IN THE BEGINNING GOD created the heaven and the earth. And 1,2 the earth was without form and void; and darkness was on the face of the deep. And a wind from GOD moved over the surface of the waters. And GOD said, Let there be light: and 3 there was light. And GOD saw the light, that it was good: and 4 GOD divided the light from the darkness. And GOD called the 5 light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, one day.
And GOD said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the 6 waters, and let it divide water from water. And GOD made the 7 firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament: and it 8 was so. And GOD called the firmament Heaven. And there was evening and there was morning, a second day.
And GOD said, Let the waters under the heaven be gathered 9 together to one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so.
And GOD called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together 10 of the waters he called Seas: and GOD saw that it was good.
And GOD said, Let the earth bring forth grass, herb yielding seed, 11 and fruit tree yielding fruit after its kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth: and it was so. And the earth brought 12 forth grass, herb yielding seed after its kind, and tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after its kind: and GOD saw that it was good. And there was evening and there was morning, 13 a third day.
And GOD said, Let there be lights in the firmament of heaven 14 to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years: and let them be for lights 15 in the firmament of heaven to give light upon the earth: and it was so. And GOD made the two great lights; the greater light to 16 rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: and the stars also. And GOD set them in the firmament of heaven to give light 17 upon the earth, and to rule over the day and over the night, and 18 to divide the light from the darkness: and GOD saw that it was good. And there was evening and there was morning, a fourth 19 day.
And GOD said, Let the waters swarm abundantly with moving 20 creatures that have life, and let birds fly above the earth in the open firmament of heaven. And GOD created the great crocodiles, 21 and every living creature that moves, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged bird after its kind: and GOD saw that it was good. And GOD blessed them, 22 saying, Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply in the earth. And there was evening and 23 there was morning, a fifth day.
And GOD said, Let the earth bring forth living creatures after 24 their kind, cattle, and creeping things, and beasts of the earth after their kind: and it was so. And GOD made the beasts of the 25 earth after their kind, and cattle after their kind, and everything that creeps on the earth after its kind: and GOD saw that it was good. And GOD said, Let us make Mankind in our image, after 26 our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth. So GOD created Mankind in his own image, in the image of 27 GOD he created him; male and female he created them. And 28

GOD blessed them, and GOD said to them, Be fruitful, and multiply, replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over every living thing that moves on the earth. And GOD said, Behold 29
I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, on which is the fruit yielding seed; to you it shall be for food. And to every beast of the earth, 30 and to every bird of the air, and to everything that creeps on the earth, wherein there is life, I have given every green herb for food: and it was so. And GOD saw everything that he had made, 31 and, behold, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all their 2 host. And by the seventh day GOD ended his work which he 2 had done; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had done. And GOD blessed the seventh day, and sanc- 3 tified it: because in it he rested from all his work which GOD had created and performed.

These are the generations of the heaven and of the earth when 4 they were created, in the day that the LORD GOD made the earth and the heavens. And no plant of the field was yet in the earth, 5 and no herb of the field had yet grown: for the LORD GOD had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was not a man to till the ground. But there went up a mist from the earth, and 6 watered the whole face of the ground. And the LORD GOD formed 7 man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul. And the LORD 8 GOD planted a garden eastward in 'Eden; and there he put the 9 man whom he had formed. And out of the ground the LORD GOD made to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food; the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. And a river went out of 10
'Eden to water the garden; and from thence it was parted, and branched into four streams. The name of the first is Pishon: 11 that it is which compasses the whole land of Ḥavila, where 12 there is gold; and the gold of that land is good: there is bdellium and the shoham stone. And the name of the second river is 13 Giḥon: it compasses the whole land of Kush. And the name of 14 the third river is Ḥiddeqel: that is it which goes toward the east of Ashshur. And the fourth river is Perat. And the LORD GOD 15 took the man, and put him into the garden of 'Eden to till it and to keep it. And the LORD GOD commanded the man, saying, 16
Of every tree of the garden thou mayst freely eat: but of the 17 tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for on the day that thou eatest of it thou shalt surely die. And 18 the LORD GOD said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a help to match him. And out of the ground 19 the LORD GOD formed every beast of the field, and every bird of the air; and brought them to the man to see what he would call them: and whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name. And the man gave names to all cattle, and 20 to the birds of the air, and to every beast of the field; but for the man there was not found a help to match him. And the LORD 21 GOD caused a deep sleep to fall upon the man, and he slept: and he took one of his sides, and closed up the flesh in its place, and 22 of the side, which the LORD GOD had taken from the man, he made a woman, and brought her to the man. And the man said, 23

This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man. That is 24 why a man leaves his father and his mother, and cleaves to his wife: and they become one flesh. And they were both naked, 25 the man and his wife, and they felt no shame. Now the serpent 3 was craftier than all the beasts of the field which the LORD GOD had made. And he said to the woman, Has GOD said, You shall not eat of any tree of the garden? And the woman said to the 2 serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden: but 3 of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, GOD has said, You shall not eat of it, neither shall you touch it, lest you die. And the serpent said to the woman, You shall not surely 4 die: for GOD knows that on the day you eat of it, then your 5 eyes shall be opened, and you shall be as gods, knowing good and evil. And when the woman saw that the tree was good for 6 food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of its fruit, and did eat, and gave also to her husband with her; and he did eat. And the eyes 7 of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves loincloths. And they heard the voice of the LORD GOD walking 8 in the garden in the breeze of the day: and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD GOD amongst the trees of the garden. And the LORD GOD called to the man, 9 and said to him, Where art thou? And he said, I heard thy voice 10 in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself. And he said, Who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast 11 thou eaten of the tree, of which I commanded thee that thou shouldst not eat? And the man said, The woman whom thou 12 didst give to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat.
And the LORD GOD said to the woman, What is this that thou 13 hast done? And the woman said, The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat. And the LORD GOD said to the serpent, Because thou 14 hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field; upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life: and I will put enmity between 15 thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel. Unto the 16 woman he said, I will greatly multiply the pain of thy childbearing; in sorrow thou shalt bring forth children; and yet thy desire shall be to thy husband, and he shall rule over thee. And to the man he said, Because thou hast heark- 17 ened to the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree, of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it:
cursed is the ground for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life; thorns also and thistles shall it bring 18 forth to thee; and thou shalt eat the herb of the field; in the 19 sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return to the ground; for out of it wast thou taken: for dust thou art, and to dust shalt thou return. And the man called his wife's name 20 Ḥavva; because she was the mother of all living (Ḥay). For 21 the man also and for his wife did the LORD GOD make coats of skins, and clothed them.

And the LORD GOD said, Behold, the man is become like one of 22 us, knowing good and evil: and now, what if he put forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life, and eating, live for ever: therefore the LORD GOD sent him out of the garden of 'Eden, to 23 till the ground from whence he was taken. So he drove out the 24 man; and he placed the keruvim at the east of the garden of 'Eden, and the bright blade of a revolving sword to guard the way to the tree of life. And the man knew Ḥavva his wife; 4 and she conceived, and bore Qayin saying, I have acquired a manchild from the LORD. And she again bore, his brother Hevel. 2 And Hevel was a keeper of sheep, but Qayin was a tiller of the ground. And in process of time it came to pass, that Qayin 3 brought of the fruit of the ground an offering to the LORD. And 4 Hevel, he also brought of the firstlings of his flock and of the fat parts thereof. And the LORD had respect to Hevel and to his offering: but to Qayin and to his offering he had not respect. 5 And Qayin was very angry, and his face fell. And the LORD said 6 to Qayin, Why art thou angry? and why art thou crestfallen?
If thou doest well, shalt thou not be accepted? and if thou doest 7 not well, sin crouches at the door, and to thee shall be his desire.
Yet thou mayst rule over him. And Qayin talked with Hevel his 8 brother: and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Qayin rose up against Hevel his brother, and slew him. And the 9
LORD said to Qayin, Where is Hevel thy brother? And he said, I know not: am I my brother's keeper? And he said, What hast 10 thou done? the voice of thy brother's blood cries to me from the ground. And now cursed art thou from the earth, which has 11 opened her mouth to receive thy brother's blood from thy hand; when thou tillest the ground, it shall not henceforth yield to 12 thee her strength; a fugitive and a vagabond shalt thou be on the earth. And Qayin said to the LORD, My punishment is greater 13 than I can bear. Behold, thou hast driven me out this day from 14 the face of the earth; and from thy face I shall be hid; and I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond in the earth; and it shall come to pass, that anyone that finds me shall slay me. And the LORD 15 said to him, Therefore whoever slays Qayin, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold. And the LORD set a mark upon Qayin, lest any finding him should smite him. And Qayin went out 16 from the presence of the LORD, and dwelt in the land of Nod, to the east of 'Eden. And Qayin knew his wife; and she con- 17 ceived, and bore Ḥanokh: and he built a city, and called the name of the city, after the name of his son, Ḥanokh. And to 18 Ḥanokh was born 'Irad: and 'Irad begot Meḥuya'el: and Me-ḥiyya'el begot Metusha'el: and Metusha'el begot Lemekh. And 19 Lemekh took to him two wives: the name of the one was 'Ada, and the name of the other Ẓilla. And 'Ada bore Yaval: he was 20

And his brother's name was Yuval: he was the father of all such 21 as handle the lyre and pipe. And Zilla, she also bore Tuval- 22 qayin, forger of every sharp instrument in brass and iron: and the sister of Tuval-qayin was Na'ama. And Lemekh said to his 23 wives, 'Ada and Zilla, Hear my voice; wives of Lemekh, hearken to my speech: for I have slain a man for wounding me, and a young man for my hurt. If Qayin shall be avenged sevenfold, 24 truly Lemekh seventy and sevenfold. And Adam (Man) knew his 25 wife again; and she bore a son, and called his name Shet: For GOD, said she, has appointed me another seed instead of Hevel whom Qayin slew. And to Shet, to him also there was born a 26 son; and he called his name Enosh: then men began to call upon the LORD by name. This is the book of the genera- 5 tions of Adam (Man). In the day that GOD created mankind, in the likeness of God he made him; male and female he created 2 them; and blessed them, and called their name Man, in the day when they were created. And Adam lived a hundred and thirty 3 years, and begot a son in his own likeness, after his image; and called his name Shet: and the days of Adam after he had 4 begotten Shet were eight hundred years: and he begot sons and daughters: and all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred 5 and thirty years: and he died. And Shet lived a hundred 6 and five years, and begot Enosh: and Shet lived after he begot 7 Enosh eight hundred and seven years, and begot sons and daughters: and all the days of Shet were nine hundred and 8 twelve years: and he died. And Enosh lived ninety years, 9 and begot Qenan: and Enosh lived after he begot Qenan eight 10 hundred and fifteen years, and begot sons and daughters: and 11 all the days of Enosh were nine hundred and five years: and he died. And Qenan lived seventy years, and begot Ma- 12 halal'el: and Qenan lived after he begot Mahalal'el eight hun- 13 dred and forty years, and begot sons and daughters: and all 14 the days of Qenan were nine hundred and ten years: and he died. And Mahalal'el lived sixty five years, and begot 15 Yered: and Mahalal'el lived after he begot Yered eight hundred 16 and thirty years, and he begot sons and daughters: and all the 17 days of Mahalal'el were eight hundred and ninety five years: and he died. And Yered lived a hundred and sixty two 18 years, and he begot Ḥanokh: and Yered lived after he begot 19 Ḥanokh eight hundred years, and begot sons and daughters: and all the days of Yered were nine hundred and sixty two years: 20 and he died. And Ḥanokh lived sixty five years, and begot 21 Metushelaḥ: and Ḥanokh walked with GOD after he begot Me- 22 years: and Ḥanokh walked with God: and he was not; for 24 God took him. And Metushelaḥ lived a hundred and eighty 25 seven years, and begot Lemekh: and Metushelaḥ lived after he 26 begot Lemekh seven hundred and eighty two years, and begot sons and daughters: and all the days of Metushelaḥ were nine 27 hundred and sixty nine years: and he died. And Lemekh 28 lived a hundred and eighty two years, and begot a son: and he 29 called his name Noaḥ, saying, This one shall comfort us for our work and the toil of our hands, because of the ground which the LORD has cursed. And Lemekh lived after he begot Noaḥ five 30 hundred and ninety five years, and begot sons and daughters: and all the days of Lemekh were seven hundred and seventy 31 seven years: and he died. And Noaḥ was five hundred 32 years old: and Noaḥ begot Shem, Ḥam, and Yefet. And it came 6 to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born to them, that the distinguished men* saw 2 that the daughters of men were fair; and they took them wives of all whom they chose. And the LORD said, My spirit shall not al- 3 ways strive on account of man, for that he also is flesh: and his days shall be a hundred and twenty years. There were Nefilim in the 4 earth in those days; and also after that, when the distinguished men* came in to the daughters of men, and they bore children to them; the same were mighty men of old, men of renown.

And the LORD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the 5 earth, and that all the impulse of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. And the LORD repented that he had made 6 man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart. And the LORD 7 said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth: both man, and beast, and creeping things, and the birds of the air; for I repent that I have made them. But Noaḥ 8 found favour in the eyes of the LORD.

NOAḤ These are the generations of Noaḥ: Noaḥ was a just man and 9 perfect in his generations, and Noaḥ walked with God. And Noaḥ 10 begot three sons, Shem, Ḥam, and Yefet. The earth also was 11 corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence. And 12 God looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted its way upon the earth. And God said 13 to Noaḥ, The end of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is filled with violence through them; and, behold, I will destroy them with the earth. Make thee an ark of gofer wood; rooms 14 shalt thou make in the ark, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch. And this is the fashion of which thou shalt make it: 15 the length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits, the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits. A window 16 shalt thou make to the ark, and to a cubit shalt thou finish it above; and the door of the ark shalt thou set in its side; with lower, second, and third stories shalt thou make it. And, behold, 17

I will bring the flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, in which is the breath of life, from under heaven; and every thing that is on the earth shall die. But with thee will I establish 18 my covenant; and thou shalt come into the ark, thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy sons' wives with thee. And of every 19 living thing of all flesh, two of every sort shalt thou bring into the ark, to keep them alive with thee; they shall be male and female. Of birds after their kind, and of cattle after their kind, 20 of every creeping thing of the earth after its kind, two of every sort shall come to thee, to keep them alive. And take thou to 21 thee of all food that is eaten, and gather it to thee; and it shall be for food for thee, and for them. So Noaḥ did according to all 22 that GOD commanded him; thus he did. And the LORD said to 7 Noaḥ, Come thou and all thy house into the ark; for thee have I seen righteous before me in this generation. Of every clean 2 beast thou shalt take to thee by sevens, male and female: and of beasts that are not clean by twos, male and female. Of birds 3 of the air, also by sevens, the male and the female; to keep seed alive upon the face of all the earth. For in another seven days, 4
I will cause it to rain upon the earth forty days and forty nights; and every living substance that I have made will I destroy from off the face of the earth. And Noaḥ did according 5 to all that the LORD commanded him. And Noaḥ was six hundred 6 years old when the flood of waters was upon the earth. And 7 Noaḥ went in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him, into the ark, because of the waters of the flood. Of 8 clean beasts, and of beasts that are not clean, and of birds and of everything that creeps upon the earth, there went in two and 9 two to Noaḥ into the ark, male and female, as God had commanded Noaḥ. And it came to pass after seven days, that the 10 waters of the flood were upon the earth. In the six hundredth 11 year of Noaḥ's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, on that same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken open, and the windows of heaven were opened. And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights. 12
In the selfsame day Noaḥ, and Shem, and Ḥam, and Yefet, the 13 sons of Noaḥ, and Noaḥ's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, entered into the ark; they, and every beast after 14 its kind, and all the cattle after their kind, and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth after its kind, and every bird after its kind, every bird of every sort. And they went in to Noaḥ 15 into the ark, two and two of all flesh in which is the breath of life. And they that went in, went in male and female of all flesh, 16 as GOD had commanded him: and the LORD shut him in. And 17 the flood was forty days upon the earth; and the waters increased, and bore up the ark, and it was raised above the earth. And the waters prevailed, and were increased greatly upon the 18 earth; and the ark went upon the face of the waters. And the wa- 19 tains, that were under the whole heaven, were covered. Fifteen 20 cubits upward did the waters prevail; and the mountains were covered. And all flesh perished that moved upon the earth, both 21 of birds, and of cattle, and of beasts, and of every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth, and all mankind: all in whose nos- 22 trils was the breath of life, of all that was on the dry land, died.

And he destroyed every living substance which was upon the 23 face of the ground, both man, and cattle, and creeping things, and the birds of the heaven; they were destroyed from the earth:
and Noaḥ only remained alive, and they that were with him in the ark. And the waters prevailed upon the earth a hundred and 24 fifty days. And GOD remembered Noaḥ, and every living thing, 8 and all the cattle that was with him in the ark: and GOD made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters were assuaged; the fountains also of the deep and the windows of heaven were 2 stopped, and the rain from heaven was restrained; and the 3 waters receded from the earth continually: and after the end of a hundred and fifty days the waters were abated. And the 4 ark rested in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, upon the mountains of Ararat. And the waters decreased 5 continually until the tenth month: in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, were the tops of the mountains seen. And 6 it came to pass at the end of forty days, that Noaḥ opened the window of the ark which he had made: and he sent forth the 7 raven, which went forth to and fro, until the waters were dried up from off the earth. Also he sent forth the dove from him, to 8 see if the waters were abated from the face of the ground; but the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she 9 returned to him into the ark, for the waters were on the face of the whole earth: then he put out his hand, and took her, and pulled her in to him into the ark. And he waited yet another 10 seven days; and again he sent forth the dove out of the ark; and 11 the dove came in to him in the evening; and, lo, in her mouth was an olive leaf plucked off: so Noaḥ knew that the waters were abated from off the earth. And he waited yet another seven 12 days; and sent forth the dove; which returned not again to him any more. And it came to pass in the six hundred and first year, 13 in the first month on the first day of the month, that the waters were dried up from off the earth: and Noaḥ removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and, behold, the face of the ground was dry. And in the second month, on the twenty- 14 seventh day of the month, was the earth dried. And GOD 15 spoke to Noaḥ, saying, Go out of the ark, thou, and thy wife, 16 and thy sons, and thy sons' wives with thee. Bring out with 17 thee every living thing that is with thee, of all flesh, both of birds, and of cattle, and of every creeping thing that creeps on the earth; that they may breed abundantly on the earth, and be fruitful, and multiply upon the earth. And Noaḥ went out, 18 and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him: every 19 beast, every creeping thing, and every bird, and whatever creeps on the earth, after their kinds, went out of the ark. And Noaḥ 20 built an altar to the LORD; and took of every clean beast, and of every clean bird, and offered burnt offerings on the altar. And 21 the LORD smelled the sweet savour; and the LORD said in his heart, I will not again curse the ground any more for man's sake; for the impulse of man's heart is evil from his youth; neither will I again smite any more everything living, as I have done. While the earth remains, seed time and harvest, and cold 22 and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease. And GOD blessed Noaḥ and his sons, and said to them, Be 9 fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth. And the fear of 2 you and the dread of you shall be upon every beast of the earth, and upon every bird of the air, upon all that moves upon the earth, and upon all the fishes of the sea; into your hand are they delivered. Every moving thing that lives shall be food for you; 3 even as the green herb have I given you all things. But flesh with 4 its life, which is its blood, you shall not eat. And surely your 5 blood of your lives will I require; at the hand of every beast will I require it, and at the hand of man; at the hand of every man's brother will I require the life of man. Whoso sheds man's 6 blood by man shall his blood be shed: for in the image of GOD made he man. And as for you, be fruitful, and multiply; bring 7 forth abundantly in the earth, and multiply in it. And GOD 8 spoke to Noaḥ, and to his sons with him, saying, And behold, I 9 establish my covenant with you, and with your seed after you; and with every living creature that is with you, of the birds, of 10 the cattle, and of every beast of the earth with you; from all that came out of the ark, to every beast of the earth. And I will 11 establish my covenant with you; neither shall all flesh be cut off any more by the waters of the flood; neither shall there any more be a flood to destroy the earth. And GOD said, This is the 12 token of the covenant which I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations: 13

I have set my bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a token of a covenant between me and the earth. And it shall come to pass, 14 when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the bow shall be seen in the cloud: and I will remember my covenant, which is between 15 me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and the waters shall no more become a flood to destroy all flesh. And the bow 16 shall be in the cloud; and I will look upon it, that I may remember the everlasting covenant between GOD and every living creature of all flesh that is upon the earth. And GOD said to Noaḥ, 17
This is the token of the covenant, which I have established between me and all flesh that is upon the earth.

And the sons of Noaḥ, that went out of the ark, were Shem, 18 and Ḥam, and Yefet: and Ḥam is the father of Kena'an. These 19 are the three sons of Noaḥ: and of them was the whole earth overspread. And Noaḥ began to be a husbandman, and he plant- 20 ed a vineyard: and he drank of the wine, and was drunk; 21 and he was uncovered within his tent. And Ḥam, the father of 22 Kena'an saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brethren outside. And Shem and Yefet took the garment, and 23 laid it upon both their shoulders, and went backward, and covered the nakedness of their father; and their faces were backward, and they saw not their father's nakedness. And Noaḥ 24 awoke from his wine, and knew what his younger son had done to him. And he said, Cursed be Kena'an; a servant of servants 25 shall he be to his brethren. And he said, Blessed be the LORD 26 GOD of Shem; and Kena'an shall be his servant. GOD shall en- 27 large Yefet, and he shall dwell in the tents of Shem; and Kena'an shall be his servant. And Noaḥ lived after the flood three hundred 28 and fifty years. And all the days of Noaḥ were nine hundred 29 and fifty years: and he died.

Now these are the generations of the sons of Noaḥ: Shem, Ḥam, 10 and Yefet; and to them were sons born after the flood. The 2 sons of Yefet; Gomer, and Magog, and Maday, and Yavan, and Tuval, and Meshekh, and Tiras. And the sons of Gomer; Ash- 3 kenaz, and Rifat, and Togarma. And the sons of Yavan; Elisha, 4 and Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim. By these were the isles of 5 the nations divided in their lands; everyone after his tongue, after their families, in their nations. And the sons of Ḥam; Kush, 6 and Miẓrayim, and Put, and Kena'an. And the sons of Kush; 7 Seva, and Ḥavila, and Savta, and Ra'ma, and Savtekha, and the sons of Ra'ma; Sheva, and Dedan. And Kush begot Nimrod: he 8 began to be a mighty one in the earth. He was a mighty hunter 9 before the LORD: wherefore it is said, Like Nimrod the mighty hunter before the LORD. And the beginning of his kingdom was 10 Bavel, and Erekh, and Akkad, and Kalne, in the land of Shin'ar.
Out of that land went forth Ashshur, and built Nineve, and the 11 city Reḥovot, and Kelaḥ. And Resen between Nineve and Kelaḥ: 12 that is a great city. And Miẓrayim begot Ludim, and 'Anamim, 13 and Lehavim and Naftuḥim. And Patrusim, and Kasluḥim, (out 14 of whom came Pelishtim) and Kaftorim. And Kena'an 15 begot Ẓidon his firstborn, and Ḥet, and the Yevusi, and the 16 Emori, and the Girgashi. And the Ḥivvi, and the 'Arqi, and the 17 Sini, and the Arvadi, and the Ẓemari, and the Ḥamati: and after- 18 wards the families of the Kena'ani were spread abroad. And the 19 border of the Kena'ani was from Ẓidon, as thou comest to Gerar, unto 'Azza; as thou goest to Sedom, and 'Amora, and Adma, and Ẓevoyim, unto Lesha. These are the sons of Ḥam, after their 20 families, after their tongues, in their lands, in their nations. To Shem also, the father of all the children of 21
'Ever, the brother of Yefet the elder, to him were children born.
The children of Shem; 'Elam, and Ashshur, and Arpakhshad, and 22
Lud, and Aram. And the children of Aram; 'Uẓ, and Ḥul, and 23 Geter, and Mash. And Arpakhshad begot Shelaḥ, and Shelaḥ 24 begot 'Ever. And to 'Ever were born two sons: the name of 25 one was Peleg; for in his days was the earth divided; and his brother's name was Yoqtan. And Yoqtan begot Almodad, and 26 Shelef, and Ḥaẓarmavet, and Yeraḥ, and Hadoram, and Uzal, 27 and Diqla, and 'Oval, and Avima'el, and Sheva, and Ofir, and 28,29 Ḥavila, and Yovav: all these were the sons of Yoqtan. And their 30 dwelling was from Mesha, as thou goest to Sefar a mountain of the east. These are the sons of Shem, after their families, after 31 their tongues, in their lands, after their nations. These are the 32 families of the sons of Noaḥ, after their generations, in their nations: and from these were the nations divided in the earth after the flood.

And the whole earth was of one language, and of one speech. 1
And it came to pass, as they journeyed from the east, that they 2 found a plain in the land of Shin'ar; and they dwelt there. And 3 they said to one another, Come, let us make bricks, and burn them thoroughly. And they had brick for stone, and slime had they for mortar. And they said, Come, let us build us a city and 4 a tower, whose top may reach to heaven; and let us make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth. And the LORD came down to see the city and the tower, 5 which the children of men were building. And the LORD said, 6 Behold, the people is one, and they have all one language; and this they begin to do: and now nothing will be withheld from them, which they have schemed to do. Come, let us go down, 7 and there confound their language, that they may not understand one another's speech. So the LORD scattered them abroad from 8 there upon the face of all the earth: and they ceased to build the city. Therefore is the name of it called Bavel; because the 9 LORD did there confound the language of all the earth: and from thence did the LORD scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth.

These are the generations of Shem: Shem was a hundred years 10 old, and begot Arpakhshad two years after the flood: and Shem 11 lived after he begot Arpakhshad five hundred years, and begot sons and daughters. And Arpakhshad lived thirty five 12 years, and begot Shelaḥ. And Arpakhshad lived after he begot 13 Shelaḥ four hundred and three years, and begot sons and daughters. And Shelaḥ lived thirty years, and begot 'Ever: 14 and Shelaḥ lived after he begot 'Ever four hundred and three 15 years, and begot sons and daughters. And 'Ever lived 16 thirty four years, and begot Peleg: and 'Ever lived after he begot 17 Peleg four hundred and thirty years, and begot sons and daughters. And Peleg lived thirty years, and begot Re'u: and 18 Peleg lived after he begot Re'u two hundred and nine years, 19 and begot sons and daughters. And Re'u lived thirty two 20 years, and begot Serug: and Re'u lived after he begot Serug 21 two hundred and seven years, and begot sons and daughters.
And Serug lived thirty years, and begot Naḥor: and 22 Serug lived after he begot Naḥor two hundred years, and be- 23 got sons and daughters. And Naḥor lived twenty nine 24 years, and begot Teraḥ: and Naḥor lived after he begot Teraḥ 25 a hundred and nineteen years, and begot sons and daughters.
And Teraḥ lived seventy years, and begot Avram, Naḥor, 26 and Haran. Now these are the generations of Teraḥ: Teraḥ 27 begot Avram, Naḥor, and Haran; and Haran begot Lot. And 28 Haran died before his father Teraḥ in the land of his nativity, in Ur-kasdim. And Avram and Naḥor took wives for themselves; 29 the name of Avram's wife was Saray; and the name of Naḥor's wife, Milka, the daughter of Haran, the father of Milka, and the father of Yiska. But Saray was barren; she had no child. 30 And Teraḥ took Avram his son, and Lot the son of Haran his son's son, and Saray his daughter in law, his son Avram's wife; and they went out with them from Ur-kasdim, to go into the land of Kena'an; and they came to Ḥaran, and dwelt there. And 32 the days of Teraḥ were two hundred and five years: and Teraḥ died in Ḥaran.

LEKH-LEKHA Now the LORD said to Avram, Get thee out of thy country, and 12 from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, to the land that I will show thee: and I will make of thee a great nation, and I 2 will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing: and I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him 3 that curses thee: and in thee shall all the families of the earth be blessed. So Avram departed, as the LORD had spoken to him; 4 and Lot went with him: and Avram was seventy five years old when he departed out of Ḥaran. And Avram took Saray his wife, 5 and Lot his brother's son, and all their substance that they had gathered, and the souls that they had acquired in Ḥaran; and they went forth to go to the land of Kena'an; and into the land of Kena'an they came. And Avram passed through the land to 6 the place of Shekhem unto the terebinth of More. And the Kena'ani was then in the land. And the LORD appeared to Avram, 7 and said, To thy seed will I give this land: and there he built an altar to the LORD, who had appeared to him. And he removed 8 from there to a mountain on the east of Bet-el, and pitched his tent, having Bet-el on the west, and 'Ay on the east: and there he built an altar to the LORD, and called upon the name of the LORD. And Avram journeyed, going on still toward the 9 Negev.
And there was famine in the land: and Avram went down to 10 Miẓrayim to sojourn there; for the famine was severe in the land. And it came to pass, when he was come near to enter to 11 Miẓrayim that he said to Saray his wife, Behold now, I know that thou art a fair woman to look upon: therefore it shall come 12 to pass, when the Miẓrim shall see thee, that they shall say, This is his wife: and they will kill me, but they will save thee alive. 13 Say, I pray thee, thou art my sister: that it may be well with me for thy sake; and my soul shall live because of thee. And it came 14 to pass, that, when Avram was come to Miẓrayim, the Miẓrim beheld the woman that she was very fair. The princes also of 15 Par'o saw her, and commended her before Par'o: and the woman was taken into Par'o's house. And he treated Avram well for her 16 sake: and he had sheep, and oxen, and he asses, and men-servants, and maidservants, and she asses, and camels. And the 17 LORD plagued Par'o and his house with great plagues because of Saray, Avram's wife. And Par'o called Avram, and said, What 18 is this that thou hast done to me? why didst thou not tell me that she was thy wife? Why didst thou say, She is my sister? so 19 I might have taken her to me to wife: now therefore behold thy wife, take her, and go thy way. And Par'o commanded his men 20 concerning him: and they sent him away, and his wife, and all that he had. And Avram went up out of Miẓrayim, he, and his 1 wife, and all that he had, and Lot with him, into the Negev. And 2 Avram was very rich in cattle, in silver, and in gold. And he went 3 on his journeys from the Negev even to Bet-el, to the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Bet-el and 'Ay; to the place of the altar, which he had made there at the 4 first: and there Avram called on the name of the LORD. And Lot 5 also, who went with Avram, had flocks, and herds, and tents.

And the land was not able to bear them, that they might dwell 6 together: for their substance was great, so that they could not dwell together. And there was a strife between the herdmen of 7 Avram's cattle and the herdmen of Lot's cattle: and the Ken'aani and the Perizzi dwelt then in the land. And Avram said to 8 Lot, Let there be no strife, I pray thee, between me and thee, and between my herdmen and thy herdmen; for we are brethren.
Is not the whole land before thee? separate thyself, I pray thee, 9 from me: if thou wilt take the left hand, then I will go to the right; or if thou depart to the right hand, then I will go to the left. And Lot lifted up his eyes, and beheld all the plain of the 10 Yarden, that it was well watered everywhere, before the LORD destroyed Sedom and 'Amora, like the garden of the LORD, like the land of Miẓrayim, as thou comest to Ẓo'ar. Then Lot chose 11 him all the plain of the Yarden; and Lot journeyed east; and they separated themselves one from the other. Avram dwelt in 12 the land of Kena'an, and Lot dwelt in the cities of the plain, and pitched his tent toward Sedom. But the men of Sedom were 13 wicked and sinners before the LORD exceedingly. And the LORD 14 said to Avram, after Lot was separated from him, Lift up now thy eyes, and look from the place where thou art, northward, and southward, and eastward, and westward; for all the land which 15 thou seest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed for ever. And I 16 will make thy seed as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy seed also be numbered. Arise, walk through the land in the length of it and in 17 the breadth of it; for I will give it to thee. Then Avram removed 18 his tent, and came and dwelt by the terebinths of Mamre, which is in Ḥevron, and built there an altar to the LORD.

And it came to pass in the days of Amraf el king of Shin'ar, 14
Aryokh king of Ellasar, Kedorla'omer king of 'Elam, and Tid'al king of Goyim, that these made war with Bera king of Sedom, 2 and with Birsha king of 'Amora, Shin'av, king of Adma, and Shem'ever, king of Ẓevoyim, and the king of Bela which is 3 Ẓo'ar. All these were joined together in the vale of Siddim, 4 which is the salt sea. Twelve years they served Kedorla'omer, 5 and in the thirteenth year they rebelled. And in the fourteenth year came Kedorla'omer, and the kings that were with him and smote the Refa'im in 'Ashterot-qarnayim, and the Zuzim in Ham, and the Emim in Shave-qiryatayim, and the Ḥori 6 in their mount Se'ir, unto El-paran, which is by the wilderness. And they returned, and came to 'En-mishpat, which is 7 Qadesh, and smote all the country of the 'Amaleqi, and also the Emori, that dwelt in Ḥaẓaẓon-tamar. And there went 8 out the king of Sedom, and the king of 'Amora, and the king of Adma, and the king of Ẓevoyim, and the king of Bela (the same is Ẓo'ar;) and they joined battle with them in the vale of Siddim; with Kedorla'omer the king of 'Elam, and with 9 Tid'al, king of Goyim, and Amrafel, king of Shin'ar, and Aryokh, king of Ellasar; four kings against five. And the vale of Siddim 10 was full of slime pits; and the kings of Sedom and 'Amora fled, and fell there; and they that remained fled to the mountain. And they took all the goods of Sedom and 'Amora, and all their 11 foodstuff, and went their way. And they took Lot, Avram's 12 brother's son, who dwelt in Sedom, and his goods, and departed. And there came one that had escaped, and told Avram the Heb- 13 rew; for he dwelt by the terebinths of Mamre the Emori, brother of Eshkol, and brother of 'Aner: and these were confederate with Avram. And when Avram heard that his brother was taken 14 captive, he led forth his trained servants, born in his own house, three hundred and eighteen, and pursued them to Dan. And he 15 divided himself against them, he and his servants by night, and smote them, and pursued them to Ḥova, which is on the left hand of Dammeseq. And he brought back all the goods, and also 16 brought back his brother Lot, and his goods, and the women also, and the people. And the king of Sedom went out to meet 17 him after his return from the slaughter of Kedorla'omer and of the kings that were with him, at the valley of Shave, which is the king's dale. And Malki-ẓedeq king of Shalem brought out 18 bread and wine: and he was a priest of the most high God. And 19 he blessed him, and said, Blessed be Avram of the most high GOD, possessor of heaven and earth: and blessed be the most 20 high GOD, who has delivered thy enemies into thy hand. And he gave him a tithe of everything. And the king of Sedom said 21 to Avram, Give me the persons, and take the goods to thyself. And Avram said to the king of Sedom, I have raised my hand 22 to the LORD, the most high GOD, the possessor of heaven and earth, that I will take nothing from a thread even to a shoe- 23 latchet, and that I will not take anything that is thine, lest thou shouldst say, I have made Avram rich: save only that which 24 the young men have eaten, and the share of the men who went with me, 'Aner, Eshkol, and Mamre; let them take their share. After these things the word of the LORD came to 15 Avram in a vision, saying, Fear not, Avram: I am thy shield; thy reward will be very great. And Avram said, LORD GOD, what 2 wilt thou give me, seeing I go childless, and the steward of my house is Eli'ezer of Dammeseq? And Avram said, Behold, to 3 me thou hast given no seed: and, one born in my house is my heir. And, behold, the word of the LORD came to him, 4 saying, This shall not be thy heir; but he that shall come forth out of thy own bowels shall be thy heir. And he brought him 5 outside, and said, Look now toward heaven, and count the stars, if thou be able to number them: and he said to him, So shall thy seed be. And he believed in the LORD; and he counted it to him for 6 righteousness. And he said to him, I am the LORD that brought 7 thee out of Ur-kasdim, to give thee this land to inherit it. And he 8 said, LORD GOD, by what shall I know that I shall inherit it? And 9 he said to him, Take me a heifer three years old, and a goat three 9 years old, and a ram three years old, and a turtledove, and a young pigeon. And he took to him all these, and divided them in the 10 midst, and laid each half against the other: but the birds he divided not. And the eagle came down upon the carcasses, and 11 Avram drove them away. And when the sun was going down, 12 a deep sleep fell upon Avram; and, lo, a horror of great darkness fell upon him. And he said to Avram, Know surely that thy seed 13 shall be a stranger in a land that is not theirs, and shall serve them; and they shall afflict them four hundred years; and also 14 that nation, whom they shall serve, will I judge: and afterwards shall they come out with great substance. And thou shalt go to 15 thy fathers in peace; thou shalt be buried in a good old age.

But in the fourth generation they shall come back here, for the 16 iniquity of the Emori is not yet full. And it came to pass, that, 17 when the sun went down, and it was dark, behold a smoking furnace, and a burning torch that passed between those pieces.
In the same day the LORD made a covenant with Avram, saying, 18
To thy seed have I given this land, from the river of Mizrayim to the great river, the river Perat: the Qeni, and the Qenizzi, 19 and the Qadmoni, and the Hitti, and the Perizzi, and the Refa'im, 20 and the Emori, and the Kena'ani, and the Girgashi, and the 21 Yevusi. Now Saray Avram's wife bore him no children: 16 and she had a Mizrian handmaid, whose name was Hagar. And 2 Saray said to Avram, Behold now, the LORD has restrained me from bearing: I pray thee, go in to my maid; it may be that I may obtain children by her. And Avram hearkened to the voice of Saray. And Saray Avram's wife took Hagar, her maid, the 3 Mizrian, after Avram had dwelt ten years in the land of Kena'an, and gave her to her husband Avram for a wife. And he went in 4 to Hagar, and she conceived: and when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was despised in her eyes. And Saray said 5 to Avram, My wrong be upon thee: I have given my maid into thy bosom; and when she saw that she had conceived, I was despised in her eyes: the LORD judge between me and thee. But 6 Avram said to Saray, Behold, thy maid is in thy hand; do to her as it pleases thee. And when Saray dealt harshly with her, she fled from her face. And an angel of the LORD found her by a foun- 7 tain of water in the wilderness, by the fountain on the way to Shur. And he said, Hagar, Saray's maid, whence camest thou? 8 and whither wilt thou go? And she said, I flee from the face of my mistress Saray. And the angel of the LORD said to her, Return 9 to thy mistress, and submit thyself to her hands. And the angel 10 of the LORD said to her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be numbered for multitude. And the angel of the 11 LORD said to her, Behold, thou art with child, and shalt bear a son, and shalt call his name Yishma'el; because the LORD has heard thy affliction. And he will be a wild man; his hand will 12 be against every man, and every man's hand against him; and he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren. And she called 13 the name of the LORD that spoke to her, Thou GOD seest me: for she said, Have I also here looked after him that sees me? There- 14 fore the well was called Be'er-laḥay-ro'i; behold, it is between Qadesh and Bered. And Hagar bore Avram a son: and Avram 15 called his son's name, whom Hagar bore, Yishma'el. And Avram 16 was eighty six years old, when Hagar bore Yishma'el to Avram. And when Avram was ninety nine years old, the 17

LORD appeared to Avram, and said to him, I am the Almighty GOD; walk before me, and be perfect. And I will make my cove- 2 nant between me and thee, and will multiply thee exceedingly.
And Avram fell on his face: and GOD talked with him, saying, 3
As for me, behold, my covenant is with thee, and thou shalt be 4 a father of many nations. Neither shall thy name any more be 5 called Avram, but thy name shall be Avraham; for a father of many nations have I made thee. And I will make thee exceedingly 6 fruitful, and I will make nations of thee, and kings shall come out of thee. And I will establish my covenant between me and 7 thee and thy seed after thee in their generations for an everlasting covenant, to be a GOD to thee, and to thy seed after thee.
And I will give to thee, and to thy seed after thee, the land in 8 which thou dost sojourn, all the land of Kena'an, for an everlasting possession; and I will be their GOD. And GOD said to 9 Avraham, Thou shalt keep my covenant therefore, thou, and thy seed after thee in their generations. This is my covenant, which 10 you shall keep, between me and you and thy seed after thee; Every manchild among you shall be circumcised. And you shall 11 circumcise the flesh of your foreskin; and it shall be a token of the covenant between me and you. And he that is eight days 12 old shall be circumcised among you, every manchild in your generations, he that is born in the house, or bought with money of any stranger, who is not of thy seed. He that is born in thy 13 house, and he that is bought with thy money, must needs be circumcised: and my covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant. And the uncircumcised manchild the flesh 14 of whose foreskin is not circumcised, that soul shall be cut off from his people; he has broken my covenant. And GOD 15 said to Avraham, As for Saray thy wife, thou shalt not call her name Saray, but Sara shall her name be. And I will bless her, 16 and give thee a son also of her: and I will bless her, and she shall be a mother of nations; kings of peoples shall issue from her. Then Avraham fell upon his face, and laughed, and said in 17 his heart, Shall a child be born to him that is a hundred years old? and shall Sara, that is ninety years old, give birth? And 18 Avraham said to GOD, O that Yishma'el might live before thee!
And GOD said, Sara thy wife shall bear thee a son indeed; and 19 thou shalt call his name Yiẓḥaq: and I will establish my covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his seed after him. And as for Yishma'el I have heard thee: Behold, I have 20 blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him exceedingly; twelve princes shall he beget, and I will make him a great nation. But my covenant will I establish with Yiẓḥaq, 21 whom Sara shall bear to thee at this time next year. And he 22 finished talking with him, and GOD went up from Avraham. And 23 Avraham took Yishma'el his son, and all that were born in his house, and all that were bought with his money, every male among the men of Avraham's house; and circumcised the flesh of their foreskin in the selfsame day, as GOD had said to him.

And Avraham was ninety nine years old, when he was circum- 24 cised in the flesh of his foreskin. And Yishma'el his son was 25 thirteen years old, when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. In the selfsame day was Avraham circumcised, and 26 Yishma'el his son. And all the men of his house, born in the 27 house, and bought with money of a stranger, were circumcised with him.

VAYYERA And the LORD appeared to him by the terebinths of Mamre, as he 18 sat in the tent door in the heat of the day; and he raised his eyes 2 and looked, and, lo, three men stood by him; and when he saw them, he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself to the ground, and said, My LORD, if now I have found favour in 3 thy sight, pass not away, I pray thee, from thy servant: let a 4 little water, I pray you, be fetched, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree: and I will fetch a morsel of bread, 5 and comfort your hearts; after that you shall pass on: seeing that you are come to your servant. And they said, So do, as thou hast said. And Avraham hastened into the tent to Sara, 6 and said, Make ready quickly three measures of fine meal, knead it, and make cakes. And Avraham ran to the herd, and fetched 7 a calf tender and good, and gave it to the young man; and he hurried to prepare it. And he took butter, and milk, and the 8 calf which he had dressed, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree, and they ate. And they said to him, 9 Where is Sara thy wife? And he said, Behold, in the tent. And 10 he said, I will certainly return to thee at this season; and, lo, Sara thy wife shall have a son. And Sara heard it in the tent door, which was behind him. Now Avraham and Sara were old, 11 advanced in age; and it had ceased to be with Sara after the manner of women. Therefore Sara laughed within herself, 12 saying, After I am grown old shall I have pleasure, my lord being old also? And the LORD said to Avraham, Why did Sara 13 laugh, saying, Shall I indeed bear a child, who am old? Is any- 14 thing too hard for the LORD? At the time appointed I will return to thee, at this season, and Sara shall have a son. Then Sara 15 denied, saying, I laughed not; for she was afraid. And he said, No; but thou didst laugh. And the men rose up from there, and 16 looked toward Sedom: and Avraham went with them to bring them on the way. And the LORD said, Shall I hide from Avraham 17 that thing which I intend to do; seeing that Avraham shall 18 surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him? For I know him, that he will 19 command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the LORD, to do justice and judgment; that the LORD may bring upon Avraham that which he has spoken of him. And the LORD said, Because the cry of Sedom 20 and 'Amora is great, and because their sin is very grievous;
I will go down now, and see whether they have done altogether 21 according to the cry of it, which is come to me; and if not, I will know. And the men turned their faces from there and went 22 toward Sedom: but Avraham stood yet before the LORD. And 23 Avraham drew near, and said, Wilt thou also destroy the righteous with the wicked? Perhaps there are fifty righteous 24 within the city: wilt thou also destroy and not spare the place for the fifty righteous that are therein? Far be it from thee to do 25 after this manner, to slay the righteous with the wicked: and that the righteous should be as the wicked, far be it from thee:

Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right? And the LORD said, 26
If I find in Sedom fifty just men within the city, then I will spare all the place for their sakes. And Avraham answered and 27 said, Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak to the LORD, who am but dust and ashes: perhaps there shall lack five of the 28 fifty righteous: wilt thou destroy all the city for lack of five?
And he said, If I find there forty five, I will not destroy it. And 29 he spoke to him yet again, and said, perhaps there shall be forty found there. And he said, I will not do it for the forty's sake.
And he said to him, Oh let not the LORD be angry, and I will 30 will not do it, if I find thirty there. And he said, Behold now, I 31 have taken upon me to speak to the Lord: perhaps there shall twenty's sake. And he said, Oh let not the LORD be angry, and I 32 will speak yet but this once: perhaps ten shall be found there.

And he said, I will not destroy it for the sake of the ten. And the 33
LORD went his way, as soon as he had left speaking to Avraham: and Avraham returned to his place. And there came two 19 angels to Sedom at evening, and Lot sat in the gate of Sedom: and Lot seeing them rose up to meet them; and he bowed himself with his face to the ground; and he said, Behold now, my lords, 2 turn in, I pray you, into your servant's house, and tarry all night, and wash your feet, and you may rise up early, and go your ways. And they said, No; but we will abide in the street all night.
And he pressed upon them greatly; and they turned in to him, 3 and entered into his house; and he made them a feast, and did bake unleavened bread, and they did eat. But before they lay 4 down, the men of the city, the men of Sedom, compassed the house round, both old and young, all the people from every quarter: and they called to Lot, and said to him, Where are the 5 men who came in to thee this night? bring them out to us, that we may know them. And Lot went out at the door to them, and 6 shut the door after him, And said, I pray you, brethren, do not 7 so wickedly. Behold now, I have two daughters who have not 8 known man; let me, I pray you, bring them out unto you, and do to them as is good in your eyes: only to these men do nothing; seeing that they have come under the shadow of my roof. And they said, Stand back. And they said again, This one 9 fellow came in to sojourn, and he will needs be a judge: now will we deal worse with thee than with them. And they strongly urged the man, Lot, and came near to break the door. But the 10 men put out their hand, and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut the door. And they smote the men that were at the 11 door of the house with blindness, both small and great: so that they wearied themselves to find the door. And the men said to 12 Lot, Hast thou here any besides? son in law, and thy sons, and thy daughters, and whatever thou hast in the city, bring them out of this place: for we will destroy this place, because the cry 13 of them has grown great before the face of the LORD; and the LORD has sent us to destroy it. And Lot went out, and spoke to 14 his sons in law, who married his daughters, and said, Up, get you out of this place; for the LORD will destroy the city. But he seemed to his sons in law as one that jested. And when the 15 morning arose, then the angels hastened Lot, saying, Arise, take thy wife, and thy two daughters, who are here; lest thou be consumed in the iniquity of the city. And while he lingered, the 16 men laid hold upon his hand, and upon the hand of his wife, and upon the hand of his two daughters; the LORD being merciful to him: and they brought him out, and set him outside the city.

And it came to pass, when they had brought them outside, that 17 he said, Escape for thy life; look not behind thee, neither stay thou in all the plain; escape to the mountain, lest thou be consumed. And Lot said to them, Oh, not so, my LORD: behold now, 18,19 thy servant has found favour in thy sight, and thou hast magnified thy mercy, which thou hast shown to me in saving my life; I cannot escape to the mountain, lest some evil take me, and I die: behold now, this city is near to flee to, and it is 20 a little one: Oh, let me escape there, (is it not a little one?) and my soul shall live. And he said to him, See, I have accepted 21 thee concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow this city, for which thou hast spoken. Haste thee, escape there; for 22 I cannot do anything till thou be come there. Therefore the name of the city was called Ẓo'ar. The sun was risen upon the earth 23 when Lot entered into Ẓo'ar. Then the LORD rained upon Sedom 24 and upon 'Amora brimstone and fire from the LORD out of heaven; and he overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all 25 the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew upon the ground. But his wife looked back from behind him, and she be- 26 came a pillar of salt. And Avraham went early in the morning 27 to the place where he had stood before the LORD: and he looked 28 toward Sedom and 'Amora, and toward all the land of the plain, and beheld, and, lo, the smoke of the country went up like the smoke of a furnace. And it came to pass, when GOD 29 destroyed the cities of the plain, that GOD remembered Avraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in which Lot dwelt. And Lot went up out 30 of Ẓo'ar, and dwelt in the mountain, and his two daughters with him; for he feared to dwell in Ẓo'ar: and he dwelt in a cave, he and his two daughters. And the firstborn said to the younger, 31
Our father is old, and there is not a man in the earth to come in to us after the manner of all the earth: come, let us make our 32 father drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father. And they made their father drink wine 33 that night: and the firstborn went in, and lay with her father; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose.
And it came to pass on the morrow, that the firstborn said to the 34 younger, Behold, I lay last night with my father: let us make him drink wine this night also; and go thou in, and lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father. And they made their 35 father drink wine that night also: and the younger arose, and lay with him; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose. Thus were both the daughters of Lot with 36 child by their father. And the firstborn bore a son, and called 37 his name Mo'av: he is the father of Mo'av to this day. And the 38 younger, she also bore a son, and called his name Ben-'ammi:

he is the father of the children of 'Ammon to this day.

And Avraham journeyed from there toward the Negev, 20 and dwelt between Qadesh and Shur, and sojourned in Gerar.
And Avraham said of Sara his wife, She is my sister: and Avi- 2 melekh king of Gerar sent, and took Sara. But God came to 3 Avimelekh in a dream by night, and said to him, Behold, thou art a dead man, because of the woman whom thou hast taken, for she is a man's wife. But Avimelekh had not come near her: 4 and he said, Lord, wilt thou slay also a righteous nation? Said he 5 not to me, She is my sister? and she, even she herself said, He is my brother: in the integrity of my heart and innocency of my hands have I done this. And God said to him in a dream, I too 6 know that thou didst this in the integrity of thy heart; for I also withheld thee from sinning against me: therefore I did not permit thee to touch her. Now therefore restore the man's wife; 7 for he is a prophet, and he shall pray for thee, and thou shalt live: and if thou restore her not, know thou that thou shalt surely die, thou, and all that are thine. Therefore Avimelekh 8 rose early in the morning, and called all his servants, and told all these things in their ears: and the men were sore afraid.
Then Avimelekh called Avraham, and said to him, What hast 9 thou done to us? and in what have I offended thee, that thou hast brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? thou hast done deeds to me that ought not to be done. And Avimelekh said to 10 Avraham, What sawest thou, that thou hast done this thing?
And Avraham said, Because I thought, Surely the fear of God 11 is not in this place; and they will slay me for my wife's sake.
And yet indeed she is my sister; she is the daughter of my 12 father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife. And it came to pass, when God caused me to wander 13 from my father's house, that I said to her, This is thy kindness which thou shalt show to me; at every place where we shall come, say of me, He is my brother. And Avimelekh took sheep, 14 and oxen, and menservants, and womenservants, and gave them to Avraham, and restored him Sara his wife. And Avimelekh 15 said, Behold, my land is before thee: dwell where it pleases thee. And to Sara he said, Behold, I have given thy brother a 16 thousand pieces of silver: behold, it is to thee a covering of the eyes, to all that are with thee, and unto all others: thus she was reproved. So Avraham prayed to God: and God healed 17 Avimelekh, and his wife, and his maidservants; and they bore children. For the Lord had fast closed up all the wombs of the 18 house of Avimelekh, because of Sara Avraham's wife. And 21 the Lord visited Sara as he had said, and the Lord did to Sara as he had spoken. For Sara conceived, and bore Avraham a son 2 in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to him.
And Avraham called the name of his son that was born to him, 3 whom Sara bore to him, Yiẓḥaq. And Avraham circumcised his 4 son Yiẓḥaq being eight days old, as God had commanded him.

And Avraham was a hundred years old, when his son Yiẓḥaq 5 was born to him. And Sara said, God has made laughter for me, 6 so that all that hear will laugh with me. And she said, Who would 7 have said to Avraham, that Sara should give children suck? for I have born him a son in his old age. And the child grew, and 8 was weaned: and Avraham made a great feast on the same day that Yiẓḥaq was weaned. And Sara saw the son of Hagar the 9 Miẓrian, whom she had born to Avraham, mocking. So she said 10 to Avraham, Cast out this bondwoman and her son: for the son of this bondwoman shall not be heir with my son, with Yiẓḥaq.
And the thing was very grievous in Avraham's eyes because of 11 his son. And God said to Avraham, Let it not be grievous in thy 12 sight because of the lad, and because of thy bondwoman; in all that Sara has said to thee, hearken to her voice; for in Yiẓḥaq shall thy seed be called. And also of the son of the bondwoman 13 will I make a nation, because he is thy seed. And Avraham rose 14 up early in the morning, and took bread, and a bottle of water, and gave it to Hagar, putting it on her shoulder, and the child, and sent her away: and she departed, and wandered in the wilderness of Be'er-sheva. And the water was spent in the 15 bottle, and she cast the child under one of the shrubs. And she 16 went, and sat her down over against him a good way off, as it were a bowshot: for she said, Let me not see the death of the child. And she sat over against him, and lifted up her voice, and wept. And God heard the voice of the lad; and the angel 17 of God called to Hagar out of heaven, and said to her, What ails thee, Hagar? fear not; for God has heard the voice of the lad where he is. Arise, lift up the lad, and hold him in thy hand; 18 for I will make him a great nation. And God opened her eyes, 19 and she saw a well of water; and she went, and filled the bottle with water, and gave the lad drink. And God was with the lad; 20 and he grew, and dwelt in the wilderness, and became an archer.
And he dwelt in the wilderness of Paran: and his mother took 21 him a wife out of the land of Miẓrayim.
And it came to pass at that time, that Avimelekh and Pikhol 22 captain of his host spoke to Avraham, saying, God is with thee in all that thou doest: now therefore swear to me here by God 23 that thou wilt not deal falsely with me, nor with my son, nor with my son's son: but according to the kindness that I have done to thee, thou shalt do to me, and to the land in which thou hast sojourned. And Avraham said, I will swear. And Avraham 24 25 reproved Avimelekh because of the well of water, which Avi-melekh's servants had violently taken away. And Avimelekh 26 said, I know not who has done this thing: neither didst thou tell me, neither yet heard I of it, but today. And Avraham took 27 sheep and oxen, and gave them to Avimelekh; and both of them made a covenant. And Avraham set seven ewe lambs of the 28 flock by themselves. And Avimelekh said to Avraham, What 29 mean these seven ewe lambs which thou hast set by themselves?

And he said, For these seven ewe lambs shalt thou take of my hand, that they may be a witness to me, that I have dug this well. 30 Therefore he called that place Be'er-sheva; because there they swore both of them. Thus they made a covenant at Be'er-sheva; 31 then Avimelekh rose up, and Pikhol the captain of his host, and they returned to the land of the Pelishtim. And Avraham planted a tamarisk in Be'er-sheva, and called there on the name of the LORD, the everlasting GOD. And Avraham sojourned in the land of the Pelishtim many days. 32 33 34

And it came to pass after these things, that GOD did test Avraham, and said to him, Avraham: and he said, Here I am! 22
And he said, Take now thy son, thy only son Yiẓḥaq, whom thou lovest, and get thee into the land of Moriyya; and offer him there for a burnt offering upon one of the mountains which I will tell thee of. 2
And Avraham rose up early in the morning, and saddled his ass, and took two of his young men with him, and Yiẓḥaq his son, and broke up the wood for the burnt offering, and rose up, and went to the place of which GOD had told him. 3
Then on the third day Avraham lifted up his eyes, and saw the place afar off. 4
And Avraham said to his young men, stay here with the ass; and I and the lad will go yonder and prostrate ourselves, and come again to you. 5
And Avraham took the wood of the burnt offering, and laid it upon Yiẓḥaq his son; and he took the fire in his hand, and the knife; and they went both of them together. 6
And Yiẓḥaq spoke to Avraham his father, and said, My father: and he said, Here I am, my son. And he said, Behold the fire and the wood: but where is the lamb for a burnt offering? 7
And Avraham said, My son, GOD will provide himself a lamb for a burnt offering: so they went both of them together. 8
And they came to the place which GOD had told him of; and Avraham built an altar there, and laid the wood in order, and bound Yiẓḥaq his son, and laid him on the altar upon the wood. 9
And Avraham stretched out his hand, and took the knife to slay his son. 10
And an angel of the LORD called to him out of heaven, 11 and said, Avraham, Avraham: and he said, Here I am. 12
And he said, Lay not thy hand upon the lad, neither do anything to him: for now I know that thou fearest GOD, seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thy only son from me. 13
And Avraham lifted up his eyes, and looked and behold behind him a ram caught in the thicket by his horns: and Avraham went and took the ram, and offered him up for a burnt offering in place of his son. 14
And Avraham called the name of that place Adonay-yir'e: as it is said to this day, In the mount the LORD will appear. 15
And the angel of the LORD called to Avraham out of heaven the second time, 16 and said, By myself have I sworn, says the LORD, because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thy only son: 17 that I will exceedingly bless thee, and I will exceedingly multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of its enemies; 18 and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast obeyed my voice. 19
So Avraham returned to his young men, and they rose up and went together to Be'er-sheva; and Avraham dwelt at Be'er-sheva.

And it came to pass after these things, that it was told Avraham, saying, Behold Milka, she also has born children to thy brother Naḥor; 'Uẓ his firstborn, and Buz his brother, and Qemu'el the father of Aram, and Kesed, and Ḥazo, and Pildash, and Yidlaf, and Betu'el. And Betu'el begot Rivqa: these eight did Milka bear to Naḥor, Avraham's brother. And his concubine, whose name was Re'uma, she bore also Tevaḥ, and Gaḥam, and Taḥash, and Ma'akha. 20 21 22 23 24

ḤAYYE SARA And Sara was a hundred and twenty seven years old: these were the years of Sara's life. And Sara died in Qiryat-arba; that is Ḥevron, in the land of Kena'an: and Avraham came to mourn for Sara, and to weep for her. And Avraham stood up from before his dead, and spoke to the sons of Ḥet, saying, I am a stranger and a sojourner with you: give me a possession of a buryingplace with you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight. And the children of Ḥet answered Avraham, saying to him, Hear us, my lord: thou art a mighty prince among us: in the choice of our sepulchres bury thy dead; none of us shall withhold from thee his tomb, but that thou mayst bury thy dead. And Avraham stood up, and bowed himself to the people of the land, to the children of Ḥet. And he spoke with them, saying, If it be your mind that I should bury my dead out of my sight; hear me, and intreat for me to 'Efron the son of Ẓoḥar, that he may give me the cave of Makhpela, which he has, which is in the end of his field; for the full price he shall give it me for a possession of a buryingplace amongst you. And 'Efron dwelt among the children of Ḥet: and 'Efron the Ḥitti answered Avraham in the hearing of the children of Ḥet, even of all that went in at the gate of his city, saying, No, my lord, hear me: the field I give thee, and the cave that is in it, I give it thee; in the presence of the sons of my people I give it thee: bury thy dead. And Avraham bowed himself down before the people of the land. And he spoke to 'Efron in the hearing of the people of the land, saying, But if thou wilt give it, I pray thee, hear me: I will give thee the price of the field; take it of me, and I will bury my dead there. And 'Efron answered Avraham, saying to him, My lord, hearken to me: a piece of land worth four hundred shekels of silver; what is that between me and thee? bury therefore thy dead. And Avraham hearkened to 'Efron; and Avraham weighed to 'Efron the silver, which he had named in the hearing of the sons of Ḥet, four hundred shekels of silver, current money with the merchant. And the field of 'Efron, which was in Makhpela, which was before Mamre, the field, and the cave which was in it, and all the trees that were in the field, that were in all the borders round about, were made over to Avraham for a possession in the presence of the children of Ḥet, before all that went in at the gate of his city. And after this, Avraham buried Sara his wife in the cave of the field of Makhpela before Mamre: the same is Ḥevron in the land of Kena'an. And the field, and the cave that is in it, were made 23 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 over to Avraham for a possession of a buryingplace by the sons of Ḥet. And Avraham was old, advanced in age: 24 and the LORD had blessed Avraham in all things. And Avra- 2 ham said to the eldest servant of his house, that ruled over all that he had, Put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh: and I 3 will make thee swear by the LORD, the GOD of heaven, and the GOD of the earth, that thou shalt not take a wife to my son of the daughters of the Kena'ani, among whom I dwell; but thou 4 shalt go to my country, and to my kindred, and take a wife to my son Yiẓḥaq. And the servant said to him, Perhaps the woman 5 will not be willing to follow me to this land: must I needs bring thy son back to the land from where thou didst come? And Avraham said to him, Beware lest thou bring my son 6 back there. The LORD GOD of heaven, who took me from my 7 father's house, and from the land of my kindred, and who spoke to me, and swore to me, saying, To thy seed will I give this land; he shall send his angel before thee, and thou shalt take a wife for my son from there. And if the woman will not be willing to 8 follow thee, then thou shalt be clear from this my oath: only bring not my son back there. And the servant put his hand 9 under the thigh of Avraham his master, and swore to him concerning that matter. And the servant took ten camels of the 10 camels of his master, and departed; for all the goods of his master were in his hand: and he arose, and went to Aram-naharayim, to the city of Naḥor. And he made his camels kneel 11 down outside the city by a well of water at the time of evening, at the time that the women go out to draw water. And he said, O LORD GOD of my master Avraham, I pray thee, 12 send me good speed this day, and show kindness to my master Avraham. Behold, I stand here by the well of water; and the 13 daughters of the men of the city come out to draw water: and 14 let it come to pass, that the girl to whom I shall say, Let down thy pitcher, I pray thee, that I may drink; and she shall say, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also: let her be she that thou hast appointed for thy servant Yiẓḥaq; and thereby shall I know that thou hast shown kindness to my master. And it came 15 to pass, before he had done speaking, that, behold, Rivqa came out, who was born to Betu'el, son of Milka, the wife of Naḥor, Avraham's brother, with her pitcher upon her shoulder. And the 16 girl was very fair to look upon, a virgin, neither had any man known her: and she went down to the well, and filled her pitcher, and came up. And the servant ran to meet her, and said, 17 Let me, I pray thee, drink a little water of thy pitcher. And she 18 said, Drink, my lord: and she hastened, and let down her pitcher upon her hand, and gave him drink. And when she had done 19 giving him drink, she said, I will draw water for thy camels also, until they have done drinking. And she hastened, and emptied 20 her pitcher into the trough, and ran again to the well to draw water, and drew for all his camels. And the man wondering at 21 her held his peace, to know whether the LORD had made his journey prosperous or not. And it came to pass, as the camels 22 had done drinking, that the man took a golden earring of half a shekel weight, and two bracelets for her hands of ten shekels weight of gold: and said, Whose daughter art thou? tell me, I 23 pray thee: is there room in thy father's house for us to lodge in?

And she said to him, I am the daughter of Betu'el the son of 24 Milka, whom she bore to Naḥor. And she said to him, We have 25 both straw and provender enough, and room to lodge in. And 26 the man bowed down his head, and prostrated himself to the LORD. And he said, Blessed be the LORD GOD of my master 27 Avraham, who has not left my master destitute of his love and his truth: as for me, the LORD has guided me in the way to the house of my master's brethren. And the girl ran, and told 28 them of her mother's house these things. And Rivqa had a 29 brother, and his name was Lavan: and Lavan ran out to the man, to the well. And it came to pass, when he saw the earring 30 and bracelets upon his sister's hands, and when he heard the words of Rivqa his sister, saying, Thus spoke the man to me; that he came to the man; and, behold, he stood by the camels at the well. And he said, Come in, thou blessed of the LORD; 31 why dost thou stand outside? for I have prepared the house, and room for the camels. And the man came into the house: 32 and he ungirded his camels, and gave straw and provender for the camels, and water to wash his feet, and the men's feet that were with him. And there was set food before him to eat: but 33 he said, I will not eat, until I have told my errand. And he said, Speak on. And he said, I am Avraham's servant. And the LORD 34,35 has blessed my master greatly; and he is become great: and he has given him flocks, and herds, and silver, and gold, and menservants, and maidservants, and camels, and asses. And 36 Sara my master's wife bore a son to my master when she was old: and to him he has given all that he has. And my master 37 made me swear, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife to my son of the daughters of the Kena'ani, in whose land I dwell: but 38 thou shalt go to my father's house, and to my kindred, and take a wife for my son. And I said to my master, Perhaps the woman 39 will not follow me. And he said to me, The LORD, before whom 40 I walk, will send his angel with thee, and prosper thy way; and thou shalt take a wife for my son of my kindred, and of my father's house: then shalt thou be clear from this my oath, 41 when thou comest to my kindred; and if they grant it not to thee, thou shalt be clear of my oath. And I came this day to 42 the well, and said, O LORD GOD of my master Avraham, if now thou do prosper my way which I go: behold, I stand by the well 43 of water; and it shall come to pass, that the maid who comes forth to draw, and I say to her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water from thy pitcher to drink; and she say to me, 44 Both drink thou, and I will also draw for thy camels: she shall be the woman whom the LORD has appointed for my master's son. And before I had done speaking in my heart, behold, 45 Rivqa came out with her pitcher on her shoulder; and she went down to the well, and drew water: and I said to her, Let me drink, I pray thee. And she made haste, and let down her pitcher 46 from her shoulder, and said, Drink, and I will give thy camels to drink also: so I drank, and she made the camels drink also.
And I asked her, and said, Whose daughter art thou? And she 47 said, The daughter of Betu'el, Naḥor's son, whom Milka bore to him: and I put the ring upon her nose, and the bracelets upon her hands. And I bowed down my head, and worshipped the 48 LORD, and blessed the LORD GOD of my master Avraham, who had led me in the right way to take my master's brother's daughter for his son. And now if you will deal kindly and 49 truly with my master, tell me: and if not, tell me; so that I may turn to the right hand, or to the left. Then Lavan and Betu'el 50 answered and said, The thing comes from the LORD: we cannot speak to thee bad or good. Behold, Rivqa is before thee, take 51 her, and go, and let her be thy master's son's wife, as the LORD has spoken. And it came to pass, that, when Avraham's servant 52 heard their words, he prostrated himself to the earth before the LORD. And the servant brought out jewels of silver, and jewels 53 of gold, and garments, and gave them to Rivqa: he gave also to her brother and to her mother precious things. And they did 54 eat and drink, he and the men that were with him, and tarried all night; and they rose up in the morning, and he said, Send me away to my master. And her brother and her mother said, Let 55 the girl stay with us a few days, at the least ten; after that she shall go. And he said to them, Hinder me not, seeing the LORD 56 has prospered my way; send me away that I may go to my master. And they said, We will call the girl, and inquire at her 57 mouth. And they called Rivqa, and said to her, Wilt thou go 58 with this man? And she said, I will go. And they sent away 59 Rivqa their sister, and her nurse, and Avraham's servant, and his men. And they blessed Rivqa, and said to her, Thou art our 60 sister, be thou the mother of thousands of ten thousands, and let thy seed possess the gate of those which hate them. And 61 Rivqa, and her maids arose, and they rode upon the camels, and followed the man: and the servant took Rivqa, and went his way. And Yiẓḥaq came from the way of Be'er-laḥay-ro'i; for he 62 dwelt in the land of the Negev. And Yiẓḥaq went out to meditate 63 in the field at the evening time: and he lifted up his eyes, and saw, and, behold, camels were coming. And Rivqa lifted up her 64 eyes, and when she saw Yiẓḥaq, she descended from the camel. And she said to the servant, What man is this that walks in the 65 field to meet us? And the servant said, It is my master: therefore she took her veil, and covered herself. And the servant told 66 Yiẓḥaq all the things that he had done. And Yiẓḥaq brought her 67 into his mother Sara's tent, and took Rivqa, and she became his wife; and he loved her: and Yiẓḥaq was comforted after his mother's death.

Then again Avraham took a wife, and her name was Qetura. 25
And she bore him Zimran, and Yoqshan, and Medan, and 2 Midyan, and Yishbaq, and Shuaḥ. And Yoqshan begot Sheva, 3 and Dedan. And the sons of Dedan were Ashshurim, and Letushim, and Le'ummim. And the sons of Midyan; 'Efa and 4
'Efer, and Ḥanokh, and Avida, and Elda'a. All these were the children of Qetura. And Avraham gave all that he had 5 to Yiẓḥaq. But to the sons of the concubines, which Avraham 6 had, Avraham gave gifts, and sent them away from his son, while he yet lived, eastward, to the east country. And these are 7 the days of the years of Avraham's life which he lived, a hundred and seventy five years. Then Avraham expired, and died in a 8 good old age, an old man, and full of years; and was gathered to his people. And his sons Yiẓḥaq and Yishma'el buried him in 9 the cave of Makhpela, in the field of 'Efron the son of Ẓoḥar the Ḥittite, which is before Mamre; the field which Avraham pur- 10 chased of the sons of Ḥet: there was Avraham buried, and Sara his wife. And it came to pass after the death of Av- 11 raham, that GOD blessed his son Yiẓḥaq; and Yiẓḥaq dwelt by Be'er-laḥay-ro'i.

Now these are the generations of Yishma'el, Avraham's son, 12 whom Hagar the Miẓrian, Sara's handmaid, bore to Avraham: and these are the names of the sons of Yishma'el, by their names, 13 according to their generations: the firstborn of Yishma'el, Nevayot; and Qedar, and Adbe'el, and Mivsam, and Mishma, 14 and Duma, and Massa, Ḥadad, and Tema, Yetur, Nafish, and 15 Qedema. These are the sons of Yishma'el, and these are their 16 names, by their towns, and by their encampments; twelve princes according to their nations. And these are the years of 17 the life of Yishma'el, a hundred and thirty seven years: and he expired and died; and was gathered to his people. And they 18 dwelt from Ḥavila tó Shur, that is before Miẓrayim, as thou goest toward Ashshur: and he dwelt in the presence of all his brethren.

TOLEDOT And these are the generations of Yiẓḥaq, Avraham's son: Avra- 19 ham begot Yiẓḥaq: and Yiẓḥaq was forty years old when he took 20 Rivqa to wife, the daughter of Betu'el the Arammian of Paddanaram, the sister to Lavan the Arammian. And Yiẓḥaq entreated 21 the LORD for his wife, because she was barren: and the LORD was entreated of him, and Rivqa his wife conceived. And the 22 children struggled together within her; and she said, If it be so, why am I thus? And she went to inquire of the LORD. And the 23 LORD said to her, Two nations are in thy womb, and two peoples shall be separated from thy bowels; and the one people shall be stronger than the other people; and the elder shall serve the younger. And when her days to be delivered were fulfilled, 24 behold, there were twins in her womb. And the first came out 25 red, all over like a hairy garment; and they called his name 'Esav. And after that came out his brother, and his hand took 26 hold on 'Esav's heel; and his name was called Ya'aqov: and Yiẓḥaq was sixty years old when she bore them. And the boys 27 grew: and 'Esav was a cunning hunter, a man of the field; and Ya'aqov was a plain man, dwelling in tents. And Yiẓḥaq loved 28
'Esav, for he relished his venison: but Rivqa loved Ya'aqov.
And Ya'aqov cooked pottage: and 'Esav came from the field, 29 and he was faint: and 'Esav said to Ya'aqov, Give me to swal- 30 low, I pray thee, of that red pottage; for I am faint: therefore was his name called Edom (red). And Ya'aqov said, Sell me 31 this day thy birthright. And 'Esav said, Behold, I am at the point 32 of death, and what profit shall this birthright do to me? And 33 Ya'aqov said, Swear to me this day; and he swore to him: and he sold his birthright to Ya'aqov. Then Ya'aqov gave 'Esav bread 34

26 And there was a famine in the land, beside the first famine that was in the days of Avraham. And Yiẓḥaq went to Avimelekh, king of the Pelishtim to Gerar. 2 And the LORD appeared to him, and said, Go not down into Miẓrayim; dwell in the land which 3 I shall tell thee of: sojourn in this land, and I will be with thee, and will bless thee; for to thee, and to thy seed, I will give all these countries and I will perform the oath which I swore to Avraham thy father; 4 and I will multiply thy seed as the stars of heaven, and will give to thy seed all these countries; and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; 5 because Avraham obeyed my voice, and kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws. 6 And Yiẓḥaq dwelt in Gerar: 7 and the men of the place asked him of his wife; and he said, She is my sister: for he feared to say, She is my wife; lest, said he, the men of the place should kill me on account of Rivqa; because she was fair to look upon. 8 And it came to pass, when he had been there a long time, that Avimelekh king of the Pelishtim looked out at a window, and saw, and behold, Yiẓḥaq was sporting with Rivqa his wife. 9 And Avimelekh call Yiẓḥaq, and said, Behold, surely she is thy wife: and how didst thou say, She is my sister? And Yiẓḥaq said to him, Because I said, Lest I die for her. 10 And Avimelekh said, What is this thou hast done to us? one of the people might easily have lain with thy wife, and thou shouldst have brought guiltiness upon us. 11 And Avimelekh charged all his people, saying, He that touches this man or his wife shall surely be put to death. 12 Then Yiẓḥaq sowed in that land, and received in the same year a hundredfold: for the LORD blessed him. 13 And the man grew great, and went forward, and grew until he became very great: 14 for he had possessions of flocks, and possessions of herds, and a great store of servants: and the Pelishtim envied him. 15 For all the wells which his father's servants had dug in the days of Avraham his father, the Pelishtim had stopped them up, and filled them with earth. 16 And Avimelekh said to Yiẓḥaq, Go from us; for thou art much mightier than we. 17 And Yiẓḥaq departed from there, and pitched in the valley of Gerar, and dwelt there. 18 And Yiẓḥaq dug again the wells of water, which they had dug in the days of Avraham his father; for the Pelishtim had stopped them up after the death of Avraham: and he called their names after the names by which his father had called them. 19 And Yiẓḥaq's servants dug in the valley, and found there a well of springing water. 20 And the herdmen of Gerar did strive with Yiẓḥaq's herdmen, saying, The water is ours: and he called the name of the well 'Eseq; because they strove with him. 21 And they dug another well, and strove for that also: and he called the name of it Sitna. 22 And he removed from there, and dug another well; and for that they strove not: and he called the name of it Reḥovot; and he said, For now the LORD has made room for us, and we shall be fruitful in the land. 23 And he went up from there to Be'er-sheva. 24 And the LORD appeared to him the same night, and said, I am the GOD of Avraham thy father: fear not, for I am with thee, and will bless thee, and multiply thy seed for my servant Avraham's sake. And he built an altar there, and called upon the name of the LORD, and pitched his tent there: and there Yiẓḥaq's servants dug a well. Then Avimelekh went to him from Gerar, and Aḥuzzat his friend, and Pikhol the captain of his army. And Yiẓḥaq said to them, Why do you come to me, seeing you hate me, and have sent me away from you? And they said, We saw indeed that the LORD was with thee: and we said, Let there be now an oath between us, between us and thee, and let us make a covenant with thee: that thou wilt do us no hurt, as we have not touched thee, and as we have done to thee nothing but good, and have sent thee away in peace: thou art now the blessed of the LORD. And he made them a feast, and they did eat and drink. And they rose up early in the morning, and swore one to another: and Yiẓḥaq sent them away, and they departed from him in peace. And it came to pass the same day, that Yiẓḥaq's servants came, and told him concerning the well which they had dug, and said to him, We have found water. And he called it Shiv'a: therefore the name of the city is Be'er-sheva to this day. And 'Esav was forty years old when he took to wife Yehudit the daughter of Be'eri the Ḥittite, and Basemat the daughter of Elon the Ḥittite: and they were a grief of mind to Yiẓḥaq and to Rivqa. And it came to pass, that 27 when Yiẓḥaq was old, and his eyes were dim, so that he could not see, he called 'Esav his eldest son, and said to him, My son: and he said to him, Here I am. And he said, Behold now, I am old, I know not the day of my death: now therefore take, I pray thee, thy weapons, thy quiver and thy bow, and go out to the field, and catch me some venison; and make me savoury food, such as I love, and bring it to me, that I may eat, that my soul may bless thee before I die. And Rivqa heard when Yiẓḥaq spoke to 'Esav his son. And 'Esav went to the field to hunt for venison, and to bring it. And Rivqa spoke to Ya'aqov her son, saying, Behold, I heard thy father speak to 'Esav thy brother, saying, Bring me venison, and make me savoury food, that I may eat, and bless thee before the LORD before my death. Now therefore, my son, obey my voice according to that which I command thee. Go now to the flock, and fetch me from there two good kids of the goats; and I will make them into savoury food for thy father, such as he loves: and thou shalt bring it to thy father, that he may eat, and that he may bless thee before his death. And Ya'aqov said to Rivqa his mother, Behold, 'Esav my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth man: my father perhaps will feel me, and I shall seem to him a deceiver; and I shall bring a curse upon me, and not a blessing. And his mother said to him, Upon me be thy curse, my son: only obey my voice, and go fetch me them. And he went, and fetched, and brought them to his mother: and his mother made savoury food, such as his father loved. And Rivqa took the best clothes of her eldest son 'Esav, which were with her in the house, and put them upon Ya'aqov her younger son: and she put the skins of the kids of the goats upon his hands, and upon the smooth of his neck: and she gave the savoury food and the bread, which she had prepared, into the hand of her son Ya'aqov. And he 18 came to his father, and said, My father: and he said, Here am I: who art thou, my son? And Ya'aqov said to his father, I am 19

'Esav thy firstborn; I have done according as thou didst tell me: arise, I pray thee, sit and eat of my venison, that thy soul may bless me. And Yiẓḥaq said to his son, How is it that thou 20 hast found it so quickly, my son? And he said, Because, the LORD thy GOD sent me good speed. And Yiẓḥaq said to Ya'aqov, Come 21 near, I pray thee, that I may feel thee, my son, whether thou art really my son 'Esav or not. And Ya'aqov went near to 22 Yiẓḥaq his father; and he felt him, and said, The voice is Ya'aqov's voice, but the hands are the hands of 'Esav. And he 23 recognised him not, because his hands were hairy, as his brother 'Esav's hands: so he blessed him. And he said, Art thou really 24 my son 'Esav? And he said, I am. And he said, Bring it near 25 to me, and I will eat of my son's venison, that my soul may bless thee. And he brought it near to him, and he did eat: and he brought him wine, and he drank. And his father Yiẓḥaq said 26 to him, Come near now, and kiss me, my son. And he came 27 near, and kissed him: and he smelt the smell of his garments, and blessed him, and said, See, the smell of my son is like the smell of a field which the LORD has blessed: therefore GOD 28 give thee of the dew of heaven, and the fatness of the earth, and plenty of corn and wine: let peoples serve thee, and nations 29 bow down to thee: be lord over thy brethren, and let thy mother's sons bow down to thee: cursed be those that curse thee, and blessed be those that bless thee. And it came 30 to pass, as soon as Yiẓḥaq had made an end of blessing Ya'aqov, and Ya'aqov was yet scarce gone out from the presence of Yiẓḥaq his father, that 'Esav his brother came in from his hunting. And he also had made savoury food, and brought it to 31 his father, and said to his father, Let my father arise, and eat of his son's venison, that thy soul may bless me. And Yiẓḥaq 32 his father said to him, Who art thou? And he said, I am thy son, thy firstborn 'Esav. And Yiẓḥaq trembled very much, and 33 said, Who then is he that has taken venison, and brought it me, and I have eaten of all before thou camest, and have blessed him? moreover, he shall be blessed. And when 'Esav heard the 34 words of his father, he cried with a great and exceedingly bitter cry, and said to his father, Bless me, me also, O my father.
And he said, Thy brother came with cunning and has taken 35 away thy blessing. And he said, Is not he rightly named Ya'aqov? 36 for he has supplanted me these two times: he took away my birthright; and, behold, now he has taken away my blessing.
And he said, Hast thou not reserved a blessing for me? And 37 Yiẓḥaq answered and said to 'Esav, Behold, I have made him thy lord, and all his brethren have I given to him for servants; and with corn and wine have I sustained him: and what shall I do now for thee, my son? And 'Esav said to his father, Hast 38 thou but one blessing, my father? bless me, even me also, O my father. And 'Esav raised his voice, and wept. And Yiẓḥaq his 39 father answered and said to him, Behold, thy dwelling shall be of the fatness of the earth, and of the dew of heaven from above; and by thy sword shalt thou live, and thou shalt serve 40 thy brother; and it shall come to pass when thou shalt have the dominion, that thou shalt break his yoke from off thy neck.

And 'Esav hated Ya'aqov because of the blessing with which 41 his father blessed him: and 'Esav said in his heart, When the days of mourning for my father are at hand; then will I slay my brother Ya'aqov. And these words of 'Esav, her elder son, 42 were told to Rivqa: and she sent and called Ya'aqov her younger son, and said to him, Behold, thy brother 'Esav comforts himself, purposing to kill thee. Now therefore, my son, 43 obey my voice; and arise, flee to Lavan my brother, to Ḥaran; and dwell with him a few days, until thy brother's fury turn 44 away; until thy brother's anger turn away from thee, and he 45 forget that which thou hast done to him: then I will send, and fetch thee from there: why should I be bereaved of you both in one day? And Rivqa said to Yiẓḥaq, I am weary of my life be- 46 cause of the daughters of Ḥet: if Ya'aqov take a wife of the daughters of Ḥet, such as these, of the daughters of the land, what good shall my life be to me? And Yiẓḥaq called Ya'aqov, 28 and blessed him, and charged him, and said to him, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Kena'an. Arise, go to Paddan- 2 aram, to the house of Betu'el thy mother's father; and take thee a wife from there of the daughters of Lavan thy mother's brother. And GOD Almighty bless thee, and make thee fruitful, 3 and multiply thee, that thou mayst be a multitude of people; and give thee the blessing of Avraham, to thee, and to thy seed 4 with thee; that thou mayst inherit the land in which thou art a sojourner, and which GOD gave to Avraham. And Yiẓḥaq sent 5 away Ya'aqov: and he went to Paddan-aram to Lavan, son of Betu'el the Arammian, the brother of Rivqa, mother of Ya'aqov and 'Esav. When 'Esav saw that Yiẓḥaq had blessed Ya'aqov, 6 and sent him away to Paddan-aram, to take him a wife from there; and that as he blessed him he gave him a charge, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Kena'an: and that 7 Ya'aqov obeyed his father and his mother, and was gone to Paddan-aram, and 'Esav saw that the daughters of Kena'an 8 pleased not Yiẓḥaq his father; then 'Esav went and took to wife 9 besides the wives he had, Maḥalat the daughter of Yishma'el VAYYEẒE Avraham's son, the sister of Nevayot. And Ya'aqov went 10 out from Be'er-sheva, and went toward Ḥaran. And he lighted 11 on a certain place, and tarried there all night, because the sun was set; and he took of the stones of that place, and put them under his head, and lay down in that place to sleep. And he 12 dreamed, and behold a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven: and behold the angels of GOD ascending and descending on it. And, behold, the LORD stood above it, and 13 said, I am the LORD GOD of Avraham thy father, and the GOD of Yiẓḥaq: the land on which thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed; and thy seed shall be as the dust of the earth, and 14 thou shalt spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south: and in thee and in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed. And, behold, I am with 15 thee, and will keep thee in all places to which thou goest, and will bring thee back to this land; for I will not leave thee, until I have done that which I have spoken to thee of. And Ya'aqov 16 awoke out of his sleep, and he said, Surely the LORD is in this place; and I knew it not. And he was afraid, and said, How 17 dreadful is this place! this is no other than the house of GOD, and this is the gate of heaven. And Ya'aqov rose up early in the 18 morning, and took the stone that he had put under his head, and set it up for a pillar, and poured oil on the top of it. And he 19 called the name of that place Bet-el: but the name of that city was called Luz at first. And Ya'aqov vowed a vow, saying, If 20 GOD will be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat, and clothing to wear, so that I come 21 back to my father's house in peace, then the LORD shall be my GOD: and this stone, which I have set for a pillar, shall be GOD's 22 house: and of all that thou shalt give me I will surely give the tenth to thee. Then Ya'aqov lifted up his feet, and went to 29 the land of the people of the east. And he looked, and behold a 2 well in the field, and, lo, there were three flocks of sheep lying by it; for out of that well they watered the flocks: and a great stone was upon the well's mouth. And there were all the flocks 3 gathered: and they rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the sheep, and put the stone back upon the well's mouth in its place. And Ya'aqov said to them, My brethren, where are 4 you from? And they said, Of Ḥaran are we. And he said to them, 5 Do you know Lavan the son of Naḥor? And they said, We know him. And he said to them, Is he well? And they said, He is well: 6 and, behold, Raḥel his daughter comes with the sheep. And he 7 said, Lo, it is yet high day, neither is it time that the cattle should be gathered together: water the sheep, and go and feed them.

And they said, We cannot, until all the flocks are gathered 8 together, and till they roll the stone from the well's mouth; then we may water the sheep. And while he was still speaking 9 with them, Raḥel came with her father's sheep: for she kept them.
And it came to pass, when Ya'aqov saw Raḥel the daughter of 10 Lavan his mother's brother, and the sheep of Lavan his mother's brother, that Ya'aqov went near, and rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flock of Lavan his mother's brother. And Ya'aqov kissed Raḥel, and raised his voice, and 11 wept. And Ya'aqov told Raḥel that he was her father's brother, 12 and that he was Rivqa's son: and she ran and told her father.
And it came to pass, when Lavan heard the tidings of Ya'aqov 13 his sister's son, that he ran to meet him, and embraced him, and kissed him, and brought him to his house. And he told Lavan all these things. And Lavan said to him, Surely thou art my bone 14 and my flesh. And he stayed with him a month. And Lavan 15 said to Ya'aqov, Because thou art my brother, shouldst thou therefore serve me for nothing? tell me, what shall thy wages be?
And Lavan had two daughters: the name of the elder was 16 Le'a, and the name of the younger was Raḥel. And Le'a's eyes 17 were weak; but Raḥel was beautiful and well favoured. And Ya'a- 18 qov loved Raḥel; and said, I will serve thee seven years for Raḥel thy younger daughter. And Lavan said, It is better that I give 19 her to thee, than that I should give her to another man: stay with me. And Ya'aqov served seven years for Raḥel and they 20 seemed to him but a few days, for the love he had to her. And 21 Ya'aqov said to Lavan, Give me my wife, for my days are fulfilled, that I may go in to her. And Lavan gathered together all 22 the men of the place, and made a feast. And it came to pass in 23 the evening, that he took Le'a his daughter, and brought her to him; and he went in to her. And Lavan gave to his daughter 24 Le'a Zilpa his maid for a handmaid. And it came to pass, that in 25 the morning, behold, it was Le'a: and he said to Lavan, What is this thou hast done to me? did not I serve with thee for Raḥel?

why then hast thou beguiled me? And Lavan said, It must not 26 be so done in our country, to give the younger before the first born. Fulfil her week, and we will give thee this also for the 27 service which thou shalt serve with me yet another seven years.
And Ya'aqov did so, and fulfilled her week: and he gave him 28 Raḥel his daughter to wife also. And Lavan gave to Raḥel his 29 daughter Bilha his maid to be her handmaid. And he went in 30 also to Raḥel, and moreover he loved Raḥel more than Le'a, and served with him yet another seven years. And when the LORD 31 saw that Le'a was hated, he opened her womb: but Raḥel was barren. And Le'a conceived, and bore a son, and she called his 32 name Re'uven: for she said, Surely the LORD has looked upon my affliction; now therefore my husband will love me. And she 33 conceived again, and bore a son; and said, Because the LORD has heard that I was hated, he has therefore given me this son also:
and she called his name Shim'on. And she conceived again, and 34 bore a son; and said, Now this time will my husband be joined to me, because I have born him three sons; therefore was his name called Levi. And she conceived again, and bore a son 35 and she said, Now will I praise the LORD: therefore she called his name Yehuda, and she left off bearing. And when Raḥel saw 30 that she bore Ya'aqov no children, Raḥel envied her sister; and said, Give me children, or else I die. And Ya'aqov's anger burned 2 against Raḥel: and he said, Am I in the place of GOD, who has withheld from thee the fruit of the womb? And she said, Behold 3 my maid Bilha, go in to her; and she shall bear upon my knees, that I may also have children by her. And she gave him Bilha 4 her handmaid to wife: and Ya'aqov went in to her. And Bilha 5 conceived, and bore Ya'aqov a son. And Raḥel said, GOD has 6 judged me, and has also heard my voice, and has given me a son: therefore called she his name Dan. And Bilha Raḥel's maid 7 conceived again, and bore Ya'aqov a second son. And Raḥel said, 8 With great wrestlings have I wrestled with my sister, and I have prevailed: and she called his name Naftali. When Le'a saw that 9 she had stopped bearing, she took Zilpa her maid, and gave her to Ya'aqov to wife. And Zilpa Le'a's maid bore Ya'aqov a son. 10
And Le'a said, Fortune comes, and she called his name Gad. 11
And Zilpa Le'a's maid bore Ya'aqov a second son. And Le'a said, 12, 13

Happy am I, for the daughters will call me blessed: and she called his name Asher. And Re'uven went in the days of the 14 wheat harvest, and found mandrakes in the field, and brought them to his mother Le'a. Then Raḥel said to Le'a, Give me, I pray thee, of thy son's mandrakes. And she said to her, Is it a 15 small matter that thou hast taken my husband? and wouldst thou take away my son's mandrakes also? And Raḥel said, Therefore he shall lie with thee tonight for thy son's mandrakes.
And Ya'aqov came out of the field in the evening, and Le'a went 16 out to meet him, and said, Thou must come in to me; for indeed I have hired thee with my son's mandrakes. And he lay with her that night. And GOD hearkened to Le'a, and she conceived, and 17 bore Ya'aqov a fifth son. And Le'a said, God has given me my 18 hire, because I have given my maiden to my husband: and she called his name Yissakhar. And Le'a conceived again, and bore 19 Ya'aqov a sixth son. And Le'a said, God has endowed me with 20 a good dowry; now will my husband dwell with me, because I have born him six sons: and she called his name Zevulun.
And afterwards she bore a daughter, and called her name Dina. 21
And GOD remembered Raḥel, and GOD hearkened to her, and 22 opened her womb. And she conceived, and bore a son; and said, 23
GOD has taken away my reproach: and she called his name 24 Yosef; and said, The LORD shall add to me another son. And it 25 came to pass, when Raḥel had born Yosef, that Ya'aqov said to Lavan, Send me away, that I may go to my own place, and to my country. Give me my wives and my children, for whom I 26 have served thee, and let me go: for thou knowst my service which I have done thee. And Lavan said to him, I pray thee, if 27 I have found favour in thine eyes, I have learned by signs that the LORD has blessed me for thy sake. And he said, Appoint me 28 thy wages, and I will give it. And he said to him, Thou knowst 29 how I have served thee, and how thy cattle was with me. For the 30 little which thou hadst before I came is now increased to a multitude; and the LORD has blessed thee since my coming: and now when shall I provide for my own house also? And he said, 31 What shall I give thee? And Ya'aqov said, Thou shalt not give me anything: if thou wilt do this thing for me, I will again feed and keep thy flock. I will pass through all thy flock today, removing 32 from there all the speckled and spotted cattle, and all the brown ones among the sheep, and the spotted and speckled among the goats: and of such shall be my hire. So shall my righteousness 33 answer for me in time to come, when thou shalt come to see my hire before thy face: every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats, and brown among the sheep, that shall be counted stolen with me. And Lavan said, Behold, would it might 34 be according to thy word. And he removed that day the he goats 35 that were streaked and spotted, and all the she goats that were speckled and spotted, and every one that had some white in it, and all the brown ones among the sheep, and gave them into the hand of his sons. And he set three days' journey between himself 36 and Ya'aqov: and Ya'aqov tended the rest of Lavan's flocks. And 37 Ya'aqov took him rods of green poplar, and of the almond and plane tree; and peeled white streaks in them, and made the white appear which was in the rods. And he set the rods which 38 he had peeled before the flocks in the gutters in the watering troughs when the flocks came to drink, that they should conceive when they came to drink. And the flocks conceived before 39 the rods, and brought forth cattle streaked, speckled, and spotted. And Ya'aqov separated the lambs, and set the faces of the 40 flocks toward the streaked and all the brown in the flock of Lavan; and he put his own flocks by themselves, and put them not to Lavan's cattle. And it came to pass, whenever the stronger 41 cattle did conceive, that Ya'aqov laid the rods before the eyes of the cattle in the gutters, that they might conceive among the rods. But when the cattle were feeble, he did not put them in: 42 so the feebler were Lavan's, and the stronger Ya'aqov's. And the 43 man increased exceedingly, and had much cattle, and maidservants, and menservants, and camels, and asses. And he heard the 31 words of Lavan's sons, saying, Ya'aqov has taken away all that was our father's; and of that which was our father's has he gotten all his glory. And Ya'aqov beheld the face of Lavan, and, 2 behold, it was not towards him as before. And the LORD said to 3 Ya'aqov, Return to the land of thy fathers, and to thy kindred; and I will be with thee. And Ya'aqov sent and called Raḥel and 4 Le'a to the field to his flock, and he said to them, I see your 5 father's face, that it is not towards me as before; but the GOD of my father has been with me. And you know that with all my 6 power I have served your father. And your father has deceived 7 me, and changed my wages ten times; but GOD did not allow him to hurt me. If he said thus, The speckled shall be thy wages; 8 then all the flock bore speckled: and if he said thus, The streaked shall be thy hire; then all the flock bore streaked. Thus GOD 9 has taken away the cattle of your father, and given it to me.

And it came to pass at the time that the flock conceived, that 10
I raised my eyes, and saw in a dream, and, behold, the rams which leaped upon the cattle were streaked, speckled, and grizzled. And the angel of GOD spoke to me in a dream, saying, 11 Ya'aqov: And I said, Here I am. And he said, Lift up now thy 12 eyes, and see, all the rams which leap upon the flock are streaked, speckled, and grizzled: for I have seen all that Lavan does to thee. I am the GOD of Bet-el, where thou didst anoint 13 a pillar, and where thou didst vow a vow to me: now arise, get out of this land, and return to the land of thy birth. And Raḥel 14 and Le'a answered and said to him, Is there yet any portion or inheritance for us in our father's house? Are we not counted 15 strangers by him? for he has sold us, and has quite devoured also our money. For all the riches which GOD has taken from our 16 father, it is ours, and our children's: now then, whatever GOD has said to thee, do. Then Ya'aqov rose up, and set his sons and 17 his wives on the camels; and he carried away all his cattle, and 18 all his goods which he had acquired, the cattle of his getting, which he had acquired in Paddan-aram, to go to Yiẓḥaq his father in the land of Kena'an. And Lavan went to shear his sheep. Now 19

Raḥel had stolen the images that were her father's. And Ya'aqov 20 outwitted Lavan the Arammian, in that he told him not that he fled. So he fled with all that he had; and he rose up, and passed 21 over the river and set his face toward the mount Gil'ad. And it 22 was told Lavan on the third day that Ya'aqov was fled. And he 23 took his brethren with him, and pursued after him a seven days' journey; and they overtook him in the mount Gil'ad. And GOD 24 came to Lavan the Arammian in a dream by night, and said to him, Take heed that thou speak not to Ya'aqov either good or bad. Then Lavan overtook Ya'akov. Now Ya'aqov had pitched his 25 tent in the mount: and Lavan with his brethren pitched in the mount of Gil'ad. And Lavan said to Ya'aqov, What hast thou 26 done, that thou hast cheated me, and carried away my daughters, as captives taken with the sword? Why didst thou flee away 27 secretly, and rob me; and didst not tell me, that I might have sent thee away with mirth, and with songs, with timbrel, and with lyre? And hast not suffered me to kiss my sons and my daugh- 28 ters? thou hast now done foolishly. It is in the power of my hand 29 to do you hurt: but the GOD of your father spoke to me last night, saying, Take thou heed that thou speak not to Ya'aqov either good or bad. And now, though thou wouldst needs be 30 gone, because thou dost long after thy father's house, yet why hast thou stolen my gods? And Ya'aqov answered and said to 31 Lavan, Because I was afraid: for I said, Perhaps thou wouldst take by force thy daughters from me. Anyone with whom thou 32 findest thy gods, let him not live: before our brethren discern thou what is thine with me, and take it to thee. For Ya'aqov knew not that Raḥel had stolen them. And Lavan went into 33 Ya'aqov's tent, and into Le'a's tent, and into the two maidservants' tents; but he found them not. Then he went out of Le'a's tent, and entered into Raḥel's tent. Now Raḥel had taken the 34 images, and put them in the camel's saddle, and sat upon them.
And Lavan searched all the tent, but found them not. And she 35 said to her father, Let it not displease my lord that I cannot rise up before thee; for the way of women is upon me. And he searched, but found not the images. And Ya'aqov was angry 36 and strove with Lavan: and Ya'aqov answered and said to Lavan, What is my trespass? what is my sin, that thou hast so hotly pursued after me? Although thou hast searched all my stuff what 37 hast thou found of all thy household goods? set it here before my brethren and thy brethren, that they may judge between us both. This twenty years have I been with thee; thy ewes and 38 thy she goats have not cast their young, and the rams of thy flock have I not eaten. That which was torn of beasts I brought 39 not to thee; I bore the loss of it; of my hand didst thou require it, whether stolen by day, or stolen by night. Thus I was; in the 40 day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night; and my sleep departed from my eyes. Thus have I been twenty years in 41 thy house; I served thee fourteen years for thy two daughters, and six years for thy cattle: and thou hast changed my wages ten times. Were it not that the GOD of my father, the GOD of 42 Avraham, and the Fear of Yiẓḥaq, had been with me, surely thou hadst sent me away now empty. GOD has seen my affliction and the labour of my hands, and he rebuked thee last night. And 43 Lavan answered and said to Ya'aqov, These daughters are my daughters, and these children are my children, and these cattle are my cattle, and all that thou seest is mine: and what can I do this day for these my daughters, or for their children whom they have born? Now therefore come thou, let us make a cove- 44 nant, I and thou; and let it be for a witness between me and thee. And Ya'aqov took a stone, and set it up for a pillar. 45 And Ya'aqov said to his brethren, Gather stones; and they took 46 stones, and made a heap: and they did eat there upon the heap.

And Lavan called it Yegar-sahaduta: but Ya'aqov called it 47 Gal'ed. And Lavan said, This heap is a witness between me and 48 thee this day. Therefore was the name of it called Gal'ed; and 49 also Miẓpa; for he said, The LORD watch between me and thee, when we are absent one from another. If thou shalt afflict my 50 daughters, or if thou shalt take other wives beside my daughters, no man is with us; see, GOD is witness between me and thee.
And Lavan said to Ya'aqov, Behold this heap, and behold this 51 pillar, which I have set between me and thee; this heap be 52 witness, and this pillar be witness, that I will not pass over this heap to thee, and that thou shalt not pass over this heap and this pillar to me, for harm. The GOD of Avraham, and the god 53 of Naḥor, the god of their father, judge between us. And Ya'aqov swore by the Fear of his father Yiẓḥaq. Then Ya'aqov offered 54 sacrifice upon the mount, and called his brethren to eat bread:
and they did eat bread, and tarried all night on the mountain.
And early in the morning Lavan rose up, and kissed his sons and 32 his daughters, and blessed them: and Lavan departed, and re- . turned to his place. And Ya'aqov went on his way, and angels 2 of GOD met him. And when Ya'aqov saw them, he said, This is 3 GOD's camp: and he called the name of that place Maḥanayim.

VAYYISHLAḤ And Ya'aqov sent messengers before him to 'Esav his brother 4 to the land of Se'ir, the country of Edom. And he commanded 5 them, saying, Thus shall you speak to my lord 'Esav; Thy servant Ya'aqov says thus, I have sojourned with Lavan, and stayed there until now: and I have oxen, and asses, flocks, and men- 6 servants, and womenservants: and I have sent to tell my lord, that I may find favour in thy sight. And the messengers returned 7 to Ya'aqov, saying, We came to thy brother 'Esav, and also he is coming to meet thee, and four hundred men with him. Then 8 Ya'aqov was greatly afraid and distressed: and he divided the people that were with him, and the flocks, and herds, and the camels, into two camps; and said, If 'Esav come to the one camp, 9 and smite it, then the camp which is left shall escape. And 10 Ya'aqov said, O GOD of my father Avraham, and GOD of my father Yiẓḥaq, the LORD who did say to me, Return to thy country, and to thy kindred, and I will deal well with thee: I am 11 unworthy of the least of all the mercies, and of all the truth, which thou hast shown thy servant; for with my staff I passed over this Yarden; and now I am become two camps. Deliver 12 me, I pray thee, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of 'Esav: for I fear him, lest he come and smite me, the mother with the children. And thou didst say, I will surely do thee good, 13 and make thy seed like the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude. And he lodged there that same night; 14 and took of that which came to his hand a present for 'Esav his brother; two hundred she goats, and twenty he goats, two 15 hundred ewes, and twenty rams, thirty milch camels with their 16 colts, forty cows, and ten bulls, twenty she asses, and ten foals.

And he delivered them into the hand of his servants, every drove 17 by itself; and said to his servants, Pass over before me, and put a space between drove and drove. And he commanded the fore- 18 most, saying, When 'Esav my brother meets thee, and asks thee, saying, Whose art thou? and whither dost thou go? and whose are these before thee? Then thou shalt say, They are thy servant 19 Ya'aqov's, it is a present sent to my lord 'Esav: and, behold, also he is behind us. And so commanded he the second, and the third, 20 and all that followed the droves, saying, In this manner shall you speak to 'Esav, when you find him. And say moreover, Be- 21 hold, thy servant Ya'aqov is behind us. For he said, I will appease him with the present that goes before me, and afterwards I will see his face; perhaps he will accept me. So the 22 present went over before him: and he himself lodged that night in the camp. And he rose up that night, and took his two 23 wives, and his two womenservants, and his eleven sons, and passed over the ford of Yabboq. And he took them, and sent 24 them over the wadi, and sent over that which he had. And 25 Ya'aqov was left alone; and there wrestled a man with him until the breaking of the day. And when he saw that he did 26 not prevail against him, he touched the hollow of his thigh; and the hollow of Ya'aqov's thigh was put out of joint, as he wrestled with him. And he said, Let me go, for the day breaks. And he 27 said, I will not let thee go, unless thou bless me. And he said to 28 him, What is thy name? And he said, Ya'aqov. And he said, 29 Thy name shall be called no more Ya'aqov, but Yisra'el: for thou hast contended with God and with men, and hast prevailed.
And Ya'aqov asked him, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, thy 30 name. And he said, Why is it that thou dost ask after my name? And he blessed him there. And Ya'aqov called the name 31 of the place Peni'el: for I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved. And as he passed over Penu'el the sun rose 32 upon him, and he limped upon his thigh. Therefore the children 33 of Yisra'el eat not of the sinew of the vein, which is upon the hollow of the thigh, to this day: because he touched the hollow of Ya'aqov's thigh in the sinew of the vein. And Ya'aqov lifted 33 up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, 'Esav came, and with him four hundred men. And he divided the children to Le'a, and to Raḥel, and to the two handmaids. And he put the handmaids 2 and their children foremost, and Le'a and her children after, and Raḥel and Yosef last of all. And he passed over before them, 3 and bowed himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother. And 'Esav ran to meet him, and embraced 4 him, and fell on his neck, and kissed him: and they wept. And 5 he lifted up his eyes, and saw the women and the children; and said, Who are those with thee? And he said, The children which GOD has graciously given thy servant. Then the hand- 6 maidens came near, they and their children, and they bowed themselves. And Le'a also with her children came near, and 7 bowed themselves: and after came Yosef near and Raḥel, and they bowed themselves. And he said, What meanest thou by 8 all this drove which I met? And he said, These are to find favour in the sight of my lord. And 'Esav said, I have enough, my bro- 9 ther; keep what thou hast to thyself. And Ya'aqov said, By no 10 means, if now I have found favour in thy sight, then receive my present at my hand: for truly I have seen thy face, as though I had seen the face an angel, and thou wast pleased with me.

Take, I pray thee, my blessing that is brought to thee; because 11
GOD has dealt graciously with me, and because I have enough.
And he urged him, and he took it. And he said, Let us take our 12 journey, and let us go, and I will go before thee. And he said to 13 him, My lord knows that the children are tender, and the flocks and herds giving suck are a care for me: and if they should overdrive them one day, all the flock will die. Let my lord, I pray 14 thee, pass over before his servant: and I will lead on slowly, according to the pace of the cattle that goes before me and the children, until I come to my lord to Se'ir. And 'Esav said, Let me 15 now leave with thee some of the folk that are with me. And he said, What need is there? let me find favour in the sight of my lord. So 'Esav returned that day on his way to Se'ir. 16 And Ya'aqov journeyed to Sukkot, and built him a house, and 17 made booths for his cattle: therefore the name of the place is called Sukkot. And Ya'aqov came to Shalem, a city of 18 Shekhem, which is in the land of Kena'an, when he came from Paddan-aram; and pitched his tent before the city. And he 19 bought the piece of land on which he had spread his tent, at the hand of the children of Ḥamor, Shekhem's father, for a hundred pieces of money. And he erected there an altar, and 20 called it El-elohe-yisra'el. And Dina the daughter of Le'a, 34 whom she bore to Ya'aqov, went out to see the daughters of the land. And when Shekhem the son of Ḥamor the Ḥivvite, prince 2 of the country, saw her, he took her, and lay with her, and defiled her. And his soul was drawn to Dina the daughter of 3 Ya'aqov, and he loved the girl, and spoke kindly to the girl.
And Shekhem spoke to his father Ḥamor, saying, Get me this 4 child for a wife. And Ya'aqov heard that he had defiled Dina 5 his daughter: now his sons were with his cattle in the field: and Ya'aqov held his peace until they were come. And Ḥamor 6 the father of Shekhem went out to Ya'aqov to speak with him.
And the sons of Ya'aqov came from the field when they heard 7 it: and the men were grieved, and they were very angry, because he had done a disgraceful thing in Yisra'el in lying with Ya'aqov's daughter; which thing ought not to be done. And Ḥamor spoke 8 with them, saying, The soul of my son Shekhem longs for your daughter: I pray you give her him to wife. And make marriages 9 with us; give your daughters to us, and take our daughters to you. And you shall dwell with us: and the land shall be before 10 you; dwell and trade in it, and get property in it. And Shekhem 11 said to her father and to her brethren, Let me find favour in your eyes, and what you shall say to me I will give. Ask me 12 never so much dowry and gift, and I will give according as you shall say to me: but give me the girl for a wife. And the sons 13 of Ya'aqov answered Shekhem and Ḥamor his father with cunning, because he had defiled Dina their sister, and they spoke: and they said to them, We cannot do this thing, to give our 14 sister to one that is uncircumcised; for that would be a reproach to us: but in this will we consent to you: If you will be as we 15 are, that every male of you be circumcised; then will we give our 16 daughters to you, and we will take your daughters to us, and we will dwell with you, and we will become one people. But if you 17 will not hearken to us, to be circumcised; then will we take our daughter, and we will be gone. And their words pleased Ḥamor, 18 and Shekhem, Ḥamor's son. And the young man did not delay 19 to do the thing, because he had delight in Ya'aqov's daughter:

and he was the most honoured of all the house of his father.
And Ḥamor and Shekhem his son came to the gate of their city, 20 and spoke with the men of their city, saying, These men are 21 peaceable with us: therefore let them dwell in the land, and trade in it; for the land, behold, it is large enough for them; let us take their daughters to us for wives, and let us give them our daughters. Only on this condition will the men consent to 22 us to dwell with us, to be one people, if every male among us be circumcised, as they are circumcised. Shall not their cattle 23 and their substance and every beast of theirs be ours? only let us consent to them, and they will dwell with us. And to Ḥamor 24 and to Shekhem his son all that went out of the gate of his city hearkened; and every male was circumcised, all that went out of the gate of his city. And it came to pass on the third day, 25 when they were in pain, that two of the sons of Ya'aqov, Shim'on and Levi, Dina's brethren, took each man his sword, and came upon the city unresisted, and slew all the males. And they slew 26 Ḥamor and Shekhem his son with the edge of the sword, and took Dina out of Shekhem's house, and went out. The sons of Ya'aqov 27 came upon the slain, and plundered the city, because they had defiled their sister. They took their sheep, and their oxen, and 28 their asses, and that which was in the city, and that which was in the field, and all their wealth, and all their little ones, and 29 their wives they took captive, and plundered all that was in the house. And Ya'aqov said to Shim'on and Levi, You have brought 30 trouble on me to make me odious among the inhabitants of the land, among the Kena'ani and the Perizzi; and I being few in number, they shall gather themselves together against me, and slay me: and I shall be destroyed, I and my house. But they said, 31 Should he deal with our sister as with a harlot?

And God said to Ya'aqov, Arise, go up to Bet-el, and dwell there: 35 and make there an altar to God, who appeared to thee when thou didst flee from the face of 'Esav thy brother. Then Ya'aqov 2 said to his household, and to all that were with him, Put away the strange gods that are among you, and make yourselves clean, and change your garments: and let us arise, and go up to Bet- 3 el; and I will make there an altar to God, who answers me in the day of my distress, and was with me in the way on which I went. And they gave to Ya'aqov all the strange gods which 4 were in their hand, and all their earrings which were in their ears; and Ya'aqov hid them under the oak which was by Shekhem. And they journeyed: and the terror of GOD was upon the 5 cities that were round about them, and they did not pursue after the sons of Ya'aqov. So Ya'aqov came to Luz, which is in the 6 land of Kena'an, that is, Bet-el, he and all the people that were with him. And he built there an altar, and called the place El- 7 bet-el: because there GOD appeared to him, when he fled from the face of his brother. And Devora, Rivqa's nurse died, and she 8 was buried beneath Bet-el under an oak: and the name of it was called Allon-bakhut.

And GOD appeared to Ya'aqov again, when he came out of 9
Paddan-aram, and blessed him. And GOD said to him, Thy name 10 Ya'aqov: thy name shall not be called any more Ya'aqov, but Yisra'el shall be thy name: and he called his name Yisra'el.
And GOD said to him, I am GOD Almighty: be fruitful and mul- 11 tiply; a nation and a company of nations shall be of thee, and kings shall come out of thy loins; and the land which I gave to 12 Avraham and Yiẓḥaq, to thee I will give it, and to thy seed after thee will I give the land. And GOD went up from him in the place 13 where he talked with him. And Ya'aqov set up a pillar in the 14 place where he talked with him, a pillar of stone: and he poured a drink offering on it, and he poured oil on it. And Ya'aqov 15 called the name of the place where GOD had spoken with him, Bet-el. And they journeyed from Bet-el; and there was but a 16 little way to come to Efrat: and Raḥel travailed, and she had hard labour. And it came to pass, when she was in hard labour, 17 that the midwife said to her, Fear not; thou shalt have this son also. And it came to pass, as her soul was departing (for 18 she died), that she called his name Ben-oni: but his father called him Binyamin. And Raḥel died, and was buried in the 19 way to Efrat, which is Bet-leḥem. And Ya'aqov set a pillar upon 20 her grave: that is the pillar of Raḥel's grave to this day. And 21 Yisra'el journeyed, and pitched his tent beyond the tower of 'Eder. And it came to pass, when Yisra'el dwelt in that land, 22 that Re'uven went and lay with Bilha his father's concubine:
and Yisra'el heard of it.
Now the sons of Ya'aqov were twelve: the sons of Le'a; Re'u- 23 ven, Ya'aqov's first-born, and Shim'on and Levi, and Yehuda, and Yissakhar and Zevulun. The sons of Raḥel; Yosef and 24 Binyamin. And the sons of Bilha, Raḥel's handmaid; Dan, and 25
Naftali. And the sons of Zilpa, Le'a's handmaid; Gad, and 26 Asher: these are the sons of Ya'aqov who were born to him in Paddan-aram. And Ya'aqov came to Yiẓḥaq his father to Mamre, 27 to the city of Arba, which is Ḥevron, where Avraham and Yiẓḥaq sojourned. And the days of Yiẓḥaq were a hundred and eighty 28 years. And Yiẓḥaq expired, and died, and was gathered to his 29 people, being old and full of days: and his sons 'Esav and Ya'aqov buried him.

Now these are the generations of 'Esav, who is Edom. 'Esav 1,2

Elon the Ḥittite, and Aholivama, daughter of 'Ana, daughter of Ẓiv'on the Ḥivvite; and Basemat, daughter of Yishma'el, sister 3 of Nevayot. And 'Ada bore to 'Esav Elifaz; and Basemat bore 4 Re'u'el; and Aholivama bore Ye'ush and Ya'lam, and Qoraḥ: 5 these were the sons of 'Esav who were born to him in the land of Kena'an. And 'Esav took his wives, and his sons, and his 6 daughters, and all the persons of his house, and his cattle, and all his beasts, and all his substance, which he had acquired in the land of Kena'an; and went into another country away from his brother Ya'aqov. For their property was too great for them 7 to dwell together; and the land in which they sojourned could not bear them because of their cattle. Thus dwelt 'Esav in mount 8 Se'ir: 'Esav is Edom. And these are the generations of 'Esav the 9 father of Edom in mount Se'ir: these are the names of 'Esav's 10 sons; Elifaz the son of 'Ada the wife of 'Esav, Re'u'el the son of Basemat the wife of 'Esav. And the sons of Elifaz were Teman, 11 Omar, Ẓefo, and Ga'tam, and Qenaz. And Timna was concubine 12 to Elifaz 'Esav's son; and she bore to Elifaz 'Amaleq; these were the sons of 'Ada 'Esav's wife. And these are the sons of Re'u'el; 13 Naḥat, and Zeraḥ, Shamma, and Mizza: these were the sons of Basemat 'Esav's wife. And these were the sons of Aholivama, 14 the daughter of 'Ana the daughter of Ẓiv'on, 'Esav's wife: and she bore to 'Esav Ye'ush, and Ya'lam, and Qoraḥ. These were 15 the chiefs of the sons of 'Esav: the sons of Elifaz the firstborn son of 'Esav; the chief Teman, the chief Omar, the chief Ẓefo, the chief Qenaz, the chief Qoraḥ, the chief Ga'tam, the chief 16
'Amaleq: these are the chiefs of Elifaz in the land of Edom; these were the sons of 'Ada. And these are the sons of Re'u'el 17
'Esav's son; the chief Naḥat, the chief Zeraḥ, the chief Shamma, the chief Mizza: these are the chiefs that came of Re'u'el in the land of Edom; these are the sons of Basemat 'Esav's wife. And 18 these are the sons of Aholivama 'Esav's wife; the chief Ye'ush, the chief Ya'lam, the chief Qoraḥ: these were the chiefs that came of Aholivama the daughter of 'Ana, 'Esav's wife. These are 19 the sons of 'Esav, who is Edom, and these are their chiefs.

These are the sons of Se'ir the Ḥorian who inhabited the 20 land; Lotan, and Shoval, and Ẓiv'on and 'Ana. And Dishon, and 21 Eẓer, and Dishan: these are the chiefs of the Ḥori, the children of Se'ir in the land of Edom. And the children of Lotan were 22 Ḥori and Hemam; and Lotan's sister was Timna. And the child- 23 ren of Shoval were these; 'Alevan, and Manaḥat, and 'Eval, Shefo, and Onam. And these are the children of Ẓiv'on; both 24
Ayya, and 'Ana: this was that 'Ana that found the hot springs in the wilderness, as he fed the asses of Ẓiv'on his father. And 25 the children of 'Ana were these; Dishon, and Aholivama the daughter of 'Ana. And these are the children of Dishan; Ḥemdan, 26 and Eshban, and Yitran, and Keran. The children of Eẓer are 27 these; Bilhan, and Za'avan, and 'Aqan. The children of Dishan 28

And these are the kings that reigned in the land of Edom, before 31 there reigned any king over the children of Yisra'el. And Bela 32 the son of Be'or reigned in Edom: and the name of his city was Dinhava. And Bela died, and Yovav the son of Zeraḥ of Boẓra 33 reigned in his place; and Yovav died, and Ḥusham of the land 34 of the Temani reigned in his place; and Ḥusham died, and Hadad 35

ter of Me-zahav. And these are the names of the chiefs that came 40 of 'Esav, according to their families, after their places, by their names; the chief Timna, the chief 'Aleva, the chief Yetet, the 41 chief Aholivama, the chief Ela, the chief Pinon, the chief Qenaz, 42 the chief Teman, the chief Mivẓar, the chief Magdi'el, the chief 43
'Iram: these are the chiefs of Edom, according to their settlements in the land of their possession. He is 'Esav the father of Edom.

VAYYESHEV And Ya'aqov dwelt in the land in which his father had sojourned, 37 in the land of Kena'an. These are the generations of Ya'aqov. 2 Yosef being seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brethren; and the lad was with the sons of Bilha, and with the sons of Zilpa, his father's wives: and Yosef brought to his father their evil report. Now Yisra'el loved Yosef more than all his 3 children, because he was the son of his old age: and he made him a coat with long sleeves. And when his brethren saw that 4 their father loved him more than all his brothers, they hated him, and could not speak peaceably to him. And Yosef dreamed 5 a dream, and he told it his brethren: and they hated him yet the more. And he said to them, Hear, I pray you, this dream which 6 I have dreamed: for, behold, we were binding sheaves in the 7 field, and, lo, my sheaf arose, and also stood upright; and, behold, your sheaves stood round about, and bowed down to my sheaf. And his brethren said to him, Shalt thou indeed reign 8 over us? or shalt thou indeed have dominion over us? And they hated him yet the more for his dreams, and for his words. And 9 he dreamed yet another dream, and told it his brethren, and said, Behold, I have again dreamed a dream; and, behold, the sun and the moon and the eleven stars bowed down to me. And 10 he told it to his father, and to his brothers: and his father rebuked him, and said to him, What is this dream that thou hast dreamed?
Shall I and thy mother and thy brothers indeed come to bow down ourselves to thee to the earth? And his brothers envied 11 him; but his father kept the matter in mind. And his brothers 12 went to feed their father's flock in Shekhem. And Yisra'el said 13 to Yosef, Do not thy brothers feed the flock in Shekhem? come, and I will send thee to them. And he said to him, Here I am.
And he said to him, Go, I pray thee, see whether it be well with 14 thy brothers, and well with the flocks; and bring me word again.

So he sent him out of the vale of Ḥevron, and he came to Shekhem. And a certain man found him, and, behold, he was 15 wandering in the field: and the man asked him, saying, What seekest thou? And he said, I seek my brothers: tell me, I pray 16 thee, where they feed their flocks. And the man said, They are 17 departed from here; for I heard them say, Let us go to Dotan.
And Yosef went after his brothers, and found them in Dotan.
And when they saw him afar off, even before he came near to 18 them, they conspired against him to slay him. And they said one 19 to another, Behold, this dreamer comes. Come now therefore, 20 and let us slay him, and cast him into some pit, and we will say, An evil beast has devoured him: and we shall see what will become of his dreams. And Re'uven heard it, and he delivered 21 him out of their hands; and said, Let us not kill him. And Re'uven 22 said to them, Shed no blood, but cast him into this pit that is in the wilderness, and lay no hand upon him; that he might save him out of their hands, to deliver him back to his father. And it 23 came to pass, when Yosef was come to his brethren, that they stripped Yosef of his coat, the long sleeved coat that was on 24 him. And they took him, and cast him into a pit: and the pit was empty; there was no water in it. And they sat down to eat bread: 25 and they lifted up their eyes and looked, and, behold, a company of Yishme'elim came from Gil'ad with their camels bearing gum balm and ladanum, going to carry it down to Miẓrayim. And 26 Yehuda said to his brothers, What profit is it if we slay our brother, and conceal his blood? Come, and let us sell him to the 27 Yishme'elim, and let not our hand be upon him; for he is our brother and our flesh. And his brothers hearkened to him. Then 28 there passed by Midyanim, merchants; and they drew and lifted up Yosef out of the pit, and sold Yosef to the Yishme'elim for twenty pieces of silver: and they brought Yosef into Miẓrayim. And Re'uven returned to the pit; and, behold, Yosef 29 was not in the pit; and he rent his clothes. And he returned to 30 his brothers, and said, The child is not; and I, where shall I go?
And they took Yosef's coat, and killed a kid of the goats, and 31 dipped the coat in the blood; and they sent the coat with long 32 sleeves, and they brought it to their father; and said, This we have found: know now whether it be thy son's coat or no. And 33 he knew it, and said, It is my son's coat; an evil beast has devoured him; Yosef is without doubt torn in pieces. And Ya'aqov 34 rent his clothes, and put sackcloth on his loins, and mourned for his son many days. And all his sons and all his daughters rose 35 up to comfort him; but he refused to be comforted; and he said, For I will go down to my son mourning into She'ol. Thus his father wept for him. And the Midyanim sold him to Miẓrayim 36 to Potifar, Par'o's chamberlain, a captain of the guard.

And it came to pass at that time, that Yehuda went down from 38 his brothers, and turned in to a certain 'Adullamite, whose name was Ḥira. And Yehuda saw there a daughter of a certain Kena- 2
'anite, whose name was Shu'a; and he took her, and went in to her. And she conceived, and bore a son; and he called his name 3
'Er. And she conceived again, and bore a son; and she called his 4 name Onan. And she yet again conceived, and bore a son; and 5 called his name Shela: and he was at Keziv, when she bore him.

And Yehuda took a wife for 'Er his firstborn, whose name was 6 Tamar. And 'Er, Yehuda's firstborn, was wicked in the sight 7 of the LORD; and the LORD slew him. And Yehuda said to Onan, 8 Go in to thy brother's wife, and perform the duty of a brother in law, and raise up seed to thy brother. And Onan knew that 9 the seed would not be his; and it came to pass, when he went in to his brother's wife, that he spilled it on the ground, lest he should give seed to his brother. And the thing which he did 10 displeased the LORD: So he slew him also. Then said Yehu- 11 da to Tamar his daughter in law, Remain a widow at thy father's home, till Shela my son be grown: for he said, Lest perchance he die also, as his brothers did. And Tamar went and dwelt in her father's house. And in process of time the daughter 12 of Shu'a Yehuda's wife died; and when Yehuda was comforted, he went up to his sheepshearers to Timna, he and his friend Hira the 'Adullamite. And it was told Tamar, saying, Behold thy 13 father in law goes up to Timna to shear his sheep. And she put 14 off her widow's garments, and covered herself with a veil, and wrapped herself, and sat by the entrance to 'Enayim, which is by the way to Timna; for she saw that Shela was grown, and she was not given to him to wife. When Yehuda saw her, he thought 15 her to be a harlot; because she had covered her face. And he turned 16 to her by the way, and said, Come now, I pray thee, let me come in to thee (for he knew not that she was his daughter in law.)
And she said, What wilt thou give me, that thou mayst come in to me? And he said, I will send thee a kid from the flock. And 17 she said, Wilt thou give me a pledge, till thou send it? And he 18 said, What pledge shall I give thee? And she said, Thy signet, and thy cord, and thy staff that is in thy hand. And he gave it her, and came in to her, and she conceived by him. And she arose, 19 and went away, and laid by her veil from her, and put on the garments of her widowhood. And Yehuda sent the kid by the 20 hand of his friend the 'Adullamite, to receive his pledge from the woman's hand: but he found her not. Then he asked the men 21 of that place, saying, Where is the harlot, that was at 'Enayim by the wayside? And they said, There was no harlot in this place.
And he returned to Yehuda, and said, I cannot find her; and 22 also the men of the place said, There was no harlot in this place. And Yehuda said, Let her take it to her, lest we be 23 shamed: behold, I sent this kid, and thou hast not found her.
And it came to pass about three months after, that it was told 24 Yehuda, saying, Tamar thy daughter in law has played the harlot; and also, behold, she is with child by harlotry. And Yehuda said, Bring her out and let her be burnt. When she was 25 brought forth, she sent to her father in law, saying, By the man, whose these are, am I with child: and she said, Discern, I pray thee, whose are these, the signet, and the cord, and the staff. And 26 Yehuda acknowledged them, and said, She has been more righteous than I; because I gave her not to Shela my son. And he knew her again no more. And it came to pass in the time of her 27 travail, that, behold, twins were in her womb. And it came to 28 pass, when she travailed, that the one put out his hand: and the midwife took and bound upon his hand a scarlet thread, saying, This came out first. And it came to pass, as he drew 29 back his hand, that, behold, his brother came out: and she said, Why hast thou made such a breach for thyself? Therefore his name was called Perez. And afterward his brother came 30 out, that had the scarlet thread upon his hand: and his name was called Zerah. And Yosef was brought down to Mizra- 39 a Mizrian, bought him of the hands of the Yishme'elim, who had brought him down there. And the LORD was with Yosef, 2 and he was a successful man; and he was in the house of his master the Mizrian. And his master saw that the LORD was with 3 him, and that the LORD made all that he did to prosper in his hand. And Yosef found favour in his sight, and served him: 4 and he made him overseer over his house, and all that he had he put into his hand. And it came to pass from the time that he 5 had made him overseer in his house, and over all that he had,

that the LORD blessed the Mizrian's house for Yosef's sake; and the blessing of the LORD was upon all that he had in the house, and in the field. And he left all that he had in Yosef's 6 hand; and he knew not ought he had, save the bread which he did eat. And Yosef was a goodlooking person, and well favoured.
And it came to pass after these things, that his master's wife 7 cast her eyes upon Yosef; and she said, Lie with me. But he 8 refused, and said to his master's wife, Behold, my master knows not what is with me in the house, and he has committed all that he has to my hand; there is none greater in this house 9 than I; neither has he kept back anything from me but thee, because thou art his wife: how then can I do this great wickedness, and sin against GOD? And it came to pass, as she spoke 10 to Yosef day by day, that he hearkened not to her, to lie by her, or to be with her. And it came to pass about this time, 11 that Yosef went into the house to do his work; and there was none of the men of the house there within. And she caught him 12 by his garment, saying, Lie with me: and he left his garment in her hand, and fled, and went outside. And it came to pass, 13 when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand, and was fled outside, that she called to the men of her house, and 14 spoke to them, saying, See, he has brought in a Hebrew to us to mock us; he came in to me to lie with me, and I cried with a loud voice: and it came to pass, when he heard that I lifted 15 up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled, and went outside. And she laid up his garment by her, 16 until his lord came home. And she spoke to him according to 17 these words, saying, The Hebrew servant, whom thou hast brought to us, came in to me to have his sport with me. And it 18 came to pass, as I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled outside. And it came to pass, when 19 his master heard the words of his wife, which she spoke to him, saying, After this manner did thy servant to me; that his anger burned. And Yosef's master took him, and put him 20 into the prison, a place where the king's prisoners were bound: and he was there in the prison. But the LORD was with Yosef, 21 and showed him mercy, and gave him favour in the sight of the officer of the prison. And the officer of the prison committed to Yosef's hand all the prisoners that were in the prison; and whatever they did there, he was the doer of it. The keeper of the prison looked not to anything that was under his hand; because the LORD was with him, and that which he did, the LORD made it prosper.

40 And it came to pass after these things, that the butler of the king of Miẓrayim, and his baker, offended their lord the king of Miẓrayim. And Par'o was angry against two of his officers, against the chief of the butlers, and against the chief of the bakers. And he put them in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, into the prison, the place where Yosef was bound. And the captain of the guard charged Yosef with them, and he served them: and they continued a season in custody. And they dreamed a dream both of them, each man his dream on the same night, each man according to the interpretation of his dream, the butler and the baker of the king of Miẓrayim, who were bound in the prison. And Yosef came in to them in the morning, and looked upon them, and, behold, they were sad. And he asked Par'o's officers that were with him in custody in his lord's house, saying, Why do you look so sadly today? And they said to him, We have dreamed a dream, and there is no interpreter of it. And Yosef said to them, Do not interpretations belong to GOD? tell me them, I pray you. And the chief butler told his dream to Yosef, and said to him, In my dream, behold, a vine was before me; and on the vine were three tendrils: and it was as though it budded, and its blossoms shot forth; and its clusters brought forth ripe grapes: and Par'o's cup was in my hand: and I took the grapes, and pressed them into Par'o's cup, and I gave the cup into Par'o's hand. And Yosef said to him, This is the interpretation of it: The three tendrils are three days: within another three days shall Par'o lift up thy head, and restore thee to thy place: and thou shalt deliver Par'o's cup into his hand, after the former manner when thou wast his butler. But think of me when it shall be well with thee, and show kindness, I pray thee, to me, and make mention of me to Par'o, and bring me out of this house: for I was stolen away out of the land of the Hebrews: and here also have I done nothing that they should put me into the dungeon. When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said to Yosef, I also in my dream, behold, I had three baskets of white bread on my head. And in the uppermost basket there was of all manner of baked food for Par'o; and the birds did eat them out of the basket upon my head. And Yosef answered and said, This is its interpretation: The three baskets are three days: within another three days shall Par'o lift up thy head from off thee, and shall hang thee on a tree; and the birds shall eat thy flesh from off thee. And it came to pass on the third day, which was Par'o's birthday, that he made a feast for all his servants: and he lifted up the head of the chief butler and of the chief baker among his servants. And he restored the chief butler to his butlership again; and he gave the cup into Par'o's hand; but he hanged the chief baker: as Yosef had interpreted 22 to them. Nevertheless the chief butler did not remember Yosef, 23 but forgot him.

MIQQEẒ And it came to pass at the end of two years, that Par'o dreamed: 41 and, behold, he stood by the River. And, behold, there came up 2 out of the River seven cows, well favoured, and fat of flesh; and they fed in the reed grass. And, behold, seven other cows came up 3 after them out of the River, ill favoured and lean of flesh; and stood by the other cows upon the brink of the River. And the 4 ill favoured and leanfleshed cows ate up the seven well favoured and fat cows. So Par'o awoke. And he slept and dreamed a 5 second time: and, behold, seven ears of corn came up on one stalk, plump and good. And, behold, seven ears thin, and blasted 6 by the east wind sprang up after them. And the seven thin 7 ears devoured the seven plump and full ears. And Par'o awoke, and, behold, it was a dream. And it came to pass in the morning 8 that his spirit was troubled; and he sent and called for all the magicians of Miẓrayim, and all her wise men: and Par'o told them his dream; but there was none that could interpret them to Par'o. Then spoke the chief butler to Par'o, saying, I do re- 9 member my faults this day: Par'o was angry with his servants, 10 and put me in custody in the officer of the guard's house, both me and the chief baker: and we dreamed a dream in one night, 11
I and he; we dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dream. And there was there with us a young man, a 12 Hebrew, servant to the officer of the guard; and we told him, and he interpreted to us our dreams; to each man according to his dream he did interpret. And it came to pass, as he inter- 13 preted to us, so it was; I was restored to my office, and he was hanged. Then Par'o sent and called Yosef, and they brought 14 him hastily out of the dungeon: and he shaved himself, and changed his garments, and came in to Par'o. And Par'o said 15 to Yosef, I have dreamed a dream, and there is none that can interpret it: and I have heard say of thee, that thou canst understand a dream to interpret it. And Yosef answered Par'o, 16 saying, it is not me: God shall give Par'o a favourable answer.
And Par'o said to Yosef, In my dream, behold, I stood upon the 17 bank of the River: and, behold, there came up out of the River 18 seven cows, fat of flesh and well favoured; and they fed in the reed grass: and, behold, seven other cows came up after them, 19 poor and very ill favoured and lean of flesh, such as I never saw in all the land of Miẓrayim for badness: and the lean and the 20 ill favoured cows did eat up the first seven fat cows: and when 21 they had eaten them up, it could not be known that they had eaten them; for they were still ill favoured, as at the beginning.
So I awoke. And I saw in my dream, and, behold, seven ears 22 came up on one stalk, full and good: and, behold, seven ears, 23 withered, thin, and blasted by the east wind, sprang up after them: and the thin ears devoured the seven good ears: and 24 I told this to the magicians; but there was none that could explain it to me. And Yosef said to Par'o, The dream of Par'o 25 is one: GOD has declared to Par'o what he is about to do. The se- 26 ven good cows are seven years; and the seven good ears are seven years: the dream is one. And the seven thin and ill favoured 27 cows that came up after them are seven years: and the seven empty ears blasted with the east wind shall be seven years of famine. This is the thing which I have spoken to Par'o: What 28 GOD is about to do he has shown to Par'o. Behold, there come 29 seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Miẓrayim.

And there shall arise after them seven years of famine; and all 30 the plenty shall be forgotten in the land of Miẓrayim; and the famine shall consume the land; and the plenty shall not be 31 known in the land by reason of that famine following; for it shall be very grievous. And as for the repetition of the dream 32 to Par'o twice; it is because the thing is fast determined by GOD, and GOD will shortly bring it to pass. Now therefore let 33 Par'o look out a man discreet and wise, and set him over the land of Miẓrayim. Let Par'o do this, and let him appoint officers 34 over the land, and take up the fifth part of the land of Miẓrayim in the seven years of plenty. And let them gather all the food 35 of those good years that come, and lay up corn under the hand of Par'o, and let them keep food in the cities. And that food 36 shall be for store to the land against the seven years of famine, which shall be in the land of Miẓrayim; that the land perish not through the famine. And the thing was good in the eyes 37 of Par'o, and in the eyes of all his servants. And Par'o said 38 to his servants, Can we find such a one as this is, a man in whom is the spirit of GOD? And Par'o said to Yosef, since GOD 39 has shown thee all this, there is none so discreet and wise as thou art: thou shalt be over my house, and according to thy 40 word shall all my people be ruled: only in the throne will I be greater than thou. And Par'o said to Yosef, See, I have set thee 41 over all the land of Miẓrayim. And Par'o took off his ring from 42 his hand, and put it on Yosef's hand, and arrayed him in garments of fine linen, and put a gold chain about his neck; and he made him to ride in the second chariot which he had; and they 43 cried before him, Avrekh (Bow the knee): and made him ruler over all the land of Miẓrayim. And Par'o said to Yosef, I am 44 Par'o, and without thee shall no man lift up his hand or foot in all the land of Miẓrayim. And Par'o called Yosef's name, 45 Ẓafenat-pa'neaḥ; and he gave him to wife Asenat the daughter of Poti-fera priest of On. And Yosef went out over all the land of Miẓrayim. And Yosef was thirty years old when he stood 46 before Par'o, king of Miẓrayim. And Yosef went out from the presence of Par'o, and went through all the land of Miẓrayim.
And in the seven years of plenty the earth brought forth by 47 heaps. And he gathered up all the food of the seven years, 48 which were in the land of Miẓrayim, and laid up the food in the cities: the food of the field, which was round about every city, laid he up within it. And Yosef gathered corn like the 49 sand of the sea, very much, until he stopped numbering; for it was without number. And to Yosef were born two sons before 50 the years of famine came, whom Asenat the daughter of Poti-fera priest of On bore to him. And Yosef called the name of 51 the firstborn Menashshe: For God, said he, has made me forget all my toil, and all my father's house. And the name of the 52 second he called Efrayim: For God has caused me to be fruitful in the land of my affliction. And the seven years of plenty, that 53 were in the land of Miẓrayim, were ended. And the seven years 54 of famine began to come, according as Yosef had said: and the famine was in all the lands; but in all the land of Miẓrayim there was bread. And when all the land of Miẓrayim was famished, 55 the people cried to Par'o for bread: and Par'o said to all Miẓrayim, Go to Yosef; what he says to you, do. And the famine 56 was over all the face of the earth: And Yosef opened all the storehouses, and sold to Miẓrayim; and the famine grew severe in the land of Miẓrayim. And all countries came to Miẓrayim to 57 Yosef to buy corn; because the famine was so severe in all the earth. Now when Ya'aqov saw that there was corn in Miẓrayim, 42 Ya'aqov said to his sons, Why do you look at one another? And 2 he said, Behold, I have heard that there is corn in Miẓrayim:

go down there, and buy for us from there, that we may live, and not die. And Yosef's ten brothers went down to buy corn 3 in Miẓrayim. But Binyamin, Yosef's brother, Ya'aqov sent not 4 with his brethren; for he said, Lest mischief befall him. And 5 the sons of Yisra'el came to buy corn among those that came: for the famine was in the land of Kena'an. And Yosef was the 6 governor of the land, and he it was that sold to all the people of the land: and Yosef's brothers came, and bowed themselves down before him with their faces to the earth. And Yosef saw 7 his brethren, and he knew them, but made himself strange to them, and spoke roughly to them; and he said to them, Where do you come from? And they said, From the land of Kena'an to buy food. And Yosef knew his brethren, but they knew 8 him not. And Yosef remembered the dreams which he had 9 dreamed about them, and he said to them, You are spies; to see the nakedness of the land are you come. And they said 10 to him, No, my lord, but to buy food are thy servants come.
We are all one man's sons; we are true men, thy servants are 11 no spies. And he said to them, No, but you are come to see 12 the nakedness of the land. And they said, Thy servants are 13 twelve, we are brothers, sons of one man in the land of Kena'an; and, behold, the youngest is this day with our father, and one is no more. And Yosef said to them, That is what I spoke to 14 you, saying, you are spies: hereby you shall be proved; by the 15 life of Par'o you shall not go out of here unless your youngest brother comes here. Send one of you, and let him fetch your 16 brother, and you shall be kept in prison, that your words may be proved, whether there be any truth in you: or else by the life of Par'o surely you are spies. And he put them all together 17 into custody for three days. And Yosef said to them on the third 18 day, This do, and live: I fear God: if you are true men, let one 19 of your brothers be bound in the house of your confinement:

and you go, carry corn for the famine of your houses: but bring 20 your youngest brother to me; so shall your words be verified, and you shall not die. And they did so. And they said one to 21 another, Truly, we are guilty concerning our brother, in that we saw the anguish of his soul, when he besought us, and we would not hear; therefore is this distress come upon us. And 22 Re'uven answered them, saying, Did I not speak to you, saying,
Do not sin against the child; and you would not hear? therefore, behold, even his blood is required. And they knew not that Yosef 23 understood them; for he spoke to them by an interpreter. And 24 he turned himself about from them, and wept; and turned back to them, and spoke with them, and took from them Shim'on, and bound him before their eyes. Then Yosef gave orders to fill their 25 sacks with corn, and to restore every man's money into his sack, and to give them provision for the way: and thus it was performed. And they loaded their asses with the corn, and de- 26 parted from there. And as one of them opened his sack to give 27 his ass provender in the lodging place, he saw his money; for, behold, it was in the mouth of his sack. And he said to his breth- 28 ren, My money is returned; and, lo, it is in my sack: and their heart failed them, and they were afraid, saying one to another, What is this that GOD has done to us? And they came to Ya'aqov 29 their father to the land of Kena'an, and told him all that had befallen them; saying, The man, who is the lord of the land, spoke 30 roughly to us, and took us for spies of the country. And we said 31 to him, We are true men; we are no spies: We are twelve breth- 32 ren, sons of our father; one is no more, and the youngest is this day with our father in the land of Kena'an. And the man, 33 the lord of the country, said to us, Hereby shall I know that you are true men; leave one of your brethren here with me, and take food for the famine of your households, and be gone:
and bring your youngest brother to me: then shall I know 34 that you are no spies, but that you are true men: so will I deliver you your brother, and you shall traffic in the land. And it 35 came to pass as they emptied their sacks, that, behold, every man's bundle of money was in his sack: and when both they and their father saw the bundles of money, they were afraid.
And Ya'aqov their father said to them, You have bereaved me 36 of my children: Yosef is not, and Shim'on is not, and you will take Binyamin away: all these things have come upon me.
And Re'uven spoke to his father, saying, Slay my two sons, if 37
I bring him not to thee: deliver him into my hand, and I will bring him back to thee. And he said, My son shall not go down 38 with you; for his brother is dead, and he is left alone: if mischief befall him by the way in which you go, then shall you bring down my grey hairs with sorrow to She'ol. And the famine 43 was severe in the land. And it came to pass, when they had 2 eaten up the corn which they had brought out of Miẓrayim, their father said to them, Go back, buy us a little food. And 3 Yehuda spoke to him, saying, The man did solemnly protest to us, saying, You shall not see my face, unless your brother is with you. If thou wilt send our brother with us, we will go 4 down and buy thee food: but if thou wilt not send him, we 5 will not go down: for the man said to us, You shall not see my face, unless your brother is with you. And Yisra'el said, 6 Why did you treat me so ill, as to tell the man whether you had another brother? And they said, The man asked us particularly 7 of our state, and of our kindred, saying, Is your father yet alive? have you another brother? and we told him according to the tenor of these words: could we possibly know that he would say, Bring your brother down? And Yehuda said to 8 Yisra'el his father, Send the lad with me, and we will arise and go; that we may live, and not die, both we, and thou, and also our little ones. I will be surety for him; of my hand shalt thou 9 require him: if I bring him not to thee, and set him before thee, then I shall have sinned to thee for ever. For if we had not 10 lingered, surely now we had returned this second time. And 11 their father Yisra'el said to them, If it must be so now, do this; take of the best fruits in the land in your vessels, and carry down the man a present, a little balm, and a little honey, gum, ladanum, nuts, and almonds: and take double money in 12 your hand; and the money that was returned in the mouth of your sacks, carry it back in your hand; perhaps it was an oversight: take also your brother, and arise, go again to the 13 man: and God Almighty give you mercy before the man, that 14 he may release to you your other brother, and Binyamin. If I be bereaved of my children, then I am bereaved. And the men took 15 that present, and they took double money in their hand, and Binyamin; and they rose up, and went down to Mizrayim, and stood before Yosef. And when Yosef saw Binyamin with them, 16 he said to the ruler of his house, Bring these men home, and slaughter a beast, and make it ready; for the men shall dine with me at noon. And the man did as Yosef bade; and the man 17 brought the men into Yosef's house. And the men were afraid, 18 because they were brought into Yosef's house; and they said, Because of the money that was returned in our sacks at the first time are we brought in; that he may seek occasion against us, and fall upon us, and take us for bondmen, and our asses. And 19 they came near to the steward of Yosef's house, and they spoke with him at the door of the house, and said, O sir, we came 20 down indeed at the first time to buy food: and it came to pass, 21 when we came to the lodging place, that we opened our sacks, and, behold, every man's money was in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight: and we have brought it back in our 22 hand. And other money have we brought down in our hands to buy food: we cannot tell who put our money in our sacks. And 23 he said, Peace be to you, fear not: your God, and the God of your father, has given you treasure in your sacks: I had your money. And he brought Shim'on out to them. And the man 24 brought the men into Yosef's house, and gave them water, and they washed their feet; and he gave their asses provender. And 25 they made ready the present for when Yosef came at noon: for they had heard that they should eat bread there. And when 26 Yosef came home, they brought him the present which was in their hand into the house, and bowed themselves to him to the earth. And he asked them of their welfare, and said, Is your 27 father well, the old man of whom you spoke? Is he still alive?

And they answered, Thy servant our father is in good health, he 28 is still alive. And they bowed down their heads, and made obeisance. And he lifted up his eyes, and saw his brother Binyamin, 29 his mother's son, and said, Is this your younger brother, of whom you spoke to me? And he said, GOD be gracious to thee, my son.
And Yosef made haste: for his affection was kindled towards his 30 brother: and he sought where to weep; and he entered into his chamber, and wept there. And he washed his face, and went out, 31 and restrained himself, and said, Set on bread. And they set on 32 for him by himself, and for them by themselves, and for the Miẓrim who did eat with them, by themselves: because the Miẓrim might not eat bread with the Hebrews; for that is an abomination to the Miẓrim. And they sat before him, the firstborn ac- 33 cording to his birthright, and the youngest according to his youth: and the men marvelled one at another. And he took and 34 sent portions to them from before him: but Binyamin's portion was five times as much as any of theirs. And they drank, and were merry with him. And he commanded the steward of his 44 house, saying, Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put every man's money in the mouth of his sack.
And put my cup, the silver cup, in the mouth of the sack of 2 the youngest, and his corn money. And he did according to the word that Yosef had spoken. As soon as the morning was light, 3 the men were sent away, they and their asses. And when they 4 were gone out of the city, and not yet far off, Yosef said to his steward, Up, follow after the men; and when thou dost overtake them, say to them, Why have you rewarded evil for good?
Is not this that from which my lord drinks, and whereby 5 indeed he divines? you have done evil in so doing. And he over- 6 took them, and he spoke to them these same words. And 7 they said to him, Why does my lord say these words? Far be it from thy servants to do according to this thing: behold, the 8 money, which we found in our sacks' mouths, we brought again to thee out of the land of Kena'an: how then should we steal out of thy lord's house silver or gold? With whomever of thy 9 servants it be found, let him die, and we also will be my lord's bondmen. And he said, Now also let it be according to your 10 words: he with whom it is found shall be my bondman; and you shall be blameless. Then they speedily took down every man 11 his sack to the ground, and opened every man his sack. And he 12 searched, and began at the eldest, and ended at the youngest: and the cup was found in Binyamin's sack. Then they rent their 13 clothes, and loaded every man his ass, and returned to the city.
And Yehuda and his brethren came to Yosef's house; for he was 14 still there: and they fell before him to the ground. And Yosef 15 said to them, What deed is this that you have done? do you not know that such a man as I can certainly divine? And Yehuda 16 said, What shall we say to my lord? what shall we speak? or how shall we clear ourselves? GOD has found out the inquity of thy servants: behold, we are my lord's bondmen, both we, and he also with whom the cup is found. And he said, Far be it from 17 me that I should do so: but the man in whose hand the cup is found, he shall be my bondman; and as for you, go up in peace to VAYYIGGASH your father. Then Yehuda came near to him, and said, Oh 18 my lord, let thy servant, I pray thee, speak a word in my lord's ears, and let not thy anger burn against thy servant: for thou art even as Par'o. My lord asked his servants, saying, Have you 19 a father, or a brother? And we said to my lord, We have a father, 20 an old man, and a child of his old age, a little one; and his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother, and his father loves him. And thou didst say to thy servants, Bring him down 21 to me, that I may set my eyes upon him. And we said to my lord, 22

The lad cannot leave his father: for if he should leave his father, his father would die. And thou didst say to thy servants, Unless 23 your youngest brother comes down with you, you shall see my face no more. And it came to pass when we came up to thy 24 servant my father, we told him the words of my lord. And our 25 father said, Go back, and buy us a little food. And we said, We 26 cannot go down: if our youngest brother be with us, then will we go down: for we may not see the man's face, unless our youngest brother is with us. And thy servant my father said 27 to us, You know that my wife bore me two sons: and the one 28 went out from me, and I said, Surely he is torn in pieces; and I saw him not since: and if you take this also from me, and 29 mischief befall him, you shall bring down my grey hairs with sorrow to She'ol. Now therefore when I come to thy servant 30 my father, and the lad is not with us; seeing that his life is bound up in the lad's life; it shall come to pass, when he sees 31 that the lad is not with us, that he will die: and thy servants shall bring down the grey hairs of thy servant our father with sorrow to She'ol. For thy servant became surety for the lad 32 to my father, saying, If I bring him not to thee, then I shall have sinned to my father for ever. Now therefore, I pray thee, let thy 33 servant remain instead of the lad a bondman to my lord; and let the lad go up with his brothers. For how shall I go up to my 34 father, and the lad be not with me? lest I see the evil that shall come on my father. Then Yosef could not restrain himself be- 45 fore all them that stood by him; and he cried, Cause every man to go out from me. And no man stood with him, while Yosef made himself known to his brethren. And he wept aloud: 2 and Miẓrayim and the house of Par'o heard. And Yosef said 3 to his brethren, I am Yosef: does my father yet live? And his brothers could not answer him; for they were terrified at his presence. And Yosef said to his brothers, Come near to me, I 4 pray you. And they came near. And he said, I am Yosef your brother, whom you sold into Miẓrayim. Now therefore be not 5 grieved, nor angry with yourselves, that you sold me here: for God did send me before you to preserve life. For these two years 6 has the famine been in the land: and there are five more years, in which there shall neither be ploughing nor harvest. And God 7 sent me before you to preserve you a remnant in the earth, and to save your lives by a great deliverance. So now it was not you 8 that sent me here, but God: and he has made me a father to Par'o, and lord of all his house, and a ruler throughout all the land of Miẓrayim. Hasten, and go up to my father, and say to 9 him, Thus says thy son Yosef, GOD has made me lord of all Miẓrayim: come down to me, do not delay: and thou shalt 10 dwell in the land of Goshen, and thou shalt be near me, thou, and thy children, and thy children's children, and thy flocks, and thy herds, and all that thou hast: and there will I nourish thee; 11 for there are still five years of famine; lest thou, and thy household, and all that thou hast, come to poverty. And, behold, your 12 eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Binyamin, that it is my mouth that speaks to you. And you shall tell my father of all 13 my glory in Miẓrayim, and of all that you have seen: and you shall hasten and bring down my father here. And he fell on 14 his brother Binyamin's neck, and wept; and Binyamin wept on his neck. And he kissed all his brethren, and wept on them: 15 and after that his brethren talked with him. And the report was 16 heard in Par'o's house, saying, Yosef's brethren are come: and it pleased Par'o well, and his servants. And Par'o said to Yosef, 17 Say to thy brethren, Do this: load your beasts, and go, get you to the land of Kena'an; and take your father and your house- 18 holds, and come to me: and I will give you the good of the land of Miẓrayim, and you shall eat the fat of the land. Now thou art 19 commanded, do this; take wagons out of the land of Miẓrayim for your little ones, and for your wives, and bring your father, and come. Also give no thought to your goods; for the good of 20 all the land of Miẓrayim is yours. And the children of Yisra'el 21 did so: and Yosef gave them wagons, according to the commandment of Par'o, and gave them provision for the way. To 22 all of them he gave each man changes of clothing; but to Binyamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver, and five changes of clothing. And to his father he sent after this manner; ten 23 asses laden with the good things of Miẓrayim and ten she asses laden with corn and bread and food for his father by the way.

So he sent his brethren away, and they departed: and he said 24 to them, See that you do not fall out by the way. And they went 25 up out of Miẓrayim, and came to the land of Kena'an to Ya'aqov their father, and told him, saying, Yosef is still alive, and he 26 is governor over all the land of Miẓrayim. And his heart fainted, for he believed them not. And they told him all the words of 27 Yosef, which he had said to them: and when he saw the wagons which Yosef had sent to carry him, the spirit of Ya'aqov their father revived: and Yisra'el said, It is enough; Yosef my son 28 is still alive: I will go and see him before I die. And Yisra'el 46 took his journey with all that he had, and came to Be'er-sheva, and offered sacrifices to the GOD of his father Yiẓḥaq. And GOD 2 spoke to Yisra'el in the visions of the night, and said, Ya'aqov, Ya'aqov. And he said, Here I am. And he said, I am GOD, the 3 GOD of thy father: fear not to go down to Miẓrayim; for I will there make of thee a great nation: I will go down with thee into 4 Miẓrayim; and I will also surely bring thee up again: and Yosef shall put his hand on thy eyes. And Ya'aqov rose up from Be'er- 5 sheva, and the sons of Yisra'el carried Ya'aqov their father, and their little ones, and their wives, in the wagons which Par'o had sent to carry him. And they took their cattle, and their 6 goods, which they had acquired in the land of Kena'an; and came to Miẓrayim, Ya'aqov, and all his seed with him: his sons, and 7 his sons' sons with him, his daughters, and his sons' daughters, and all his seed brought he with him to Miẓrayim. And 8 these are the names of the children of Yisra'el, who came into Miẓrayim, Ya'aqov and his sons: Re'uven, Ya'aqov's firstborn.

And the sons of Re'uven; Ḥanokh, and Pallu, and Ḥeẓron, and 9 Karmi. And the sons of Shim'on; Yemu'el, and Yamin, and Ohad, 10 and Yakhin, and Ẓoḥar, and Sha'ul the son of the Kena'anite woman. And the sons of Levi; Gershon, Qehat, and Merari. 11
And the sons of Yehuda; 'Er, and Onan, and Shela, and Pereẓ, 12 and Zeraḥ; but 'Er and Onan died in the land of Kena'an. And the sons of Pereẓ were Ḥezron and Ḥamul. And the sons of 13 Yissakhar; Tola, and Puvva, and Yov, and Shimron. And the 14 sons of Zevulun; Sered, and Elon, and Yaḥle'el. These are the 15 sons of Le'a, whom she bore to Ya'aqov in Paddan-aram, with his daughter Dina: all the souls of his sons and his daughters were thirty three. And the sons of Gad; Ẓifyon, and Ḥaggi, Shuni, 16 and Eẓbon, 'Eri, and Arodi, and Ar'eli. And the sons of Asher; 17 Yimna, and Yishva, and Yishvi, and Beri'a, and Seraḥ their sister: and the sons of Beri'a were Ḥever and Malki'el. These are 18 the sons of Zilpa, whom Lavan gave to Le'a his daughter, and these she bore to Ya'aqov, sixteen souls. The sons of Raḥel, 19 Ya'aqov's wife; Yosef and Binyamin. And to Yosef in the land 20 of Miẓrayim were born Menashshe and Efrayim, whom Asenat, daughter of Poti-fera; the priest of On bore to him. And the 21 sons of Binyamin were Bela, and Bekher, and Ashbel, Gera, and Na'aman, Eḥi, and Rosh, Muppim, and Ḥuppim, and Ard. These 22 are the sons of Raḥel, who were born to Ya'aqov: all the souls were fourteen. And the sons of Dan; Ḥushim. And the sons of 23, 24 Naftali; Yaḥẓe'el, and Guni, and Yeẓer, and Shillem. These are 25 the sons of Bilha, whom Lavan gave to Raḥel his daughter, and she bore these to Ya'aqov: all the souls were seven. All the souls 26 that came with Ya'aqov into Miẓrayim, who came out of his loins, besides Ya'aqov's sons' wives, all the souls were sixty six. And the sons of Yosef, who were born him in Miẓrayim, 27 were two souls: all the souls of the house of Ya'aqov who came into Miẓrayim were seventy. And he sent Yehuda before 28 him to Yosef, to show the way before him to Goshen; and they came into the land of Goshen. And Yosef made ready his chariot, 29 and went up to meet Yisra'el his father, to Goshen, and presented himself to him; and he fell on his neck, and wept on his neck a good while. And Yisra'el said to Yosef, Now let me die, 30 since I have seen thy face, because thou art still alive. And Yosef 31 said to his brethren, and to his father's house, I will go up, and tell Par'o, and say to him, My brethren, and my father's house, who were in the land of Kena'an, are come to me; and the men 32 are shepherds, for they have ever been owners of cattle; and they have brought their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have. And it shall come to pass, when Par'o shall call you, and 33 shall say, What is your occupation? that you shall say, Thy ser- 34 vants' trade has been about cattle from our youth even until now, both we, and also our fathers: that you may dwell in the land of Goshen; for every shepherd is an abomination to Miẓrayim.

Then Yosef came and told Par'o, and said, My father and my 1 brethren, and their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have, are come out of the land of Kena'an; and, behold, they are in the land of Goshen. And he took some of his brothers, 2 five men, and presented them to Par'o. And Par'o said to his 3 brothers, What is your occupation? And they said to Par'o, Thy servants are shepherds, both we, and also our fathers. They said 4 moreover to Par'o, To sojourn in the land are we come; for thy servants have no pasture for their flocks; for the famine is severe in the land of Kena'an: now therefore, we pray thee, let thy servants dwell in the land of Goshen. And Par'o spoke to 5 Yosef, saying, Thy father and thy brethren are come to thee:
the land of Miẓrayim is before thee; in the best of the land 6 make thy father and brethren to dwell; in the land of Goshen let them dwell: and if thou knowst any able men among them, then make them rulers over my cattle. And Yosef brought in 7 Ya'aqov his father, and set him before Par'o: and Ya'aqov blessed Par'o. And Par'o said to Ya'aqov, How old art thou? 8 And Ya'aqov said to Par'o, The days of the years of my sojourn- 9 ings are a hundred and thirty years: few and evil have the days of the years of my life been, and they have not attained to the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their sojournings. And Ya'aqov blessed Par'o, and went out from be- 10 fore Par'o. And Yosef provided abodes for his father and his 11 brethren, and gave them a possession in the land of Miẓrayim, in the best of the land, in the land of Ra'meses, as Par'o had commanded. And Yosef nourished his father, and his brethren, 12 and all his father's household, with bread, according to their little ones. And there was no bread in all the land; for the 13 famine was very severe, so that the land of Miẓrayim and all the land of Kena'an languished by reason of the famine. And 14 Yosef gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Miẓrayim, and in the land of Kena'an, for the corn which they bought: and Yosef brought the money to Par'o's house. And 15 when money failed in the land of Miẓrayim, and in the land of Kena'an, all Miẓrayim came to Yosef, and said, Give us bread:
for why should we die in thy presence? for the money fails.
And Yosef said, Give your cattle; and I will give you for your 16 cattle, if money fail. And they brought their cattle to Yosef; and 17 Yosef gave them bread in exchange for horses, and for the flocks, and for the herds, and for the asses: and he fed them with bread in exchange for all their cattle for that year. When 18 that year was ended, they came to him in the second year, and said to him, We will not hide from my lord, how that our money is spent; my lord also has our herds of cattle; there is nothing left in the sight of my lord, but our bodies, and our lands: why 19 shall we die before thy eyes, both we and our land? buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants to Par'o: and give us grain, that we may live, and not die, that the land be not desolate. And Yosef bought all the land of 20 Miẓrayim for Par'o; for Miẓrayim sold every man his field, because the famine prevailed over them: so the land became Par'o's. And as for the people, he removed them to the cities 21 from one end of the borders of Miẓrayim, to the other end. Only 22 the land of the priests he bought not; for the priests had a portion assigned them by Par'o, and did eat their portion which Par'o gave them: therefore they sold not their lands. Then Yosef 23 said to the people, Behold, I have bought you this day and your land for Par'o: lo, here is grain for you, and you shall sow the land. And it shall come to pass at harvest times, that you shall 24 give the fifth part to Par'o, and four parts shall be your own, for seed of the field, and for your food, and for them of your households, and for food for your little ones. And they said, 25 Thou hast saved our lives: let us find favour in the sight of my lord, and we will be Par'o's servants. And Yosef made it a law 26 over the land of Miẓrayim to this day, that Par'o should have the fifth part; except the land of the priests only, which became not Par'o's. And Yisra'el dwelt in the land of Miẓrayim in the 27 country of Goshen; and they took possession of it, and grew, VAYḤI and multiplied exceedingly. And Ya'aqov lived in the land 28 of Miẓrayim seventeen years: so the whole age of Ya'aqov was a hundred and forty seven years. And the time drew near for 29 Yisra'el to die: and he called his son Yosef, and said to him, If now I have found favour in thy sight, put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh, and deal kindly and truly with me; bury me not, I pray thee, in Miẓrayim: but I will lie with my fathers, 30 and thou shalt carry me out of Miẓrayim, and bury me in their buryingplace. And he said, I will do as thou hast said. And he 31 said, Swear to me. And he swore to him. And Yisra'el bowed himself upon the bed's head.

And it came to pass after these things, that one told Yosef, 48
Behold, thy father is sick: and he took with him his two sons, Menashshe and Efrayim. And one told Ya'aqov, and said, Behold, 2 thy son Yosef comes to thee: and Yisra'el strengthened himself, and sat upon the bed. And Ya'aqov said to Yosef, God Almighty 3 appeared to me at Luz in the land of Kena'an, and blessed me, and said to me, Behold, I will make thee fruitful, and multiply 4 thee, and I will make of thee a multitude of people; and will give this land to thy seed after thee for an everlasting possession. And now thy two sons, Efrayim and Menashshe, who 5 were born to thee in the land of Miẓrayim before I came to thee into Miẓrayim, are mine; as Re'uven and Shim'on they shall be mine. And thy issue, which thou begettest after them, shall 6 be thine, and shall be called after the name of their brothers in their inheritance. And as for me, when I came from Paddan, 7 Raḥel died by me in the land of Kena'an on the way, when yet there was but a little way to come to Efrat: and I buried her there in the way of Efrat; that is Bet-leḥem. And Yisra'el be- 8 held Yosef's sons, and said, Who are these? And Yosef said to 9 his father, They are my sons, whom God has given me in this place. And he said, Bring them, I pray thee, to me, and I will bless them. Now the eyes of Yisra'el were dim from age, so that 10 he could not see. And he brought them near to him; and he kissed them, and embraced them. And Yisra'el said to Yosef, 11
I had not thought to see thy face: and, lo, God has shown me also thy children. And Yosef brought them out from between 12 his knees, and he bowed himself with his face to the earth. And 13 Yosef took them both, Efrayim in his right hand toward Yisra'el's left hand, and Menashshe in his left hand toward Yisra'el's right hand, and he presented them to him. And Yisra'el stretched 14 out his right hand, and laid it upon Efrayim's head, who was the younger, and his left hand upon Menashshe's head, changing his hands; for Menashshe was the first-born. And he blessed Yosef, 15 and said, GOD, before whom my fathers Avraham and Yiẓḥaq did walk, the GOD who has been my shepherd all my life long until this day, the angel who redeemed me from all evil, bless 16 the lads; and let my name be named on them, and the name of my fathers Avraham and Yiẓḥaq; and let them grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth. And when Yosef saw that 17 his father laid his right hand upon the head of Efrayim, it displeased him: and he held up his father's hand, to remove it from Efrayim's head to Menashshe's head. And Yosef said to 18 his father, Not so, my father: for this is the firstborn; put thy right hand upon his head. And his father refused, and said, I 19 know it, my son, I know it: he also shall become a people, and he also shall be great: but truly his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his seed shall become a multitude of nations. And he blessed them that day, saying, By thee shall Yis- 20 ra'el bless, saying, GOD make thee as Efrayim and as Menashshe: and he set Efrayim before Menashshe. And Yisra'el said to 21 Yosef, Behold, I die: but GOD shall be with you, and bring you back to the land of your fathers. Moreover I have given to thee 22 one portion more than thy brothers, which I took out of the hand of the Emori with my sword and with my bow.

And Ya'aqov called to his sons, and said, Gather yourselves 49 together, that I may tell you that which shall befall you in the last days. Gather yourselves together, and hear, you sons of 2 Ya'aqov; and hearken to Yisra'el your father. Re'uven, thou art 3 my firstborn, my might and the beginning of my strength, the excellency of dignity, and the excellency of power: unstable 4 as water, thou shalt not excel; because thou wentest up to thy father's bed; then thou didst defile it: he went up to my couch.

Shim'on and Levi are brothers; instruments of cruelty are their 5 swords. Let my soul not come into their council; to their assembly let my honour not be united: for in their anger they slew a man, and in their selfwill they lamed an ox. Cursed be their 7 anger, for it was fierce; and their wrath, for it was cruel: I will divide them in Ya'aqov, and scatter them in Yisra'el.

Yehuda thou art he whom thy brethren shall praise: thy hand 8 shall be on the neck of thy enemies; thy father's children shall bow down before thee. Yehuda is a lion's whelp: from the prey, 9 my son, thou art gone up: he stooped down, he couched as a lion, and as a lioness; who shall rouse him up? The staff shall 10 not depart from Yehuda, nor the sceptre from between his feet, until Shilo come, and the obedience of the people be his. Binding 11

Yissakhar is a strong ass couching down between the sheepfolds: 14

Dan shall be a serpent by the way, an adder in the path, that bites the horse's heels, so that his rider shall fall backward. 17

Yosef is a fruitful bough, a fruitful bough by a well; whose branches run over the wall: 22 the archers fiercely attacked him, and shot at him, and hated him: 23 but his bow abode in strength, and the arms of his hands were made supple 24 by the GOD of thy father, who shall help thee; 25 and by the Almighty, who shall bless thee, with blessings of heaven above, blessings of the deep that couches beneath, blessings of the breasts, and of the womb: 26 the blessings of thy father are potent above the blessings of my progenitors to the utmost bound of the everlasting hills:

they shall be on the head of Yosef, and on the crown of the head of him that was separated from his brothers.

Binyamin is a ravenous wolf: in the morning he shall devour the prey, 27 and at night he shall divide the spoil. 28

All these are the twelve tribes of Yisra'el: and this is that which their father spoke to them, and blessed them; every one according to his blessing he blessed them.

And he charged them, and said to them, I am to be gathered to my people: bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of 'Efron, the Ḥittite, 29 in the cave that is in the field of Makhpela, which is before Mamre, in the land of Kena'an, which Avraham bought with the field from 'Efron the Ḥittite for a possession of a buryingplace. 30

There they buried Avraham and Sara his wife; there they buried Yiẓḥaq and Rivqa his wife; and there I buried Le'a. 31

The purchase of the field and of the cave that is in it was from the children of Ḥet. 32

And when Ya'aqov had made an end of commanding his sons, he gathered up his feet into the bed, and expired, and was gathered to his people. 33

And Yosef fell on his father's face, and wept upon him, and kissed him. 50

And Yosef commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father: and the physicians embalmed Yisra'el. 2

And forty days were fulfilled for him: for so are fulfilled the days of those who are embalmed: 3 and Miẓrayim wept for him seventy days.

And when the days of his mourning were past, Yosef spoke to the house of Par'o, saying, If now I have found favour in your eyes, speak, I pray you, in the ears of Par'o, saying, 4
My father made me swear, saying, Lo, I die: in my grave which I have dug for myself in the 5 land of Kena'an there shalt thou bury me. Now therefore let me go up, I pray thee, and bury my father, and I will come back. And Par'o said, Go up, and bury thy father, according 6 as he made thee swear. And Yosef went up to bury his father: 7 and with him went up all the servants of Par'o, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Miẓrayim. And all the 8 house of Yosef, and his brothers, and his father's house: only their little ones, and their flocks, and their herds, they left in the land of Goshen. And there went up with him both chariots 9 and horsemen: and it was a very great company. And they came 10 to the threshing floor of Atad, which is beyond the Yarden, and there they mourned with a great and very sore lamentation: and he made a mourning for his father of seven days. And when 11 the inhabitants of the land, the Kena'ani, saw the mourning at the floor of Atad, they said, This is a grievous mourning to Miẓrayim: so that the name of it was called Avel-miẓrayim, which is beyond the Yarden. And his sons did to him according 12 as he had commanded them: for his sons carried him into the 13 land of Kena'an, and buried him in the cave of the field of Makhpela, which Avraham bought with the field for a possession of a buryingplace from 'Efrom the Ḥittite, before Mamre. And 14 Yosef returned to Miẓrayim, he, and his brethren, and all that went up with him to bury his father, after he had buried his father. And when Yosef's brothers saw that their father was 15 dead, they said, What if Yosef will hate us, and will pay us back the evil which we did to him. And they sent word urgently to 16 Yosef, saying, Thy father did command before he died, saying,

So shall you say to Yosef, Forgive, I pray thee now, the trespass 17 of thy brothers, and their sin; for they did evil to thee: and now, we pray thee, forgive the trespass of the servants of the God of thy father. And Yosef wept when they spoke to him. And his 18 brothers even went and fell down before his face; and they said, Behold, we are thy servants. And Yosef said to them, Fear 19 not: for am I in the place of God? But as for you, you thought 20 evil against me; but God meant it for good, to bring it to pass at this day that much people should be saved alive. Now there- 21 fore fear not: I will nourish you, and your little ones. And he comforted them, and spoke kindly to them. And Yosef dwelt in 22 Miẓrayim, he, and his father's house: and Yosef lived a hundred and ten years. And Yosef saw Efrayim's children of the third 23 generation: the children also of Makhir the son of Menashshe were born on Yosef's knees. And Yosef said to his brothers, 24 I die: and God will surely visit you, and bring you up out of this land to the land of which he swore to Avraham, to Yiẓḥaq, and to Ya'aqov. And Yosef took an oath of the children 25 of Yisra'el, saying, God will surely visit you, and you shall carry up my bones from here. So Yosef died, being a hundred 26 and ten years old: and they embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Miẓrayim.

NOW these are the names of the children of Yisra'el who 1 came into Mizrayim, with Ya'aqov; every man came with his household. Re'uven, Shim'on, Levi, and Yehu- 2,3 da; Yissakhar, Zevulun, and Binyamin; Dan, Naftali, Gad, and 4,5 Asher. And all the souls that came out of the loins of Ya'aqov were seventy souls: for Yosef was already in Mizrayim. And 6 Yosef died, and all his brethren, and all that generation. And the 7 children of Yisra'el were fruitful, and increased abundantly, and multiplied, and grew exceedingly mighty; and the land was filled with them.
Now there arose a new king over Mizrayim, who knew not 8 Yosef. And he said to his people, Behold, the people of the 9 children of Yisra'el are more and mightier than we: come, 10 let us deal wisely with them; lest they multiply, and it come to pass, that, when any war should chance, they also join our enemies, and fight against us, and so go up out of the land.
Therefore they did set over them taskmasters to afflict them 11 with their burdens. And they built for Par'o treasure cities, namely Pitom and Ra'amses. But the more they afflicted them, 12 the more they multiplied and grew. And they were mortified on account of the children of Yisra'el. And Mizrayim made the 13 children of Yisra'el serve with rigour: and they made their lives 14 bitter with hard bondage, in mortar, and in brick, and in all manner of bondage in the field: all their bondage, wherein they made them serve, was with rigour. And the king of Miz- 15 rayim spoke to the Hebrew midwives, of whom the name of the one was Shifra, and the name of the other Pu'a: and he 16 said, When you do the office of midwife to the Hebrew women, you shall look upon the birth stones; if it be a son, then you shall kill him: but if it be a daughter, then she shall live. But 17 the midwives feared God, and did not as the king of Mizrayim commanded them, but saved the men children alive. And the 18 king of Mizrayim called for the midwives, and said to them, Why have you done this thing, and saved the men children alive? And the midwives said to Par'o, Because the Hebrew 19 women are not as the Mizrian women; for they are lively, and are delivered before the midwives come to them. Therefore 20 God dealt well with the midwives: and the people multiplied, and grew very mighty. And it came to pass, because the mid- 21 wives feared God, that he made them houses. And Par'o charged 22 all his people, saying, Every son that is born you shall cast into the River, and every daughter you shall save alive.
And there went a man of the house of Levi, and took to wife 2 a daughter of Levi. And the woman conceived, and bore a son: 2 and when she saw that he was a goodly child, she hid him three months. And when she could not longer hide him, she took for 3 him a box made of papyrus, and daubed it with slime and with pitch, and put the child in it; and she laid it in the rushes by the River's brink. And his sister stood afar off, to 4 know what would be done to him. And the daughter of Par'o 5 came down to wash herself at the River; and her maidens walked along by the River's side; and when she saw the box among the rushes, she sent her maid to fetch it. And when she had opened 6 it, she saw the child: and, behold, a weeping boy. And she had compassion on him, and said, This is one of the Hebrews' children. Then said his sister to Par'o's daughter, Shall I go and 7 call to thee a nurse of the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for thee? And Par'o's daughter said to her, Go. And 8 the maid went and called the child's mother. And Par'o's 9 daughter said to her, Take this child away, and nurse it for me, and I will give thee thy wages. And the woman took the child, and nursed it. And the child grew, and she brought him to 10 Par'o's daughter, and he became her son. And she called his name Moshe: and she said, Because I drew him out of the water.

And it came to pass in those days, when Moshe was grown, 11 that he went out to his brothers, and looked on their burdens: and he noticed a Miẓrian smiting a Hebrew, one of his brothers.
And he looked this way and that, and when he saw that there 12 was no man, he slew the Miẓrian, and hid him in the sand. And 13 when he went out the second day, behold, two men of the Hebrews strove together: and he said to him that was in the wrong, Why dost thou smite thy fellow? And he said, Who 14 made thee a prince and a judge over us? dost thou intend to kill me, as thou didst kill the Miẓrian? And Moshe feared, and said, Surely this thing is known. Now when Par'o heard this thing, 15 he sought to slay Moshe. But Moshe fled from before Par'o and dwelt in the land of Midyan: and he sat down by a well. Now 16 the priest of Midyan had seven daughters: and they came and drew water, and filled the troughs to water their father's flock.
And the shepherds came and drove them away: but Moshe stood 17 up and helped them, and watered their flock. And when they 18 came to Re'u'el their father, he said, How is it that you are come so soon today? And they said, A Miẓrian man delivered us out 19 of the hand of the shepherds, and also drew water enough for us, and watered the flock. And he said to his daughters, And where 20 is he? why is it that you have left the man? call him, that he may eat bread. And Moshe was content to dwell with the man: and 21 he gave Moshe Ẓippora his daughter. And she bore him a son, 22 and he called his name Gershom: for he said, I have been a stranger in a strange land.
And it came to pass in the course of those many days, that the 23 king of Miẓrayim died: and the children of Yisra'el sighed by reason of the bondage, and they cried, and their cry rose up to God by reason of the bondage. And God heard their groan- 24 ing, and God remembered his covenant with Avraham, with Yiẓḥaq, and with Ya'aqov. And God looked upon the children 25 of Yisra'el, and God apprehended. Now Moshe kept the 3 flock of Yitro his father in law, the priest of Midyan: and he led the flock far away into the desert, and came to the mountain of God, to Ḥorev. And the angel of the Lord appeared to 2 him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush: and he looked, and, behold, the bush burned with fire, but the bush was not consumed. And Moshe said, I will now turn aside, and see this 3 great sight, why the bush is not burnt. And when the Lord saw 4 that he turned aside to see, God called to him out of the midst of the bush, and said, Moshe, Moshe. And he said, Here I am.

And he said, Do not come near: put off thy shoes from off thy 5 feet, for the place on which thou dost stand is holy ground.
Moreover, he said, I am the GOD of thy father, the GOD of Avra- 6 ham, the GOD of Yiẓḥaq, and the GOD of Ya'aqov. And Moshe hid his face; for he was afraid to look upon GOD. And the LORD 7 said, I have surely seen the affliction of my people who are in Miẓrayim, and have heard their cry by reason of their task-masters; for I know their sorrows; and I am come down to 8 deliver them out of the hand of Miẓrayim, and to bring them up out of that land to a good land and a large, to a land flowing with milk and honey; to the place of the Kena'ani, and the Ḥitti, and the Emori, and the Perizzi, and the Ḥivvi, and the Yevusi.
Now therefore, behold, the cry of the children of Yisra'el is 9 come to me: and I have also seen the oppression with which Miẓrayim oppresses them. Come now therefore, and I will send 10 thee to Par'o, that thou mayst bring my people the children of Yisra'el out of Miẓrayim. And Moshe said to GOD, Who am 11
I, that I should go to Par'o, and that I should bring the children of Yisra'el out of Miẓrayim? And he said, Certainly I will be 12 with thee; and this shall be a token to thee, that I have sent thee. When thou hast brought the people out of Miẓrayim, you shall serve GOD upon this mountain. And Moshe said to GOD, 13 Behold, when I come to the children of Yisra'el, and shall say to them, The GOD of your fathers has sent me to you; and they shall say to me, What is his name? what shall I say to them?
And GOD said to Moshe, EHEYE ASHER EHEYE (I will ever be 14 what I now am): and he said, Thus shalt thou say to the children of Yisra'el, EHEYE (I AM) has sent me to you. And 15 GOD said moreover to Moshe, Thus shalt thou say to the children of Yisra'el, The LORD GOD of your fathers, the GOD of Avraham the GOD of Yiẓḥaq, and the GOD of Ya'aqov, has sent me to you: this is my name for ever, and this is my memorial to all generations. Go, and gather the elders of Yisra'el together, 16 and say to them, The LORD GOD of your fathers, the GOD of Avraham, of Yiẓḥaq, and of Ya'aqov, has appeared to me, saying, I have surely visited you, and seen that which is done to you in Miẓrayim: and I have said, I will bring you up out 17 of the affliction of Miẓrayim to the land of the Kena'ani, and the Ḥitti, and the Emori, and the Perizzi, and the Ḥivvi, and the Yevusi, to a land flowing with milk and honey. And they 18 shall hearken to thy voice: and thou shalt come, thou and the elders of Yisra'el, to the king of Miẓrayim, and you shall say to him, The LORD GOD of the Hebrews has met with us: and now let us go, we pray thee, three days' journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our GOD. And I 19 know that the king of Miẓrayim will not let you go, if not by a mighty hand. And I will stretch out my hand, and smite 20 Miẓrayim with all my wonders which I will do in their midst: and after that he will let you go. And I will give this people 21 favour in the sight of Miẓrayim: and it shall come to pass, that, when you go, you shall not go empty: but every woman shall 22 ask of her neighbour, and of her that sojourns in her house, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and garments: and you shall put them on your sons, and on your daughters; and you shall despoil Miẓrayim. And Moshe answered and said, But, 1 behold they will not believe me, nor hearken to my voice: for they will say, The LORD has not appeared to thee. And the LORD 2 said to him, What is that in thy hand? And he said, A rod. And 3 he said, Cast it on the ground. And he cast it on the ground, and it turned into a snake; and Moshe fled from it. And the LORD 4 said to Moshe, Put out thy hand, and take it by its tail. And he put out his hand, and caught it, and it became a rod in his hand: that they may believe that the LORD GOD of their fathers, 5 the GOD of Avraham, the GOD of Yiẓḥaq, and the GOD of Ya'aqov, has appeared to thee. And the LORD said furthermore 6 to him, Put now thy hand into thy bosom. And he put his hand into his bosom: and when he took it out, behold, his hand was diseased, as white as snow. And he said, Put thy hand 7 into thy bosom again. And he put his hand into his bosom again; and when he took it out of his bosom, behold, it was turned again as his other flesh. And it shall come to pass, if they 8 will not believe thee, nor hearken to the voice of the first sign, that they will believe the voice of the latter sign. And it shall 9 come to pass, if they will not believe even these two signs, nor hearken to thy voice, that thou shalt take of the water of the River, and pour it upon the dry land: and the water which thou dost take out of the River shall become blood on the dry land. And Moshe said to the LORD, O my LORD, I am not an 10 eloquent man, neither yesterday nor the day before, nor since thou hast spoken to thy servant: but I am slow of speech, and of a slow tongue. And the LORD said to him, Who has made 11 man's mouth? or who makes a man dumb, or deaf, or seeing, or blind? is it not I the LORD? Now therefore go, and I will be 12 with thy mouth, and teach thee what thou shalt say. And he 13 said, O my LORD, send, I pray thee, by the hand of him whom thou wilt send. And the anger of the LORD burned against Moshe, 14 and he said, Is not Aharon the Levite thy brother? I know that he can speak well. And also, behold, he comes to meet thee: and when he sees thee, he will be glad in his heart. And thou 15 shalt speak to him, and put the words in his mouth: and I will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach you what you shall do. And he shall be thy spokesman to the 16 people: and he shall be to thee instead of a mouth, and thou shalt be to him instead of GOD. And thou shalt take this rod in 17 thy hand, with which thou shalt do the signs.

And Moshe went and returned to Yeter his father in law, and 18 said to him, Let me go, I pray thee, and return to my brethren who are in Miẓrayim, and see whether they are still alive. And Yitro said to Moshe, Go in peace. And the LORD said to Moshe 19 in Midyan, Go return to Miẓrayim: for all the men are dead who sought thy life. And Moshe took his wife and his sons, 20 and set them upon an ass, and he returned to the land of Miẓrayim: and Moshe took the rod of GOD in his hand. And 21 the LORD said to Moshe, When thou goest to return to Miẓrayim, see that thou do before Par'o all those wonders which I have put in thy hand: but I will harden his heart, that he shall not let the people go. And thou shalt say to Par'o, Thus 22 says the LORD, Yisra'el is my son, my firstborn: and I say to thee, 23 Let my son go, that he may serve me: and if thou refuse to let him go, behold, I will slay thy son, thy firstborn. And it came 24 to pass on the way, in the place where they spent the night, that the LORD met him, and sought to kill him. Then Ẓippora 25 took a sharp stone, and cut off the foreskin of her son, and cast it at his feet, and said, Surely a bloody bridegroom art thou to me. So he let him go: then she said, A bloody bridegroom thou 26 art, because of the circumcision.

And the LORD said to Aharon, Go to the wilderness to meet 27 Moshe. And he went, and met him in the mount of GOD, and kissed him. And Moshe told Aharon all the words of the LORD 28 who had sent him, and all the signs which he had commanded him. And Moshe and Aharon went and gathered together all 29 the elders of the children of Yisra'el: and Aharon spoke all the 30 words which the LORD had spoken to Moshe, and did the signs in the sight of the people. And the people believed: and when 31 they heard that the LORD had visited the children of Yisra'el, and that he had looked upon their affliction, then they bowed their heads and worshipped. And afterwards Moshe and Aharon 5 went in, and told Par'o, Thus says the LORD GOD of Yisra'el, Let my people go, that they may hold a feast to me in the wilderness. And Par'o said, Who is the LORD, that I should obey 2 his voice to let Yisra'el go? I know not the LORD, nor will I let Yisra'el go. And they said, The GOD of the Hebrews has met 3 with us: let us go, we pray thee, three days' journey into the desert, and sacrifice to the LORD our GOD; lest he fall upon us with pestilence, or with the sword. And the king of Miẓrayim 4 said to them, Why do you, Moshe and Aharon, distract the people from their works? get you to your burdens. And Par'o, said, 5 Behold, the people of the land now are many, and you make them rest from their burdens. And Par'o the same day com- 6 manded the taskmasters of the people, and their officers, saying, You shall no more give the people straw to make brick, as 7 heretofore: let them go and gather straw for themselves. And 8 the quantity of the bricks, which they did make heretofore, you shall lay upon them; you shall not diminish aught of it: for they are idle; therefore they cry, saying, Let us go and sacrifice to our GOD. Let more work be laid upon the men, that they 9 may labour in it; and let them not regard vain words. And 10 the taskmasters of the people went out, and their officers, and they spoke to the people, saying, Thus says Par'o, I will not give you straw. Go, get you straw wherever you can find it: 11 yet nothing of your work shall be diminished. So the people 12 were scattered abroad throughout all the land of Miẓrayim to gather stubble for straw. And the taskmasters urged them 13 on, saying, Fulfill your work, your daily tasks, as when there was straw. And the officers of the children of Yisra'el, whom 14 Par'o's taskmasters had set over them, were beaten, saying, Wherefore have you not fulfilled your task in making brick both yesterday and today, as heretofore? Then the officers 15 of the children of Yisra'el came and cried to Par'o, saying, Why dost thou deal thus with thy servants? There is no straw 16 given to thy servants, and they say to us, Make bricks: and, behold, thy servants are beaten; but the fault is in thy own people. But he said, You are idle, you are idle: therefore you 17 say, Let us go and do sacrifice to the LORD. Go therefore now, 18 and work; for no straw shall be given you, yet shall you deliver the quantity of bricks. And the officers of the child- 19 ren of Yisra'el saw that they were in evil case, after it was said, You shall not in any way reduce your bricks or your daily task. And they met Moshe and Aharon, who stood in the way, 20 as they came out from Par'o. And they said to them, The LORD 21 look upon you, and judge; because you have made us abhorrent in the eyes of Par'o, and in the eyes of his servants, to put a sword in their hand to slay us. And Moshe returned to the 22 LORD, and said, LORD, why hast thou dealt ill with this people?

why is it that thou hast sent me? for since I came to Par'o 23 to speak in thy name, he has done evil to this people; neither hast thou delivered thy people at all. Then the LORD said to 6 Moshe, Now shalt thou see what I will do to Par'o: for with a strong hand shall he let them go, and with a strong hand VA'ERA shall he drive them out of his land. And GOD spoke to 2
Moshe, and said to him, I am the LORD: and I appeared to 3 Avraham, to Yiẓḥaq, and to Ya'aqov, by the name of GOD Almighty, but by my name, The LORD, I was not known to them.
And I have also established my covenant with them, to give 4 them the land of Kena'an, the land of their sojournings, in which they sojourned. And I have also heard the groaning of 5 the children of Yisra'el, kept in bondage by Miẓrayim; and I have remembered my covenant. Therefore say to the children 6 of Yisra'el, I am the LORD, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of Miẓrayim, and I will deliver you out of their bondage, and I will reedem you with an outstretched arm, and with great judgments: and I will take you to me for a people, 7 and I will be to you a GOD: and you shall know that I am the LORD your GOD, who brings you out from under the burdens of Miẓrayim. And I will bring you into the land, which I swore to 8 give to Avraham, to Yiẓḥaq, and to Ya'aqov; and I will give it you for a heritage: I am the LORD. And Moshe spoke so to the 9 children of Yisra'el: but they hearkened not to Moshe for anguish of spirit, and for cruel bondage.
And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Go in, speak to Par'o, 10, 11 king of Miẓrayim, that he let the children of Yisra'el go out of his land. And Moshe spoke before the LORD, saying, Behold, the 12 children of Yisra'el have not hearkened to me; how then shall Par'o hear me, who am of uncircumcised lips?
And the LORD spoke to Moshe and to Aharon, and gave them a 13 charge to the children of Yisra'el, and to Par'o king of Miẓrayim, to bring the children of Yisra'el out of the land of Miẓrayim.

LORD said, Bring out the children of Yisra'el from the land of Miẓrayim according to their hosts. These are they who spoke to 27 Par'o king of Miẓrayim, to bring out the children of Yisra'el from Miẓrayim: these are that Moshe and Aharon. And it came 28 to pass on the day when the LORD spoke to Moshe in the land of Miẓrayim, that the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, I 29 am the LORD: speak to Par'o king of Miẓrayim all that I say to thee. And Moshe said before the LORD, Behold, I am of uncir- 30

Par'o: and Aharon thy brother shall be thy prophet. Thou shalt 2 speak all that I command thee: and Aharon thy brother shall speak to Par'o, that he send the children of Yisra'el out of his land. And I will harden Par'o's heart, and multiply my signs and 3 my wonders in the land of Miẓrayim. But Par'o shall not hearken 4 to you, that I may lay my hand upon Miẓrayim, and bring out my armies, my people the children of Yisra'el, out of the land of Miẓrayim by great judgments. And Miẓrayim shall know that 5 wise men and the sorcerers: and the magicians of Miẓrayim, they also did in like manner with their secret arts. For they cast 12 down every man his rod, and they turned to snakes: but Aha-morning; lo, he goes out to the water; and thou shalt stand by the River's brink to meet him; and the rod which was turned him, The LORD GOD of the Hebrews has sent me to thee, saying, Let my people go, that they may serve me in the wilderness:

and, behold, till now thou wouldst not hear. Thus says the 17 LORD, In this thou shalt know that I am the LORD: behold, I will smite with the rod that is in my hand upon the water in the River, and it shall be turned to blood. And the fish that is 18 in the River shall die, and the river shall stink; and Miẓrayim shall no longer be able to drink the water of the River. And 19 the LORD spoke to Moshe, Say to Aharon, Take thy rod, and stretch out thy hand upon the waters of Miẓrayim, upon their streams, upon their canals, and upon their ponds, and upon all their pools of water, that they may become blood; and that there may be blood throughout all the land of Miẓrayim, both in vessels of wood, and in vessels of stone. And Moshe and 20 Aharon did so, as the LORD commanded; and he lifted up the rod, and smote the waters that were in the River, in the sight of Par'o, and in the sight of his servants; and all the water that was in the River was turned to blood. And the fish that was in 21 the River died; and the River stank, and Miẓrayim could not drink of the water of the River; and there was blood throughout all the land of Miẓrayim. And the magicians of Par'o did so 22 with their secret arts: and Par'o's heart was hardened, neither did he hearken to them; as the LORD had said. And Par'o turned 23 and went to his house, neither did he set his heart even to this.
And all Miẓrayim dug round about the River for water to drink; 24 for they could not drink of the water of the River. And seven 25 days were completed, after the LORD had smitten the River.
And the LORD spoke to Moshe, Go to Par'o, and say to him, 26
Thus says the LORD, Let my people go, that they may serve me.
And if thou refuse to let them go, behold, I will smite all thy 27 borders with frogs: and the river shall bring forth frogs in 28 swarms, and these will go up and come into thy house, and into thy bedchamber, and upon thy bed, and into the house of thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thy ovens, and into thy kneading troughs: and the frogs shall come up both on thee, 29 and on thy people, and on all thy servants. And the LORD spoke 8 to Moshe, Say to Aharon, Stretch forth thy hand with thy rod over the streams, over the canals, and over the ponds, and cause frogs to come up upon the land of Miẓrayim. And Aharon 2 stretched out his hand over the waters of Miẓrayim. And the frogs came up, and covered the land of Miẓrayim. And the 3 magicians did so with their secret arts, and brought up frogs on the land of Miẓrayim. Then Par'o called to Moshe and Aharon, 4 and said, Entreat the LORD, that he may take away the frogs from me, and from my people; and I will let the people go, that they may do sacrifice to the LORD. And Moshe said to Par'o, Challenge 5 me to fix a time when I should entreat for thee, and for thy servants, and for thy people, to destroy the frogs from thee and thy houses, that they may remain in the River only? And he said, 6 Tomorrow. And he said, Be it according to thy word: that thou mayst know that there is none like the LORD our GOD. And the 7 frogs shall depart from thee, and from thy houses, and from thy servants, and from thy people; they shall remain in the River only. And Moshe and Aharon went out from Par'o: and Moshe 8 cried to the LORD because of the frogs which he had brought against Par'o. And the LORD did according to the word of Moshe; 9 and the frogs died out of the houses, out of the courts, and out of the fields. And they gathered them together in heaps: and 10 the land stank. But when Par'o saw that there was respite, he 11 hardened his heart, and hearkened not to them; as the LORD had said. And the LORD said to Moshe, Say to Aharon, 12 Stretch out thy rod, and smite the dust of the land, that it may turn into lice throughout all the land of Miẓrayim. And they did 13 so; for Aharon stretched out his hand with his rod, and smote the dust of the earth, and it became lice in man, and in beast; all the dust of the land became lice throughout all the land of Miẓrayim. And the magicians did so with their secret arts to 14 bring forth lice, but they could not: so there were lice on man and beast. Then the magicians said to Par'o, This is the finger 15 of GOD: and Par'o's heart was hardened, and he hearkened not to them; as the LORD had said. And the LORD said to 16 Moshe, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Par'o; lo he comes forth to the water; and say to him, Thus says the LORD, Let my people go, that they may serve me. Else, if thou 17 wilt not let my people go, behold, I will send swarms of gnats upon thee, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thy houses: and the houses of Miẓrayim shall be full of swarms of gnats, and also the ground on which they are. And I will 18 separate in that day the land of Goshen, in which my people dwell, that no swarms of gnats shall be there; to the end that thou mayst know that I am the LORD in the midst of the earth. 19 And I will put a division between my people and thy people: tomorrow shall this sign be. And the LORD did so; and there came 20 a grievous swarm of gnats into the house of Par'o, and into his servants' houses; and in all the land of Miẓrayim the land was devastated by reason of the swarm of gnats. And Par'o called 21 for Moshe and for Aharon, and said, Go, sacrifice to your GOD in the land. And Moshe said, It is not proper so to do; for we 22 shall sacrifice the abomination of Miẓrayim to the LORD our GOD: lo, shall we sacrifice the abomination of Miẓrayim before their eyes, and will they not stone us? We will go three days' 23 journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the LORD our GOD, as he shall command us. And Par'o said, I will let you go, that 24 you may sacrifice to the LORD your GOD in the wilderness; only you shall not go very far away: entreat for me. And Moshe said, 25

Behold, I go out from thee, and I will entreat the LORD that the swarm of gnats may depart from Par'o, from his servants, and from his people, tomorrow: but let not Par'o deal deceitfully any more in not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD.
And Moshe went out from Par'o, and entreated the LORD. 26
And the LORD did according to the word of Moshe; and he removed the swarm of gnats from Par'o, from his servants, and from his people; there remained not one. And Par'o hardened his heart at this time also, neither would he let the people go. 27 28

Then the LORD said to Moshe, Go in to Par'o, and tell him, Thus says the LORD GOD of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me. For if thou refuse to let them go, and wilt hold them still, behold, the hand of the LORD is upon thy cattle which is in the field, upon the horses, upon the asses, upon the camels, upon the oxen, and upon the sheep: there shall be a very grievous plague. And the LORD shall separate the cattle of Yisra'el from the cattle of Mizrayim: and nothing shall die of all that belongs to the children of Yisra'el. And the LORD appointed a set time, saying, Tomorrow the LORD shall do this thing in the land. And the LORD did that thing on the morrow, and all the cattle of Mizrayim died: but of the cattle of the children of Yisra'el not one died. And Par'o sent, and, behold, there was not one of the cattle of Yisra'el dead. And the heart of Par'o was hard, and he did not let the people go. 9 2 3 4 5 6 7

And the LORD said to Moshe and to Aharon, Take for yourselves handfuls of soot of the furnace, and let Moshe sprinkle it heavenwards in the sight of Par'o. And it shall become small dust in all the land of Mizrayim, and shall be a pox breaking out in blisters upon man, and upon beast, throughout all the land of Mizrayim. And they took soot of the furnace, and stood before Par'o; and Moshe sprinkled it up heavenwards; and it became a pox breaking out in blisters on man and beast. And the magicians could not stand before Moshe because of the pox; for the pox was on the magicians, and on all Mizrayim. And the LORD hardened the heart of Par'o, and he hearkened not to them; as the LORD had spoken to Moshe. 8 9 10 11 12

And the LORD said to Moshe, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Par'o, and say to him, Thus says the LORD GOD of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me. For I will at this time send all my plagues upon thy heart, and on thy servants, and on thy people; that thou mayst know that there is none like me in all the earth. For now if I would stretch out my hand, I might smite thee and thy people with pestilence; and thou shouldst be cut off from the earth. And in very deed for this cause have I raised thee up, to show in thee my power; and that my name may be proclaimed throughout all the earth. If as yet thou dost exalt thyself against my people, so as not to let them go, behold, tomorrow about this time I will cause it to rain a very grievous hail, such as has not been in Mizrayim since its foundation until now. Send therefore now, and gather thy cattle, and all that thou hast in the field; for upon every man and beast which shall be found in the field, and shall not be brought home, the hail shall come down, and they shall die. the servants of Par'o made his servants and his cattle flee into the houses: and he that regarded not the word of the LORD left his servants and his cattle in the field. 21

And the LORD said to Moshe, Stretch out thy hand towards heaven, that there may be hail in all the land of Miẓrayim, on man and beast, and on every plant of the field, throughout the land of Miẓrayim. And Moshe stretched out his rod towards heaven: and the LORD sent thunder and hail, and the fire ran down upon the ground; and the LORD rained hail upon the land of Miẓrayim. So there was hail, and fire flaring up amidst the hail, very grievous, such as there was none like it in all the land of Miẓrayim since it became a nation. And the hail smote throughout all the land of Miẓrayim all that was in the field, both man and beast; and the hail smote every plant of the field, and broke every tree of the field. Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Yisra'el were, was there no hail. And Par'o sent, and called for Moshe and Aharon, and said to them, I have sinned this time: the LORD is righteous, and I and my people are wicked. Entreat the LORD that there be no more mighty thunderings and hail; and I will let you go, and you shall stay no longer. And Moshe said to him, As soon as I am gone out of the city, I will spread out my hands to the LORD; and the thunder shall cease, neither shall there be any more hail; that thou mayst know that the earth is the LORD's. But as for thee and thy servants, I know that you will not yet fear the LORD GOD. And the flax and the barley were struck: for the barley was in the ear, and the flax was in bud. But the wheat and the spelt were not struck: for they were late ripening. And Moshe went out of the city from Par'o, and spread out his hands to the LORD: and the thunders and hail ceased, and the rain was no longer poured upon the earth. And when Par'o saw that the rain and the hail and the thunders had ceased, he sinned yet again, and hardened his heart, he and his servants. And the heart of Par'o was hard, neither would he let the children of Yisra'el go; as the LORD had spoken by Moshe. 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35

BO And the LORD said to Moshe, Go in to Par'o: for I have hardened his heart, and the heart of his servants, that I might show these my signs before him: and that thou mayst tell in the ears of thy son, and of thy son's son, what things I have done in Miẓrayim, and my signs which I have done among them; that you may know that I am the LORD. And Moshe and Aharon came to Par'o and said to him, Thus says the LORD GOD of the Hebrews, How long wilt thou refuse to humble thyself before me? let my people go, that they may serve me. Else, if thou refuse to let my people go, behold, tomorrow I will bring the locusts into thy border: and they shall cover the face of the earth, so that it will not be possible to see the earth: and they shall eat the residue of that which is escaped, which remains to you from the hail, and shall eat every tree which grows for you out of the field: and they shall fill thy houses, and the houses of all thy servants, and the houses of all Miẓrayim; which neither thy fathers, nor thy fathers' fathers have seen, since the day that they were upon the earth to this day. out from Par'o. And Par'o's servants said to him, How long shall 7 this man be a snare to us? let the men go, that they may serve the LORD their GOD: knowst thou not yet that Mizrayim is destroyed? And Moshe and Aharon were brought back to Par'o: 8 and he said to them, Go, serve the LORD your GOD: but who are they that shall go? And Moshe said, We will go with our young 9 and with our old, with our sons and with our daughters, with our flocks and with our herds will we go; for we must hold a feast to the LORD. And he said to them, Let the LORD be so with 10 you, as I will let you go, and your little ones: look to it; for evil is before you. Not so: go now you that are men, and serve 11 the LORD; for that is what you desire. And they were driven out from Par'o's presence. And the LORD said to Moshe, Stretch 12 out thy hand over the land of Mizrayim for the locusts, that they may come up on the land of Mizrayim, and eat every plant of the land, all that the hail has left. So Moshe stretched out his 13 rod over the land of Mizrayim, and the LORD brought an east wind upon the land all that day, and all that night; and when it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts. And the lo- 14 custs went up over all the land of Mizrayim, and rested in all the borders of Mizrayim: very grievous they were; before them there were no such locusts as they, neither after them shall there be such. For they covered the surface of the whole earth, so that 15 the land was darkened; and they did eat every plant of the land, and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left: and there remained no green thing in the trees, or in the plants of the field, through all the land of Mizrayim. Then Par'o called for 16 Moshe and Aharon in haste; and he said, I have sinned against the LORD your GOD, and against you. Now therefore forgive, I 17 pray thee, my sin only this once, and entreat the LORD your GOD, that he may take away from me this death only. And he went 18 out from Par'o, and entreated the LORD. And the LORD turned a 19 very strong west wind, which took away the locusts, and cast them into the Sea of Suf; there remained not one locust in all the borders of Mizrayim. But the LORD hardened Par'o's heart, so 20 that he would not let the children of Yisra'el go.
And the LORD said to Moshe, Stretch out thy hand towards 21 heaven, that there may be darkness over the land of Mizrayim, darkness which may be felt. And Moshe stretched out his 22 hand towards heaven; and there was a thick darkness in all the land of Mizrayim three days: they saw not one another, neither 23 rose any from his place for three days: but all the children of Yisra'el had light in their dwellings. And Par'o called to Moshe 24 and said, Go, serve the LORD; only let your flocks and your herds stay behind: let your little ones also go with you. And Moshe 25 said, Thou must give us also sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our GOD. Our cattle also shall go 26 with us; there shall not a hoof be left behind; for of them must we take to serve the LORD our GOD; and we know not with what we must serve the LORD, until we come there. But the LORD 27 hardened Par'o's heart, and he would not let them go. And Par'o 28 said to him, Get thee from me, take heed to thyself, see my face no more; for in the day thou seest my face thou shalt die. And 29 Moshe said, Thou hast spoken well, I will see thy face again no more.

And the LORD said to Moshe, Yet will I bring one plague more 11 upon Par'o, and upon Mizrayim; afterwards he will let you go from here: when he shall let you go, he shall surely thrust you out altogether from here. Speak now in the ears of the people, 2 and let every man ask of his neighbour, and every woman of her neighbour, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold. And the LORD 3 gave the people favour in the sight of Mizrayim; moreover the man Moshe was very great in the land of Mizrayim, in the sight of Par'o's servants, and in the sight of the people. And 4 Moshe said, Thus says the LORD, About midnight will I go out into the midst of Mizrayim: and all the firstborn in the land of 5 Mizrayim shall die, from the firstborn of Par'o that sits on his throne, even to the firstborn of the maidservant that is behind the mill; and all the firstborn of cattle. And there shall be a 6 great cry throughout all the land of Mizrayim, such as there was none like it, nor shall be like it any more. But against any 7 of the children of Yisra'el not a dog shall move its tongue, neither against man or beast: that you may know that the LORD differentiates between Mizrayim and between Yisra'el. And 8 all these thy servants shall come down to me, and bow down themselves to me, saying, Get thee gone, and all the people that follow thee: and after that I will go out. And he went out from Par'o in great anger. And the LORD said to Moshe, Par'o 9 shall not hearken to you; that my wonders may be multiplied in the land of Mizrayim. And Moshe and Aharon did all these 10 wonders before Par'o: and the LORD hardened Par'o's heart, so that he would not let the children of Yisra'el go out of his land.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe and Aharon in the land 12 of Mizrayim, saying, This month shall be to you the beginning 2 of months: it shall be the first month of the year to you.
Speak to all the congregation of Yisra'el, saying, On the tenth 3 day of this month they shall take to them every man a lamb, according to the house of their fathers, a lamb for a house:
and if the household be too little for a lamb, let him and his 4 neighbour next to his house take it according to the number of the souls; according to every man's eating shall you make your count for the lamb. Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male 5 of the first year: you shall take it from the sheep, or from the goats: and you shall keep it until the fourteenth day of the 6 same month: and the whole assembly of the congregation of Yisra'el shall kill it towards evening. And they shall take the 7 blood, and put it on the two side posts and on the upper door post of the houses, in which they shall eat it. And they shall eat 8 the meat in that night, roast with fire, and unleavened bread; and with bitter herbs they shall eat it. Eat not of it raw, nor 9 boiled at all in water, but roast with fire; its head with its legs, and with its entrails. And you shall let nothing of it remain until 10 the morning; and that which remains of it until the morning you shall burn with fire. And thus shall you eat it; with your loins 11 girded, your shoes on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and you shall eat it in haste; it is the LORD's passover. For I will 12 pass through the land of Miẓrayim this night, and will smite all the firstborn in the land of Miẓrayim, both man and beast: and against all the gods of Miẓrayim I will execute judgments: I am the LORD. And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the 13 houses where you are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Miẓrayim. And this day shall be to you 14 for a memorial; and you shall keep it a feast to the LORD; throughout your generations shall you keep it a feast by ordinance for ever. Seven days shall you eat unleavened bread; 15 but on the first day you shall have put away leaven out of your houses: for whoever eats leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that soul shall be cut off from Yisra'el. And on 16 the first day there shall be a holy gathering, and on the seventh day there shall be a holy gathering to you; no manner of work shall be done on them, save that which every person must eat, that only may be done by you. And you shall observe the 17 commandment of unleavened bread; for on this very day have I brought your hosts out of the land of Miẓrayim: therefore shall you observe this day in your generations by an ordinance for ever. In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at 18 evening, shall you eat unleavened bread, until the twenty first day of the month at evening. Seven days shall there be no leaven 19 found in your houses: for whoever eats that which is leavened, even that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Yisra'el, whether he be a stranger, or born in the land. You shall eat 20 nothing leavened; in all your habitations shall you eat unleavened bread.

Then Moshe called for all the elders of Yisra'el, and said to 21 them, Draw out and take you lambs according to your families, and kill the passover. And take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it 22 in the blood that is in the basin, and touch with it the lintel and the two side posts, with the blood that is in the basin; and none of you shall go out at the door of his house until the morning.
For the LORD will pass through to smite Miẓrayim; and when 23 he sees the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side posts, the LORD will pass over the door, and will not allow the destroyer to come into your houses to smite you. And you shall observe 24 this thing for an ordinance to thee and to thy sons for ever.
And it shall come to pass, when you shall come to the land 25 which the LORD will give you, according as he has promised, that you shall keep this service. And it shall come to pass, when 26 your children shall say to you, What mean you by this service? that you shall say, It is the sacrifice of the LORD's passover, who 27 passed over the houses of the children of Yisra'el in Miẓrayim, when he smote Miẓrayim, and delivered our houses. And the people bowed the head and worshipped. And the children of 28 Yisra'el went away, and did as the LORD had commanded Moshe and Aharon, so they did. And it came to pass, that at 29 midnight the LORD smote all the firstborn in the land of Miẓrayim, from the firstborn of Par'o that sat on his throne to the firstborn of the captive that was in the dungeon; and all the firstborn of cattle. And Par'o rose up in the night, he, and all 30 his servants, and all Miẓrayim; and there was a great cry in Miẓrayim; for there was not a house where there was not one dead. And he called for Moshe and Aharon by night, and said, 31 Rise up, and get you out from among my people, both you and the children of Yisra'el; and go, serve the LORD, as you have said.

Also take your flocks and your herds, as you have said, and be 32 gone; and bless me also. And Miẓrayim was urgent upon the 33 people, that they might send them out of the land in haste; for they said, We are all dead men. And the people took their dough 34 before it was leavened, their kneading troughs being bound up in their clothes upon their shoulders. And the children of Yisra'el 35 did according to the word of Moshe; and they asked of Miẓrayim jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and garments: and the 36
LORD gave the people favour in the sight of Miẓrayim, so that they gave them such things as they required. And they despoiled Miẓrayim.
And the children of Yisra'el journeyed from Ra'meses to Sukkot, 37 about six hundred thousand men on foot, besides children. And 38 a mixed multitude went up also with them; and flocks, and herds, very much cattle. And they baked unleavened cakes of 39 the dough which they brought out of Miẓrayim, for it was not leavened; because they were driven out of Miẓrayim, and could not delay, neither had they prepared for themselves any provision. Now the sojourning of the children of Yisra'el, who 40 dwelt in Miẓrayim, was four hundred and thirty years. And it 41 came to pass at the end of four hundred and thirty years, even on that very day it came to pass, that all the hosts of the LORD went out from the land of Miẓrayim. It is a night of watch- 42 fulness to the LORD for bringing them out from the land of Miẓrayim: this is the LORD's watchnight, for all the children of Yisra'el in their generations.
And the LORD said to Moshe and Aharon, This is the ordinance 43 of the passover: no stranger shall eat of it: but every man's 44 servant that is bought for money, when thou hast circumcised him, then shall he eat of it. A foreigner and a hired servant shall 45 not eat of it. In one house shall it be eaten: thou shalt not take 46 any of the meat outside, out of the house; neither shall you break a bone of it. All the congregation of Yisra'el shall keep it. 47
And when a stranger shall sojourn with thee, and will keep the 48 passover to the LORD, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near and keep it; and he shall be as one that is born in the land: for no uncircumcised person shall eat of it.
One Tora shall be to him that is homeborn, and to the stranger 49 that sojourns among you. Thus did all the children of Yisra'el; 50 as the LORD commanded Moshe and Aharon so they did.
And it came to pass on that selfsame day, that the LORD 51 did bring the children of Yisra'el out of the land of Miẓrayim by their hosts.
And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Sanctify to me all the 13
firstborn, whatever opens the womb among the children of 2

Yisrael, both of man and of beast: it is mine. And Moshe said 3 to the people, Remember this day, in which you came out from Miẓrayim, out of the house of bondage; for by strength of hand the LORD brought you out from this place: no leavened bread shall be eaten. This day you came out, in the month Aviv. 4
And it shall be when the LORD shall bring thee into the land of 5 the Kena'ani, and the Ḥitti, and the Emori, and the Ḥivvi, and the Yevusi, which he swore to thy fathers to give thee, a land flowing with milk and honey, that thou shalt keep this service in this month. Seven days thou shalt eat unleavened bread, and 6 on the seventh day there shall be a feast to the LORD. Unleavened 7 bread shall be eaten for seven days; and there shall no leavened bread be seen with thee, neither shall leaven be seen with thee in all thy borders. And thou shalt relate to thy son on that 8 day, saying, This is done because of that which the LORD did to me when I came out of Miẓrayim. And it shall be for a sign 9 to thee upon thy hand, and for a memorial between thy eyes, that the LORD's Tora may be in thy mouth: for with a strong hand did the LORD bring thee out of Miẓrayim. Thou shalt there- 10 fore keep this ordinance in its season from year to year.
And it shall be when the LORD shall bring thee into the land of 11 the Kena'ani, as he swore to thee and to thy fathers, and shall give it thee, that thou shalt set apart to the LORD all that opens 12 the womb, and every firstling that comes of a beast which thou hast; the males shall be the LORD's. And every firstling of an 13 ass thou shalt redeem with a lamb; and if thou wilt not redeem it, then thou shalt break its neck: and all the firstborn of man among thy children shalt thou redeem. And it shall be when thy 14 son asks thee in time to come, saying, What is this? that thou shalt say to him, By strength of hand the LORD brought us out of Miẓrayim, from the house of bondage: and it came to pass, 15 when Par'o would hardly let us go, that the LORD slew all the firstborn in the land of Miẓrayim, both the firstborn of man, and the firstborn of beast: therefore I sacrifice to the LORD all that opens the womb, being males; but all the firstborn of my children I redeem. And it shall be for a token upon thy hand, and for 16 frontlets between thy eyes: for by strength of hand the LORD BESHALLAḤ brought us forth out of Miẓrayim. And it came to pass, 17 when Par'o had let the people go, that GOD led them not through the way of the land of the Pelishtim, although that was near; for GOD said, Lest the people repent when they see war, and they return to Miẓrayim: but GOD led the people about, through the 18 way of the wilderness of the Sea of Suf: and the children of Yisra'el went up armed out of the land of Miẓrayim. And Moshe 19 took the bones of Yosef with him: for he had laid an oath on the children of Yisra'el, saying, GOD will surely visit you; and you shall carry up my bones away from here with you. And they 20 took their journey from Sukkot, and encamped in Etam, at the edge of the wilderness. And the LORD went before them by day 21 in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light; that they might go by day and night: he took not away the pillar of the cloud by day, nor the 22 pillar of fire by night, from before the people.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Speak to the children of 1,2 Yisra'el, that they turn and encamp before Pi-haḥirot, between Migdol and the sea, over against Ba'al-ẓefon: before it shall you encamp by the sea. For Par'o will say of the children of 3 Yisra'el, They are entangled in the land, the wilderness has shut them in. And I will harden Par'o's heart, that he shall follow 4 after them; and I will gain honour by Par'o, and by all his host; that Miẓrayim may know that I am the LORD. And they did so.
And it was told the king of Miẓrayim that the people had fled: 5 and the heart of Par'o and of his servants was turned against the people, and they said, Why have we done this, that we have let Yisra'el go from serving us? And he made ready his chariot, 6 and took his people with him: and he took six hundred chosen 7 chariots, and all the chariots of Miẓrayim, and captains over every one of them. And the LORD hardened the heart of Par'o 8 king of Miẓrayim, and he pursued after the children of Yisra'el: and the children of Yisra'el went out with a high hand. And 9 Miẓrayim pursued after them, all the horses and chariots of Par'o, and his horsemen, and his army, and overtook them en-camping by the sea, beside Pi-haḥirot, before Ba'al-ẓefon. And 10 when Par'o drew near, the children of Yisra'el lifted up their eyes, and, behold, Miẓrayim marched after them; and they were very much afraid: and the children of Yisra'el cried out to the LORD. And they said to Moshe, Because there were no graves in 11 Miẓrayim, hast thou taken us away to die in the wilderness? why hast thou dealt thus with us, to carry us out of Miẓrayim? Is not 12 this the word that we did tell thee in Miẓrayim, saying, Let us alone, that we may serve Miẓrayim? For it had been better for us to serve Miẓrayim, than that we should die in the wilderness.
And Moshe said to the people, Fear not, stand still, and see the 13 salvation of the LORD, which he will show you today: for as you have seen Miẓrayim this day, you shall not see them again any more for ever. The LORD shall fight for you, and you shall hold 14 your peace.
And the LORD said to Moshe, Why dost thou cry to me? speak 15 to the children of Yisra'el, that they go forward: but lift up 16 thy rod, and stretch out thy hand over the sea, and divide it: and the children of Yisra'el shall go on dry ground through the midst of the sea. And I, behold I will harden the heart of Miẓ- 17 rayim, and they shall follow them: and I will gain honour by Par'o, and all his host, his chariots, and his horsemen. And 18 Miẓrayim shall know that I am the LORD, when I have gained honour by Par'o, by his chariots, and his horsemen. And the 19 angel of GOD, who went before the camp of Yisra'el, removed and went behind them; and the pillar of the cloud went from before their face, and stood behind them: and it came between 20 the camp of Miẓrayim and the camp of Yisra'el; and it was a cloud and darkness to them, but it gave light by night to these:
so that the one came not near the other all the night. And Moshe 21 stretched out his hand over the sea; and the LORD caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and made the sea dry land, and the waters were divided. And the children 22 of Yisra'el went into the midst of the sea on the dry ground:

and the waters were a wall to them on their right hand and on their left. And Miẓrayim pursued, and went in after them to the midst of the sea, even all Par'o's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen. And it came to pass, that in the morning watch the LORD looked to the camp of Miẓrayim through the pillar of fire and of the cloud and brought confusion into the camp of Miẓrayim. And he took off their chariot wheels, that they drove heavily: so that Miẓrayim said, Let us flee from the face of Yisra'el; for the LORD fights for them against Miẓrayim.

And the LORD said to Moshe, Stretch out thy hand over the sea, that the waters may come back upon Miẓrayim, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen. And Moshe stretched out his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to its strength when the morning appeared; and Miẓrayim fled towards it; and the LORD overthrew Miẓrayim in the midst of the sea. And the waters returned, and covered the chariots, and the horsemen, and all the host of Par'o that came into the sea after them; there remained not so much as one of them. But the children of Yisra'el walked on dry land in the midst of the sea; and the waters were a wall to them on their right hand, and on their left. Thus the LORD saved Yisra'el that day out of the hand of Miẓrayim; and Yisra'el saw Miẓrayim dead upon the sea shore. And Yisrael saw that great work which the LORD did upon Miẓrayim: and the people feared the LORD, and believed in the LORD, and in his servant Moshe.

Then sang Moshe and the children of Yisra'el this song to the LORD, and spoke, saying, / I will sing to the LORD, for he has triumphed gloriously: / the horse and his rider has he thrown into the sea. / The LORD is my strength and song, and he is become my salvation: / he is my GOD, and I will praise him; / my father's GOD, and I will exalt him. / The LORD is a man of war: the LORD is his name. / Par'o's chariots and his host has he thrown into the sea: / his chosen captains also are drowned in the Sea of Suf. / The depths have covered them: they sank into the bottom like stone. / Thy right hand, O LORD, is glorious in power: / thy right hand, O LORD, has dashed the enemy in pieces. / And in the greatness of thy excellency thou hast overthrown them that rose up against thee: / thou didst send forth thy anger, which consumed them as stubble. / And with the blast of thy nostrils the waters were piled up, / the floods stood upright like a heap, / and the depths were congealed in the heart of the sea. / The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, / I will divide the spoil; my lust shall be satisfied upon them; / I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them. / Thou didst blow with thy wind, the sea covered them, / they sank as lead in the mighty waters. / Who is like thee, O LORD, among the gods? / who is like thee, glorious in holiness, / fearful in praises, doing wonders? / Thou didst stretch out thy right hand, the earth swallowed them. / Thou in thy mercy hast led forth the people whom thou hast redeemed: / thou hast guided them in thy strength to thy holy habitation. /

The people shall hear, and be afraid: / trembling shall take 14 hold of the inhabitants of Peleshet. / Then the chiefs of Edom 15 shall be amazed; / the mighty men of Mo'av, trembling shall take hold upon them; / all the inhabitants of Kena'an shalt melt away. / Fear and dread shall fall upon them: / by the greatness 16 of thy arm they shall be as still as a stone; / till thy people pass over, O LORD, / till the people pass over, whom thou hast acquired. / Thou shalt bring them in, and plant them in the 17 mountain of thy inheritance, / in the place, O LORD, which thou hast made for thee to dwell in, / in the sanctuary, O LORD, which thy hands have established. / The LORD shall reign for ever and 18 ever. / For the horse of Par'o went in with his chariots and with 19 his horsemen into the sea, and the LORD brought the waters of the sea back upon them; / but the children of Yisra'el went on dry land in the midst of / the sea.

And Miryam the prophetess, the sister of Aharon, took a timbrel 20 in her hand; and all the women went out after her with timbrels and with dances. And Miryam answered them, Sing to the LORD, 21 for he has triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider has he thrown into the sea. So Moshe brought Yisra'el from the 22 Sea of Suf, and they went out to the wilderness of Shur; and they marched three days in the wilderness, and found no water. 23 And when they came to Mara, they could not drink of the waters of Mara, for they were bitter: therefore the name of it was called Mara. And the people murmured against Moshe, saying, What 24 shall we drink? And he cried to the LORD; and the LORD showed 25 him a tree, which when he had cast into the waters, the waters were made sweet: there he made for them a statute and an ordinance, and there he tested them, and he said, If thou wilt 26 diligently hearken to the voice of the LORD thy GOD, and wilt do that which is right in his sight, and wilt give ear to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon Miẓrayim: for I am the LORD that heals thee. And they came to Elim, 27 where were twelve springs of water, and seventy palm trees: and they encamped there by the water. And they took their 16 journey from Elim, and all the congregation of the children of Yisra'el came to the wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinay, on the fifteenth day of the second month after their departing out of the land of Miẓrayim. And the whole congrega- 2 tion of the children of Yisra'el murmured against Moshe and Aharon in the wilderness: and the children of Yisra'el said to 3 them, Would we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Miẓrayim, when we sat by the flesh pots, and when we ate our fill of bread; for you have brought us out into this wilderness, to kill this whole assembly with hunger. Then said 4 the LORD to Moshe, Behold, I will rain bread from heaven for you; and the people shall go out and gather a certain portion every day, that I may test them, whether they will follow my Tora, or no. And it shall come to pass, on the sixth day when 5 they shall prepare that which they bring in; that it shall be twice as much as they gather daily. And Moshe and Aharon said to all 6 the children of Yisra'el, At evening you shall know that the LORD has brought you out from the land of Miẓrayim: and in 7 the morning, you shall see the glory of the LORD when he hears your murmurings against the LORD: and what are we, that you murmur against us? And Moshe said, This shall be, when the 8 LORD shall give you in the evening meat to eat, and in the morning your fill of bread; when the LORD hears your murmurings which you murmur against him: and what are we? your murmurings are not against us, but against the LORD. And Moshe 9 spoke to Aharon, Say to all the congregation of the children of Yisra'el, Come near before the LORD: for he has heard your murmurings. And it came to pass, as Aharon spoke to the whole 10 congregation of the children of Yisra'el, that they looked toward the wilderness, and, behold, the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, I have heard the murmur- 11, 12 ings of the children of Yisra'el: speak to them, saying, At evening you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall be filled with bread; and you shall know that I am the LORD your GOD. And it 13 came to pass, that at evening the quails came up, and covered the camp: and in the morning the dew lay round about the camp.
And when the layer of dew was gone up, behold, upon the face 14 of the wilderness there lay a fine flaky substance, as fine as the hoar frost on the ground. And when the children of Yisra'el saw 15 it, they said one to another, Man-hu (what is it?): for they knew not what it was. And Moshe said to them, This is the bread which the LORD has given you to eat. This is the thing which the LORD 16 has commanded, Gather of it every man according to his eating, an 'omer for every man, according to the number of your persons shall you take it, every man for them who are in his tent.
And the children of Yisra'el did so, and gathered, some more, 17 some less. And when they did measure it with an 'omer, he that 18 gathered much had nothing over, and he that gathered little had no lack; they gathered every man according to his eating. And 19 Moshe said, Let no man leave of it till the morning. But they 20 hearkened not to Moshe; but some of them left of it until the morning, and it bred worms, and stank: and Moshe was angry with them. And they gathered it every morning, every man ac- 21 cording to his eating: and when the sun grew hot, it melted. And 22 it came to pass, that on the sixth day they gathered a double provision, two 'omer for one man: and all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moshe. And he said to them, This 23 is that which the LORD has said, Tomorrow is the rest of the holy sabbath to the LORD: bake that which you will bake today, and what you will boil, boil today; and that which remains over lay up for you to be kept until the morning. And they laid it up 24 till the morning, as Moshe commanded: and it did not stink, neither was there any worm in it. And Moshe said, Eat that 25 today; for today is a sabbath to the LORD: today you shall not find it in the field. Six days you shall gather it; but on the 26 seventh day, which is the sabbath, on it there shall be none. And 27 it came to pass, that some of the people went out on the seventh day to gather, and they found none. And the LORD said to 28

Moshe, How long will you refuse to keep my commandments and my Torot? See, that the LORD has given you the sabbath, 29 therefore he gives you on the sixth day the bread of two days: remain every man in his place, let no man go out of his place on the seventh day. So the people rested on the seventh day. 30 And the house of Yisra'el called the name thereof Man (manna): 31 and it was like coriander seed, white; and the taste of it was like wafers made with honey. And Moshe said, This is the thing 32 which the LORD commands, Fill an 'omer of it to be kept for your generations; that they may see the bread with which I fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you out from the land of Miẓrayim. And Moshe said to Aharon, Take a jar, and put an 33
'omer full of manna in it, and lay it up before the LORD, to be kept for your generations. As the LORD commanded Moshe, so 34 Aharon laid it up before the Testimony, to be kept. And the 35 children of Yisra'el did eat the manna for forty years, until they came to an inhabited land; they did eat the manna, until they came to the borders of the land of Kena'an. Now an 'omer is 36 the tenth part of an efa.

17 And all the congregation of the children of Yisra'el journeyed from the wilderness of Sin, by their stages, according to the commandment of the LORD, and pitched in Refidim: and there was no water for the people to drink. Wherefore the people did 2 strive with Moshe, and said, Give us water that we may drink.
And Moshe said to them, Why do you strive with me? why do you tempt the LORD? And the people thirsted there for water; 3 and the people murmured against Moshe, and said, Why is it that thou hast brought us up out of Miẓrayim, to kill us and our children and our cattle with thirst? And Moshe cried to the LORD, 4 saying, What shall I do to this people? they are almost ready to stone me. And the LORD said to Moshe, Pass before the people, 5 and take with thee of the elders of Yisra'el; and thy rod, with which thou smotest the river, take in thy hand, and go. Behold, 6 I will stand before thee there upon the rock in Ḥorev; and thou shalt smite the rock, and there shall come water out of it, that the people may drink. And Moshe did so in the sight of the elders of Yisra'el. And he called the name of the place Massa and 7 Meriva, because of the strife of the children of Yisra'el, and because they tempted the LORD, saying, Is the LORD among us, or not?

Then came 'Amaleq, and fought with Yisra'el in Refidim. And 8, 9 Moshe said to Yehoshua, Choose us out men, and go out, fight with 'Amaleq: tomorrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the rod of GOD in my hand. So Yehoshua did as Moshe had 10 said to him, and fought with 'Amaleq: and Moshe, Aharon and Ḥur went up to the top of the hill. And it came to pass, when 11 Moshe held up his hand, that Yisra'el prevailed: and when he let down his hand, 'Amaleq prevailed. But Moshe's hands were 12 heavy; and they took a stone, and put it under him, and he sat on it; and Aharon and Ḥur supported his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side; and his hands were steady until the going down of the sun. And Yehoshua harried 13
'Amaleq and his people with the edge of the sword.

And the LORD said to Moshe, Write this for a memorial in a book, and rehearse it in the ears of Yehoshua: that I will utterly blot out the remembrance of 'Amaleq from under the heaven. 14
And Moshe built an altar, and called the name of it Adonay Nissi (the LORD is my Banner:) for he said. Because the LORD has sworn by his throne that the LORD will have war with 'Amaleq from generation to generation. 15 16

YITRO When Yitro, the priest of Midyan, Moshe's father in law, heard of all that GOD had done for Moshe, and for Yisra'el his people, and that the LORD had brought Yisra'el out of Miẓrayim; then Yitro, Moshe's father in law, took Ẓippora, Moshe's wife, after he had sent her back, and her two sons; of whom the name of the one was Gershom (for he said, I have been an alien in a strange land:) and the name of the other was Eli'ezer (for the GOD of my father was my help, and delivered me from the sword of Par'o:) and Yitro, Moshe's father in law, came, with his sons and his wife to Moshe into the wilderness, where he encamped at the mount of GOD: and he said to Moshe, I thy father in law Yitro am come to thee, and thy wife, and her two sons with her. And Moshe went out to meet his father in law, and bowed, and kissed him; and they asked each other of their welfare; and they came into the tent. And Moshe told his father in law all that the LORD had done to Par'o and to Miẓrayim for the sake of Yisra'el, and all the travail that had come upon them by the way, and how the LORD delivered them. And Yitro rejoiced for all the goodness which the LORD had done to Yisra'el, whom he had delivered out of the hand of Miẓrayim. And Yitro said, Blessed be the LORD, who has delivered you out of the hand of Miẓrayim, and out of the hand of Par'o, who has delivered the people from under the hand of Miẓrayim. Now I know that the LORD is greater than all gods: for in the thing wherein they dealt proudly he was above them. And Yitro, Moshe's father in law, took a burnt offering and sacrifices for GOD: and Aharon came, and all the elders of Yisra'el, to eat bread with Moshe's father in law before GOD. And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moshe sat to judge the people: and the people stood by Moshe from the morning to the evening. And when Moshe's father in law saw all that he did for the people, he said, What is this thing that thou doest for the people? why dost thou sit alone, and all the people stand by thee from morning to evening? And Moshe said to his father in law, Because the people come to me to inquire of GOD: When they have a matter, they come to me; and I judge between one and another, and I do make them know the statutes of GOD and his Torot. And Moshe's father in law said to him, The thing that thou doest is not good. Thou wilt surely wear away, both thou, and this people that is with thee: for this thing is too heavy for thee; thou art not able to perform it thyself alone. Hearken now to my voice, I will give thee counsel, and may GOD be with thee: Be thou the link between the people and GOD, that thou mayst bring the cases to GOD: and thou shalt teach them the ordinances and the Torot, and shalt show them the way in which they must walk, and the work that they must do. Moreover thou shalt provide out of all 18 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21

the people able men, such as fear GOD, men of truth, hating unjust gain; and place such over them, to be rulers of thousands, and rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens; and let them judge the people at all seasons: and it shall be, 22 that every great matter they shall bring to thee, but every small matter they shall judge: so shall it be easier for thyself, and they shall bear the burden with thee. If thou shalt do this thing, 23 and GOD command thee so, then thou shalt be able to endure, and all this people shall go to their place in peace. So Moshe 24 hearkened to the voice of his father in law, and did all that he had said. And Moshe chose able men out of all Yisra'el, and 25 made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens. And they judged 26 the people at all times: the hard cases they brought to Moshe, but every small matter they judged themselves. And Moshe let 27 his father in law depart; and he went his way to his own land.

In the third month, after the children of Yisra'el were gone out 19 of the land of Miẓrayim, the same day they came into the wilderness of Sinay. For they were departed from Refidim, and 2 were come to the desert of Sinay, and had pitched in the wilderness; and there Yisra'el camped before the mountain. And 3 Moshe went up to GOD, and the LORD called to him out of the mountain, saying, Thus shalt thou say to the house of Ya'aqov, and tell the children of Yisra'el; You have seen what I did to 4 Miẓrayim, and how I bore you on eagles' wings, and brought you to myself. Now therefore, if you will obey my voice indeed, 5 and keep my covenant, then you shall be my own treasure from among all peoples: for all the earth is mine: and you shall be 6 to me a kingdom of priests, and a holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak to the children of Yisra'el. And 7 Moshe came and called for the elders of the people, and laid before them all these words which the LORD had commanded him, and all the people answered together, and said, All that 8 the LORD has spoken we will do. And Moshe reported the words of the people to the LORD. And the LORD said to Moshe, Lo, I 9 come to thee in a thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with thee, and believe thee for ever. And Moshe told the words of the people to the LORD. And the LORD said to Moshe, 10 Go to the people, and sanctify them today and tomorrow, and let them wash their clothes, and be ready by the third day: 11 for on the third day the LORD will come down in the sight of all the people upon mount Sinay. And thou shalt set bounds to the 12 people round about, saying, Take heed to yourselves, that you go not up into the mountain, or touch the border of it: whoever touches the mountain shall be surely put to death: no hand 13 shall touch him, but he shall surely be stoned, or shot through; whether it be beast or man, it shall not live: when the horn sounds long, they shall come up to the mountain. And Moshe 14 went down from the mountain to the people, and sanctified the people; and they washed their clothes. And he said to the people, 15 Be ready by the third day: come not near a woman. And it came 16 to pass on the third day in the morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mountain, and the sound of a shofar exceeding loud; so that all the people in the camp trembled. And Moshe brought the people out of the 17 camp to meet with GOD; and they stood at the foot of the mountain. And mount Sinay smoked in every part, because the 18 LORD descended upon it in fire: and the smoke of it ascended like the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mountain quaked greatly. And then the voice of the shofar sounded louder and 19 louder; Moshe speaks, and GOD answers him by a voice. And the 20 LORD came down upon mount Sinay, on the top of the mountain: and the LORD called Moshe up to the top of the mount; and Moshe went up. And the LORD said to Moshe, Go down, charge 21 the people, lest they break through to the LORD to gaze, and many of them perish. And let the priests also, who come near to the 22 LORD, sanctify themselves, lest the LORD break forth upon them. And Moshe said to the LORD, The people cannot come up to 23 mount Sinay: for thou didst charge us, saying, Set bounds about the mountain, and sanctify it. And the LORD said to him, Go, get 24 thee down, and thou shalt come up, thou, and Aharon with thee: but let not the priests and the people break through to come up to the LORD, lest he break forth upon them. So Moshe 25 went down to the people, and spoke to them. And GOD 20 spoke all these words, saying, I am the LORD thy GOD, who 2 have brought thee out of the land of Mizrayim, out of the house of bondage. Thou shalt have no other gods beside me. Thou shalt 3, 4 not make for thyself any carved idol, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down 5 to them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy GOD am a jealous GOD, punishing the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of those that hate me; but showing 6 mercy to thousands of generations of those that love me, and keep my commandments. Thou shalt not take the name 7 of the LORD thy GOD in vain; for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that takes his name in vain.

Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou 8, 9 labour, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is a sabbath 10 to the LORD thy GOD: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all 11 that is in them, and rested on the seventh day: therefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it. Honour thy 12 father and thy mother: that thy days may be long in the land which the LORD thy GOD gives thee. Thou shalt not mur- 13 der. Thou shalt not commit adultery. Thou shalt not steal. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house, thou 14 shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbour's.

And all the people perceived the thunderings, and the lightnings, 15 and the sound of the shofar, and the mountain smoking: and when the people saw it, they were shaken, and stood afar off.

And they said to Moshe, Speak thou with us, and we will hear: 16 but let not GOD speak with us, lest we die. And Moshe said to 17 the people, Fear not: for GOD is come to test you, and that his fear may be before your faces, that you sin not. And the people 18 stood afar off, and Moshe drew near to the thick darkness where GOD was. And the LORD said to Moshe, Thus thou shalt say 19 to the children of Yisra'el, You have seen that I have talked with you from heaven. You shall not make with me gods of silver, 20 neither shall you make for yourselves gods of gold. An altar of 21 earth thou shalt make to me, and thou shalt sacrifice on it thy burnt offerings, and thy peace offerings, thy sheep, and thy oxen: in all places where I cause my name to be pronounced, I will come to thee, and I will bless thee. And if thou wilt make me 22 an altar of stone, thou shalt not build it of hewn stone: for if thou lift up thy tool upon it, thou hast defiled it. Neither shalt 23 thou go up by steps to my altar, that thy nakedness be not exposed on it.

MISHPATIM Now these are the judgments which thou shalt set before them. 21
If thou buy a Hebrew servant, six years he shall serve: and in 2 the seventh he shall go out free, for nothing. If he came in by 3 himself, he shall go out by himself: if he is married, then his wife shall go out with him. If his master has given him a wife, 4 and she has born him sons or daughters; the wife and her children shall be her master's, and he shall go out by himself. And if 5 the servant shall plainly say, I love my master, my wife, and my children; I will not go out free: then his master shall bring him 6 to the judges; he shall also bring him to the door, or to the door post; and his master shall bore his ear through with an awl; and he shall serve him for ever. And if a man sell his 7 daughter to be a maidservant, she shall not go out as the men-servants do. If she please not her master, who has designated 8 her for himself, then shall he let her be redeemed: to sell her to a strange nation he shall have no power, seeing he has dealt deceitfully with her. And if he designated her for his son, he shall 9 deal with her after the manner of daughters. If he take another 10 wife for himself; her food, her clothing, and her duty of marriage, shall he not diminish. And if he do not these three to her, 11 then shall she go out free without money. He that smites 12 a man, so that he die, shall be surely put to death. And if a man 13 did not lie in wait, but GOD allowed it to happen to him; then I will appoint thee a place to which he shall flee. But if a 14 man come presumptuously upon his neighbour, to slay him with guile; thou shalt take him from my altar, that he may die.
And he that smites his father, or his mother, shall be 15 surely put to death. And he that steals a man, and sells 16 him, if he be found in his hand, he shall surely be put to death. And he that curses his father, or his mother, shall 17 surely be put to death. And if men strive together, and one 18 smite another with a stone, or with his fist, and he die not, but keeps his bed: if he rise again, and walk abroad upon his staff, 19 then shall he that struck him be acquitted: only he shall pay for the loss of his time, and shall cause him to be thoroughly healed. And if a man smite his servant, or his maid, with 20 a rod, and he die under his hand; he shall be surely punished.

But if he continues a day or two, he shall not be punished: for 21 he is his money. If men strive, and hurt a woman with 22 silver, and the ox shall be stoned. And if a man shall open 33 a pit, or if a man shall dig a pit, and not cover it, and an ox or an ass fall into it; the owner of the pit shall make it good, 34 and give money to the owner of them; and the dead beast shall be his. And if one man's ox hurt another's, that he die; 35 then they shall sell the live ox, and divide the money of it; and the dead ox also they shall divide. Or if it be known that the ox 36 has long been in the habit of goring, and his owner has not kept him in; he shall surely pay ox for ox; and the dead shall be his own. If a man shall steal an ox, or a sheep, and kill it, 37 or sell it; he shall restore five oxen for an ox, and four sheep for a sheep. If a thief be found breaking in, and be smitten that 22 he die, there shall no blood be shed on his account. If the sun 2 be risen upon him, there shall be blood shed on his account. He should make full restitution; if he have nothing, then he shall be sold for his theft. If the theft be at all found in his hand 3 alive, whether it be ox, or ass, or sheep; he shall restore double.

If a man shall cause a field or vineyard to be eaten, and 4 shall put in his beast, and shall feed in another man's field; of the best of his field, and of the best of his vineyard, shall he make restitution. If fire break out, and catch in thorns, 5 so that the sheaves, or the standing corn, or the field, be consumed; he that kindled the fire shall surely make restitution.
If a man shall deliver to his neighbour money or vessels 6 to keep, and it be stolen out of the man's house; if the thief be found, he shall pay double. If the thief be not found, then the 7 master of the house shall be brought to the judges, to swear that he has not put his hand to his neighbour's goods. For all 8 manner of trespass, whether it be for ox, for ass, for sheep, for a garment, or for any manner of lost thing, of which one can say, This is it, the cause of both parties shall come before the judges; and whom the judges shall condemn, he shall pay double to his neighbour. If a man deliver to his neighbour an ass, or an 9 ox, or a sheep, or any beast, to keep; and it die, or be hurt, or be driven away, no man seeing it: then shall an oath of the 10 LORD be between them both, that he has not put his hand to his neighbour's goods; and the owner of it shall accept this, and he shall not make it good. But if it be stolen from him, he 11 shall make restitution to its owner. If it be torn in pieces, then 12 let him bring it as evidence; he shall not make good that which was torn.

And if a man borrow aught of his neighbour, and it be hurt, 13 or die, its owner not being with it, he shall surely make it good.
But if its owner be with it, he shall not make it good: if it be 14 a hired thing, it came for his hire. And if a man seduce a 15 virgin that is not betrothed, and lie with her, he shall pay the bride price for her to be his wife. If her father utterly refuse 16 to give her to him, he shall pay money according to the marriage price of virgins. Thou shalt not suffer a witch to 17 live. Whoever cohabits with a beast shall surely be put to 18 death. He that sacrifices to any god, save to the LORD 19 only, he shall be utterly destroyed. Thou shalt neither vex a 20 stranger, nor oppress him: for you were strangers in the land of Mizrayim. You shall not afflict any widow, or fatherless child. 21 If thou at all afflict them, and they cry to me, I will surely hear 22 their cry; and my anger shall be inflamed, and I will kill you 23 with the sword; then your wives shall be widows, and your children fatherless.
If thou lend money to any of my people that is poor by thee, 24 thou shalt not be to him as a creditor, neither shall you lay upon him interest. If thou at all take thy neighbour's garment for a 25 pledge, thou shalt deliver it to him by sundown: for that is 26 his only covering, it is his garment for his skin: in what shall he sleep? and it shall come to pass, when he cries to me, that I will hear; for I am gracious. Thou shalt not revile the 27 judges, nor curse the ruler of thy people. Thou shalt not delay 28 to offer the first of thy ripe fruits, and of thy liquors: the first-born of thy sons shalt thou give to me. In like manner shalt 29 thou do with thy oxen, and with thy sheep: seven days it shall be with his dam; on the eighth day thou shalt give it me. And 30 you shall be holy men to me: neither shall you eat any meat that is torn of beasts in the field; you shall cast it to the dogs. Thou shalt not raise a false report: put not thy 23 hand with the wicked to be an unrighteous witness. Thou shalt 2 not follow a multitude to do evil; neither shalt thou speak in a cause to incline after a multitude to pervert justice: nor shalt 3 thou favour a poor man in his cause. If thou meet thy 4 enemy's ox or his ass going astray, thou shalt surely bring it back to him again. If thou see the ass of him that hates 5 thee lying under its burden, and wouldst forbear to unload it, thou shalt surely unload it with him. Thou shalt not per- 6 vert the judgment of thy poor in his cause. Keep thee far from a 7 false matter; and the innocent and righteous slay thou not: for I will not justify the wicked. And thou shalt take no bribe: 8 for the bribe blinds the wise, and perverts the words of the righteous. Also thou shalt not oppress a stranger: for you know 9 the heart of a stranger, seeing you were strangers in the land of Miẓrayim. And six years thou shalt sow thy land, and shalt 10 gather in its fruits: but the seventh year thou shalt let it rest 11 and lie fallow; that the poor of thy people may eat: and what they leave, the beasts of the field shall eat. In like manner thou shalt deal with thy vineyard, and with thy olive grove. Six days 12 thou shalt do thy work, and on the seventh day thou shalt rest:

that thy ox and thy ass may rest; and the son of thy handmaid, and the stranger, may be refreshed. And all things that I have 13 said to you be mindful of: and make no mention of the name of other gods, neither let it be heard out of thy mouth. Three 14 times thou shalt keep a feast to me in the year. Thou shalt keep 15 the feast of unleavened bread: (thou shalt eat unleavened bread seven days, as I commanded thee, in the time appointed of the month Aviv; for in it thou didst come out from Miẓrayim: and none shall appear before me empty:) and the feast of harvest, 16 the firstfruits of thy labours, which thou hast sown in the field:
and the feast of ingathering, which is at the end of the year, when thou hast gathered in thy labours out of the field. Three 17 times in the year all thy males shall appear before the LORD GOD. Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened 18 bread; neither shall the fat of my sacrifice remain until the morning. The first of the firstfruits of thy land thou shalt bring 19 to the house of the LORD thy GOD. Thou shalt not boil a kid in its mother's milk.
Behold, I send an angel before thee, to keep thee in the way, 20 and to bring thee to the place which I have prepared. Take heed 21 of him, and obey his voice, provoke him not; for he will not pardon your transgressions: for my name is in him. But if thou 22 shalt indeed obey his voice, and do all that I speak; then I will be an enemy to thy enemies, and an adversary to thy adversaries. For my angel shall go before thee, and bring thee in to 23 the Emori, and the Ḥitti, and the Perizzi, and the Kena'ani, and the Ḥivvi, and the Yevusi; and I will cut them off. Thou shalt 24 not bow down to their gods, nor serve them, nor do after their works: but thou shalt utterly overthrow them, and completely break down their images. And you shall serve the LORD your GOD, 25 and he shall bless thy bread, and thy water; and I will take sickness away from the midst of thee. None shall miscarry, 26 nor be barren, in thy land: the number of thy days I will fulfil.
I will send my fear before thee, and will destroy all the people 27 to whom thou shalt come, and I will make all thy enemies turn their backs to thee. And I will send hornets before thee, which 28 shall drive out the Ḥivvi, the Kena'ani, and the Ḥitti, from before thee. I will not drive them out from before thee in one year; 29 lest the land become desolate, and the wild beasts multiply against thee. Little by little I will drive them out from before 30 thee, until thou be increased, and inherit the land. And I will 31 set thy bounds from the Sea of Suf even to the Sea of the Pelishtim, and from the desert to the river: for I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand; and thou shalt drive them out before thee. Thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor 32 with their gods. They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make 33 thee sin against me: for if thou serve their gods, it will surely be a snare to thee.

And he said to Moshe, Come up to the LORD, thou, and Aharon, 24 Nadav, and Avihu, and seventy of the elders of Yisra'el; and bow down afar off. And Moshe alone shall come near the LORD: 2 but they shall not come near; nor shall the people go up with him. And Moshe came and told the people all the words of 3 the LORD, and all the judgments: and all the people answered with one voice, and said, All the words which the LORD has said will we do. And Moshe wrote all the words of the LORD, and rose 4 up early in the morning, and built an altar under the hill, and twelve pillars, according to the twelve tribes of Yisra'el. And 5 he sent the young men of the children of Yisra'el, who offered burnt offerings, and sacrificed peace offerings of oxen to the LORD. And Moshe took half of the blood, and put it in basins; 6 and half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar. And he took the 7 book of the covenant, and read in the hearing of the people: and they said, All that the LORD has said will we do, and obey. And 8 Moshe took the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and said, Behold the blood of the covenant, which the LORD has made with you concerning all these words. Then Moshe went up, and Aha- 9 ron, Nadav and Avihu, and seventy of the elders of Yisra'el: and they saw the GOD of Yisra'el: and there was under his feet 10 a kind of paved work of sapphire stone, and as it were the very heaven for clearness. And upon the nobles of the children of 11 Yisra'el he laid not his hand: and they beheld GOD, and did eat and drink. And the LORD said to Moshe, Come up to 12 me to the mountain, and be there: and I will give thee the tablets of stone, and the Tora, and the commandments which I have written; that thou mayst teach them. And Moshe rose up, and 13 his minister Yehoshua: and Moshe went up into the mount of GOD. And he said to the elders, Wait here for us, until we come 14 back to you: and, behold, Aharon and Ḥur are with you: if any man have any matters, let him come to them. And Moshe 15 went up into the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain.
And the glory of the LORD rested upon mount Sinay, and the cloud 16 covered it for six days: on the seventh day he called to Moshe out of the midst of the cloud. And the sight of the glory of the 17 LORD was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the eyes of the children of Yisra'el. And Moshe went into the 18 midst of the cloud, and went up into the mountain: and Moshe was in the mountain forty days and forty nights.

TERUMA And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Speak to the children of 25
Yisra'el that they bring me an offering: of every man whose 2 heart prompts him to give you shall take my offering. And this 3 is the offering which you shall take of them; gold, and silver, and brass, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and 4

And let them make me a sanctuary; that I may dwell among them. According to all that I show thee, the pattern of the tabernacle, and the pattern of all its vessels, even so shall you make it. And they shall make an ark of shittim wood: two cubits and a half shall be its length, and a cubit and a half its breadth, and a cubit and a half its height. And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, inside and outside shalt thou overlay it, and shalt make upon it a rim of gold round about. And thou shalt cast four rings of gold for it, and put them in its four corners, and two rings shall be on the one side of it, and two rings on the other side of it. And thou shalt make poles of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold. And thou shalt put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark, that the ark may be carried therewith. The poles shall be in the rings of the ark: they shall not be taken from it. And thou shalt put into the ark the Testimony which I shall give thee. And thou shalt make a covering of pure gold: two cubits and a half shall be its length, and a cubit and a half its breadth. And thou shalt make two keruvim of gold, of beaten work shalt thou make them, at the two ends of the covering. And make one keruv on the one end, and the other keruv on the other end: of the covering shall you make the keruvim on the two ends of it. And the keruvim shall stretch out their wings on high, overspreading the covering with their wings, and their faces shall look one to another; toward the covering shall the faces of the keruvim be. And thou shalt put the covering above, upon the ark; and in the ark thou shalt put the Testimony that I shall give thee. And there I will meet with thee, and I will speak with thee from above the covering, from between the two keruvim which are upon the ark of the Testimony, of all things which I will give thee in commandment to the children of Yisra'el.

Thou shalt also make a table of shittim wood: two cubits shall be its length, and a cubit its breadth, and a cubit and a half its height. And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, and make for it a rim of gold round about. And thou shalt make for it a border of a handbreadth round about, and thou shalt make a golden crown for its border round about. And thou shalt make for it four rings of gold, and put the rings in the four corners that are on its four legs. Over against the border shall the rings be for places of the poles to bear the table. And thou shalt make the poles of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold, and they shall be for carrying the table. And thou shalt make its dishes, and its spoons, and its jars, and its bowls, used for pouring out: of pure gold shalt thou make them. And thou shalt set upon the table showbread before me always.

And thou shalt make a candlestick of pure gold: of beaten work shall the candlestick be made: its shaft, and its branches, its bowls, its bulbs, and its flowers, shall be of the same. And six branches shall come out of its sides; three branches of the bulbs and flowers. And there shall be a bulb under two branches 35 of the same piece, and a bulb under two branches of the same piece, and a bulb under two branches of the same piece, accord-bulbs and their branches shall be made of the same piece: all these vessels. And look that thou make them after their pattern, 40 which was shown thee in the mountain. Moreover thou 26 shalt make the tabernacle with ten curtains of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet: with keruvim of artistic work shalt thou make them. The length of one curtain shall be twenty 2 eight cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: and the curtains shall be all of one measure. The five curtains shall 3 be coupled together one to another; and the other five curtains shall be coupled one to another. And thou shalt make loops of 4 blue upon the edge of the one curtain that is at the edge of the first coupling; and likewise shalt thou make in the uttermost edge of the curtain, that is outmost in the second coupling. Fifty 5 thou make in the edge of the curtain that is in the second coupling; that the loops may take hold one of another. And thou 6 nacle: eleven curtains shalt thou make. The length of one cur- 8 coupling, and fifty loops in the edge of the curtain of the second coupling. And thou shalt make fifty clasps of brass, and put the 11 clasps into the loops, and couple the tent together, that it may tent, the half curtain that remains, shall hang over the back of the tabernacle. And a cubit on the one side, and a cubit on the 13 other side, of that which remains in the length of the curtains of the tent, shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle on this side and on that side, to cover it. And thou shalt make a covering 14 one side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the 27 other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the third side of the tabernacle, for the side westward. And the 28 of brass; and upon the net shalt thou make four brazen rings on its four corners. And thou shalt put it under the ledge of the 5 altar beneath, that the net may reach to the midst of the altar. And thou shalt make poles for the altar, poles of shittim wood, 6 and overlay them with brass. And the poles shall be put into 7 the rings, and the poles shall be upon the two sides of the altar, to carry it. Hollow with boards shalt thou make it: as it was 8 shown thee in the mountain, so shall they make it. And 9 thou shalt make the court of the tabernacle: for the south side southward there shall be hangings for the court of fine twined linen of a hundred cubits long for one side: and its twenty pillars 10 and their twenty sockets shall be of brass; the hooks of the pillars and their joints shall be of silver. And likewise for the 11 north side in length there shall be hangings of a hundred cubits long, and its twenty pillars and their twenty sockets of brass; the hooks of the pillars and their joints of silver. And for the 12 breadth of the court on the west side shall be hangings of fifty cubits: their pillars ten, and their sockets ten. And the breadth 13 of the court on the east side eastward shall be fifty cubits. The 14 hangings of one side of the gate shall be fifteen cubits: their pillars three, and their sockets three. And on the other side shall 15

Aharon thy brother, and his sons with him, from among the children of Yisra'el that he may minister to me in the priest's office, Aharon, Nadav, and Avihu, El'azar, and Itamar, the sons of Aharon. And thou shalt make holy garments for Aharon thy 2 brother for honour and for beauty. And thou shalt speak to all that are wise hearted, whom I have filled with the spirit of wis- 3 dom, that they may make Aharon's garments to consecrate him, that he may minister to me in the priest's office. And these are 4 the garments which they shall make; a breastplate, and an efod, and a robe, and a quilted undercoat, a mitre, and a girdle: and they shall make holy garments for Aharon thy brother, and his sons, that he may minister to me in the priest's office. And they 5 shall take gold, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen.

And they shall make the efod of gold, of blue, and of purple, of 6 scarlet, and fine twined linen, the work of an artist. It shall 7 have its two shoulderpieces joined at its two edges; and so it shall be joined together. And the finely wrought girdle of 8 the efod, which is upon it, shall be of the same, according to its work; namely, of gold, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen. And thou shalt take two shoham stones, 9 and engrave on them the names of the children of Yisra'el:
six of their names on one stone, and the other six names on 10 the other stone, according to their birth. With the work of 11 an engraver in stone, like the engravings of a signet, shalt thou engrave the two stones with the names of the children of Yisra'el: thou shalt make them to be set in fixtures of gold. And 12 thou shalt put the two stones upon the shoulders of the efod for stones of memorial to the children of Yisra'el: and Aharon shall bear their names before the LORD upon his two shoulders for a memorial. And thou shalt make fixtures of gold; and two 13, 14 chains of pure gold at the ends; of wreathen work shalt thou make them, and fasten the wreathen chains to the fixtures.

And thou shalt make the breastplate of judgment the 15 work of an artist; after the work of the efod thou shalt make it; of gold, of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine twined linen, shalt thou make it. Foursquare it shall be, being 16 doubled; a span shall be its length, and a span shall be the breadth of it. And thou shalt set in it settings of stones, even four 17 rows of stones: the first row shall be a ruby, a chrysolithe, and a beryl: this shall be the first row. And the second row shall 18 be a turquoise, a sapphire, and a diamond. And the third row 19 a ligure, an agate, and a jasper. And the fourth row an emerald, 20 and a shoham, and a jade: they shall be enclosed in settings of gold. And the stones shall be with the names of the children of 21 Yisra'el, twelve, according to their names, like the engravings of a signet; every one with its name shall they be, according to the twelve tribes. And thou shalt make upon the breastplate 22 plaited chains of wreathen work of pure gold. And thou shalt 23 make upon the breastplate two rings of gold, and shalt put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate. And thou shalt 24 put the two wreathen chains of gold in the two rings which are on the ends of the breastplate. And the other two ends of the 25 two wreathen chains thou shalt fasten in the two fixtures, and put them on the shoulderpieces of the efod toward its forepart.
And thou shalt make two rings of gold, and thou shalt put them 26 upon the two ends of the breastplate in its border, which is on the side of the efod inward. And two other rings of gold thou 27 shalt make, and shalt put them on the two shoulderpieces of the efod underneath, toward the forepart of it, over against its coupling, above the finely wrought girdle of the efod. And they 28 shall bind the breastplate by its rings to the rings of the efod with a lace of blue, that it may be above the finely wrought girdle of the efod, and that the breastplate be not loosed from the efod. And Aharon shall bear the names of the children of 29

Yisra'el on the breastplate of judgment upon his heart, when he goes in to the holy place, for a memorial before the LORD continually. And thou shalt put in the breastplate of judgment the 30 Urim and the Tummim; and they shall be upon Aharon's heart, when he goes in before the LORD: and Aharon shall bear the judgment of the children of Yisra'el upon his heart before the LORD continually. And thou shalt make the robe of the 31 efod all of blue. And there shall be a hole for the head, in the 32 midst of it: it shall have a binding of woven work round about the hole, as it were the hole of a suit of armour, that it be not torn. And beneath upon the hem of it thou shalt make pome- 33 granates of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, round about its hem; and bells of gold between them round about: a golden 34 bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, upon the hem of the robe round about. And it shall be upon Aharon 35 when he comes to minister: and its sound shall be heard when he goes in to the holy place before the LORD, and when he comes out, that he die not. And thou shalt make a plate of pure 36 gold, and engrave upon it, like the engravings of a signet, Holiness to the LORD. And thou shalt put it on a blue lace, that 37 it may be upon the mitre; upon the forefront of the mitre it shall be. And it shall be upon Aharon's forehead, that Aharon may bear 38 the iniquity of the holy things, which the children of Yisra'el shall hallow in all their holy gifts; and it shall be always upon his forehead, that they may be accepted before the LORD. And thou 39 shalt weave the coat of fine linen, and thou shalt make the mitre of fine linen, and thou shalt make the girdle of em- broidery. And for Aharon's sons thou shalt make coats, and 40 thou shalt make for them girdles, and turbans shalt thou make for them, for honour and for beauty. And thou shalt put them 41 upon Aharon thy brother, and his sons with him; and shalt anoint them, and consecrate them, and sanctify them, that they may minister to me in the priest's office. And thou shalt make 42 them linen breeches to cover their nakedness; from the loins even to the thighs they shall reach: and they shall be upon 43 Aharon, and upon his sons, when they come in the Tent of Meeting, or when they come near to the altar to minister in the holy place; that they bear not iniquity, and die: it shall be a statute for ever to him and his seed after him. And this is 29 the thing that thou shalt do to them to hallow them, to minister to me in the priest's office: Take one young bullock, and two rams without blemish, and unleavened bread, and cakes un- 2 leavened mingled with oil, and wafers unleavened anointed with oil: of wheaten flour shalt thou make them. And thou shalt put 3 them into one basket, and bring them in the basket, with the bullock and the two rams. And Aharon and his sons thou shalt 4 bring to the door of the Tent of Meeting, and shalt wash them with water. And thou shalt take the garments, and put upon 5 Aharon the coat, and the robe of the efod, and the efod, and the breastplate, and gird him with the finely wrought girdle of the efod: and thou shalt put the mitre on his head, and put the 6 his sons, and put coats upon them. And thou shalt gird them 9 with girdles, Aharon and his sons, and put the turbans on them: and the priest's office shall be theirs for a perpetual statute: and thou shalt consecrate Aharon and his sons. And thou shalt cause 10 a bullock to be brought before the Tent of Meeting: and Aharon and his sons shall put their hands on the head of the bullock.

And thou shalt kill the bullock before the LORD, by the door 11 of the Tent of Meeting. And thou shalt take of the blood of the 12 bullock, and put it on the horns of the altar with thy finger, and pour all the blood beside the bottom of the altar. And thou shalt 13 take all the fat that covers the inwards, and the appendage that is above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and burn them upon the altar. But the flesh of the bullock, 14 and its skin, and its dung, shalt thou burn with fire outside the camp: it is a sin offering. And thou shalt take one ram; and 15 Aharon and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram. And thou shalt slay the ram, and thou shalt take its blood, 16 and sprinkle it round about upon the altar. And thou shalt cut 17 the ram in pieces, and wash its inward parts and its legs, and put them with its pieces, and with its head. And thou shalt burn 18 the whole ram upon the altar: it is a burnt offering to the LORD: it is a sweet savour, an offering made by fire to the LORD. And 19 thou shalt take the other ram; and Aharon and his sons shall put their hands on the head of the ram. Then shalt thou kill the 20 ram, and take of its blood, and put it upon the tip of Aharon's right ear, and upon the tip of the right ear of his sons, and upon the thumb of their right hand, and upon the great toe of their right foot, and sprinkle the blood upon the altar round about.
And thou shalt take of the blood that is upon the altar, and of 21 the anointing oil, and sprinkle it upon Aharon, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon the garments of his sons with him: and he shall be hallowed, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him. Also thou shalt take of 22 the ram the fat and the fat tail, and the fat that covers the inwards, and the appendage of the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and the right shoulder; for it is a ram of consecration: and one loaf of bread, and one cake of 23 oiled bread, and one wafer out of the basket of the unleavened bread that is before the LORD: and thou shalt put all in the 24 hands of Aharon, and in the hands of his sons; and shalt wave them for a wave offering before the LORD. And thou shalt receive 25 them of their hands, and burn them upon the altar for a burnt offering, for a sweet savour before the LORD: it is an offering made by fire to the LORD. And thou shalt take the breast of the 26 ram of Aharon's consecration, and wave it for a wave offering before the LORD: and it shall be thy part. And thou shalt sanctify 27 the breast of the wave offering, and the shoulder of the heave offering, which is waved, and which is heaved up of the ram of the consecration, of that which is for Aharon, and of that which is for his sons: and it shall be Aharon's and his sons' by a sta- 28 the LORD. And the holy garments of Aharon shall be his sons' 29 after him, to be anointed in them, and to be consecrated in them. And that son that is priest in his place shall put them 30 on seven days, when he enters the Tent of Meeting to minister in the holy place. And thou shalt take the ram of the consecra- 31 tion, and boil its flesh in the holy place. And Aharon and his 32 sons shall eat the flesh of the ram, and the bread that is in the basket, by the door of the Tent of Meeting. And they shall eat 33 those things with which atonement was made to consecrate and to sanctify them: but a stranger shall not eat of them, because they are holy. And if aught of the flesh of the consecra- 34 tions, or of the bread, remain to the morning, then thou shalt burn the remainder with fire: it shall not be eaten, because it is holy. And thus shalt thou do to Aharon, and to his sons, 35 according to all which I have commanded thee: seven days shalt thou consecrate them. And thou shalt offer every day 36 a bullock for a sin offering for atonement: and thou shalt cleanse the altar, when thou hast made atonement for it, and thou shalt anoint it, to sanctify it. Seven days thou shalt make an 37 atonement for the altar, and sanctify it; and it shall be an altar most holy: whatever touches the altar shall be holy. Now 38 this is what thou shalt offer on the altar; two lambs of the first year day by day continually. The one lamb thou shalt offer 39 in the morning; and the other lamb thou shalt offer towards evening. And with the one lamb thou shalt bring a tenth mea- 40 sure of flour mingled with the fourth part of a hin of beaten oil; and the fourth part of a hin of wine for a drink offering.

And the other lamb thou shalt offer towards evening, and shalt 41 do to it according to the meal offering of the morning, and according to the drink offering of it, for a sweet savour, an offering made by fire to the LORD. This shall be a continual burnt 42 offering throughout your generations at the door of the Tent of Meeting before the LORD: where I will meet you, to speak there to thee. And there I will meet with the children of Yis- 43 ra'el, and it shall be sanctified by my glory. And I will sanctify 44 the Tent of Meeting, and the altar: I will sanctify also both Aharon and his sons, to minister to me in the priest's office.
And I will dwell among the children of Yisra'el, and will be 45 their GOD. And they shall know that I am the LORD their GOD, 46 that brought them out of the land of Mizrayim, that I may dwell among them: I am the LORD their GOD.

And thou shalt make an altar for the burning of incense: of 30 shittim wood shalt thou make it. A cubit shall be the length 2 of it, and a cubit its breadth; foursquare shall it be: and two cubits shall be its height: the horns thereof shall be of the same. And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, its top, and its 3 sides round about, and its horns; and thou shalt make for it a rim of gold round about. And two golden rings shalt thou 4 make for it under its rim, by its two corners upon the two sides of it shalt thou make it; and they shall be for places for the poles with which to bear it. And thou shalt make the poles 5 of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold. And thou shalt 6 put it before the veil that is by the ark of the Testimony, before the covering that is over the Testimony, where I will meet with thee. And Aharon shall burn upon it sweet incense every morning: when he dresses the lamps, he shall burn incense on it. And when Aharon lights the lamps at evening, he shall burn incense upon it, a perpetual incense before the LORD throughout your generations. KI TISSA And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, When thou dost take the sum of the children of Yisra'el after their number, then shall they give every man a ransom for his soul to the LORD, when thou dost number them; that there be no plague among them, when thou dost number them. This they shall give, every one that passes among them that are numbered, half a shekel after the shekel of the sanctuary: (a shekel is twenty gera:) a half shekel shall be the offering of the LORD. Every one that passes among them that are numbered, from twenty years old and above, shall give the offering of the LORD. The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less than half a shekel, when they give the offering of the LORD, to make atonement for your souls. And thou shalt take the atonement money of the children of Yisra'el, and shalt appoint it for the service of the Tent of Meeting; that it may be a memorial to the children of Yisra'el before the LORD, to make atonement for your souls.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Thou shalt also make a laver of brass, and its pedestal also of brass, for washing: and thou shalt put it between the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and thou shalt put water in it. For Aharon and his sons shall wash their hands and their feet thereat: when they go into the Tent of Meeting, they shall wash with water, that they die not; or when they come near to the altar to minister, to burn offering made by fire to the LORD: so they shall wash their hands and their feet, that they die not: and it shall be a statute for ever to them, to him and to his seed throughout their generations.

Moreover the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Take thou also to thee the best spices, of pure myrrh five hundred shekels, and of sweet cinnamon half so much, two hundred and fifty shekels, and of sweet calamus two hundred and fifty shekels, and of cassia five hundred shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, and of olive oil a hin: and thou shalt make it an oil of holy ointment, an ointment compounded after the art of the perfumer: it shall be a holy anointing oil. And thou shalt anoint the Tent of Meeting with it, and the ark of the Testimony, and the table and all its vessels, and the candlestick and its vessels, and the altar of incense, and the altar of burnt offering with all its vessels, and the laver and its pedestal. And thou shalt sanctify them, that they may be most holy: whatever touches them shall be holy. And thou shalt anoint Aharon and his sons, and consecrate them, that they may minister to me in the priest's office.

And thou shalt speak to the children of Yisra'el, saying, This 31 shall be a holy anointing oil to me throughout your generations.
Upon man's flesh shall it not be poured, neither shall you make 32 any other like it, after the composition of it: it is holy, and holy shall it be for you. Whoever compounds any like it, or whoever 33 puts any of it upon a stranger, shall even be cut off from his people. And the LORD said to Moshe, Take to thee sweet 34 spices, storax, and onycha, and galbanum; sweet spices with pure frankincense: of each shall there be a like weight: and 35 thou shalt make it a perfume, a confection after the art of the perfumer, mingled with salt, pure and holy: and thou shalt 36 beat some of it very small, and put of it before the Testimony in the Tent of Meeting, where I will meet with thee: it shall be to you most holy. And as for the perfume which thou shalt 37 make, you shall not make it for yourselves according to its prescribed composition: it shall be holy for the LORD. Whoever 38 shall make like to that, to partake of its scent, shall even be cut off from his people. And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, 31 See, I have called by name Beẓal'el the son of Uri, the son of 2 Ḥur, of the tribe of Yehuda: and I have filled him with the 3 spirit of GOD, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship, to contrive works of 4 art, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in cutting of 5 stones, to set them, and in carving of timber, to work in all manner of workmanship. And I, behold, I have given with him 6 Aholi'av, the son of Aḥisamakh, of the tribe of Dan: and in the hearts of all that are wise hearted I have put wisdom, that they may make all that I have commanded thee; the Tent of Meeting, 7 and the ark of the Testimony, and the covering that is on it, and all the furniture of the Tent, and the table and its furniture, and 8 the pure candlestick with all its furniture, and the altar of incense, and the altar of burnt offering with all its furniture, and 9 the laver and its pedestal, and the uniforms, and the holy gar- 10 ments for Aharon the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the priest's office, and the anointing oil, and incense 11 of spices for the holy place: according to all that I have commanded thee shall they do.
And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Speak also to the children 12, 13 of Yisra'el saying, Verily my sabbaths shall you keep: for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations; that you may know that I am the LORD who sanctifies you. You shall keep 14 the sabbath therefore; for it is holy to you: everyone that profanes it shall surely be put to death: for whoever does any work on it, that soul shall be cut off from among his people. Six 15 days may work be done; but on the seventh is the sabbath of rest, holy to the LORD: whoever does any work on the sabbath day, he shall surely be put to death. Wherefore the children of 16 Yisra'el shall keep the sabbath, to observe the sabbath throughout their generations, for a perpetual covenant. It is a sign 17 between me and the children of Yisra'el for ever: for in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed. And he gave to Moshe, when 18 he had made an end of speaking to him upon mount Sinay, two tablets of the Testimony, tablets of stone, written with the finger of God. And when the people saw that Moshe delayed to come 1 down from the mountain, the people gathered themselves together to Aharon, and said to him, Up, make us gods, which shall go before us; for as for this man Moshe, who brought us up out of the land of Miẓrayim, we know not what is become of him. And Aharon said to them, Break off the golden earrings, 2 which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them to me. And all the people broke off 3 the golden earrings which were in their ears, and brought them to Aharon. And he received the gold at their hand, and fashioned 4 it with a graving tool and made it a molten calf: and they said, These are thy gods, O Yisra'el, which brought thee up out of the land of Miẓrayim. And when Aharon saw it, he built an 5 altar before it; and Aharon made proclamation, and said, Tomorrow is a feast to the Lord. And they rose up early on 6 the morrow, and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; and the people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to disport themselves.

And the Lord said to Moshe, Go, get thee down; for thy people, 7 which thou broughtest up out of the land of Miẓrayim, have become corrupt: they have turned aside quickly out of the way 8 which I commanded them: they have made them a molten calf, and have worshipped it, and have sacrificed to it, and said, These are thy gods, O Yisra'el, which have brought thee up out of the land of Miẓrayim. And the Lord said to Moshe, I have seen this 9 people, and, behold, it is a stiffnecked people: now therefore 10 let me alone, that my wrath may burn against them, and that I may consume them: and I will make of thee a great nation.

And Moshe besought the Lord his God, and said, Lord, why 11 does thy wrath burn against thy people, whom thou hast brought forth out of the land of Miẓrayim with great power, and with a mighty hand? Wherefore should Miẓrayim speak, and say, In 12 an evil hour did he bring them out, to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turn from thy fierce anger, and relent of this evil against thy people.
Remember Avraham, Yiẓḥaq, and Yisra'el, thy servants, to whom 13 thou didst swear by thy own self, and didst say to them, I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have spoken of will I give to your seed, and they shall inherit it for ever. And the Lord relented of the evil which he thought 14 to do to his people.

And Moshe turned, and went down from the mountain, and the 15 two tablets of the Testimony were in his hand: tablets written on both their sides; on the one side and on the other were they written. And the tablets were the work of God, and the writing 16 was the writing of God, engraved upon the tablets. And when 17 Yehoshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said to Moshe, There is a noise of war in the camp. But he said, It 18 is not the voice of those who shout for mastery, neither is it the voice of those who cry for being overcome: but the noise of those who sing do I hear. And it came to pass, as soon as he 19 came near to the camp, that he saw the calf, and the dancing:

and Moshe's anger burned, and he threw the tablets out of his hands, and broke them at the foot of the mountain. And he took the calf which they had made, and burnt it in the fire, and ground it to powder, and scattered it upon the water, and made the children of Yisra'el drink of it. And Moshe said to Aharon, What has this people done to thee, that thou hast brought so great a sin upon them? And Aharon said, Let not the anger of my lord burn: thou knowst the people, that they are bent on mischief. For they said to me, Make us gods, which shall go before us: for as for this Moshe, the man that brought us up out of the land of Miẓrayim, we know not what is become of him. And I said to them, Who has any gold? They broke it off and gave it me: then I threw it into the fire, and there came out this calf. And when Moshe saw that the people were in disorder; (for Aharon had made them disorderly to the scandal of their enemies:) then Moshe stood in the gate of the camp, and said, Who is on the LORD's side? let him come to me. And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves together to him. And he said to them, Thus says the LORD GOD of Yisra'el, Put every man his sword by his side, and go to and fro from gate to gate throughout the camp, and slay every man his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbour. And the children of Levi did according to the word of Moshe: and there fell of the people that day about three thousand men. For Moshe said, Consecrate yourselves today to the LORD, even every man against his son, and against his brother; that he may bestow upon you a blessing this day. And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moshe said to the people, You have sinned a great sin: and now I will go up to the LORD; perhaps I shall make atonement for your sin. And Moshe returned to the LORD, and said, Oh, this people has sinned a great sin, and they have made them gods of gold. Yet now, if thou wilt forgive their sin—; and if not, blot me, I pray thee, out of thy book which thou hast written. And the LORD said to Moshe, Whoever has sinned against me, him will I blot out of my book. Therefore now go, lead the people to the place of which I have spoken to thee: behold, my angel shall go before thee: nevertheless in the day when I punish, I will punish their sin upon them. And the LORD plagued the people, because they made the calf, which Aharon had made.

And the LORD said to Moshe, Depart, and go up from here, thou and the people whom thou hast brought up out of the land of Miẓrayim, to the land of which I swore to Avraham, to Yiẓḥaq, and to Ya'aqov, saying, To thy seed will I give it: and I will send an angel before thee; and I will drive out the Kena'ani, the Emori, and the Ḥitti, and the Perizzi, the Ḥivvi, and the Yevusi: into a land flowing with milk and honey: for I will not go up in the midst of thee; for thou art a stiffnecked people: lest I consume thee on the way. And when the people heard these evil tidings, they mourned: and no man put on him his ornaments. For the LORD had said to Moshe, Say to the children of Yisra'el, You are a stiffnecked people: I will come up into the midst of thee for a moment and consume thee: therefore now put off thy ornaments from thee, that I may know what to do to thee.

And the children of Yisra'el stripped themselves of their orna- 6
ments by the mount Horev. And Moshe would take the Tent, and 7 pitch it outside the camp, afar off from the camp, and he called it the Tent of Meeting. And it came to pass, that everyone who sought the LORD went out to the Tent of Meeting, which was outside the camp. And it came to pass, when Moshe went out 8 to the Tent, that all the people rose up, and stood every man at his tent door, and looked after Moshe until he was gone into the Tent. And it came to pass, as Moshe entered the Tent, the cloudy 9 pillar descended, and stood at the door of the Tent, and one talked with Moshe. And all the people saw the cloudy pillar stand 10 at the door of the Tent: and all the people rose up and worshipped, every man in his tent door. And the LORD spoke to 11 Moshe face to face, as a man speaks to his friend. And he turned back to the camp: but his servant Yehoshua, the son of Nun, a young man, did not depart out of the Tent.
And Moshe said to the LORD, See, thou sayst to me, Bring up 12 this people: and thou hast not let me know whom thou wilt send with me. Yet thou hast said, I know thee by name, and thou hast also found favour in my sight. Now therefore, I pray thee, 13 if I have found favour in thy sight, show me now thy way, that I may know thee, that I may find favour in thy sight: and consider that this nation is thy people. And he said, My presence 14 shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest. And he said to him, 15 If thy presence go not with me, carry us not up from here. For 16 in what shall it be known here that I and thy people have found favour in thy sight? is it not in that thou goest with us? so shall we be differentiated, I and thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth.
And the LORD said to Moshe, I will do this thing also that thou 17, 18 hast spoken: for thou hast found favour in my sight, and I know thee by name. And he said, I pray thee, show me thy glory. And 19 he said, I will make all my goodness pass before thee, and I will proclaim the name of the LORD before thee; and will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show mercy on whom I will show mercy. And he said, Thou canst not see my face; for no 20 man shall see me, and live. And the LORD said, Behold, there is 21 a place by me, and thou shalt stand upon a rock: and it shall 22 come to pass, while my glory passes by, that I will put thee in a cleft of the rock, and will cover thee with my hand while I pass by: and I will take away my hand and thou shalt see my back: 23 but my face shall not be seen.
And the LORD said to Moshe, Hew for thyself two tablets of 34 stone like the first: and I will write upon these tablets the words that were on the first tablets, which thou didst break.
And be ready in the morning, and come up in the morning to 2 mount Sinay, and present thyself there to me on the top of the mountain. And no man shall come up with thee, neither let any 3 man be seen throughout all the mountain; neither let the flocks nor herds feed before that mountain. And he hewed two tablets 4 of stone like the first; and Moshe rose up early in the morning, and went up to mount Sinay, as the LORD had commanded him, and took in his hand the two tablets of stone. And the LORD de- 5 scended in the cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of the LORD. And the LORD passed by before him, and 6 proclaimed, The LORD, The LORD, mighty, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abundant in love and truth, keeping troth to 7 thousands, forgiving iniquity, and transgression, and sin, but who will by no means clear the guilty; punishing the iniquity of the fathers on the children, and on the children's children, to the third and to the fourth generation. And Moshe made haste, and 8 bowed his head toward the earth, and worshipped. And he said, 9

If now I have found favour in thy sight, O LORD, let my LORD, I pray thee, go among us; for it is a stiffnecked people; and pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for thy inheritance.
And he said, Behold, I make a covenant: before all thy people 10
I will do marvels, such as have not been done in all the earth, nor in any nation: and all the people among whom thou art shall see the work of the LORD that I will do with thee, that it is tremendous. Observe thou that which I command thee this day: 11 behold, I drive out before thee the Emori, and the Kena'ani, and the Ḥitti, and the Perizzi, and the Ḥivvi, and the Yevusi. Take 12 heed to thyself, lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land to which thou goest, lest it be for a snare in the midst of thee: but you shall destroy their altars, break their 13 images, and cut down their asherim: for thou shalt worship no 14 other god: for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous GOD: lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, 15 and they go astray after their gods, and do sacrifice to their gods, and call thee, and thou eat of their sacrifice; and thou take 16 of their daughters to thy sons, and their daughters play the harlot after their gods, and make thy sons play the harlot after their gods. Thou shalt make thee no molten gods. The feast of 17, 18 unleavened bread shalt thou keep. Seven days thou shalt eat unleavened bread, as I commanded thee, in the time of the month Aviv: (for in the month Aviv thou didst come out from Miẓrayim.) All that opens the womb is mine; and every firstling 19 among thy cattle, whether ox or sheep, that is male. But the 20 firstling of an ass thou shalt redeem with a lamb: and if thou redeem it not, then shalt thou break its neck. All the firstborn of thy sons thou shalt redeem. And none shall appear before me empty. Six days thou shalt work, but on the seventh day thou 21 shalt rest: in plowing and in harvest thou shalt rest. And thou 22 shalt observe the feast of weeks, of the firstfruits of wheat harvest, and the feast of ingathering at the year's end. Three 23 times in the year shall all your males appear before the LORD GOD, the GOD of Yisra'el. For I will cast the nations before thee, 24 and enlarge thy borders: neither shall any man desire thy land, when thou shalt go up to appear before the LORD thy GOD three times in the year. Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice 25 with leaven; neither shall the sacrifice of the feast of the passover be left to the morning. The first of the firstfruits of thy 26 land thou shalt bring to the house of the LORD thy GOD. Thou shalt not boil a kid in its mother's milk.
And the LORD said to Moshe, Write thou these words: for after 27 the tenor of these words I have made a covenant with thee and with Yisra'el. And he was there with the LORD forty days and 28 forty nights; he did neither eat bread, nor drink water. And he wrote upon the tablets the words of the covenant, the ten Words. And it came to pass, when Moshe came down from 29 mount Sinay with the two tablets of Testimony in Moshe's hand, when he came down from the mountain, that Moshe knew not that the skin of his face shone while he talked with him.

And when Aharon and all the children of Yisra'el saw Moshe, 30 behold, the skin of his face shone; and they were afraid to come near him. And Moshe called to them; and Aharon and all the 31 rulers of the congregation returned to him: and Moshe talked with them. And afterwards all the children of Yisra'el came near: 32 and he gave them in commandment all that the LORD had spoken with him in mount Sinay. And when Moshe had finished speaking 33 with them, he put a veil on his face. But when Moshe went in 34 before the LORD to speak with him, he took the veil off, until he came out. And he came out, and spoke to the children of Yisra'el that which he was commanded. And the children of Yisra'el saw 35 the face of Moshe, that the skin of Moshe's face shone: and Moshe put the veil upon his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

VAYYAQHEL

And Moshe gathered all the congregation of the 35 children of Yisra'el together, and said to them, These are the words which the LORD has commanded, that you should do them.
Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day there shall 2 be to you a holy day, a sabbath of rest to the LORD: whoever does work on it shall be put to death. You shall kindle no fire 3 throughout your habitations on the sabbath day.
And Moshe spoke to all the congregation of the children of 4 Yisra'el, saying, This is the thing which the LORD commanded, saying, Take from among you an offering to the LORD: whoever 5 is of a willing heart, let him bring it, an offering of the LORD; gold, and silver, and brass, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, 6 and fine linen, and goats' hair, and rams' skins dyed red, and 7 tahash skins, and shittim wood, and oil for the light, and spices 8 for anointing oil, and for the sweet incense, and shoham stones, 9 and stones to be set for the efod, and for the breastplate. And 10 every wisehearted man among you shall come, and make all that the LORD has commanded; the tabernacle, its tent, and its cover- 11 ing, its clasps, and its boards, its bars, its pillars, and its sockets, the ark, and its poles, with the covering, and the veil of the 12 screen, the table, and its poles, and all its vessels, and the show- 13 bread, the candlestick also for the light, and its vessels, and its 14 lamps, with the oil for the light, and the incense altar, and its 15 poles, and the anointing oil, and the incense of spices, and the screen for the door at the entrance of the tabernacle, the altar of 16 burnt offering, with its brazen grate, its poles, and all its vessels, the laver and its pedestal, the hangings of the court, its pillars, 17 and their sockets, and the screen for the door of the court, the 18 pegs of the tabernacle, and the pegs of the court, and their cords, the uniforms, to do service in the holy place, the holy garments 19 for Aharon the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the priest's office. And all the congregation of the children of 20 Yisra'el departed from the presence of Moshe. And they came, 21 everyone whose heart stirred him up, and everyone whom his spirit made willing, and they brought the LORD's offering for the work of the Tent of Meeting, and for all its service, and for the holy garments. And they came, both men and women, as many 22 as were willing of heart, and brought bracelets, and earrings, and rings, and bracelets, all jewels of gold: and every man that had offered an offering of gold to the LORD. And every man, with 23 whom was found blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair, and red skins of rams, and tahash skins, brought them. Everyone that did offer an offering of silver and brass 24 brought the LORD's offering: and every man, with whom was found shittim wood for any work of the service, brought it.

And all the women that were wisehearted did spin with their 25 hands, and brought that which they had spun, both of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine linen. And all the women 26 whose heart stirred them up in wisdom spun goats' hair. And 27 the rulers brought shoham stones, and stones to be set, for the efod, and for the breastplate; and spice, and oil: for the light, 28 and for the anointing oil, and for the incense of spices. The 29 children of Yisra'el brought a willing offering to the LORD, every man and woman, whose heart made them willing to bring for all manner of work, which the LORD had commanded by the hand of Moshe, to be made.
And Moshe said to the children of Yisra'el, See, the LORD has 30 called by name Betzal'el the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Yehuda; and he has filled him with the spirit of 31 GOD, in wisdom, in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship; and to contrive works of art, to work 32 in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in the cutting of stones, 33 to set them, and in carving of wood, to make all manner of artistic work. And he has put in his heart that he may teach, 34 both he, and Aholi'av, the son of Ahisamakh, of the tribe of Dan.
Them has he filled with wisdom of heart, to do all manner 35 of work, of the engraver, and of the craftsman, and of the em-broiderer, in blue, and in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linen, and of the weaver, even of them that do any work, and of those that devise artistic work. Then Betzal'el and Aholi'av, and 36 every wisehearted man, in whom the LORD put wisdom and understanding to know how to work all manner of work for the service of the sanctuary, did according to all that the LORD had commanded. And Moshe called Betzal'el and Aholi'av, 2 and every wisehearted man, in whose heart the LORD had put wisdom, everyone whose heart stirred him up to come to the work to do it: and they received from Moshe all the 3 offering, which the children of Yisra'el had brought for the work of the service of the sanctuary, with which to make it.
And they brought yet to him free will offerings every morning.
And all the wise men, that carried out all the work of the 4 sanctuary, came every man from his work which they did; and they spoke to Moshe saying, The people bring much more 5 than enough for the service of the work, which the LORD commanded to do. And Moshe gave commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp saying, Let neither man nor woman do any more work for the offering of the sanctuary. So the people were restrained from bringing. 6

For the material they had was sufficient for all the work to do it, and too much. 7
And all wisehearted men among them that carried out the work made the tabernacle; they made ten curtains of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet: with keruvim of artistic work he made them. 8
The length of one curtain was twenty eight cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: the curtains were all of one size. 9
And he coupled the five curtains one to another: and the other five curtains he coupled one to another. 10
And he made loops of blue on the edge of one curtain that was at the edge of the first coupling: likewise he made in the uttermost side of the curtain in the second coupling. 11
Fifty loops made he in one curtain, and fifty loops made he in the edge of the curtain which was in the second coupling: the loops held one curtain to another. 12
And he made fifty golden clasps, and coupled the curtain one to another with the clasps: so that the tabernacle was one. 13
And he made curtains of goats' hair for the tent over the tabernacle: eleven curtains he made them. 14
The length of one curtain was thirty cubits, and four cubits was the breadth of one curtain: the eleven curtains were of one size. 15
And he coupled five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves. 16
And he made fifty loops upon the edge of the curtain that was outmost in the first coupling, and fifty loops made he upon the edge of the curtain of the second coupling. 17
And he made fifty clasps of brass to couple the tent together, that it might be one. 18
And he made a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering of taḥash skins above that. 19
And he made boards for the tabernacle of shittim wood, standing up. 20
The length of a board was ten cubits, and the breadth of a board one cubit and a half. 21
One board had two tenons, connected one with the other: thus did he make for all the boards of the tabernacle. 22
And he made boards for the tabernacle; twenty boards for the south side southward: 23 and forty sockets of silver he made under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for its two tenons, and two sockets under another board for its two tenons. 24
And for the other side of the tabernacle, which is toward the north side, he made twenty boards, 25 and their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board. 26
And for the side of the tabernacle westward he made six boards. 27
And two boards made he for the corners of the tabernacle on the two sides. 28
And they were coupled beneath, and coupled together at the head thereof, to 29 one ring: thus he did to both of them in both the corners. And 30 there were eight boards; and their sockets were sixteen, sockets of silver, under every board two sockets. And he made bars of 31 shittim wood; five for the boards of the one side of the tab- 32 ernacle, and five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the tabernacle for the side westward. And he made the middle bar to slide through 33 the boards from the one end to the other. And he overlaid the 34 boards with gold, and made their rings of gold to be places for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold. And he made a veil of 35 blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen: with keru-vim he made it, of artistic work. And he made for it four pillars 36 of shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold: their hooks were of gold; and he cast for them four sockets of silver. And he 37 made a screen for the tabernacle door of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, of embroidered work; and the 38 five pillars of it with their hooks: and he overlaid their capitals and their joints with gold: but their five sockets were of brass.

And Bezal'el made the ark of shittim wood: two cubits 37 and a half was its length, and a cubit and a half its breadth, and a cubit and a half its height: and he overlaid it with 2 pure gold within and without, and made a rim of gold to it round about. And he cast for it four rings of gold, to be set by 3 its four corners; even two rings on the one side of it, and two rings on the other side of it. And he made poles of shittim 4 wood, and overlaid them with gold. And he put the poles into 5 the rings by the sides of the ark, to bear the ark. And he made 6 the covering of pure gold: two cubits and a half was its length, and one cubit and a half its breadth. And he made two keruvim 7 of gold, beaten out of one piece he made them, on the two ends of the covering; one keruv on the end on this side, and another 8 keruv on the other end on that side: out of the covering made he the keruvim at the two ends of it. And the keruvim spread 9 out their wings on high, and spread with their wings over the covering, with their faces one to another; toward the covering were the faces of the keruvim.

And he made the table of shittim wood: two cubits was its 10 length, and a cubit its breadth, and a cubit and a half its height: and he overlaid it with pure gold, and made for it a rim of 11 gold round about. Also he made for it a border of a handbreadth 12 round about; and made a rim of gold for its border round about. And he cast for it four rings of gold, and put the rings on 13 the four corners that were on its four legs. Over against the 14 border were the rings, the places for the poles to bear the table.
And he made the poles of shittim wood, and overlaid them with 15 gold, to bear the table. And he made the vessels which were 16 upon the table, its dishes, and its spoons, and its bowls, and its jars for pouring out, of pure gold.

And he made the candlestick of pure gold: of beaten work made 17 he the candlestick; its shaft, and its branches, its bowls, its bulbs, and its flowers, were of the same piece: and six branches 18 going out of its sides; three branches of the candlestick out of the one side of it, and three branches of the candlestick out of the other side of it: three bowls made after the fashion of al- 19 monds in one branch, a bulb and a flower; and three bowls made like almonds in another branch, a bulb and a flower: so throughout the six branches going out of the candlestick. And in the 20 candlestick were four bowls made like almonds, its bulbs, and its flowers: and a bulb under two branches of the same, and a 21 bulb under two branches of the same, and a bulb under two branches of the same, according to the six branches going out of it. Their bulbs and their branches were of the same: all of it 22 was one beaten work of pure gold. And he made its seven lamps, 23 and its tongs, and its ashpans of pure gold. Of a talent of pure 24 gold he made it, and all its vessels.

And he made the incense altar of shittim wood: the length of 25 it was a cubit, and the breadth of it a cubit; it was foursquare; and two cubits was its height; its horns were of the same.
And he overlaid it with pure gold, both the top of it, and 26 the sides of it round about, and its horns: also he made for it a rim of gold round about. And he made two rings of 27 gold for it under its crown, by its two corners, upon its two sides, to be places for the poles with which to bear it.
And he made the poles of shittim wood, and overlaid them with 28 gold. And he made the holy anointing oil, and the pure incense of 29 sweet spices, according to the work of the perfumer. And 38 he made the altar of burnt offering of shittim wood: five cubits was its length, and five cubits its breadth; it was foursquare; and three cubits its height. And he made its horns on 2 the four corners of it; its horns were of the same: and he overlaid it with brass. And he made all the vessels of the altar, 3 the pans, and the shovels, and the basins, and the forks, and the firepans: all its vessels he made of brass. And he made for 4 the altar a brazen grate of network under its ledge beneath, placed half way. And he cast four rings for the four ends of 5 the grate of brass, to be places for the poles. And he made the 6 poles of shittim wood, and overlaid them with brass. And he 7 put the poles into the rings on the sides of the altar, with which to bear it; he made the altar hollow with boards. And he 8 made the laver of brass, and its pedestal of brass, of the mirrors of the women assembling, who assembled at the door of the Tent of Meeting. And he made the court: on the south 9 side southward the hangings of the court were of fine twined linen, a hundred cubits: their pillars were twenty, and their 10 brazen sockets twenty; the hooks of the pillars and their joints were of silver. And for the north side the hangings were a hun- 11 dred cubits, their pillars were twenty, and their sockets of brass twenty; the hooks of the pillars and their joints of silver. And 12 for the west side were hangings of fifty cubits, their pillars ten, and their sockets ten; the hooks of the pillars and their joints of silver. And for the east side eastward fifty cubits. The hangings 13, 14 of the one side of the gate were fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three. And for the other side of the 15 court gate, on this hand and that hand, were hangings of fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three. All the hang- 16 ings of the court round about were of fine twined linen. And 17 the sockets for the pillars were of brass; the hooks of the pillars and their joints of silver; and the overlaying of their capitals of silver; and all the pillars of the court were bound with silver.

And the screen for the gate of the court was embroidered work, 18 of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen: and twenty cubits was the length, and the height in the breadth was five cubits, answerable to the hangings of the court. And their 19 pillars were four, and their sockets of brass four; their hooks of silver, and the overlaying of their capitals and their joints of silver. And all the pegs of the tabernacle, and of the court 20 PEQUDE round about, were of brass. These are the accounts of the 21 tabernacle, the tabernacle of the Testimony, as they were counted, according to the commandment of Moshe, for the work of the Levites by the hand of Itamar the son of Aharon the priest.
And Bezal'el the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Yehu- 22 da, made all that the LORD commanded Moshe. And with him was 23 Aholi'av, son of Ahisamakh, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver, and an artist, and an embroiderer in blue, and in purple, and in scarlet, and fine linen. All the gold that was applied for 24 the work in all the work of the holy place, even the gold of the offering, was twenty nine talents, and seven hundred and thirty shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary. And the silver of 25 them that were numbered of the congregation was a hundred talents, and a thousand seven hundred and seventy five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary: a beqa for every man, that is, 26 half a shekel, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for everyone that went to be numbered, from twenty years old and upward, for six hundred and three thousand, five hundred and fifty men.
And of the hundred talents of silver were cast the sockets of 27 the sanctuary, and the sockets of the veil; a hundred sockets of the hundred talents, a talent for a socket. And of the thousand 28 seven hundred and seventy five shekels he made hooks for the pillars, and overlaid their capitals, and bound them. And the 29 brass of the offering was seventy talents, and two thousand four hundred shekels. And with that he made the sockets to the door 30 of the Tent of Meeting, and the brazen altar, and the brazen grate for it, and all the vessels of the altar, and the sockets of 31 the court round about, and the sockets of the court gate, and all the pegs of the tabernacle, and all the pegs of the court round about. And of the blue, and purple, and scarlet, they made 39 uniforms, with which to do service in the holy place, and they made the holy garments for Aharon; as the LORD commanded Moshe.
And he made the efod of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and 2 fine twined linen. And they did beat the gold into thin plates, 3 and cut it into wires, to work it in the blue, and in the purple, and in the scarlet, and in the fine linen, the work of an artist.
They made shoulderpieces for it, joined on: by the two edges 4 was it joined on. And the finely wrought girdle of the efod, that 5 was upon it, was of the same, according to its work; of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen; as the LORD commanded Moshe. And they arranged the shoham stones 6 enclosed in fixtures of gold, graven, as signets are graven, with the names of the children of Yisra'el. And he put them on the 7 shoulders of the efod, that they should be stones of memorial to the children of Yisra'el; as the LORD commanded Moshe.

And he made the breastplate of artistic work, like the work of 8 the efod; of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen. It was foursquare; they made the breastplate double: a 9 span was its length, and a span its breadth, being doubled. And 10 they set in it four rows of stones: the first row was a ruby, a crysolithe, and a beryl: this was the first row. And the second 11 row, a turquoise, a sapphire, and a diamond. And the third row, 12 a ligure, and an agate, and a jasper. And the fourth row, an 13 emerald, a shoham, and a jade: they were inclosed in fixtures of gold in their settings. And the stones were according to the 14 names of the children of Yisra'el, twelve, according to their names, like the engravings of a signet, everyone with its name, according to the twelve tribes. And they made upon the breast- 15 plate plaited chains, of wreathen work of pure gold. And they 16 made two fixtures of gold, and two gold rings; and put the two rings in the two ends of the breastplate. And they put the two 17 wreathen chains of gold in the two rings on the ends of the breastplate. And the two ends of the two wreathen chains they 18 fastened in the two fixtures, and put them on the shoulderpieces of the efod, toward the forepart of it. And they made two rings 19 of gold, and put them on the two ends of the breastplate, upon the border of it, which was on the side of the efod inwards. And 20 they made two other golden rings, and put them on the two sides of the efod underneath, toward the forepart of it, over against its coupling, above the finely wrought girdle of the efod. And 21 they did bind the breastplate by its rings to the rings of the efod with a lace of blue, that it might be above the finely wrought girdle of the efod, and that the breastplate might not be loosed from the efod; as the LORD commanded Moshe.
And he made the robe of the efod of woven work, all of blue. 22
And there was a hole in the midst of the robe, like the hole of 23 a suit of armour, with a band round about the hole, that it should not tear. And they made upon the hems of the robe pomegranates 24 of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and twined linen. And they made 25 bells of pure gold, and put the bells between the pomegranates upon the hem of the robe, round about between the pomegranates; a bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate, 26 round about the hem of the robe to minister in; as the LORD commanded Moshe. And they made coats of fine linen 27 of woven work for Aharon, and for his sons, and the mitre of fine 28 linen, and goodly turbans of fine linen and linen breeches of fine 29 twined linen, and a girdle of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, the work of an embroiderer; as the LORD commanded Moshe. And they made the plate of the holy 30 crown of pure gold, and wrote upon it a writing, like the engravings of a signet, Holiness to the LORD. And they tied to it a lace 31 of blue, to fasten it on the mitre above; as the LORD commanded Moshe. Thus was all the work of the tabernacle of the 32 Tent of Meeting finished: and the children of Yisra'el did according to all that the LORD commanded Moshe, so they did.

And they brought the tabernacle to Moshe, the Tent, and all 33 its furniture, its clasps, its boards, its bars, and its pillars, and its sockets, and the covering of rams' skins dyed red, and the 34 covering of tahash skins, and the veil of the screen, the ark of 35 the Testimony, and its poles, and the covering, the table, and 36 all its vessels, and the showbread, the pure candlestick, with its 37 lamps, the lamps to be set in order, and all its vessels, and the oil for light, and the golden altar, and the anointing oil, 38 and the incense of spices, and the screen for the tabernacle door, the brass altar, and its grate of brass, its poles, and all its vessels, 39
the laver and its pedestal, the hangings of the court, its pillars, 40 and its sockets, and the screen for the court gate, its cords, and its pegs, and all the vessels of the service of the tabernacle, for the Tent of Meeting, the uniforms for service in the holy place, 41 and the holy garments for Aharon the priest, and his sons' garments, to minister in the priest's office. According to all that the 42 LORD commanded Moshe, so the children of Yisra'el did all the work. And Moshe saw all the work, and, behold, they had done 43 it as the LORD had commanded, even so had they done it: and Moshe blessed them.

40

And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, On the first day of the 1,2 first month shalt thou set up the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting. And thou shalt put in it the ark of the Testimony, and 3 hang the veil before the ark. And thou shalt bring in the table, 4 and set in order the things that are to be set in order upon it; and thou shalt bring in the candlestick, and light its lamps. And 5 thou shalt set the altar of gold for incense before the ark of the Testimony, and put the screen of the door to the tabernacle.
And thou shalt set the altar of the burnt offering before the door 6 of the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting. And thou shalt set the 7 laver between the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and shalt put water in it. And thou shalt set up the court round about, and 8 hang up the screen at the court gate, and thou shalt take the 9 anointing oil, and anoint the tabernacle, and all that is in it, and shalt hallow it, and all its vessels: and it shall be holy. And 10 thou shalt anoint the altar of the burnt offering, and all its vessels, and sanctify the altar: and it shall be an altar most holy. And thou shalt anoint the laver and its pedestal, and 11 sanctify it. And thou shalt bring Aharon and his sons to the 12 door of the Tent of Meeting, and wash them with water. And 13 thou shalt put upon Aharon the holy garments, and anoint him, and sanctify him; that he may minister to me in the priest's office. And thou shalt bring his sons, and clothe them with 14 coats: and thou shalt anoint them, as thou didst anoint their 15 father, that they may minister to me in the priest's office:

for their anointing shall be an everlasting priesthood throughout their generations. Thus did Moshe: according to all that the 16 LORD commanded him, so he did. And it came to pass in 17 the first month in the second year, on the first day of the month, that the tabernacle was erected. And Moshe erected the taber- 18 nacle, and fastened its sockets, and set up its boards, and put in its bars, and reared up its pillars. And he spread the tent over 19 the tabernacle, and put the covering of the tent above upon it; as the LORD commanded Moshe. And he took and put the 20 Testimony into the ark, and set the poles on the ark, and put the covering above upon the ark: and he brought the ark into the 21 tabernacle, and set up the veil of the screen, and screened the ark of the Testimony; as the LORD commanded Moshe. And he 22 put the table in the Tent of Meeting, upon the side of the tabernacle northward, outside the veil. And he set the bread in order 23 upon it before the LORD; as the LORD had commanded Moshe.
And he put the candlestick in the Tent of Meeting, over 24 against the table, on the side of the tabernacle southward. And 25 he lighted the lamps before the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moshe. And he put the golden altar in the Tent of Meet- 26 ing before the veil: and he burnt sweet incense upon it as the 27 LORD commanded Moshe. And he set up the screen at 28 the door of the tabernacle. And he put the altar of burnt of- 29 fering by the door of the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting, and offered upon it the burnt offering and the meal offering; as the LORD commanded Moshe. And he set the laver between 30 the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and put water there, for washing. And Moshe and Aharon and his sons washed their 31 hands and their feet thereat: when they went into the Tent of 32 Meeting, and when they came near to the altar, they washed; as the LORD commanded Moshe. And he erected the court 33 round about the tabernacle and the altar, and set up the screen of the court gate. So Moshe finished the work.
Then a cloud covered the Tent of Meeting, and the glory of the 34
LORD filled the tabernacle. And Moshe was not able to enter 35 the Tent of Meeting, because the cloud rested on it, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle. And when the cloud was taken 36 up from over the tabernacle, the children of Yisra'el went onward in all their journeys: but if the cloud were not taken up, 37 then they journeyed not till the day that it was taken up. For the 38 cloud of the LORD was upon the tabernacle by day, and fire was on it by night, in the sight of all the house of Yisra'el, throughout all their journeys.

AND the LORD called to Moshe, and spoke to him out of 1
the Tent of Meeting, saying, Speak to the children of 2 Yisra'el, and say to them, If any man of you bring an offering to the LORD, of the cattle shall you bring your offering, of the herd, and of the flock. If his offering be a burnt 3 sacrifice of the herd, let him offer a male without blemish: he shall offer it at the door of the Tent of Meeting, that he may be accepted before the LORD. And he shall put his 4 hand upon the head of the burnt offering; and it shall be accepted for him to make atonement for him. And he 5 shall kill the bullock before the LORD: and the priests, Aharon's sons, shall bring the blood, and sprinkle the blood round about upon the altar that is by the door of the Tent of Meeting. And 6 he shall flay the burnt offering, and cut it into its pieces. And the 7 sons of Aharon the priest shall put fire upon the altar, and lay the wood in order upon the fire: and the priests, Aharon's sons, 8 shall lay the parts, the head, and the fat, in order upon the wood that is on the fire which is upon the altar: but its inwards and 9 its legs shall he wash in water: and the priest shall burn all on the altar, to be a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour to the LORD. And if his offering be of the 10 flocks, namely, of the sheep, or of the goats, for a burnt sacrifice; he shall bring it a male without blemish. And he shall kill 11 it on the side of the altar northward before the LORD: and the priests, Aharon's sons, shall sprinkle its blood round about on the altar. And he shall cut it into its pieces, with its head and 12 its fat: and the priest shall lay them in order on the wood that is on the fire which is on the altar: but he shall wash the inwards 13 and the legs with water: and the priest shall bring it all, and burn it upon the altar: it is a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour to the LORD.
And if the burnt sacrifice for his offering to the LORD be of birds, 14 then he shall bring his offering of turtledoves, or of young pigeons. And the priest shall bring it to the altar, and wring off its 15 head, and burn it on the altar; and its blood shall be wrung out at the side of the altar: and he shall remove its crop with its 16 feathers, and cast it beside the altar on the east part, by the place of the ashes: and he shall rend it by its wings, but shall 17 not divide it asunder: and the priest shall burn it on the altar, on the wood that is on the fire: it is a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour to the LORD. 2 And when any will offer a meal offering to the LORD, his offering shall be of fine flour; and he shall pour oil upon it, and put frankincense upon it: and he shall bring it to Aharon's sons the priests: and 2 he shall take from it his handful of its fine flour, and of its oil, with all its frankincense; and the priest shall burn the memorial part of it on the altar, to be an offering made by fire, a sweet savour to the LORD: and the remnant of the meal offering shall be 3 Aharon's and his sons': it is a thing most holy of the offerings of the LORD made by fire. And if thou bring a sacrifice of 4 meal offering baked in the oven, it shall be unleavened cakes of fine flour mingled with oil, or unleavened wafers anointed with oil. And if thy sacrifice be a meal offering baked in a pan, it 5 shall be of fine flour unleavened, mingled with oil. Thou shalt part 6 it in pieces, and pour oil on it: it is a meal offering. And 7 if thy sacrifice be a meal offering baked in a frying pan, it shall be made of fine flour with oil. And thou shalt bring the meal 8 offering that is made of these things to the LORD: and when it is presented to the priest, he shall bring it to the altar. And the 9 priest shall take from the meal offering its memorial part, and shall burn it on the altar: it is an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour to the LORD. And that which is left of the meal 10 offering shall be Aharon's and his sons': it is a thing most holy of the offerings of the LORD made by fire. No meal offering, which 11 you shall bring to the LORD, shall be made with leaven: for you shall burn no leaven, nor any honey, in any offering of the LORD made by fire. As for the offerings of the firstfruits, you shall offer 12 them to the LORD: but they shall not be burnt on the altar for a sweet savour. And thy every meal offering shalt thou season 13 with salt; nor shalt thou suffer the salt of the covenant of thy GOD to be lacking from thy meal offering: with all thy offerings thou shalt offer salt. And if thou offer a meal offering of 14 thy firstfruits to the LORD, thou shalt offer for the meal offering of thy firstfruits ears of corn dried by the fire, corn beaten out of fresh ears. And thou shalt put oil upon it, and lay on frank- 15 incense: it is a meal offering. And the priest shall burn the 16 memorial part of it, of its beaten corn, and of its oil, with all its frankincense: it is an offering made by fire to the LORD.

3 And if his offering be a sacrifice of peace offering, if he offer it of the herd; whether it be a male or female, he shall offer it without blemish before the LORD. And he shall lay his hand upon 2 the head of his offering, and kill it at the door of the Tent of Meeting: and Aharon's sons the priests shall sprinkle the blood on the altar round about. And he shall offer of the sacrifice of 3 the peace offering an offering made by fire to the LORD; the fat that covers the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by 4
the flanks, and the appendage of the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away. And Aharon's sons shall burn it on the altar 5 upon the burnt sacrifice, which is upon the wood that is on the fire: it is an offering made by fire of a sweet savour to the LORD.

And if his offering for a sacrifice of peace offering to the LORD 6 be of the flock; male or female, he shall offer it without blemish.
If he offer a lamb for his offering, then shall he offer it before 7 the LORD. And he shall lay his hand upon the head of his offer- 8 ing, and kill it before the Tent of Meeting: and Aharon's sons shall sprinkle its blood round about upon the altar. And he shall 9 offer of the sacrifice of the peace offering an offering made by fire to the LORD; its fat, and the whole fat tail, it shall he take off hard by the backbone; and the fat that covers the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards, and the two kidneys, and 10 the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks; and the appendage of the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away. And 11 the priest shall burn it on the altar: it is the food of the offering made by fire to the LORD.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Speak to the children 1,2 of Yisra'el saying, If a soul shall sin through ignorance against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which ought not to be done, and shall do against any of them: if the 3 priest that is anointed do sin to bring guiltiness on the people; then let him bring for his sin, which he has sinned, a young bullock without blemish to the LORD for a sin offering. And he 4 shall bring the bullock to the door of the Tent of Meeting before the LORD; and shall lay his hand upon the bullock's head, and kill the bullock before the LORD. And the priest that is anointed 5 shall take of the bullock's blood, and bring it to the Tent of Meeting: and the priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and 6 sprinkle of the blood seven times before the LORD, before the veil of the sanctuary. And the priest shall put some of the blood 7 upon the horns of the altar of sweet incense before the LORD, which is in the Tent of Meeting: and shall pour all the blood of the bullock at the bottom of the altar of the burnt offering, which is at the door of the Tent of Meeting. And he shall take off from 8 it all the fat of the bullock for the sin offering; the fat that covers the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by 9
the flanks, and the appendage of the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away, as it was taken off from the bullock of the 10 peace offering: and the priest shall burn them upon the altar of the burnt offering. And the skin of the bullock, and all its 11 flesh, with its head, and with its legs, and its inwards, and its dung, even the whole bullock shall he carry forth outside the 12 camp to a clean place, where the ashes are poured out, and burn it on the wood with fire: where the ashes are poured out shall it be burnt.

And if the whole congregation of Yisra'el sin through ignorance, 13 and the thing be hid from the eyes of the assembly, and they have done something against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which should not be done, and have incurred guilt; when the sin, which they have sinned, is known, then 14 the congregation shall offer a young bullock for the sin, and the LORD: and the bullock shall be killed before the LORD. And 16 the Tent of Meeting: and the priest shall dip his finger in some 17 of the blood, and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD, before the veil. And he shall put some of the blood upon the 18 horns of the altar which is before the LORD, that is in the Tent of Meeting, and shall pour out all the blood at the bottom of the altar of the burnt offering, which is at the door of the Tent of Meeting. And he shall lift off all its fat, and burn it on the altar. 19

And he shall do with the bullock as he did with the bullock for 20 a sin offering, so shall he do with this: and the priest shall make atonement for them, and it shall be forgiven them. And he shall 21 carry the bullock outside the camp, and burn it as he burned the first bullock: it is a sin offering for the congregation.
When a ruler has sinned, and done something through ignorance 22 against any one of the commandments of the LORD his GOD concerning things which should not be done, and has incurred guilt; or if his sin, wherein he has sinned, come to his knowledge; he 23 shall bring his offering, a kid of the goats, a male without blemish: and he shall lay his hand upon the head of the goat, and kill 24 it in the place where they kill the burnt offering before the LORD: it is a sin offering. And the priest shall take of the blood of the 25 sin offering with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out its blood at the bottom of the altar of burnt offering. And he shall burn all its fat upon 26 the altar, as the fat of the sacrifice of the peace offering: and the priest shall make atonement for him as concerning his sin, and it shall be forgiven him.
And if anyone of the common people sin through ignorance, by 27 doing something against any one of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which ought not to be done, and be guilty; or if his sin, which he has sinned, come to his knowledge: 28 then he shall bring his offering, a kid of the goats, a female without blemish, for his sin which he has sinned. And he shall lay his 29 hand upon the head of the sin offering, and slay the sin offering in the place of the burnt offering. And the priest shall take of 30 its blood with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out all its blood at the bottom of the altar. And he shall take away all its fat, as the fat is taken 31 away from off the sacrifice of the peace offering; and the priest shall burn it upon the altar for a sweet savour to the LORD; and the priest shall make atonement for him, and it shall be forgiven him.
And if he bring a lamb for a sin offering, he shall bring it a 32 female without blemish. And he shall lay his hand upon the 33 head of the sin offering, and slay it for a sin offering in the place where they kill the burnt offering. And the priest shall take of 34 the blood of the sin offering with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out all its blood at the bottom of the altar: and he shall take away all its 35 fat, as the fat of the lamb is taken away from the sacrifice of the peace offering; and the priest shall burn them upon the altar, upon the pyres of the LORD: and the priest shall make atonement for his sin that he has committed, and it shall be forgiven him.

And if a person sin, and hear the voice of adjuration, and is a 1 witness, whether he has seen or known of it; if he do not utter it, then he shall bear his iniquity. Or if a person touch any 2 unclean thing, whether it be a carcass of an unclean beast, or a carcass of unclean cattle, or the carcass of unclean creeping things, and if it be hidden from him, so that he be unclean, and guilty: or if he touch the uncleanness of man, whatever un- 3 cleanness it be with which a man shall be defiled, and it be hid from him; and he come to know of it, and be guilty: or if a 4 person swear, pronouncing with his lips to do evil, or to do good, whatever it be that a man shall pronounce with an oath, and it be hid from him; when he knows of it, then he shall be guilty in one of these. And it shall be, when he shall be guilty 5 in one of these things, that he shall confess that he has sinned in that thing: and he shall bring his guilt offering to the LORD 6 for his sin which he has sinned, a female from the flock, a lamb or a kid of the goats, for a sin offering; and the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin. And if he be not 7 able to bring a lamb, then he shall bring for his trespass, which he has committed, two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, to the LORD; one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering. And he shall bring them to the priest, who shall offer that 8 which is for the sin offering first, and wring off its head from its neck, but shall not divide it asunder: and he shall sprinkle 9 of the blood of the sin offering upon the side of the altar; and the rest of the blood shall be wrung out at the bottom of the altar: it is a sin offering. And he shall offer the second for a 10 burnt offering, according to the prescribed order: and the priest shall make atonement for him for his sin which he has sinned, and it shall be forgiven him. But if he be not able to bring 11 two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, then he that sinned shall bring for his offering the tenth part of an efa of fine flour for a sin offering; he shall put no oil upon it, neither shall he put any frankincense upon it: for it is a sin offering. Then shall he 12 bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take his handful of it, the memorial part of it, and burn it on the altar, upon the pyres of the LORD: it is a sin offering. And the priest shall make atone- 13 ment for him in regard to his sin that he has sinned in one of these, and it shall be forgiven him: and it shall be the priest's, like the meal offering. And the LORD spoke to Moshe, say- 14 ing, If a person commit a trespass, and sin through ignorance, in 15 the holy things of the LORD; then he shall bring for his guilt to the LORD a ram without blemish out of the flocks, by value (two) silver shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for a guilt offering. And he shall make amends for the wrong that he has 16 done in the holy thing, and shall add the fifth part to it, and give it to the priest: and the priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the guilt offering, and it shall be forgiven him.

And if a person sin, and commit any of these things which are 17 forbidden to be done by the commandments of the LORD; though he know it not, yet is he guilty, and shall bear his iniquity. And 18 he shall bring a ram without blemish out of the flock, according to the valuation, for a guilt offering, to the priest: and the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his ignorance wherein he erred and knew it not, and it shall be forgiven him. It is a guilt offering: he has certainly trespassed against the LORD. 19

And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, If a person sin, and commit a trespass against the LORD, and lie to his neighbour in that which was delivered him to keep, or in a loan, or in a thing taken away by violence, or have wronged his neighbour; or have found that which was lost, and have lied concerning it, and have sworn falsely; in any of all these that a man does, sinning in that: then it shall be, because he has sinned, and is guilty, that he shall restore that which he took violently away, or the thing which he has deceitfully acquired, or that which was delivered him to keep, or the lost thing which he found, or all that about which he has sworn falsely; he shall even restore it in the principal, and shall add the fifth part more to it, and give it to him to whom it belongs, in the day of his trespass offering; and he shall bring his guilt offering to the LORD, a ram without blemish out of the flock, according to the value of a guilt offering, to the priest: and the priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD: and it shall be forgiven him for anything of all that he has done wherein to incur guilt. 20,21 22 23 24 25 26

ZAV And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Command Aharon and his sons, saying, This is the Tora of the burnt offering: It is the burnt offering, which shall be burning upon the altar all night until the morning, and the fire of the altar shall be kept burning in it. And the priest shall put on his linen garment, and his linen breeches shall he put on his flesh, and take up the ashes which the fire has consumed with the burnt offering on the altar, and he shall put them beside the altar. And he shall put off his garments, and put on other garments, and carry the ashes outside the camp to a clean place. And the fire upon the altar shall be kept burning in it; it shall not be put out: and the priest shall burn wood on it every morning, and lay the burnt offering in order upon it; and he shall burn on it the fat of the peace offerings. The fire shall ever be burning upon the altar; it shall never go out. And this is the Tora of the meal offering: the sons of Aharon shall offer it before the LORD, before the altar. And he shall lift from it his handful, of the flour of the meal offering, and of its oil, and all the frankincense which is upon the meal offering, and shall burn it upon the altar for a sweet savour, even the memorial part of it, to the LORD. And the remainder of it shall Aharon and his sons eat: with unleavened bread shall it be eaten in the holy place; in the court of the Tent of Meeting they shall eat it. It shall not be baked with leaven. I have given it to them for their portion of my offerings made by fire; it is most holy, as is the sin offering, and the guilt offering. All the males among the children of Aharon shall eat of it. It shall be a fixed portion throughout your generations of the offerings of the LORD made by fire: everyone that touches them shall be holy. 1,2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11

And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, This is the offering of 12,13

Aharon and of his sons, which they shall offer to the LORD on the day when he is anointed; the tenth part of an efa of fine flour for a meal offering perpetual, half of it in the morning, and half of it at night. In a pan it shall be made with oil; and when 14 it is well soaked, thou shalt bring it in: and the baked pieces of the meal offering shalt thou offer for a sweet savour to the LORD. And the priest of his sons that is anointed in his place 15 shall offer it: it is a statute for ever to the LORD; it shall be wholly burnt. For every meal offering of the priest shall be 16 wholly burnt: it shall not be eaten.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Speak to Aharon and to 17, 18 his sons, saying, This is the Tora of the sin offering: In the place where the burnt offering is killed shall the sin offering be killed before the LORD: it is most holy. The priest that offers it 19 for sin shall eat it: in the holy place shall it be eaten, in the court of the Tent of Meeting. Whatever shall touch its flesh 20 shall be holy: and when there is sprinkled of its blood upon any garment, thou shalt wash that on which it was sprinkled in the holy place. But the earthen vessel in which it is boiled 21 shall be broken: and if it be boiled in a brass pot, it shall be both scoured, and rinsed in water. All the males among the 22 priests shall eat of it: it is most holy. And no sin offering, of 23 which any of the blood is brought into the Tent of Meeting to be sprinkled in the holy place, shall be eaten: it shall be burnt in the fire.

And this is the Tora of the guilt offering: it is most holy. 7
In the place where they kill the burnt offering shall they kill 2 the guilt offering: and its blood shall be sprinkled round about upon the altar. And he shall offer of it all the fat; the fat tail, and 3 the fat that covers the inwards, and the two kidneys, and the 4 fat that is on them, which is by the flanks, and the appendage above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away: and 5 the priest shall burn them upon the altar for an offering made by fire to the LORD: it is a guilt offering. Every male among the 6 priests shall eat of it: it shall be eaten in the holy place: it is most holy. As the sin offering is, so is the guilt offering: there 7 is one Tora for them: the priest that makes atonement therewith shall have it. And the priest that offers any man's burnt 8 offering, the priest shall have for himself the skin of the burnt offering which he has offered. And all the meal offering that is 9 baked in the oven, and all that is dressed in the frying pan, and in the pan, shall be the priest's that offers it. And every meal 10 offering, mingled with oil, and dry, shall all the sons of Aharon have, one as well as another.

And this is the Tora of the peace offerings, which he shall offer 11 to the LORD. If he offer it for a thanksgiving, then he shall offer 12 with the sacrifice of thanksgiving unleavened cakes mingled with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and cakes mingled with oil, of fine flour, well soaked. Together with loaves 13 of leavened bread shall he make his offering, these to be added to his peace offering of thanksgiving. And of it he shall offer 14 fering. And the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offering for 15 thanksgiving shall be eaten the same day that it is offered; he shall not leave any of it until the morning. But if the sacrifice 16 of his offering be a vow, or a voluntary offering, it shall be eaten on the same day that he offers his sacrifice: and on the morrow also the remainder of it shall be eaten: but that which remains 17 of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day shall be burnt with fire. And if any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offering 18 be eaten at all on the third day, it shall not be accepted, neither shall it be imputed to him who offers it: it shall be an abomination, and the person that eats of it shall bear his iniquity. And 19 the flesh that touches any unclean thing shall not be eaten; it shall be burnt with fire: and as for the flesh, all that are clean shall eat of it. But the person that eats of the flesh of the sacri- 20 fice of peace offerings, that pertain to the LORD, having his un-cleanness upon him, that soul shall be cut off from his people.

Moreover the person that shall touch any unclean thing, such as 21 the uncleanness of man, of any unclean beast, or any abominable unclean thing, and eat of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which pertain to the LORD, that soul shall be cut off from his people. And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Speak 22, 23 to the children of Yisra'el, saying, You shall eat no manner of fat, of ox, or of sheep, or of goat. And the fat of the beast that 24 dies of itself, and the fat of that which is torn with beasts, may be used in any other use: but you shall by no means eat of it.
For whoever eats the fat of the beast, of which men offer an 25 offering made by fire to the LORD, the soul that eats it shall be cut off from his people. Moreover you shall eat no manner of 26 blood, whether it be of bird or of beast, in any of your dwellings.
Whoever it be that eats any manner of blood, that soul shall be 27 cut off from his people.
And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Speak to the children of 28, 29
Yisra'el, saying, He that offers his peace offering to the LORD shall bring his offering to the LORD of the sacrifice of his peace offering. His own hands shall bring the offerings of the LORD 30 made by fire, the fat with the breast, it shall he bring, that the breast may be waved for a wave offering before the LORD. And 31 the priest shall burn the fat upon the altar: but the breast shall be Aharon's and his sons'. And the right shoulder shall you give 32 to the priest for a heave offering from the sacrifices of your peace offerings. He among the sons of Aharon, that offers the 33 blood of the peace offering, and the fat, shall have the right shoulder for his part. For the wave breast and the heave shoul- 34 der have I taken of the children of Yisra'el from off the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and have given them to Aharon the priest and to his sons their fixed portion for ever from among the children of Yisra'el. This is the portion of the anointing of 35 Aharon, and of the anointing of his sons, out of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, on the day when he presented them to minister to the LORD in the priest's office; which the LORD com- 36 manded to be given them of the children of Yisra'el, on the day that he anointed them, as a fixed portion for ever throughout their generations. This is the Tora of the burnt offering, of the 37 meal offering, and of the sin offering, and of the guilt offering, and of the consecration offering, and of the sacrifice of the peace offering; which the LORD commanded Moshe in mount Sinay, on 38 the day that he commanded the children of Yisra'el to present their offerings to the LORD, in the wilderness of Sinay.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Take Aharon and his 8 sons with him, and the garments, and the anointing oil, and a 1, 2 bullock for the sin offering, and two rams, and a basket of unleavened bread; and gather all the congregation together to 3 the door of the Tent of Meeting. And Moshe did as the LORD 4 commanded him; and the assembly was gathered together at the door of the Tent of Meeting. And Moshe said to the con- 5 gregation, This is the thing which the LORD commanded to be done. And Moshe brought Aharon and his sons, and washed 6 them with water. And he put upon him the coat, and girded 7 him with the girdle, and clothed him with the robe, and put the efod upon him, and he girded him with the artistically wrought girdle of the efod, and with it he bound it to him. And he put 8 the breastplate upon him: also he put in the breastplate the Urim and the Tummim. And he put the mitre upon his head; 9 also upon the mitre, upon its forepart, did he put the golden plate, the holy crown; as the LORD commanded Moshe. And 10 Moshe took the anointing oil, and anointed the tabernacle and all that was in it, and sanctified them. And he sprinkled of it 11 upon the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all its vessels, both the laver and its pedestal, to sanctify them. And 12 he poured of the anointing oil upon Aharon's head, and anointed him, to sanctify him. And Moshe brought Aharon's sons, and 13 put coats upon them, and girded them with girdles, and put turbans upon them; as the LORD commanded Moshe. And he 14 brought the bullock for the sin offering: and Aharon and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the bullock for the sin offering. And he slaughtered it; and Moshe took the blood, and 15 put it upon the horns of the altar round about with his finger, and purified the altar, and poured the blood at the bottom of the altar, and sanctified it, to make atonement upon it. And he took 16 all the fat that was upon the inwards, and the appendage of the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and Moshe burned it on the altar. But the bullock, and its hide, its flesh, and its dung, 17 he burnt with fire outside the camp; as the LORD commanded Moshe. And he brought the ram for the burnt offering: and 18 Aharon and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram. And he killed it; and Moshe sprinkled the blood upon the altar 19 round about. And he cut the ram into pieces; and Moshe burnt 20 the head, and the pieces, and the fat. And he washed the inwards 21 and the legs in water; and Moshe burnt the whole ram upon the altar: it was a burnt sacrifice for a sweet savour, an offering made by fire to the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moshe. And 22 he brought the other ram, the ram of consecration: and Aharon and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram. And he 23 slaughtered it; and Moshe took of its blood, and put it upon the tip of Aharon's right ear, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot. And he 24 brought Aharon's sons, and Moshe put of the blood upon the tip of their right ear, and upon the thumbs of their right hands, and upon the great toes of their right feet: and Moshe sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about. And he took the fat, and the 25 fat tail, and all the fat that was upon the inwards, and the appendage of the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and the right shoulder: and out of the basket of unleavened bread, 26 that was before the LORD, he took one unleavened cake, and a cake of oiled bread, and one wafer, and put them on the fat, and upon the right shoulder: and he put all upon Aharon's hands, 27 and upon his sons' hands, and waved them for a wave offering before the LORD. And Moshe took them from off their hands, 28 and burnt them on the altar upon the burnt offering; they were a consecration offering for a sweet savour: it was an offering made by fire to the LORD. And Moshe took the breast, and waved 29 it for a wave offering before the LORD: for of the ram of consecration it was Moshe's part; as the LORD commanded Moshe.

And Moshe took of the anointing oil, and of the blood which 30 was upon the altar, and sprinkled it upon Aharon, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon his sons' garments with him; and sanctified Aharon, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him. And Moshe said to Aharon and 31 to his sons, Boil the flesh at the door of the Tent of Meeting: and there eat it with the bread that is in the basket of the bread of consecration, as I commanded, saying, Aharon and his sons shall eat it. And that which remains of the flesh and of the bread 32 shall you burn with fire. And you shall not go out of the door 33 of the Tent of Meeting for seven days, until the days of your consecration be at an end: for seven days shall he consecrate you. As he has done this day, so the LORD has commanded to do, 34 to make atonement for you. And you shall abide at the 35 door of the Tent of Meeting day and night for seven days, and keep the charge of the LORD, that you die not: for so I am commanded. So Aharon and his sons did all the things which 36 SHEMINI the LORD had commanded by the hand of Moshe. And it 9 came to pass on the eighth day, that Moshe called Aharon and his sons, and the elders of Yisra'el: and he said to Aharon, Take 2 thee a young calf for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering, without blemish, and offer them before the LORD. And to 3 the children of Yisra'el thou shalt speak, saying, Take a kid of the goats for a sin offering; and a calf and a lamb, both of the first year, without blemish, for a burnt offering; also a bullock 4 and a ram for peace offerings, to sacrifice before the LORD; and a meal offering mingled with oil: for today the LORD will appear to you. And they brought that which Moshe commanded before 5 the Tent of Meeting: and all the congregation drew near and stood before the LORD. And Moshe said, This is the thing which 6 the LORD commanded you to do: and the glory of the LORD shall appear to you. And Moshe said to Aharon, Go to the altar, 7 and offer thy sin offering, and thy burnt offering, and make atonement for thyself, and for the people: and offer the offering of the people, and make atonement for them; as the LORD com-and the head: and he burnt them upon the altar. And he did 14 wash the inwards and the legs, and burnt them upon the burnt offering on the altar. And he brought the people's offering, and 15 took the goat which was the sin offering for the people, and slaughtered it, and offered it for sin, as the first. And he brought 16 the burnt offering, and offered it according to the prescribed manner. And he brought the meal offering, and took a handful 17 of it, and burnt it upon the altar, beside the burnt sacrifice of the morning. He also slaughtered the bullock and the ram for a 18 sacrifice of peace offering, which was for the people: and Aha-ron's sons presented to him the blood, which he sprinkled on the altar round about. And the fat of the bullock and of the ram, the 19 fat tail, and that which covers the inwards, and the kidneys, and the appendage of the liver: and they put the fat upon the 20 breasts, and he burnt the fat upon the altar: and the breasts and 21 the right shoulder Aharon waved for a wave offering before the LORD; as Moshe commanded. And Aharon lifted up his hand 22 towards the people, and blessed them, and came down from offering the sin offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings. And Moshe and Aharon went into the Tent of Meeting, 23 and came out, and blessed the people: and the glory of the LORD appeared to all the people. And there came a fire out from before 24 the LORD, and consumed upon the altar the burnt offering and the fat: which, when all the people saw, they shouted, and fell on their faces. And Nadav and Avihu, the sons of Aharon, took 10 each of them his censer, and put fire in it, and put incense on it, and offered strange fire before the LORD, which he commanded them not. And a fire went out from the LORD, and devoured 2 them, and they died before the LORD. Then Moshe said to Aha- 3 ron, This is it that which the LORD spoke, saying, I will be sanctified in them that come near me, and before all the people I will be glorified. And Aharon held his peace. And Moshe called 4 Misha'el and Elẓafan, the sons of 'Uzzi'el the uncle of Aharon, and said to them, Come near, carry your brethren from before the sanctuary out of the camp. So they went near, and carried 5 them in their coats out of the camp; as Moshe had said. And 6 Moshe said to Aharon, and to El'azar and to Itamar, his sons, Let the hair of your heads not grow long, neither rend your clothes; lest you die, and lest anger come upon all the people: but let your brethren, the whole house of Yisra'el bewail the burning which the LORD has kindled. And you shall not go out 7 from the door of the Tent of Meeting lest you die: for the anointing oil of the LORD is upon you. And they did according to the word of Moshe.

And the LORD spoke to Aharon, saying, Do not drink wine or 8,9 strong drink, thou, nor thy sons with thee, when you enter the Tent of Meeting, lest you die: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations: and that you may differentiate 10 between holy and unholy, and between unclean and clean; and 11 that you may teach the children of Yisra'el all the statutes which the LORD has spoken to them by the hand of Moshe.

And Moshe spoke to Aharon, and to El'azar and to Itamar, his 12 sons that were left, Take the meal offering that remains of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and eat it without leaven beside the altar: for it is most holy: and you shall eat it in the 13 holy place, because it is thy due, and thy sons' due, of the sacrifices of the LORD made by fire: for so I am commanded.

And the wave breast and heave shoulder shall you eat in a clean 14 place; thou, and thy sons, and thy daughters with thee: for they are thy due, and thy sons' due, which are given out of the sacrifices of peace offerings of the children of Yisra'el. The heave 15 shoulder and the wave breast shall they bring with the offerings made by fire of the fat, to wave it for a wave offering before the LORD; and it shall be thine, and thy sons' with thee, as a portion for ever; as the LORD commanded. And Moshe diligently 16 sought the goat of the sin offering, and, behold, it was burnt: and he was angry with El'azar and Itamar, the sons of Aharon that were left alive, saying. Why have you not eaten the sin 17 offering in the holy place, seeing it is most holy, and GOD has given it you to bear the iniquity of the congregation, to make atonement for them before the LORD? Behold, the blood of it 18 was not brought in within the holy place: you should indeed have eaten it in the holy place, as I commanded. And Aharon 19 said to Moshe, Behold, this day have they offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD; and such things have befallen me that if I had eaten the sin offering today, should it have been accepted in the sight of the LORD? And when Moshe 20 heard that, he was content.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe and to Aharon, saying to them, 11 Speak to the children of Yisra'el, saying, These are the beasts 2 which you shall eat among all the beasts that are on the earth.

Whatever parts the hoof, and is clovenfooted, and chews the 3 cud, among the beasts, that shall you eat. Nevertheless these 4 shall you not eat of them that chew the cud, or of them that divide the hoof: the camel, because he chews the cud, but does not part the hoof: he is unclean to you. And the coney, because 5 he chews the cud, but does not part the hoof; he is unclean to you. And the hare, because he chews the cud, but does not part 6 the hoof; he is unclean to you. And the swine, though he divide 7 the hoof, and be clovenfooted, yet he chews not the cud; he is unclean to you. Of their flesh shall you not eat, and their carcass 8 shall you not touch; they are unclean to you. These shall you 9 eat of all that are in the waters: whatever has fins and scales in the waters, in the seas, and in the rivers, them shall you eat.

And all that have not fins and scales in the seas, and in the 10 birds; they shall not be eaten, they are abominable: the eagle, and the bearded vulture and the black vulture. And the kite, and 14 the ḥargol after its kind, and the ḥagav after its kind. But all 23 other flying creeping things, which have four feet, shall be an abomination to you. And for these you shall be unclean: who- 24 whoever touches their carcass shall be unclean until evening.

And he that bears the carcass of them shall wash his clothes, and 28 with them, that you should be defiled by them. For I am the 44 LORD your GOD: you shall therefore sanctify yourselves, and you shall be holy; for I am holy: neither shall you defile yourselves with any manner of creeping thing that creeps on the earth. For I am the LORD that brings you up out of the land of 45 Miẓrayim, to be your GOD: you shall therefore be holy, for I am holy. This is the Tora of the beasts, and of the birds, and of 46 every living creature that moves in the waters, and of every creature that creeps on the earth: to make a distinction between 47 the unclean and the clean, and between the beast that may be eaten and the beast that may not be eaten.

TAZRIA And the LORD spoke to Moshe saying, Speak to the children of 1,2 Yisra'el, saying, If a woman have conceived seed, and born a man child: then she shall be unclean seven days; as in the days of her menstrual sickness shall she be unclean. And on the eighth 3 day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised. And she shall 4 then continue in the blood of her purifying for thirty three days:
she shall touch no hallowed thing, nor come in to the sanctuary, until the days of her purifying are fulfilled. But if she bear a 5 female child, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her menstruation: and she shall continue in the blood of her purifying for sixty six days. And when the days of her purifying 6 are fulfilled, for a son or for a daughter, she shall bring a lamb of the first year for a burnt offering, and a young pigeon, or a turtledove, for a sin offering, to the door of the Tent of Meeting, to the priest: who shall offer it before the LORD, and make 7 atonement for her; and she shall be cleansed from the issue of her blood. This is the Tora for her that has born a male or a female. And if she be not able to bring a lamb, then she shall 8 bring two turtledoves, or two young pigeons; the one for the burnt offering, and the other for a sin offering: and the priest shall make atonement for her, and she shall be clean.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe and Aharon, saying When a man 13 shall have in the skin of his flesh a swelling, a scab, or bright 2 spot, and it be in the skin of his flesh the plague of ẕara'at; then he shall be brought to Aharon the priest, or to one of his sons the priests: and the priest shall look on the plague in the 3 skin of the flesh: and when the hair in the plague is turned white, and the plague be deeper in appearance than the skin of his flesh, it is a plague of ẕara'at: and the priest shall look on him, and pronounce him unclean. If the bright spot be white 4 in the skin of his flesh, and be not deeper in appearance than the skin, and its hair be not turned white; then the priest shall shut up him that has the plague seven days: and the priest shall look on him on the seventh day: and, behold, if the plague in his sight be at a stay, and the plague spread not in the skin; then the priest shall shut him up seven days more: and the priest shall look on him again on the seventh day: and, behold, if the plague be somewhat dimmer, and the plague spread not in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean: it is but a scab: and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean. But if the scab spread much abroad in the skin, after he has been seen by the priest for his cleansing, he shall be seen by the priest again: and if the priest see that, behold, the scab spreads in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is ẓara'at.

When the plague of ẓara'at is in a man, then he shall be brought to the priest; and the priest shall see him: and, behold, if a white swelling be in the skin, and it have turned the hair white, and there be quick raw flesh in the rising; it is an old ẓara'at in the skin of his flesh, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean, and shall not shut him up: for he is unclean. And if the ẓara'at breaks out abroad in the skin, and the ẓara'at covers all the skin of him that has the plague from his head to his foot, as far as the priest can see; then the priest shall consider: and, behold, if the ẓara'at have covered all his flesh, he shall pronounce him clean that has the plague: it is all turned white: he is clean. But when raw flesh appears in him, he shall be unclean. And the priest shall see the raw flesh, and pronounce him to be unclean: for the raw flesh is unclean: it is ẓara'at.

Or if the raw flesh turn again, and be changed to white, he shall come to the priest; and the priest shall see him: and, behold, if the plague be turned white; then the priest shall pronounce him clean that has the plague: he is clean.

The flesh also, the skin of which has on it a pox which is healed, and in the place of the pox there be a white swelling, or a bright spot, white, and somewhat reddish, and it be shown to the priest; and if, when the priest sees it, behold, it be in sight deeper than the skin, and the hair of it be turned white; the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a plague of ẓara'at broken out in the pox. But if the bright spot stay in its place, and spread not, it is the scar of the pox; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

Or if there be any flesh, in the skin of which there is a burn caused by fire, and the raw flesh of the burn have a white bright spot, somewhat reddish, or white; then the priest shall look upon it: and, behold, if the hair in the bright spot be turned white, and it be in appearance deeper than the skin; it is a ẓara'at broken out of the burn: and the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of ẓara'at. ment or in the skin, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything of skin; it is a plague of ẓara'at, and shall be shown to the priest: and the priest shall look at the plague, and shut up that 50 which has the plague seven days: and he shall look at the plague 51 on the seventh day: if the plague be spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in a skin, or in any work that is made of skin; the plague is a malignant ẓara'at; it is unclean. He shall therefore burn that garment, whether warp or 52 woof, in woollen or in linen, or anything of skin, wherein the plague is: for it is a malignant ẓara'at; it shall be burnt in the fire. And if the priest shall look, and, behold, the plague be not 53 spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything of skin; then the priest shall command that they wash 54 the thing in which the plague is, and he shall shut it up seven days more: And the priest shall look after the plague is washed: 55 and, behold, if the plague have not changed its colour, and the plague be not spread; it is unclean; thou shalt burn it in the fire; it is a decay on the inner or outer surface. And if the priest 56 look, and, behold, the plague be somewhat dimmer after the washing of it; then he shall tear it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the warp, or out of the woof: and if it appear 57 still in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything of skin; it is a spreading plague: thou shalt burn that in which the plague is with fire. And the garment, either warp, 58 or woof, or whatever thing of skin it be, which thou shalt wash, if the plague be departed from them, then it shall be washed the second time, and shall be clean. This is the Tora of the plague 59 of ẓara'at in a garment of woollen or linen, either in the warp, or woof, or anything of skins, to pronounce it clean, or to pronounce it unclean.

MEẒORA And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, This shall be the Tora of 1,2 the one stricken with ẓara'at in the day of his cleansing: He shall be brought to the priest: and the priest shall go out of the camp; 3 and the priest shall look, and, behold, if the plague of ẓara'at be healed in the one afflicted; then shall the priest command to 4 take for him that is to be cleansed two birds alive and clean, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop: and the priest shall com- 5 mand that one of the birds be killed in an earthen vessel over running water: as for the living bird, he shall take it, and the 6 cedar wood, and the scarlet, and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water: and he shall sprinkle upon him that is to be 7 cleansed from the ẓara'at seven times, and shall pronounce him clean, and shall let the living bird loose into the open field. And 8 he that is to be cleansed shall wash his clothes, and shave off all his hair, and bathe himself in water, and be clean: and after that he shall come into the camp, but he shall remain outside his tent seven days. And it shall be on the seventh day, that he 9 shall shave all his hair off his head and his beard and his eyebrows, even all his hair he shall shave off: and he shall bathe his clothes, also he shall wash his flesh in water, and he shall be clean. And on the eighth day he shall take two he lambs with- 10 out blemish, and one ewe lamb of the first year without blemish, as his means permit; even such as his means permit, the one for 31 a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, with the meal offering· and the priest shall make atonement for him that is to be cleansed before the LORD. This is the Tora of him in whom 32 is the plague of ẓara'at whose means do not permit much for his cleansing.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe and to Aharon, saying, When you 33 come into the land of Kena'an, which I give to you for a posses- 34 sion, and I put the plague of ẓara'at in a house of the land of your possession; and he that owns the house shall come and 35 tell the priest, saying, It seems to me there is as it were a plague in the house: then the priest shall command that they empty 36 the house, before the priest go into it to see the plague, so that all that is in the house be not made unclean: and afterward the priest shall go in to see the house: and he shall look at the 37 plague, and, behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house in greenish or reddish depressions, which in sight are lower than the wall; then the priest shall go out of the house to the door 38 of the house, and shut up the house seven days: and the priest 39 shall come back on the seventh day, and shall look: and, behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house; then the priest 40 shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and they shall cast them into an unclean place outside the city: and he shall cause the house to be scraped within 41 round about, and they shall pour out the dust that they scrape off outside the city in an unclean place: and they shall take 42 other stones, and put them in the place of those stones; and he shall take other mortar, and shall plaster the house. And if the 43 plague come back, and break out in the house, after he has taken away the stones, and after he has scraped the house, and after it is plastered; then the priest shall come and look, and, 44 behold, if the plague be spread in the house, it is a malignant ẓara'at in the house: it is unclean. And he shall break down the 45 house, the stones of it, and its timber, and all the mortar of the house; and he shall carry them out of the city into an unclean place. Moreover he that goes into the house all the while that 46 it is shut up shall be unclean until evening. And he that lies in 47 the house shall wash his clothes; and he that eats in the house shall wash his clothes. And if the priest shall come in, and look 48 upon it, and, behold, the plague has not spread in the house, after the house was plastered: then the priest shall pronounce the house clean, because the plague is healed. And he shall take 49 to cleanse the house two birds, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop: and he shall kill one of the birds in an earthen vessel 50 over running water: and he shall take the cedar wood, and the 51 hyssop, and the scarlet, and the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the slaughtered bird, and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times: and he shall cleanse the house 52 with the blood of the bird, and with the running water, and with the living bird, and with the cedar wood, and with the hyssop, and with the scarlet: but he shall let go the living bird out of 53
the city into the open fields, and make atonement for the house:
and it shall be clean. This is the Tora for all manner of plague 54

And the LORD spoke to Moshe and to Aharon, saying, Speak to 1,2 the children of Yisra'el, and say to them, When any man has a running issue out of his flesh, because of his issue he is unclean.
And this shall be his uncleanness in his issue: whether his flesh 3 run with his issue, or his flesh be stopped from his issue, it is his uncleanness. Every bed, whereon he that has the issue lies 4 down, is unclean: and everything, whereon he sits, shall be unclean. And whoever touches his bed shall wash his clothes, 5 and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until evening. And 6 he that sits on anything on which he that has the issue sat, shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until evening. And he that touches the flesh of him that has the 7 issue shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until evening. And if he that has the issue spit upon 8 him that is clean; then he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until evening. And whatever saddle 9 he that has the issue rides upon, shall be unclean. And whoever 10 touches anything that was under him shall be unclean until evening: and he that bears any of those things shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until evening.
And whomever he touches that has the issue, and has not rinsed 11 his hands in water, he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until evening. And the vessel of earth, 12 that he who has the issue touches, shall be broken: and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water. And when he that has 13 an issue is cleansed of his issue; then he shall number to himself seven days for his cleansing, and wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in running water, and he shall be clean. And on the eighth 14 day he shall take for himself two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, and come before the LORD to the door of the Tent of Meeting, and give them to the priest: and the priest shall offer 15 them, the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering; and the priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD because of his issue. And if the semen goes out from 16 a man, then he shall bathe all his flesh in water, and be unclean until evening. And every garment, and every skin, on which the 17 semen is, shall be washed with water and be unclean until evening. The woman also with whom a man shall lie with emission 18 of semen, they shall both bathe themselves in water, and be unclean until evening.
And if a woman have an issue, and her issue in her flesh be 19 blood, she shall be seven days in her menstrual separation: and whoever touches her shall be unclean until evening. And every- 20 thing that she lies upon in her separation shall be unclean: everything also that she sits upon shall be unclean. And whoever 21 touches her bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until evening. And whoever touches any- 22 thing that she sat upon shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until evening. And if it be on her bed, 23 or on anything whereon she sits, when he touches it, he shall be unclean until evening. And if any man lie with her at all, and 24 her menstrual flow be upon him, he shall be unclean seven days: and all the bed on which he lies shall be unclean. And if 25 a woman have an issue of her blood many days not in the time of her menstruation, or if it run beyond the time of her menstruation; all the days of the issue of her uncleanness shall be as the days of her menstruation: she shall be unclean. Every 26 bed on which she lies all the days of her issue shall be to her as the bed of her menstruation: and whatever she sits upon shall be unclean, as the uncleanness of her menstruation. And whoever 27 touches those things shall be unclean, and shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until evening. But if 28 she be cleansed of her issue, then she shall number to herself seven days, and after that she shall be clean. And on the eighth 29 day she shall take for herself two turtles, or two young pigeons, and bring them to the priest, to the door of the Tent of Meeting.

And the priest shall offer the one for a sin offering, and the other 30 for a burnt offering; and the priest shall make atonement for her before the LORD for the issue of her uncleanness. Thus shall 31 you separate the children of Yisra'el from their uncleanness; that they die not in their uncleanness, when they defile my tabernacle that is among them. This is the Tora of him that has 32 an issue, and of him whose semen goes from him, and he is defiled with it; and of her that is sick in her menstrual flow, and of him 33 that has an issue, of the man, and of the woman, and of him that lies with her that is unclean.

AḤARE MOT And the LORD spoke to Moshe after the death of the two sons of 16
Aharon, when they came near before the LORD, and died; and 2 the LORD said to Moshe, Speak to Aharon thy brother, that he come not at all times into the holy place within the veil before the covering, which is upon the ark; that he die not: for I appear in the cloud upon the ark cover. Thus shall Aharon come into 3 the holy place: with a young bullock for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering. He shall put on the holy linen coat, and 4 he shall have the linen breeches upon his flesh, and shall be girded with a linen girdle, and with the linen mitre shall he be attired: these are holy garments; therefore shall he bathe his flesh in water, and so put them on. And he shall take from the 5 congregation of the children of Yisra'el two kids of the goats for a sin offering, and one ram for a burnt offering. And Aharon 6 shall offer the bullock of the sin offering, which is for himself, and make atonement for himself, and for his house. And he 7 shall take the two goats, and present them before the LORD at the door of the Tent of Meeting. And Aharon shall cast lots 8 upon the two goats; one lot for the LORD, and the other lot for 'Azazel. And Aharon shall bring the goat upon which the LORD's 9 lot fell, and offer it for a sin offering. But the goat, on which 10 the lot fell for 'Azazel, shall be presented alive before the LORD to make atonement over him, and to let him go to 'Azazel into the wilderness. And Aharon shall bring the bullock of the sin 11 offering, which is for himself, and shall make atonement for himself, and for his house, and shall kill the bullock of the sin offering which is for himself: and he shall take a censer full of 12 burning coals of fire from off the altar before the LORD, and his hands full of sweet incense beaten small, and bring it inside the veil: and he shall put the incense upon the fire before the LORD, 13 that the cloud of the incense may cover the covering that is upon the Testimony, that he die not: and he shall take of the blood 14 of the bullock, and sprinkle it with his finger upon the covering eastward; and before the covering shall he sprinkle of the blood with his finger seven times. Then shall he kill the goat of the 15 sin offering, that is for the people, and bring its blood within the veil, and do with that blood as he did with the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it upon the covering, and before the covering: and he shall make atonement for the holy place, because 16 of the uncleanness of the children of Yisra'el, and because of their transgressions in all their sins: and so shall he do for the Tent of Meeting, that remains among them in the midst of their uncleanness. And there shall be no man in the Tent of Meeting 17 when he goes in to make atonement in the holy place, until he comes out, and have made atonement for himself, and for his household, and for all the congregation of Yisra'el. And he shall 18 go out to the altar that is before the LORD, and make atonement for it; and shall take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the goat, and put it upon the horns of the altar round about. And he shall sprinkle of the blood upon it with his finger 19 seven times, and cleanse it, and hallow it from the uncleanness of the children of Yisra'el. And when he has made an end of 20 atoning for the holy place, and the Tent of Meeting, and the altar, he shall present the live goat: and Aharon shall lay both 21 his hands upon the head of the live goat, and confess over him all the iniquities of the children of Yisra'el, and all their transgressions in all their sins, putting them upon the head of the goat, and shall send him away by the hand of an appointed man into the wilderness: and the goat shall bear upon it all their 22 iniquities to a barren land: and he shall let go the goat in the wilderness. And Aharon shall come into the Tent of Meeting, 23 and shall put off the linen garments, which he put on when he went into the holy place, and shall leave them there: and he 24 shall wash his flesh with water in the holy place, and put on his garments, and come forth, and offer his burnt offering, and the burnt offering of the people, and make atonement for himself, and for the people. And the fat of the sin offering shall he burn 25 upon the altar. And he that let go the goat for 'Azazel shall wash 26 his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and afterwards come into the camp. And the bullock for the sin offering, and the goat 27 for the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the holy place, shall be taken outside the camp; and they shall burn in the fire their skins, and their flesh, and their dung. And he that burns them shall wash his clothes, and bathe 28 his flesh in water, and afterwards he shall come into the camp.

And this shall be a statute for ever to you: that in the seventh 29 sojourns among you: for on that day will he forgive you, to 30 cleanse you, that you may be clean from all your sins before the LORD. It shall be a sabbath of solemn rest to you, and you 31 shall afflict your souls, by a statute for ever. And the priest, who 32 shall be anointed, and who shall be consecrated to minister in the priest's office in his father's stead, shall make the atonement, and shall put on the linen clothes, the holy garments: and he 33 shall make atonement for the holy sanctuary, and he shall make atonement for the Tent of Meeting, and for the altar, and he shall make atonement for the priests, and for all the people of the congregation. And this shall be an everlasting statute to you, 34 to make atonement for the children of Yisra'el for all their sins once a year. And he did as the LORD commanded Moshe. 17

And the LORD spoke to Moshe saying, Speak to Aharon, and to 1,2 his sons, and to all the children of Yisra'el, and say to them; This is the thing which the LORD has commanded, saying, What 3 man soever there be of the house of Yisra'el, that kills an ox, or lamb, or goat, in the camp, or that kills it outside the camp, and brings it not to the door of the Tent of Meeting, to offer 4 an offering to the LORD before the tabernacle of the LORD; blood shall be imputed to that man; he has shed blood; and that man shall be cut off from among his people: to the end that the 5 children of Yisra'el may bring their sacrifices, which they offer in the open field, that they may bring them to the LORD, to the door of the Tent of Meeting, to the priest, and offer them for peace offerings to the LORD. And the priest shall sprinkle the 6 blood upon the altar of the LORD at the door of the Tent of Meeting, and burn the fat for a sweet savour to the LORD. And 7 they shall no more offer their sacrifices to the demons, after whom they have gone astray. This shall be a statute for ever to them throughout their generations. And thou shalt say to 8 them, Whatever man there be of the house of Yisra'el, or of the strangers who sojourn among you, that offers a burnt offering or sacrifice, and brings it not to the door of the Tent of Meeting, 9 to offer it to the LORD; that man shall be cut off from among his people. And whatever man there be of the house of Yisra'el, 10 or of the strangers that sojourn among you, that eats any manner of blood: then I will set my face against that person that eats blood, and will cut him off from among his people. For 11 the life of the flesh is in the blood: and I have given it to you upon the altar to make atonement for your souls: for it is the blood that makes an atonement for the soul. Therefore I said to 12 the children of Yisra'el, None of you shall eat blood, neither shall any stranger that sojourns among you eat blood. And whatever 13 man there be of the children of Yisra'el, or of the strangers that sojourn among you, who hunts venison of any beast or bird that may be eaten; he shall even pour out its blood, and cover it with dust. For the life of all flesh is its blood, on which its life 14 depends: therefore I said to the children of Yisra'el, you shall eat the blood of no manner of flesh: for the life of all flesh is its blood: whoever eats it shall be cut off. And every person that 15 eats that which died of itself, or that which was torn by beasts, whether it be one of your own country, or a stranger, he shall both wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be un-not, nor bathe his flesh; then he shall bear his iniquity. 18

And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Speak to the children of 1,2 Yisra'el, and say to them, I am the LORD your GOD. After the 3 doings of the land of Miẓrayim, in which you dwelt, shall you not do: and after the doings of the land of Kena'an, into which I bring you, shall you not do: neither shall you walk in their practices. You shall do my judgments, and keep my ordinances, 4 to walk in them, I am the LORD your GOD. You shall therefore 5 keep my statutes, and my judgments: which if a man do, he shall live in them: I am the LORD. None of you shall ap- 6 proach to any that is near of kin to him, to uncover her nakedness: I am the LORD. The nakedness of thy father, or the 7 nakedness of thy mother, shalt thou not uncover: she is thy mother; thou shalt not uncover her nakedness. The naked- 8 ness of thy father's wife shalt thou not uncover: it is thy father's nakedness. The nakedness of thy sister, the daughter of 9 thy father, or daughter of thy mother, whether she be born at home, or born abroad, their nakedness thou shalt not uncover, The nakedness of thy son's daughter, or of thy daughter's 10 daughter, their nakedness thou shalt not uncover: for theirs is thy own nakedness. The nakedness of thy father's wife's 11 daughter, begotten of thy father, she is thy sister, thou shalt not uncover her nakedness. Thou shalt not uncover the 12 nakedness of thy father's sister: she is thy father's near kinswoman. Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy 13 mother's sister: for she is thy mother's near kinswoman.
Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy father's 14 brother, thou shalt not approach to his wife: she is thy aunt.
Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy daughter 15 in law: she is thy son's wife; thou shalt not uncover her nakedness. Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy brother's 16 wife: it is thy brother's nakedness. Thou shalt not uncover 17 the nakedness of a woman and her daughter, neither shalt thou take her son's daughter, or her daughter's daughter, to uncover her nakedness; for they are her near kinswomen: it is foulness.
Neither shalt thou take a wife to her sister, as her rival, and 18 uncover her nakedness, beside the other in her life time. Also 19 thou shalt not approach to a woman in the impurity of her menstrual flow, to uncover her nakedness. Moreover thou shalt 20 not lie carnally with thy neighbour's wife, to defile thyself with her. And thou shalt not let any of thy seed pass through (the 21 fire) to Molekh, neither shalt thou profane the name of thy GOD: I am the LORD. Thou shalt not lie with a man after the 22 manner of a woman: it is abomination. Neither shalt thou lie 23 with any beast to defile thyself with it: neither shall any woman stand before a beast to lie down before it: it is perversion. Defile 24 not yourselves in any of these things: for in all these the nations were defiled which I cast out before you: and the land was 25 defiled: therefore I do punish its iniquity upon it, and the land vomits out her inhabitants. You shall therefore keep my statutes 26 and my judgments, and shall not commit any of these abominations; neither any of your own nation, nor any stranger that of the land done, who were before you, and the land is defiled; that the land vomit not you out also, when you defile it, as it 28 has vomited out the nations that were before you. For whoever 29 shall commit any of these abominations, even the persons that commit them shall be cut off from among their people. Therefore 30 shall you keep my ordinance, that you commit not any one of these abominable customs, which were practised before you, and that you defile not yourselves in them: I am the. LORD your GOD.

QEDOSHIM And the LORD spoke to Moshe saying, Speak to all the congre- 19 gation of the children of Yisra'el, and say to them, You shall be 2 holy: for I the LORD your GOD am holy. You shall fear every man 3 his mother, and his father, and keep my sabbaths: I am the LORD your GOD. Turn not to idols, nor make to yourselves molten 4 gods: I am the LORD your GOD. And if you offer a sacrifice of 5 peace offering to the LORD, you shall offer it so that it may be favourably accepted. It shall be eaten the same day you offer 6 it, and on the morrow: and if aught remain until the third day, it shall be burnt in fire. And if it be eaten at all on the third day, 7 it is abominable; it shall not be accepted. Therefore everyone 8 that eats it shall bear his iniquity, because he has profaned the hallowed thing of the LORD: and that soul shalt be cut off from among his people. And when you reap the harvest of your land, 9 thou shalt not wholly reap the corners of thy field, neither shalt thou gather the gleaning of thy harvest. And thou shalt not 10 glean thy vineyard, neither shalt thou gather the single grapes of thy vineyard; thou shalt leave them for the poor and stranger:
I am the LORD your GOD. You shall not steal, neither deal falsely, 11 neither lie one to another. And you shall not swear by my name 12 falsely, neither shalt thou profane the name of thy GOD: I am the LORD. Thou shalt not defraud thy neighbour, neither rob 13 him: the wages of him that is hired shall not abide with thee all night until the morning. Thou shalt not curse the deaf, nor 14 put a stumbling block before the blind, but shalt fear thy GOD:
I am the LORD. You shall do no unrighteousness in judgment: 15 thou shalt not respect the person of the poor, nor honour the person of the mighty: but in righteousness shalt thou judge thy neighbour. Thou shalt not go up and down as a talebearer 16 among thy people: neither shalt thou stand aside when mischief befalls thy neighbour: I am the LORD. Thou shalt not hate thy 17 brother in thy heart: thou shalt certainly rebuke thy neighbour, and not suffer sin on his account. Thou shalt not avenge, nor 18 bear any grudge against the children of thy people, but thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself: I am the LORD. You shall 19 keep my statutes. Thou shalt not let thy cattle gender with a neither shall a garment mingled of linen and wool come upon for a guilt offering. And the priest shall make atonement for him 22 with the ram of the guilt offering before the LORD for his sin which he has done: and the sin which he has done shall be forgiven him.

And when you shall come into the land, and shall have planted 23 all manner of trees for food, then you shall reckon their fruit as uncircumcised: three years shall it be as uncircumcised unto you: it shall not be eaten. But in the fourth year all its fruit 24 shall be holy for praisegiving to the LORD. And in the fifth year 25 shall you eat of its fruit, that it may yield to you its increase:
I am the LORD your GOD. You shall not eat anything with the 26 blood: neither shall you use enchantment, nor observe times.
You shall not round the corners of your heads, neither shalt thou 27 mar the corners of thy beard. You shall not make any cuttings 28 in your flesh for the dead, nor print any marks upon you: I am the LORD. Do not prostitute thy daughter, to cause her to be a 29 harlot; lest the land fall to harlotry, and the land become full of foulness. You shall keep my sabbaths, and reverence my sanc- 30 tuary: I am the LORD. You shall not apply to mediums or 31 wizards, nor seek to be defiled by them: I am the LORD your GOD. Thou shalt rise up before the hoary head, and honour 32 the face of the old man, and fear thy GOD: I am the LORD.
And if a stranger sojourn with thee in your land, you shall 33 not wrong him. But the stranger that dwells with you shall be 34 to you as one born among you, and thou shalt love him as thyself; for you were strangers in the land of Mizrayim: I am the LORD your GOD. You shall do no unrighteousness in judgment, 35 in meteyard, in weight, or in measure. Just balances, just weights, 36 a just efa, and a just hin, shall you have: I am the LORD your GOD, who brought you out of the land of Mizrayim. Therefore 37 shall you observe all my statutes, and all my judgments, and do them: I am the LORD.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Again, thou shalt say to 1,2 the children of Yisra'el, Whoever he be of the children of Yisra'el, or of the strangers that sojourn in Yisra'el, that gives any of his seed to Molekh; he shall surely be put to death: the people of the land shall stone him with stones. And I will set my face 3 against that man, and will cut him off from among his people; because he has given of his seed to Molekh, to defile my sanctuary, and to profane my holy name. And if the people of the 4 land do at all hide their eyes from that man, when he gives of his seed to Molekh, and kill him not: then I will set my face 5 against that man, and against his family, and will cut him off, and all that go astray after him, going astray after Molekh, from among their people. And the person that applies to me- 6 diums and to wizards, to go astray after them, I will even set my face against that person, and will cut him off from among his people. Sanctify yourselves therefore, and be holy: 7 for I am the LORD your GOD. And you shall keep my sta- 8 tutes, and do them: I am the LORD who sanctifies you. For 9 everyone that curses his father or his mother shall be surely put to death: he has cursed his father or his mother; his blood shall be upon him. And the man that commits adultery with 10 law, both of them shall surely be put to death: they have wrought unnatural sin; their blood shall be upon them. If a man also lie 13 with a man, as one lies with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them. And if a man take a wife and her 14 is near to him, and who has had no husband; for her may he be defiled. But he shall not defile himself, being a chief man 4 among his people, to profane himself. They shall not make 5 baldness on their head, neither shall they shave off the corner of their beard, nor make any cuttings in their flesh. They shall 6 be holy to their GOD, and not profane the name of their GOD: for the offerings of the LORD made by fire, the bread of their GOD, they do offer: therefore they shall be holy. They 7 shall not take a wife that is a harlot, or profaned; neither shall they take a woman put away from her husband: for he is holy to his GOD. Thou shalt sanctify him therefore; for he offers the 8 bread of thy GOD: he shall be holy to thee: for I the LORD, who sanctify you, am holy. And the daughter of any priest, if she 9 profane herself by playing the harlot, she profanes her father: she shall be burnt with fire. And he that is the high priest 10 among his brethren, upon whose head the anointing oil was poured, and that is consecrated to put on the garments, shall not suffer the hair of his head to grow long, nor rend his clothes; neither shall he go in to any dead body, nor defile himself for 11 his father, or for his mother; neither shall he go out of the 12 sanctuary, nor profane the sanctuary of his GOD; for the crown of the anointing oil of his GOD is upon him: I am the LORD. And 13 he shall take a wife in her virginity. A widow, or a divorced wo- 14 man, or a profaned, or a harlot, these shall he not take: but he shall take a virgin of his own people to wife. Neither shall he 15 profane his seed among his people: for I the LORD do sanctify him. And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, speak to 16, 17 Aharon, saying, Whoever he be of thy seed in their generations that has any blemish, let him not approach to offer the bread of his GOD. For whatever man he be that has a blemish, he shall 18 not approach: a blind man, or a lame, or he that has a flat nose, or anything superfluous, or a man that is brokenfooted, or 19 brokenhanded, or crookbacked, or a dwarf, or that has a blem- 20 ish in his eye, or be scurvy, or scabbed, or whose stones are crushed. No man that has a blemish of the seed of Aharon 21 the priest shall come near to offer the offerings of the LORD made by fire: he has a blemish; he shall not come near to offer the bread of his GOD. He shall eat the bread of his GOD, both 22 of the most holy, and of the holy. Only he shall not go in unto 23 the veil, nor come near to the altar, because he has a blemish; that he profane not my holy places: for I the LORD do sanctify them. And Moshe spoke to Aharon, and to his sons, and to 24 all the children of Yisra'el.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe saying, Speak to Aharon and to 1, 2 his sons, that they separate themselves from the holy things of the children of Yisra'el which they hallow to me, and they profane not my holy name, I am the LORD. Say to them, Whoever 3 ever touches anything that is unclean by the dead, or a man whose semen goes from him; or whoever touches any creeping 5 thing, whereby he may be made unclean, or a man of whom he may take uncleanness, whatever uncleanness he has; the 6 person who has touched any such shall be unclean until evening, and shall not eat of the holy things, unless he bathe his flesh with water. And when the sun is down, he shall be clean, 7 and shall afterwards eat of the holy things; because it is his food. That which dies of itself, or is torn with beasts, he shall 8 not eat to defile himself with it: I am the LORD. They shall 9 therefore keep my charge, lest they bear sin for it, and die therefore, if they profane it: I the LORD do sanctify them.

No stranger shall eat of the holy thing: a tenant of a priest, or 10 a hired servant, shall not eat of the holy thing. But if a priest 11 buy any person with money, he may eat of it, and he that is born in his house: they shall eat of his bread. And if a priest's 12 daughter be married to a stranger, she may not eat of an offering of the holy things. But if a priest's daughter be a widow, or di- 13 vorced, and have no child, and has returned to her father's house, as in her youth, she shall eat of her father's bread: but no stranger shall eat of it. And if a man eat of the holy thing 14 unwittingly, then he shall add the fifth part thereof to it, and shall give the holy thing to the priest. And they shall not pro- 15 fane the holy things of the children of Yisra'el, which they offer to the LORD; and so cause them to bear the iniquity of trespass, 16 when they eat their holy things: for I the LORD do sanctify them.
And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Speak to Aharon, and 17,18 to his sons, and to all the children of Yisra'el, and say to them, Whatever he be of the house of Yisra'el, or of the strangers in Yisra'el, that will offer their sacrifice for all their vows, and for all their freewill offerings, which they will offer to the LORD for a burnt offering; you shall offer, that you may be accepted, 19 it shall not be acceptable for you. And whoever offers a sacrifice 21 of peace offerings to the LORD to accomplish his vow, or a free-will offering in oxen or sheep, it shall be perfect to be accepted; no blemish shall be in it. Blind, or broken, or maimed, or having 22 a growth, or scurvy, or scabbed, you shall not offer these to the LORD, nor make an offering by fire of them upon the altar to the LORD. Either a bullock or a lamb that has anything super- 23 fluous or too short, that mayst thou offer for a freewill offering; but for a vow it shall not be accepted. You shall not offer to the 24 LORD that which has its testicles bruised or crushed, or broken, or cut; neither shall you do thus in your land. Neither from a 25 stranger's hand shall you offer the bread of your GOD from any of these; because their corruption is in them, their blemish is in them: they shall not be accepted for you. And the 26,27 LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, When a bullock, or a sheep, or a goat, is brought forth, then it shall be seven days under its dam; and from the eighth day and thenceforth it shall be accepted for an offering made by fire to the LORD. And 28 whether it be cow or ewe, you shall not kill it and its young both in one day. And when you will offer a sacrifice of thanks- 29 giving to the LORD, offer it that it may be accepted. On the 30 same day it shall be eaten up; you shall leave none of it until the morrow: I am the LORD. And you shall keep my command- 31 ments, and do them: I am the LORD. Neither shall you profane 32 my holy name; but I will be hallowed among the children of Yisra'el: I am the LORD who make you holy, who brought 33 you out of the land of Miẓrayim, to be your GOD: I am the

And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Speak to the children of 1, 2 Yisra'el, and say to them, The feasts of the LORD, which you shall proclaim to be holy gatherings, these are my feasts. Six 3 days shall work be done: but the seventh day is the sabbath of solemn rest, a holy gathering; you shall do no work: it is a sabbath to the LORD in all your dwellings.

These are the feasts of the LORD, holy gatherings, which you 4 shall proclaim in their seasons. On the fourteenth day of the 5 first month towards evening is the LORD's passover. And on 6 the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of unleavened bread to the LORD: seven days you must eat unleavened bread.
On the first day you shall have a holy gathering: you shall do 7 no servile work. But you shall offer an offering made by fire to 8 the LORD for seven days: on the seventh day is a holy gathering: you shall do no servile work.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Speak to the children 9, 10 of Yisra'el, and say to them, When you are come to the land which I give to you, and shall reap its harvest, then you shall bring an 'omer of the firstfruits of your harvest to the priest: and he shall wave the 'omer before the LORD, to be accepted for 11 you: on the morrow after the sabbath the priest shall wave it.
And you shall offer that day when you wave the 'omer a he 12 lamb without blemish of the first year for a burnt offering to the LORD. And the meal offering thereof shall be two tenth 13 measures of fine flour mingled with oil, an offering made by fire to the LORD for a sweet savour: and its drink offering shall be of wine, the fourth part of a hin. And you shall eat neither 14 bread, nor parched corn, nor green ears, until that very day, until you have brought an offering to your GOD: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings. And you shall count for yourselves from the mor- 15 row after the sabbath, from the day that you brought the 'omer of the wave offering; seven complete sabbaths shall there be: to 16 the morrow after the seventh sabbath shall you number fifty days and you shall offer a new meal offering to the LORD. You 17 shall bring out of your habitations two wave loaves of two tenth measures: they shall be of fine flour; they shall be baked with leaven; they are the firstfruits to the LORD. And you shall offer 18 with the bread seven lambs without blemish of the first year, and one young bullock, and two rams: they shall be for a burnt offering to the LORD, with their meal offering, and their drink offerings, an offering made by fire, of sweet savour to the LORD.
Then you shall sacrifice one kid of the goats for a sin offering, 19 and two lambs of the first year for a sacrifice of peace offerings. And the priest shall wave them with the bread of the 20 firstfruits for a wave offering before the LORD, with the two lambs: they shall be holy to the LORD for the priest. And you 21 shall proclaim on this very same day, that it may be a holy gathering to you: you shall do no servile work: it shall be a statute for ever in all your dwellings throughout your generations. And when you reap the harvest of your land, thou shalt 22 not altogether remove the corners of thy field when thou reapest, nor shalt thou gather any gleaning of thy harvest: thou shalt leave them to the poor, and to the stranger: I am the LORD your GOD.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Speak to the children 23, 24 of Yisra'el, saying, In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, shall you have a sabbath, a memorial of blowing of horns, a holy gathering. You shall do no servile work: but 25 you shall offer an offering made by fire to the LORD. And 26 the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Also on the tenth day of this 27 seventh month there shall be a day of atonement: it shall be a holy gathering to you; and you shall afflict your souls, and offer an offering made by fire to the LORD. And you shall do no 28 work on that very same day: for it is a day of atonement, to make atonement for you before the LORD your GOD. For whatever person shall not be afflicted on that same day, he shall be 29 cut off from his people. And whatever person does any work 30 on that same day, the same person will I destroy from among his people. You shall do no manner of work: it shall be a statute 31 for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings. It 32 shall be to you a sabbath of solemn rest, and you shall afflict your souls: on the ninth day of the month at evening, from evening to evening shall you celebrate your sabbath.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Speak to the children of 33, 34
Yisra'el, saying, The fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be the feast of booths for seven days to the LORD. On the 35 first day shall be a holy gathering: you shall do no servile work. Seven days you shall offer an offering made by fire to 36 the LORD: on the eighth day shall be a holy gathering to you; and you shall offer an offering made by fire to the LORD; it is a solemn assembly; and you shall do no servile work. These 37 day the fruit of the tree hadar, branches of palm trees, and the boughs of thick leaved trees, and willows of the brook; and you shall rejoice before the LORD your GOD seven days. And you shall 41 statute for ever in your generations: you shall celebrate it in the seventh month. You shall dwell in booths seven days; all 42 that are home born in Yisra'el shall dwell in booths: that your 43 generations may know that I made the children of Yisra'el to dwell in booths, when I brought them out of the land of Miẓrayim: I am the LORD your GOD. And Moshe declared to the 44 children of Yisra'el the appointed seasons of the LORD.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Command the children 24 of Yisra'el, that they bring to thee pure oil olive beaten for the light, to cause the lamps to burn continually. Outside the veil 3 of the Testimony, in the Tent of Meeting, shall Aharon order it from evening unto morning before the LORD continually: it shall be a statute for ever in your generations. He shall order 4 the lamps upon the pure candlestick, before the LORD continually.

And thou shalt take fine flour, and bake of it twelve cakes: 5 two tenth measures shall be in one cake. And thou shalt set them 6 in two rows, six on a row, upon the pure table before the LORD. And thou shalt put pure frankincense upon each row, 7 that it may be on the bread for a memorial, an offering made by fire to the LORD. Every sabbath he shall set it in order 8 before the LORD continually, an everlasting covenant from the children of Yisra'el. And it shall be Aharon's and his sons'; 9 and they shall eat it in the holy place: for it is most holy to him of the offerings of the LORD made by fire by a perpetual due. And the son of a Yisra'elite woman, whose father was 10 a Miẓrian man, went out among the children of Yisra'el: and this son of the Yisra'elite woman and a man of Yisra'el strove together in the camp; and the Yisra'elite woman's son blasphemed 11 the name of the LORD, and cursed. And they brought him to Moshe: (and his mother's name was Shelomit, the daughter of Divri, of the tribe of Dan:) and they put him in custody, that 12 the mind of the LORD might be shown them.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Bring forth him that has 13, 14 cursed outside the camp; and let all that heard him lay their hands upon his head, and let all the congregation stone him.
And thou shalt speak to the children of Yisra'el, saying, Who- 15 ever curses his GOD shall bear his sin. And he who blasphemes 16 the name of the LORD, shall surely be put to death, and all the congregation shall certainly stone him: both the stranger, and he that is born in the land, when he blasphemes the name of the LORD, shall be put to death. And he that kills any man shall 17 surely be put to death. And he that kills a beast shall make it 18 good; beast for beast. And if a man maim his neighbour; as 19 he has done, so shall it be done to him; breach for breach, eye 20 for eye, tooth for tooth: as he has maimed a man, so shall it be done to him. And he that kills a beast, he shall restore it: 21 and he that kills a man, he shall be put to death. You shall have 22 one manner of law, as well for the stranger, as for one of your own country: for I am the LORD your GOD. And Moshe spoke 23 to the children of Yisra'el, and they brought him that had cursed out of the camp, and stoned him with stones. And the children of Yisra'el did as the LORD commanded Moshe.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe in mount Sinay, saying, 1 Speak to the children of Yisra'el, and say to them, When you 2 come to the land which I give you, then shall the land keep a sabbath to the LORD. Six years thou shalt sow thy field, and 3 six years thou shalt prune thy vineyard, and gather in its fruit; but in the seventh year shall be a sabbath of solemn rest for 4 the land, a sabbath for the LORD: thou shalt neither sow thy field, nor prune thy vineyard. That which grows of its own 5 accord of thy harvest thou shalt not reap, nor gather the grapes of thy undressed vine: for it shall be a year of rest for the land. And the sabbath produce of the land shall be food for 6 you; for thee, and for thy servant, and for thy maid, and for thy hired servant, and for thy stranger that sojourns with thee, and for thy cattle, and for the beast in thy land, shall all its 7 increase be food. And thou shalt number seven sabbaths 8 of years to thee, seven times seven years; and the space of the seven sabbaths of years shall be to thee forty nine years. Then 9 shalt thou cause the shofar to sound on the tenth day of the seventh month, on the day of atonement shall you sound the shofar throughout all your land. And you shall hallow the fiftieth 10 year, and proclaim liberty throughout all the land to all its inhabitants: it shall be a jubilee for you; and you shall return every man to his possession, and you shall return every man to his family. A jubilee shall that fiftieth year be to you: you shall 11 not sow, neither reap that which grows of itself in it, nor gather in it the grapes of thy undressed vine. For it is the jubilee; it 12 shall be holy to you: you shall eat its increase out of the field.
In the year of this jubilee you shall return every man to his 13 possession. And if thou sell aught to thy neighbour, or buy 14 aught of thy neighbour's hand, you shall not defraud one another: according to the number of years after the jubilee 15 thou shalt buy of thy neighbour, and according to the number of years of the fruits he shall sell to thee: according to the 16 multitude of years thou shalt increase its price, and according to the fewness of years thou shalt diminish the price of it: for what he sells thee is a number of years of produce. You 17 shall not therefore defraud one another; but thou shalt fear thy GOD: for I am the LORD your GOD. And you shall do my sta- 18 tutes, and keep my judgments, and do them; and you shall dwell in the land in safety. And the land shall yield her fruit, 19 and you shall eat your fill, and dwell therein in safety. And if 20 you shall say, What shall we eat in the seventh year? behold, we shall not sow, nor gather in our increase: then I will com- 21 mand my blessing upon you in the sixth year, and it shall bring forth fruit for three years. And you shall sow the eighth year, 22 and eat yet of old fruit until the ninth year; until her fruits come in, you shall eat of the old store. The land shall not be 23 sold for ever: for the land is mine; for you are strangers and sojourners with me. And in all the land of your possession you 24 shall grant a redemption for the land. If thy brother be- 25 come poor, and has sold away some of his possession, then shall his near kinsman come to redeem it, and shall redeem that which his brother sold. And if the man have none to re- 26 deem it, and himself be able to redeem it; then let him count 27 the years of the sale of it, and restore the overplus to the man to whom he sold it; that he may return to his possession.

But if his means do not suffice to regain it, then that which is 28 sold shall remain in the hand of him who has bought it until the year of jubilee: and in the jubilee it shall go out, and he shall return to his possession. And if a man sell a dwelling 29 house in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it is sold; within a full year may he redeem it. And 30 if it be not redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city shall become the permanent property of him that bought it throughout his generations: it shall not go out in the jubilee. But the houses of the villages which 31 have no wall round about them shall be counted as the fields of the country: they may be redeemed, and they shall go out in the jubilee. But the cities of the Levites, and the houses of the 32 cities of their possession, may the Levites redeem at any time.
And if a man purchase of the Levites, then the house that was 33 sold, and the city of his possession, shall go out in the year of jubilee: for the houses of the cities of the Levites are their possession among the children of Yisra'el. But the field of the pas- 34 ture lands of their cities may not be sold; for it is their perpetual possession. And if thy brother grow poor, and his means 35 fail with thee; then thou shalt relieve him: though he be a stranger, or a sojourner; that he may live with thee. Take thou 36 no usury of him, or increase: but fear thy GOD; that thy brother may live with thee. Thou shalt not give him thy money upon 37 usury, nor lend him thy foodstuffs for increase. I am the LORD 38 your GOD, who brought you out of the land of Mizrayim, to give you the land of Kena'an, and to be your GOD. And if thy 39 brother who dwells by thee be grown poor, and be sold to thee; thou shalt not compel him to serve as a bondservant: but as 40 a hired servant, and as a sojourner, he shall be with thee, and shall serve thee until the year of jubilee: and then shall he de- 41 part from thee, both he and his children with him, and shall return to his own family, and to the possession of his fathers shall he return. For they are my servants, whom I brought out 42 of the land of Mizrayim: they shall not be sold as bondmen.
Thou shalt not rule over him with rigour; but shalt fear thy 43
GOD. Both thy bondmen, and thy bondmaids, whom thou shalt 44 have, shall be of the nations that are round about you; of them may you buy bondmen and bondmaids. Moreover of the children 45 of the strangers that do sojourn among you, of them shall you buy, and of their families that are with you, whom they have begotten in your land: and they shall be your possession. And you 46 shall take them as an inheritance for your children after you, to inherit them for a possession; they shall be your bondmen for ever: but over your brethren the children of Yisra'el, you shall not rule one over another with rigour. And if a sojourner 47 or stranger grow rich by thee, and thy brother that dwells by him grows poor, and sell himself to the stranger or sojourner by thee, or to the offspring of a stranger's family: after he is 48 sold he may be redeemed again; one of his brethren may redeem him: either his uncle, or his uncle's son, may redeem him, 49 or any that is near of kin to him of his family may redeem him; or if his means suffice, he may redeem himself. And he shall 50 reckon with him who bought him from the year that he was sold to him to the year of jubilee: and the price of his sale shall be according to the number of years, according to the time of a hired servant shall it be with him. If there are yet many years, 51 according to them he shall restore the price of his redemption out of the money that he was bought for. And if there re- 52 main but few years until the year of jubilee, then he shall count with him, and according to his years shall he restore the price of his redemption. As a yearly hired servant shall 53 he be with him: and the other shall not rule with rigour over him in thy sight. And if he be not redeemed in these years, then 54 he shall go out in the year of jubilee, both he, and his children with him. For to me the children of Yisra'el are servants; they 55 are my servants whom I brought forth out of the land of Miẓrayim: I am the LORD your GOD. You shall make no idols, 26 nor shall you erect a carved idol, or a pillar, nor shall you install a figured stone in your land, to bow down upon it: for I am the LORD your GOD. You shall keep my sabbaths, and reverence my 2 sanctuary, I am the LORD.

BEḤUQQOTAY If you walk in my statutes, and keep my commandments, and 3 do them; then I will give you rain in due season, and the land 4 shall yield its increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit. And your threshing shall reach to the vintage, and the 5 vintage shall reach to the sowing time: and you shall eat your bread to the full, and dwell in your land safely. And I will give 6 peace in the land, and you shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid: and I will remove evil beasts out of the land, neither shall the sword go through your land. And you shall chase your 7 enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword. And five 8 of you shall chase a hundred, and a hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight: and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword. For I will turn myself to you, and make you fruit- 9 ful, and multiply you, and establish my covenant with you. And 10 you shall eat old store, and remove the old because of the new.
And I will set my tabernacle among you: and my soul shall not 11 abhor you. And I will walk among you, and will be your GOD, 12 and you shall be my people. I am the LORD your GOD, who 13 brought you out of the land of Miẓrayim, that you should not be their bondmen; and I have broken the bars of your yoke, and made you walk upright.
But if you will not hearken to me, and will not do all these 14 commands: and if you shall despise my statutes, or if your 15 soul abhor my judgments, so that you will not do all my commandments, but that you break my covenant: I also will do this 16 to you; I will even appoint over you terror, consumption, and fever, that shall consume the eyes, and cause sorrow of heart: and you shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it. And I will set my face against you, and you shall be slain 17 before your enemies: they that hate you shall reign over you; and you shall flee when none pursues you. And if you will not 18 yet for all this hearken to me, then I will punish you seven times more for your sins. And I will break the pride of your power; 19 and I will make your skies like iron, and your earth like brass:

and your strength shall be spent in vain: for your land shall 20 to your sins. I will also send wild beasts among you, which shall 22 rob you of your children, and destroy your cattle, and make you will not be admonished by me as a result of these things, but will walk contrary to me; then will I also walk contrary to you, 24 and will punish you yet seven times for your sins. And I will 25 hand of the enemy. And when I have broken the staff of your 26 casses of your idols, and my soul shall abhor you. And I will 31 make your cities waste, and bring your sanctuaries to desolation, and I will not smell the savour of your sweet odours. And I will 32 bring the land into desolation: and your enemies who dwell in it shall be astonished at it. And I will scatter you among the 33 heathen, and will draw out a sword after you: and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste. Then shall the land 34 enjoy her sabbaths, as long as it lies desolate, and you are in enant with Yiẓḥaq, and also my covenant with Avraham will I remember; and I will remember the land. The land also shall 43 be forsaken by them, and shall enjoy her sabbaths, while she lies desolate without them: and they shall make amends for their iniquity: because, even because they despised my judgments, and because their soul abhorred my statutes. And yet for 44 all that, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not cast them away, nor will I abhor them, to destroy them utterly, and to break my covenant with them: for I am the LORD their GOD. But I will for their sakes remember the covenant of 45 their ancestors, whom I brought out of the land of Miẓrayim in the sight of the nations, that I might be their GOD: I am the LORD. These are the statutes and the judgments and the 46 Torot, which the LORD made between him and the children of Yisra'el in mount Sinay by the hand of Moshe.

27

And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Speak to the children 1, 2 of Yisra'el, and say to them, If a man make a singular vow, to give to the LORD the estimated value of persons, then the 3 estimation shall be of the male from twenty years old even to sixty years old, the estimation shall be fifty shekels of silver, according to the shekel of the sanctuary. And if it be a female, 4 then the estimation shall be thirty shekels. And if it be from 5 five years old to twenty years old, then the estimation shall be of the male twenty shekels, and for the female ten shekels. And 6 if it be from a month old to five years old, then the estimation shall be of the male five shekels of silver, and for the female the estimation shall be three shekels of silver. And if it be from 7 sixty years old and above; if it be a male, then the estimation shall be fifteen shekels, and for the female ten shekels. But 8 if he be too poor for the estimated value, then he shall present himself before the priest, and the priest shall value him; according to the ability of him that vowed shall the priest value him. And if it be a beast, of which men bring an offering 9 to the LORD, all that any man gives of such to the LORD shall be holy. He shall not alter it, nor change it, a good for a bad, or 10 a bad for a good: and if he shall at all change beast for beast, then it and its substitute shall be holy. And if it be any unclean 11 beast, of which they do not offer a sacrifice to the LORD, then he shall present the beast before the priest: and the priest shall 12 value it, whether it be good or bad: as the priest values it, so shall it be. But if he will at all redeem it, then he shall add a fifth 13 part thereof to the estimation. And when a man shall sanctify 14 his house to be dedicated to the LORD, then the priest shall estimate it, whether it be good or bad: as the priest shall estimate it, so shall it stand. And if he that sanctified it will redeem his 15 house, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of the estimation to it, and it shall be his. And if a man shall dedicate to 16 the LORD some part of a field of his possession, then the estimation shall be according to the seed required for it, a ḥomer of barley seed shall be valued at fifty shekels of silver. If he ded- 17 icate his field from the year of jubilee, according to the estimation it shall stand. But if he dedicate his field after the jubilee, 18 then the priest shall reckon to him the money according to the years that remain, even to the year of the jubilee, and it shall be abated from the estimation. And if he that sanctified the field 19 will redeem it, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of the estimation to it, and it shall become his property. And if 20 he will not redeem the field, or if he have sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed any more. But the field, 21 when it goes out in the jubilee, shall be holy to the LORD, as a field devoted; the possession of it shall be the priest's. And if 22 a man dedicate to the LORD a field which he has bought, which is not of the fields of his possession; then the priest shall reckon 23 to him the worth of the estimation, to the year of the jubilee, and he shall give the estimation in that day, as a holy thing to the LORD. In the year of the jubilee the field shall return to 24 him of whom it was bought, to him to whom the possession of the land did belong. And all estimations shall be according 25 to the shekel of the sanctuary: twenty gera shall be the shekel. Only the firstling of the beasts, which should be the LORD'S 26 firstling, no man shall dedicate that; whether it be ox, or sheep: it is the LORD'S. And if it be of an unclean beast, then he shall 27 redeem it according to the estimation, and shall add to it a fifth part of it: or if it be not redeemed, then it shall be sold according to the estimation. Notwithstanding no devoted thing, that 28 a man shall devote to the LORD of all that he has, both of man and beast, and of the field of his possession, shall be sold or redeemed: every devoted thing is most holy to the LORD. None 29 devoted of men, which shall be doomed to death, shall be redeemed; but shall surely be put to death. And all the tithe of 30 the land, whether of the seed of the land, or of the fruit of the tree, is the LORD'S: it is holy to the LORD. And if a man will at 31 all redeem of his tithes, he shall add to it the fifth part of it. And concerning the tithe of the herd, or of the flock, of what- 32 ever passes under the rod, the tenth shall be holy to the LORD. He shall not search whether it be good or bad, neither shall he 33 change it: and if he change it at all, then both it and its substitute shall be holy; it shall not be redeemed. These are the 34 commandments, which the LORD commanded Moshe for the children of Yisra'el in mount Sinay.

AND the LORD spoke to Moshe in the wilderness of Sinay, 1 in the Tent of Meeting, on the first day of the second month, in the second year after they were come out of the land of Mizrayim, saying, Take the sum of all the congre- 2 gation of the children of Yisra'el, after their families, by the houses of their fathers, by the number of names, every male by their polls; from twenty years old and upward, all that are able 3 to go forth to war in Yisra'el: thou and Aharon shall number them by their hosts. And with you there shall be a man of every 4 tribe; every one head of the house of his fathers. And these 5 are the names of the men that shall stand with you: of the tribe of Re'uven; Elizur the son of Shede'ur. Of Shim'on; Shelumi'el 6 the son of Zurishadday. Of Yehuda; Nahshon the son of 'Ammi- 7 nadav. Of Yissakhar; Netan'el the son of Zu'ar. Of Zevulun; 8, 9 Eli'av the son of Helon. Of the children of Yosef: of Efrayim; 10 Elishama the son of 'Ammihud: of Menashshe, Gamli'el the son of Pedazur. Of Binyamin; Avidan the son of Gid'oni. Of 11, 12 the son of 'Okhran. Of Gad; Elyasaf the son of De'u'el, Of 14, 15 Naftali, Ahira the son of 'Enan. These were the men of mark 16 in the congregation, princes of the tribes of their fathers, heads of thousands in Yisra'el. And Moshe and Aharon took these men 17 who were pointed out by their names: and they assembled all 18 the congregation together on the first day of the second month, and they declared their pedigrees after their families, by the houses of their fathers, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, by their polls. As the LORD com- 19 manded Moshe, so he numbered them in the wilderness of Sinay. And the children of Re'uven, Yisra'el's oldest son, 20 their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of names, by their polls, every male from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war; those that were numbered of them, of the tribe 21 of Re'uven, were forty six thousand, five hundred.

Of the children of Shim'on, their generations, after their families, 22 by the house of their fathers, those that were numbered of them, according to the number of names, by their polls, every male from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war; those that were numbered of them, of the tribe of 23 Shim'on, were fifty nine thousand, three hundred.
Of the children of Gad, their generations, after their families, 24
by the house of their fathers, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war; those that were numbered of them, of the tribe of Gad, 25 were forty five thousand, six hundred and fifty.

by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war; those that were numbered of them, of the tribe 27 of Yehuda, were seventy four thousand, six hundred.
Of the children of Yissakhar, their generations, after their fami- 28 lies, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of

of Yissakhar, were fifty four thousand, four hundred.
Of the children of Zevulun, their generations, after their families, 30
by the house of their fathers, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth

ing to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war; those that were numbered 33 of them, of the tribe of Efrayim, were forty thousand, five hundred.
Of the children of Menashshe, their generations, after their fami- 34 of Menashshe, were thirty two thousand, two hundred.

Of the children of Binyamin, their generations, after their fami- 36 lies, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war; those that were numbered of them, of the tribe 37 of Binyamin, were thirty five thousand, four hundred.
Of the children of Dan, their generations, after their families, 38
by the house of their fathers, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war; those that were numbered of them, of the tribe of Dan, 39 were sixty two thousand, seven hundred.
Of the children of Asher, their generations, after their families, 40

Of the children of Naftali, their generations, after their families, 42
by the house of their fathers, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth were fifty three thousand, four hundred.

These are those that were numbered, whom Moshe and Aharon 44 numbered, and the princes of Yisra'el, being twelve men: each one represented the house of his fathers. So were all those that 45 were numbered of the children of Yisra'el, by the house of their fathers, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war in Yisra'el; all they that were numbered were six 46 hundred and three thousand, five hundred and fifty. But the 47 Levites after the tribe of their fathers were not numbered among them.
For the LORD had spoken to Moshe, saying, Only thou shalt not 48, 49 number the tribe of Levi, nor take the sum of them among the children of Yisra'el: but thou shalt appoint the Levites over 50 the tabernacle of testimony, and over all its vessels, and over all things that belong to it: they shall bear the tabernacle, and all its vessels; and they shall minister to it, and shall encamp round about the tabernacle. And when the tabernacle sets forward, the Levites shall take it down: and when the tabernacle is to be pitched, the Levites shall set it up: and the stranger that comes near shall be put to death. And the children of Yisra'el shall pitch their tents, every man by his own camp, and every man by his own standard, throughout their hosts. But the Levites shall pitch round about the tabernacle of testimony, that there be no wrath upon the congregation of the children of Yisra'el: and the Levites shall keep the charge of the tabernacle of testimony. And the children of Yisra'el did according to all that the LORD commanded Moshe, so they did.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe and to Aharon, saying, Every man of the children of Yisra'el shall pitch by his own standard, with the ensigns of their father's house: far off about the Tent of Meeting shall they pitch. And on the east side toward the rising of the sun shall they of the standard of the camp of Yehuda pitch by their hosts: and Naḥshon the son of 'Amminadav shall be captain of the children of Yehuda. And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were seventy four thousand, six hundred. And those that pitch next to him shall be the tribe of Yissakhar: and Netan'el the son of Ẓu'ar shall be captain of the children of Yissakhar. And his host, and those that were numbered thereof, were fifty four thousand, four hundred. Then the tribe of Zevulun: and Eli'av the son of Ḥelon shall be captain of the children of Zevulun. And his host, and those that were numbered of it, were fifty seven thousand, four hundred. All that were numbered in the camp of Yehuda were a hundred and eighty six thousand, four hundred, by their hosts. These shall first set forth. On the south side shall be the standard of the camp of Re'uven by their hosts: and the captain of the children of Re'uven shall be Elizur the son of Shede'ur. And his host, and those that were numbered of it, were forty six thousand, five hundred. And those who pitch by him shall be the tribe of Shim'on: and the captain of the children of Shim'on shall be Shelumi'el the son of Ẓurishadday. And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were fifty nine thousand, three hundred. Then the tribe of Gad: and the captain of the sons of Gad shall be Elyasaf the son of Re'u'el. And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were forty five thousand, six hundred and fifty. All that were numbered in the camp of Re'uven were a hundred and fifty one thousand, four hundred and fifty, by their hosts. And they shall set forth in the second rank. Then the Tent of Meeting shall set forward with the camp of the Levites in the midst of the camps: as they encamp, so shall they set forward, every man in his place by their standards. On the west side shall be the standard of the camp of Efrayim by their hosts: and the captain of the sons of Efrayim shall be Elishama the son of 'Ammihud. And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were forty thousand, five hundred. And by him shall be the tribe of Menashshe: and the captain of the children of Menashshe shall be Gamli'el the son of Pedaẓur. And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were thirty two thousand, two hundred. Then the tribe of Binyamin: and the captain of the sons of Binyamin shall be Avidan the son of Gid'oni. And his host, and those that 23 were numbered of them, were thirty five thousand, four hundred.

All that were numbered of the camp of Efrayim were a hundred 24 and eight thousand and one hundred, by their hosts. And they shall go forward in the third rank. The standard of the 25 camp of Dan shall be on the north side by their hosts: and the captain of the children of Dan shall be Ahie'zer the son of 'Ammishadday. And his host, and those that were numbered of 26 them, were sixty two thousand, seven hundred. And those that 27 encamp by him shall be the tribe of Asher: and the captain of the children of Asher shall be Pag'i'el the son of 'Okhran. And 28 his host, and those that were numbered of them, were forty one thousand, five hundred. Then the tribe of Naftali: and the 29 captain of the children of Naftali shall be Ahira the son of 'Enan.
And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were fifty 30 three thousand, four hundred. All they that were numbered in 31 the camp of Dan were a hundred and fifty seven thousand, six hundred. They shall go hindmost with their standards.

These are those who were numbered of the children of Yisra'el 32 by the houses of their fathers: all those that were numbered of the camps by their hosts were six hundred and three thousand, five hundred and fifty. But the Levites were not numbered among 33 the children of Yisra'el; as the LORD commanded Moshe. And 34 the children of Yisra'el did according to all that the LORD commanded Moshe: so they pitched by their standards, and so they set forward, everyone after their families, according to the houses of their fathers.

These also are the generations of Aharon and Moshe in the 3 day that the LORD spoke with Moshe in mount Sinay. And these 2 are the names of the sons of Aharon; Nadav the firstborn, and Avihu, El'azar and Itamar. There are the names of the sons of 3 Aharon, the priests who were anointed, whom he consecrated to minister in the priest's office. And Nadav and Avihu died 4 before the LORD, when they offered strange fire before the LORD, in the wilderness of Sinay, and they had no children: and El'azar and Itamar ministered in the priest's office in the sight of Aharon their father.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe saying, Bring the tribe of Levi 5, 6 near, and present them before Aharon the priest, that they may minister to him. And they shall keep his charge, and the charge 7 of the whole congregation before the Tent of Meeting, to do the service of the tabernacle. And they shall keep all the instruments 8 of the Tent of Meeting, and the charge of the children of Yisra'el to do the service of the tabernacle. And thou shalt give the 9 Levites to Aharon and to his sons: they are wholly given to him out of the children of Yisra'el. And thou shalt appoint 10 Aharon and his sons, and they shall keep their priest's office:
and the stranger that comes near shall be put to death.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, And I, behold, I have 11, 12 taken the Levites from among the children of Yisra'el instead of all the firstborn that opens the womb among the children of Yisra'el: therefore the Levites shall be mine; because all the 13 firstborn are mine; for on the day that I smote all the firstborn in the land of Miẓrayim I hallowed to me all the firstborn in Yisra'el, both man and beast: mine shall they be: I am the LORD.

14 And the LORD spoke to Moshe in the wilderness of Sinay, saying, 15 Number the children of Levi after the house of their fathers, by their families: every male from a month old and upward shalt thou number them.
16 And Moshe numbered them according to the word of the LORD, as he was commanded.
17 And these were the sons of Levi by their names; Gershon, and Qehat, and Merari.
18 And these are the names of the sons of Gershon by their families; Livni, and Shim'i.
19 And the sons of Qehat by their families; 'Amram, and Yiẓhar, Ḥevron, and 'Uzzi'el.
20 And the sons of Merari by their families; Maḥli, and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to the house of their fathers.
21 Of Gershon was the family of the Livni, and the family of the Shim'i: these are the families of the Gershoni.
22 Those that were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, even those that were numbered of them were seven thousand five hundred.
23 The families of the Gershoni shall pitch behind the tabernacle westward.
24 And the chief of the house of the father of the Gershoni shall be Elyasaf the son of La'el.
25 And the charge of the sons of Gershon in the Tent of Meeting shall be the tabernacle, and the tent, its covering, and the screen for the door of the Tent of Meeting, 26 and the hangings of the court, and the screen for the door of the court, which is by the tabernacle, and by the altar round about, and the cords of it for all its service.
27 And of Qehat was the family of the 'Amrami, and the family of the Yiẓhari, and the family of the Ḥevroni, and the family of the 'Uzzi'eli: these are the families of the Qehati.
28 In the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, were eight thousand, six hundred, keeping the charge of the sanctuary.
29 The families of the sons of Qehat shall pitch on the side of the tabernacle southward.
30 And the chief of the house of the father of the families of the Qehati shall be Eliẓafan, the son of 'Uzzi'el.
31 And their charge shall be the ark, and the table, and the candlestick, and the altars, and the vessels of the sanctuary with which they minister, and the screen, and all its service.
32 And El'azar the son of Aharon the priest shall be chief over the chiefs of the Levites, and have the oversight of them that keep the charge of the sanctuary.
33 Of Merari was the family of the Maḥli, and the family of the Mushi: these are the families of Merari.
34 And those that were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, were six thousand two hundred.
35 And the chief of the house of the father of the families of Merari was Ẓuri'el the son of Aviḥayil: these shall pitch on the side of the tabernacle northward.
36 And under the custody and charge of the sons of Merari shall be the boards of the tabernacle, and its bars, and its pillars, and its sockets, and all its vessels, and all that belongs to it.
37 And the pillars of the court round about, and their sockets, and their pegs, and their cords.
38 But those that encamp before the tabernacle toward the east, to Moshe, Number all the firstborn of the males of the children of Yisra'el from a month old and upward, and take the number of their names. And thou shalt take the Levites for me (I am 41 the LORD) instead of all the firstborn among the children of Yisra'el; and the cattle of the Levites instead of all the firstlings among the cattle of the children of Yisra'el. And Moshe 42 numbered, as the LORD commanded him, all the firstborn among the children of Yisra'el. And all the firstborn males by the number of names, from a month old and upward, of those that were 43 numbered of them, were twenty two thousand, two hundred and seventy three.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Take the Levites instead 44, 45 of all the firstborn among the children of Yisra'el, and the cattle of the Levites instead of their cattle; and the Levites shall be mine: I am the LORD. And for those that are to be redeemed 46 of the two hundred and seventy three of the firstborn of the children of Yisra'el who are more than the Levites: thou shalt 47 take five shekels for every man, after the shekel of the sanctuary shalt thou take them: (the shekel is twenty gera:) and thou 48 shalt give the money, with which the surplus of them is to be redeemed, to Aharon and to his sons. And Moshe took the redemption money of those who were over and above those who were 49 redeemed by the Levites: of the firstborn of the children of 50 Yisra'el he took the money; a thousand three hundred and sixty five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary: and Moshe 51 gave the money of those who were redeemed to Aharon and to his sons, according to the word of the LORD, as the LORD had commanded Moshe.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe and to Aharon, saying, Take 1, 2 the sum of the sons of Qehat from among the sons of Levi, after their families, by the house of their fathers, from thirty years 3 old and upward until fifty years old, all that enter into the host, to do the work in the Tent of Meeting. This shall be the service 4 of the sons of Qehat in the Tent of Meeting, namely, the most holy things: and when the camp sets forward, Aharon shall 5 come, and his sons, and they shall take down the veil of the screen, and cover the ark of testimony with it: and they shall put 6 on it the covering of taḥash skins, and shall spread over it a cloth wholly of blue, and shall put in its poles. And upon the 7 table of showbread they shall spread a cloth of blue, and put on it the dishes, and the spoons, and the bowls, and the jars for pouring out: and the continual bread shall be on it: and they 8 shall spread upon them a cloth of scarlet, and cover the same with a covering of taḥash skins, and shall put in its poles. And they shall take a cloth of blue, and cover the candlestick 9 of the light, and its lamps, and its tongs, and its pans, and shall put it and all its vessels within a covering of taḥash skins, and shall put it upon a bar. And upon the golden altar they 11 shall spread a cloth of blue, and cover it with a covering of taḥash skins, and shall put in its poles. And they shall take all 12 the instruments of ministry, with which they minister in the sanctuary, and put them in a cloth of blue, and cover them with a covering of taḥash skins, and shall put them on a bar: and 13 they shall take away the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth on it: and they shall put upon it all its vessels with 14 which they minister about it, the pans, the forks, and the shovels, and the basins, all the vessels of the altar; and they shall spread upon it a covering of taḥash skins, and put in its poles. And when Aharon and his sons have made an end 15 of covering the sanctuary, and all the vessels of the sanctuary, as the camp is to set forward; after that, the sons of Qehat shall come to bear it: but they shall not touch any holy thing, lest they die. These things are the burden of the sons of Qehat in the Tent of Meeting. And to the office of El'azar the son of 16 Aharon the priest pertains the oil for the light, and the sweet incense, and the daily meal offering, and the anointing oil, and the oversight of all the tabernacle, and of all that is in it, as to the sanctuary, and as to its vessels.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe and to Aharon, saying, Do not cut 17, 18 off the tribe of the families of the Qehati from among the Levites: but thus do to them, that they may live, and not die, 19 when they approach the most holy things: Aharon and his sons shall go in, and appoint them every one to his service and to his burden: but they shall not go in to see when the holy things are 20 covered, lest they die.

NASO And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Take also the sum of the 21, 22 sons of Gershon, by the houses of their fathers, by their families; from thirty years old and upward until fifty years old shalt 23 thou number them; all that enter in to perform the service, to do the work in the Tent of Meeting. This is the service of the 24 families of the Gershoni, both for serving and for carrying:
and they shall bear the curtains of the tabernacle, and the Tent 25 of Meeting, its covering, and the covering of the taḥash skins that is above upon it, and the screen for the door of the Tent of Meeting, and the hangings of the court, and the screen for 26 the door of the gate of the court, which is by the tabernacle and by the altar round about, and their cords, and all the instruments of their service, and all that is made for them: so shall they serve. By the order of Aharon and his sons shall be 27 all the service of the sons of the Gershoni, in all their burdens, and in all their service: and you shall appoint to them in charge all their burden. This is the service of the families of the sons 28 of Gershon in the Tent of Meeting: and their charge shall be under the hand of Itamar the son of Aharon the priest. As 29 for the sons of Merari, thou shalt number them after their families, by the house of their fathers; from thirty years old and 30 upward to fifty years old shalt thou number them, everyone that enters into the service, to do the work of the Tent of Meeting.

And this is the charge of their burden, according to all their 31 its bars, and its pillars, and its sockets, and the pillars of the 32 court round about, and their sockets, and their pegs, and their cords, with all their instruments, and with all their service: and by name you shall reckon the instruments of the charge of their burden. This is the service of the families of the sons of 33 Merari, according to all their service, in the Tent of Meeting, under the hand of Itamar the son of Aharon the priest. And 34 Moshe and Aharon and the chiefs of the congregation numbered the sons of the Qehati after their families, and after the house of their fathers, from thirty years old and upward to fifty years 35 years old, everyone that enters into the service, for work in the Tent of Meeting: and those that were numbered of them by 36 their families were two thousand seven hundred and fifty. These 37 were they that were numbered of the families of the Qehati, all that might do service in the Tent of Meeting, whom Moshe and Aharon did number according to the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moshe. And those that were numbered of 38 the sons of Gershon, throughout their families, and by the house of their fathers, from thirty years old and upward to fifty years 39 old, everyone that enters into the service, for work in the Tent of Meeting, even those that were numbered of them, by their 40 families, by the house of their fathers, were two thousand, six hundred and thirty. These are they that were numbered of the 41 families of the sons of Gershon, of all that might do service in the Tent of Meeting, whom Moshe and Aharon did number according to the commandment of the LORD. And those that were 42 numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, by their families, by the house of their fathers, from thirty years old and upward 43 in the Tent of Meeting, even those that were numbered of them 44

bered of the Levites, whom Moshe and Aharon and the chiefs of Yisra'el numbered, after their families, and after the house of their fathers, from thirty years old and upward to fifty years 47 old, everyone that came to do the service of the ministry, and the service of carrying in the Tent of Meeting. Those that 48 were numbered of them, were eight thousand, five hundred and eighty. According to the commandment of the LORD they were 49 numbered by the hand of Moshe, everyone according to his service, and according to his burden: thus were they numbered, as the LORD commanded Moshe.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Command the children of 1,2 Yisra'el, that they put out of the camp everyone with ẓara'at, and everyone that has an issue, and whoever is defiled by the dead: both male and female shall you put out, outside the camp 3 shall you put them; that they defile not their camps, in the midst of which I dwell. And the children of Yisra'el did so, and put 4 them out outside the camp: as the LORD spoke to Moshe, so did the children of Yisra'el.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Speak to the children of 5,6 Yisra'el, When a man or woman shall commit any sin that men commit, to do a trespass against the LORD, and that person be guilty; then they shall confess their sin which they have done: 7 and he shall make restitution for his trespass in full, and add to it its fifth part, and give it to him against whom he has trespassed. But if the man have no kinsman to whom restitution 8 may be made for the trespass, let the trespass which is recompensed to the LORD, be the priest's; beside the ram of the atonement, whereby atonement shall be made for him. And every 9 offering of all the holy things of the children of Yisra'el, which they bring to the priest, shall be his. And every man's hallowed 10 things shall be his: whatever any man gives the priest, it shall be his.

And the LORD sopke to Moshe, saying, Speak to the children of 11,12
Yisra'el, and say to them, If any man's wife go aside, and commit a trespass against him, and a man lie with her carnally, and 13 it be hid from the eyes of her husband, and she be undetected, and she be defiled, and there is no witness against her, nor is she taken in the act; and the spirit of jealousy come upon him, 14 and he be jealous of his wife, and she be defiled: or if the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be not defiled: then shall the man bring his wife to the 15 priest, and he shall bring her offering for her, the tenth part of an efa of barley meal; he shall pour no oil upon it, nor put frankincense on it; for it is an offering of jealousy, an offering of memorial, bringing iniquity to remembrance. And the priest 16 shall bring her near, and set her before the LORD: and the priest 17 shall take holy water in an earthen vessel; and of the dust that is on the floor of the tabernacle shall the priest take, and put it into the water: and the priest shall set the woman before the 18 LORD, and loosen the hair of the woman's head, and put the offering of memorial in her hands, which is the meal offering of jealousy: and the priest shall have in his hand the bitter water that causes the curse: and the priest shall charge her by an 19 oath, and say to the woman, If no man have lain with thee, and if thou hast not gone aside to uncleanness with another instead of thy husband, be thou free from this bitter water that causes the curse: but if thou hast gone aside to another instead of thy 20 husband, and if thou be defiled, and some man have lain with thee other than thy husband: then the priest shall charge the 21 woman with an oath of cursing, and the priest shall say to the woman, The LORD make thee a curse and an oath among thy people, when the LORD makes thy thigh to fall away, and thy belly to swell; and this water that causes the curse shall go into 22 thy bowels, to make thy belly to swell, and thy thigh to fall away: And the woman shall say, Amen, amen. And the priest 23 shall write these curses in a book, and he shall blot them out woman's hand, and shall wave the offering before the LORD, and offer it upon the altar: and the priest shall take a handful of the 26 offering, the memorial part of it, and burn it on the altar, and afterward shall cause the woman to drink the water. And when 27 he has made her drink the water, then it shall come to pass, that, if she be defiled, and have done trespass against her husband, that the water that causes the curse shall enter into her, and become bitter, and her belly shall swell, and her thigh shall fall away: and the woman shall be a curse among her people. And if 28 the woman be not defiled, but be clean; then she shall be free, and shall conceive seed. This is the Tora of jealousies, when a 29 wife goes aside to another instead of her husband, and is defiled; or when the spirit of jealousy comes upon him, and he be jealous 30 of his wife, and shall set the woman before the LORD, and the priest shall execute upon her all this Tora: then shall the man be 31 guiltless of iniquity, and this woman shall bear her iniquity. 6

And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Speak to the children of 1,2 Yisra'el, and say to them, When either man or woman shall pronounce a special vow of a Nazir to separate themselves to the LORD: he shall abstain from wine and strong drink, and 3 shall drink no vinegar of wine, or vinegar of strong drink, nor shall he drink any liquor of grapes, nor eat moist grapes, or dried. All the days of his abstinence shall he eat nothing that is made 4 of the vine tree, from the kernels even to the husk. All the days 5 of the vow of his separation there shall no razor come on his head: until the days are fulfilled, during which he separates himself to the LORD, he shall be holy, and shall let the locks of the hair of his head grow. All the days that he separates himself to 6 the LORD he shall come at no dead body. He shall not make him- 7 self unclean for his father, or for his mother, for his brother, or for his sister, when they die: because the crown of his GOD is upon his head. All the days of his separation he is holy to the 8 LORD. And if any man die very suddenly by him, and he has de- 9 filed the head of his consecration; then he shall shave his head in the day of his cleansing, on the seventh day shall he shave it. And on the eighth day he shall bring two turtle doves, or two 10 young pigeons, to the priest, to the door of the Tent of Meeting: and the priest shall offer the one for a sin offering, and the other 11 for a burnt offering, and make atonement for him, for that he sinned by the dead, and shall hallow his head that same day. And he shall consecrate to the LORD the days of his abstinence, 12 and shall bring a lamb of the first year for a guilt offering: and the days that were before shall be lost, because his separation was defiled. And this is the Tora of the Nazir, when the 13 days of his separation are fulfilled: he shall be brought to the door of the Tent of Meeting. And he shall offer his offering to 14 the LORD, one he lamb of the first year without blemish for a burnt offering, and one ewe lamb of the first year without blemish for a sin offering, and one ram without blemish for a peace offering, and a basket of unleavened bread, cakes of fine flour 15 mingled with oil, and wafers of unleavened bread anointed with oil, and their meal offering, and their drink offerings. And the 16 priest shall bring them before the LORD, and shall offer his sin offering, and his burnt offering: and he shall offer the ram for 17 a sacrifice of peace offering to the LORD, with the basket of unleavened bread: the priest shall offer also his meal offering, and his drink offering. And the Nazir shall shave the head of 18 his separation at the door of the Tent of Meeting, and shall take the hair of the head of his separation, and put it in the fire which is under the sacrifice of the peace offering. And the priest shall 19 take the boiled shoulder of the ram, and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and shall put them upon the hands of the Nazir, after the hair of his separation is shaved: and the priest shall wave them for a wave offering 20 before the LORD: this is holy for the priest, with the wave breast and heave shoulder: and after that the Nazir may drink wine.

This is the Tora of the Nazir who has vowed, and of his offering 21 to the LORD for his separation, beside that which his means allow: according to the vow which he vowed, so he must do beside the Tora of his abstinence.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Speak to Aharon and to 22, 23 his sons, saying, In this way you shall bless the children of Yisra'el, saying to them, The LORD bless thee, and keep 24 thee: the LORD make his face shine upon thee, and be 25 gracious to thee: the LORD lift up his countenance to 26 thee, and give thee peace. And they shall put my name 27 upon the children of Yisra'el; and I will bless them. 7 And it came to pass on the day that Moshe had finished setting up the tabernacle, and had anointed it, and sanctified it, and all its instruments, both the altar and all its vessels, and had anointed them, and sanctified them; that the princes of Yisra'el, heads of 2 the house of their fathers, who were the princes of the tribes, and were over them that were numbered, offered: and they 3 brought their offering before the LORD, six covered wagons, and twelve oxen; a wagon for every two of the princes, and for each one an ox: and they brought them before the tabernacle. And 4 the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Take it of them, that they may 5 be to do the service of the Tent of Meeting; and thou shalt give them to the Levites, to every man according to his service. And 6 Moshe took the wagons and the oxen, and gave them to the Levites. Two wagons and four oxen he gave to the sons of Ger- 7 shon, according to their service: and four wagons and eight 8 oxen he gave to the sons of Merari, according to their service, under the hand of Itamar the son of Aharon the priest. But to 9 the sons of Qehat he gave none: because the service of the sanctuary belonged to them; they bore it on their shoulders.
And the princes offered for dedicating of the altar in the day 10 that it was anointed, and the princes offered their offering before the altar. And the LORD said to Moshe, They shall offer their 11 offering, each prince on his day, for the dedicating of the altar.

And he that offered his offering the first day was Naḥshon 12 the son of 'Amminadav, of the tribe of Yehuda: and his offering 13 was one silver dish, the weight of which was a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them were full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meal offering: one spoon of ten shekels of 14 say to him, When thou lightest the lamps, the seven lamps shall give light towards the body of the candlestick. And Aharon did 3 so; he lighted its lamps over against the body of the candlestick, as the LORD commanded Moshe. And this was the work 4 of the candlestick: it was of beaten gold, from its shaft, to its flowers, it was beaten work: according to the pattern which the LORD had shown Moshe, so he made the candlestick.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Take the Levites from 5,6 among the children of Yisra'el, and cleanse them. And thus shalt 7 thou do to them, to cleanse them: Sprinkle water of purifying on them, and let them shave all their flesh, and let them wash their clothes, and so make themselves clean. Then let them take 8 a young bullock with its meal offering, even fine flour mingled with oil, and another young bullock shalt thou take for a sin offering. And thou shalt bring the Levites before the Tent of 9 Meeting: and thou shalt gather the whole assembly of the children of Yisra'el together: and thou shalt bring the Levites before 10 the LORD: and the children of Yisra'el shall put their hands upon the Levites: and Aharon shall offer the Levites before the LORD 11 for an offering of the children of Yisra'el, that they may execute the service of the LORD. And the Levites shall lay their hands 12 upon the heads of the bullocks: and thou shalt offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, to the LORD, to make atonement for the Levites. And thou shalt set the 13 Levites before Aharon, and before his sons, and offer them for a wave offering to the LORD. Thus shalt thou separate the Levites 14 from among the children of Yisra'el: and the Levites shall be mine. And after that shall the Levites go in to do the service 15 of the Tent of Meeting: and thou shalt cleanse them, and offer them for an offering. For they are wholly given to me from 16 among the children of Yisra'el; instead of such as open every womb, the firstborn of all the children of Yisra'el, have I taken them to me. For all the firstborn of the children of Yisra'el are 17 mine, both man and beast: on the day that I smote every first-born in the land of Mizrayim I sanctified them for myself. And 18
I have taken the Levites for all the firstborn of the children of Yisra'el. And I have given the Levites as a gift to Aharon and 19 to his sons from among the children of Yisra'el, to do the service of the children of Yisra'el in the Tent of Meeting, and to make atonement for the children of Yisra'el: that there be no plague among the children of Yisra'el, when the children of Yisra'el come near to the sanctuary. And Moshe, and Aharon, and all the 20 congregation of the children of Yisra'el did to the Levites according to all that the LORD commanded Moshe concerning the Levites, so did the children of Yisra'el to them. And the Levites 21 were purified, and they washed their clothes; and Aharon offered them as an offering before the LORD; and Aharon made atonement for them to cleanse them. And after that, the Levites 22 went in to do their service in the Tent of Meeting before Aharon, and before his sons: as the LORD had commanded Moshe concerning the Levites, so they did to them. And the LORD 23 spoke to Moshe, saying, This is that which belongs to the 24 Levites: from twenty five years old and upward they shall go in to wait upon the service of the Tent of Meeting: and from 25 the age of fifty years they shall go out of the ranks of the service, and shall serve no more: but shall minister with their 26 brothers in the Tent of Meeting, to keep the charge, and shall do no service. Thus shalt thou do to the Levites as regards their charge.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe in the wilderness of Sinay, in 1 the first month of the second year after they were come out of the land of Mizrayim, saying, Let the children of Yisra'el also 2 keep the passover at its appointed season. In the fourteenth day 3 of this month, at evening, you shall keep it in its appointed season: according to all the rites of it, and according to all the ceremonies of it, shall you keep it. And Moshe spoke to the 4 children of Yisra'el, that they should keep the passover. And 5 they kept the passover on the fourteenth day of the first month at evening in the wilderness of Sinay: according to all that the LORD commanded Moshe, so did the children of Yisra'el. And 6 there were certain men, who were defiled by the dead body of a man, that could not keep the passover on that day: and they came before Moshe and before Aharon on that day: and those 7 men said to him, We are defiled by the dead body of a man:
why are we kept back, that we may not offer an offering of the LORD in its appointed season among the children of Yisra'el?
And Moshe said to them, Stand still, and I will hear what the 8
LORD will command concerning you.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe saying, Speak to the children of 9, 10 Yisra'el, saying, If any man of you or of your posterity shall be unclean by reason of a dead body, or be on a journey afar off, yet he shall keep the passover to the LORD. On the fourteenth day 11 of the second month at evening they shall keep it, and eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. They shall leave none of it 12 to the morning, nor break any bone of it: according to all the ordinances of the passover they shall keep it. But the man that 13 is clean, and is not on a journey, and fails to keep the passover, then that person shall be cut off from among his people: because he brought not the offering of the LORD in its appointed season; that man shall bear his sin. And if a stranger shall sojourn 14 among you, and will keep the passover to the LORD; according to the ordinance of the passover, and according to its prescribed manner, so shall he do: you shall have one ordinance, both for the stranger, and for him that was born in the land. And 15 on the day that the tabernacle was erected the cloud covered the tabernacle, namely, the tent of the testimony: and at evening there was upon the tabernacle as it were the appearance of fire, until the morning. So it was always: the cloud covered it by 16 day, and the appearance of fire by night. And when the cloud 17 was taken up from the tabernacle, then after that the children of Yisra'el journeyed: and in the place where the cloud abode, there the children of Yisra'el encamped. At the commandment 18 of the LORD the children of Yisra'el journeyed, and at the commandment of the LORD they encamped: as long as the cloud abode upon the tabernacle they remained encamped. And when 19 the cloud tarried long upon the tabernacle many days, then the children of Yisra'el kept the charge of the LORD, and journeyed not. And at times it was, that the cloud was a few days upon 20 the tabernacle; according to the commandment of the LORD they remained encamped, and according to the commandment of the LORD they journeyed. And at times it was, that the cloud abode 21 from evening until morning, and that the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they journeyed: whether it was by day or by night that the cloud was taken up, they journeyed. Or 22 whether it were two days, or a month, or a year, that the cloud tarried upon the tabernacle, remaining over it, the children of Yisra'el remained encamped, and journeyed not: but when it was taken up, they journeyed. At the commandment of the 23 LORD they remained encamped, and at the commandment of the LORD they journeyed: they kept the charge of the LORD, at the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moshe.

10

And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Make thee two trumpets 1, 2 of silver; of a whole piece shalt thou make them: that thou shalt use them for calling the assembly, and for the journeying of the camps. And when they shall blow with them, 3 all the assembly shall assemble themselves to thee at the door of the Tent of Meeting. And if they blow but with one trumpet, 4 then the princes, the heads of the thousands of Yisra'el, shall gather themselves to thee. When you blow an alarm, then the 5 camps that lie on the east parts shall go forward. When you 6 blow an alarm the second time, then the camps that lie on the south side shall take their journey: they shall blow an alarm for their journeys. But when the congregation is to be gathered 7 together, you shall blow, but you shall not sound an alarm. And 8 the sons of Aharon, the priests, shall blow with the trumpets; and they shall be to you for an ordinance for ever throughout your generations. And if you go to war in your land against 9 the enemy that oppresses you, then you shall blow an alarm with the trumpets; and you shall be remembered before the LORD your GOD, and you shall be saved from your enemies. Also 10 in the day of your gladness, and in your solemn days, and in the beginnings of your months, you shall blow with the trumpets over your burnt offerings, and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings; that they may be to you for a memorial before your GOD: I am the LORD your GOD.

And it came to pass on the twentieth day of the second month, 11 in the second year, that the cloud was taken up from off the tabernacle of the Testimony. And the children of Yisra'el took 12 their journeys out of the wilderness of Sinay; and the cloud rested in the wilderness of Paran. And they first took their 13 journey according to the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moshe. In the first place went the standard of the camp of 14 the children of Yehuda according to their armies: and over his host was Naḥshon the son of 'Amminadav. And over the host 15 of the tribe of the children of Yissakhar was Netan'el the son of Ẓu'ar. And over the host of the tribe of the children of Zevu- 16 lun was Eli'av the son of Ḥelon. And the tabernacle was taken 17 down; and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari set forward, bearing the tabernacle. And the standard of the camp of 18 Re'uven set forward according to their armies: over his host was Elizur the son of Shede'ur. And over the host of the tribe 19 of the children of Shim'on was Shelumi'el the son of Ẓurishadday. And over the host of the tribe of the children of Gad was 20 Elyasaf the son of De'u'el. And the Qehati set forward, bearing 21 the sanctuary: that they might set up the tabernacle against their arrival. And the standard of the camp of the children of 22 Efrayim set forward according to their armies: and over his host was Elishama the son of 'Ammihud. And over the host of 23 the tribe of the children of Menashshe was Gamli'el the son of Pedazur. And over the host of the tribe of the children of 24 Binyamin was Avidan the son of Gid'oni. And the standard of 25 the camp of the children of Dan set forward, which was the rearward of all the camps throughout their hosts: and over his host was Aḥi'ezer the son of 'Ammishadday. And over the host 26 of the tribe of the children of Asher was Pag'i'el the son of 'Okhran. And over the host of the tribe of the children of Naf- 27 tali was Aḥira the son of 'Enan. Thus were the journeyings of 28 the children of Yisra'el according to their armies; then they set forward. And Moshe said to Ḥovav, the son of Re'u'el, 29 the Midyanite, Moshe's father in law, We are journeying to the place of which the LORD said, I will give it you: come thou with us, and we will do thee good: for the LORD has spoken good concerning Yisra'el. And he said to him, I will not go; but I will 30 depart to my own land, and to my kindred. And he said, Leave 31 us not, I pray thee; since thou knowst how we are to encamp in the wilderness, and thou mayst be to us instead of eyes.

And it shall be, if thou go with us, it shall be, that what good 32 the LORD shall do to us, the same will we do to thee. And they 33 departed from the mountain of the LORD three days' journey: and the ark of the covenant of the LORD went before them in the three days' journey, to search out a resting place for them.
And the cloud of the LORD was upon them by day, when they 34 went out of the camp. And it came to pass, when the ark 35 set forward, that Moshe said, Rise up, LORD, and let thy enemies be scattered; and let those who hate thee flee before thee.
And when it rested, he said, Return, LORD, to the ten thousand 36 thousands of Yisra'el.

And when the people complained, it displeased the LORD: and 11 the LORD heard it; and his anger was kindled; and the fire of the LORD burned among them, and consumed those who were in the uttermost parts of the camp. And the people cried out to Moshe; 2 but Moshe prayed to the LORD, and the fire was quenched. And 3 he called the name of the place Tav'era: because the fire of the LORD burned among them. And the mixed multitude that was 4 among them fell a lusting: and the children of Yisra'el also wept again, and said, Who shall give us meat to eat? We re- 5 member the fish, which we did eat in Miẓrayim for nothing;
the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlic: but now our soul is dried away: there is nothing 6 at all, beside this manna, before our eyes. And the manna was 7 like coriander seed, and its colour was like the colour of bdellium. And the people went about, and gathered it, and 8 ground it in mills, or beat it in a mortar, and boiled it in a pot, and made cakes of it: and the taste of it was like the taste of oil cake. And when the dew fell upon the camp in the night, 9 the manna fell upon it. And Moshe heard the people weeping throughout their families, every man in the door of his tent: and the anger of the LORD burned greatly; Moshe also was displeased. 10

And Moshe said to the LORD, Why hast thou afflicted thy servant? and why have I not found favour in thy sight, that thou layst the burden of all this people upon me? 11
Have I conceived all this people? have I begotten them, that thou shouldst say to me, Carry them in thy bosom, as a nursing father carries the sucking child, to the land which thou hast sworn to their fathers? 12
Whence should I have meat to give to all this people? for they weep to me, saying, Give us meat, that we may eat. 13
I am not able to bear all this people alone, because it is too heavy for me. 14
And if thou deal thus with me, kill me, I pray thee, out of hand, if I have found favour in thy sight; and let me not see my own wretchedness. 15
And the LORD said to Moshe, Gather to me seventy men of the elders of Yisra'el, whom thou knowst to be the elders of the people, and officers over them; and bring them to the Tent of Meeting, that they may stand there with thee. 16
And I will come down and talk with thee there: and I will take of the spirit which is upon thee, and will put it upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with thee that thou bear it not thyself alone. 17
And say to the people, Sanctify yourselves against tomorrow, and you shall eat meat: for you have wept in the ears of the LORD, saying, Who shall give us meat to eat? for it was well with us in Mizrayim: therefore the LORD will give you meat, and you shall eat. 18
Not one day shall you eat, nor two days, nor five days, nor ten days, nor twenty days; 19 but a whole month, until it come out at your nostrils, and it be loathsome to you: because you have despised the LORD who is among you, and have wept before him, saying, Why did we come out of Mizrayim? 20
And Moshe said, The people, among whom I am, are six hundred thousand footmen; and thou hast said, I will give them meat, that they may eat a whole month. 21
Shall flocks and herds be slain for them, to suffice them? or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to suffice them? 22
And the LORD said to Moshe, Is the LORD's hand too short? thou shalt see now whether my word shall come to pass to thee or not. 23
And Moshe went out, and told the people the words of the LORD, and gathered seventy men of the elders of the people, and set them round about the tent. 24
And the LORD came down in a cloud, and spoke to him, and took of the spirit that was upon him, and gave it to the seventy elders: and it came to pass, that, when the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied, but continued not. 25
And there remained two of the men in the camp, the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad: and the spirit rested upon them; and they were of them that were written, but went not out to the tent: and they prophesied in the camp. 26
And there ran a young man, and told Moshe, and said, Eldad and Medad do prophesy in the camp. 27
And Yehoshua the son of Nun, the servant of Moshe from his youth, answered and said, My lord Moshe restrain 28 them. And Moshe said to him, Enviest thou for my sake? would 29 that all the LORD's people were prophets, and that the LORD would put his spirit upon them! And Moshe retired into 30 the camp, he and the elders of Yisra'el. And a wind went out 31 from the LORD, and brought quails from the sea, and let them fall by the camp, about a day's journey on this side, and about a day's journey on the other side, round about the camp, and about two cubits high upon the face of the earth. And the people 32 stood up all that day, and all that night, and all the next day, and they gathered the quails: he that gathered least gathered a quantity of ten homer: and they spread them all abroad for themselves round about the camp. And while the meat was yet 33 between their teeth, before it was chewed, the wrath of the LORD was inflamed against the people, and the LORD smote the people with a very great plague. And he called the name of that place 34 Qivrot-hatta'ava (Graves of Lust): because there they buried the people that lusted. And the people journeyed from Qivrot- 35 hatta'ava to Hazerot, and at Hazerot they made a stay.

12 And Miryam and Aharon spoke against Moshe because of the Kushite woman whom he had taken, for he had taken a Kushite woman. And they said, Has the LORD indeed spoken only with 2 Moshe? has he not spoken also with us? And the LORD heard it. 3 (Now the man Moshe was very meek, more so than all the men that were upon the face of the earth.) And the LORD 4 spoke suddenly to Moshe, and to Aharon, and to Miryam, Come out you three to the Tent of Meeting. And they three came out. 5 And the LORD came down in the pillar of cloud, and stood in the door of the tent, and called Aharon and Miryam: and they both came out. And he said, Hear now my words: If there be a 6 prophet among you, I the LORD make myself known to him in a vision, and speak to him in a dream. My servant Moshe is 7 not so, for he is the trusted one in all my house. With him I 8 speak mouth to mouth, manifestly, and not in dark speeches; and the similitude of the LORD does he behold: why then were you not afraid to speak against my servant Moshe? And 9 the anger of the LORD was inflamed against them; and he departed. And the cloud was removed from the tent; and, behold, 10 Miryam was snow white, stricken with zara'at; and Aharon looked upon Miryam, and behold, she was diseased. And Aharon 11 said to Moshe, Alas, my lord, I pray thee, lay no sin upon us, for we have done foolishly, and we have sinned. Let her not 12 be as one dead, of whom the flesh is half consumed when he comes out of his mother's womb. And Moshe cried to the 13 LORD, saying, Heal her now, O GOD, I pray thee.
And the LORD said to Moshe, If her father had but spit in her 14 face, should she not be ashamed for seven days? let her be shut out from the camp seven days, and after that let her be received in again. And Miryam was shut out from the camp seven days: 15 and the people did not journey until Miryam was brought in again. And afterwards the people removed from Hazerot, and 16 pitched in the wilderness of Paran.

ren of Yisra'el: of every tribe of their fathers shall you send a man, every one a ruler among them. And Moshe by the com- 3 mandment of the LORD sent them from the wilderness of Paran: all those men were heads of the children of Yisra'el. And these 4 were their names: of the tribe of Re'uven, Shammua son of Zakkur. Of the tribe of Shim'on, Shafat son of Ḥori. Of the 5,6 tribe of Yehuda, Kalev, son of Yefunne. Of the tribe of Yis- 7 sakhar, Yig'al son of Yosef. Of the tribe of Efrayim, Hoshea 8 son of Nun. Of the tribe of Binyamin, Palti, son of Rafu. Of 9,10 the tribe of Zevulun, Gaddi'el son of Sodi. Of the tribe of Yosef, 11 that is of the tribe of Menashshe, Gaddi son of Susi. Of the 12 tribe of Dan, 'Ammi'el son of Gemalli. Of the tribe of Asher, 13 Setur son of Mikha'el. Of the tribe of Naftali, Naḥbi, son of 14 Vofsi. Of the tribe of Gad, Ge'u'el son of Makhi. These are 15,16 the names of the men whom Moshe sent to spy out the land.
And Moshe called Hoshea son of Nun, Yehoshua. And Moshe 17 sent them to spy out the land of Kena'an, and he said to them, Go up this way by the south, and go up into the high land:
and see the country, what it is; and the people who dwell in it, 18 whether they are strong or weak, few or many; and what the 19 land is that they dwell in, whether it is good or bad; and what cities they dwell in, whether in tents, or in strongholds; and 20 what the land is, whether fat or lean, whether there are trees in it, or not. And be of good courage, and bring of the fruit of the land. Now the time was the time of the firstripe grapes.
So they went up, and searched the land from the wilderness 21 of Ẓin to Reḥov, on the way to Ḥamat. And they ascended into 22 the Negev, and came to Ḥevron, where Aḥiman, Sheshay, and Talmay, the children of 'Anaq, were. (Now Ḥevron was built seven years before Ẓo'an in Miẓrayim.) And they came to the 23 wadi of Eshkol, and cut down from thence a branch with one cluster of grapes, and they carried it between two on a pole; and they brought of the pomegranates, and the figs. The place 24 was called the wadi of Eshkol, because of the cluster of grapes which the children of Yisra'el cut down from there. And they 25 returned from searching the land after forty days. And they 26 went and came to Moshe and to Aharon, and to all the congregation of the children of Yisra'el, to the wilderness of Paran, to Qadesh; and brought back word to them, and to all the congregation, and showed them the fruit of the land. And they 27 told him, and said, We came to the land where thou didst send us, and indeed it flows with milk and honey; and this is the fruit of it. But the people are strong that dwell in the land, and the 28 cities are fortified, and very great: and moreover we saw the children of 'Anaq there. 'Amaleq dwells in the land of the 29 Negev: and the Ḥitti, and the Yevusi, and the Emori dwell in the mountain: and the Kena'ani dwell by the sea and by the side of the Yarden. And Kalev stilled the people before Moshe, 30 and said, Let us go up at once, and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it. But the men who went up with him said, 31
We are not able to go up against the people; for they are stronger than we. And they spread an evil report of the land 32 which they had spied out to the children of Yisra'el, saying, The land, through which we have gone to spy it out, is a land that eats up its inhabitants; and all the people that we saw in it are men of a great stature. And there we saw the Nefilim, the 33 sons of 'Anaq who come of the Nefilim: and we were in our own sight as grasshoppers, and so we were in their sight.

And all the congregation lifted up their voice, and cried; and 14 the people wept that night. And all the children of Yisra'el mur- 2 mured against Moshe and against Aharon: and the whole congregation said to them, Would that we had died in the land of Miẓrayim! or would we had died in this wilderness! And 3 why has the LORD brought us to this land, to fall by the sword, that our wives and our children should be a prey? were it not better for us to return to Miẓrayim? And they said to one 4 another, Let us appoint a chief, and let us return to Miẓrayim.
Then Moshe and Aharon fell on their faces before all the as- 5 sembly of the congregation of the children of Yisra'el. And 6 Yehoshua the son of Nun, and Kalev the son of Yefunne, of those who spied out the land, rent their clothes: and they spoke 7 to all the congregation of the children of Yisra'el, saying, The land, which we passed through to spy it out, is an exceedingly good land. If the LORD delight in us, then he will bring us into 8 this land, and give it us; a land which flows with milk and honey. Only rebel not against the LORD, nor fear the people 9 of the land; for they are bread for us: their defence is departed from them, and the LORD is with us: fear them not. But all the 10 congregation said to stone them with stones. And the glory of the LORD appeared in the Tent of Meeting before all the children of Yisra'el.

And the LORD said to Moshe, How long will this people provoke 11 me? and how long will it be before they believe me, for all the signs which I have performed among them? I will smite them 12 with the pestilence, and disinherit them, and will make of thee a greater nation and mightier than they. And Moshe said to 13 the LORD, Then Miẓrayim shall hear it, (for thou didst bring up this people in thy might from among them;) and they will tell 14 it to the inhabitants of this land: who have heard that thou LORD art among this people, that thou LORD art seen face to face, and that thy cloud stands over them, and that thou goest before them, by day time in a pillar of cloud, and in a pillar of fire by night. Now if thou shalt kill all this people as one man, 15 then the nations which have heard the fame of thee will speak, saying, Because the LORD was not able to bring this people into 16 the land which he swore to them, therefore he has slain them in the wilderness. And now, I pray thee, let the power of my 17
LORD be great, according as thou hast spoken, saying, The LORD 18 is longsuffering, and great in love, forgiving iniquity and transgression, but by no means clearing the guilty, punishing the iniquity of the fathers upon the children to the third and fourth generation. Pardon, I pray thee, the iniquity of this 19 people according to the greatness of thy love, and as thou hast forgiven this people, from Miẓrayim until now. And the 20 LORD said, I have pardoned according to thy word: but truly, 21 as I live, and all the earth is filled with the glory of the LORD:

surely, all those men who have seen my glory, and my miracles, 22 which I did in Miẓrayim and in the wilderness, and yet have tempted me now these ten times, and have not hearkened to my voice: surely, they shall not see the land which I swore 23 to their fathers, nor shall any of those who provoked me see it: but my servant Kalev, because he had another spirit 24 with him, and followed me fully, him will I bring into the land into which he went; and his seed shall possess it, (Now the 25 'Amaleqi and the Kena'ani dwelt in the valley.) Tomorrow turn, and get you into the wilderness by way of the Sea of Suf.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe and to Aharon, saying, How 26,27 long shall I bear with this evil congregation, who murmur against me? I have heard the murmurings of the children of Yisra'el, which they murmur against me. Say to them, As I 28 live, says the LORD, as you have spoken in my ears, so will I do to you: your carcasses shall fall in this wilderness; and 29 all that were numbered of you, according to your whole number, from twenty years old and upward, who have murmured against me, shall by no means come into the land, concerning 30 which I swore to make you dwell there, except Kalev the son of Yefunne, and Yehoshua the son of Nun. But your little ones, 31 who, you said, should be a prey, them will I bring in, and they shall know the land which you have despised. But as for you, 32 your carcasses shall fall in this wilderness. And your child- 33 ren shall wander in the wilderness forty years, and bear your backslidings, until your carcasses be consumed in the wilderness. According to the number of the days in which you spied 34 out the land, even forty days, each day for a year, shall you bear your iniquities, namely, forty years, and you shall know my displeasure. I the LORD have said, I will surely do it to all this 35 evil congregation, that are gathered together against me: in this wilderness they shall be consumed, and there they shall die. And the men, whom Moshe sent to spy out the land, who 36 returned, and made all the congregation murmur against him, by bringing up a slander upon the land; now those men that 37 brought up the evil report upon the land, died by the plague before the LORD, but Yehoshua the son of Nun, and Kalev the 38 son of Yefunne, of the men who went to spy out the land; they lived. And Moshe told these sayings to all the children of Yis- 39 ra'el: and the people mourned greatly. And they rose up early 40 in the morning, and went up to the top of the mountain, saying, We are here, and will go up to the place which the LORD has promised: for we have sinned. And Moshe said, Why now do you 41 transgress the commandment of the LORD? it shall not prosper.
Go not up, for the LORD is not among you: so that you may 42 not be smitten before your enemies. For the 'Amaleqi and the 43 Kena'ani are there before you, and you shall fall by the sword: because you have turned away from the LORD, therefore the LORD will not be with you. But they presumed to go up to the 44 hill top: nevertheless the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and Moshe, departed not out of the camp. Then the 'Amaleqi came 45

And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Speak to the children 1, 2 of Yisra'el, and say to then, When you come to the land of your habitations, which I give to you, and will make an offering by 3 fire to the LORD, a burnt offering, or a sacrifice, in performing a pronounced vow, or in a freewill offering, or in your solemn feasts, to make a sweet savour to the LORD, of the herd, or of the flock: then shall he that offers his offering to the LORD 4 as you do the gift of the threshingfloor, so shall you set it apart. Of the first of your dough you shall give to the LORD an offering 21 throughout your generations. And if you have erred, and 22 not observed all these commandments, which the LORD spoke to Moshe, all that the LORD has commanded you by the hand 23 of Moshe, from the day that the LORD gave command, and henceforward throughout your generations; then it shall be, if 24 it be committed by ignorance without the knowledge of the congregation, that all the congregation shall offer one young bullock for a burnt offering, for a sweet savour to the LORD, with its meal offering, and its drink offering, according to the ordinance, and one kid of the goats for a sin offering. priest shall make atonement for all the congregation of the children of Yisra'el, and it shall be forgiven them; for it is ignorance, and they have brought their offering, a sacrifice made by fire to the LORD, and their sin offering before the LORD, for their ignorance. And it shall be forgiven all the congregation of 26 the children of Yisra'el, and the stranger that sojourns among them; seeing all the people were in ignorance. And if a 27 single person sin through ignorance, then he shall bring a she goat of the first year for a sin offering. And the priest shall 28 make atonement for the person that sins ignorantly, when he sins by ignorance before the LORD, to make atonement for him; and it shall be forgiven him. You shall have one Tora for him 29 who sins through ignorance, both for him that is born among the children of Yisra'el, and for the stranger that sojourns among them. But the person that acts presumptuously, whether 30 he be born in the land, or a stranger, that person dishonours the LORD; and that soul shall be cut off from among his people. Because he has despised the word of the LORD, and has 31 broken his commandment, that soul shall utterly be cut off; his iniquity shall be upon him.

And while the children of Yisra'el were in the wilderness, they 32 found a man gathering sticks upon the sabbath day. And 33 they that found him gathering sticks brought him to Moshe and Aharon, and to all the congregation. And they put him in 34 custody, because it was not declared what should be done to him. And the LORD said to Moshe, The man shall be surely 35 put to death: all the congregation shall stone him with stones outside the camp. And all the congregation brought him outside 36 the camp, and stoned him with stones, and he died; as the LORD commanded Moshe.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Speak to the children 37,38
of Yisra'el, and bid them that they make them fringes in the corners of their garments throughout their generations, and that they put upon the fringe of each corner a thread of blue: 39 and it shall be to you as a fringe, that you may look upon it, and remember all the commandments of the LORD, and do them; and that you seek not after your own heart and your own eyes, after which you go astray: that you may remember, 40 and do all my commandments, and be holy to your GOD. I am 41 the LORD your GOD, who brought you out of the land of Miẓrayim, to be your GOD: I am the LORD your GOD.

QORAḤ Now Qoraḥ, the son of Yiẓhar, the son of Qehat, the son of Levi, 16 and Datan and Aviram, the sons of Eli'av, and On, the son of Pelet, of the sons of Re'uven, took men: and they rose up before 2 Moshe, with certain of the children of Yisra'el, two hundred and fifty princes of the assembly, regularly summoned to the congregation, men of renown: and they gathered themselves 3 together against Moshe and against Aharon, and said to them, You take too much upon you, seeing all the congregation are holy, every one of them, and the LORD is among them: why then do you raise yourselves up above the congregation of the LORD? And when Moshe heard it, he fell on his face: 4 and he spoke to Qoraḥ and to all his company, saying, Tomor- 5 row morning the LORD will show who is his, and who is holy; and will cause him to come near to him: even him whom he has chosen will he cause to come near to him. This do; Take 6 censers, Qoraḥ, and all his company; and put fire in them, and 7 put incense in them before the LORD tomorrow: and it shall be that the man whom the LORD chooses, he shall be holy: you take too much upon you, you sons of Levi. And Moshe said 8 to Qoraḥ, Hear, I pray you, sons of Levi: is it but a small 9 thing to you, that the GOD of Yisra'el has separated you from the congregation of Yisra'el, to bring you near to himself to do the service of the tabernacle of the LORD, and to stand before the congregation to minister to them? And he has brought thee 10 near to him, and all thy brethren the sons of Levi with thee: and do you seek the priesthood also? For which cause both thou 11 and all thy company who are gathered together are against the LORD: and what is Aharon, that you murmur against him? And Moshe sent to call Datan and Aviram, the sons of Eli'av; 12 but they said, We will not come up: is it a small thing that 13 thou hast brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, and dost thou also make thyself a prince over us? Moreover thou hast not brought us 14 to a land flowing with milk and honey, nor given us inheritance of fields and vineyards: wilt thou put out the eyes of these men? we will not come up. And Moshe was much angered, 15 and said to the LORD, Have no regard to their offering: I have not taken one ass from them, nor have I hurt one of them. And Moshe said to Qoraḥ, Be thou and all thy company before 16 the LORD, thou, and they, and Aharon, tomorrow: and take every man his censer, and put incense in them, and present be- 17 fore the LORD every man his censer, two hundred and fifty censers; thou also, and Aharon, each of you his censer. And 18 they took every man his censer, and put fire in them, and laid incense on them, and stood in the door of the Tent of Meeting with Moshe and Aharon. And Qoraḥ gathered all the congrega- 19 tion against them to the door of the Tent of Meeting: and the glory of the LORD appeared to all the congregation. And 20 the LORD spoke to Moshe and to Aharon, saying, Separate your- 21 selves from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment. And they fell upon their faces, and said, O GOD, 22 the GOD of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, and wilt thou be angry with all the congregation? And the LORD 23 spoke to Moshe, saying, Speak to the congregation, saying, Get 24 up from about the dwelling of Qoraḥ, Datan, and Aviram. And Moshe rose up and went to Datan and Aviram; and the 25 elders of Yisra'el followed him. And he spoke to the congrega- 26 tion, saying, Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of theirs, lest you be consumed in all their sins. So they went up from the dwelling of Qoraḥ, Datan, 27 and Aviram, on every side: and Datan and Aviram came out, and stood in the door of their tents, and their wives, and their sons, and their little children. And Moshe said, Hereby you shall 28 know that the LORD has sent me to do all these works; for I have not done them of my own mind. If these men die the com- 29

mon death of all men, or if they be visited after the visitation of all men; then the LORD has not sent me. But if the LORD creates a 30 new thing, and the earth opens her mouth, and swallows them up, with all that appertain to them, and they go down alive into She'ol; then you shall understand that these men have provoked the LORD. And it came to pass, as he had made an 31 end of speaking all these words, that the ground split beneath them: and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them 32 up, and their houses, and all the men that appertained to Qoraḥ, and all their goods. They, and all that appertained to them, 33 went down alive into She'ol, and the earth closed upon them: and they perished from among the congregation. And all Yisra'el 34 that were round about them fled at the cry of them: for they said, Lest the earth swallow us up also. And there came out 35 a fire from the LORD, and consumed the two hundred and fifty men that offered the incense. And the LORD spoke to 17 Moshe saying, Speak to El'azar the son of Aharon the priest, 2 that he take up the censers out of the burning, and scatter thou the fire yonder; for they have become holy. As for the censers 3 of these sinners against their own lives, let them make them into beaten plates for a covering of the altar: for they offered them before the LORD, therefore they have become holy: and they shall be a sign to the children of Yisra'el. And El'azar the 4 priest took the brazen censers, wherewith they that were burnt had offered; and they made them into beaten plates for a covering of the altar: to be a memorial to the children of Yisra'el, 5 that no stranger, who is not of the seed of Aharon, come near to offer incense before the LORD: that he be not like Qoraḥ and his company: as the LORD said to him by the hand of Moshe.
But on the morrow all the congregation of the children of Yis- 6 ra'el murmured against Moshe and against Aharon, saying, You have killed the people of the LORD. And it came to pass, when 7 the congregation was gathered against Moshe and against Aharon, that they looked toward the Tent of Meeting: and, behold, the cloud covered it, and the glory of the LORD appeared.
And Moshe and Aharon came before the Tent of Meeting. 8
And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Get away 9, 10 from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment. And they fell upon their faces. And Moshe said to 11 Aharon. Take a censer, and put fire in it from off the altar, and put on incense, and take it quickly to the congregation, and make atonement for them: for wrath is gone out from the LORD; the plague has begun. And Aharon took as Moshe com- 12 manded, and ran into the midst of the congregation; and, behold, the plague had begun among the people: and he put on incense, and made atonement for the people. And he stood 13 between the dead and the living; and the plague was stayed.
Now they that died in the plague were fourteen thousand, seven 14 hundred, besides those who died about the matter of Qoraḥ. And 15 Aharon returned to Moshe to the door of the Tent of Meeting:
and the plague was stayed.
And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Speak to the children of 16, 17

יוּמָת:
וַיְדַבֵּר יְהוָה אֶל־אַהֲרֹן וַאֲנִי הִנֵּה נָתַתִּי לְךָ אֶת־מִשְׁמֶרֶת ח
תְּרוּמֹתַי לְכָל־קָדְשֵׁי בְנֵי־יִשְׂרָאֵל לְךָ נְתַתִּים לְמָשְׁחָה וּלְבָנֶיךָ

Yisra'el, and take of every one of them a rod, one for each father's house, of all their princes according to the house of their fathers: twelve rods: write every man's name upon his rod. And thou shalt write Aharon's name upon the rod of Levi: 18 for one rod shall be for the head of the house of their fathers. And thou shalt lay them up in the Tent of Meeting before the 19 Testimony, where I will meet with you. And it shall come to 20 pass, that the man's rod, whom I shall choose, shall blossom: and I will make to cease from me the murmurings of the children of Yisra'el, whereby they murmur against you. And Moshe 21 spoke to the children of Yisra'el, and every one of their princes gave him a rod apiece, for each prince one, according to their fathers' houses: twelve rods: and the rod of Aharon was among their rods. And Moshe laid up the rods before the LORD in the 22 tent of the testimony. And it came to pass, that on the mor- 23 row Moshe went into the tent of the Testimony: and, behold, the rod of Aharon for the house of Levi had sprouted, and brought forth buds, and blossomed, and yielded almonds. And 24 Moshe brought out all the rods from before the LORD to all the children of Yisra'el: and they looked, and took every man his rod.

And the LORD said to Moshe, Put Aharon's rod back before 25 the Testimony, to be kept for a token against rebels; that there may be an end of their murmurings against me, that they die not. And Moshe did so: as the LORD commanded him, so 26 he did.

And the children of Yisra'el spoke to Moshe, saying, Behold, 27 we die, we perish, we all perish. Everyone that comes at all 28 near the tabernacle of the LORD dies; shall we totally perish? And the LORD said to Aharon, Thou and thy sons 18 and thy father's house with thee shall bear the iniquity of the sanctuary: and thou and thy sons with thee shall bear the iniquity of your priesthood. And thy brethren also of the tribe of 2 Levi, the tribe of thy father, bring thou near with thee, that they may be joined to thee, and minister to thee: but thou and thy sons with thee shall minister before the tent of the Testimony. And they shall keep thy charge, and the charge of all 3 the tent: only they shall not come near the vessels of the sanctuary and the altar, that neither they, nor you, die. And they shall be joined to thee, and keep the charge of the Tent 4 of Meeting, for all the service of the tent, and a stranger shall not come near to you. And you shall keep the charge of the 5 sanctuary, and the charge of the altar: that there be no wrath any more upon the children of Yisra'el. And I, behold, I have 6 taken your brethren the Levites from among the children of Yisra'el: to you they are given as a gift for the LORD, to do the service of the Tent of Meeting. Therefore thou and thy sons 7 with thee shall keep your priest's office for everything that concerns the altar, and within the veil: and you shall serve: I have given your priest's office to you as a service of gift: and the stranger that comes near shall be put to death.

And the LORD spoke to Aharon, Behold, I also have given thee 8 the charge of my heave offerings of all the hallowed things of the children of Yisra'el; unto thee have I given them by reason of the anointing, and to thy sons, by an ordinance for ever.

This shall be thine of the most holy things, reserved from the 9 fire: every offering of theirs, every meal offering of theirs, and every sin offering of theirs, and every guilt offering of theirs, which they shall render to me, shall be most holy for thee and for thy sons. In the most holy place shalt thou eat it; 10 every male shall eat it: it shall be holy to thee. And this is 11 thine; the heave offering of their gift, for all the wave offerings of the children of Yisra'el: I have given them to thee, and to thy sons and to thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: every one that is clean in thy house shall eat of it.
All the best of the oil, and all the best of the wine, and of the 12 wheat, the first of them which they shall offer to the LORD, them have I given thee. The first ripe fruit of all that is in the 13 land, which they shall bring to the LORD, shall be thine; every one that is clean in thy house shall eat of it. Everything de- 14 voted in Yisra'el shall be thine. Everything that opens the 15 womb in all flesh, which they bring to the LORD, whether it be of men or beasts, shall be thine: nevertheless the firstborn of man shalt thou surely redeem, and the firstling of unclean beasts shalt thou redeem. And those that are to be redeemed 16 shall be redeemable from a month old according to the usual estimation, for the money of five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, which is twenty gera. But the firstling of an ox, 17 or the firstling of a sheep, or the firstling of a goat, thou shalt not redeem; they are holy: thou shalt sprinkle their blood upon the altar, and shalt burn their fat for an offering made by fire, for a sweet savour to the LORD. And the flesh of them 18 shall be thine, as the wave breast and as the right shoulder shall they be thine. All the heave offerings of the holy things, 19 which the children of Yisra'el offer to the LORD, have I given thee, and thy sons and thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: it is a covenant of salt for ever before the LORD to thee and to thy seed with thee. And the LORD spoke to Aharon, 20 Thou shalt have no inheritance in their land, neither shalt thou have any part among them: I am thy portion and thy inheritance among the children of Yisra'el. And, behold, I have given 21 the children of Levi all the tenth in Yisra'el for an inheritance, for their service which they serve, even the service of the Tent of Meeting. Neither must the children of Yisra'el henceforth 22 come near the Tent of Meeting, lest they bear sin, and die.
But the Levites shall do the service of the Tent of Meeting, and 23 they shall bear their iniquity: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations, that among the children of Yisra'el they have no inheritance. But the tithes of the children 24 of Yisra'el, which they offer as a gift to the LORD, I have given to the Levites to inherit: therefore I have said to them, Among the children of Yisra'el they shall have no inheritance.
And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Thus speak to the 25, 26
Levites, and say to them, When you take of the children of Yisra'el the tithes which I have given you from them for your

LORD, even a tenth part of the tithe. And this your gift shall 27 be reckoned to you, as though it were the corn of the threshing-floor, and as the fulness of the winepress. Thus you also shall 28 offer a gift to the LORD of all your tithes, which you receive of the children of Yisra'el; and you shall give of it the LORD's gift to Aharon the priest. Out of all that is given to you, you 29 shall set aside all that is due as a gift to the LORD, of all the best thereof, even the hallowed part of it. Therefore thou shalt 30 say to them, When you have set aside the best of it, then it shall be counted to the Levites as the increase of the threshing-floor, and as the increase of the winepress. And you shall eat 31 it in every place, you and your households: for it is your reward for your service in the Tent of Meeting. And you shall bear no 32 sin by reason of it, when you have set aside from it the best of it: nor shall you pollute the holy things of the children of Yisra'el, lest you die.

ḤUQQAT And the LORD spoke to Moshe and to Aharon, saying, This is 1,2 the ordinance of the Tora which the LORD has commanded, saying, Speak to the children of Yisra'el, that they bring thee a red heifer without defect, in which there is no blemish, and upon which never came a yoke: and you shall give her to El'azar 3 the priest, that he may bring her outside the camp, and she shall be slaughtered before his face: and El'azar the priest shall 4 take of her blood with his finger, and sprinkle of her blood towards the front of the Tent of Meeting seven times: and the 5 heifer shall be burnt in his sight; her skin, and her flesh, and her blood, with her dung, shall be burnt: and the priest shall take 6 cedar wood, and hyssop, and scarlet, and cast it into the midst of the burning of the heifer. Then the priest shall wash his 7 clothes, and shall bathe his flesh in water, and afterwards he shall come into the camp, and the priest shall be unclean until the evening. And he that burns her shall wash his clothes in 8 water, and bathe his flesh in water, and shall be unclean until the evening. And a man that is clean shall gather up the ashes 9 of the heifer, and lay them outside the camp in a clean place, and it shall be kept for the congregation of the children of Yisra'el for the water of sprinkling: it is a purification offering. And he that gathers the ashes of the heifer shall wash his 10 clothes, and be unclean until the evening: and it shall be to the children of Yisra'el, and to the stranger that sojourns among them, for a statute for ever. He that touches the dead body of 11 any man shall be unclean seven days. If he purify himself with 12 it on the third day and on the seventh day, he shall be clean:
but if he do not purify himself on the third day and the seventh day, he shall not be clean. Whoever touches the dead body of 13 any man that has died, and purifies not himself, he defiles the tabernacle of the LORD; and that soul shall be cut off from Yisra'el: because the water of sprinkling was not sprinkled upon him, he shall be unclean; his uncleanness is yet upon him.
This is the Tora: when a man dies in a tent, all that come into 14 the tent, and all that is in the tent, shall be unclean seven days.
And every open vessel, which has no covering bound upon it, 15 is unclean. And whoever touches one that is slain with a sword 16 in the open field, or a dead body, or a bone of a man, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days. And for an unclean person they 17 shall take of the ashes of the burnt purification offering, and running water shall be put thereto in a vessel: and a clean 18 person shall take hyssop, and dip it in the water, and sprinkle it upon the tent, and upon all the vessels, and upon the persons that were there, and upon him that touched a bone, or one slain, or one dead, or a grave: and the clean person shall sprinkle 19 upon the unclean on the third day, and on the seventh day: and on the seventh day he shall purify himself, and wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and shall be clean at evening.

But the man that shall be unclean, and shall not purify himself, 20 that soul shall be cut off from among the congregation, because he has defiled the sanctuary of the LORD: the water of sprinkling has not been sprinkled upon him; he is unclean. And it shall 21 be a perpetual statute to them, that he that sprinkles the water of sprinkling shall wash his clothes; and he that touches the water of sprinkling shall be unclean until the evening. And 22 whatever the unclean person touches shall be unclean; and the person that touches it shall be unclean until the evening.

Then came the children of Yisra'el, the whole congregation, 20 into the desert of Ẓin in the first month: and the people abode in Qadesh, and Miryam died there, and was buried there. And there was no water for the congregation: and they 2 gathered themselves together against Moshe and against Aharon.
And the people quarrelled with Moshe, and spoke, saying, Would 3 that we had died when our brethren died before the LORD!
And why have you brought up the congregation of the LORD 4 into this wilderness, that we and our cattle should die there?
And why have you made us come up out of Miẓrayim, to bring 5 us in unto this evil place? it is no place of seed, or of figs, or of vines, or of pomegranates; nor is there any water to drink. And Moshe and Aharon went from the presence of the 6 assembly to the door of the Tent of Meeting, and they fell upon their faces: and the glory of the LORD appeared to them.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Take the rod, and gather 7,8 the assembly together, thou, and Aharon thy brother, and speak to the rock before their eyes; and it shall give forth its water, and thou shalt bring forth to them water out of the rock: so thou shalt give the congregation and their beasts drink. And 9 Moshe took the rod from before the LORD, as he commanded him. And Moshe and Aharon gathered the congregation together 10 before the rock, and he said to them, Hear now, you rebels; shall we fetch you water out of this rock? And Moshe lifted 11 up his hand, and with his rod he smote the rock twice: and the water came out abundantly, and the congregation drank, and their beasts also. And the LORD spoke to Moshe and 12 Aharon, Because you did not believe in me, to sanctify me in the eyes of the children of Yisra'el, therefore you shall not bring this congregation in to the land which I have given them.
This is the water of Meriva; because the children of Yisra'el 13 strove with the LORD, and he was sanctified by them. And 14 Moshe sent messengers from Qadesh to the king of Edom, Thus says thy brother Yisra'el, Thou knowst all the travail that has befallen us: how our fathers went down into Miẓrayim, and we 15 have dwelt in Miẓrayim a long time; and Miẓrayim vexed us, and our fathers: and when we cried to the LORD, he heard 16 our voice, and sent an angel, and brought us out of Miẓrayim:

and, behold, we are in Qadesh, a city in the uttermost of thy border: let us pass, I pray thee, through thy country: we will 17 not pass through the fields, or through the vineyards, nor will we drink of the water of the wells: we will go by the king's highway, we will not turn to the right hand or to the left, until we have passed thy borders. And Edom said to him, 18 Thou shalt not pass by me, lest I come out against thee with the sword. And the children of Yisra'el said to him, We will 19 go by the highway: and if I and my cattle drink of thy water, then I will pay for it: I will do thee no injury, only on foot will I pass through. And he said, Thou shalt not go through. And 20 Edom came out against him with much people, and with a strong hand. Thus Edom refused to give Yisra'el passage through 21 his border: so that Yisra'el turned away from him.
And they journeyed from Qadesh, and the children of Yisra'el, 22 the whole congregation came to mount Hor. And the LORD 23 spoke to Moshe and Aharon in mount Hor, by the border of the land of Edom, saying, Aharon shall be gathered to his people: 24 for he shall not enter into the land which I have given to the children of Yisra'el, because you rebelled against my word at the water of Meriva. Take Aharon and El'azar his son, and 25 bring them up to mount Hor: and strip Aharon of his gar- 26 ments, and put them upon El'azar his son: and Aharon shall be gathered to his people, and shall die there. And Moshe did 27 as the LORD commanded: and they went up to mount Hor in the sight of all the congregation. And Moshe stripped Aharon 28 of his garments, and put them upon El'azar his son; and Aharon died there in the top of the mount: and Moshe and El'azar came down from the mountain. And when all the congregation saw 29 that Aharon was dead, they mourned for Aharon, thirty days, all the house of Yisra'el. And when the Kena'anite, the 21 king of 'Arad, who dwelt in the Negev, heard tell that Yisra'el came by the way of Atarim; then he fought against Yisra'el, and took some of them prisoners. And Yisra'el vowed a vow to the 2 LORD, and said, If thou wilt indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will devote their cities to destruction. And the LORD 3 hearkened to the voice of Yisra'el, and delivered up the Kena'ani; and they utterly destroyed them and their cities: and he called the name of the place Ḥorma.
And they journeyed from mount Hor by the way of the Sea of 4 Suf, to compass the land of Edom: and the soul of the people was much discouraged because of the way. And the people spoke 5 against GOD, and against Moshe, Why have you brought us up out of Miẓrayim to die in the wilderness? for there is no bread, nor is there any water; and our soul loathes this miserable bread. And the LORD sent venomous serpents among the people, 6 and they bit the people; and many people of Yisra'el died.

Therefore the people came to Moshe and said, We have sinned, 7 for we have spoken against the LORD, and against thee; pray to the LORD, that he take away the serpents from us. And Moshe prayed for the people. And the LORD said to Moshe, 8 Make thee a venomous serpent, and set it upon a pole: and it shall come to pass, that every one that is bitten, when he looks upon it, shall live. And Moshe made a serpent of brass, and 9 put it upon a pole, and it came to pass, that if a serpent had bitten any man, when he beheld the serpent of brass, he lived.
And the children of Yisra'el set forward, and pitched in Ovot. 10
And they journeyed from Ovot, and pitched at 'Iyye-'avarim, 11 in the wilderness which is before Mo'av, toward the sunrising.
From thence they removed, and pitched in the wadi of Zered. 12
From thence they removed, and pitched on the side of Arnon 13 which is in the wilderness that comes out of the border of the Emori: for Arnon is the border of Mo'av, between Mo'av and the Emori. Wherefore it is said in the book of the wars of 14 the LORD, Vahev in Sufa and the wadis of Arnon. And the 15 stream of the wadis that goes down to the dwelling of 'Ar, and lies upon the border of Mo'av. And from thence they 16 went to Be'er: that is the well of which the LORD spoke to Moshe, Gather the people together, and I will give them water. Then Yisra'el sang this song, Spring up, O well; 17 sing to it: the well that the princes dug out, that the nobles 18 of the people delved, with the sceptre, with their staves. And from the wilderness they went to Mattana: and from Mat- 19 tana to Naḥali'el: and from Naḥali'el to Bamot: and from 20 Bamot to the valley, that is in the country of Mo'av, to the top of Pisga, which looks out towards the desert.
And Yisra'el sent messengers to Siḥon king of the Emori, say- 21 ing, Let me pass through thy land: we will not turn aside 22 into the fields, or into the vineyards; we will not drink of the waters of the well: but we will go along by the king's highway, until we have past thy borders. And Siḥon would not allow 23 Yisra'el to pass through his border: but Siḥon gathered all his people together, and went out against Yisra'el into the wilderness: and he came to Yahaẓ, and fought against Yisra'el. And 24 Yisra'el smote him with the edge of the sword, and possessed his land from Arnon to Yabboq, as far as the children of 'Ammon: for the border of the children of 'Ammon was strong.
And Yisra'el took all these cities: and Yisra'el dwelt in all the 25 cities of the Emori, in Ḥeshbon, and in all its hamlets. For Ḥesh- 26 bon was the city of Siḥon the king of the Emori, who had fought against the former king of Mo'av, and taken all his land out of his hand, as far as Arnon. Wherefore they who speak in 27 similes say, Come to Ḥeshbon, let the city of Siḥon be built and established: for there is a fire gone out of Ḥeshbon, a flame 28 from the city of Siḥon: it has consumed 'Ar of Mo'av, and the lords of the high places of Arnon. Woe to thee, Mo'av! thou art 29 undone, O people of Kemosh: he has given his sons as fugitives, and his daughters, as captives to Siḥon king of the Emori. We 30 have shot at them; Ḥeshbon is perished even to Divon, and we have laid them waste to Nofaḥ, which reaches to Medeva. Thus 31 Yisra'el dwelt in the land of the Emori. And Moshe sent to spy 32 out Ya'zer, and they took its hamlets, and drove out the Emori who were there. And they turned and went up by the way of 33 Bashan: and 'Og the king of Bashan went out against them, he, and all his people, to the battle at Edre'i. And the LORD said to 34 Moshe, Fear him not: for I have delivered him into thy hand, and all his people, and his land; and thou shalt do to him as thou didst to Siḥon king of the Emori, who dwelt at Ḥeshbon.

So they smote him, and his sons, and all his people, until there 35 was none left him alive: and they possessed his land. And the 22 children of Yisra'el set forward, and pitched in the plains of BALAQ Mo'av on the far side of the Yarden by Yereḥo. And Balaq 2 the son of Ẓippor saw all that Yisra'el had done to the Emori. 3 And Mo'av was sore afraid of the people, because they were many: and Mo'av was seized with dread because of the children of Yisra'el. And Mo'av said to the elders of Midyan, Now shall 4 this company lick up all that are round about us, as the ox licks up the grass of the field. And Balaq the son of Ẓippor was king of Mo'av at that time. So he sent messengers to Bil'am 5 the son of Be'or to Petor, which is by the river, to the land of the children of his people, to call him, saying, Behold, there is a people come out from Miẓrayim: behold, they cover the face of the earth, and they abide over against me: come now there- 6 fore, I pray thee, curse me this people; for they are too mighty for me: perhaps I shall prevail, that we may smite them, and that I may drive them out of the land: for I know that he whom thou blessest is blessed, and he whom thou cursest is cursed.
And the elders of Mo'av and the elders of Midyan departed with 7 the rewards of divination in their hand; and they came to Bil'am, and spoke to him the words of Balaq. And he said to them, 8 Lodge here this night, and I will bring you back word, as the LORD shall speak to me: and the princes of Mo'av abode with Bil'am. And GOD came to Bil'am, and said, What men are these 9 with thee? And Bil'am said to GOD, Balaq the son of Ẓippor, 10 king of Mo'av, has sent to me, saying, Behold, the people that 11 is come out of Miẓrayim, covers the face of the earth: come now, curse me them; perhaps I shall be able to overcome them, and drive them out. And GOD said to Bil'am, Thou shalt not go 12 with them; thou shalt not curse the people: for they are blessed.
And Bil'am rose up in the morning, and said to the princes of 13
Balaq, Go back to your land: for the LORD refuses to give me leave to go with you. And the princes of Mo'av rose up, and 14 they went to Balaq, and said, Bil'am refuses to come with us.
And Balaq sent again princes, greater, and more honourable 15 than they. And they came to Bil'am, and said to him, Thus says 16 Balaq the son of Ẓippor, Let nothing, I pray thee, hinder thee from coming to me: for I will promote thee to very great 17 honour, and I will do whatever thou sayst to me: come therefore, I pray thee, curse me this people. And Bil'am answered 18 and said to the servants of Balaq, If Balaq would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the word of the LORD my GOD, to do less or more. Now therefore, I pray you, 19

tarry you also here this night, that I may know what the Lord will say further to me. And GOD came to Bil'am at night, and 20 said to him, If the men come to call thee, rise up, and go with them; but only that word which I shall say to thee, shalt thou do. And Bil'am rose up in the morning, and saddled his ass, and 21 went with the princes of Mo'av. And God's anger burned because 22 he went: and the angel of the Lord stood in the way as an adversary against him. Now he was riding upon his ass, and his two servants were with him. And the ass saw the angel of 23 the Lord standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand: and the ass turned aside out of the way, and went into the field: and Bil'am smote the ass, to turn her into the way. But 24 the angel of the LORD stood in a path of the vineyards, a wall being on this side, and a wall on that side. And when the ass 25 saw the angel of the Lord, she thrust herself to the wall, and crushed Bil,am's foot against the wall: and he struck her again.
And the angel of the Lord went further, and stood in a narrow 26 place, where was no way to turn either to the right hand or to the left. And when the ass saw the angel of the Lord, she lay 27 down under Bil'am: and Bil'am's anger burned, and he struck the ass with a staff. And the Lord opened the mouth of the ass, 28 and she said to Bil'am, What have I done to thee, that thou hast struck me these three times? And Bil'am said to the ass, 29 Because thou hast mocked me: I would there were a sword in my hand, for now I would kill thee. And the ass said to Bil'am, 30 Am not I thy ass, upon which thou hast ridden all thy life to this day? was I ever wont to do so to thee? And he said, No, Then the LORD opened the eyes of Bil'am, and he saw the 31 angel of the Lord standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand: and he bowed down his head, and fell on his face.
And the angel of the Lord said to him, Why hast thou struck 32 thy ass these three times? behold, I went out to waylay thee, because thy path is perverse before me: and the ass saw me, 33 and turned from me these three times: unless she had turned from me, I would now have slain thee, and saved her alive.
And Bil'am said to the angel of the LORD, I have sinned; for 34
I knew not that thou didst stand in the way against me: now therefore, if it displease thee, I will get me back again. And 35 the angel of the LORD said to Bil'am, Go with the men: but only the word that I shall speak to thee, that thou shalt speak. So Bil'am went with the princes of Balaq. And when Balaq heard 36 that Bil'am was come, he went out to meet his to a city of Mo'av, which is in the border of Arnon, in the utmost border.
And Balaq said to Bil'am, Did I not earnestly send to thee to 37 call thee? Why camest thou not to me? am I not able indeed to promote thee to honour? And Bil'am said to Balaq, Lo, I 38 am come to thee: have I now any power at all to say anything? the word that God puts in my mouth, that I shall speak. And 39 Bil'am went with Balaq, and they came to Qiryat-ḥuẓot. And 40 Balaq offered oxen and sheep, and sent to Bil'am and to the princes that were with him. And it came to pass on the morrow, 41 that Balaq took Bil'am, and brought him up into Bamot-ba'al, that thence he might see the utmost part of the people. And 23

Bil'am said to Balaq, Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven oxen and seven rams. And Balaq did as Bil'am had 2 spoken; and Balaq and Bil'am offered on every altar a bullock and a ram. And Bil'am said to Balaq, Stand by thy burnt offer- 3 ing, and I will go: perhaps the LORD will come to meet me; and whatever he shows me I will tell thee. And he went to a steep place. And GOD met Bil'am: and he said to him, I have 4 prepared the seven altars, and I have offered upon every altar a bullock and a ram. And the LORD put a word in Bil'am's mouth, 5 and said, Return to Balaq, and thus thou shalt speak. And he 6 returned to him, and behold, he stood by his burnt sacrifice, he, and all the princes of Mo'av. And he took up his discourse, and 7 said, Balaq the king of Mo'av has brought me from Aram, out of the mountains of the east, saying, Come, curse me Ya'aqov, and come, denounce Yisra'el. How shall I curse, whom GOD has 8 not cursed? or how shall I denounce whom the LORD has not denounced? For from the top of the rocks I see him, and from 9 the hills I behold him: it is a people that shall dwell alone, and shall not be reckoned among the nations. Who can count the 10 dust of Ya'aqov, and the number of the fourth part of Yisra'el? Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his! And Balaq said to Bil'am, What hast thou done to 11 me? I took thee to curse my enemies, and, behold, thou hast blessed them altogether. And he answered and said, Must I 12 not take heed to speak that which the LORD has put in my mouth? And Balaq said to him, Come, I pray thee, with me to 13 another place, from whence thou mayst see them: thou shalt see but the utmost part of them, and shalt not see them all: and curse me them from there. And he brought him into a field 14 of vantage, at the top of Pisga, and built seven altars, and offered a bullock and a ram on every altar. And he said to 15 Balaq, Stand here by thy burnt offering, while I go to the meeting yonder. And the LORD met Bil'am, and put a word in his mouth, 16 and said, Go back to Balaq, and say thus. And when he came 17 to him, behold, he stood by his burnt offering, and the princes of Mo'av with him. And Balaq said to him, What has the LORD spoken? And he took up his discourse, and said, Rise up, Balaq 18 and hear; hearken to me, thou son of Ẓippor: GOD is not a man, 19 that he should lie; nor the son of man, that he should repent: has he said, and shall he not perform? or has he spoken, and shall he not make it good? Behold, I am bidden to bless: 20 and he has blessed; and I cannot reverse it. He has not beheld 21 iniquity in Ya'aqov nor has he seen perverseness in Yisra'el: the LORD his GOD is with him, and the trumpet blast of a king is among them. God who brought them out of Miẓrayim; he has 22 as it were the strength of a wild ox. Surely there is no enchant- 23 ment in Ya'aqov, nor is there any divination in Yisrael: in due time Ya'aqov and Yisra'el are told what GOD has performed. Behold, the people shall rise up as a great lion, and lift 24 up himself as a young lion: he shall not lie down until he eat of the prey, and drink the blood of the slain. And Balaq said 25 to Bil'am, Neither curse them, nor bless them. But Bil'am 26 answered and said to Balaq, Did not I tell thee, saying, All that the LORD speaks, that I must do? And Balaq said to Bil'am, 27 Come, I pray thee, I will bring thee to another place; perhaps it will please GOD that thou mayst curse me them from there.

And Balaq brought Bil'am to the top of Pe'or, that looks out 28 towards the desert. And Bil'am said to Balaq, Build me here 29 seven altars, and prepare me here seven bullocks and seven rams. And Balaq did as Bil'am had said, and offered a bullock 30 and a ram on every altar. And when Bil'am saw that it pleased 24 the LORD to bless Yisra'el, he went not, as at other times, to seek for enchantments, but he set his face toward the wilderness. And Bil'am lifted up his eyes, and he saw Yisra'el abiding 2 according to their tribes; and the spirit of GOD came upon him.
And he took up his discourse, and said, The speech of Bil'am the 3 son Be'or, and the speech of the man whose eyes are open: the saying of him who hears the words of GOD, who sees the 4 vision of the Almighty, falling down, but having his eyes open:
how goodly are thy tents, O, Ya'aqov, and thy tabernacles, O 5 Yisra'el! like the winding brooks, like gardens by the river's 6 side, like aloes which the LORD has planted, and cedar trees beside the waters. He shall pour the water out of his buckets, 7 moistening his seed plentifully, and his king shall be higher than Agag, and his kingdom shall be exalted. GOD brought him out 8 of Mizrayim: he has as it were the strength of a wild ox: he shall eat up the nations his enemies, and shall break their bones, and pierce them through with his arrows. He couched, he lay 9 down like a lion, and like a great lion: who shall stir him up?
Blessed is he that blesses thee, and cursed is he that curses thee. And Balaq's anger was kindled against Bil'am, and he 10 smote his hands together: and Balaq said to Bil'am, I called thee to curse my enemies, and, behold, thou hast altogether blessed them these three times. Therefore now flee to thy 11 place: I thought to promote thee to great honour; but, the LORD has kept thee back from honour. And Bil'am said to 12 Balaq, Did I not speak also to thy messengers which thou didst send to me, saying, If Balaq would give me his house full 13 of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the commandment of the LORD, to do either good or bad of my own mind; but what the LORD says, that will I speak? And now, behold, I go to my 14 people: come therefore, and I will advise thee what this people shall do to thy people in the latter days. And he took up his 15 discourse, and said, The speech of Bil'am the son of Be'or, and the speech of the man whose eyes are open: the saying of him 16 that hears the words of GOD, and knows the knowledge of the most High, seeing the vision of the Almighty, falling down but having his eyes open: I see it, but not now: I behold it, but 17 it is not near: there shall come a star out of Ya'aqov, and a sceptre shall rise out of Yisra'el, and shall smite the corners of Mo'av, and destroy all the children of Shet. And Edom shall 18 be his possession, Se'ir also, his enemies, shall be his possession; and Yisra'el shall do valiantly. Out of Ya'aqov shall come 19 a ruler, and shall destroy him that remains of the city. And 20 when he looked on 'Amaleq, he took up his discourse, and said, 'Amaleq was the first of the nations; but his latter end shall be everlasting perdition. And he looked on the Qeni, and took 21 up his discourse, and said, Strong is thy dwellingplace, and thou puttest thy nest in a rock. Nevertheless Qayin shall be wasted; 22 whither shall Ashshur carry thee away captive? And he took 23 up his discourse, and said, Alas, who shall live when he does these things. And ships shall come from the coast of Kittim, 24 and shall afflict Ashshur, and shall afflict 'Ever, and he also shall perish for ever. And Bil'am rose up, and went and returned 25 to his place: and Balaq also went his way.

And Yisra'el abode in Shittim, and the people began to commit 25 harlotry with the daughters of Mo'av. And they called the 2 people to the sacrifices of their gods: and the people ate, and bowed down to their gods. And Yisra'el joined himself to Ba'al- 3 pe'or: and the anger of the LORD was kindled against Yisra'el.
And the LORD said to Moshe, Take all the chiefs of the people, 4 and hang them up before the LORD against the sun, that the burning anger of the LORD may be turned away from Yisra'el.
And Moshe said to the judges of Yisra'el, Slay every one his 5 men that have attached themselves to Ba'al-pe'or. And, behold, 6 one of the children of Yisra'el came and brought to his brethren a Midyanite woman in the sight of Moshe, and in the sight of all the congregation of the children of Yisra'el, who were weeping before the door of the Tent of Meeting. And when Pineḥas, 7 the son of El'azar, the son of Aharon the priest, saw it, he rose up from among the congregation, and took a spear in his hand; and he went after the man of Yisra'el into the chamber, and 8 thrust both of them through, the man of Yisra'el, and the woman through her belly. So the plague was stayed from the children of Yisra'el. And those that died in the plague were twenty four 9 thousand.

PINEḤAS And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Pineḥas, the son of 10, 11
El'azar, the son of Aharon the priest, has turned my wrath away from the children of Yisra'el, in that he was zealous for my sake among them, that I consumed not the children of Yisra'el in my jealousy. Wherefore say, Behold, I give to him 12 my covenant of peace: and he shall have it, and his seed after 13 him, the covenant of an everlasting priesthood; because he was zealous for his GOD, and made atonement for the children of Yisra'el. Now the name of the man of Yisra'el that was slain, 14 that was slain with the Midyanite woman, was Zimri, the son of Salu, a prince of a father's house among the Shim'oni. And 15 the name of the Midyanite woman that was slain was Kozbi, the daughter of Ẓur; he was head over the people of a father's house in Midyan.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Vex the Midyanim, and 16, 17 smite them: for they vex you with their wiles, with which they 18 have beguiled you in the matter of Pe'or, and in the matter of Kozbi, the daughter of a prince of Midyan, their sister, who was slain in the day of the plague in the affair of Pe'or. And it came to pass after the plague, that the LORD spoke to Moshe and to El'azar the son of Aharon 26 the priest, saying, Take the sum of all the congregation of the 2 children of Yisra'el, from twenty years old and upward, by family of the Livni, the family of the Ḥevroni, the family of the Maḥli, the family of the Mushi, the family of the Qorḥi. And Qehat begot 'Amram. And the name of 'Amram's wife was 59 Yokheved, daughter of Levi, whom her mother bore to Levi in Miẓrayim: and she bore to 'Amram Aharon and Moshe, and Miryam their sister. And to Aharon was born Nadav, and Avihu, 60 El'azar and Itamar. And Nadav and Avihu died, when they 61 offered strange fire before the LORD. And those that were num- 62 bered of them were twenty three thousand, all males from a month old and upward: for they were not numbered among the children of Yisra'el, because there was no inheritance given them among the children of Yisra'el. These are they that were 63 numbered by Moshe and El'azar the priest, who numbered the children of Yisra'el in the plains of Mo'av by Yarden near Yereḥo. But among these there was not a man of them whom 64 Moshe and Aharon the priest numbered, when they numbered the children of Yisra'el in the wilderness of Sinay. For the 65

LORD had said of them, They shall surely die in the wilderness. And there was not left a man of them, except Kalev the son of Yefunne, and Yehoshua the son of Nun. Then came the 27 daughters of Ẓelofḥad, the son of Ḥefer, the son of Gil'ad, the son of Makhir, the son of Menashshe, of the families of Menashshe the son of Yosef: and these are the names of his daughters; Maḥla, No'a, and Ḥogla, and Milka and Tirẓa. And they stood 2 before Moshe, and before El'azar the priest, and before the princes and all the congregation, by the door of the Tent of Meeting, saying, Our father died in the wilderness, and he was not in the company of them that gathered themselves together against the LORD in the company of Qoraḥ; but he died in his own sin, and had no sons. Why should the name of our father be 4 done away from his family, because he has no son? Give to us a possession among the brethren of our father. And Moshe 5 brought their cause before the LORD.
And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, The daughters of Ẓelof- 6, 7 ḥad speak right: thou shalt surely give them a possession of inheritance among their father's brethren; and thou shalt cause the inheritance of their father to pass to them. And thou shalt 8 speak to the children of Yisra'el, saying, If a man die, and have no son, then you shall cause his inheritance to pass to his daughter. And if he have no daughter, then you shall give his 9 inheritance to his brothers. And if he have no brothers, then 10 you shall give his inheritance to his father's brothers. And if 11 his father have no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his kinsman that is next to him of his family, and he shall possess it: and it shall be to the children of Yisra'el a statute of judgment, as the LORD commanded Moshe.
And the LORD said to Moshe, Go up into this mount 'Avarim, 12 and see the land which I have given to the children of Yisra'el. And when thou hast seen it, thou also shalt be gathered to thy 13 people, as Aharon thy brother was gathered. For you rebelled 14 against my commandment in the desert of Ẓin, in the strife of the congregation, to sanctify me at the water before their eyes: that is the water of Merivat-qadesh in the wilderness of

Ẓin. And Moshe spoke to the LORD, saying, Let the LORD, 15, 16 the GOD of the spirits of all flesh, set a man over the congregation, who may go out before them, and who may go in before 17 them, and who may lead them out, and may bring them in; that the congregation of the LORD be not as sheep that have no shepherd. And the LORD said to Moshe, Take thee Yehoshua the 18 son of Nun, a man in whom is spirit, and lay thy hand upon him; and set him before El'azar the priest, and before all the 19 congregation; and give him a charge in their sight. And thou 20 shalt put some of thy honour upon him, that all the congregation of the children of Yisra'el may be obedient. And he shall 21 stand before El'azar the priest, who shall ask counsel for him after the judgment of the Urim before the LORD: at his word shall they go out, and at his word they shall come in, both he, and all the children of Yisra'el with him, even all the congregation. And Moshe did as the LORD commanded him: and he took 22 Yehoshua, and set him before El'azar the priest, and before all the congregation: and he laid his hands upon him, and gave 23 him a charge, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moshe.

28

And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Command the children 1, 2 of Yisra'el, and say to them, My offering, the provision of my sacrifices made by fire, for a sweet savour to me, shall you observe to offer to me in their due season. And thou shalt say 3 to them, This is the fire offering which you shall offer to the LORD; two lambs of the first year without blemish day by day, for a continual burnt offering. The one lamb shalt thou offer in 4 the morning, and the other lamb shalt thou offer at evening; and a tenth part of an efa of flour for a meal offering, mingled 5 with the fourth part of a hin of beaten oil. It is a continual burnt 6 offering, which was ordained in mount Sinay for a sweet savour, a sacrifice made by fire to the LORD. And its drink offering shall 7 be the fourth part of a hin for the one lamb: in the holy place shalt thou cause the strong drink to be poured to the LORD for a drink offering. And the other lamb shalt thou offer at evening: 8 like the meal offering of the morning, and like its drink offering, thou shalt offer it, a sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour to the LORD.

And on the sabbath day two lambs of the first year without 9 blemish, and two tenth measures of flour for a meal offering, mingled with oil, and its drink offering: this is the burnt offer- 10 ing of every sabbath, beside the continual burnt offering, and its drink offering.

And in the beginnings of your months you shall offer a burnt 11 offering to the LORD; two young bullocks, and one ram, seven lambs of the first year without blemish; and three tenth mea- 12 sures of flour for a meal offering, mingled with oil, for one bullock; and two tenth measures of flour for a meal offering, mingled with oil, for one ram; and a tenth measure of flour 13 mingled with oil for a meal offering for every lamb; for a burnt offering of a sweet savour, a sacrifice made by fire to the LORD. And their drink offerings shall be half a hin of wine for a bullock, 14 and the third part of a hin for a ram, and a fourth part of a hin for a lamb: this is the burnt offering of every month throughout the months of the year. And one kid of the goats for a sin 15 offering to the LORD shall be offered, beside the continual burnt offering, and its drink offering. And on the fourteenth 16 day of the first month is the passover of the LORD. And on the 17 fifteenth day of this month is the feast: seven days shall unleavened bread be eaten. On the first day shall be a holy gath- 18 ering; you shall do no manner of servile work on it. And 19 you shall offer a sacrifice made by fire for a burnt offering to the LORD; two young bullocks, and one ram, and seven lambs of the first year: they shall be to you without blemish: and 20 their meal offering shall be of flour mingled with oil: three tenth measures shall you offer for a bullock, and two tenth measures for a ram; a tenth measure shalt thou offer for every 21 lamb, for the seven lambs: and one goat for a sin offering, to 22 make atonement for you. You shall offer these beside the burnt 23 offering in the morning, which is for a continual burnt offering.

After this manner you shall offer daily, throughout the seven 24 days, the provision of the sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour to the LORD: it shall be offered beside the continual burnt offering, and its drink offering. And on the seventh day 25 you shall have a holy gathering; you shall do no servile work. Also on the day of the firstfruits, when you bring 26 a new meal offering to the LORD, in your feast of weeks, you shall have a holy gathering; you shall do no servile work.
And you shall offer the burnt offering for a sweet savour to the 27 LORD; two young bullocks, one ram, seven lambs of the first year; and their meal offering of flour mingled with oil, three 28 tenth measures for one bullock, two tenth measures for one ram, a tenth measure for one lamb, for the seven lambs; and 29,30 one kid of the goats, to make atonement for you. You shall offer 31 them beside the continual burnt offering, and its meal offering, (they shall be to you without blemish) and their drink offerings.

And in the seventh month, on the first day of the month, 29
you shall have a holy gathering; you shall do no servile work: it is a day of blowing the horn to you. And you shall offer a 2 burnt offering for a sweet savour to the LORD: one young bullock, one ram, and seven lambs of the first year without blemish: and their meal offering shall be of flour mingled with 3 oil, three tenth measures for a bullock, and two tenth measures for a ram, and one tenth measure for one lamb, throughout the 4 seven lambs: and one kid of the goats for a sin offering, to 5 make atonement for you: besides the burnt offering of the 6 month, and its meal offering, and the daily burnt offering, and its meal offering, and their drink offerings, according to their ordinance, for a sweet savour, a sacrifice made by fire to the LORD. And you shall have on the tenth day of this seventh 7 month a holy gathering; and you shall afflict your souls: you shall not do any work: and you shall offer a burnt offering to 8 the LORD for a sweet savour; one young bullock, one ram, and offering, and its drink offering. On the eighth day you 35 shall have a solemn assembly: you shall do no servile work but you shall offer a burnt offering, a sacrifice made by fire of a sweet savour to the LORD: one bullock, one ram, seven lambs of the first year without blemish: their meal offering and 37 their drink offerings for the bullock, for the ram, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the ordinance: and one goat for a sin offering; besides the continual burnt offer- 38 ing, and its meal offering, and its drink offering. These things 39 you shall do to the LORD in your set feasts, besides your vows, and your freewill offerings, for your burnt offerings, and for your meal offerings, and for your drink offerings, and for your peace offerings. And Moshe told the children of Yisra'el accord- 30 ing to all that the LORD commanded Moshe.

MATTOT And Moshe spoke to the heads of the tribes of the children 2 of Yisra'el, saying, This is the thing which the LORD has commanded. If a man vow a vow to the LORD, or swear an oath to 3 bind his soul with a bond; he shall not break his word, he shall do according to all that proceeds out of his mouth. If 4 a woman also vow a vow to the LORD, and bind herself by a bond, being in her father's house in her youth; and her father 5 hear her vow, and her bond with which she has bound herself, and her father shall hold his peace at her: then all her vows shall stand, and every bond with which she has bound herself shall stand. But if her father disallow her in the day that he 6 hears; not any of her vows, or of her bonds with which she has bound herself, shall stand: and the LORD shall forgive her, because her father disallowed her. And if she be married to a 7 husband, when she vowed, or uttered aught out of her lips, with which she bound herself; and her husband heard it, and 8 held his peace at her in the day that he heard it: then her vows shall stand, and her bonds with which she bound herself shall stand. But if her husband disallowed her on the day that he 9 heard it; then he shall make her vow which she vowed, and that which she uttered with her lips, with which she bound her soul, of no effect: and the LORD shall forgive her. But every 10 vow of a widow, and of her that is divorced, with which they have bound their souls, shall stand against her. And if she 11 vowed in her husband's house, or bound herself by a bond with an oath; and her husband heard it, and held his peace at 12 her, and disallowed her not: then all her vows shall stand, and every bond with which she bound her soul shall stand. But 13 if her husband made them void on the day he heard them; then whatever proceeded out of her lips concerning her vows, or concerning the bond of the soul, shall not stand: her husband has made them void; and the LORD shall forgive her.
Every vow, and every binding oath to afflict the soul, her 14 husband may let it stand, or her husband may make it void.
But if her husband hold his peace at her from day to day; 15 then he confirms all her vows, or all her bonds, which are upon her: he confirms them, because he held his peace at her in the day that he heard them. But if he should annul them after he 16 has heard them; then he shall bear her iniquity These are the 17 statutes, which the LORD commanded Moshe, between a man and his wife, between the father and his daughter, being yet in her youth in her father's house.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe saying, Execute the vengeance 1,2 of the children of Yisra'el on the Midyanim: afterwards thou shalt be gathered to thy people. And Moshe spoke to the people, 3 saying, Arm from yourselves men for the army, and let them go against Midyan and avenge the LORD on Midyan. Of every 4 tribe a thousand, throughout all the tribes of Yisra'el, shall you send to the war. So there were delivered out of the thousands 5 of Yisra'el, a thousand of every tribe, twelve thousand armed for war. And Moshe sent them to the war, a thousand of every 6 tribe, them and Pineḥas the son of El'azar the priest, to the war, with the holy instruments, and the trumpets to blow in his hand. And they warred against Midyan, as the LORD commanded 7 Moshe, and they slew all the males. And they slew the kings 8 of Midyan, beside the rest of them that were slain; namely, Evi, and Reqem, and Ẓur, and Ḥur, and Reva, five kings of Midyan: Bil'am also the son of Be'or they slew with the sword.
And the children of Yisra'el took all the women of Midyan 9 captives, and their little ones, and took the spoil of all their cattle, and all their flocks, and all their goods. And they burnt 10 all the cities in which they dwelt, and all their encampments, with fire. And they took all the spoil, and all the prey, both of 11 men and of beasts. And they brought the captives, and the 12 prey, and the spoil, to Moshe, and El'azar the priest, and to the congregation of the children of Yisra'el, to the camp at the plains of Mo'av, which are by Yarden near Yereḥo. And 13 Moshe, and El'azar the priest, and all the princes of the congregation, went out to meet them outside the camp. And Moshe 14 was angry with the officers of the host, the captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, who came from the battle. And Moshe said to them, Have you saved all the women 15 alive? Behold, these caused the children of Yisra'el, through 16 the counsel of Bil'am, to revolt against the LORD in the matter of Pe'or, and there was a plague among the congregation of the LORD. Now therefore kill every male among the little ones, 17 and kill every woman that has known man by lying with him.
But all the women children, that have not known man by lying 18 with him, keep alive for yourselves. And abide outside the 19 camp seven days: whoever has killed any person, and whoever has touched any slain, purify both yourselves and your captives on the third day, and on the seventh day. And purify every 20 garment, and all that is made of skins, and all work of goats' hair, and all things made of wood. And El'azar the priest 21 said to the men of war which went to the battle, This is the ordinance of the Tora which the LORD commanded Moshe; only the gold, and the silver, the brass, the iron, the tin, and 22 the lead, every thing that passes through the fire, you shall 23 make it go through the fire, and it shall be clean: nevertheless it shall be purified with the water of sprinkling: and all that does not pass through the fire shall you make to go through water. And you shall wash your clothes on the seventh day, 24 and you shall be clean, and afterwards you shall come into the camp. And the LORD spoke to Moshe saying, Take the 25, 26 sum of the prey that was taken, both of man and of beast, thou, and El'azar the priest, and the chief fathers of the congregation: and divide the prey into two parts; between those who 27 took the war upon them, who went out to battle, and between all the congregation: and levy a tribute to the LORD of the 28 men of war who went out to battle: one soul of five hundred, both of the persons, and of the beef cattle, and of the asses, and of the sheep: from their half shall you take it, and give 29 it to El'azar the priest, for an offering set apart to the LORD. And of the children of Yisra'el's half, thou shalt take one portion 30 of fifty, of the persons, of the beef cattle, of the asses, and of the flocks, of all manner of beasts, and give them to the Levites, who keep the charge of the tabernacle of the LORD. And Moshe 31 and El'azar the priest did as the LORD commanded Moshe. And the booty, being the rest of the prey which the men of 32 war had caught, was six hundred and seventy five thousand sheep. And seventy two thousand head of beef, and sixty one 33, 34 thousand asses, and thirty two thousand persons in all, of 35 women that had not known man by lying with him. And the 36 half, which was the portion of those who went out to war, was in number three hundred and thirty seven thousand, five hundred sheep: and the LORD's tribute of the sheep was six hundred and 37 seventy five. And the beef cattle were thirty six thousand; of 38 which the LORD's tribute was seventy two. And the asses were 39 thirty thousand, five hundred; of which the LORD's tribute was sixty one. And the persons were sixteen thousand; of which 40 the LORD's tribute was thirty two persons. And Moshe gave the 41 tribute, which was the LORD's gift, to El'azar the priest, as the LORD commanded Moshe. And of the children of Yisra'el's half, 42 which Moshe divided from the men that warred, (now the half 43 that pertained to the congregation was three hundred and thirty seven thousand, five hundred sheep, and thirty six thousand 44 head of beef, and thirty thousand five hundred asses, and 45, 46 sixteen thousand persons;) and of the children of Yisra'el's 47 half, Moshe took one portion of fifty, both of man and of beast, and gave them to the Levites, who kept the charge of the tabernacle of the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moshe. And 48 the officers who were over the thousands of the host, the captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds, came near to Moshe: and they said to Moshe, Thy servants have taken the 49 sum of the men of war who are under our charge, and not one man of us is missing. We have therefore brought an offering 50 for the LORD, what every man has gotten, of jewels of gold, chains, and bracelets, rings, earrings, and girdles, to make atonement for our souls before the LORD. And Moshe and El'azar 51 the priest took the gold of them, all wrought jewels. And all 52 the gold of the offering that they offered up to the LORD, of the captains of thousands, and of the captains of hundreds, was sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty shekels. (For the men of war had taken spoil, every man for himself.) 53 54

And Moshe and El'azar the priest took the gold of the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it to the Tent of Meeting, a memorial for the children of Yisra'el before the LORD.

Now the children of Re'uven and the children of Gad had a very great multitude of cattle: and when they saw the land of Ya'zer, and the land of Gil'ad, that, behold, the place was a place for cattle; 32 2 the children of Gad and the children of Re'uven came and spoke to Moshe, and to El'azar the priest, and to the princes of the congregation, saying, 3
'Atarot, and Divon, and Ya'zer, and Nimra, and Ḥeshbon, and El'ale, and Sevam, and Nevo, and Be'on, 4 the country which the LORD smote before the congregation of Yisra'el, is a land for cattle, and thy servants have cattle: 5 and they said, If we have found favour in thy sight, let this land be given to thy servants for a possession, and bring us not over the Yarden.
And Moshe said to the children of Gad and to the children of Re'uven, 6
Shall your brethren go to war, and shall you sit here? 7
And why do you dishearten the children of Yisra'el from going over into the land which the LORD has given them? 8
Thus did your fathers, when I sent them from Qadesh-barnea to see the land. 9
For when they went up to the wadi of Eshkol, and saw the land, they disheartened the children of Yisra'el, that they should not go into the land which the LORD had given them.
And the LORD's anger burned at that time, and he swore, saying, 10
Surely none of the men that came up out of Miẓrayim, from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land which I swore to Avraham to Yiḥẓaq, and to Ya'aqov; 11 because they have not wholly followed me: 12 save Kalev son of Yefunne the Qenizzite, and Yehoshua the son of Nun: for they have wholly followed the LORD.
And the LORD's anger burned against Yisra'el, and he made them wander in the wilderness for forty years, until all the generation, that had done evil in the sight of the LORD, was consumed. 13 14
And, behold, you are risen up in place of your fathers, a brood of sinful men, to augment yet the fierce anger of the LORD towards Yisra'el. 15
For if you turn away from after him, he will yet again leave them in the wilderness; and you will destroy all this people. 16
And they came near to him, and said, We will build sheepfolds here for our cattle, and cities for our little ones: 17 but we ourselves will go ready armed before the children of Yisra'el, until we have brought them to their place: and our little ones shall dwell in the fortified cities because of the inhabitants of the land.
We will not return to our houses, until the children of Yisra'el have inherited every man his inheritance. 18
For we will not inherit with them on yonder side of the Yarden, and farther off; because our inheritance is fallen to us on this side of the Yarden eastward. 19

And Moshe said to them, If you will do this thing, if you will go armed before the LORD to war, 20 and will go all of you armed over the Yarden before the LORD, until he has driven out his enemies before him, 21 and the land be subdued before the LORD: 22 then afterwards you shall return, and be guiltless before the LORD, and before Yisra'el; and this land shall be your possession before the LORD. But if you will not do so, behold, you have 23 sinned against the LORD: and be sure your sin will find you out.

Build cities for your little ones, and folds for your sheep; and 24 do that which has proceeded out of your mouth. And the 25 children of Gad and the children of Re'uven spoke to Moshe, saying, Thy servants will do as my lord commands. Our little 26 ones, our wives, our flocks, and all our cattle, shall be there in the cities of Gil'ad: but thy servants will pass over, every 27 man armed for war, before the LORD to battle, as my lord says.
So concerning them Moshe commanded El'azar the priest, and 28 Yehoshua the son of Nun, and the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Yisra'el: and Moshe said to them, If the 29 children of Gad and the children of Re'uven will pass with you over the Yarden, every man armed to battle, before the LORD, and the land shall be subdued before you; then you shall give them the land of Gil'ad for a possession: but if they will not 30 pass over with you armed, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Kena'an. And the children of Gad and the 31 children of Re'uven answered, saying, as the LORD has said to thy servants, so will we do. We will pass over armed before 32 the LORD into the land of Kena'an, that the possession of our inheritance may be ours on this side of the Yarden. And Moshe 33 gave to them, to the children of Gad, and to the children of Re'uven, and to half the tribe of Menashshe the son of Yosef, the kingdom of Sihon king of the Emori, and the kingdom of 'Og king of Bashan, the land, with its cities in the borders, the cities of the country round about. And the children of Gad built 34 Divon, and 'Atarot, and 'Aro'er, and 'Atrot-shofan, and Ya'zer, 35 and Yogbeha, and Bet-nimra, and Bet-haran, fortified cities: 36 and folds for sheep. And the children of Re'uven built Heshbon, 37 and El'ale, and Qiryatayim, and Nevo, and Ba'al-me'on, (their 38 names being changed,) and Sivma: and gave other names to the cities which they built. And the children of Makhir the son 39 of Menashshe went to Gil'ad, and took it, and dispossessed the Emori who were in it. And Moshe gave Gil'ad to Makhir the 40 son of Menashshe; and he dwelt in it. And Ya'ir the son of 41 Menashshe went and took their villages, and called them Havvot-ya'ir. And Novah went and took Qenat, and its hamlets, 42 and called it Novah, after his own name.

MAS'E These are the journeys of the children of Yisra'el, who went 33 out of the land of Mizrayim with their armies under the hand of Moshe and Aharon. And Moshe wrote their goings out ac- 2 cording to their journeys by the commandment of the LORD: and these are their journeys according to their goings out. And 3 they departed from Ra'meses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month; on the morrow after the passover the children of Yisra'el went out with a high hand in the sight of all Mizrayim. And Mizrayim was burying all their firstborn, 4 whom the LORD had smitten among them: upon their gods also the LORD executed judgments. And the children of Yisra'el 5 removed from Ra'meses, and pitched in Sukkot. And they de- 6 parted from Sukkot, and pitched in Etam, which is in the edge tains of 'Avarim, before Nevo. And they departed from the 48 mountains of 'Avarim, and pitched in the plains of Mo'av by Yarden near Yereḥo. And they pitched by the Yarden, 49 from Bet-hayeshimot to Avel-hashshittim in the plains of Mo'av. And the LORD spoke to Moshe in the plains of 50

Mo'av by the Yarden near Yereḥo, saying, Speak to the children 51 of Yisra'el, and say to them, When you pass over the Yarden into the land of Kena'an; then you shall drive out all the inhabitants 52 of the land from before you, and destroy all their figured pavements, and destroy all their molten images, and devastate all their high places: and you shall dispossess the inhabitants of 53 the land, and dwell in it: for I have given you the land to possess it. And you shall divide the land by lot for an inheritance among 54 your families: and to the more you shall give the more inheritance, and to the fewer you shall give the less inheritance:
every man's inheritance shall be in the place where his lot falls; according to the tribes of your fathers you shall inherit.
But if you will not drive out the inhabitants of the land from 55 before you; then it shall come to pass, that those whom you allow to remain of them shall be as thorns in your eyes, and stings in your sides, and shall vex you in the land wherein you dwell. Moreover it shall come to pass, that I shall do to 56 you, as I thought to do to them.

And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, Command the children 1,2 of Yisra'el, and say to them, When you come into the land of Kena'an; (this is the land that shall fall to you for an inheritance, the land of Kena'an with its borders:) then the Negev 3 quarter shall be from the wilderness of Ẓin along by the border of Edom, and your south border shall be the outmost coast of the Salt Sea eastward: and your border shall turn from the 4 Negev to Ma'ale-'aqrabbim, and pass on to Ẓin: and its limits shall be from the south to Qadesh-barnea, and shall go on to Ḥaẓar-addar, and pass on to 'Aẓmon: and the border shall 5 turn about, from 'Aẓmon to the wadi of Miẓrayim, and its limits shall be at the Sea. And as for the western border, you 6 shall have the Great Sea for a border: this shall be your west border. And this shall be your north border: from the Great 7 Sea you shall mark out your frontier at mount Hor: from mount 8 Hor you shall mark out your border to the entrance of Ḥamat; and the limits of the border shall be to Ẓedad: and the border 9 shall go on to Zifron, and its limits shall be at Ḥaẓar-'enan: this shall be your north border. And you shall point out your 10 east border from Ḥaẓar-'enan to Shefam: and the border shall go 11 down from Shefam to Rivla, on the east side of 'Ayin; and the border descend, and shall reach the eastward projection of the Sea of Kinneret: and the border shall go down to the 12 Yarden, and its limits shall be at the Salt Sea: this shall be your land with its borders round about. And Moshe com- 13 manded the children of Yisra'el, saying, This is the land which you shall inherit by lot, which the LORD commanded to give to the nine tribes, and the half tribe: for the tribe of the children 14

And the LORD spoke to Moshe, saying, These are the names of the men who shall share out the land to you: El'azar the priest, and Yehoshua the son of Nun. And the LORD, spoke to Moshe in the plains of Mo'av by Yarden near Yereḥo saying, Command the children of Yisra'el, that they give to the Levites of the inheritance of their possession cities to dwell in; and you shall give also to the Levites an open space for the cities round about them. And the cities shall they have to dwell in; and their open spaces shall be for their cattle, and for their goods, and for all their beasts. And the open spaces of the cities, that you shall give to the Levites, shall reach from the wall of the city outwards a thousand cubits round about. And you shall measure from outside the city on the east side two thousand cubits, and on the south side two thousand cubits, and on the west side two thousand cubits, and on the north side two thousand cubits, and the city shall be in the midst: this shall be to them the open spaces of the cities. And among the cities which you shall give to the Levites shall be six cities of refuge, which you shall appoint for the manslayer, that he may flee there: and to them you shall add forty two cities. he stand before the congregation in judgment. And the cities 13 which you shall give shall be six cities for refuge. You shall 14 give three cities on this side of the Yarden, and three cities shall you give in the land of Kena'an; cities of refuge shall they be. These six cities shall be a refuge, both for the children of 15 Yisra'el, and for the stranger, and for the sojourner among them: that everyone that kills any person unawares may flee there. And if he smite him with an instrument of iron, so that 16 he die, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death. And if he smite him by hand with a stone, whereby he 17 may die, and he die, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death. Or if he smite him with a hand weapon of 18 wood, whereby he may die, and he die, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death. The revenger of blood 19 himself shall slay the murderer: when he meets him, he shall slay him. And if he thrust him out of hatred, or hurl something 20 at him whilst lying in wait, that he die; or in enmity smite 21 him with his hand, that he die: he that smote him shall surely be put to death; for he is a murderer: the revenger of blood shall slay the murderer, when he encounters him. But if he 22 thrust him suddenly without enmity, or cast upon him anything without lying in wait, or with any stone, whereby a man may 23 die, but without seeing him, and cast it upon him, that he die, and was not his enemy, nor sought his harm: then the con- 24 gregation shall judge between the slayer and the revenger of blood according to these judgments: and the congregation shall 25 deliver the slayer out of the hand of the revenger of blood, and the congregation shall restore him to the city of his refuge, whither he was fled: and he shall abide in it until the death of the high priest, who was anointed with the holy oil.
But if the slayer shall at any time come outside the border of 26 the city of his refuge, whither he was fled; and the revenger 27 of blood find him outside the borders of the city of his refuge, and the revenger of blood kill the slayer; he shall not be guilty of blood: because he should have remained in the city 28 of his refuge until the death of the high priest: but after the death of the high priest the slayer shall return to the land of his possession. So these things shall be for a statute of judg- 29 ment to you throughout your generations in all your dwellings.
Whoever kills any person, the murderer shall be put to death 30 by the mouth of witnesses: but one witness shall not testify against any person to cause him to die. Moreover you shall take 31 no ransom for the life of a murderer, who is guilty of death:
but he shall be surely put to death. And you shall take no ransom 32 for him that is fled to the city of his refuge, that he should come back to dwell in the land, until the death of the priest. So you 33 shall not pollute the land in which you are: for blood pollutes the land: and the land cannot be cleansed of the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of him that shed it. And 34 thou shalt not defile the land which you shall inhabit, in which I dwell: for I the LORD dwell among the children of Yisra'el.

And the chief fathers of the family of the children of Gil'ad, 36 the son of Makhir, the son of Menashshe, of the families of the sons of Yosef, came near, and spoke before Moshe, and before the princes, the chief fathers of the children of Yisra'el:

and they said, The LORD commanded my lord to give the 2 land for an inheritance by lot to the children of Yisra'el: and my lord was commanded by the LORD to give the inheritance of Ẕelofḥad our brother to his daughters. And if 3 they be married to any of the sons of the other tribes of the children of Yisra'el, then shall their inheritance be taken from the inheritance of our fathers, and shall be added to the inheritance of the tribe to which they are joined: so shall it be taken from the lot of our inheritance. And when the jubilee of the children 4 of Yisra'el shall be, then shall their inheritance be added to the inheritance of the tribe unto which they are joined: so shall their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers. And Moshe commanded the children of 5 Yisra'el according to the word of the LORD, saying, The tribe of the sons of Yosef has said well. This is the thing which the 6 LORD commands concerning the daughters of Ẕelofḥad, saying, Let them marry whom they think best; only within the family of the tribe of their father shall they marry. So the inheritance of 7 the children of Yisra'el shall not remove from tribe to tribe: for every one of the children of Yisra'el shall cleave to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers. And every daughter, who pos- 8 sesses an inheritance in any tribe of the children of Yisra'el shall be wife to one of the family of the tribe of her father, that the children of Yisra'el may enjoy every man the inheritance of his fathers. Neither shall the inheritance remove from one tribe 9 to another tribe; but every one of the tribes of the children of Yisra'el shall keep himself to his own inheritance. Even as the 10
LORD commanded Moshe, so did the daughters of Ẕelofḥad: for 11 Maḥla, Tirẓa, and Ḥogla, and Milka, and No'a, the daughters of Ẕelofḥad, were married to their uncles' sons: and they were 12 married to the families of the sons of Menashshe the son of Yosef, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of the family of their father. These are the commandments and the judgments, 13 which the LORD commanded by the hand of Moshe to the children of Yisra'el in the plains of Mo'av by Yarden near Yereḥo.

THESE are the words which Moshe spoke to all Yisra'el 1 on the other side of the Yarden, in the wilderness over against Suf, between Paran, and Tofel, and Lavan, and Ḥazerot, and Di-zahav. It is eleven days' journey 2 from Ḥorev by the way of mount Se'ir to Qadesh-barnea. And 3 it came to pass in the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first day of the month, that Moshe spoke to the children of Yisra'el, according to all that the LORD had given him in commandment to them; after he had slain Siḥon the king of the 4 Emori, who dwelt in Ḥeshbon, and 'Og the king of Bashan, who dwelt at 'Ashtarot in Edre'i: beyond the Yarden, in the 5 land of Mo'av, Moshe began to declare this Tora, saying, The 6 LORD our GOD spoke to us in Ḥorev, saying, You have dwelt long enough in this mountain: turn, and take your journey, and 7 go to the mountain of the Emori, and to all the places near it, in the plain, in the hills, and in the lowland, and in the Negev, and by the sea side, to the land of the Kena'ani, and the Levanon, as far as the great river, the river Perat. Behold, I have set 8 the land before you: go in and possess the land which the LORD swore to your fathers, Avraham, Yiẓḥaq, and Ya'aqov, to give to them and to their seed after them. And I spoke to you at that 9 time, saying, I am not able to bear you myself alone: the LORD 10 your GOD has multiplied you, and, behold, you are this day like the stars of heaven for multitude. (The LORD GOD of your fathers 11 make you a thousand times so many more as you are, and bless you, as he has promised you!) How can I myself alone bear your 12 care, and your burden, and your strife? Take wise men, and 13 understanding, and known among your tribes, and I will make them rulers over you. And you answered me, and said, The thing 14 which thou hast spoken is good for us to do. So I took the chief 15 of your tribes, wise men, and known, and made them heads over you, captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, and captains over fifties, and captains over tens, and officers among your tribes. And I charged your judges at that time, saying, Hear 16 the causes between your brethren, and judge righteously between every man and his brother, and the stranger that is with him. Do not respect persons in judgment; but hear the small as 17 well as the great; do not be afraid of the face of any man; for the judgment is GOD'S: and the cause that is too hard for you, bring it to me, and I will hear it. And I commanded you at that 18 time all the things which you should do. And when we departed 19 from Ḥorev, we went through all that great and terrible wilderness, which you saw; by the way of the mountain of the Emori, as the LORD our GOD commanded us; and we came to Qadesh-barnea. And I said to you, You are come to the moun- 20 tain of the Emori, which the LORD our GOD gives to us. Behold, 21 the LORD thy GOD has set the land before thee: go up and possess it, as the LORD GOD of thy fathers has said to thee; fear not, nor be discouraged. And you came near to me every one 22 of you, and said, We will send men before us, and they shall search us out the land, and bring us back word by what way we must go up, and into what cities we shall come. And the saying 23 pleased me well: and I took twelve men of you, one for a tribe:

and they turned and went up to the mountain, and came to the 24 wadi of Eshkol, and searched it out. And they took of the fruit 25 of the land in their hands, and brought it down to us, and brought us back word, and said, It is a good land which the LORD our GOD gives us. Yet you would not go up, but rebelled 26 against the commandment of the LORD your GOD: and you mur- 27 mured in your tents, and said, Because the LORD hated us, he has brought us forth out of the land of Mizrayim, to deliver us into the hand of the Emori, to destroy us. Whither shall we go up? 28 our brethren have made our heart faint, saying, The people are greater and taller than we; the cities are great and fortified up to heaven; and moreover we have seen the sons of the 'Anaqim there. Then I said to you, Dread not, neither be afraid of them. 29
The LORD your GOD who goes before you, he shall fight for you, 30 according to all that he did for you in Mizrayim before your eyes; and in the wilderness, where thou hast seen how that the 31 LORD thy GOD bore thee, as a man bears his son, in all the way that you went, until you came to this place. Yet in this thing 32 you did not believe the LORD your GOD, who went in the way 33 before you, to search you out a place to pitch your tents in, in fire by night, to show you by what way you should go, and in a cloud by day. And the LORD heard the voice of your words, and 34 was angry, and swore, saying, Surely not one of these men of 35 this evil generation shall see that good land, which I swore to give to your fathers, save Kalev the son of Yefunne; he shall 36 see it, and to him will I give the land that he has trodden upon, and to his children, because he has wholly followed the LORD.
Also the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, saying, Thou 37 also shalt not go in there. But Yehoshua the son of Nun, who 38 stands before thee, he shall go in there: encourage him: for he shall cause Yisra'el to inherit it. And your little ones, con- 39 cerning whom you said they should be a prey, and your children who in that day had no knowledge of good and evil, they shall go in there, and to them will I give it, and they shall possess it.
But as for you, turn, and take your journey into the wilderness 40 by the way of the Sea of Suf. Then you answered and said to 41 me, We have sinned against the LORD, we will go up and fight, according to all that the LORD our GOD commanded us. And you girded on every man his weapons of war, and ventured to go up into the hill. And the LORD said to me, Say to them, Neither go 42 up, nor fight; for I am not among you; lest you be smitten before your enemies. So I spoke to you; and you would not 43 hear, but rebelled against the commandment of the LORD, and went presumptuously up into the hill. And the Emori, who 44 dwelt in that mountain, came out against you, and chased you, as bees do, and beat you down in Se'ir, as far as Ḥorma. And 45 you returned and wept before the LORD; but the LORD would not hearken to your voice, nor give ear to you. So you abode in 46 Qadesh many days, according to the days that you abode there.
Then we turned, and took our journey into the wilderness by 2 the way of the Sea of Suf, as the LORD spoke to me: and we went about mount Se'ir many days. And the LORD spoke 2 to me, saying, You have compassed this mountain long enough: 3 turn northwards. And command the people, saying, You are 4 to pass through the border of your brethren the children of 'Esav, who dwell in Se'ir; and they shall be afraid of you: take good heed to yourselves therefore: meddle not with them; 5 for I will not give you of their land, no, not so much as a foot breadth; because I have given mount Se'ir to 'Esav for a possession. You shall buy food of them for money, that you may 6 eat; and you shall also buy water of them for money, that you may drink. For the LORD thy GOD has blessed thee in all the work 7 of thy hand: he knows thy walking through this great wilderness: these forty years the LORD thy GOD has been with thee; thou hast lacked nothing. And when we passed by from our 8 brethren the children of 'Esav, who dwelt in Se'ir, through the way of the 'Arava from Elat and from 'Ezyon-gever, we turned and passed by the way of the wilderness of Mo'av. And 9 the LORD said to me, Do not harass Mo'av, nor contend with them in battle: for I will not give thee of their land for a possession; because I have given 'Ar to the children of Lot for a possession. (The Emim dwelt there in times past, a people great, 10 and many, and tall, like the 'Anaqim; who also were considered 11 Refa'im as the 'Anaqim; but the Mo'avim call them Emim. The 12 Ḥorim also dwelt in Se'ir beforetime; but the children of 'Esav succeeded them, and they destroyed them from before them, and dwelt in their place; as Yisra'el did to the land of his possession, which the LORD gave to them.) Now rise up, and get 13 you over the wadi Zered. And we went over the wadi Zered.

And the days in which we came from Qadesh-Barnea, until we 14 were come over the wadi Zered, were thirty eight years; until all the generation of the men of war were wasted out from among the host, as the LORD swore to them. For indeed the hand 15 of the LORD was against them, to destroy them from among the host, until they were consumed. So it came to pass, when all the 16 men of war were consumed and dead from among the people, that the LORD spoke to me, saying, Thou art to pass 17, 18 over through 'Ar, the border of Mo'av, this day: and when thou 19 comest near, opposite the children of 'Ammon, harass them not, nor contend with them: for I will not give thee of the land of the children of 'Ammon any possession; because I have given it to the children of Lot for a possession. (That also was con- 20 sidered a land of Refa'im: Refa'im dwelt therein in old time; and the 'Ammonim call them Zamzummim. A people great, and 21 many, and tall, like the 'Anaqim; but the LORD destroyed them 21 before them; and they succeeded them, and dwelt in their place:
as he did to the children of 'Esav, who dwelt in Se'ir, when he 22 destroyed the Ḥorim from before them; and they succeeded them, and dwelt in their stead until this very day: and the 23
'Avvim who dwelt in Ḥazerim, as far as 'Azza; Kaftorim who came from Kaftor, destroyed them and dwelt in their stead.) Rise up, take your journey, and pass over the wadi Arnon: 24 behold, I have given into thy hand Siḥon the Emorite, king of Ḥeshbon, and his land: begin to possess it, and contend with him in battle. This day will I begin to put the dread of thee and 25 the fear of thee upon the nations that are under the whole heaven, who shall hear report of thee, and shall tremble, and quake because of thee. And I sent messengers out of the wilder- 26 ness of Qedemot to Siḥon king of Ḥeshbon with words of peace, saying, Let me pass through thy land: I will go along by the 27 high way, I will neither turn to the right hand nor to the left. Thou shalt sell me food for money, that I may eat; and give me 28 water for money, that I may drink: only I will pass through with those who follow me; (as the children of 'Esav who dwell in 29 Se'ir, and the Mo'avim who dwell in 'Ar, did to me;) until I shall pass over the Yarden into the land which the LORD our GOD gives us. But Siḥon king of Ḥeshbon would not let us pass 30 by him: for the LORD thy GOD hardened his spirit, and made his heart obstinate, that he might deliver him into thy hand, as is apparent this day. And the LORD said to me, Behold, I have 31 begun to give Siḥon and his land before thee: begin to possess, that thou mayst inherit his land. Then Siḥon came out against 32 us, he and all his people, to fight at Yahaẓ. And the LORD our 33 GOD delivered him before us; and we smote him, and his sons, and all his people. And we took all his cities at that time, and 34 devoted to destruction every city, the men, and the women, and the little ones; we left none remaining: only the cattle we took 35 for a prey to ourselves, and the spoil of the cities which we took; From 'Aro'er, which is by the edge of the wadi of Arnon, and 36 from the city that is by the wadi, as far as Gil'ad, there was not one city too strong for us: the LORD our GOD delivered all to us: only to the land of the children of 'Ammon thou didst not come, 37 nor to any place of the torrent of Yabboq, nor to the cities in the mountains, nor to whatever place the LORD our GOD forbad us. Then we turned, and went up the way to Bashan: and 'Og 3 the king of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Edre'i. And the LORD said to me, Fear him not: for 2

I will deliver him, and all his people, and his land, into thy hand; and thou shalt do to him as thou didst to Siḥon king of the Emori, who dwelt at Ḥeshbon. So the LORD our GOD delivered 3 into our hands 'Og also, the king of Bashan, and all his people: and we smote him until none was left to him remaining. And 4 we took all his cities at that time, there was not a city which we took not from them, sixty cities, all the region of Argov, the kingdom of 'Og in Bashan. All these cities were fortified with 5 high walls, gates, and bars; besides unwalled towns a great many. And we devoted them to destruction, as we did to Siḥon 6 king of Ḥeshbon, utterly destroying the men, women, and children, of every city. But all the cattle, and the spoil of the cities, 7 we took for a prey to ourselves. And we took at that time out 8 of the hand of the two kings of the Emori the land that was on this side of the Yarden, from the wadi of Arnon to mount Ḥermon; (which Ḥermon the Ẓidonim call Siryon; and the Emori 9 call it Senir;) all the cities of the plain, and all Gil'ad, and 10 all Bashan, as far as Salkha and Edre'i, cities of the kingdom of 'Og in Bashan. For only 'Og king of Bashan remained of the 11 remnant of the Refa'im; behold, his bed is a bed of iron; is it not in Rabba of the children of 'Ammon? nine cubits is the length of it, and four cubits the breadth of it, after the cubit of a man.

And this land, which we possessed at that time, from 'Aro'er, 12 which is by the wadi Arnon, and half mount Gil'ad, and its cities, I gave to the Re'uveni and to the Gadi. And the rest of Gil'ad, 13 and all Bashan, being the kingdom of 'Og, I gave to the half tribe of Menashshe; all the region of Argov, with all Bashan, which was called the land of Refa'im. Ya'ir the son of Menash- 14 she took all the country of Argov as far as the border of the Geshuri and the Ma'akhati; and called them (that is the Bashan) after his name, Ḥavvot-ya'ir, to this day. And I gave Gil'ad to 15 Makhir. And to the Re'uveni and to the Gadi I gave from Gil'ad 16 to the wadi Arnon, the middle of the wadi as a border, as far as the torrent of Yabboq, which is the border of the children of 'Ammon; the 'Arava also and the Yarden, as a border, from 17 Kinneret as far as the Sea of the 'Arava, even the Salt Sea, under the slopes of Pisga eastward. And I commanded you at that time, 18 saying, The LORD your GOD has given you this land to possess it: pass over armed before your brethren the children of Yisra'el, all that are fit for the war. But your wives, and your little 19 ones, and your cattle, (for I know that you have much cattle,) shall abide in your cities which I have given you; until the 20 LORD gives rest to your brethren, as well as to you, and until they also possess the land which the LORD our GOD has given them beyond the Yarden: and then shall you return every man to his possession, which I have given you. And I commanded 21 Yehoshua at that time, saying, Thy eyes have seen all that the LORD your GOD has done to these two kings; so shall the LORD do to all the kingdoms into which thou dost pass. You shall 22 not fear them: for the LORD your GOD he shall fight for you.

VA'ETḤANNAN And I besought the LORD at that time, saying, O LORD 23, 24 GOD, thou hast begun to show thy servant thy greatness, and thy mighty hand: for what GOD is there in heaven or in earth, that can do according to thy works, and according to thy might?
I pray thee, let me go over, and see the good land that is beyond 25 the Yarden, that goodly mountain region and the Levanon. But 26 the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, and would not hear me: and the LORD said to me, Let it suffice thee; speak no more to me of this matter. Go up to the top of the Pisga, and lift up 27 thy eyes westward, and northward, and southward, and eastward, and behold with thy eyes: for thou shalt not go over this Yarden. But charge Yehoshua, and encourage him, and 28 strengthen him: for he shall go over before this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which thou shalt see. So 29 we abode in the valley over against Bet-pe'or.

Now therefore hearken, O Yisra'el, to the statutes and to the 4 judgments, which I teach you, to do them, that you may live, and go in and possess the land which the LORD GOD of your fathers gives you. You shall not add to the word which I com- 2 mand you, neither shall you diminish from it, that you may keep the commandments of the LORD your GOD which I command you. Your eyes have seen what the LORD did because of Ba'al- 3 pe'or: for all the men that followed Ba'al-pe'or, the LORD thy GOD destroyed them from among you. But you that did cleave 4 of the LORD your GOD are alive every one of you this day. Behold, 5 I have taught you statutes and judgments, even as the LORD my GOD commanded me, that you should act accordingly in the land whither you go to possess it. Keep them therefore and do 6 them; for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the nations, who shall hear all these statutes, and say, Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.

For what nation is there so great, that has GOD so near to them, 7 as the LORD our GOD is in all things that we call upon him for?
And what nation is there so great, that has statutes and judg- 8 ments so righteous as all this Tora, which I set before you this day? Only take heed to thyself, and keep thy soul diligently, 9 lest thou forget the things which thy eyes have seen, and lest they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life: but teach them thy sons, and thy sons' sons—the day that thou stoodest 10 before the LORD thy GOD in Ḥorev, when the LORD said to me, Gather me the people together, and I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and that they may teach their children.
And you came near and stood under the mountain; and the 11 mountain burned with fire to the heart of heaven, with darkness, clouds, and thick darkness. And the LORD spoke to you out of 12 the midst of the fire: you heard the voice of the words, but saw no form; only a voice. And he declared to you his covenant, 13 which he commanded you to perform, the ten Words; and he wrote them upon two tablets of stone. And the LORD commanded 14 me at that time to teach you statutes and judgments, that you might do them in the land into which you go over to possess it.
Take therefore good heed to yourselves; for you saw no man- 15 ner of form on the day that the LORD spoke to you in Ḥorev out of the midst of the fire: lest you become corrupt, and make 16 a carved idol, the similitude of any figure, the likeness of male or female, the likeness of any beast that is on the earth, the 17 likeness of any winged bird that flies in the air, the likeness 18 of any thing that creeps on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the waters beneath the earth: and lest thou lift up 19 thy eyes to heaven, and when thou seest the sun, and the moon, and the stars, all the host of heaven, thou shouldst be misled to worship them, and serve them, which the LORD thy GOD has allotted to all the nations under the whole heaven. But the LORD 20 has taken you, and brought you out of the iron furnace, out of Miẓrayim, to be to him a people of inheritance, as you are this day. But the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, and swore 21 that I should not go over the Yarden, and that I should not go in to that good land, which the LORD thy GOD gives thee for an inheritance: but I must die in this land, I must not go over the 22 Yarden: but you shall go over, and possess that good land. Take 23 heed to yourselves, lest you forget the covenant of the LORD your GOD, which he made with you, and make you a carved idol, or the likeness of anything, which the LORD thy GOD has forbidden thee. For the LORD thy GOD is a consuming fire, a 24 jealous GOD.

When thou shalt beget children, and children's children, and you 25 shall have remained long in the land, and shall deal corruptly, and make a carved idol, the likeness of anything, and shall do evil in the sight of the LORD thy GOD, to provoke him to anger: I call heaven and earth to witness against you this 26 day, that you shall soon utterly perish from off the land into which you go over the Yarden to possess it; you shall not prolong your days upon it, but shall utterly be destroyed. And 27 the LORD shall scatter you among the nations, and you shall be left few in number among the nations, where the LORD shall lead you. And there you shall serve gods, the work of men's hands, 28 wood and stone, which neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.
But if from there thou shalt seek the LORD thy GOD, thou shalt 29 find him, if thou seek him with all thy heart and with all thy soul. When thou art in distress, and all these things are come 30 upon thee, in the latter days, if thou turn to the LORD thy GOD, and art obedient to his voice; (for the LORD thy GOD is a mer- 31 ciful GOD;) he will not forsake thee, nor will he destroy thee, nor forget the covenant of thy fathers which he swore to them.
For ask now of the days that are past, which were before thee, 32 since the day that GOD created man upon the earth, and from the one side of heaven to the other, whether there has been any such thing as this great thing is, or whether aught has been heard like it? Did ever people hear the voice of GOD speaking out of 33 the midst of the fire, as thou hast heard, and live? Or has GOD 34 ventured to go and take him a nation from the midst of another nation, by trials, by signs, and by wonders, and by war, and by a mighty hand, and by a stretched out arm, and by great terrors, according to all that the LORD your GOD did for you in Miẓrayim before your eyes? To thee it was shown, that thou mightest 35 know that the LORD he is GOD; there is none else beside him.
Out of heaven he made thee hear his voice, that he might in- 36 struct thee: and upon earth he showed thee his great fire; and thou didst hear his words out of the midst of the fire. And be- 37 cause he loved thy fathers, therefore, he chose their seed after them, and brought thee out, he himself being present, with his mighty power out of Miẓrayim; to drive out nations from before 38 thee greater and mightier than thou art, to bring thee in, to give thee their land for an inheritance, as it is this day. Know 39 therefore this day, and consider it in thy heart, that the LORD he is GOD in heaven above, and upon the earth beneath: there is no other. Thou shalt keep therefore his statutes, and his com- 40 mandments, which I command thee this day, that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, and that thou mayst prolong thy days upon the earth, which the LORD thy GOD gives thee, for ever.
Then Moshe set apart three cities on this side of the Yarden 41 toward the sun rising; that the slayer might flee there, who 42 should kill his neighbour unawares, and hated him not in times past; and that fleeing unto one of these cities he might live: 43 Beẓer in the wilderness, in the plain country, for the Re'uveni; and Ramot of Gil'ad, for the Gadi; and Golan in Bashan, for the Menashshi. And this is the Tora which Moshe set before the 44 children of Yisra'el: these are the testimonies, and the statutes, 45 and the judgments, which Moshe spoke to the children of Yisra'el, after they came forth out of Miẓrayim. Beyond the Yarden, 46 in the valley over against Bet-pe'or, in the land of Siḥon king of the Emori, who dwelt at Ḥeshbon, whom Moshe and the children of Yisra'el smote, after they were come forth out of Miẓrayim:

and they possessed his land, and the land of 'Og king of Bashan, 47 two kings of the Emori, which were beyond the Yarden toward the sun rising; from 'Aro'er, which is by the bank of the wadi 48 of Arnon, to mount Si'on, which is Ḥermon, and all the 'Arava 49 beyond the Yarden eastward, even to the Sea of the 'Arava, under the slopes of the Pisga.

And Moshe called all Yisra'el, and said to them, Hear, O Yisra'el, 5 the statutes and judgments which I speak in your ears this day, that you may learn them, and keep, and do them. The LORD our 2 GOD made a covenant with us in Ḥorev. The LORD made not this 3 covenant with our fathers, but with us, even us, who are all of us here alive this day. The LORD talked with you face to 4 face in the mountain out of the midst of the fire, (I stood be- 5 tween the LORD and you at that time, to show you the word of the LORD: for you were afraid by reason of the fire, and went not up to the mountain;) saying, I am the LORD 6 thy GOD, who brought thee out of the land of Miẓrayim, from the house of bondage. Thou shalt have no other gods beside 7 me. Thou shalt not make for thyself any carved idol, or any 8 likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the waters beneath the earth:
thou shalt not bow down to them, nor serve them: for I the 9 LORD thy GOD am a jealous GOD, punishing the iniquity of the fathers upon the children to the third and fourth generation of those who hate me, and showing mercy to the thousandth gen- 10 eration of those who love me and keep my commandments.

Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy GOD in 11 vain: for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that takes his name in vain. Keep the sabbath day to sanctify it, as 12 the LORD thy GOD has commanded thee. Six days thou shalt 13 labour, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is the sab- 14 bath of the LORD thy GOD: on it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, nor thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy ox, nor thy ass, nor any of thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates; that thy manservant and thy maidservant may rest as well as thou. And remember 15 that thou wast a servant in the land of Miẓrayim, and that the LORD thy GOD brought thee out from there with a mighty hand and a stretched out arm: therefore the LORD thy GOD commanded thee to keep the sabbath day. Honour thy father 16 and thy mother, as the LORD thy GOD has commanded thee; that thy days may be prolonged, and that it may go well with thee, in the land which the LORD thy GOD gives thee. Thou 17 shalt not murder. Neither shalt thou commit adultery.
Neither shalt thou steal. Neither shalt thou bear false witness against thy neighbour. Neither shalt thou 18

These words the LORD spoke to all your assembly in 19 the mountain out of the midst of the fire, the cloud, and the thick darkness, with a great voice which was not heard again.
And he wrote them on two tablets of stone, and delivered them to me. And it came to pass, when you heard the voice out of 20 the midst of the darkness, (for the mountain did burn with fire,) that you came near to me, all the heads of your tribes, and your elders; and you said, Behold, the LORD our GOD has 21 shown us his glory and his greatness, and we have heard his voice out of the midst of the fire: we have seen this day that GOD does talk with man, and he lives. Now therefore why 22 should we die? for this great fire will consume us: if we hear the voice of the LORD our GOD any more, then we shall die. For 23 who is there of all flesh, that has heard the voice of the living GOD speaking out of the midst of the fire, as we have, and lived?
Go thou near, and hear all that the LORD our GOD shall say: 24 and speak to us all that the LORD our GOD shall speak to thee; and we will hear it, and do it. And the LORD heard the voice 25 of your words, when you spoke to me; and the LORD said to me, I have heard the voice of the words of this people, which they have spoken to thee: they have well said all that they have spoken. O that there were such a heart in them, that they 26 would fear me, and keep all my commandments always, that it might be well with them, and with their children for ever!
Go say to them, Return again to your tents. But as for thee, 27,28 stand here by me, and I will speak to thee all the commandments, and the statutes, and the judgments, which thou shalt teach them, that they may do them in the land which I gave them to possess it. You shall observe to do therefore as the 29 LORD your GOD has commanded you: you shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left. You shall walk in all the ways 30 which the LORD your GOD has commanded you, that you may live, and that it may be well with you, and that you may prolong your days in the land which you shall possess. Now this 6 is the commandment, the statutes, and the judgments, which the LORD your GOD commanded to teach you, that you might do them in the land into which you go to possess it: that thou 2 mightest fear the LORD thy GOD, to keep all his statutes and his commandments, which I command thee, thou, and thy son, and thy son's son, all the days of thy life; and that thy days may be prolonged. Hear therefore, O Yisra'el, and take care to do 3 it; that it may be well with thee, and that you may increase mightily, as the LORD GOD of thy fathers has promised thee, in the land that flows with milk and honey.
Hear, O Yisra'el: The LORD our GOD; the LORD is one. And 4,5 thou shalt love the LORD thy GOD with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might. And these words, which I 6 command thee this day, shall be in thy heart: and thou shalt 7 teach them diligently to thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thy house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thy arm, and they 8 shall be as frontlets between thy eyes. And thou shalt write 9 them upon the doorposts of thy house, and on thy gates.
And it shall be, when the LORD thy GOD shall bring thee 10 to the land of which he swore to thy fathers, to Avraham, to Yiẓḥaq, and to Ya'aqov, to give thee great and goodly cities, which thou didst not build, and houses full of all good things, 11 which thou didst not fill, and hewn out wells, which thou didst not dig, vineyards and olive trees, which thou didst not plant; when thou shalt eat and be replete; beware lest thou 12 forget the LORD, who brought thee out of the land of Miẓrayim, from the house of bondage. Thou shalt fear the LORD thy GOD, 13 and serve him, and shalt swear by his name. You shall not go 14 after other gods, of the gods of the people who are round about you; (for the LORD thy GOD is a jealous GOD among 15 you) lest the anger of the LORD thy GOD be inflamed against thee, and he destroy thee from off the face of the earth.
Do not tempt the LORD your GOD, as you tempted him 16 in Massa. You shall diligently keep the commandments of the 17 LORD your GOD, and his testimonies, and his statutes, which he has commanded thee. And thou shalt do that which is right 18 and good in the sight of the LORD: that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayst go in and possess the good land which the LORD swore to thy fathers, to cast out all thy ene- 19 mies from before thee, as the LORD has spoken. When 20 thy son asks thee in time to come, saying, What mean the testimonies, and the statutes, and the judgments, which the LORD our GOD has commanded you? Then thou shalt say to thy son, 21
We were the bondmen of Par'o in Miẓrayim; and the LORD brought us out of Miẓrayim with a mighty hand: and the LORD 22 showed signs and wonders, great and sore, upon Miẓrayim, upon Par'o, and upon all his household, before our eyes: and 23 he brought us out from there, that he might bring us in, to give us the land which he swore to our fathers. And the LORD com- 24 manded us to do all these statutes, to fear the LORD our GOD, for our good always, that he might preserve us alive, as it is at this day. And it shall be accounted virtue in us, if we take care 25 to do all these commandments before the LORD our GOD, as he has commanded us. When the LORD thy GOD shall bring 7 thee to the land into which thou goest to possess it, and shall cast out many nations before thee, the Ḥitti, and the Girgashi, and the Emori, and the Kena'ani, and the Perizzi, and the Ḥivvi, and the Yevusi, seven nations greater and mightier than thou; and 2 when the LORD thy GOD shall deliver them before thee, and thou shalt smite them, then thou shalt devote them to utter destruction; thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor show mercy to them: neither shalt thou make marriages with them; thy 3 daughter thou shalt not give to his son, nor shalt thou take his daughter to thy son. For they will turn away thy son from fol- 4

ily. But thus shall you deal with them: you shall destroy their 5 altars, and break down their images, and cut down their asherim, and burn their carved idols with fire. For thou art a holy people 6 to the LORD thy GOD: the LORD thy GOD has chosen thee to be a special people to himself, above all peoples that are upon the face of the earth. The LORD did not set his love upon you, or 7 choose you, because you were more in number than any people; for you were the fewest of all peoples: but because the LORD 8 loved you, and because he would keep the oath which he had sworn to your fathers, has the LORD brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you out of the house of bondmen, from the hand of Par'o king of Miẓrayim. Know therefore that 9 the LORD thy GOD, he is GOD, the faithful GOD, who keeps covenant and troth with those who love him and keep his commandments to a thousand generations; and repays them that 10 hate him to their face, to destroy them: he will not be slack to him that hates him, he will repay him to his face. Thou shalt 11 therefore keep the commandments, and the statutes, and the judgments, which I command thee this day, to do them.

'EQEV Wherefore it shall come to pass, if you hearken to these judg- 12 ments, and keep, and do them, that the LORD thy GOD shall keep unto thee the covenant and the troth which he swore to thy fathers: and he will love thee, and bless thee, and multiply 13 thee: and will bless the fruit of thy womb, and the fruit of thy land, thy corn, and thy wine, and thy oil, the increase of thy cattle, and the flocks of thy sheep, in the land which he swore to thy fathers to give thee. Thou shalt be blessed above all 14 peoples: there shall not be male or female barren among you, or among your cattle. And the LORD will take away from thee all 15 sickness, and will put none of the evil diseases of Miẓrayim, which thou knowst, upon thee; but will lay them upon all those who hate thee. And thou shalt consume all the peoples which the 16 LORD thy GOD shall deliver to thee; thy eye shall have no pity upon them: neither shalt thou serve their gods; for that will be a snare to thee. If thou shalt say in thy heart, These 17 nations are more than I; how can I dispossess them? Thou shalt 18 not be afraid of them: but shalt well remember what the LORD thy GOD did to Par'o, and to all Miẓrayim; the great trials 19 which thy eyes saw, and the signs, and the wonders, and the mighty hand, and the stretched out arm, whereby the LORD thy GOD brought thee out: so shall the LORD thy GOD do to all the people of whom thou art afraid. Moreover the LORD thy GOD 20 will send the hornet among them, until they that are left, and hide themselves from thee, be destroyed. Thou shalt not be 21 terrified by them: for the LORD thy GOD is among you, a mighty GOD and terrible. And the LORD thy GOD will put out those 22 nations before thee by little and little: thou mayst not consume them at once, lest the wild beasts of the field increase upon thee. But the LORD thy GOD shall deliver them to thee, and 23 shall destroy them with a mighty destruction, until they are destroyed. And he shall deliver their kings into thy hand, and 24 thou shalt destroy their name from under heaven: there shall no man be able to stand before thee, until thou hast destroyed them. The carvings of their gods shall you burn with fire: thou 25 shalt not desire the silver or gold that is on them, or take it to thee, lest thou be snared with it: for it is an abomination to the LORD thy GOD. Neither shalt thou bring an abomination 26 into thy house, lest thou become accursed like it: but thou shalt utterly detest it, and thou shalt utterly abhor it; for it is a cursed thing.

All the commandments which I command thee this day shall 8 you observe to do, that you may live, and multiply, and go in and possess the land which the LORD swore to your fathers.
And thou shalt remember all the way which the LORD thy GOD 2 led thee these forty years in the wilderness, to humble thee, and to prove thee, to know what was in thy heart, whether thou wouldst keep his commandments, or no. And he humbled 3 thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know; that he might make thee know that man does not live by bread only, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of the LORD does man live. Thy garment grew not old upon thee, 4 nor did thy foot swell, these forty years. Thou shalt also 5 consider in thy heart, that, as a man chastens his son, so the LORD thy GOD chastens thee. Therefore thou shalt keep the 6 commandments of the LORD thy GOD, to walk in his ways, and to fear him. For the LORD thy GOD brings thee into a good land, 7 a land of water courses, of fountains and depths that spring out of valleys and hills; a land of wheat, and barley, and vines, and 8 fig trees, and pomegranates; a land of olive oil, and honey; a land in which thou shalt eat bread without scarceness, thou 9 shalt not lack any thing in it; a land the stones of which are iron, and out of whose hills thou mayst dig brass. When thou 10 hast eaten and art replete, then thou shalt bless the LORD thy GOD for the good land which he has given thee. Beware that 11 thou forget not the LORD thy GOD, in not keeping his commandments, and his judgments, and his statutes, which I command thee this day: lest when thou hast eaten and art replete, and 12 hast built goodly houses, and dwelt in them; and when thy 13 herds and thy flocks multiply, and thy silver and thy gold are multiplied, and all that thou hast is multiplied; then thy heart 14 be lifted up, and thou forget the LORD thy GOD, who brought thee out of the land of Mizrayim, from the house of bondage; who led thee through that great and terrible wilderness, in 15 which were venomous serpents, and scorpions, and drought, where there was no water; who brought forth water for thee out of the rock of flint; who fed thee in the wilderness with manna, 16 which thy fathers knew not, that he might afflict thee, and that he might prove thee, to do thee good at thy latter end; and 17 thou say in thy heart, My power and the might of my hand have gotten me this wealth. But thou shalt remember the LORD 18 thy GOD: for it is he who gives thee power to get wealth, that he may establish his covenant which he swore to thy fathers, as it is this day.

And it shall be, if thou do at all forget the LORD thy GOD, and 19 walk after other gods, and serve them, and worship them, I testify against you this day that you shall surely perish. As the 20 nations which the LORD destroys before your face, so shall you perish; because you would not be obedient to the voice of the LORD your GOD.

Hear, O Yisra'el: Thou art to pass over the Yarden this day, 9 to go in to possess nations greater and mightier than thyself, cities great and fortified up to heaven, a people great and tall, 2 the children of the 'Anaqim, whom thou knowst, and of whom thou hast heard say, Who can stand before the children of 'Anaq! Understand therefore this day, that the LORD thy GOD 3 is he who goes over before thee; as a consuming fire he shall destroy them, and he shall bring them down before thy face: so shalt thou drive them out, and destroy them quickly, as the LORD has said to thee. Speak not thou in thy heart, after the 4 LORD thy GOD has cast them out from before thee, saying, For my righteousness the LORD has brought me in to possess this land: and for the wickedness of these nations the LORD does drive them out from before thee. Not for thy righteousness, or 5 for the uprightness of thine heart, dost thou go to possess their land: but on account of the wickedness of these nations the LORD thy GOD does drive them out from before thee, and that he may perform the word which the LORD swore to thy fathers, Avraham, Yiẓḥaq, and Ya'aqov. Understand therefore, that the 6 LORD thy GOD gives thee not this good land to possess it for thy righteousness; for thou art a stiffnecked people. Remember, 7 and forget not, how thou didst provoke the LORD thy GOD to anger in the wilderness: from the day that thou didst depart out of the land of Miẓrayim, until you came to this place, you have been rebellious against the LORD. Also in Ḥorev you pro- 8 voked the LORD to anger, so that the LORD was angry with you to have destroyed you. When I was gone up into the moun- 9 tain to receive the tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant which the LORD made with you, then I abode in the mountain forty days and forty nights, I neither did eat bread nor drink water: and the LORD delivered to me two tablets of stone 10 written with the finger of GOD; and on them was written according to all the words which the LORD spoke with you in the mountain out of the midst of the fire on the day of the assembly. And it came to pass at the end of forty days and forty 11 nights, that the LORD gave me the two tablets of stone, the tables of the covenant. And the LORD said to me, Arise, get thee 12 down quickly from here; for thy people which thou hast brought forth out of Miẓrayim have become corrupt; they are quickly turned aside out of the way which I commanded them; they have made them a molten image. And the LORD spoke to 13 me saying, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiffnecked people: let me alone, that I may destroy them, and blot out 14 their name from under heaven: and I will make of thee a nation mightier and greater than they. So I turned and came down 15 from the mountain, and the mountain burned with fire: and the two tablets of the covenant were in my two hands. And I 16 looked, and, behold, you had sinned against the LORD your GOD, and had made a molten calf: you had turned aside quickly out of the way which the LORD had commanded you. And I took 17 the two tablets, and cast them out of my two hands, and broke them before your eyes. And I fell down before the LORD, as at 18 the first, forty days and forty nights: I did neither eat bread, nor drink water, because of all your sins which you sinned, in doing wickedly in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger. For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure, with 19 which the LORD was angry against you to destroy you. But the LORD hearkened to me at that time also. And the LORD was 20 very angry with Aharon to have destroyed him: and I prayed for Aharon also at the same time. And I took your sin, the 21 calf which you had made, and burnt it with fire, and stamped it, and ground it very small, until it was as fine as dust: and I cast the dust of it into the stream that descended out of the mountain. And at Tav'era, and at Massa, and at 22 Qivrot-hatta'ava, you provoked the LORD to anger. Likewise 23 when the LORD sent you from Qadesh-barne'a, saying, Go up and possess the land which I have given you; then you rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your GOD, and you believed him not, nor hearkened to his voice. You have 24 been rebellious against the LORD from the day that I knew you.

Thus I fell down before the LORD forty days and forty nights, 25 as I fell down at the first; because the LORD had said he would destroy you. I prayed therefore to the LORD, and said, O LORD 26 GOD, destroy not thy people and thy inheritance, which thou hast redeemed through thy greatness, which thou hast brought out of Mizrayim with a mighty hand. Remember thy servants, 27 Avraham, Yizhaq, and Ya'aqov; look not to the stubbornness of this people, nor to their wickedness, nor to their sin: lest 28 the land from which thou didst bring us out say, Because the LORD was not able to bring them into the land which he promised them, and because he hated them, he has brought them out to slay them in the wilderness. Yet they are thy people and 29 thy inheritance, which thou didst bring out by thy mighty power and by thy stretched out arm.

At that time the LORD said to me, Hew for thyself two tab- 10 lets of stone like the first, and come up to me into the mountain, and make for thyself an ark of wood. And I will write on the 2 tablets the words that were on the first tablets which thou didst break, and thou shalt put them in the ark. And I made 3 an ark of shittim wood, and hewed two tablets of stone like the first, and went up to the mountain, having the two tablets in my hand. And he wrote on the tablets, according to the first 4 writing, the ten Words, which the LORD spoke to you in the mountain out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly: and the LORD gave them to me. And I turned and 5 came down from the mountain, and put the tablets in the ark which I had made; and there they were, as the LORD commanded me. And the children of Yisra'el took their journey 6 from Be'erot-bene-ya'aqan to Mosera: there Aharon died, and there he was buried; and El'azar his son ministered in the priest's office in his place. From thence they journeyed to Gud- 7 goda; and from Gudgoda to Yotvata, a land of streaming wadis.

At that time the LORD separated the tribe of Levi, to bear the 8 ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD to minister to him, and to bless in his name, to this day. There- 9 fore Levi has no part or inheritance with his brethren; the LORD is his inheritance, according as the LORD thy GOD promised him.
And I stayed in the mountain, like the first time, forty days and 10 forty nights; and the LORD hearkened to me at that time also, and the LORD would not destroy thee. And the LORD said to me, 11 Arise, take thy journey before the people, that they may go in and possess the land, which I swore to their fathers to give them.
And now, Yisra'el, what does the LORD thy GOD require of thee, 12 but to fear the LORD thy GOD, to walk in all his ways, and to love him, and to serve the LORD thy GOD with all thy heart and with all thy soul, to keep the commandments of the LORD, 13 and his statutes, which I command thee this day for thy good?
Behold, the heaven and the heaven of heavens belongs to the 14
LORD thy GOD, the earth also, with all that is on it. Only the 15 LORD took delight in thy fathers to love them, and he chose their seed after them, even you above all people, as it is this day. Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be 16 stiffnecked no more. For the LORD your GOD is GOD of gods, 17 and LORD of lords, a great GOD, a mighty, and a terrible, who favours no person, and takes no bribe: he executes the judg- 18 ment of the fatherless and widow, and loves the stranger, giving him food and raiment. Love therefore the stranger: for you 19 were strangers in the land of Mizrayim. Thou shalt fear the 20 LORD thy GOD; him shalt thou serve, and to him shalt thou hold fast, and swear by his name. He is thy praise, and he is 21 thy GOD, who has done for thee these great and terrible things, which thy eyes have seen. Thy fathers went down to Mizrayim 22 with seventy persons; and now the LORD thy GOD has made thee as the stars of heaven for multitude. Therefore thou shalt 11 love the LORD thy GOD, and keep his charge, and his statutes, and his judgments, and his commandments, always. And know 2 this day: for I speak not with your children who have not known, and have not seen the chastisement of the LORD your GOD, his greatness, his mighty hand, and his stretched out arm, and his miracles, and his acts, which he did in the midst of 3 Mizrayim to Par'o the king of Mizrayim, and to all his land; and what he did to the army of Mizrayim, to their horses, and 4 to their chariots; how he made the water of the Sea of Suf overflow them as they pursued after you, and how the LORD destroyed them unto this day; and what he did to you in the 5 wilderness, until you came to this place; and what he did to 6 Datan and Aviram, the sons of Eli'av, the son of Re'uven: how the earth opened its mouth, and swallowed them up, and their households, and their tents, and all the living substance that followed them, in the midst of all Yisra'el: but your eyes have 7 seen all the great acts of the LORD which he did. Therefore shall 8 you keep all the commandments which I command you this day, that you may be strong, and go in and possess the land, into which you go to possess it; and that you may prolong your 9 days in the land, which the LORD swore to your fathers to give to them and to their seed, a land flowing with milk and honey. For the land, into which thou goest to possess it, 10 is not as the land of Miẓrayim, from whence you came out, where thou didst sow thy seed, and didst water it with thy foot, like a garden of vegetables: but the land, into which you go to 11 possess it, is a land of hills and valleys, and drinks water of the rain of heaven: a land which the LORD thy GOD cares for: the 12 eyes of the LORD thy GOD are always upon it, from the beginning of the year to the end of the year. And it shall 13 come to pass, if you hearken diligently to my commandments which I command you this day, to love the LORD your GOD, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul, that I will give you the rain of your land in its due season, the 14 early rain and the late rain, that thou mayst gather in thy corn, and thy wine, and thy oil. And I will send grass in thy 15 fields for thy cattle, that thou mayst eat and be full. Take heed 16 to yourselves, that your heart be not deceived, and you turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them; and then the 17 LORD's anger be inflamed against you, and he shut up the heavens, that there be no rain, and that the land yield not its fruit; and you perish quickly from off the good land which the LORD gives you. And you shall lay up these my words in your heart 18 and in your soul, and bind them for a sign upon your hand, and they will be as frontlets between your eyes. And you shall teach 19 them your children, speaking of them when thou dost sit in thy house, and when thou dost walk by the way, when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. And thou shalt write them 20 upon the door posts of thy house, and upon thy gates: that 21 your days may be multiplied, and the days of your children, in the land which the LORD swore to your fathers to give them, as the days of heaven upon the earth. For if you shall 22 diligently keep all these commandments which I command you, to do them, to love the LORD your GOD, to walk in all his ways, and to hold fast to him; then will the LORD drive out all these 23 nations from before you, and you shall possess greater nations and mightier than yourselves. Every place whereon the sole of 24 your foot shall tread shall be yours: from the wilderness to the Levanon, from the river, the river Perat, to the uttermost sea shall be your border. There shall no man be able to stand, 25 against you: for the LORD your GOD shall lay the fear of you and the dread of you upon all the land that you shall tread upon, as he has spoken to you. Behold, I set before you 26 RE'E this day a blessing and a curse; a blessing, if you obey the 27 commandments of the LORD your GOD, which I command you this day: and a curse, if you do not obey the commandments 28 of the LORD your GOD, but turn aside out of the way which I command you this day, to go after other gods, which you have not known. And it shall come to pass, when the 29 LORD thy GOD has brought thee in to the land into which thou dost go to possess it, that thou shalt put the blessing upon mount Gerizzim, and the curse upon mount 'Eval. Are they 30 not on the other side of the Yarden, by the way where the sun goes down, in the land of the Kena'ani, who dwell in the 'Arava over against Gilgal, beside the terebinths of More? For you 31 shall pass over the Yarden to go in to possess the land which the LORD your GOD gives you, and you shall possess it, and dwell in it. And you shall observe to do all the statutes and 32 judgments which I set before you this day. These are the 12 statutes and judgments, which you shall observe to do in the land, which the LORD GOD of thy fathers gives thee to possess it, all the days that you live upon the earth. You shall utterly 2 destroy all the places, in which the nations whom you are to dispossess, served their gods, upon the high mountains, and upon the hills, and under every leafy tree: and you shall over- 3 throw their altars, and break their pillars, and burn their asher-im with fire; and you shall hew down the carvings of their gods, and destroy the name of them out of that place. This 4 you shall not do to the LORD your GOD. But to the place which 5 the LORD your GOD shall choose out of all your tribes to put his name there, there shall you seek him, at his dwelling, and there shalt thou come: and there you shall bring your burnt 6 offerings, and your sacrifices, and your tithes, and the offerings of your hand, and your vows, and your freewill offerings, and the firstlings of your herds and your flocks: and there you shall 7 eat before the LORD your GOD, and you shall rejoice in all that to which you put your hand, you and your households, wherein the LORD thy GOD has blessed thee. You shall not do after all 8 the things that we do here this day, every man whatever is right in his own eyes. For you are not as yet come to the rest 9 and to the inheritance, which the LORD your GOD gives you.

But when you traverse the Yarden, and dwell in the land which 10 the LORD your GOD gives you to inherit, and when he gives you rest from all your enemies round about, so that you dwell in safety; then there shall be a place which the LORD your GOD shall 11 choose to cause his name to dwell there; there shall you bring all that I command you; your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, your tithes, and the offering of your hand, and all your choice vows which you vow to the LORD: and you shall rejoice before 12 the LORD your GOD, you and your sons, and your daughters, and your menservants, and your maidservants, and the Levite who is within your gates; for he has no part or inheritance with you.
Take heed to thyself that thou offer not thy burnt offerings in 13 every place that thou seest: but only in the place which the LORD 14 shall choose in one of thy tribes, there thou shalt offer thy burnt offerings, and there thou shalt do all that I command thee.
Nonetheless, thou mayst slaughter animals and eat their flesh 15 to thy heart's desire, according to the blessing of the LORD thy GOD which he has bestowed on thee, throughout all thy gates, the unclean and the clean may eat of it as they do of the gazelle and the deer. Only you shall not eat the blood; you shall pour 16 it upon the earth like water. Thou mayst not eat within thy 17 gates the tithe of thy corn, or of thy wine, or of thy oil, or the firstlings of thy herds or of thy flock, or any of thy vows which thou vowest, or thy freewill offerings, or offering of thy hand: but thou must eat them before the LORD thy GOD in the place 18 which the LORD thy GOD shall choose, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy manservant, and thy maidservant, and the Levite who is within thy gates: and thou shalt rejoice before the LORD thy GOD in all that to which thou puttest thy hand.

Take heed to thyself that thou forsake not the Levite as long 19 as thou liyest upon the earth. When the LORD thy GOD 20 shall enlarge thy border, as he has promised thee, and thou shalt say, I will eat meat, because thou longest to eat meat; thou mayst eat meat, to thy heart's desire. If the place which 21 the LORD thy GOD has chosen to put his name there be too far from thee, then thou shalt kill of thy herd and of thy flock, which the LORD has given thee, as I have commanded thee, and thou shalt eat in thy gates to thy heart's desire. Even as the 22 gazelle and the deer is eaten, so thou shalt eat them: the unclean and the clean shall eat of them alike. Only be sure that 23 thou eat not the blood: for the blood is the life; and thou mayst not eat the life with the meat. Thou shalt not eat it; thou shalt 24 pour it upon the earth like water. Thou shalt not eat it; that it 25 may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, when thou shalt do that which is right in the sight of the LORD. Only 26 thy holy things which thou hast, and thy vows, thou shalt take and go to the place which the LORD shall choose: and thou 27 shalt offer thy burnt offerings, the meat and the blood, upon the altar of the LORD thy GOD: and the blood of thy sacrifices shall be poured out upon the altar of the LORD thy GOD, and thou shalt eat the meat. Observe and hear all these words which 28 I command thee, that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee for ever, when thou doest that which is good and right in the sight of the LORD thy GOD. When the 29 LORD thy GOD shall cut off the nations from before thee, whither thou goest to dispossess them, and thou dost succeed them and dost dwell in their land; take heed to thyself that thou be 30 not ensnared into following them, after they are destroyed from before thee; and that thou inquire not after their gods, saying, How did these nations serve their gods? even so will I do likewise. Thou shalt not do so to the LORD thy GOD: for 31 every abomination to the LORD, which he hates, have they done to their gods; for even their sons and their daughters they have burnt in the fire to their gods. Every matter which I command 13 you, observe to do it: thou shalt not add thereto, nor diminish from it.

If there arise among you a prophet, or a dreamer of dreams, 2 and he give thee a sign or a wonder, and the sign or the wonder 3 other gods, which thou hast not known, and let us serve them; thou shalt not hearken to the words of that prophet, or that 4 heart and with all your soul. You shall walk after the LORD your 5 GOD, and fear him, and keep his commandments, and obey his voice, and you shall serve him, and hold fast to him. And that 6 prophet, or that dreamer of dreams, shall be put to death; because he has spoken to turn you away from the LORD your GOD, who brought you out of the land of Mizrayim and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, to thrust thee out of the way which the LORD thy GOD commanded thee to walk in. So shalt thou put the evil away from the midst of thee.

If thy brother, the son of thy mother, or thy son, or 7 thy daughter, or the wife of thy bosom, or thy friend, who is as thy own soul, entice thee secretly, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, which thou hast not known, thou, nor thy fathers; of the gods of the peoples who are round about you, 8 either near to thee, or far off from thee, from the one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth; thou shalt not 9 consent to him, nor hearken to him; nor shall thy eye pity him, nor shalt thou spare, nor shalt thou conceal him: but 10 thou shalt surely kill him; thy hand shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterwards the hand of all the people.
And thou shalt stone him with stones, that he die; because he 11 has sought to draw thee away from the LORD thy GOD, who brought thee out of the land of Mizrayim, from the house of bondage. And all Yisra'el shall hear, and fear, and shall do no 12 more any such wickedness as this is among you. If thou 13 shalt hear say in one of thy cities, which the LORD thy GOD has given thee to dwell there, saying, Certain men, wicked persons, 14 are gone out from among you, and have drawn away the inhabitants of their city, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, which you know not; then shalt thou inquire, and make search, 15 and ask diligently; and, behold, if it be truth, and the thing certain, that such abomination was done among you; thou 16 shalt surely smite the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, destroying it utterly, and all that is in it, and its cattle with the edge of the sword. And thou shalt gather 17 all the spoil of it into the midst of the open place of the city, and shalt burn with fire both the city and the entire plunder taken in it, for the LORD thy GOD: and it shall be a heap for ever; it shall not be built again. And nothing of that which was 18 devoted to destruction shall remain in your hand: that the LORD may turn from the fierceness of his anger, and show thee mercy, and have compassion upon thee, and multiply thee, as he has sworn to thy fathers; when thou shalt hearken to 19 the voice of the LORD thy GOD, to keep all his commandments which I command thee this day, to do that which is right in the eyes of the LORD thy GOD. You are the children of 14 the LORD your GOD: you shall not gash yourselves, nor make any baldness between your eyes for the dead. For thou art a holy 2 people to the LORD thy GOD, and the LORD has chosen thee to be a special possession to himself, out of all the nations that are upon the earth. Thou shalt not eat any abominable 3 thing. These are the beasts which you may eat: the ox, the 4 sheep, and the goat, the deer, and the gazelle, and the fallow 5

deer, and the wild goat, and the adax, and the bison, and the wild sheep. And every beast that parts the hoof, forming thereby two entirely cloven hoofs, and chews the cud among the beasts, that may you eat. Nevertheless these you shall not eat of those which chew the cud, or of those which divide the cloven hoof; the camel, and the hare, and the coney: for they chew the cud, but do not divide the hoof; therefore they are unclean to you. And the swine, because it divides the hoof, yet chews not the cud, is unclean to you: you shall not eat of their meat, nor touch their carcasses. These you may eat of all that are in the waters: all that have fins and scales shall you eat: and whatever has no fins and scales you may not eat; it is unclean to you. All clean birds you may eat. But these are they of which you shall not eat: the griffon vulture, and the bearded vulture, and the black vulture, and the buzzard, and the kite, and the hawk after its kind, and every raven after its kind, and the dark desert owl, and the kestrel, and the gull, and the sparrow hawk after its kind, the little owl, and the long eared owl, and the barn screech owl, and the night prowler, and the gier eagle, and the fish owl, and the stork, and the heron after its kind, and the hoopoe, and the bat. And every creeping thing that flies is unclean to you: they shall not be eaten. But of all clean fowls you may eat. You shall not eat of any thing that dies of itself: thou shalt give it to the stranger who is in thy gates, that he may eat it: or thou mayst sell it to an alien: for thou art a holy people to the LORD thy GOD. Thou shalt not boil a kid in its mother's milk.

Thou shalt truly tithe all the increase of thy seed, that the field brings forth year by year. And thou shalt eat before the LORD thy GOD, in the place which he shall choose to place his name there, the tithe of thy corn, of thy wine, and of thy oil, and the firstlings of thy herds, and of thy flocks; that thou mayst learn to fear the LORD thy GOD always. And if the way be too long for thee, so that thou art not able to carry it; because the place is too far from thee, which the LORD thy GOD shall choose to set his name there, when the LORD thy GOD has blessed thee: then shalt thou turn it into money, and bind up the money in thy hand, and shalt go to the place which the LORD thy GOD shall choose: and thou shalt bestow that money on all that thy heart desires, on oxen, or sheep, or wine, or strong drink, or whatever thy soul requires: and thou shalt eat there before the LORD thy GOD, and thou shalt rejoice, thou, and thy household, and the Levite who is within thy gates; thou shalt not forsake him; for he has no part or inheritance with thee. At the end of three years thou shalt bring forth in that year, all the tithe of thy produce, and shalt lay it up within thy gates: and the Levite, (because he has no part or inheritance with thee,) and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, who are within thy gates, shall come, and shall eat and be satisfied; that the LORD thy GOD may bless thee in all the work of thy hand which thou doest. At the end of every seven years thou shalt make a release. And this is the manner of the release: every creditor that lends anything to his neighbour shall release it; he shall not exact it of his neighbour, or of his brother; because he has proclaimed a release to the LORD. Of a foreigner thou mayst exact it again: but that 3 which is thine with thy brother thy hand shall release. But there 4 shall be practically no poor among you; for the LORD shall greatly bless thee in the land which the LORD thy GOD gives thee for an inheritance to possess it: only if thou carefully hearken 5 to the voice of the LORD thy GOD, to observe to do all these commandments which I command thee this day. For the LORD 6 thy GOD blesses thee, as he promised thee: and thou shalt lend to many nations, but thou shalt not borrow; and thou shalt reign over many nations, but they shall not reign over thee.

If there be among you a poor man, one of thy brethren 7 within any of thy gates in thy land which the LORD thy GOD gives thee, thou shalt not harden thy heart, nor shut thy hand from thy poor brother: but thou shalt open thy hand wide to 8 him, and shalt surely lend him sufficient for his need, in that which he lacks. Beware that there be not an unworthy thought 9 in thy heart, saying, The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand; and thy eye be evil against thy poor brother, and thou give him nothing; and he cry to the LORD against thee; for it shall be reckoned to you as sin. Thou shalt surely give him, 10 and thy heart shall not be grieved when thou givest to him: because for this thing the LORD thy GOD shall bless thee in all thy works, and in all that to which thou puttest thy hand. For the poor shall never cease out of the land: therefore I 11 command thee, saying, Thou shalt open thy hand wide to thy brother, to thy poor, and to thy needy, in thy land. And if 12 thy brother, a Hebrew man, or a Hebrew woman, be sold to thee, he shall serve thee six years; and in the seventh year thou shalt let him go free from thee. And when thou sendest him out 13 free from thee, thou shalt not let him go away empty: thou 14 shalt furnish him liberally out of thy flock, and out of thy threshing floor, and out of thy winepress: of that with which the LORD thy GOD has blessed thee thou shalt give him. And 15 thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in the land of Mizrayim and the LORD thy GOD redeemed thee: therefore I command thee this thing today. And it shall be, if he say to 16 thee, I will not go away from thee; because he loves thee and thy house, because he is happy with thee; then thou shalt take 17 an awl, and thrust it through his ear to the door, and he shall be thy servant for ever. And also to thy maidservant thou shalt do likewise. It shall not seem hard to thee, when thou sendest 18 him away free from thee; for he has been worth double a hired servant to thee, in serving thee six years: and the LORD thy GOD shall bless thee in all that thou doest.

All the firstling males that come of thy herd and of thy flock 19 thou shalt sanctify to the LORD thy GOD: thou shalt do no work with the firstling of thy bullock, nor shear the firstling of thy sheep. Thou shalt eat it before the LORD thy GOD year by year 20 in the place which the LORD shall choose, thou and thy household. And if there be any blemish in it, as if it be lame, or blind, 21

Observe the month of Aviv, and keep the passover to the LORD 16 thy GOD: for in the month of Aviv the LORD thy GOD brought thee forth out of Miẓrayim by night. Thou shalt therefore sacri- 2 fice the passover to the LORD thy GOD, of the flock and the herd, in the place which the LORD shall choose to place his name there. Thou shalt eat no leavened bread with it; seven days shalt 3 thou eat unleavened bread with it, the bread of affliction; for thou camest forth out of the land of Miẓrayim in haste: that thou mayst remember the day when thou camest out of the land of Miẓrayim all the days of thy life. And there shall be 4 no leaven seen with thee in all thy border for seven days; nor shall any thing of the meat, which thou dost sacrifice on the first day at evening, remain all night until the morning.
Thou mayst not sacrifice the passover within any of thy gates, 5 which the LORD thy GOD gives thee: but only at the place which 6 the LORD thy GOD shall choose to place his name in, there thou shalt sacrifice the passover at evening, at the going down of the sun, at the season when thou camest out of Miẓrayim. And 7 thou shalt roast and eat it in the place which the LORD thy GOD tents. Six days thou shalt eat unleavened bread, and on the 8 seventh day shall be a solemn assembly to the LORD thy GOD: thou shalt do no work. Seven weeks shalt thou number 9 to thee: from such time as thou beginnest to put the sickle to the corn shalt thou commence to number seven weeks. And 10 thou shalt keep the feast of weeks to the LORD thy GOD with a tribute of a freewill offering of thy hand, which thou shalt give, according as the LORD thy GOD has blessed thee: and thou 11

Thou shalt observe the feast of booths seven days, after 13

LORD thy GOD shall bless thee in all thy produce, and in all the give as he is able, according to the blessing of the LORD thy GOD SHOFETIM which he has given thee. Judges and officers shalt thou 18 make thee in all thy gates, which the LORD thy GOD gives thee, throughout thy tribes: and they shall judge the people with righteous judgment. Thou shalt not wrest judgment; thou 19 shalt not respect persons, neither take a bribe: for a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise, and perverts the words of the righteous.

Justice, only justice shalt thou pursue, that thou mayst live, and 20 inherit the land which the LORD thy GOD gives thee. Thou 21 shalt not plant thee an ashera of any tree near the altar of the LORD thy GOD, which thou shalt make thee. Neither shalt thou 22 set thee up any pillar; which the LORD thy GOD hates. Thou 17 shalt not sacrifice to the LORD thy GOD any bullock, or sheep, in which is a blemish, or anything evil: for that is an abomination to the LORD thy GOD. If there be found among you, 2 within any of thy gates which the LORD thy GOD gives thee, a man or woman, who has perpetrated wickedness in the sight of the LORD thy GOD, in transgressing his covenant, and has 3 gone and served other gods, and worshipped them, either the sun, or moon, or any of the host of heaven, which I have not commanded; and it be told thee, and thou hast heard of it, and 4 inquired diligently, and, behold, it be true, and the thing certain, that such abomination has been perpetrated in Yisra'el: then 5 shalt thou bring forth that man or that woman, who has committed that wicked thing, unto thy gates, and shalt stone that man or that woman with stones till they die. At the mouth 6 of two witnesses, or three witnesses, shall he that is worthy of death be put to death; but at the mouth of one witness he shall not be put to death. The hands of the witnesses shall be 7 first upon him to put him to death, and afterwards the hands of all the people. So thou shalt put the evil away from among you.
If there arise a matter too hard for thee in judgment, between 8 blood and blood, between plea and plea, and between plague and plague, matters of controversy within thy gates: then shalt thou arise, and go up to the place which the LORD thy GOD shall choose; and thou shalt come to the priests the Levites, and to 9 the judge that shall be in those days, and inquire; and they shall tell thee the sentence of judgment: and thou shalt do accord- 10 ing to the sentence, which they of that place which the LORD shall choose shall tell thee; and thou shalt observe to do according to all that they inform thee: according to the sentence 11 of the Tora which they shall teach thee, and according to the judgment which they shall tell thee, thou shalt do: thou shalt not deviate from the sentence which they shall tell thee, to the right hand, or to the left. And the man that will act pre- 12 sumptuously, and will not hearken to the priest that stands to minister there before the LORD thy GOD, or to the judge, that man shall die: and thou shalt put away the evil from Yisra'el.
And all the people shall hear, and fear, and do no more pre- 13 sumptuously. When thou art come to the land which the 14 LORD thy GOD gives thee, and shalt possess it, and shalt dwell in it, and shalt say, I will set a king over me, like all the nations that are about me; then thou mayst appoint a king over thee, 15 whom the LORD thy GOD shall choose: one from among thy brethren shalt thou set as king over thee: thou mayst not set a stranger over thee, who is not thy brother. But he shall not 16 multiply horses to himself, nor cause the people to return to Mizrayim, to the end that he should multiply horses: since the LORD has said to you, You shall henceforth return no more that way. Neither shall he multiply wives to himself, that his heart 17 turn not away: neither shall he greatly multiply to himself silver and gold. And it shall be, when he sits upon the throne of his 18 kingdom, that he shall write for himself a copy of this Tora in a book out of that which is before the priests the Levites: and 19 it shall be with him, and he shall read therein all the days of his life: that he may learn to fear the LORD his GOD, to keep all the words of this Tora and these statutes, to do them: that his 20 heart be not lifted up above his brethren, and that he turn not aside from the commandment, to the right hand, or to the left: to the end that he may prolong his days in his kingdom, he, and his children, in the midst of Yisra'el. The priests 18 the Levites, all the tribe of Levi, shall have no part or inheritance with Yisra'el: the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and his dues shall they eat. Therefore shall they have no 2 inheritance among their brethren: the LORD is their inheritance, as he has said to them. And this shall be the priest's allot- 3 ment from the people, from those who offer a sacrifice, whether it be ox or sheep; they shall give to the priest the shoulder, and the two cheeks, and the maw. The firstfruit also of thy corn, of 4 thy wine, and of thy oil, and the first of the fleece of thy sheep, shalt thou give him. For the LORD thy GOD has chosen 5 him out of all thy tribes, to stand to minister in the name of the LORD, him and his sons for ever. And if a Levite come 6 from any of thy gates out of all Yisra'el, where he sojourned, and come in all eagerness to the place which the LORD shall choose; then he shall minister in the name of the LORD his GOD. 7 as all his brethren the Levites do, who stand there before the LORD. They shall have like portions to eat, besides that which 8 comes of the sale of his patrimony. When thou art come 9 to the land which the LORD thy GOD gives thee, thou shalt not learn to do after the abominations of those nations. There must 10 not be found among you anyone that makes his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, or that uses divination, a soothsayer, or an enchanter, or a witch, or a charmer, or a 11 medium, or a wizard, or a necromancer. For all that do these 12 things are an abomination to the LORD: and because of these abominations the LORD thy GOD drives them out from before thee. Thou shalt be perfect with the LORD thy GOD. For these 13, 14 nations, which thou shalt dispossess, hearken to soothsayers, and to diviners: but as for thee, the LORD thy GOD has not permitted thee so to do. The LORD thy GOD will raise up to 15 thee a prophet from the midst of thee, of thy brethren, like me; to him you shall hearken; according to all that thou didst desire 16 of the LORD thy GOD in Horev in the day of the assembly, saying, Let me not hear again the voice of the LORD my GOD, neither let me see this great fire any more, that I die not. And the 17 LORD said to me, They have well spoken that which they have spoken. I will raise them up a prophet from among their breth- 18 ren, like thee, and will put my words in his mouth; and he shall speak to them all that I shall command him. And it shall come 19 to pass, that whoever will not hearken to my words which he shall speak in my name, I will require it of him. But the prophet, 20 who shall presume to speak a word in my name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or that shall speak in the name of other gods, that prophet shall die. And if thou say in thy 21 heart, How shall we know the word which the LORD has not spoken? Know that when a prophet speaks in the name of the 22 LORD, if the thing follow not, nor come to pass, that is the thing which the LORD has not spoken, but the prophet has spoken it out of presumption; thou shalt not be afraid of him. When 19 the LORD thy GOD has cut off the nations, whose land the LORD thy GOD gives thee, and thou hast driven them out, and dost dwell in their cities, and in their houses; thou shalt se- 2 parate three cities for thee in the midst of thy land, which the LORD thy GOD gives thee to possess it. Thou shalt prepare 3 the way, and divide the border of thy land, which the LORD thy GOD gives thee to inherit, into three parts, that every slayer may flee thither. And this is the case of the slayer, who shall 4 flee there, that he may live: whoever unwittingly kills his neighbour, whom he hated not in time past; as when a man goes 5 into the forest with his neighbour to hew wood, and his hand fetches a stroke with the axe to cut down the tree, and the head slips from the handle, and strikes his neighbour, that he die; he shall flee to one of those cities, and live: lest the 6 avenger of blood pursue the slayer, while his heart is hot, and overtake him, because the way is long, and slay him; though he was not worthy of death, since he hated him not in time past.

Therefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt separate three 7 cities for thee. And if the LORD thy GOD enlarge thy border, as 8 he has sworn to thy fathers, and give thee all the land which he promised to give to thy fathers; if thou shalt keep all these 9 commandments to do them, which I command thee this day, to love the LORD thy GOD, and to walk ever in his ways: then shalt thou add three cities more for thee, beside these three:
that innocent blood be not shed in thy land, which the LORD 10 thy GOD gives thee for an inheritance, and so blood be upon thee.
But if any man hate his neighbour, and lie in wait for him, and 11 rise up against him, and smite him mortally that he die, and then flees into one of these cities: then the elders of his city 12 shall send and fetch him from there, and deliver him into the hand of the avenger of blood, that he may die. Thy eye shall 13 not pity him, but thou shalt put away the guilt of innocent blood from Yisra'el, that it may go well with thee. Thou shalt 14 not remove thy neighbour's landmark, which they of old time have set in thy inheritance, which thou shalt inherit in the land that the LORD thy GOD gives thee to possess it. One witness 15 shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin that he may commit: at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall the matter be established. If a false witness rise up against any man to testify 16 against him that which is wrong; then both the men, between 17 whom is the controversy, shall stand before the LORD, before the priests and the judges, who shall be in those days; and the 18 judges shall make diligent inquiry: and, behold, if the witness is a false witness, and has testified falsely against his brother; then shall you do to him, as he had thought to have done to 19 his brother: so shalt thou put the evil away from among you. And those who remain shall hear, and fear, and shall hence- 20 forth commit no more any such evil among you. And thy eye 21 shall not pity; but life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot. When thou goest out to 20 battle against thy enemies, and seest horses, and chariots, and a people more numerous than thou, be not afraid of them: for the LORD thy GOD is with thee, who brought thee up out of the land of Miẓrayim. And it shall be, when you are come near 2 to the battle, that the priest shall approach and speak to the people, and shall say to them, Hear, O Yisra'el, you draw near 3 today to do battle against your enemies: let not your hearts faint, fear not, and do not tremble, nor be terrified because of them; for the LORD your GOD is he that goes with you, to fight 4 for you against your enemies, to save you. And the officers 5 shall speak to the people, saying, What man is there that has built a new house, and has not dedicated it? let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man dedicate it. And what man is he that has planted a vineyard, 6 and has not yet eaten of it? let him also go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man eat of it. And 7 what man is there that has betrothed a wife, and has not taken her? let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man take her. And the officers shall speak further 8 to the people, and they shall say, What man is there that is fearful and fainthearted? let him go and return to his house, lest his brethren's heart melt like his heart. And it shall be, 9 when the officers have made an end of speaking to the people, that they shall make captains of the armies to lead the people.

When thou comest near to a city to fight against it, 10 then proclaim peace to it. And it shall be, if it make thee answer 11 of peace, and open to thee, then it shall be, that all the people to be found in it shall be tributaries to thee, and they shall serve thee. And if it will make no peace with thee, but will make war 12 against thee, then thou shalt besiege it: and when the LORD 13 thy GOD has delivered it into thy hands, thou shalt smite every male of it with the edge of the sword: but the women, and the 14 little ones, and the cattle, and all that is in the city, all the spoil of it, shalt thou take to thyself; and thou shalt eat the spoil of thy enemies, which the LORD thy GOD has given thee. Thus shalt thou do to all the cities which are very far off from 15 thee, which are not of the cities of these nations. But of the 16 cities of these peoples, which the LORD thy GOD gives thee for an inheritance, thou shalt save alive nothing that breathes:

but thou shalt utterly destroy them; the Ḥitti, and the Emori, 17 the Kena'ani, and the Perizzi, the Ḥivvi, and the Yevusi; as the LORD thy GOD has commanded thee: that they teach you not 18 to do after all their abominations, which they have done to their gods; so should you sin against the LORD your GOD. When 19 thou shalt besiege a city a long time, in making war against it to take it, thou shalt not destroy its trees by forcing an axe against them: for thou mayst eat of them, and thou shalt not cut them down; for is the tree of the field a man, that it should be besieged by thee? Only the trees which thou knowst that 20 they be not trees for food, thou shalt destroy and cut them down; and thou shalt build bulwarks against the city that makes war with thee, until it be subdued.

If one be found slain in the land which the LORD thy GOD gives 21 thee to possess it, lying in the field, and it be not known who has slain him: then thy elders and thy judges shall come out, 2 and they shall measure to the cities which are round about him that is slain: and it shall be, that as for the city which is nearest 3 to the slain man, the elders of that city shall take a heifer, which has not been put to work, and which has not drawn in the yoke; and the elders of that city shall bring down the heifer 4 to a rough ravine, which is neither ploughed nor sown, and shall break the heifer's neck there in the ravine: and the priests 5 the sons of Levi shall come near; for them the LORD thy GOD has chosen to minister to him, and to bless in the name of the LORD; and by their word shall every controversy and every stroke be tried: and all the elders of that city, that are 6 nearest to the slain man, shall wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the ravine: and they shall answer and 7 say, Our hands have not shed this blood, nor have our eyes seen it. Be merciful, O LORD, to thy people Yisra'el, whom thou 8 hast redeemed, and lay not innocent blood to the charge of thy people Yisra'el. And the blood shall be forgiven them. So shalt 9 thou put away the innocent blood from among you, when thou KI-TEẒE shalt do that which is right in the sight of the LORD. When 10 thou goest forth to war against thy enemies, and the LORD thy GOD has delivered them into thy hands, and thou hast taken them captive, and thou seest among the captives a beautiful 11 woman, and hast a desire to her, that thou wouldst have her to thy wife; then thou shalt bring her home to thy house; and 12 she shall shave her head, and pare her nails; and she shall put 13 the raiment of her captivity from off her, and shall remain in thy house, and bewail her father and her mother a full month: and after that thou shalt go in to her, and be her husband, and she shall be thy wife. And it shall be, if thou have no delight in her, 14 then thou shalt let her go where she will; but thou shalt not sell her at all for money, thou shalt not treat her as a slave, because thou hast humbled her. If a man have two wives, one be- 15 loved, and another hated, and they have born him children, both the beloved and the hated; and if the firstborn son be hers that was hated: then it shall be, when he makes his sons to 16 inherit that which he has, that he may not give the preference to the son of the beloved wife, over the son of the hated wife who is the firstborn: but he shall acknowledge the son of the 17 hated for the firstborn, by giving him a double portion of all that he has: for he is the beginning of his strength; the right of the firstborn is his. If a man have a stubborn and rebellious 18 son, who will not obey the voice of his father, or the voice of his mother, and that, when they have chastened him, will not hearken to them: then shall his father and his mother lay hold 19 of him, and bring him out to the elders of his city, and to the gate of his place; and they shall say to the elders of his city, 20 This our son is stubborn and rebellious, he will not obey our voice; he is a glutton, and a drunkard. And all the men of his 21 city shall stone him with stones, that he die: so shalt thou put evil away from among you; and all Yisra'el shall hear, and fear. And if a man have committed a sin worthy of death, 22 and he is put to death, and thou hang him on a tree: his body 23 shall not remain all night upon the tree, but thou shalt surely bury him that day: (for he that is hanged is accursed of GOD;) that thy land be not defiled, which the LORD thy GOD gives thee for an inheritance. Thou shalt not see thy brother's ox 22 or his sheep go astray, and hide thyself from them: thou shalt surely bring them back to thy brother. And if thy brother be 2 not near to thee, or if thou know him not, then thou shalt bring it to thy own house, and it shall be with thee until thy brother seek after it, and thou shalt restore it to him again. In like 3 manner shalt thou do with his ass; and so shalt thou do with his garment; and with every lost thing of thy brother's, which he has lost, and thou hast found, shalt thou do likewise: thou mayst not hide thyself. Thou shalt not see thy brother's 4 ass or his ox fall down by the way, and hide thyself from them: thou shalt surely help him to lift them up again. A 5 woman shall not wear that which pertains to a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment: for all that do so are abomination to the LORD thy GOD.

If a bird's nest chance to be before thee in the way in any tree, 6 or on the ground, whether they be young ones, or eggs, and the mother bird sitting upon the young, or upon the eggs, thou shalt not take the mother bird together with the young: but 7 thou shalt surely let the mother go, and take the young to thee; that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayst prolong thy days. When thou buildest a new house, then thou shalt 8 make a parapet for thy roof, that thou bring not blood upon thy house, if any man fall from it. Thou shalt not sow thy 9 vineyard with divers seeds: lest the fruit of the seed which thou hast sown, and the fruit of the vineyard, be forfeited. Thou 10 shalt not plough with an ox and an ass together. Thou shalt not 11 ginity to the elders of the city in the gate: and the girl's 16 father shall say to the elders, I gave my daughter to this man to wife, and he hated her; and, lo, he has laid accusing speeches 17 against her, saying, I found not thy daughter a virgin; and yet these are the tokens of my daughter's virginity. And they shall spread the cloth before the elders of the city. And the elders 18 of that city shall take that man and chastise him; and they 19 shall fine him a hundred shekels of silver, and give them to the father of the girl, because he has brought out an evil name upon a virgin of Yisra'el: and she shall be his wife; he may not put her away all his days. But if this thing be true, and 20 tokens of virginity be not found for the girl: then they shall 21 bring out the girl to the door of her father's house, and the men of her city shall stone her with stones that she die: because she has perpetrated wantonness in Yisra'el, to play the harlot in her father's house: so shalt thou put evil away from among you. If a man be found lying with a woman married to 22 a husband, then they shall both of them die both the man that lay with the woman, and the woman: so shalt thou put away evil from Yisra'el. It a girl that is a virgin be betrothed 23 to a husband, and a man find her in the city, and lie with her; then you shall bring them both out to the gate of that city, 24 and you shall stone them with stones that they die; the girl, because she cried not, being in the city; and the man, because he has humbled his neighbour's wife: so thou shalt put away evil from among you. But if a man find a betrothed girl 25 in the field, and the man force her, and lie with her: then only the man that lay with her shall die: but to the girl thou shalt 26 do nothing; there is in the girl no sin worthy of death: for as when a man rises against his neighbour, and slays him, even so is this matter: for he found her in the field, and the betrothed 27 maiden cried out, but there was none to save her. If a 28 man find a girl that is a virgin, who is not betrothed, and lay hold of her, and lie with her, and they be found; then the man 29 that lay with her shall give to the girl's father fifty shekels of silver, and she shall be his wife; because he has humbled her, he may not put her away all his days. A man shall not 23 take his father's wife, nor uncover his father's skirt. He 2 that is wounded in the stones, or has his privy member cut off, shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD. A 3 bastard shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD; even to his tenth generation shall he not enter into the congregation of the LORD. An 'Ammonite or a Mo'avite shall not enter 4 into the congregation of the LORD; even to their tenth generation shall they not enter into the congregation of the LORD for ever: because they met you not with bread and with water in the 5 way, when you came out of Miẓrayim; and because they hired against thee Bil'am, the son of Be'or, from Petor of Aram-naharayim to curse thee. But the LORD thy GOD would not 6 hearken to Bil'am; but the LORD thy GOD turned the curse into a blessing unto thee, because the LORD thy GOD loved thee. Thou 7 shalt not seek their peace nor their prosperity all thy days for ever. Thou shalt not abhor an Edomite; for he is thy 8 brother: thou shalt not abhor a Miẓrian; because thou wast a stranger in his land. The children that are begotten of them 9 shall enter into the congregation of the LORD in their third generation. When thou goest out to encamp against thy ene- 10 mies, then keep thee from every evil thing. If there be among 11 you any man, that is not clean by reason of uncleanness that chances by night, then shall he go abroad out of the camp, he shall not come within the camp: but it shall be, when evening 12 comes on, he shall bathe himself in water: and when the sun is down, he shall come into the camp again. Thou shalt have 13 a place also outside the camp, where thou shalt withdraw thyself: and thou shalt have a spade among thy weapons, and it 14 shall be, when thou wilt ease thyself outside, thou shalt dig with it, and shalt turn back and cover thy excrement: for the 15 LORD thy GOD walks in the midst of thy camp, to deliver thee, and to give up thy enemies before thee; therefore shall thy camp be holy: that he see no unclean thing in thee, and turn away from thee. Thou shalt not deliver to his master the 16 servant who is escaped from his master to thee: he shall dwell 17 with thee, among you, in that place which he shall choose in one of thy gates, where it likes him best: thou shalt not oppress him. There shall be no female prostitute of the daughters 18 of Yisra'el, nor a male prostitute of the sons of Yisra'el. Thou 19 shalt not bring the hire of a prostitute, or the price of a dog, into the house of the LORD thy GOD for any vow: for both these are abomination to the LORD thy GOD. Thou shalt not give 20 interest to thy brother; interest of money, interest of foodstuff, interest of anything that is lent upon interest; to a stranger 21 thou mayst give interest; but to thy brother thou shalt not give interest: that the LORD thy GOD may bless thee in all that thou settest thy hand to in the land into which thou goest to possess it. When thou shalt vow a vow to the LORD thy 22 GOD, thou shalt not be slack to pay it: for the LORD thy GOD will surely require it of thee; and it would be sin in thee. But if 23 thou shalt forbear to vow, it shall be no sin in thee. That which 24 is gone out of thy lips thou shalt keep and perform; according as thou hast vowed of thy freewill to the LORD thy GOD, which thou hast promised with thy mouth. When thou comest 25 into thy neighbour's vineyard, then thou mayst eat thy fill of grapes at thy desire; but thou shalt not put any in thy vessel. When thou comest into the standing corn of thy 26 neighbour, then thou mayst pluck the ears with thy hand; but thou shalt not move a sickle to thy neighbour's standing corn. When a man has taken a wife, and married her, and 24 it come to pass that she find no favour in his eyes, because he has found some unseemliness in her: then let him write her a bill of divorce, and give it in her hand, and send her out of his house. And when she is departed out of his house, she may 2 go and be another man's wife. And if the latter husband hate 3 her, and write her a bill of divorce, and give it in her hand, and send her out of his house; or if the latter husband, who took her to be his wife, should die, then her former husband, who 4 sent her away, may not take her again to be his wife, after she is defiled; for that is abomination before the LORD: and thou shalt not cause the land to be sinful, which the LORD thy GOD gives thee for an inheritance. When a man has taken a new 5 wife, he shall not go out to war, neither shall he be charged with any business: but he shall be free at home one year, and shall cheer his wife whom he has taken. No man shall take the 6 nether or the upper millstone for a pledge: for he takes a man's life for a pledge. If a man be found stealing any of his 7 brethren of the children of Yisra'el and deals with him as a slave, or sells him; then that thief shall die; and thou shalt put evil away from among you. Take heed in the plague 8 of ẓara'at, that thou observe diligently, and do according to all that the priests the Levites shall teach you: as I commanded them, so you shall observe to do. Remember what the LORD 9 thy GOD did to Miryam by the way, after you were come out of Miẓrayim. When thou dost lend thy brother anything, 10 thou shalt not go into his house to fetch his pledge. Thou shalt 11 stand outside, and the man to whom thou dost lend shall bring out the pledge to thee. And if the man be poor, thou shalt not 12 sleep with his pledge: thou shalt surely deliver him the pledge 13 again when the sun goes down, that he may sleep in his own garment, and bless thee: and it shall be as righteousness to thee before the LORD thy GOD. Thou shalt not oppress a 14 hired servant that is poor and needy, whether he be of thy brethren, or of thy strangers that are in thy land within thy gates. At his day thou shalt give him his hire, neither shall the 15 sun go down upon it; for he is poor, and sets his heart upon it: lest he cry against thee to the LORD, and it be sin in thee. Fathers shall not be put to death for children, 16 neither shall children be put to death for fathers: every man shall be put to death for his own sin. Thou shalt not 17 pervert the judgment of the stranger, or of the fatherless; nor take a widow's garment as a pledge: but thou shalt re- 18 member that thou wast a bondman in Miẓrayim, and the LORD thy GOD redeemed thee from there: therefore I command thee to do this thing. When thou reapest thy harvest in thy 19 field, and hast forgotten a sheaf in the field, thou shalt not go back to fetch it: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow: that the LORD thy GOD may bless thee in all the work of thy hands. When thou beatest thy olive 20 tree, thou shalt not go over the boughs again: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow. When thou 21 gatherest the grapes of thy vineyard, thou shalt not glean it afterwards; it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow. And thou shalt remember that thou wast a slave 22 in the land of Miẓrayim: therefore I command thee to do this thing. If there be a controversy between men, and they 25 come to judgment, that the judges may judge them; then they shall justify the righteous, and condemn the wicked. And it 2 shall be, if the wicked man be worthy to be beaten, that the judge shall cause him to lie down, and he shall be beaten in his presence, according to his fault, by a certain number. Forty 3 stripes he may give him, and not exceed: lest, if he should exceed, and beat him above these with many stripes, then thy brother shall be thus made vile before thee. Thou shalt not 4 muzzle the ox when he treads out the corn. If brothers 5 dwell together, and one of them die, and have no child, the wife of the dead shall not marry abroad to a stranger: her husband's brother shall go in to her, and take her to him to wife, and perform the duty of a husband's brother to her. And 6 it shall be, that the firstborn which she bears shall succeed in the name of his brother who is dead, that his name be not wiped out in Yisra'el. And if the man like not to take his 7 brother's wife, then let his brother's wife go up to the gate to the elders, and say, My husband's brother refuses to raise up to his brother a name in Yisra'el, he will not perform the duty of a husband's brother. Then the elders of his city shall call him, 8 and speak to him: and he shall stand, and say, I do not wish to take her; then shall his brother's wife approach him in the pres- 9 ence of the elders, and loose his shoe from off his foot, and spit in his face, and shall answer and say, Thus shall it be done to that man that will not build up his brother's house. And his 10 name shall be called in Yisra'el, The house of him that had his shoe loosed. When men strive together one with another, 11 and the wife of the one draws near to deliver her husband out of the hand of him that smites him, and putting out her hand, she takes hold of his private parts: then thou shalt cut 12 off her hand, thy eye shall not pity her. Thou shalt not 13 have in thy bag divers weights, a great and a small. Thou shalt 14 not have in thy house divers measures, a great and a small. But thou shalt have a perfect and just weight, a perfect and 15 just measure shalt thou have: that thy days may be lengthened in the land which the LORD thy GOD gives thee. For all that do 16 such things, and all that do unrighteously, are an abomination to the LORD thy GOD.

Remember what 'Amaleq did to thee by the way, when you 17 were come out of Mizrayim: how he met thee by the way, 18 and smote the hindmost of thee, all that were feeble in thy rear, when thou wast faint and weary; and he feared not GOD. Therefore it shall be, when the LORD thy GOD has given thee 19 rest from all thy enemies round about, in the land which the LORD thy GOD gives thee for an inheritance to possess it, that thou shalt blot out the remembrance of 'Amaleq from under heaven; thou shalt not forget.

KI-TAVO And it shall be, when thou art come in to the land which the 26
LORD thy GOD gives thee for an inheritance, and dost possess it and dost dwell therein: that thou shalt take of the first of all 2 the fruit of the earth, which thou shalt bring of thy land that the LORD thy GOD gives thee, and shalt put it in a basket, and shalt go to the place which the LORD thy GOD shall choose to place his name there. And thou shalt go to the priest that shall 3 be in those days, and say to him, I profess this day to the LORD thy GOD, that I am come to the country which the LORD swore to our fathers to give us. And the priest shall take the basket 4 out of thy hand, and set it down before the altar of the LORD thy GOD. And thou shalt speak and say before the LORD thy GOD, 5

An Arammian nomad was my father, and he went down to Mizrayim, and sojourned there with a few, and became there a nation, great, mighty, and populous: and the Mizrim dealt ill 6 with us, and afflicted us, and laid upon us hard bondage: and 7 when we cried to the LORD GOD of our fathers, the LORD heard our voice, and looked on our affliction, and our labour, and our oppression: and the LORD brought us out of Mizrayim with a 8 mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with great terribleness, and with signs, and with wonders: and he brought 9 us to this place, and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. And now, behold, I have brought the firstfruits of 10 the land, which thou, O LORD, hast given me. And thou shalt set it before the LORD thy GOD, and worship before the LORD thy GOD: and thou shalt rejoice in every good thing which the 11 LORD thy GOD has given thee, and thy house, thou, and the Levite, and the stranger that is among you. When thou 12 hast made an end of tithing all the tithes of thy produce in the third year, which is the year of tithing, and hast given it the Levite, the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, that they may eat within thy gates, and be replete; then thou shalt say 13 before the LORD thy GOD, I have removed the hallowed things out of my house, and also have given them to the Levite, and to the stranger, to the fatherless, and to the widow, according to all thy commandments which thou hast commanded me: I have not transgressed thy commandments, neither have I forgotten them: I have not eaten of it in my mourning, neither have 14
I consumed any part of it when unclean, nor given of it for the dead: but I have hearkened to the voice of the LORD my GOD, and have done according to all that thou hast commanded me.
Look down from thy holy habitation, from heaven, and bless 15 thy people Yisra'el, and the land which thou hast given us, as thou didst swear to our fathers, a land flowing with milk and honey. This day the LORD thy GOD has commanded thee 16 to do these statutes and judgments: thou shalt therefore keep and do them with all thy heart, and with all thy soul. Thou hast 17 avouched the LORD this day to be thy GOD, and to walk in his ways, and to keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his judgments, and to hearken to his voice: and the LORD has 18 avouched thee this day to be a people for his own possession, as he has promised thee, and that thou shouldst keep all his commandments; and to make thee high above all nations which 19 he has made, in praise, and in name, and in honour; and that thou mayst be a holy people to the LORD thy GOD, as he has spoken.

And Moshe with the elders of Yisra'el commanded the people, 27 saying, Keep all the commandments which I command you this day. And it shall be on the day when you shall pass over the 2 Yarden to the land which the LORD thy GOD gives thee, that thou shalt set thee up great stones, and cover them with plaster: and thou shalt write upon them all the words of this Tora, when 3 thou art passed over, that thou mayst go in to the land which the LORD thy GOD gives thee, a land flowing with milk and honey; as the LORD GOD of thy fathers has promised thee.

And it shall be when you have gone over the Yarden, that you 4 shall set up these stones, which I command you this day in mount 'Eval, and thou shalt cover them with plaster. And there 5 shalt thou build an altar to the LORD thy GOD, an altar of stones: thou shalt not lift up any iron tool upon them. Thou shalt build 6 the altar of the LORD thy GOD of whole stones: and thou shalt offer burnt offerings upon it to the LORD thy GOD: and thou 7 shalt offer peace offerings, and shalt eat there, and rejoice before the LORD thy GOD. And thou shalt write upon the stones 8 all the words of this Tora very plainly. And Moshe and 9 the priests the Levies spoke to all Yisra'el saying, Take heed, and hearken, O Yisra'el; this day thou art become the people of the LORD thy GOD. Thou shalt therefore obey the voice of the 10 LORD thy GOD, and do his commandments and his statutes, which I command thee this day. And Moshe charged the people 11 the same day, saying, These shall stand upon mount Gerizzim 12 to bless the people, when you are come over the Yarden; Shim'on, and Levi, and Yehuda, and Yissakhar, and Yosef, and Binyamin: and these shall stand on mount 'Eval to curse; 13 Re'uven, Gad, and Asher, and Zevulun, Dan, and Naftali. And 14 the Levites shall speak, and say to all the men of Yisra'el with a loud voice, Cursed be the man that makes any carved 15 or molten idol, an abomination to the LORD, the work of the hands of a craftsman, and sets it up in secret. And all the people shall answer and say, Amen. Cursed be he that dis- 16 honours his father or his mother. And all the people shall say, Amen. Cursed be he that removes his neighbour's land- 17 mark. And all the people shall say, Amen. Cursed be he 18 that makes the blind to wander out of the way. And all the people shall say, Amen. Cursed be he that perverts the 19 judgment of the stranger, fatherless, and widow. And all the people shall say, Amen. Cursed be he that lies with his father's 20 wife; because he uncovers his father's skirt. And all the people shall say, Amen. Cursed be he that lies with any manner 21 of beast. And all the people shall say, Amen. Cursed 22 be he that lies with his sister, the daughter of his father, or the daughter of his mother. And all the people shall say, Amen. Cursed be he that lies with his mother in law. 23
And all the people shall say, Amen. Cursed be he that 24 smites his neighbour secretly. And all the people shall say, Amen. Cursed be he that takes a bribe to slay an in- 25 nocent person. And all the people shall say, Amen. Cursed 26 be he that does not maintain all the words of this Tora to do them. And all the people shall, say, Amen.

And it shall come to pass, if thou shalt hearken diligently to the 28 voice of the LORD thy GOD, to observe and to do all his commandments which I command thee this day, that the LORD thy GOD will set thee on high above all the nations of the earth: and all these blessings shall come on thee, and overtake thee, 2 if thou shalt hearken to the voice of the LORD thy GOD. Blessed 3 shalt thou be in the city, and blessed shalt thou be in the field.
Blessed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy 4 ground, and the fruit of thy beasts, the increase of thy cattle, and the flocks of thy sheep. Blessed shall be thy basket and 5 thy store. Blessed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and 6 blessed shalt thou be when thou goest out. The LORD shall cause 7 thy enemies that rise up against thee to be smitten before thy face: they shall come out against thee one way, and flee before thee seven ways. The LORD shall command the blessing upon 8 thee in thy barns, and in all that thou settest thy hand unto;

and he shall bless thee in the land which the LORD thy GOD gives thee. The LORD shall establish thee a holy people to himself, 9 as he has sworn to thee, if thou shalt keep the commandments of the LORD thy GOD, and walk in his ways. And all people 10 of the earth shall see that thou art called by the name of the LORD; and they shall be afraid of thee. And the LORD shall make 11 thee plenteous in goods, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy ground, in the land which the LORD swore to thy fathers to give thee. The LORD 12 shall open to thee his good treasure, the heaven, to give the rain to thy land in its season, and to bless all the work of thy hand:
and thou shalt lend to many nations, and thou shalt not borrow. And the LORD shall make thee the head, and not the tail; 13 and thou shalt be above only, and thou shalt not be beneath; if thou hearken to the commandments of the LORD thy GOD, which I command thee this day, to observe and to do them:
and thou shalt not go aside from any of the words which I com- 14 mand thee this day, to the right hand, or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them.
But it shall come to pass, if thou will not heaken to the voice of 15 the LORD thy GOD, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command thee this day: that all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee: cursed shalt 16 thou be in the city, and cursed shalt thou be in the field. Cursed 17 shall be thy basket and thy store. Cursed shall be the fruit of 18 thy body, and the fruit of thy land, the increase of thy cattle, and the young of thy sheep. Cursed shalt thou be when thou 19 comest in, and cursed shalt thou be when thou goest out. The 20 LORD shall send upon thee cursing, confusion, and failure, in all that thou settest thy hand to do, until thou art destroyed, and until thou perish quickly: because of the wickedness of thy doings, in that thou hast forsaken me. The LORD shall make the 21 pestilence cleave to thee, until it consumes thee from off the land, into which thou goest to possess it. The LORD shall smite 22 thee with a consumption, and with a fever, and with an inflammation, and with an extreme burning, and with the sword, and with blasting, and with mildew; and they shall pursue thee until thou perish. And thy heaven that is over thy head shall be 23 brass, and the earth that is under thee shall be iron. The LORD 24 shall make the rain of thy land powder and dust: from heaven shall it come down upon thee, until thou be destroyed. The 25 LORD shall cause thee to be smitten before thy enemies: thou shalt go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them: and shalt be a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth. And thy carcass shall be food for all birds of the air, and 26 for the beasts of the earth, and no man shall scare them away.

The LORD will smite thee with the pox of Mizrayim, and with 27 the emerods, and with the scab, and with the itch, whereof thou canst not be healed. The LORD shall smite thee with madness, 28 and blindness, and astonishment of heart. And thou shalt grope 29 at noonday, as the blind man gropes in darkness, and thou shalt not prosper in thy ways: and thou shalt be only oppressed and robbed evermore, and no man shall save thee. Thou shalt 30 betroth a wife, and another man shall lie with her: thou shalt build a house, and thou shalt not dwell in it: thou shalt plant a vineyard, and shalt not gather its grapes. Thy ox shall be 31 slaughtered before thy eyes, and thou shalt not eat of it: thy ass shall be violently taken away from before thy face, and shall not be restored to thee: thy sheep shall be given to thy enemies, and thou shalt have none to come to the rescue. Thy 32 sons and thy daughters shall be given to another people, and thy eyes shall look, and fail with longing for them all the day long: and there shall be no might in thy hand. The fruit of thy land, 33 and all thy labours, shall a nation which thou knowst not eat up; and thou shalt be only oppressed and crushed always:
so that thou shalt be mad for the sight of thy eyes which thou 34 shalt see. The LORD shall smite thee in the knees, and in the legs, 35 with a festering eruption that cannot be healed, from the sole of thy foot to the top of thy head. The LORD shall bring 36 thee, and thy king whom thou shalt set over thee, to a nation which neither thou nor thy fathers have known; and there shalt thou serve other gods, of wood and stone. And thou shalt be- 37 come an astonishment, a proverb, and a byword, among all nations into which the LORD shall lead thee. Thou shalt carry much 38 grain out into the field, and shalt gather but little in; for the locust shall consume it. Thou shalt plant vineyards, and dress 39 them, but shalt neither drink of the wine, nor gather the grapes; for the worms shall eat them. Thou shalt have olive trees 40 throughout all thy borders, but thou shalt not anoint thyself with the oil; for thy olive shall cast its fruit. Thou shalt beget 41 sons and daughters, but thou shalt not enjoy them; for they shall go into captivity. All thy trees and fruit of thy land shall 42 the beetle consume. The stranger that is in the midst of thee 43 shall get up above thee very high; and thou shalt come down very low. He shall lend to thee, and thou shalt not lend to 44 him: he shall be the head, and thou shalt be the tail. Moreover 45 all these curses shall come upon thee, and shall pursue thee, and overtake thee, till thou be destroyed; because thou wouldst not hearken to the voice of the LORD thy GOD, to keep his commandments and his statutes which he commanded thee: and 46 they shall be upon thee for a sign and for a wonder, and upon thy seed for ever. Because thou wouldst not serve the LORD thy 47 GOD with joyfulness, and with gladness of heart, for the abundance of all things; therefore shalt thou serve thy enemies 48 which the LORD shall send against thee, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in want of all things: and he shall put a yoke of iron upon thy neck, until he have destroyed thee, The 49 LORD shall bring a nation against thee from far, from the end of the earth, which will swoop down like the vulture; a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand; a nation of fierce 50 countenance, which shall not respect the person of the old, nor show favour to the young: and he shall eat the fruit of 51 thy cattle, and the fruit of thy land, until thou be destroyed: such a one as shall not leave thee either corn, wine, or oil, or the increase of thy cattle, or the young of thy sheep, until he have destroyed thee. And he shall besiege thee in all thy gates, 52 until thy high and fortified walls come down, wherein thou didst trust, throughout all thy land: and he shall besiege thee in all thy gates throughout all thy land, which the LORD thy GOD has given thee. And thou shalt eat the fruit of thy own 53 body, the flesh of thy sons, and of thy daughters, which the LORD thy GOD has given thee, in the siege, and in the distress, with which thy enemy shall distress thee: the man that is tender 54 among you, and very delicate, his eye shall be evil towards his brother, and towards the wife of his bosom, and towards the remnant of his children which he shall leave: so that he will 55 not give to any of them of the flesh of his children whom he shall eat, when he has nothing left him; because of the siege, and of the distress, with which thy enemies shall distress thee in all thy gates. The tender and delicate woman among you, 56 who would not venture to set the sole of her foot upon the ground for fastidiousness and delicateness, her eye shall be evil towards the husband of her bosom, and towards her son, and towards her daughter, and towards her afterbirth that comes 57 out from her, and towards her children whom she shall bear: for she shall eat them for want of all things in secret; because of the siege and distress, wherewith thy enemy shall distress thee in thy gates. If thou wilt not observe to do all the words 58 of this Tora that are written in this book, that thou mayst fear this glorious and fearful name, the LORD thy GOD; then the LORD 59 will make thy plagues remarkable, and the plagues of thy offspring, even great plagues, and of long continuance, and severe sicknesses, and of long continuance. Moreover he will bring 60 upon thee all the diseases of Mizrayim, which thou wast afraid of; and they shall cleave to thee. Also every sickness, and every 61 plague, which is not written in the book of this Tora, them will the LORD bring upon thee, until thou art destroyed. And you 62 shall be left few in number, whereas you were as the stars of heaven for multitude; because thou wouldst not obey the voice of the LORD thy GOD. And it shall come to pass, that as the LORD 63 rejoiced over you to do you good, and to multiply you; so the LORD will rejoice over you to destroy you, and to annihilate you; and you shall be plucked from off the land into which thou goest to possess it. And the LORD shall scatter thee among all peoples, 64 from the one end of the earth to the other; and there thou shalt serve other gods, which neither thou nor thy fathers have known, wood and stone. And among these nations shalt thou 65 find no ease, neither shall the sole of thy foot have rest; but the LORD shall give thee there a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and despair of mind: and thy life shall hang in doubt before 66 thee; and thou shalt fear day and night, and shalt have no assurance of thy life: in the morning thou shalt say, Would it 67 were evening! and at evening thou shalt say, Would it were morning! for the fear of thy heart with which thou shalt fear, and for the sight of thy eyes which thou shalt see. And the 68 LORD shall bring thee back into Miẓrayim with ships, by that road of which I spoke to thee, Thou shalt see it no more again: and there you shall be sold to your enemies for bondmen and bondwomen, and no man shall buy you. These are the 69 words of the covenant, which the LORD commanded Moshe to make with the children of Yisra'el in the land of Mo'av, besides the covenant which he made with them in Ḥorev.

And Moshe called to all Yisra'el, and said to them, You have 29 seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Miẓrayim to Par'o, and to all his servants, and to all his land; the great trials which thy eyes have seen, the signs, and those 2 great miracles: yet the LORD has not given you a heart to per- 3 ceive, and eyes to see, and ears to hear, until this day. And I 4 have led you forty years in the wilderness: your clothes are not worn old upon you, and thy shoe is not worn old upon thy foot. You have not eaten bread, neither have you drunk wine 5 or strong drink: that you might know that I am the LORD your GOD. And when you came to this place, Siḥon the king of 6 Ḥeshbon, and 'Og the king of Bashan, came out against us to battle, and we smote them: and we took their land, and gave 7 it for an inheritance to the Re'uveni, and to the Gadi, and to the half tribe of the Menashshi. Keep therefore the words of this 8 covenant, and do them, that you may prosper in all that you do.

NIẒẒAVIM You stand this day all of you before the LORD your GOD; your 9 captains of your tribes, your elders, and your officers, with all the men of Yisra'el, your little ones, your wives, and thy stranger 10 that is in thy camp, from the hewer of thy wood to the drawer of thy water: that thou shouldst enter into the covenant of 11 the LORD thy GOD, and into his oath, which the LORD thy GOD makes with thee this day: that he may establish thee today 12 for a people to himself, and that he may be to thee a GOD, as he has said to thee, and as he has sworn to thy fathers, to Avraham, to Yiẓḥaq, and to Ya'aqov. Neither with you only 13 do I make this covenant and this oath; but with him that stands 14 here with us this day before the LORD our GOD, and also with him that is not here with us this day: (for you know how we 15 have dwelt in the land of Miẓrayim; and how we came through the nations which you passed by; and you have seen their 16 abominations, and their idols, wood and stone, silver and gold, which were among them:) lest there should be among you 17 man, or woman, or family, or tribe, whose heart turns away this day from the LORD our GOD, to go and serve the gods of these nations; lest there should be among you a root that bears gall and wormwood; and it come to pass, when he hears the 18 words of this curse, that he bless himself in his heart, saying, I shall have peace, though I walk in the stubborness of my heart, to add drunkenness to thirst: the LORD will not spare him, but 19 then the anger of the LORD and his jealousy shall smoke against that man, and all the curses that are written in this book shall lie upon him, and the LORD shall blot out his name from under heaven. And the LORD shall mark him off for evil out of all the 20 tribes of Yisra'el, according to all the curses of the covenant that are written in this book of the Tora: so that the generation 21 to come of your children that shall rise up after you, and the alien that shall come from a far land, shall say, when they see the plagues of that land, and the sicknesses which the LORD has laid upon it; and that the whole land is brimstone, and 22 salt, and burning, that it is not sown, nor bears, nor does any grass grow on it, like the overthrow of Sedom, and 'Amora, Adma, and Zevoyim, which the LORD overthrew in his anger, and in his wrath: then all the nations shall say, Why has the 23 LORD done thus to this land? what means the heat of this great anger? Then men shall say, Because they have forsaken the 24 covenant of the LORD GOD of their fathers, which he made with them when he brought them out of the land of Mizrayim: for they went and served other gods, and worshipped them, 25 gods whom they knew not, and whom he had not given to them: and the anger of the LORD burned against this land, to 26 bring upon it all the curses that are written in this book: and the LORD rooted them out of their land in anger, and in 27 wrath, and in great indignation, and cast them into another land, as it is this day. The secret things belong to the LORD 28 our GOD: but those things which are revealed belong to us and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this Tora. And it shall come to pass, when all these things 30 are come upon thee, the blessing and the curse, which I have set before thee, and thou shalt call them to mind among all the nations, into which the LORD thy GOD has driven thee, and 2 shalt return to the LORD thy GOD, and shalt obey his voice according to all that I command thee this day, thou and thy children, with all thy heart, and with all thy soul; that then 3 the LORD thy GOD will turn thy captivity, and have compassion upon thee, and will return and gather thee from all the nations, amongst whom the LORD thy GOD has scattered thee. If thy 4 outcasts be at the utmost parts of heaven, from there will the LORD thy GOD gather thee, and from there will he fetch thee: and the LORD thy GOD will bring thee into the land which thy 5 fathers possessed, and thou shalt possess it; and he will do thee good, and multiply thee more than thy fathers. And the LORD 6 thy GOD will circumcise thy heart, and the heart of thy seed, to love the LORD thy GOD with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, that thou mayst live. And the LORD thy GOD will put all 7 these curses upon thy enemies, and on them who hate thee, who persecuted thee. And thou shalt return and obey the voice of 8 the LORD, and do all his commandments which I command thee this day. And the LORD thy GOD will make thee plenteous in 9 every work of thy hand, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy land, for good: for the LORD will again rejoice over thee for good, as he rejoiced over thy fathers: if thou shalt hearken to the voice of the LORD 10 thy GOD, to keep his commandments and his statutes which are written in this book of the Tora, and if thou turn to the LORD thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul. For this 11 commandment which I command thee this day, it is not hidden from thee, neither is it far off. It is not in heaven, that thou 12 shouldst say, Who shall go up for us to heaven, and bring it to us, that we may hear it, and do it? Nor is it beyond the 13 sea, that thou shouldst say, Who shall go over the sea for us, and bring it to us, that we may hear it, and do it? But the 14 word is very near to thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart, that thou mayst do it. See, I have set before thee this 15 day life and good, and death and evil; in that I command thee 16 this day to love the LORD thy GOD, to walk in his ways, and to keep his commandments and his statutes and his judgments:

then thou shalt live and multiply: and the LORD thy GOD shall bless thee in the land into which thou goest to possess it. But 17 if thy heart turn away, so that thou wilt not hear, but shalt be drawn away, and worship other gods, and serve them; I 18 announce to you this day, that you shall surely perish, and that you shall not prolong your days upon the land, whither thou passest over the Yarden to go to possess it. I call heaven 19 and earth to witness this day against you, that I have set before thee life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live: that thou mayst love 20 the LORD thy GOD, and that thou mayst obey his voice, and that thou mayst cleave to him: for he is thy life, and the length of thy days: that thou mayst dwell in the land which the LORD swore to thy fathers, to Avraham, to Yiẓḥaq, and to Ya'aqov, to give them.

VAYYELEKH And Moshe went and spoke these words to all Yisra'el. And 1,2 he said to them, I am a hundred and twenty years old this day;
I can no more go out and come in: also the LORD has said to me, Thou shalt not go over this Yarden. The LORD thy GOD, he 3 will go over before thee, and he will destroy these nations from before thee, and thou shalt dispossess them: and Yehoshua, he shall go over before thee, as the LORD has said. And the 4 LORD will do to them as he did to Siḥon and to 'Og, the kings of the Emori, and to their land; whom he destroyed, and the 5 LORD shall deliver them up before your face, that you may do to them according to all the commandments which I have commanded you. Be strong and of a good courage, fear not, nor 6 be afraid of them: for the LORD thy GOD, he it is that goes with thee; he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee. And 7 Moshe called to Yehoshua, and said to him in the sight of all Yisra'el, Be strong and of a good courage: for thou must go with this people to the land which the LORD has sworn to their fathers to give them; and thou shalt cause them to inherit it.
And the LORD, he it is that goes before thee; he will be with 8 thee, he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee: fear not, nor be dismayed. And Moshe wrote this Tora, and delivered it to the 9 priests the sons of Levi, who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and to all the elders of Yisra'el. And Moshe com- 10 manded them, saying, At the end of every seven years, in the time of the year of release, in the feast of booths, when all 11 Yisra'el is come to appear before the LORD thy GOD in the place which he shall choose, thou shalt read this Tora before all Yisra'el in their hearing. Gather the people together, men, and 12 women, and children, and thy stranger that is within thy gates, that they may hear, and that they may learn, and fear the LORD your GOD, and observe to do all the words of this Tora: and 13 that their children, who have not known anything, may hear, and learn to fear the LORD your GOD, as long as you live in the land whither you go over the Yarden to possess it.

And the LORD said to Moshe, Behold, thy days approach that 14 thou must die: call Yehoshua, and present yourselves in the Tent of Meeting, that I may give him a charge. And Moshe and Yehoshua went, and presented themselves in the Tent of Meeting. And the LORD appeared in the Tent in a pillar of a cloud: 15 and the pillar of the cloud stood over the door of the Tent. And 16 the LORD said to Moshe, Behold, thou shalt sleep with thy fathers; and this people will rise up, and go astray after the gods of the strangers of the land, into which they go to be among them, and will forsake me, and break my covenant which I have made with them. Then my anger will burn against them 17 on that day, and I will forsake them, and I will hide my face from them, and they shall be devoured, and many evils and troubles shall befall them; so that they will say on that day, Are not these evils come upon us, because our GOD is not among us?
And I will surely hide my face on that day for all the evils which 18 they shall have perpetrated, in that they have turned to other gods. Now therefore write this poem for yourselves, and teach 19 it the children of Yisra'el: put it in their mouths, that this poem may be a witness for me against the children of Yisra'el.
For when I shall have brought them into the land of which I 20 swore to their fathers, one flowing with milk and honey; and they shall have eaten and filled themselves, and grown fat; then will they turn to other gods, and serve them, and provoke me, and break my covenant. And it shall come to pass, when 21 many evils and troubles have befallen them, that this poem shall testify against them as a witness; for it shall not be forgotten out of the mouths of their seed: for I know their inclination, and what they do, even now, before I have brought them into the land of which I swore. Moshe therefore wrote this poem 22 the same day, and taught it the children of Yisra'el. And he 23 gave Yehoshua the son of Nun a charge, and said, Be strong and of a good courage: for thou shalt bring the children of Yisra'el into the land of which I swore to them: and I will be with thee. And it came to pass, when Moshe had made an end 24 of writing the words of this Tora in a book, until they were finished, that Moshe commanded the Levites, who bore the ark 25 of the covenant of the LORD, saying, Take this book of the Tora, 26 and put it in the side of the ark of the covenant of the LORD your GOD, that it may be there for a witness against thee. For 27
I know thy rebellion, and thy stiff neck: behold, while I am yet alive with you this day, you have been rebellious against the LORD; and how much more after my death? Gather to me all 28 the elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speak these words in their ears, and call heaven and earth to witness against them. For I know that after my death you will surely become corrupted, and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you; and evil will befall you in the latter days; because you will do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger through the work of your hands. And Moshe spoke in the ears of all the congregation of Yisra'el, the words of this poem, until they were ended. 29 30

HA'AZINU

Give ear, O heavens, and I will speak; / and hear, O earth, the words of my mouth. / My doctrine shall drop as the rain, / my speech shall distil as the dew, / as the small rain upon the tender herb, / and as the showers upon the grass: / because I will call on the name of the LORD: / ascribe greatness to our GOD. / He is the Rock, his work is perfect: / for all his ways are justice: / a GOD of truth and without iniquity, / just and right is he. / Not his the corruption, but the blemish of his sons: / they are a perverse and crooked generation. / Do you thus requite the LORD, / O foolish people and unwise? / is not he thy father that bought thee? / has he not made thee, and established thee? / Remember the days of old / consider the years of many generations: / ask thy father, and he will recount it to thee; / thy elders, and they will tell thee. / When the most High divided to the nations their inheritance, / when he separated the sons of Adam, / he set the bounds of the people / according to the number of the children of Yisra'el. / For the LORD'S portion is his people; / Ya'aqov is the lot of his inheritance. / He found him in a desert land, / and in the waste howling wilderness; / he led him about, he instructed him, / he kept him as the apple of his eye. / As an eagle stirs up her nest, / broods over her young, / speads abroad her wings / takes them, bears them on her pinions: / so the LORD alone did lead him, / and there was no strange god with him. / He made him ride on the high places of the earth, / and he ate the produce of the fields; / and he made him suck honey out of the rock, / and oil out of the flinty rock; / butter of kine, and milk of sheep, / with fat of lambs, / and rams of the breed of Bashan, and goats, / with the fat of kidneys of wheat; / and thou didst drink wine of the pure blood of the grape. / But Yeshurun grew fat, and kicked: / thou art grown fat, thou art become thick, thou art covered with fatness; / then he forsook GOD who made him, / and lightly esteemed the Rock of his salvation. / They provoked him to jealousy with strange gods, / with abominations they provoked him to anger. / They sacrificed to powerless spirits; to gods whom they knew not, / to new gods that came newly up, / whom your fathers feared not. / Of the Rock that begot thee thou art unmindful, / and hast forgotten GOD that formed thee. / And when the LORD saw it, 32 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19

he abhorred them, / because of the provocation of his sons, and of his daughters. / And he said, I will hide my face from them, / 20 I will see what their end shall be: / for they are a very perverse generation, / children in whom is no faith. / They have moved 21 me to jealousy with a no god; / they have provoked me to anger with their vanities: / and I will move them to jealousy with a no people; / I will provoke them to anger with a vile nation. / For a fire is kindled in my anger, / and shall burn to 22 the nethermost parts of the earth, / and shall consume the earth with its produce, / and set on fire the foundations of the mountains. / I will heap mischiefs upon them; / I will spend my 23 arrows on them. / They shall be sucked empty by hunger, and 24 devoured with burning heat, / and with bitter destruction: / I will also send the teeth of beasts upon them, / with the poison of crawling things of the dust. / The sword without, / and terror 25 within, / shall destroy both the young man and the virgin, / the suckling also with the man of grey hairs. / I said, I would scatter 26 them into corners, / I would make the remembrance of them to cease from among men: / were it not for the heaped up 27 wrath of the enemy, / lest their adversaries should misdeem, / and lest they should say, Our hand is high, / and the LORD has not done all this. / For they are a nation void of counsel, / 28 neither is there any understanding in them. / O that they were 29 wise, that they understood this, / that they would consider their latter end! / How should one man chase a thousand, / 30 and two put ten thousand to flight, / unless their Rock had sold them, / and the LORD had shut them up? / For their rock is not 31 as our Rock, / even our enemies themselves being judges. / For their vine is of the vine of Sedom, / and of the fields of 32
'Amora: / their grapes are grapes of gall, / their clusters are bitter: / their wine is the fierceness of crocodiles, / and the 33 cruel venom of asps. / Is not this laid up in store with me, / 34 and sealed up among my treasures? / To me belongs vengeance, 35 and recompense, / when their foot slides: / for the day of their calamity is at hand, / and the things that shall come upon them make haste. / For the LORD shall judge his people, / and repent 36 himself for his servants, / when he sees that their power is gone, / and there is none shut up, or left. / And he shall say, 37 Where are their gods, / their rock in whom they trusted, / those that did eat the fat of their sacrifices, / and drank the 38 wine of their drink offerings? / let them rise up and help you, / and be your protection. / See now that I, even I, am he, / and 39 there is no god with me: / I kill, and I make alive; / I wound, and I heal: / neither is there any that can deliver out of my hand. / For I lift up my hand to heaven, / and say, I live for 40 ever. / If I whet my glittering sword, / and my hand take hold 41 on judgment; / I will render vengeance to my enemies, / and

And Moshe came and spoke all the words of this poem in the 44 ears of the people, he, and Hoshea the son of Nun. And Moshe 45 made an end of speaking all these words to all Yisra'el: and 46 he said to them, Set your hearts to all the words which I testify among you this day, which you shall command your children to observe to do, all the words of this Tora. For it is not a vain 47 thing for you; because it is your life: and through this word you shall prolong your days in the land, into which you go over the Yarden to possess it.
And the LORD spoke to Moshe that same day, saying, Go up 48, 49 into this mount 'Avarim, to mount Nevo, which is in the land of Mo'av, that is facing Yereḥo; and behold the land of Kena'an, which I give to the children of Yisra'el for a possession: and 50 die in the mount into which thou goest up, and be gathered to thy people; as Aharon thy brother died in mount Hor, and was gathered to his people: because you transgressed against me 51 among the children of Yisra'el at the waters of Merivat-qaḏesh, in the wilderness of Ẓin; because you sanctified me not in the midst of the children of Yisra'el. Yet thou shalt see the land 52 before thee; but thou shalt not go there into the land which I give to the children of Yisra'el.

VEZOT HABBERAKHA

And this is the blessing, with which Moshe the man of GOD 33 blessed the children of Yisra'el before his death. And he said, 2
The LORD came from Sinay, and rose up from Se'ir to them; he shone forth from mount Paran, and he came from holy multitudes: from his right hand went a fiery law for them.
Truly he loves the peoples; all his holy ones are in thy hand: 3 and they sat down at thy feet; every one shall receive of thy words. Moshe commanded us a Tora, the inheritance of the 4 congregation of Ya'aqov. And he was king in Yeshurun, when 5 the heads of the people and the tribes of Yisra'el were gathered together. Let Re'uven live, and not die; and let not his men 6 be few. And this is the blessing of Yehuda: and he said, 7 Hear, LORD, the voice of Yehuda, and bring him to his people: let his hands be sufficient for him; and be thou a help to him from his enemies.
And of Levi he said, Let thy Tummim and thy Urim be with 8 thy pious one, whom thou didst prove at Massa, and with whom thou didst strive at the waters of Meriva; who said of his 9 father and of his mother, I have not seen him; nor did he acknowledge his brothers, nor knew his own children: for they have observed thy word, and kept thy covenant. They shall 10 teach Ya'aqov thy judgments, and Yisra'el thy Tora: they shall put incense before thee, and whole burnt sacrifice upon thy altar. Bless, LORD, his substance, and accept the work of his 11 hands: smite through the loins those who rise against him, and those who hate him, that they rise not again. And of 12 Binyamin he said, The beloved of the LORD; he shall dwell in safety by him; he shall cover him all the day long, and he shall dwell between his shoulders. And of Yosef he said, Blessed 13 of the LORD be his land, for the precious things of heaven, for the dew, and for the deep that couches beneath, and for the 14 precious fruits brought forth by the sun, and for the precious things put forth by the moon, and for the chief things of the 15 ancient mountains, and for the precious things of the primordial hills, and for the precious things of the earth and its fulness, 16 and for the good will of him that dwelt in the bush: let the blessing come upon the head of Yosef, and upon the top of the head of him who was separated from his brothers. The firstling 17 of his herd, grandeur is his, and his horns are like the horns of a wild ox: with them he shall push the peoples altogether to the ends of the earth: and they are the ten thousands of Efrayim, and they are the thousands of Menashshe. And of Zevulun 18 he said, Rejoice, Zevulun, in thy going out; and, Yissakhar, in thy tents. They shall call the peoples to the mountain; there they 19 shall offer sacrifices of righteousness: for they shall suck of the abundance of the seas, and of treasures hid in the sand.

And of Gad he said, Blessed is he that enlarges Gad: he 20 dwells as a lion, and tears the arm with the crown of the head.
And he provided the first part for himself, because there the por- 21 tion of a lawgiver was reserved; and he came with the heads of the people, he executed the justice of the LORD, and his judgments with Yisra'el. And of Dan he said, Dan is a lion's 22 whelp, that leaps from Bashan. And of Naftali he said, O Naftali, 23 satisfied with favour, and full with the blessing of the LORD: possess thou the west and the south. And of Asher he said, Be 24 Asher blessed above sons; let him be acceptable to his brethren, and let him dip his foot in oil. Thy shoes shall be iron and 25 brass; and as thy days, so shall thy strength be. There is none 26 like to the GOD of Yeshurun, who rides upon the heaven to thy help, and in his excellency on the clouds. The eternal GOD is a 27 dwelling place, and underneath are the everlasting arms: and he shall thrust out the enemy from before thee; and shall say, Destroy them. Yisra'el then shall dwell in safety alone: the 28 fountain of Ya'aqov shall dwell upon a land of corn and wine; also his heavens shall drop down dew. Happy art thou, O Yis- 29 ra'el: who is like to thee, O people saved by the LORD, the shield of thy help, and one that is the sword of thy excellency! and thy enemies shall submit themselves to thee; and thou shalt tread upon their high places. And Moshe went up 34 from the plains of Mo'av to the mountain of Nevo, to the top of Pisga, facing Yereḥo, And the LORD showed him all the land of Gil'ad, to Dan, and all Naftali, and the land of Efrayim, 2 and Menashshe, and all the land of Yehuda, as far as the utmost sea, and the Negev, and the plain; the valley of Yereḥo, city 3 of the palm trees, as far as Ẓo'ar. And the LORD said to him, 4
This is the land which I swore to Avraham, to Yiẓḥaq and to Ya'aqov, saying, I will give it to thy seed: I have caused thee to see it with thy eyes, but thou shalt not go over there. So 5 Moshe the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Mo'av, according to the word of the LORD. And he buried him in the 6 valley in the land of Mo'av, over against Bet-pe'or: but no man knows his grave to this day. And Moshe was a hundred and 7 twenty years old when he died: his eye was not dim, nor his natural force abated. And the children of Yisra'el wept for 8 Moshe in the plains of Mo'av thirty days: and the days of weeping and mourning for Moshe were ended. And Yehoshua the 9 son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom; for Moshe had laid his hands upon him: and the children of Yisra'el hearkened to him, and did as the LORD commanded Moshe. And there arose 10 not a prophet since in Yisra'el like Moshe, whom the LORD knew face to face, in all the signs and the wonders, which the LORD 11 sent him to do in the land of Mizrayim to Par'o, and to all his servants and to all his land, and in all that mighty hand, and in 12 all the great terror which Moshe performed in the sight of all Yisra'el.

Now after the death of Moshe the servant of the LORD it 1 came to pass, that the LORD spoke to Yehoshua the son of Nun, Moshe's minister, saying, Moshe my servant is dead; 2 now therefore arise, go over the Yarden, thou, and all this people, to the land which I do give to them, to the children of Yisra'el. Every place that the sole of your foot shall tread 3 upon, that have I given to you, as I said to Moshe. From 4 the wilderness and this Levanon as far as the great river, the river Perat, all the land of the Hitti, as far as the great sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your border. No 5 man shall be able to stand before thee all the days of thy life:
as I was with Moshe, so I will be with thee: I will not fail thee, nor forsake thee. Be strong and of a good courage: for thou 6 shalt cause this people to inherit the land, which I swore to their fathers to give them. Only be strong and very courageous, and 7 observe to do according to all the Tora, which Moshe my servant commanded thee: turn not from it to the right hand nor to the left, that thou mayst prosper wherever thou goest. This book 8 of the Tora shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayst observe to do according to all that is written in it: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success.
Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; 9 be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the LORD thy GOD is with thee wherever thou goest. Then Yehoshua com- 10 manded the officers of the people, saying, Pass through the midst 11 of the camp, and command the people, saying, Prepare your food; for within three days you shall pass over this Yarden, to go in to possess the land, which the LORD your GOD gives you to possess it. And to the Re'uveni, and to the Gadi, and to 12 half the tribe of Menashshe, Yehoshua spoke saying, Remember 13 the word which Moshe the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying, The LORD your GOD gives you rest, and will give you this land. Your wives, your little ones, and your cattle, shall 14 remain in the land which Moshe gave you on the far side of the Yarden; but you shall pass before your brethren armed, all the mighty men of valour, and help them, ; until the LORD has given 15 your brethren rest, as he has given you, and they also have possessed the land which the LORD your GOD gives them: then you shall return to the land of your possession, which Moshe the LORD'S servant gave you on the far side of the Yarden, toward the sunrising, and occupy it. And they answered Yehoshua, 16 saying, All that thou commandest us we will do, and wherever thou sendest us, we will go. As we hearkened to Moshe in all 17 things, so will we hearken to thee: only the LORD thy GOD be with thee, as he was with Moshe. Whoever rebels against thy 18 commandment, and will not hearken to thy words in all that thou commandest him, he shall be put to death: only be strong and of a good courage.

And Yehoshua the son of Nun sent out of Shittim two men to 2 spy secretly, saying, Go view the land, and Yeriho. And they went, and came to the house of a harlot named Rahav, and lodged there. And it was told the king of Yeriho, saying, Behold, there 2 came men in here tonight of the children of Yisra'el to search out the country. And the king of Yeriḥo sent to Raḥav, saying, 3 Bring forth the men that are come to thee, who are entered into thy house: for they are come to search out all the country.

And the woman took the two men, and hid them, and said 4 thus, There came men to me, but I know not from where they were: and it came to pass about the time of shutting of the gate, 5 when it was dark, that the men went out: whither the men went I know not: pursue after them quickly; for you shall overtake them. But she had brought them up to the roof of the 6 house, and hid them in the stalks of flax, which she had arranged on the roof And the men pursued after them the way to the 7 Yarden over the fords: and as soon as they who pursued after them were gone out, they shut the gate. And before they were 8 laid down, she came up to them upon the roof; and she said 9 to the men, I know that the LORD has given you the land, and that your terror is fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land melt away because of you. For we have heard how 10 the LORD dried up the waters of the Sea of Suf before you, when you came out of Miẓrayim; and what you did to the two kings of the Emori, that were on the far side of the Yarden, Siḥon and 'Og, whom you utterly destroyed. And as soon as we heard 11 these things, our hearts melted, neither did there remain any more courage in any man, because of you: for the LORD your GOD, he is GOD in heaven above, and on the earth beneath.
Now therefore, I pray you, swear to me by the LORD, since I 12 have shown you kindness, that you will also show kindness to my father's house, and give me a true token: and that you 13 will save alive my father, and my mother, and my brothers, and my sisters, and all that they have, and deliver our lives from death. And the men answered her, Our life for yours, if only 14 you do not tell of this our business. And it shall be, when the LORD has given us the land, that we will deal kindly and truly with thee. Then she let them down by a rope through the win- 15 dow: for her house was on the town wall, and she dwelt upon the wall. And she said to them, Get you to the mountain, lest 16 the pursuers meet you; and hide yourselves there three days, until the pursuers have returned: and afterwards you may go your way. And the men said to her, We will be blameless of 17 this thy oath which thou hast made us swear. Behold, when we 18 come into the land, thou shalt bind this cord of scarlet thread in the window which thou didst let us down by: and thou shalt bring thy father, and thy mother, and thy brothers, and all thy father's household, unto thee to the house. And it shall be, that 19 whoever shall go out of the doors of thy house into the street, his blood shall be upon his head, and we will be guiltless: and whoever shall be with thee in the house, his blood shall be on our head, if any hand be upon him. And if thou tell of this our 20 business, then we will be quit of thy oath which thou hast made us to swear. And she said, According to your words, so be it. 21 And she sent them away, and they departed: and she bound the scarlet cord in the window. And they went, and came to the 22 mountain, and remained there three days, until the pursuers were returned: and the pursuers sought them throughout all the way, but found them not. So the two men returned, and 23 descended from the mountain, and passed over, and came to Yehoshua the son of Nun, and told him all the things that had befallen them: and they said to Yehoshua, Truly the LORD has 24 delivered all the land into our hands; and moreover all the inhabitants of the country do melt away because of us. And 3 Yehoshua rose early in the morning; and they removed from Shittim, and came to the Yarden, he and all the children of Yisra'el, and spent the night there before they passed over.

And it came to pass after three days, that the officers went 2 through the camp; and they commanded the people, saying, 3
When you see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your GOD, and the priests the Levites bearing it, then you shall remove from your place, and go after it, (yet there shall be 4 a space between you and it, about two thousand cubits by measure: come not near to it;) that you may know the way by which you must go: for you have not passed this way heretofore. And Yehoshua said to the people, Sanctify 5 yourselves: for to morrow the LORD will do wonders among you. And Yehoshua spoke to the priests, saying, Take up the 6 ark of the covenant, and pass over before the people. And they took up the ark of the covenant, and went before the people.
And the LORD said to Yehoshua, This day will I begin to 7 magnify thee in the sight of all Yisra'el, that they may know that, as I was with Moshe, so I will be with thee. And thou 8 shalt command the priests that bear the ark of the covenant, saying, When you are come to the brink of the water of the Yarden, you shall stand still in the Yarden. And Yeho- 9 shua said to the children of Yisra'el, Come here, and hear the words of the LORD your GOD. And Yehoshua said, Hereby you 10 shall know that the living GOD is among you, and that he will without fail drive out from before you the Kena'ani, and the Ḥitti, and the Ḥivvi, and the Perizzi, and Girgashi, and the Emori and the Yevusi. Behold, the ark of the covenant of the 11
LORD of all the earth passes over before you into the Yarden.
Now therefore take twelve men out of the tribes of Yisra'el, 12 out of every tribe a man. And it shall come to pass, as soon as 13 the soles of the feet of the priests that bear the ark of the LORD, the Lord of all the earth, shall rest in the waters of the Yarden, that the waters of the Yarden shall be cut off, those waters that come down from above; and they shall stand in a heap. And it came to pass, when the people removed from their 14 tents, to pass over the Yarden, and the priests bearing the ark of the covenant before the people; and as they that bore the ark 15 were come to the Yarden. And the feet of the priests that bore the ark were dipped in the brink of the water, (for the Yarden overflows all its banks throughout the time of harvest,) that the 16 waters which came down from above stood and rose up in a heap very far from the city Adam, that is beside Ẓaretan: and those that came down toward the sea of the 'Arava, the salt sea, failed, and were cut off: and the people passed over opposite Yeriḥo. And the priests that bore the ark of the covenant of 17 the LORD stood firm on dry ground in the midst of the Yarden, and all Yisra'el passed over on dry ground, until all the people were passed clean over the Yarden. And it came to pass, when 1 all the people were clean passed over the Yarden, that the LORD spoke to Yehoshua saying, Take you twelve men 2 out of the people, out of every tribe a man, and command 3 them, saying, Take you hence out of the midst of the Yarden, out of the place where the priests' feet stood firm, twelve stones, and you shall carry them over with you, and leave them in the lodging place, where you shall lodge this night.

Then Yehoshua called the twelve men, whom he had 4 prepared of the children of Yisra'el out of every tribe a man: and Yehoshua said to them, Pass over before the ark of the 5 LORD your GOD into the midst of the Yarden, and take up every man of you a stone upon his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Yisra'el: that this may 6 be a sign among you, that when your children ask their fathers in time to come, saying, What mean you by these stones? then you shall answer them, That the waters of the Yarden 7 were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD; when it passed over the Yarden, the waters of the Yarden were cut off: and these stones shall be for a memorial to the children of Yisra'el forever. And the children of Yisra'el did as Yeho- 8 shua commanded, and took up twelve stones out of the midst of the Yarden, as the LORD spoke to Yehoshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Yisra'el, and carried them over with them to the place where they lodged, and laid them down there. And Yehoshua set up twelve stones 9 in the midst of the Yarden, in the place where the feet of the priests who bore the ark of the covenant stood: and they are there to this day. For the priests who bore the ark stood in 10 the midst of the Yarden, until every thing was finished that the LORD commanded Yehoshua to speak to the people, according to all that Moshe commanded Yehoshua: and the people hastened and passed over. And it came to pass, when 11 all the people were clean passed over, that the ark of the LORD passed over, and the priests, before the people. And the 12 children of Re'uven, and the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Menashshe, passed over armed before the children of Yisra'el, as Moshe spoke to them: about forty thousand pre- 13 pared for war passed over before the LORD to battle, to the plains of Yeriḥo. On that day the LORD magnified Yeho- 14 shua in the sight of all Yisra'el; and they feared him, as they feared Moshe, all the days of his life. And the LORD 15 spoke to Yehoshua, saying, Command the priests that bear 16 the ark of the testimony, that they come up out of the Yarden. Yehoshua therefore commanded the priests, saying, Come up 17 out of the Yarden. And it came to pass, when the priests that 18 bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD were come up out of the midst of the Yarden, and the soles of the priests' feet were lifted up to the dry land, that the waters of the Yarden returned to their place, and flowed over all its banks, as they did before. And the people came up out of the Yarden on the 19 tenth day of the first month, and encamped in Gilgal, on the east border of Yeriḥo. And those twelve stones, which they took out of the Yarden, did Yehoshua pitch in Gilgal. And he spoke to the children of Yisra'el, saying, When your children shall ask their fathers in time to come, saying, What mean these stones? Then you shall let your children know, saying, Yisra'el came over this Yarden on dry land. For the LORD your GOD dried up the waters of the Yarden from before you, until you were passed over, as the LORD your GOD did to the Sea of Suf, which he dried up before us, until we were gone over: that all the people of the earth might know the hand of the LORD, that it is mighty: that you might fear the LORD your GOD forever.

And it came to pass, when all the kings of the Emori, who were on the side of the Yarden westward, and all the kings of the Kena'ani, who were by the sea, heard that the LORD had dried up the waters of the Yarden from before the children of Yisra'el, until they were passed over, that their heart melted, neither was there spirit in them any more, because of the children of Yisra'el.

At that time the LORD said to Yehoshua, Make flint knives, and circumcise again the children of Yisra'el the second time. And Yehoshua made flint knives, and circumcised the children of Yisra'el at the hill of 'Aralot. And this is the cause why Yehoshua did circumcise: All the people that came out of Miẓrayim, that were males, all the men of war, died in the wilderness by the way, after they came out of Miẓrayim. Now all the people that came out were circumcised: but all the people that were born in the wilderness by the way as they came out of Miẓrayim, them they had not circumcised. For the children of Yisra'el walked forty years in the wilderness, till all the people that were men of war, who came out of Miẓrayim, were consumed, because they obeyed not the voice of the LORD: to whom the LORD swore that he would not show them the land, which the LORD swore to their fathers that he would give us, a land flowing with milk and honey. And their children, whom he raised up in their stead, them Yehoshua circumcised: for they were uncircumcised, because they had not circumcised them on the road. And it came to pass, when they had finished circumcising all the people, that they abode in their places in the camp, till they were recovered.

And the LORD said to Yehoshua, This day have I rolled away the reproach of Miẓrayim from off you. So he called the name of the place Gilgal to this day. And the children of Yisra'el encamped in Gilgal, and kept the passover on the fourteenth day of the month at evening in the plains of Yeriḥo. And they did eat of the corn of the land on the morrow after the passover, unleavened cakes, and parched corn, that very day. And the manna ceased on the morrow when they ate of the corn of the land; neither had the children of Yisra'el manna any more; but they did eat of the produce of the land of Kena'an that year.

And it came to pass, when Yehoshua was by Yeriḥo, that he lifted up his eyes and looked, and, behold, a man stood over against him with his sword drawn in his hand:

and Yehoshua went over to him, and said to him, Art thou for us, or for our adversaries? And he said, No: but I am 14 captain of the host of the LORD. I am now come. And Yeho-shua fell on his face to the earth, and bowed down, and said to him, What says my lord to his servant? And the captain of 15 the LORD's host said to Yehoshua, Put off thy shoe from off thy foot; for the place on which thou standest is holy. And Yeho-shua did so. Now Yeriḥo was closely shut up because of the 6 children of Yisra'el: none went out, and none came in.

And the LORD said to Yehoshua, See, I have given into thy 2 hand Yeriḥo, and its king, and the mighty men of valour. And 3 you shall go round the city, all the men of war, going about the city once. Thus shalt thou do six days. And seven priests 4 shall bear before the ark seven shofarot of rams' horns: and on the seventh day you shall compass the city seven times, and the priests shall blow with the shofarot. And it shall come 5 to pass, that when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, when you hear the sound of the shofar, all the people shall shout with a great shout; and the wall of the city shall fall down flat, and the people shall go up every man straight before him. And Yehoshua the son of Nun called the priests, 6 and said to them, Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests bear seven shofarot of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD. And he said to the people, Pass on, and com- 7 pass the city, and let those stripped for war pass on before the ark of the LORD. And it came to pass, when Yehoshua had 8 spoken to the people, that the seven priests bearing the seven shofarot of rams' horns passed on before the LORD, and blew with the shofarot: and the ark of the covenant of the LORD followed them. And those stripped for war went before the 9 priests that blew with the horns, and the rearward came after the ark, the priests going on, and blowing with the shofarot.
And Yehoshua had commanded the people, saying, You shall 10 not shout, nor make any noise with your voice, neither shall any word proceed out of your mouth, until the day I bid you shout; then shall you shout. So the ark of the LORD compassed 11 the city, going about it once: and they came to the camp, and spent the night in the camp. And Yehoshua rose 12 early in the morning, and the priests took up the ark of the LORD. And seven priests bearing seven shofarot of rams' horns 13 before the ark of the LORD went on continually, and blew with the shofarot: and the warriors went before them; but the rear-ward came after the ark of the LORD, the priests going on, and blowing with the shofarot. And the second day they went 14 round the city once, and returned to the camp: so they did six days. And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they 15 rose early about the dawning of the day, and went round the city after the same manner seven times: only on that day they went round the city seven times. And it came to pass at the 16 seventh time, when the priests blew with the shofarot, that Yehoshua said to the people, Shout; for the LORD has given you the city. And the city shall be devoted, it, and all that 17 is in it, to the LORD: only Raḥav the harlot shall live, she and all that are with her in the house, because she hid the messengers that we sent. But as for you, keep away from the 18 devoted things, lest you make yourselves accursed, when you take of the devoted things, and make the camp of Yisra'el a curse, and trouble it. But all the silver, and gold, and vessels 19 of brass and iron, are consecrated to the LORD: they shall come into the treasury of the LORD. So the people shouted 20 when the priests blew with the shofarot: and it came to pass, when the people heard the sound of the horn, that the people shouted with a great shout, and the wall fell down flat, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city. And they utterly destroyed 21 all that was in the city, both men and women, young and old, as well as oxen, sheep, and asses, with the edge of the sword. But Yehoshua had said to the two men that had spied 22 out the country, Go into the harlot's house, and bring out from there the woman, and all that she has, as you swore to her. And the young men that were spies went in, and 23 brought out Raḥav, and her father, and her mother, and her brothers, and all that she had; and they brought out all her kindred, and left them outside the camp of Yisra'el. And they 24 burnt the city with fire, and all that was in it: only the silver, and the gold, and the vessels of brass and of iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the LORD. And Yehoshua 25 saved Raḥav the harlot alive, and her father's household, and all that she had; and she dwelt in Yisra'el to this very day; because she hid the messengers, whom Yehoshua sent to spy out Yeriḥo. And Yehoshua charged them at that time 26 by oath, saying, Cursed be the man before the LORD, that rises up to build this city Yeriḥo: he shall lay its foundation with his firstborn, and with his youngest son shall he set up the gates of it. So the LORD was with Yehoshua; and his 27 fame was throughout all the country. But the children of Yis- 7 ra'el committed a trespass in regard to the devoted property: for 'Akhan, the son of Karmi the son of Zavdi, the son of Zeraḥ, of the tribe of Yehuda, took of the devoted things: and the anger of the LORD burned against the children of Yisra'el. And Yehoshua sent men from Yeriḥo to 'Ay 2 which is beside Bet-aven, on the east side of Bet-el, and spoke to them, saying, Go up and spy out the country. And the men went up and spied out 'Ay. And they returned to Yehoshua, 3 and said to him, Let not all the people go up; but let about two or three thousand men go up and smite 'Ay; and do not weary all the people to go there; for they are but few. So 4 there went up there of the people about three thousand men: and they fled before the men of 'Ay. And the men of 'Ay smote 5 of them about thirty six men: for they chased them from before the gate as far as Shevarim, and smote them at the descent: and the hearts of the people melted, and became like water. And Yehoshua rent his clothes, and fell to the earth 6 upon his face before the ark of the LORD until evening, he and the elders of Yisra'el, and put dust upon their heads. And 7 Yehoshua said, Alas, O Lord God, why didst thou bring this people over the Yarden, to deliver us into the hand of the Emori, to destroy us? would we had been content, and had remained on the other side of the Yarden! O LORD, what shall 8

I say, when Yisra'el has turned his back before his enemies! For the Kena'ani and all the inhabitants of the land shall hear 9 of it, and shall surround us, and cut off our name from the earth: and what wilt thou do for thy great name? And 10 the LORD said to Yehoshua, Get up; why dost thou lie thus upon thy face? Yisra'el has sinned, and they have also trans- 11 gressed my covenant which I commanded them: for they have taken of the devoted property, and have also stolen, and dissembled also, and they have put it among their own goods. Therefore the children of Yisra'el could not stand before their 12 enemies, but turned their backs before their enemies, because they were accursed: neither will I be with you any more, unless you destroy the devoted things from among you. Rise 13 up, sanctify the people, and say, Sanctify yourselves for to morrow: for thus says the LORD GOD of Yisra'el, There is devoted property in the midst of thee, O Yisra'el: thou canst not stand before thy enemies, until you take away the accursed thing from among you. In the morning therefore you 14 shall come near by your tribes: and it shall be, that the tribe which the LORD picks shall come near according to its families; and the family which the LORD picks shall come near by households; and the household which the LORD picks shall come near man by man. And it shall be, that he that is seized with 15 the accursed thing shall be burnt with fire, he and all that he has: because he has transgressed the covenant of the LORD, and because he has committed a scandalous thing in Yisra'el. So Yehoshua rose up early in the morning, and 16 brought Yisra'el by their tribes; and the tribe of Yehuda was picked: and he brought near the family of Yehuda; and he 17 took the family of the Zarḥi: and he brought the family of the Zarḥi man by man; and Zavdi was picked: and he brought 18 his household man by man; and 'Akhan, the son of Karmi, the son of Zavdi, the son of Zeraḥ, of the tribe of Yehuda, was picked. And Yehoshua said to 'Akhan, My son, give, I pray 19 thee, glory to the LORD GOD of Yisra'el, and make confession to him; and tell me now what thou hast done; hide it not from me. And 'Akhan answered Yehoshua, and said, Indeed 20
I have sinned against the LORD GOD of Yisra'el, and thus and thus have I done: when I saw among the spoil a goodly mantle of 21 Shin'ar, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold of fifty shekels weight, then I coveted them, and took them; and, behold, they are hid in the earth in the midst of my tent, and the silver under it. So Yehoshua sent messen- 22 gers, and they ran to the tent; and, behold, it was hid in his tent, and the silver under it. And they took them out of the 23 midst of the tent, and brought them to Yehoshua, and to all the children of Yisra'el, and laid them out before the LORD. And Yehoshua, and all Yisra'el with him, took 'Akhan the 24 son of Zeraḥ, and the silver, and the garment, and the wedge of gold, and his sons, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, and his sheep, and his tent, and all that he had: and they brought them to the valley of 'Akhor. And Yehoshua 25 said, Why hast thou brought trouble on us? the LORD shall trouble thee this day. And all Yisra'el stoned him with stones, and burned them with fire, after they had stoned them with stones. And they raised over him a great heap of stones to this 26 day. So the LORD turned from the fierceness of his anger.

Therefore the name of that place was called, The valley of 'Akhor, to this very day.
And the LORD said to Yehoshua, Fear not, nor be dismayed: 8 take all the people of war with thee, and arise, go up to 'Ay:
see I have given into thy hand the king of 'Ay: and his people, and his city, and his land: and thou shalt do to 'Ay and her 2 king as thou didst to Yeriḥo and her king: only its spoil and its cattle, shall you take for a prey to yourselves: lay thee an ambush for the city behind it. So Yehoshua arose, and 3 all the people of war, to go up against 'Ay: and Yehoshua chose out thirty thousand mighty men of valour, and sent them away by night. And he commanded them, saying, Behold, you 4 shall lie in wait against the city, behind the city: go not very far from the city, but be all of you ready: and I and all the 5 people that are with me, will approach the city: and it shall come to pass, when they come out against us, as at the first, that we will flee before them, (for they will come out after 6 us) till we have drawn them from the city; for they will say, They flee before us, as at the first: therefore we will flee before them. Then you shall rise up from the ambush, and take 7 possession of the city: for the LORD your GOD will deliver it into your hand. And it shall be, when you have taken the 8 city, that you shall set the city on fire: according to the commandment of the LORD shall you do. See, I have commanded you. Yehoshua therefore sent them forth: and they went to 9 lie in ambush, and abode between Bet-el and 'Ay, on the west side of 'Ay: but Yehoshua lodged that night among the people.
And Yehoshua rose up early in the morning, and numbered 10 the people, and went up, he and the elders of Yisra'el, before the people to 'Ay. And all the people of war that were with 11 him, went up, and drew near, and came before the city, and pitched on the north side of 'Ay: now there was a valley between them and 'Ay. And he took about five thousand men, 12 and set them to lie in ambush between Bet-el and 'Ay on the west side of the city. And when they had set the people, even 13 all the encampment that was on the north of the city, and their ambush party on the west of the city, Yehoshua went that night into the midst of the valley. And it came to pass, 14 when the king of 'Ay saw it, that they hastened and rose up early, and the men of the city went out against Yisra'el to battle, he and all his people, at a time appointed, before the plain; but he knew not that there were liers in ambush against him behind the city. And Yehoshua and all Yisra'el 15 made as if they were beaten before them, and fled by the way of the wilderness. And all the people that were in 'Ay were 16 called out to pursue after them: and they pursued after Yeho-shua, and were drawn away from the city. And there was not 17 a man left in 'Ay or Bet-el, that went not out after Yisra'el: and they left the city unguarded, and pursued after Yisra'el.

And the LORD said to Yehoshua, Stretch out the javelin 18 that is in thy hand toward 'Ay; for I will give it into thy hand.
And Yehoshua stretched out the javelin that he had in his hand toward the city. And the ambush rose quickly out of 19 their place, and they ran when he stretched out his hand:
and they entered the city, and took it, and hastily set the city on fire. And when the men of 'Ay looked behind them, they 20 saw, and, behold, the smoke of the city ascended up to the sky, and they had no power to flee this way or that way: and the people that fled to the wilderness turned back upon the pursuers. And when Yehoshua and all Yisra'el saw that 21 the ambush party had taken the city, and that the smoke of the city ascended, then they turned and slew the men of 'Ay.
And the others issued out of the city against them; so they 22 were in the midst of Yisra'el, some on this side, and some on that side: and they smote them, so that they let none of them remain or escape. And the king of 'Ay they took alive, and 23 brought him to Yehoshua. And it came to pass, when Yisra'el 24 had made an end of slaying all the inhabitants of 'Ay in the field, in the wilderness into which they had pursued them, and when they were all fallen by the edge of the sword, until they were consumed, that then all Yisra'el returned to 'Ay, and smote it with the edge of the sword. And so it was, 25 that all that fell that day, both men and women, were twelve thousand, all the men of 'Ay. For Yehoshua did not with- 26 draw his hand, wherewith he stretched out the spear, until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of 'Ay. Only the 27 cattle and the spoil of that city Yisra'el took for plunder to themselves, according to the word of the LORD which he commanded Yehoshua. And Yehoshua burnt 'Ay, and made 28 it a perpetual mound, a desolation to this day. And the king of 29
'Ay he hanged on a tree until evening: and as soon as the sun was down, Yehoshua commanded that they should take his carcass down from the tree, and cast it at the entrance of the gate of the city, and raise over it a great heap of stones, to this day.

Then Yehoshua built an altar to the LORD GOD of Yisra'el in 30 mount 'Eval, as Moshe the servant of the LORD commanded 31 the children of Yisra'el as it is written in the book of the Tora of Moshe, an altar of whole stones, over which no man lifted up any iron instrument: and they offered on it burnt offerings to the LORD, and sacrificed peace offerings. And he wrote 32 there upon the stones a copy of the Tora of Moshe, which he wrote in the presence of the children of Yisra'el. And all Yis- 33 ra'el, and their elders, and officers, and their judges, stood on this side the ark and on that side before the priests the Levites who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, both stranger, and native born; half of them over against mount Gerizzim, and half of them over against mount 'Eval; as Moshe the servant of the LORD had commanded that they should first bless the people of Yisra'el. And afterwards he 34 read all the words of the Tora, the blessing and the curse, according to all that is written in the book of the Tora. There 35 was not a word of all that Moshe commanded, which Yeho-shua read not before all the congregation of Yisra'el with the women, and the little ones, and the strangers that went amongst them. And it came to pass, when all the kings 9 who were on this side of the Yarden, in the hills, and in the valleys, and on all the coast of the great sea over against the Levanon, the Ḥitti, and the Emori, the Kena'ani, the Perizzi, the Ḥivvi, and the Yevusi, heard of it, that they gathered 2 themselves together, to fight with Yehoshua and with Yisra'el with one accord. And when the inhabitants of Giv'on 3 heard what Yehoshua had done to Yeriḥo and to 'Ay, they 4 acted cunningly, and went and took provisions, and took old sacks upon their asses, and wine bottles, old and rent, and patched up; and old worn and patched shoes upon their feet, 5 and worn garments upon them; and all the bread of their provision was dry and had become crumbs. And they went to 6 Yehoshua to the camp at Gilgal, and said to him, and to the men of Yisra'el, We are come from a far country: now therefore make a covenant with us. And the men of Yisra'el said 7 to the Ḥivvi, Perhaps you dwell among us; and how shall we then make a covenant with you? And they said to Yehoshua, 8 We are thy servants. And Yehoshua said to them, Who are you? and from where do you come? And they said to him, 9 From a very far country thy servants are come because of the name of the LORD thy GOD: for we have heard the fame of him, and all that he did in Miẓrayim, and all that he did to 10 the two kings of the Emori, that were beyond the Yarden, to Siḥon king of Ḥeshbon, and to 'Og king of Bashan, who was at 'Ashtarot. Wherefore our elders and all the inhabitants of 11 our country spoke to us, saying, Take provision with you for the journey, and go to meet them, and say to them, We are your servants: therefore now make a covenant with us. This 12 our bread we took hot for our provision out of our houses on the day we went out to go to you; but now, behold, it is dry, and is become crumbs: and these bottles of wine, which we 13 filled, were new; and, behold, they are split: and these our garments and our shoes are worn out by reason of the very long journey. And the men took of their provisions, and did 14 not ask counsel at the mouth of the LORD. And Yehoshua 15 made peace with them, and made a covenant with them, to let them live: and the princes of the congregation swore to them. And it came to pass at the end of three days after they 16 had made a covenant with them, that they heard that they were their neighbours, and that they dwelt among them. And 17 the children of Yisra'el journeyed, and came to their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Giv'on, and Kefira, and Be'erot, and Qiryat-Ye'arim. And the children of Yisra'el 18 smote them not, because the princes of the congregation had sworn to them by the LORD GOD of Yisra'el. And all the congregation murmured against the princes. But all the princes 19 said to all the congregation, We have sworn to them by the LORD GOD of Yisra'el: now therefore we may not touch them.

This we will do to them; we will let them live, so that no 20 fierce anger be upon us, because of the oath which we swore to them. And the princes said to them, Let them live; but let 21 them be hewers of wood and drawers of water for all the congregation; as the princes had promised them. And Yehoshua 22 called for them, and he spoke to them, saying, Wherefore have you deceived us, saying, We are very far from you; when yet you dwell among us? Now therefore you are cursed, and 23 there shall not cease to be of you bondmen, and hewers of wood and drawers of water for the house of my GOD. And 24 they answered Yehoshua and said, Because it was certainly told thy servants, how the LORD thy GOD commanded his servant Moshe to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you, therefore we were greatly afraid of our lives because of you, and have done this thing. And now, behold, we are in thy hand: do as it 25 seems good and right to thee to do to us. And so he did to 26 them, and delivered them out of the hand of the children of Yisra'el, that they slew them not. And Yehoshua made them 27 that day hewers of wood and drawers of water for the congregation, and for the altar of the LORD, to this day, in the place which he should choose. Now it came to pass, 10 when Adoni-ẕedeq king of Yerushalayim had heard how Yeho-shua had taken 'Ay, and had utterly destroyed it; as he had done to Yeriḥo and her king, so he had done to 'Ay and her king; and how the inhabitants of Giv'on had made peace with Yisra'el, and were among them; that they feared greatly, be- 2 cause Giv'on was a great city, as one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than 'Ay and all its men were mighty.
And Adoni-ẕedeq king of Yerushalayim sent to Hoham king 3 of Ḥevron, and to Pir'am king of Yarmut, and to Yafia, king of Lakhish, and to Devir king of 'Eglon, saying. Come up to 4 me, and help me, that we may smite Giv'on: for it has made peace with Yehoshua and with the children of Yisra'el. There- 5 fore the five kings of the Emori, the king of Yerushalayim, the king of Ḥevron, the king of Yarmut, the king of Lakhish, the king of 'Eglon, gathered themselves together, and went up, they and all their hosts, and encamped before Giv'on and made war against it. And the men of Giv'on sent to Yehoshua 6 to the camp to Gilgal, saying, Do not withdraw thy hand from thy servants; come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us: for all the kings of the Emori that dwell in the mountains are gathered together against us. So Yehoshua ascended from 7 Gilgal, he, and all the people of war with him, and all the mighty men of valour. And the LORD said to Yehoshua, 8 Do not fear them: for I have delivered them into thy hand; not a man of them shall stand before thee. So Yehoshua came 9 unto them suddenly, and went up from Gilgal all night.
And the LORD struck them with confusion before Yisra'el, 10 and slew them with a great slaughter at Giv'on, and chased them along the way that goes up to Bet-ḥoron, and smote them as far as 'Azeqa, and Maqqeda. And it came to pass, as they 11 fled from before Yisra'el and were on the descent to Bet-ḥoron, that the LORD cast down great stones from heaven upon them as far as 'Azeqa, and they died: they were more that died with the hailstones than they whom the children of Yisra'el slew with the sword. Then spoke Yehoshua to the LORD 12 on the day when the LORD delivered up the Emori before the children of Yisra'el, and he said in the sight of Yisra'el, Sun, stand still upon Giv'on; and moon, in the valley of Ayyalon;

And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the people 13 had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is not this written in the Book of Yashar? So the sun stood still in the middle of the sky, and hastened not to go down about a whole day.
And there was no day like that before it or after it, that the 14 LORD hearkened to the voice of a man: for the LORD fought for Yisra'el And Yehoshua returned, and all Yisra'el with 15 him, to the camp to Gilgal. But these five kings fled, and hid 16 themselves in a cave at Maqqeda. And it was told Yehoshua, 17 saying, The five kings are found hid in a cave at Maqqeda.
And Yehoshua said, Roll great stones upon the mouth of the 18 cave, and set men by it to keep them: and stay not, but pur- 19 sue after your enemies, and smite the hindmost of them; let them not enter their cities: for the LORD your GOD has delivered them into your hand. And it came to pass, when Ye- 20 hoshua and the children of Yisra'el had made an end of slaying them with a very great slaughter, till they were consumed, that the rest who remained of them entered the fortified cities.
And all the people returned to the camp to Yehoshua at Maq- 21 qeda in peace: none moved his tongue against any of the children of Yisra'el. Then said Yehoshua, Open the entrance 22 of the cave, and bring out those five kings to me out of the cave. And they did so, and brought out those five kings to 23 him out of the cave, the king of Yerushalayim, the king of Ḥevron, the king of Yarmut, the king of Lakhish, and the king of 'Eglon. And it came to pass, when they brought out those 24 kings to Yehoshua, that Yehoshua called for all the men of Yisra'el, and said to the captains of the men of war who went with him, Come near, put your feet upon the necks of these kings. And they came near, and put their feet upon their necks.
And Yehoshua said to them, Fear not, nor be dismayed, be 25 strong and of good courage: for thus shall the LORD do to all your enemies against whom you fight. And afterwards Ye- 26 hoshua smote them, and slew them, and hanged them on five trees: and they were hanging upon the trees until the evening.
And it came to pass at the time of the going down of the sun, 27 that Yehoshua gave command, and they took them down from off the trees, and cast them into the cave in which they had been hid, and laid great stones in the cave's mouth, until this very day. And that day Yehoshua took Maqqeda, and 28 smote it with the edge of the sword, and its king; he utterly king of Yeriḥo. Then Yehoshua passed from Maqqeda, 29 and all Yisra'el with him, to Livna, and fought against Livna: and the LORD delivered it also, and its king, into the hand of 30 Yisra'el; and he smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were in it; he let none remain in it; but did to its king as he did to the king of Yeriḥo. And Yehoshua 31 passed from Livna, and all Yisra'el with him, to Lakhish, and encamped against it, and fought against it: and the LORD de- 32 livered Lakhish into the hand of Yisra'el, who took it on the second day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were in it, according to all that he had done to Livna. Then Horam king of Gezer came up to help 33 Lakhish; and Yehoshua smote him and his people, until he had left him none remaining. And from Lakhish Yeho- 34 shua passed to 'Eglon, and all Yisra'el with him; and they encamped against it, and fought against it: and they took it on 35 that day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were in it he utterly destroyed that day, according to all that he had done to Lakhish. And Yehoshua went 36 up from 'Eglon, and all Yisra'el with him, to Ḥevron; and they fought against it: and they took it, and smote it with the 37 edge of the sword, and its king, and all its cities, and all the souls that were in it; he left none remaining, according to all that he had done to 'Eglon; but destroyed it utterly, and all the souls that were in it. And Yehoshua returned, and 38 all Yisra'el with him, to Devir; and fought against it: and he 39 took it, and its king, and all its cities; and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed all the souls that were in it; he left none remaining: as he had done to Ḥevron, so he did to Devir, and to its king; as he had done also to Livna, and to her king. So Yehoshua smote all the country 40 of the hills, and of the Negev, and of the plain, and of the slopes, and all their kings: he left none remaining, but utterly destroyed all that breathed, as the LORD GOD of Yisra'el had commanded. And Yehoshua smote them from Qadesh-barnea 41 even to 'Azza, and all the country of Goshen, as far as Giv'on.

And all these kings and their land did Yehoshua take at one 42 time, because the LORD GOD of Yisra'el fought for Yisra'el.
And Yehoshua returned, and all Yisra'el with him, to the camp 43 to Gilgal. And it came to pass, when Yavin king of Ḥazor 11 had heard those things, that he sent to Yovav king of Madon, and to the king of Shimron, and to the king of Akhshaf, and to the 2 kings that were in the north, in the mountains, and in the 'Arava south of Kinnarot, and in the plain, and in the districts of Dor on the west, and to the Kena'ani on the east and on 3 the west, and to the Emori, and the Ḥitti, and the Perizzi, and the Yevusi in the mountains, and to the Ḥivvi under Ḥer-mon in the land of Miẓpe. And they went out, they and all 4 their hosts with them, a people numerous like the sand that is upon the sea shore for multitude, with a great many horses and chariots. And when all these kings were met together, 5 they came and pitched together at the waters of Merom, to fight against Yisra'el. And the LORD said to Yehoshua, 6

Be not afraid because of them: for to morrow about this time I will deliver them up all slain before Yisra'el: thou shalt lame their horses, and burn their chariots with fire. So Yehoshua 7 came, and all the people of war with him, against them by the waters of Merom suddenly; and they fell upon them. And the 8 LORD delivered them into the hand of Yisra'el, who smote them, and chased them as far as great Zidon, and as far as Misrefot-mayim, and the valley of Mizpe eastward; and they smote them, until they left them none remaining. And Yeho- 9 shua did to them as the LORD bade him: he lamed their horses, and burnt their chariots with fire. And Yehoshua at that 10 time turned back, and took Hazor, and smote its king with the sword: for Hazor beforetime was the chief of all those kingdoms. And they smote all the souls that were in it with the 11 edge of the sword, utterly destroying them: there was not any left that breathed: and he burnt Hazor with fire. And all the 12 cities of those kings, and all their kings, did Yehoshua take, and smote them with the edge of the sword, and he utterly destroyed them, as Moshe the servant of the LORD commanded.
But as for the cities that stood still on their mounds, Yisra'el 13 burned none of them, except Hazor only; that did Yehoshua burn. And all the spoil of those cities, and the cattle, the 14 children of Yisra'el took for plunder to themselves; but every man they smote with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them, nor did they leave any that breathed. As the 15 LORD commanded Moshe his servant, so did Moshe command Yehoshua, and so did Yehoshua; he left nothing undone of all that the LORD had commanded Moshe. So Yehoshua took all 16 that land, the hills, and all the Negev, and all the land of Goshen, and the plain, and the 'Arava, and the mountain of Yisra'el, and its plain; from mount Halaq that goes up to Se'ir, 17 as far as Ba'al-gad in the valley of Levanon — under mount Hermon: and all their kings he took, and smote them, and slew them. Yehoshua made war a long time with all those kings. 18
There was not a city that made peace, with the children 19 of Yisra'el, except the Hivvi, the inhabitants of Giv'on: they took all in battle. For it was of the LORD to harden their 20 hearts, that they should come against Yisra'el in battle, that he might destroy them utterly, and that they might obtain no favour, but that he might destroy them, as the LORD commanded Moshe. And at that time Yehoshua came, and cut 21 off the 'Anaqim from the mountain, from Hevron, from Devir, from 'Anav, and from all the mountain of Yehuda, and from all the mountain of Yisra'el: Yehoshua destroyed them utterly with their cities. There were none of the 'Anaqim left in the land of the 22 children of Yisra'el: only in 'Azza, in Gat, and in Ashdod, did they remain. So Yehoshua took the whole land, according to all 23 that the LORD said to Moshe; and Yehoshua gave it for an inheritance to Yisra'el according to their divisions by their tribes.
And the land had rest from war. Now these are the kings of 12

13 Now Yehoshua was old and advanced in age; and the LORD said to him, Thou art old and advanced in age, and there remains yet very much land to be occupied. 2 This is the land that yet remains: all the regions of the Pelishtim, and all the Geshuri, 3 from Shiḥor, which is before Miẓrayim, as far as the borders of 'Eqron northward, which is counted to the Kena'ani: five lords of the Pelishtim: the 'Azzati, and the Ashdodi, the Eshqeloni, the Gitti, and the 'Eqroni; also the 'Avvim: 4 from the south, all the land of the Kena'ani, and Me'ara that is beside the Ẓidonim, as far as Afeq, to the border of the Emori: 5 and the land of the Givli, and all the Levanon, toward the sunrising, from Ba'al-gad under mount Ḥermon to the entrance of Ḥamat. 6 All the inhabitants of the hill country from Levanon as far as Misrefot-mayim, and all the Ẓidonim, them will I drive out from before the children of Yisra'el: only divide it by lot to Yisra'el for an inheritance, as I have commanded thee. 7 Now therefore divide this land for an inheritance to the nine tribes, and the half tribe of Menashshe. 8 With him the Re'uveni and the Gadi have received their inheritance, which Moshe gave them, beyond the Yarden eastward, as Moshe the servant of the LORD gave them; 9 from 'Aro'er, that is upon the bank of the wadi Arnon, and the city that is in the midst of the wadi, and all the tableland of Medeva as far as Divon; 10 and all the cities of Siḥon king of the Emori who reigned in Ḥeshbon, as far as the border of the children of 'Ammon; 11 and the Gil'ad, and the border of the Geshuri and the Ma'akhati, and all mount Ḥermon, and all Bashan as far as Salkha; 12 all the kingdom of 'Og in Bashan, who reigned in 'Ashtarot and in Edre'i, who remained of the remnant of the Refa'im: for these did Moshe smite, and cast them out. 13 Nevertheless the children of Israel did not expel the Geshuri, nor the Ma'akhati: but the Geshuri and the Ma'akhati dwell amidst Yisra'el until this day. 14 Only to the tribe of Levi he gave no inheritance; the fire offerings of the LORD GOD of Yisra'el are their inheritance, as he said to them. 15 And Moshe gave to the tribe of the children of Re'uven according to their families. And their border was from 'Aro'er, that is on the border of the wadi of Arnon, and the city that is in the midst of the wadi, and all the tableland by Medeva; Ḥeshbon, and all its cities that are in the tableland; Divon, and Bamot-ba'al, and Bet-ba'al-me'on, and Yahẓa, and Qedemot, and Mefa'at, and Qiryatayim, and Sivma, and Ẓeret-hashshaḥar in the mount of the valley, and Bet-pe'or, and the slopes of Pisga, and Bet-hayeshimot, and all the cities of the tableland, and all the kingdom of Siḥon king of the Emori, who reigned in Ḥeshbon, whom Moshe smote with the princes of Midyan, Evi, and Reqem, and Ẓur, and Ḥur, and Reva, princes of Siḥon, dwelling in the country. Bil'am also, of the son of Be'or, the soothsayer, did the children of Yisra'el slay with the sword among them that were slain by them. And the border of the children of Re'uven was the Yarden, and its shore. This was the inheritance of the children of Re'uven by their families, the cities and their villages.

And Moshe gave to the tribe of Gad, to the children of Gad by their families. And their border was Ya'zer, and all the cities of Gil'ad, and half the land of the children of 'Ammon, as far as 'Aro'er that is before Rabba; and from Ḥeshbon to Ramat-hammiẓpe, and Betonim; and from Maḥanayim to the border of Devir; and in the valley of Bet-haram and Bet-nimra, and Sukkot, and Ẓafon, the rest of the kingdom of Siḥon king of Ḥeshbon, the Yarden and its shore, to the edge of the Sea of Kinneret on the other side of the Yarden eastward. This is the inheritance of the children of Gad by their families, the cities, and their villages. And Moshe gave inheritance to the half tribe of Menashshe: and this was the possession of the half tribe of the children of Menashshe by their families. And their border was from Maḥanayim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of 'Og king of Bashan, and all the villages of Ya'ir, which are in Bashan, sixty cities: and half Gil'ad, and 'Ashtarot, and Edre'i, cities of the kingdom of 'Og in Bashan, for the children of Makhir the son of Menashshe, for the one half of the children of Makhir by their families. These are what Moshe did distribute for inheritance in the plains of Mo'av, on the other side of the Yarden, by Yeriḥo, eastward. But to the tribe of Levi Moshe gave no inheritance: the LORD GOD of Yisra'el is their inheritance, as he said to them. And these are the places which the children of Yisra'el inherited in the land of Kena'an, which El'azar the priest, and Yehoshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Yisra'el, assigned for their inheritance. By lot was their inheritance, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moshe, for the nine tribes, and for the half tribe. For Moshe had given the inheritance of two and a half tribes on the other side of the Yarden: but to the Levites he gave no inheritance among them. For the children of Yosef were two tribes, Menashshe and Efrayim: and they gave no part to the Levites in the land, except cities to dwell in, with their pasture grounds for their cattle and their substance. As the LORD commanded Moshe, so the children of Yisra'el did, and they divided the land. Then the children of Yehuda came to Yehoshua in 6 Gilgal: and Kalev the son of Yefunne the Qenizzi said to him, Thou knowst the thing that the LORD said to Moshe the man of GOD concerning me and thee in Qadesh-barnea. Forty years 7 old was I when Moshe the servant of the LORD sent me from Qadesh-barnea to spy out the land; and I brought him back word as it was in my heart. But my brethren who went up 8 with me made the heart of the people melt: but I wholly followed the LORD my GOD. And Moshe swore on that day, say- 9 ing, Surely the land on which thy feet have trodden shall be thy inheritance, and thy children's forever, because thou hast wholly followed the LORD my GOD. And now, behold, the LORD 10 has kept me alive, as he said, these forty five years, even since the LORD spoke this word to Moshe, while the children of Yisra'el wandered in the wilderness: and now, lo, I am this day eighty five years old. As yet I am as strong this day as 11

I was in the day that Moshe sent me: as my strength was then, so is my strength now, for war, both to go out, and to come in. Now therefore give me this mountain, of which the LORD 12 spoke on that day; for thou didst hear on that day how the 'Anaqim were there, and that the cities were great and fortified: if so be the LORD will be with me, then I shall be able to drive them out, as the LORD said. And Yehoshua blessed 13 him, and gave Ḥevron to Kalev the son of Yefunne for an inheritance. Ḥevron therefore became the inheritance of Kalev 14 son of Yefunne the Qenizzi to this day, because he wholly followed the LORD GOD of Yisra'el. And the name of Ḥevron be- 15 fore was Qiryat-arba; this Arba was the biggest man among the 'Anaqim. And the land had rest from war. This then 15 was the lot of the tribe of the children of Yehuda by their families; to the border of Edom the wilderness of Ẓin towards the Negev in the far south. And their south border was from 2 the far shore of the salt sea, from the bay that turns south-wards: and it went out to the south side to Ma'ale-'aqrabbim, 3 and passed along to Ẓin, and ascended up from the south to Qadesh-barnea, and passed along to Ḥezron, and went up to Addar, and came round to Qarqa: from there it passed toward 4
'Aẓmon, and went out to the wadi of Miẓrayim; and the terminations of that border were at the sea: this shall be your southern border. And the east border was the salt sea, even to the 5 end of the Yarden. And their border in the north quarter was from the bay of the sea at the extremity of the Yarden. And the 6 border went up to Bet-Ḥogla, and passed along by the north of Bet-'arava; and the border went up to the stone of Bohan the son of Re'uven: and the border went up towards Devir 7 from the valley of 'Akhor, and so northward, turning towards Gilgal, which is opposite the ascent to Adummim, which is on the south side of the river: and the border passed toward the waters of 'En-shemesh, and its terminations were at 'Enrogel: and the border went up by the valley of the Ben- 8 ḥinnom to the south side of the Yevusi; that is Yerushalayim: and the border went up to the top of the mountain that lies before the valley of Hinnom westward, which is at the end of the valley of Refa'im northwards: and the border was drawn from 9 the top of the hill to the fountain of the water of Neftoaḥ, and went out to the cities of mount 'Efron; and the border was drawn to Ba'ala, which is Qiryat-ye'arim. And the border 10 came around from Ba'al westward to mount Se'ir and passed along to the spur of mount Ye'arim, which is Kesalon, on the north side, and went down to Bet-shemesh, and passed on to Timna: and the border went out to the side of 'Eqron north- 11 ward: and the border was drawn to Shikron, and passed along to mount Ba'ala, and went out to Yavne'el; and the terminations of the border were at the sea. And as for the west 12 border, the great sea was the border. This is the border of the children of Yehuda round about according to their families.

And to Kalev son of Yefunne he gave a part among the child- 13 ren of Yehuda, according to the commandment of the LORD to Yehoshua, the city of Arba the father of the 'Anaq, which city is Ḥevron. And Kalev drove out from there the three sons 14 of the 'Anaq, Sheshay and Aḥiman, and Talmay, the children of the 'Anaq. And he went up from there to the inhabitants of 15 Devir: and the name of Devir before was Qiryat-sefer. And 16 Kalev said, He that smites Qiryat-sefer and takes it, to him will I give 'Akhsa my daughter to wife. And 'Otni'el the son 17 of Qenaz, the brother of Kalev, took it: and he gave him 'Akhsa his daughter to wife. And it came to pass, when she 18 arrived, that she enticed him to ask of her father a field: and she came down from her ass; and Kalev said to her, What wouldst thou have? And she answered, give me a blessing; 19 for thou hast given me the land of the Negev: give me also pools of water. And he gave her the upper pools, and the lower pools. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children 20 of Yehuda according to their families. And the uttermost 21 cities of the tribe of the children of Yehuda toward the border of Edom southward were Qavẓe'el, and 'Eder, and Yagur, and 22 Qina, and Dimona, and 'Ad'ada, and Qedesh, and Ḥaẓor, and 23 Yitnan, Zif, and Telem, and Be'alot, and Ḥazor, Ḥadatta, and 24,25 near Ashdod, with their villages: Ashdod with its ham- 47 wadi of Miẓrayim, and the great sea, being its border; and in 48 their villages: Ḥalḥul, Bet-ẓur, and Gedor, and Ma'arat, 58,59 and Bet-'anot, and Elteqon; six cities with their villages: Qiryat-ba'al, which is Qiryat-ye'arim and Rabba; two 60 cities with their villages: in the wilderness, Bet- 61 ha'arava, Middin, and Sekhakha, and Nivshan, and 'Ir-ham- 62 melaḥ, and 'En-gedi; six cities with their villages. As for 63 the Yevusi, the inhabitants of Yerushalayim, the children of Yehuda could not drive them out: but the Yevusi dwell with the children of Yehuda at Yerushalayim to this day. And 16 the lot of the children of Yosef fell from the Yarden by Yeriḥo, to the water of Yeriḥo on the east, to the wilderness that goes up from Yeriḥo by mount Bet-el, and goes out from Bet-el 2 to Luz and passes along to the borders of the Arki to 'Atarot, and goes down westward to the border of the Yafleti, to the bor- 3 der of lower Bet-ḥoron, and to Gezer: and its terminations are at the sea. So the children of Yosef, Menashshe and Efrayim 4 took their inheritance. And the border of the children of 5 Efrayim according to their families was thus: the border of their inheritance on the east side was 'Atrot-addar, to upper Bet-ḥoron; and the border went out westward, to Mikhmetat 6 on the north side; and the border went about eastward to Ta'anat-shilo, and passed by it on the east to Yanoḥa; and it went down from Yanoḥa to 'Atarot, and to Na'arat, and 7 came to Yeriḥo, and went out at the Yarden. The border went 8 out from Tappuaḥ westward to the wadi Qana; and its terminations were at the sea. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Efrayim by their families; together with the 9 separate cities for the children of Efrayim among the inheritance of the children of Menashshe, all the cities with their villages. And they did not drive out the Kena'ani that dwelt 10 in Gezer; but the Kena'ani dwell amongst Efrayim to this day, and became tax-paying servants. Then came the lot for 17 the tribe of Menashshe; for he was the firstborn of Yosef, for Makhir the firstborn of Menashshe, the father of Gil'ad: because he was a man of war, therefore he had Gil'ad and Bashan. There was also a lot for the rest of the children of 2 Menashshe by their families; for the children of Avi'ezer, and for the children of Ḥeleq, and for the children of Asri'el, and for the children of Shekhem, and for the children of Ḥefer, and for the children of Shemida: these were the male children of Menashshe the son of Yosef by their families. But Ẓelofḥad, 3 the son of Ḥefer, the son of Gil'ad, the son of Makhir, the son of Menashshe, had no sons, but daughters: and these are the names of his daughters, Maḥla, and No'a, Ḥogla, Milka, and Tirẓa. And they came near before El'azar the priest, and before Yehoshua the son of Nun, and before the princes, saying, The LORD commanded Moshe to give us an inheritance among our brethren. Therefore according to the commandment of the LORD he gave them an inheritance among the brethren of their father. And there fell ten portions to Menashshe, besides the land of Gil'ad and Bashan, which were on the other side of the Yarden; because the daughters of Menashshe had an inheritance among his sons: and the rest of Menashshe's sons had the land of Gil'ad. And the border of Menashshe was from Asher to Mikhmetat, that lies before Shekhem; and the border went along on the right hand to the inhabitants of 'En-tappuaḥ. Now Menashshe had the land of Tappuaḥ: but Tappuaḥ on the border of Menashshe belonged to the children of Efrayim; and the border descended to the wadi Qana, southward of the wadi: these cities were Efrayim's situated among the cities of Menashshe: the boundary of Menashshe also was on the north side of the wadi; and its terminations were at the sea: southward it was Efrayim's, and northward it was Menashshe's and the sea was its border; and they met together in Asher on the north, and in Yissakhar on the east. And Menashshe had in Yissakhar and in Asher Bet-she'an and its hamlets, and Yivle'am and its hamlets, and the inhabitants of Dor and its hamlets, and the inhabitants of 'En-dor and its hamlets, and the inhabitants of Ta'nakh and its hamlets, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its hamlets, three districts in all. Yet the children of Menashshe could not drive out the inhabitants of those cities; but the Kena'ani persisted in dwelling in that land. Yet it came to pass, when the children of Yisra'el became strong, that they put the Kena'ani to tribute; but did not utterly drive them out. And the children of Yosef spoke to Yehoshua, saying, Why hast thou given me but one lot and one portion to inherit, when I am a great people, since the LORD has blessed me so much? And Yehoshua answered them, If thou be a great people, then go up to the forest country, and cut down a space for thyself there in the land of the Perizzi and of the Refa'im, if mount Efrayim is too narrow for thee. And the children of Yosef said, The hill is not enough for us: and all the Kena'ani that dwell in the land of the valley have chariots of iron, both they who are of Bet-she'an and its hamlets, and they who are of the 'Emeq-Yizre'el. And Yehoshua spoke to the house of Yosef, to Efrayim and to Menashshe, saying, Thou art a great people, and hast great power: thou shalt not have one lot only: but the mountain shall be thine; for it is a forest, and thou shalt cut it down: and its terminations shall be thine: for thou shalt drive out the Kena'ani, though they have iron chariots, and though they are so strong. And the whole congregation of the children of Yisra'el assembled together at Shilo, and set up the Tent of Meeting there. And the land was conquered before them. And there remained among the children of Yisra'el seven tribes, who had not yet received their inheritance. And Yehoshua said 3 to the children of Yisra'el, How long will you be remiss in going to possess the land, which the LORD GOD of your fathers has given you? Assign from among you three men for each tribe: 4 and I will send them, and they shall rise, and go through the land, and mark it out according to their inheritance; and they shall come back to me. And they shall divide it into seven 5 parts: Yehuda shall remain on his boundary in the south, and the house of Yosef shall remain on their boundaries to the north. You shall therefore mark out the land in seven parts, 6 and bring the description to me here, that I may cast lots for you here before the LORD our GOD. But the Levites have no 7 part among you; for the priesthood of the LORD is their inheritance: and Gad, and Re'uven, and half the tribe of Menashshe, have received their inheritance beyond the Yarden on the east, that which Moshe the servant of the LORD gave them. And the 8 men arose, and went away: and Yehoshua charged them that went to mark out the land, saying, Go and walk through the land, and mark it out, and come back to me, that I may here cast lots for you before the LORD in Shilo. And the men went 9 and passed through the land, and wrote it down by cities into seven parts in a book, and came back to Yehoshua to the camp at Shilo. And Yehoshua cast lots for them in Shilo be- 10 fore the LORD: and there Yehoshua divided the land to the children of Yisra'el according to their divisions. And the 11 lot of the tribe of the children of Binyamin came up according to their families: and the border of their lot came out between the children of Yehuda and the children of Yosef. And their 12 border on the north side was from the Yarden; and the border went up to the side of Yeriḥo on the north side, and went up through the mountains westward; and its terminations were at the wilderness of Bet-aven. And the border went over from 13 thence towards Luz, to the south side of Luz, which is Bet-el; and the border descended to 'Atrot-addar, near the hill that lies on the south side of the lower Bet-ḥoron. And the border 14 was drawn, and turned about at its western corner to the south, from the hill that lies before Bet-ḥoron southward; and its terminations were at Qiryat-ba'al, which is Qiryat-ye'arim, a city of the children of Yehuda: this was the west quarter.

And the south quarter was from the far side of Qiryat-ye'arim, 15 and the border went out on the west, and went out to the well of the waters of Neftoaḥ: and the border came down to 16 the end of the mountain that lies before the valley of Benhinnom, and which is in the valley of Refa'im on the north, and descended to the valley of Hinnom, to the slope of the Yevusi on the south, and descended to 'En-rogel, and was 17 drawn to the north, and went out to 'En-shemesh, and went out toward Gelilot, which is opposite the ascent of Adummim, and descended to the stone of Bohan the son of Re'uven, and 18 passed along toward the slope over against the 'Arava northward, and went down to the 'Arava: and the border passed 19 along the slope of Bet-ḥogla northward: and the terminations of the border were at the north bay of the salt sea at the southern extremity of the Yarden: this was the south boundary. And the Yarden was the border of it on the east side. 20

This was the inheritance of the children of Binyamin by its border round about, according to their families. Now the 21 cities of the tribe of the children of Binyamin, according to their families were Yeriḥo, and Bet-ḥogla, and the valley of Qeẓiẓ, and Bet-'arava, and Ẓemarayim, and Bet-el, and 'Avvim, 22,23 and Para, and 'Ofra, and Kefar- ha'amona, and 'Ofni, and Geva; 24 twelve cities with their villages: Giv'on, and Rama, and Be'erot, 25 and Miẓpe, and Kefira, and Moẓa, and Reqem, and Yirpe'el, 26,27 and Tar'ala, and Ẓela, Elef, and Yevusi (which is Yerusha- 28 layim) Giv'at and Qiryat; fourteen cities with their villages.
This is the inheritance of the children of Binyamin according to their families. And the second lot came out in favour 19 of Shim'on, for the tribe of the children of Shim'on according to their families: and their inheritance was within the inheritance of the children of Yehuda. And they had in their inherit- 2 ance Be'er-sheva, and Sheva, and Molada, and Ḥaẓar-shu'al, 3 and Bala, and 'Eẓem, and Eltolad, and Betul, and Ḥorma, 4 and Ẓiqlag, and Bet-markavot, and Ḥaẓar-susa, and Bet-leva'ot, 5,6 and Sharuḥen; thirteen cities and their villages: 'Ayin, Rim- 7 mon, and 'Eter, and 'Ashan; four cities and their villages: and all the villages that were round about these cities to 8 Ba'alat-be'er, Ramat of the Negev. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Shim'on according to their families.
Out of the portion of the children of Yehuda was the inherit- 9 ance of the children of Shim'on: for the part of the children of Yehuda was too much for them: therefore the children of Shim'on had their inheritance within the inheritance of Yehuda. And the third lot came out in favour of the 10 children of Zevulun according to their families: and the border of their inheritance was as far as Sarid: and their border went 11 up on its western side by Mar'ala, and reached to Dabbeshet, and reached the wadi that is before Yoqne'am; and turned 12 from Sarid eastward towards the sunrising unto the border of Kislot-Tavor, and then went on to Daverat, and went up to Yafi'a, and from there passed on along on the east to Gat- 13 ḥefer, to 'Et-qaẓin, and went out to Rimmon, from where it reached to Ne'a; and the border turned about on the north 14 side to Ḥannaton: and its terminations were in the valley of Yiftaḥ-el: and Qattat, and Nahalal, and Shimron, and Yid'ala 15 and Bet-leḥem: twelve cities with their villages. This is the in- 16 heritance of the children of Zevulun according to their families, these cities with their villages. And the fourth lot came 17 out in favour of Yissakhar, for the children of Yissakhar according to their families. And their border was toward Yizre'el, 18 and Kesullot, and Shunem, and Ḥafarayim, and Shi'on, and 19 Anaḥarat, and Rabbit, and Qishyon, and Evez, and Remet, and 20,21
'En-gannim, and 'En-ḥadda, and Bet-paẓẓeẓ; and the border 22 reached as far as Tavor, and Shaḥaẓma, and Bet-shemesh; and the terminations of their border were at the Yarden: sixteen cities with their villages. This is the inheritance of the tribe 23 of the children of Yissakhar according to their families, the cities and their villages. And the fifth lot came out for 24 the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families.

And their border was Ḥelqat, and Ḥali, and Beten, and 25 Akhshaf, and Allammelekh, and 'Am'ad, and Mish'al; and 26 reached to the Karmel on the west, and to Shiḥor-livnat; and 27 turned toward the sunrising to Bet-dagon, and reached to Ze-vulun, and to the valley of Yiftaḥ-el on the north, then Bet-
'emeq, and Ne'i'el, and proceeded to Kavul on the left hand, and 'Evron, and Reḥov, and Ḥammon, and Qana, as far as 28 Ẓidon the great, and then the border turned to Rama, and to 29 the fortress city of Ẓor; and the boundary turned to Ḥosa; and its terminations were at the sea from Ḥevel to Akhziv: 'Umma 30 also, and 'Afeq, Reḥov: twenty two cities with their villages.
This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Asher 31 according to their families, these cities with their villages.

The sixth lot came out in favour of the children of Naf- 32 tali, for the children of Naftali according to their families. And 33 their border was from Helef, from Elon in Ẓa'anannim, and Adami - neqev, and Yavne'el, as far as Laqqum; its terminations were at the Yarden: and then the coast turned west- 34 ward to Ḥuqoq, and reached to Asher on the west side, and to Yehuda upon the Yarden toward the sunrising. And the 35 fortified cities were Ziddim, Ẓer, and Ḥammat, Raqqat, and Kinneret, and Adama, And Rama, and Ḥaẓor, and Qedesh, and 36,37 Edre'i, and 'En-ḥaẓor, and Yir'on, and Migdal-el, Ḥorem, 38 and Bet-'anat, and Bet-shemesh; nineteen cities with their villages. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of 39 Naftali according to their families, the cities and their villages.

And the seventh lot came out for the tribe of the children 40 of Dan according to their families. And the border of their 41 inheritance was Ẓor'a, and Eshta'ol, and 'Ir-shemesh, and 42 Sha'alabbin, and Ayyalon, and Yitla, and Elon, and Timnata, 43 and 'Eqron, and Yehud, and Bene-beraq, and Gat-rimmon, 44,45 and Me-yarqon, and Raqqon, with the border before Yafo. 46 And the border of the children of Dan came out too little for 47 them: therefore the children of Dan went up to fight against Leshem, and took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and possessed it, and dwelt in it, and called Leshem, Dan, after the name of Dan their father. This is the inheritance of the 48 tribe of the children of Dan according to their families, these cities with their villages. When they had made an end 49 of dividing the land for inheritance according to its boundaries, the children of Yisra'el gave an inheritance to Yehoshua the son of Nun among them: according to the word of the LORD 50 they gave him the city which he asked, Timnat-seraḥ in mount Efrayim: and he built the city, and dwelt in it.

These are the territories which El'azar the priest, and Yeho- 51 shua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Yisra'el divided for an inheritance by lot in Shilo before the LORD, at the door of the Tent of Meeting. So they made an end of dividing the country.

20

And the LORD spoke to Yehoshua, saying, Speak to the chil- 1,2 dren of Yisra'el, saying, Assign for yourselves cities of refuge, admit him into the city to join them, and give him a place, that he may dwell among them. And if the avenger of blood pur- 5 sue after him, then they shall not deliver the slayer up into his hand; because he smote his neighbour unawares, and hated him not before that time. And he shall dwell in that city, until 6 he stand before the congregation for judgment, until the death of the high priest that shall be in those days: then shall the slayer return, and come into his own city, and his own house, into the city from which he fled. And they set apart 7 Qedesh in the Galil in mount Naftali, and Shekhem in mount Efrayim, and Qiryat-arba, which is Ḥevron, in the mountain of Yehuda. And on the other side of the Yarden by Yeriḥo 8 eastward, they assigned Beẕer in the wilderness upon the plain out of the tribe of Re'uven, and Ramot in Gil'ad out of the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan out of the tribe of Mena-shshe. These were the appointed cities for all the children of 9 Yisra'el, and for the stranger that sojourned among them, that whoever killed any person in error might flee there, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood, until he stood before the congregation. Then came near the heads of the 21 fathers of the Levites to El'azar the priest, and to Yehoshua the son of Nun, and to the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Yisra'el; and they spoke to them at Shilo 2 in the land of Kena'an, saying, The LORD gave command by the hand of Moshe to give us cities to dwell in, with their pasture lands for our cattle. And the children of Yisra'el gave 3 to the Levites out of their inheritance, at the commandment of the LORD, these cities and their pasture lands. And 4 the lot came out in favour of the families of the Qehati: and the children of Aharon the priest, who were of the Levites, had by lot out of the tribe of Yehuda, and out of the tribe of Shim'on, and out of the tribe of Binyamin, thirteen cities.

And the rest of the children of Qehat had by lot out of 5 the families of the tribe of Efrayim, and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the half tribe of Menashshe, ten cities.

And the children of Gershon had by lot out of the families 6 of the tribe of Yissakhar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naftali, and out of the half tribe of Menashshe in Bashan, thirteen cities. The children of Merari by 7 their families had out of the tribe of Re'uven, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zevulun, twelve cities.

And the children of Yisra'el gave by lot to the Levites 8 these cities with their pasture lands, as the LORD gave command by the hand of Moshe. And they gave out of the tribe 9 of the children of Yehuda, and out of the tribe of the children of Shim'on, these cities which are here mentioned by name, which the children of Aharon, being of the families of the 10

Qehati, who were of the children of Levi, had: for theirs was the first lot. And they gave them the city of Arba the father 11 of 'Anaq, which city is Ḥevron, in the hill country of Yehuda, with its pasture lands round about it. But the fields of the 12 city, and its villages, they gave to Kalev the son of Yefunne for his possession. Thus they gave to the children of 13 Aharon the priest Ḥevron with its pasture lands, a city of refuge for the slayer; and Livna with its pasture lands, and 14 Yattir with its pasture lands, and Eshtemoa with its pasture lands, and Ḥolon with its pasture lands, and Devir with its 15 pasture lands, and 'Ayin with its pasture lands, and Yutta 16 with its pasture, and Bet-shemesh with its pasture lands; nine cities out of those two tribes. And out of the tribe of 17 Binyamin, Giv'on with its pasture lands, and Geva with its pastures, 'Anatot with its pasture lands, and 'Almon with its 18 pasture lands; four cities. All the cities of the children of 19 Aharon, the priests, thirteen cities with their pasture lands.

And the families of the children of Qehat, the Levites 20 who remained of the children of Qehat, had the cities of their lot out of the tribe of Efrayim. For they gave them Shekhem 21 with its pasture lands in mount Efrayim, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Gezer with its pastures, and Qivẓayim 22 with its pasture lands and Bet-ḥoron with its pasture lands; four cities. And out of the tribe of Dan, Elteqe with 23 its pasture lands, Gibbeton with its pastures Ayyalon with its 24 pasture lands, Gat-rimmon with its pasture lands; four cities.

And out of the half tribe of Menashshe, Ta'nakh with 25 its pasture lands and Gat-rimmon with its pasture lands; two cities. All the cities were ten with their pasture lands for the 26 families of the children of Qehat that remained. And to 27 the children of Gershon, of the families of the Levites, out of the other half tribe of Menashshe they gave Golan in the Bashan with its pasture lands, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Be'eshtera with its pasture lands; two cities.

And out of the tribe of Yissakhar, Qishyon with its 28 pasture lands, Daverat with its pastures, Yarmut with its pasture 29 lands, 'En-gannim with its pasture lands; four cities.

And out of the tribe of Asher, Mish'al with its pasture 30 lands, 'Avdon with its pasture lands, Ḥelqat with its pasture 31 lands, and Reḥov with its pastures; four cities. And 32 out of the tribe of Naftali, Qedesh in Galilee with its pasture lands, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Ḥammot-dor with its pasture lands, and Qartan with its pasture lands, three cities. All the cities of the Gershunni according to their 33 families were thirteen cities with their pasture lands.

And to the families of the children of Merari, the rest of the 34 Levites, out of the tribe of Zevulun, Yoqne'am with its pasture lands, and Qarta with its pasture lands, Dimna with its pastures, 35 Nahalal with its pasture lands; four cities. And 36 out of the tribe of Gad, Ramot in Gil'ad with its pasture lands, a city of refuge for the slayer; and Maḥanayim with its pasture lands, Ḫeshbon with its pasture lands, Ya'zer with its 37 pasture lands; four cities in all. So all the cities for the 38 children of Merari by their families, which remained of the families of the Levites, were by their lot twelve cities. All 39 the cities of the Levites within the domain of the children of Yisra'el were forty eight cities with their pasture lands.

These citles were every one with their pasture lands round 40 about them: thus were all these cities. And the LORD 41 gave to Yisra'el all the land which be swore to give to their 42 fathers; and they possessed it, and dwelt in it. And the LORD gave them rest round about, according to all that he swore to their fathers: and there stood not a man of all their enemies before them; the LORD delivered all their enemies into their hand. Nothing failed of all the good things which the LORD 43 had spoken to the house of Yisra'el; all came to pass.

Then Yehoshua called the Re'uveni, and the Gadi, and the 22 half tribe of Menashshe, and said to them, You have kept all that 2 Moshe the servant of the LORD commanded you, and have obeyed my voice in all that I commanded you: you have not 3 forsaken your brethren these many days, until this day, but have kept the charge of the commandment of the LORD your GOD. And now the LORD your God has given rest to your breth- 4 ren, as he promised them: therefore now return, and go to your tents, and to the land of your possession, which Moshe the servant of the LORD gave you on the other side of the Yarden.
But take great care to do the commandment and the Tora, 5 which Moshe the servant of the LORD commanded you, to love the LORD your GOD, and to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and to hold fast to him, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul. So Yehoshua blessed 6 them, and sent them away: and they went to their tents.

Now to the one half of the tribe of Menashshe, Moshe had 7 given possession in Bashan: but to the other half of it, Yeho-shua had given territory among their brethren on this side of the Yarden westward. Moreover when Yehoshua sent them away to their tents, he blessed them, and he spoke to them, 8 saying, Return with much riches to your tents, and with very much cattle, with silver, and with gold, and with copper, and with iron, and with very many garments: divide the spoil of your enemies with your brethren. And the children of 9 Re'uven and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Menash-she returned, and departed from the children of Yisra'el out of Shilo, which is in the land of Kena'an, to go to the country of Gil'ad, to the land of their possession, of which they were

Some versions insert this verse after verse 35:
And out of the tribe of Re'uven, Beẓer, and its pasture lands, and Yahẓa and its pasture lands, Qedemot and its pasture lands, and Mefa'at and its pasture lands, four cities.

possessed, according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moshe. And when they came to the districts of the Yarden, 10 that are in the land of Kena'an, the children of Re'uven and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Menashshe built there an altar by the Yarden, a great and conspicuous altar. And the 11 children of Yisra'el heard say, Behold, the children of Re'uven and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Menashshe have built an altar over against the land of Kena'an, in the districts of the Yarden, on the side of the children of Yisra'el. And 12 when the children of Yisra'el heard of it, the whole congregation of the children of Yisra'el gathered themselves together at Shilo, to go up to war against them. And the children 13 of Yisra'el sent to the children of Re'uven, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Menashshe, into the land of Gil'ad, Pineḥas the son of El'azar the priest, and with him ten 14 princes, of each chief house a prince throughout all the tribes of Yisra'el; and each one a headman of the house of their fathers among the thousands of Yisra'el. And they came to the 15 children of Re'uven, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Menashshe, to the land of Gil'ad, and they spoke with them, saying, Thus says the whole congregation of the 16 LORD, What trespass is this that you have committed against the GOD of Yisra'el, to turn away this day from following the LORD, by building for yourselves an altar, that you might rebel this day against the LORD? Is the iniquity of Pe'or too little for 17 us, from which we have not been cleansed until this day, although there was a plague in the congregation of the LORD, but that you must turn away this day from following the 18 LORD? and it will be, if you rebel to day against the LORD, that to morrow he will be angry with the whole congregation of Yisra'el. Howbeit, if the land of your possession be unclean, 19 then pass over to the land of the possession of the LORD, where the LORD's tabernacle dwells, and take possession among us: but rebel not against the LORD, nor rebel against us, in building an altar for yourselves besides the altar of the LORD our GOD. Did not 'Akhan the son of Zeraḥ commit a trespass in 20 regard to the devoted property, and wrath fell on all the congregation of Yisra'el? and that man perished not alone in his iniquity. Then the children of Re'uven and the children 21 of Gad and the half tribe of Menashshe answered, and said to the heads of the thousands of Yisra'el. The mighty One, GOD, 22 the LORD, the mighty One, GOD, the LORD, he knows and Yisra'el shall know; if in rebellion, or if in transgression against the LORD, (save thou us not this day,) if we have built an 23 altar for ourselves to turn from following the LORD, or if to offer a burnt offering or a meal offering upon it, or if to offer peace offerings upon it, let the LORD himself demand reparation; or if we have not rather done this out of anxiety, saying, 24
In time to come your children might speak to our children, saying, What have you to do with the LORD GOD of Yisra'el? For the LORD has made the Yarden a border between us and 25 you, you children of Re'uven and children of Gad; you have no part in the LORD: so shall your children make our children cease fearing the LORD. Therefore we said, Let us now prepare 26 to build us an altar, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice:

but that it may be a witness between us, and you, and our 27 generations after us, that we might do the service of the LORD before him with our burnt offerings, and with our sacrifices, and with our peace offerings; that your children may not say to our children in time to come, You have no part in the LORD. Therefore we said, that it shall be, when they should 28 so say to us or to our generations in time to come, that we may reply, Behold the pattern of the altar of the LORD, which our fathers made, not for burnt offerings, nor for sacrifices; but it is a witness between us and you. GOD forbid that we 29 should rebel against the LORD, and turn this day from following the LORD, to build an altar for burnt offerings, for meal offerings, or for sacrifices, besides the altar of the LORD our GOD that is before his tabernacle. And when Pineḥas the 30 priest, and the princes of the congregation and heads of the thousands of Yisra'el who were with him, heard the words that the children of Re'uven and the children of Gad and the children of Menashshe spoke, it pleased them. And Pineḥas 31 the son of El'azar the priest said to the children of Re'uven, and to the children of Gad, and to the children of Menashshe, This day we perceive that the LORD is among us, because you have not committed this trespass against the LORD: now you have delivered the children of Yisra'el out of the hand of the LORD. And Pineḥas the son of El'azar the priest, and the prin- 32 ces, returned from the children of Re'uven, and from the children of Gad, out of the land of Gil'ad, to the land of Kena'an, to the children of Yisra'el, and brought them back word. And 33 the thing pleased the children of Yisra'el; and the children of Yisra'el blessed GOD, and spoke no more of going up against them in battle, to destroy the land where the children of Re-'uven and Gad dwelt. And the children of Re'uven and the 34 children of Gad called the altar 'Ed: for it shall be a witness between us that the LORD is GOD.

And it came to pass a long time after the LORD had given rest 23 to Yisra'el from all their enemies round about, that Yehoshua became old and stricken in days. And Yehoshua called for all 2 Yisra'el, and for their elders, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers, and said to them, I am old and stricken in days: and you have seen all that the LORD your 3 GOD has done to all these nations because of you; for the LORD your GOD is he that has fought for you. Behold, I have allotted 4 to you these nations that remain, to be an inheritance for your tribes, from the Yarden, with all the nations that I have cut off, even to the great sea westward. And the LORD your 5 GOD, he shall expel them from before you, and drive them from out of your sight; and you shall possess their land, as the LORD your GOD has promised you. Be therefore very cou- 6 rageous to keep and to do all that is written in the book of the Tora of Moshe, that you turn not aside from it to the right hand or to the left; that you come not among these na- 7 tions, that remain among you; neither make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause to swear by them, nor serve them, nor bow yourselves down to them: but cleave to the 8 LORD your GOD, as you have done to this day. For the LORD 9 has driven out from before you great nations and strong: but as for you, no man has been able to withstand you to this day. One man of you would chase a thousand: for the LORD 10 your GOD, he it is that fights for you, as he has promised you.

Take great care therefore to yourselves, that you love the 11 LORD your GOD. For if you should at all turn back to attach 12 yourselves to the remnant of these nations, these that remain among you, and shall make marriages with them, and go in unto them, and they to you: know for a certainty that the 13 LORD your GOD will no more drive out any of these nations before you; but they shall be snares and traps to you, and a scourge in your sides, and pricks in your eyes, until you perish from off this good land which the LORD your GOD has given you. And, behold, this day I am going the way of all the 14 earth: and you all know in your hearts and in your souls, that not one thing has failed of all the good things which the LORD your GOD spoke concerning you; all have come to you; not one thing has failed. Therefore it shall come to pass, that as all 15 good things are come upon you, which the LORD your GOD promised you; so shall the LORD bring upon you all evil things, until he shall have destroyed you from off this good land which the LORD your GOD has given you, if you should 16 transgress the covenant of the LORD your GOD, which he commanded you, and you should go and serve other gods, and bow yourselves down to them. Then shall the anger of the LORD burn against you, and you shall perish quickly from off the good land which he has given to you. And Yeho- 24 shua gathered all the tribes of Yisra'el to Shekhem, and called for the elders of Yisra'el, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers, and they presented themselves before GOD. And Yehoshua said to all the people, Thus says 2 the LORD GOD of Yisra'el, Your fathers dwelt on the other side of the river in old time, Terah, the father of Avraham, and the father of Nahor: and they served other gods. And I took your 3 father Avraham from the other side of the river, and led him through the whole land of Kena'an, and multiplied his seed, and gave him Yizhaq. And I gave to Yizhaq, Ya'aqov and 'Esav: 4 and I gave to 'Esav mount Se'ir, to possess it; but Ya'aqov and his children went down to Mizrayim. I sent Moshe also and 5 Aharon, and I plagued Mizrayim, with that which I did among them: and afterwards I brought you out. And I brought your 6 fathers out of Mizrayim: and you came to the sea; and Mizrayim pursued after your fathers with chariots and horsemen to the Sea of Suf. And when they cried to the LORD, he put 7 darkness between you and Mizrayim, and brought the sea upon them, and covered them; and your eyes have seen what I have done in Mizrayim: and you dwelt in the wilderness many days: and I brought you into the land of the Emori, who dwelt on the 8 other side of the Yarden, and they fought with you: and I gave them into your hand, that you might possess their land; and I destroyed them from before you. Then Balaq the son of Ẓippor, 9 king of Mo'av, arose and warred against Yisra'el, and sent and called Bil'am the son of Be'or to curse you. But I would not 10 listen to Bil'am; therefore he blessed you still: so I delivered you from his hand. And you went over the Yarden, and came 11 to Yeriḥo: and the men of Yeriḥo fought against you, the Emori, and the Perizzi, and the Kena'ani, and the Ḥitti, and the Girgashi, the Ḥivvi, and the Yevusi; and I delivered them into your hand. And I sent the hornet before you, which drove 12 them out from before you, the two kings of the Emori; but not with thy sword, nor with thy bow. And I have given you a 13 land for which you did not labour, and cities which you did not build, and you dwell in them; of vineyards and oliveyards which you did not plant, do you eat. Now therefore fear the 14 LORD, and serve him in sincerity and in truth: and put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the river, and in Miẓrayim; and serve the LORD. And if it seem 15 evil to you to serve the LORD, choose this day whom you will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the river, or the gods of the Emori, in whose land you dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD. And the people answered and said, Far 16 be it from us that we should forsake the LORD, to serve other gods; for the LORD our GOD, he it is who brought us up and 17 our fathers out of the land of Miẓrayim, from the house of bondage, and who did those great signs in our sight, and preserved us in all the way in which we went, and among all the people through whom we passed: and the LORD drove out from 18 before us all the people, even the Emori who dwelt in the land:

therefore will we also serve the LORD; for he is our GOD.

And Yehoshua said to the people, You cannot serve the 19 LORD: for he is a holy GOD; he is a jealous GOD; he will not tolerate your transgressions nor your sins. If you forsake the 20 LORD, and serve strange gods, then he will turn and do you hurt, and consume you, after having done you good. And the 21 people said to Yehoshua, No; but we will serve the LORD.
And Yehoshua said to the people, You are witnesses against 22 yourselves that you have chosen the LORD for yourselves, to serve him. And they said, We are witnesses. Now therefore put 23 away the strange gods which are among you, and incline your heart to the LORD GOD of Yisra'el. And the people said to Yeho- 24 shua, The LORD our GOD will we serve, and his voice will we obey. So Yehoshua made a covenant with the people that day, 25 and set them a statute and an ordinance in Shekhem. And 26 Yehoshua wrote these words in the book of the Tora of GOD, and took a great stone, and set it up there under the oak, that was by the sanctuary of the LORD. And Yehoshua said 27 to all the people, Behold, this stone shall be a witness to us; for it has heard all the words of the LORD which he spoke to us: it shall be therefore a witness to you, lest you deny your

GOD. So Yehoshua let the people depart, every man to his 28 inheritance. And it came to pass after these things, 29 that Yehoshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being a hundred and ten years old. And they buried him in the 30 border of his inheritance in Timnat-serah, which is in mount Efrayim, on the north side of the hill Ga'ash. And Yisra'el 31 served the LORD all the days of Yehoshua, and all the days of the elders that outlived Yehoshua, and who had known all the deeds of the LORD, that he had done for Yisra'el. And the 32 bones of Yosef, which the children of Yisra'el brought up out of Mizrayim, they buried in Shekhem, in a section of ground which Ya'aqov bought from the sons of Hamor the father of Shekhem for a hundred qesita : and they became the inheritance of the children of Yosef. And El'azar the son of Aharon died ; 33 and they buried him in the hill of Pinehas his son, which was given him in mount Efrayim.

Now after the death of Yehoshua it came to pass, that the 1 children of Yisra'el asked the LORD, saying, Who shall go up for us against the Kena'ani first, to fight against them? And 2 the LORD said, Yehuda shall go up: behold, I have delivered the land into his hand. And Yehuda said to Shim'on his brother, 3 Come up with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Kena'ani; and I likewise will go with thee into thy lot. So Shim'on went with him. And Yehuda went up; and the LORD 4 delivered the Kena'ani and the Perizzi into their hand: and they smote of them in Bezeq ten thousand men. And they 5 found Adoni-bezeq in Bezeq: and they fought against him, and they smote the Kena'ani and the Perizzi. But Adoni-bezeq fled; 6 and they pursued after him, and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and his great toes. And Adoni-bezeq said, Seventy 7 kings, having their thumbs and their great toes cut off, gathered food under my table: as I have done, so GOD has requited me.
And they brought him to Yerushalayim, and there he died.
Now the children of Yehuda fought against Yerushalayim, and 8 took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and set the city on fire. And afterwards the children of Yehuda went down 9 to fight against the Kena'ani, that dwelt in the mountain, and in the Negev, and in the coastal plain. And Yehuda went 10 against the Kena'ani that dwelt in Ḥevron: (now the name of Ḥevron before was Qiryat-arba:) and they smote Sheshay, and Aḥiman, and Talmay. And from there he went against the 11 inhabitants of Devir: and the name of Devir before was Qiryat-sefer: and Kalev said, He that smites Qiryat-sefer, and takes it, 12 to him will I give 'Akhsa my daughter to wife. And 'Otni'el 13 the son of Qenaz, Kalev's younger brother, took it: and he gave him 'Akhsa his daughter to wife. And it came to pass, 14 when she came to him, that she moved him to ask of her father a field: and she alighted from her ass; and Kalev said to her, What wilt thou? And she said to him, Give me a blessing: for 15 thou hast given me a Negev land; give me also pools of water.
And Kalev gave her the upper pools and the lower pools. And 16 the children of the Qeni, Moshe's father in law, went up out of the city of palm trees with the children of Yehuda into the wilderness of Yehuda, which lies in the south of 'Arad; and they went and dwelt among the people. And Yehuda went with 17 Shim'on his brother, and they slew the Kena'ani that inhabited Ẓefat, and utterly destroyed it. And the name of the city was called Ḥorma. And Yehuda took 'Azza with its border, and 18 Ashqelon with its border, and 'Eqron with its border. And the 19 LORD was with Yehuda; and he drove out the inhabitants of the mountain; but could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had chariots of iron. And they gave Ḥev- 20 ron to Kalev, as Moshe said: and he expelled from there the three sons of 'Anaq. And the children of Binyamin did not drive 21 out the Yevusi, that inhabited Yerushalayim; but the Yevusi dwell with the children of Binyamin in Yerushalayim to this day. And the house of Yosef, they too went up against Bet- 22 el: and the LORD was with them. And the house of Yosef sent to 23 spy out Bet-el. (Now the name of the city before was Luz.)

And the scouts saw a man come out of the city, and they 24 said to him, Show us, we pray thee, the entrance into the city, and we will deal kindly with thee. And when he showed them 25 the entrance to the city, they smote the city with the edge of the sword; but they let the man and all his family go free.
And the man went into the land of the Ḥittim, and built a 26 city, and called its name Luz : which is its name to this day.

Neither did Menashshe drive out the inhabitants of Bet- 27 she'an and its hamlets, nor Ta'nakh and it hamlets, nor the inhabitants of Dor and its hamlets, nor the inhabitants of Yivle'am and its hamlets, nor the inhabitants of Megiddo and its hamlets : but the Kena'ani persisted in dwelling in that land. And it came to pass, when Yisra'el was strong, that 28 they put the Kena'ani to tribute, and did not utterly drive them out. Neither did Efrayim drive out the Kena'ani that 29 dwelt in Gezer; but the Kena'ani dwelt in Gezer among them.

Neither did Zevulun drive out the inhabitants of Qitron, 30 nor the inhabitants of Nahalol; but the Kena'ani dwelt among them, and became tributaries. Neither did Asher drive out 31 the inhabitants of 'Akko, nor the inhabitants of Ẓidon, nor of Aḥlav, nor of Akhziv, nor of Ḥelba, nor of Afiq, nor of Reḥov.
But the Asheri dwelt among the Kena'ani, the inhabitants of the 32 land : for they did not drive them out. Neither did Naftali 33 drive out the inhabitants of Bet-shemesh, nor the inhabitants of Bet-'anat; but he dwelt among the Kena'ani, the inhabitants of the land: nevertheless the inhabitants of Bet-shemesh and of Bet-'anat became tributaries to them. And the Emori forced 34 the children of Dan into the mountain: for they would not allow them to come down to the valley: but the Emori per- 35 sisted in dwelling in mount Ḥeres in Ayyalon, and in Sha'alvim : yet the hand of the house of Yosef prevailed, so that they became tributaries. And the border of the Emori was from 36 Ma'ale-'aqrabbim, from the rock upwards. And an angel of 2 the LORD came up from Gilgal to Bokhim, and said, I caused you to go up out of Miẓrayim, and have brought you to the land which I swore to your fathers; and I said, I will never break my covenant with you. And you shall make no covenant 2 with the inhabitants of this land; you shall pull down their altars: but you have not obeyed my voice: why have you done this? Moreover, I said, I will not drive them out from before 3 you; but they shall be as snares to you, and their gods shall be a trap to you. And it came to pass, when the angel of the 4 LORD spoke these words to all the children of Yisra'el, that the people lifted up their voice, and wept. And they called the 5 name of that place Bokhim: and they sacrificed there to the LORD. And when Yehoshua had let the people go, the chil- 6 dren of Yisra'el went every man to his inheritance to possess the land. And the people served the LORD all the days of Yeho- 7 shua, and all the days of the elders that outlived Yehoshua, who had seen all the great work of the LORD, that he did for Yisra'el. And Yehoshua the son of Nun, the servant of the 8 LORD, died, being a hundred and ten years old. And they buried 9 him in the border of his inheritance in Timnat-ḥeres, in the mount of Efrayim, on the north side of the hill Ga'ash. And also all that generation were gathered to their fathers: and there arose another generation after them, which knew not the LORD, nor yet the work which he had done for Yisra'el. 10

And the children of Yisra'el did evil in the sight of the LORD, and served the Ba'alim: and they forsook the LORD GOD of their fathers, who had brought them out of the land of Miẓrayim, and followed other gods, of the gods of the people that were round about them, and bowed themselves down to them, and provoked the LORD to anger. And they forsook the LORD, and served the Ba'al and the 'Ashtarot. And the anger of the LORD burned against Yisra'el, and he delivered them into the hands of spoilers that plundered them, and he sold them into the hands of their enemies round about, so that they could not any longer stand before their enemies. Wherever they went out, the hand of the LORD was against them for evil, as the LORD had said, and as the LORD had sworn to them: and they were greatly distressed. Nevertheless the LORD raised up judges, who saved them from the hand of their plunderers. And yet they would not hearken to their judges, but they went astray after other gods, and bowed themselves down to them: they turned aside quickly out of the way in which their fathers had gone, obeying the commandments of the LORD; but they did not so. And when the LORD raised them up judges, then the LORD was with the judge, and saved them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge: for the LORD relented on account of their groanings, caused by those that oppressed them and vexed them. And it came to pass, when the judge was dead, that they relapsed, and became more corrupt than their fathers, in following other gods to serve them, and to bow down to them; they omitted nothing of their practices, nor of their stubborn way. And the anger of the LORD burned against Yisra'el; and he said, Because this people has transgressed my covenant which I commanded their fathers, and has not hearkened to my voice; I also will not continue to drive out from before them any of the nations which Yehoshua left when he died: that through them I may put Yisra'el to the proof, whether they will keep the way of the LORD to walk in it, as their fathers did keep it, or not. Therefore the LORD left those nations without driving them out hastily; and he did not give them up into the hand of Yehoshua. 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23

Now these are the nations 3 which the LORD left to put Yisra'el to the proof by them, all those who had not known all the wars of Kena'an; only that the generations of the children of Yisra'el might know, to teach them war, at the least such as before knew nothing of those matters; namely, five lords of the Pelishtim, and all the Kena'ani, and the Ẓidoni, and the Ḥivvi, that dwelt in mount Levanon, from mount Ba'al-ḥermon to the entrance of Ḥamat. And they were for putting Yisra'el to the proof, to know whether they would hearken to the commandments of the LORD, which he commanded their fathers by the hand of Moshe. And the children of Yisra'el dwelt among the Kena'ani, the Ḥitti, and 2 3 4 5 the Emori, and the Perizzi, and the Ḥivvi, and the Yevusi: and 6 they took their daughters to be their wives, and gave their daughters to their sons, and served their gods. And the 7 children of Yisra'el did evil in the sight of the LORD, and forgot the LORD their GOD, and served the Ba'alim and the Asherot.

Therefore the anger of the LORD burned against Yisra'el and 8 he sold them into the hand of Kushan-rish'atayim, king of Aram: and the children of Yisra'el served Kushan-rish'atayim eight years. And when the children of Yisra'el cried to the 9 LORD, the LORD raised up a deliverer to the children of Yisra'el, who delivered them, namely, 'Otni'el the son of Qenaz, Kalev's younger brother. And the spirit of the LORD came upon 10 him, and he judged Yisra'el, and went out to war: and the LORD delivered Kushan-rish'atayim, king of Aram, into his hand; and his hand prevailed against Kushan-rish'atayim. And 11 the land was quiet for forty years. And 'Otni'el the son of Qenaz died. And the children of Yisra'el did evil again in the 12 sight of the LORD: and the LORD strengthened 'Eglon the king of Mo'av against Yisra'el, because they had done evil in the sight of the LORD. And he gathered to him the children of 13
'Ammon and 'Amaleq, and went and smote Yisra'el, and they seized the city of palm trees. So the children of Yisra'el 14 served 'Eglon the king of Mo'av, for eighteen years. But when 15 the children of Yisra'el cried to the LORD, the LORD raised them up a deliverer, Ehud the son of Gera, a Binyamini, a left-handed man, and by him the children of Yisra'el sent a present to 'Eglon the king of Mo'av. But Ehud made him a sword 16 which had two edges, of a cubit length; and he girded it under his clothes on his right thigh. And he brought the pre- 17 sent to 'Eglon king of Mo'av: and 'Eglon was a very fat man.
And when he had finished offering the present, he sent away 18 the people that bore the present. But he himself turned back 19 after reaching the carved stones that were by Gilgal, and said, I have a secret errand to thee, O king. The latter said, Keep silence, and all that stood by him went out from him. And 20 Ehud came to him; and he was sitting in a cool upper chamber, which he had for himself alone. And Ehud said, I have a message from GOD to thee. So he arose out of his seat. And Ehud 21 put forth his left hand, and took the sword from his right thigh, and thrust it into his belly: and the haft also went in 22 after the blade; and the fat closed upon the blade, so that he could not draw the dagger out of his belly; and the dirt came out. Then Ehud went out to the vestibule, and shut the doors 23 of the chamber upon him, and locked them. When he was 24 gone out, his servants came; and when they saw that, behold, the doors of the chamber were locked, they said, Surely he is relieving himself in the cool chamber. And they waited 25 till it was late: and, behold, he opened not the doors of the chamber; therefore they took a key, and opened them:
and, behold, their lord was fallen down dead on the earth.
And Ehud escaped while they tarried, and passed beyond the 26 carved stones, and escaped into Se'ir. And it came to pass, 27 when he arrived, that he blew a shofar in the mountain of Efrayim, and the children of Yisra'el went down with him from the mount, and he before them. And he said to them, Follow 28 after me: for the LORD has delivered your enemies, namely Mo'av, into your hand. And they went down after him, and seized the fords of the Yarden towards Mo'av, and allowed no man to pass over. And they slew of Mo'av at that time 29 about ten thousand men, all lusty, and all men of valour; and no man escaped. So Mo'av was subdued that day under the 30 hand of Yisra'el. And the land was quiet for eighty years.

And after him was Shamgar the son of 'Anat, who slew of 31 the Pelishtim six hundred men with an ox goad: and he also delivered Yisra'el. And the children of Yisra'el again did evil 4 in the sight of the LORD, when Ehud was dead. And the LORD 2 sold them into the hand of Yavin king of Kena'an, who reigned in Ḥazor; the captain of whose host was Sisera, which dwelt in Ḥaroshet-haggoyim. And the children of Yisra'el cried to 3 the LORD: for he had nine hundred chariots of iron; and twenty years he strongly oppressed the children of Yisra'el.

And Devora, a prophetess, the wife of Lappidot, she judged Yis- 4 ra'el at that time. And she dwelt under the palm tree of Devora 5 between Rama and Bet-el in mount Efrayim: and the children of Yisra'el came up to her for judgment. And she sent and called 6 Baraq the son of Avino'am out of Qedesh-naftali, and said to him, Has not the LORD GOD of Yisra'el commanded, saying, Go and gather your men to mount Tavor, and take with thee ten thousand men of the children of Naftali and of the children of Zevulun? And I will draw out to thee to the wadi of Qishon, 7 Sisera, the captain of Yavin's army, with his chariots and his multitude; and I will deliver him into thy hand. And Baraq said 8 to her, If thou wilt go with me, then I will go: but if thou wilt not go with me, then I will not go. And she said, I will surely 9 go with thee: however thou shalt scarcely attain honour on the journey that thou goest; for the LORD shall yield Sisera into the hand of a woman. And Devora arose, and went with Baraq to Qedesh. And Baraq summoned Zevulun and Naftali to Qe- 10 desh; and he went up with ten thousand men at his feet: and Devora went up with him. Now Ḥever the Qenite, who was of 11 the children of Ḥovav the father in law of Moshe, had severed himself from Qayin, and pitched his tent near the oak in Ẓa'anannim, which is by Qedesh. And they told Sisera that 12 Baraq the son of Avino'am was gone up to mount Tavor. And 13
Sisera gathered together all his chariots, nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people that were with him, from Ḥaroshet-haggoyim to the wadi of Qishon. And Devora said to Baraq, 14
Up; for this is the day on which the LORD has delivered Sisera into thy hand: is not the LORD gone out before thee? So Baraq went down from mount Tavor, and ten thousand men after him. And the LORD confounded Sisera, and all his chariots, and all 15 his host, with the edge of the sword before Baraq; so that Sisera alighted from his chariot, and fled away by foot. But Baraq pur- 16 sued after the chariots, and after the host, as far as Ḥaroshet-haggoyim: and all the host of Sisera fell by the edge of the sword; there was not a man left. But Sisera fled away by foot 17 to the tent of Ya'el the wife of Ḥever the Qenite: for there was peace between Yavin the king of Ḥazor and the house of Ḥever the Qeni. And Ya'el went out to meet Sisera, and said to him, 18 Turn in, my lord, turn in to me; fear not. And when he had turned in to her into the tent, she covered him with a blanket. And he said to her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water to drink; 19 for I am thirsty. And she opened a bottle of milk, and gave him drink, and covered him. Then he said to her, Stand in the door 20 of the tent, and it shall be, if any man comes and inquires of thee, and says, Is there anyone here? that thou shalt say, No. Then Ya'el Ḥever's wife took a tent peg, and took a 21 hammer in her hand, and went softly to him, and drove the tent peg into his temple, and fastened it to the ground: for he was fast asleep and weary. So he died. And, behold, as Baraq 22 pursued Sisera, Ya'el came out to meet him, and said to him, Come, and I will show thee the man whom thou seekest. And when he came into her tent, behold, Sisera lay dead, and the peg in his temple. So God subdued on that day Yavin the king 23 of Kena'an before the children of Yisra'el. And the hand of the 24 children of Yisra'el prevailed more and more against Yavin the king of Kena'an, until they had destroyed Yavin king of Kena'an.

Then sang Devora and Baraq the son of Avino'am on that day, 5 saying, / In time of tumultuous strife in Yisra'el / when the 2 people willingly offered themselves; praise the Lord. / Hear, 3 O kings; give ear, O princes; / I will sing to the Lord; / I will intone a melody to the God of Yisra'el. / Lord, when thou didst 4 go out of Se'ir, / when thou didst march out of the field of Edom, / the earth trembled, and the heavens dropped, / the clouds also dropped water. / The mountains melted from be- 5 fore the Lord, that Sinay before the Lord God of Yisra'el. / In the days of Shamgar the son of 'Anat, / in the days of Ya'el, 6 the highways were unoccupied, / and the travellers walked through crooked byways. / The inhabitants of the villages 7 ceased, they ceased in Yisra'el, / until I Devora arose, / I arose a mother in Yisra'el. / They chose new gods; / then was war 8 in the gates: / was there a shield or spear seen / among forty thousand in Yisra'el? / My heart goes out to the governors 9 of Yisra'el, / that offered themselves willingly among the people. Bless the Lord! / You that ride on tawny she asses, / you that 10 sit on couches, / and you that walk by the way, tell the tale. / Louder than the voice of the archers; in the places of drawing 11 water, / there let them recite the righteous acts of the Lord, / the righteous acts toward the inhabitants of his villages in Yisra'el: / when the people of the LORD went down to the gates. / Awake, awake, Devora: / awake, awake, utter a song: / arise, 12

Baraq, and lead away thy captives, thou son of Avino'am. /
Then he made a remnant have dominion over the nobles of the 13 people: / the LORD made me have dominion over the mighty ones. / From Efrayim came they, but rooted in 'Amaleq, / 14 beyond thee, Binyamin with thy tribes; / from Makhir came down leaders, / and from Zevulun, those that handle the marshal's staff. / And the princes of Yissakhar were with Devora; / 15 as was Yissakhar, so was Baraq. / Into the valley they rushed forth, at his feet. / In the divisions of Re'uven, / great were the resolves. / Why then didst thou sit among the sheepfolds, / to 16 hear the bleatings of the flocks? / For the divisions of Re'uven, great were the heart searchings. / Gil'ad dwells beyond the 17 Yarden: / and why did Dan remain by the ships? / Asher continued on the sea shore, / and abode by his bays. / Zevulun 18 was a people that jeoparded their lives to the death / and Naftali likewise, on the high places of the field. / The kings came 19 and fought, / then fought the kings of Kena'an / in Ta'nakh by the waters of Megiddo; / they took no gain of silver. / They fought from heaven; / the stars in their courses fought 20 against Sisera. / The wadi of Qishon swept them away, / that 21 ancient brook, the brook of Qishon. / O my soul, march on in strength. / Then did the horsehoofs beat / from the frantic 22 galloping of his mighty ones. / Curse Meroz, said the angel of 23 the LORD, / curse bitterly its inhabitants; / because they did not come to the help of the LORD, / to the help of the LORD against the mighty men. / Blessed above women is Ya'el / the 24 wife of Ḥever the Qenite, / blessed is she more than women in the tent. / He asked water, but she gave him milk; / she brought 25 forth cream in a lordly dish. / She put her hand to the tent peg, / 26 and her right hand to the workmen's hammer; / and she hammered Sisera, she smote through his head; / she crushed and pierced his temple. / At her feet he bent, he fell, he lay down: / 27 at her feet he bent, he fell: / where he bowed, there he fell down, bereft of life. / The mother of Sisera looked out at 28 the window, / and moaned through the lattice, / Why is his chariot so long in coming? / Why are the hoofbeats of his steeds so tardy? / Her wise ladies answered her, / she even returned 29 answer to herself, / Have they not found booty? have they 30 not divided the prey; / to every man a damsel or two; / to Sisera a booty of divers colours, / a plunder of many coloured needlework, / dyed double worked garments for the necks of the spoilers. / So let all thy enemies perish, O LORD: / but 31 let them that love him be as the sun when it comes out in its might. / And the land was quiet / for forty years.

And the children of Yisra'el did evil in the sight of the LORD: 6 and the LORD delivered them into the hand of Midyan for seven years. And the hand of Midyan prevailed against Yisra'el: 2 and because of Midyan the children of Yisra'el made for themselves the tunnels which are in the mountains, and caves, and strongholds. And so it was, when Yisra'el had sown, that 3 Midyan and 'Amaleq, and the children of the east, came up against them; and they encamped against them, and des- 4 troyed the produce of the earth, as far as 'Azza, and left no sustenance for Yisra'el, neither sheep, nor ox. nor ass. For 5 they came up with their cattle and their tents, and they came like locusts for multitude; for both they and their camels were without number: and they entered into the land to destroy it. And Yisra'el was greatly impoverished because of 6 Midyan; and the children of Yisra'el cried to the LORD. And it 7 came to pass, when the children of Yisra'el cried to the LORD because of Midyan, that the LORD sent a prophet to the 8 children of Yisra'el, who said to them, Thus says the LORD GOD of Yisra'el, I brought you up from Mizrayim, and brought you out of the house of slaves; and I delivered you out of the 9 hand of Mizrayim, and out of the hand of all those that oppressed you, and drove them out before you, and gave you their land; and I said to you, I am the LORD your GOD; fear 10 not the gods of the Emori, in whose land you dwell: but you did not obey my voice. And there came an angel of the LORD, 11 and sat under the terebinth which was in 'Ofra, that belonged to Yo'ash the Avi-'ezri: and his son Gid'on was threshing wheat by the winepress, to hide it from Midyan. And the angel of the 12 LORD appeared to him, and said to him, The LORD is with thee, thou mighty man of valour. And Gid'on said to him, Oh 13 my LORD, if the LORD be with us, why then has all this befallen us? and where are all his miracles which our fathers told us of saying, Did not the LORD bring us up from Mizrayim? but now the LORD has forsaken us, and delivered us into the hand of Midyan. And the LORD turned to him, and 14 said, Go in this thy might, and thou shalt save Yisra'el from the hand of Midyan: have not I sent thee? And he said to 15 him, Oh my LORD, with what shall I save Yisra'el? behold, my family is the poorest in Menashshe, and I am the youngest in my father's house. And the LORD said to him, Surely 16
I will be with thee, and thou shalt smite Midyan as one man.
And he said to him, If now I have found favour in thy sight, 17 then show me a sign that it is thou who talkest with me. De- 18 part not from here, I pray thee, until I come to thee, and bring forth my present, and set it before thee. And he said, I will remain until thou come again. And Gid'on went in, and made 19 ready a kid, and unleavened cakes of an efa of flour: the meat he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot, and brought it out to him under the terebinth, and presented it.

And the angel of GOD said to him, Take the meat and the un- 20 leavened cakes, and lay them upon this rock, and pour out the broth. And he did so. Then the angel of the LORD stretched 21 out the end of the staff that was in his hand, and touched the meat and the unleavened cakes; and the fire rose up out of the rock, and consumed the meat and the unleavened cakes.
Then the angel of the LORD departed out of his sight. And 22 when Gid'on perceived that he was an angel of the LORD, Gid'on said, Alas, O LORD GOD! because I have surely seen an angel of the LORD face to face. And the LORD said to him, 23 Peace be to thee; fear not: thou shalt not die. Then Gid'on 24 built an altar there to the LORD, and called it Adonay-shalom: to this day it is yet in 'Ofra of the Avi-'ezri. And it came to 25 pass the same night, that the LORD said to him, Take thy father's young bullock, and the second bullock of seven years old, and throw down the altar of Ba'al that thy father has, and cut down the Ashera that is by it: and build an altar to the 26 LORD thy GOD upon the top of this strong point, on the level place, and take the second bullock, and offer a burnt sacrifice with the wood of the Ashera which thou shalt cut down. Then 27 Gid'on took ten men of his servants, and did as the LORD had said to him: and since he feared his father's household, and the men of the city, he could not do it by day, but he did it by night. And when the men of the city arose early in the 28 morning, behold, the altar of Ba'al was pulled down, and the Ashera that was by it, was cut down, and the second bullock was offered upon the altar that was built. And they said one 29 to another, Who has done this thing? And when they inquired and asked, they said, Gid'on the son of Yo'ash has done this thing. Then the men of the city said to Yo'ash, Bring out thy 30 son, that he may die: because he has pulled down the altar of Ba'al, and because he has cut down the Ashera that was by it. And Yo'ash said to all that stood against him, Will you 31 plead on behalf of Ba'al? will you save him? he that will plead for him, let him be put to death before morning: if he be a god, let him plead for himself, that his altar has been pulled down. Therefore on that day he called him Yerubba'al, saying, 32 Let Ba'al plead against him, because he has pulled down his altar. Then all Midyan and 'Amaleq and the children of the 33 east were gathered together, and went over, and pitched in the valley of Yizre'el. But the spirit of the LORD clothed 34 Gid'on, and he blew a shofar; and Avi-'ezer mustered behind him. And he sent messengers throughout all Menashshe; who 35 also mustered behind him: and he sent mesengers to Asher, and to Zevulun, and to Naftali; and they came up to meet them. And Gid'on said to GOD, If thou wilt save Yisra'el by 36 my hand, as thou hast said, behold, I will put a fleece of wool 37 on the threshing floor; and if there be dew on the fleece only, and it be dry on all the ground elsewhere, then shall I know that thou wilt save Yisra'el by my hand, as thou hast said.

And it was so: for he rose up early on the morrow, and pres- 38 sed the fleece together, and wrung the dew out of the fleece, a bowl full of water. And Gid'on said to GOD, Let not thy anger 39 burn against me, and I will speak but this once: let me prove,
I pray thee, but this once with the fleece; let it now be dry only upon the fleece, and upon all the ground let there be dew. And GOD did so that night: for it was dry on the fleece 40 only, and there was dew on all the ground. Then Yerubba'al, 7 who is Gid'on, and all the people that were with him, rose up early, and camped beside 'En-ḥarod: so that the host of Midyan was on the north side of them, by the hill of More, in the valley. And the LORD said to Gid'on, The people that are 2 with thee are too many for me to give Midyan into their hands; lest Yisra'el vaunt themselves against me, saying, my own hand has saved me. Now therefore, proclaim in the ears of 3 the people, saying, Whoever is fearful and afraid, let him return and depart early from mount Gil'ad. And there returned of the people twenty two thousand; and ten thousand remained.

And the LORD said to Gid'on, The people are yet too 4 many; bring them down to the water, and I will sift them for thee there: and it shall be, that of whom I say to thee, This shall go with thee, that one shall go with thee; and of whomever I say to thee, This shall not go with thee, that one shall not go. So he brought the people down to the water: and the 5 LORD said to Gid'on, Every one that laps of the water with his tongue, as a dog laps, him shalt thou set by himself; likewise every one that bows down upon his knees to drink. And the 6 number of them that lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, were three hundred men: but all the rest of the people bowed down upon their knees to drink water. And the LORD said to 7 Gid'on, By the three hundred men that lapped will I save you, and deliver Midyan into thy hand: and let all the other people go every man to his place. So the people took provisions in 8 their hands, and their shofarot: and he sent all the rest of Yisra'el, every man to his tent, and retained those three hundred men: and the host of Midyan was beneath him in the valley.

And it was on the same night, that the LORD said to him, 9 Arise, go down to the camp; for I have delivered it into thy hand. But if thou fear to go down, go thou with Pura thy boy 10 down to the camp: and thou shalt hear what they say; and 11 afterwards shall thy hands be strengthened to go down unto the host. Then went he down with Pura his boy to the fringe of the armed men that were in the camp. Now Midyan and 12
'Amaleq and all the children of the east lay along in the valley like locusts for multitude; and their camels were without number, as the sand by the sea side for multitude. And when 13 Gid'on was come, behold, there was a man that told a dream to his fellow, and said, Behold, I dreamed a dream, and, lo, a slice of barely bread was rolling through the camp of Midyan, and it came to a tent, and smote it so that it fell, and overturned it, so that the tent tumbled down. And his fellow 14 answered and said, This is nothing else but the sword of Gid'on the son of Yo'ash, a man of Yisra'el: for into his hand has GOD delivered Midyan, and all the camp. And it was, 15 when Gid'on heard the telling of the dream, and its interpretation, that he bowed himself down to the ground, and returned to the camp of Yisra'el and said, Arise; for the LORD has delivered into your hand the host of Midyan. And he divided the 16 three hundred men into three companies, and he put a shofar in every man's hand, with empty jars, and torches within the jars. And he said to them, Whatever you see me do, do likewise: and, behold, I am going to the edge of the camp, and it 17 shall be, whatever I do, so shall you do. When I blow on the 18 shofar, I and all that are with me, then you blow your shofarot also on every side of all the camp, and say, The sword of the LORD, and of Gid'on. So Gid'on, and the hundred men that 19 were with him, came to the edge of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch; and they had newly posted the sentinels: and they blew with the shofarot, and broke the jars that were in their hands. Then the three companies blew on the shofa- 20 rot, and broke the jars, and held the torches in their left hands, and the shofarot in their right hands to blow on them: and they cried, The sword of the LORD, and of Gid'on. And 21 they stood every man in his place round about the camp: and all the camp ran, and cried, and fled. And the three hundred 22 blew the horns, and the LORD set every man's sword against his fellow, throughout all the camp: and the host fled to Bet-hashshitta in Ẓerera, and to the border of Avel-meḥola, at Tabbat. And the men of Yisra'el mustered together out of 23 Naftali and out of Asher, and out of all Menashshe, and pursued after Midyan. And Gid'on sent messengers throughout 24 all mount Efrayim, saying, Come down against Midyan, and seize before them the waters as far as Bet-bara and the Yarden. Then all the men of Efrayim were mustered, and took the waters as far as Bet-bara and the Yarden. And they took two 25 princes of Midyan, 'Orev and Ze'ev; and they slew 'Orev on the rock 'Orev, and Ze'ev they slew at the winepress of Ze'ev, and pursued Midyan, and brought the heads of 'Orev and Ze'ev to Gid'on on the other side of the Yarden. And the men 8 of Efrayim said to him, What hast thou done to us, that thou didst not call us, when thou didst go to fight with Midyan? And they quarrelled with him sharply. And he said to them, 2 What have I done now in comparison with you? Are not the gleanings of Efrayim better than the vintage of Avi-'ezer? GOD 3 has delivered into your hands the princes of Midyan, 'Orev and Ze'ev: and what was I able to do in comparison with you? Then their anger was abated toward him, when he had said that. And Gid'on came to the Yarden, and passed over, he, 4 and the three hundred men that were with him, faint, yet pursuing them. And he said to the men of Sukkot, Give, I pray 5 you, loaves of bread to the people that follow me; for they are faint, and I am pursuing after Zevaḥ and Ẓalmunna, kings of Midyan. And the princes of Sukkot said, Are the hands of 6

Zevaḥ and Ẓalmunna now in thy hand, that we should give bread to thy army? And Gid'on said, Therefore when the LORD 7 has delivered Ẓevaḥ and Ẓalmunna into my hand, then I will tear your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with briers. And he went up from there to Penu'el, and spoke to 8 them likewise: and the men of Penu'el answered him as the men of Sukkot had answered him. And he spoke also to the 9 men of Penu'el, saying, When I come again in peace, I will break down this tower. Now Zevaḥ and Ẓalmunna were in 10 Qarqor, and their hosts with them, about fifteen thousand men, all that were left of all the camp of the children of the east: for there fell a hundred and twenty thousand men that drew sword.
And Gid'on went up by the way of the tent dwellers, on the 11 east of Novaḥ and Yogbeha, and smote the camp: for the camp thought itself secure. And when Zevaḥ and Ẓalmunna fled, he 12 pursued after them, and took the two kings of Midyan, Zevaḥ and Ẓalmunna, and the whole camp was panic stricken. And 13 Gid'on the son of Yo'ash returned from the battle from the ascent of Ḥeres, and caught a young man of the men of Suk- 14 kot, and inquired of him: and he wrote down for him the princes of Sukkot, and its elders seventy seven men. And he came 15 to the men of Sukkot, and said, Behold Zevaḥ and Ẓalmunna, with whom you taunted me, saying, Are the hands of Zevaḥ and Ẓalmunna now in thy hand, that we should give bread to thy men that are weary? And he took the elders of the city, 16 and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and with them he chastised the men of Sukkot. And he beat down the tower 17 of Penu'el, and slew the men of the city. Then said he to 18 Zevaḥ and Ẓalmunna, where are the men whom you slew at Tavor? And they answered, As thou art, so were they, the same; in shape like the sons of a king. And he said, They were 19 my brothers, the sons of my mother: as the LORD lives, if you had saved them alive, I would not slay you. And he said to 20 Yeter his firstborn, Up, and slay them. But the youth did not draw his sword: for he feared, because he was still a lad. Then 21 Zevaḥ and Ẓalmunna said, Rise thou, and fall upon us: for as the man is, so is his strength. And Gid'on arose, and slew Zevaḥ and Ẓalmunna, and took away the crescents that were on their camels' necks. Then the men of Yisra'el said to 22 Gid'on, Rule thou over us, both thou, and thy son, and thy son's son also: for thou hast delivered us from the hand of Midyan. And Gid'on said to them, I will not rule over you, 23 neither shall my son rule over you: the LORD shall rule over you.
And Gid'on said to them, I would make a request of you, that 24 you would give me every man the earrings of his spoil. (For they had golden earrings, because they were Yishme'elim.)
And they answered, We will willingly give them. And they 25 spread a garment, and did cast on it every man the earrings of his spoil. And the weight of the golden earrings that he requested 26 was one thousand seven hundred shekels of gold: besides the crescents, and the eardrops, and the purple garments that were on the kings of Midyan, and besides the chains that were about their camels' necks. And Gid'on made an efod of this, 27 and put it in his city, even in 'Ofra: and all Yisra'el went astray there after it: which thing became a snare to Gid'on, and to his house. Thus was Midyan subdued before the child- 28 ren of Yisra'el, so that they lifted up their heads no more. And the country was in quietness for forty years in the days of Gid'on. And Yerubba'al the son of Yo'ash went and dwelt 29 in his own house. And Gid'on had seventy sons begotten of his 30 body: for he had many wives. And his concubine that was in 31 Shekhem, she also bore him a son, whose name he called Avimelekh. And Gid'on the son of Yo'ash died in a good old 32 age, and was buried in the tomb of Yo'ash his father, in 'Ofra of the Avi-'ezri. And it came to pass, as soon as Gid'on 33 was dead, that the children of Yisra'el turned again, and went astray after the Ba'alim, and made Ba'al-berit their god. And 34 the children of Yisra'el did not remember the LORD their GOD, who had delivered them out of the hands of all their enemies on every side: neither did they show kindness to the house of 35 Yerubba'al, namely, Gid'on, according to all the goodness which he had shown to Yisra'el. And Avimelekh the son of 9 Yerubba'al went to Shekhem to his mother's brethren, and spoke to them, and to all the family of the house of his mother's father, saying, Speak, I pray you, in the ears of all the men of Shekhem, 2 Which is better for you, that all the sons of Yerubba'al, who are seventy persons, reign over you, or that one should reign over you? remember also that I am your bone and your flesh.

And his mother's brethren spoke of him in the ears of all the 3 men of Shekhem all these words: and their hearts inclined to follow Avimelekh; for they said, He is our brother. And they 4 gave him seventy pieces of silver out of the house of Ba'alberit, with which Avimelekh hired vain and reckless persons, who followed him. And he went to his father's house at 'Ofra, 5 and slew his brothers, the sons of Yerubba'al, seventy persons, upon one stone: yet Yotam the youngest son of Yerubba'al was left; for he hid himself. And all the men of Shekhem 6 gathered together, and all the house of Millo, and went, and made Avimelekh king, by the oak of the pillar that was in Shekhem. And when they told it to Yotam, he went and stood at 7 the top of mount Gerizzim, and lifted up his voice, and cried, and said to them, Hearken to me, men of Shekhem, that GOD may hearken to you. The trees went out to anoint a king over 8 them; and they said to the olive tree, Reign over us. But the 9 olive tree said to them, Should I leave my fatness, with which by me they honour GOD and man, and go to hold sway over the trees? And the trees said to the fig tree, Come thou, and 10 reign over us. But the fig tree said to them, Should I forsake 11 my sweetness, and my good fruit, and go to hold sway over the trees? Then said the trees to the vine, Come thou, and reign 12 over us. And the vine said to them, Should I leave my wine, 13 which cheers GOD and man, and go to hold sway over the trees? Then said all the trees to the bramble, Come thou, and 14 reign over us. And the bramble said to the trees, If in truth you 15 anoint me king over you, then come and put your trust in my shadow: and if not, fire will issue from the bramble, and devour the cedars of Levanon. Now therefore, if you have done 16 truly and sincerely, in making Avimelekh king, and if you have dealt well with Yerubba'al and his house, and have done to him according to the deserving of his hands; (for my father 17 fought for you, and adventured his life, and delivered you out of the hand of Midyan: and you have risen up against my 18 father's house this day, and have slain his sons, seventy men, upon one stone, and have made Avimelekh, the son of his maidservant, king over the men of Shekhem, because he is your brother ;) if you then have dealt truly and sincerely with Yerub- 19 ba'al and with his house this day, then rejoice in Avimelekh, and let him also rejoice in you : but if not, fire will come out 20 from Avimelekh, and devour the men of Shekhem, and the house of Millo; and fire will come out from the men of Shekhem, and from the house of Millo, and devour Avimelekh. And 21 Yotam ran away, and fled, and went to Be'er, and dwelt there, for fear of Avimelekh his brother. When Avimelekh had reign- 22 ed three years over Yisra'el, then GOD sent an evil spirit between 23 Avimelekh and the men of Shekhem; and the men of Shekhem dealt treacherously with Avimelekh: that the violence done 24 to the seventy sons of Yerubba'al might come, and their blood be laid upon Avimelekh their brother, who slew them; and upon the men of Shekhem, who had aided him in the killing of his brothers. And the men of Shekhem set liers in wait for him on 25 the tops of the mountains, and they robbed all that passed them on the highway : and it was told Avimelekh. And Ga'al 26 the son of 'Eved came with his brethren, and passed through Shekhem: and the men of Shekhem put their confidence in him.

And they went out into the fields, and gathered their vineyards, 27 and trod the grapes, and made merry, and went into the house of their god, and ate and drank, and cursed Avimelekh. And 28 Ga'al the son of 'Eved said, Who is Avimelekh, and who is Shekhem, that we should serve him? is not he the son of Yerubba'al? and Zevul his officer? serve rather the men of Ḥamor the father of Shekhem: for why should we serve him? And 29 would that this people were under my hand! then would I remove Avimelekh. And he said to Avimelekh, Increase thy army, and come out. And when Zevul the ruler of the city 30 heard the words of Ga'al the son of 'Eved, his anger burned.
And he sent messengers to Avimelekh privately, saying, Be- 31 hold, Ga'al the son of 'Eved and his brethren have come to Shekhem ; and they are fortifying the city against thee. Now 32 therefore, rise up by night, thou and the people that is with thee, and lie in wait in the field: and it shall be, that in the 33 morning, as soon as the sun is up, thou shalt rise early, and set upon the city: and, behold, when he and the people that are with him come out against thee, then mayst thou do to them as thou shalt find occasion. And Avimelekh rose up, and all 34 the people that were with him, by night, and they laid wait against Shekhem in four companies. And Ga'al the son of 'Eved 35 went out, and stood in the entrance of the city gate: and Avimelekh rose up, and the people that were with him, from the ambush. And when Ga'al saw the people, he said to Zevul, 36

Behold, there come people down from the tops of the mountains. And Zevul said to him, Thou seest the shadow of the mountains as if they were men. And Ga'al spoke again and said, 37
See there come people down from the knoll of the land, and another company come along by the oak of Me'onenim. Then 38
Zevul said to him, Where is now thy mouth, with which thou didst say, Who is Avimelekh, that we should serve him? is not this the people that thou hast despised? go out, I pray now, and fight with them. And Ga'al went out before the men of 39 Shekhem, and fought with Avimelekh. And Avimelekh chased 40 him, and he fled before him, and many were overthrown, and wounded, right up to the entrance of the gate. And Avimelekh 41 dwelt at Aruma: and Zevul thrust out Ga'al and his brothers, that they should not dwell in Shekhem. And it came to 42 pass on the morrow, that the people went out into the field; and they told Avimelekh. And he took the people, and divided 43 them into three companies, and laid wait in the field, and looked, and, behold, the people were coming out of the city; and he rose up against them, and smote them. And Avimelekh, and the 44 company that was with him, rushed forward, and stood in the entrance of the city gate: and the two other companies ran upon all the people that were in the fields, and slew them. And 45 Avimelekh fought against the city, all that day, and he took the city, and slew the people that were in it, and pulled down the city, and sowed it with salt. And when all the men of the 46 tower of Shekhem heard that, they entered the stronghold of Bet-el-berit. And it was told Avimelekh, that all the men of the 47 tower of Shekhem were gathered together. And Avimelekh 48 went up to mount Ẓalmon, he and all the people that were with him; and Avimelekh took an ax in his hand, and cut down a bough from the trees, and took it, and laid it on his shoulder, and said to the people that were with him, What you have seen me do, make haste, and do as I have done. And all the people 49 likewise cut down every man a bough, and followed Avimelekh, and put them to the stronghold, and set the hold on fire upon them; so that all the men of the tower of Shekhem died also, about a thousand men and women. Then Avimelekh 50 went to Tevez, and encamped against Tevez, and took it. But there 51 was a strong tower within the city, and all the men and women, and all they of the city fled there, and shut themselves in, and went up to the top of the tower. And Avimelekh came to the 52 tower, and fought against it, and approached right up to the door of the tower to burn it with fire. And a woman cast an upper 53 millstone upon Avimelekh's head, and crushed his skull. Then he 54 called hastily to the lad, his armourbearer, and said to him, Draw thy sword, and slay me, so that men should not say of me, A woman slew him. And his lad pierced him, and he died. And 55 when the men of Yisra'el saw that Avimelekh was dead, they departed every man to his place. Thus God made reparation 56 for the wickedness of Avimelekh, which he did to his father, in slaying his seventy brothers: and all the evil of the men 57 of Shekhem did God requite upon their heads: and upon them came the curse of Yotam the son of Yerubba'al. And 10 after Avimelekh there arose to defend Yisra'el Tola the son of Pu'a, the son of Dodo, a man of Yissakhar, and he dwelt in Shamir in mount Efrayim. And he judged Yisra'el twenty three 2 years, and died, and was buried in Shamir. And after 3 him arose Ya'ir, the Gil'adi, and judged Yisra'el twenty two years. And he had thirty sons that rode on thirty ass colts, and 4 they had thirty cities, which are called Ḥavvot-ya'ir to this day, which are in the land of Gil'ad. And Ya'ir died, and was 5 buried in Qamon.

And the children of Yisra'el continued to do evil in the sight 6 of the LORD, and served the Ba'alim, and the 'Ashtarot, and the gods of Aram, and the gods of Ẓidon, and the gods of Mo'av, and the gods of the children of 'Ammon, and the gods of the Pelishtim, and forsook the LORD, and served him not. And the 7 anger of the LORD burned against Yisra'el, and he sold them into the hands of the Pelishtim, and into the hands of the children of 'Ammon. And that year they afflicted and oppressed the 8 children of Yisra'el: and thus for eighteen years, all the children of Yisra'el that were on the other side of the Yarden in the land of the Emori, which is in Gil'ad. Moreover the children of 9
'Ammon passed over the Yarden to fight also against Yehuda, and against Binyamin, and against the house of Efrayim; so that Yisra'el was sorely distressed. And the children of Yisra'el 10 cried to the LORD, saying We have sinned against thee, because we have forsaken our GOD, and have served the Ba'alim. And the LORD said to the children of Yisra'el, Did 11 not I deliver you from Miẓrayim, and from the Emori, from the children of 'Ammon, and from Pelishtim? The Ẓidonim also, 12 and 'Amaleq and Ma'on, did oppress you; and you cried to me, and I delivered you out of their hand. Yet you have forsaken 13 me, and served other gods: therefore I will deliver you no more. Go and cry to the gods which you have chosen; let 14 them deliver you in the time of your trouble. And the children 15 of Yisra'el said to the LORD, We have sinned: do to us whatever seems good to thee; only deliver us, we pray thee, this day. And they put away the foreign gods from among them, and 16 served the LORD: and his soul was grieved for the misery of Yisra'el. Then the children of 'Ammon mustered together, 17 and encamped in Gil'ad. And the children of Yisra'el assembled themselves together, and encamped in Miẓpe. And the people 18 and princes of Gil'ad said to one another, What man is he that will begin to fight against the children of 'Ammon? he shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gil'ad. Now Yiftaḥ the 11 Gil'adite was a mighty man of valour, and he was the son of a harlot: and Gil'ad begot Yiftaḥ. And Gil'ad's wife bore him 2 sons; and his wife's sons grew up, and they drove out Yiftaḥ, and said to him, Thou shalt not inherit in our father's house; for thou art the son of a strange woman. Then Yiftaḥ fled from 3 his brothers, and dwelt in the land of Tov: and idle fellows joined themselves to Yiftaḥ, and went out with him. And 4 it came to pass in the course of time, that the children of 'Ammon made war against Yisra'el. And when the children of 5
'Ammon made war against Yisra'el, the elders of Gil'ad went to fetch Yiftaḥ out of the land of Tov: and they said to Yiftaḥ, 6 Come, and be our captain, that we may fight with the children of 'Ammon. And Yiftaḥ said to the elders of Gil'ad, Did you not 7 hate me, and expel me out of my father's house? and why have you come to me now when you are in distress? And the elders 8 of Gil'ad said to Yiftaḥ, Therefore we turn again to thee now, that thou mayst go with us, and fight against the children of 'Ammon, and be our head over all the inhabitants of Gil'ad.

And Yiftaḥ said to the elders of Gil'ad, If you bring me back 9 home to fight against the children of 'Ammon, and the LORD deliver them before me, shall I be your head? And the elders 10 of Gil'ad said to Yiftaḥ, The LORD is witness between us, if we do not so according to thy words. Then Yiftaḥ went with the 11 elders of Gil'ad, and the people made him head and captain over them: and Yiftaḥ uttered all his words before the LORD in Miẓpe. And Yiftaḥ sent messengers to the king of the 12 children of 'Ammon, saying, What hast thou to do with me, that thou art come against me to fight in my land? And the king 13 of the children of 'Ammon answered the messengers of Yiftaḥ, Because Yisra'el took away my land, when they came up out of Miẓrayim, from Arnon as far as the Yabboq, and the Yarden:
now therefore restore those lands again peaceably. And Yiftaḥ 14 sent messengers again to the king of the children of 'Ammon:
and said to him, Thus says Yiftaḥ, Yisra'el did not take away 15 the land of Mo'av, nor the land of the children of 'Ammon:
but when Yisra'el came up from Miẓrayim, and walked through 16 the wilderness to the Sea of Suf, and came to Qadesh; then Yis- 17 ra'el sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, Let me, I pray thee, pass through thy land: but the king of Edom would not hearken. And in like manner they sent to the king of Mo'av:
but he would not consent: and so Yisra'el remained in Qadesh.
Then they went along through the wilderness, and went round 18 the land of Edom, and the land of Mo'av, and came by the east side of the land of Mo'av, and camped on the other side of Arnon, but came not within the border of Mo'av: for Arnon was the border of Mo'av. And Yisra'el sent messengers to Siḥon king 19 of the Emori, the king of Ḥeshbon; and Yisra'el said to him, Let us pass, we pray thee, through thy land to my place. But Siḥon 20 did not trust Yisra'el to pass through his border: but Siḥon gathered all his people together, and pitched in Yahaẓ and fought against Yisra'el. And the LORD GOD of Yisra'el delivered 21 Siḥon and all his people into the hand of Yisra'el, and they smote them: so Yisra'el possessed all the land of the Emori, the inhabitants of that country. And they possessed all the border of 22 the Emori from Arnon even as far as Yabboq, and from the wilderness as far as the Yarden. So now the LORD GOD of Yis- 23 ra'el has driven out the Emori from before his people Yisra'el, and shouldst thou possess their land? Wilt not thou possess 24 that which Kemosh thy god gives thee to possess? So likewise that which the LORD our GOD has voided before us, that shall we possess. And now art thou at all better than Balaq the son of 25 Ẓippor, king of Mo'av? did he ever strive against Yisra'el, or did he ever fight against them, while Yisra'el dwelt in Ḥeshbon 26 and its hamlets, and in 'Ar'or and its hamlets, and in all the cities that are along by the shores of Arnon, for three hundred years? why did you not recover them within that time? But I 27 have not sinned against thee, but thou doest me wrong to war against me: the LORD the Judge be judge this day between the children of Yisra'el and the children of 'Ammon. Howbeit the 28 king of the children of 'Ammon did not hearken to the words of Yiftaḥ which he sent him. Then the spirit of the LORD 29 came upon Yiftaḥ and he passed over Gil'ad, and Menashshe, and passed over Mizpe of Gil'ad, and from Mizpe of Gil'ad he passed over to the children of 'Ammon. And Yiftaḥ vowed 30 a vow to the LORD, and said, If thou shalt deliver the children of 'Ammon into my hands, then whatever comes out of the doors 31 of my house to meet me, when I return in peace from the children of 'Ammon, shall surely be the LORD's, and I will offer it up for a burnt offering.

So Yiftaḥ passed over to the children of 'Ammon to fight against 32 them: and the LORD delivered them into his hands. And he smote 33 them from 'Aro'er, as far as Minnit, twenty cities, and as far as Avel-keramim, with a very great slaughter. Thus the children of 'Ammon were subdued before the children of Yisra'el. And 34 Yiftaḥ came to Mizpe to his house, and, behold, his daughter came out to meet him with timbrels and with dances: and she was his only child; beside her he had neither son nor daughter. And it came to pass, when he saw her, that he rent 35 his clothes, and said, Alas, my daughter! thou hast brought me very low, and thou hast become the cause of trouble to me: for I have opened my mouth to the LORD, and I cannot go back. And she said to him, My father, if thou hast opened thy mouth 36 to the LORD, do to me according to that which has proceeded out of thy mouth; seeing that the LORD has taken vengeance for thee of thy enemies, of the children of 'Ammon. And she said 37 to her father, Let this thing be done for me: let me alone two months, that I may go and wander down the mountain sides, and bewail my virginity, I and my friends. And he said, Go. 38
And he sent her away for two months: and she went with her companions, and wept for her virginity upon the mountains. And it came to pass at the end of two months, that she re- 39 turned to her father, who did with her according to his vow which he had vowed: and she knew no man. And it was a custom in Yisra'el, that the daughters of Yisra'el went yearly 40 to lament the daughter of Yiftaḥ, the Gil'adite four days in the year.

And the men of Efrayim were mustered, and crossed 12 to Ẓafon, and said to Yiftaḥ, Why didst thou pass over to fight against the children of 'Ammon, and didst not call us to go with thee? we will burn thy house upon thee with fire. And 2 Yiftaḥ said to them, I and my people were at great strife with the children of 'Ammon; and when I called you, you delivered me not out of their hands. And when I saw that you delivered 3 me not, I took my life in my hands, and passed over against the children of 'Ammon; and the LORD delivered them into my hand: why then are you come up to me this day to fight against me? Then Yiftaḥ gathered together all the men of Gil'ad and 4 fought Efrayim, for they had said, You of Gil'ad are outcasts of Efrayim amongst Efrayim and amongst Menashshe. And Gil'ad 5 seized the passages of the Yarden before Efrayim: and it was so, that when the fugitives of Efrayim would say, let me cross; that the men of Gil'ad would say to him, Art thou an Efratite?

If he said, No; then they said to him, say now Shibbolet: and 6 he said Sibbolet: for he could not frame to pronounce it right.
Then they took him, and slew him at the fords of the Yarden: and there fell at that time of Efrayim forty two thousand. And 7 Yiftaḥ judged Yisra'el for six years. Then Yiftaḥ the Gil'adite died, and was buried in one of the cities of Gil'ad. And 8 after him Ivẓan of Bet-leḥem judged Yisra'el. And he had thirty 9 sons, and thirty daughters, whom he sent abroad, and took in thirty daughters from abroad for his sons. And he judged Yisra'el for seven years. Then died Ivẓan, and was buried at Bet- 10 leḥem. And after him Elon, a Zevulonite, judged Yisra'el, 11 and he judged Yisra'el for ten years. And Elon the Zevulonite died, 12 and was buried in Ayyalon in the country of Zevulun. And 13 after him 'Avdon the son of Hillel, a Pir'atonite, judged Yisra'el.
And he had forty sons and thirty grandsons, that rode on seventy 14 ass colts: and he judged Yisra'el for eight years. And 'Avdon 15 the son of Hillel the Pir'atonite died, and was buried in Pir'aton in the land of Efrayim, in the mount of the 'Amaleqi. And 13 the children of Yisra'el continued to do evil in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD delivered them into the hand of the Pelishtim for forty years. And there was a certain man of 2 Ẓor'a, of the family of the Dani, whose name was Manoaḥ; and his wife was barren, and bore not. And the angel of the LORD 3 appeared to the woman, and said to her, Behold now, thou art barren, and bearest not: but thou shalt conceive, and bear a son.
Now therefore beware, I pray thee, and drink neither wine nor 4 strong drink, and eat no unclean thing: for, lo, thou shalt con- 5 ceive, and bear a son; and no razor shall come on his head: for the child shall be a Nazir to GOD from the womb: and he shall begin to deliver Yisra'el out of the hand of the Pelishtim. Then 6 the woman came and told her husband, saying, A man of GOD came to me, and his appearance was like the appearance of an angel of GOD, very terrible: but I asked him not from where he was, neither did he tell me his name: but he said to me, Behold, 7 thou shalt conceive, and bear a son; and now drink no wine nor strong drink, neither eat any unclean thing: for the child shall be a Nazir to GOD from the womb to the day of his death.
Then Manoaḥ entreated the LORD, and said, O my LORD, let the 8 man of GOD whom thou didst send come again to us, and teach us what we shall do to the child that shall be born. And GOD 9 hearkened to the voice of Manoaḥ; and the angel of GOD came again to the woman as she sat in the field: but Manoaḥ her husband was not with her. And the woman made haste, and 10 ran, and told her husband, and said to him, Behold, the man has appeared to me, that came to me the other day. And Manoaḥ 11 arose, and went after his wife, and came to the man, and said to him, Art thou the man that didst speak to the woman? And 12 he said, I am. And Manoaḥ said, Now let thy words come to pass. What shall be the rule for the child, and what shall be done with him? And the angel of the LORD said to Manoaḥ, Of 13 all that I said to the woman let her take heed. She may not 14 eat of anything that comes of the vine, neither let her drink wine or strong drink, nor eat any unclean thing: all that I commanded her let her observe. And Manoaḥ said to the angel of 15 the LORD, I pray thee, let us detain thee, until we shall have made ready a kid for thee. And the angel of the LORD said to 16 Manoaḥ, Though thou detain me, I will not eat of thy bread: and if thou wilt offer a burnt offering, thou must offer it to the LORD. For Manoaḥ knew not that he was an angel of the LORD.

And Manoaḥ said to the angel of the LORD, What is thy name, 17 that when thy sayings come to pass we may do thee honour?
And the angel of the LORD said to him, Why askest thou thus 18 after my name, seeing it is hidden? So Manoaḥ took the kid 19 with the meal offering, and offered it upon the rock to the LORD: and the angel did wondrously, and Manoaḥ and his wife looked on. For it came to pass, when the flame went up toward 20 heaven from off the altar, that the angel of the LORD ascended in the flame of the altar. And Manoaḥ and his wife looked on it, and fell on their faces to the ground. But the angel of the 21 LORD appeared no more to Manoaḥ and to his wife. Then Manoaḥ knew that he was an angel of the LORD. And Manoaḥ said 22 to his wife, We shall surely die, because we have seen GOD.
But his wife said to him, If the LORD desired to kill us, he would 23 not have received a burnt offering and a meal offering at our hands, neither would he have shown us all these things, nor would as at this have told us such things as these. And the 24 woman bore a son, and called his name Shimshon: and the child grew, and the LORD blessed him. And the spirit of the LORD be- 25 gan to move him in Maḥane-dan between Ẓor'a and Eshta'ol.

14 And Shimshon went down to Timnat, and saw a woman in Timnat of the daughters of the Pelishtim. And he came up, and 2 told his father and his mother, and said, I have seen a woman in Timnat of the daughters of the Pelishtim: now therefore get her for me to wife. Then his father and his mother said to him, Is 3 there no woman among the daughters of thy brethren, or among all my people, that thou goest to take a wife of the uncircumcised Pelishtim? And Shimshon said to his father, Get her for me; for she pleases me well. But his father and his 4 mother knew not that it was of the LORD, that he sought a pretext against the Pelishtim: for at that time the Pelishtim had dominion over Yisra'el. Then Shimshon went down, and his 5 father and his mother, to Timnat, and came to the vineyards of Timnat: and, behold, a young lion roared against him. And the 6 spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and he tore him as he would have torn a kid, and he had nothing in his hand: but he told not his father or his mother what he had done. And 7 he went down, and talked with the woman; and she pleased Shimshon well. And after a time he returned to take her, and 8 he turned aside to see the carcass of the lion: and, behold, there was a swarm of bees and honey in the carcass of the lion. And 9 he scraped it out in his hands, and went on his way, eating, and came to his father and mother, and he gave them, and they did eat: but he told them not that he had taken the honey out of the carcass of the lion. So his father went down to the 10 woman: and Shimshon made there a feast; for so used the young men to do. And it came to pass, when they saw him, that 11 they brought thirty companions to be with him. And Shimshon 12 said to them, I will now propound a riddle to you: if you can declare it me within the seven days of the feast, and find it out, then I will give you thirty sheets and thirty changes of garments: but if you cannot declare it me, then you shall give me 13 thirty sheets and thirty changes of garments. And they said to him, Propound thy riddle, that we may hear it. And he said to 14 them, Out of the eater came forth food, and out of the strong came forth sweetness. And they could not in three days expound the riddle. And it came to pass on the seventh day, that 15 they said to Shimshon's wife, Entice thy husband, that he may declare to us the riddle, lest we burn thee and thy father's house with fire: have you called us to take possession of our goods? And Shimshon's wife wept before him, and said, Thou 16 dost but hate me, and lovest me not: thou hast propounded a riddle to the children of my people, and hast not told it me.

And he said to her, Behold, I have not told it my father nor my mother and shall I tell it thee? And she wept before him 17 the seven days, while their feast lasted: and it came to pass on the seventh day, that he told her, because she harassed him: and she told the riddle to the children of her people. And the 18 men of the city said to him on the seventh day before the sun went down, What is sweeter than honey? and what is stronger than a lion? And he said to them, If you had not ploughed with my heifer, you would not have found out my riddle. And the 19 spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he went down to Ash-qelon, and slew thirty men of them, and took their clothing, and gave the changes of garments to them who had expounded the riddle. And his anger burned, and he went up to his father's house. But Shimshon's wife was given to his companion, whom 20 he had as his friend. But it came to pass after a 15 while, in the time of wheat harvest, that Shimshon visited his wife with a kid; and he said, I will go in to my wife into the chamber. But her father would not permit him to go in. And 2 her father said, I thought indeed that thou didst hate her; therefore I gave her to thy companion: is not her younger sister fairer than she? take her, I pray thee, instead of her. And 3 Shimshon said concerning them, Now shall I be blameless in regard to the Pelishtim, when I do them a mischief. And Shim- 4 shon went and caught three hundred foxes, and took torches, and turned tail to tail, and put a torch in the midst between two tails. And when he had set the torches on fire, he let them go 5 into the standing corn of the Pelishtim, and burnt up both the shocks, and also the standing corn, together with the olive-yards. Then the Pelishtim said, Who has done this? And they 6 answered, Shimshon, the son in law of the Timni, because he had taken his wife, and given her to his companion. And the Pelishtim went up, and burnt her and her father with fire. And 7 Shimshon said to them, If this is what you have done, I will be avenged on you, and after that I will cease. And he smote them 8 hip and thigh with a great slaughter: and he went down and dwelt in the cleft of the rock 'Etam. Then the Pelishtim 9 went up, and pitched in Yehuda, and ranged themselves against Leḥi. And the men of Yehuda said, Why are you come up 10 against us? And they answered, To bind Shimshon are we come up, to do to him as he has done to us. Then three thousand 11 men of Yehuda went to the cleft of the rock 'Etam, and said to Shimshon, Knowst thou not that the Pelishtim are rulers over us? what is this that thou hast done to us? And he said to them, As they did to me, so have I done to them. And they 12 said to him, We have come down to bind thee, that we may deliver thee into the hand of the Pelishtim. And Shimshon said to them, Swear to me, that you will not fall upon me yourselves.

And they spoke to him, saying, No; but we will bind thee fast, 13 and deliver thee into their hand: but surely we will not kill thee. And they bound him with two new cords, and brought him up from the rock. And when he came to Leḥi, the Pelish- 14 tim shouted against him: and the spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him: and the cords that were upon his arms became as flax that was burnt with fire, and his bands melted from off his hands. And he found a new jawbone of an ass, 15 and put out his hand, and took it, and slew a thousand men with it. And Shimshon said, With the jawbone of an ass, heaps 16 upon heaps; with the jaw of an ass have I slain a thousand men. And it came to pass, when he had made an end of 17 speaking, that he cast away the jawbone out of his hand, and called that place Ramat-leḥi. And he was very thirsty, and 18 called on the LORD, and said, Thou hast given this great deliverance into the hand of thy servant: and now shall I die of thirst, and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised? But GOD split the 19 hollow place that was in Leḥi, and water came out; and when he had drunk, his spirit was restored, and he revived: therefore he called the name of it 'En-haqqore, which is in Leḥi to this day. And he judged Yisra'el in the days of the Pelishtim for 20 twenty years. Then Shimshon went to 'Azza, and saw there a 16 harlot, and went in to her. And it was told the 'Azzatim, saying, 2 Shimshon has come here. And they surrounded him, and laid wait for him all night in the gate of the city, and were quiet all the night, saying, In the morning, when it is day, we shall kill him. And Shimshon lay till midnight, and arose at midnight, and 3 took the doors of the gate of the city, and the two posts, and went away with them, bar and all, and put them upon his shoulders, and carried them up to the top of the hill that is before Ḥevron. And it came to pass afterwards, that he loved 4 a woman in the wadi of Soreq, whose name was Delila. And 5 the lords of the Pelishtim came up to her, and said to her, Entice him, and see in what his great strength lies, and by what means we may prevail against him, that we may bind him and torture him: and we will give thee every one of us eleven hundred pieces of silver. And Delila said to Shimshon, Tell me, 6

I pray thee, in what thy great strength lies, and with what thou mightest be bound and tortured. And Shimshon said to 7 her, If they bind me with seven fresh bowstrings that were never dried, then shall I be weak, and be as another man. Then the lords of the Pelishtim brought up to her seven fresh 8 bowstrings which had not been dried, and she bound him with them. Now there were men lying in wait, abiding with her in 9 the chamber. And she said to him, The Pelishtim are upon thee, Shimshon. And he broke the bowstrings, as a thread of tow is broken when it touches the fire. So his strength was not known.
And Delila said to Shimshon, Behold, thou hast mocked me, 10 and told me lies: now tell me, I pray thee, with what thou mightest be bound. And he said to her, If they bind me fast 11 with new ropes that have never been used for work, then shall I be weak, and be as another man. Delila therefore took 12 new ropes, and bound him with them, and said to him, The Pelishtim are upon thee, Shimshon. And there were liers in wait abiding in the chamber. And he broke them from off his arms like string. And Delila said to Shimshon, Hitherto thou hast 13 mocked me, and told me lies: tell me with what thou mightest be bound. And he said to her, If thou weavest the seven locks of my head with the web of the loom. And she fastened it with 14 the pin, and said to him, The Pelishtim are upon thee, Shimshon. And he awoke out of his sleep, and went away with the pin of the loom, and with the web. And she said to him, How 15 canst thou say, I love thee, when thy heart is not with me? thou hast mocked me these three times, and hast not told me in what thy great strength lies. And it came to pass, when she 16 harassed him daily with her words, and urged him, so that he was sick to death; that he told her all his heart, and said to 17 her, There has not come a razor upon my head; for I have been a Nazir to GOD from my mother's womb: if I am shaved, then my strength will go from me, and I shall become weak, and be like any other man. And when Delila saw that he had 18 told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Pelishtim, saying, Come up this once, for he has shown me all his heart. Then the lords of the Pelishtim came up to her, and brought money in their hand. And she made him sleep upon 19 her knees; and she called for a man, and she caused him to shave off the seven locks of his head; and she began to torment him, and his strength went from him. And she said, The Pe- 20 lishtim are upon thee, Shimshon. And he awoke out of his sleep, and said, I will go out as at other times before, and shake myself. And he knew not that the LORD was departed from him.
But the Pelishtim took him, and bored out his eyes, and 21 brought him down to 'Azza, and bound him with fetters of brass, and he ground at the mill in the prison house. But the 22 hair of his head began to grow again after he was shaved.

Then the lords of the Pelishtim gathered together to offer a 23 great sacrifice to Dagon their god, and to rejoice: for they said, Our god has delivered Shimshon our enemy into our hand. And when the people saw him, they praised their god: 24 for they said, Our god has delivered into our hands our enemy, and the destroyer of our country, and one who slew many of us. And it came to pass, when their hearts were merry, 25 that they said, Call for Shimshon, that he may make sport for us. And they called for Shimshon out of the prison house; and he made sport for them: and they set him between the pillars. And Shimshon said to the lad that held him by the 26 hand, Leave me alone, and let me feel the pillars on which the house is fixed, that I may lean upon them. Now the house was 27 full of men and women; and all the lords of the Pelishtim were there; and there were upon the roof about three thousand men and women, that beheld while Shimshon made sport. And 28 Shimshon called to the LORD, and said, O LORD GOD, remember me, I pray thee, and strengthen me, I pray thee, only this once, O GOD, that I may be avenged on the Pelishtim for one of my two eyes. And Shimshon took hold of the two central 29 pillars upon which the house stood, and he supported himself on them, on the one with his right hand, and on the other with his left. And Shimshon said, Let me die with the Pelish- 30

tim. And he bowed with all his might; and the house fell upon the lords, and upon all the people that were in it. So the dead whom he slew at his death were more than those whom he slew in his life. Then his brethren and all the house of his 31 father came down, and took him, and brought him up, and buried him between Ẓor'a and Eshta'ol in the buryingplace of Manoaḥ his father. And he judged Yisra'el for twenty years.

17 And there was a man of mount Efrayim, whose name was Mikhayehu. And he said to his mother, The eleven hundred 2 shekels of silver that were taken from thee, about which thou didst pronounce a curse, uttering it also in my ears, behold, the silver is with me; I took it. And his mother said, Blessed be thou of the LORD, my son. And when he had restored the 3 eleven hundred shekels of silver to his mother, his mother said, I had wholly dedicated the silver to the LORD from my hand for my son, to make a carved and a molten idol: now therefore I will restore it to thee. And when he had given back 4 the money to his mother, his mother took two hundred shekels of silver, and gave them to the founder, who made of it a carved and a molten idol: and they were in the house of Mikhayehu. And the man Mikha had a shrine, and made an 5 efod, and terafim, and consecrated one of his sons, who became his priest. In those days there was no king in Yisra'el, 6 but every man did that which was right in his own eyes.

And there was a young man out of Bet-leḥem-yehuda of the 7 family of Yehuda, who was a Levite, and he sojourned there.
And the man departed out of the city, from Bet-leḥem-yehuda 8 to sojourn where he could find a place: and he came to mount Efrayim to the house of Mikha, as he journeyed. And Mikha 9 said to him, from where hast thou come? And he said to him, I am a Levite of Bet-leḥem-yehuda, and I go to sojourn where I may find a place. And Mikha said to him, Dwell with me, 10 and be to me a father and a priest, and I will give thee ten shekels of silver by the year, and a suit of apparel, and thy sustenance. So the Levite went in. And the Levite was content to dwell with the man; and the young man was to him like one of his sons. And Mikha appointed the Levite; and the young man became his priest, and was in the house of Mikha. Then Mikha said, Now I know that the LORD will do me good, seeing that I have a Levite for a priest. In those days there was no king in Yisra'el: and in those days the tribe of the Dani sought for itself an inheritance to dwell in; for to that day a due inheritance had not fallen to their share among the tribes of Yisra'el. And the children of Dan sent of their family five men from their chieftains, men of valour, from Zor'a, and from Eshta'ol, to spy out the land, and to search it; and they said to them, Go, search the land: who when they came to mount Efrayim, to the house of Mikha, they lodged there. When they were by the house of Mikha, they knew the voice of the young man the Levite: and they turned aside there, and said to him, Who brought thee here? and what doest thou in this place? and what hast thou here? And he said to them, Thus and thus has Mikha done for me, and has hired me, and I am his priest. And they said to him, Ask counsel, we pray thee, of GOD, that we may know whether our way which we go shall be prosperous. And the priest said to them, Go in peace: the way you go is before the LORD. Then the five men departed, and came to Layish, and saw the people that were there, how they dwelt in safety, after the manner of the Zidonim, quiet and secure; and there was no one in the land that put them to shame in any thing; such as a hereditary ruler, and they were far from the Zidonim, and had no business with any man. And they came to their brethren to Zor'a and Eshta'ol: and their brethren said to them, What say you? And they said, Arise, that we may go up against them: for we have seen the land, and, behold, it is very good: and are you idle? be not slothful to go, and to enter and possess the land. When you go, you shall come to an unsuspecting people, and to a broad land: for GOD has given it into your hands; a place where there is no want of any thing that is in the earth. And from there went out of the family of the Dani, out of Zor'a and out of Eshta'ol, six hundred men girded with weapons of war. And they went up, and pitched in Qiryat-ye'arim, in Yehuda: therefore they called that place Mahane-dan to this day: behold, it is behind Qiryat-ye'arim. And they passed from there to mount Efrayim, and came to the house of Mikha. Then answered the five men that went to spy out the country of Layish, and said to their brethren, Do you know that there is in these houses an efod, and terafim, and a carved and a molten idol? now therefore consider what you have to do. And they turned aside there, and came to the house of the young man the Levite, to the house of Mikha, and greeted him. And the six hundred men girded with their weapons of war, who were of the children of Dan, stood by the entrance of the gate. And the five men that went to spy out the land went up, and came in there, and took the carved idol, and the efod, and the terafim, and the molten image: and the priest stood in the entrance of the gate with the six hundred men girded with weapons of war. And these went to Mikha's 18 house, and fetched the carving, the efod, and the terafim, and the molten image. Then said the priest to them, What are you doing? And they said to him, Hold thy peace, lay thy 19 hand upon thy mouth, and go with us, and be to us a father and a priest: is it better for thee to be a priest to the house of one man, or that thou be a priest to a whole tribe and a family in Yisra'el? And the priest's heart was glad, and he 20 took the efod, and the terafim, and the carved idol, and went in the midst of the people. So they turned and departed, and 21 put the little ones and the cattle and the goods before them. And when they were a good way from the house of Mikha, 22 the men that were in the houses near to Mikha's house mustered and overtook the children of Dan. And they cried to the 23 children of Dan. And they turned their faces, and said to Mikha, What ails thee, that thou comest with such a company? And he said, you have taken away my gods which I 24 made, and the priest, and you have gone away: and what have I more? and how then do you say to me, What ails thee? And 25 the children of Dan said to him, Do not raise thy voice among us, lest angry fellows run upon thee, and thou lose thy life, with the lives of thy household. And the children of Dan 26 went their way: and when Mikha saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back to his house. And 27 they took the things which Mikha had made, and the priest which he had, and came upon Layish, upon a quiet and unsuspecting people: and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and burnt the city with fire. And there was no deli- 28 verer, because it was far from Ẓidon, and they had no business with any man; and it was in the valley that lies by Betreḥov. And they built a city, and dwelt in it. And they called 29 the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan their father, who was born to Yisra'el: but the name of the city at first was Layish. And the children of Dan set up the carving: and 30 Yehonatan, the son of Gershom, the son of Menashshe, he and his sons were priests to the tribe of Dan until the day of the captivity of the land. And they set up for themselves Mikha's 31 carving, which he had made, all the time that the house of God was in Shilo. And it came to pass in those days, when 19 there was no king in Yisra'el that there was a certain Levite sojourning on the far side of mount Efrayim, who took to him a concubine out of Bet-leḥem-yehuda. And his concubine was 2 faithless to him, and went away from him to her father's house to Bet-leḥem-yehuda, and was there four whole months. And her husband arose, and went after her, to speak kindly 3 to her, and to bring her back, having his servant with him, and a couple of asses: and she brought him into her father's house: and when the father of the girl saw him, he rejoiced to meet him. And his father in law, the girl's father, detained 4 him; and he abode with him three days: so they did eat and drink, and lodged there. And it came to pass on the fourth 5 day, that they arose early in the morning, and he rose up to depart: and the girl's father said to his son in law, Refresh thy heart with a morsel of bread, and afterwards go your way. And they sat down, and did eat and drink both of them 6 together: for the girl's father had said to the man, Be content, I pray thee, and tarry all night, and let thy heart be merry.

And when the man rose up to depart, his father in law urged 7 him: therefore he lodged there again. And he arose early in 8 the morning on the fifth day to depart: and the girl's father said, Refresh thy heart, I pray thee, and delay until the afternoon, and they did eat both of them. And when the man rose 9 up to depart, he, and his concubine, and his servant, his father in law, the girl's father, said to him, Behold, now the day draws towards evening, I pray you stay the night: behold the day comes to an end; stay here the night, and thy heart may be merry; and tomorrow get you early on your way, that thou mayst go home. But the man would not tarry that night, but 10 he rose up and departed, and came over against Yevus, which is Yerushalayim; and there were with him two asses saddled; his concubine also was with him. And when they were by 11 Yevus, the day was far spent; and the servant said to his master, Come, I pray thee, and let us turn in into this city of the Yevusi, and we will spend the night here. But his master 12 said to him, We will not turn aside here into the city of a stranger, that is not of the children of Yisra'el; we will pass over to Giv'a. And he said to his servant, Come, and let us 13 draw near to one of these places to lodge all night, in Giv'a, or in Rama. And they passed on and went their way; and the 14 sun went down upon them when they were by Giv'a, which belongs to Binyamin. And they turned aside there to go in 15 and to lodge in Giv'a: and when he went in, he sat down in the open place of the city: for there was no man that took them into his house to lodge the night. And, behold, there 16 came an old man from his work out of the field at evening, who was also of mount Efrayim; and he sojourned in Giv'a: but the men of the place were Beneyamini. And he lifted up 17 his eyes, and saw a traveller in the open place of the city: and the old man said, Where dost thou go, and where hast thou come from? And he said to him, We are passing from 18 Bet-leḥem-yehuda and on to the far side of mount Efrayim;
I am from there: and I went to Bet-leḥem-yehuda, but I am now going to the house of the LORD; and there is no man that receives me in his house. Yet there is both straw and proven- 19 der for our asses; and there is bread and wine also for me, and for thy handmaid, and for the young man who is with thy servants: there is no want of any thing. And the old man 20 said, Peace be with thee; only let all thy wants lie upon me; but lodge not in the street. So he brought him into his house, 21 and gave fodder to the asses: and they washed their feet, and did eat and drink. Now as they were gladdening their hearts, 22 behold, the men of the city, worthless men, beset the house round about, and beat at the door, and spoke to the master of the house, the old man, saying, Bring out the man that came into thy house, that we may have our desire of him.

And the man, the master of the house, went out to them, and 23 said to them, No, my brethren, no, I pray you, do not so wickedly; seeing that this man is come into my house, do not carry out this vileness. Behold, here is my daughter a virgin, 24 and his concubine; them I will bring out now; ravish them, and do with them what seems good to you: but to this man do not so vile a thing. But the men would not hearken to him: 25 so the man seized his concubine, and brought her out to them; and they had their desire of her, and abused her all the night until the morning: and when the day began to spring, they let her go. Then came the woman in the dawning of the day, 26 and fell down at the door of the man's house where her lord was, till it was light. And her lord rose up in the morning, 27 and opened the doors of the house, and went out to go his way: and, behold, the woman his concubine was fallen down at the door of the house, and her hands were upon the threshold. And he said to her, Up, and let us be going. But there 28 was no answer. Then the man took her up upon an ass, and the man rose up, and went to his place. And when he was 29 come to his house, he took a knife, and laid hold of his concubine, and divided her, together with her bones, into twelve pieces, and sent her into the whole territory of Yisra'el. And 30 it was so, that all that saw it said, No such deed has been done or seen from the day that the children of Yisra'el came up out of the land of Miẓrayim to this day: consider of it, take counsel, and speak your minds. Then all the children of 20 Yisra'el went out, and the congregation assembled as one man, from Dan to Be'er-sheva, with the land of Gil'ad, to the LORD in Miẓpe. And the chief of all the people, even of all the 2 tribes of Yisra'el, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of GOD, four hundred thousand footmen that drew sword. (Now the children of Binyamin heard that the 3 children of Yisra'el were gone up to Miẓpe.) Then said the children of Yisra'el, Tell us, how was this wickedness? And the 4 Levite, the husband of the woman that was slain, answered and said, I came into Giv'a that belongs to Binyamin, I and my concubine, to spend the night. And the men of Giv'a rose against 5 me, and beset the house round about upon me by night, intending to have slain me: and my concubine they forced, and she died. And I took my concubine, and cut her in pieces, 6 and sent her throughout all the country of the inheritance of Yisra'el: for they have committed wantonness and vileness in Yisra'el. Behold, you are all children of Yisra'el; give here 7 your advice and counsel. And all the people arose as one man, 8 saying, We will not any of us go to his tent, neither will we any of us turn aside to his house. But now this shall be the 9 thing which we will do to Giv'a; we will go up by lot against it; and we will take ten men of a hundred throughout all 10 the tribes of Yisra'el, and a hundred of a thousand, and a thousand out of ten thousand, to fetch provisions for the people, that they may do, when they come to Giv'a of Binyamin, for all the vileness that they have done in Yisra'el. So all the men 11 of Yisra'el were gathered against the city, as one united company.

And the tribes of Yisra'el sent men through all the 12 tribe of Binyamin, saying, What wickedness is this that is done among you? Now therefore deliver us the worthless men, who 13 are in Giv'a that we may put them to death, and put away evil from Yisra'el. But the children of Binyamin would not hearken to the voice of their brothers the children of Yisra'el:
but the children of Binyamin gathered themselves together 14 out of the cities to Giv'a, to go out to battle against the children of Yisra'el. And the children of Binyamin numbered at 15 that time out of the cities twenty six thousand men that drew sword, besides the inhabitants of Giv'a, who numbered seven hundred chosen men. Among all this people there were seven 16 hundred chosen men lefthanded; every one could sling stones at a hair, and not miss.
And the men of Yisra'el, beside 17 Binyamin, numbered four hundred thousand men that drew sword: all these were men of war. And the children of Yis- 18 ra'el arose, and went up to the house of GOD, and asked counsel of GOD, and said, which of us shall go up first to the battle against the children of Binyamin? And the LORD said, Yehuda shall go up first. And the children of Yisra'el 19 rose up in the morning, and encamped against Giv'a. And 20 the men of Yisra'el went out to battle against Binyamin; and the men of Yisra'el put themselves in array to fight against them at Giv'a. And the children of Binyamin came out 21 of Giv'a, and laid low that day twenty two thousand men of Yisra'el. And the people the men of Yisra'el rallied, and set 22 their battle again in array in the place where they put themselves in array the first day. (And the children of Yisra'el 23 went up and wept before the LORD until evening, and asked counsel of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up again to battle against the children of Binyamin my brother? And the LORD said, Go up against him.)
And the children of Yisra'el 24 came near against the children of Binyamin the second day. And 25 Binyamin went out against them from Giv'a on the second day, and laid low of the children of Yisra'el another eighteen thousand men; all these drawing the sword. Then all the chil- 26 dren of Yisra'el, and all the people, went up, and came to the house of GOD, and wept, and sat there before the LORD, and fasted that day until evening, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD. And the children of Yisra'el 27 inquired of the LORD, (for the ark of the covenant of GOD was there in those days, And Pinehas, the son of El'azar, the son of 28 Aharon, stood before it in those days,) saying, Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of Binyamin my brother, or shall I cease? And the LORD said, Go up; for tomorrow I will deliver them into thy hand. And Yisra'el set men in 29 ambush round about Giv'a.
And the children of Yisra'el 30 went up against the children of Binyamin on the third day, and put themselves in array against Giv'a, as at other times.
And the children of Binyamin went out against the people, 31 and were drawn away from the city; and they began to smite of the people, and kill, as on the other occasions, in the highways, of which one goes up to Bet-el, and the other to Giv'a in the field, killing about thirty men of Yisra'el. And 32 the children of Binyamin said, They are beaten before us, as at the first. But the children of Yisra'el said, Let us flee, and draw them from the city onto the highways. And all the 33 men of Yisra'el rose up out of their place, and put themselves in array at Ba'al-tamar: and the liers in wait of Yisra'el rushed out of their places, out of Ma'are-geva. And there came against 34 Giv'a ten thousand chosen men out of all Yisra'el, and the battle was hard: but they knew not that disaster was close upon them. And the LORD smote Binyamin before 35 Yisra'el: and the children of Yisra'el destroyed of Binyamin that day twenty five thousand one hundred men: all these drew the sword. So the children of Binyamin saw that they 36 were beaten: for the men of Yisra'el gave place to Binyamin, because they trusted to the liers in wait which they had set beside Giv'a. And the liers in wait hastened, and rushed 37 upon Giv'a; and the liers in wait moved out, and smote all the city with the edge of the sword. Now there was an appointed 38 sign between the men of Yisra'el and the liers in wait, that they should make a great column of smoke rise up out of the city. And when the men of Yisra'el retired in the battle, 39 and Binyamin began to smite and kill the men of Yisra'el about thirty persons: (for they said, Surely they are beaten before us, as in the first battle) then the beacon began to arise 40 up out of the city, a pillar of smoke, and Binyamin looked behind them and behold, the whole city was going up to heaven in flames. And when the men of Yisra'el turned again, 41 the men of Binyamin were amazed: for they saw that disaster was come upon them. Therefore they turned their backs be- 42 fore the men of Yisra'el in the direction of the wilderness; but the battle overtook them; and those who came out of the cities destroyed them in the midst of them. Thus they en- 43 closed Binyamin round about, and chased them, and trod them down with ease over against Giv'a toward the sunrising. And 44 there fell of Binyamin eighteen thousand men; all these were men of valour. And they turned and fled toward the wilderness 45 to the rock Rimmon: and they gleaned of them in the highways five thousand men; and pursued hard after them as far as Gid'om, and slew two thousand men of them. So that all 46 who fell that day of Binyamin were twenty five thousand men that drew the sword; all these were men of valour. But six 47 hundred men turned and fled to the wilderness to the rock Rimmon, and abode in the rock Rimmon for four months. And 48 the men of Yisra'el turned back upon the children of Binyamin, and smote them with the edge of the sword, both the men of every city, and beasts, and all that came to hand: also they set on fire all the cities that they came to. Now the men 21 of Yisra'el had sworn in Mizpe, saying, None of us shall give his daughter to Binyamin to wife. And the people came to 2 the house of GOD, and abode there till evening before GOD, and lifted up their voices, and wept very bitterly; and said, O 3 LORD GOD of Yisra'el, why is this come to pass in Yisra'el that there should be to-day one tribe lacking in Yisra'el? And it 4 came to pass on the morrow, that the people rose early, and built there an altar, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. And the children of Yisra'el said, Who is there among 5 all the tribes of Yisra'el that came not up with the congregation to the LORD? For they had made a great oath concerning him that came not up to the LORD to Mizpe, saying, He shall surely be put to death. And the children of Yisra'el relented 6 on account of Binyamin their brother, and said, There is one tribe cut off from Yisra'el this day. How shall we do for wives 7 for them that remain, seeing we have sworn by the LORD that we will not give them of our daughters to wives? And they 8 said, Which one is there of the tribes of Yisra'el that came not up to Mizpe to the LORD? And, behold, there came none to the camp from Yavesh-gil'ad to the assembly. For the peo- 9 ple were numbered, and, behold, there were none of the inhabitants of Yavesh-gil'ad there. And the congregation sent 10 there twelve thousand men of the valiantest, and commanded them, saying, Go and smite the inhabitants of Yavesh-gil'ad with the edge of the sword, with the women and the children.

And this is the thing that you shall do, you shall utterly des- 11 troy every male, and every woman that has lain with a man.
And they found among the inhabitants of Yavesh-gil'ad four 12 hundred young virgins, that had known no man carnally: and they brought them to the camp to Shilo, which is in the land of Kena'an. And the whole congregation sent some to 13 speak to the children of Binyamin that were in the rock Rim-mon, and to call peaceably to them. And Binyamin returned at 14 that time; and they gave them the wives whom they had saved alive of the women of Yavesh-gil'ad: and yet they sufficed them not. And the people felt regret for Binyamin, because the 15 LORD had made a breach in the tribes of Yisra'el. Then the 16 elders of the congregation said, What shall we do for wives for them that remain, seeing the women are destroyed out of Binyamin? And they said, There must be an inheritance for 17 them that are escaped of Binyamin, that a tribe be not destroyed out of Yisra'el. Yet we may not give them wives of 18 our daughters: for the children of Yisra'el have sworn, saying, Cursed be he that gives a wife to Binyamin. Then they said, 19 Behold, there is a yearly feast of the LORD in Shilo which is on the north side of Bet-el, on the east side of the highway that goes up from Bet-el to Shekhem, and on the south of Levona. Therefore they commanded the children of Binyamin, 20 saying, Go and lie in wait in the vineyards; and see, and, be- 21 hold, if the daughters of Shilo come out to dance in the dances, then come out of the vineyards, and catch you every man his wife of the daughters of Shilo, and go to the land of Binyamin.
And it shall be, if their fathers or their brethren come to us 22 to complain, that we will say to them, Be favourable to them, for our sakes: because we took not a wife for every man in the war: nor did you give them to them willingly at this time, that you should be guilty. And the children of Binyamin 23 did so, and took them wives, according to their number, of that time, every man to his tribe and to his family, and they went out from there every man to his inheritance. In those 25 days there was no king in Yisra'el: every man did that which was right in his own eyes.

Now there was a certain man of Ramatayim-ẓofim, in mount Efrayim, and his name was Elqana, the son of Yeroḥam, the son of Elihu the son of Toḥu, the son of Ẓuf, an Efratite : and he had two wives ; the name of the one was Ḥanna, and the name of the other Peninna : and Peninna had children, but Ḥanna had no children. And this man went up out of his city year by year to worship and to sacrifice to the LORD of hosts in Shilo. And the two sons of 'Eli, Ḥofni and Pineḥas, the priests of the LORD, were there. And when the time was that Elqana offered, he gave portions to Peninna his wife, and to all her sons and her daughters : but to Ḥanna he gave a worthy portion ; for he loved Ḥanna : but the LORD had shut up her womb. And her rival also provoked her sore, to make her fret, because the LORD had shut up her womb. And as he did so year by year, when she went up to the house of the LORD, so she provoked her; therefore she wept, and did not eat. Then Elqana her husband said to her, Ḥanna, why dost thou weep? and why dost thou not eat? and why is thy heart grieved? am I not better to thee than ten sons? So Ḥanna rose up after they had eaten in Shilo, and after they had drunk. Now 'Eli the priest sat upon a seat by the gate post of the temple of the LORD. And she was in bitterness of soul, and prayed to the LORD, and wept bitterly. And she vowed a vow, and said, O LORD of hosts, if thou wilt indeed look on the affliction of thy handmaid, and remember me, and not forget thy handmaid, but wilt give to thy handmaid a man child, then I will give him to the LORD all the days of his life, and no razor shall come upon his head. And it came to pass, as she continued praying before the LORD, that 'Eli marked her mouth. Now Ḥanna spoke in her heart; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard: therefore 'Eli thought she was drunk. And 'Eli said to her, How long wilt thou be drunken ? put away thy wine from thee. And Ḥanna answered and said, No, my lord, I am a woman of a sorrowful spirit: I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but have poured out my soul before the LORD. Take not thy handmaid for a worthless woman: for out of the greatness of my complaint and grief have I been speaking. Then 'Eli answered and said, Go in peace: and the GOD of Yisra'el grant thee thy petition which thou hast asked of him. And she said, Let thy handmaid find favour in thy sight. So the woman went her way, and did eat, and her countenance was no more sad. And they rose up in the morning early, and worshipped before the LORD, and returned, and came to their house to Rama: and Elqana had intimacy with Ḥanna his wife; and the LORD remembered her. And in due course, Ḥanna conceived and bore a son, and she called his name Shemu'el, Because I have asked him of the LORD. And the man Elqana, and all his house, went up to offer to the LORD his yearly sacrifice, and vow. But Ḥanna did not go up; for she said to her husband, I will not go up until the child is weaned, and then I will bring him, that he may appear before the LORD, and there abide for ever. And Elqana her husband said to her, Do what seems good in thy eyes ; tarry until thou hast weaned him ; only may the LORD establish his word. So the woman remained and nursed her son until she weaned him. And when she had 24 weaned him, she took him up with her, with three bullocks, and one efa of flour, and a bottle of wine, and brought him to the house of the LORD in Shilo: and the child was young.

And they slew a bullock, and brought the child to 'Eli. And she 25,26 said, O my lord, as thy soul lives, my lord, I am the woman that stood by thee here, praying to the LORD. For this child 27 I prayed; and the LORD has given me my petition which I asked of him: therefore also I have presented him to the LORD; 28 as long as he lives he shall be devoted to the LORD. And he bowed down to the LORD there. 2 And Ḥanna prayed, and said, My heart rejoices in the LORD, my horn is exalted in the LORD: my mouth is enlarged over my enemies; because I rejoice in thy salvation. There is none holy as the LORD: for 2 there is none beside thee: neither is there any rock like our GOD. Talk no more so very proudly; let not arrogancy come 3 out of your mouth: for the LORD is a GOD of knowledge, and by him actions are weighed The bows of the mighty men are 4 broken, and they that stumbled are girded with strength. They 5 that were full have hired out themselves for bread; and they that were hungry have ceased: while the barren has born seven; and she that has many children has become wretched.
The LORD kills, and gives life: he brings down to the grave, 6 and brings up. The LORD makes poor, and makes rich: he 7 brings low, and raises up. He raises up the poor out of the 8 dust, and lifts up the beggar from the dunghill, to set them among princes, and to make them inherit the throne of glory: for the pillars of the earth are the LORD's, and he has set the world upon them. He will keep the feet of his pious ones, 9 and the wicked shall be silent in darkness; for it is not by strength that man prevails. The adversaries of the LORD shall 10 be broken in pieces; out of heaven shall he thunder upon them:
the LORD shall judge the ends of the earth; and he shall give strength to his king, and exalt the horn of his anointed.
And Elqana went to Rama to his house. And the child did min- 11 ister to the LORD before 'Eli the priest. Now the sons of 'Eli 12 were worthless men; they knew not the LORD. And the priest's 13 custom with the people was, that, when any man offered sacrifice, the priest's lad came, while the meat was cooking, with a fork having three teeth in his hand; and he struck it into 14 the pan, or kettle, or cauldron, or pot; all that the fork brought up the priest took for himself. So they did in Shilo to all the people of Yisra'el who came there. Also before they burnt the 15 fat, the priest's lad came, and said to the man that sacrificed, Give some roasting meat for the priest; for he will not have boiled meat of thee, but raw. And if any man said to him, 16 Let them first burn the fat, and then take as much as thy soul desires; then he would answer him, No; but thou shalt give it me now: and if not, I will take it by force. Wherefore the sin 17 of the lads was very great before the LORD: for the men dis-honoured the offering of the LORD. But Shemu'el ministered 18 before the LORD, being a child, girded with a linen efod. More- 19 over his mother made him a little coat, and brought it to him from year to year, when she came up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice. And 'Eli blessed Elqana and his wife, 20 and said, The LORD give thee seed of this woman, in place of the loan which he lent to the LORD. And they went to their own home. And the LORD visited Ḥanna, so that she conceived, 21 and bore three sons and two daughters. And the child Shemu'el grew before the LORD. Now 'Eli was very old, and heard 22 all that his sons did to all Yisra'el; and how they lay with the women that assembled at the door of the Tent of Meeting. And he said to them, Why do you do such things? for I hear 23 of your evil dealings by all this people. No, my sons; for it is 24 not a good report that I hear: you make the LORD's people to transgress. If one man sin against another, the judge judges 25 him: but if a man sin against the LORD, who shall intercede for him? But they did not hearken to the voice of their father, because the LORD was minded to slay them. And the child 26 Shemu'el grew on, and was in favour both with the LORD, and also with men.

And there came a man of GOD to 'Eli and said to him, Thus 27 says the LORD, Did I not appear to the house of thy father, when they were in Miẓrayim in the house of Par'o? And 28 did I choose him out of all the tribes of Yisra'el to be my priest, to offer upon my altar, to burn incense, to wear an efod before me? and did I give to the house of thy father all the offerings made by fire of the children of Yisra'el? Where- 29 fore do you kick at my sacrifice and at my offering, which I have commanded in my habitation; and honourest thy sons above me, to make yourselves fat with the chiefest of all the offerings of Yisra'el my people? Wherefore the LORD GOD of 30 Yisra'el says, I said indeed that thy house, and the house of thy father, should walk before me forever; but now the LORD says, Far be it from me; for them that honour me I will honour, and they that despise me shall be lightly esteemed. 31
Behold, the days come, that I will cut off thy arm, and the arm of thy father's house, that there shall not be an old man in thy house. And thou shalt see a rival in thy habitation, 32 enjoying all wealth which GOD shall give Yisra'el: and there shall not be an old man in thy house forever. And thy descen- 33 dants shall I not cut off from my altar, but they shall be there to consume thy eyes, and to grieve thy heart: and all the greater folk of thy house shall die in the flower of their age. And this shall be a sign to thee, that shall come 34 upon thy two sons, on Ḥofni and Pineḥas; in one day they shall die both of them. And I will raise me up a faithful priest, 35 that shall do according to that which is in my heart and in my mind: and I will build him a sure house; and he shall walk before my anointed forever. And it shall come to pass, 36 that everyone that is left in thy house shall come and crouch to him for a piece of silver and a loaf of bread, and shall say, Put me, I pray thee, into one of the priests' offices, that I may eat a piece of bread. And the child Shemu'el 3 ministered to the LORD before 'Eli. And the word of the LORD was precious in those days; there was no frequent vision. And 2 it came to pass at that time, when 'Eli was laid down in his place, and his eyes had begun to grow dim, that he could not see; and the lamp of GOD had not yet gone out in the temple 3 of the LORD, where the ark of GOD was, and Shemu'el was laid down to sleep; that the LORD called Shemu'el: and he 4 answered, Here I am And he ran to 'Eli, and said, Here I am; 5 for thou didst call me. And he said, I called not; lie down again. And he went and lay down. And the LORD called yet 6 again, Shemu'el. And Shemu'el arose and went to 'Eli, and said, Here I am; for thou didst call me. And he answered, I called not, my son; lie down again. Now Shemu'el did not yet 7 know the LORD, neither was the word of the LORD yet revealed to him. And the LORD called Shemu'el again the third 8 time. And he arose and went to 'Eli, and said, Here I am; for thou didst call me. And 'Eli understood that the LORD had called the child. Therefore 'Eli said to Shemu'el, Go, lie down: 9 and it shall be, if he calls thee, that thou shalt say, Speak, LORD; for thy servant is listening. So Shemu'el went and lay down in his place. And the LORD came, and stood, and called as on the 10 previous occasions, Shemu'el, Shemu'el. Then Shemu'el answered, Speak; for thy servant is listening. And the LORD said 11 to Shemu'el, Behold, I will do a thing in Yisra'el, at which both the ears of every one that hears it shall tingle. In that day 12

I will perform against 'Eli all things which I have spoken concerning his house from beginning to end. For I have told him 13 that I will judge his house for ever, for the iniquity, seeing that he knew that his sons were blaspheming, and he restrained them not. And therefore I have sworn to the house of 'Eli, 14 that the iniquity of 'Eli's house shall not be purged with sacrifice nor offering forever. And Shemu'el lay until the morn- 15 ing, and opened the doors of the house of the LORD. And Shemu'el feared to show 'Eli the vision. Then 'Eli called 16 Shemu'el, and said, Shemu'el my son, And he answered, Here am I. And he said, What is the thing that the LORD said to 17 thee? I pray thee hide it not from me: GOD do so to thee, and more also, if thou hide any thing from me of all the things that he said to thee. And Shemu'el told him everything, and 18 hid nothing from him. And he said, It is the LORD: let him do what seems good in his eyes. And Shemu'el grew, 19 and the LORD was with him, and did let none of his words fall to the ground. And all Yisra'el from Dan to Be'er-sheva 20 knew that Shemu'el was accredited as a prophet of the LORD.

And the LORD appeared again in Shilo: for the LORD 21 revealed himself to Shemu'el in Shilo by the word of the LORD. And the word of Shemu'el came to all Yis- 4 ra'el. Now Yisra'el went out against the Pelishtim to battle, and they pitched by Even-ha'ezer: and the Pelishtim pitched in Afeq. And the Pelishtim put themselves in battle order 2 against Yisra'el: and when they joined battle, Yisra'el was beaten before the Pelishtim: and they slew of the army in the field about four thousand men. And when the people 3 had come into the camp, the elders of Yisra'el said, Why has the LORD smitten us to day before the Pelishtim? Let us fetch the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of Shilo to us, that, when it comes among us, it may save us out of the hand of our enemies. So the people sent to Shilo, that they might 4 bring from there the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts, who sits upon the keruvim: and the two sons of 'Eli, Ḥofni and Pineḥas, were there with the ark of the covenant of GOD. And when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the 5 camp, all Yisra'el shouted with a great shout, so that the earth trembled. And when the Pelishtim heard the noise of the 6 shout, they said, What is the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews? And they understood that the ark of the LORD was come into the camp. And the Pelishtim were af- 7 raid, for they said, GOD is come into the camp. And they said, Woe to us for there has not been such a thing before now. Woe to us! who shall deliver us out of the hand of these 8 mighty gods? these are the gods that smote Miẓrayim with all the plagues in the wilderness. Strengthen yourselves and act 9 like men, O Pelishtim, lest you fall slaves to the Hebrews, as they have been slaves to you: quit yourselves like men, and fight. And the Pelishtim fought, and Yisra'el was beaten, 10 and they fled every man to his tent: and there was a very great slaughter; for there fell of Yisra'el thirty thousand foot soldiers. And the ark of GOD was taken; and the two sons of 11

'Eli, Ḥofni and Pineḥas, were slain. And there ran a man of 12 Binyamin out of the army, and came to Shilo the same day with his clothes rent, and with earth upon his head. And 13 when he came, 'Eli sat upon a seat by the wayside watching: for his heart trembled for the ark of GOD. And when the man came into the city, and told it, all the city cried out. And 14 when 'Eli heard the noise of the crying, he said, What is the noise of this multitude? And the man came in hastily, and told 'Eli. Now 'Eli was ninety eight years old; and his eyes were 15 dim, and he could not see. And the man said to 'Eli, I am he 16 that came out of the battle line: indeed I fled to day out of the battle line. And he said, What has happened, my son? And 17 the messenger answered and said, Yisra'el is fled before the Pelishtim, and there has been also a great slaughter among the people, and thy two sons also, Ḥofni and Pineḥas, are dead, and the ark of GOD is taken. And it came to pass, when 18 he made mention of the ark of GOD, that he fell from off the seat backwards by the side of the gate, and his neck was broken, and he died: for he was an old man, and heavy. And he had judged Yisra'el for forty years. And his daughter in 19 law, the wife of Pineḥas was with child, near to be delivered: and when she heard the tidings that the ark of GOD was taken, and that her father in law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself and gave birth; for her pains came upon her. And about the time of her death the women that stood by her 20 said to her, Fear not; for thou hast born a son. But she answered not, neither did she regard it. And she named the child 21
I-khavod, saying, Honour is departed from Yisra'el: because the ark of GOD was taken, and because of her father in law and her husband. And she said, Honour is departed from Yisra'el: for the ark of GOD is taken. 22

And the Pelishtim took the ark of GOD, and brought it from Even-ha'ezer to Ashdod. When the Pelishtim took the ark of GOD, they brought it into the house of Dagon, and set it by Dagon. And they of Ashdod arose early on the morrow, and behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the earth before the ark of the LORD. And they took Dagon, and set him in his place again. And they arose early on the next morning, and behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD and the head of Dagon and both the palms of his hands lay severed on the threshold; only the trunk of Dagon was left to him. Therefore neither the priests of Dagon, nor any that come into Dagon's house, tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod to this day. But the hand of the LORD was heavy upon them of Ashdod, and he destroyed them, and smote them with swellings, Ashdod and the surrounding areas. And when the men of Ashdod saw that it was so, they said, The ark of the GOD of Yisra'el shall not abide with us: for his hand is sore upon us, and upon Dagon our god. They sent therefore and gathered all the lords of the Pelishtim unto them, and said, What shall we do with the ark of the GOD of Yisra'el? And they answered, Let the ark of the GOD of Yisra'el be brought round to Gat. And they brought the ark of the GOD of Yisra'el there. And it was so, that, after they had brought it round, the hand of the LORD was against the city with a very great panic: and he smote the men of the city, both small and great, and they were inwardly struck with swellings. Therefore they sent the ark of GOD to 'Eqron. And it came to pass, as the ark of GOD came to 'Eqron, that the 'Eqronim cried out, saying, They have brought about the ark of the GOD of Yisra'el to us, to slay us and our people. So they sent and gathered together all the lords of the Pelishtim, and said, Send away the ark of the GOD of Yisra'el, and let it go back to its own place, that it slay us not, and our people: for there was a deadly panic throughout all the city; the hand of GOD was very heavy there. And the men that died not were smitten with swellings: and the cry of the city went up to heaven. 5 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12

And the ark of the LORD was in the country of the Pelishtim seven months. And the Pelishtim called for the priests and magicians, saying, What shall we do to the ark of the LORD? tell us how we shall send it to its place. And they said, If you send away the ark of the GOD of Yisra'el, send it not empty; but make sure to return him a guilt offering: then you shall be healed, and you will learn why his hand is not removed from you. Then said they, What shall be the guilt offering which we shall return to him? They answered, Five golden swellings, and five golden mice, according to the number of the lords of the Pelishtim: for one plague was on you all, and on your lords. And you shall make images of your swellings, and images of your mice that ravage the land; and you shall give honour to the GOD of Yisra'el: perhaps he will lighten his hand from off you, and from off 6 2 3 4 5 your gods, and from off your land. Why harden your hearts, 6 as Miẓrayim and Par'o hardened their hearts? after all the inflictions he wrought among them, did they not let the people go, and they departed? Now therefore make a new cart, 7 and take two milch cows, on which there has never been a yoke, and tie the cows to the cart, and leave their calves behind them at home: and take the ark of the LORD, and lay 8 it upon the cart; and put the golden devices which you are restoring to him for a guilt offering in a box by the side of it; and send it away, that it may go. And see: if it goes up by 9 the way of his border to Bet-shemesh, then he has done us this great evil: but if not, then we shall know that it is not his hand that smote us; it was a chance that happened to us.

And the men did so; and took two milch cows, and tied them 10 to the cart, and shut up their calves at home: and they laid 11 the ark of the LORD upon the cart, and the box with the mice of gold and the images of their swellings. And the cows took 12 the straight way by the road of Bet-shemesh, and went along the highway, lowing as they went, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left; and the lords of the Pelishtim went after them to the border of Bet-shemesh. And they of Bet- 13 shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley: and they lifted up their eyes, and saw the ark, and rejoiced to see it. And the cart came into the field of Yehoshua, a man of Bet- 14 shemesh, and stood there, where there was a great stone: and they split the wood of the cart, and offered the cows as a burnt offering to the LORD. And the Levites took down the 15 ark of the LORD, and the box that was with it, in which were the devices of gold, and put them on the great stone: and the men of Bet-shemesh offered burnt offerings and sacrificed sacrifices on that day to the LORD. And when the five lords of the 16 Pelishtim had seen it, they returned to 'Eqron the same day.

And these are the golden swellings which the Pelishtim re- 17 turned for a guilt offering to the LORD; for Ashdod one, for 'Aza one, for Ashqelon one, for Gat one, for 'Ekron one; and the golden mice, according to the number of all the cities 18 of the Pelishtim belonging to the five lords, both fortified cities, and open villages, as far as the great stone, on which they set down the ark of the LORD: which remains to this day in the field of Jehoshua, the Bet-Shimshite. And he smote the 19 men of Bet-shemesh, because they had looked into the ark of the LORD, smiting fifty thousand and seventy men of the people: and the people lamented, because the LORD had smitten many of the people with a great slaughter. And the men of Bet- 20 shemesh said, Who is able to stand before this holy LORD GOD? and to whom shall he go up from us? And they sent messen- 21 gers to the inhabitants of Qiryat-ye'arim, saying, The Pelishtim have brought back the ark of the LORD; come down, and fetch it up to you. And the men of Qiryat-ye'arim came, and 7 fetched up the ark of the LORD, and brought it into the house of Avinadav on the hill, and sanctified El'azar his son to keep the ark of the LORD. And it came to pass, while the ark remained in Qiryat-ye'arim that the time was long; for it was twenty years: and all the house of Yisra'el sighed after the LORD.

And Shemu'el spoke to all the house of Yisra'el, saying, If you return to the LORD with all your hearts, then put away the foreign gods and the 'Ashtarot from among you, and direct your hearts to the LORD, and serve him only: and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Pelishtim. Then the children of Yisra'el put away the Be'alim and the 'Ashtarot, and served the LORD only. And Shemu'el said, Gather all Yisra'el to Mizpa, and I will pray for you to the LORD. And they gathered together to Mizpa, and drew water, and poured it out before the LORD, and fasted on that day, and said there, We have sinned against the LORD. And Shemu'el judged the children of Yisra'el in Mizpa. And when the Pelishtim heard that the children of Yisra'el were gathered together to Mizpa the lords of the Pelishtim went up against Yisra'el. And when the children of Yisra'el heard it, they were afraid of the Pelishtim. And the children of Yisra'el said to Shemu'el, Cease not to cry to the LORD our GOD for us, that he will save us out of the hand of the Pelishtim. And Shemu'el took a sucking lamb, and offered it for a burnt offering wholly to the LORD: and Shemu'el cried to the LORD for Yisra'el; and the LORD heard him. And as Shemu'el was offering up the burnt offering, the Pelishtim drew near to battle against Yisra'el: but the LORD thundered with a great thunder on that day upon the Pelishtim, and confoundcd them; and they were beaten before Yisra'el. And the men of Yisra'el went out of Mizpa and pursued the Pelishtim, and smote them, until they came under Bet-kar. Then Shemu'el took a stone, and set it between Mizpa and Shen, and called the name of it Even-ha'ezer, saying, Hitherto the LORD has helped us. So the Pelishtim were subdued, and they came no more into the territory of Yisra'el: and the hand of the LORD was against the Pelishtim all the days of Shemu'el. And the cities which the Pelishtim had taken from Yisra'el were restored to Yisra'el from 'Eqron to Gat; and their surrounding territories, did Yisra'el deliver out of the hands of the Pelishtim. And there was peace between Yisra'el and the Emori. And Shemu'el judged Yisra'el all the days of his life. And he went from year to year in circuit to Bet-el, and Gilgal, and Mizpa, and judged Yisra'el in all those places. And his return was to Rama; for there was his house; and there he judged Yisra'el; and there he built an altar to the LORD.

And it came to pass, when Shemu'el was old, that he made his sons judges over Yisra'el. Now the name of his firstborn was Yo'el, and the name of his second, Aviyya: they were judges in Be'er-sheva. And his sons walked not in his ways, but turned aside after unjust gain, and took bribes, and perverted justice. Then all the elders of Yisra'el gathered themselves together, and came to Shemu'el to Rama, and said to him, Behold, thou art old, and thy sons walk not in thy ways: now make us a king to judge us like all the nations. But the thing 6 displeased Shemu'el when they said, Give us a king to judge us. And Shemu'el prayed to the LORD. And the LORD said 7 to Shemu'el, Hearken to the voice of the people in all that they say to thee: for they have not rejected thee, but they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them. According to 8 all the deeds which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Miẓrayim, and to this day, in that they have forsaken me, and served other gods, so they also do to thee.

Now you must hearken to their voice: nevertheless you should 9 solemnly forewarn them, and relate to them the customary practice of the king that shall reign over them. And 10 Shemu'el told all the words of the LORD to the people that asked of him a king. And he said, This will be the custom of 11 the king that shall reign over you: He will take your sons, and appoint them for himself on his chariot, and to be his horsemen; and some shall run before his chariot. And he will appoint for 12 himself captains over thousands, and captains over fifties; and will set them to plough his ground, and to reap his harvest, and to make his instruments of war, and the instruments of his chariots. And he will take your daughters for perfumers, and 13 cooks, and bakers. And he will take your fields, and your vine- 14 yards, and your best oliveyards, and give them to his servants.
And he will take the tenth of your seed, and of your vineyards, 15 and give to his officers, and to his servants. And he will take 16 your menservants, and your maidservants, and your goodliest young men, and your asses, and put them to his work. He will 17 take the tenth of your sheep: and you shall be his servants.
And you shall cry out on that day because of your king which 18 you shall have chosen you; and the LORD will not hear you on that day. Nevertheless the people refused to obey the voice of 19 Shemu'el; and they said, No: but we will have a king over us; that we also may be like all the nations; and that our king 20 may judge us, and go out before us, and fight our battles. And 21 Shemu'el heard all the words of the people, and he spoke them in the ears of the LORD. And the LORD said to Shemu'el, 22 Listen to their voice, and make them a king. And Shemu'el said to the men of Yisra'el, Go every man to his city. Now 9 there was a man of Binyamin, whose name was Qish, the son of Avi'el, the son of Ẕeror, the son of Bekhorat, the son of Afiaḥ, a (Bin) yemini, a mighty man of valour. And he had a son, 2 whose name was Sha'ul, a choice young man, and handsome: and there was not among the children of Yisra'el a goodlier person than he: from his shoulders and upwards he was taller than any of the people. And the asses of Qish Sha'ul's father 3 were lost. And Qish said to Sha'ul his son, Take now one of the servants with thee, and arise, go seek the asses. And he passed 4 through mount Efrayim, and passed through the land of Sha-lisha, but they found them not: then they passed through the land of Sha'alim, and they were not there: and he passed through the land of the (Bin) yemini, but they did not find them.
And when they were come to the land of Ẕuf, Sha'ul said to his 5 lad that was with him, Come, and let us return; lest my father leave caring for the asses, and become anxious about us. And 6 he said to him, Behold now, there is in this city a man of GOD, and he is an honourable man; all that he says is sure to come about: now let us go there; perhaps he can show us our way that we should go. Then said Sha'ul to his servant, But, behold, 7 if we go, what shall we bring the man? for the bread is spent in our vessels, and there is not a present to bring to the man of GOD: what have we? And the servant answered Sha'ul again, 8 and said, Behold, there is in my hand the fourth part of a shekel of silver: that will I give to the man of GOD, to tell us our way. (Beforetime in Yisra'el, when a man went to inquire 9 of GOD, thus he spoke, Come, and let us go to the seer: for he that is now called a prophet was beforetime called the seer.)

Then said Sha'ul to his servant, Well said; come, let us go. 10
So they went to the city where the man of GOD was. And as 11 they went up the hill to the city, they found some girls going out to draw water, and they said to them, Is the seer here? And 12 they answered them, and said, He is, ; behold, he is before you: make haste now, for he came today to the city; for the people are making a sacrifice today in the high place: as you come into 13 the city, you shall find him, before he goes up to the high place to eat: for the people will not eat until he comes, because he blesses the sacrifice; and afterwards those that are invited eat Now therefore go up; for about this time you shall find him. And 14 they went up into the city: and when they were come into the city, behold, Shemu'el came out towards them, to go up to the high place. Now the LORD had revealed to Shemu'el 15 a day before Sha'ul came, saying, To morrow about this time 16
I will send thee a man out of the land of Binyamin, and thou shalt anoint him to be a prince over my people Yisra'el, that he may save my people out of the hand of the Pelishtim: for I have looked upon my people, because their cry is come to me. And when Shemu'el saw Sha'ul, the LORD said to him, 17 Behold the man of whom I spoke to thee! this one shall reign over my people. Then Sha'ul drew near to Shemu'el in the gate, 18 and said, Tell me, I pray thee, where the seer's house is. And 19 Shemu'el answered Sha'ul, and said, I am the seer: go up before me to the high place; for you shall eat with me today, and to morrow I will let thee go, and will tell thee all that is in thy heart. And as for thy asses that were lost three days ago, 20 set not thy mind on them; for they are found. And on whom is all the desire of Yisra'el? Is it not on thee, and on all thy father's house And Sha'ul answered and said, Am not I a 21 Ben-yemini, of the smallest of the tribes of Yisra'el? and my family the least of all the families of the tribe of Binyamin?
Why then dost thou speak so to me? And Shemu'el took 22 Sha'ul and his servant, and brought them into the dining chamber, and made them sit in the chiefest place among those that were invited, who were about thirty persons. And Shemu'el said 23 to the cook, Bring the portion which I gave thee, of which I said to thee, Set it aside by thee. And the cook took up the shoulder, 24 and that which was upon it, and set it before Sha'ul. And (Shemu'l) said, Behold that which is left is set before thee; when I said, I have invited the people. So Sha'ul did eat with Shemu'el that day. And when they were come down from the 25 high place into the city, Shemu'el spoke with Sha'ul upon the top of the house. And they arose early: and it came to pass at 26 about daybreak, that Shemu'el called Sha'ul to the top of the house, saying, Up, that I may send thee away. And Sha'ul arose, and they went out both of them, he and Shemu'el out of doors.

And as they were going down to the end of the city, Shemu'el 27 said to Sha'ul, Bid the servant pass on before us, (and he passed on,) but stand thou still awhile, that I may make known to thee the word of GOD. Then Shemu'el took a flask of oil, 10 and poured it upon his head, and kissed him, and said, Has not the LORD anointed thee to be a prince over his inheritance?
When thou art departed from me today, then thou shalt find 2 two men by Raḥel's tomb in the border of Binyamin at Ẓelẓaḥ; are found: and, thy father has left the matter of the asses, and has become anxious about you, saying, What shall I do about my son? Then shalt thou go on forward from there, and 3 thou shalt come to the oak of Tavor, and there shall meet thee three men going up to GOD to Bet-el, one carrying three kids, and another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a bottle of wine: and they will greet thee, and give thee two 4 loaves of bread; which thou shalt receive from their hands. After 5 that thou shalt come to the hill of GOD, where the garrisons of the Pelishtim are, and it shall come to pass, when thou art come there to the city, that thou shalt meet a band of prophets coming down from the high place with a lute, and a timbrel, and a pipe, and a lyre, before them; and they shall prophesy: and 6 the spirit of the LORD will come upon thee, and thou shalt prophesy with them, and shalt be turned into another man. And 7 let it be, when these signs are come to thee, that thou do as occasion serve thee; for GOD is with thee. And thou shalt go 8 down before me to Gilgal; and, behold, I will come down to thee, to offer burnt offerings, and to make sacrifices of peace offerings: seven days shalt thou tarry, till I come to thee, and show thee what thou shalt do. And it was so, that when he had 9 turned his back to go from Shemu'el, GOD gave him another heart: and all those signs came to pass that day. And 10 when they came there to the hill, behold, a company of prophets met him; and the spirit of GOD came upon him, and he prophesied among them. And it came to pass, when all that 11 knew him beforetime saw that, behold, he prophesied among the prophets, then the people said one to another, What has happened to the son of Qish? Is Sha'ul also one of the prophets? And one of the same place answered and said, But 12 who is their father? Therefore it became a proverb, Is Sha'ul also one of the prophets? And when he had made an end of pro- 13 phesying, he came to the high place. And Sha'ul's uncle said to 14 him and to his servant, Where did you go to? And he said, To seek the asses: and when we saw that they were not to be found, we came to Shemu'el. And Sha'ul's uncle said, Tell me, 15

I pray thee, what Shemu'el said to you. And Sha'ul said to his 16 uncle, He told us plainly that the asses were found. But of the matter of the kingdom, of which Shemu'el spoke, he told him not. And Shemu'el called the people together to the LORD 17 to Mizpa. And he said to the children of Yisra'el, Thus says the 18 LORD GOD of Yisra'el, I brought up Yisra'el out of Mizrayim, and delivered you out of the hand of Mizrayim, and out of the hand of all the kingdoms, and of them that oppressed you: and you have this day rejected your GOD, who himself saved 19 you from all your calamities and tribulations; and you have said to him, Only set a king over us. Now therefore present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes, and by your thousands, And Shemu'el caused all the tribes of Yisra'el to come 20 near, and the tribe of Binyamin was picked (by lot). Then he 21 caused the tribe of Binyamin to come near by its families, and the family of Matri was picked, and Sha'ul the son of Qish was picked: and when they sought him, he could not be found.
Therefore they inquired again of the LORD, Did the man come 22 here? And the LORD answered, Behold, he is hidden among the baggage. And they ran and fetched him from there: and 23 when he stood among the people, he was taller than any of the people from his shoulders upwards. And Shemu'el said to all the 24 people, Do you see him whom the LORD has chosen, that there is none like him among all the people? And all the people shouted, and said, Long live the king. Then Shemu'el told 25 the people the rules of the kingdom, and wrote it in a book, and laid it up before the LORD. And Shemu'el sent all the people away, every man to his house. And Sha'ul also went home to 26 Giv'a; and there went with him the warriors, whose hearts GOD had touched. But some base fellows said, How shall this 27 man save us? And they despised him, and brought him no presents. But he held his peace. Then Nahash the 'Ammonite 11 came up, and encamped against Yavesh-gil'ad: and all the men of Yavesh said to Nahash, Make a league with us, and we will serve thee. And Nahash the 'Ammonite answered them, On this 2 condition will I make a league with you, that I may thrust out all your right eyes, and lay it for a disgrace upon all Yisra'el.
And the elders of Yavesh said to him, Give us seven days' 3 respite, that we may send messengers to all the territory of Yisra'el: and then, if there be no man to save us, we will come out to thee. Then came the messengers to Giv'a of Sha'ul, 4 and told the tidings in the ears of the people: and all the people raised their voices, and wept. And, behold, Sha'ul came 5 after the herd out of the field; and Sha'ul said, What ails the people that they weep? And they told him the tidings of the men of Yavesh, And the spirit of GOD came upon Sha'ul when 6 he heard those tidings, and his anger burned greatly. And he 7 took a yoke of oxen, and cut them up in pieces, and sent them throughout all the territory of Yisra'el by the hands of messengers, saying, Whoever comes not forth after Sha'ul and after Shemu'el, so shall it be done to his oxen. And the fear of the LORD fell on the people and they came out with one consent. And when he numbered them in Bezeq, the children of 8

Yisra'el were three hundred thousand, and the men of Yehuda, thirty thousand. And they said to the messengers that came, 9 Thus shall you say to the men of Yavesh-gil'ad, To morrow, by the time the sun is hot, you shall have help. And the messengers came and reported to the men of Yavesh; and they were glad. Therefore the men of Yavesh said, To morrow we 10 will come out to you, and you shall do with us all that seems good in your eyes. And it was so on the morrow, that 11 Sha'ul put the people in three companies; and they came into the midst of the camp in the morning watch, and smote 'Ammon until the heat of the day: and those that remained were scattered, so that no two of them were left together. And the 12 people said to Shemu'el, Who is he that said, Shall Sha'ul reign over us? bring the men, that we may put them to death. And 13 Sha'ul said, There shall not a man be put to death this day: for today the LORD has wrought salvation in Yisra'el. Then 14 said Shemu'el to the people, Come, and let us go to Gilgal, and renew the kingdom there. And all the people went to Gilgal; 15 and there they made Sha'ul king before the LORD in Gilgal: and there they made sacrifices of peace offerings before the LORD; and there Sha'ul and all the men of Yisra'el rejoiced greatly. And Shemu'el said to all Yisra'el, Behold, I have 12 hearkened to your voice in all that you said to me, and have made a king over you. And now, behold, the king walks be- 2 fore you: and I am old and greyheaded; and, behold, my sons are with you: and I have walked before you from my childhood to this day. Behold, here I am: answer me before the LORD, 3 and before his anointed: whose ox have I taken? or whose ass have I taken? or whom have I defrauded? whom have I oppressed? or of whose hand have I received any bribe with which to blind my eyes? and I will restore it you. And they 4 said, Thou hast not defrauded us, nor oppressed us, neither hast thou taken ought of any man's hand, And he said to them, 5
The LORD is witness against you, and his anointed is witness this day, that you have not found anything in my hand. And they answered, He is witness. And Shemu'el said to the 6 people, It is the LORD that made Moshe and Aharon, and that brought your fathers up out of the land of Miẓrayim. Now 7 therefore stand still, that I may plead with you before the LORD concerning all the righteous acts of the LORD, which he did to you and to your fathers. When Ya'aqov was come into 8 Miẓrayim, and your fathers cried to the LORD, then the LORD sent Moshe and Aharon, who brought your fathers out of Miẓrayim, and made them dwell in this place. And when they 9 forgot the LORD their GOD, he sold them into the hand of Sisera, captain of the host of Ḥaẓor, and into the hand of the Pelishtim, and into the hand of the king of Mo'av, and they fought against them. And they cried to the LORD, and said, We have sinned, 10 because we have forsaken the LORD, and have served the Ba'- alim and the 'Ashtarot: but now deliver us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will serve thee. And the LORD sent Yerub- 11 ba'al, and Bedan, and Yiftaḥ, and Shemu'el, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies round about, and you dwelled of 'Ammon came against you, you said to me, No; but a king shall reign over us: when the LORD your GOD was your king.

Now therefore behold the king whom you have chosen, and 13 whom you have desired! for behold, the LORD has set a king over you. If you will fear the LORD, and serve him, and obey 14 his voice, and not rebel against the commandment of the LORD, and if both you and also the king that reigns over you will follow the LORD your GOD—but if you will not obey the voice 15 of the LORD, but rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then shall the hand of the LORD be against you, as it was against your fathers. Now therefore stand and see this great thing, 16 which the LORD will do before your eyes. Is it not wheat harvest 17 today? I will call to the LORD, and he shall send thunder and rain; that you may know and see that your wickedness is great, which you have done in the sight of the LORD, in asking for a king for yourselves. So Shemu'el called to the LORD; 18 and the LORD sent thunder and rain that day: and all the people greatly feared the LORD and Shemu'el. And all the people said 19 to Shemu'el, Pray for thy servants to the LORD thy GOD, that we die not: for we have added to all our sins this evil, to ask for a king for ourselves. And Shemu'el said to the people, 20 Fear not: you have done all this wickedness: yet turn not aside from following the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart; and turn not aside: for then you should go after vain things, 21 which cannot profit nor deliver; for they are vain. For the 22 LORD will not abandon his people for his great name's sake: because it has pleased the LORD to make you his people. More- 23 over as for me, far be it from me that I should sin against the LORD in ceasing to pray for you: but I will teach you the good and the right way: only fear the LORD, and serve him in truth 24 with all your heart: for consider how great are the things which he has done for you. But if you shall still do wickedly, you shall 25 be swept away, both you and your king.

Sha'ul reigned one year; and when he had reigned two years 13 over Yisra'el, Sha'ul chose him three thousand men of Yisra'el, 2 of whom two thousand were with Sha'ul in Mikhmash and in mount Bet-el, and a thousand were with Yonatan in Giv'a of Binyamin: and the rest of the people he sent every man to his tent. And Yonatan smote the garrison of the Pelishtim that was 3 in Geva, and the Pelishtim heard of it. And Sha'ul blew the shofar throughout all the land saying, Let the Hebrews hear.
And all Yisra'el heard say that Sha'ul had smitten the garrison 4 of the Pelishtim, and that Yisra'el also had become odious to the Pelishtim. And the people mustered after Sha'ul at Gilgal.
And the Pelishtim gathered themselves together to fight with 5 Yisra'el, thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and people like the sand on the sea shore for multitude: and they came up, and encamped in Mikhmash, eastward from Betaven. When the men of Yisra'el saw that they were in straits, 6 (for the people were hardpressed,) then the people hid themselves in caves, and in thickets, and in rocks, and in strongholds, and in pits. And some of the Hebrews went over the 7 Yarden to the land of Gad and Gil'ad. As for Sha'ul, he was 8 still in Gilgal, and all the people followed him trembling. And he tarried seven days, according to the set time that Shemu'el had appointed: but Shemu'el came not to Gilgal; and the people

9 were scattering from him. And Sha'ul said, Bring me here the burnt offering and the peace offerings. And he offered the burnt 10 offering. And it came to pass, that as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, behold, Shemu'el came; and 11 Sha'ul went out to meet him, that he might greet him. And Shemu'el said, What hast thou done? And Sha'ul said, Because I saw that the people were scattering from me, and that thou camest not within the days appointed, and that the Pelishtim gathered themselves together at Mikhmash; therefore said I, The Pelish-12 tim will come down now upon me to Gilgal, and I have not made supplication to the LORD: I forced myself therefore, and offered 13 the burnt offering. And Shemu'el said to Sha'ul, Thou hast done foolishly: thou hast not kept the commandment of the LORD thy GOD, which he commanded thee: for now the LORD would have established thy kingdom upon Yisra'el for ever.
14 But now thy kingdom shall not endure: the LORD has sought him a man after his own heart, and the LORD has commanded him to be a prince over his people, because thou hast not kept 15 that which the LORD commanded thee. And Shemu'el arose, and went up from Gilgal to Giv'a of Binyamin. And Sha'ul numbered the people that were present with him, about 16 six hundred men. And Sha'ul, and Yonatan his son, and the people that were present with them, dwelt in Giv'a of Binyamin:
17 but the Pelishtim encamped in Mikhmash. And the raiding parties came out of the camp of the Pelishtim in three groups: one 18 group turned to the way of 'Ofra to the land of Shu'al: and another group turned the way to Bet-ḥoron: and another group turned to the way of the border that looked over the valley of 19 Ẓevo'im towards the wilderness. Now there was no smith found throughout all the land of Yisra'el: for the Pelishtim said, 20 Lest the Hebrews make them swords or spears: but all Yisra'el went down to the Pelishtim, to sharpen every man his share, 21 and his spade, and his ax, and his mattock. And there was a charge for filing the mattocks, and the spades, and the three-
22 pronged forks, and the axes, and for setting the goads. So it came to pass on the day of battle, that there was neither sword nor spear to be found in the hand of any of the people that were with Sha'ul and Yonatan: but with Sha'ul and with Yonatan his son was there found. And the garrison of the Pelishtim 23 went out to the passage of Mikhmash. Now it came to 14 pass one day, that Yonatan the son of Sha'ul said to the young man that bore his armour, Come, and let us go over to the garrison of the Pelishtim, that is on the other side. But he did
2 not tell his father. And Sha'ul was sitting on the far side of Giv'a under the pomegranate tree which was in Migron: and the people that were with him were about six hundred men;

Pineḥas, the son of 'Eli, was the LORD's priest in Shilo, wearing an efod. And the people knew not that Yonatan was gone. And 4 between the passes, by which Yonatan sought to go over to the garrison of the Pelishtim, there was a sharp rock on the one side, and a sharp rock on the other side: and the name of the one was Boẓeẓ, and the name of the other Sene. The one point 5 rose up abruptly northwards over against Mikhmash, and the other southwards over against Geva. And Yonatan said 6 to the young man that bore his armour, Come, and let us go over to the garrison of these uncircumcised: it may be that the LORD will perform a deed for us: for there is no restraint upon the LORD to save by many or by few. And his armourbearer said 7 to him, Do all that is in thy heart: turn thee; behold, I am with thee according to thy heart. Then said Yonatan, Be- 8 hold, we will pass over to these men, and we will reveal ourselves to them. If they say thus to us, Tarry until we come to 9 you; then we will stand still in our place, and will not go up to them. But if they say thus, Come up to us; then we will go 10 up: for the LORD has delivered them into our hand: and this shall be a sign to us. And both of them showed themselves to 11 the garrison of the Pelishtim: and the Pelishtim said, Behold, the Hebrews come out of the holes where they have hidden themselves. And the men of the garrison answered Yonatan 12 and his armourbearer, and said, Come up to us, and we will show you something. And Yonatan said to his armourbearer, Come up after me for the LORD has delivered them into the hand of Yisra'el. And Yonatan climbed up on his hands and 13 feet, and his armourbearer after him: and they fell before Yonatan; and his armourbearer slew after him. And that first 14 slaughter, which Yonatan and his armourbearer made, was about twenty men, within as it were half a furrow, which a yoke of oxen might plough. And there was trembling in the 15 camp, in the field, and among all the people: the garrison, and the raiding parties, they also trembled, and the earth quaked: so it was a very great trembling. And the watchmen of Sha'ul 16 in Giv'a of Binyamin looked; and, behold, the multitude melted away, and disintegrated. Then said Sha'ul to the people 17 that were with him, Number now, and see who is gone from us. And when they had numbered, behold, Yonatan and his armourbearer were not there. And Sha'ul said to Aḥiyya, Bring 18 the ark of GOD here For the ark of GOD was at that time with the children of Yisra'el. And it came to pass, while Sha'ul 19 talked to the priest, that the noise that was in the camp of the Pelishtim went on and increased: and Sha'ul said to the priest, Withdraw thy hand. And Sha'ul and all the people that 20 were with him assembled themselves, and they came to the battle: and, behold, every man's sword was against his fellow, and there was a very great confusion. Moreover the Hebrews 21 that were with the Pelishtim before that time, who went up with them into the camp from the country round about, they also turned to be with the men of Yisra'el that were with Sha'ul and Yonatan. Likewise all the men of Yisra'el who had hid 22 themselves in mount Efrayim, when they heard that the Pelish-people came to a wood; and there was honey on the ground.

And when the people were come into the wood, behold, a stream 26 of honey; but no man put his hand to his mouth: for the people feared the oath. But Yonatan heard not when his father charged 27 the people with the oath: and he put out the end of the rod that was in his hand, and dipped it in a honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth; and his eyes were brightened. Then 28 one of the people answered and said, Thy father strictly charged the people with an oath, saying, Cursed be the man that eats any food this day. And the people were faint. Then said Yona- 29 tan, My father has troubled the land: see, I pray you, how my eyes have brightened, because I tasted a little of this honey.
How much more, if only the people had eaten freely today 30 of the spoil of their enemies which they found? for had there not been now a much greater slaughter among the Pelishtim?
And they smote the Pelishtim that day from Mikhmash to 31 Ayyalon: and the people were very faint. And the people flew 32 upon the spoil, and took sheep, and oxen, and calves, and slew them on the ground: and the people did eat them with the blood. Then they told Sha'ul, saying, Behold, the people sin 33 against the LORD, in that they eat with the blood. And he said, You have transgressed: roll a great stone to me this day. And 34 Sha'ul said, Disperse yourselves among the people, and say to them, Bring me here every man his ox, and every man his sheep, and slay them here, and eat; and sin not against the LORD in eating with the blood. And all the people brought every man his ox with him that night, and slew them there. And Sha'ul 35 built an altar to the LORD: that was the first altar that he built to the LORD. And Sha'ul said, Let us go down after 36 the Pelishtim by night, and spoil them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them. And they said, Do whatever seems good to thee. Then said the priest, Let us draw near here to GOD. And Sha'ul asked counsel of GOD, Shall 37 I go down after the Pelishtim? wilt thou deliver them into the hand of Yisra'el? But he answered him not that day. And 38 Sha'ul said, Draw near, all you chiefs of the people: and know and see wherein this sin has been this day. For, as the LORD 39 lives, who saves Yisra'el, though it be in Yonatan my son, he shall surely die. But there was not a man among all the people that answered him. Then said he to all Yisra'el, Be you on 40 one side, and I and Yonatan my son will be on the other side. And the people said to Sha'ul, Do what seems good to thee. Therefore Sha'ul said to the LORD GOD of Yisra'el, 41 Give a perfect lot. And Sha'ul and Yonatan were picked: but the people escaped. And Sha'ul said, Cast lots between me and 42 Yonatan my son. And Yonatan was picked. Then Sha'ul said 43 to Yonatan, Tell me what thou hast done. And Yonatan told him, and said, I did but taste a little honey with the end of the rod that was in my hand, and, lo, I must die. And Sha'ul 44 answered, GOD do so and more also: for thou shalt surely die, Yonatan. And the people said to Sha'ul, Shall Yonatan die, 45 who has wrought this great salvation in Yisra'el? Far be it! as the LORD lives, not one hair of his head shall fall to the ground; for he has wrought with GOD this day. So the people rescued Yonatan, that he died not. Then Sha'ul went up from fol- 46 lowing the Pelishtim: and the Pelishtim went to their own place. So Sha'ul took the kingdom over Yisra'el, and fought against 47 all his enemies on every side, against Mo'av, and against the children of 'Ammon, and against Edom, and against the kings of Ẓova, and against the Pelishtim: and wherever he turned himself, he did them mischief. And he gathered a host, and 48 smote 'Amaleq, and delivered Yisra'el out of the hands of them that spoiled them. Now the sons of Sha'ul were Yonatan, 49 and Yishvi, and Malkishua: and the names of his two daughters were these; the name of the firstborn Merav, and the name of the younger Mikhal: and the name of Sha'ul's wife was Aḥi- 50 no'am, the daughter of Aḥima'aẓ: and the name of the captain of his host was Aviner, the son of Ner, Sha'ul's uncle. And Qish 51 was the father of Sha'ul; and Ner the father of Avner was the son of Avi'el. And there was hard warfare against the 52 Pelishtim all the days of Sha'ul: and when Sha'ul saw any strong man, or any valiant man, he took him to himself. And 15 Shemu'el said to Sha'ul, The LORD sent me to anoint thee to be king over his people, over Yisra'el: now therefore hearken to the voice of the words of the LORD. Thus says the LORD 2 of hosts, I remember that which 'Amaleq did to Yisra'el, how he laid wait for him in the way, when he came up from Miẓrayim. Now go and smite 'Amaleq, and utterly destroy all that 3 they have, and spare them not; but slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass. And 4 Sha'ul gathered the people together, and numbered them in Tela'im two hundred thousand footmen, and ten thousand men of Yehuda. And Sha'ul came to a city of 'Amaleq, and laid wait 5 in the valley. And Sha'ul said to the Qeni, Go, depart, go down 6 from among the 'Amaleqi, lest I destroy thee with them: for thou hast shown kindness to all the children of Yisra'el, when they came up out of Miẓrayim. So the Qeni departed from among 'Amaleq. And Sha'ul smote 'Amaleq from Ḥavila until 7 the approach to Shur, that is over against Miẓrayim. And he 8 took Agag the king of 'Amaleq alive, and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword. But Sha'ul and the 9 people had pity on Agag, and on the best of the sheep, and of the oxen, and of the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not utterly destroy them: but everything that was of little value and weak, they destroyed utterly. Then 10 came the word of the LORD to Shemu'el saying, I regret that 11

I have set up Sha'ul to be king: for he is turned back from following me, and he has not performed my commandments. And it grieved Shemu'el; and he cried to the LORD all night.

And when Shemu'el rose early to meet Sha'ul in the morning, 12 it was told Shemu'el, saying, Sha'ul came to Karmel, and, behold, he set him up a monument, and is gone about, and passed on, and gone down to Gilgal. And Shemu'el came to Sha'ul: and 13 Sha'ul said to him, Blessed be thou of the LORD: I have performed the commandment of the LORD. And Shemu'el said, 14 What means then this bleating of the sheep in my ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear? And Sha'ul said. They have 15 brought them from the 'Amaleqi: for the people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen, to sacrifice to the LORD thy GOD; and the rest we have utterly destroyed. Then Shemu'el 16 said to Sha'ul, Stay, and I will tell thee what the LORD said to me this night. And he said to him, Say on. And Shemu'el 17 said, Though thou wast little in thy own sight, wast thou not made the head of the tribes of Yisra'el, and the LORD anointed thee king over Yisra'el? And the LORD sent thee on a journey, 18 and said, Go and utterly destroy those sinners, the men of 'Amaleq, and fight against them until they are consumed. Why 19 then didst thou not obey the voice of the LORD, but didst fly upon the spoil, and didst do evil in the sight of the LORD? And Sha'ul said to Shemu'el, Indeed, I have obeyed 20 the voice of the LORD, and have gone along the road which the LORD sent me, and have brought Agag the king of 'Amaleq, and have utterly destroyed 'Amaleq. But the people took of the 21 spoil, sheep and oxen, the chief of the devoted property, to sacrifice to the LORD thy GOD in Gilgal. And Shemu'el 22 said, Has the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams.
For rebellion is like the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is 23 like idolatry and terafim. Because thou hast rejected the word of the LORD he has also rejected thee from being king. And 24 Sha'ul said to Shemu'el, I have sinned: for I have transgressed the commandment of the LORD, and thy words: because I feared the people, and obeyed their voice. Now therefore, I pray thee, 25 pardon my sin, and turn again with me, and I will bow down to the LORD. And Shemu'el said to Sha'ul, I will not return with 26 thee: for thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD has rejected thee from being king over Yisra'el. And as Shemu'el 27 turned about to go away, he laid hold of the corner of his robe, and it tore. And Shemu'el said to him, The LORD has torn the 28 kingdom of Yisra'el from thee this day, and has given it to a neighbour of thine, that is better than thou. And also the 29 Eternal One of Yisra'el will not lie nor change his mind: for he is not a man, that he should change his mind. Then he said, I 30 have sinned: yet do me honour now, I pray thee, before the elders of my people, and before Yisra'el, and turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD thy GOD. So Shemu'el turned 31 again after Sha'ul; and Sha'ul worshipped the LORD. Then 32 said Shemu'el, Bring here to me Agag the king of 'Amaleq.
And Agag came to him in chains. And Agag said, Surely the bitterness of death is past. And Shemu'el said, As thy sword 33 has made women childless, so shall thy mother be childless among women. And Shemu'el hewed Agag in pieces before the LORD in Gilgal. Then Shemu'el went to Rama; and Sha'ul 34 went up to his house to Giv'a of Sha'ul. And Shemu'el came 35 no more to see Sha'ul until the day of his death: nevertheless Shemu'el mourned for Sha'ul and the LORD repented that he had made Sha'ul king over Yisra'el. And the LORD said to 16 Shemu'el, How long wilt thou mourn for Sha'ul, seeing I have rejected him from reigning over Yisra'el? fill thy horn with oil, and go, I will send thee to Yishay, the Bet-hallaḥmite: for I have provided for me a king among his sons, And Shemu'el 2 said, How can I go? if Sha'ul hears it, he will kill me. And the LORD said, Take a heifer with thee, and say, I am come to sacrifice to the LORD. And call Yishay to the sacrifice, and I will 3 make known to thee what thou shalt do: and thou shalt anoint to me him whom I name to thee. And Shemu'el did that which 4 the LORD spoke, and came to Bet-leḥem. And the elders of the town trembled at his coming, and said, Comest thou in peace?

And he said, In peace: I am come to sacrifice to the LORD: 5 sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Yishay and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice.
And it came to pass, when they were come, that he looked on 6
Eli'av, and said, Surely the LORD's anointed is before him.

But the LORD said to Shemu'el, Look not on his coun- 7 tenance, nor on the height of his stature; because I have refused him: for it is not as a man sees; for a man looks on the outward appearance, but the LORD looks on the heart. Then 8 Yishay called Avinadav, and made him pass before Shemu'el.
And he said, Neither has the LORD chosen this. Then Yishay 9 made Shamma pass by. And he said, Neither has the LORD chosen this. And Yishay made seven of his sons to pass before 10 Shemu'el. And Shemu'el said to Yishay, The LORD has not chosen these. And Shemu'el said to Yishay, Are these all thy 11 children? And he said, There remains yet the youngest, and he is tending the sheep. Then Shemu'el said to Yishay, Send and fetch him: for we will not sit down till he comes here. And 12 he sent, and brought him in. Now he was ruddy, with fine eyes, and good looking. And the LORD said, Arise, anoint him: for this is he. Then Shemu'el took the horn of oil, and anointed 13 him in the midst of his brothers; and the spirit of the LORD came upon David from that day onwards. So Shemu'el rose up, and went to Rama. But the spirit of the LORD departed from 14 Sha'ul, and an evil spirit from the LORD tormented him. And 15 Sha'ul's servants said to him, Behold now, an evil spirit from GOD is tormenting thee. Let our lord now command thy ser- 16 vants, who are before thee, to seek out a man, who knows how to play on the lyre: and it shall come to pass, when the evil spirit from GOD is upon thee, that he will play with his hand, and thou shalt be well. And Sha'ul said to his servants, 17 Provide me now a man that can play well, and bring him to me.
Then answered one of the servants, and said, Behold, I have 18 seen a son of Yishay the Bet-hallaḥmite, that knows how to play, and a fine warrior, and a man of war, and prudent in speech, and a comely person, and the LORD is with him. So Sha'ul sent mes- 19 sengers to Yishay, and said, Send me David thy son, who is with the sheep. And Yishay took an ass laden with bread, and 20 a bottle of wine, and a kid, and sent them by David his son to Sha'ul. And David came to Sha'ul, and stood before him: and 21 he loved him greatly; and he became his armourbearer. And 22 Sha'ul sent to Yishay, saying, Let David, I pray thee, stand before me; for he has found favour in my eyes. And it came to 23 pass, when the evil spirit from GOD was upon Sha'ul, that David took a lyre, and played with his hand: so Sha'ul was refreshed, and was well, and the evil spirit departed from him. Now 17 the Pelishtim gathered together their camps to battle, and were gathered together at Sokho, which belongs to Yehuda, and pitched between Sokho and 'Azeqa, in Efes-dammim. And Sha'ul 2 and the men of Yisra'el were gathered together, and they encamped by the valley of Ela, and set the battle in array against the Pelishtim. And the Pelishtim stood on a mountain on the 3 one side, and Yisra'el stood on a mountain on the other side: and there was a valley between them. And there went out a 4 champion out of the camps of the Pelishtim, named Golyat, of Gat, whose height was six cubits and a span. And he had a 5 helmet of brass upon his head, and he was armed with a body armour of scales; and the weight of the body armour was five thousand shekels of brass. And he had greaves of brass upon 6 his legs, and a javelin of brass between his shoulders. And 7 the staff of his spear was like a weaver's beam; and his spear's head weighed six hundred shekels of iron: and a shieldbearer went before him. And he stood and cried to the 8 armies of Yisra'el, and said to them, Why are you come out to set your battle in array? am not I a Pelishtian, and you are servants to Sha'ul? choose a man for yourselves, and let him come down to me. If he be able to fight with me, and to kill me, 9 then will we be your servants: but if I prevail against him, and kill him, then shall you be our servants, and serve us. And 10 the Pelishtian said, I defy the ranks of Yisra'el this day; give me a man, that we may fight together. When Sha'ul and all Yisra'el 11 heard those words of the Pelishtian, they were dismayed, and greatly afraid. Now David was the son of that Efrati of 12 Bet-lehem-yehuda, whose name was Yishay; and he had eight sons: and the man was old in the days of Sha'ul, an aged man.

And the three eldest sons of Yishay went and followed Sha'ul 13 to the battle: and the names of his three sons that went to the battle were Eli'av the firstborn, and next unto him Avinadav, and the third Shamma. And David was the youngest: and the 14 three eldest followed Sha'ul. But David went back and forth 15 from Sha'ul to tend his father's sheep at Bet-lehem. And the 16 Pelishtian drew near morning and evening, and presented himself for forty days. And Yishay said to David his son, Take 17 now for thy brothers an efa of this parched corn, and these ten loaves, and run to the camp to thy brothers; and carry 18 these ten cheeses to the captain of their thousand, and inquire of thy brothers' welfare, and take a token from them. Now 19 Sha'ul, and they, and all the men of Yisra'el were in the valley of Ela, fighting with the Pelishtim. And David rose up 20 early in the morning, and left the sheep with a keeper, and took, and went, as Yishay had commanded him; and he came to the barricade, as the host was going out to the frontline, shouting for the battle. For Yisra'el and the Pelishtim were drawn 21 up, army against army. And David left his baggage in the hand 22 of the keeper of the baggage, and ran into the line of battle, and came and saluted his brethren. And as he talked with 23 them, behold, there came up the champion, Golyat the Pelishtian was his name, from Gat, out of the ranks of the Pelishtim, and spoke those same words: and David heard them. And all the 24 men of Yisra'el, when they saw the man, fled from him, and were greatly afraid. And the men of Yisra'el said, Have you 25 seen this man that is come up? surely to defy Yisra'el is he come up: and it shall be, that the man who kills him, the king will enrich him with great riches, and will give him his daughter, and make his father's house free in Yisra'el. And David 26 spoke to the men that stood by him, saying, What shall be done to the man that kills yonder Pelishtian, and takes away the reproach from Yisra'el? for who is this uncircumcised Pelishtian, that he should taunt the armies of the living GOD? And the 27 people answered him after the aforementioned manner, saying, So shall it be done to the man that kills him. And Eli'av his 28 eldest brother heard when he spoke to the men: and Eli'av's anger burned against David, and he said, Why didst thou come down here? and with whom hast thou left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know thy insolence, and thy peevishness; for thou art come down to see the battle. And David said, What 29 have I now done? It was only a word. And he turned from 30 him towards another, and spoke after the same manner: and the people answered him again after the former manner. And 31 when the words were heard which David spoke, they rehearsed them before Sha'ul: and he sent for him. And David said to 32 Sha'ul, Let no man's heart fail because of him; thy servant will go and fight with this Pelishtian. And Sha'ul said to David, 33 thou art not able to go against this Pelishtian to fight with him:

for thou art but a youth, and he a man of war from his youth. And David said to Sha'ul, Thy servant kept his 34 father's sheep, and there came a lion, and a bear, and took a lamb out of the flock: and I went out after it, and smote 35 it, and delivered it out of its mouth: and when it arose against me, I caught it by its beard, and smote it, and slew it.
Thy servant slew both the lion and the bear: and this uncir- 36 cumcised Pelishtian shall be as one of them, seeing he has defied the armies of the living GOD. And David said, The LORD 37 that delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will deliver me out of the hand of this Pelishtian. And Sha'ul said to David, Go, and the LORD be with thee. And Sha'ul armed David with his armour, and 38 he put a helmet of brass upon his head; also he clothed him with a coat of mail. And David girded his sword upon his 39 armour, and he essayed to go; but he had not tried it out. And David said to Sha'ul, I cannot walk with these; for I have not tried them. And David put them off him. And he took his staff 40 in his hand, and chose him five smooth stones out of the brook, and put them in a shepherd's bag which he had, and in his knapsack; and his sling was in his hand: and he drew near to the Pelishtian. And the Pelishtian came on and drew near to 41 David: and the shield-bearer went before him. And when the 42 Pelishtian looked about, and saw David, he disdained him: for he was but a youth, though ruddy, and good-looking. And the 43 Pelishtian said to David, Am I a dog, that thou comest to me with sticks? And the Pelishtian cursed David by his gods. And 44 the Pelishtian said to David, Come to me, and I will give thy flesh to the birds of the sky, and to the beasts of the field. Then 45 said David to the Pelishtian, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a javelin: but I come to thee in the name of the LORD of hosts, the GOD of the armies of Yisra'el, whom thou hast taunted. This day will the LORD deliver thee 46 into my hand; and I will smite thee, and take thy head from thee; and I will give the carcass of the camp of the Pelishtim this day to the birds of the sky, and to the wild beasts of the earth; that all the earth may know that there is a GOD in Yisra'el. And all this assembly shall know that the LORD saves 47 not with sword and spear: for the battle is the LORD's, and he will give you into our hands. And it came to pass, when the 48 Pelishtian arose, and came and drew near to meet David, that David hastened, and ran to the enemy line towards the Pelishtian.

And David put his hand in his bag, and took from there a stone, 49 and slung it, and struck the Pelishtian in his forehead, that the stone buried itself in his forehead; and he fell upon his face to the earth. So David prevailed over the Pelishtian with a sling and 50 with a stone, and smote the Pelishtian, and slew him; but there was no sword in the hand of David. Therefore David ran, and 51 stood upon the Pelishtian, and took his sword, and drew it out of its sheath, and slew him, and with it he cut off his head.
And when the Pelishtim saw that their champion was dead, they fled. And the men of Yisra'el and of Yehuda arose, and shouted, 52 and pursued the Pelishtim, until the approaches of Gay, and to the gates of 'Eqron. And the dead of the Pelishtim fell by the way to Sha'arayim, and to Gat, and to 'Eqron. And the children 53 of Yisra'el returned from chasing after the Pelishtim, and they plundered their tents. And David took the head of the Pelishtian, 54 and brought it to Yerushalayim; and he put his armour in his tent. And when Sha'ul saw David go out against the Pel- 55 ishtian, he said to Avner, the captain of the host, Avner, whose son is this youth? And Avner said, By thy life, O king, I know not. And the king said, Inquire thou whose son the young man 56 is. And as David returned from slaying the Pelishtian, Av- 57 ner took him, and brought him before Sha'ul with the head of the Pelishtian in his hand. And Sha'ul said to him, Whose son art 58 thou, lad? And David answered, I am the son of thy servant Yishay, the Bet-hallaḥmite. And it came to pass, when he had 18 made an end of speaking to Sha'ul, that the soul of Yehonatan was knit with the soul of David, and Yehonatan loved him as his own soul. And Sha'ul took him that day, and would let him go no more home to his father's house. Then Yehonatan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul. And Yehonatan stripped himself of the robe that was upon him, and gave it to David, and his garments, and even his sword, and his bow, and his girdle. And David went out wherever Sha'ul sent him, and succeeded · and Sha'ul set him over the men of war, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Sha'ul's servants. And it came to pass on their return, when David returned from slaying the Pelishtian, that the women came out of all the cities of Yisra'el, singing and dancing, to meet king Sha'ul, with timbrels, and a joyful song, and with lutes. And the women answered one another as they danced, and said, Sha'ul has slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands. And Sha'ul was very angry, and the saying displeased him; and he said, They have given David ten thousands, and to me they have given the thousands: and what can he have more but the kingdom? And Sha'ul viewed David with suspicion from that day and onwards.

And it came to pass on the morrow, that an evil spirit from GOD came upon Sha'ul, and he raved in the midst of the house: and David played with his hand, as at other times: and the spear was in Sha'ul's hand. And Sha'ul raised the spear; for he said, I will smite David to the wall with it. And David turned aside out of his presence twice. And Sha'ul was afraid of David, because the LORD was with him, and was departed from Sha'ul. Therefore Sha'ul removed him from him, and made him a captain over a thousand; and he went out and came in before the people. And David succeeded in all his ways; and the LORD was with him. Wherefore when Sha'ul saw that he succeeded so well, he was afraid of him. But all Yisra'el and Yehuda loved David, for he went out and came in before them. And Sha'ul said to David, Behold my elder daughter Merav, her will I give thee to wife: only be thou valiant for me, and fight the LORD's battles. For Sha'ul said, Let not my hand be upon him, but let the hand of the Pelishtim be upon him. And David said to Sha'ul, Who am I? and what is my life, or my father's family in Yisra'el, that I should be son in law to the king? And so it came to pass at the time when Merav Sha'ul's daughter should have been given to David, that she was given to 'Adri'el the Meḥolati to wife. And Mikhal Sha'ul's daughter loved David: and they told Sha'ul, and the thing pleased him. And Sha'ul said, I will give him her, that she may be a snare to him, and that the hand of the Pelishtim may be against him. And Sha'ul said to David, Thou shalt this day be my son in law through the second. And Sha'ul commanded his servants, saying, Speak with David secretly, and say, Behold, the king has delight in thee, and all his servants love thee: now therefore be the king's son in law. And Sha'ul's servants spoke those words in the ears of David. And David said, Seems it to you a light thing to be a king's son in law, seeing that I am a poor man, and insignificant? And the servants of Sha'ul told him, saying, In this manner did David speak. And 25 Sha'ul said, Thus shall you say to David, The king desires no dowry, but a hundred foreskins of the Pelishtim, to be avenged of the king's enemies. But Sha'ul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Pelishtim. And when his servants told David 26 these words, it pleased David well to be the king's son in law. Now, before the days were expired, David arose and went, he 27 and his men, and slew of the Pelishtim two hundred men; and David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full number to the king, that he might be the king's son in law. And Sha'ul gave him Mikhal his daughter to wife. And Sha'ul saw 28 and knew that the LORD was with David, and that Mikhal Sha'ul's daughter loved him. And Sha'ul continued to be afraid 29 of David; and Sha'ul became David's enemy continually.

Then the princes of the Pelishtim went out: and it came 30 to pass, after they went out, that David proved himself more competent than all the servants of Sha'ul; so that his name was highly prized. And Sha'ul spoke to Yonatan his son, and 19 to all his servants, that they should kill David. But Yehonatan, the son of Sha'ul, delighted much in David: and Yehonatan 2 told David, saying, Sha'ul my father seeks to kill thee: now therefore, I pray thee, take heed to thyself in the morning, and abide in a secret place, and hide thyself: and I will go out and 3 stand beside my father in the field where thou art, and I will speak with my father about thee; and I will see what the position is, and I will tell thee. And Yehonatan spoke good of 4
David to Sha'ul his father, and said to him, Let not the king sin against his servant, against David; because he has not sinned against thee, and because his deeds have been very good towards thee: for he did take his life in his hand, and slew the 5 Pelishtian, and the LORD performed a great salvation for all Yisra'el: thou didst see it, and didst rejoice: why then wilt thou sin against innocent blood, to slay David without cause? And 6
Sha'ul hearkened to the voice of Yehonatan: and Sha'ul swore, As the LORD lives, he shall not be slain. And Yehonatan called 7
David, and Yehonatan related all those things to him. And Yehonatan brought David to Sha'ul, and he was in his presence, as in times past. And there was war again: and David 8 went out, and fought with the Pelishtim, and slew them with a great slaughter; and they fled from him. And an evil spirit 9 from the LORD came upon Sha'ul, as he sat in his house with his spear in his hand: and David played with his hand. And 10 Sha'ul sought to smite David even to the wall with the spear; but he slipped away out of Sha'ul's presence, so that he smote the spear into the wall: and David fled, and escaped that night. And Sha'ul sent messengers to David's house, to 11 watch him, and to slay him in the morning: and Mikhal David's wife told him, saying, If thou save not thy life tonight, to morrow thou shalt be slain. So Mikhal let David down through a 12 window: and he went, and fled, and escaped. And Mikhal took 13 the terafim, and laid them on the bed, and put the pillow of goats' hair at its head, and covered it with a cloth. And 14 when Sha'ul sent messengers to take David, she said, He is sick. And Sha'ul sent the messengers again to see David, 15 saying, Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may slay him.

And when the messengers were come in, behold, the terafim 16 were in the bed, with a pillow of goats' hair at its head.

And Sha'ul said to Mikhal, Why hast thou deceived me 17 so, and sent away my enemy, that he is escaped? And Mikhal answered Sha'ul, He said to me, Let me go; why should I kill thee? So David fled, and escaped, and came to Shemu'el to 18 Rama, and told him all that Sha'ul had done to him. And he and Shemu'el went and dwelt in Nayot. And it was told Sha'ul, 19 saying, Behold, David is at Nayot in Rama. And Sha'ul sent 20 messengers to take David: and when they saw the band of the prophets prophesying, and Shemu'el stationed over them, the spirit of GOD came upon the messengers of Sha'ul, and they also prophesied. And when it was told Sha'ul, he sent other 21 messengers, and they prophesied likewise. And Sha'ul sent messengers again the third time, and they prophesied also. Then 22 he went himself to Rama, and came to the great pit that is in Sekhu: and he asked and said, Where are Shemu'el and David?
And someone said, Behold, they are at Nayot in Rama. And 23 he went there to Nayot in Rama· and the spirit of GOD was upon him also, and he went on, prophesying, until he came to Nayot in Rama. And he even stripped off his clothes, and he 24 himself prophesied before Shemu'el, and lay down naked all that day and all that night. Therefore they say, Is Sha'ul also one of the prophets? And David fled from Nayot in Rama, 20 and came and said before Yehonatan, What have I done? what is my crime? and what is my sin before thy father, that he seeks my life? And he said to him, Far be it! thou shalt not 2 die: behold, my father will do nothing either great or small, without revealing it to me: and why should my father hide this thing from me? it is not so. And David swore moreover, and 3 said, Thy father certainly knows that I have found favour in thy eyes; and he says, Let not Yehonatan know this, lest he be grieved: but truly as the LORD lives, and as thy soul lives, there is but a step between me and death. Then Yehonatan said to 4 David, Whatever thy soul desires, I will do for thee. And 5 David said to Yehonatan, Behold, to morrow is the new moon, and I should not fail to sit with the king at the meal: but let me go, that I may hide myself in the field until the third day at evening. If thy father should miss me, then say, David ear- 6 nestly asked leave of me that he might run to Bet-lehem his city: for there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the family.
If he say thus, It is well; then thy servant shall have peace: 7 but if he be very angry, then you should know that evil is determined by him. Therefore deal kindly with thy servant; for 8 thou hast brought thy servant into a covenant of the LORD with thee: but if there be in me iniquity, slay me thyself; for why shouldst thou bring me to thy father? And Yehonatan 9 said, Far be it from thee: for if I knew certainly that evil were determined by my father to come upon thee, then would not I
