King James Version

21 He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.

22 Judas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world?

23 Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

24 He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me.

25 These things have I spoken unto you, being (yet) present with you.
26 But the Comforter, (which is) the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.
27 Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.
28 Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come (again) unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for my Father is greater than I.
29 And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe.
30 Hereafter I will not talk

2 Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every (branch) that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.
3 Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.
4 Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.
5 I am the vine, ye (are) the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.
6 If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast (them) into the fire, and they are burned.
7 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.
8 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.
9 As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.

11 I have spoken these things to you that My joy may abide in you, and your joy may be filled.

12 This is My commandment, that you love one another as I loved you.

13 Greater love than this has no one, that anyone should lay down his life for his friends.

14 You are My friends if you do whatever I command you.

15 I no longer call you slaves, because the slave does not know what his lord does. But I called you friends, because all things which I heard from beside My Father I made known to you.

16 You have not chosen Me, but I chose you out and planted you, that you should go and should bear fruit, and your fruit abide, that whatever you should ask the Father in My name, He may give you.

17 These things I command you, that you love one another.

18. If the world hates you, you know that it has hated Me before (it has hated) you.

19 If you were of the world, the world would love (its) own. But because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, for this reason the world hates you.

20 Remember the word which I said to you, A slave is not greater than his lord. If they persecuted Me, they also will persecute you. If they kept My Word, they also will keep yours.

10 If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.

11 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and (that) your joy might be full.

12 This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.

13 Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

15 Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I heard of my Father I have made known unto you.

16 Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and (that) your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.

17 These things I command you, that ye love one another.

18. If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before (it hated) you.

19 If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

20 Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also.

7 Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth.
8 Jesus answered, I have told you that I am (he): if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way:

9 That the saying might be fulfilled, which he spake, Of them which thou gavest me have I lost none.
10 Then Simon Peter having a sword drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done?
36 Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

37 Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice.

King James Version

What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I find in him no fault (at all).

39 But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

40 Then cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

19. And Pilate also wrote a title and put (it) on the cross. And having been written, it was: JESUS THE NAZARENE, THE KING OF THE JEWS.
20 Therefore, many of the Jews read this title, because the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city. And it was having been written in Hebrew, in Greek, in Latin.

21 Then the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, Do not write, The king of the Jews, but, That one said, I am king of the Jews.

22 Pilate answered, What I have written, I have written.

23. Then when they crucified Jesus, the soldiers took His garments and made four parts, a part to each soldier, also the tunic. And the tunic was seamless, woven from the top throughout.

24 Then they said to one another, Let us not tear it, but let us cast lots about it, whose it will be (that the Scripture might be fulfilled which said, "They divided My garments to themselves, and they threw a lot (for) My garment" (Ps.22:18).

And they took Jesus, and led (him) away.
17 And he bearing his cross went forth into a place called (the place) of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew Golgotha:
18 Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst.

19. And Pilate wrote a title, and put (it) on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS.

20 This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, (and) Greek, (and) Latin.

21 Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews.

22 Pilate answered, What I have written I have written.

23. Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also (his) coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout.

24 They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots.

These things therefore the soldiers did.

25. Now there stood by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the (wife) of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene.

26 When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold thy son!

27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own (home).

28. After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst.

29 Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a spunge with vinegar, and put (it) upon hyssop, and put (it) to his mouth.

30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost.

31. The Jews therefore, because it was the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was an high day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and (that) they might be taken away.

32 Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him.

33 But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs:

34 But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side,

41 And there was a garden in the place where He was crucified, and a new tomb in the garden, in which no one yet ever had been placed.

42 There, then, because of the Preparation of the Jews, because the tomb was near, they put Jesus.

40 Then took they the body of Jesus, and wound it in linen clothes with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury.

41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid.

42 There laid they Jesus therefore because of the Jews' preparation (day); for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

16 Jesus says to her, Mary! That one turning toward (Him), said to Him, Rabboni! That is to say, Teacher.

17 Jesus said to her, Do not touch Me, for I have not yet gone up to My Father. But go to My brothers, and say to them, I go up to My Father and your Father, and My God and your God.

18 Mary Magdalene came bringing word to the disciples that she has seen the Lord, and that He told her these things.

19. Then it being evening on that day, the first of the week, and the doors having been locked where the disciples were gathered together, because of fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst and says to them, Peace to you.

they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.
14 And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus.
15 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.
16 Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She turned herself, and saith unto him, Rabboni; which is to say, Master.
17 Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and (to) my God, and your God.

18 Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and (that) he had spoken these things unto her.

19. Then the same day at evening, being the first (day) of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace (be) unto you.

20 And when he had so said, he shewed unto them (his) hands and his side. Then were the disciples glad, when they saw the Lord.

21 Then said Jesus to them again, Peace (be) unto you: as (my) Father hath sent me,

1. After these things, Jesus revealed Himself again to the disciples at the Sea of Tiberias. And He revealed (Himself) in this way:

2 Simon Peter, and Thomas, being called Twin, and Nathanael from Cana of Galilee, and the (sons) of Zebedee, and two others of His disciples were together.

3 Simon Peter said to them, I am going out to fish. They said to him, We also are coming with you. They went and went up into the boat at once. And in that night, they caught nothing.

4 And it now becoming early morning, Jesus stood on the shore. However, the disciples did not know that it was Jesus.
5 Then Jesus said to them, Children, do you not have anything for eating? They answered Him, No.
6 And He said to them, Cast the net to the right parts of the boat and you will find.

7 Then they cast, and they no longer had (the) strength to draw it, from the multitude of the fish. Then the disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, It is the Lord. Then hearing that it is the Lord, Simon Peter having girded on (his) coat, for he was naked, and threw himself into the sea.

9 Then when they went up onto the land, they saw a fire of coals lying, and a fish having been laid on (it), and bread.
10 Jesus said to them, Bring from the little fish which you caught now.

11 Simon Peter went up, and dragged the net onto the land, full of big fish, a hundred and fifty three. And (though) being so many, the net was not torn.
12 Jesus said to them, Come, break fast. And no one of the disciples dared to ask Him, Who are You? knowing that it is the Lord.

13 Then Jesus comes and takes the bread, and gives to them, and in the same way the little fish.
14 This now (is) the three times (that) Jesus was revealed to His disciples, (He) having been raised from (the) dead.

15. Then when they broke fast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, Simon, (son) of Jonah, do you love Me more (than) these? He said to Him, Yes, Lord, You know that I love You. He said to him, Feed My lambs!
16 Again He says to him secondly, Simon, (son) of Jonah, do you love Me? He says to Him, Yes, Lord, You know that I love You. He says to him, Shepherd My sheep!
17 Thirdly, He said to him, Simon (son) of Jonah, do you love Me? Peter was grieved that He said to him a third (time), Do you love Me? And he said to him, Lord, You perceive all things, You know that came in a little ship; (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes.

9 As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread.
10 Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.

11 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.
12 Jesus saith unto them, Come (and) dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jesus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.
14 This is now the third time that Jesus shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

15. So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, (son) of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs.
16 He saith to him again the second time, Simon, (son) of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my sheep.
17 He saith unto him the third time, Simon, (son) of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that

Literal Translation

I love You! Jesus says to him, Feed My sheep!
18 Truly, truly, I say to you, when you were younger, you girded yourself, and you walked where you desired. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will gird you, and will carry (you) where you do not desire.
19 But He said this, signifying by what death he will glorify God. And having said this, He told him, Follow Me.
20 But turning, Peter sees the disciple whom Jesus loved following, who also leaned on His breast at the Supper, and said, Lord, who is the (one) betraying You?
21 Seeing this one, Peter said to Jesus, Lord, and what (of) this one?

22 Jesus says to him, If I desire him to remain until I come, what (is that) to you? You follow Me.

23 Therefore, the word went out to the brothers that that disciple does not die. Yet Jesus did not say to him that he does not die, but, If I desire him to remain until I come, what (is that) to you?

24 This is the disciple witnessing about these other things, writing these things, and we know that his witness is true.

25 And many are the things whatever Jesus did, which if they were written singly, I suppose the world itself (could) not contain the scrolls having been written. Amen.

21 Peter seeing him saith to Jesus, Lord, and what (shall) this man (do)?
22 Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, what (is that) to thee? follow thou me.

23 Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, He shall not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what (is that) to thee?

24 This is the disciple which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things: and we know that his testimony is true.

25 And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which, if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written. Amen.

THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

Acts 1

1. Indeed, O Theophilus, I made the first account concerning all things which Jesus began both to do and to teach,
2 until which day He was taken up, having given directions to the apostles whom He chose out, through (the) Holy Spirit,
3 to whom also He presented Himself living after His suffering, by many infallible proofs, being seen by them through forty days, and speaking the things concerning the kingdom of God.
4 And having met with them, He charged them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to await the promise of the Father, "which you heard of Me;

5 because John indeed baptized in water, but you will be baptized in (the) Holy Spirit not many days after these."

6 Then, indeed, coming together they questioned Him, saying, Lord, do You restore the kingdom to Israel at this time?

7 And He said to them, It is not yours to know times or seasons which the Father placed in His own authority;

8 but you will receive power, the Holy Spirit coming upon you, and you will be witnesses of Me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and Samaria, and unto (the) end of (the) earth.
9 And saying these things, (as) they looked on, He was taken up, and a cloud

THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

Acts 1

1. The former treatise have I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach,
2 Until the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Ghost had given commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen:
3 To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God:

4 And, being assembled together with (them), commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which, (saith he), ye have heard of me.

5 For John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel?
7 And he said unto them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power.
8 But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.
9 And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud

13 And when they went in, they went up to the upper room where they were waiting: both Peter and James, and John and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James (the son) of Alpheus and Simon the Zealot, and Judas (the) brother of James.

14 These all were continuing steadfastly in prayer and in supplication with one mind, with (the) women, and (with) Mary the mother of Jesus, and with His brothers.

12. Then returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath day's journey.

13 And when they were come in, they went up into an upper room, where abode both Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James (the son) of Alphaeus, and Simon Zelotes, and Judas (the brother) of James.

14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren.

17 for he was numbered with us, and obtained a portion of this ministry.
18 Indeed, then, this one bought a field out of the reward of unrighteousness; and becoming headlong, he burst in (the) middle, and poured out all his bowels.
19 And it became known to all those living in Jerusalem, so as that field to be called in the(ir) own dialect, Akeldama, that is, Field of Blood.

20 For it has been written in (the) scroll of Psalms, "Let his estate become forsaken, and he not be living in it." And, "Let another take his overseership." (Ps. 69:25; Ps. 109:8)

21 Therefore, must men being together with us all (the) time in which the Lord Jesus came in and went out among us,
22 beginning from the baptism of John until the day when He was taken from us, one of these to become a witness of His resurrection with us.

23 And they set out two: Joseph, he being called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias.
24 And having prayed, they said, You, Lord, Heart-knower, show which one You chose out of these two,
25 to take the share of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas fell, to go to (his) own place.

26 And they gave their lots. And the lot fell on Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

20 For it is written in the book of Psalms, Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: and his bishoprick let another take.

21 Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us,
22 Beginning from the baptism of John, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained to be a witness with us of his resurrection.

23 And they appointed two, Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias.
24 And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, which knowest the hearts of all (men), shew whether of these two thou hast chosen,
25 That he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.
26 And they gave forth their lots; and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

13 Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine.

14. But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judaea, and all (ye) that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words:

15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is (but) the third hour of the day.

16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel;
17 And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:

18 And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy:

19 And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke:
20 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come:
21 And it shall come to pass, (that) whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord will be saved." (Joel 3:15)

22 Men, Israelites, hear these words: Jesus the Nazarene, a man from God, having been approved among you by powerful deeds and wonders and signs, which God did through Him in your midst, as you yourselves also know,

23 this One given (to you) by the before-determined counsel and foreknowledge of God, (you) having taken through lawless hands, having crucified (Him), you put (Him) to death.
24 (But) God raised (Him) up, having loosed the pangs of death, because it was not possible for Him to be held by it.
25 For David said as to Him, "I foresaw the Lord before Me through all, because He is on My right (hand), that I not be moved.
26 For this reason My heart exulted, and My tongue was glad; and My flesh also will dwell on hope,
27 because You will not leave My soul in Hades, nor will You give Your Holy One to see corruption.

28 You revealed to Me paths of life; You will fill Me with joy with Your face." (Ps.16:8-11)
29 Men, brothers, it is permitted to say to you with plainness concerning the patriarch David, that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is among us until this day.

30 Then being a prophet, and knowing that God swore with an oath to him that of (the) fruit of his loin, as concerning flesh, to raise the Christ to sit on his throne, (see Ps. 132:11)

Acts 5

1. But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession,
2 And kept back (part) of the price, his wife also being privy (to it), and brought a certain part, and laid (it) at the apostles' feet.

3 But Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back (part) of the price of the land?

4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God.

5 And Ananias hearing these words fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the young men arose, wound him up, and carried (him) out, and buried (him).

7 And (it) was about three hours afterwards, his wife also entered, not knowing the (thing) happening.
8 And Peter answered her, Tell me if you gave over the land (for) so much? And she said, Yes, (for) so much.

9 And Peter said to her, Why (was it) that it was agreed with you to tempt the Spirit of (the) Lord? Behold, the feet of those burying your husband at the door! and they will carry you out.
10 And immediately she fell at his feet and expired. And entering, the young men found her dead, and carrying (her) out (they) buried her beside her husband.

11 And great fear came to be on all the church and on all those hearing these things.

12. And through the hands of the apostles many signs and wonders among the people occurred. And they were all with one passion in Solomon's Porch.
13 And of the rest, no one dared to be joined to them, but the people greatly magnified them.
14 And more believing ones were added to (the) Lord, multitudes of both men and of women,
15 so as to carry out the sick in the streets, and to place (them) on cots and mattresses, that (at the) coming of Peter, if even (his) shadow might overshadow some of them.
16 And also the multitude came together (from) the cities around Jerusalem, bearing sick ones and (those) being tormented by unclean spirits,

7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.
8 And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband (are) at the door, and shall carry thee out.
10 Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying (her) forth, buried (her) by her husband.
11 And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

12. And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; (and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch.

13 And of the rest durst no man join himself to them: but the people magnified them.
14 And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.)

15 Insomuch that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid (them) on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them.
16 There came also a multitude (out) of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits:

20 Go! And standing in the temple, speak to the people all the words of this Life.
21 And having heard, they went into the temple about dawn and taught. But having come near, the high priest and those with him, he called together the Sanhedrin and all the elderhood of the sons of Israel. And (they) sent to the jail (for) them to be brought.

22 But having come near, the officers did not find them in the prison. And having returned, they reported, 23 saying, Indeed we found the jail having been shut with all security, and the guards outside standing before the doors. But opening it, we found no one inside.

24 And when they heard these words, both the priest and the temple commander and the chief priests were perplexed about them, what this might be.

20 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life.
21 And when they heard (that), they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told,

23 Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Now when the high priest and the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow.
25 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.

26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.
27 And when they had brought them, they set (them) before the council: and the high priest asked them,
28 Saying, Did not we straitly command you that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us.

29 Then Peter and the (other) apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men.
30 The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree.

31 Him hath God exalted with his right hand (to be) a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins.

32 And we are his witnesses of these things; and (so is) also the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33. When they heard (that), they were cut (to the heart), and took counsel to slay them.
34 Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space;
35 And said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men.
36 For before it, not (even) a foot breadth. And (He) promised to give it to him for a possession and to his seed after him, there being no child to him.

6 And God spoke thus, that his seed would be a temporary resident in a strange land, and they would enslave it and oppress (it) four hundred years. (See Gen.15:13,17:8)
7 And God said, "I will judge the nation to whichever they may serve." And, "After these things they will come out and will do service to Me in this place." (Gen. 15:14; Ex. 3:12)
8 And He gave to him a covenant of circumcision; and so he fathered Isaac and circumcised him on the eighth day. And Isaac (fathered) Jacob, and Jacob the twelve patriarchs.

9 And being jealous of Joseph, the patriarchs sold (him) into Egypt. But God was with him,
10 and plucked him out from all his afflictions, and gave him favor and wisdom before Pharaoh (the) king of Egypt. And (Pharaoh) appointed him governor over Egypt and all his whole house.

11 But a famine came over all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction. And our fathers did not find sustenance.

12 But having heard of grain being in Egypt, Jacob sent out our fathers first.
13 And at the second (time), Joseph was made known to his brothers, and Joseph's race came to be evident to Pharaoh.
14 And sending, Joseph called it, no, not (so much as) to set his foot on: yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when (as yet) he had no child.

6 And God spake on this wise, That his seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat (them) evil four hundred years.
7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and serve me in this place.
8 And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so (Abraham) begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and Isaac (begat) Jacob; and Jacob (begat) the twelve patriarchs.

9 And the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt: but God was with him,
10 And delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house.

11 Now there came a dearth over all the land of Egypt and Chanaan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance.

12 But when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first.
13 And at the second (time) Joseph was made known to his brethren; and Joseph's kindred was made known unto Pharaoh.
14 Then sent Joseph, and called

15 So Jacob went down into Egypt, and died, he, and our fathers,
16 And were carried over into Sychem, and laid in the sepulchre that Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Emmor (the father) of Sychem.

17 But when the time of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt, 18 Till another king arose, which knew not Joseph.

19 The same dealt subtilly with our kindred, and evil entreated our fathers, so that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live.

22 And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds.
23 And when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel.

24 And seeing one (of them) suffer wrong, he defended (him), and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian:

28 Do you not want to do away with me (in the) way you did away with the Egyptian yesterday?" (Ex.2:14)
29 And Moses fled at this word. And he became a tenant in Midian land, where he fathered two sons. (Ex.2:13-15)
30 And forty years having been fulfilled, (the) Angel of (the) Lord appeared to him in a flame of fire (in) a bush in the desert of Mount Sinai.

36 He brought them out, after that he had shewed wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and in the Red sea, and in the wilderness forty years.
37 This is that Moses, which said unto the children of Israel, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear.

38 This is he, that was in the church in the wilderness with the angel which spake to him in the mount Sina, and (with) our fathers: who received the lively oracles to give unto us:

39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust (him) from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Egypt,

40 Saying unto Aaron, Make us gods to go before us: for (as for) this Moses, which brought us out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.
41 And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.

Acts 9

1. But still breathing threats and murder toward the disciples of the Lord, having come to the high priest,
2 Saul asked from him letters to Damascus, to the synagogues, so that if he found any being of the Way, both men and women, having bound them he might bring (them) to Jerusalem.

man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem:

14 And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call on thy name.
15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel:

16 For I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake.
17 And Ananias went his way, and entered into the house; and putting his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, (even) Jesus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and be filled with the Holy Ghost.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized.

19 And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Damascus.

20 And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God.
21 But all that heard (him) were amazed, and said; Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, 24 But their laying await was known of Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

25 Then the disciples took him by night, and let (him) down by the wall in a basket.

26 And when Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.
27 But Barnabas took him, and brought (him) to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus.

28 And he was with them coming in and going out at Jerusalem.

29 And he spake boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the Grecians: but they went about to slay him.
30 (Which) when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.
31 Then had the churches rest throughout all Judaea and Galilee and Samaria, and were edified; and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, were multiplied.

them, Ye know how that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation; but God hath shewed me that I should not call any man common or unclean.
29 Therefore came I (unto you) without gainsaying, as soon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me?
30 And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and, behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing,

31 And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Joppa, and call hither Simon, whose surname is Peter; he is lodged in the house of (one) Simon a tanner by the sea side: who, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee.

33 Immediately therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of God.

34. Then Peter opened (his) mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons:

35 But in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.

12 And the Spirit said to me to go with them, nothing discriminating. And these six brothers came with me, and we entered into the man's house.

13 And he reported to us how he saw the angel in his house, standing and saying to him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon the (one) being surnamed Peter,

17 Then if God gave the same gift as to them as also to us, having believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, and I, who was I to be able to prevent God?

18 And hearing these things, they rested and glorified God, saying, Then God also has given to the nations repentance unto life.

19. Then, indeed, they who were scattered from the oppression having occurred again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, (that) call not thou common.

10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.

11 And, behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Caesarea unto me.

12 And the Spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house:

13 And he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter;

14 Who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved.

15 And as I began to speak, the Holy Ghost fell on them, as on us at the beginning.

16 Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost.

17 Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as (he did) unto us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ; what was I, that I could withstand God?

18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life.

Acts 12

1. Now about that time Herod the king stretched forth (his) hands to vex certain of the church.
2 And he killed James the brother of John with the sword.
3 And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. (Then were the days of unleavened bread.)
4 And when he had apprehended him, he put (him) in prison, and delivered (him) to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.

5 Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

6 And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison.

7 And, behold, the angel of the Lord came upon (him), and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off

9 And going out, he was following him, and did not know that this happening through the angel was true, but he thought he saw a vision.
10 And going through a first and a second guard, they came on the iron gate leading into the city, which opened to them of itself. And going out, they went on one street; and instantly the angel withdrew from him.

11 And having come, Peter said within himself, Now I know truly that (the) Lord sent out His angel and plucked me out of Herod's hand, and (out) of all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

12 And considering, he came onto the house of Mary the mother of John, the (one) being surnamed Mark, where many were gathered together, and praying.

4. So they, being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, departed unto Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to Cyprus.

5 And when they were at Salamis, they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also John to (their) minister.
6 And when they had gone through the isle unto Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name (was) Bar-jesus:
7 Which was with the deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God.
8 But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation)

1. And in Antioch some among the existing church were prophets and teachers, both Barnabas and Simeon, he being called Niger, and Lucius the Cyrenian, and Manaen (the) foster-brother of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.
2 And (as) they were serving the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, Now separate both Barnabas and Saul to Me, to the work to which I have called them.

3 Then, having fasted and having prayed, and placing hands on them, they let (them) go.

4. Then these indeed sent out by the Holy Spirit went down to Seleucia, and from there sailed away to Cyprus.

5 And having been in Salamis, they proclaimed the Word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. And they also had John as a helper.
6 And passing through the island as far as Paphos, they found a certain conjurer, a false prophet, a Jew named Bar-jesus.

7 (He) was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man. This one calling Barnabas and Saul to him, he sought to hear the Word of God.

8 But withstood them Elymas, the conjurer for so was translated

10 And said, O full of all subtilty and all mischief, (thou) child of the devil, (thou) enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?

11 And now, behold, the hand of the Lord (is) upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13. Now when Paul and his company loosed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia: and John departing from them returned to Jerusalem.

14. But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sat down.

15 And after the reading of the law and the prophets the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, (Ye) men (and) brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stood up, and beckoning with (his) hand said, Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, give audience.

32. And we preach the gospel to you, the promise having come to the fathers,

33 that this (promise) God has fulfilled to us, their children, raising up Jesus; as also it has been written in the second Psalm, "You are My Son, today I have begotten You." (Psa. 2:7)
34 And that He raised Him from (the) dead, no more being about to return to corruption, so He has said, "I will give You the holy things of the faithful David." (Isa. 55:3)
35 So He also said in another, "You will not give Your Holy One to see corruption." (Psa. 16:10)
36 For having served (his) own generation by the counsel of God, David truly fell asleep and was added to his fathers and saw corruption.
37 But (He) whom God raised up, (this One) did not see corruption.
38 Then let it be known to you, men, brothers, that through this One to you remission of sins that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath day, they have fulfilled (them) in condemning (him).

28 And though they found no cause of death (in him), yet desired they Pilate that he should be slain.

29 And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took (him) down from the tree, and laid (him) in a sepulchre.

30 But God raised him from the dead:
31 And he was seen many days of them which came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses unto the people.
32 And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that the promise which was made unto the fathers,
33 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.
34 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, (now) no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, I will give you the sure mercies of David.
35 Wherefore he saith also in another (psalm), Thou shalt not suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.
36 For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption:
37 But he, whom God raised again, saw no corruption.
38 Be it known unto you therefore, men (and) brethren, that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins:

1. And going down from Judea, some taught the brothers, (saying), If you are not circumcised (according) to the custom of Moses, you are not able to be saved.
2 Then discord and not a little disputation with them having occurred by Paul and Barnabas, they appointed Paul and Barnabas and some others of them to go up into Jerusalem to the apostles and elders concerning this question.

3 Then, indeed, having been sent forward by the church they passed through Phoenicia and Samaria, fully relating the conversion of the nations. And they were producing great joy (among) all the brothers.

4 And having arrived in Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the church and the apostles and the elders. And (they) reported what things God did with them.

5. But some of those rose up from the sect of the Pharisees who had believed, saying, It is necessary to circumcise them and to command (them) to keep the 8 And the heart knowing God testified to them, giving them the Holy Spirit, even as also to us.

9 And He distinguished nothing between both us and them, having purified their hearts by faith.

10 Now, then, why do you test God by putting a yoke on the neck of the disciples which neither our fathers nor we had strength to bear?

11 But through the grace of (the) Lord Jesus Christ, we believe to be saved, according to which manner they also (believed).

12. And all the multitude kept silent and heard Barnabas and Paul relating what things God did through them among the nations, (even) the signs and wonders.

8 And God, which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, giving them the Holy Ghost, even as (he did) unto us;

9 And put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith.

10 Now therefore why tempt ye God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

11 But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they.

17 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things.

18 Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world.
19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles are turned to God:

20 But that we write unto them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and (from) fornication, and (from) things strangled, and (from) blood.
21 For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath day.

22. Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; (namely), Judas surnamed Barsabas, and Silas, chief men among the brethren:

they went through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, that were ordained of the apostles and elders which were at Jerusalem.
5 And so were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily.

6 Now when they had gone throughout Phrygia and the region of Galatia, and were forbidden of the Holy Ghost to preach the word in Asia,
7 After they were come to Mysia, they assayed to go into Bithynia: but the Spirit suffered them not.

8 And they passing by Mysia came down to Troas.
9. And a vision appeared to Paul in the night; There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us.

10 And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to go into Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto them.

11 Therefore loosing from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothracia, and the next (day) to Neapolis;
12 And from thence to Philippi, which is the chief city of that part of Macedonia, (and) a colony: and we were in that city abiding certain days.

13 And on the sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spake unto the women which resorted (thither).

22 And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, and commanded to beat (them).
23 And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast (them) into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely:
24 Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks.
25. And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.
26 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened, and every one's bands were loosed.
27 And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled.
28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here.
29 Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, 30 And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

25. And about midnight, having prayed, Paul and Silas praised God in a hymn. And the prisoners listened to them.
26 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the jail (were) shaken. And immediately all the doors were opened, and all of the bonds were loosed.
27 And the jailer having become awake, and seeing that the doors of the prison had been opened, having drawn a sword, he was about to do away with himself, supposing the prisoners to have escaped.
28 But Paul called out with a loud voice, saying, Do no harm (to) yourself! For we are all here.

40 And going out from the prison, (they) went into the (house of) Lydia. And seeing the brothers, they exhorted them, and went out.

Literal Translation

1. And traveling through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jews.

2 And according to Paul's custom, he went in to them and reasoned with them from the Scriptures on three sabbaths,
3 opening and setting forth that the Christ must have suffered, and to have risen from (the) dead, and that this is the Christ, Jesus, whom I proclaim to you.

4 And some of them were persuaded and joined themselves to Paul and Silas, both a great multitude of the worshiping Greeks, and not a few of the leading women.

5. But becoming jealous, and having taken aside some wicked men of the market-loafers, and gathering a crowd, the disobeying Jews set the city into turmoil. And coming on the house of Jason, (they) sought to bring them on to the mob.
6 But not finding them, they dragged Jason and some brothers before the city judges, crying, Those having turned the habitable world upside down have come here, too;

7 whom Jason has received. And these all act contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying there is another king, Jesus.

8 And hearing these things, they agitated the crowd and the city judges.
9 And taking security from Jason and the rest, they set them loose.

Acts 17

1. Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews:

2 And Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them out of the scriptures,
3 Opening and alleging, that Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this Jesus, whom I preach unto you, is Christ.

4 And some of them believed, and consorted with Paul and Silas; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

5. But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.
6 And when they found them not, they drew Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also;

7 Whom Jason hath received: and these all do contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, (one) Jesus.

8 And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.
9 And when they had taken security of Jason, and of the other, they let them go.

11 And these were more noble than those in Thessalonica, for (they received) the Word with all readiness, daily examining the Scriptures if these things have (been so).

12 Then indeed many from among them believed, and not a few of the honorable Greek women and men.

13 But when the Jews from Thessalonica knew that the Word of God was also proclaimed in Berea by Paul, they came there also, shaking up the crowd.

14 And immediately, then, the brothers sent away Paul, to go on as toward the sea. But both Silas and Timothy remained there.

15 But those conducting Paul brought him as far as Athens. And having received a command to Silas and Timothy that they come to him quickly, they went out.

10. And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming (thither) went into the synagogue of the Jews.

11 These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them believed; also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men, not a few.

13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and stirred up the people.

14 And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

15 And they that conducted Paul brought him unto Athens: and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timotheus for to come to him with all speed, they departed.

27 That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us:

28 For in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring.

29 Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device.
30 And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent:

31 Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by (that) man whom he hath ordained; (whereof) he hath given assurance unto all (men), in that he hath raised him from the dead.

32. And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this (matter).
33 So Paul departed from among them.
34 Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which (was) Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

22 And when he had landed at Caesarea, and gone up, and saluted the church, he went down to Antioch.

23 And after he had spent some time (there), he departed, and went over (all) the country of Galatia and Phrygia in order, strengthening all the disciples.

24. And a certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, (and) mighty in the scriptures, came to Ephesus.

25 This man was instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing only the baptism of John.

26 And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him unto (them), and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly.

27 And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, helped them much which had believed through grace:

28 For he mightily convinced the Jews, (and that) publickly, shewing by the scriptures that Jesus

Acts 19

1. And it happened, in the (time) Apollos was in Corinth, Paul (was) passing through the higher parts to come to Ephesus. And finding some disciples,
2 (he) said to them, Believing, did you receive (the) Holy Spirit? And they said to him, We did not even hear whether there is (the) Holy Spirit.
3 And he said to them, Then to what were you baptized? And they said, To the baptism of John.
4 And Paul said, John indeed baptized (with) a baptism of repentance, saying to the people that they should believe into the (One) coming after him, that is, into the Christ, Jesus.

5 And hearing, they were baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus.

6 And Paul laying hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they spoke in tongues and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 And going into the synagogue, he spoke boldly over three months, conversing with (them), and persuading concerning the things of the kingdom of God.
9 But as some were hardened, and did not obey, speaking evil of the Way before the multitude, departing from them, He separated the disciples, conversing day by day in the school of a certain Tyrannus.
10 And this happened over two years,

1. And it came to pass, that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts came to Ephesus: and finding certain disciples,
2 He said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost.
3 And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, Unto John's baptism.

8 And he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things concerning the kingdom of God.
9 But when divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil of that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Tyrannus.

10 And this continued by the space of two years;

22 And sending into Macedonia two who ministered to him, Timothy and Erastus, he delayed a time in Asia.

23. And about that time there was not a little disturbance about the Way.

24 For one Demetrius, a silversmith, was making silver shrines of Artemis, (thus) providing no little trade (for) the craftsmen;

25 whom assembling also the workmen about such things, he said, Men, you understand that from this trade is the gain to us.
26 And you behold and hear that not only Ephesus, but almost all of Asia, persuading, this Paul perverted a huge crowd, saying that those being made by hands are not gods.

19 Many of them also which used curious arts brought their books together, and burned them before all (men): and they counted the price of them, and found (it) fifty thousand (pieces) of silver.
20 So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed.

21. After these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome.

22 So he sent into Macedonia two of them that ministered unto him, Timotheus and Erastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.

23. And the same time there arose no small stir about that way.

24 For a certain (man) named Demetrius, a silversmith, which made silver shrines for Diana, brought no small gain unto the craftsmen;

25 Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth.
26 Moreover ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that they be no gods, which are made with hands:

28 And having heard, and having become full of anger, they cried out, saying, Great (is) Artemis of (the) Ephesians!
29 And all the city was filled with confusion. And they rushed with one passion into the theater, keeping a firm grip on Gaius and Aristarchus, Macedonians,, traveling companions of Paul.
30 And Paul intending to go in to the mob, the disciples did not allow him.

31 And also some of the Asiarchs, being his friends, sending to him begged (him) not to give himself into the theater.

32 Then others indeed cried out a different thing, for the assembly was confused, and the majority did not know on what account they came together.
33 But they dragged Alexander forward out of the crowd, the Jews thrusting him in front. And waving (his) hand, Alexander desired to defend himself to the mob.

34 But knowing that he is a Jew, one voice was from all, as (they were) crying out over two hours, Great (is) Artemis of (the) Ephesians!
35 And having quieted the crowd, the town clerk said, Men, Ephesians, for what man is there who does not know the city of the Ephesians (is) being temple-keeper of the great goddess Artemis, and of That Fallen From the Sky?
36 Then these things being undeniable, it is necessary for you, having been calmed, to be (so), and and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worshippeth.

28 And when they heard (these sayings), they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great (is) Diana of the Ephesians.
29 And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.
30 And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 And certain of the chief of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring (him) that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.
32. Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.
33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great (is) Diana of the Ephesians.
35 And when the townclerk had appeased the people, he said, (Ye) men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the (image) which fell down from Jupiter?
36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and 29 For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

30 Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.

31 Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.

5 And when we had accomplished those days, we departed and went our way; and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, till (we were) out of the city: and we kneeled down on the shore, and prayed.

6 And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship; and they returned home again.

7 And when we had finished (our) course from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next (day) we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto Caesarea: and we entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, which was (one) of the seven; and abode with him.

9 And the same man had four daughters, virgins, which did prophesy.

10 And as we tarried (there) many days, there came down from Judaea a certain prophet, named Agabus.

11 And when he was come unto us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Holy Ghost, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver (him) into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, besought him not to go up to Jerusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, What mean

20 And hearing, they glorified the Lord, and said to him, You see, brother, how many myriads there are of Jews having believed, and all are zealous ones of the Law.

20 And when they heard (it), they glorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe; and they are all zealous of the law:

21 And they were informed about you, that you teach falling away from Moses, telling all the Jews throughout the nations not to circumcise (their) children, nor to walk in the customs.

21 And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise (their) children, neither to walk after the customs.

22 What then is it? At all events, a multitude must come together, for they will hear that you have come.

22 What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come.

26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them entered into the temple, to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them.

27 And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews which were of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him, them.

Watch what you are about to do, for this man is a Roman.

27 And having come up, the chiliarch said to him, Tell me, are you a Roman? And he said, Yes.
28 And the chiliarch answered, I bought this citizenship with a great sum. And Paul said, But I even have been born (free).

29 Then at once those being about to examine him stood away from him. And the chiliarch also feared, fully knowing that he was a Roman, and that he had bound him.

30 And on the morrow, having purposed to know the certainty as to why he was accused by the Jews, he freed him from the bonds. And (he) commanded the chief priests and all their Sanhedrin to come. And bringing Paul down, (he) set (him) among them.

Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Roman.

27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea.
28 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was (free) born.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from (his) bands, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

8 For the Sadducees indeed say there is no resurrection, nor angel, nor spirit. But Pharisees confess both.

9 And there was a great cry. And the scribes of the part of the Pharisees having risen up, they were contending, saying, We find nothing evil in this man. And, If a spirit spoke to him, or an angel, let us not fight against God.

10 And discord having arisen, fearing lest Paul should be torn by them, the chiliarch commanded the soldiery to go down to seize him out of their midst, and to bring (him) into the fortress.

Revilest thou God's high priest?
5 Then said Paul, I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.
6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men (and) brethren, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided.
8 For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both.
9 And there arose a great cry: and the scribes (that were) of the Pharisees' part arose, and strove, saying, We find no evil in this man: but if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, let us not fight against God.

10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring (him) into the castle.

11 And the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome.

Paul into the Sanhedrin, as being about to inquire more accurately concerning him.
21 Therefore, you (must) not be persuaded by them, for more than forty men of them lie in wait for him who put themselves under a curse neither to eat nor to drink until they kill him. And now they are ready, awaiting the promise from you.
22 Then the chiliarch dismissed the young man, charging (him), Tell no one that you reported these things to me.
23 And having called near a certain two of the centurions, he said, Get ready two hundred soldiers, so as they may go to Caesarea, and seventy horsemen, and two hundred spearmen, from the third hour of the night;
24 and animals to stand by, so that having set Paul on, they may bring (him) to Felix the governor.
25 (For he was) writing a letter, having this form:
26 Claudius Lysias to the most excellent governor, Felix, greeting:
27 This man having been seized by the Jews, and being about to be killed by them, coming on with the soldiers I rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman.
28 And being minded to know the charge for which they were accusing him, I brought him down to their Sanhedrin;
29 whom I found to be accused concerning questions of their law, and having nothing (as a) charge worthy of death or of bonds.

21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.
22 So the chief captain (then) let the young man depart, and charged (him, See thou) tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me.
23 And he called unto (him) two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Caesarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night;
24 And provide (them) beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring (him) safe unto Felix the governor.
25 And he wrote a letter after this manner:
26 Claudius Lysias unto the most excellent governor Felix (sendeth) greeting.
27 This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: then came I with an army, and rescued him, having understood that he was a Roman.
28 And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council:
29 Whom I perceived to be accused of questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds.
30 And when it was told me how that the Jews laid wait for the 4 But that I not hinder you longer, I beseech you to hear us briefly in your forbearance.

5 For having found this man pestilent and moving insurrection among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the Nazarene sect;

6 who also attempted to profane the temple, whom we also seized and wished to judge according to our law;

7 but Lysias the chiliarch coming up with much force took (him) away out of our hands,

4 Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words.
5 For we have found this man (a) pestilent (fellow), and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes:
6 Who also hath gone about to profane the temple: whom we took, and would have judged according to our law.

7 But the chief captain Lysias came (upon us), and with great violence took (him) away out of our hands,

8 Commanding his accusers to come unto thee: by examining of whom thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him.
9 And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so.

10. Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself:
11 Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem for to worship.

12 And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city:

King James Version

24. And after some days, Felix having arrived with his wife Drusilla, (she) being a Jewess, he sent for Paul. And (he) heard him concerning the faith in Christ.

24. And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.

25 And (Paul) having reasoned concerning righteousness and self control, and the Judgment that is about to be, having become afraid, Felix answered, For the present, go; but taking time later, I will call for you;

25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee.

26 and with it all also hoping that money will be given to him by Paul, that he might free him. Because of this (he) also more frequently sent for him (and) conversed with him.

26 He hoped also that money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

27 But two years being completed, Felix received a successor, Porcius Festus. And wishing to show favors to the Jews, Felix left Paul being bound.

27 But after two years Porcius Festus came into Felix' room: and Felix, willing to shew the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound.

7 And he having arrived, the (ones) from Jerusalem, the Jews having come down stood around, also bringing many weighty charges against Paul, which they were not able to prove.
8 Defending himself, (Paul) said, Neither against the Law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar have I sinned in a thing.
9. But wishing to show a favor to the Jews, answering Paul, Festus said, Do you desire to go up to Jerusalem to be judged before me there about these things?
10 But Paul said, I am standing before the tribunal of Caesar where I ought to be judged. I have wronged (the) Jews (in) nothing, as also you very well know.
11 For if I indeed do wrong and have done anything worthy of death, I do not refuse to die. But if there is nothing of which they accuse me, no one is able to give me up to them. I appeal to Caesar.
12 Then conferring with the Sanhedrin, Festus answered, You have appealed to Caesar; you shall go before Caesar.

6 And when he had tarried among them more than ten days, he went down unto Caesarea; and the next day sitting on the judgment seat commanded Paul to be brought.
7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jerusalem stood round about, and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove.
8 While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Caesar, have I offended any thing at all.
9 But Festus, willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?
10 Then said Paul, I stand at Caesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.
11 For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. I appeal unto Caesar.
12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Caesar? unto Caesar shalt thou go.

14 And as they remained there more days, Festus set out to the king the things as to Paul, saying, A certain man having been left a prisoner by Felix,

15 about whom, on my being at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews made a statement, asking judgment against him;
16 to whom I answered, It is not a custom with Romans to give up any man to destruction before the (one) being accused may have the accusers against (his) face, and may receive place of defense concerning the charge.

17 Then they coming together here, making no delay, sitting on the tribunal on the next (day), I commanded the man to be brought;

18 about whom, standing up, the accusers brought no charge of which I suspected,

19 but they had certain questions about (their) own demon worship, and about a certain Jesus having died, whom Paul claimed to live.

20 And being puzzled about this inquiry, I said, Did he desire to go to Jerusalem and to be judged there concerning these things?

21 But Paul having appealed for himself to be kept to the examination of Augustus, I commanded him to be held until I may send him to Caesar.
22. And Agrippa said to Festus, I also myself was minded to hear the man.

and Bernice came unto Caesarea to salute Festus.
14 And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Paul's cause unto the king, saying, There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix:

15 About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed (me), desiring (to have) judgment against him.
16 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

17 Therefore, when they were come hither, without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.
18 Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed:

19 But had certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one Jesus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

20 And because I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked (him) whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters.
21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Caesar.
22 Then Agrippa said unto Festus, I would also hear the man myself.

23 if the Christ (was) liable to suffer, whether by a resurrection of (the) dead He was first going to proclaim light to the people and to the nations.

24. And he having defended himself (with) these things, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, You rave! Your many letters turn (you) into madness.
25 But he said, Not to madness, most excellent Festus, but I speak words of truth and sanity.
26 For the king understands concerning these things, to whom I speak, even being bold of speech. For I am persuaded not any of these things are hidden (from) him, nothing. For (the) doing of this is not in a corner.
27 King Agrippa, do you believe the Prophets? I know that you believe.
28 And Agrippa said to Paul, Do you persuade me to become a Christian in (but) a little?

23 That Christ should suffer, (and) that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24. And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad.
25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness.
26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner.
27 King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest.
28 Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian.

29 And Paul said, I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30. And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them:

establishing of you;
12 and this is to be comforted together among you, through the faith in one another, both yours and mine.
13 But I do not wish you to be ignorant, brothers, that often I purposed to come to you, and was prevented until the present, that I might have some fruit among you also, even as also among the other nations.
14 I am a debtor both to Greeks and to foreigners, both to wise, and to foolish, 15 so as far as in me (lies), I am eager to preach the gospel to you in Rome also.

16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is (the) power of God to salvation to everyone believing, both to Jew first, and to Greek;
17 for in it a righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith; even as it has been written, "But the just shall live by faith." (Hab. 2:4)

18 For God's wrath is revealed from Heaven on all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, holding fast the truth in unrighteousness,
19 because the thing known of God is clearly known within them, for God revealed (it) to them.
20 For the unseen things of Him from (the) creation of (the) world are clearly seen, being understood by the things made, both His eternal power and Godhead, for them to be without excuse.
21 Because having known God, they did not glorify Him as God, nor were thankful. But (they) became vain in their reasonings, and their undiscerning heart was darkened.

King James Version

end ye may be established;
12 That is, that I may be comforted together with you by the mutual faith both of you and me.
13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but was let hitherto,) that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles.
14 I am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the Barbarians; both to the wise, and to the unwise.
15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also.
16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.
17 For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith.

18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness;

19 Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God hath shewed (it) unto them.
20 For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, (even) his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse:
21 Because that, when they knew God, they glorified (him) not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

10 But glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile:

11 For there is no respect of persons with God.

12 For as many as have sinned without law shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned in the law shall be judged by the law;
13 (For not the hearers of the law (are) just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.
14 For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law unto themselves:
15 Which shew the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and (their) thoughts the mean while accusing or else excusing one another;)

16 In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ according to my gospel.

17 Behold, thou art called a Jew, and restest in the law, and makest thy boast of God,
18 And knowest (his) will, and approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law;
19 And art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness,
20 An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, which hast the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law.

Literal Translation

19 But we know that whatever the Law says, it speaks to those within the Law, so that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world be under judgment to God.
20 Because by works of law not (one of) all flesh will be justified before Him, for through law (is) full knowledge of sin.
21 But now a righteousness of God has been revealed apart from Law, being witnessed by the Law and the Prophets,
22 even the righteousness of God through faith of Jesus Christ toward all and upon all the (ones) believing; for there is no difference,
23 for all sinned and come short of the glory of God,

24 having been justified freely by His grace through the redemption in Christ Jesus,

25 whom God set forth (as) a propitiation through faith in His blood, for a showing forth of His righteousness through the passing by of the sins that had taken place before, in the forbearance of God,
26 for the showing forth of His righteousness in the present time, for His being just and justifying the (one that is) of (the) faith of Jesus.
27 Then where (is) the boasting? It was shut out. Through what law? Of works? No, but through a law of faith.
28 Then we conclude a man to be justified by faith without works of law.
29 Or (is He) the God of Jews only? And not also of the nations? Yes, of the nations also,
30 since (it is) one God who will justify circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.
31 Then do we destroy law

King James Version

19 Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.
20 Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law (is) the knowledge of sin.
21 But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets;
22 Even the righteousness of God (which is) by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference:
23 For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;
24 Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus:

25 Whom God hath set forth (to be) a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God;
26 To declare, (I say), at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.

27 Where (is) boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith.
28 Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.
29 (Is he) the God of the Jews only? (is he) not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also:
30 Seeing (it is) one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.
31 Do we then make void the law

cision, for to be reckoned also to them righteousness; and

1. What then shall we say our father Abraham to have found according to flesh?
2 For if Abraham was justified by works, he has a boast, but not toward God.
3 For what does the Scripture say? "And Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him for righteousness." (Gen. 15:6)
4 Now (to one) working, the reward is not counted according to grace, but according to debt.
5 But to the (one) not working, but believing on the (One) justifying the ungodly, his faith is reckoned for righteousness.
6 Even as also David says of the blessedness of the man to whom God reckons righteousness apart from works:

7 "Blessed (are those) whose lawlessnesses are forgiven, and whose sins were covered;
8 blessed (the) man to whom (the) Lord will in no way charge sin." (Psa. 32:1,2)
9 (Is) this blessedness then on the circumcision, or also on the uncircumcision? For we say faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.
10 How then was it reckoned? Being in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision!
11 And he received a sign of circumcision (as) a seal of the righteousness of faith (while) in uncircumcision, for him to be a father of the (ones) believing through uncircumcision, for righteousness to be reckoned to them also,
12 and

1. What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?
2 For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath (whereof) to glory; but not before God.
3 For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.
4 Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.
5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

6 Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,
7 (Saying), Blessed (are) they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.
8 Blessed (is) the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.
9 (Cometh) this blessedness then upon the circumcision (only), or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.
10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.
11 And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which (he had yet) being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:
12 And

14 For if those of Law (are) heirs, faith has been voided, and the promise has been destroyed.

15 For the law works out wrath; for where no law is, neither (is) transgression.
16 Because of this, (it is) of faith, that (it be) according to grace, for the promise to be made sure to all the seed, not to the (seed) of the Law only, but also to that of (the) faith of Abraham, who is father of us all,

14 For if they which are of the law (be) heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect:

15 Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, (there is) no transgression.
16 Therefore (it is) of faith, that (it might be) by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all,

3 And not only (so), but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience;
4 And patience, experience; and experience, hope:
5 And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.
6 For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly.
7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

8 But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

5 For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also (in the likeness) of (his) resurrection:
6 Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with (him), that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.

unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?
17 But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you.
18 Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness.
19 I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness.
20 For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free from righteousness.
21. What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things (is) death.

22 But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life.

23 For the wages of sin (is) death; but the gift of God (is) eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

1. (There is) therefore now no condemnation to the(ones) in Christ Jesus, who do not walk according to flesh, but according to Spirit.
2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus set me free from the law of sin and of death.

3 For the law (being) powerless, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending His own Son in (the) likeness of sinful flesh, and concerning sin condemned sin in the flesh,

4 So that the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, the (ones) not walking according to flesh, but according to Spirit.

5 For the ones being according to flesh mind the things of the flesh, but the ones according to Spirit (mind) the things of the Spirit.
6 For the mind of the flesh (is) death, but the mind of the Spirit (is) life and peace;
7 because the mind of the flesh (is) enmity towards God; for it is not subject to the law of God, for neither can (it be).
8 And the (ones) being in (the) flesh are not able to please God.
9 But you are not in flesh, but in Spirit, if indeed (the) Spirit of God dwells in you. But if anyone has not (the) Spirit of Christ, this one is not His.
10 But if Christ (is) in you, the body indeed (is) dead

1. (There is) therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.
2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.
3 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:

4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit.

6 For to be carnally minded (is) death; but to be spiritually minded (is) life and peace.
7 Because the carnal mind (is) enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.
8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.
9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.
10 And if Christ (be) in you, the body (is) dead

22 For we know that all the creation groans together and travails together until now.
23 And not only (so), but also we ourselves having the firstfruit of the Spirit, also we ourselves groan within ourselves, eagerly expecting adoption, the redemption of our body;

24 for we were saved by hope, but hope being seen is not hope; for what anyone sees, why does he also hope?
25 But if we hope for what we do not see, through patience we eagerly expect.

Lawgiving, and the service, and the promises;
5 whose (are) the fathers, and from whom (is) the Christ according to flesh, He being God over all, blessed to the ages. Amen.
6 Not, however, that the Word of God has failed. For not all the (ones) of Israel (are) Israel,
7 nor because they are Abraham's seed (are) all children, but "In Isaac a Seed shall be called to you." (Gen. 21:12)
8 That is: Not the children of flesh, these (are) children of God, but the children of the promise (are) counted for a seed.
9 For the word of promise (is) this, "According to this season I will come, and a son will be to Sarah." (Gen. 18:10)
10 And not only (so), but also Rebekah having in womb from one, our father Isaac,
11 for (the children) not yet having been generated, nor having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of the (One) calling,
12 it was said to her, "The greater shall serve the lesser;" (Gen. 25:23)
13 even as it has been written, "I loved Jacob, and I hated Esau." (Mal. 1:2, 3)
14 What then shall we say? (Is there) not unrighteousness with God? Let it not be!
15 For He said to Moses, "I will have mercy on whomever I will have mercy, and I will pity whomever I will pity." (Ex. 33:19)
16 So, then, (it is) not of the (one) willing, nor of the (one) running, but of the (One) having mercy, of God.
17 For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, "For this very thing I raised you up, so that I might show forth My power in you, and so that My name might be proclaimed giving of the law, and the service (of God), and the promises;

5 Whose (are) the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ (came), who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen.
6 Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For they (are) not all Israel, which are of Israel:
7 Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, (are they) all children: but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called.
8 That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these (are) not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.
9 For this (is) the word of promise, At this time will I come, and Sara shall have a son.
10 And not only (this); but when Rebecca also had conceived by one, (even) by our father Isaac;
11 (For (the children) being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth;)
12 It was said unto her, The elder shall serve the younger.
13 As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.
14 What shall we say then? (Is there) unrighteousness with God? God forbid.
15 For he saith to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.
16 So then (it is) not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.
17 For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared ashamed.

30 What then shall we say? That (the) nations, not following after righteousness had taken on righteousness, but a righteousness of faith;

31 but Israel, following after a law of righteousness did not arrive at a law of righteousness?
32 Why? Because (it was) not of faith, but as of works of Law. For they stumbled at the Stone-of-stumbling,

33 as it has been written, "Behold, I place in Zion a Stone-of-stumbling, and a Rock-of-offense, and everyone believing on Him will not be put to shame." (Isa. 28:16)

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith.
31 But Israel, which followed after the law of righteousness, hath not attained to the law of righteousness.
32 Wherefore? Because (they sought it) not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For they stumbled at that stumblingstone;
33 As it is written, Behold, I lay in Sion a stumblingstone and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

not Say in the heart of you, Who will go up into Heaven?

1. Brothers, truly my heart's pleasure and petition to God on behalf of Israel is for (it) to be saved.
2 For I testify to them that they have zeal to God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For being ignorant of the righteousness of God, and seeking to establish their own righteousness, they did not submit to the righteousness of God.

4 For Christ (is) the end of law for righteousness to everyone believing.
5 For Moses writes (of) the righteousness of the law: "The man doing these things shall live by them." (Lev.18:5)

6 But the righteousness of faith says this: "Do not say in your heart, Who will go up into Heaven?"

1. Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.
2 For I bear them record that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.
4 For Christ (is) the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.
5 For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, That the man which doeth those things shall live by them.
6 But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven?

8 But what does it say? "The Word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart" that is, the Word of faith which we proclaim. (Deut. 9:4; 30:12 - 14).
9 Because if you confess (the) Lord Jesus with your mouth, and believe in your heart that God raised Him from (the) dead, you will be saved.
10 For with (the) heart (one) believes unto righteousness, and with (the) mouth (one) confesses unto salvation.
11 For the Scripture says, "Everyone believing on Him will not be put to shame." (Isa. 28:16)

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.)

8 But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, (even) in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach;

9 That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.
10 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.
11 For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

12 For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him.

13 For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.
14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?
15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, Lord, who hath believed our report?
17 So then faith (cometh) by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.
18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, their sound went into all the earth,

Romans 11

1. I say then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, (of) the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying,
3 Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.

4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to (the image of) Baal.
5 Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.
6 And if by grace, then (is it) no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if (it be) of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.
7 What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for;

Israel, this it did not obtain, but the election obtained (it), and the rest were hardened;

8 even as it has been written, "God gave to them a spirit of slumber, eyes not to see and ears not to hear" until the present. (Isa. 29:10; Deut. 29:4)

9 And David said, "Let their table become for a snare and for a trap, and for a stumbling block, and for a repayment to them;

10 let their eyes be darkened, not to see, and their back bowing through all." (Psa. 69:22, 23)

11 I say, then, Did not they stumble that they fall? Let it not be! But by their slipping away (came) salvation to the nations, to provoke them to jealousy.

12 But if their slipping away (is the) riches of (the) world, and their loss (the) riches of (the) nations, how much more their fullness?

13 For I speak to you, the nations, since indeed I am an apostle of the nations, I glorify my ministry, 14 if somehow I may provoke to jealousy my flesh, and may save some of them.

15 For if their casting away (is the) reconciliation of (the) world, what the reception, if not life from (the) dead?

16 Now if the firstfruit (is) holy, also the lump. And if the root (is) holy, also the branches.

17 But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive tree were grafted in among them, and became a partaker of the root and the fatness of the olive tree,

20 Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not high-minded, but fear:
21 For if God spared not the natural branches, (take heed) lest he also spare not thee.
22 Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: on them which fell, severity; but toward thee, goodness, if thou continue in (his) goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off.

23 And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be graffed in: for God is able to graff them in again.

24 For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert graffed contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which be the natural (branches), be graffed into their own olive tree?

25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in.

26 And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:
27 For this (is) my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins.

Romans 13

1. Let every soul be subject to higher authorities, for there is no authority except from God, but the existing authorities have been ordained by God.
2 So that the (one) resisting the authority has opposed the ordinance of God, and the ones opposing will receive judgment to themselves.
3 For the rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the bad. And do you desire not to fear the authority? Do the good, and you will have praise from it;

4 for he is a servant of God to you for the good. But if you do the bad, be afraid; for he does not bear the sword in vain; for he is a servant of God, an avenger for wrath to the (one) practicing bad.

5 Because of this, (it is) necessary to be subject, not only because of wrath, but also because of conscience.

1. Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God.

2 Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.

3 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same:

4 For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to (execute) wrath upon him that doeth evil.

but being weak, (another) one eats vegetables.
3 The (one) eating, do not despise the (one) not eating. And the (one) not eating, do not judge the (one) eating, for God received him.
4 Who are you judging another's servant? To his own master he stands or falls. But he will stand, for God is able to make him stand.
5 One indeed judges a day above (another) day; and (another) one judges every day (alike). Let each one be fully assured in (his) own mind.
6 The (one) minding the day, he minds (it) to (the) Lord. And the (one) not minding the day, he does not mind (it) to (the) Lord. The (one) eating, he eats to (the) Lord; for he gives thanks to God. And the (one) not eating, he does not eat to (the) Lord, and gives thanks to God.

7 For no one of us lives to himself and no one dies to himself.
8 For both if we live, we live to (the) Lord; and if we die, we die to (the) Lord. Then if we live, and if we die, we are the Lord's.

9 For for this Christ both died and rose and lived again, that He might be Lord both of (the) dead and (the) living.

10 But why do you judge your brother? Or why also do you despise your brother? For all shall stand before the judgment seat of Christ.
11 For it has been written, "(As) I live, says (the) Lord, that every knee will bow to Me, and every tongue will confess to God." (Isa. 49:18; 45:23) who is weak, eateth herbs.
12 So then each one of us will give account concerning himself to God.

3 Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him.
4 Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand.
5 One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day (alike). Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind.

6 He that regardeth the day, regardeth (it) unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard (it). He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.

7 For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.
8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.
9 For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.

10 But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.
11 For it is written, (As) I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.

12 So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

Romans 14:13

Literal Translation

13 Then let us no longer judge one another, but rather judge this, not to put a stumbling-block or an offense toward a brother.

14 I know and am persuaded in (the) Lord Jesus that nothing by itself is common; except to the (one) counting anything to be common, (it is) common to that (one).

15 But if your brother is grieved because of (your) food, you no longer walk according to love. Do not by your food destroy that one for whom Christ died.

16 Then do not let your good be spoken evil of.

17 For the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and peace and joy in (the) Holy Spirit.

18 For the (one) serving Christ in these things (is) well-pleasing to God, and approved by men.

19 So then let us pursue the things of peace, and the things for building up one another.

20 Do not by your food undo the work of God. Truly, all things (are) clean, but (it is) bad to the man eating through a stumbling-block.

21 (It is) good not to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor (anything) by which your brother stumbles, or is offended, or is weak.

22 Do you have faith? Have (it) to yourself before God. Blessed (is) the (one) not judging himself in what he approves.

23 But the (one) doubting, if he eats, (he) has been condemned, because (it is) not of faith; and all which (is) not of faith is sin.

13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in (his) brother's way.

14 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that (there is) nothing unclean of itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him (it is) unclean.

15 But if thy brother be grieved with (thy) meat, now walkest thou not charitably. Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died.

16 Let not then your good be evil spoken of:

17 For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

18 For he that in these things serveth Christ (is) acceptable to God, and approved of men.

19 Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another.

20 For meat destroy not the work of God. All things indeed (are) pure; but (it is) evil for that man who eateth with offence.

21 (It is) good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor (any thing) whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.

22 Hast thou faith? have (it) to thyself before God. Happy (is) he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.

23 And he that doubteth is damned if he eat, because (he eateth) not of faith: for whatsoever (is) not of faith is sin.

in him shall the Gentiles trust.
13 Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost.

14 And I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.
15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, because of the grace that is given to me of God,
16 That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost.

17 I have therefore whereof I may glory through Jesus Christ in those things which pertain to God.
18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed,
19 Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another man's foundation:

21 But as it is written, To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard shall understand.

King James Version

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF THE APOSTLE PAUL TO THE CORINTHIANS

1 Corinthians 1

1. Paul, called (to be) an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes (our) brother,
2 Unto the church of God which is at Corinth, to them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called (to be) saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours:

3 Grace (be) unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and (from) the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ;
5 That in every thing ye are enriched by him, in all utterance, and (in) all knowledge;

6 Even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you:

7 So that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ:

8 Who shall also confirm you unto the end, (that ye may be) blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.
9 God (is) faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and there be no divisions among you, but you be united in the same mind and in the same judgment.

1 Corinthians 1:11

11 For concerning you, my brothers, it was shown to me by those of Chloe that there are strifes among you.
12 But I say this, that each of you says, I am of Paul, and I of Apollos, and I of Cephas, and I of Christ.
13 Has Christ been divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized into the name of Paul?

14 I give thanks to God that I did not baptize one of you, except Crispus and Gaius, 15 that not anyone should say that you were baptized in my name.
16 And I also baptized the house of Stephanas. For the rest, I do not know if I baptized any other.
17 For Christ did not send me to baptize, but to preach the gospel, not in wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ be nullified.

18 For the word of the cross is foolishness to those being lost, but to us being saved, (it) is (the) power of God.

19 For it has been written, "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and I will set aside the understanding of the understanding ones." (Isa. 29:14)
20 Where (is the) wise? Where (the) scribe? Where (the) lawyer of this world? Did God not make the wisdom of this world foolish?
21 For since in the wisdom of God the world (by) wisdom did not know God, God was pleased through the foolishness of preaching to save the ones believing.
22 And since Jews ask for a sign, you were puffed up some. I will come But shortly to you, already you became rich; you reigned without us, and oh that you really did reign, so that we also might reign with you!

9 For I think that God set us out last, the apostles, as appointed to death, because we became a spectacle to the world, even to angels and to men.
10 We (are) fools because of Christ, but you (are) prudent in Christ. We (are) weak, but you (are) strong. You (are) honored, but we not honored.
11 Until the present hour we both hunger and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and wander homeless,

12 and labor, working with (our) own hands. Being cursed, we bless; persecuted, we bear;

13 being spoken evil of, we entreat; we have become as filth of the world, dirt wiped off by all until now.

14 I do not write these things shaming you, but warning (you) as my beloved children.
15 For if you should have myriads of trainers in Christ, yet not many fathers; for I fathered you in Christ Jesus through the gospel.
16 Then, I urge you, become imitators of me.

17 Because of this I sent Timothy to you, who is my beloved child, and faithful in (the) Lord, who will remind you (of) my ways in Christ, even as I teach everywhere in every church.
18 As to my not coming to you now, some were puffed up.
19 But if the Lord wills, I will come to you shortly.

now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.

9 For I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, as it were appointed to death: for we are made a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.
10 We (are) fools for Christ's sake, but ye (are) wise in Christ; we (are) weak, but ye (are) strong; ye (are) honourable, but we (are) despised.
11 Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwellingplace;

12 And labour, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it:

13 Being defamed, we intreat: we are made as the filth of the world, (and are) the offscouring of all things unto this day.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn (you).
15 For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet (have ye) not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.
16 Wherefore I beseech you, be ye followers of me.
17 For this cause have I sent unto you Timotheus, who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I teach every where in every church.
18 Now some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you.
19 But I will come to you shortly,

1. Everywhere (it is) heard (that) fornication (is) among you, and such fornication which (is) not named among the nations, so as one to have (his) father's wife.
2 And you have been puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that the (one) that did this deed might be taken from your midst.

1 Corinthians 5

1. It is reported commonly (that there is) fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife.
2 And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you.
3 For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, (concerning) him that hath so done this deed,
4 In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,

5 To deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

6 Your glorying (is) not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?

7 Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us:
8 Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened (bread) of

King James Version

20 Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.
21 Art thou called (being) a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use (it) rather.
22 For he that is called in the Lord, (being) a servant, is the Lord's freeman: likewise also he that is called, (being) free, is Christ's servant.
23 Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men.

24 Brethren, let every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God.
25 Now concerning virgins I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful.
26 I suppose therefore that this is good for the present distress, (I say), that (it is) good for a man so to be.
27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.
28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.
29 But this I say, brethren, the time (is) short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none;
30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;
31 And they that use this world, as not abusing (it): for the fashion of this world passeth away.

33 but the (one) having married cares for the things of the world, how to please the wife.
34 The wife and the virgin (are) different. The unmarried one cares for the things of the Lord, that she be holy in both body and spirit. But the married one cares for the things of the world, how to please the husband.
35 And I say this for your advantage, not that I put a snare (before) you, but for the fitting thing, and waiting on the Lord without distraction.
36 But if anyone thinks (it) behaving indecently toward his virgin, if he is beyond (his) prime, and so it ought to be, let him do what he desires; he does not sin; let them marry.

37 But (he) who stands firm in heart, not having necessity, but has authority as to (his) own will, and has judged this in his heart, to keep his virgin; he does well.

38 So that he that gives in marriage does well, and he that does not give in marriage does better.
39 A wife has been bound by law for as long a time as her husband lives; but if her husband sleeps, she is free to be married to whomever she desires, only in (the) Lord.

40 But she is happier if she remains so, according to my judgment. And I think I also have (the) Spirit of God.

King James Version

Lord:
33 But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please (his) wife.
34 There is difference (also) between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please (her) husband.
35 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction.
36 But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of (her) age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry.
37 Nevertheless he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well.

38 So then he that giveth (her) in marriage doeth well; but he that giveth (her) not in marriage doeth better.
39 The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord.

40 But she is happier if she so abide, after my judgment: and I think also that I have the Spirit of God.

thinks to know anything, he still has known nothing as he ought to know.
3 But if anyone loves God, he has been known by Him.
4 Then concerning the eating of things sacrificed to idols, we know that an idol (is) nothing in (the) world, and that (there) is no other God except One.
5 For even if (some) are called gods, either in Heaven or on the earth; even as there are many gods, and many lords;
6 but to us (is) one God, the Father, of whom (are) all things, and we for Him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, through whom (are) all things, and we through Him.

7 But the knowledge (is) not in all; but some being conscious of the idol eat as an idolatrous sacrifice until now; and their conscience being weak is defiled.
8 But food will not commend us to God. For neither if we eat do we excel, nor if we do not eat are we behind.

9 But watch lest this authority of yours become a cause of stumbling to the weak ones.

10 For if anyone sees you, the (one) having knowledge, sitting in an idol-temple, (will) not the weak one's conscience be built up so as to eat things sacrificed to idols?
11 And on your knowledge the weak brother is destroyed, (he) for whom Christ died.
12 And sinning in this way against (your) brothers, and wounding their conscience, being weak, you sin against Christ.
13 On account of this, if food offends my brother, I will not at all eat man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if any man love God, the same is known of him.
4 As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that an idol (is) nothing in the world, and that (there is) none other God but one.
5 For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,)

6 But to us (there is but) one God, the Father, of whom (are) all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom (are) all things, and we by him.
7 Howbeit (there is) not in every man that knowledge: for some with conscience of the idol unto this hour eat (it) as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled.
8 But meat commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, are we the better; neither, if we eat not, are we the worse.
9 But take heed lest by any means this liberty of yours become a stumblingblock to them that are weak.

10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols;
11 And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died?

12 But when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ.
13 Wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no

3 My defense to those examining me is this:
4 Have we not authority to eat and to drink?
5 Have we not authority to lead about a sister, a wife, as the rest of the apostles also, and Cephas, and the Lord's brothers (do)?
6 Or (is it) only Barnabas and I (who) have no authority to quit work?
7 Who serves as a soldier at (his) own wages at any time? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat of its fruit? Or who shepherds a flock and does not eat of the milk of the flock?
8 Do I speak these things according to man, or does not the Law say these things also?
9 For it has been written in the Law of Moses, "You shall not muzzle an ox threshing grain." (Deut.25:4) Is it (that) it matters to God (as to) oxen?
10 Or does He say (it) altogether because of us? It is written because of us, so that the (one) plowing ought to plow (in) hope, and the (one) threshing (in) hope to partake on hope.
11 If we have sowed spiritual things to you, (is it) a great thing if we shall reap of your fleshly things?
12 If others have a share of the authority (over) you,

1. Am I not an apostle? am I not free? have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? are not ye my work in the Lord?

2 If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord.

3 Mine answer to them that do examine me is this,
4 Have we not power to eat and to drink?
5 Have we not power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and (as) the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?
6 Or I only and Barnabas, have not we power to forbear working?
7 Who goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?
8 Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also?
9 For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen?
10 Or saith he (it) altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, (this) is written: that he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope.
11 If we have sown unto you spiritual things, (is it) a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?
12 If others be partakers of (this) power over you,

(should) not rather we? But we did not use this authority, but we endured all things, so that we might not give a hindrance to the gospel of Christ.

13 Do you not know that those laboring (about) holy things of the temple eat? Those attending (on) the altar partake with the altar.

14 So also the Lord ordained those proclaiming the gospel to live from the gospel.

15 But I have not used one of these. And I do not write these things that it should be so with me. For (it is) good to me rather to die than that anyone nullify my glorying.

16 For if I preach the gospel, no glory is to me; for necessity is laid on me, and (it) is woe to me if I do not preach the gospel

17 For if I do this willingly, I have a reward; but if unwillingly, I am entrusted with a stewardship.

18 What then is my reward? That preaching the gospel I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, so as not to use fully my authority in the gospel.

19 For being free of all, I enslaved myself to all, that I might gain the more.

20 And I became as a Jew to the Jews, that I might gain Jews; to those under Law as under Law, that I might gain those under Law;

21 to those without Law as without Law, not being without law of God, but under (the) law of Christ, that I might gain (those) without Law.

22 I became to the weak as weak, that I might gain the weak.

King James Version

(are) not we rather? Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.

13 Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things live (of the things) of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar?

14 Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel.

15 But I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for (it were) better for me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void.

16 For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!

17 For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, a dispensation (of the gospel) is committed unto me.

18 What is my reward then? (Verily) that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I abuse not my power in the gospel.

19 For though I be free from all (men), yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more.

20 And unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law;

21 To them that are without law, as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law.

22 To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak:

26 So I run accordingly, as not uncertainly; so I fight, as not beating air;

27 but I buffet my body and lead (it) captive, lest proclaiming to others I myself might be disapproved.

King James Version

I am made all things to all (men), that I might by all means save some.

23 And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker thereof with (you).
24 Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain.

25 And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they (do it) to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible.
26 I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air:
27 But I keep under my body, and bring (it) into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway.

1 Corinthians 11

1. Become imitators of me, as I also of Christ.

2 But I praise you, brothers, because in all things you have remembered me, and even as I delivered to you, you hold fast the traditions.
3 But I want you to know that Christ is the Head of every man, and the man (is) the head of a woman, and God (is the) head of Christ.
4 Every man praying or prophesying, having (anything) down over (his) head shames his Head.
5 And every woman praying or prophesying with the head uncovered dishonors her head, for it is the same (as) being shaved.

6 For if a woman is not covered, let her also be shorn. But (if it) is shameful for a woman to be shorn, or to be shaved, let her be covered.
7 For truly a man ought not to have the head covered, being (the) image and glory of God; but woman is (the) glory of a man;
8 for man is not out of the woman, but woman out of man;
9 for also man was not created for the sake of the woman, but woman for the sake of the man.
10 Because of this, the woman ought to have authority on the head, because of the angels.
11 However, man is not apart from woman, nor in the night in which He was betrayed took bread;

24 and giving thanks, He broke and said, "Take, eat; this is My body which is broken on behalf of you; this do in remembrance of Me."

25 In the same way the cup, after the supping, (He) said, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood; as often as you may drink, do this in remembrance of Me." (See Luke 22:19, 20)
26 For as often as you may eat this bread, and drink this cup, you solemnly proclaim the death of the Lord, until He shall come.

27 So that whoever should eat this bread, or drink the cup of the Lord, unworthily, (that one) will be guilty of the body and of the blood of the Lord.
28 But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of the bread, and let him drink of the cup;

29 for the (one) eating and drinking unworthily eats and drinks judgment to himself, not discerning the body of the Lord.
30 Because of this many among you (are) weak and feeble, and many sleep.
31 For if we discerned ourselves, we would not be judged.
32 But being judged, we are chastened by (the) Lord, that we not be condemned with the world.
33 So that, my brothers, coming together to eat, wait for one another.
34 But if anyone hungers, let him eat at home, that you not come together for judgment. And the rest, I will set in order whenever I come.

the (same) night in which he was betrayed took bread:
24 And when he had given thanks, he brake (it), and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also (he took) the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink (it), in remembrance of me.
26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come.

27 Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink (this) cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.
28 But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of (that) bread, and drink of (that) cup.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.
30 For this cause many (are) weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.
31 For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.
32 But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.
33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.
34 And if any man hunger, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto condemnation. And the rest will I set in order when I come.

1 Now concerning spiritual (gifts), brethren, I would not have you ignorant.
2 Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led.
3 Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus accursed: and (that) no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost.

4 Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit.
5 And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord.
6 And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God which worketh all in all.
7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal.
8 For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit;

9 To another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit;
10 To another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another (divers) kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues:

11 But all these worketh that one and the self-same Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also (is) Christ.
13 For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether (we be) Jews or 21 And the eye is not able to say to the hand, I have no need of you; or again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 But much rather the members of the body seeming to be weaker are necessary.

23 And those of the body we think to be less honorable, to these we put more abundant honor around (them). And our unpresentable (members) have more abundant propriety.
24 But our presentable (members) have no need. But God tempered the body together, having given more abundant honor to the (member) having need, of words in a tongue.

17 For you truly give thanks well, but the other is not built up.

18 I thank my God (that) I speak more languages than all of you.
19 But in a church I desire to speak five words with my mind, that I may also instruct others, than myriads of words in a tongue.

17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all:
19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that (by my voice) I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an (unknown) tongue.

20 Brothers, do not be children in (your) minds, but in malice be like infants, and in (your) minds be mature.
21 It has been written in the Law, "By other tongues and in other lips I will speak to this people, and even so they will not hear Me, says (the) Lord." (Isa. 28:11, 12)

22 So that tongues are not a sign to the (ones) believing, but to the (ones) not believing. But prophecy (is) not to the (ones) not believing, but to the (ones) believing.
23 Then if the whole church assembles together, and all speak in tongues, and uninstructed ones or unbelievers come in, will they not say that you rave?

20 Brethren, be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice be ye children, but in understanding be men.
21 In the law it is written, With (men of) other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying (serveth) not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.
23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in (those that are) unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad?

24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or (one) unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all:

the labor of you not is fruitless in (the) Lord.

51 Behold! I speak a mystery to you: indeed we shall not all fall asleep, but we shall all be changed.
52 In a moment, in a blink of an eye, at the last trumpet; for a trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we shall all be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal (must) put on immortality.
54 And when this corruptible shall put on incorruption, and this mortal shall put on immortality, then will occur the word that has been written, "Death was swallowed up in victory." (Isa. 25:8)

58 So as, my beloved brothers, (you) be firm, immovable, abounding in the work of the Lord always, knowing that your labor is not without fruit in (the) Lord.

51 Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, 52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal (must) put on immortality.
54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.
55 O death, where (is) thy sting? O grave, where (is) thy victory?

56 The sting of death (is) sin; and the strength of sin (is) the law.
57 But thanks (be) to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord ἀδελφοί, ὑπὲρ τῆς θλίψεως ἡμῶν τῆς γενομένης ἡμῖν ἐν τῇ brothers, as to the trouble of us having happened to us in

1. Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ, through (the) will of God, and Timothy the brother, to the church of God being in Corinth, with all the saints being in all Achaia,

2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and (the) Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed (be) the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of compassions and God of all comfort,

4 the (One) comforting us on all our affliction, for us to be able to comfort those in every affliction, through the comfort by which we ourselves are comforted by God.

5 Because as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so also our comfort abounds through Christ.

6 But if we are troubled, (it is) for your comfort and salvation, being worked out in (the) endurance of the same sufferings which we also suffer. If we are comforted, (it is) for your comfort and salvation;

7 and our hope for you (is) certain, knowing that even as you are sharers of the sufferings, so also of the comfort.

8 For, brothers, we do not want you to be ignorant as to our trouble having happened to us in

King James Version

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF THE APOSTLE PAUL TO THE CORINTHIANS

2 Corinthians 1

1. Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy (our) brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints which are in all Achaia:

2 Grace (be) to you and peace from God our Father, and (from) the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed (be) God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;

4 Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.

6 And whether we be afflicted, (it is) for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, (it is) for your consolation and salvation.

7 And our hope of you (is) stedfast, knowing, that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so (shall ye be) also of the consolation.

8 For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

5. But if any have caused grief, he hath not grieved me, but in part: that I may not overcharge you all.
6 Sufficient to such a man (is) this punishment, which (was inflicted) of many.
7 So that contrariwise ye (ought) rather to forgive (him), and comfort (him), lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.
8 Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm (your) love toward him.
9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all things.
10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I (forgive) also: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave (it), for your sakes (forgave I it) in the person of Christ;
11 Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.
12. Furthermore, when I came to Troas to (preach) Christ's gospel, and a door was opened unto me of the Lord,
13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia.
14 Now thanks (be) unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.
15 For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish:
16 To the one (we are) the savour of death unto death; which (glory) was to be done away:

8 How shall not the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious?
9 For if the ministration of condemnation (be) glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.

10 For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.
11 For if that which is done away (was) glorious, much more that which remaineth (is) glorious.

12. Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech:
13 And not as Moses, (which) put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the end of that which is abolished:
14 But their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which (vail) is done away in Christ.

15 But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart.

16 Nevertheless when it shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away.
17 Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord (is), there (is) liberty.
18 But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, (even) as by the Spirit of the Lord.

2 Corinthians 4

1. Therefore seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not;
2 But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

3 But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost:

4 In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

5 For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake.

6 For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to (give) the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

that also the life of Jesus may be revealed in our body.

11 For we who live are always being delivered up to death on account of Jesus, that also the life of Jesus may be revealed in our mortal flesh;

12 so that death indeed works in us, and life in you.

13. But having the same spirit of faith, according to (that) having been written, "I believed, therefore I spoke," we also believe, and therefore we speak, (Psa. 116:10)

14 knowing that He having raised the Lord Jesus will also raise us through Jesus, and will present (us) with you.

15 For all things (are) for your sake, that the grace may superabound through the thanksgiving of the greater number, to the glory of God.

16 Because of this, we do not faint, but if indeed our outward man is being decayed, yet the inward (man) is being renewed day by day.

17 For the lightness of our present affliction works out for us an eternal weight of glory, surpassing (moment) by surpassing (moment); that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.

11 For we which live are alway delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

12 So then death worketh in us, but life in you.

13. We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

14 Knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present (us) with you.

15 For all things (are) for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.

16 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward (man) is renewed day by day.

17 For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding (and) eternal weight of glory;

18 While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen (are) temporal; but the things which are not seen (are) eternal.

2 For also in this we groan, greatly desiring to be clothed with our dwelling place from Heaven,

4 For indeed, being in the tabernacle, we groan, having been weighed down, inasmuch as we do not wish to be unclothed, but to be clothed, so that the mortal may be swallowed up by the life.
5 And the (One) having worked in us for this same thing (is) God, who also (is) giving to us the earnest of the Spirit.

7 for we walk by faith, not by sight,
8 even we are fully assured, and think it good rather to go away from home out of the body, and to come home to the Lord.
9. Because of this, we also are striving to be well-pleasing to Him, whether being at home, or being away from home.
10 For we all must appear before the Judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive the things (done) through the body, according to what he did, whether good or bad.

11 Then knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade men, and we have been known to God; and I also hope to have been known in your consciences.
12 For we do not again commend ourselves to you, but are giving you occasion of glorying on our behalf, that you may have (it) toward those boasting in appearance and not eternal in the heavens.

2 For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:

3 If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked.
4 For we that are in (this) tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.
5 Now he that hath wrought us for the self-same thing (is) God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore (we are) always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:
7 (For we walk by faith, not by sight:)
8 We are confident, (I say), and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

9. Wherefore we labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.
10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things (done) in (his) body, according to that he hath done, whether (it be) good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.

16. So as we now know no one according to flesh, but even if we have known Christ according to flesh, yet now we no longer know (Him so).

16. Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we (him) no more.

But as in everything you abound, in faith, and in word, and

1. But, brothers, we make known to you the grace of God having been given among the churches of Macedonia,
2 that in much testing of trouble, the overflowing of their joy and the depth of their poverty abounded to the riches of their sincerity.

3 For I testify (that) according to (their) ability and beyond (their) ability, (they) willingly (gave),
4 with much entreating, begging us (that they might) receive of us the grace and the fellowship of the ministry to the saints.
5 And not as we hoped, but (they) first gave themselves to the Lord and to us through (the) will of God,

6 for us to call on Titus, that even as he began before, so also he might complete this grace to you also.
7. But even as you abound in everything, in faith, and in word, and

1. Moreover, brethren, we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia;
2 How that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their liberality.

3 For to (their) power, I bear record, yea, and beyond (their) power (they were) willing of themselves;
4 Praying us with much intreaty that we would receive the gift, and (take upon us) the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.
5 And (this they did), not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God.
6 Insomuch that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also.
7 . Therefore, as ye abound in every (thing, in) faith, and utterance, and in knowledge, and in all earnestness, and in your love in us, that you also should abound in this grace.

2 Corinthians 8:8

8 I do not speak by command, but through the earnestness of others and testing the trueness of your love.

9 For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that being rich because of you He became poor, so that you might become rich by the poverty of that One.
10. And I give judgment in this, for this to be profitable to you, who began before not only to do, but also to be willing from last year.

11 But now also complete the doing (of it), so that even as (there was) the eagerness (in) the willing, so also the completing, (giving) out of (what you) have.
12 For if the eagerness is present, (it is) acceptable according to (what) anyone has, not according to (what) one does not have.
13 For (it is) not that (there may be) ease to others, but trouble (to) you;
14 but of equality in the present time, your abundance for their need; but also that their abundance may be for your need, so as may be equality;
15 even as it has been written, "He (gathering) much, he had nothing left over, and he (gathering) little had no less." (Ex. 16:18)

16. But thanks (be) to God, giving the same earnestness for you in the heart of Titus.
17 For truly he received the entreating, but being more earnest, he went out to you of his own accord.
18 But we sent with him the brother whose praise (is) in the 8 I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.
10. And herein I give (my) advice: for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be forward a year ago.

11 Now therefore perform the doing (of it); that as (there was) a readiness to will, so (there may be) a performance also out of that which ye have.
12 For if there be first a willing mind, (it is) accepted according to that a man hath, (and) not according to that he hath not.
13 For (I mean) not that other men be eased, and ye burdened:
14 But by an equality, (that) now at this time your abundance (may be a supply) for their want, that their abundance also may be (a supply) for your want: that there may be equality:
15 As it is written, He that (had gathered) much had nothing over; and he that (had gathered) little had no lack.
16. But thanks (be) to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.
17 For indeed he accepted the exhortation; but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you.
18 And we have sent with him the brother, whose praise (is) in the 11 Let such an one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such (will we be) also in deed when we are present.

12. For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.

13 But we will not boast of things without (our) measure, but according to the measure of the rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.

14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond (our measure), as though we reached not unto you: for we are come as far as to you also in (preaching) the gospel of Christ:

1. Would to God ye could bear with me a little in (my) folly: and indeed bear with me.
2 For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present (you as) a chaste virgin to Christ.
3 But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.
4 For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or (if) ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with (him).
5. For I suppose I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles.
6 But though (I be) rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been throughly made manifest among you in all things.
7 Have I committed an offence in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely?
8 I robbed other churches, taking wages (of them), to do you service.
9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied: and in all (things) I have kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and (so) will I keep (myself).

10 As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.

11 Wherefore? because I love you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.
13 For such (are) false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.
14 And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.

15 Therefore (it is) no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.

16. I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little.
17 That which I speak, I speak (it) not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.
18 Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also.
19 For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye (yourselves) are wise.
20 For ye suffer, if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour (you), if a man take (of you), if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.
21 I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak. Howbeit whereinsoever any is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also.

11 Why? Because I do not love you? God knows.

12 But what I do, I also will do, that I may cut off the occasion of those desiring an occasion, so that in that which they boast, they be found also as we.
13 For such ones (are) false apostles, deceitful workers transforming themselves into apostles of Christ.
14 For did not Satan marvelously transform himself into an angel of light?

15 (It is) not a great thing, then, if also his ministers transform themselves as ministers of righteousness, whose end will be according to their works.

16. Again I say, let not anyone think me to be foolish. But if otherwise, even if as foolish, receive me, that I also may boast a little.
17 What I speak, I speak not according to (the) Lord, but as in foolishness, in this boldness of boasting.
18 Since many boast according to the flesh, I also will boast.
19 For you gladly endure fools, being wise.

20 For you endure if anyone enslaves you, if anyone devours, if anyone takes away (from you), if anyone exalts (self), if anyone beats you in the face.
21 I speak according to dishonor, as if we have been weak. But in whatever anyone dares (I say it in foolishness), I also dare.

2 Corinthians 12

1. To boast really not (is) profitable to me, for I will come to visions and revelations of (the) Lord.

2 I know a man in Christ fourteen years before, whether in (the) body, I do not know, or out of (the) body, I do not know, God knows, such a one (was) caught up to (the) third Heaven.

3 And I know such a man, whether in (the) body or out of the body, I do not know; God knows,

4 that he was caught up into Paradise and heard unspeakable words which a man is not permitted to speak.

5 On behalf of such a one I will boast. But I will not boast on my behalf, except in my weaknesses.

6 For if I desire to boast, I will not be foolish, for I speak the truth. But I spare, lest anyone reckons me (to be) beyond what he sees me or hears anything of me.

7. And by superabundance of the revelations, that I not be made arrogant, a thorn in the flesh was given to me, a messenger of Satan, that he might buffet me, that I not be made haughty.

8 Beyond this I entreated the Lord three times, that it depart from me.

9 And He said to me, My grace is sufficient for you, for My power is perfected in weakness. Therefore, I will rather gladly boast in my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may overshadow me.

10 Because of this, I am pleased in weaknesses, in insults, in dire needs, in persecutions, in distresses, for the sake of Christ. For when I may be weak, then I am powerful.

2 Corinthians 12

1. It is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 I knew a man in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one caught up to the third heaven.

3 And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;)

4 How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.

5 Of such an one will I glory: yet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

6 For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but (now) I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me (to be), or (that) he heareth of me.

7. And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

8 For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

10 Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE GALATIANS

Galatians 1

1 Paul, an apostle, not from men nor through man, but through Jesus Christ and God (the) Father, the (One) having raised Him from (the) dead,
2 and all the brothers with me, to the churches of Galatia.
3 Grace to you and peace from God (the) Father and our Lord Jesus Christ,

4 who gave Himself for our sins, so that He might deliver us out of the present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father,

5 to whom (be) the glory forever and ever. Amen.

6 I wonder that you are so quickly being transferred from Him having called you by (the) grace of Christ to another gospel,
7 which is not another; only there are some troubling you and desiring to pervert the gospel of Christ.
8 But even if we, or an angel out of Heaven, should preach a gospel to you beside that which we preached to you, let him be accursed.

9 As we have said before, and now I say again, If anyone preaches a gospel to you beside what you received, let him be accursed.
10 For do I now persuade men or God? Or do I seek to please men? For if I yet pleased men, I would not be a slave of Christ.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE GALATIANS

Galatians 1

1 Paul, an apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead;)

2 And all the brethren which are with me, unto the churches of Galatia:
3 Grace (be) to you and peace from God the Father, and (from) our Lord Jesus Christ,

4 Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father:

5 To whom (be) glory for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:
7 Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

8 But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.
9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any (man) preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

11 But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man.
12 For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught (it), but by the revelation of Jesus Christ.

13 For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it:
14 And profited in the Jews' religion above many my equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers.

15 But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called (me) by his grace,

16 To reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood:

17 Neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus.

18 Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days.
19 But other of the apostles saw I none, save James the Lord's brother.

20 Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not.
21 Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia;
22 And was unknown by face unto the 12 For before some came from James, he ate with the nations. But when they came, he drew back and separated himself, being afraid of those of the circumcision.

13 And also the rest of the Jews dissembled with him, so as even Barnabas was led away with their dissembling.

14 But when I saw that they did not walk uprightly with the truth of the gospel, I said to Peter before all, If you being a Jew, live (as) a non-Jew and not (as the) Jews, why do you compel (the) nations to Judaize?

15 We, Jews by nature, and not sinners of the nations,

16 knowing that a man is not justified by works of law, if not through faith of Jesus Christ, we also believed in Christ Jesus, that we may be justified by faith of Christ and not by works of law, because all flesh will not be justified by works of law.

14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter before (them) all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?

15 We (who are) Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles,

16 Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

the faithful Abraham.
10 For as many as are out of works of law, (these) are under a curse. For it has been written, "Cursed (is) everyone who does not continue in all the things having been written in the book of the Law, to do them." (Deut. 27:26)
11 And that no one is justified by law before God (is) clear because, "The just shall live by faith." (Hab. 2:4)
12 But the Law is not of faith, but, "The man doing these things shall live in them." (Lev. 18:5)
13 Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us; for it has been written, "Cursed (is) everyone having been hung on a tree;" (Deut. 21:23)

15 Brothers, I speak according to man, a covenant having been ratified, even (among) mankind, no one sets aside or adds to (it).
16 But the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his Seed (it does not say, And to seeds, as of many, but as of one, "And to your Seed," which is Christ). (Gen. 12:7, 13, 15; 24:7)
17 And I say this, A covenant having been ratified before to Christ by God, (the) Law coming into being four hundred and thirty years after, does not annul the promise, so as to abolish (it).
18 For if the inheritance (is) of law, (it is) no more of promise; but God has given (it) to Abraham through promise.
19 Why the Law then? It was added because of transgressions, faithful Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed (is) every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

11 But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, (it is) evident: for, The just shall live by faith.
12 And the law is not of faith: but, The man that doeth them shall live in them.

13 Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed (is) every one that hangeth on a tree:
14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; Though (it be) but a man's covenant, yet (if it be) confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.
16 Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ.
17 And this I say, (that) the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance (be) of the law, (it is) no more of promise: but God gave (it) to Abraham by promise.
19 Wherefore then (serveth) the law? It was added because of transgressions, until the Seed should have come, to whom it had been promised, being ordained through angels in a mediator's hand.

Galatians 3:20

20 But the Mediator is not of one, but God is one.
21 Then is the Law against the promises of God? Let it not be! For if a law had been given which had been able to make alive, indeed righteousness would have been out of law.
22 But the Scripture locked up all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to the ones believing.

23 But before the coming of faith, we were guarded under law, having been locked up to the faith being about to be revealed.

24 So that the Law has become a trainer of us (until) Christ, that we might be justified by faith.
25 But faith having come, we are no longer under a trainer.
26 For you are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus.
27 For as many as were baptized into Christ, you put on Christ.
28 There is not Jew nor Greek, there is no slave nor freeman, there is no male and female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.

29 And if you (are) of Christ, then you are a seed of Abraham, even heirs according to promise.

till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; (and it was) ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator.
20 Now a mediator is not (a mediator) of one, but God is one.
21 (Is) the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.
22 But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.

24 Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster (to bring us) unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.
25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.
26 For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.
27 For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ.
28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.
29 And if ye (be) Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

1. Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.
2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.
3 For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law.
4 Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace.
5 For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.
6 For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love.
7. Ye did run well; who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth?
8 This persuasion (cometh) not of him that calleth you.

15 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature.

16 And as many as walk according to this rule, peace (be) on them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.

17 From henceforth let no man trouble me: for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.

18 Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ (be) with your spirit. Amen. (To (the) Galatians written from Rome.)

grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus.

8 For by grace you are saved, through faith, and this not of yourselves; (it is) the gift of God;
9 not of works, that not anyone should boast;
10 for we are (His) workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God before prepared that we should walk in them.

11 Because of this, remember that you, the nations, (were) then in (the) flesh (those having been called Uncircumcision by those having been called Circumcision in (the) flesh made by hand)
12 that at that time you were without Christ, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel and strangers of the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world.
13 But now in Christ Jesus you, the (ones) then being afar off came to be near by the blood of Christ.

14 For He is our peace, the (One) making us both one, and having broken down the middle wall of partition,

15 in His flesh causing to cease the enmity, the Law of the commandments in decrees, that He might in Himself create the two into one new man, making peace,
16 and might reconcile both in one body to God through the cross, slaying the enmity in Himself.

17 And coming, (He) proclaimed peace to you, the (ones) afar off, and to the (ones) near.

8 For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: (it is) the gift of God:
9 Not of works, lest any man should boast.

10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

11 Wherefore remember, that ye (being) in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands;
12 That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world:

13 But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ.

14 For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition (between us);

15 Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, (even) the law of commandments (contained) in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, (so) making peace;
16 And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby:

17 And came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh.

3 But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints;

4 Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks.
5 For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

6 Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience.

7 Be not ye therefore partakers with them.
8 For ye were sometimes darkness, but now (are ye) light in the Lord: walk as children of light:
9 (For the fruit of the Spirit (is) in all goodness and righteousness and truth;)
10 Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord.

11 And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove (them).
12 For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret.
13 But all things that are reproved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.

28 So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself.

29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church:

30 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.

31 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.

32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church.

33 Nevertheless let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife (see) that she reverence (her) husband.

not having spot or wrinkle, or any such things, but that it be holy and without blemish.

28 So, husbands ought to love their wives as their (own) bodies, he loving his wife loves himself, 29 for then no one hated his (own) flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, even as also the Lord the church.

30 For we are members of His body, of His flesh, and of His bones.

31 "For this a man shall leave his father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife, and the two shall be one flesh." (Gen.2:24)

32 This mystery is great, but I speak as to Christ and as to the church.

33 However, you also, everyone, let each love his wife as himself, and the wife, that she give deference to the husband.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE PHILIPPIANS

Philippians 1

1. Paul, and Timothy, slaves of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus who are in Philippi, with the overseers and ministers:

2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and (the) Lord Jesus Christ.

3 I thank my God on all the remembrance of you,
4 always in my every petition on your behalf making (my) petition with joy

5 over your fellowship in the gospel, from (the) first day until now,

6 being persuaded of this very thing, that the (One) having begun a good work in you will complete (it) until (the) day of Jesus Christ;
7 as it is righteous for me to think this on behalf of you all because you have me in (your) heart, both in my bonds and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel, you are all sharers of the grace with me.

8 For God is my witness as I long after you all in (the) bowels of Jesus Christ.
9 And this I pray, that your love may yet abound more and more in full knowledge and all perception,

10 for you (to) distinguish (between) differing things, that you may be sincere and without blame unto (the) day of Christ,

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE PHILIPPIANS

Philippians 1

1. Paul and Timotheus, the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons:

2 Grace (be) unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and (from) the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 I thank my God upon every remembrance of you,
4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,

5 For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now;

6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform (it) until the day of Jesus Christ:
7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers of my grace.

8 For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ.
9 And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and (in) all judgment;

10 That ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ;

11 Being filled with the of righteousness through Jesus Christ, to (the) glory and praise of God.

12 But I want you to know, brothers, that the things concerning me have more fully come to (the) advancement of the gospel,
13 so that in all the praetorium, and to all the rest, my bonds have become clearly revealed (to be) in Christ.
14 And the most of the brothers in (the) Lord, being confident in my bonds, more exceedingly dare to speak the Word fearlessly.

15 Some, indeed, even preach Christ because of envy and strife, but some also because of good will.

16 These, indeed, proclaim Christ out of party spirit, not sincerely, thinking to bring affliction to my bonds.
17 But these (others) out of love, knowing that I am set for defense of the gospel.
18 For what? Yet in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is proclaimed, and I rejoice in this; yet also I will rejoice.

19 For I know that this will go on to deliverance to me through your petition and (the) supply of (the) Spirit of Jesus Christ,

20 according to my earnest expectation and hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but as always in all boldness even now Christ will be magnified in my body, whether through life or through death.

21 For to me to live (is) Christ, and to die (is) gain.

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things (which happened) unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel;
13 So that my bonds in Christ are manifest in all the palace, and in all other (places);
14 And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will:

16 The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds:
17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel.

22 But if I live in the flesh, this

(is) fruit of (my) labor, and what I shall choose I do not know.
23 For I am constrained by the two: having the desire to depart and be with Christ, (which is) rather much better,
24 but to remain in the flesh (is) more necessary on account of you.
25 And being assured of this, I know that I will remain and will continue with you all for your advancement and joy of faith,

26 so that your glorying may abound in Christ Jesus in me through my presence with you again.

27 Only conduct yourself worthily of the gospel of Christ, so that whether coming and seeing you, or being absent, I hear the things concerning you, that you stand firm in one spirit, and one soul, striving together in the faith of the gospel,
28 and in nothing being terrified by the (ones) opposing, which to them truly is a proof of destruction, but to you of salvation, and this from God;

29 because it was granted to you on behalf of Christ not only to believe into Him, but also to suffer on His behalf,

(is) the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not.
23 For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better:
24 Nevertheless to abide in the flesh (is) more needful for you.

25 And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith;

26 That your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me by my coming to you again.

27 Only let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel;
28 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God.

29 For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake;
30 Having the same conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear (to be) in me.

1. Finally, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed (is) not grievous, but for you (it is) safe.
2 Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the concision.
3 For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.

11 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, (therewith) to be content.

12 I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.

13 I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.

14 Notwithstanding ye have well done, that ye did communicate with my affliction.

15 Now ye Philippians know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only.

16 For even in Thessalonica ye sent once and again unto my necessity.

17 Not because I desire a gift: but I desire fruit that may abound to your account.

18 But I have all, and abound: I am full, having received of Epaphroditus the things (which were sent) from you, an odour of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, wellpleasing to God.

19 But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.

20 Now unto God and our Father (be) glory for ever and ever. Amen.

21 Salute every saint in Christ Jesus.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE COLOSSIANS

Colossians 1

1. Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timotheus (our) brother,
2 To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ which are at Colosse: Grace (be) unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,
4 Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love (which ye have) to all the saints,

5 For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel;

6 Which is come unto you, as (it is) in all the world; and bringeth forth fruit, as (it doth) also in you, since the day ye heard (of it), and knew the grace of God in truth:

7 As ye also learned of Epaphras our dear fellowservant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ;

8 Who also declared unto us your love in the Spirit.

9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard (it), do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom

Him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily;

10 and having been filled, you are in Him, who is the Head of all rule and authority,
11 in whom also you were circumcised with a circumcision not made by hand, in the putting off of the body of the sins of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ,
12 being buried with Him in baptism, in whom also you were raised through the faith of the working of God, having raised Him from the dead.

13 And you, being dead in the offenses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, He made alive together with Him, having remitted all your offenses,
14 blotting out the handwriting in the ordinances against us, which was contrary to us, even (He) has taken it out of the midst, having nailed it to the cross;
15 having stripped the rulers and the authorities, He made a show (of them) in public, triumphing (over) them in it.

16 Then do not let anyone judge you in eating, or in drinking, or in respect of a feast, or the new moon, or of sabbaths, 17 which (are) a shadow of coming things, but the body (is) of Christ.

ἐξήχηται ὁ λόγος τοῦ Κυρίου οὐ μόνον ἐν τῇ Μακεδονίᾳ

1. Paul and Silvanus and Timothy to the church of Thessalonians in God (the) Father and (the) Lord Jesus Christ: Grace and peace to you from God our Father and (the) Lord Jesus Christ.

2 We give thanks to God always concerning you all, making mention of you on our prayers,

3 remembering without ceasing your work of faith and labor of love, and the patience of hope of our Lord Jesus Christ before our God and Father,

4 knowing, brothers having been loved, your election by God.
5 For our gospel did not come to you in word only, but also in power, and in (the) Holy Spirit, and in much assurance, even as you know what kind we were among you for your sake.

6 And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, welcoming the Word in much affliction with joy of (the) Holy Spirit.

7 So as you became examples to all those believing in Macedonia and Achaia.
8 For the Word of the Lord sounded out from you not only in Macedonia

1. Paul, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians (which is) in God the Father and (in) the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace (be) unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;

3 Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father;

4 Knowing, brethren beloved, your election of God.
5 For our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance; as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.

6 And ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Ghost:

7 So that ye were ensamples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia.
8 For from you sounded out the word of the Lord not only in Macedonia your midst, as if a nurse should warmly cherish her children;

8 so yearning over you, we were well-pleased to impart to you not only the gospel of God, but also our own souls, because you have become beloved to us.
9 For, brothers, you remember our labor and the toil, for night and day working in order to not put a burden on anyone of you, we proclaimed to you the gospel of God.

10 You and God (are) witnesses how holily and righteously and blamelessly we were to you, the (ones) believing;

11 even as you know how (I was to) each one of you, as a father (to) his children, exhorting and consoling you,
12 testifying for you to walk worthily of God, He calling you to His kingdom and glory.

13 And because of this we give thanks to God without ceasing, that having received (the) Word of hearing from us, you welcomed (it) of God, not (as) a word of men, but as it is, truly (the) Word of God, which also works in you, the (ones) believing.

14 For, brothers, you became imitators of the churches of God being in Judea in Christ Jesus, because you also suffered these things by (your) own fellow countrymen, as they also by the Jews,

15 who both killed the Lord Jesus and their own prophets, also having driven among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children:

8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear unto us.
9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

10 Ye (are) witnesses, and God (also), how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe:

11 As ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father (doth) his children,
12 That ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

13For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received (it) not (as) the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.

14 For ye, brethren, became followers of the churches of God which in Judaea are in Christ Jesus: for ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they (have) of the Jews:

15 Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us;

1 For the rest then, brothers, we beseech you and we exhort in (the) Lord Jesus, even as you received from us how you ought to walk and to please God, that you abound more.

2 For you know what injunctions we gave you through the Lord Jesus.
3 For this is God's will, your sanctification, (for) you to abstain from fornication,
4 each one of you to know to possess his vessel in purity and honor,

5 not in passion of lust, even as also the nations (do), not knowing God;
6 not to go beyond and to overreach his brother in the matter, because (the) avenger concerning all these (is) the Lord, even as indeed we told you before, and solemnly witnessed.

7 For God did not call us to uncleaness, but in purity.

8 Therefore, the (one) that despises does not despise man, but God, even the (One) giving His Holy Spirit to us.

9 But concerning brotherly love, you have no need (for me) to write to you, for you yourselves are taught by God to love one another.
10 For you indeed do it toward the brothers in all Macedonia. But, brothers, we exhort you to abound more,

11 And to try earnestly to be quiet, and to practice (your) own things, and to work with (your) own hands, even as we enjoined you,

14 For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will also bring with Him all those who have fallen asleep through Jesus.
15 For we say this to you in (the) Word of (the) Lord, that we the living who remain to the coming of the Lord not at all will go before those who have fallen asleep.
16 Because the Lord Himself shall come down from Heaven with a trumpet-call of an archangel's voice, and with God's trumpet. And the dead in Christ will rise again first.
17 Then we the living, the (ones) remaining will be caught up together with them in (the) clouds to a meeting of the Lord in (the) air. And so we will always be with (the) Lord.
18 So, then, comfort one another with these words.

King James Version

(that) ye may have lack of nothing.

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope.
14 For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.
15 For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive (and) remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.
16 For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:
17 Then we which are alive (and) remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.
18 Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TIMOTHY

1 Timothy 1

1. Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, (which is) our hope;

2 Unto Timothy, (my) own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, (and) peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 Even as I called on you to remain (in) Ephesus, I going to Macedonia, that you might charge some not to teach other doctrines,

4 nor to give heed to fables and to endless genealogies, which occasion doubts, rather than the nurture of God in faith.

5 But the end of the commandment is love out of a pure heart and a good conscience, and faith not pretended,

6 from which having missed the mark, some turned aside to empty talking,
7 wishing to be teachers of law, neither understanding what they say, nor about that which they confidently affirm.
8 And we know that the Law (is) good, if anyone uses it lawfully,
9 knowing this, that law (is) not laid down for a righteous one, but for lawless and undisciplined ones, for ungodly and sinful ones, for unholy and profane ones, for slayers of fathers and slayers of mothers, for murderers,
10 for fornicators, for homosexuals, for slave-traders, for liars, for perjurers, and if any

1. Faithful (is) the Word: If anyone reaches out to overseership, he desires a good work.
2 Then it behooves the overseer to be blameless, husband of one wife, temperate, sensible, well-ordered, hospitable, apt at teaching;
3 not a drinker, not a contentious one, not greedy of ill gain, but gentle, not quarrelsome, not loving money;
4 ruling his own house well, having children in subjection with all respect.
5 But if anyone does not know to rule (his) own house, how will he care for a church of God?
6 (He should) not (be) a novice, lest being puffed up he may fall into the Devil's judgment.

by the word of God and prayer.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.
7 But refuse profane and old wives' fables, and exercise thyself (rather) unto godliness.

8 For bodily exercise profiteth little: but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.
9 This (is) a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptation.

10 For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.
11 These things command and teach.

12 Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

13 Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

14 Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery.

15 Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all.
16 Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee.

Literal Translation

1 Timothy 5

1. Do not sharply rebuke an elder, but exhort as a father; (and) younger ones as brothers,
2 older (women) as mothers, younger (women) as sisters, in all purity.
3 Honor widows, the (ones) really being widows.
4 But if any widow has children or grandchildren, let them learn first to be godly to their own house and to make a return payment to (those) born before, for this is good and pleasing before God.
5 But (honor) the (one) being really a widow, even having been left alone, (who) has set (her) hope on God and continues in petitions and prayers night and day.
6 But she who lives in self-pleasure has died while living.
7 And enjoin these things that they may be blameless.
8 But if anyone does not provide for (his) own, and especially (his) family, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.
9 Let a widow be enrolled having become not less than sixty years, (the) wife of one man,
10 being witnessed by good works, if she brought up children, if she hosted strangers, if she washed the feet of saints, if she relieved afflicted ones, if she followed after every good work.
11 But refuse younger widows; for whenever they grow lustful against Christ, they desire to marry,
12 having guilt because they set aside the first faith;
13 and with it all, they also learn (to be) idle, going around the houses, and not only idle, but also gossips and busybodies, speaking the things not proper.
14 Therefore, I desire the young women to marry, to bear children,

King James Version

1 Timothy 5

1. Rebuke not an elder, but intreat (him) as a father; (and) the younger men as brethren;
2 The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity.
3 Honour widows that are widows indeed.

4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to shew piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God.

5 Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.
6 But she that liveth in pleasure is dead while she liveth.
7 And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless.
8 But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.
9 Let not a widow be taken into the number under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man,
10 Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.
11 But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry;
12 Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith.
13 And withal they learn (to be) idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not.
14 I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children,

1 Paul an apostle of Jesus Christ through (the) will of God according to a promise of life (which is) in Christ Jesus,
2 to (my) beloved child Timothy: Grace, mercy, peace from God (the) Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 I have thanks to God, whom I worship from (my) forebears in a pure conscience, how unceasingly I have remembrance concerning you in my petitions night and day,
4 longing to see you, being reminded of your tears, that I may be filled with joy,
5 taking recollection of the unpretended faith in you, which first dwelt in your grandmother Lois and (in) your mother Eunice, and I am assured that (it is) also in you.

6 For which cause I remind you to fan into flame the gift of God which is in you through the laying on of my hands.

7 For God did not give a spirit of cowardice to us, but of power and of love, and of self-control.

8 Therefore you should not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor (of) me, His prisoner. But suffer hardship with the gospel, according to (the) power of God,

The Second Epistle of Paul to Timothy

2 Timothy 1

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus,
2 To Timothy, (my) dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, (and) peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 I thank God, whom I serve from (my) forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day;
4 Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy;
5 When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.

7 For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

8 Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God;
9 Who hath saved us, and called (us) with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus

11 for which I was appointed a herald and apostle and a teacher of nations.
12 For which cause I also suffer these things. But I am not ashamed, for I know whom I have believed, and I am persuaded that He is able to guard my deposit until that Day.

13 Hold a pattern of sound words which you heard from me, in faith and love in Christ Jesus.
14 Guard the good Deposit (given) through (the) Holy Spirit indwelling in us.

15 You know this, that all those in Asia turned away from me, of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes.
16 May the Lord give mercy to the house of Onesiphorus, because he often refreshed me, and he was not ashamed of my chain,
17 but having come to Rome, he more diligently sought and found (me).
18 May the Lord give to him to find mercy from (the) Lord in that Day. And what things he served in Ephesus, you know very well.

the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.
3 Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

4 No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of (this) life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

5 And if a man also strive for masteries, (yet) is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully.
6 The husbandman that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruits.
7 Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.
8 Remember that Jesus Christ of the seed of David was raised from the dead according to my gospel:
9 Wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, (even) unto bonds; but the word of God is not bound.
10 Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.
11 (It is) a faithful saying: For if we be dead with (him), we shall also live with (him):
12 If we suffer, we shall also reign with (him): if we deny (him), he also will deny us:
13 If we believe not, (yet) he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put (them) in remembrance, charging (them) before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, (but) to the subverting of the hearers.
15 Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.
16 But shun profane (and) vain babblings: for 17 and their word will have growth like gangrene, of whom (are) Hymenaeus and Philetus,

18 who missed the mark concerning the truth, saying the resurrection already has come, and overturn the faith of some.

19 However, the foundation of God stands firm, having this seal, "(The) Lord knew those being His;" (see Num.16:5,70), also, "Let everyone naming the name of Christ depart from unrighteousness."
20 But in a great house not only are there vessels of gold and silver, but also of wood and of earth, and some to honor and some to dishonor.

they will increase unto more ungodliness.
17 And their word will eat as doth a canker: of whom is Hymenaeus and Philetus;

18 Who concerning the truth have erred, saying that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.

19 Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.
20 But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour.

21 If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, (and) prepared unto every good work.
22 Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.
23 But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes.

24 And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all (men), apt to teach, patient,
25 In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;
26 And (that) they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.

evil, (the) work do of an evangelist, the ministry of you

2 Timothy 4

1. I charge (thee) therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom;

2 Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine.

3 For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;

4 And they shall turn away (their) ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.
5 But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry.

King James Version

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TITUS

Titus 1

1 Paul, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and the acknowledging of the truth which is after godliness;
2 In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began;
3 But hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, which is committed unto me according to the commandment of God our Saviour;
4 To Titus, (mine) own son after the common faith: Grace, mercy, (and) peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour.

5 For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are wanting, and ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee:
6 If any be blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children not accused of riot or unruly.

7 For a bishop must be blameless, as the steward of God; not selfwilled, not soon angry, not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre;
8 But a lover of hospitality, a lover of good men, sober, just, holy, temperate;
9 Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers.

15 While it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

16 For some, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

17 But with whom was he grieved forty years? (was it) not with them that had sinned, whose carcases fell in the wilderness?

18 And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not?
19 So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

Hebrews 4

Hebrews 4

1. Then let us fear lest perhaps in any way a promise being left to enter into His rest, (that) any of you may seem to come short.

2 For, indeed, we have had the gospel preached (to us), even as they also; but the word did not profit those hearing (it), not having been mixed with faith in the (ones) having heard.
3 For we, the (ones) having believed, enter into the rest, even as He said, "As I swore in My wrath, they shall not enter into My rest," though the works having come into being from (the) foundation of the world. (Psa. 95:11)

4 For He has spoken somewhere about the seventh (day) this way, "And God rested from all His works in the seventh day." (Gen. 2:2)

5 And in this (place) again, "They shall not enter into My rest." (Psa. 95:11)
6 Therefore, since it remains (for) some to enter into it, and those who formerly had the gospel preached did not enter in because of disobedience,
7 He again marks out a certain day, saying in David, "Today," after such a time, according as He has said, "Today, if you hear His voice, do not harden your hearts." (Psa. 95:7,8)

8 For if Joshua gave them rest, then He would not have afterwards spoken about another day.
9 So, then, there remains a sabbath rest to the people of God.
10 For He entering into His rest, (He) Himself also rested from His works, as God (had rested) from His own.

11 Therefore, let us be eager to enter into that

Hebrews 4

1. Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left (us) of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard (it).
3 For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh (day) on this wise, And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

5 And in this (place) again, If they shall enter into my rest.
6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief:

7 Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To day, after so long a time; as it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

8 For if Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.
9 There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.
10 For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God (did) from his.

11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that

14 Then having a great High Priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast the confession.

15 For we do not have a high priest not being able to sympathize with our weaknesses, but (One) having been tried in all respects according to (our) likeness, apart from sin.
16 Therefore, let us draw near with confidence to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy, and we may find grace for help in time of need.

12 For the word of God (is) quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and (is) a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.
13 Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things (are) naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

14 Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast (our) profession.

15 For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as (we are, yet) without sin.

16 Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

Hebrews 5

1. For every high priest being taken from men is appointed on behalf of men in the things respecting God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins;

Θεὸς ἐπιλαθέσθαι τοῦ ἔργου ὑμῶν, καὶ τοῦ κόπου τῆς
God (is) to be forgetful of the work of you, and the labor

1. Because of this, having left the discourse of the beginning of Christ, let us be borne on to full growth, not laying down again a foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith upon God,
2 of (the) baptisms, of doctrine, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of dead ones, and of eternal judgment.
3 And this we will do, if indeed God permits.

4 For (it is) impossible for those once having been enlightened, and having tasted of the heavenly gift, and having become partakers of (the) Holy Spirit,
5 and having tasted (the) good Word of God, and (the) works of power of a coming age,
6 and having fallen away, again to renew to repentance, crucifying again for themselves the Son of God, and putting (Him) to open shame.
7 For the earth drinking in the rain often coming upon it, and producing vegetation fit for those for whom it is also worked, receives blessing from God;

8 but bearing thorns and thistles, (it is) deemed unfit and near a curse, of which the end (is) for burning.

9 But, loved ones, even if we indeed speak so, we have been persuaded better things concerning you, even holding fast salvation.
10 For God (is) not unjust, to forget your work and the labor

1. Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God,
2 Of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment.

3 And this will we do, if God permit.

4 For (it is) impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost,
5 And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come,
6 If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put (him) to an open shame.
7 For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God:

8 But that which beareth thorns and briers (is) rejected, and (is) nigh unto cursing; whose end (is) to be burned.

9 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.
10 For God (is) not unrighteous to forget your work and labour

16 Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.
17 For he testifieth, Thou (art) a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.
18 For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for the weakness and unprofitableness thereof.
19 For the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope (did); by the which we draw nigh unto God.
20 And inasmuch as not without an oath (he was made priest):
21 (For those priests were made without an oath; but this with an oath by him that said unto him, The Lord sware and will not repent, Thou (art) a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec:)
22 By so much was Jesus made a surety of a better testament.
23 And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death:
24 But this (man), because of cause

10 only on foods and drinks, and various washings, and fleshly ordinances, until (the) time of setting things right has been imposed.

11 But Christ having appeared (as) a High Priest of the coming good things, through the greater and more perfect tabernacle not made by hand, that is, not of this creation,
12 nor through the blood of goats and of calves, but through (His) own blood, (He) entered once for all into the (Holy of) Holies, having procured eternal redemption.

13 For if the blood of bulls and goats, and ashes of a heifer sprinkling those having been defiled, sanctifies to the purity of the flesh,

14 by how much more the blood of Christ (who through (the) eternal Spirit offered Himself without blemish to God), will purify your conscience from dead works so as to serve (the) living God!

15 And because of this He is Mediator of a new covenant, so that, death having occurred for redemption of transgressions under the first covenant, those having been called out might receive the promise of the eternal inheritance.
16 For where a covenant (is), the death of him having covenanted must be offered.
17 For a covenant (is) firm over (those) dead, since it never has force when he who has covenanted (is) living.

King James Version

was yet standing:
9 Which (was) a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience;
10 (Which stood) only in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed (on them) until the time of reformation.

11 But Christ being come an high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building;
12 Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption (for us).

13 For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh:

14 How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

15 And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions (that were) under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.
16 For where a testament (is), there must also of necessity be the death of the testator.
17 For a testament (is) of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.

20 saying, "This (is) the blood of the covenant which God enjoined to you." (Exo. 24:8)
21 And he likewise sprinkled both the tabernacle and all the service vessels with the blood.
22 And almost all things are cleansed by blood according to the Law; and apart from shedding of blood no remission occurs.

23 Then (it was) needful for the examples of the things in the heavens to be cleansed (with) these; but the heavenly things themselves by better sacrifices than these.
24 For Christ did not enter into (the) (Holy of) Holies made by hands, antitypes of the true things, but into Heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf,

25 not that often He should offer Himself even as the high priest enters into the (Holy of) Holies year by year with blood of others;

26 since He must often have suffered from (the) foundation of the world. But now once, at the completion of the ages, He has been revealed for putting away of sin through the sacrifice of Himself.
27 And as it is reserved to men once to die, and after this Judgment;
28 so Christ, having been once offered of many 18 Whereupon neither the first (testament) was dedicated without blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people,
20 Saying, This (is) the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you.
21 Moreover he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 (It was) therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.
24 For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, (which are) the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us:

25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others;

26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.
27 And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment:

28 So Christ was once offered

Hebrews 10

1. For the Law had a shadow of the coming good things, not the image (itself) of (those) things. (Appearing) year by year with the same sacrifices, which they offer continually, they never are able to perfect the ones drawing near.
2 Otherwise, would they not have ceased to be offered, because those serving did not still have conscience of sins, having once for all been cleansed?
3 But in these (there is) a remembrance of sins year by year,
4 for (it is) not possible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.
5 For this reason, coming into the world, He says, "Sacrifice and offering You did not desire, but You prepared a body for Me.
6 You did not delight in burnt offerings and (sacrifices) concerning sins.
7 Then I said, Lo, I come, (in the) heading of the Book, it was written concerning Me, to do Your will, O God." (Psa. 39:6 - 9 LXX; Psa. 40:6 - 8 Masoretic)
8 Above, saying, "You did not desire nor were pleased (with) sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and (sacrifices) concerning sins," which are offered according to the Law,
9 then He said, "Lo, I come to do Your will, O God." He takes away the first in order that He may set up the second;

1. For the law having a shadow of good things to come, (and) not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect.
2 For then would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins.

5 Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared me:
6 In burnt offerings and (sacrifices) for sin thou hast had no pleasure.
7 Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God.
8 Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and (offering) for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure (therein); which are offered by the law;

11. And indeed every priest stands day by day ministering, and often offering the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins.

12 But He, offering but one sacrifice for sins, sat down in perpetuity (at the) right (hand) of God, 13 from then on expecting until His enemies are placed (as) a footstool of His feet.

14 For by one offering He has perfected in perpetuity the ones being sanctified.
15 And the Holy Spirit witnesses to us also. For after having said before,
16 "This (is) the covenant which I will covenant to them after those days," says (the) Lord: "Giving My laws on their hearts, and I will write them on their minds;"

17 also (He adds), "I will not at all still remember their sins and their lawless deeds." (Jer. 31:33, 34)
18 But where remission of these (is), there (is) no longer offering concerning sins.

19. Then, brothers, having confidence for the entering of the (Holy of) Holies by the blood of Jesus,
20 which He consecrated for us, a new and living way through the veil; that is, His flesh;

21 and (having) a Great Priest over the house of God,
22 let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, our hearts having been sprinkled from an evil conscience, and (our) body having been washed in pure water;
23 let us hold

Jesus Christ once (for all).
11. And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins:

12 But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God;
13 From henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.
15 (Whereof) the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before,
16 This (is) the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;

17 And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.
18 Now where remission of these (is, there is) no more offering for sin.

19. Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus,
20 By a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh;

21 And (having) an high priest over the house of God;
22 Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water.

24 And let us consider one another, to incitement of love and of good works,
25 not forsaking the assembling together of ourselves, as (is the) custom of some, but exhorting, and by so much more as you see the Day drawing near.

26 For (if) we (are) willfully sinning after receiving the full knowledge of the truth, there remains no more sacrifice concerning sins,
27 but a certain fearful expectation of judgment and zealous fire being about to consume the adversaries.
28 (If) anyone did not regard (the) Law of Moses, (that one) dies without pities on (the word of) two or three witnesses. (Deut.17:6)

"My sons, do not despise the chastening of (the) Lord, nor faint (while) being corrected by Him.
6 For whom (the) Lord loves, He disciplines, and whips every son whom He receives." (Prov. 3:11,12)
7 If you endure discipline, God is dealing with you as with sons; for who is (the) son whom a father does not discipline?
8 But if you are without discipline, of which all have become sharers, then you are bastards, and not sons.

9 Furthermore, indeed we have had fathers of our flesh (as) correctors, and we respected (them). Shall we not much more be subject to the Father of spirits, and we shall live?
10 For they truly disciplined (us) for a few days according to the thing seeming good to them; but He for (our) profit, (in order for us) to partake of His holiness.

11 And all discipline for the present indeed does not seem to be joyous, but grievous; but afterward it gives back peaceable fruit of righteousness to the (ones) having been exercised by it.
12. Because of this, straighten the hands hanging alongside, and the having been enfeebled knees;
13 and make straight tracks for your feet, that the lame not be turned aside, but rather healed. (Isa.35:3; Prov.4:26)

14 Eagerly pursue peace with all, and holiness, without which no one will see the Lord,
15 watching diligently that not any lack from the grace of God, that no root of bitterness growing up may crowd in (on you), and through this many be defiled;
16 lest

King James Version

My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him:

6 For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.
7 If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

9 Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected (us), and we gave (them) reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?
10 For they verily for a few days chastened (us) after their own pleasure; but he for (our) profit, that (we) might be partakers of his holiness.

11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.
12. Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;
13 And make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but let it rather be healed.

14 Follow peace with all (men), and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord:
15 Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble (you), and thereby many be defiled;

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JAMES

James 1

1. James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting.

2 My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations;

3 Knowing (this), that the trying of your faith worketh patience.
4 But let patience have (her) perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

5 If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all (men) liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

6 But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.

7 For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.
8 A double minded man (is) unstable in all his ways.

9 Let the brother of low degree rejoice in that he is exalted:
10 But the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.
11 For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man

5 Hear, my beloved brothers, did not God choose out the poor of this world to be rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which He promised to the ones loving Him?

6 But you dishonored the poor one. Do not the rich ones oppress you, and they drag you to judgment seats?

7 Do they not blaspheme the good Name called on you?

8 If you truly fulfill (the) royal law according to the Scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself," you do well. (Lev. 19:18)

9 But if you show partiality (to persons), you work sin, having been found guilty as transgressors by the law.
10 For whoever shall keep the whole law, but stumbles in one, he has become guilty of all.

11 For He who said, "You shall not commit adultery," also said, "You shall not murder." (Ex. 20:13, 14) But if you do not commit adultery, but commit murder, you have become a transgressor of (the) law.

the things the body needs, what gain (is it)? 17 So also faith, if it does not have works, is dead (being) by itself. 18 But someone will say, You have faith, and I have works. Show me your faith apart from your works, and I will show you my faith from my works.

not those things which are needful to the body; what (doth it) profit? 17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone. 18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

19 You believe that God is one. You do well; even the demons believe and tremble. 20 But are you willing to know, O vain man, that faith apart from works is dead?

19 Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble. 20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?

21 Was not our father Abraham justified by works offering up his son Isaac on the altar? (Gen.22:9)

21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

22 Do you see that faith worked with his works; and out of the works the faith was perfected. 23 And the Scripture was fulfilled, saying, "And Abraham believed God, and it was counted for righteousness to him;" and he was called, "Friend of God." (Gen. 15:6; Isa. 41:8) 24 You see, then, that a man is justified out of works, and not out of faith only.

22 Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect? 23 And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God. 24 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

25 But in the same way Rahab the harlot was also justified out of works, having received the messengers, and sending them out by another way. 26 For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, so also faith apart from works is dead.

25 Likewise also was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent (them) out another way? 26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

any one does not stumble in word, this (one is) a mature man, able also to bridle the whole body.
3 Behold, we put bits in the mouths of the horses, for them to obey us; and we turn about their whole body.

4 Behold, the ships also, being so great, and being driven by violent winds, (they are) directed by a very small rudder, where the impulse of the (one) steering purposes.

5 So also the tongue is a little member, and boasts great things. Behold, how little a fire kindles how large (a) forest!

6 And the tongue (is) a fire, the world of iniquity. So the tongue is set among our members, spotting all the body, and inflaming the course of nature, and having been inflamed by Hell.

7 For every species of beasts, both indeed of birds, of creeping things, and of sea animals, is tamed, and has been tamed by the human (species);
8 but no one of men is able to tame the tongue; (it is) an evil that cannot be restrained, full of death-dealing poison.

9 By this we bless God and (the) Father; and by this we curse men having come into being according to (the) image of God.

4 Behold also the ships, which though (they be) so great, and (are) driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth.

5 Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth!

6 And the tongue (is) a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankind:

8 But the tongue can no man tame; (it is) an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.

9 Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God.
10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

16 But now ye rejoice in your boastings: all such rejoicing is evil.

17 Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth (it) not, to him it is sin.

James 5

1. Come now, rich ones, weep, howling over your miseries coming on.
2 Your riches have rotted, and your garments have become moth-eaten.
3 Your gold and silver have rusted over, and their poison will be a testimony to you, and will eat your flesh as fire. You heaped treasure in (the) last days.

4 Behold! The wages of the workmen who have reaped your fields cry out, being kept back from you. And the cries of the (ones) who have reaped have entered into the ears of (the) Lord of Hosts.

5 You lived luxuriously on the earth, and lived in self-gratification; you nourished your hearts as in a day of slaughter;

6 you condemned; you murdered the righteous; he does not resist you.

7. Therefore, brothers, be long-suffering until the coming of the Lord. Behold, the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being long-suffering over it until it may receive (the) early and the latter rain.
8 You also be long-suffering. Set your hearts firmly, because the coming of the Lord is near.

THE FIRST GENERAL EPISTLE OF PETER

1 Peter 1

1. Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the strangers scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,

2 Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied.

3 Blessed (be) the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

4 To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you,

5 Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

6 Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations:

7 That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ:

8 Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see (him) not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory:

9 Receiving the end of your faith, (even) the salvation of (your) souls.

10. About which salvation the prophets sought out and searched out, prophesying concerning the grace for you,
11 searching for what, or what sort of time the Spirit of Christ made clear within them; testifying beforehand of the sufferings (belonging) to Christ, and the glories after these.
12 To whom it was revealed that not to themselves, but to us they ministered the same things, which now were announced to you by those having preached the gospel to you in (the) Holy Spirit sent from Heaven; into which things angels long to bow to look.

13. Because of this, having girded up the loins of your mind, being sober, perfectly hope on the grace being brought to you at (the) revelation of Jesus Christ,
14 as children of obedience, not fashioning yourselves to your former lusts in your ignorance,
15 but according to the Holy One who has called you, you also become holy in all conduct;
16 because it has been written, "Be holy, because I am holy." (Lev. 19:2)
17. And if you call on (the) Father, the (One) judging according to the work of each one without respect to persons, pass the time of your pilgrimage in fear,
18 knowing that not with corruptible things, silver or gold, you were redeemed from your worthless way of life handed down from (your) fathers,
19 but with precious blood of Christ, as of an unblemished and unspotted lamb, 20 indeed having been foreknown before (the) foundation of (the) world, but revealed in 12 Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven; which things the angels desire to look into.

13. Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ;
14 As obedient children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance:

15 But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation;
16 Because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy.
17. And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your sojourning (here) in fear:
18 Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, (as) silver and gold, from your vain conversation (received) by tradition from your fathers;

4 but the hidden man of the heart, in the incorruptible (adornment) of the meek and quiet spirit, which is of great value before God.

5 For so then indeed the holy women (who were) hoping on God adorned themselves, submitting themselves to their own husbands,

6 as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord; whose children you became, doing good, and not fearing terror, not one. (Gen.18:12)

7 Likewise, husbands, dwelling together according to knowledge, as with a weaker vessel, the female, bestowing honor, as truly (being) co-heirs of (the) grace of life, not cutting off your prayers.

8. And, finally, (be) all of one mind, sympathetic, loving the brothers, tenderhearted, friendly, 9 not giving back evil for evil, or reviling against reviling; but, on the contrary, (give) blessing;

1 Peter 3

1. Likewise, ye wives, (be) in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conversation of the wives;
2 While they behold your chaste conversation (coupled) with fear.
3 Whose adorning let it not be that outward (adorning) of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel;

4 But (let it be) the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, (even the ornament) of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.
5 For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands:
6 Even as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him lord: whose daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

7 Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with (them) according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered.

8. Finally, (be ye) all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, (be) pitiful, (be) courteous:
9 Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing;

the long-suffering of God waited in (the) days of Noah, an ark having been prepared in which a few, that is, eight souls, were saved through water.

21 Which antitype now also saves us, baptism (not a putting away of (the) filth of (the) flesh, but (the) answer of a good conscience toward God through (the) resurrection of Jesus Christ; the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water.

22 who, having gone into Heaven is at (the) right of God, (the) angels, and authorities, and powers being subjected to Him).

21 The like figure whereunto (even) baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ:

22 Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

1. Forasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin;

2 That he no longer should live the rest of (his) time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God.

3 For the time past of (our) life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries:

4 Wherein they think it strange that ye run not with (them) to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of (you):

5 Who shall give account to him that is ready to judge the quick and the dead.

6 For for this cause was the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

7. But the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore sober, and 14 If you are reviled in (the) name of Christ, (you are) blessed, because the Spirit of God and of glory rests on you. Truly, according to them, He is blasphemed; but according to you, He is glorified. (Isa.11:2)

15 For do not let any of you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or an evildoer, or as a meddler in the affairs of others.
16 But if (one suffers) as a Christian, do not let him be ashamed, but to glorify God in this respect.
17 Because the time (has come) to begin the judgment from the house of God; and if firstly from us, what (will be) the end of the ones disobeying the gospel of God?

12. Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you:
13 But rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.
14 If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy (are ye); for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.
15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or (as) a thief, or (as) an evildoer, or as a busybody in other men's matters.
16 Yet if (any man suffer) as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God on this behalf.

THE SECOND GENERAL EPISTLE OF PETER

2 Peter 1

1. Simon Peter, a slave and apostle of Jesus Christ, to those equally precious with us, having obtained faith in (the) righteousness of our God and our Savior, Jesus Christ:
2 Grace to you, and peace be multiplied by a full knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord.

3 As His divine power has given to us all things (pertaining) to life and godliness through the full knowledge of the (One) having called us through glory and virtue,
4 by which means He has given to us the very great and precious promises, so that through these you might be partakers of (the) divine nature, escaping from the corruption in (the) world by lust.
5. But also in this very thing, having brought in all diligence, fully supplying in your faith (with) virtue; and virtue (with) knowledge;
6 and knowledge (with) self-control; and self-control (with) patience; and patience (with) godliness;

7 and godliness (with) brotherly love; and brotherly love (with) love.
8 For these things being in you, and abounding, (they will) make you not idle, not unfruitful in the full knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 For the one in whom these things (are) not present is blind, being shortsighted, taking on forgetfulness of the cleansing of his sins in time past.

THE SECOND GENERAL EPISTLE OF PETER

2 Peter 1

1. Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained like precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ:
2 Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord,

3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that (pertain) unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue:
4 Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

5 And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge;

6 And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness;

7 And to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity.
8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make (you that ye shall) neither (be) barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 But he that lacketh these things is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins.
10 Wherefore

holy. And we have more firm the prophetic Word, in which

12. For this reason I will not neglect to cause you to remember always concerning these things, though (you) know and have been confirmed in the present truth.
13 But I deem (it) right, so long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by a reminder,
14 knowing that the putting off of my tabernacle is soon, as indeed our Lord Jesus Christ made clear to me.
15 And I will also be diligent to cause you always to have memory of these things after my departure.

16. For not having followed fables which had been cleverly devised, we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but having become eyewitnesses of the majesty of that (One).

17 For having received honor and glory from God (the) Father, such a voice having been borne to Him from the magnificent glory, "This is My Son, the Beloved, in whom I found delight," (Matt. 17:5)

18 even we heard this voice having been borne out of Heaven, being with Him in the holy mountain, 19 and we have the more established prophetic word, in which

12. Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know (them), and be established in the present truth.
13 Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting (you) in remembrance;
14 Knowing that shortly I must put off (this) my tabernacle, even as our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me.
15 Moreover I will endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance.

16. For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty.

17 For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in the holy mount.
19 We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto held back the madness of the prophet.

17. These are springs without water, clouds being driven by tempest, for whom the blackness of darkness has been kept to the ages.
18 For speaking overswollen (words) of vanity, by (the) lusts of the flesh, by unbridled lusts, they allure those indeed escaping the ones living in error,

19 promising them freedom, (though) themselves being slaves of corruption, for by whom anyone has been subdued, even to this one he has been enslaved.
20 For if by a full knowledge of the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, (they) have escaped the defilements of the world, and again being entangled (they) have been subdued by these, (then their) last things have become worse (than) the first.
21 For it was better for them not to have fully known the way of righteousness, than fully knowing to turn from the holy commandment delivered to them.

22 But (the) word of the true proverb has happened to them: (The) dog having returned to (his) own vomit; also, (the) sow having been washed to wallowing (in) mud. (Prov. 26:11) forbad the madness of the prophet.

17. These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.
18 For when they speak great swelling (words) of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, (through much) wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error.

19 While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.
20 For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.

21 For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known (it), to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them.

22 But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, The dog (is) turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire.

THE FIRST GENERAL EPISTLE OF JOHN

1 John 1

1. (We announce to you) what was from the beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen with our eyes, what we beheld, and (what) our hands touched, concerning the Word of Life.
2 And the Life was revealed, and we have seen, and we bear witness, and we proclaim to you the everlasting Life which was with the Father, and was revealed to us.

3 We proclaim to you what we have seen, and (what) we have heard, that you also may have fellowship with us. And truly our fellowship (is) with the Father and with His Son, Jesus Christ.

3. And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.
4 He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him.

6 He that saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked.
7 Brethren, I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment which ye had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

8 The (one) practicing sin is of the Devil, because the Devil sins from (the) beginning. For this the Son of God was revealed, that He undo the works of the Devil.
9 Everyone who has been generated of God does not sin, because His seed abides in him, and he is not able to sin, because he has been generated of God.
10 By this

1. Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not.
2 Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.
3. And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

4 Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law.
5 And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin.

6 Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him.

7 Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous.
8 He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.

9 Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.

17 Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.

and practice His commandments.
3 For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments; and His commandments are not heavy.
4 Because everything having been generated of God overcomes the world, and this is the victory overcoming the world, our faith.

5 Who is the (one) overcoming the world except the (one) who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

6. This is the (One) coming through water and blood, Jesus Christ; not by the water only, but by the water and the blood. And the Spirit is the (One) witnessing, because the Spirit is the truth.
7 For there are three bearing witness in Heaven: the Father the Word, and the Holy Spirit; and these three are one.

8 And there are three who bear witness on the earth: The Spirit, and the water, and the blood; and the three are to the one.

9. If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater; because this is the witness of God which He has witnessed about His Son:

10 The (one) believing into the Son of God has the witness in himself. The (one) not believing God has made Him a liar, because he has not believed in the witness which God has witnessed concerning His Son.

and keep his commandments.
3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous.
4 For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, (even) our faith.

5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?

6. This is he that came by water and blood, (even) Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.

7 For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one.

8 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

9. If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God which he hath testified of his Son.

10 He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son.

11 And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.

13. I wrote these things to you, the ones believing in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have everlasting life, and that you may believe in the name of the Son of God.

14 And this is the confidence we have toward Him, that if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us.

14 And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us:

15 And if we know that He hears us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the requests which we have asked from Him.

15 And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

16 If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin not unto death, he shall ask; and He shall give life to him, to the ones not sinning unto death. There is a sin unto death. I do not say that he should ask about that.

16 If any man see his brother sin a sin (which is) not unto death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death: I do not say that he shall pray for it.

17 All unrighteousness is sin, and there is a sin not unto death.

17 All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a sin not unto death.

18. We know that everyone having been generated of God does not sin, but the one generated of God keeps himself, and the evil does not touch him.

18. We know that whosoever is born of God sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not.

19 We know that we are of God, and the whole world lies in evil.

19 (And) we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness.

20 And we know that the Son of God has come, and (He) has given to us an understanding that we may know the true (One), and we are in the true (One), in His Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God and the life everlasting.

20 And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, (even) in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF JOHN

3 John

1. The elder to Gaius the beloved, whom I love in truth.

2 Beloved, in regard to all things, I pray (for) you to do well and to be in health, as your soul does well.
3 For I rejoiced greatly (at the) coming of (the) brothers, also bearing witness of you in the truth, as you walk in truth.
4 I have no greater joy than these things, that I hear my children are walking in truth.

5 Beloved, you do faithfully whatever you work for the brothers and for the strangers,

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF JOHN

3 John

1. The elder unto the well beloved Gaius, whom I love in the truth.

2 Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.
3 For I rejoiced greatly, when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as thou walkest in the truth.
4 I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth.

5 Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatsoever thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers;
6 Which have borne witness of thy charity before the church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey after a godly sort, thou shalt do well:
7 Because that for his name's sake they went forth, taking nothing of the Gentiles.
8 We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellowhelpers to the truth.

9. I wrote unto the church: but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not.
10 Wherefore, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and

THE EPISTLE OF JUDE

Jude

1. Jude, a slave of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to the (ones) called in God the Father, having been set apart, and having been kept to Jesus Christ:
2 mercy and peace and love be multiplied to you.

3 Beloved, making all diligence to write to you about the common salvation, I had need to write to you exhorting (you) to contend earnestly for the faith once delivered to the saints.

4 For certain men stole in , those of old having been written before to this judgment, ungodly ones perverting the grace of God (it) into unbridled lust, and denying the only Master, God, even our Lord Jesus Christ.

5. But I purpose to remind you, you once knowing these things, that the Lord having saved a people out of the land of Egypt, in the second place He destroyed the ones not believing.
6 And those angels not having kept their first place, but having deserted their dwelling-place, He has kept in everlasting chains under darkness for the Judgment of a great day;

7 as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities around them, in like manner to these, committing fornication, and going away after other flesh, set before an example, undergoing vengeance of everlasting fire.
8. Likewise, indeed, also these ,

THE HOLY REVELATION OF JOHN THE DIVINE

Revelation 1

1. A Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave to Him to show to His slaves things which must occur quickly. And He signified (by) sending through His angel to His slave, John,

2 who testified of the Word of God and the witness of Jesus Christ, even as many things as he saw.
3 Blessed (is) the (one) reading, and those hearing the words of this prophecy, and keeping the things having been written; for the time (is) near.

4. John to the seven churches in Asia: Grace to you, and peace, from the (One) who is, and who was, and who (is) coming, and from the seven spirits which are before His throne;

5 even from Jesus Christ the faithful witness, the First-born out of the dead, and the Ruler of the kings of the earth. To Him loving us and washing us from our sins by His blood,

6 and made us kings and priests to God, even His Father. To Him (is) the glory and the might forever and ever. Amen.

7 Behold, He comes with the clouds, and every eye will see Him, and the ones who pierced Him, and all the tribes of the earth will wail on account of Him. Yes, Amen.

THE HOLY REVELATION OF JOHN THE DIVINE

Revelation 1

1. The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified (it) by his angel unto his servant John:

2 Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw.
3 Blessed (is) he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time (is) at hand.

4. John to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace (be) unto you, and peace, from him which is, and which was, and which is to come; and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne;

5 And from Jesus Christ, (who is) the faithful witness, (and) the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood,

6 And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him (be) glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

7 Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they (also) which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.

14 But I have a few things against you, that you have there those holding the teachings of Balaam, who taught Balak to throw a stumbling-block before the sons of Israel, to eat idol sacrifices, and to commit fornication.

14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumbling block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication.

because thou sufferest that woman Jezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

23 And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

24 But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak; I will put upon you none other burden.

25 But that which ye have (already) hold fast till I come.

26 And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations:

27 And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father.

28 And I will give him the morning star.

naked:
18 I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and (that) the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see.

19 As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.
20 Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

21 To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

22 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

Revelation 4

1. After these things I saw. And behold, a door having been opened in Heaven! And I heard the first voice as a trumpet speaking with me, saying, Come up here, and I will show you what must happen after these things.

2 And at once I became in spirit. And, behold! A throne was set in Heaven, and (One) sitting on the throne.
3 And the (One) sitting was in appearance like a jasper stone, and a sardius; and a rainbow was around the throne, in appearance (like) an emerald.

ζῶντι εἰς τοὺς αἰῶνας τῶν αἰώνων.
(the) living One to (the) ages of the ages.

four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each one having harps, and golden bowls full of incenses, which are the prayers of the saints.

four beasts and four (and) twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers of saints.

9 And they sing a new song, saying, Worthy are You to receive the scroll, and to open its seals, because You were slain, and by Your blood purchased us to God out of every tribe and tongue and people and nation,

9 And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation;

10 and made us kings and priests to our God; and we shall reign over the earth.

10 And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.

11 And I saw, and I heard a sound of many angels around the throne, and the living creatures, and the elders, and their number was myriads of myriads, and thousands of thousands,

11 And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands;

12 saying with a great voice, Worthy is the Lamb having been slain to receive the power and riches and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and blessing.

12 Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

13 And every creature which is in Heaven, and in the earth, and underneath the earth, and the things that are on the sea, and the things in all of them, I heard saying: To the (One) sitting on the throne, and to the Lamb, (be) the blessing and the honor and the glory and the might to the ages of the ages..

13 And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, (be) unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.

14 And the four living creatures said, Amen. And the twenty-four elders fell down and worshiped (the) One living to (the) ages of the ages.

14 And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four (and) twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever.

Revelation 6

Literal Translation

Revelation 6

1. And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals. And I heard one of the four living creatures, like a sound of thunder, saying, Come and see.
2. And I saw, and behold, a white horse! And the (one) sitting on it had a bow. And a crown was given to him, and he went out overcoming, and that he might overcome.

3. And when He opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, Come and see.
4. And another horse went out, red. And it was given to the (one) sitting on (it) to take peace from the earth, and that they should slay one another. And a large sword was given to him.

5. And when He opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, Come and see. And I saw, and behold, a black horse, and the (one) sitting on it having a balance in his hand.

6. And I heard a voice in (the) midst of the four living creatures saying, A choenix of wheat (for) a denarius, and three choenixes of barley (for) a denarius; and do not harm the oil and the wine.

7. And when He opened the fourth seal, I heard a voice of the fourth living creature saying, Come and see.
8. And I saw, and behold, a pale green horse, and the name of the (one) sitting on it (was) Death; and Hades followed with him. And authority was given to them to kill over the fourth

4. And there went out another horse (that was) red: and (power) was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

5. And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.

6. And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and (see) thou hurt not the oil and the wine.

7. And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see.
8. And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given unto them over the fourth

12 And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

13 And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabiters of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound!

12 And the fourth angel trumpeted. And the third (part) of the sun, and the third (part) of the moon, and the third (part) of the stars, was struck, that the third (part) of them might be darkened, and the third (part) of the day might not appear; and in the same way the night.

13 And I saw, and I heard one angel flying in mid-heaven, saying with a great voice, Woe! Woe! Woe to those dwelling on the earth, from the rest of (the) voices of the trumpet of the three angels being about to trumpet!

1. And I saw another strong angel coming down out of the heaven, having been clothed with a cloud, and a rainbow on the head; and his face as the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire.

2 And he had in his hand a little scroll having been opened. And he placed his right foot on the sea, and the left on the land,

3 and cried with a great voice, as a lion roars. And when he cried, the seven thunders spoke their voices.

4 And when the seven thunders spoke their voices, I was about to write. And I heard a voice out of Heaven saying to me, Seal what things the seven thunders spoke, and do not write these things.

5 And the angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land lifted his hand to Heaven,

6 and swore by Him living forever and ever, who created the heaven and the things in it, and the earth and the things in it, and the sea and the things in it, that time shall no longer be;

Revelation 10

1. And I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: and a rainbow (was) upon his head, and his face (was) as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire:

2 And he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and (his) left (foot) on the earth,

3 And cried with a loud voice, as (when) a lion roareth: and when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices.

4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

5 And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his hand to heaven,

6 And sware by him that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, that there should be time no longer:

7 But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he proclaimed to His slaves, the prophets.

8. And the voice which I heard out of Heaven was again speaking to me, and saying, Go, take the little scroll having been opened in the hand of the angel standing on the sea and on the land.

9 And I went away toward the angel, saying to him, Give the little scroll to me. And he said to me, Take and eat it up, and it will make your belly bitter, but it will be sweet as honey in your mouth.

10 And I took the little scroll out of the angel's hand, and ate it. And it was sweet like honey in my mouth; and when I ate it, my belly was made bitter.

11 And he said to me, You must again prophesy as to peoples and nations and tongues and many kings.

12 And it executes all the authority of the first beast before it. And it causes that the earth and those dwelling in it should worship the first beast, of which was healed its deadly wound.

13 And it does great signs, that even fire it causes to come down out of the heaven onto the earth before men.

14 And it deceives those dwelling on the earth, because of the signs which were given to it to do before the beast, saying to those dwelling on the earth to make an image to the beast who has the wound of the sword, and lived.

15 And was given to it to give a spirit to the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast might even speak, and might cause as many as would not worship the image of the beast to be killed.

16 And the small and the great, and the rich and the poor, and the freemen and the slaves, it causes that they give to them all a mark on their right hand, or on their foreheads,

11. And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.
12 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men,

14 And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by (the means of) those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live.

15 And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.

16 And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:

17 And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

8 And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

9 And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive (his) mark in his forehead, or in his hand,

10 The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:

11 And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.

12 Here is the patience of the saints: here (are) they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.

13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed (are) the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours;

1. And I saw another sign in Heaven, great and marvelous: seven angels having the last seven plagues, because the anger of God was completed in them.

2 And I saw, as a glassy sea having been mixed with fire. And the (ones) overcoming the beast, and its image, and its mark, of the number of its name, (were) standing on the glassy sea, having harps of God.

3 And they sing the song of Moses the slave of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvelous (are) Your works, Lord God Almighty, righteous and true (are) Your ways, the King of the saints.

4 Who (will) not at all fear You, Lord, and glorify Your name? Because (You) only (are) holy. Because all the nations will come and will worship before You, because Your righteousnesses were revealed.

5. And after these things I saw; and behold! The temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in Heaven was opened!

6 And the seven angels having the seven plagues came forth out of the temple, having been clothed in clean and bright linen, and golden bands having been girded around the breasts.

7 And one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls filled (with) the anger of God living to the ages of the ages.

Revelation 21

1. And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.

2 And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God (is) with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, (and be) their God.

4 And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are pass-ed away.

5 And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold,

Literal Translation

And another Scroll was opened, (which is) the (Scroll) of Life. And the dead were judged out of the things having been written in the scrolls, according to their works.

13 And the sea gave up the dead in it. And death and Hades gave up the dead in them. And they were each judged according to their works.

14 And death and Hades were thrown into the Lake of Fire. This is the second death.

15 And if anyone was not found having been written in the Scroll of Life, he was thrown into the Lake of Fire.

Revelation 22

1. And he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.

2 In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, (was there) the tree of life, which bare twelve (manner of) fruits, (and) yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree (were) for the healing of the nations.

3 And there shall be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve

4 And they will see His face; and His name (will be) on their foreheads.

5 And night will not be there; and they have no need of a lamp (or) a light of the sun, because the Lord God will enlighten them. And they shall reign to the ages of the ages..

6. And he said to me, These words (are) faithful and true. And the Lord God of the holy prophets sent His angel to show His slaves what must happen quickly.

7 Behold, I am coming quickly. Blessed (is) the (one) keeping the words of the prophecy of this Scroll.

8 And I, John, (was) the (one) seeing and hearing these things. And when I heard and saw, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel showing me these things.
9 And he says to me, See, do not (do it)! For I am your fellow-slave, and of your brothers the prophets, and of the ones keeping the words of this Book. Do worship to God.

10 And he said to me, Do not seal the words of the prophecy of this Scroll, because the time is near.
11 The one acting unjustly, let him still act unjustly; and the filthy, let him still be filthy; and the righteous, let him still do righteousness; and the (one) holy, let him still be holy.
