, Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up.
14 Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

1. In that hour the disciples came to Jesus, saying, Who then is greater in the kingdom of Heaven?

2 And having called forward a little child, Jesus set him in their midst.
3 And (He) said, Truly I say to you, If not you convert and become as the little children, not at all can you enter into the kingdom of Heaven.

ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

11 For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost.

12 How think ye? if a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?

13 And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that (sheep), than of the ninety and nine which went not astray.

14 Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

15. Moreover if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother.

16 But if he will not hear (thee, then) take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.

17 And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell (it) unto the church: but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as an heathen man and a publican.

18 Verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

19 Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree

23. Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants.

24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand talents.

25 But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

26 The servant therefore fell down, and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

27 Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

28 But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellowservants, which owed him an hundred pence: and he laid hands on him, and took (him) by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest.

29 And his fellowservant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay all to you.

30 But he would not, but having gone away he threw him into prison until he pay back the (amount) owing.
31 But his fellow slaves, having seen the things occurring, they were greatly grieved. And having come they reported to their lord all the things having occurred.
32 Then having called him near, his lord said to him, Evil slave! I forgave you all that debt, since you begged me.

33 Ought you not also to had mercy on your fellow slave, as I also had mercy on you?
34 And being angry, his lord delivered him up to the tormentors until he pay back all that had been owing to him.

35 So also My heavenly Father will do to you if not each of you from your hearts forgive his brother their trespasses.

to them, Did you not read that He having made (them) from the beginning created them male and female?
5 And He said, "On account of this a man shall leave father and mother, and shall be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh." (Gen. 1:27; 2:24)

6 So that they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore, what God has yoked together, let not man separate.
7 They said to Him, Why then did Moses command to give a bill of divorce, and to put her away? (Deut. 24:1)
8 He says to them, In view of your hardheartedness, Moses allowed you to put away your wives. But from the beginning it was not so.

9 And I say to you, Whoever shall put away his wife, if not for fornication, and shall marry another, (that one) commits adultery. And the one who marries her (who was) put away commits adultery.
10. His disciples said to Him, If the case of the man be so with (his) wife, it is not gain to marry.
11 But He said to them, Not all make room for this word, but (those) to whom it is given.

12 For there are eunuchs who were generated thus from (the) womb of (their) mother, and there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men, and there are eunuchs who made eunuchs (of) themselves for the sake of the kingdom of Heaven. He who is able to receive, let him receive it.

13. Then little children were brought to Him, that He might lay unto them, Have ye not read, that he which made (them) at the beginning made them male and female,

5 And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh?

6 Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.
7 They say unto him, Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away?
8 He saith unto them, Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so.
9 And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except (it be) for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery.
10. His disciples say unto him, If the case of the man be so with (his) wife, it is not good to marry.
11 But he said unto them, All (men) cannot receive this saying, save (they) to whom it is given.

12 For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from (their) mother's womb: and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men: and there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive (it), let him receive (it).

13. Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should put 14 But Jesus said, Allow the little children and do not prevent them to come to Me, for of such is the kingdom of Heaven.

15 And having laid hands on them, He went away from there.

16. And, behold, one coming near said to Him, Good Teacher, what good thing shall I do that I may have eternal life?
17 And He said to him, Why do you call Me good? No one (is) good except One, God! But if you desire to enter into life, keep the commandments.
18 He said to Him, Which? And Jesus said, "You shall not commit murder, nor commit adultery, nor steal, nor bear false witness,
19 honor your father and your mother," and, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." (Ex. 20:12-16; Deut. 5:16-20)
20 The young man said to Him, All these things I have kept from my youth. What do I still lack?
21 Jesus said to him, If you desire to be perfect, go sell your property and give to (the) poor, and you will have treasure in Heaven; and come, follow Me.

22 But having heard the word, being grieved, the young man went away, for he had many possessions.

toward the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples,

2 saying to them, Go into the village opposite you, and immediately you will find an ass tied, and a colt with her; Loosening lead (them) to Me.
3 And if anyone says anything to you, you shall say, The Lord has need of them. And he will send them at once.

4 But all this happened that might be fulfilled that spoken through the prophet, saying:
5 "Tell the daughter of Zion, Behold! Your King comes to you, meek and mounted on an ass, even a colt, (the) son of an ass." (Isa. 62:11; Zech. 9:9)
6 And the disciples, going and doing as Jesus ordered them,
7 they led the ass and the colt. And (they) put on them their garments, and He sat on them.

8 And the very great crowd strewed their garments on the road. And others were cutting branches from the trees and were spreading (them) in the way.

9 And the crowd, the ones going before and the ones following, were crying out, saying, Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed (is) He coming in (the) name of (the) Lord! Hosanna in the highest! (Ps. 118:25, 26)

10. And having entered into Jerusalem, all the city was shaken, saying, Who is this?
11 And the crowds said, This is Jesus, the Prophet, the (one) from Nazareth of Galilee.

unto the mount of Olives, then sent Jesus two disciples,

2 Saying unto them, Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose (them), and bring (them) unto me.
3 And if any (man) say ought unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them; and straightway he will send them.

4 All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying,
5 Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass.

6 And the disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them,
7 And brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their clothes, and they set (him) thereon.

8 And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way; others cut down branches from the trees, and strawed (them) in the way.

9 And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the Son of David: Blessed (is) he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest.

10. And when he was come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this?
11 And the multitude said, This is Jesus the prophet of Nazareth of Galilee.

12. And Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves, 13 And said unto them, It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves.

14 And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple; and he healed them.

15 And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the Son of David; they were sore displeased,

16 And said unto him, Hearest thou what these say? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea; have ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?

17 And he left them, and went out of the city into Bethany; and he lodged there.

18. Now in the morning as he returned into the city, he hungered.

19 And when he saw a fig tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently the fig tree withered away.

20 And when the disciples saw (it), they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig tree withered away!

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, If ye have faith, and doubt not,

19 (Ye) fools and blind: for whether (is) greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift?
20 Whoso therefore shall swear by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon.
21 And whoso shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein.
22 And he that shall swear by heaven, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.
23 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and have omitted the weightier (matters) of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

45 Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season?

Literal Translation

Matthew 26

1. And it happened, when Jesus finished all these sayings, He said to His disciples,
2 You know that the Passover comes after two days, and the Son of man is delivered up to be crucified.

3. Then the chief priests and the scribes and the elders of the people were assembled to the court of the high priest, the (one) named Caiaphas.
4 And (they) plotted together in order that they might seize Jesus by guile and kill (Him).

5 But they said, Not during the feast, that there be no uproar among the people.

6. And Jesus being in Bethany, in Simon the leper's house,

7 a woman came to Him having an alabaster vial of ointment, very precious. And (she) poured (it) on His head as He reclined.
8 But seeing, His disciples were indignant, saying, For what (is) this waste?
9 For this ointment could have been sold for much and be given to (the) poor.
10 But knowing, Jesus said to them, Why do you cause trouble to the woman? For she worked a good work toward Me.
11 For you always have the poor with you, but you do not always have Me.
12 For pouring this ointment on My body, she did (it) in order to bury Me.

49 And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, master; and kissed him.

50 And Jesus said unto him, Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they, and laid hands on Jesus, and took him.

51 And, behold, one of them which were with Jesus stretched out (his) hand, and drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest's, and smote off his ear.

13 Then Pilate said to Him, Do you not hear how many things they testify against you?
14 And He did not answer him, not even to one word, so that the governor greatly marveled.

15. And at a feast, the governor customarily released one prisoner to the crowd, whom they wished.

he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing.
13 Then said Pilate unto him, Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee?
14 And he answered him to never a word; insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly.

15. Now at (that) feast the governor was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would.
16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas.
17 Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ?
18 For he knew that for envy they had delivered him.
19. When he was set down on the judgment seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him.

20 But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus.

21 The governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Barabbas.
22 Pilate saith unto them, What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ? (They) all say unto him, Let him be crucified.
23 And the governor said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

12 And they went out, and preached that men should repent.

13 And they cast out many devils, and anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed (them).

14. And king Herod heard (of him); (for his name was spread abroad:) and he said, That John the Baptist was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.

15 Others said, That it is Elias. And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets.
16 But when Herod heard (thereof), he said, It is John, whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead.

17 For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife:

14. And having called all the crowd near, He said to them, All hear Me and understand.

14. And when he had called all the people (unto him), he said unto them, Hearken unto me every one (of you), and understand:

15 There is nothing from outside the man, having entered into him, which is able to defile (him). But the things passing out from him, those are the things defiling the man.

15 There is nothing from without a man, that entering into him can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.

16 If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear.
17 And when He went into a house from the crowd, His disciples questioned Him about the parable.
18 And He said to them, Are you also so undiscerning? Do you not perceive that everything having entered from the outside into the man is not able to defile him?
19 (This is) because it does not enter into his heart, but into the belly, and goes out into the toilet bowl, purging all the foods.

16 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.
17 And when he was entered into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.
18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, (it) cannot defile him;
19 Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purging all meats?

20 And He said, That passing out of the man, it is the thing that defiles the man.
21 For from within, out of the heart of men, pass out the depraved thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,

20 And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man.

13 And leaving them, again entering into the boat, He went away to the other side.

14. And the disciples forgot to take loaves. And they did not have (any) with themselves in the boat, except one loaf.

15 And He charged them, saying, See! Look out from the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod.

16 And they reasoned with one another, saying, Because we have no loaves.

17 And knowing, Jesus said to them, Why do you reason because you have no loaves?

6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before (them); and they did set (them) before the people.

7 And they had a few small fishes: and he blessed, and commanded to set them also before (them).

8 So they did eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken (meat) that was left seven baskets.

9 And they that had eaten were about four thousand: and he sent them away.

10. And straightway he entered into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

11 And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him.

12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation.

13 And he left them, and entering into the ship again departed to the other side.

14. Now (the disciples) had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.

15 And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and (of) the leaven of Herod.

16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, (It is) because we have no bread.

17 And when Jesus knew (it), he saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread?

King James Version

1 And when they came nigh to Jerusalem, unto Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount of Olives, he sendeth forth two of his disciples,

2 And saith unto them, Go your way into the village over against you: and as soon as ye be entered into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon never man sat; loose him, and bring (him).

3 And if any man say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye that the Lord hath need of him; and straightway he will send him hither.

4 And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door without in a place where two ways met; and they loose him.

5 And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What do ye, loosing the colt?
6 And they said unto them even as Jesus had commanded: and they let them go.
7 And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their garments on him;

and He sat on it.
8 And many spread their garments on the highway, and others were cutting branches from the trees and were spreading (them) on the highway.
9 And those going before, and those following after, cried out, saying, Hosanna! Blessed (is) the (One) having come in (the) name of (the) Lord!
10 Blessed (is) the coming kingdom of our father David in (the) name of (the) Lord! Hosanna in the highest! (Ps. 118:25, 26)

11 And Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple. And having looked around at all things, the hour already being late, He went out to Bethany with the Twelve.

12. And on the morrow, they having gone out from Bethany, He hungered.
13 And seeing afar off a fig tree having leaves, He went (toward it), if perhaps He would find anything on it. And coming on it, He found nothing except leaves, for it was not (the) season of figs.
14 And answering, Jesus said to it, Let no one eat fruit of you any more to the age. And His disciples heard.

15. And they came to Jerusalem. And entering into the temple, Jesus began to throw out those selling and buying in the temple; also He overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those selling the doves.

16 And (He) did not allow any to carry a vessel through the temple.

19 Master, Moses wrote unto us, If a man's brother die, and leave (his) wife (behind him), and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

20 Now there were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed.

21 And the second took her, and died, neither left he any seed: and the third likewise.

30 and you shall love (the) Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul and with all your mind, and with all your strength." This is the first commandment. (Deut. 6:4, 5)

31 And (the) second (is) like this, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." There is not another commandment greater than these. (Lev. 19:18)
32 And the scribe said to Him, You say well, Teacher. By truth You say that God is one,, and there is no other besides Him;

33 and to love

King James Version

24 And Jesus answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as the angels which are in heaven.

26 And as touching the dead, that they rise: have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, I (am) the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err.

28. And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all?
29 And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments (is), Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord:
30 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this (is) the first commandment.

31 And the second (is) like, (namely) this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these.
32 And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God; and there is none other but he:

33 And to love

12. And on the first day of the Unleavened (Bread), when they killed the passover, His disciples said to Him, Where do You desire (that) going we may prepare that You eat the passover?
13 And He sent two of His disciples, and said to them, Go into the city, and you will meet a man carrying a pitcher of water. Follow him.

14 And wherever he enters, tell the housemaster, The Teacher says, Where is the guest room where I may eat the passover with My disciples?

15 And he will show you a large upper room, having been spread (and) made ready. Prepare for us there.

16 And His disciples went out and came into the city and found (it) as He told them. And they prepared the Passover.

17 And evening having come, He came with the Twelve.
18 And they having reclined and having eaten, Jesus said, Truly I say to you, One of you will betray Me, the (one) eating with Me.
19 And they began to be grieved, and to say to Him one by one, Not at all I, (is it)? And another, Not at all I, (is it)?
20 But answering, He said to them, (It is) one from the Twelve, the (one) dipping in the dish with Me.

21 Truly the Son of man goes as it has been written concerning Him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! It were good for him if that man had never been born.

King James Version

12. And the first day of unleavened bread, when they killed the passover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare that thou mayest eat the passover?
13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him.

14 And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the goodman of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?
15 And he will shew you a large upper room furnished (and) prepared: there make ready for us.

16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

17 And in the evening he cometh with the twelve.
18 And as they sat and did eat, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you which eateth with me shall betray me.
19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, (Is) it I? and another (said, Is) it I?
20 And he answered and said unto them, (It is) one of the twelve, that dippeth with me in the dish.

21 The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had never been born.

6. And at a feast, he released to them one prisoner, whomever they asked.
7 And there was the (one) called Barabbas, having been bound with the insurgents, who in the insurrection had committed murder.
8 And crying aloud, the crowd began to beg (him to do) as he always did to them.
9 But Pilate answered them, saying, Do you desire I should release to you the king of the Jews?
10 For he knew that the chief priests had delivered Him up through envy.
11 But the chief priests stirred up the crowd, that rather he should release Barabbas to them.
12 But answering again, Pilate said to them, What then do you desire I do (with him) whom you call king of the Jews?
13 And again they cried out, Crucify him!
14 But Pilate said to them, For what bad (thing) did he do? But they much more cried out, Crucify him!
15 And deciding to do the easiest (to) the crowd, Pilate released Barabbas to them. And having flogged (Him), he delivered up Jesus, that He might be crucified.

6. Now at (that) feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired.
7 And there was (one) named Barabbas, (which lay) bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection.
8 And the multitude crying aloud began to desire (him to do) as he had ever done unto them.
9 But Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews?
10 For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him for envy.
11 But the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them.
12 And Pilate answered and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do (unto him) whom ye call the King of the Jews?
13 And they cried out again, Crucify him.
14 Then Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him.
15 And (so) Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged (him), to be crucified.

21 And the people waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.
22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: for he beckoned unto them, and remained speechless.

23 And it came to pass, that, as soon as the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house.

24 And after those days his wife Elisabeth conceived, and hid herself five months, saying,
25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on (me), to take away my reproach among men.

26. And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth,
27 To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name (was) Mary.
28 And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, (thou that art) highly favoured, the Lord (is) with thee: blessed (art) thou among women.
29 And when she saw (him), she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.
30 And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God.
31 And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS.
32 He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest:

4 And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David:)

5 To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.
6 And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.
7 And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

8. And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

9 And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.
10 And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.
11 For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

12 And this (shall be) a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.
13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,
14 Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

14. And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee: and there went out a fame of him through all the region round about.

15 And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified of all.

16. And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up for to read.
17 And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Esaias. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written,
18 The Spirit of the Lord (is) upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised,
19 To preach the acceptable year of the Lord.
20 And he closed the book, and he gave (it) again to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were 23 Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, your reward (is) great in heaven: for in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.

24. But woe unto you that are rich! for ye have received your consolation.
25 Woe unto you that are full! for ye shall hunger. Woe unto you that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep.

26 Woe unto you, when all men shall speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the false prophets.

27. But I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you,
28 Bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you.

29 And unto him that smiteth thee on the (one) cheek offer also the other; and him that taketh away thy cloke forbid not (to take thy) coat also.
30 Give to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask (them) not again.
31 And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.

32 For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them.

33 And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do

34 And if you lend (to those) from whom you hope to receive, what thanks is there to you? For the sinners lend to sinners so that they may receive the same.
35 But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, causing no one to despair, and your reward will be much; and you will be sons of the Most High, for He is kind to the unthankful and evil (ones).

36 Therefore, be merciful, even as your Father also is merciful.

37 Judge not, and in no way be judged. Do not condemn, and in no way you will be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven.

she began to wet His feet with tears. And she was wiping with the hairs of her head. And (she) ardently kissed His feet and was anointing (them) with the ointment.

39 But seeing, the Pharisee who had invited Him spoke within himself, saying, This one, if he was a prophet, would have known who and what the woman who touches him (is); for she is a sinner.

40 And answering, Jesus said to the man, Simon, I have a thing to say to you. And he said, Teacher, say (it).

41 There were two debtors to a certain creditor: the one owed five hundred denarii and (the) other fifty.

42 But they not having (a thing) to repay, he freely forgave both. Then which of them do (you) say will love him most?

43 And answering, Simon said, I suppose (the one) to whom he freely forgave the most. And He said to him, You judged rightly.

44 And turning to the woman, He said to Simon, Do you see this woman? I came into your house. You did not give water for My feet, but she washed My feet with tears and wiped off with the hairs of her head.

45 You gave Me no kiss, but she from (when) I entered did not stop fervently kissing My feet.

46 You did not anoint My head with oil, but she anointed My feet with ointment.

47 For this reason I say to you, her many sins are forgiven, for she loved much. But to whom little good ground; and springing up, it produced fruit a hundredfold. Saying these things, He cried out, The one having ears to hear, let him hear.

9. And His disciples questioned Him, saying, What might this parable be?

10 And He said, To you it has been given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God, but to the rest in parables, that seeing they might not see, and hearing, they might not understand. (Isa. 6:9)

11 And this is the parable: The seed is the Word of God.

12 And those beside the way are those hearing, then the devil comes and takes away the Word from their heart, lest believing they may be saved.

13 And those on the rock (are) those who, when they hear, receive the Word with joy; but these have no root, who believe for a time, and in time of trial draw back.

14 And those falling in the thornbushes, these are those hearing, but under anxieties and riches and pleasures of life, having moved along, they are choked, and do not bear to maturity.

15 And those in the good ground, these are the (ones) who in a right and good heart, hearing the Word, they hold (it) and bear fruit in patience.

16. But no one lighting a lamp covers it with a vessel, or puts (it) underneath a couch, but sets (it) on a lampstand, that those coming in may see the light.

17 For nothing is hidden which will not be revealed, good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundredfold. And when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

9. And his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be?

10 And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand.

11 Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.

12 Those by the way side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.

13 They on the rock (are they), which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

14 And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of (this) life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

15 But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep (it), and bring forth fruit with patience.

16. No man, when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth (it) under a bed; but setteth (it) on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light.

17 For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest; nor secret which will not be known and come to be revealed.

Luke 8:18

18 Therefore observe how you hear; for whoever may have, it will be given to him; and whoever may not have, even what he seems to have will be taken from him.

19. And His mother and (His) brothers came to Him, and were not able to come up with Him through the crowd.

20 And it was told to Him, saying Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside wishing to see You.

21 And answering, He said to them, My mother and My brothers are these: the (ones) hearing the Word of God, and doing it.

22. And it happened on one of the days that He and His disciples entered into a boat. And He said to them, Let us go over to the other side of the lake. And they set sail.

23 And as they sailed He fell asleep. And a storm of wind came down onto the lake, and they were being filled and were in danger.

24 And coming near they awakened Him, saying, Master! Master! We are perishing! And being aroused, He rebuked the wind and the roughness of the water; and they ceased, and there was a calm.

15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.

16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.
17 And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them twelve baskets.

18. And it came to pass, as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am?

19 They answering said, John the Baptist; but some (say), Elias; and others (say), that one of the old prophets is risen again.

20 He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter answering said, The Christ of God.

21 And he straitly charged them, and commanded (them) to tell no man that thing;
22 Saying, The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be slain, and be raised the third day.

23. And he said to (them) all, If any (man) will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

43 Blessed (is) that slave whom his lord coming will find (him) so doing.
44 Truly I say to you, he will appoint him over all his possessions.
45 But if that slave says in his heart, My lord delays to come, and should begin to beat the men servants and the female servants, and to eat and to drink and become drunk,

46 the lord of that slave will come in the day in which he does not expect, and in an hour which he does not know. And he will cut him apart and will put his portion with the unbelievers.

47 But that slave having known the will of his lord, and not preparing, nor doing according to His will, will be beaten with many (stripes).

43 Blessed (is) that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.
44 Of a truth I say unto you, that he will make him ruler over all that he hath.
45 But and if that servant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the menservants and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken;

46 The lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for (him), and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers.

47 And that servant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not (himself), neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many (stripes).
48 But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few (stripes). For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more.

hid in of meal measures three, until were leavened all.

Woman, you have been loosed from your infirmity.
13 And He laid hands on her. And instantly she was made erect and glorified God.

14 But answering, being angry that Jesus healed on the sabbath, the synagogue ruler said to the crowd, There are six days in which it is right to work. Then coming in these, be healed, and not on the sabbath day.

15 Then the Lord answered him and said, Hypocrites! Each one of you on the sabbath, does he not loose his ox or ass from the manger, and leading (it) away, give (it) drink?
16 And this one being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan bound, lo, eighteen years, was (it) not right to loose from this bond on the sabbath day?

17 And (on) His saying these things, all having opposed Him were ashamed. And all the crowd rejoiced over all the glorious things happening by Him.

18. And He said, What is the kingdom of God like? And to what may I compare it?
19 It is like a grain of mustard which a man having taken threw into his garden. And it grew and became a great tree, and the birds of the heaven roosted in its branches.

20. And again He said, To what shall I compare the kingdom of God?
21 It is like leaven, which taking, a woman hid in three measures of meal until all was leavened.

Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity.
13 And he laid (his) hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed on the sabbath day, and said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the sabbath day.

15 The Lord then answered him, and said, (Thou) hypocrite, doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or (his) ass from the stall, and lead (him) away to watering?
16 And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day?

17 And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

18. Then said he, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I resemble it?
19 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his garden; and it grew, and waxed a great tree; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it.

20. And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God?
21 It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

8 When you are invited by anyone to wedding feasts, do not recline at the chief seat lest (one) more honorable (than) you be invited by him,
9 and coming, he who invited you will say to you, Give this one place. And then you begin with shame to take the last place.
10 But when you are invited, going in, recline at the last place, so that when he who has invited you may come, he (may) say to you, Friend, go up higher. Then glory will be to you before those reclining with you.

11 For everyone exalting himself will be humbled, and the one humbling himself will be exalted.

12. And He also said to him who had invited Him, When you make a dinner or supper, do not call your friends, nor your brothers, nor your relatives, nor rich neighbors, lest they also should invite you in return, and it become a repayment to you.

13 But when you make a banquet, call the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind;
14 and then you will be blessed, for they have nothing to repay you. For it will be repaid to you in the resurrection of the just.

15. And one of those reclining with (Him), hearing these things, (he) said to Him, Blessed (are) those eating bread in the kingdom of God.
16 But He

7. And he put forth a parable to those which were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chief rooms; saying unto them,
8 When thou art bidden of any (man) to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room; lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him;
9 And he that bade thee and him come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room.
10 But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee.

11 For whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

12. Then said he also to him that bade him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor (thy) rich neighbours; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompence be made thee.

13 But when thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind:
14 And thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the just.

15. And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, Blessed (is) he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God.
16 Then

2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward.
3 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed.

4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.
5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors (unto him), and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord?

6 And he said, An hundred measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.
7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore.
8 And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light.

Hear what the unrighteous judge says.
7 But will God not at all execute the avenging of His elect, those crying to Him day and night, also being patient over them?

8 I say to you that He will execute the avenging of them speedily. But the Son of man coming then, will He find faith on the earth?

9. And He also spoke this parable to some of those having relied on themselves, that they are righteous, and despising the rest:

10 Two men went up into the temple to pray, the one a Pharisee, and the other a tax collector.
11 The Pharisee (was) standing, praying these things to himself: God, I thank You that I am not as the rest of men, rapacious, unrighteous, adulterers, or even as this tax collector.

12 I fast twice (in) the week; I tithe all things, as many as I get.

13 And standing at a distance, the tax collector would not even lift up (his) eyes to Heaven, but smote on his breast, saying, God, be merciful to me, the sinner!

14 I say to you, this one went down to his house having been justified, (rather) than that one. For everyone exalting himself will be humbled. And the (one) humbling himself will be exalted.

15. And they brought infants to Him also, that He might touch them.

King James Version

Hear what the unjust judge saith.
7 And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

8 I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?

9. And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others:

10 Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican.
11 The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men (are), extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican.

12 I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess.

13 And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as (his) eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.

14 I tell you, this man went down to his house justified (rather) than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

15. And they brought unto him also infants, that he would touch them:

2 And, behold, (there was) a man named Zacchaeus, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich.
3 And he sought to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature.

5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zacchaeus, make haste, and come down; for to day I must abide at thy house.

6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.
7 And when they saw (it), they all murmured, saying, That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.
8 And Zacchaeus stood, and said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore (him) fourfold.

9 And Jesus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, any resurrection; and they asked him,

28 Saying, Master, Moses wrote unto us, If any man's brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

29 There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died without children.
30 And the second took her to wife, and he died childless.
31 And the third took her; and in like manner the seven also: and they left no children, and died.

32 Last of all the woman died also.
33 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife.

34 And Jesus answering said unto them, The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage:

35 But they which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage:
36 Neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; and are the children of God, being the children of the resurrection.
37 Now that the dead are raised, even Moses shewed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.
38 For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for all live unto him.
39 Then certain of the scribes answering said, Master, thou hast well said.
40 And after that they durst not a resurrection, (that it was) not to be, they questioned Him,

28 saying, Teacher, Moses wrote to us, If anyone's brother dies having a wife, and this one should die childless, that his brother should take the wife and raise up seed to his brother. (Deut. 25:5)

29 Then there were seven brothers. And having taken a wife, the first died childless.
30 And the second took the wife, and this one died childless.
31 And the third took her, and likewise also the seven did not leave children, and died.

32 And last of all the woman died.
33 Then in the resurrection, of which of them does she become wife? For the seven had her (as) wife.
34 And answering, Jesus said to them, The sons of this age marry, and are given in marriage.

35 But the (ones) counted worthy to attain that age, and the resurrection from (the) dead, neither marry nor are given in marriage.

36 For they are not able to die (any) more; they are angel-like, and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection.
37 But that the dead are raised, even Moses pointed out at the Bush, when he calls (the) Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. (Ex. 3:6) and having said thus, he gave up the ghost.

38 But He is not God of dead ones, but of living ones, for all live to Him.

47. Now when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man.

48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their breasts, and returned.

49 And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Galilee, stood afar off, beholding these things.

50. And, behold, (there was) a man named Joseph, a counsellor; (and he was) a good man, and a just:
51 (The same had not consented to the counsel and deed of them;) (he was) of Arimathaea, a city of the Jews: who also himself waited for the kingdom of God.

52 This (man) went unto Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus.
53 And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulchre that was hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid.

54 And that day was the preparation, and the sabbath drew on.
55. And the women also, which came with him from Galilee, followed after, and beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid.

56 And they returned, and prepared spices and ointments; and rested the sabbath day according to the commandment.

10 It was Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary (the mother) of James, and other (women that were) with them, which told these things unto the apostles.
11 And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not.

12 But having risen, Peter ran to the tomb, and bending down he sees the linen lying alone. And (he) went away wondering to himself (at what) had happened.

12 Then arose Peter, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass.

24. And certain of them which were with us went to the sepulchre, and found (it) even so as the women had said: but him they saw not.

25 Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken:

26 Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

27 And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.

28 And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they went: and he made as though he would have gone further.

29 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them.

30 And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, he took bread, and blessed (it), and brake, and gave to them.

31. And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight.

32 And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?

33 And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them,

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JOHN

John 1

1. In (the) beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.
2 This One was in beginning with God.
3 All things came into being through Him, and without Him not even one (thing) came into being that has come into being.
4 In Him was life, and the life was the light of men;
5 and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overtake it.
6. There was a man having been sent from God; his name (was) John.
7 This one came for a witness, that (he) might witness concerning the Light, that all might believe through Him.
8 He was not that Light, but that (he) might witness concerning the Light.
9 He was the true Light which enlightens every man coming into the world.
10 He was in the world, and the world came into being through Him, yet the world did not know Him.
11 He came to (His) own, and (His) own did not receive Him.
12 But as many as received Him, to them He gave authority to become children of God, to the ones believing into His name,
13 who were generated not of bloods, nor of (the) will of (the) flesh, nor of (the) will of man, but of God (were generated).
14 And the Word became flesh and tabernacled among us. And we beheld His glory, glory as of an only begotten from (the) Father, full of grace and of truth.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JOHN

John 1

1. In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.
2 The same was in the beginning with God.
3 All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.
4 In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

7 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all (men) through him might believe.
8 He was not that Light, but (was sent) to bear witness of that Light.
9 (That) was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

10 He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

5 Jesus answered, Truly, truly, I say to you, if not one is generated of water and of Spirit, he is not able to enter into the kingdom of God.

4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

14 And even as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of man be lifted up,

15 that everyone believing into Him should not perish, but may have everlasting life.

16 For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that everyone believing into Him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

17 For God did not send His Son into the world that He judge the world, but that the world may be saved through Him.

18 The (one) believing into Him is not condemned; but the one not believing already has been condemned, for he has not believed into the name of the only begotten Son of God.

19 But this is the judgment, that the Light has come into the world, and men having loved the darkness more than the Light, for their works were evil.

20 For everyone practicing wickedness hates the Light, and does not come to the Light, that his works may not be exposed.

21 But the (one) doing the truth comes to the Light, that his works may be revealed, that they exist, having been worked in God.

14 And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up:

15 That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

16 For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

17 For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

18 He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

20 For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.

21 But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

35 Do you not say, It is yet four months and the harvest comes? Behold! I say to you, Lift up your eyes and behold the fields, because they are already white to harvest.

36 And the one reaping receives reward, and gathers fruit to everlasting life, so that both the (one) sowing and the (one) reaping may rejoice together.
37 For in this the word is true, that another (is) the (one) sowing, and another the (one) reaping.
38 I sent you to reap what you have not labored over. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor.

39. And many of the Samaritans out of that city believed into Him, because of the word of the woman testifying, He told me all things, whatever I did.
40 Then as the Samaritans came to Him, they asked Him to remain with them. And He remained there two days.

41 And many more believed through His Word.
42 And they said to the woman, We no longer believe because of your speaking; for we (our)selves have heard, and we know that this One is truly the Savior of the world, the Christ.

36 And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.
37 And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth.
38 I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours.

39. And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did.

40 So when the Samaritans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days.

41 And many more believed because of his own word;

3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

6 When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time (in that case), he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

8 Jesus saith unto him, Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath.

10. Therefore the Jews said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath day:

John 5:11

Literal Translation

Jews said to the (one) having been healed, It is a sabbath; it is not lawful for you to take up the cot.
11 He answered them, The (One) making me whole, that One said to me, Take up your cot and walk.

12 Then they asked him, Who is the man who told you, Take up your cot and walk?
13 But the (one) healed did not know who it is, for a crowd being in the place, Jesus had withdrawn.

14. After these things, Jesus finds him in the temple and said to him, Behold, you have become whole, sin no more that a worse thing not happen to you.
15 The man went away and told the Jews that Jesus is the (One) making him whole.

16 And because of this, the Jews persecuted Jesus and sought to kill Him, because He did these things on a sabbath.

17. But Jesus answered them, My Father works until now, and I work.
18 Because of this, therefore, the Jews sought the more to kill Him, for not only did He break the sabbath, but also called God (His) own Father, making Himself equal to God.

19. Then Jesus answered and said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, the Son is not able to do (anything) from Himself, nothing; except what He may see the Father doing; for whatever that One does, these things also the Son does the same way.

it is not lawful for thee to carry (thy) bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk?
13 And he that was healed wist not who it was: for Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in (that) place.
14. Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.
15 The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus, which had made him whole.

16 And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath day.

17. But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.
18 Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, making himself equal with God.

19. Then answered Jesus and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.

20 For the Father loveth the Son,

1. After these things Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is (the sea) of Tiberias.
2 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased.

3 And Jesus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.
4 And the passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh.
5 When Jesus then lifted up (his) eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat?

7 Philip answered him, Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.

28 Then they said to Him, What may we do that we may work the works of God?
29 Jesus answered and said to them, This is the work of God, that you believe into (Him) whom that One sent.

30 Then they said to Him, Then what sign do you do that we may see and may believe you? What do you work?
31 Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, even as has been written "He gave to them bread out of the heaven to eat." (Ps. 78:24)

32 Then Jesus said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, Moses has not given you the bread out of Heaven, but My Father gives you the true bread out of Heaven.

King James Version

28 Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?
29 Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

30 They said therefore unto him, What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work?
31 Our fathers did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat.

32 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

33 For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.
34 Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.
35 And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

36 But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not.

37 All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.
38 For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me.

39 And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose

3 Then His brothers said to Him, Move away from here and go to Judea, that your disciples will also behold your works which you do,
4 for no one does anything in secret and himself seeks to be in public. If you do these things, reveal yourself to the world.
5 For not even His brothers believed into Him.

7 The world is not able to hate you; but it hates Me because I witness concerning it, that its works are evil.

8 You go up to this feast. I am not yet going up to this feast, because My time has not yet been fulfilled.

13 However, no one publicly spoke about Him, because of the fear of the Jews.

2. Now the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand.

3 His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judaea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest.
4 For (there is) no man (that) doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, shew thyself to the world.
5 For neither did his brethren believe in him.

6 Then Jesus said unto them, My time is not yet come: but your time is alway ready.

7 The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil.

8 Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast; for my time is not yet full come.

9 When he had said these words unto them, he abode (still) in Galilee.

10. But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.
11 Then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?

12 And there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people.
13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews.

30 Then they sought to take him: but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.

9 But having heard, and being convicted by the conscience, they went out one by one, beginning from the older ones, until the last. And Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in (the) middle.

10 And Jesus bending back up, and having seen no one but the woman, He said to her, Woman, where are those the accusers of you? Did not one give judgment against you?
11 And she said, No one, Lord. And Jesus said to her, Neither do I give judgment. Go, and sin no more.

12. Then Jesus again spoke to them, saying, I am the Light of the world. The (one) following Me will in no way walk in the darkness, but will have the light of Life.
13 Then the Pharisees said to Him, You witnessed about yourself; your witness is not true.

14 Jesus answered and said to them, Even if I witness concerning Myself, My witness is true; for I know from where I came, and where I go. But you do not know from where I came, and where I go.

15 You judge according to the flesh. I judge no one.

16 But even if I judge, My judgment is true, because I am not alone, but I and (the) Father who has sent Me.

17 And in your Law it has been written

King James Version

he that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.
8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.
9 And they which heard (it), being convicted by (their own) conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, (even) unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?
11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more.

12. Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.
13 The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true.

14 Jesus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself, (yet) my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

15 Ye judge after the flesh; I judge no man.

16 And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

17 It is also written in your law, and a demon you have? answered Jesus, I a demon not

If you were children of Abraham, you would do the works of Abraham.
40 But now you seek to kill Me, a man who has spoken the truth to you, which I heard alongside (of) God. Abraham did not do this.
41 You do the works of your father. They said to Him, We were not generated of fornication; we have one father, God.
42 Then Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love Me, for I went forth and have come from God. For I have not come from Myself, but that One sent Me.
43 Why do you not know My speech? (It is) because you are not able to hear My Word.
44 You are from (your) father the devil, and the lusts of your father you desire to do. That one was a manslayer from (the) beginning, and he has not stood in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks (a) lie, he speaks from (his) own, because he is a liar, and the father of it.
45 But because I speak the truth, you do not believe Me.
46 Who of you reproves Me concerning sin? But if I speak truth, why do you not believe Me?
47 The (one) being of God hears the words of God; because of this you do not hear, because you are not of God.
48 Then the Jews answered and said to Him, Do we not say well that you are a Samaritan and have a demon?
49 Jesus answered, I do not have a demon;

If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham.
40 But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham.
41 Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication; we have one Father, (even) God.
42 Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me.
43 Why do ye not understand my speech? (even) because ye cannot hear my word.
44 Ye are of (your) father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.
45 And because I tell (you) the truth, ye believe me not.
46 Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me?
47 He that is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear (them) not, because ye are not of God.
48 Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a devil?
49 Jesus answered, I have not a devil;

Literal Translation — John 9

1. And passing by, He saw a man blind from birth.
2 And His disciples asked Him, saying, Teacher, who sinned, this one, or his parents, that he was born blind?

3 Jesus answered, Neither this one nor his parents sinned, but that the works of God might be revealed in him.

4 It is necessary for Me to work the works of Him who sent Me while it is day. Night comes when no one is able to work.
5 While I am in the world, I am (the) Light of the world.
6 Saying these things, He spat on the ground and made clay out of the spittle, and anointed clay on the blind one's eyes.
7 And He said to him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam, which translated is Sent. Then he went and washed, and came seeing.

8. Then the neighbors and those who formerly saw him that he was blind, said, Is this one not the (one) who had sat and begged?

is he? He said, I know not.

13. They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind.
14 And it was the sabbath day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.
15 Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see.

16 Therefore said some of the Pharisees, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And there was a division among them.

17 They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, He is a prophet.

18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.
19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see?

20 His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:
21 But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself.

22 These (words) spake his parents, because

13. They brought him to the Pharisees, the (one) once blind.
14 And it was a sabbath when Jesus made the clay and opened his eyes.
15 Then also the Pharisees again asked him how he received sight. And he said to them, He put clay on my eyes, and I washed, and I see.

16 Then some of the Pharisees said, This man is not from God, because He does not keep the sabbath. Others said, How can a man, a sinner, do such miracles? And there was a division among them.

17 They said to the blind one again, What do you say about him, because he opened your eyes? And he said, He is a prophet.

18 Then the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he was blind and received sight, until they called the parents of him having received sight.
19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, whom you say that he was born blind? Then how does he now see?

20 His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind.
21 But how he now sees, we do not know; or who opened his eyes, we do not know. He is of age, ask him. He will speak about himself.

22 His parents said these things because

I also know the Father; and I lay down My life for the sheep.

16 And I have other sheep which are not of this fold. I must also lead those, and they will hear My voice; and there will be one flock, one Shepherd.
17 For this reason My Father loves Me, because I lay down My life, that I may take it again.

18 No one takes it from Me, but I lay it down from Myself. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it again. I received this commandment from My Father.

19. Then a division occurred again among the Jews, because of these words.
20 And many of them said, He has a demon and is insane. Why do you hear him?
21 Others said, These are not words of one having been possessed by a demon. A demon is not able to open (the) eyes of blind ones.

22. And (the Feast) of Dedication took place in Jerusalem, and it was winter.

24 Then the Jews encircled Him, and said to Him, How long do you lift up our soul? If you are the Christ, tell us publicly.

25 Jesus answered them, I told you, and you did not believe. The works which I do in the name of My Father, these bear witness about Me.

35 Jesus wept.
36 Then the Jews said, See how He loved him!
37 But some of them said, Was this One, the (one) opening the eyes of the blind, not able to have caused that this one should not die?

38 Then groaning again within Himself, Jesus came to the tomb. And it was a cave, and a stone was lying on it.

39 Jesus said, Lift the stone. Martha, the sister of the one that had died, said to Him, Lord, he already smells, for it is (the) fourth (day).

40 Jesus said to her, Did I not say to you that if you would believe you will see the glory of God?
41 Then they lifted the stone where the dead one was laid. And Jesus lifted (His) eyes upward and said, Father, I thank You that You heard Me.

42 And I know that you always hear Me, but because of the crowd standing around, I said (it), that they might believe that You sent Me.

43 And saying these things, He cried out with a loud voice, Lazarus! Here! Outside!
44 And the (one) who had died came out, the feet and the hands having been bound with sheets, and his face being bound with a cloth. Jesus said to them, Loosen him and let (him) go.

45 Then many of the Jews, those coming to Mary, and having seen what Jesus did, believed into Him.

King James Version

34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see.
35 Jesus wept.
36 Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him!
37 And some of them said, Could not this man, which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?
38 Jesus therefore again groaning in himself cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.

39 Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been (dead) four days.
40 Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God?
41 Then they took away the stone (from the place) where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up (his) eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

42 And I knew that thou hearest me always: but because of the people which stand by I said (it), that they may believe that thou hast sent me.
43 And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth.
44 And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with grave-clothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

45 Then many of the Jews which came to Mary, and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him.

2 Then they made Him a supper there, and Martha served. But Lazarus was one of those reclining with Him.
3 Then taking a pound of ointment of pure, costly spikenard, Mary anointed the feet of Jesus and wiped off His feet with her hairs. And the house was filled with the odor of the ointment.

4 Then Simon's (son), one of His disciples, Judas Iscariot, who was about to betray Him, said,

9. Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead.
10 But the chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death;
11 Because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

12. On the next day much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem,
13 Took branches of palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna: Blessed (is) the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord.

14 And Jesus, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written,
15 Fear not, daughter of Sion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt.

16 These things understood not his disciples at the first: but when Jesus was glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and (that) they had done these things unto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record.
18 For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.
19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world

24 Truly, truly, I say to you, unless the grain of wheat that falls into the earth dies, it remains alone. But if it dies, it bears much fruit.

28 Father, glorify Your name. Then a voice came out of the heaven: I both glorified (it), and I will glorify (it) again.

29 Then standing and hearing, the crowd said that thunder occurred. Others said, An angel has spoken to Him.
30 Jesus answered and said, This voice has not occurred because of Me,

26 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will (my) Father honour.
27 Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour.

28 Father, glorify thy name. Then came there a voice from heaven, (saying), I have both glorified (it), and will glorify (it) again.

31 Now is (the) judgment of this world; now the ruler of this world shall be cast out.

32 And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, I will draw all to Myself.

33 But He said this, signifying by what kind (of) death He was about to die.
34 The crowd answered Him, We heard out of the Law that the Christ remains forever. And how do you say that the Son of man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of man?

35 Then Jesus said to them, Yet a little while the Light is with you. Walk while you have the Light, that darkness not overtake you. And the (one) walking in the darkness does not know where he is going.

36 While you have the Light, believe into the Light, that you may become sons of Light. Jesus spoke these things, and going away (He) was hidden from them.

37. But (though) He had done so many miracles before them, they did not believe into Him,
38 so that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he said, "Lord, who has believed our report? And the arm of the Lord, to whom was it revealed"? (Isa.53:1)
39 Because of this they could not believe, because Isaiah said again,
40 "He has blinded their eyes and has hardened their heart, that they might not see with the eyes and understand with the heart, and be converted, and I should heal them." (Isa.6:10)
41 Isaiah said these but for your sakes.

31 Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out.

32 And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all (men) unto me.

33 This he said, signifying what death he should die.

34 The people answered him, We have heard out of the law that Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man?

35 Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and did hide himself from them.

37. But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him:
38 That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?
39 Therefore they could not believe, because that Esaias said again,
40 He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with (their) eyes, nor understand with (their) heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

reclining again, He said to them, Do you know what I have done to you?
13 You call Me The Teacher, and, The Lord. And you say well, for I AM.
14 If then I washed your feet, the Lord and the Teacher, you also ought to wash the feet of one another.

15 For I gave you an example, that as I did to you, you also should do.

16 Truly, truly, I say to you, a slave is not greater than his lord, nor a messenger greater than the (one) sending him.

20 Truly, truly, I say to you, the (one) receiving whomever I may send receives Me; and the (one) receiving Me receives the (One) sending Me.

21 Saying these things, Jesus was troubled in spirit and testified and said, Indeed I tell you truly that one of you will betray Me.

22 Then the disciples looked upon one another, being perplexed about whom He spoke.
23 But there was one of His disciples reclining at the bosom of Jesus, whom Jesus loved.
24 Then Simon Peter nodded to him to ask whom it might be and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you?

13 Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for (so) I am.
14 If I then, (your) Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

15 For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.
16 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.

17 If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.
18 I speak not of you all: I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, He that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me.
19 Now I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am (he).

20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.

21 When Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.
22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.
23 Now there was leaning on Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved.
24 Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom He spoke.

25 And that one leaning on the breast of Jesus, he, said to Him, Lord, who is it?
26 Jesus answered, It is that one to whom I, having dipped the morsel, shall give (it). And dipping the morsel, He gave (it) to Judas Iscariot, (son) of Simon.
27 And after the morsel, then Satan entered into that one. Then Jesus said to him, What you do, do quickly.

28 But no one of those reclining knew this, for what He spoke to him;

29 for some thought, since Judas held the money bag, that Jesus was saying to him, Buy what things we have need (of) for the feast; or that he give something to the poor.

30 Then, receiving the morsel, that one immediately went out. And it was night.

31. Then when he had gone out, Jesus said, Now the Son of man was glorified, and God was glorified in Him.
32 If God was glorified in Him, God also will glorify Him in Himself, and immediately will glorify Him.
33 Little children, yet a little (while) I am with you. You will seek Me; and, even as I said to the Jews, Where I go, you are not able to come; I also say to you now.
34 I give a new commandment to you, that you should love one another; according as I loved you, you should also love one another.

35 In this all shall know that you are My disciples, if you have love among one another.

25 He then lying on Jesus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it?
26 Jesus answered, He it is, to whom I shall give a sop, when I have dipped (it). And when he had dipped the sop, he gave (it) to Judas Iscariot, (the son) of Simon.
27 And after the sop Satan entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly.

28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.
29 For some (of them) thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy (those things) that we have need of against the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor.

30 He then having received the sop went immediately out: and it was night.

31. Therefore, when he was gone out, Jesus said, Now is the Son of man glorified, and God is glorified in him.
32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him.
33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say to you.
34 A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

35 By this shall all (men) know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.
