sea, like the creeping things, that have no ruler over them?
They take up all of them with the angle, they catch them in 15 their net, and gather them in their drag: therefore they rejoice and are glad. Therefore they sacrifice to their net, and 16 burn incense to their drag; because by them their portion is fat, and their food plenteous. Shall they therefore empty their 17 net, and not spare to slay the nations continually?
I will 2
stand upon my watch, and set me upon the tower, and will watch to see what he will say to me, and what I shall answer when I am reproved. And the LORD answered me, and said, 2 Write the vision, and make it plain upon tablets, that he who reads it may run. For there is still a vision for the appointed 3 time; and it speaks concerning the end, and does not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not delay. Behold, his soul is puffed up; it is not upright in him: but 4 the just shall live by his faith. Moreover, wine is treacherous; the 5 arrogant man shall not abide, whose desires gape wide like She'ol; and like death, he cannot be satisfied: for he has gathered to himself all the nations, and has collected to him all the peoples: shall not all these take up a parable against him, 6 and a taunting proverb against him, and say, Woe to him that increases that which is not his! how long? and that loads himself with property taken in pledge! Shall not thy exactors rise 7 up suddenly against thee, and thy shakers awaken, and thou shalt be for plunder to them? Because thou hast spoiled many 8 nations, all the remnant of the peoples shall spoil thee; because of men's blood, and for the violence done to the land, to the city, and all that dwell in it.
Woe to him that gets evil 9 gain for his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the power of evil! Thou hast devised 10 shame to thy house by cutting off many peoples, and hast sinned against thy life. For the stone shall cry out of the wall, 11 and the beam out of the timber shall answer it.
Woe 12
to him that builds a town with blood, and establishes a city by iniquity! Behold, is it not of the LORD of hosts that the peoples 13 labour only for fire, and the nations weary themselves only for vanity? For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the 14 glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.
Woe to 15
him that gives his neighbour drink, adding thy venom to it, and making him drunken also, that thou mayst look on their nakedness! Thou art filled with shame instead of glory: drink 16 thou also, and stagger: the cup of the LORD'S right hand shall be turned to thee, and shameful disgrace shall be on thy glory.
For the violence done to Levanon covers thee, and the spoil 17 of beasts, which made them afraid, because of men's blood, and for the violence done to the land, to the city, and to all that dwell therein.
What use is there in a carved idol, 18 that its carver has fashioned, a molten image, and a teacher of lies? that the maker should trust in his own manufacture, when he makes dumb idols?
Woe to him that says to the 19 wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise, Can it teach? Behold, it is overlaid with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in it. But the LORD is in his holy temple: let all the earth keep 20 silence before him. A prayer of the prophet Ḥavaqquq. 1 (upon Shigyonot.) O LORD, I have heard the report of thee, 2 and I was afraid: O LORD, revive thy work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make known; in wrath remember mercy. GOD comes from Teman, and the Holy One 3 from mount Paran. (Sela.) His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise. And there is a brightness as the 4 light; rays issue from his hand: and there the hiding of his power is lodged. Before him goes the pestilence, and burning 5 coals go forth at his feet. He stands and shakes the earth: he 6 beholds, and causes the nations to tremble; and the everlasting mountains are dashed in pieces; the eternal hills bow. His ways are as of old. I saw the tents of Kushan in affliction: and the 7 curtains of the land of Midyan do tremble. Is the LORD 8 displeased against the rivers? is thy anger against the rivers?

is thy wrath against the sea? that thou ridest upon thy horses, thy chariots of salvation? Thy bow is stripped bare, according 9 to the oaths thou didst address to the tribes. (Sela.) Thou wilt cleave the earth with rivers. The mountains saw thee, and they 10 tremble: the stream of water passed by: the deep uttered its voice, and lifted up its hands on high. The sun and moon stood 11 still in their habitation: at the light of thy arrows as they speed, and at the shining of thy glittering spear. Thou dost march 12 through the land in indignation, thou dost thresh the nations in anger. Thou hast come forth for the salvation of thy people, 13 for the salvation of thy anointed; thou hast crushed the head of the house of the wicked, uncovering it from the foundation to the neck. (Sela.) Thou hast pierced with his own 14 shafts the head of his warriors, who come out as a storm wind to scatter me: their rejoicing is as to devour the poor secretly. Thou hast trodden through the sea with thy horses, 15 through the heap of great waters. When I heard, my belly 16 trembled; my lips quivered at the sound: rottenness enters my bones, and I tremble where I stand, that I should wait for the day of trouble: when he comes up against the people whom he invades. Although the fig tree shall not blossom, 17 neither shall fruit be in the vines; the labour of the olive shall fail, and the fields shall yield no food; the flock shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalls: yet I will rejoice in the LORD, I will joy in the GOD of 18 my salvation. GOD, the LORD is my strength, and he makes my 19 feet like those of deers, and he guides me on my high places.
(To the Menaẓẓeaḥ; on my stringed instruments.)

ẒEFANYA / ZEPHANIAH 1

The word of the LORD which came to Ẓefanya the son Kushi, 1 the son of Gedalya, the son of Amarya, the son of Ḥizqiyya, in the days of Yoshiyyahu the son of Amon, king of Yehuda.
I will utterly consume all things from off the face of the earth, 2 says the LORD. I will consume man and beast; I will consume the birds of the sky, and the fishes of the sea, and the stumblingblocks with the wicked; and I will cut off man from off the face of the earth, says the LORD. I will also stretch out my hand upon Yehuda, and upon all the inhabitants of Yerushalayim; and I will cut off the remnant of the Ba'al from this place, and the name of the idolatrous priests with the priests; and those who worship the host of heaven upon the housetops; and those who worship, who swear to the LORD, and who yet swear by Malkam; and those who are turned back from the LORD: and who have not sought the LORD, nor inquired for him. Hold thy peace at the presence of the LORD GOD: for the day of the LORD is at hand: for the LORD has prepared a festal meal, he has bid his guests.

And it shall come to pass on the day of the LORD's feast, that I will punish the princes, and the king's children, and all such as are clothed in foreign apparel. And on the same day I will punish all those who leap over the threshold, who fill their masters' house with violence and deceit. And it shall come to pass on that day, says the LORD, that there shall be the noise of a cry from the fish gate, and a wailing from the second quarter, and a great crashing from the hills. Wail, you inhabitants of Makhtesh, for all the merchant peoples are undone; all that weigh silver are cut off. And it shall come to pass at that time, that I will search Yerushalayim with candles, and punish the men that are settled on their lees: that say in their heart, The LORD does neither good, nor evil. Therefore their wealth shall become a prey, and their houses a desolation: they shall also build houses, but not inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, but not drink the wine of them. The great day of the LORD is near, it is near, and hastens greatly, the sound of the day of the LORD: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly. That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of ruin and desolation, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and thick darkness. A day of shofar and alarm against the fortified cities, and against the high towers. And I will bring distress upon men, that they shall walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the LORD: and their blood shall be poured out like dust, and their flesh like dung. Nor shall their silver or their gold be able to deliver them on the day of the LORD's wrath; but the whole land will be devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he shall make an end, indeed, a frightful end of all that dwell in the land.

Gather yourselves together, and assemble together, O unfeeling nation; before the decree is brought forth, before the day when you pass away like chaff, before the fierce anger of the LORD come upon you, before the day of the LORD's anger come upon you. Seek the LORD, all you humble of the earth, who have performed his judgment; seek righteousness, seek humility: it may be you shall be hidden in the day of the LORD's anger. For 'Azza shall be forsaken, and Ashqelon shall be a desolation: they shall drive out Ashdod at the noon day, and 'Eqron shall be rooted up. Woe to the inhabitants of the sea coast, the nation of the Keretim! the word of the LORD is against you; O Kena'an, the land of the Pelishtim, I will destroy thee, so that there shall be no inhabitant. And the sea 6 coast shall be pastures, and meadows for shepherds, and folds for flocks. And it shall be an allotment for the remnant of the 7 house of Yehuda; they shall feed there; in the houses of Ash-qelon they shall lie down in the evening: for the LORD their GOD shall remember them, and restore their captivity. I have 8 heard the taunt of Mo'av, and the revilings of the children of 'Ammon, whereby they have taunted my people, and magnified themselves against their border. Therefore as I live, says the 9 LORD of hosts, the GOD of Yisra'el, Surely Mo'av shall be like Sedom, and the children of 'Ammon like 'Amora, the breeding place of nettles, and saltpits, and a desolation for ever: the residue of my people shall spoil them, and the remnant of my people shall possess them. This they shall have for their pride, 10 because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of the LORD of hosts. The LORD will be terrible to 11 them: for he will famish all the gods of the earth; and men shall worship him, everyone from his place, all the islands of the nations. You Kushites also, you shall be slain by my sword. 12

And he will stretch out his hand against the north, and destroy 13 Ashshur; and will make Nineve a desolation, dry like the wilderness. And flocks shall lie down in the midst of her, all the 14 beasts of the nations: both the little owl and the great owl shall lodge in its capitals; their voice shall sing in the window; desolation shall be in the threshold: for he has uncovered the cedar work. This is the joyful city that dwelt securely, that 15 said in her heart, I am, and there is none beside me: how is she become a desolation, a place for beasts to lie down in: every one that passes by her shall hiss, and gesture with his hand. Woe to her that is filthy and polluted, to the 3 oppressing city! She did not obey the voice; she did not ac- 2 cept correction; she did not trust in the LORD; she did not draw near to her GOD. Her princes within her are roaring lions; 3 her judges are wolves at evening; they gnaw no bones in the morning. Her prophets are worthless, treacherous persons: her 4 priests have polluted the sanctuary, they have violently perverted Tora. The LORD is just; he is in her midst; he will not 5 do iniquity: every morning he brings his judgment to light; it does not fail; but the unjust knows no shame. I have cut off 6 nations: their pinnacles are desolate; I have made their streets waste, so that none passes by: their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, there is no inhabitant. I said, Surely thou 7 wilt fear me, thou wilt accept correction; then her dwelling would not have been cut off, according to all that I had threatened to bring upon her. However, they were up early and corrupted all their doings. Therefore wait for me, says the LORD, 8 until the day that I rise up to the prey: for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them my indignation, all my fierce anger: for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy. For then 9 I will convert the peoples to a purer language, that they may all call upon the name of the LORD, to serve him with one consent. From beyond the rivers of Kush come my suppliants, 10 thou shalt not be ashamed for all thy doings, in which thou hast transgressed against me: for then I will take away out of the midst of thee those who rejoice in thy pride, and thou shalt no more be haughty in my holy mountain. And I will 12 tongue be found in their mouth: for they shall feed and lie ter of Ẕiyyon; shout, O Yisra'el; be glad and rejoice with all thy heart, O daughter of Yerushalayim. The LORD has taken 15 away thy judgments, he has cast out thy enemy: the king of Yisra'el, the LORD, is in the midst of thee: thou shalt not see evil any more. In that day it shall be said to Yerusha- 16 slack. The LORD thy GOD is in the midst of thee; a mighty one 17 who will save; he will rejoice over thee with joy; he will be silent in his love, he will joy over thee with singing. Those 18 that mourn far away from the festive assembly, do I gather; they were thine, who had borne for thee the burden of insult. Behold, at that time I will undo all that afflict thee: 19 and I will save her who limps, and gather her that was driven out; and I will get them praise and fame, who had been put to shame in all the earth. At that time will I bring you in, and 20 at that time I will gather you: for I will make you a name and a praise among all the people of the earth, when I restore your captivity before your eyes, says the LORD.

ḤAGGAY / HAGGAY 1

In the second year of Daryavesh the king, in the sixth month, 1 on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came by Ḥaggay the prophet to Zerubbavel the son of She'alti'el, governor of Yehuda, and to Yehoshua the son of Yehoẓadaq, the high priest, saying, Thus speaks the LORD of hosts, saying, This 2 people say, The time is not come, the time that the LORD'S house should be built. Then the word of the LORD came 3 by Ḥaggay the prophet, saying, Is it time for you, yourselves, 4 to dwell in your well timbered houses, whilst this house lies waste? Now therefore thus says the LORD of hosts; Consider 5 your ways. You have sown much, and bring in little; you eat, 6 but you have not enough; you drink, but you are not filled with drink; you clothe yourselves, but no one is warm; and he that earns wages earns wages to put them into a bag with holes. Thus says the LORD of hosts; Consider your ways. 7 Go up to the mountain, and bring wood, and build the house; 8 and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, says the LORD. You looked for much, and, lo, it came to little; and when 9 you brought it home, I did blow upon it. Why? says the LORD of hosts. Because of my house that lies waste, and everyone of you runs to his own house. Therefore the heaven over you is 10 restrained from giving dew, and the earth is restrained from giving its produce. And I called for a drought upon the land, 11 and upon the mountains, and upon the corn, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground brings forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, and upon all the labour of the hands. Then Zerubbavel the son of Shalti'el, and 12 Yehoshua the son of Yehoẓadaq, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their GOD, and the words of Ḥaggay the prophet, as the LORD their GOD had sent him, and the people feared before the LORD.

Then Ḥaggay the LORD's messenger spoke the LORD's mes- 13 sage to the people, saying, I am with you, says the LORD.
And the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbavel the son of 14 Shalti'el, governor of Yehuda, and the spirit of Yehoshua the son of Yehoẓadaq, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and worked in the house of the LORD of hosts, their GOD, On the twenty fourth 15 day of the sixth month, in the second year of Daryavesh the king. In the seventh month, on the twenty first day of the 2 month, the word of the LORD came by the prophet Ḥaggay, saying, Speak now to Zerubbavel the son of Shalti'el, governor 2 of Yehuda, and to Yehoshua the son of Yehoẓadaq, the high priest, and to the residue of the people, saying, Who is left 3 among you that saw this house in its first glory? and how do you see it now? is it not in your eyes as nothing? Yet now be 4 strong, O Zerubbavel, says the LORD; and be strong, O Yeho-shua, son of Yehoẓadaq, the high priest; and be strong, all you people of the land, says the LORD, and work: for I am with you, says the LORD of hosts, according to the word that I cove- 5 nanted with you when you came out of Miẓrayim, so my spirit remains among you: fear not. For thus says the LORD 6 of hosts; Yet again, in just a little while, I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land; and I 7 will shake all the nations, and the costliest things of all the nations shall come; and I will fill this house with glory, says the LORD of hosts. The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, 8 says the LORD of hosts. The glory of this latter house shall be 9 greater than that of the former, says the LORD of hosts: and in this place I will give peace, says the LORD of hosts. On 10 the twenty fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Daryavesh, the word of the LORD came by Ḥaggay the prophet, saying, Thus says the LORD of hosts; Ask now a Tora of 11 the priests, saying, If one carries consecrated meat in the skirt 12 of his garment, and with his skirt he touches bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any food, does it become holy? And the priests answered and said, No. Then said Ḥaggay, If one that 13 is unclean by a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, It becomes unclean. Then Ḥaggay answered, and said, Such is this people, 14 and such is this nation before me, says the LORD; and such is every work of their hands; and that which they offer there is unclean. And now, I pray you, consider from this day on- 15 wards. Before a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the LORD, when one came to a heap of twenty measures, there 16 were but ten: when one came to the wine vat to draw out fifty measures of the press, there were but twenty. I smote 17 you with blasting and with mildew and with hail in all the labours of your hands; yet you turned not to me, says the LORD. But now consider from this day onwards, from the twen- 18 ty fourth day of the ninth month, from the day that the foundation of the LORD's temple was laid, consider it. Is the seed yet 19 in the barn? and do the vine, and the fig tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive tree, still not bring forth? from this day I will bless you. And again the word of the LORD came 20 to Ḥaggay on the twenty fourth day of the month, saying, Speak to Zerubbavel, governor of Yehuda, saying, I will shake 21 the heavens and the earth; and I will overthrow the throne of 22 kingdoms, and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations; and I will overthrow the chariots, and those that ride in them; and the horses and their riders shall come down, everyone by the sword of his brother. On that day, says the 23 LORD of hosts, I will take thee, O Zerubbavel, my servant, the son of She'alti'el, says the LORD, and will make thee like a signet ring: for I have chosen thee, says the LORD of hosts.

ZEKHARYA / ZECHARIAH 1

In the eighth month, in the second year of Daryavesh, the word 1 of the LORD came to Zekharya, the son of Berekhya, the son of 'Iddo the prophet, saying, The LORD has been much displeased 2 with your fathers. Therefore say to them, Thus says the LORD 3 of hosts; Turn to me, says the LORD of hosts, and I will return to you, says the LORD of hosts. Be not like your fathers, to whom 4 the former prophets cried, saying, Thus says the LORD of hosts; Turn now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but they did not hear, or hearken to me, says the LORD. Your fathers, 5 where are they? and the prophets, do they live for ever? But 6 my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not overtake your fathers? so that they repented and said, As the LORD of hosts intended to do to us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so has he dealt with us. On the twenty fourth day of the eleventh 7 month, which is the month Shevat, in the second year of Daryavesh, the word of the LORD came to Zekharya, the son of Berekhya, the son of 'Iddo the prophet, saying, I saw in the 8 night, and behold a man riding upon a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle bushes that were in the glen; and behind him were there red horses, sorrel, and white. Then I 9 said, O my lord, what are these? And the angel that talked with me said to me, I will show thee what these are. And the 10 man that stood among the myrtle bushes answered and said, These are they whom the LORD has sent to walk to and fro in the earth. And they answered the angel of the LORD that stood 11 among the myrtle bushes, and said, We have walked to and fro in the earth, and, behold, all the earth sits still, and is at rest. Then the angel of the LORD answered and said, O LORD 12 of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Yerushalayim and on the cities of Yehuda, against which thou hast had indignation these seventy years? And the LORD answered the 13 angel that talked with me with good words, words of comfort.

So the angel that spoke with me said to me, Proclaim, saying, 14
Thus says the LORD of hosts; I am zealous for Yerushalayim and for Ziyyon with a great zeal. And I am very much dis- 15 pleased with the nations that are at ease: for I was a little angry, but they helped forward the affliction.
Therefore thus says the LORD; I have returned to Yerushalayim 16 with mercies: my house shall be rebuilt in it, says the LORD of hosts, and a line shall be stretched forth over Yerushalayim. Proclaim further, saying, Thus says the LORD of hosts; 17 My cities shall again overflow with prosperity; and the LORD shall yet comfort Ziyyon, and shall yet choose Yerushalayim.

Then I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold four 2 horns. And I said to the angel that talked with me, What are 2 these? And he answered me, These are the horns which have scattered Yehuda, Yisra'el, and Yerushalayim. And the 3 LORD showed me four craftsmen. Then said I, What are they 4 coming to do? And he spoke, saying, Those were the horns which scattered Yehuda, so that no man could lift up his head:
but these are come to terrify them, to cast out the horns of the nations, which lifted up their horn over the land of Yehuda to scatter it. I lifted up my eyes again, and looked, and 5 behold a man with a measuring line in his hand. Then I said, 6 Where dost thou go? And he said to me, To measure Yerushalayim, to see what is the breadth of it, and what is the length of it. And, behold, the angel that talked with me went out, 7 and another angel went out to meet him, and he said to him, 8 Run, speak to this young man, saying, Yerushalayim shall be inhabited like unwalled towns because of the multitude of men and cattle that shall be in it: for I, says the LORD, will be to 9 her a wall of fire round about, and will be the glory in the midst of her. Ho, ho, flee then from the land of the north, says 10 the LORD: for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, says the LORD. Escape, O Ziyyon, that dwellest 11 with the daughter of Bavel. For thus says the LORD of 12 hosts — (because of his honour he sent me to the nations which spoiled you: for he that touches you touches the apple of his eye) — For behold, I will shake my hand over them, and 13 they shall be a spoil to those who served them.
And you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent me.

Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Ziyyon: for, lo, I come, and I 14 will dwell in the midst of thee, says the LORD. And many na- 15 tions shall join themselves to the LORD on that day, and shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee, and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to thee. And the 16

LORD shall inherit Yehuda as his portion in the holy land, and shall choose Yerushalayim again. Be silent, all flesh, before the 17
LORD: for he has roused himself out of his holy habitation. And he showed me Yehoshua the high priest stand- 3 ing before the angel of the LORD, and the adversary standing at his right hand to thwart him. And the LORD said to the adversary, 2
The LORD rebukes thee, O adversary; even the LORD who has chosen Yerushalayim rebukes thee: for is not this man a brand plucked out of the fire? Now Yehoshua was clothed in filthy gar- 3 ments, and he stood before the angel. And he answered and spoke 4 to those who stood before him, saying, Take off the filthy garments from him. And to him he said, Behold, I have caused thy iniquity to pass from thee; and I clothe thee in festive garments. Then I said, Let them put a pure mitre on his head. So they set 5 the pure mitre on his head, and clothed him with garments. And the angel of the LORD stood by. And the angel of the LORD fore- 6 warned Yehoshua, saying, Thus says the LORD of hosts; If thou 7 wilt walk in my ways, and if thou wilt keep my charge, and thou wilt also judge my house, and wilt also guard my courts, then I will give thee access among these who stand by. Hear 8 now, O Yehoshua the high priest, thou, and thy fellows who sit before thee: for they are men of good omen: for, behold, I will bring my servant Ẓemaḥ. For behold the stone that I have 9 laid before Yehoshua; upon one stone are seven facets: behold, I will engrave its inscription, says the LORD of hosts, and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day. On that day, says 10 the LORD of hosts, everyone of you shall invite his neighbour to come under his vine and under his fig tree. And 4 the angel that talked with me came back, and waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep, And he said to me, 2
What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and behold a candlestick all of gold, with a bowl upon the top of it, and seven lamps to it, and seven pipes to the seven lamps, which were upon the top of it: and there are two olive trees by it, 3 one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side of it. So I answered and spoke to the angel who talked 4 with me, saying, What are these, my lord? Then the angel 5 who talked with me answered and said to me, Knowst thou not what these are? And I said, No, my lord. Then he answered 6 and spoke to me, saying, This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbavel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, says the LORD of hosts. Who art thou, O great mountain? 7 before Zerubbavel become a plain! and he shall produce the headstone of it, amid shoutings of, Grace, grace to it.

Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, The 8, 9 hands of Zerubbavel have laid the foundation of this house; his hands shall also finish it; and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you. For who has despised the 10 day of small things? for those seven shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbavel; the eyes of the LORD, they rove to and fro through the whole earth. Then I 11 answered, and said to him, What are these two olive trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon the left side of it? And I answered again, and said to him, What are these 12 two olive branches which are beside the two golden spouts that empty the golden oil out of themselves? And he answered 13 me and said, Knowst thou not what these are? And I said, No, my lord. Then he said, These are the two anointed ones, that 14 stand by the LORD of the whole earth. Then I turned, 5 and lifted up my eyes, and looked, and behold a flying scroll.

And he said to me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a 2 flying scroll; the length of it is twenty cubits, and the breadth of it is ten cubits. Then he said to me, This is the curse that 3 goes forth over the face of the whole earth: for every thief has been hitherto quit of this which is on it, and every false swearer has been quit of this which is on it. I have now pro- 4 duced it, says the LORD of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him that swears falsely by my name: and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall consume it with the timber of it and the stones of it. Then the angel that talked with me went out, and 5 said to me, Lift up now thy eyes, and see what is this that goes out. And I said, What is it? And he said, This is an efa 6 measure going out. And he said, This is their appearance throughout the earth. And behold, the leaden cover was lifted; 7 and there was a woman sitting in the midst of the efa. And 8 he said, This is Wickedness. And he cast her into the midst of the efa measure; and he cast the lead cover over the mouth of it. Then I lifted up my eyes, and looked, and, behold, 9 there came two women, and the wind was in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a stork: and they lifted up the efa measure between the earth and the sky. Then I said 10 to the angel that talked with me, Where are they taking the efa? And he said to me, To build with it a house in the land 11 of Shin'ar: and when it is prepared, they will set it down there upon its base. And I turned, and lifted up my eyes, and 6 looked, and, behold, there came out four chariots from between the two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of brass. In the first chariot were red horses; and in the second 2 chariot, black horses; and in the third chariot, white horses; 3 and in the fourth chariot, grizzled, bay horses. Then I ans- 4 wered and said to the angel who talked with me, What are these, my lord? And the angel answered and said to me, These 5 are the four winds of the heavens, which go forth from standing before the LORD of all the earth. That in which are the 6 black horses goes out into the north country; and the white go after them; and the grizzled go towards the south country.
And the bay horses went out, and sought to go that they 7 might walk to and fro through the earth: and he said, Get you hence, walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth. Then he cried upon me, and 8 spoke to me, saying, Behold, these that go towards the north country have relieved my spirit in the north country. And 9 the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Take from the 10 Exiles, from Ḥelday, from Toviyya, and from Yeda'ya, and come thou on that same day and go into the house of Yoshiyya the son of Ẓefanya who have come from Bavel; and take 11 from them silver and gold, and make crowns, and set them upon the head of Yehoshua the son of Yehoẓadaq, the high priest; and speak to him, saying, Thus speaks the LORD of 12 hosts, saying, Behold a man whose name is Ẓemaḥ, and who shall grow up out of his place; and he shall build the temple of the LORD: he shall build the temple of the LORD; and he 13 shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule upon his throne; and there shall be a priest before his throne: and the counsel of peace shall be between them both. But the crowns shall 14 remain for a memorial to Ḥelem, and to Toviyya, and to Yeda'ya, and to Ḥen the son of Ẓefanya, in the temple of the LORD. And they that are far off shall come and build in the 15 temple of the LORD, and you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you. And this shall come to pass, if you diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God. 7 And it came to pass in the fourth year of king Daryavesh, that the word of the LORD came to Zekharya on the fourth day of the ninth month, in Kislev; when Bet-el, Shar'eẓer, and Regem- 2 melekh, and his men had sent to entreat the favour of the LORD, and to speak to the priests who were in the house of 3 the LORD of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, Should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these so many years? Then the word of the LORD of hosts came 4 to me, saying, Speak to all the people of the land, and to the 5 priests, saying, When you fasted and mourned in the fifth month and in the seventh, for these seventy years, was it for me that you really fasted? And when you did eat, and when 6 you did drink, did you not eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves? Should you not hear the words which the LORD 7 has proclaimed by the former prophets, when Yerushalayim was inhabited and in prosperity, and its cities round about her, when the Negev and the coastal plain were inhabited?

And the word of the LORD came to Zekharya, saying, 8 Thus spoke the LORD of hosts, saying, Execute true judgment, 9 and show loyal love and mercy every man to his brother:
and do not oppress the widow, or the fatherless, the stranger, 10 or the poor; and let none of you devise evil against his brother in your heart. But they refused to hearken, and turned a stub- 11 born shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear: and they made their hearts an adamant stone, lest they 12 should hear the Tora, and the words which the LORD of hosts had sent in his spirit by the former prophets: therefore a great anger came from the LORD of hosts. And so, when he cried, 13 and they would not hear, the LORD of hosts said: So shall they cry, and I will not hear; but I will scatter them with a 14 storm wind among all the nations whom they know not; and the land shall be desolate after them, so that no man shall pass by or return. Thus they made the pleasant land a desolation. And the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, 1 saying, Thus says the LORD of hosts; I was zealous for Ziyyon 2 with great zeal, and I was zealous for her with a great fury.

Thus says the LORD; I have returned to Ziyyon, and will dwell 3 in the midst of Yerushalayim: and Yerushalayim shall be called The city of truth; and the mountain of the LORD of hosts, The holy mountain. Thus says the LORD of hosts; 4 Old men and old women shall yet again dwell in the streets of Yerushalayim, and every man with his staff in his hand for very age. And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and 5 girls playing in its streets. Thus says the LORD of hosts; 6
If it be marvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days, it will also be marvellous in my eyes, says the LORD of hosts. Thus says the LORD of hosts; Behold, I 7 will save my people from the east country, and from the west country; and I will bring them in, and they will dwell in the 8 midst of Yerushalayim: and they will be my people, and I will be their GOD, in truth and in righteousness. Thus 9 says the LORD of hosts; Let your hands be strong, you that hear in these days these words by the mouth of the prophets, who spoke on the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, saying that the temple might be built. For before these days there was no hire for man, nor 10 any hire for beast; nor was there any peace to him that went out or came in because of the adversary: for I set all men everyone against his neighbour. But now I will not be to the 11 remnant of this people as in the former days, says the LORD of hosts. For there shall be the seed of peace; the vine shall 12 give her fruit, and the ground shall yield its increase, and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things. And it shall come to 13 pass, that as you were a curse among the nations, O house of Yehuda, and house of Yisra'el; so will I save you, and you shall be a blessing: fear not, but let your hands be strong.

For thus says the LORD of hosts; As I intended to do 14 you mischief, when your fathers provoked me to anger, says the LORD of hosts, and I did not relent: so have I turned about, 15 and do purpose in these days to do good to Yerushalayim and to the house of Yehuda: fear not. These are the things 16 that you shall do; Speak every man the truth to his neighbour; execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates: and let none of you devise evil in your hearts against his 17 neighbour; and love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate, says the LORD. And the word of the LORD 18 of hosts came to me, saying, Thus says the LORD of hosts; 19
The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, shall become times of joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts to the house of Yehuda; therefore love the truth and peace.

Thus says the LORD of hosts; It shall yet come to pass, 20 that there shall come people, and the inhabitants of many cities: and the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, 21 saying, Let us go speedily to entreat the favour of the LORD, and to seek the LORD of hosts: I will go also. And many 22 peoples and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Yerushalayim, and to pray before the LORD. Thus says 23 the LORD of hosts; In those days it shall come to pass, that ten men out of all the languages of the nations shall take hold, and shall seize the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you: for we have heard that GOD is with you. The burden of the word of the LORD; in the land 9 of Ḥadrakh and Dammeseq shall his resting place be: for the eyes of man, as of all the tribes of Yisra'el, shall be towards the LORD: and in Ḥamat also which borders thereby; Ẓor and 2 Ẓidon, though it be very wise. And Ẓor did build herself a 3 stronghold, and heaped up silver like dust, and fine gold like the mire of the streets. Behold, the LORD will strip her of her 4 possessions, and he will smite her power into the sea; and she shall be devoured with fire. Ashqelon shall see it, and fear; 5 'Azza also shall see it, and be very sorrowful, and 'Eqron shall see that her expectation has been confounded; and the king shall perish from 'Azza, and Ashqelon shall not be inhabited.

And a bastard shall dwell in Ashdod, and I will cut off the 6 pride of the Pelishtim. And I will take away his blood out of 7 his mouth, and his detestable things from between his teeth: and he too, shall remain for our GOD, and he shall be like a clan in Yehuda, and 'Eqron like the Yevusite. And I will en- 8 camp about my house against any army, against any that pass by, and return: and no oppressor shall pass through them any more: for now have I seen with my eyes. Rejoice 9 greatly, O daughter of Ẓiyyon; shout, O daughter of Yerushalayim: behold, thy king comes to thee: he is just, and victorious; humble, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt, the foal of an ass. And I will cut off the chariot from Efrayim, and the horse 10 from Yerushalayim, and the battle bow shall be cut off: and he shall speak peace to the nations: and his dominion shall be from sea to sea, and from the river to the ends of the earth.
As for thee also, because of the blood of thy covenant I have 11 sent forth thy prisoners out of the pit in which there was no water. Return to the stronghold you prisoners of hope: even 12 to day will I restore to thee a double promise. For I have bent 13 Yehuda for me, I have filled the bow with Efrayim, and raised up my sons, O Ẓiyyon, against thy sons, O Yavan, and made thee as the sword of a mighty man. And the LORD shall be 14 seen over them, and his arrow shall go forth like the lightning: and the LORD GOD shall blow the shofar, and shall move in the stormwinds of the south. The LORD of hosts shall defend them; 15 and they shall devour, and subdue with sling stones; and they shall drink, and be boisterous as through wine; and they shall be filled like bowls, and like the corners of the altar. And the 16 LORD their GOD shall save them on that day as the flock of his people; for they shall be like the stones of a crown gleaming over his land. For how goodly they are, and how beautiful! 17 corn shall make young men flourish; and new wine, the virgins. Ask rain of the LORD in the time of the latter rain, of 10 the LORD who makes lightnings; and he will give them showers of rain, to everyone grass in the field. For the terafim have 2 spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie, and the dreams tell falsehood; they comfort in vain: therefore they went their way as a flock, they were afflicted, because there was no shepherd. My anger burns against the shepherds, and I 3 will punish the goats: for the LORD of hosts has remembered his flock, the house of Yehuda, and makes them like the magnificent steed in the battle. Out of him shall come forth the 4 cornerstone, out of him the stake, out of him the battle bow, out of him every ruler together. And they shall be like mighty 5 men, who tread down their enemies in the mire of the streets in the battle: and they shall fight, because the LORD is with them, and the riders on horses shall be confounded. And I 6 will strengthen the house of Yehuda, and I will save the house of Yosef, and I will bring them back again for I have had mercy upon them: and they shall be as though I had not cast them off: for I am the LORD their GOD, and will hear them. And they 7 of Efrayim shall be like a mighty man, and their heart shall rejoice as through wine: and their children shall see it, and be glad; their heart shall rejoice in the LORD. I will whis- 8 tle to them, and gather them; for I have redeemed them: and they shall increase as they have before increased. And I 9 will sow them among the peoples: and they shall remember me in far countries; and they shall live with their children, and shall return. And I will bring them back out of 10 the land of Mizrayim, and gather them out of Ashshur, and I will bring them into the land of Gil'ad and Levanon; so that there will be no room for them. And he shall pass through the 11 sea with affliction, and shall smite the waves in the sea, and all the deeps of the River shall dry up: and the pride of Ashshur shall be brought down, and the sceptre of Mizrayim shall depart away. And I will strengthen them in the LORD; and they 12 shall walk up and down in his name, says the LORD. Open 11 thy doors, O Levanon, that the fire may devour thy cedars.

Wail, O cypress tree; for the cedar is fallen; because the mighty 2 are spoiled: wail, O you oaks of Bashan; for the thick forest is come down. There is a voice of the wailing of the shepherds; 3 for their glory is spoiled: a voice of the roaring of young lions; for the wild country of the Yarden is plundered. Thus 4 says the LORD my GOD: Feed the flock of the slaughter; whose 5 possessors slay them, and hold themselves not guilty: and they that sell them say, Blessed is the LORD; for I am rich: and their own shepherds pity them not. For I will no more pity 6 the inhabitants of the land, says the LORD: but, lo, I will deliver the men everyone into his neighbour's hand, and into the hand of his king: and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them. So I fed the flock of slaugh- 7 ter, indeed the poorest of the flock. And I took for myself two rods; the one I called Grace, and the other I called Severity; and I fed the flock. Three shepherds also I cut off in one month; 8 and I became impatient with them, and their soul also abhorred me. Then I said, I will not be your shepherd: that which 9 dies, let it die; and that which is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the rest eat the flesh of one another. And I took my 10 rod, Grace, and snapped it, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the peoples. And it was broken on 11 that day: and so the poorest of the flock who paid heed to me knew that it was the word of the LORD. And I said to them, If 12 you think good, give me my hire; and if not, forbear. So they weighed for my hire thirty pieces of silver. And the LORD said 13 to me, Cast it into the treasury: the goodly price that I was priced at by them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them into the treasury in the house of the LORD. Then I 14 snapped my other staff, Severity, that I might break the brotherhood between Yehuda and Yisra'el. And the LORD 15 said to me, Take to thee yet the instruments of a foolish shepherd. For, lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, who 16 shall not take care of those who are cut off, nor seek the young one, nor heal the broken, nor feed that which stands still: but he shall eat the flesh of the fat, and break their hoofs in pieces. Woe to my worthless shepherd who forsakes the flock! 17 the sword shall be upon his arm, and upon his right eye: his arm shall be dried up, and his right eye shall be darkened.

The burden of the word of the LORD concerning Yisra'el. 12
The saying of the LORD, who stretches out the heavens, and lays the foundation of the earth, and forms the spirit of man within him; Behold, I will make Yerushalayim a cup of stag- 2 gering to all the peoples round about, and it shall also be for Yehuda during the siege against Yerushalayim. And on that 3 day I will make Yerushalayim a burdensome stone for all the peoples: all that burden themselves with it shall be grievously hurt: and all the peoples of the earth shall be gathered together against it. On that day, says the LORD, I will smite 4 every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness:
and I will open my eyes upon the house of Yehuda, and will smite every horse of the nations with blindness. And the gov- 5 ernors of Yehuda shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Yerushalayim are my strength through the LORD of hosts their GOD. On that day I will make the chiefs of Yehuda like a 6 hearth of fire among trees, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf; and they shall devour all the peoples round about, on the right hand and on the left: and Yerushalayim shall be inhabited again in her own place, even in Yerushalayim. And the LORD 7 shall save the tents of Yehuda first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Yerushalayim do not magnify themselves against Yehuda. On that day shall 8 the LORD defend the inhabitants of Yerushalayim; and he that stumbles among them at that day shall be like David; and the house of David shall be like a divine being, like the angel of the LORD before them. And it shall come to pass on that day, 9 that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Yerushalayim. But I will pour upon the house of David, and 10 upon the inhabitants of Yerushalayim, the spirit of grace and of supplication: and they shall look towards me, regarding those whom the nations have thrust through. And they shall mourn for him (that is slain) as one mourns for an only son, and shall be in bitterness over him, as one that is in bitterness for a firstborn. On that day shall there be a great mourning 11 in Yerushalayim, like the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon. And the land shall mourn, every family apart; 12 the family of the house of David apart, and their wives apart;

the family of the house of Natan apart, and their wives apart;
the family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; 13 the family of Shim'i apart, and their wives apart; all the 14 families that remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.
On that day there shall be a fountain opened to the house of 13
David and to the inhabitants of Yerushalayim for cleansing and for sprinkling. And it shall come to pass on that day, says 2 the LORD of hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered: and also I will cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land. And it shall come to pass, that when any shall 3 yet prophesy, then his father and his mother who begot him shall say to him, Thou shalt not live; for thou speakest lies in the name of the LORD: and his father and his mother who begot him shall thrust him through when he prophesies. And 4 it shall come to pass on that day, that the prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision, when he has prophesied; and they shall not put on the hairy mantle to deceive: but he 5 shall say, I am no prophet, I am a tiller of the ground; for a man taught me to keep cattle from my youth. And one shall 6 say to him, What are these wounds between thy hands? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends. Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, 7 and against the man who is associated with me, says the LORD of hosts: smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered: and I will turn my hand against the little ones. And it shall 8 come to pass, that in all the land, says the LORD, two parts in it shall be cut off and die; but the third shall be left in it.
And I will bring the third part through the fire, and will refine 9 them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried:
they shall call on my name, and I will hear them: I will say,
It is my people: and they shall say, The LORD is my GOD.

Behold, the day of the LORD comes, when thy spoil shall be 14 divided in the midst of thee. For I will gather all the nations 2 against Yerushalayim to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go into exile, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city. Then shall the LORD go out, and fight 3 against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle.
And his feet shall stand in that day upon the mount of Olives, 4 which is before Yerushalayim on the east, and the mount of Olives shall be split along the middle of it by a very great valley from east to west; and half of the mountain shall be removed towards the north, and half of it, towards the south.
And you shall flee to the valley of the mountains; for the val- 5 ley of the mountains shall reach to Azel: and you shall flee, just as you fled from before the earthquake in the days of 'Uzziyya king of Yehuda: and the LORD my GOD shall come, and all the holy ones with thee. And it shall come to pass on that 6 day, that there shall neither be bright light nor thick darkness; but it shall be one particular day which shall be known as the 7 LORD'S, neither day, nor night: but it shall come to pass that at evening time, there will be light. And on that day, living 8 waters shall go out from Yerushalayim; half of them towards the eastern sea, and half of them toward the western sea: in summer and in winter shall it be. And the LORD shall be king 9 over all the earth: on that day the LORD shall be one, and his name One. All the land shall be changed like the 'Arava from 10 Geva to Rimmon south of Yerushalayim; whilst she shall be lifted up, and shall remain in her place, from the gate of Binyamin to the place of the first gate, to the corner gate, and from the tower of Ḥanan'el to the king's winepresses. And 11 men shall dwell in it, and there shall be no more utter destruction; but Yerushalayim shall dwell secure. And this 12 shall be the plague with which the LORD will smite all the peoples that have fought against Yerushalayim; their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their sockets, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth. And it shall come to pass 13 on that day, that a great panic from the LORD shall be among them; and they shall lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbour, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbour. And Yehuda also shall fight at Yerushalayim; and 14 the wealth of all the nations round about shall be gathered together, gold, and silver, and clothing, in great abundance. And 15 such shall be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the ass, and of all the beasts that shall be in these camps, as this plague. And it shall come to pass, that every 16 one that is left of all the nations who came against Yerushalayim, shall go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the feast of booths. And who- 17 ever does not come up of all the families of the earth to Yerushalayim to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, upon them shall be no rain. And if the family of Miẓrayim does not go up, 18 and does not come, then they shall have no overflow. This shall be the plague, with which the LORD will smite the nations that shall not come up to keep the feast of booths. This shall 19 be the punishment of Miẓrayim, and the punishment of all nations that do not come up to keep the feast of booths.

On that day shall there be (inscribed) upon the bells of the 20 horses, Holiness to the LORD; and the pots in the LORD'S house shall be like the basins before the altar. And every pot in Ye- 21 rushalayim and in Yehuda shall be sacred to the LORD of hosts: and all they that sacrifice shall come and take of them, and cook in them: and on that day there shall be no more merchants in the house of the LORD of hosts.

The burden of the word of the LORD to Yisra'el by Mal'akhi. 1
I have loved you, says the LORD. Yet you say, In what hast thou 2 loved us? Was not 'Esav Ya'aqov's brother? says the LORD: yet I loved Ya'aqov, and I hated 'Esav, and laid his mountains 3 waste, and gave his heritage to the jackals of the wilderness.
For Edom says, We are made destitute; but we will return and 4 rebuild the desolate places. Thus says the LORD of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; and they shall be called,
The border of wickedness, and, The people against whom the LORD has indignation for ever. And your eyes shall see, and you 5 shall say, The LORD is great beyond the border of Yisra'el. A 6 son honours his father, and a servant his master: if then I am a father, where is my honour? and if I am a master, where is my fear? says the LORD of hosts to you, O priests, who despise my name. And you say, In what have we despised thy name?
You offer disgusting bread upon my altar; and you say, In what 7 have we polluted thee? In that you say, The table of the LORD is contemptible. And if you offer the blind for sacrifice, is it not 8 evil? and if you offer a lame or sick animal, is that not evil? offer it now to thy governor; will he be pleased with thee, or will he show you favour? says the LORD of hosts. And now, I pray you, 9 entreat GOD that he will be gracious to us: this has been your doing: will he show favour to any of you? says the LORD of hosts. O that there were one among you who would shut the 10 doors that you might not kindle fire on my altar for nought!
I have no pleasure in you, says the LORD of hosts, nor will I accept an offering at your hand. For from the rising of the sun 11 until it goes down, my name is great among the nations; and in every place incense is burnt and sacrifices are offered to my name, and a pure offering: for my name is great among the nations, says the LORD of hosts. But you profane it, in that you 12 suppose that the table of the LORD is disgusting, and its fruit contemptible to eat. And you have said, Behold, what a weari- 13 ness it is! and you have snuffed at it, says the LORD of hosts; and you have brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick; so you have brought an offering: should I accept this at your hand? says the LORD. But cursed be the deceiver, who 14 has in his flock a male, and yet vows, and sacrifices to the LORD what is blemished: for I am a great king, says the LORD of hosts, and my name is feared among the nations. And now, 2 O you priests, this commandment is for you. If you will not 2 hear, and if you will not lay it to heart, to give glory to my name, says the LORD of hosts, then I will send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings: indeed, I have cursed them already, because you do not lay it to heart. Behold, I will rebuke 3 your seed, and spread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your feasts; and you will be taken away with it. And you shall 4 know that I have sent this commandment to you, that my covenant might be with Levi, says the LORD of hosts. My covenant 5 was with him for life and peace; and I gave them to him for the fear with which he feared me, and was afraid of my name.
The Tora of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not to be 6 found on his lips: he walked with me in peace and uprightness, and turned many away from iniquity. For the priest's lips should 7 keep knowledge, and they should seek Tora at his mouth: for he is a messenger of the LORD of hosts. But you have turned 8 aside out of the way; you have caused many to stumble in the Tora; you have corrupted the covenant of Levi, says the LORD of hosts. Therefore I also have made you contemptible and base 9 before all the people, since you have not kept my ways, but have been partial in regard to the Tora. Have we not all one 10 father? has not one GOD created us? why do we deal treach-erously every man against his brother, to profane the covenant of our fathers? Yehuda has dealt treacherously, and a 11 disgusting thing has been done in Yisra'el and in Yerushalayim: for Yehuda has profaned the holiness of the LORD which he loved, and has married the daughter of a strange god. The LORD 12 will cut off from the man that does this all living offspring from the tents of Ya'aqov, or any to present an offering to the LORD of hosts. And this is the second thing you do: you cover 13 the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with sighing, because he will not regard the offering any more, or receive it with good will at your hand. And you say, Why is this? It is 14 because the LORD has been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet she is thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant. And has 15 he not ordained one flesh, so that one should have a spiritual kin? And what does that one flesh seek? A godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth. For to put away is hateful, says 16 the LORD, the GOD of Yisra'el, and violence will cover his garment, says the LORD of hosts: therefore take heed to your spirit, that you do not deal treacherously. You have wearied the 17 LORD with your words. Yet you say, In what have we wearied him? When you say, Everyone that does evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delights in them; or, Where is the GOD of judgment? Behold, I send my messenger, and he shall clear 3 the way before me: and the LORD, whom you seek, shall suddenly come to his temple; and the messenger of the covenant, whom you delight in, behold, he shall come, says the LORD of hosts. But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall 2 stand when he appears? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like the washers' soap: and he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of 3 silver: and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them like gold and silver, that they may offer to the LORD an offering in righteousness. Then shall the offering of Yehuda and Yeru- 4 shalayim be pleasant to the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in former years. And I will come near to you to judgment; 5 and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those who oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and who turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, says the LORD of hosts. For I am the LORD, I do not change; 6 therefore you sons of Ya'aqov are not consumed. From the 7 days of your fathers you have turned aside from my ordinances, and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you, says the LORD of hosts. But you have said, With what shall we return? Will a man rob GOD? Yet you have robbed me. But you 8 say, In what have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings. You 9 are cursed with a curse: for you have robbed me, this whole nation. Bring all the tithes into the storehouse, so that there 10 may be food in my house, and put me to the test with that, says the LORD of hosts, if I will not open for you the windows of heaven, and pour out for you blessing immeasurable. And I will 11 rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; nor shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, says the LORD of hosts. And all na- 12 tions shall call you blessed: for you shall be a land of delight, says the LORD of hosts. Your words have been strong 13 against me, says the LORD. Yet you say, What have we spoken against thee? You have said, It is vain to serve GOD: and what 14 profit is it that we have kept his charge, and that we have walked mournfully before the LORD of hosts? And now we call 15 the proud happy; they who work wickedness are even built up; even they who tempt GOD escape. Then they who feared 16 the LORD spoke to one another: and the LORD hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for those who feared the LORD, and took heed of his name. And 17 they shall be mine, says the LORD of hosts, on that day which I appoint as my particular day; and I will spare them, as a man spares his own son who serves him. Then you shall return, 18 and see the difference between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serves GOD and him that does not serve him. For, behold, that day is coming; it burns like a fur- 19 nace; and all the arrogant, and all who do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that is coming shall burn them up, says the LORD of hosts, so that it will leave them neither root nor branch. But to you who fear my name the sun of righteousness 20 shall arise with healing in its wings; and you shall go out, and leap like calves from the stall. And you shall tread down 21 the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet on the day that I do this, says the LORD of hosts. Remem- 22 ber the Tora of Moshe my servant, which I commanded him in Ḥorev for all Yisra'el, both statutes and judgments. Behold, I 23 will send you Eliyya, the prophet, before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD: and he shall turn the heart of 24 the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the land with a curse.

BOOK ONE

BLESSED is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scorners. But his delight is in the Tora of the LORD; and in his Tora he meditates day and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by streams of water, that brings forth its fruit in its season; its leaf also shall not wither; and in whatever he does he shall prosper. Not so the wicked: but they are like the chaff which the wind drives away. Therefore the wicked shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous. For the LORD knows the way of the righteous: but the way of the wicked shall perish.

WHY are the nations in uproar, and the people mutter a vain thing? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his anointed, saying, Let us break their bonds asunder, and cast away their cords from us. He who sits in the heavens laughs: the LORD has them in derision. Then shall he speak to them in his wrath, and terrify them in his burning anger. But I have set my king upon Ẓiyyon, my holy hill. I will tell of the decree: the LORD has said to me, Thou art my son; this day have I begotten thee. Ask of me, and I shall give thee nations for thy inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession. Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel. Be wise now therefore, O kings: be warned, O judges of the earth. Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling. Worship in purity, lest he be angry, and you perish from the way, for in a little while his anger will blaze. Blessed are all who put their trust in him.

A PSALM of David, when he fled from Avshalom his son. LORD, how many are my enemies become! many are they who rise up against me: many there be who say of my soul, There is no help for him in GOD. (Sela.) But thou, O LORD, art a shield for me; my glory, and the lifter up of my head. I cried to the LORD with my voice, and he heard me out of his holy hill. (Sela.) I lie me down and sleep; I awake; for the LORD sustains me. I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people, that have set themselves against me round about. Arise, O LORD; save me, O my GOD: for thou hast smitten all my enemies upon the cheek; thou hast broken the teeth of the wicked. Salvation belongs to the LORD: thy blessing be upon thy people. (Sela.)

FOR the chief Musician on strings, A Psalm of David. Hear me when I call, O GOD of my righteousness: thou hast enlarged me when I was in distress; have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer. O sons of men, how long will you turn my glory into shame? you love vanity, and seek after falsehood. (Sela.) But know that the LORD has set apart the godly man as his own: the LORD will hear when I call to him. Tremble, and sin not: commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still. (Sela.) Offer the sacrifices of righteousness, and put your trust in the LORD. There are many who say, Who will show us good? LORD, lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us.

Thou hast put more gladness in my heart than they have 8 whose corn and wine are increased. I will both lie down and 9 sleep, in peace: for thou, LORD, alone, makest me to dwell in safety.

To the chief Musician for flutes, A Psalm of David. Give ear 1,2 to my words, O LORD, consider my meditation. Hearken to the 3 voice of my cry, my King, and my GOD: for to thee I will pray.
My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O LORD; in the morn- 4 ing I will direct my prayer to thee; and will wait expectantly.
For thou art not a GOD that hast pleasure in wickedness; nor 5 shall evil dwell with thee. The boastful shall not stand in thy 6 sight: thou hatest all workers of iniquity. Thou dost destroy 7 them that speak falsehood: the LORD abhors the bloody and deceitful man. But as for me, I will come into thy house in the 8 multitude of thy love: and in the fear of thee I will worship towards thy holy temple. Lead me, O LORD, in thy righteousness 9 because of my enemies; make thy way straight before my face.
For there is no sincerity in their mouth; in their heart is malice; 10 their throat is an open sepulchre; they flatter with their tongue.
Condemn them, O GOD; let them fall by their own counsels; 11 cast them out for the multitude of their transgressions; for they have rebelled against thee. But let all those that put their trust 12 in thee rejoice: let them ever shout for joy, because thou dost defend them: and let those who love thy name be joyful in thee. For thou, LORD, dost bless the righteous; thou dost encircle 13 him with favour as with a shield.

To the chief Musician on strings upon the Sheminit, A Psalm of David. O LORD, rebuke me not in thy anger, nor chasten 2 me in thy hot displeasure. Have mercy upon me, O LORD; for I 3 am weak: O LORD, heal me; for my bones shudder; and 4 my soul is much affrighted. And thou, O LORD, how long?
Return, O LORD, deliver my soul: oh save me on account of 5 thy steadfast love. For in death there is no remembrance of 6 thee: in She'ol who shall give thee thanks? I am weary with 7 my groaning: all the night I make my bed to swim; I water my couch with my tears. My eye is wasted because of grief; it 8 grows weak because of all my enemies. Depart from me, all you 9 workers of iniquity; for the LORD has heard the voice of my weeping. The LORD has heard my supplication; the LORD receives 10 my prayer. All my enemies will be ashamed and much affright- 11 ed: they will turn back and be confounded in a moment.

A SHIGGAYON of David, which he sang to the LORD, concerning 2 the words of Kush the Benyeminite. O LORD my GOD, in thee do I put my trust: save me from all them that persecute me, and deliver me: lest he tear my soul like a lion, rending it in 3 pieces, while there is none to deliver. O LORD my GOD, if I have 4 done this; if there be iniquity in my hands; if I have rewarded 5 evil to him that was at peace with me; (indeed, I have rescued him that without cause is my enemy:) let the enemy 6 persecute my soul, and take it; and let him tread down my life to the earth, and lay my honour in the dust. (Sela.) Arise, 7 O LORD, in thy anger, lift up thyself against the fury of my enemies: and awake for me: thou hast commanded judgment.

Let the congregation of the peoples compass thee about: and 8 for their sakes return thou on high. The LORD shall judge the 9 peoples. Judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness, and according to my integrity that is in me. O let the wickedness 10 of the wicked come to an end; but establish the just: for the righteous GOD tries the hearts and reins. My defence is of GOD, 11 who saves the upright in heart. GOD is a righteous judge; and a 12 GOD who has indignation every day. If a man does not turn, 13 then he will whet his sword; he has bent his bow, and made it ready. He has also prepared for him the instruments of 14 death; he makes arrows for the pursuers. Behold, he travails 15 with iniquity, and has conceived mischief, and brings forth falsehood. He has made a pit, and has dug it out, and has fallen 16 into the ditch which he made. His mischief shall return upon 17 his own head, and his violent dealing shall come down upon his own pate. I will praise the LORD according to his righteousness: 18 and will sing praise to the name of the LORD most high.

To the chief Musician upon the Gittit, A Psalm of David. O 1,2 LORD our LORD, how majestic is thy name in all the earth; who hast set thy glory above the heavens. Out of the mouth of 3 babes and sucklings hast thou founded strength because of thy enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger. When I behold thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, 4 the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained; what is man, 5 that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him? Yet thou hast made him a little lower than the 6 angels, and thou dost crown him with glory and honour. Thou 7 makest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet: all sheep, and oxen, and 8 also the beasts of the field; the birds of the sky, and the fish 9 of the sea; whatever passes through the paths of the seas. O 10 LORD our LORD, how majestic is thy name in all the earth!

To the chief Musician on the death of Labben, A Psalm of 9 David. I will praise thee, O LORD, with my whole heart; I 2 will relate all thy marvellous works. I will be glad and rejoice 3 in thee: I will sing praise to thy name, O thou most High:
when my enemies are turned back, when they stumble and 4 perish at thy presence. For thou hast maintained my right and 5 my cause; thou didst sit on the throne giving righteous judgment. Thou hast rebuked the nations, thou hast destroyed the 6 wicked, thou hast blotted out their name for ever and ever.
The enemies are come to an end, in perpetual ruins: for thou 7 hast destroyed the cities; their memorial is perished. But the 8 LORD shall endure forever: he has prepared his throne for judgment. And he will judge the world in righteousness, he will 9 minister judgment to the people in uprightness. The LORD also 10 will be a stronghold for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble. And they that know thy name will put their trust in 11 thee: for thou, LORD, hast not forsaken those who seek thee.
Sing praises to the LORD, who dwells in Ziyyon: declare among 12 the peoples his doings. For he avenges blood, he remembers 13 it: he does not forget the cry of the humble. Be gracious to me, 14 O LORD; consider my trouble which I suffer from those who hate me, thou that liftest me up from the gates of death: that I 15 may relate all thy praise in the gates of the daughter of Ẓiyyon.

I will rejoice in thy salvation. The nations are sunk down in the 16 pit that they have made: in the net which they hid is their own foot taken. The LORD is known by the judgment which he 17 executes: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. (A Higgayon. Sela.) The wicked shall be turned back to She'ol, 18 all the nations that forget GOD. For the needy shall not always 19 be forgotten: the expectation of the poor shall not perish forever. Arise, O LORD; let man not prevail: let the nations be 20 judged in thy sight. Put them in fear, O LORD: the nations will 21 then know themselves to be but men. (Sela.)

WHY standest thou afar off, O LORD? why hidest thou thyself 10 in times of trouble? The wicked in his pride hotly pursues the 2 poor: let them be taken in the devices that they have imagined.
For the wicked boasts of his heart's desire, and the greedy 3 wretch curses and renounces the LORD. The wicked, through 4 the pride of his countenance thinks, He will not seek out: all his thoughts are, GOD is not. His ways are always strong; thy 5 judgments are far above out of his sight: as for all his enemies, he hisses at them. He says in his heart, I shall not be moved: 6 for I shall never be in adversity. His mouth is full of cursing 7 and deceit and fraud: under his tongue is mischief and iniquity.
He sits in the lurking places of the villages: in the secret places 8 he murders the innocent: his eyes stealthily watch for the helpless. He lies in wait secretly like a lion in his den: he lies 9 in wait to catch the poor: he catches the poor, when he draws him into his net. The helpless collapse: they bow down, and 10 fall into his power. He says in his heart, GOD has forgotten: he 11 hides his face; he will never see it. Arise, O LORD; O GOD, lift 12 up thy hand: forget not the humble. Why does the wicked man 13 renounce GOD? he says in his heart, Thou wilt not avenge. Thou 14 hast seen it; for thou beholdest mischief and spite, to requite it with thy hand: the helpless man commits himself to thee; thou art the helper of the fatherless. Break thou the arm of the 15 wicked and the evil man: seek out his wickedness till thou find none left. The LORD is King for ever and ever: the nations are 16 perished out of his land. LORD, thou hast heard the desire of the 17 humble: thou wilt strengthen their heart, thou wilt cause thy ear to hear: to judge the fatherless and the oppressed, so that 18 none shall any longer terrify innocent men from the earth.

To the chief Musician, of David. In the LORD I put my 11 trust: how can you say to my soul, Flee like a bird to your mountain? For, lo, the wicked bend the bow, they make ready 2 their arrow upon the string, that they may shoot in darkness at the upright in heart. For when the foundations are destroyed, 3 what can the righteous do? The LORD in his holy temple, the 4 LORD whose throne is in heaven, whose eyes behold, whose eyelids try, the children of men: the LORD tries the righteous: but 5 the wicked and him who loves violence his soul hates. Upon the 6 wicked he shall rain coals, fire and brimstone, and a scorching wind shall be the portion of their cup. For the LORD is righteous, 7 he loves righteousness; the upright shall behold his face.

To the chief Musician upon the Sheminit, A Psalm of David. 1 Help, LORD; for the godly man ceases; for the faithful fail from 2 among the children of men. They speak vanity every one with 3 his fellow: with flattering lips and with a double heart they speak. May the LORD cut off all flattering lips, the tongue that 4 speaks proud things: who have said, With our tongue we will 5 prevail; our lips are our own: who is lord over us? For the 6 violence done to the poor, for the sighing of the needy, now will I arise, says the LORD; I will set him in safety at whom they hiss. The words of the LORD are pure words: silver refined in a 7 furnace upon the ground, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep 8 them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation forever. The wicked walk on every side, when vileness is exalted 9 among the children of men.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. How long wilt thou 1,2 forget me O LORD? forever? how long wilt thou hide thy face from me? How long shall I take counsel in my soul, having sor- 3 row in my heart daily? how long shall my enemy be exalted over me? Look, and hear me, O LORD my GOD: lighten my 4 eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death; lest my enemy say, I have 5 prevailed against him; and those who trouble me rejoice when I am moved. But I have trusted in thy mercy; my heart shall re- 6 joice in thy salvation. I will sing to the LORD, because he has dealt bountifully with me.

To the chief Musician, of David. The fool has said in his heart, There is no GOD. They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that does good. The LORD look- 2 ed down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that understood, and sought GOD. They are all gone 3 aside, they are all together become filthy: there is none that does good, no, not one. Have all the workers of iniquity no 4 knowledge? who eat up my people as they eat bread, and call not upon the LORD. There were they in great fear: for GOD is 5 in the generation of the righteous. You shame the counsel of the 6 poor, because the LORD is his refuge. Oh that the salvation of 7 Yisra'el were come out of Ziyyon! when the LORD brings back the captivity of his people, Ya'aqov shall rejoice, and Yisra'el shall be glad.

15

A PSALM of David. LORD, who shall abide in thy tent? who shall dwell in thy holy hill? He that walks uprightly, and acts justly, 2 and speaks the truth in his heart. He that does not slander with 3 his tongue, nor does evil to his fellow, nor takes up a reproach against his neighbour. In whose eyes a vile person is despised; 4 but he honours them that fear the LORD. He that swears to his own hurt, and changes not. He that does not put out his money 5 on interest, nor takes a bribe against the innocent. He that does these things shall never be moved.

A MIKHTAM of David. Preserve me, O GOD: for in thee do I put my trust. I have said to the LORD, Thou art my LORD: I have 2 no good apart from thee; and to the saints that are on the earth, 3
They are the excellent, in whom is all my delight. Their sorrows 4 shall be multiplied that hasten after another god: their drink offerings of blood will I not offer, nor take up their names upon my lips. The LORD is the portion of my inheritance and of my 5 cup: thou maintainest my lot. The lines are fallen to me in 6 pleasant places; yea, I have a goodly heritage. I bless the LORD, 7 who gives me counsel: my reins also admonish me in the night seasons. I have set the LORD always before me: surely he is at 8 my right hand, I shall not be moved. Therefore my heart is glad, 9 and my glory rejoices: my flesh also dwells secure. For thou 10 wilt not abandon my soul to She'ol; nor wilt thou suffer thy holy one to see the pit. Thou wilt make known to me the path 11 of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand are pleasures for evermore.

A PRAYER of David. Hear the right, O LORD, attend to my cry, 17 give ear to my prayer, from lips without deceit. Let my sentence 2 come forth from thy presence; let thy eyes behold the right.
Thou hast proved my heart; thou hast visited it in the night: 3 thou hast tried me, but thou findest nothing; let no presumptuous thought pass my lips. Concerning the works of men, by 4 the word of thy lips I have kept me from the paths of the violent. My steps have held fast to thy paths; my feet have not 5 slipped. I have called upon thee, for thou wilt hear me, O GOD: 6 incline thy ear to me, and hear my speech. Show marvellously 7 thy steadfast love, saving with thy right hand from their enemies those who seek refuge. Keep me as the apple of the eye, 8 hide me under the shadow of thy wings, from the wicked that oppress me, from my deadly enemies, who compass me about. 9
They are inclosed in their own fat: with their mouth they 10 speak proudly. They dog our footsteps; they surround us: 11 they set their eyes to tread us down to the earth; he is 12 like a lion greedy for its prey, and as it were a young lion lurking in secret places. Arise, O LORD, confront him, 13 cast him down: deliver my soul from the wicked, by thy sword: from men, by thy hand, O LORD, from men whose portion in 14 life is of the world, and whose belly thou fillest with thy treasure: who have children in plenty, and who leave their abundance to their babes. As for me, I will behold thy face in 15 righteousness: I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with beholding thy likeness.

To the chief Musician, of David, the servant of the LORD, 18 who spoke to the LORD the words of this song in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Sha'ul: and he said, I will love thee, 2 O LORD, my strength. The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, 3 and my deliverer; my GOD, my rock, in whom I will trust; my shield, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower. He is 4 worthy to be praised: I will call upon the LORD: so shall I be saved from my enemies. The bonds of death encircled me, and the 5 floods of ungodly men made me afraid. The cords of She'ol com- 6 passed me about: the snares of death took me by surprise.
In my distress I called upon the LORD, and cried to my GOD: he 7 heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, into his ears. Then the earth shook and trembled; and the 8 foundations of the hills moved and were shaken, because of his anger. There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, and fire out 9 of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it. He bowed 10 the heavens also, and came down: and darkness was under his feet. And he rode upon a keruv, and did fly: he soared on the 11 wings of the wind. He made darkness his secret place; his 12 pavilion round about him was dark water and thick clouds of the skies. At the brightness that was before him his thick 13 clouds passed, hail and coals of fire. The LORD also thundered 14 in the heavens, and the Highest gave his voice; hail and coals of fire. And he sent out his arrows, and scattered them; and he 15 shot out lightnings, and confounded them. Then the channels 16 of waters were seen, and the foundations of the world were laid bare, at thy rebuke, O LORD, at the blast of the breath of thy nostrils. He sent from above, he took me, he drew me out 17 of many waters. He delivered me from my strong enemy, and 18 from those who hated me: for they were too strong for me.

They surprised me in the day of my calamity: but the LORD 19 was my stay. He brought me forth also into a large place; he 20 delivered me, because he delighted in me. The LORD rewards 21 me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands he recompenses me. For I have kept the 22 ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my GOD. For all his judgments were before me, and I did not put 23 away his statutes from me. I was also upright before him, and I 24 kept myself from my iniquity. Therefore the LORD recompenses 25
me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in his eyesight. With the merciful thou wilt show 26 thyself merciful; with an upright man thou wilt show thyself upright; with the pure thou wilt show thyself pure; and with 27 the perverse thou wilt show thyself subtle. For thou wilt save 28 the afflicted people; but wilt bring down high looks. For thou 29 wilt light my candle: the LORD my GOD will enlighten my darkness. For by thee I run through a troop; and by my GOD 30
I leap over a wall. As for GOD, his way is perfect: the word of 31 the LORD is tried: he is a shield to all those who trust in him.
For who is GOD save the LORD? or who is a rock save our GOD? 32
It is GOD that girds me with strength, and makes my way 33 perfect. He makes my feet like hinds' feet, and sets me upon 34 my heights. He teaches my hands to war, so that a bow of brass is 35 bent in my arms. Thou hast also given me the shield of thy sal- 36 vation: and thy right hand has supported me and thy condescension has made me great. Thou hast enlarged my steps 37 under me, that my feet did not slip. I have pursued my enemies, 38 and overtaken them: neither did I turn back till they were consumed. I have crushed them so that they were not able to 39 rise: they are fallen under my feet. For thou hast girded me 40 with strength to the battle: thou hast subdued under me those who rose up against me. Thou hast also made my enemies turn 41 their backs on me; that I might destroy those who hate me.
They cried, but there was none to save them: to the LORD, but 42 he answered them not. Then did I beat them small like the dust 43 before the wind: I did cast them out like the dirt in the streets.
Thou deliverest me from the strivings of the people; thou 44 makest me the head of nations: a people whom I have not known shall serve me. As soon as they hear of me, they shall 45 obey me: the strangers shall submit themselves to me. The 46 strangers shall fade away, and come trembling out of their close places. The LORD lives; and blessed is my rock; and let 47 the GOD of my salvation be exalted. It is GOD who avenges me, 48 and has subdued peoples under me. He delivers me from my 49 enemies: indeed, thou liftest me up above those who rise up against me: thou deliverest me from the violent man. There- 50 fore will I give thanks to thee, O LORD, among the nations, and sing praises to thy name. Great deliverance he gives to his 51 king; and shows steadfast love to his anointed, to David, and to his seed for evermore.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. The heavens declare 1,2 the glory of GOD; and the firmament proclaims his handiwork.
Day to day utters speech, and night to night expresses know- 3 ledge. There is no speech nor are there words; their voice is 4 not heard. Their line is gone out through all the earth, and 5 their words to the end of the world. In them he has set a tent for the sun, which is like a bridegroom coming out of his 6 chamber, and rejoices like a strong man to run a race. His 7 going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit to the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from his heat. The Tora 8 of the LORD is perfect, restoring the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple. The statutes of the 9 LORD are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes. The fear of the LORD is 10 clean, enduring forever: the judgments of the LORD are true and are righteous altogether. More to be desired are they than 11 gold, even much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb. Moreover by them is thy servant enlightened: and 12 in keeping of them there is great reward. Who can discern 13 errors? cleanse thou me from secret faults. Keep back thy 14 servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be clear of much transgression. Let the words of my mouth, and the 15 meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O LORD, my rock, and my redeemer.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm for David. May the LORD hear 1,2 thee in the day of trouble; may the name of the GOD of Ya'aqov defend thee! May he send thee help from the sanctuary, and 3 strengthen thee out of Ẓiyyon! May he remember all thy 4 offerings, and accept with favour thy burnt offering! (Sela.)
May he grant thee thy heart's desire, and fulfil all thy counsel! 5 May we rejoice in thy salvation, and in the name of our GOD 6 set up our banner! Let the LORD fulfil all thy petitions! Now I 7 know that the LORD saves his anointed; that he answers him from his holy heaven with the saving strength of his right hand.
Some trust in chariots, and some in horses: but we will make 8 mention of the name of the LORD our GOD. They are bowed 9 down and fallen: but we are risen, and stand upright. Save, 10 LORD; O King, who hears us on the day when we call.

To the chief Musicians, A Psalm of David. The king joys in thy 1,2 strength, O LORD; and in thy salvation how greatly he rejoices!

Thou hast given him his heart's desire, and hast not withheld 3 the request of his lips. (Sela.) For thou dost meet him with the 4 blessings of goodness: thou settest a crown of pure gold on his head. He asked life of thee, and thou didst give it him; 5 length of days for ever and ever. His glory is great in thy 6 salvation: honour and majesty thou dost lay upon him. For 7 thou dost make him most blessed forever: thou makest him exceeding glad with thy countenance. For the king trusts in 8 the LORD, and through the steadfast love of the most High he shall not be moved. Thy hand shall find out all thy enemies: 9 thy right hand shall seize those that hate thee. Thou shalt make 10 them like a fiery oven in the time of thy anger: the LORD shall swallow them up in his wrath, and the fire shall devour them.
Their fruit shalt thou destroy from the earth, and their seed 11 from among the children of men. For they intended evil against 12 thee: they imagined a mischievous device, but they will not succeed. For thou shalt make them turn their back; thou 13 shalt aim thy bowstrings against the face of them. Be thou 14 exalted, LORD, in thy own strength: we will sing and praise thy power.

To the chief Musician upon Ayyelet-hashshaḥar, A Psalm of 22
David. My GOD, my GOD, why hast thou forsaken me? why art 2 thou so far from helping me, from the words of my loud complaint? O my GOD, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not; 3 and in the night season, and I have no rest. But thou art holy, 4 O thou that art enthroned upon the praises of Yisra'el. Our 5 fathers trusted in thee: they trusted, and thou didst deliver them. They cried to thee, and were delivered: they trusted in 6 thee, and were not confounded. But I am a worm, and no man; 7 a reproach of men, and despised of the people. All that see 8 me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying, He trusts in the LORD that he will deliver him! 9 Let him deliver him, seeing he delights in him. But thou art he 10 that took me out of the womb: thou didst make me hope when I was upon my mother's breasts. I was cast upon thee from the 11 womb: thou art my GOD from my mother's belly. Be not far 12 from me; for trouble is near; for there is none to help. Many 13 bulls have compassed me: strong bulls of Bashan have beset me round. They gape upon me with their mouths, like a raven- 14 ing and a roaring lion. I am poured out like water, and all my 15 bones are out of joint: my heart is become like wax; it is melted in the midst of my bowels. My strength is dried up like 16 a potsherd; and my tongue cleaves to my jaws; and thou layest me down in the dust of death. For dogs have compassed me: 17 the assembly of the wicked have inclosed me: they seize my hands and my feet like a lion. I can count all my bones: they 18 look and stare upon me. They part my garments among them, 19 and cast lots upon my vesture. But be not thou far from me, 20 O LORD: O my strength, haste thee to help me. Deliver my life 21 from the sword; my only one from the power of the dog. Save 22 me from the lion's mouth: for thou hast answered me from the horns of the wild oxen. I will declare thy name to my brethren: 23 in the midst of the congregation I will praise thee. You who 24 fear the LORD, praise him; all you the seed of Ya'aqov, glorify him; and fear him, all the seed of Yisra'el. For he has not 25 despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted; nor has he hid his face from him; but when he cried to him, he heard.

My praise shall be of thee in the great congregation: I will 26 pay my vows before those who fear him. The meek shall eat 27 and be satisfied: those who seek him shall praise the LORD: may your heart forever revive! All the ends of the world shall 28 remember and turn to the LORD: and all the families of the nations shall worship before thee. For the kingdom is the 29 LORD'S: and he is ruler over the nations. All the fat ones of the 30 earth shall eat and worship: all they that go down to the dust, and he that cannot keep alive his own soul, shall bow before him. Their seed shall serve him; it shall be told of the LORD to 31 the coming generation. They shall come, and shall declare his 32 righteousness to a people that shall be born, that he has done this.

A PSALM of David. The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. 23
He makes me to lie down in green pastures: he leads me 2 beside the still waters. He restores my soul: he leads me in the 3 paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Even though I 4 walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of my 5 enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runs over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my 6 life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

A PSALM of David. The earth is the LORD'S, and the fulness 24 thereof; the world, and they that dwell in it. For he has 2 founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.
Who shall ascend into the mountain of the LORD? or who shall 3 stand in his holy place? He that has clean hands, and a pure 4 heart; who has not taken my name in vain, nor sworn deceitfully. He shall receive a blessing from the LORD, and righteous- 5 ness from the GOD of his salvation. This is Ya'aqov, the gene- 6 ration of those who seek him, that seek thy face. (Sela.) Lift 7 up your heads, O you gates; and be lifted up, you everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in. Who is this King 8 of glory? The LORD strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battle. Lift up your heads, O you gates; and lift them up, 9 you everlasting doors; that the King of glory may come in.
Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts, he is the King 10 of glory. (Sela.)

OF DAVID. To thee, O LORD, do I lift up my soul. O my GOD, 1,2 I trust in thee: let me not be ashamed, let not my enemies triumph over me. Moreover let none that wait on thee be 3 ashamed: let them be ashamed who betray without cause.
Make me know thy ways, O LORD; teach me thy paths. Lead 4,5 me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the GOD of my salvation; for thee do I wait all the day. Remember, O LORD, 6 thy tender mercies and thy truth; for they have been from of old. Remember not the sins of my youth, nor my transgres- 7 sions: according to thy loyal love remember thou me for thy goodness' sake, O LORD. Good and upright is the LORD: therefore does he instruct sinners in the way. He directs the humble in justice: and he teaches the meek his way. All the paths of the LORD are mercy and truth to such as keep his covenant and his testimonies. For thy name's sake, O LORD, pardon my iniquity; for it is great. What man is he that fears the LORD? him shall he teach in the way that he should choose. His soul shall abide in prosperity; and his seed shall inherit the earth. The counsel of the LORD is with them that fear him; and he will reveal to them his covenant. My eyes are ever towards the LORD; for he shall pluck my feet out of the net. Turn thee to me, and be gracious to me; for I am desolate and afflicted. The troubles of my heart are enlarged: O bring me out of my distresses. Look upon my affliction and my pain; and forgive all my sins. Consider my enemies; for they are many; and they hate me with a cruel hatred. O keep my soul, and deliver me: let me not be ashamed; for I put my trust in thee. Let integrity and uprightness preserve me; because I wait for thee. Redeem Yisra'el, O GOD, out of all his troubles.

OF DAVID. Judge me, O LORD; for I have walked in my integrity: and I have trusted in the LORD; I shall not slip. Examine me, O LORD, and prove me; try my reins and my heart. For thy loyal love is before my eyes: and I have walked in thy truth. I have not sat with vain persons, neither do I enter the company of dissemblers. I have hated the congregation of evil doers; and I do not sit with the wicked. I wash my hands in innocency: so I compass thy altar, O LORD: that I may sound the voice of thanksgiving, and tell of all thy wondrous works. LORD, I love the habitation of thy house, and the place where thy glory dwells. Gather not my soul with sinners, nor my life with bloody men: in whose hands is mischief, and their right hand is full of bribes. But as for me, I will walk in my integrity: redeem me, and be gracious unto me. My foot stands in an even place: in the congregations I will bless the LORD.

OF DAVID. The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the LORD is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? When the wicked, my enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell. Though a host should camp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, even then I will be confident. One thing have I desired of the LORD, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD, and to inquire in his temple. For in the day of evil he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the covert of his tent he shall hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock. And now shall my head be lifted up above my enemies round about me: therefore I will offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy; I will sing, and I will make melody to the LORD. Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice: be gracious to me, and answer me. Of thee my heart has said, Seek my face. Thy face, O LORD, I seek. Hide not thy face from me; put not thy servant away in anger: thou hast been my help; abandon me not, nor forsake me, O GOD of my salvation.

For my father and my mother have forsaken me, but the LORD 10 will take me up. Teach me thy way, O LORD, and lead me in 11 an even path, because of my enemies. Deliver me not over 12 to the will of my enemies: for false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out violence. Were it not that 13 I believed I should see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living. Wait on the LORD: be of good courage, and he shall 14 strengthen thy heart: and wait on the LORD.

OF DAVID. To thee I will cry, O LORD; my rock; be not silent to 28 me: lest, if thou be silent to me, I become like those who go down into the pit. Hear the voice of my supplications, when I 2 cry to thee, when I lift up my hands towards thy holy sanctuary.
Drag me not away with the wicked, and with the workers of 3 iniquity, who speak peace to their neighbours, but there is evil in their hearts. Give them according to their deeds, and accord- 4 ing to the wickedness of their endeavours: give them after the work of their hands; render to them their desert. Because they 5 give no heed to the works of the LORD, nor to the operation of his hands, he will destroy them, and not build them up. Blessed 6 be the LORD, because he has heard the voice of my supplications.
The LORD is my strength and my shield; my heart trusted in 7 him, and I am helped: therefore my heart greatly rejoices; and with my song I will praise him. The LORD is a strength to them, 8 and he is the saving strength of his anointed. Save thy people, 9 and bless thy inheritance: and shepherd them, and carry them forever.

A PSALM of David. Ascribe to the LORD, O you mighty, ascribe to 29 the LORD glory and strength. Give to the LORD the glory due to 2 his name; worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness. The voice 3 of the LORD is upon the waters: the GOD of glory thunders: the LORD is upon many waters. The voice of the LORD is powerful; 4 the voice of the LORD is full of majesty. The voice of the LORD 5 breaks the cedars; yea, the LORD breaks the cedars of the Levanon. He make them also skip like a calf; Levanon and Shiryon 6 like a young wild ox. The voice of the LORD divides the flames 7 of fire. The voice of the LORD shakes the wilderness; the LORD 8 shakes the wilderness of Qadesh. The voice of the LORD makes 9 the hinds to calve, and strips the forests bare, and in his temple everyone speaks of his glory. The LORD sat enthroned at the 10 flood; and he sits enthroned as King forever. The LORD gives 11 strength to his people; the LORD blesses his people with peace.

A PSALM and Song at the dedication of the house; of David. I 30 1,2 will extol thee, O LORD; for thou hast lifted me up, and hast not made my foes to rejoice over me. O LORD my GOD, I cried to 3 thee and thou hast healed me. O LORD, thou hast brought up my 4 soul from She'ol: thou hast kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit. Sing to the LORD, O his pious ones, and give 5 thanks to his holy name. For his anger endures but a moment; 6 in his favour is life: weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning. And in my prosperity I said, I shall never 7 be moved. LORD, by thy favour thou hast made my mountain to 8 stand strong: thou didst hide thy face, and I was affrighted.

I cried to thee, O LORD; and to the LORD I made supplication. 9
What profit is there in my blood, when I go down to the pit? 10 Shall dust praise thee? shall it declare thy truth? Hear, O LORD, 11 and be gracious to me: LORD, be thou my helper. Thou hast 12 turned for me my mourning into dancing: thou hast loosed my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness; to the end that my glory 13 may sing praise to thee, and not be silent. O LORD my GOD, I will give thanks to thee forever.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. In thee, O LORD, do 1,2 I take refuge; let me never be ashamed: deliver me in thy righteousness. Incline thy ear to me; deliver me speedily: be 3 thou my strong rock, a fortress of defence to save me. For 4 thou art my rock and my fortress; therefore for thy name's sake lead me, and guide me. Pull me out of the net that they have 5 hidden for me: for thou art my stronghold. Into thy hand I 6 commit my spirit: thou hast redeemed me, O LORD GOD of truth.
I hate them that regard vain idols: but I trust in the LORD. 7
I will be glad and rejoice in thy loyal love: for thou hast con- 8 sidered my affliction: thou hast known the troubles of my soul; and thou hast not delivered me up into the hand of the enemy: 9 thou hast set my feet in a broad place. Be gracious to me, O 10 LORD, for I am in trouble: my eye is consumed with grief, my soul and my body. For my life is spent with grief, and my years 11 with sighing: my strength fails because of my iniquity, and my bones are wasted away. I am the scorn of all my adversaries, 12 and very much of my neighbours, and a dread to my acquaintances: those who see me in the street flee from me. I am for- 13 gotten as a dead man out of mind: I am like a broken vessel.
For I have heard the slander of many: fear on every side: while 14 they took counsel together against me, they devised to take away my life. But I trusted in thee, O LORD: I said, Thou art my 15 GOD. My times are in thy hand: deliver me from the hand of 16 my enemies, and from those who persecute me. Make thy face 17 to shine upon thy servant: save me by thy loyal love. Let me 18 not be ashamed, O LORD; for I have called upon thee: let the wicked be ashamed, and let them be silent in She'ol. Let the 19 lying lips be put to silence; which speak arrogant words, proudly and contemptuously, against the righteous. Oh how great is 20 thy goodness, which thou has laid up for those who fear thee; which thou hast performed for those who trust in thee in the sight of the sons of men! Thou hidest them in the covert of thy 21 presence from the plots of men: thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues. Blessed be the LORD: 22 for he has shown me his marvellous love in a strong city. For 23 I said in my haste, I am cut off from before thy eyes: nevertheless thou didst hear the voice of my supplications when I cried to thee. O love the LORD, all his pious ones: for the LORD 24 preserves the faithful, and plentifully repays him who acts haughtily. Be of good courage, and let your heart be strong, all 25 you who hope in the LORD.

OF DAVID. A maskil. Blessed is he whose transgression is 32 forgiven, whose sin is covered. Blessed is the man to whom 2 the LORD imputes no iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no guile. When I kept silence, my bones wasted away through my 3 groaning all the day long. For day and night thy hand was heavy 4 upon me: my moisture is turned into the drought of summer.

(Sela.) I acknowledged my sin to thee, and my iniquity I have 5 not hid. I said, I will confess my transgressions to the LORD: and thou didst forgive the iniquity of my sin. (Sela.) For this 6 shall everyone that is godly pray to thee in a time when thou mayst be found: then surely the floods of great waters shall not come near him. Thou art my hiding place; thou shalt preserve 7 me from trouble; thou dost compass me about with songs of deliverance. (Sela.) I will instruct thee and teach thee in the 8 way which thou shalt go: I will counsel thee, with my eye upon thee. Be not like the horse, or the mule, which have no under- 9 standing: whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, that they come not near to thee. Many are the sorrows of the wick- 10 ed: but he that trusts in the LORD, shall be surrounded by love.
Be glad in the LORD, and rejoice, O you righteous: and shout 11 for joy, all you who are upright in heart.

REJOICE in the LORD, O you righteous: praise is comely for the 33 upright. Praise the LORD with a lyre: make melody to him with 2 the harp of ten strings. Sing to him a new song; play skilfully 3 with loud jubilations. For the word of the LORD is right; and all 4 his work is done in faithfulness. He loves righteousness and 5 judgment: the earth is full of the goodness of the LORD. By the 6 word of the LORD were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth. He gathers the waters of the 7 sea together like a rampart: he lays up the depths in store-houses. Let all the earth fear the LORD: let all the inhabitants 8 of the world stand in awe of him. For he spoke, and it was; 9 he commanded, and it stood fast. The LORD brings the counsel 10 of the nations to nought: he makes the devices of the peoples to be of no effect. The counsel of the LORD stands forever, the 11 thoughts of his heart to all generations. Happy is the nation 12 whose GOD is the LORD; and the people whom he has chosen for his own inheritance. The LORD looks down from heaven; he 13 beholds all the sons of men. From the place of his habitation he 14 looks upon all the inhabitants of the earth; he who fashions 15 their hearts alike; who considers all their deeds. There is no 16 king saved by the multitude of a host: a mighty man is not delivered by great strength. A horse is a vain thing for safety: 17 nor shall he save by his great strength. Behold, the eye of the 18 LORD is upon those who fear him, upon those who hope in his steadfast love: to deliver their soul from death, and to keep 19 them alive in famine. Our soul waited for the LORD: he is our 20 help and our shield. For our heart shall rejoice in him, because 21 we have trusted in his holy name. Let thy steadfast love, O 22 LORD be upon us, even as we hope in thee.

OF DAVID, when he changed his demeanour before Avimelekh; 34 who drove him away, and he departed. I will bless the LORD 2 at all time: his praise shall continually be in my mouth.
My soul shall glory in the LORD: the humble shall hear of it, 3 and be glad. O magnify the LORD with me, and let us exalt his 4 name together. I sought the LORD, and he answered me, and de- 5 livered me from all my fears. They looked to him, and are 6 radiant: and their faces shall not be ashamed. This poor 7 man cries, and the LORD hears, and saves him out of all his troubles. The angel of the LORD encamps round about those 8 who fear him, and he delivers them. O taste and see that the 9 LORD is good: blessed is the man who trusts in him. O fear the 10 LORD, you saints of his: for those who fear him have no lack.

The young lions lack, and suffer hunger: but they who seek the 11 LORD shall not want any good thing. Come, children, hearken 12 to me: I will teach you the fear of the LORD. Who is the man 13 that desires life, and loves many days, that he may see good?
Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile. 14 Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it. The 15 16 eyes of the LORD are towards the righteous, and his ears are open to their cry. The face of the LORD is against those who do 17 evil, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth. The 18 righteous cry, and the LORD hears, and delivers them out of all their troubles. The LORD is near to them who are of a broken 19 heart; and he saves such as are of a contrite spirit. Many are the 20 afflictions of the righteous: but the LORD delivers him out of them all. He keeps all his bones: not one of them is broken. 21 Evil shall slay the wicked: and they that hate the righteous shall 22 be condemned. The LORD redeems the soul of his servants: and 23 none of them that trust in him shall be condemned.

OF DAVID. Strive, O LORD, with those who contend against 35 me: fight with those who oppose me. Take hold of shield 2 and buckler, and rise up for my help. Draw out also the 3 spear, and battle axe against those who persecute me: say to my soul, I am thy salvation. Let them be confounded and put to 4 shame who seek after my soul: let them be turned back and brought to confusion who devise my hurt. Let them be as chaff 5 before the wind: the angel of the LORD thrusting them. Let their 6 way be dark and slippery: the angel of the LORD pursuing them.
For without cause have they hid for me their net; a pit without 7 cause have they dug for my soul. Let destruction come upon him 8 unawares; and let his net that he has hid catch himself: let him fall to ruin. And my soul shall be joyful in the LORD: it shall 9 rejoice in his salvation. All my bones shall say, LORD, who is like 10 thee, who delivers the poor from him that is too strong for him, and the poor and the needy from him that robs him? False wit- 11 nesses rise up; they ask me things that I know not. They repay 12 me evil for good; a bereavement to my soul! But as for me, 13 when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth: I afflicted my soul with fasting; and as for my prayer may it return to my own bosom. I went about as for my friend or brother: I bowed 14 down heavily, as one who mourns for his mother. But when I 15 stumble they rejoice, and gather themselves together. Wretches whom I have not known tear me in pieces without ceasing.
Like profane men, scornful mockers, they grind their teeth 16 against me. LORD, how long wilt thou look on? rescue my soul 17 from their destructions, my only one from the lions. I will give 18 thee thanks in the great congregation: I will praise thee among a numerous people. Let not those who are wrongfully my ene- 19 mies rejoice over me; or those who hate me without cause wink their eye. For they seek not peace: but they devise deceitful 20 matters against those who are quiet in the land. For they open 21 their mouths wide against me, and say, Aha, aha, our eye has seen it. Thou hast seen, O LORD: keep no silence: O LORD, be 22 not far from me. Rouse thyself, and awake to my judgment; to 23 my cause, my GOD and my LORD. Judge me, O LORD my GOD, 24 according to thy righteousness; and let them not rejoice over me. Let them not say in their hearts, Ah, so we have our de- 25 be ashamed and brought to confusion together, those who rejoice at my hurt: let them be clothed with shame and dishonour, those who magnify themselves against me. Let them 27 shout for joy, and be glad, those who favour my righteous cause: and let them say continually, Let the LORD be magnified, who has pleasure in the welfare of his servant. And my 28 tongue shall speak of thy righteousness; of thy praise all the day long.

To the chief Musician, of David the servant of the LORD. 36
Transgression speaks to the wicked within his heart; there is 2 no fear of GOD before his eyes. For he flatters himself in his 3 own eyes, that his iniquity cannot be found out and hated. The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit: he has left 4 off being wise, and doing good. He devises mischief upon his 5 bed; he sets himself in a way that is not good; he does not abhor evil. Thy steadfast love, O LORD, is in the heavens; and 6 thy faithfulness reaches the clouds. Thy righteousness is like 7 the great mountains; thy judgments are a great deep: O LORD, thou preservest man and beast. How excellent is thy love, O 8 GOD! therefore the children of men shelter under the shadow of thy wings. They are abundantly satisfied with the fatness of 9 thy house; and thou makest them to drink of the river of thy pleasures. For with thee is the fountain of life: in thy light 10 we see light. O continue thy steadfast love to those who know 11 thee; and thy righteousness to the upright in heart. Let not the 12 foot of pride come against me, and let not the hand of the wicked drive me away. There are the workers of iniquity fallen: 13 they are cast down, and are not able to rise.

OF DAVID. Fret not thyself because of evil doers, nor be envious 37 against the workers of iniquity. For they shall soon be cut down 2 like the grass, and wither like the green herb. Trust in the LORD, 3 and do good; dwell in the land, and enjoy security. Delight 4 thyself also in the LORD; and he shall give thee the desires of thy heart. Commit thy way to the LORD; trust also in him; and 5 he will bring it to pass. And he will bring forth thy righteous- 6 ness as the light, and thy judgment like the noonday. Rest in 7 the LORD, and wait patiently for him: fret not thyself because of him who prospers in his way, because of the man who accomplishes wicked devices. Cease from anger, and forsake 8 wrath: fret not thyself: it comes to no good. For evildoers 9 shall be cut off: but those who wait upon the LORD, they shall inherit the earth. For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not 10 be: and thou shalt look well at his place, but he will not be there. But the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight 11 themselves in the abundance of peace. The wicked man plots 12 against the just, and grinds his teeth against him. The LORD 13 shall laugh at him: for he sees that his day is coming. The 14 wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow, to cast down the poor and needy, and to slay such as are of upright ways. Their sword shall enter into their own heart, and 15 their bows shall be broken. A little that a righteous man has is 16 better than the riches of many wicked men. For the arms of the 17 wicked shall be broken: but the LORD upholds the just. The 18 LORD knows the days of the innocent: and their inheritance shall be for ever. They shall not be ashamed in the evil time: 19 and in the days of famine they shall be satisfied. But the 20 wicked and the enemies of the LORD shall perish like the glory of the meadows; they shall consume; they shall pass away in smoke. The wicked borrows, but does not pay back: but the 21 righteous man gives with a good grace. For such as are blessed 22 of him shall inherit the earth; and they that are cursed of him shall be cut off. The steps of a man are ordered by the LORD: 23 and he delights in his way. Though he fall, he shall not be ut- 24 terly cast down: for the LORD upholds him with his hand. I 25 have been young, and now am old; yet I have not seen a just man forsaken, and his seed begging bread. He lends generously 26 at all times; and his seed is blessed. Depart from evil, and do 27 good; and dwell for evermore. For the LORD loves justice, 28 and forsakes not his pious ones; they are preserved for ever: but the seed of the wicked shall be cut off. The righteous 29 shall inherit the land, and dwell in it for ever. The mouth of 30 the righteous speaks wisdom, and his tongue discourses justice.

The Tora of his GOD is in his heart; none of his steps shall 31 falter. The wicked man watches the righteous, and seeks to 32 slay him. The LORD will not leave him in his hand, nor allow 33 him to be condemned when he is judged. Wait on the LORD, 34 and keep his way, and he shall exalt thee to inherit the land:
when the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it. I have seen the 35 wicked in great power, and spreading himself like a green tree in its native soil. Yet he passed away, and, lo, he was not: 36
I sought him, but he could not be found. Mark the perfect man, 37 and behold the upright: for the end of that man is peace.
But the transgressors are destroyed together: the end of the 38 wicked is cut off. And the salvation of the righteous is of the 39 LORD: he is their strength in the time of trouble. And the LORD 40 will help them, and deliver them: he shall deliver them from the wicked, and save them, because they take refuge in him.

A PSALM of David, for invocation. O LORD, rebuke me not in 1, 2 thy wrath: nor chasten me in thy hot displeasure. For thy 3 arrows stick fast in me, and thy hand presses me sore. There 4 is no soundness in my flesh because of thy anger; nor is there any health in my bones because of my sin. For my iniquities 5 are gone over my head: like a heavy burden they are too heavy for me. My wounds stink; they fester because of my 6 foolishness. I am troubled; I am bowed down greatly; I go 7 mourning all the day long. For my loins are filled with burning: 8 and there is no soundness in my flesh. I am feeble and sore 9 broken: I groan by reason of the disquietness of my heart.

LORD, all my desire is before thee; and my sighing is not hid 10 from thee. My heart palpitates, my strength fails me: as for 11 the light of my eyes, it also is gone from me. My lovers and 12 my friends stand aloof from my plague; and my kinsmen stand afar off. And they who seek after my life lay snares for me: 13 and they who seek my hurt speak mischievous things, and meditate deceits all the day long. But I, like a deaf man, hear 14 not; and like a dumb man that opens not his mouth. Thus I was 15 like a man that hears not, and in whose mouth are no rebukes.
For in thee, O LORD, I hope: thou wilt hear, O LORD my GOD. 16
For I said, Lest they should rejoice over me: when my foot 17 slips, they magnify themselves against me. For I am ready to 18 stumble, and my pain is continually before me. For I will declare 19 my iniquity; I will be sorry for my sin. But my enemies are in 20 vigorous life; and they who hate me wrongfully are many.
They also who render evil for good are my adversaries; be- 21 cause I follow what is good. Forsake me not, O LORD: O my 22 GOD, be not far from me. Make haste to help me, O LORD my 23 salvation.

To the chief Musician, for Yedutun, A Psalm of David. I said, 1,2
I will take heed to my ways, that I sin not with my tongue:
I will keep a curb on my mouth, while the wicked man is before me. I was dumb with silence, I held my peace, had no comfort, 3 and my pain was stirred up. My heart was hot within me; while 4
I was musing, the fire burned: then I spoke with my tongue, LORD, make me to know my end, and the measure of my days, 5 what it is; I will know how frail I am. Behold, thou hast made 6 my days like handbreadths; and my age is as nothing before thee: truly every man at his best state is altogether vanity.
(Sela.) Surely every man walks in a vain show: surely they 7 are disquieted in vain: he heaps up riches, and knows not who shall gather them. And now, LORD, what do I wait for? my 8 hope is in thee. Deliver me from all my transgressions: make 9 me not the reproach of the base man. I am dumb, I open not 10 my mouth; because thou didst it. Remove thy stroke away 11 from me: I am consumed by the blow of thy hand. When thou 12 with rebukes dost correct a man for iniquity, thou makest his beauty to consume away like a moth: surely every man is vanity. (Sela.) Hear my prayer, O LORD, and give ear to my 13 cry; keep not silence at my tears: for I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner, as all my fathers were. Look away from me, 14 that I may recover brightness, before I go hence, and am no more.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. I waited patiently for 1,2 the LORD; and he inclined to me, and heard my cry. He brought 3 me up also out of the gruesome pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and established my footsteps. And he 4 has put a new song in my mouth, a praise to our GOD. Many shall see, and fear, and shall trust in the LORD. Blessed is that 5 man that makes the LORD his trust, and looks not to the proud, nor to such as turn aside to lies. Many, O LORD my GOD, are 6 thy wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are towards us: none can compare with thee: if I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered. Thou dost not desire sacrifice or meal offering; thou hast 7 dug open my ears; burnt offering and sin offering hast thou not required. Then said I, Lo, I come with the scroll of the book 8 which is written for me; I delight to do thy will, O my GOD: 9 and thy Tora is within my heart. I have preached righteousness 10 in the great congregation: lo, I did not refrain my lips, O LORD, thou knowst. I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart; 11

I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation: I have not concealed thy love and thy truth from the great congregation.
Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O LORD: let 12 thy steadfast love and thy truth continually preserve me. For 13 innumerable evils have compassed me about: my iniquities have taken hold upon me, so that I am not able to look up; they are more than the hairs of my head: therefore my heart fails me. Be pleased, O LORD, to deliver me: O LORD, make haste 14 to help me. Let them be ashamed and confounded together 15 who seek after my soul to destroy it; let them be turned backward and put to shame who wish me evil. Let them be 16 appalled because of their shame who say concerning me, Aha, aha. Let all those who seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: 17 let such as love thy salvation say continually, The LORD be magnified. But I am poor and needy; yet the LORD takes 18 thought for me: thou art my help and my deliverer; delay not,
O my GOD!

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. Blessed is he who 1,2 considers the poor: the LORD will deliver him in the day of evil. The LORD preserves him, and keeps him alive; he is called 3 happy upon the earth: and thou wilt not deliver him to the will of his enemies. The LORD strengthens him upon the bed of 4 sickness: whenever he is prostrate thou recoverest him in his illness. I said, LORD, be gracious to me: heal my soul; for I 5 have sinned against thee. My enemies speak evil of me, When 6 shall he die, and his name perish? And if one comes to see me, 7 he speaks vanity: his heart gathers iniquity to itself; when he goes abroad, he tells it. All that hate me whisper together 8 against me: against me they devise my hurt. An evil disease, 9 say they, cleaves fast to him: and from where he lies he shall rise up no more. Even my own familiar friend, in whom I 10 trusted, who did eat of my bread, has lifted up his heel against me. But thou, O LORD, be gracious to me, and raise me up, that 11
I may pay them back. By this I know that thou favourest me, 12 because my enemy does not triumph over me. And as for me, 13 thou upholdest me in my integrity, and settest me before thy face for ever. Blessed be the LORD, the GOD of Yisra'el from 14 everlasting, and to everlasting. Amen, and Amen.

I come and appear before GOD? My tears have been my bread 4 day and night, while they say to me all the day, Where is thy GOD? When I remember these things, I pour out my soul in me: 5 how I was wont to pass on with the throng, leading them in procession to the house of GOD, with the voice of joy and praise, a crowd keeping holiday. Why art thou cast down, O 6 my soul? and why dost thou moan within me? hope thou in GOD: for I shall yet praise him for the help of his countenance.
O my GOD, my soul is cast down within me: because I re- 7 member thee from the land of Yarden and the hills of Ḥermon, from the mount Miẓ'ar. Deep calls to deep at the noise of thy 8 cataracts: all thy waves and thy billows are gone over me.
Yet the LORD will command his steadfast love in the daytime, 9 and in the night his song shall be with me, a prayer to the GOD of my life. I will say to GOD my rock, Why hast thou 10 forgotten me? why go I mourning under the oppression of the enemy? Like a deadly wound in my bones, my enemies taunt 11 me; while they say daily to me, Where is thy GOD? Why art 12 thou cast down, O my soul? and why moanest thou within me? hope thou in GOD: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my GOD.

JUDGE me, O GOD, and plead my cause against an ungodly 43 nation: O deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man. For 2 thou art the GOD of my strength: why dost thou cast me off?
why go I mourning under the oppression of the enemy? O send 3 out thy light and thy truth: let them lead me; let them bring me to thy holy hill, and to thy dwelling places. Then will I go 4 to the altar of GOD, to GOD my exceeding joy: and I will praise thee with the lyre, O GOD my GOD. Why art thou cast down, 5 O my soul? and why dost thou moan within me? hope in GOD:
for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my GOD.

To the chief Musician for the sons of Qoraḥ, A Maskil. We have 1,2 heard with our ears, O GOD; our fathers have told us, what work thou didst in their days, in the times of old: how thou 3 didst drive out nations with thy hand, and didst plant them; how thou didst batter the peoples, and cast them out. For they 4 did not get the land in possession by their own sword, nor did their own arm save them: but thy right hand, and thy arm, and the light of thy countenance, because thou didst favourably accept them. Thou art my King, O GOD: command deliverances 5 for Ya'aqov. Through thee will we push down our enemies: 6 through thy name will we tread those under who rise up against us. For I trust not in my bow, nor shall my sword save 7 me. But thou hast saved us from our enemies, and hast put 8 to shame those who hated us. In GOD we have gloried all 9 the day long, and we praise thy name for ever. (Sela.) Yet, 10 thou hast cast off, and put us to shame; and thou goest not forth with our armies. Thou makest us to turn back from the 11 enemy: and they who hate us take plunder for themselves.
Thou hast given us like sheep to be eaten: and hast scattered 12 us among the nations. Thou sellest thy people for no great gain, 13 and hast not put high their prices. Thou dost make us a taunt 14 to our neighbours, a scorn and a derision to those round about us. Thou makest us a byword among the nations, a shaking of 15 the head among the peoples. My confusion is before me all the 16 day, and the shame of my face has covered me, For the voice 17 of him that taunts and blasphemes; by reason of the enemy and avenger. All this is come upon us; yet we have not for- 18 gotten thee, nor have we been false to thy covenant. Our heart 19 is not turned back, nor have our steps declined from thy way; though thou hast sore broken us in the place of jackals, and 20 covered us with the shadow of death. If we had forgotten the 21 name of our GOD, or stretched out our hands to a strange god; would not GOD search this out? for he knows the secrets of 22 the heart. But for thy sake are we killed all the day long; we 23 are reckoned as sheep for the slaughter. Awake, why sleepest 24 thou, O LORD? arise, cast us not off for ever. Why dost thou 25 hide thy face, and forget our affliction and our oppression? For 26 our soul is bowed down to the dust: our belly cleaves to the earth. Arise for our help, and redeem us for the sake of thy 27 steadfast love.

To the chief Musician, to Shoshannim, A Maskil for the sons 45 of Qorah. A Song of loves. My heart overflows with a goodly 2 matter: I relate my verses for the king: my tongue is the pen of a ready writer. Thou art fairer than the children of men: 3 grace is poured into thy lips: therefore GOD has blessed thee for ever. Gird thy sword upon thy thigh, O mighty warrior: 4 thy glory and thy majesty. And in thy majesty ride prosper- 5 ously on in the cause of truth and for the sake of righteousness; and let thy right hand teach thee terrible things. Thy arrows 6 are sharp: the people fall under thee: they sink into the heart of the king's enemies. Thy throne, of GOD, is for ever and ever: 7 the sceptre of thy kingdom is a sceptre of equity. Thou lovest 8 righteousness, and hatest wickedness: therefore GOD, thy GOD, has anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.
All thy garments are fragrant with myrrh, and aloes, and 9 cassia: out of the ivory palaces stringed instruments have made thee glad. Kings' daughters are among thy favourites: upon 10 thy right hand stands the queen in gold of Ofir. Hearken, O 11 daughter, and consider, and incline thy ear; forget also thy own people, and thy father's house; so shall the king desire thy 12 beauty: for he is thy lord; and do homage to him. And O 13 daughter of Zor, the rich among the people, shall entreat thy favour with a gift. The king's daughter is all glorious within: 14 her clothing is inwrought with gold. She shall be brought to 15 the king in embroidered garments: the virgins, her companions that follow her, shall be brought to thee. With gladness and 16 rejoicing shall they be led: they shall enter the king's palace.
Instead of thy fathers shall be thy children, whom thou shalt 17 make princes in all the earth. I will make thy name to be re- 18 membered in all generations: therefore shall the people praise thee for ever and ever.

To the chief Musician for the sons of Qorah, A Song to 'Alamot. 46 though the mountains are moved in the midst of the sea; though its waters roar and are troubled, though the mountains 4 shake with the swelling thereof. (Sela.) There is a river, whose 5 streams make glad the city of God, the holiest dwelling place of the most High. God is in the midst of her; she shall not be 6 moved: God shall help her at the dawn of day. Nations raged, 7 kingdoms were moved: he uttered his voice, the earth melted.

The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Ya'aqov is our fort- 8 ress. (Sela.) Come, behold the works of the Lord, who has 9 made desolations in the earth. He makes wars to cease to the 10 end of the earth; he breaks the bow, and cuts the spear in sunder; he burns the chariots in the fire. Be still, and know that 11
I am God: I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth. The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Ya'aqov 12 is our fortress. (Sela.)

To the chief Musician, A Psalm for the sons of Qoraḥ. O clap 1,2 your hands, all you peoples; shout to God with the voice of triumph. For the Lord most high is terrible; he is a great King 3 over all the earth. He subdues peoples under us, and nations 4 under our feet. He chooses our inheritance for us, the pride 5 of Ya'aqov whom he loves. (Sela.) God is gone up with a 6 shout, the Lord with the sound of a shofar. Sing praises to 7 God, sing praises: sing praises to our King, sing praises. For 8 God is the King of all the earth: sing a Maskil psalm. God 9 reigns over the nations: God sits upon the throne of his holiness. The nobles of the peoples are gathered together, the 10 people of the God of Avraham: for the shields of the earth belong to God: he is greatly exalted.

A song, A Psalm for the sons of Qoraḥ. Great is the Lord, and 1,2 highly to be praised in the city of our God, in the mountain of his holiness. Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole 3 earth: mount Ẓiyyon, the sides of the north, the city of the great King. God is known in her palaces for a fortress. For, lo, 4 the kings were assembled, they came on together. As soon as 5 they saw, they were astounded; they were affrighted; they 6 rushed away. Fear took hold of them there, and pain, like a 7 woman in travail. Thou breakest the ships of Tarshish with an 8 east wind. As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the 9 Lord of hosts, in the city of our God: may God establish it for ever. (Sela.) We have thought of thy steadfast love, O God, 10 in the midst of thy temple. According to thy name, O God, so is 11 thy praise to the ends of the earth: thy right hand is full of righteousness. Let mount Ẓiyyon rejoice, let the daughters of 12 Yehuda be glad, because of thy judgments. Walk about Ẓiyyon, 13 and go round about her: count her towers. Mark well her bul- 14 warks, consider her palaces; that you may tell it to the generation following. For such is God, our God, for ever and ever: 15 he will be our guide to the death.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm for the sons of Qoraḥ. Hear 1,2 this, all the peoples; give ear, all the inhabitants of the world: both low and high, rich and poor, together. My mouth shall 3,4 speak wisdom; and the meditation of my heart shall be understanding. I will incline my ear to a parable: I will open my 5 riddle to the lyre. Why should I fear in the days of evil, when 6 the iniquity of my persecutors compasses me about? They that 7 trust in their wealth, and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches; none of them can by any means redeem his 8 brother, nor give to GOD a ransom for him: for the redemption 9 of their soul is too dear, and he leaves it for ever: that he 10 might still live for ever, and not see the pit. When he sees that 11 wise men die, that the fool and the brutish person perish together, and leave their wealth to others: their inward thought 12 is, that their houses shall continue for ever, and their dwelling places to all generations; they call their lands after their own names. Nevertheless man abides not in honour: he is like the 13 beasts that perish. This is their way in their folly: and their 14 posterity who approve their sayings. (Sela.) Like sheep they 15 are appointed to She'ol; death shall be their shepherd; and the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning; and their form shall waste away in She'ol, leaving behind their dwelling. But GOD will redeem my soul from the power of 16 She'ol: for he shall receive me. (Sela.) Be not thou afraid when 17 one is made rich, when the glory of his house is increased; for 18 when he dies he shall carry nothing away: his glory shall not descend after him. Though while he lives he blesses his soul: 19 and though men praise thee, when thou doest well to thyself:

it shall go to the generation of his fathers; they shall never 20 see light. Man that is in honour, and understands not, is like 21 the beasts that perish.

A PSALM of Asaf. The mighty one, GOD, the LORD, has spoken, 50 and called the earth from the rising of the sun to the going down thereof. Out of Ziyyon, the perfection of beauty, GOD 2 has shone forth. Our GOD comes, and does not keep silence: 3 a fire devours before him, and it is very tempestuous round about him. He calls to the heavens above, and to the earth, that 4 he may judge his people. Gather my pious ones together to me; 5 those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice. And the 6 heavens declare his righteousness: for GOD is judge himself.
(Sela.) Hear, O my people, and I will speak; O Yisra'el, and I 7 will testify against thee: I am GOD, thy GOD. I will not reprove 8 thee for thy sacrifices; and thy burnt offerings are continually before me. I will take no bullock out of thy house, nor he goats out 9 of thy folds. For every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle 10 upon a thousand hills. I know all the birds of the mountains: 11 and the wild beasts of the field are mine. If I were hungry, I 12 would not tell thee: for the world is mine, and the fulness thereof. Do I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats? 13 Offer to GOD a thanksgiving; and pay thy vows to the most 14 High: and call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver 15 thee, and thou shalt glorify me. But to the wicked man GOD 16 says, What hast thou to do to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldst take my covenant in thy mouth? Seeing thou hatest 17 instruction, and dost cast my words behind thee. When thou 18 didst see a thief, then thou didst consort with him, and hast been partaker with adulterers. Thou givest thy mouth free rein 19 for evil, and thy tongue frames deceit. Thou sittest and speak- 20

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, when Natan the 1,2 prophet came to him, after he had gone in to Bat-sheva. Be gracious to me, O GOD, according to thy steadfast love: accord- 3 ing to the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions. Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse 4 me from my sin. For I acknowledge my transgressions: and my 5 sin is ever before me. Against thee, thee alone, have I sinned, 6 and done that which is evil in thy sight: so that thou art justified in thy sentence, and clear in thy judgment. Behold, 7
I was shaped in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me.
Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts: therefore teach 8 me wisdom in the inmost heart. Purge me with hyssop, and I shall 9 be clean: wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow. Make 10 me to hear joy and gladness: that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice. Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out 11 all my iniquities. Create in me a clean heart, O GOD and renew 12 a steadfast spirit within me. Cast me not away from thy pre- 13 sence; and take not thy holy spirit from me. Restore to me the 14 joy of thy salvation; and uphold me with a willing spirit. Then 15 I will teach transgressors thy ways; and sinners shall return to thee. Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O GOD, thou GOD of my 16 salvation: and my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.
O LORD, open my lips; and my mouth shall rehearse thy praise. 17
For thou desirest not sacrifice; or else I would give it: thou 18 delightest not in burnt offering. The sacrifices of GOD are a 19 broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O GOD, thou wilt not despise. Do good in thy favour to Ẓiyyon: build thou the 20 walls of Yerushalayim. Then shalt thou be pleased with the 21 sacrifices of righteousness, with burnt offering and whole burnt offering: then shall they offer bullocks upon thy altar.

To the chief Musician, A Maskil of David, when Do'eg the 1,2 Edomite came and told Sha'ul, and said to him, David is come to the house of Aḇimelekh. Why boastest thou thyself of evil, 3 O mighty man? the love of GOD endures for all time. Thy tongue 4 devises mischiefs; like a sharp razor, working deceitfully. Thou 5 lovest evil more than good; and lying rather than speaking righteousness. (Sela.) Thou lovest all devouring words, a de- 6 ceitful tongue. GOD shall likewise destroy thee for ever, he shall 7 take thee away, and pluck thee out of thy tent, and root thee out of the land of the living. (Sela.) The righteous also shall 8 see, and fear, and shall laugh at him: lo, this is the man who 9 made not GOD his strength; but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness. But I am 10 like a green olive tree in the house of GOD: I trust in the love of GOD for ever and ever. I will give thee thanks for ever, be- 11

To the chief Musician on Maḥalat, A Maskil of David. The fool has said in his heart, There is no GOD. They have acted corruptly, and they have done abominable iniquity: there is none that does good. GOD looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any man of discernment, that did seek GOD. Is every one of them dross? are they altogether filthy? is there no one who does good? No, not even one. Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge, who eat up my people as they eat bread: and do not call upon GOD? There were they in great fear, where no fear was: for GOD has scattered the bones of him that encamps against thee: thou hast put them to shame, because GOD has rejected them. Oh that the salvation of Yisra'el were come out of Ziyyon! When GOD brings back the captivity of his people, Ya'aqov shall rejoice, and Yisra'el shall be glad. 1,2 3 4 5 6 7

To the chief Musician for strings, A Maskil of David, when the Zifim came and said to Sha'ul, Does not David hide himself with us? Save me, O GOD, by thy name, and judge me by thy strength. Hear my prayer, O GOD; give ear to the words of my mouth. For strangers are risen up against me, and violent men seek after my soul: they have not set GOD before them. (Sela.) Behold, GOD is my helper: the LORD is the sustainer of my soul. He rewards evil to my enemies: O, cut them off in thy truth. I will sacrifice a free will offering to thee: I will praise thy name, O LORD; for it is good. For he has delivered me out of all trouble: and my eye has gazed upon my enemies. 1,2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

To the chief Musician for strings, A Maskil of David. Give ear to my prayer, O GOD; and hide not thyself from my supplication. Attend to me, and answer me: I sob in my complaint, and make moan; because of the voice of the enemy, because of the oppression of the wicked: for they cast iniquity upon me, and in wrath they persecute me. My heart is sore pained within me: and the terrors of death are fallen upon me. Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me, and horror has overwhelmed me. And I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove! for then I would fly away, and be at rest. Lo, then I would wander far off, and remain in the wilderness. (Sela.) I would hasten to find a refuge for myself from the windy storm and the tempest. Destroy, O LORD, and divide their tongues: for I have seen violence and strife in the city. Day and night they go about it upon its walls: mischief also and trouble are in the midst of it. Wickedness is in the midst of it: oppression and fraud depart not from her streets. For it was not an enemy who taunted me; then I could have borne it: nor was it one who hated me who did magnify himself against me; then I would have hid myself from him: but it was thou, a man my equal, my companion, and my familiar friend. We took sweet counsel together, and walked to the house of GOD in company. Let death spread its oblivion upon them, and let them go down alive into She'ol: for wickedness is in their dwellings, and among them. As for me, I will call upon GOD; and the LORD shall save me. morning, and at noon, I pray, and cry aloud: and he hears my voice. He has delivered my soul in peace from the battle that 19 was against me: for there were many who strove with me. God 20 who is enthroned from olden time, shall hear and afflict them (Sela;) those who dread no changes, and do not fear God. He 21 has put forth his hands against such as are at peace with him:
he has broken his covenant. The words of his mouth were 22 smoother than butter, but war was in his heart: his words were softer than oil, yet they were drawn swords. Cast thy burden 23 upon the LORD, and he shall sustain thee: he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved. But thou, O God, shalt bring them 24 down into the pit of destruction: bloody and deceitful men shall not live out half their days; but I will trust in thee.

To the chief Musician, upon Yonat-elem-rehoqim, A Mikhtam of 56
David, when the Pelishtim seized him in Gat. Be gracious to me, 2 O God: for men long to swallow me up; all day long the foeman oppresses me. My enemies daily long to swallow me up, for 3 they are many who fight against me, O thou most High. When 4 I am afraid, I will trust in thee. In God, I will praise his word, 5 in God I have put my trust; I will not fear; what can flesh do to me? Every day they wrest my words: all their thoughts are 6 against me for evil. They gather themselves together, they hide 7 themselves, they mark my steps, as they wait for my soul. Shall 8 they escape by iniquity? in thy anger cast down the peoples, O God. Thou dost count my wanderings: put my tears into thy 9 bottle: are they not in thy book? When I cry to thee, then shall 10 my enemies turn back: this I know; for God is for me. In God, 11
I will praise his word: in the LORD, I will praise his word. In 12 God have I put my trust: I will not be afraid. What can man do to me? Thy vows are upon me, O God: I will pay thee my of- 13 ferings of thanksgiving. For thou hast delivered my soul from 14 death, yea, my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of the living!

To the chief Musician, Al-tashhet, a Mikhtam of David, when 57 he fled from Sha'ul in the cave. Be gracious to me, O God, be 2 gracious to me: for my soul trusts in thee: and in the shadow of thy wings will I take refuge, until calamities be overpast.
I will cry to God most high; to God who performs all things 3 for me. He will send from heaven, and save me; he scorns him 4 who would swallow me up. (Sela.) God shall send forth his steadfast love and his truth. My soul is among lions: and I lie 5 down among those who are aflame, the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword.
Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens; let thy glory be 6 above all the earth. They have prepared a net for my steps; 7 my soul is bowed down: they have dug a pit before me, into the midst of which they are fallen themselves. (Sela.) My heart is 8 steadfast, O God, my heart is steadfast: I will sing and give praise. Wake up, my glory; awake, the harp and the lyre: I will 9 awake the dawn. I will praise thee, O LORD, among the peoples: 10
I will sing to thee among the nations. For thy love is great unto 11 the heavens, and thy truth to the clouds. Be thou exalted, O 12
God, above the heavens: let thy glory be above all the earth.

To the chief Musician, Al-tashḥet, A Mikhtam of David. Do 1,2 you indeed speak righteousness in private? do you judge uprightly, O you sons of men? No, in your hearts you work 3 wickedness; your hands deal out violence on the earth. The 4 wicked are estranged from the womb: they err from birth, speaking lies. Their poison is like the poison of a snake: they 5 are like the deaf adder that stops its ear; which will not hearken 6 to the voice of charmers, charming never so wisely. Break their 7 teeth, O GOD, in their mouth: break out the fangs of the young lions, O LORD. Let them melt away like waters which run con- 8 tinually: when he aims his arrows, let them be as if cut in pieces; like the slimy track of a snail which disappears: like 9 the untimely births of a woman, that have not seen the sun. Before your pots can feel the thorns, he shall sweep them 10 away as with a whirlwind, both the green and the burning. The righteous shall rejoice when he sees the vengeance: he 11 shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked. So that a man 12 shall say, Verily there is a reward for the righteous: verily there is a GOD who judges in the earth.

To the chief Musician, Al-tashḥet, A Mikhtam of David; when 59 Sha'ul sent, and they watched the house to kill him. Deliver me 2 from my enemies, O my GOD: defend me from those who rise up against me. Deliver me from the workers of iniquity, and 3 save me from bloody men. For, lo, they lie in wait for my soul: 4 fierce men are gathered against me; not for my transgression, nor for my sin, O LORD. They run and prepare themselves for 5 no fault of mine: awake to help me, and behold. Thou therefore, 6
O LORD GOD of hosts, the GOD of Yisra'el, awake to punish all the nations: be not gracious to any wicked traitors. (Sela).
They return at evening: they howl like a dog, and go round 7 about the city. Behold, they belch out with their mouth: swords 8 are in their lips: for who hears? But thou, O LORD, shalt laugh 9 at them; thou shalt have all the nations in derision. Upon thee, 10 O my strength, will I wait: for GOD is my fortress. GOD who 11 loves me shall come to meet me: GOD shall let me gaze upon my enemies. Slay them not, lest my people forget: scatter them 12 by thy power; and bring them down, O LORD our shield. For the 13 sin of their mouth and the words of their lips let them even be taken in their pride: and for cursing and lying which they speak. Consume them in wrath, consume them, that they may 14 be no more: and let them know that GOD rules in Ya'aqov to the ends of the earth. (Sela.) And at evening let them return; 15 and let them howl like a dog, and go round about the city. Let them wander up and down for food, and murmur if they 16 have not their fill. But I will sing of thy power; yea, I will sing 17 aloud of thy steadfast love in the morning: for thou hast been my defence and refuge in the day of my distress. To thee, O 18 my strength, will I sing: for GOD is my fortress, and the GOD who loves me.

To the chief Musician upon Shushan-'edut, A Mikhtam of David, 60 to teach; when he strove with Aram-naharayim and with Aram-Ẓova, and Yo'av returned, and smote twelve thousand of Edom 2 in the valley of salt. O GOD, thou hast cast us off, thou hast shat- 3 tered us, thou hast been angry; O turn thyself to us again. Thou 4 hast made the earth to tremble; thou hast broken it: heal its breaches; for it totters. Thou hast shown thy people hard things: 5 thou hast made us drink the wine of staggering. Thou hast given a 6 banner to those who fear thee, that it may be displayed because of the truth. (Sela.) That thy beloved ones may be delivered; 7 save with thy right hand, and answer me. GOD has spoken in 8 his holiness; I will rejoice, I will divide Shekhem, and measure out the valley of Sukkot. Gil'ad is mine, and Menashshe is mine; 9 Efrayim also is the strength of my head; Yehuda is my sceptre; Mo'av is my washpot; over Edom will I cast my shoe: 10 Peleshet, cry aloud because of me. Who will bring me into the 11 strong city? who will lead me into Edom? Hast thou not rejected 12 us, O GOD? so that thou goest not forth, O GOD, with our hosts.

Give us help against the foe: for vain is the help of man. 13 Through GOD we shall do valiantly: for he it is who will tread 14 down our enemies.

To the chief Musician, on strings, Of David. Hear my cry, 1, 2 O GOD; attend to my prayer. From the end of the earth I 3 will cry to thee, when my heart faints. lead me to the rock that is too high for me. For thou hast been a shelter for me, 4 and a strong tower from the enemy. I will abide in thy tent for 5 ever: I will trust in the covert of thy wings. (Sela.) For thou, 6 O GOD, hast heard my vows: thou hast granted the heritage of those who fear thy name. Prolong the king's life: may his 7 years be as many generations. May he be enthroned before GOD 8 for ever: O appoint love and truth, that they may preserve him.
So will I sing praise to thy name for ever, as I perform my vows 9 day by day.

To the chief Musician, to Yedutun, A Psalm of David. My soul 1, 2 waits in silence only for GOD: from him comes my salvation.
He alone is my rock and my salvation; he is my fortress: I 3 shall not be greatly moved. How long will you seek to over- 4 whelm a man? You will be all of you demolished like a leaning wall, or a tottering fence. They even devise to thrust him down 5 from his majesty: they delight in lies: they bless with their mouth, but they curse inwardly. (Sela.) My soul waits in 6 silence only for GOD; for my expectation is from him. He alone 7 is my rock and my salvation: he is my defence; I shall not be moved. In GOD is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my 8 strength, and my refuge, is in GOD. Trust in him at all times; 9 you people, pour out your heart before him: GOD is a refuge for us. (Sela.) Men of low degree are mere breath, and men 10 of high degree are a lie: to be laid in the balance, they are altogether lighter than air. Trust not in oppression, and become 11 not vain in robbery: if riches increase, set not your heart upon them. GOD has spoken once: twice have I heard this; that power 12 belongs to GOD. But love is also thine, when thou renderest to 13 every man according to his work.

A PSALM of David, when he was in the wilderness of Yehuda. 63
O GOD, thou art my GOD; earnestly I seek thee: my soul 2 thirsts for thee, my flesh longs for thee in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is; to see thy power and thy glory, as I have 3 seen thee in the sanctuary. Because thy steadfast love is better 4 than life, my lips shall praise thee. Thus will I bless thee while 5 I live: I will lift up my hands in thy name. My soul is satisfied 6 as with marrow and fatness; and my mouth praises thee with joyful lips: when I remember thee upon my bed, and meditate 7 on thee in the night watches. Because thou hast been my help, 8 therefore in the shadow of thy wings I will rejoice. My soul 9 clings to thee: thy right hand upholds me. But those who seek 10 my soul, to destroy it, shall go into the lower parts of the earth.

They shall be given over to the sword: they shall be a portion 11 for foxes. But the king shall rejoice in GOD; everyone who 12 swears by him shall glory: for the mouth of those who speak lies shall be stopped.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. Hear my voice, O 1,2
GOD, in my prayer: preserve my life from fear of the enemy.
Hide me from the secret council of the wicked; from the tumult 3 of the workers of iniquity: who have whetted their tongue like 4 a sword, aimed their arrows of bitter words: to shoot the in- 5 nocent man in secret; suddenly do they shoot at him, and fear not. They encourage one another in an evil matter: they speak 6 of laying snares secretly; they say, Who shall see them? They 7 search out iniquities; they accomplish a diligent search: for the inward thought of man, and the heart, is deep. But GOD 8 shoots his arrow at them: suddenly their wounds are on them.
So they make their own tongue a stumbling to themselves; all 9 that see them shake the head. And all men are afraid, and they 10 declare the work of GOD; for they wisely consider of his doing.
The just man shall be glad in the LORD, and shall trust in him; 11 and all the upright in heart shall glory.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, a Poem. Praise awaits 1,2 thee, O GOD, in Ziyyon: and to thee shall the vow be performed.
O thou that hearest prayer, to thee shall all flesh come. Iniqui- 3,4 ties prevail against me: as for our transgressions, thou shalt purge them away. Happy is the man whom thou choosest, and 5 causest to approach to thee, that he may dwell in thy courts: we will be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, thy holy temple.
By terrible things in righteousness wilt thou answer us, O GOD 6 of our salvation; who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of the farthest sea. Who by his strength places the 7 mountains in position; who is girded with power: who stills 8 the noise of the seas, the roaring of their waves, and the tumult of the peoples. They also who dwell in the uttermost parts are 9 afraid at thy signs: thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice. Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it: 10 thou greatly enrichest it with the river of GOD, which is full of water: thou providest corn for them, for so thou hast prepared it. Watering her furrows abundantly, settling her ridges: thou 11 makest it soft with showers: thou blessest its growth. Thou 12 crownest the year with thy goodness; and thy paths drop fatness. The pastures of the wilderness drop moisture: and the 13 little hills rejoice on every side. The meadows are clothed with 14 flocks; the valleys also are covered over with corn; they shout for joy, they also sing.

To the chief Musician, A Poem, a Psalm. Make a joyful noise 1 to GOD, all the earth: sing to the glory of his name: make his 2 praise glorious. Say to GOD, How terrible are thy works! through 3 the greatness of thy power shall thy enemies cringe before thee.
All the earth shall worship thee, and shall sing to thee; they 4 shall sing to thy name. (Sela.) Come and see the works of 5 GOD: terrible is his doing towards the children of men. He 6 turned the sea into dry land: they went through the river on foot: there did we rejoice in him. He rules by his power for- 7 ever; his eyes behold the nations: let not the rebellious exalt themselves. (Sela.) O bless our GOD, you peoples, and make 8 the voice of his praise to be heard: who has kept our soul in 9 life, and has not suffered our foot to be moved. For thou, O GOD, 10 hast tested us: thou hast tried us, as silver is refined. Thou 11 hast brought us into the net; thou hast laid affliction upon our loins. Thou hast caused men to ride over our heads; we went 12 through fire and through water: but thou didst bring us out into abundance. I will go into thy house with burnt offerings: 13
I will pay thee my vows, which my lips have uttered, and my 14 mouth has spoken, when I was in trouble. I will offer unto thee 15 burnt sacrifices of fatlings, with the sweet smoke of rams; I will offer bullocks with goats. (Sela.) Come and hear, all you 16 that fear GOD, and I will declare what he has done for my soul.
I cried to him with my mouth, and he was extolled with my 17 tongue. If I had looked on wickedness with my heart, the LORD 18 would not have heard: but verily GOD has heard me; he has 19 attended to the voice of my prayer. Blessed be GOD, who has 20 not turned away my prayer, nor removed his steadfast love from me.

To the chief Musician on strings, A Psalm, a Poem. GOD be 1,2 gracious to us, and bless us; and cause his face to shine upon us; (Sela.) that thy way may be known upon earth, thy salva- 3 tion among all nations. Let the peoples praise thee, O GOD; let 4 all the peoples give thanks to thee. O let the nations be glad 5 and sing for joy: for thou shalt judge the peoples with equity, and govern the nations upon earth. (Sela.) Let the peoples 6 praise thee, O GOD; let all the peoples give thee thanks. The 7 earth has yielded her increase; and GOD, our own GOD, shall bless us. GOD shall bless us; and let all the ends of the earth 8 fear him.

68

To the chief Musician, A Psalm, a Poem of David. Let GOD 1,2 arise, let his enemies be scattered: and let those who hate him flee before him. As smoke is driven away, so drive them away: 3 as wax melts before the fire, so let the wicked perish at the presence of GOD. But let the righteous be glad; let them rejoice 4 before GOD: and let them joyfully exult. Sing to GOD, sing prai- 5 ses to his name: extol him who rides upon the clouds; YA is his name: and rejoice before him. A father of the fatherless, 6 and a judge of widows, is GOD in his holy habitation. GOD makes 7 the lonely ones dwell in a house: he brings out the prisoners into prosperity; but the rebellious dwell in a parched land. O 8 GOD, when thou didst go out before thy people, when thou didst march through the wilderness; (Sela;) the earth shook, the 9 heavens also dropped at the presence of GOD: even Sinay itself at the presence of GOD, the GOD of Yisra'el. Thou, O GOD, didst 10 send a plentiful rain, whereby thou didst strengthen thy inheritance, when it languished. Thy flock found a dwelling in it: 11 thou, O GOD, preparest of thy goodness for the poor. The LORD 12 gives the word: great is the company of those who bear the tidings. Kings of armies flee, they flee: and she who dwells in 13 the house divides the spoil. When you lie among the sheep folds 14 you shall shine as the wings of a dove covered with silver, and her pinions with yellow gold. When the Almighty scatters kings 15 in it, snow falls in Zalmon. O mighty hill, O hill of Bashan; O 16 high peaked hill, hill of Bashan: why dost thou look askance, 17 O high peaked hill, at the mountain which GOD has desired for his abode? truly the LORD will dwell there forever. The chariots 18 of GOD are twice ten thousand, thousands upon thousands: the LORD is among them: Sinay in holiness! Thou hast ascended on 19 high, thou hast led captivity captive: thou hast received gifts from men; yea, from the rebellious also, that the LORD GOD might dwell there. Blessed be the LORD who day by day bears 20 our burden. GOD is our salvation. (Sela.) He that is our GOD is 21 the GOD of salvations; and to GOD the LORD belong the issues of death. But GOD will smite through the head of his enemies, 22 the hairy scalp of such as goes on still in his trespasses. The 23 LORD said, I will bring back from Bashan, I wil bring them back from the depths of the sea: that thy foot may wade in 24 blood; and the tongue of thy dogs have its portion of thy enemies. They see thy processions, O GOD; the processions of my 25 GOD, my King, in the sanctuary. The singers go before, the 26 players on instruments follow after; among them are maidens beating tambourines. Bless GOD in the congregations, the LORD, 27 from the fountain of Yisra'el. There is Binyamin, the youngest, 28 ruling them, the princes of Yehuda, their council, the princes of Zevulun, and the princes of Naftali. Thy GOD has commanded thy strength: strengthen, O GOD, that which thou hast 29 wrought for us, out of thy temple at Yerushalayim, whither 30 kings shall bring thee gifts. Rebuke the wild beast of the reed 31 grass, the company of bulls with the calves of the peoples, who seek to ingratiate themselves with pieces of silver; the prodigality of nations desiring to approach thee. Nobles shall come out 32 of Mizrayim; Kush shall soon stretch out her hands to GOD.

Sing to GOD, you kingdoms of the earth; O sing praise to the 33
LORD; (Sela;) to him that rides upon the heavens of heavens, 34 which are of old; lo, he sends out his voice, a mighty voice.
Ascribe strength to GOD: his majesty is over Yisra'el, and his 35 strength is in the clouds. O GOD, thou art terrible out of thy 36 holy places: the GOD of Yisra'el: he gives strength and power to his people. Blessed is GOD.

To the chief Musician upon Shoshannim, Of David. Save me, 1,2 O GOD; for the waters are come in to my soul. I sink in deep 3 mire, where there is no standing: I am come into deep waters, and the flood overwhelms me. I am weary with my crying: my 4 throat is dried: my eyes fail while I wait for my GOD. They 5 who hate me without cause are more than the hairs of my head:

they who would destroy me are many, who hate me wrongfully. What I took not away, that must I restore. O GOD, thou 6 knowst my folly; and my sins are not hid from thee. Let not 7 those who wait on thee, O LORD GOD of hosts, be ashamed for my sake: let not those who seek thee be confounded for my sake, O GOD of Yisra'el. Because for thy sake I have borne in- 8 sult; confusion has covered my face. I am become a stranger 9 to my brothers, and an alien to my mother's children. For the 10 zeal of thy house has eaten me up; and the taunts of those who taunt thee are fallen upon me. When I wept, and chastened my 11 soul with fasting, that became a reproach to me. I made sack- 12 cloth also my garment; and I became a proverb to them. They 13 who sit in the gate talk of me; and I am the song of drunkards.
But as for me, let my prayer be to thee, O LORD, in an accept- 14 able time: O GOD, in the greatness of thy steadfast love hear me, in the truth of thy salvation. Deliver me out of the mire, 15 and let me not sink: let me be delivered from those who hate me, and out of the deep waters. Let not the waterflood over- 16 whelm me, nor let the deep swallow me up, and let not the pit shut her mouth upon me. Hear me, O LORD; for thy love 17 is good: turn towards me according to the multitude of thy compassion. And hide not thy face from thy servant; for 18
I am in trouble: answer me speedily. Draw near to my soul, 19 and redeem it: ransom me because of my enemies. Thou 20 knowst my reproach, and my shame, and my dishonour: my adversaries are all before thee. Insult has broken my heart; and 21
I am sick: and I looked for some to take pity, but there was none; and for comforters, but I found none. And they gave me 22 poison in my food; and for my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink. Let their table become a snare before them: and when 23 they are at peace, let it be a trap. Let their eyes be darkened, 24 that they see not; and make their loins continually to shake.
Pour out thy indignation upon them, and let thy fierce anger 25 overtake them. Let their habitation be desolate; let none dwell 26 in their tents. For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten; 27 and they tell of the pain of those whom thou hast wounded.
Add iniquity to their iniquity: and let them not be admitted to 28 thy vindication. Let them be blotted out of the book of the 29 living, and not be written with the righteous. But I am af- 30 flicted and in pain: let thy salvation, O GOD, set me on high.
I will praise the name of GOD with a song, and will magnify him 31 with thanksgiving. And it shall please the LORD better than an 32 ox or a bullock that has horns and hoofs. The humble shall 33 see this, and be glad: and let your hearts revive, you who seek GOD. For the LORD hears the poor, and despises not his prison- 34
ers. Let the heaven and earth praise him, the seas, and every- 35 thing that moves therein. For GOD will save Ziyyon, and will 36 build the cities of Yehuda: that they may dwell there, and have it in possession. The seed also of his servants shall inherit it: 37 and they that love his name shall dwell there.

To the chief Musician, of David, for invocation. Make haste, 1,2 O GOD, to deliver me; to help me, O LORD. Let them be a- 3 turned backward, and put to confusion, who desire my hurt.

Let them be turned back because of their shame who say, Aha, 4
aha. Let all those who seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: and 5 let such as love thy salvation say continually, Let GOD be magnified. But I am poor and needy: make haste to me, O GOD: 6 thou art my help and my deliverer; delay not, O LORD.
IN thee, O LORD, do I take refuge: let me never be put to con- 71 fusion. Deliver me in thy righteousness, and cause me to es- 2 cape: incline thy ear to me, and save me. Be thou my strong 3 habitation, to which I may continually resort; which thou hast appointed to save me; for thou art my rock and my fortress.
Deliver me, O my GOD, out of the hand of the wicked man, 4 out of the hand of the unrighteous and violent man. For thou art 5 my hope, O LORD GOD: thou art my trust from my youth. By thee 6 have I been sustained from the womb: thou art he who took me out of my mother's bowels: my praise is continually of thee. I am 7 as a marvel to many; but thou art my strong refuge. Let my 8 mouth be filled with thy praise and with thy glory all the day.
Cast me not off in the time of old age; forsake me not when 9 my strength fails me. For my enemies speak against me; and 10 they who watch for my soul take counsel together, saying, 11 GOD has forsaken him: pursue and catch him; for there is none to deliver him. O GOD, be not far from me: O my GOD, make 12 haste to help me. Let them be confounded and consumed who 13 are adversaries to my soul; let them be covered with reproach and dishonour who seek my hurt. But as for me, I will hope 14 continually, and will praise thee yet more and more. My mouth 15 shall rehearse thy righteousness and thy salvation all the day; for I cannot count them. I will come to celebrate the mighty 16 acts of the LORD GOD: I will make mention of thy righteousness, thine alone. O GOD, thou hast taught me from my youth: 17 and I still declare thy wondrous deeds. Now also when I am old 18 and greyheaded, O GOD, forsake me not; until I have related thy strength to this generation, and thy power to everyone that is to come. Thy righteousness also, O GOD, reaches the high 19 heavens, who hast done great things. O GOD, who is like thee!
Thou who hast shown me many and grievous troubles, restore 20 me to life again, and bring me up again from the depths of the earth. Increase my greatness, and turn to comfort me. I too will 21,22 praise thee with the harp, speaking of thy truth, O my GOD:
to thee will I sing with the lyre, O thou Holy One of Yisra'el.
My lips shall greatly rejoice when I sing to thee; and my soul, 23 which thou hast redeemed. My tongue also shall tell of thy 24 righteousness all the day long: for they are confounded, for they are brought to shame, who seek my hurt.
FOR Shelomo. Give the king thy judgments, O GOD, and thy 72 righteousness to the king's son. That he may judge thy people 2 with righteousness, and thy poor with justice. Let the moun- 3 tains bring peace to the people, and the hills, by righteousness.
May he judge the cause of the poor of the people, may he save 4 the children of the needy, and break the oppressor in pieces.
May they fear thee as long as the sun and moon endure, 5 throughout all generations. May he come down like rain upon 6 the mown grass: like showers that water the earth. In his days 7 let the righteous flourish; and let there be abundance of peace till the moon is no more. May he have dominion also from sea 8 to sea, and from the river to the ends of the earth. Let them 9 who dwell in the wilderness bow down before him, and his enemies lick the dust. May the kings of Tarshish and of the 10 isles bring presents: let the kings of Sheva and Seva offer gifts. And may all kings fall down before him; all nations 11 serve him. For he shall deliver the needy when he cries; the 12 poor also, and him who has no helper. He will spare the poor 13 and needy, and shall save the souls of the needy. He will re- 14 deem their soul from deceit and violence: and precious shall their blood be in his sight. Long may he live, and may the 15 gold of Sheva be given to him: and let prayer be continually offered for him: let them bless him all the day. May there be 16 and may men bless themselves by him: let all nations call him happy! Blessed be the LORD GOD, the GOD of Yisra'el, who 18 does wondrous things alone. And blessed be his glorious name 19 for ever: and let the whole earth be filled with his glory; Amen, and Amen. The prayers of David the son of Yishay are ended. 20

BOOK THREE A PSALM of Asaf. Truly GOD is good to Yisra'el, to such as are 73 of a clean heart. But as for me, my feet were almost gone; my 2 steps had well nigh slipped. For I was envious of the arrogant, 3 when I saw the prosperity of the wicked. For there are no 4 pangs at their death; their body is firm. They are not in trouble 5 as other men; nor are they plagued like other men. Therefore 6 pride is their necklace; violence covers them like a garment.
Their eyes stand out with fatness: they have more than heart 7 could wish. They deride, and wickedly speak oppression: they 8 speak loftily. They set their mouth against the heavens, and 9 their tongue struts through the earth. Therefore his people re- 10 turn here: and abundant waters are drained out by them. And 11 they say, How does GOD know? and is there knowledge in the most High? Behold, these are the wicked, always at ease; they 12 increase in riches. Surely I have cleansed my heart in vain, and 13 washed my hands in innocency; for all the day I have been 14 stricken, and chastised every morning. If I had said, I will 15 speak thus; behold, I should have offended against the generation of thy children. So I pondered how I might understand 16 this, but it was too wearisome for me. Until I entered the 17 sanctuary of GOD; then I understood their end. Surely thou 18 dost set them in slippery places: thou dost cast them down into destruction. How are they brought into desolation in a moment! 19 they are utterly consumed with terrors. As a dream when one 20 awakes; so, O LORD, on awaking, thou shalt despise their image.
When my heart was embittered, and I was pricked in my reins; 21 then I was foolish and ignorant: I was like a beast before thee. 22
But I am continually with thee: thou holdest my right hand. 23

Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and afterwards receive 24 me to honourable state. Whom have I in heaven but thee? and 25 there is none upon earth that I desire beside thee. My flesh and 26 my heart fail: but GOD is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever. For, lo, they that are far from thee shall 27 perish: thou hast destroyed all those who go astray from thee. But as for me, the nearness of GOD is my good: I have 28 made the LORD GOD my refuge, that I may relate all thy works.

A MASKIL of Asaf. O GOD, why hast thou cast us off for ever? 74
why does thy anger smoke against the sheep of thy pasture?
Remember thy congregation, which thou hast purchased of old; 2 the tribe of thy inheritance, which thou hast redeemed; this mount Ẓiyyon, wherein thou hast dwelt. Lift up thy feet to the 3 perpetual desolations; the enemy has destroyed everything in the sanctuary. Thy enemies roar in the midst of thy meeting 4 place; they set up their signs for signs: they are known as 5 swingers of axes upwards in the thick forest: and now they 6 break down its carved work altogether with hatchet and with hammers. They have burned thy sanctuary with fire, to the 7 ground: they have defiled the dwelling place of thy name. They 8 have said in their hearts, Let us destroy them together: they have burned up all the meeting places of GOD in the land.
We see not our signs: there is no longer a prophet: nor is there 9 among us any that knows how long. O GOD, how long shall 10 the adversary insult? shall the enemy blaspheme thy name for ever? Why dost thou withdraw thy hand, even thy right hand? 11 out of thy bosom with it! destroy! for GOD is my King of old, 12 working salvation in the midst of the earth. Thou didst divide 13 the sea by thy strength: thou didst break the heads of the sea monsters in the waters. Thou didst crush the heads of livyatan: 14 thou didst give him for food to the desert people. Thou didst 15 split open springs and wadis: thou didst dry up the ever flowing streams. The day is thine, the night also is thine: thou hast pre- 16 pared the light and the sun. Thou hast set all the borders of 17 the earth: thou hast made summer and winter. Remember this, 18 how the enemy has insulted the LORD, and how a base people have blasphemed thy name. O deliver not the soul of thy 19 turtledove to the wild beast: forget not the congregation of thy poor for ever. Look upon the covenant: for the dark places 20 of the earth are full, the habitations of cruelty. O let not the 21 oppressed return ashamed: let the poor and needy praise thy name. Arise, O GOD, plead thy own cause: remember how the 22 foolish man insults thee daily. Forget not the voice of thy ene- 23 mies: the tumult of those who rise up against thee increases continually.

To the chief Musician, Al-tashḥet, A Psalm of Asaf, A Poem. 75
To thee, O GOD, we give thanks; we give thanks; for thy name is 2 near; men declare thy wondrous works. Surely I shall take the 3 appointed time; I will judge with equity. When the earth and 4 all its inhabitants are dissolved, I bear up the pillars of it.
(Sela.) I said to the arrogant, Deal not arrogantly! and to the 5 wicked, Lift not the horn. Lift not your horn on high: speak 6 east, nor from the west, nor from the desert peaks: but GOD 8 is the judge: he puts one down, and sets up another. For in 9 the hand of the LORD there is a cup, with foaming wine; it is full of mixture; and he pours out of the same: but its dregs, shall all the wicked of the earth drain and drink. But I will 10 declare for ever; I will sing praises to the GOD of Ya'aqov. All 11 the horns of the wicked also will I cut off; but the horns of the righteous shall be exalted.

To the chief Musician on strings, A Psalm of Asaf, A Poem. 76
In Yehuda is GOD known: his name is great in Yisra'el. In 2,3 Shalem also is his tabernacle, and his dwelling place is in Ẓiyyon. There he broke the flashing arrows, the shield, and 4 the sword, and the battle. (Sela.) Thou art glorious and ex- 5 cellent, coming down from the mountains of prey. The stout- 6 hearted are bereft of reason, they have slept their sleep: and none of the men of might have found their hands. At thy 7 rebuke, O GOD of Ya'aqov, he is put to sleep, together with chariot and horse. Thou, even thou, art to be feared: and who 8 may stand in thy sight when once thou art angry? Thou didst 9 cause judgment to be heard from heaven; the earth feared, and was still, When GOD arose to judgment, to save all the humble 10 of the earth. (Sela.) Surely the wrath of man shall praise thee: 11 thou wilt gird thyself with the remainder of wrath. Vow, and 12 pay to the LORD your GOD: let all that be round about him bring presents to him that is to be feared. He shall cut off the 13 spirit of princes: he is terrible to the kings of the earth.

To the chief Musician, to Yedutun, A Psalm of Asaf. To GOD 77
I will cry aloud: aloud to GOD. O, hear me! In the day of my 1,2 trouble I sought the LORD: my hand is stretched out in the night, 3 and rests not: my soul refuses to be comforted. I remember 4 GOD, and moan: I meditate, and my spirit faints. (Sela.) Thou 5 holdest fast my eyelids: I am so troubled that I cannot speak.
I have considered the days of old, the years of ancient times. 6
I call to remembrance my song in the night: I meditate with 7 my heart: and my spirit makes diligent search. Will the LORD 8 cast off for ever? and will he be favourable no more? Is his 9 steadfast love clean gone forever? does his promise fail for evermore? Has GOD forgotten to be gracious? has he in anger 10 shut up his tender mercies? (Sela.) And I said, I am sick at 11 heart, for the right hand of the most High has changed. I will 12 remember the works of the LORD: surely I will remember thy wonders of old. I will meditate also on all thy work, and muse 13 on thy doings. Thy way, O GOD, is in holiness: who is so great 14 a GOD as our GOD? Thou art the GOD that doest wonders: thou 15 hast declared thy strength among the people. Thou hast with 16 thy arm redeemed thy people, the sons of Ya'aqov and Yosef.
(Sela.) The waters saw thee, O GOD, the waters saw thee: they 17 were afraid: the depths also trembled. The clouds poured out 18 water: the skies sent out a sound: thy arrows also went abroad. The voice of thy thunder was in the whirlwind: the light- 19 nings lightened the world: the earth trembled and shook. Thy 20 way was in the sea, and thy path in the great waters, and thy footsteps were not known. Thou didst lead thy people like a 21 flock by the hand of Moshe and Aharon.

A MASKIL of Asaf. Give ear, O my people, to my Tora: incline 78 your ears to the words of my mouth. I will open my mouth with 2 a parable: I will utter riddles concerning ancient times: of that 3 which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us.
We will not hide them from their children, relating to the 4 latter generation the praises of the LORD, and his strength, and his wonderful works that he has done. For he established a 5 Testimony in Ya'aqov, and appointed a Tora in Yisra'el, which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children: that the generation to come might know 6 them, the children which should be born; who should arise and declare them to their children: that they might set their 7 hope in GOD, and not forget the works of GOD, but keep his commandments: and that they might not be as their fathers, 8 a stubborn and rebellious generation; a generation that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit was not steadfast with GOD. The children of Efrayim were as archers, carrying bows, 9 who turned back in the day of battle. They kept not the cove- 10 nant of GOD, and refused to follow his Tora; and forgot his 11 works, and his wonders that he had shown them. Marvellous 12 things he did in the sight of their fathers, in the land of Miẓrayim, in the field of Ẓo'an. He divided the sea, and caused 13 them to pass through; and he made the waters to stand like a heap. In the daytime also he led them with a cloud, and all 14 the night with a light of fire. He split rocks in the wilderness, 15 and gave them drink as out of the great depths. He brought 16 streams also out of the rock, and caused waters to run down like rivers. And they sinned yet more against him, rebelling 17 against the most High in the wilderness. And they tempted 18 GOD in their heart by asking food for their craving. And they 19 spoke against GOD; they said, Can GOD furnish a table in the wilderness? Behold, he smote the rock, that the waters gushed 20 out, and the streams overflowed; can he give bread also? can he provide meat for his people? Therefore the LORD heard this, 21 and was angry: so a fire was kindled against Ya'aqov, and anger also came up against Yisra'el; because they believed not 22 in GOD, and trusted not in his salvation: though he commanded 23 the clouds from above, and opened the doors of heaven, and 24 rained down manna upon them to eat, and gave them of the corn of heaven. Man ate the bread of angels: he sent them 25 provision to the full. He caused an east wind to blow in the 26 sky: and by his power he brought on the south wind. And 27 he rained meat upon them like dust, and feathered birds like the sand of the sea: and he let it fall in the midst of their camp, 28 round about their habitations. So they did eat, and were well 29 filled: for he gave them their own desire; they were not yet 30 sated with their lust: whilst their meat was still in their mouths, the wrath of GOD came upon them, and slew the fat- 31 test of them, and smote down the young men of Yisra'el. For all 32 this they sinned still, and did not believe in his wondrous works.
Therefore he ended their days with emptiness, and their years 33 with trouble. When he slew them, then they sought him: and 34 they returned and earnestly inquired after God. And they re- 35 membered that God was their rock, and the high God their redeemer. Nevertheless they did flatter him with their mouths, 36 and they lied to him with their tongues. For their heart was 37 not steadfast with him, neither were they faithful in his covenant. But he was full of compassion, forgiving iniquity, 38 and he did not destroy them: often he turned away his anger, not stirring up all his wrath. For he remem- 39 bered that they were but flesh; a wind that passes away, and comes not again. How often did they rebel against him in the 40 wilderness, and grieve him in the desert! They turned back also 41 and tempted God, and pained the Holy One of Yisra'el. They 42 remembered not his hand, nor the day when he delivered them from the enemy. How he had wrought his signs in Miẓrayim, 43 and his wonders in the field of Ẓo'an: and had turned their 44 canals into blood; and their floods, so that they could not drink.

He sent swarms of gnats among them, which devoured them; 45 and frogs, which destroyed them. He gave also their increase 46 to the destroying locust, and their labour to the swarming locust. He destroyed their vines with hail, and their sycamore 47 trees with frost. He gave over their cattle also to the hail, and 48 their flocks to hot thunderbolts. He cast upon them the fierce- 49 ness of his anger, wrath, and indignation, and trouble, an embassy of evil messengers. He levelled a path for his anger; he 50 spared not their soul from death, but gave their life over to the pestilence; and smote all the firstborn in Miẓrayim; the first of 51 their strength in the tents of Ḥam: but made his own people to 52 go out like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.
And he led them on safely, so that they feared not: but the 53 sea overwhelmed their enemies. And he brought them to his 54 holy border, to the mountain, which his right hand had purchased. He cast out nations before them, and apportioned to 55 them an inheritance by line, and made the tribes of Yisra'el to dwell in their tents. Yet they tempted and rebelled against the 56 most high God, and kept not his testimonies: but turned back, 57 and dealt unfaithfully like their fathers: they were turned aside like a deceitful bow. For they provoked him to anger with their 58 high places, and moved him to jealousy with their carved idols.
When God heard this, he was wroth, and greatly abhorred 59 Yisra'el: so that he forsook the tabernacle of Shilo, the tent 60 where he made his dwelling among men; and delivered his 61 strength into captivity, and his glory into the enemy's hand.
He gave his people over also to the sword; and was wroth with 62 his inheritance. The fire consumed their young men; and their 63 virgins had no marriage song. Their priests fell by the sword; 64 and their widows made no lamentation. Then the Lord awoke 65 as one out of sleep, and like a mighty man that shouts by reason of wine. And he smote his enemies backward: he put upon 66 them a perpetual reproach. And he rejected the tabernacle of 67 Yosef, and chose not the tribe of Efrayim: but chose the tribe 68 of Yehuda, the mount Ẓiyyon which he loved. And he built his 69 sanctuary like the high heavens, like the earth which he has established for ever. And chose David his servant, and took 70 him from the sheepfolds: from following the ewes that gave 71 suck, he brought him to be shepherd of Ya'aqov his people, and Yisra'el his inheritance. So he tended them according to the 72 integrity of his heart; and guided them by the skilfulness of his hands.

A PSALM of Asaf. O GOD, heathen nations are come into thy 79 inheritance; thy holy temple they have defiled; they have laid Yerushalayim in heaps. The dead bodies of thy servants they 2 have given to be food to the birds of the sky, the flesh of thy pious ones to the beasts of the earth. Their blood have they 3 shed like water round about Yerushalayim; and there was none to bury them. We are become a taunt to our neighbours, a scorn 4 and derision to those round about us. How long, LORD? wilt 5 thou be angry for ever? will thy jealousy burn like fire? Pour 6 out thy wrath upon the nations that do not know thee, and upon the kingdoms that do not call upon thy name. For they have 7 devoured Ya'aqov, and laid waste his dwelling place. O remem- 8 ber not against us former iniquities: let thy tender mercies speedily come to meet us: for we are brought very low. Help us, 9 O GOD of our salvation, for the glory of thy name: and deliver us, and forgive our sins, for thy name's sake. Why should the 10 nations say, Where is their GOD? let the revenging of the blood of thy servants which is shed be made manifest among the nations, and before our eyes. Let the groaning of the prisoners 11 come before thee; according to the greatness of thy power preserve a remnant of those who are appointed to die; and render 12 to our neighbours sevenfold into their bosom their insult, wherewith they have insulted thee, O LORD. So we thy people and 13 the sheep of thy pasture will give thee thanks for ever: we will relate thy praise to all generations.

To the chief Musician upon Shoshannim, A Testimony, A 80
Psalm of Asaf. Give ear, O shepherd of Yisra'el, that leadest 2 Yosef like flock, thou who art enthroned upon the keru-vim, shine forth. Before Efrayim, and Binyamin, and Me- 3 nashshe, stir up thy might, and come to save us.
Restore us, O GOD, and cause thy face to shine; and we shall 4 be saved. O LORD GOD of hosts, how long wilt thou be angry 5 against the prayer of thy people? Thou hast fed them with the 6 bread of tears; and hast given them tears to drink in great measure. Thou makest us a strife to our neighbours: and our 7 enemies mock as they please. Restore us, O GOD of hosts, and 8 cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved. Thou hast 9 brought a vine out of Mizrayim, thou hast cast out nations, and planted it. Thou didst clear a space for it, and didst cause it 10 to take deep root, and it filled the land. The hills were covered 11 with the shadow of it, and the mighty cedars with its boughs.
She sent out her boughs to the sea, and her branches to the 12 river. Why hast thou then broken down her fences, so that all 13 they who pass by the way do pluck her fruit? The boar out of 14 the wood ravages it, and the wild beast of the field devours it.
Return, we beseech thee, O GOD of hosts: look down from 15 heaven, and behold, and be mindful of this vine; and of the 16 stock which thy right hand has planted, and the branch that thou madest strong for thyself. It is burned with fire, it is cut 17 down: they perish at the rebuke of thy countenance. Let thy 18 hand be upon the man of thy right hand, upon the son of a man whom thou madest strong for thyself. So shall we not turn back 19 from thee: revive us and we will call upon thy name. Restore 20

To the chief Musician upon the Gittit, Of Asaf. Sing aloud to GOD 1, 2 our strength: make a joyful noise to the GOD of Ya'aqov. Raise 3 a song, sound the timbrel, the sweet lyre, with the harp. Blow 4 a shofar at the new moon, at the full moon on our feast day.
For this is a statute for Yisra'el, an ordinance of the GOD of 5 Ya'aqov. This he ordained in Yosef for testimony, when he 6 went out over the land of Mizrayim. I heard the language of him whom I had not known, saying, I removed his shoulder from 7 the burden: his hands are freed from the basket. Thou didst 8 call in trouble, and I delivered thee; I answered thee in the secret place of thunder: I proved thee at the waters of Meriva.
(Sela.) Hear, O my people, and I will testify against thee: O 9 Yisra'el, if thou wilt hearken to me: there shall be no strange god 10 among thee; nor shalt thou worship any foreign deity. I am the 11 LORD thy GOD who brought thee out of the land of Mizrayim: open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it. But my people would 12 not hearken to my voice; and Yisra'el would none of me. So I 13 let them go after the stubbornness of their hearts, that they might follow their own counsels. Oh that my people would 14 hearken to me, and Yisra'el would walk in my ways! I would 15 soon subdue their enemies, and turn my hand against their adversaries. Let the haters of the LORD cringe before him: and 16 their punishment should last forever. But he would feed him 17 with the finest of the wheat: and with honey out of the rock I will satisfy thee.

A PSALM of Asaf. GOD stands in the congregation of GOD; he 2 judges among the judges. How long will you judge unjustly, and 3 respect the persons of the wicked? (Sela.) Judge the cause of 4 the poor and fatherless: vindicate the afflicted and needy. Deliver the poor and destitute: rescue them out of the hand of the wicked. They know not, nor do they understand; they walk on 5 in darkness: all the foundations of the earth are shaken.
I had said, You are angels, all of you sons of the most High; 6
Nevertheless, you shall die like a man, and fall as one man, O 7 princes. Arise, O GOD, judge the earth: for thou shalt possess all 8 the nations.

A POEM, A Psalm of Asaf. Do not keep silence, O GOD: do not 1, 2 hold thy peace, and be still, O GOD. For lo, thy enemies make a 3 tumult: and they who hate thee have lifted up the head. They 4 take crafty counsel against thy people, and consult against thy hidden ones. They have said, Come, and let us cut them off 5 from being a nation; that the name of Yisra'el may be no more in remembrance. For they have consulted together with one 6 consent: they are confederate against thee: the tents of Edom, 7 and the Yishme'elim; of Mo'av, and the Hagrim; Geval, and 8
'Ammon, and 'Amaleq; Peleshet with the inhabitants of Ẓor;

Ashshur also is joined with them: they are the strong arm of 9 the children of Lot. (Sela.) Do to them as to Midyan; as to 10 Sisera, as to Yavin, at the wadi of Qishon: who perished at 11
'En-dor: they became like dung on the earth. Make their nobles 12 like 'Orev, and like Ze'ev: and all their princes like Zevaḥ, and Ẓalmunna: who said, Let us seize for our possession the pastures of GOD. O my GOD, make them like the whirling chaff: like 13 the stubble before the wind. As the fire burns a wood, and as 15 the flame sets the mountains on fire; so pursue them with thy 16 tempest, and terrify them with thy storm. Fill their faces with 17 shame; that they may seek thy name, O LORD. Let them be con- 18 founded and affrighted forever; and let them be put to shame, and perish: that men may know that thou alone, whose name 19 is the LORD, art the most high over all the earth.

To the chief Musician upon the Gittit, A Psalm for the sons of 84
Qoraḥ. How lovely are thy dwelling places, O LORD of hosts! 2
My soul longs, indeed, it faints for the courts of the LORD: my 3 heart and my flesh cry out for the living GOD. Even the spar- 4 row has found a home, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young. Thy altars, O LORD of hosts, my King, and my GOD—happy are they who dwell in thy house: 5 they are ever praising thee. (Sela.) Happy is the man whose 6 strength is in thee; in whose heart are thy highways, who, 7 passing through the valley of Bakha, turn in into a waterspring; moreover, the early rain covers it with blessings. They go from 8 strength to strength, every one of them appears before GOD in Ẓiyyon. O LORD GOD of hosts, hear my prayer: give ear, 9
O GOD of Ya'aqov. (Sela.) Behold, O GOD, our shield, and look 10 upon the face of thy anointed. For a day in thy courts is better 11 than a thousand. I had rather be at the threshold in the house of my GOD, than dwell in the tents of wickedness. For the 12 LORD GOD is a sun and shield: the LORD will give grace and honour: no good thing will he withhold from those who walk uprightly. O LORD of hosts, happy is the man who trusts in 13 thee.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm for the sons of Qoraḥ. LORD, 85 1,2 thou hast been favourable to thy land: thou hast brought back the captivity of Ya'aqov. Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of 3 thy people, thou hast pardoned all their sin. (Sela.) Thou hast 4 withdrawn all thy wrath: thou hast turned from the fierceness of thy anger. Restore us, O GOD of our salvation, and cause 5 thy anger towards us to cease. Wilt thou be angry with us for- 6 ever? Wilt thou draw out thy anger to all generations? Wilt 7 thou not revive us again: that thy people may rejoice in thee?
Show us thy mercy, O LORD, and grant us thy salvation. 8
I will hear what GOD the LORD will speak: for he will speak 9 peace to his people, and to his pious ones: but let them not turn back to folly. Surely his salvation is near to them who 10 fear him; that glory may dwell in our land. Love and truth are 11 met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other.
Truth will spring out of the earth; and righteousness will look 12 down from heaven. The LORD moreover shall give that which 13 is good; and our land shall yield its increase. Righteousness 14

A PRAYER of David. Incline thy ear, O LORD, hear me: for I 1 am poor and needy. Preserve my soul; for I am godly: O thou 2 my GOD, save thy servant who trusts in thee. Be gracious to 3 me, O LORD: for I cry to thee daily. Rejoice the soul of thy 4 servant: for to thee, O LORD, do I lift up my soul. For thou, 5 LORD, art good, and ready to forgive; and of bountiful love towards all those who call upon thee. Give ear, O LORD, to my 6 prayer; and attend to the voice of my supplications. On the day 7 of my trouble I will call upon thee: for thou wilt answer me.
Among the gods there is none like thee, O LORD; nor are there 8 any works like thine. All nations whom thou hast made shall 9 come and prostrate themselves before thee, O LORD; and shall glorify thy name. For thou art great, and doest wondrous 10 things: thou art GOD alone. Teach me thy way, O LORD; I will 11 walk in thy truth: make my heart single to fear thy name. I will 12 thank thee, O LORD my GOD, with all my heart: and I will glorify thy name for evermore. For great is thy steadfast love towards 13 me: and thou hast delivered my soul from the depths of She'ol. O GOD, the proud are risen against me, and the as- 14 sembly of violent men have sought after my soul; and have not set thee before them. But thou, O LORD, art a GOD full of 15 compassion, and gracious, longsuffering, and bountiful in love and truth. O turn to me, and have mercy upon me; give thy 16 strength to thy servant, and save the son of thy handmaid.
Show me a sign for good; that they who hate me may see it, 17 and be ashamed: because thou, LORD, hast helped me, and comforted me.

A PSALM for the sons of Qoraḥ, A Poem. His foundation is in 87 the holy mountains. The LORD loves the gates of Ẓiyyon more 2 than all the dwellings of Ya'aqov. Glorious things are spoken 3 of thee, O city of GOD. (Sela.) I will make mention of Rahav 4 and Bavel to those who know me: behold Peleshet, and Ẓor, with Kush, saying, Such a man was born there. But of Ẓiyyon it 5 shall be said, This and that man was born in her: and the highest himself shall establish her. The LORD shall record, when 6 he registers the peoples, that this man was born there. (Sela.) And singers and dancers alike, shall say, All my springs are 7 in thee.

A POEM, A Psalm for the sons of Qoraḥ, to the chief Musician 88 upon Maḥalat Le'annot, A Maskil of Heman the Ezraḥite. O 2 LORD GOD of my salvation, when I cry in the night before thee:
let my prayer come before thee: incline thy ear to my cry; 3 for my soul is sated with evils: and my life draws near to 4 She'ol. I am reckoned with those who go down into the pit: 5
I am like a man who has no strength: free among the dead, 6 like the slain that lie in the grave, whom thou rememberest no more: and they are cut off from thy hand. Thou hast laid 7 me in the lowest pit, in darkness, in the deeps. Thy wrath 8 lies hard upon me, and thou dost overwhelm me with all thy waves. (Sela.) Thou hast put away my acquaintance far from 9 me; thou hast made me an abomination to them: I am shut up, and I cannot come out. My eye is dim by reason of affliction: 10

LORD, I have called daily upon thee, I have stretched out my hands to thee. Wilt thou show wonders to the dead? shall the 11 shades arise and praise thee? (Sela.) Shall thy steadfast love 12 be reported in the grave? or thy faithfulness in Avaddon? Shall 13 thy wonders be known in the dark? and thy righteousness in the land of forgetfulness? But to thee have I cried, O LORD; and 14 in the morning shall my prayer attend thee. LORD, why dost 15 thou cast off my soul? why dost thou hide thy face from me?
I am afflicted and close to death from my youth up. I suffer 16 thy terrors, I am numb. Thy fierce wrath goes over me; 17 thy terrors have cut me off. They come round about me 18 daily like water; they compass me about together. Friend and 19 companion hast thou put far from me, my acquaintances are in darkness.

A MASKIL of Etan the Ezrahite. I will sing of the steadfast 1,2 love of the LORD for ever: with my mouth I will make known thy faithfulness to all generations. For I have said, The world 3 is built by love: thou dost establish thy faithfulness in the very heavens. I have made a covenant with my chosen, I have 4 sworn to David my servant, Thy seed will I establish for ever, 5 and build up thy throne to all generations. (Sela.) And the 6 heavens shall praise thy wonders, O LORD: thy faithfulness also in the assembly of the holy ones. For who in the skies can be 7 compared to the LORD? who among the sons of the mighty can be likened to the LORD? A GOD dreaded in the great council 8 of the holy ones, and had in reverence by all those round about him. O LORD GOD of hosts, O LORD, who is strong like 9 thee? and thy faithfulness is round about thee. Thou rulest the 10 raging of the sea: when the waves thereof rise up, thou stillest them. Thou hast trodden down Rahav like carrion; thou hast 11 scattered thy enemies with thy strong arm. The skies are 12 thine, the earth also is thine: the world and the fulness thereof, thou hast founded them. The north and the south, thou hast 13 created them: Tavor and Ḥermon shall rejoice in thy name.
Thou hast a mighty arm: strong is thy hand, and high is thy 14 right hand. Righteousness and justice are the foundation of thy 15 throne: love and truth shall go before thee. Happy is the people 16 that know the joyful note: they shall walk, O LORD, in the light of thy countenance. In thy name they rejoice all the day: 17 and in thy righteousness they are exalted. For thou art the 18 glory of their strength: and in thy favour our horn shall be exalted. For our shield belongs to the LORD; and our king to 19 the Holy One of Yisra'el. Then thou didst speak in vision to thy 20 pious one, and didst say, I have laid help upon one that is mighty; I have exalted one chosen out of the people. I have 21 found David my servant; with my holy oil have I anointed him: with whom my hand shall be established: my arm also 22 shall strengthen him. The enemy shall not exact upon him; nor 23 the son of wickedness afflict him. And I will beat down his foes 24 before his face, and strike down those who hate him. But my 25 faithfulness and my steadfast love shall be with him: and in my name shall his horn be exalted. I will set his hand also 26 on the sea, and his right hand on the rivers. He shall cry to 27 me, Thou art my father, my GOD, and the rock of my salvation.

Also I will make him firstborn, the highest of the kings of the 28 earth. I will keep my truth with him for evermore, and my 29 covenant shall stand fast with him. His seed also will I make 30 to endure for ever, and his throne like the days of heaven.
If his children forsake my Tora, and walk not in my judgments; 31 if they break my statutes, and keep not my commandments; 32 then I will punish their transgression with the rod, and their 33 iniquity with strokes. Nevertheless I will not utterly take my 34 steadfast love from him, nor suffer my faithfulness to fail.
My covenant I will not break, nor alter that which has issued 35 from my lips. Once I have sworn by my holiness that I will not 36 fail unto David. His seed shall endure for ever, and his throne 37 shall be like the sun before me. It shall be established for ever 38 like the moon, and the witness in the sky is sure. (Sela.) But 39 thou hast cast off and rejected, thou hast been angry with thy anointed. Thou hast renounced the covenant of thy servant: 40 thou hast profaned his crown to the ground. Thou hast broken 41 down all his fences; thou hast brought his strongholds to ruin. All that pass by the way plunder him: he is a taunt to 42 his neighbours. Thou hast exalted the right hand of his adver- 43 saries; thou hast made all his enemies rejoice. Thou hast also 44 turned back the edge of his sword, and hast not made him to stand in the battle. Thou hast made his brightness to cease, 45 and cast his throne down to the ground. The days of his youth 46 thou hast shortened: thou hast covered him with shame. (Sela.)
How long, LORD? wilt thou hide thyself forever? shall thy 47 wrath burn like fire? Remember how short my time is: for 48 what nothingness hast thou created all the sons of men! What man 49 is he that lives, and shall not see death, but shall deliver his soul from the power of She'ol? (Sela.) LORD, where are thy 50 former oaths of steadfast love which thou didst make to David in thy faithfulness? Remember, LORD, the disgrace of 51 thy servants: how I bear in my bosom the insults of all the many peoples, wherewith thy enemies have insulted, O LORD; 52 wherewith they have insulted the footsteps of thy anointed.
Blessed be the LORD for evermore. Amen, and Amen. 53

BOOK FOUR A PRAYER of Moshe the man of GOD. LORD, thou hast been our 90 dwelling place in all generations. Before the mountains were 2 brought forth, and before ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art GOD.
Thou turnest man back to dust; and sayst, Return, you children 3 of men. For a thousand years in thy sight are but like yesterday 4 when it is past, and like a watch in the night. Thou engulfest 5 them; they are like sleepers; they are like the short lived grass in the morning. In the morning it flourishes, and fades; by 6 evening it is withered and dry. For we are consumed by thy 7 anger, and by thy wrath are we terrified. Thou hast set our 8 iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance. For all our days are passed away in thy wrath: we spend 9 our years like a tale that is told. The days of our years are 10 seventy; or if by reason of special strength, eighty years; yet their pride is but trouble and wretchedness; it is soon cut off, and we fly away. Who knows the power of thy anger? even ac- 11 cording to thy fear, so is thy wrath. So teach us to number our 12 days, that we may get a heart of wisdom. Return, O LORD, how 13 long? and relent concerning thy servants. O satisfy us in the 14 morning with thy steadfast love; that we may rejoice and be glad all our days. Make us glad according to the days wherein 15 thou hast afflicted us, and the years in which we have seen evil.

Let thy work appear to thy servants, and thy glory to their 16 children. And let the beauty of the LORD our GOD be upon us: 17 and establish the work of our hands upon us; O prosper it, the work of our hands.

HE that dwells in the secret place of the most High shall abide 91 under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the LORD, who 2 is my refuge and my fortress: (my GOD; in him will I trust,) that he will deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from 3 the noisome pestilence. He shall cover thee with his pinions, 4 and under his wings shalt thou find refuge: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler. Thou shalt not be afraid of the terror by 5 night; nor of the arrow that flies by day; nor of the pestilence 6 that walks in darkness; nor of the destruction that wastes at noonday. A thousand shall fall at thy side and ten thousand 7 at thy right hand; but it shall not come near thee. Only with 8 thy eyes shalt thou behold and see the recompense of the wicked; because thou O LORD, art my refuge. Thou hast made the 9 most High thy habitation. No evil shall befall thee, nor shall 10 any plague come near thy dwelling. For he shall give his angels 11 charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear 12 thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.
Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and 13 the crocodile shalt thou trample under foot. Because he has set 14 his delight upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he has known my name. He shall call upon me, 15 and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him. With long life I will satisfy him, and 16 show him my salvation.

A PSALM, A Poem for the Sabbath day. It is a good thing to 1,2 give thanks to the LORD, and to sing praise to thy name, O most High: to relate thy steadfast love in the morning, and thy faith- 3 fulness every night, upon an instrument of ten strings and up- 4 on the harp; to the melody of the lyre. For thou, LORD, hast 5 made me glad through thy work: I will triumph in the works of thy hands. O LORD, how great are thy works! and thy 6 thoughts are very deep. A brutish man does not know; nor 7 does a fool understand this. When the wicked spring like grass, 8 and when all the workers of iniquity flourish; it is that they shall be destroyed forever: but thou, LORD, art most high for 9 evermore. For, lo, thy enemies, O LORD, for lo, thy enemies shall 10 perish; all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered. But my 11 horn shalt thou exalt like the horn of a wild ox: I shall be anointed with fresh oil. My eye has seen the downfall of my 12 enemies, and my ears have heard the doom of the wicked who rise against me. The righteous man flourishes like the palm 13 tree: he grows like a cedar in the Levanon. Those that are planted in the house of the LORD shall flourish in the courts of our GOD. They still bring forth fruit in old age; they are fat and flourishing; to declare that the LORD is upright: he is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

THE LORD reigns, he is clothed with majesty; the LORD is robed; he has girded himself with strength: the world also is established, that it cannot be moved. Thy throne is established of old: thou art from everlasting. The floods have lifted up, O LORD, the floods have lifted up their voice; the floods lift up their roaring. The LORD on high is mightier than the noise of many waters, than the mighty waves of the sea. Thy testimonies are very sure: holiness becomes thy house, O LORD, for length of days.

O LORD GOD, to whom vengeance belongs; O GOD, to whom vengeance belongs, shine forth! Lift up thyself, thou judge of the earth: render to the proud their recompense. LORD, how long shall the wicked, how long shall the wicked triumph? How long shall they utter and speak hard things? and all the workers of iniquity boast themselves? They crush thy people, O LORD, and afflict thy heritage. They slay the widow and the stranger, and murder the fatherless. Yet they say, The LORD shall not see, nor shall the GOD of Ya'aqov regard it. Understand, you brutish among the people: and fools, when will you be wise? He that planted the ear, shall he not hear? he that formed the eye, shall he not see? He that chastises nations, shall he not correct? he that teaches man knowledge? The LORD knows the thoughts of man, that they are vanity. Blessed is the man whom thou dost chasten, O LORD, and teachest him out of thy Tora, that thou mayst give him rest from the days of adversity, until the pit is dug for the wicked. For the LORD will not cast off his people, nor will he forsake his inheritance. But judgment shall return to righteousness: and all the upright in heart shall follow it. Who will rise up for me against the evildoers? who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity? Unless the LORD had been my help, my soul had soon dwelt in silence. When I said, My foot slips; thy steadfast love, O LORD, held me up. When my cares within me were many, thy comforts would cheer my soul. Shall the seat of iniquity, framing mischief by law, have fellowship with thee? They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood. But the LORD has become my defence; and my GOD, the rock of my refuge. And he brings upon them their own iniquity, and he cuts them off in their own wickedness; the LORD our GOD cuts them off.

O COME, let us sing to the LORD: let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise to him with psalms. For the LORD is a great GOD, and a great King above all gods. In his hand are the deep places of the earth: the mountain peaks are his also. The sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land. O come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel before the LORD our maker; for he is our GOD; and we are the people of his pasture, and the flock of his hand: today even, if you will only hearken to his voice! Do not har- 8 den your hearts as in Meriva, as in the day of Massa in the wilderness: when your fathers tempted me, proved me, even 9 though they saw my deeds. Forty years long did I loathe this 10 generation and I said, It is a people that errs in their heart, and that do not know my ways: whereupon I swore in my anger 11 that they should not enter into my rest.

O SING to the LORD a new song: sing to the LORD, all the earth. 96
Sing to the LORD, bless his name; announce his salvation from 2 day to day. Declare his glory among the nations, his wonders 3 among all the peoples. For the LORD is great, and greatly to be 4 praised: he is to be feared above all gods. For all the gods of 5 the nations are idols: but the LORD made the heavens. Honour 6 and majesty are before him: strength and beauty are in his sanctuary. Ascribe to the LORD, O families of the peoples, as- 7 cribe to the LORD glory and strength. Ascribe to the LORD the 8 glory due to his name: bring an offering, and come into his courts. O worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness: tremble 9 before him, all the earth. Say among the nations that the LORD 10 reigns: the world also is established so that it shall not be moved: he shall judge the people with equity. Let the heavens 11 rejoice, and let the earth be glad; let the sea roar, and the ful-ness thereof; let the field be joyful, and all that is in it: then shall 12 all the trees of the wood sing for joy. Before the LORD: for he 13 comes, for he comes to judge the earth: he shall judge the world in righteousness, and the people in his faithfulness.

THE LORD reigns; let the earth rejoice; let the multitude of 97 isles be glad. Clouds and darkness are round about him: righte- 2 ousness and judgment are the foundation of his throne. A fire 3 goes before him, and burns up his enemies round about. His 4 lightnings lightened the world: the earth saw, and trembled.
The hills melted like wax at the presence of the LORD, at the 5 presence of the LORD of the whole earth. The heavens decla- 6 red his righteousness, and all the peoples saw his glory. Con- 7 founded be all they who serve carved idols, who boast themselves of idols: bow down before him, all you gods. Ziyyon 8 heard, and was glad; and the daughters of Yehuda rejoiced because of thy judgments, O LORD. For thou, LORD, art high above 9 all the earth: thou art exalted far above all gods. You that love 10 the LORD, hate evil! he preserves the souls of his pious ones; he delivers them out of the hand of the wicked. Light is sown 11 for the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart. Rejoice 12 in the LORD, O you righteous; and give thanks to his holy name.

A PSALM. O sing to the LORD a new song; for he has done mar- 98 vellous things: his right hand, and his holy arm have gained him the victory. The LORD has made known his salvation: his 2 righteousness he has revealed in the sight of the nations. He 3 has remembered his love and his truth towards the house of Yisra'el: all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our GOD. Make a joyful noise to the LORD, all the earth: make 4 a loud noise, and rejoice, and sing praise. Sing to the LORD 5 with the lyre; with the lyre, and the voice of psalm. With 6 trumpets and sound of a shofar make a joyful noise before the LORD, the King. Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof; the 7 world, and they who dwell therein. Let the rivers clap their 8 hands: let the mountains sing for joy together. Before the 9 LORD; for he comes to judge the earth: with righteousness shall he judge the world, and the people with equity.

THE LORD reigns; let the peoples tremble: he is enthroned upon 99 the keruvim; let the earth be moved. The LORD is great in 2 Ẓiyyon; and he is high above all the peoples. Let them praise 3 thy great and terrible name; for it is holy. O mighty king, who 4 loves justice, thou hast established equity; thou dost execute justice and righteousness in Ya'aqov. Exalt the LORD our GOD, 5 and worship at his footstool; for he is holy. Moshe and Aharon 6 among his priests, and Shemu'el among those who call upon his name; they called upon the LORD, and he answered them. He 7 spoke to them in the cloudy pillar: they kept his testimonies, and the ordinance that he gave them. Thou didst answer them, 8 O LORD our GOD: a forgiving GOD wast thou to them, though thou didst take vengeance for their misdeeds. Exalt the LORD 9 our GOD, and worship at his holy hill; for the LORD our GOD is holy.

A PSALM of thanksgiving. Make a joyful noise to the LORD, all 100 the earth. Serve the LORD with gladness: come before his pre- 2 sence with singing. Know that the LORD he is GOD: it is he who 3 made us, and we belong to him; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture. Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, 4 and into his courts with praise: be thankful to him, and bless his name. For the LORD is good; his steadfast love endures for- 5 ever; and his faithfulness to all generations.

A PSALM of David, I will sing of loyal love and justice: to thee, 101
O LORD, I will sing. I will celebrate with a Maskil psalm the 2 way of integrity. O when wilt thou come to me? I will walk within my house in the integrity of my heart. I will set no 3 wicked thing before my eyes: I hate the work of those who turn aside; it shall not cleave to me. A perverse heart shall 4 depart from me: I will know no evil matter. Whoever secretly 5 slanders his neighbour, him I will cut off: him that has a high look and a proud heart I will not suffer. My eyes are upon 6 the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me: he that walks in the way of integrity, he shall serve me. He that works 7 deceit shall not dwell within my house: he that tells lies shall not remain in my sight. Morning by morning I will destroy all 8 the wicked of the land; that I may cut off all the evildoers from the city of the LORD.

A PRAYER of the afflicted, when he faints, and pours out his 102 complaint before the LORD. Hear my prayer, O LORD, and let 2 my cry reach thee. Hide not thy face from me in the day when 3
I am in trouble; incline thy ear to me: in the day when I call, answer me speedily. For my days are consumed like smoke, 4 and my bones are burned like a hearth. My heart is smitten 5 like grass, and withered; so that I forget how to eat my bread.
By reason of the voice of my groaning, my bones cleave to 6 my skin. I am like an owl of the wilderness: I am like a night 7 flier of the desert. I watch, and am like a lonely sparrow upon 8 the house top. My enemies insult me all the day; and they 9 that are mad against me swear by me. For I have eaten ashes 10 like bread, and mingled my drink with weeping, because of 11 thy indignation and thy wrath: for thou hast lifted me up, and cast me down. My days are like an evening shadow; and I am 12 withered like grass. But thou, O LORD, sittest enthroned for- 13 ever; and thy name endures to all generations. Thou wilt arise, 14 and have mercy upon Ziyyon: for it is time to favour her; for the set time is come. For thy servants hold her stones dear, 15 and cherish her very dust. So the nations shall fear the name 16 of the LORD, and all the kings of the earth thy glory. For the 17 LORD builds up Ziyyon, he appears in his glory. He heeds the 18 prayer of the destitute, and does not despise their prayer. This 19 shall be written for the generation to come: so that a people yet unborn shall praise the LORD. For he has looked down from 20 the height of his sanctuary; from heaven did the LORD behold the earth; to hear the groaning of the prisoner; to loose those 21 who are appointed to death; that men may declare the name 22 of LORD in Ziyyon, and his praise in Yerushalayim; when the 23 people are gathered together, and the kingdoms, to serve the LORD. He weakened my strength in the way; he shortened my 24 days. I say, O my GOD, take me not away in the midst of my 25 days: thou whose years endure to all generations. Of old thou 26 hast laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands. They shall perish, but thou shalt endure: 27 yea, all of them shall grow old like a garment; thou shalt change them like a cloak, and they will pass away: but thou 28 art the same, and thy years shall have no end. The children 29 of thy servants shall continue, and their seed shall be established before thee.

OF David. Bless the LORD, O my soul: and all that is within me 103 bless his holy name. Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not 2 all his benefits: who forgives all thy iniquities; who heals all 3 thy diseases; who redeems thy life from the pit; who encircles 4 thee with love and compassion; who satisfies thy old age with 5 good; so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's. The LORD 6 executes righteousness, and judgment for all that are oppressed.
He made known his ways to Moshe, his acts to the children 7 of Yisra'el. The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, 8 and plenteous in steadfast love. He will not always chide: 9 neither will he keep his anger forever. He has not dealt with 10 us after our sins; nor repaid us according to our iniquities.
For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his 11 steadfast love towards those who fear him. As far as the east 12 is from the west, so far has he removed our transgressions from us. As a father pities his children, so the LORD pities 13 those who fear him. For he knows our frame; he remembers 14 that we are dust. As for man, his days are like grass: like a 15 flower of the field, so he blooms. For the wind passes over it, 16 and it is gone; and its place knows it no more. But the stead- 17 fast love of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon those who fear him, and his righteousness to children's children; to such as keep his covenant, and to those who remember 18 his commandments to do them. The LORD has established his 19 throne in the heavens; and his kingdom rules over all. Bless the 20 LORD, you angels of his, you mighty ones who perform his bidding, hearkening to the voice of his word. Bless the LORD, 21 all his hosts; you ministers of his, who do his pleasure. Bless 22 the LORD, all his works in all places of his dominion. Bless the LORD, O my soul!

BLESS the LORD, O my soul. O LORD my GOD thou art very great, 104 thou art clothed with glory and majesty. Who covers himself 2 with light as with a garment: who stretches out the heavens like a curtain: who lays the beams of his chambers in the 3 waters: who makes the clouds his chariot: who walks upon the wings of the wind: who makes the winds his messengers; 4 the flames of fire his ministers: who laid the foundations of the 5 earth, that it should not be removed forever. Thou didst 6 cover it with the deep as with a garment: the waters stood above the mountains. At thy rebuke they fled; at the voice of 7 thy thunder they hastened away; they went up the mountains; 8 they flowed down the valleys to the place which thou didst found for them. Thou didst set a bound that they might not 9 pass over; that they might not turn back to cover the earth.
He sends the springs into the valleys; they flow between the 10 hills: they give drink to every wild beast: the wild asses 11 quench their thirst. Beside them dwell the birds of the sky; 12 from among the branches they sing. He waters the hills from 13 his upper chambers: the earth is satisfied with the fruit of thy works. He causes the grass to grow for the cattle, and plants 14 for the service of man: that he may bring forth food out of the earth; and wine that makes glad the heart of man; oil to 15 brighten his face; and bread which sustains the heart of man.
The trees of the LORD have their fill; the cedars of Levanon, 16 which he has planted; where the birds make their nests: as for 17 the stork, the cypress trees are her house. The high hills are a 18 refuge for the wild goats; and the rocks for the badgers. He 19 appointed the moon for seasons: the sun knows his going down. Thou makest darkness, and it is night; when all the 20 beasts of the forest do creep forth. The young lions roar after 21 their prey, and seek their food from GOD. The sun rises, they 22 slink away, and lay them down in their dens. Man goes forth 23 to his work and to his labour until the evening. O LORD, how 24 manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy creatures. So is this great and wide sea, 25 wherein are creeping things innumerable, both small and great beasts. There go the ships: there are the dolphins, whom thou 26 hast made to play therein. These wait all upon thee; that thou 27 mayst give them their food in due season. Thou givest it to 28 them; they gather it: thou openest thy hand, they are filled with good. Thou hidest thy face, they are troubled: thou takest 29 away their breath, they die, and return to their dust. Thou 30 sendest forth thy breath, they are created: and thou renewest the face of the earth. May the glory of the LORD endure for- 31 ever: let the LORD rejoice in his works. He looks on the earth, 32 and it trembles: he touches the hills, and they smoke. I will 33 sing to the LORD as long as I live: I will sing praise to my GOD while I have my being. My meditation of him shall be sweet: 34

I will rejoice in the LORD. The sinners will be consumed out of 35 the earth, and the wicked will be no more. Bless thou the LORD, O my soul. Haleluya!

O GIVE thanks to the LORD; call upon his name: make known 105 his deeds among the people. Sing to him, sing psalms to him: 2 talk of all his wondrous works. Glory in his holy name: let 3 the heart of those who seek the LORD rejoice. Seek the LORD, 4 and his strength: seek his face continually. Remember his mar- 5 vellous works that he has done; his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth; O seed of Avraham his servant, you 6 children of Ya'aqov his chosen ones. He is the LORD our GOD: 7 his judgments are over all the earth. He has remembered his 8 covenant forever, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations; which he made with Avraham, and his oath 9 to Yiẓḥaq; and confirmed the same to Ya'aqov for a law, and 10 to Yisra'el for an everlasting covenant: saying, To thee I will 11 give the land of Kena'an, the lot of your inheritance: when 12 they were but a few men in number; of little account, and sojourners there: when they went from one nation to another, 13 from one kingdom to another people; he suffered no man to do 14 them wrong: but he reproved kings for their sakes; saying, 15 Touch not my anointed, and do my prophets no harm. More- 16 over he called for a famine upon the land: he broke every staff of bread. He sent a man before them; Yosef was sold for 17 a servant: whose foot they hurt with fetters: he was laid in 18 iron: until the time that his word came to pass: the word of 19 the LORD had tested him. The king sent and loosed him: and 20 the ruler of the people let him go free. He made him lord of 21 his house, and ruler of all his substance: to bind his princes at 22 his pleasure; and teach his elders wisdom. So Yisra'el came 23 into Miẓrayim; and Ya'aqov sojourned in the land of Ḥam.
And he increased his people greatly; and made them stronger 24 than their enemies. He turned their heart to hate his people, 25 to deal craftily with his servants. He sent Moshe his servant; 26 and Aharon whom he had chosen. They performed his signs 27 among them, and wonders in the land of Ḥam. He sent dark- 28 ness, and made it dark, and they did not rebel against his word.
He turned their water into blood, and slew their fish. Their 29, 30 land swarmed with frogs, in the chambers of their kings. He 31 spoke, and there came swarms of gnats, and lice in all their borders. He gave them hail for rain, and flaming fire in their land. 32
He smote their vines also and their fig trees; and broke the 33 trees of their country. He spoke, and the swarming locust came, 34 and the hopping locust without number, and they did eat up 35 every plant in their land, and devoured the fruit of their ground.
Then he smote all the firstborn in their land, the chief of all 36 their strength. He brought them forth also with silver and gold: 37 and there was not one who stumbled among their tribes. Miẓ- 38 rayim was glad when they departed: for the fear of them had fallen on them. He spread a cloud for a covering; and fire to 39 give light in the night. They asked, and he brought quails, and 40 satisfied them with bread from heaven. He opened the rock, 41 and the water gushed out; it ran in the dry places like a river.

For he remembered his holy promise to Avraham his servant. And 42 he brought out his people with joy, and his chosen ones with 43 gladness: and gave them the lands of the nations: and they 44 seized the labour of the peoples; that they might observe his 45 statutes, and keep his Torot. Haleluya!

HALELUYA; O give thanks to the LORD; for he is good: for his 106 steadfast love endures for ever. Who can utter the mighty 2 acts of the LORD? who can declare all his praise? Happy 3 are they who maintain justice, and do righteousness at all times. Remember me, O LORD, when thou showest favour to thy 4 people: O visit me with thy salvation; that I may see the good 5 of thy chosen ones, that I may rejoice in the gladness of thy nation, that I may glory with thy inheritance. We have sinned 6 with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly. Our fathers in Miẓrayim paid no heed to thy wonders; 7 they did not remember the multitude of thy deeds of loving-kindness; and they rebelled against thee at the Sea, at the Sea of Suf. But he saved them for his name's sake, that he might make 8 known his mighty power. He rebuked the Sea of Suf also, and 9 it was dried up: so he led them through the depths, as through the wilderness. And he saved them from the hand of him who 10 hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.
And the waters covered their enemies: there was not one of 11 them left. Then they believed his words; they sang his praise. 12
They soon forgot his works; they did not wait for his counsel: 13 but lusted exceedingly in the wilderness, and tried GOD in the 14 desert. And he gave them their request; but sent leanness into 15 their soul. And they envied Moshe in the camp, Aharon the 16 LORD's holy one. The earth opened and swallowed up Datan, 17 and covered the company of Aviram. And a fire was kindled in 18 their company; the flame burned up the wicked. They made a 19 calf in Ḥorev, and worshipped a molten image. Thus they ex- 20 changed their glory for the likeness of an ox that eats grass!
They forgot GOD who had saved them, who had done great 21 things in Miẓrayim; wondrous works in the land of Ḥam, and 22 terrible things by the Sea of Suf. Therefore he said that he 23 would destroy them, had not Moshe his chosen one stood before him in the breach, to turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them. Moreover, they despised the pleasant land, they 24 believed not his word: but murmured in their tents, and did not 25 hearken to the voice of the LORD. Therefore he lifted up his 26 hand against them, swearing to overthrow them in the wilderness: to cast out their seed also among the nations, and to 27 scatter them in the lands. Then they joined themselves to 28 Ba'al-pe'or, and ate the sacrifices of the dead. Thus they pro- 29 voked him to anger with their deeds: and the plague broke out upon them. Then stood up Pineḥas, and executed judgment: 30 and so the plague was stayed. And that was counted to him 31 for righteousness to all generations for evermore. And they 32 angered him at the waters of Meriva, so that it went ill with Moshe for their sakes: because they angered his spirit, so that 33 he spoke rashly with his lips. They did not destroy the nations, 34 concerning whom the LORD commanded them: but were ming- 35 led among the nations, and learned their works: and they 36 served their idols, which became a snare to them. And they 37 sacrificed their sons and their daughters to idols, and shed 38 innocent blood, the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed to the idols of Kena'an: and the land was polluted with blood. Thus they were defiled with their own 39 works, and went astray in their doings. Therefore was the 40 wrath of the LORD kindled against his people, and he abhorred his inheritance. So he gave them into the hand of the nations; 41 and they that hated them ruled over them. Their enemies also 42 oppressed them, and they were brought into subjection under their hand. Many times did he deliver them; but they were re- 43 bellious in their counsel, and were brought low through their iniquity. Nevertheless he regarded their affliction, when he 44 heard their cry: and he remembered for them his covenant, 45 and relented according to the abundance of his steadfast love.

Moreover he caused them to be pitied by all their captors. Save 46.47 us, O LORD our GOD, and gather us from among the nations, to give thanks to thy holy name, and to triumph in thy praise.
Blessed be the LORD GOD of Yisra'el from everlasting to ever- 48 lasting: and let all the people say, Amen. Haleluya!

BOOK FIVE O GIVE thanks to the LORD, for he is good: for his steadfast love 107 endures for ever. Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, whom 2 he has redeemed from the hand of the enemy; and gathered 3 them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north, and from the south. They wandered in the wilder- 4 ness in a desert way; they found no city to dwell in. Hungry 5 and thirsty, their soul fainted in them. Then they cried to the 6 LORD in their trouble; he delivered them out of their distresses.
And he led them forth by the right way, that they might go to 7 a city of habitation. Let them praise the LORD for his steadfast 8 love, and for his wonderful works to the children of men! For 9 he has satisfied the longing soul, and filled the hungry soul with goodness. Such as sat in darkness and in the shadow of death, 10 bound in affliction and iron; because they had rebelled against 11 the words of GOD, and rejected the counsel of the most High: so that he brought down their heart with labour; they fell 12 down, and there was none to help. Then they cried to the LORD 13 in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distresses.
He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, 14 and broke their bands asunder. Let them praise the LORD 15 for his steadfast love, and for his wonderful works to the children of men! For he has broken the gates of brass, 16 and cut the bars of iron asunder. The foolish were afflicted 17 on account of their sinful way, and their iniquities. Their soul 18 abhorred all manner of food; for they came near the gates of death. Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, and he 19 saved them out of their distresses. He sends his word, and heals 20 them, and delivers them from their destructions. Let them 21 praise the LORD for his steadfast love, and for his wonderful works to the children of men! And let them sacrifice the sacri- 22 fices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with rejoicing. They 23 that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters; these saw the works of the LORD, and his wonders in 24 the deep. For he commanded, and raised the stormy wind, which 25 lifted up the waves thereof. They mount up to the sky, they 26 go down again to the depths: their soul is melted away because of trouble. They reel to and fro, and stagger like a 27 drunken man, and are at their wits' end. Then they cry to the LORD 28 in their trouble, and he brings them out of their distresses. He 29 makes the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still. Then 30 are they glad because they are quiet; and he brings them to their desired haven. Let them praise the LORD for his steadfast 31 love, and for his wonderful works to the children of men! Let 32 them exalt him also in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders. He turns rivers into 33 a wilderness, and watersprings into dry ground; a fruitful 34 land into barrenness, because of wickedness of those who dwell therein. He turned the wilderness into a pool of 35 water, and dry ground into watersprings. And there he makes 36 the hungry to dwell, and they establish a city for habitation; and sow fields, and plant vineyards, which yield fruits of in- 37 crease. He blesses them also, so that they are multiplied great- 38 ly; and does not let their cattle decrease. When they are dimi- 39 nished and brought low through oppression, affliction, and sorrow: he pours contempt upon nobles, and causes them to 40 wander in the wilderness, where there is no way: yet he sets 41 the poor on high from affliction, and makes his families like a flock. The righteous shall see it, and rejoice: and all iniquity 42 shall stop her mouth. Whoever is wise, let them consider these 43 things, and let them observe the loving acts of the LORD.

A POEM, A Psalm of David. My heart is firm, O GOD; I will 1, 2 sing, I will give praise; my glory likewise. Awake the harp and 3 the lyre: I will awaken the dawn. I will praise thee, O LORD, 4 among the peoples: and I will sing praises to thee among the nations. For thy steadfast love is great above the heavens: 5 and thy truth reaches the clouds. Be thou exalted, O GOD, above 6 the heavens: and thy glory above all the earth; that thy be- 7 loved ones may be delivered: save with thy right hand, and answer me. GOD has spoken in his holiness; I will rejoice, I will 8 divide Shekhem, and measure out the valley of Sukkot. Gil'ad 9 is mine; Menashshe is mine; Efrayim also is the strength of my head; Yehuda is my sceptre; Mo'av is my washpot; over Edom 10 will I cast my shoe; over Peleshet I will cry in triumph. Who 11 will bring me into the strong city? who will lead me to Edom?
Hast thou not rejected us, O GOD? so that thou goest not forth, 12 O GOD, with our hosts. Give us help against the foe: for vain is 13 the help of man. Through GOD we shall do valiantly: for he it 14 is who will tread down our enemies.

of the deceitful are opened against me: they have spoken against me with a lying tongue. For they have compassed me 3 about with words of hatred; and fought against me without a cause. In return for my love they are my accusers; whilst I 4 have nothing but prayer. And they have repaid me evil for 5 good, and hatred for my love, saying: Set a wicked man over 6 him: and let an adversary stand at his right hand. When he 7 shall be judged, let him be condemned: and let his prayer be turned into sin. Let his days be few; and let another take his 8 possessions. Let his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow. 9 Let his children be vagabonds, and beg: let them seek their 10 bread also out of their desolate places. Let the creditor seize 11 everything that he has, and let strangers spoil his labour. Let 12 there be none to extend kindness to him: nor let there be any to favour his fatherless children. Let his posterity be cut off; 13 and in the generation following let their name be blotted out.
May the iniquity of his fathers be remembered by the LORD; 14 and let not the sin of his mother be blotted out. Let them be 15 before the LORD continually, that he may cut off the memory of them from the earth. Because he remembered not to show 16 kindness, but pursued the poor and needy man, and the broken-hearted to their death. For he loved cursing, and it came to him: 17 and he delighted not in blessing, and it was far from him. And 18 he clothed himself with cursing like his garment, and it came into his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones. Let it be 19 to him as the garment which he puts on, and for the girdle wherewith he is girded continually. This is what my adversaries 20 seek to obtain from the LORD, and they who speak evil against my soul. But do thou for me, O GOD the LORD, for thy name's 21 sake: because thy steadfast love is good, deliver thou me. For 22
I am poor and needy, and my heart is wounded within me. I 23 am gone like the shadow at evening: I am shaken off like the locust. My knees totter through fasting; and my flesh fails of 24 fatness. I have become a taunt to them: when they see me they 25 shake their heads. Help me, O LORD my GOD: O save me ac- 26 cording to thy steadfast love: that they may know that this 27 is thy hand; that thou, LORD, hast done it. Let them curse, but 28 bless thou: when they arise, let them be ashamed; but let thy servant rejoice. Let my adversaries be clothed with shame, and 29 let them cover themselves with their own confusion, as with a robe. I will greatly praise the LORD with my mouth; yea, I 30 will praise him among the multitude. For he stands at the right 31 hand of the poor, to save him from those who would condemn him to death.

A PSALM of David. The LORD says to my master, Sit thou at my 110 right hand, until I make thy enemies thy footstool. The LORD 2 shall send thy mighty sceptre out of Ziyyon: rule in the midst of thy enemies. Thy people offered themselves willingly in the 3 majesty of their holiness, on the day of thy battle; when still the dew of thy youth was upon thee, fresh from the womb of dawn.
The LORD has sworn, and will not change his mind, 4 Thou shalt be a priest forever, after the manner of Malki-ẓedeq. The LORD is at thy right hand, he crushes kings on the 5 day of his wrath. He judges among the nations: their land is 6 full of dead bodies; he will shatter heads over many countries.

He will drink of the brook in the way: therefore will he lift up 7 the head.

HALELUYA! I will praise the LORD with my whole heart, in the 111 assembly of the upright, and in the congregation. The works 2 of the LORD are great, sought out by all who love them. His 3 work is honourable and glorious: and his righteousness endures for ever. He has made his wonderful works to be remembered: 4 the LORD is gracious and full of compassion. He has given food 5 to those who fear him: he will ever be mindful of his covenant.
He has declared to his people the power of his works, that he may 6 give them the heritage of the nations. The works of his hands 7 are truth and justice; all his commandments are sure. They 8 stand fast for ever and ever, done in truth and uprightness.
He sent redemption to his people: he has commanded his 9 covenant forever: holy and reverend is his name. The fear of 10 the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they who do his commandments: his praise endures forever.

HALELUYA! Happy is the man who fears the LORD, who de- 112 lights greatly in his commandments. His seed shall be mighty 2 upon earth: the generation of the upright shall be blessed.
Wealth and riches shall be in his house: and his righteousness 3 endures for ever. Light rises in the darkness for the upright:
he is gracious, and full of compassion, and just. A good man 5 lends with a good grace: he conducts his affairs justly. Surely 6 he shall never be moved: the righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance. He shall not be afraid of evil tidings: his heart 7 is firm, trusting in the LORD. His heart is established, he shall 8 not be afraid, until he gaze upon his enemies. He has distri- 9 buted freely, he has given to the poor; his righteousness endures for ever; his horn shall be exalted with honour. The 10 wicked man shall see it, and be grieved; he shall gnash his teeth, and melt away: the desire of the wicked shall come to nought.

HALELUYA! Give praise, O servants of the LORD, praise the name 113 of the LORD. Blessed be the name of the LORD from this time 2 forth and for evermore. From the rising of the sun to its 3 setting, the LORD's name is to be praised. The LORD is high 4 above all nations, and his glory is above the heavens. Who is 5 like the LORD our GOD, who is enthroned on high, and yet looks 6 far down to behold the things that are in heaven, and on the earth! He raises up the poor out of the dust, and lifts the 7 needy out of the ashheap; that he may set him with nobles, 8 with the nobles of his people. He makes the barren woman to 9 keep house, and be a joyful mother of children. Haleluya!

WHEN Yisra'el went out of Miẓrayim, the house of Ya'aqov 114 tuary, and Yisra'el his dominion. The sea saw it, and fled: the 3 Yarden was driven back. The mountains skipped like rams, 4 the little hills like young sheep. What ails thee, O thou sea, 5 that thou fleest? thou Yarden, that thou art driven back? You 6 mountains, that you skip like rams; and you little hills, like lambs? Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the LORD, at 7 the presence of the GOD of Ya'aqov; who turned the rock into 8 a pool of water, the flint into a fountain of waters.

NOT to us, O LORD, not to us, but to thy name give glory, for 115 thy steadfast love, and for thy truth. Why should the nations 2 say, Where is now their GOD? But our GOD is in the heavens: 3 he has done whatever he has pleased. Their idols are silver 4 and gold, the work of men's hands. They have mouths, but 5 they cannot speak: eyes have they, but they cannot see: they 6 have ears, but they cannot hear: noses have they, but they cannot smell: they have hands, but they cannot feel: feet have 7 they, but they cannot walk: nor can they speak through their throat. They who make them are like them; so is everyone who 8 trusts in them. O Yisra'el, trust in the LORD: he is their help 9 and their shield. O house of Aharon, trust in the LORD: he is 10 their help and their shield. You who fear the LORD, trust in the 11 LORD: he is their help and their shield. The LORD has been 12 mindful of us: he will bless us; he will bless the house of Yisra'el; he will bless the house of Aharon. He will bless those 13 who fear the LORD, both small and great. May the LORD in- 14 crease you more and more, you and your children. May you 15 be blessed of the LORD who made heaven and earth. The 16 heavens are the heavens of the LORD: but he has given the earth to the children of men. The dead cannot praise the LORD, nor 17 can any who go down into silence. But we will bless the LORD 18 from this time forth and for evermore. Haleluya!

I love the LORD who hears my voice and my supplications. Because 116
1,2 he has inclined his ear to me, therefore I will call upon him as long as I live. The cords of death surrounded me, and the pains 3 of She'ol seized upon me: I found trouble and sorrow. Then 4 I called upon the name of the LORD; O LORD, I beseech thee, deliver my soul. Gracious is the LORD, and just; and our GOD 5 is merciful. The LORD preserves the simple: I was brought low, 6 and he saved me. Return to thy rest, O my soul; for the LORD 7 has dealt bountifully with thee. For thou hast delivered my 8 soul from death, my eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.
I will walk before the LORD in the land of the living. I kept 9,10 faith even when I said, I am greatly afflicted. I said in my haste, 11 Every man is false. How can I repay the LORD for all his bene- 12 fits toward me? I will raise the cup of salvation, and call upon 13 the name of the LORD. I will pay my vows to the LORD now in 14 the presence of all his people. Precious in the sight of the 15 LORD is the death of his pious ones. O LORD, truly I am thy 16 servant; I am thy servant, the son of thy handmaid: thou hast loosed my bonds. I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanks- 17 giving, and I will call upon the name of the LORD. I will pay 18 my vows to the LORD in the presence of all his people, in the 19 courts of the LORD's house, in the midst of thee, O Yerushalayim. Haleluya!

O PRAISE the LORD, all you nations: praise him all you peoples. 117
For his love for us is great: and the truth of the LORD endures 2 for ever. Haleluya!

O GIVE thanks to the LORD; for he is good: for his steadfast love 1 endures forever. Let Yisra'el now say, that his steadfast love 2 endures forever. Let the house of Aharon now say, that his 3 steadfast love endures forever. Let those now who fear the 4 LORD say, that his steadfast love endures forever. Out of my 5 distress I called upon the LORD: the LORD answered me with liberation. The LORD is on my side; I will not fear: what can 6 a man do to me? The LORD takes my part with those who help 7 me: therefore I shall gaze upon those who hate me. It is better 8 to take refuge in the LORD than to put confidence in man. It is 9 better to take refuge in the LORD than to trust in princes. All 10 nations compassed me about: but in the name of the LORD I cut them off. They compassed me about; indeed, they sur- 11 rounded me: but in the name of the LORD I cut them off. They 12 compassed me about like bees; they are quenched like a fire of thorns: for in the name of the LORD I cut them off. Thou 13 didst push me hard that I might fall: but the LORD helped me.
The LORD is my strength and song, and is become my salvation. 14
The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tents of the 15 righteous: the right hand of the LORD does valiantly. The right 16 hand of the LORD is exalted: the right hand of the LORD does valiantly. I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of 17 the LORD. The LORD has chastised me severely: but he has not 18 given me up to death. Open to me the gates of righteousness: 19
I will go in to them, and I will praise the LORD: this is the gate 20 of the LORD, into which the righteous shall enter. I will give 21 thee thanks, for thou hast answered me, and art become my salvation. The stone which the builders rejected has become 22 the head stone of the corner. This is the LORD'S doing; it is 23 marvellous in our eyes. This is the day which the LORD has 24 made; we will rejoice and be glad in it. Save us, O LORD, we 25 pray thee: we pray thee, O LORD, prosper us. Blessed is he who 26 comes in the name of the LORD: we have blessed you out of the house of the LORD. GOD is the LORD, who has shown us 27 light: bind the sacrifice with cords, to the horns of the altar.
Thou art my GOD, and I will praise thee: my GOD, I will exalt 28 thee. O give thanks to the LORD; for he is good: for his stead- 29 fast love endures forever.

HAPPY are those whose way is blameless, who walk in the 119 Tora of the LORD. Happy are they who keep his testimonies 2 and seek him with the whole heart. They also do no iniquity: 3 they walk in his ways. Thou hast commanded thy precepts to 4 be kept diligently. O that my ways were directed to keep thy 5 statutes! Then should I not be ashamed, when I observe all 6 thy commandments. I shall give thee thanks with uprightness 7 of heart, when I learn thy righteous judgments. I will keep thy 8 statutes: O do not forsake me utterly.

Wherewith shall a young man keep his way pure? by guarding 9 it according to thy word. With my whole heart I have sought 10 thee: O let me not wander from thy commandments. Thy word 11 have I hid in my heart, that I might not sin against thee. Bless- 12 ed art thou, O LORD: teach me thy statutes. With my lips I 13 have declared all the judgments of thy mouth. I have rejoiced 14 in the way of thy testimonies, as much as in all riches. I will meditate in thy precepts, and observe thy ways. I will delight myself in thy statutes: I will not forget thy word. 15, 16

Deal bountifully with thy servant, that I may live, and keep thy word. Open thou my eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy Tora. I am a stranger on the earth: do not hide thy commandments from me. My soul is consumed with the longing that it has to thy judgments at all times. Thou hast rebuked the proud that are cursed, who wander from thy commandments. Remove insult and contempt from me; for I have kept thy testimonies. Princes also did sit and speak against me: but thy servant did meditate on thy statutes. Thy testimonies also are my delight; they are my counsellors. 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24

My soul cleaves to the dust: revive me according to thy word. I have declared my ways, and thou didst hear me: teach me thy statutes. Make me to understand the way of thy precepts: so I shall talk of thy wondrous works. My soul melts away for heaviness: strengthen me according to thy word. Remove from me the way of falsehood: and graciously bestow thy Tora upon me. I have chosen the way of truth: thy judgments have I laid before me. I have held fast to thy testimonies: O LORD, put me not to shame. I will run the way of thy commandments, for therein thou dost enlarge my heart. 25 26 27 28 29 30 31 32

Teach me, O LORD, the way of thy statutes; and I shall keep it to the end. Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy Tora; and I shall observe it with my whole heart. Make me to go in the path of thy commandments; for therein do I delight. Incline my heart to thy testimonies, and not to unjust gain. Turn away my eyes from beholding vanity; and give me life in thy way. Confirm to thy servant thy word, which relates to the fear of thee. Turn away my insult which I fear: for thy judgments are good. Behold, I have longed after thy precepts: give me life in thy righteousness. 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40

And let thy promises of steadfast love come to pass for me, O LORD; even thy salvation; according to thy word. So shall I have wherewith to answer him who insults me: for I trust in thy word. And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth; for I have hoped in thy judgments. So shall I keep thy Tora continually for ever and ever. And I will walk at liberty: for I seek thy precepts. I will also speak of thy testimonies before kings, and will not be ashamed. And I will delight myself in thy commandments, which I have loved. My hands also will I lift up to thy commandments, which I have loved; and I will meditate on thy statutes. 41 42 43 44 45 46 47 48

Remember the word to thy servant, whereby thou hast given me hope. This is my comfort in my affliction: for thy word has revived me. The proud have had me greatly in derision: yet I have not declined from thy Tora. When I remembered thy judgments of old, O LORD, I took comfort. Horror has taken hold of me because of the wicked who forsake thy Tora. Thy statutes have been my songs in the house of my pilgrimage. I have remembered thy name, O LORD, in the night, and have kept thy Tora. This was my lot, because I kept thy precepts. 49 50 51 52 53 54 55 56

מָה־אָהַבְתִּי תוֹרָתֶךָ כָּל־הַיּוֹם הִיא שִׂיחָתִי׃ מֵאֹיְבַי תְּחַכְּמֵנִי פג

The LORD is my portion: I have said that I would keep thy 57 words. I entreated thy favour with my whole heart: be merciful 58 to me according to thy word. I thought on my ways, and turned 59 my feet to thy testimonies. I made haste, and delayed not to 60 keep thy commandments. Bands of wicked men have robbed 61 me: but I have not forgotten thy Tora. At midnight I will rise 62 to give thanks to thee because of thy righteous judgments. I 63 am a companion of all those who fear thee, and of those who keep thy precepts. The earth, O LORD, is full of thy steadfast 64 love: teach me thy statutes.

Thou hast dealt well with thy servant, O LORD, according to thy 65 word. Teach me good discernment and knowledge: for I have 66 believed thy commandments. Before I was afflicted I went 67 astray: but now I observe thy word. Thou art good, and doest 68 good; teach me thy statutes. The proud have smeared me with 69 a lie: but I will keep thy precepts with my whole heart. Their 70 heart is gross like fat, but I delight in thy Tora. It is good for me 71 that I have been afflicted; that I might learn thy statutes. The 72 Tora of thy mouth is better to me than thousands of gold and silver.

Thy hands have made me and fashioned me: give me under- 73 standing, that I may learn thy commandments. They who fear 74 thee will see me and be glad, because I have hoped in thy word.

I know, O LORD, that thy judgments are right, and that in faith- 75 fulness thou has afflicted me. Let thy steadfast love be my com- 76 fort, according to thy word to thy servant. Let thy mercies 77 come to me, that I may live: for thy Tora is my delight. Let 78 the proud be ashamed; for they dealt perversely with me with guile: but I will meditate on thy precepts. Let those who fear 79 thee turn to me, and those who have known thy testimonies.
Let my heart be sound in thy statutes; that I be not ashamed. 80

My soul faints for thy salvation: I hope in thy word. My eyes 81,82 fail with longing for thy word, saying, When wilt thou comfort me? For I am become like a wineskin in the smoke; yet I do 83 not forget thy statutes. How many are the days of thy servant? 84 when wilt thou execute judgment on those who persecute me?
The proud have dug pits for me, which are not according to thy 85
Tora. All thy commandments are faithful: they persecute me 86 wrongfully; help thou me. They had almost consumed me upon 87 earth; but I forsook not thy precepts. In thy steadfast love spare 88 my life; so I shall keep the testimony of thy mouth.

For ever, O LORD; thy word stands fast in the heavens. Thy 89,90 faithfulness endures to all generations: thou hast established the earth, and it stands firm. They continue this day according to 91 thy ordinances: for all are thy servants. Unless thy Tora had 92 been my delights, I should have perished in my affliction. I will 93 never forget thy precepts: for with them thou hast given me life.

I am thine, save me; for I have sought thy precepts. The wicked 94,95 have waited for me to destroy me: but I will consider thy testimonies. I have seen an end of every purpose: but thy com- 96 mandment is exceedingly broad.

O how I love thy Tora! it is my meditation all the day. Thy com- 97,98 mandments make me wiser than my enemies: for they are ever with me. I have more understanding than all my teachers : for 99 thy testimonies are my meditation. I understand more than the 100 elders, because I keep thy precepts. I have restrained my feet 101 from every evil way, that I might keep thy word. I have not de- 102 parted from thy judgments : for thou hast taught me. How sweet 103 are thy words to my palate ! sweeter than honey to my mouth !

Through thy precepts I get understanding : therefore I hate 104 every false way.
Thy word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path. 105
I have sworn, and I will perform it, that I will keep thy righ- 106 teous judgments. I am afflicted very much: revive me, O LORD, 107 according to thy word. Accept I beseech thee, the freewill 108 offerings of my mouth, O LORD, and teach me thy ordinances.
My soul is continually in my hand: yet I have not forgotten thy 109 Tora. The wicked have laid a snare for me : yet I have not 110 strayed from thy precepts. Thy testimonies I have taken as a 111 heritage for ever: for they are the rejoicing of my heart. I have 112 inclined my heart to perform thy statutes always, to the end.
I hate men of vain thoughts : but thy Tora I love. Thou art my 113,114 hiding place and my shield : I hope in thy word. Depart from 115 me, you evildoers : for I will keep commandments of my GOD.
Uphold me according to thy word, that I may live : and let me 116 not be ashamed of my hope. Hold me up, and I shall be safe : 117 and I will watch thy statutes continually, Thou hast trodden 118 down all those who stray from thy statutes : for their deceit is vain. Thou puttest away all the wicked of the earth like dross : 119 therefore I love thy testimonies. My flesh shudders for fear of 120 thee ; and I am afraid of thy judgments.
I have done justice and righteousness : leave me not to my op- 121 pressors. Be surety for thy servant for good : let not the proud 122 opppress me. My eyes fail with watching for thy salvation, and 123 for the word of thy righteousness. Deal with thy servant accord- 124 ing to thy steadfast love, and teach me thy statutes. I am thy ser- 125 vant; give me understanding, that I may know thy testimonies.
It is time to act for the LORD: they have made void thy Tora. 126
Therefore I love thy commandments above gold; yea, above 127 fine gold. Therefore I esteem all thy precepts to be entirely 128 right; and I have loathed every false way.
Thy testimonies are wonderful : therefore my soul keeps them 129
The unfolding of thy words gives light ; it gives understanding 130 to the simple. With open mouth I pant : because I long for thy 131 commandments. Look upon me, and be gracious unto me, as is 132 thy wont towards those who love thy name. Order my steps in 133 thy word: and let not any iniquity have dominion over me.
Deliver me from the oppression of man: and I will keep thy 134 precepts. Make thy face to shine upon thy servant; and teach me 135 thy statutes. Rivers of water run down from my eyes, because 136 they do not keep thy Tora.
Righteous art thou, O LORD and upright are thy judgments. 137 Thou hast commanded thy testimonies in righteousness and in 138 great faithfulness. My zeal consumes me, because my enemies 139 have forgotten thy words. Thy word is very pure : therefore thy 140 servant loves it. I am small and despised : yet I do not forget thy 141 precepts. Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and 142 thy Tora is truth. Trouble and anguish have taken hold of me: 143 yet thy commandments are my delights. Thy testimonies are 144 righteous forever: give me understanding, and I shall live.

I cry with my whole heart; answer me, O LORD: I will keep thy 145 statutes. I cry to thee; save me, and I shall keep thy testimonies. 146
I rise before dawn, and I cry out: my hope is in thy word. 147
My eyes open before the night watches, that I may meditate 148 on thy saying. Hear my voice according to thy steadfast love: 149 O LORD, revive me according to thy judgment. Those who fol- 150 low after mischief draw near: they are far from thy Tora. Thou 151 art near, O LORD; and all thy commandments are truth. Con- 152 cerning thy testimonies, I have known of old that thou hast founded them forever.
Consider my affliction, and deliver me: for I do not forget thy 153 Tora. Plead my cause, and deliver me: give me life according to 154 thy word. Salvation is far from the wicked; for they seek not 155 thy statutes. Great are thy compassions, O LORD: give me life 156 as is thy wont. Many are my persecutors and my enemies; yet I 157 do not decline from thy testimonies. I behold transgressors, and 158
I am grieved; because they keep not thy saying. Consider how 159
I love thy precepts: revive me, O LORD, according to thy steadfast love. The sum of thy word is truth: and every one of thy 160 righteous judgments endures for ever.
Princes have persecuted me without cause: but my heart stands 161 in awe of thy word. I rejoice at thy word, like one who finds 162 great spoil. I hate and abhor lying: but thy Tora I love. Seven 163,164 times a day I praise thee because of thy righteous judgments.
Great peace have they who love thy Tora: and nothing can 165 make them stumble. LORD, I have hoped for thy salvation, and 166 I have done thy commandments. My soul has kept thy testi- 167 monies; and I love them exceedingly. I have kept thy precepts 168 and thy testimonies: for all my ways are before thee.
Let my cry come before thee, O LORD: give me understanding 169 according to thy word. Let my supplication come before thee: 170 deliver me according to thy word. My lips shall utter praise, 171 for thou hast taught me thy statutes. My tongue shall sing 172 of thy word: for all thy commandments are just. Let thy hand 173 help me; for I have chosen thy precepts. I long for thy salvation, 174 O LORD; and thy law is my delight. Let my soul live, and it shall 175 praise thee; and let thy judment help me. I have gone astray 176 like a lost sheep; seek out thy servant; for I do not forget thy commandments.
A MA'ALOT Poem. In my distress I cried to the LORD, and he 120 heard me. Deliver my soul, O LORD, from lying lips, from a 2 deceitful tongue. What shall be given to thee? or what shall be 3 done to thee, thou false tongue? Sharp arrows of the mighty, 4 with coals of the broom tree. Woe is me, that I sojourn in 5 Meshekh, that I dwell in the tents of Qedar! My soul has long 6 dwelt with haters of peace. I am a man of peace: but when 7 I speak, they are for war.

moved: he who keeps thee will not slumber. Behold, he who 4 keeps Yisra'el shall neither slumber nor sleep. The LORD is 5 thy keeper: the LORD is thy shade upon thy right hand. The sun 6 shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night. The LORD 7 shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul.
The LORD shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from 8 this time forth, and for evermore.

A MA'ALOT Poem of David. I was glad when they said to me, 122
Let us go into the house of the LORD: when our feet stood 2 within thy gates, O Yerushalayim; O Yerushalayim, built as 3 a city that is compact together: there the tribes used to go up, 4 the tribes of the LORD, an appointed practice for Yisra'el, to give thanks to the name of the LORD. For there are set thrones of 5 judgment, the thrones of the house of David. Pray for the peace 6 of Yerushalayim: they who love thee shall prosper: peace be 7 within thy walls, and prosperity within thy palaces. For my 8 brethren and companions' sakes, I will now say, Peace be within thee. For the sake of the house of the LORD our GOD
I will seek thy good.

A MA'ALOT Poem. To thee I lift up my eyes, O thou who dwell- 123 est in the heavens. Behold, as the eyes of servants look to the 2 hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress; so our eyes wait upon the LORD our GOD, until he shall be gracious to us. Be gracious to us, O LORD, be 3 gracious to us: for we are overfilled with contempt. Our soul is 4 overfilled with the scorn of those who are at ease, and with the contempt of the proud.

A MA'ALOT Poem of David. If not for the LORD who was with 124 us, let Yisra'el now say—if not for the LORD who was with us, 2 when men rose up against us: then they would have swallowed 3 us up alive, when their anger was kindled against us: then the 4 waters would have overwhelmed us, the stream would have gone over our soul: then the proud waters would have gone 5 over our soul. Blessed be the LORD, who has not given us as 6 a prey to their teeth. Our soul is escaped like a bird out of 7 the snare of the fowlers: the snare is broken, and we are escaped. Our help is in the name of the LORD, who made hea- 8 ven and earth.

A MA'ALOT Poem. They who trust in the LORD shall be like 125 mount Ziyyon, which cannot be removed, but abides for ever.
As the mountains are round about Yerushalayim, so the LORD 2 is round about his people from henceforth and forever. For 3 the sceptre of wickedness shall not rest upon the share allotted to the righteous; lest the righteous put forth their hands to do wrong. Do good, O LORD, to those who are good, and to 4 those who are upright in their hearts. As for such as turn aside 5 to their crooked ways, the LORD shall lead them away with the workers of iniquity: but peace shall be upon Yisra'el.

A MA'ALOT Poem. When the LORD brought back the captivity 126 of Ziyyon, we were like men in a dream. Then was our mouth 2 filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing: then they said among the nations, The LORD has done great things for them. The LORD has done great things for us; we are glad. 3 Bring back our captivity, O LORD, like the streams in the 4 Negev. They who sow in tears shall reap in joy. He who goes 5,6 weeping on his way, bearing a bag of seed, shall come back with a joyful shout, carrying his sheaves.

A MA'ALOT Poem for Shelomo. Unless the LORD builds the 127 house, they who build it labour in vain: unless the LORD keeps the city, the watchman stays awake in vain. It is vain for you to 2 rise up early, to sit up late, to eat the bread of toil: for truly to his beloved he gives tranquillity. Lo, children are a heritage of 3 the LORD: and the fruit of the womb is a reward. As arrows in 4 the hand of a mighty man; so are the children of one's youth.
Happy is the man that has his quiver full of them: they shall 5 not be put to shame, but they shall speak with their enemies in the gate.

A MA'ALOT Poem. Happy is everyone who fears the LORD; who 128 walks in his ways. For thou shalt eat the labour of thy hands: 2 happy shalt thou be, and it shall be well with thee. Thy wife 3 shall be like a fruitful vine in the recesses of thy house: thy children like olive plants round about thy table. Behold, thus 4 shall the man be blessed who fears the LORD. The LORD shall 5 bless thee out of Ziyyon: and thou shalt see the good of Yerushalayim all the days of thy life. And thou shalt see thy 6 children's children, and peace upon Yisra'el.

A MA'ALOT Poem. Many a time have they afflicted me from 129 my youth, may Yisra'el now say: many a time have they 2 afflicted me from my youth: yet they have not prevailed against me. The ploughers ploughed upon my back: they made long 3 their furrows. The LORD is righteous: he has cut asunder the 4 cord of the wicked. Let them be confounded and turned back, 5 all who hate Ziyyon. Let them be like the grass upon the 6 housetops, which withers before it is plucked: wherewith the 7 mower fills not his hand; nor he who binds sheaves his bosom.
Nor do they who go by say, The blessing of the LORD be upon 8 you: we bless you in the name of the LORD.

A MA'ALOT Poem. Out of the depths I have cried to thee, O 130 LORD. LORD, hear my voice: let thy ears be attentive to the 2 voice of my supplications. If thou, LORD, shouldst mark iniqui- 3 ties, O LORD, who could stand? But there is forgiveness with 4 thee, that thou mayst be feared. I wait for the LORD, my soul 5 waits, and in his word I hope. My soul waits for the LORD more 6 than they who watch for the morning: more than watchmen for the morning. Let Yisra'el hope in the LORD: for with the 7 LORD there is steadfast love, and with him is plenteous redemption. And he shall redeem Yisra'el from all his 8 iniquities.

A MA'ALOT Poem of David. LORD, my heart is not haughty, 131 nor my eyes lofty: nor do I exercise myself in great matters, or in things too high for me. Surely I have stilled and quieted 2 myself, like a weaned child beside his mother: my soul within me is like a weaned child. Let Yisra'el hope in the LORD from henceforth and for ever. 3

A MA'ALOT Poem. LORD, remember to David's favour all his 132 afflictions: how he swore to the LORD, and vowed to the mighty 2 GOD of Ya'aqov: Surely I will not come into the tabernacle of 3 my house, nor go up into my bed; I will not give sleep to my 4 eyes, slumber to my eyelids, until I find out a place for the 5 LORD, a habitation for the mighty One of Ya'aqov. Lo, we heard 6 of it at Efrat: we found it in Sede-ya'ar. We will go into his 7 dwelling places: we will worship at his footstool. Arise, O 8 LORD, to thy resting place; thou, and the ark of thy strength.
Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness; and let thy pious 9 ones shout for joy. For thy servant David's sake do not turn away 10 the face of thy anointed. The LORD has sworn in truth to David; 11 he will not turn from it; One of the sons of thy body will I set upon thy throne. If thy children will keep my covenant and my 12 Testimony that I shall teach them, their children shall also sit upon thy throne for evermore. For the LORD has chosen Ẓiyyon: 13 he has desired it for his habitation. This is my resting place 14 forever: here will I dwell; for I have desired it. I will abund- 15 antly bless her provisions: I will satisfy her poor with bread.
I will also clothe her priests with salvation: and her pious ones 16 shall shout aloud for joy. There will I make the horn of David to 17 shoot up: I have set up a lamp for my anointed. His enemies I 18 will clothe with shame: but upon himself his crown will flourish.

A MA'ALOT Poem of David. Behold, how good and how pleasant 133 it is for brothers to dwell together in unity! It is like the pre- 2 cious ointment upon the head, running down upon the beard, the beard of Aharon: running down over the hem of his garments: like the dew of Ḥermon descending upon the mountains 3 of Ẓiyyon: for there the LORD has commanded the blessing, even life for evermore.

A MA'ALOT Poem. Behold, bless the LORD, all you servants 134 of the LORD, who stand by night in the house of the LORD.
Lift up your hands in the sanctuary, and bless the LORD. 2
May the LORD who made heaven and earth bless thee out of 3 Ẓiyyon.

HALELUYA! Praise the name of the LORD; praise him, O servants 135 of the LORD. You who stand in the house of the LORD, in the 2 courts of the house of our GOD, Haleluya! for the LORD is good: 3 sing praises to his name; for it is pleasant. For the LORD has 4 chosen Ya'aqov to himself, Yisra'el for his peculiar possession.
For I know that the LORD is great, and that our LORD is above 5 all gods. Whatever the LORD wishes, he has done in heaven, 6 and in earth, in the seas, and all deep places. He causes vapours 7 to ascend from the ends of the earth; he makes lightnings for the rain; he brings the wind out of the treasuries. It was he 8 who smote the firstborn of Miẓrayim, both of man and beast; who sent signs and wonders into the midst of thee, O Miẓrayim, 9 upon Par'o, and upon all his servants; who smote great nations, 10 and slew mighty kings; Siḥon king of the Emori, and 'Og king 11 of Bashan, and all the kingdoms of Kena'an; and gave their land for a heritage, a heritage to Yisra'el his people. Thy name, O LORD, endures forever; and thy renown, O LORD, throughout all generations. For the LORD will judge the cause of his people, and he will relent concerning his servants. The idols of the nations are silver and gold, the work of men's hands. They have mouths, but they cannot speak; eyes have they, but they cannot see; they have ears, but they cannot hear; nor is there any breath in their mouths. May they who make them become like them; and everyone who trusts in them. Bless the LORD, O house of Yisra'el: bless the LORD, O house of Aharon: Bless the LORD, O house of Levi: you who fear the LORD, bless the LORD. Blessed be the LORD out of Ziyyon, he who dwells at Yerushalayim. Haleluya!

137 BY the rivers of Bavel, there we sat down, yea, we wept, when we remembered Ziyyon. We hung our lyres upon the willows in its midst. For there they who carried us away captive asked us for a song; and they who spoiled us asked us for mirth, saying, Sing us one of the songs of Ziyyon. How shall we sing the LORD's song in a foreign land? If I forget thee, O Yerusha- 5 layim, let my right hand forget her cunning. If I do not remem- 6 ber thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth; if I do not set Yerushalayim above my highest joy. Remember, O 7 LORD, against the children of Edom the day of Yerushalayim, when they said, Rase it, rase it, to its very foundations. O daugh- 8 ter of Bavel, marked for devastation; happy is he who shall repay thee thy recompense for what thou hast done to us. Happy is 9 he who shall seize and dash thy little ones against the rock.

OF David. I will praise thee with my whole heart: before prin- 138 ces I will sing praise to thee. I will bow down towards thy 2 holy temple, and praise thy name for thy steadfast love, and for thy truth: for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name. In the day when I cried thou didst answer me, and didst 3 strengthen me with strength in my soul. All the kings of the 4 earth shall give thee thanks, O LORD, when they hear the words of thy mouth. Yea, they shall sing of the ways of the LORD: 5 for great is the glory of the LORD. Though the LORD be high, 6 yet he takes note of the lowly: but the haughty he knows from afar. Though I walk in the midst of trouble, thou wilt revive 7 me: thou shalt stretch out thy hand against the wrath of my enemies, and thy right hand shall save me. May the LORD ac- 8 complish his purpose concerning me: thy steadfast love, O LORD, endures forever: do not forsake the works of thy own hands.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. O LORD, thou hast 139 searched me, and known me. Thou knowst my sitting down 2 and my rising up, thou understandest my thought afar off. Thou 3 hast measured my going and my lying down, and thou art acquainted with all my ways. For no word is yet on my tongue, 4 and lo, O LORD, thou knowst it all. Thou hast beset me behind 5 and before, and laid thy hand upon me. Such knowledge is too 6 wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it. Where 7 shall I go from thy spirit? or where shall I flee from thy presence? If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there: if I make 8 my bed in She'ol, behold, thou art there. If I take the wings of 9 the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea; even 10 there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me.
If I say, Surely only darkness shall cover me; and the light be 11 night about me, even the darkness is not dark for thee, but the 12 night shines like the day: the darkness and the light are both alike to thee. For thou hast formed my reins: thou hast knit 13 me together in my mother's womb. I will praise thee; for I am 14 fearfully and wonderfully made: marvellous are thy works; and my soul knows that right well. My frame was not hidden 15 from thee, when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth. Thy eyes did see my unshaped 16 flesh; for in thy book all things are written: the days also in which they are to be fashioned, and for it too there was one of them. How precious also are thy thoughts to me, O GOD! how 17 great is the sum of them! If I should count them, they are more 18 in number than the sand. When I awake, I am still with thee.

Surely thou wilt slay the wicked, O GOD: depart from me 19 therefore, you bloody men, who speak against thee wickedly, 20 and thy enemies, who take thy name in vain. Do I not hate, 21 O LORD, those who hate thee? and do I not strive with those who rise up against thee? I hate them with the utmost hatred: 22
I count them my enemies. Search me, O GOD, and know my 23 heart: try me, and know my thoughts: and see if there is any 24 wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.

140

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. Deliver me, O LORD, 1,2 from the evil man: preserve me from the violent man; who de- 3 vise mischiefs in their heart; continually they stir up wars.
They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent; a spider's 4 venom is under their lips. (Sela.) Keep me, O LORD, from the 5 hands of the wicked; preserve me from the violent man: who have purposed to trip up my feet. The proud have hidden a 6 snare for me, and cords; they have spread a net by the wayside; they have set traps for me. (Sela.) I said to the LORD, 7 Thou art my GOD: hear the voice of my supplications, O LORD.
O GOD the LORD, the strength of my salvation, thou hast 8 screened my head in the day of battle; grant not, O LORD, the 9 desires of the wicked man: further not his wicked device; lest they exalt themselves. (Sela.) As for the head of those who 10 compass me about, let the mischief of their own lips cover them. Let burning coals fall upon them: let them be cast into 11 the fire; into deep pits, so that they do not rise up again. Let 12 not a slanderer be established in the earth: let evil hunt the violent man to his overthrow. I know that the LORD will main- 13 tain the cause of the afflicted, and the right of the poor. Surely 14 the righteous shall give thanks to thy name: the upright shall dwell in thy presence.

A PSALM of David. LORD, I cry to thee: make haste to me; 2 give ear to my voice, when I cry to thee. Let my prayer be set forth before thee like incense; and the lifting up of my hands like the evening sacrifice. Set a guard, O LORD, to my mouth; 3 keep watch over the door of my lips. Incline not my heart to 4 any evil thing, to practise wicked deeds with men who work iniquity: and let me not eat of their dainties. Let the righteous 5 strike me in kindness: and let him rebuke me; it shall be as oil for my head: let not my head refuse it: but still shall my prayer be against their evil plight. When their judges are 6 thrown down upon the rocks, then they will hear how sweet were my words. As when one cuts and breaks up wood on the 7 earth, so are our bones strewn at the mouth of She'ol. But my 8 eyes are towards thee, O GOD the LORD: in thee I seek refuge; do not pour away my life. Keep me from the snare which they 9 have laid for me, and the traps of the workers of iniquity. Let 10 the wicked fall together into their own nets, whilst I escape.

142

A MASKIL of David; A Prayer when he was in the cave. I cry 1,2 to the LORD with my voice; with my voice I make my supplication to the LORD. I pour out my complaint before him; I 3 declare my trouble before him. When my spirit faints within 4 me, then thou knowst my path. In the way wherein I walk they have hidden a snare for me. I look on my right hand, and be- 5 hold, but there is no man that knows me: I have nowhere to flee; no man cares for my soul. I cried to thee, O LORD: I 6 said, Thou art my refuge and my portion in the land of the living. Attend to my cry; for I am brought very low: deliver 7 me from my persecutors; for they are stronger than I. Bring 8 my soul out of prison, that I may give thanks to thy name: the righteous shall crown themselves in me; for thou shalt deal bountifully with me.

A PSALM of David. Hear my prayer, O LORD, give ear to my 143 supplications: in thy faithfulness answer me, in thy righteousness. And enter not into judgment with thy servant: for in thy 2 sight shall no man living be justified. For the enemy has perse- 3 cuted my soul; he has trodden my life down to the ground; he has made me to dwell in darkness, as those that have been long dead. Therefore my spirit faints within me; my heart with- 4 in me is appalled. I remember the days of old; I meditate on all 5 thy works; I muse on the work of thy hands. I stretch forth my 6 hands to thee: my soul thirsts after thee, like a thirsty land.
(Sela.) Answer me speedily, O LORD: my spirit fails: do not 7 hide thy face from me, lest I be like those who go down into the pit. Cause me to hear thy words of steadfast love in the 8 morning; for in thee do I trust: cause me to know the way in which I should walk; for I lift up my soul to thee. Deliver me, 9 O LORD, from my enemies: I flee to thee to hide me. Teach me 10 to do thy will; for thou art my GOD: let thy good spirit lead me into a level land. Revive me, O LORD, for thy name's sake: 11 for thy righteousness' sake bring my soul out of trouble. And 12 in thy mercy cut off my enemies, and destroy all those who afflict my soul: for I am thy servant.

OF David. Blessed be the LORD my rock, who teaches my hands 144 to war, and my fingers to fight: my gracious one, and my 2 fortress; my high tower, and my deliverer; my shield, and he in whom I trust; who subdues my people under me. LORD, what 3 is man, that thou takest knowledge of him! or the son of man, that thou makest account of him! Man is like a breath: his 4 days are like a shadow that passes away. Bow thy heavens, O 5 LORD, and come down: touch the mountains, that they may smoke. Cast forth lightning, and scatter them: shoot out thy 6 arrows, and destroy them. Send thy hand from above; rescue 7 me, and deliver me out of many waters, from the hand of strangers; whose mouth speaks vanity, and their right hand is 8 a right hand of falsehood. I will sing a new song to thee, O GOD: 9 upon a harp of ten strings I will sing praises to thee. It is he 10 who gives salvation to kings: who delivers David his servant from the hurtful sword. Rescue me, and deliver me from the 11 hand of strangers, whose mouth speaks vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood. For our sons are as plants 12 grown up in their youth; our daughters as corner stones, polished after the fashion of a palace: our garners are full, affording 13 all manner of store: our sheep bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our streets: our oxen are heavy laden: the e ie 14

A PRAISE of David. I will extol thee, my GOD, O king; and I will 145 bless thy name for ever and ever. Every day I will bless thee; 2 and I will praise thy name for ever and ever. Great is the LORD, 3 and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable.
One generation shall praise thy works to another, and shall 4 declare thy mighty acts. I will speak of the glorious splendour 5 of thy majesty, and of thy wondrous works. And men shall 6 speak of the might of thy terrible acts: and I will declare thy greatness. They shall utter the fame of thy great goodness, and 7 shall sing of thy righteousness. The LORD is gracious, and full 8 of compassion; slow to anger, and of abundant love. The LORD 9 is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works.
All thy works shall praise thee, O LORD; and thy pious ones 10 shall bless thee. They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, 11 and talk of thy power; to make known to the sons of men his 12 mighty acts, and the glorious majesty of his kingdom. Thy king- 13 dom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endures throughout all generations. The LORD upholds all that fall, and 14 raises up all those who are bowed down. The eyes of all wait 15 upon thee; and thou givest them their food in due season. 16 Thou openest thy hand, and satisfiest the desire of every living thing. The LORD is righteous in all his ways, and gracious in 17 all his works. The LORD is near to all those who call upon him, 18 to all who call upon him in truth. He will fulfil the desire of 19 those who fear him: he also will hear their cry, and will save them. The LORD preserves all those who love him: but all the 20 wicked he will destroy. My mouth shall speak the praise of 21 the LORD: and let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever.

146

HALELUYA! Praise the LORD, O my soul. While I live I will praise 1, 2 the LORD: I will sing praises to my GOD while I have my being.
Put not your trust in princes, nor in the son of man, in whom 3 there is no help. His breath goes forth, he returns to his earth; 4 in that very day his thoughts perish. Happy is he who has the 5 GOD of Ya'aqov for his help, whose hope is in the LORD his GOD: who made heaven, and earth, the sea, and all that is in them: 6 who keeps truth forever. Who executes judgment for the op- 7 pressed: who gives bread to the hungry. The LORD looses the prisoners: the LORD opens the eyes of the blind: the LORD raises 8 those who are bowed down: the LORD loves the righteous: the 9 LORD preserves the strangers; he relieves the fatherless and widow: but the way of the wicked he makes crooked. The 10 LORD shall reign forever, thy GOD, O Ziyyon, to all generations.
Haleluya!

PRAISE the LORD: for it is good to sing praises to our GOD; for 147 it is pleasant; praise is comely. The LORD builds Yerusha- 2 layim: he gathers together the outcasts of Yisra'el. He heals 3 the brokenhearted, and binds up their wounds. He counts the 4 number of the stars; he calls them all by their names. Great 5 is our LORD, and of great power: his understanding is infinite.

The LORD upholds the humble: he casts the wicked down to the 6 ground. Sing to the LORD with thanksgiving; sing praise upon 7 the lyre to our GOD: who covers the heaven with clouds, who 8 prepares rain for the earth, who makes grass to grow upon the mountains. He gives to the beast its food, and to the young 9 ravens which cry. He delights not in the strength of the horse: 10 he takes no pleasure in the legs of a man. The LORD takes plea- 11 sure in those who fear him, in those who hope in his steadfast love. Praise the LORD, O Yerushalaim; praise thy GOD, O 12 Ẓiyyon. For he has strengthened the bars of thy gates; he has 13 blessed thy children within thee. He makes peace in thy bor- 14 ders, and fills thee with the finest of the wheat. He sends forth 15 his commandment upon the earth: his word runs very swiftly.
He gives snow like wool: he scatters the hoar frost like ashes. 16
He casts forth his ice like morsels: who can stand before his 17 cold? He sends out his word, and melts them: he causes his 18 wind to blow: they run as water. He declares his Word to 19 Ya'aqov, his statutes and his judgments to Yisra'el. He has 20 not dealt so with any other nation: and as for his ordinances they have not known them. Haleluya!

HALELUYA! Praise the LORD from the heavens: praise him in 148 the heights. Praise him, all his angels: praise him, all his hosts. 2 Praise him, sun and moon: praise him, all you stars of light. 3 Praise him, heavens of heavens, and you waters that are above 4 the heavens. Let them praise the name of the LORD: for he 5 gave command, and they were created. And he established them 6 for ever and ever: he has made a decree which shall not pass.
Praise the LORD from the earth, O monsters, and all deeps: fire, 7, 8 and hail; snow, and vapours; stormy wind fulfilling his word: mountains, and all hills; fruitful trees, and all cedars: beasts, 10 and all cattle; creeping things, and winged birds: kings of the 11 earth, and all peoples; princes, and all judges of the earth:
both young men, and girls; old men, and children: let them 12, 13 praise the name of the LORD: for his name alone is exalted; his glory is above the earth and heaven. He also has exalted the 14 horn of his people, a praise for all his pious ones; even for the children of Yisra'el, a people near to him. Haleluya!

HALELUYA! Sing to the LORD a new song, his praise is sounded 149 in the congregation of the pious. Let Yisra'el rejoice in him 2 who made him: let the children of Ẓiyyon be joyful in their King. Let them praise his name in the dance: let them sing 3 praises to him with the timbrel and lyre. For the LORD takes 4 pleasure in his people: he will beautify the humble with salvation. Let the pious be joyful in glory: let them sing aloud upon 5 their beds. The high praises of GOD are in their mouth, and a 6 two edged sword in their hand; to execute vengeance upon the 7 nations, chastisements upon the peoples; to bind their kings with 8 chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron; to execute upon 9 them the judgment written: it is an honour to all his pious ones.
Haleluya!

THE proverbs of Shelomo the son of David, king of Yisra'el; to know wisdom and instruction; to perceive the words of understanding; to receive the instruction of wisdom, justice, and judgment, and equity; to give prudence to the simple, to the young man knowledge and discretion. A wise man will hear, and will increase learning; and a man of understanding shall attain to wise counsels: to understand a proverb, and a figure; the words of the wise, and their riddles. The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction.

1,2 3 4 5 6 7

My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and do not forsake the Tora of thy mother: for they shall be a graceful garland for thy head, and chains about thy neck. My son, if sinners entice thee, do not consent. If they say, Come with us, let us lie in wait for blood, let us lurk for the innocent without cause: let us swallow them up alive like She'ol; and whole, like those who go down into the pit: we shall find all precious goods; we shall fill our houses with spoil: throw in thy lot among us; we shall all have one purse: my son, do not walk in the way with them; restrain thy foot from their path: for their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed blood. For no heed is taken of the net which is spread in the sight of any bird. And they lie in wait for their blood; they lurk for their lives. So are the ways of everyone who is greedy of gain; it takes away the life of its owner.

8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19

Wisdom cries aloud in the street; she utters her voice in the squares: she cries in the chief place of concourse, at the entrances of the gates: in the city she utters her words, saying, How long, you simple ones, will you love being simple? and how long, O scorners, will you delight in scoffing, and fools hate knowledge? turn at my reproof: behold, I will pour out my spirit to you, I will make known to you my words. Because I have called, and you refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded; but you have set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof: I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear comes upon you; when your fear comes like a storm, and your calamity comes like a tempest; when distress and anguish come upon you. Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they will not find me: for they hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear of the LORD: they would none of my counsel: they despised all my reproof. Therefore they shall eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices. For the turning away of the simple shall slay them, and the erring of fools shall destroy them. But he who listens to me shall dwell safely, and shall be at ease without fear of evil.

My son, if thou wilt receive my words, and treasure up my commandments with thee; so that thou incline thy ear to wisdom, and apply thy heart to understanding indeed, if thou criest after wisdom, and liftest up thy voice for understanding; if thou seekest her like silver, and searchest for her as for hidden treasures; then shalt thou understand the fear of the LORD, and find the knowledge of GOD. For the LORD gives wisdom:

out of his mouth come knowledge and understanding. He 7 lays up sound wisdom for the righteous: he is a shield to those who walk uprightly, to keep the paths of justice; and he pre- 8 serves the way of his pious ones. Then shalt thou understand 9 righteousness, and justice and equity, every good path: for 10 wisdom shall enter thy heart, and knowledge be pleasant to thy soul; discretion shall preserve thee, understanding shall 11 keep thee: to deliver thee from the way of the evil man, from 12 the man who speaks perverse things; who leave the paths of 13 uprightness, to walk in the ways of darkness; who rejoice to 14 do evil, and delight in the perverseness of the wicked; whose 15 ways are crooked, and who are underhand in their paths: to 16 deliver thee from the strange woman, from the alien woman who speaks so smoothly; who forsakes the friend of her youth, 17 and forgets the covenant of her GOD. For her house inclines 18 to death, and her paths to the dead. None that go to her return, 19 nor do they regain the paths of life: that thou mayst walk in 20 the way of good men, and keep the paths of the righteous. For 21 the upright shall dwell in the land, and the innocent shall remain in it. But the wicked shall be cut off from the earth, and 22 the faithless shall be rooted out of it.

My son, forget not my Tora; but let thy heart keep my com- 3 mandments: For length of days, and long life, and peace, shall 2 they add to thee. Let not loyal love and truth forsake thee: 3 bind them about thy neck; write them upon the table of thy heart: so shalt thou find grace and good understanding in the 4 sight of GOD and man.

Trust in the LORD with all thy heart; and do not lean upon thy 5 own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he 6 shall direct thy paths. Be not wise in thy own eyes: fear the 7 LORD, and depart from evil. It shall be health to thy navel, and 8 marrow to thy bones. Honour the LORD with thy substance, and 9 with the firstfruits of all thy increase: so shall thy barns be 10 filled with plenty, and thy vats shall burst with new wine.

My son, do not despise the chastening of the LORD; nor be 11 weary of his correction: for the LORD reproves him whom he 12 loves: even as a father the son in whom he delights. Happy is 13 the man who finds wisdom, and the man who gets understanding. For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise 14 of silver, and its gain than fine gold. She is more precious than 15 rubies: and all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared to her. Length of days is in her right hand; and in her 16 left hand are riches and honour. Her ways are ways of plea- 17 santness, and all her paths are peace. She is a tree of life to 18 those who lay hold on her: and happy are those who hold her fast.

The LORD by wisdom founded the earth; by understanding he 19 established the heavens. By his knowledge the depths were 20 broken up, and the clouds drop down dew. My son, let them 21 not depart from thy eyes: keep sound wisdom and discretion: so shall they be life to thy soul, and grace to thy neck. Then 22,23 shalt thou walk in thy way safely, and thy foot shall not stumble. When thou liest down, thou shalt not be afraid: in- 24 deed, thou shalt lie down, and thy sleep shall be sweet. Be not 25 afraid of sudden fear, nor of the ruin of the wicked, when it comes. For the LORD shall be thy confidence, and shall keep 26 thy foot from being caught. Withhold not good from those to 27 whom it is due, when it is in the power of thy hand to do it. Say 28 not to thy neighbour, Go, and come back, and to morrow I will give; when thou hast it by thee. Do not devise evil against thy 29 neighbour, seeing he dwells securely by thee. Do not strive with 30 a man without cause, if he have done thee no harm. Do not envy 31 the oppressor, and choose none of his ways. For the underhand 32 man is abomination to the LORD: and he shares his counsel with the righteous. The curse of the LORD is in the house of 33 the wicked: but he blesses the habitation of the just. Surely 34 he scorns the scorners: but he gives grace to the humble. The 35 wise shall inherit honour: but fools shall get shame.

Hear, you children, the instruction of a father, and attend to 4 know understanding. For I give you good doctrine, forsake not 2 my Tora. For I was my father's son, tender and the only one 3 in the sight of my mother. He taught me also, and said to me, 4 Let thy heart hold fast to my words: keep my commandments, and live. Get wisdom, get understanding: do not forget it; nor 5 decline from the words of my mouth. Do not forsake her, and 6 she shall preserve thee: love her, and she shall keep thee. The 7 beginning of wisdom is, Get wisdom: therefore use all your means to acquire understanding. Exalt her, and she shall pro- 8 mote thee: she will bring thee to honour, when thou dost embrace her. She shall give to thy head an ornament of grace: 9 a crown of glory shall she bestow on thee. Hear, O my son, 10 and receive my sayings; and the years of thy life shall be many.
I have taught thee in the way of wisdom; I have led thee in 11 paths of rectitude. When thou goest, thy steps shall not be con- 12 fined; and when thou runnest, thou shalt not stumble. Take 13 fast hold of instruction; let her not go: keep her; for she is thy life. Do not enter into the path of the wicked, and do not 14 go in the way of evil men. Avoid it, do not pass by it, turn 15 from it, and pass on. For they sleep not, unless they have done 16 mischief; and their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall. For they eat the bread of wickedness, and drink 17 the wine of violence. But the path of just men is like the 18 gleam of sunlight, that shines ever more brightly until the height of noonday. The way of the wicked is like darkness: they know 19 not at what they stumble. My son, attend to my words; 20 incline thy ear to my sayings. Let them not depart from thy 21 eyes; keep them in the midst of thy heart. For they are life to 22 those who find them, and health to all their flesh. Keep thy 23 heart with the greatest vigilance; for out of it are the issues of life. Put away from thee a dissembling mouth, and perverse 24 lips put far from thee. Let thy eyes look right on, and let thy 25 eyelids look straight before thee. Make even the path of thy 26 foot, and let all thy ways be firm. Do not turn to the right hand 27 or to the left: remove thy foot from evil.

My son, attend to my wisdom, and bend thy ear to my under- 5 standing: that thou mayst preserve discretion, and that thy 2 lips may keep knowledge. For the lips of a strange woman drip 3 honey, and her mouth is smoother than oil: but her end is 4 bitter as wormwood, sharp as a two edged sword. Her feet go 5 down to death; her steps take hold of She'ol. She is far from 6 measuring her way of life; her paths wander, and she is ignorant.

Hear me now therefore, O children, and do not depart from the 7 words of my mouth. Remove thy way far from her, and do 8 not come near the door of her house: lest thou give thy vigour 9 to others, and thy years to the cruel one: lest strangers be fil- 10 led with thy strength; and thy labours go to the house of a stranger: and thou moan when thy end comes, when thy flesh 11 and thy body are consumed, and thou say, How have I hated 12 instruction, and my heart despised reproof! And I have not 13 obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor bent my ear to those who instructed me! I was almost in all evil in the midst of the 14 congregation and assembly. Drink waters out of thy own cis- 15 tern, and running waters out of thy own well. So will thy 16 spring be dispersed abroad, and streams of water will flow in the broad places. Let them be only thy own, and not strangers' 17 with thee. Let thy fountain be blessed: and rejoice with the 18 wife of thy youth. A loving hind and a pleasant roe; let her 19 breasts satisfy thee at all times; and be thou ravished always with her love. And why wilt thou, my son, be ravished with 20 a strange woman, and embrace the bosom of an alien? For the 21 ways of man are before the eyes of the LORD, and he ponders all his goings. His own iniquities shall trap the wicked man, 22 and he shall be caught fast in the cords of his sins. He shall die 23 for want of instruction; and in the greatness of his folly he shall go astray. My son, if thou be surety for thy friend, if 6 thou hast struck thy palms for a stranger, if thou art snared 2 with the words of thy mouth, caught with the sayings of thy mouth: do this now, my son, and deliver thyself, when thou 3 art come into the hand of thy neighbour; go, abase thyself, and importune thy neighbour. Give no sleep to thy eyes, nor slum- 4 ber to thy eyelids. Deliver thyself like a gazelle from the hand 5 of the hunter, and like a bird from the hand of the fowler.
Go to the ant, thou sluggard; consider her ways, and be wise: 6 which having no guide, overseer, or ruler; provides her bread 7,8 in the summer, and gathers her food in the harvest. How long 9 wilt thou sleep, O sluggard? when wilt thou arise out of thy sleep? A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the 10 hands to sleep: so shall thy poverty come like a marauder, 11 and thy want like an armed man.
A base person, a wicked man, is one that walks with a crooked 12 mouth, that winks with his eyes, that taps with his feet, that 13 points with his fingers; perverseness is in his heart; he devises 14 mischief continually; he sows discord. Therefore shall his 15 calamity come suddenly; suddenly shall he be broken without remedy.
There are six things which the LORD hates, and seven which 16 are an abomination to him: a proud look, a lying tongue, and 17 hands that shed innocent blood, a heart that devises wicked 18 thoughts, feet that are swift in running to mischief, a false witness that breathes out lies, and one that sows discord among brethren. 19

My son, keep thy father's commandment, and forsake not the Tora of thy mother: bind them continually upon thy heart, and tie them about thy neck. When thou walkest, it shall lead thee; when thou liest down, it shall keep thee; and when thou awakest, it shall talk with thee. For the commandment is a lamp; and Tora is light; and reproofs of instruction are the way of life: to keep thee from the evil woman, from the smoothness of the tongue of an alien. Lust not after her beauty in thy heart; nor let her take thee with her eyelids. For by means of a harlot a man is brought to a piece of bread: and the adulteress will hunt for the precious life. Can a man take fire in his bosom, and his clothes not be burned? Can one walk upon hot coals, and his feet not be scorched? So he that goes in to his neighbour's wife; whoever touches her shall not go unpunished. Do not men despise a thief, even if he steals to satisfy his soul when he is hungry? And if he be found, he shall restore sevenfold; he shall give all the substance of his house. He who commits adultery with a woman lacks understanding: he who does that destroys his soul. A wound and dishonour shall he get; and his reproach shall not be wiped away. For jealousy is the rage of a man: and he will not spare in the day of vengeance. He will not regard any ransom; nor will he rest content, though thou givest many gifts.

My son, keep my words, and lay up my commandments with thee. Keep my commandments, and live; and my Tora as the apple of thy eye. Bind them upon thy fingers, write them upon the table of thy heart. Say to wisdom, Thou art my sister; and call understanding thy kinswoman: that they may keep thee from the strange woman, from the alien woman who makes smooth her words. For at the window of my house I looked out through my lattice, and beheld among the simple ones, I discerned among the youths, a young man void of understanding, passing through the street near her corner; and he went the way to her house, in the twilight, in the evening, in the blackness of a dark night: and, behold, there met him a woman with the attire of a harlot, and wily of heart. (She is noisy and ungovernable: her feet do not remain in her house: now is she outside, now in the streets, and she lies in wait at every corner.) So she caught hold of him, and kissed him, and with an impudent face said to him, I have had to sacrifice peace offerings; this day have I paid my vows. So I came out to meet thee, diligently to seek thy face, and I have found thee. I have decked my bed with coverings, with tapestry of Mizrian yarn. I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon. Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning: let us delight ourselves with loves. For my husband is not at home, he is gone a long journey: he has taken a bag of money with him, and will come home at the full moon. With her much fair speech she causes him to yield, with the smoothness of her lips she seduces him. He goes after her at once, as an ox goes to the slaughter, and as a man in chains to the chastisement of a fool; till a dart strike through his liver; as a bird hastens to 23 the snare, and knows not that it is for his life.

Hearken to me now therefore, O you children, and attend to 24 the words of my mouth. Let not thy heart decline to her ways, 25 do not go astray in her paths. For she has cast down many 26 wounded: and many strong men have been slain by her. Her 27 house is the way to She'ol, going down to the chambers of death. Does not wisdom call? and understanding put forth her 8 voice? She stands at the top of high places by the way, where 2 the paths meet. She cries out at the gates, at the entry of the 3 city, at the coming in of the doors. To you, O men, I call; and 4 my voice is to the sons of man. O you simple, understand 5 prudence: and, you fools, be of an understanding heart. Hear; 6 for I will speak excellent things; and the opening of my lips shall be rectitude. For my mouth shall speak truth; and wick- 7 edness is an abomination to my lips. All the words of my mouth 8 are in righteousness; there is nothing crooked or perverse in them. They are all plain to him that understands, and right 9 to those who find knowledge. Receive my instruction, and not 10 silver; and knowledge rather than choice gold. For wisdom is 11 better than rubies; and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it. I, wisdom, dwell with prudence, and 12 find knowledge and discretion. The fear of the LORD is to hate 13 evil: pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and the sly mouth I hate. Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom: I am understand- 14 ing; I have strength. By me kings reign, and princes decree 15 justice. By me princes rule, and nobles, even all the judges of 16 the earth. I love those who love me; and those who seek me 17 early shall find me. Riches and honour are with me; yea, dur- 18 able riches and righteousness. My fruit is better than gold, 19 yea, than fine gold; and my produce than choice silver. I walk 20 in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of justice: That I may cause those who love me to inherit sub- 21 stance; and I will fill their treasures.
The LORD created me as the beginning of his way, the first of 22 his works of old. I was set up from everlasting, from the begin- 23 ning, before ever the earth was. When there were no depths, 24 I was brought forth; when there were no fountains abounding with water. Before the mountains were settled, before the 25 hills was I brought forth: while as yet he had not made the 26 earth, or the fields, or the highest part of the dust of the world.
When he established the heavens, I was there: when he drew 27 a circle over the surface of the deep: when he established the 28 clouds above: when the fountains of the deep became strong:
when he gave to the sea its decree, that the waters should not 29 pass his commandment: when he appointed the foundations of the earth: then I was by him, as a nurseling: and I was 30 daily his delight, playing always before him; playing with the 31 universe, his earth; and my delights were with the sons of men.
Now therefore hearken to me, O you children: for happy are 32 they who keep my ways. Hear instruction, and be wise, and 33 refuse it not. Happy is the man who hearkens to me, watch- 34

ing daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors. For 35 whoever finds me finds life, and obtains favour of the LORD.
But he who sins against me wrongs his own soul: all they who 36 hate me love death.
Wisdom has built her house, she has hewn out her seven pil- 9 lars: she has killed her beasts; she has mingled her wine; she 2 has also furnished her table. She has sent forth her maidens: 3 she calls upon the highest places of the city, Whoever is simple, 4 let him turn in here: as for him that lacks understanding, she says to him, Come, eat of my bread, and drink of the wine 5 which I have mingled. Forsake foolishness, and live; and go in 6 the way of understanding. He who corrects a scorner brings 7 shame on himself: and he who rebukes a wicked man brings on himself his blemish. Do not reprove a scorner, lest he hate 8 thee: rebuke a wise man, and he will love thee. Give instruc- 9 tion to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser: teach a just man, and he will increase in learning. The fear of the LORD is the 10 beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of holy matters is understanding. For by me thy days shall be multiplied, and the 11 years of thy life shall be increased. If thou art wise, thou art 12 wise for thyself: and if thou scornest, thou alone shalt bear it.
The woman Folly is clamorous: she is simple, and knows 13 nothing. For she sits at the door of her house, on a seat in the 14 high places of the city. Calling out to passers by who are going 15 straight on their ways: Whoever is simple, let him turn in 16 here: and as for him that lacks understanding, she says to him, Stolen waters are sweet, and bread eaten in secret is pleasant. 17
But he knows not that the dead are there; and that her guests 18 are in the depths of She'ol.
The proverbs of Shelomo. A wise son makes a glad father: 10 but a foolish son is the grief of his mother. Treasures of wick- 2 edness profit nothing: but righteousness delivers from death.
The LORD will not suffer the soul of the righteous to famish: 3 but he thrusts away the desire of the wicked. A slack hand 4 causes poverty: but the hand of the diligent makes rich. He 5 that gathers in summer is a wise son: but a son that sleeps in harvest brings shame. Blessings are upon the head of the 6 just: but violence covers the mouth of the wicked. The me- 7 mory of the just is blessed: but the name of the wicked shall rot. The wise in heart will receive commandments: but a prat- 8 ing fool shall be punished. He that walks uprightly walks 9 surely: but he that perverts his ways shall be found out. He 10 that winks with the eye causes sorrow: and a prating fool shall fall. The mouth of a righteous man is a fountain of life: but 11 violence covers the mouth of the wicked. Hatred stirs up strifes: 12 but love covers all sins. In the lips of him that has understand- 13 ing wisdom is found: but a rod is for the back of him that is void of understanding. Wise men lay up knowledge: but the 14 mouth of the fool brings ruin near. The rich man's wealth is 15 his strong city: the ruin of the poor is their poverty. The wage 16 of the righteous brings life: the gain of the wicked leads to sin. He that keeps instruction is in the way of life: but he that 17 refuses reproof leads astray. He who hides hatred uses lying 18 lips, and he that utters a slander, is a fool. In the multitude of 19 words sin is not lacking: but he who restrains his lips is wise.

The tongue of the just is like choice silver: the heart of the 20 wicked is little worth. The lips of the righteous feed many: 21 but fools die for want of wisdom. The blessing of the LORD, 22 it makes rich, and he adds no sorrow with it. It is as sport to 23 a fool to do mischief: and likewise is it to a man of understanding to practiso wisdom. What the wicked dreads shall 24 come upon him: but the desire of the righteous shall be granted. When the storm wind passes, the wicked is no more: 25 but the righteous is an everlasting foundation. As vinegar to 26 the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes, so is the sluggard to those who send him. The fear of the LORD prolongs days: but the 27 years of the wicked shall be shortened. The hope of the 28 righteous is gladness: but the expectation of the wicked shall perish. The way of the LORD is a stronghold to the upright, 29 but destruction to the workers of iniquity. The righteous shall 30 never be removed: but the wicked shall not inhabit the earth.
The mouth of the just brings forth wisdom: but the perverse 31 tongue shall be cut off. The lips of the righteous know what 32 is acceptable: but the mouth of the wicked is crookedness. A 11 false balance is abomination to the LORD: but a just weight is his delight. When pride comes, then comes shame: but with 2 the lowly is wisdom. The integrity of the upright shall guide 3 them: but the perverseness of the faithless shall destroy them.
Riches profit not in the day of wrath: but righteousness de- 4 livers from death. The righteousness of the innocent shall direct 5 his way: but the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness. The 6 righteousness of the upright shall deliver them: but the faithless shall be caught in their own malice. When a wicked man 7 dies, his expectation shall perish: and the hope of unjust men perishes. The righteous is delivered out of trouble, and the 8 wicked comes in his stead. A hypocrite destroys his neigh- 9 bour with his mouth: but the just shall be delivered through knowledge. When it goes well with the righteous, the city re- 10 joices: but when the wicked perish, there is jubilation. By the 11 blessing of the upright a city is exalted: but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked. He that is void of wisdom despises 12 his neighbour: but a man of understanding holds his peace.
A talebearer reveals secrets: but he that is of a faithful spirit 13 conceals the matter. Where there is no counsel, a people falls: 14 but in the multitude of counsellors there is safety. He that is 15 surety for a stranger shall smart for it: but he that hates suretyship is safe. A woman of charm obtains honour: and 16 powerful men obtain wealth. The merciful man does good to 17 his own soul: but he that is cruel troubles his own flesh. The 18 wicked man earns wages of deceit: but he that sows righteousness has a sure reward. He that is firm in righteousness achieves 19 life; but he that pursues evil comes to his own death. They 20 that are of a crooked heart are an abomination to the LORD:
but such as are upright in their way are his delight. They who 21 join hands for wicked ends shall not go unpunished: but the seed of the righteous shall be delivered. Like a jewel of gold in 22 a swine's snout, so is a fair woman without discretion. The 23 desire of the righteous is only good: but the expectation of the wicked is wrath. There is one who gives freely, and yet 24 increases, another spares unjustly, but comes to want. The libe- 25 ral soul shall be made rich: and he who waters shall be nourished also himself. He who holds back corn, the people shall curse 26 him: but blessing shall be upon the head of him who sells freely. He who diligently seeks good procures favour: but he 27 who seeks mischief, it shall come to him. He who trusts in his 28 riches shall fall: but the righteous shall flourish like foliage.

He who troubles his own house shall inherit wind: and the fool 29 shall be servant to the wise of heart. The fruit of the righteous 30 is a tree of life; and he that wins souls is wise. Behold, the 31 just man shall be recompensed on earth: how much more the wicked and the sinner! Whoever loves knowledge loves disci- 12 pline: but he who hates reproof is stupid. A good man obtains 2 favour of the LORD: but a man of wicked devices will he condemn. A man shall not be established by wickedness: but the 3 root of the righteous shall not be moved. A virtuous woman is 4 a crown to her husband: but she that acts shamefully is as rottenness in his bones. The thoughts of the righteous are 5 right: but the counsels of the wicked are deceit. The words 6 of the wicked are to lie in wait for blood: but the mouth of the upright shall deliver them. The wicked are overthrown, and 7 are no more: but the house of the righteous shall stand. A 8 man shall be commended according to his intelligence: but he that is of perverse mind shall be despised. Better is one lightly 9 esteemed who owns a servant, than one who pranks himself but lacks bread. A righteous man regards the life of his beast: 10 but the heart of the wicked is cruel. He that tills his land shall 11 have plenty of bread: but he that follows vain persons is void of understanding. The wicked man craves — he is snared by 12 mischief: but the righteous strike root. The wicked is snared 13 by the transgression of his lips: but the just shall come out of trouble. A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his 14 mouth: and the recompense of a man's hands shall be rendered to him. The way of a fool is right in his own eyes: but he that 15 hearkens unto counsel is wise. A fool's wrath is presently 16 known: but a prudent man conceals disgrace. He who utters 17 truth gives just evidence: but a false witness utters deceit.
There is one who speaks like the piercings of a sword: but 18 the tongue of the wise is health. The lip of truth shall be estab- 19 lished for ever: but a lying tongue is but for a moment. Deceit 20 is in the heart of those who imagine evil: but the counsellors of peace have joy. No evil shall happen to the just: but the 21 wicked are filled with mischief. Lying lips are abomination to 22 the LORD: but they who deal truly are his delight. A prudent 23 man conceals knowledge: but the heart of fools proclaims his foolishness. The hand of the diligent shall bear rule: but the 24 slothful shall be under tribute. Anxiety in a man's heart de- 25 jects it: but a good word gladdens it. The righteous guides 26 his neighbour aright: but the way of the wicked leads them astray. The slothful man does not roast his catch: but the 27 industrious man arrives at precious wealth. In the way of 28 righteousness is life; and in its path there is no death.

A wise son hears his father's instruction: but a scorner does 13 not accept rebuke. A man shall eat good from the fruit of his 2 mouth: but the desire of the faithless is for violence. He who 3 guards his mouth keeps his life: but he who opens wide his lips shall have destruction. The soul of the sluggard desires, and 4 has nothing: but the soul of the diligent shall be richly supplied. A righteous man hates lying: but a wicked man is vile, 5 and comes to shame. Righteousness keeps him that is upright 6 in the way: but wickedness overthrows the sinner. There is 7 one who pretends to be rich, yet has nothing: there is another who pretends to be poor, yet has great riches. The ransom of 8 a man's life are his riches: but the poor hears no threat. The 9 light of the righteous rejoices: but the lamp of the wicked shall be put out. Only by pride comes contention: but with the well 10 advised is wisdom. Wealth gotten by vanity shall be diminis- 11 hed: but he that gathers by labour shall increase. Hope deferred 12 makes the heart sick: but desire fulfilled is a tree of life. He 13 who despises the word shall be punished; but he who fears the commandment shall be rewarded. The Tora of the wise is a 14 fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death. Good 15 understanding gives grace: but the way of the faithless is rough.
In everything a prudent man acts with knowledge: but a fool 16 lays bare his folly. A wicked messenger falls into mischief: 17 but a faithful ambassador is health. Poverty and shame come 18 to him who refuses instruction: but he who heeds reproof shall be honoured. A desire subdued is sweet to the soul: but it is 19 abomination to fools to depart from evil. He that walks with 20 wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall suffer harm. Evil pursues sinners: but to the righteous good shall be 21 repaid. A good man leaves an inheritance to his children's child- 22 ren: but the wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just. Much 23 food is in the well tilled acre of the poor: but sometimes ruin comes for want of judgment. He that spares his rod hates his 24 son: but he that loves him chastises him early. The righteous 25 eats to satisfy his soul: but the belly of the wicked shall feel want. The wisdom of women builds her house: but Folly plucks 14 it down with her hands. He who walks in his uprightness fears 2 the LORD: but he who is perverse in his ways despises him. In 3 the mouth of the foolish is a rod of pride: but the lips of the wise shall preserve them. Where no oxen are, the crib is clean: 4 but much increase comes by the strength of the ox. A trusty 5 witness is he that does not lie: but he that utters lies is a false witness. A scorner seeks wisdom, and does not find it: but 6 knowledge is easy to him who understands. Go from the pre- 7 sence of a foolish man, for thou perceivest not in him the lips of knowledge. The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his 8 way: but the folly of fools is deceit. Guilt mocks fools: but 9 the favour of GOD is among the upright. The heart knows its 10 own bitterness; and no stranger shares its joy. The house of 11 the wicked shall be overthrown: but the tent of the upright shall flourish. There is a way which seems right to a man, but at 12 its end are the ways of death. Even in laughter the heart aches: 13 and the end of that mirth is grief. The dissembler shall have 14 enough of his own ways; but a good man shall find satisfaction in himself. The simple man believes everything: but the 15 prudent man looks well to his step. A wise man fears, and de- 16 parts from evil: but the fool rages, and is confident. He that is 17 soon angry acts foolishly: but a man of wicked devices is hated. The simple inherit folly: but the prudent are crowned 18 with knowledge. The evil bow before the good; and the wicked 19 at the gates of the righteous. The poor man is hated even by 20 his own neighbour: but the rich has many friends. He that 21 despises his neighbour sins: but he that is kind to the poor, happy is he. Do not they who devise evil go astray? and do not 22 they who devise good enjoy loyalty and truth? In all labour 23 there is profit: but the talk of the lips tends only to penury.

The crown of the wise is their riches: but the foolishness of 24 fools is folly. A true witness saves lives: but a deceitful witness 25 utters lies. In the fear of the LORD a man has strong confi- 26 dence: and his children shall have a place of refuge. The fear 27 of the LORD is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death. In the multitude of people is the king's glory: but in the 28 lack of people is the downfall of the prince. He that is slow to 29 anger is of great understanding: but he that is hasty of spirit exalts folly. A sound heart is the life of the flesh: but envy is 30 the rottenness of the bones. He that oppresses the poor blas- 31 phemes his maker: but he that honours him is gracious to the poor. The wicked is thrust down in his calamity: but the 32 righteous has hope in his death. Wisdom rests quietly in the 33 heart of the judicious: but the folly in the breast of fools shall easily be known. Righteousness exalts a nation: but sin is a 34 reproach to any people. The king's favour is turned towards 35 a wise servant: but his anger falls on one who acts shamefully.
A soft answer turns away wrath: but grievous words stir up 15 anger. The tongue of the wise uses knowledge aright: but the 2 mouth of fools pours out foolishness. The eyes of the LORD are 3 in every place, watching the evil and the good. A wholesome 4 tongue is a tree of life: but perverseness therein is a wound to the spirit. A fool despises his father's correction: but he that 5 regards reproof is prudent. In the house of the righteous is 6 much treasure: but in the revenues of the wicked is trouble.
The lips of the wise disperse knowledge: but the heart of the 7 foolish is vanity. The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomina- 8 tion to the LORD: but the prayer of the upright is his delight.
The way of the wicked is an abominaion unto the LORD: but 9 he who follows after righteousness loves him. There is a severe 10 correction for him who forsakes the way: he who hates reproof shall die. She'ol and destruction are before the LORD: 11 how much more then the hearts of the children of men? A 12 scorner does not like to be reproved; nor will he go to the wise. A merry heart makes a cheerful countenance: but by 13 sorrow of the heart the spirit is broken. The heart of the judi- 14 cious seeks knowledge: but the mouth of fools feeds on foolishness. All the days of the poor are evil: but he that is of a 15 merry heart has a continual feast. Better is little with the fear 16 of the LORD, than great treasure and trouble with it. Better is 17 a dinner of herbs where love is, than a fatted ox and hatred with it. A wrathful man stirs up strife: but he that is slow to 18 anger appeases strife. The way of a sluggard is as hedged in 19 with thorns: but the path of the righteous is level.

A wise son makes a glad father: but a foolish man despises 20 his mother. Folly is joy to him who is destitute of wisdom: 21 but a man of understanding walks straight forward. Without 22 counsel purposes are frustrated: but in the multitude of counsellors they are established. A man has joy in the answer of 23 his mouth: and a word in due season, how good it is! The way 24 of life for the wise leads upward, that he may depart from She'ol beneath. The LORD will pluck up the house of the proud: but 25 he will establish the border of the widow. The thoughts of the 26 wicked are an abomination to the LORD: but pleasant words are pure. He that is greedy of gain troubles his own house; 27 but he that hates gifts shall live. The heart of the righteous 28 ponders how to answer: but the mouth of the wicked pours out evil things. The LORD is far from the wicked: but he hears 29 the prayer of the righteous. The light of the eyes rejoices the 30 heart: and a good report makes the bones fat. The ear that 31 listens to the reproof of life abides among the wise. He that 32 refuses correction despises his own soul: but he that listens to reproof gets understanding. The fear of the LORD is instruc- 33 tion in wisdom; and humility goes before honour. The thoughts 16 of the heart are man's, but from the LORD comes the utterance of the tongue. All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes; 2 but the LORD weighs the spirits. Commit thy works to the LORD, 3 and thy plans shall be established. The LORD has made every 4 thing for his own purpose: yea, even the wicked for the day of evil. Everyone that is proud in heart is an abomination to the 5 LORD: those who join hands in an evil cause shall not go unpunished. By loyalty and truth iniquity is purged: and by the 6 fear of the LORD men depart from evil. When a man's ways 7 please the LORD, he makes even his enemies to be at peace with him. Better is a little with righteousness than great reve- 8 nues without right. A man's heart devises his way: but the 9 LORD directs his steps. A divine sentence is in the lips of the 10 king: his mouth does not transgress in judgment. A just weight 11 and balance are the LORD'S: all the weights in the bag are his work. It is an abomination to kings to commit wickedness: 12 for a throne is established by righteousness. Righteous lips are 13 the delight of kings; and they love him who speaks what is right. The wrath of a king is as messengers of death: but a 14 wise man will pacify it. In the light of the king's countenance 15 is life; and his favour is as a cloud bringing the spring rain.
How much better is it to get wisdom than gold! and to get 16 understanding is preferable to silver! The highway of the 17 upright is to depart from evil: he that guards his path preserves his soul. Pride goes before destruction, and haughti- 18 ness of spirit before a fall. Better it is to be of a humble spirit 19 with the lowly, than to divide the spoil with the proud. He who 20 considers his words shall find good: and he who trusts in the 21 LORD shall be happy. The wise in heart shall be called prudent: 22 and the sweetness of the lips increases learning. Intelligence is a wellspring of life to him who has it: but folly is a chastise- 23 ment to fools. The heart of the wise teaches his mouth, and 24 adds learning to his lips. Pleasant words are like a honey- 25 comb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones. There is a way which seems right to a man, but its end are the ways of 26 death. The hunger of the labourer labours for him; for his 27 mouth presses upon him. An ungodly man digs up evil: and in 28 his lips there is a kind of burning fire. A perverse man sows 29 strife: and a whisperer separates close friends. A violent man entices his neighbour, and leads him into a way that is not 30 good: he winks his eyes to devise crooked things: pursing his 31 lips he brings evil to pass. The hoary head is a crown of glory; 32 it is found in the way of righteousness. He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that rules his spirit 33 than one who captures a city. The lot is cast into the lap; but the whole of its decision is from the LORD. Better is a dry morsel, 17 and quietness with it, than a house full of feasting with strife.

A wise servant shall control a son who acts shamefully, and 2 shall share the inheritance among the brethren. The refining 3 pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold: but the LORD tries the hearts. A wicked doer gives heed to false lips; and a liar 4 gives ear to a mischievous tongue. One who mocks the poor 5 insults his maker: and one who is glad at calamity shall not go unpunished. Children's children are the crown of old men; 6 and the glory of children are their fathers. Haughty speech 7 does not befit a churl: much less do lying lips a prince. A 8 bribe is a fair jewel to the eyes of him who dispenses it: wherever it turns it brings success. He that covers a transgres- 9 sion seeks love; but he that repeats a matter separates close friends. A reproof enters more into a wise man than a hundred 10 blows into a fool. An evil man seeks only to be insolent: but a 11 stern messenger shall be sent against him. Let a bear robbed of 12 her whelps meet a man, rather than a fool in his folly. Who- 13 ever rewards evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house.
The beginning of strife is like letting out water: therefore leave 14 off contention, before it breaks out. He who justifies the wick- 15 ed, and he who condemns the just, both of them are abomination to the LORD. Why is the purchase price of wisdom in 16 the hand of a fool, seeing he has no sense? A friend loves at 17 all times, and a brother is born for adversity. A man who strikes 18 the palm is void of understanding, in becoming surety in the presence of his friend. He loves transgression that loves strife: 19 and he that makes high his door seeks destruction. He that has a 20 crooked heart finds no good: and he that has a perverse tongue falls into mischief. He that begets a fool does it to his sorrow: 21 and the father of a churl has no joy. A merry heart is a good 22 medicine: but a broken spirit dries the bones. A wicked man 23 takes a bribe out of the bosom to pervert the ways of justice.
Wisdom is before him that has understanding; but the eyes 24 of a fool are in the ends of the earth. A foolish son is a grief 25 to his father, and bitterness to her that bore him. Neither is it 26 good to punish an innocent man, nor to give blows to noble men for their integrity. He that has knowledge spares his 27 words: and a man of understanding is slow to anger. Even a 28 fool, when he holds his peace, is counted wise: and he that shuts his lips is esteemed a man of understanding. He who 18 keeps himself apart seeks to satisfy his own vanity: he breaks out against all sound policy. A fool has no delight in under- 2 standing, but that his heart may lay itself bare. When the 3 wicked comes, then comes also contempt, and with ignominy reproach. The words of a man's mouth are like deep waters, a 4 flowing wadi, a fountain of wisdom. It is not good to favour 5 the person of the wicked, so as to turn aside justice from the righteous. A fool's lips enter into contention, and his mouth 6 calls for strokes. A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips 7 are the snare of his soul. The words of a talebearer are like 8 dainties, and they go down into the innermost parts of the body. He also that is slothful in his work is brother to him who 9 destroys. The name of the LORD is a strong tower: the righteous 10 runs into it, and is safe. The rich man's wealth is his strong 11 city, and as a high wall in his own conceit. Before destruction 12 the heart of man is haughty, but before honour goes humility.

He that answers a matter before he hears it, it is folly and 13 shame to him. The spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity; 14 but a wounded spirit who can bear? The heart of the prudent 15 acquires knowledge; and the ear of the wise seeks knowledge.
A man's gift makes room for him, and brings him before great 16 men. The one who pleads first seems to be in the right: then 17 his neighbour comes forward, and sifts his case. The lot causes 18 contentions to cease, and it decides between the mighty. A 19 brother offended is harder to be won than a strong city: and their contentions are like the bars of a castle. A man's belly 20 shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth; and with the increase of his lips shall he be filled. Death and life are in the 21 power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat its fruit.
He who finds a wife finds a good thing, and obtains favour of 22 the LORD. The poor uses entreaties; but the rich answers with 23 impudence. There are friends who merely pretend friendship: 24 and there is a true friend who is closer than a brother. Better 19 is the poor man who walks in his integrity, than he that is perverse in his lips, and is a fool. Also, that the soul be without 2 knowledge is not good; and he that hastens with his feet sins.
The foolishness of a man perverts his way: and his heart frets 3 against the LORD. Wealth makes many friends; but as for the 4 poor, his neighbour keeps himself apart. A false witness shall 5 not go unpunished, and he that utters lies shall not escape.
Many will entreat the favour of the generous man: and every 6 man is a friend to him that gives gifts. All the brethren of the 7 poor do hate him: how much more do his friends go far from him? Their word for him is, Pursuer. He that gets wisdom loves 8 his own soul: he that keeps understanding shall find good. A 9 false witness shall not go unpunished, and he that utters lies shall perish.

Luxury is not seemly for a fool; much less for a servant to 10 have rule over princes. The discretion of a man makes him 11 slow to anger; and it is his glory to pass over a transgression.
The king's wrath is like the roaring of a lion; and his favour 12 is like dew upon the grass. A foolish son is the calamity of 13 his father: and the contentions of a wife are a continual drip.
House and riches are the inheritance of fathers: but a prudent 14 wife is from the LORD. Slothfulness casts into a deep sleep; 15 and the idle soul shall suffer hunger. He that keeps the com- 16 mandment keeps his own soul; but he that despises his ways shall die. He that gives graciously to the poor makes a loan 17 to the LORD; and that which he has given he will pay him back.
Chastise thy son while there is hope, and let not thy soul 18 spare for his crying. A man of great anger shall suffer the 19 penalty; for if thou interpose, that shall only add to it. Hear 20 counsel, and receive instruction, that thou mayst be wise in thy latter end. There are many devices in a man's heart; but 21 the counsel of the LORD, that shall stand. The attraction of a 22 man is his kindness: but a poor man is better than a liar. The 23 fear of the LORD tends to life: and he that has it shall abide satisfied; he shall not be visited with evil. A lazy man hides 24 his hand in the dish, and will not so much as bring it back to his mouth. Smite a scorner, and the simple will beware: but 25 rebuke one that has understanding, and he will gain knowledge.
A son of scandalous and shameful ways shall ruin his father, 26 and drive his mother away. Cease, my son, to hear the instruc- 27 tion only to stray from the words of knowledge. An ungodly 28 witness scorns justice: and the mouth of the wicked devours iniquity. Judgments are prepared for scorners, and stripes for the back of fools. Wine is a mocker, strong drink is riotous. 20 and whoever is misled thereby is not wise. The terror of a king 2 is as the roaring of a lion: he who provokes him to anger forfeits his life. It is an honour for a man to cease from strife: 3 but every fool will burst out. The sluggard will not plough by 4 reason of the cold; therefore he shall beg in harvest, and have nothing. Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water; but a 5 man of understanding will draw it out. Most men will pro- 6 claim everyone his own goodness: but a faithful man who can find? The just man walks in his integrity: happy are his child- 7 ren after him. A king that sits on the throne of judgment 8 scatters away all evil with his eyes. Who can say, I have made 9 my heart clean, I am pure from my sin? Divers weights, and 10 divers measures, both of them are alike an abomination to the LORD. Even a child is known by his doings, whether his work 11 be pure, and whether it be right. The hearing ear, and the see- 12 ing eye: the LORD has made them both. Do not love sleep, lest 13 thou come to poverty; open thy eyes, and thou shalt be satisfied with bread. It is bad, it is bad, says the buyer: but when 14 he is gone his way, then he boasts. There is gold, and a multi- 15 tude of rubies: but the lips of knowledge are a precious jewel.
Take his garment when he has become surely for a stranger: 16 and take his pledge on behalf of an alien woman. Bread of 17 deceit is sweet to a man; but afterwards his mouth shall be filled with gravel. Every purpose is established by counsel: 18 and with good advice conduct war. He that goes about as a 19 talebearer reveals secrets: therefore meddle not with him who prates with his lips. He who curses his father or his mother, 20 his lamp shall be put out in utter darkness. An estate may be 21 gotten hastily at the beginning; but its end shall not be blessed.

Do not say, I will repay evil; but wait on the LORD, and he will 22 save thee. Divers weights are an abomination to the LORD; 23 and a false balance is not good. Man's goings are of the LORD; 24 how can a man then understand his own way? It is a snare 25 to a man rashly to declare, It is holy; and afterwards to probe his vows. A wise king scatters the wicked, and drives the wheel 26 over them. The spirit of man is the candle of the LORD, search- 27 ing all the inward parts of the belly. Love and truth preserve 28 the king: and his throne is upheld by loyalty. The glory of 29 young men is their strength: and the beauty of old men is the grey head. Bruises and wounds purge away evil: so do stripes 30 which reach the inward parts. Like water courses is the king's 21 heart in the hand of the LORD: he directs it wherever he wishes.
Every way of a man is right in his own eyes: but the LORD 2 weighs the heart. To do justice and judgment is more accept- 3 able to the LORD than sacrifice. A haughty look, and a proud 4 heart are the sinful growth of the wicked. The thoughts of the 5 diligent tend only to plenteousness; but everyone that is hasty comes to want. The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a 6 fleeting vapour: they lead to death. The robbery of the wicked 7 shall destroy them; because they refuse to do justice. The way 8 of some men is crooked and strange; but as for the pure, his work is right. It is better to dwell in a corner of the housetop, 9 than with a brawling woman in a roomy house. The soul of 10 the wicked desires evil: his neighbour finds no favour in his eyes. When the scorner is punished, the simple man is made 11 wise: and when the wise is instructed, he receives knowledge.
The righteous man who considers the house of the wicked, 12 leads the wicked astray to greater evil. Whoever stops his 13 ears at the cry of the poor, he also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard. A gift in secret pacifies anger: and a reward in 14 the bosom strong wrath. It is joy to the just to do judgment: 15 but it is the downfall of the workers of iniquity. The man that 16 wanders out of the way of understanding shall remain in the congregation of the shades. He that loves pleasure shall be a 17 poor man: he that loves wine and oil shall not be rich. The 18 wicked is a ransom for the righteous, and the transgressor for the upright. It is better to live in the wilderness, than with a 19 contentious and shrewish woman. Costly things and oil are 20 treasured up in the wise man's dwelling: but a fool devours them. He that follows righteousness and loyalty finds life, 21 righteousness, and honour. A wise man scales the city of the 22 mighty, and casts down the stronghold in which it trusts. He 23 who guards his mouth and his tongue keeps his soul from troubles. The proud and haughty one, scorner is his name, acts in 24 arrogant wrath. The desire of the lazy man kills him; for his 25 hands refuse to labour; he covets greedily all the day long: 26 but the righteous gives and spares not. The sacrifice of the 27 wicked is an abomination: how much more, when he brings it with evil intent? A false witness shall perish: but the word 28 of a man who truly attends shall endure. A wicked man hardens 29 his face: but as for the upright, he considers his way. There 30 is no wisdom or understanding or counsel against the LORD.

The horse is prepared for the day of battle: but safety comes 31 from the LORD. A good name is rather to be chosen than great 22 riches, and amiable grace rather than silver or gold. The rich 2 and poor meet together: the LORD is the maker of them all.
A prudent man foresees evil, and hides himself: but the simple 3 pass on, and are punished. The reward of humility and the fear 4 of the LORD are riches, and honour, and life. Thorns and snares 5 are in the way of the crooked man: he that guards his soul shall be far from them. Train up a child in the way he should 6 go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it. The rich 7 rules over the poor, and the borrower is servant to the lender.
He that sows iniquity shall reap vanity: and the rod of his 8 arrogance shall fail. He that has a generous eye shall be bles- 9 sed; for he gives of his bread to the poor. Cast out the scorner, 10 and contention will go out; yea, strife and disgrace will cease.
He that loves purseness of heart, and grace is on his lips, the 11 king shall be his friend. The eyes of the LORD preserve know- 12 ledge, and he overthrows the words of the transgressor. The 13 lazy man says, There is a lion outside, I shall be slain in the streets. The mouth of strange woman is a deep pit: he who in- 14 curs the LORD's indignation shall fall therein. Foolishness is bound 15 in the heart of a child; but the rod of correction shall drive it far from him. He that oppresses the poor may well bring him 16 gain, and he that gives to the rich, may nevertheless come to want. Incline thy ear, and hear the words of the wise, and apply 17 thy heart to my knowledge. For it is a pleasant thing if thou 18 keep them within thee; let them be firmly attached together to thy lips. That thy trust may be in the LORD, I have made 19 known to thee this day, even to thee. Have I not written to 20 thee excellent things in counsels and knowledge, that I might 21 make thee know the certainty of the words of truth; that thou mightest answer the words of truth to those who send thee?

Do not rob the poor, because he is poor: nor oppress the 22 afflicted in the gate: for the LORD will plead their cause, and rob 23 life those who rob them. Make no friendship with an angry 24 man; and with a furious man thou shalt not go: lest thou learn 25 his ways, and get a snare to thy soul. Be not thou one of those 26 who strike the palm, or of those who are sureties for debts.
If thou hast nothing with which to pay, why should he take 27 away thy bed from under thee? Remove not the ancient land- 28 mark, which thy fathers have set. Dost thou see a man diligent 29 in his business? he shall stand before kings; he shall not stand before obscure men. When thou sittest to eat with a ruler, 23 consider diligently what is before thee: and put a knife to thy 2 throat, if thou be a man given to appetite. Be not desirous of 3 his dainties: for they are deceitful food. Do not toil to be 4 rich: because thou hast understanding, forbear. Wilt thou set 5 thy eyes upon it? it is already gone: for riches suddenly make themselves wings; they fly away like an eagle towards the sky.

Do not eat the bread of him who has an evil eye, nor desire 6 his dainties. For as one that calculates in his heart, so is he: 7 Eat and drink, says he to thee; but his heart is not with thee.
The morsel which thou hast eaten shalt thou vomit up, and 8 lose thy sweet words. Do not speak in the ears of a fool: for 9 he will despise the wisdom of thy words. Do not remove the 10 old landmark; and do not enter the fields of the fatherless:
for their redeemer is mighty; he shall plead their cause with 11 thee. Apply thy heart to instruction, and thy ears to the words of 12 knowledge. Do not withhold correction from the child: for if 13 thou beatest him with the rod, he will not die. Thou shalt beat 14 him with the rod, and shalt deliver his soul from She'ol. My 15 son, if thy heart is wise, my heart too shall rejoice: and my 16 reins shall rejoice, when thy lips speak right things. Let not 17 thy heart envy sinners: but be in the fear of the LORD all the day long. For surely there is a future; and thy expectation shall 18 not be cut off. Hear, my son, and be wise, and guide thy heart 19 in the way. Be not among winebibbers; among gluttonous 20 eaters of meat: for the drunkard and the glutton shall come 21 to poverty: and drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags.
Hearken to thy father who begot thee, and despise not thy 22 mother when she is old. Buy the truth, and sell it not; also 23 wisdom, and instruction, and understanding. The father of the 24 righteous shall greatly rejoice: and he who begets a wise child shall have joy of him. Let thy father and thy mother be glad, 25 and let her who bore thee rejoice My son, give me thy heart, 26 and let thy eyes observe my ways. For a harlot is a deep ditch; 27 and an alien woman is a narrow pit. She also lies in wait like 28 a robber, and increases the transgressors among men. Who 29 cries, Woe? who cries, Alas? who has quarrels? who has complaints? who has causeless injuries? who has redness of eyes?
They who tarry long at the wine; they who go to seek mixed 30 wine. Look not upon the wine when it is red, when it sparkles 31 in the cup, when it goes down smoothly: at the last it bites 32 like a snake, and stings like a viper. Thy eyes shall behold 33 strange things, and thy heart shall utter perverse words. Yea, 34 thou shalt be like one who lies down in the midst of the sea, or like one who lies upon the top of a mast. They have struck 35 me, but I was not hurt; they have beaten me, and I felt it not: when shall I awake? I will seek it yet again. Be not envious 24 of evil men, nor desire to be with them. For their heart studies 2 destruction, and their lips talk of mischief. Through wisdom 3 a house is built; and by understanding it is established: and by 4 knowledge are the chambers filled with all precious and pleasant riches. A wise man is strong; and a man of knowledge 5 increases strength. For by wise counsel thou shalt make thy 6 war: and in multitude of counsellors there is victory. Wisdom 7 it too high for a fool: he does not open his mouth in the gate.
He who devises to do evil shall be called a mischievous person. 8
The devising of folly is sin: and the scorner is an abomination 9 to men. If thou faint in the day of adversity, thy strength is 10 small: if thou forbear to rescue those who are drawn to death, 11 and those who are ready to be slain; if thou sayst, Behold, 12 we knew it not, does not he who ponders the heart consider it? and he who keeps thy soul, does he not know it? and shall he not render to every man according to his works? My son, 13 eat honey, because it is good; and the honeycomb, which is sweet to thy taste: know that such is wisdom for thy soul! 14 when hast found it, then there shall be a reward, and thy expectation shall not be cut off. Do not lie in wait, O wicked 15 man, against the dwelling of the righteous; do not plunder his resting place: for a just man falls seven times, and yet 16 rises up again: but the wicked stumble into mischief. Do not 17 rejoice when thy enemy falls, and do not let thy heart be glad when he stumbles: lest the LORD see it, and it displease him, 18 and he turn away his wrath from him.

Fret not thyself because of evil men, nor be envious at the 19 wicked; for there shall be no reward to the evil man; the 20 candle of the wicked shall be put out. My son, fear thou the 21 LORD and the king: and do not meddle with them who are given to change: for their calamity shall rise suddenly; and 22 who knows the ruin of them both?
These words also belong to the wise. It is not good to have 23 respect of persons in judgment. He who says to the wicked, 24 Thou art in the right; him shall the people curse, nations shall abhor him: but those who rebuke the wicked shall have delight, 25 and a good blessing shall come upon them. Like a kiss on the 26 lips, it is when one gives a right answer. Prepare thy work 27 outside, and make it fit for thyself in the field; and afterwards build thy house.
Be not a witness against thy neighbour without cause; and 28 deceive not with thy lips. Do not say, I will do so to him as he 29 has done to me: I will render to the man according to his deeds.
I went by the field of a lazy man, and by the vineyard of a 30 man void of understanding; and, lo, it was all grown over with 31 thorns, and nettles had covered it over, and its stone wall was broken down. Then I saw, and considered it well: I looked upon 32 it, and received instruction. A little sleep, a little slumber, a 33 little folding of the hands to sleep — so shall thy poverty come 34 like a marauder; and thy want like an armed man.
These also are proverbs of Shelomo, which the men of Ḥiz- 25 qiyya, king of Yehuda copied out. It is the glory of GOD to 2 conceal a thing: but the honour of kings is to search out a matter. The heaven for height, and the earth for depth, and the 3 heart of kings is unsearchable. Take away the dross from the 4 silver, and a vessel emerges for the refiner. Take away the 5 wicked from before the king, and his throne shall be established in righteousness. Do not give thyself airs in the presence of 6 the king, and stand not in the place of great men: for better 7 it is that it be said to thee, Come up here; than that thou shouldst be put lower in the presence of the prince whom thy eyes have seen. Do not proceed hastily to litigation, lest thou 8 know not what to do in the end of it, when thy neighbour has put thee to shame. Debate thy cause with thy neighbour. and 9 do not reveal the secret of another: lest he who hears thee be- 10 tray thee ; and lest thy calumny be carried back. A word fitly 11 spoken is like apples of gold in ornaments of silver. Like an ear- 12 ring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold, so is a wise re-prover upon an obedient ear.

Like the cold snow in the time of harvest, so is a faithful 13 messenger to those who send him: for he refreshes the soul of his master.
One who boasts of gifts that he does not give is like clouds 14 and wind without rain. By long forbearing is a ruler won over, 15 and a soft tongue breaks the bone. Hast thou found honey? 16 eat as much as is sufficient for thee, lest thou be sated with it, and vomit it up. Let thy foot be seldom in thy neighbour's 17 house ; lest he be weary of thee, and hate thee. A man who 18 bears false witness against his neighbour is like a maul, and a sword, and a sharp arrow. Confidence in an unfaithful man 19 in time of trouble is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint. Like one who takes off a garment in cold weather, and 20 like acid upon nitre, is he who sings songs to a heavy heart.
If thy enemy be hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he be 21 thirsty, give him water to drink : for thou shalt heap coals 22 of fire upon his head, and the LORD shall reward thee. The north 23 wind brings in the rain: so does an angry countenance, a back biting tongue. It is better to dwell in the corner of the house- 24 top, than with a brawling woman and in a roomy house.
As cold water to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far 25 country. A righteous man falling down before the wicked is 26 like a muddied fountain, and a polluted spring. It is not good to 27 eat much honey: so it is honour to set bounds to honour.
He that has no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is 28 broken down, and without walls. As snow in summer, and as 26 rain in harvest, so honour is not seemly for a fool. Like a 2 wandering sparrow, like a flying swallow, so a curse that is causeless comes home to roost. A whip for the horse, a bridle 3 for the ass, and a rod for the fool's back. Do not answer a fool 4 according to his folly, lest thou become like him thyself. Answer 5 a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own conceit.
He that sends a message by the hand of a fool cuts off his own 6 feet, and drinks in damage. Like the legs of a lame man which 7 hang useless, so is a parable in the mouth of fools. As one who 8 binds a stone in a sling, so is he that gives honour to a fool.
Like a thorn that goes up into the hand of a drunkard, so is 9 a parable in the mouth of fools. A master craftsman 10 performs everything; but he who hires a fool is as he who hires the passers by. As a dog returns to his vomit, so a fool returns 11 to his folly. Seest thou a man wise in his own eyes? there is 12 more hope of a fool than of him. The lazy man says, There is 13 a lion in the way; a lion is in the streets. As the doors turns 14 on its hinges, so does the slothful upon his bed. The sluggard 15 buries his hand in the dish; it grieves him to bring it back to his mouth. The sluggard is wiser in his own eyes than seven 16 men that can give sensible reasons. He who passes by, and 17 meddles with a strife not his own, is like one who takes a dog 18 by the ears. As a madman who throws firebrands, arrows, and 19 death, so is a man who tricks his neighbour, and says, But 20

I was only joking! Where no wood is, there the fire goes out: 21 so where there is no talebearer, strife ceases. As coals are to burning coals, and wood to fire; so is a contentious man to kindle strife. 22
The words of a talebearer are like dainties, and they go down 23 into the innermost parts of the body. Burning lips and a wicked heart are like an earthenware dish covered with silver dross. 24
He who hates dissembles with his lips, and lays up deceit within 25 him; when he speaks fair, do not believe him: for there are 26 seven abominations in his heart. He whose hatred is covered by deceit, his wickedness shall be revealed before the whole 27 congregation. The one who digs a pit shall fall into it: and 28 if one rolls a stone, it will return upon him. A lying tongue 27 hates its victims; and a flattering mouth works ruin. Do not boast thyself of tomorrow; for thou knowst not what today 2 may bring forth. Let another man praise thee, and not thy own 3 mouth; a stranger, and not thy own lips. A stone is heavy, and the sand weighty; but a fool's wrath is heavier than both of 4 them. Wrath is cruel, and anger is overwhelming; but who is 5 able to stand before envy? Open rebuke is better than hidden 6 love. Faithful are the wounds of a friend; but the kisses of an 7 enemy are profuse. The full soul loathes a honeycomb; but 8 to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet. As a bird that wanders from her nest, so is a man who wanders from his 9 place. Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart: so does the 10 sweetness of a man's friend by hearty counsel. Do not forsake thy own friend, and thy father's friend; nor go into thy brother's house in the day of thy calamity: for better is a 11 neighbour that is near than a brother far off. My son, be wise, and make my heart glad, that I may answer him who taunts 12 me. A prudent man sees the evil, and hides himself; but simple- 13 tons pass on, and are punished. Take his garment when he is surety for a stranger, and take his pledge on behalf of an 14 alien woman. He that blesses his friend with a loud voice, rising early in the morning, it shall be counted a curse to him. 15 A continual dripping on a very rainy day and a contentious 16 woman are alike. Whoever would hide her hides the wind, like 17 the ointment of his right hand, which betrays itself. Iron 18 sharpens iron; so one man sharpens another. He who guards the fig tree shall eat its fruit: so he who waits on his master 19 shall be honoured. As in water face answers to face, so the 20 heart of man to man. She'ol and Avaddon are never full; so the eyes of man are never satisfied. 21
The refining pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold; and a 22 man is tried according to his praise. Though thou shouldst grind a fool in a mortar among crushed grain with a pestle, yet will his foolishness not depart from him. 23
Be diligent to know the state of thy flocks, and look well to thy 24 herds. For riches are not forever: and does the crown endure 25 to all generations? When the grass sprouts forth, and the young grass appears, and the herbs on the mountains are gathered in; lambs shall provide thy clothing, and goats the price of a 26 field: and thou shalt have goats' milk enough for thy food, for 27 the food of thy household, and for the maintenance of thy maidens. The wicked flee when no man pursues: but the 28 righteous are bold as a lion. When the land is sinful, its princes 2 are numerous: but when there is a judicious man, knowing what is right, he shall endure. A poor man that oppresses the 3 weak is like a sweeping rain which leaves no food. They who 4 forsake Tora praise the wicked: but such as keep Tora contend with them. Evil men understand not justice: but they who seek 5 the LORD understand all things.

Better is the poor who walks in his uprightness, than he who 6 deals perversely in his ways, though he be rich. A wise son 7 keeps Tora, but he that is a companion of riotous men shames his father. He who by usury and unjust gain increases his 8 substance, gathers it for him who will graciously regard the poor. He who turns away his ear from hearing Tora, even his 9 prayer is abomination. He who causes the righteous to go 10 astray in an evil way, he shall fall himself into his own pit: but the innocent shall inherit good. The rich man is wise in 11 his own conceit; but the poor that has understanding searches him out. When righteous men rejoice, there is great glory: 12 but when the wicked rise, men hide themselves. He that covers 13 up his sins shall not prosper: but whoever confesses and forsakes them shall have mercy. Happy is the man who fears 14 always: but he who hardens his heart shall fall into mischief.
As a roaring lion, and a hungry bear; so is a wicked ruler over 15 the poor people.
The prince who lacks understanding is also a great oppressor: 16 but the one who hates covetousness shall prolong his days.
A man that is burdened with the blood of any person shall 17 flee to the pit; let none support him. He who walks uprightly 18 shall be saved: but he who takes crooked paths shall fall suddenly. He who tills his land shall have plenty of bread: but 19 he who follows after vain persons shall have poverty enough.
A faithful man shall abound with blessings: but he who makes 20 haste to be rich shall not go unpunished. To have respect of 21 persons is not good: for a man will transgress for a piece of bread. The man of evil eye is eager for wealth: he does not 22 know that want will come upon him. He who rebukes a man 23 shall find more favour afterwards than he who flatters with the tongue. He who robs his father or his mother, and says, 24
It is no transgression; he is companion of a destroyer. He that 25 is of a greedy heart stirs up strife: but he that puts his trust in the LORD shall be made rich. He who trusts in his own heart 26 is a fool: but he who walks wisely, shall escape. He who gives 27 to the poor shall not lack: but he who hides his eyes shall have many a curse. When the wicked rise, men hide themselves: 28 but when they perish, the righteous increase. He, that being 29 often reproved hardens his neck, shall suddenly be broken, beyond healing. When the righteous are on the increase, the 2 people rejoice: but when the wicked man bears rule, the people mourn. He who loves wisdom gladdens his father: but he who 3 keeps company with harlots wastes his substance. The king 4 by justice establishes the land: but he who exacts gifts overthrows it. A man who flatters his neighbour spreads a net for 5 his feet. In the transgression of an evil man there is a snare: 6 but the righteous man sings and rejoices. The righteous 7 man apprehends the cause of the poor: but the wicked man cannot grasp that knowledge. Scornful men stir up a city into 8 strife: but wise men turn away wrath. If a wise man contends 9 with a foolish man, whether he rage or laugh, there is no rest.

The bloodthirsty hate the innocent : but the just seek his good. 10
A fool vents all his anger: but a wise man keeping it in sub- 11 dues it. If a ruler hearken to lies, all his servants are wicked. 12
The poor and the deceitful man meet together: the LORD gives 13 light to the eyes of both. The king who faithfully judges the 14 poor, his throne shall be established for ever. The rod and 15 reproof give wisdom : but a child left to himself brings shame to his mother. When the wicked are multiplied, transgression 16 increases: both the righteous shall witness their fall. Correct 17 thy son, and he will give thee rest; and he will give delight to thy soul.
Where there is no vision, the people become unruly: but happy 18 is he who keeps Tora. A servant will not be corrected by 19 words: for though he understands he will not answer. Seest 20 thou a man that is hasty in his words? there is more hope for a fool than for him. He who pampers his servant from a child 21 shall have him become his master at last. An angry man stirs 22 up strife, and a furious man abounds in transgression. A man's 23 pride shall bring him low: but the humble in spirit shall attain honour. Whoever is partner with a thief is his own enemy: 24 he hears the adjuration of witnesses, but discloses nothing.
The fear of man brings a snare: but he who puts his trust in 25 the LORD shall be protected. Many seek the ruler's favour; but 26 a man's judgment comes from the LORD. An unjust man is an 27 abomination to the just: and he that is upright in the way is an abomination to the wicked.
The words of Agur son of Yaqe, the burden. Thus says the 30 man, I am weary, O GOD, I am weary, O GOD, and I am consumed: for I am more brutish than a man, and have not the 2 understanding of a man. I have not learned wisdom; that I 3 should desire to have the knowledge of the holy. Who has 4 ascended up into heaven, and come down again? who has gathered the wind in his fists? who has bound the waters in a garment? who has established all the ends of the earth? what is his name, and what is his son's name, if thou canst tell? Every 5 word of GOD is proven: he is a shield to those who put their trust in him. Add not to his words, lest he reprove thee, and 6 thou be found a liar. Two things have I asked of thee; 7 do not deny me them before I die: remove far from me vanity 8 and lies: give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with my allotted portion: lest I become sated, and deny thee, and say, 9 Who is the LORD? or lest I be poor, and steal, and violate the name of my GOD. Accuse not a servant to his master, 10 lest he curse thee, and thou be found guilty. There is a gene- 11 ration that curse their father, and do not bless their mother.

There is a generation that are pure in their own eyes, and yet 12 are not washed from their filthiness. There is a generation, 13
O how lofty are their eyes! and their eyelids are lifted up.
There is a generation, whose teeth are like swords, and their jaw 14 teeth like knives, to devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among men.
The leech has two daughters, crying, Give, give. There are 15 three things that are never satisfied; four that never say, It is enough. She'ol; and the barren womb; the earth that is never 16 sated with water; and the fire that never says, It is enough.
The eye that mocks at his father, and scorns to obey his mother, 17 the ravens of the valley shall pick it out, and the young vultures shall eat it. There are three things which are too 18 wonderful for me, yea, four which I know not: the way of the 19 vultures in the air; the way of a snake upon a rock; the way of a ship in the midst of the sea; and the way of a man with a young woman. Likewise the way of an adulterous woman; 20 she eats, and wipes her mouth, and says, I have done nothing wrong.
For three things the earth is disquieted, and for four it cannot 21 bear: for a slave when he becomes king; and a fool when he is 22 filled with food; for an unloved woman when she is married; 23 and a handmaid that is heir to her mistress.
There are four things which are little upon the earth, but 24 they are exceeding wise: the ants are a people not strong, yet 25 they prepare their bread in the summer; the badgers are but 26 a feeble folk, yet they make their houses in the rocks; the 27 locusts have no king, yet go they forth all of them by bands;
The lizard clambers up with her hands, and she is in king's 28 palaces.
There are three things which are stately in their tread; four 29 are comely in their stride: a lion which is strongest among 30 beasts, and does not turn away for anyone; a greyhound; a he 31 goat also; and a king, against whom there is no rising up.
If thou hast done foolishly in lifting thyself up, or if thou hast 32 thought evil, lay thy hand upon thy mouth. Surely the wringing 33 of milk brings forth curd, and the wringing of the nose brings forth blood: so the forcing of wrath brings forth strife.

The words of king Lemu'el, the prophecy, that his mother 31 taught him. What, my son? and what, son of my womb? and 2 what, son of my vows? Give not thy strength to women, nor 3 thy ways to those who destroy kings. It is not for kings, O 4 Lemu'el, it is not for kings to drink wine; nor for princes to say, Where is strong drink? Lest he drink, and forget the 5 decree, and pervert the judgment of any of the afflicted. Give 6 strong drink to him that is ready to perish, and wine to those of heavy hearts. Let him drink, and forget his poverty, and 7 remember his misery no more. Open thy mouth for the dumb, 8 in the cause of all such as are appointed to destruction. Open 9 thy mouth, judge righteously, and plead the cause of the poor and needy.

Who can find a woman of worth? for her price is far above 10 rubies. The heart of her husband safely trusts in her, and he 11 shall have no lack of gain. She will do him good and not evil 12 all the days of her life. She seeks wool, and flax, and works 13 willingly with her hands. She is like the merchant ships; she 14 brings her food from afar. She rises also while it is yet night, 15 and gives food to her household, and a portion to her maidens.
She considers a field, and buys it: with the fruit of her hands 16 she plants a vineyard. She girds her loins with strength, and 17 she makes her arms strong. She perceives that her merchandise 18 is good: her candle does not go out by night. She lays her 19 hands to the distaff, and her palms hold the spindle. She 20 stretches out her palm to the poor; yea, she reaches forth her hands to the needy. She is not afraid of the snow for her house- 21 hold: for all her household are clothed with scarlet. She makes 22 herself coverlets; her clothing is fine linen and purple. Her 23 husband is known in the gates, when he sits among the elders of the land. She makes garments, and sells them; and delivers 24 girdles to the merchant. Strength and dignity are her clothing; 25 and she laughs at the time to come. She opens her mouth with 26 wisdom; and on her tongue is a Tora of steadfast love. She 27 looks well to the ways of her household, and does not eat the bread of idleness. Her children rise up, and call her blessed; her 28 husband also, and he praises her: many daughters have done 29 virtuously, but thou excellest them all. Grace is deceitful, and 30 beauty is vain: but a woman who fears the LORD, she shall be praised. Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her deeds 31 praise her in the gates.

There was a man in the land of 'Uz, whose name was Iyyov, 1 and that man was perfect and upright, and one who feared God, and turned away from evil. And there were born to him seven 2 sons and three daughters. His possessions also were seven 3 thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she asses, and very many servants; so that this man was the greatest of all the men of the east. And his sons used to go and feast in the house of each 4 one on his day; and they used to send and call for their three sisters to eat and drink with them. And when the days of 5 their feasting were gone about, Iyyov sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all: for Iyyov said, It may be that my sons have sinned, and despised God in their hearts.
Thus Iyyov did continually. Now there was a day when 6 the sons of God came to present themselves before the Lord, and the adversary came also among them. And the Lord said 7 to the adversary, From where dost thou come? Then the adversary answered the Lord, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it. And the 8 Lord said to the adversary, Hast thou considered my servant Iyyov, that there is none like him on earth, a perfect and an upright man, one who fears God, and turns away from evil?
Then the adversary answered the Lord, and said, Does Iyyov 9 fear God for nought? Hast thou not made a hedge about him, 10 and about his house, and about all that he has on every side?
thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land. But now put forth thy hand, and touch 11 all that he has, and he will curse thee to thy face. And the 12 Lord said to the adversary, Behold, all that he has is in thy power; only upon himself do not put forth thy hand. So the adversary went out from the presence of the Lord. Now there 13 was a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house: and there came 14 a messenger to Iyyov, and said, The oxen were ploughing, and the asses were feeding beside them: and men of Sheva fell 15 upon them, and took them away; and slew the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.
While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, 16
The fire of God has fallen from heaven, and has burned up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee. While he was yet speaking, there 17 came also another, and said, The Kasdim formed three bands, and fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, and have slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee. While he was yet speaking, there 18 came also another, and said, Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house: and, 19 behold, there came a great wind from across the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee. Then Iyyov arose, and rent his coat, and shaved 20 his head, and fell down upon the ground, and prostrated himself, and said, Naked I came out of my mother's womb, and naked 21 I shall return there: the LORD gave, and the LORD has taken away; blessed be the name of the LORD. In all this Iyyov sinned 22 not, nor did he lay reproach on GOD. Again there was a day 2 when the sons of GOD came to present themselves before the LORD, and the adversary came also among them to present himself before the LORD. And the LORD said to the adversary, 2 From where dost thou come? And the adversary answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it. And the LORD said to the adversary, 3 Hast thou considered my servant Iyyov, that there is none like him on earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that fears GOD and turns away from evil? and still he holds fast to his integrity, although thou didst move me against him, to destroy him without cause. And the adversary answered the LORD, and 4 said, Skin covers skin! for all that a man has he will give for his life. But put forth thy hand now, and touch his bone and 5 his flesh, and he will curse thee to thy face. And the LORD said 6 to the adversary, Behold, he is in thy hand; but save his life.

So the adversary went forth from the presence of the LORD, 7 and smote Iyyov with vile sores from the sole of his foot to his crown. And he took him a potsherd with which to scrape 8 himself; and he sat down among the ashes. Then his wife said 9 to him, Dost thou still retain thy integrity? curse GOD, and die. But he said to her, Thou speakest as one of the foolish 10 women speaks. What? shall we receive good at the hand of GOD, and shall we not receive evil? In all this Iyyov did not sin with his lips.

Now when Iyyov's three friends heard of all this evil that was 11 come upon him, they came every one from his own place; Elifaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuḥite, and Ẓofar the Na'amatite: for they had made an appointment together to come to mourn with him and to comfort him. And when they 12 lifted up their eyes afar off, and knew him not, they lifted up their voice, and wept; and they rent every one his coat, and sprinkled dust upon their heads toward heaven. And they 13 sat down with him on the ground for seven days and seven nights, and none spoke a word to him: for they saw that his suffering was very great. After this Iyyov opened his mouth, 3 and cursed his day.

And Iyyov spoke, and said, Oh that the day had perished 2,3 wherein I was born, and the night which said, There is a man child conceived. Let that day be darkness; let not GOD inquire 4 after it from above, nor let the light shine upon it. Let darkness 5 and the shadow of death stain it; let a cloud dwell upon it; let the blackness of the day terrify it. As for that night, let dark- 6 ness seize upon it; let it not rejoice among the days of the year, let it not come into the number of the months. Lo, let 7 that night be solitary, let no joyful cry be heard in it. Let them 8 curse it who curse the day, who are ready to arouse livyatan.
Let the stars of its dusk be dark; let it look for light, but have 9 none; and let it not see the eyelids of the morn: because it did 10 not shut up the doors of my mother's womb nor hide trouble from my eyes. Why did I not die from the 11 womb? why did I not perish when I came out of the belly? Why did the knees receive me? or why the breasts that 12

I should suck? For now should I have lain still and been quiet, 13
I should have slept: then had I been at rest, with kings and 14 counsellors of the earth, who built desolate places for themselves; or with princes that had gold, who filled their houses 15 with silver: or as an hidden untimely birth I had not been; 16 as infants that never saw light. There the wicked cease from 17 troubling; and there the weary are at rest. There the prisoners 18 are at ease together; they hear not the voice of the slave driver.
The small and great are there; and the servant is free from 19 his master. Why is light given to him that is in misery, and 20 life to the bitter in soul; who long for death, but it does not 21 come; and dig for it more than for hidden treasures; who re- 22 joice exceedingly, and are glad, when they can find a grave?
Why is light given to a man whose way is hidden, and from 23 whom GOD has screened himself? For my sighing comes before 24 I eat, and my roarings are poured out like the waters. For the 25 thing which I had feared is come upon me, and that which I was afraid of is come to me. I had no repose, nor had I rest, 26 nor was I quiet; yet trouble came.

Then Elifaz the Temanite answered and said, If one ventures a 1,2 word to thee, wilt thou be grieved? but who can withhold himself from speaking? Behold, thou hast instructed many, and 3 thou hast strengthened the weak hands. Thy words have up- 4 held him that was falling, and thou hast strengthened the feeble knees. But now it is come upon thee, and thou art weary; it 5 touches thee, and thou art troubled. Is not thy fear of GOD thy 6 confidence, and thy hope the integrity of thy ways? Recall, 7 now, who that was innocent ever perished? or where were the upright cut off? Even as I have seen, they that plough iniquity, 8 and sow wickedness, reap the same. By the breath of GOD they 9 perish, and by the blast of his anger they are consumed. The 10 roar of the lion, and the cry of the fierce lion, and the teeth of the young lions, are broken. The old lion perishes for lack 11 of prey, and the lion's whelps are scattered abroad. Now a 12 word came stealthily to me, and my ear took fright at it. In 13 thoughts from the visions of the night, when deep sleep falls, fear came upon me, and trembling, which made all my bones 14 to shake. Then a spirit passed before my face; it made the hair 15 of my flesh to bristle up: it stood still, but I could not discern 16 its form: a shape was before my eyes: there was silence, and I heard a voice saying, Shall mortal man be more just than 17 GOD? shall a man be more pure than his maker? Behold, he 18 puts no trust in his servants; and his angels he charges with folly: how much more those who dwell in houses of clay, 19 whose foundation is in the dust, who are crushed before the moth? Between morning and evening they are destroyed: they 20 perish for ever without anyone paying heed. Is not their excel- 21 lency which was in them gone away? they die; for they are without wisdom. Call now, is there any that will answer thee? 5 and to which of the holy ones wilt thou turn? For anger kills 2 the foolish man, and envy slays the simpleton. I have seen the 3 foolish taking root: and suddenly I cursed his dwelling, saying, Let his children be far from safety, and let them be crushed in 4 the gate, with none to rescue them. Let the hungry eat up his 5 harvest, and take it to the thorn hedges, and let the thirsty swallow up their substance. For affliction does not come out 6 of the dust, nor does trouble spring out of the ground; but 7 man is born to trouble, as the sparks fly upward. But I would 8 seek to God, and to God I would commit my cause: who 9 does great things and unsearchable; marvellous things without number: who gives rain upon the earth, and sends water up- 10 on the fields: to set up on high those who are low; that those 11 who mourn may be exalted to safety. He frustrates the de- 12 vices of the crafty, so that their hands cannot perform their policy. He catches the wise in their own craftiness; and the 13 rash counsel of the crooked. They meet with darkness 14 in the daytime, and grope in the noonday as in the night. But 15 he saves from the sword, from the enemy's mouth; and the poor from the hand of the mighty. So the poor has hope, and 16 iniquity stops her mouth. Behold, happy is the man whom God 17 corrects: therefore do not despise the chastening of the Almighty: for he makes sore, and binds up: he wounds, but 18 his hands make whole. He will deliver thee in six troubles: 19 and in seven no evil shall touch thee. In famine he will redeem 20 thee from death: and in war from the power of the sword.

Thou shalt be hid from the scourge of the tongue: nor shalt 21 thou be afraid of destruction when it comes. At destruction and 22 famine thou shalt laugh: nor shalt thou be afraid of the beasts of the earth. For thou shalt be in league with the stones of 23 the field: and the wild beasts shall be at peace with thee. And 24 thou shalt know that thy tent is at peace; and thou shalt visit thy habitation, and shalt miss nothing. Thou shalt know also 25 that thy seed shall be great, and thy offspring as the grass of the earth. Thou shalt come to thy grave with a rich harvest, 26 like a full sheaf of corn which comes up in its season. Lo 27 this, we have searched it, so it is; hear it, and know it, for thy good. 6 And Iyyov answered and said, Oh that my vexation 1,2 were thoroughly weighed, and my calamity laid in the balances!
For now it would be heavier than the sand of the sea: there- 3 fore my words are stammering. For the arrows of the Almighty 4 are within me, the poison of which my spirit drinks up: the terrors of God array themselves against me. Does the wild ass 5 bray when he has grass? or does the ox low over his fodder?
Can that which is unsavoury be eaten without salt? or is there 6 any taste in the white of an egg? My soul refuses to touch 7 them; they are to me as loathsome food. Oh that I might have 8 my request; and that God would grant me the thing that I long for! Even that it would please God to trample on me; that he 9 would let loose his hand, and cut me off! Then should I yet 10 have comfort; yea, I would exalt in pain: let him not spare; for I have not denied the words of the Holy One. What is my 11 strength, that I should hope? and what is my end, that I should be patient? Is my strength the strength of stones? or is my 12 flesh of brass? Is not my help in me? and is sound policy 13 driven quite from me? To him that is afflicted love is due from 14 his friend: or else he forsakes the fear of the Almighty. My 15 brethren have dealt deceitfully like a wadi, and like the water courses which disappear; which are black by reason of the 16 ice, and in which the snow dissolves: when the time comes 17 they grow warm, they vanish: when it is hot, they are consumed out of their place. The caravans turn this way and that 18 in their course: they go up into the waste, and perish. The 19 caravans of Tema looked, the companies of Sheva waited for them — they were confounded because they had hoped; they 20 came there, and were abashed. For now you are like it; you 21 see terror, and are afraid. Did I say, Bring me something? or, 22 Give a ransom for me out of your substance? or, Deliver me 23 from the enemy's hand? or, Redeem me from the hand of tyrants? Teach me, and I will hold my peace: and cause me 24 to understand wherein I have erred. How forcible are right 25 words! but what does your reproof seek to reprove? Do you 26 think your words to be a sound argument, but the sayings of a desperate man to be mere wind? would you even overthrow 27 an orphan, or seek to undermine your friend? Now therefore, 28 be good enough to turn towards me: for surely I will not lie to your face. Return, I pray you, let there be no unfairness: 29 and turn back again: my cause is just. Is there injustice in my 30 tongue? cannot my taste discern crafty devices? Has not a 7 man hard service upon earth? and are not his days like the days of a hireling? As a servant earnestly desires the shadow, 2 and as a hireling looks for the reward of his work: so I am 3 allotted months of emptiness, and wearisome nights are appointed to me. When I lie down, I say, When shall I arise, and 4 the night be gone? and I am full of tossings to and fro until the dawning of the day. My flesh is clothed with worms; my 5 skin is a clod of earth: it curdles and decays. My days are 6 swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are spent without hope.

O remember that my life is a breath: my eye shall no more 7 see good. The eye of him who sees me shall see me no more: 8 while thy eyes are upon me, I am gone. As the cloud is con- 9 sumed and vanishes away: so he who goes down to the grave shall come up no more. He shall return no more to his house, 10 nor shall his place know him any more. Therefore I will not 11 restrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit;
I will complain in the bitterness of my soul. Am I a sea, or a 12 sea monster, that thou settest a watch over me? When I say, 13
My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease my complaint; then thou dost scare me with dreams, and dost terrify me 14 through visions: so that my soul chooses strangling, and death 15 rather than these my bones. I loathe it; I would not live al- 16 ways: let me alone; for my days are emptiness. What is man, 17 that thou shouldst magnify him? and that thou shouldst set thy heart upon him? and that thou shouldst remember him 18 every morning, and try him every moment? How long wilt 19 thou not depart from me, nor let me alone till I swallow down my spittle? If I have sinned, what do I do to thee, O thou pre- 20 server of men? why hast thou set me as thy target, so that I am a burden to myself? And why dost thou not pardon my 21 transgression, and take away my iniquity? for now I shall sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me, but I shall not be.

Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said, How long wilt 8 thou speak these things? and how long shall the words of thy 2 mouth be like a strong wind? Does GOD pervert judgment? 3 or does the Almighty pervert justice? If thy children have 4 sinned against him, he has cast them out for their transgression. If thou wilt seek to GOD, and make thy supplication 5 to the Almighty; if thou be pure and upright; surely now he 6 will rouse himself for thee, and make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous. Though thy beginning was small, yet 7 thy end will be very great. For inquire, I pray thee, of the 8 former age, and attend assiduously to what their fathers have sought out: (for we are but of yesterday, and know nothing, 9 because our days upon earth are a shadow:) shall not they 10 teach thee, and tell thee, and utter words out of their heart?
Can the rush shoot up without mire? can the reed grass grow 11 without water? Whilst it is yet in its greenness, and not cut 12 down, it withers before any other herb. So are the paths of 13 all who forget GOD; and the hypocrite's hope shall perish, whose hope shall be cut off, and whose trust shall be a 14 spider's web. He shall lean upon his house, but it shall not 15 stand: he shall hold it fast, but it shall not endure. He is green 16 before the sun, and his branch shoots forth over his garden wall. His roots are wrapped about the stone heap: he selects 17 for himself a place of stones. But if one destroy him from his 18 place, then it shall deny him, saying, I have not seen thee.
Behold, this is the joy of his way, and out of the earth shall 19 others spring. Behold, GOD will not cast away an innocent man, 20 nor will he uphold evil doers. He will yet fill thy mouth with 21 laughing, and thy lips with rejoicing. They who hate thee shall 22 be clothed with shame; and the tent of the wicked shall be 9 no more. Then Iyyov answered and said, Truly I know 1,2 it is so: but how should a man be just before GOD? If one will 3 contend with him, he cannot answer him one of a thousand.
He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength: who has hardened 4 himself against him, and prospered? he who removes mount- 5 ains, and they know not: when he overturns them in his anger:
who shakes the earth out of her place, and its pillars tremble: 6 who commands the sun, and it rises not; and seals up the 7 stars. He alone spreads out the heavens, and treads upon the 8 waves of the sea: who makes the Bear, Orion, and Pleiades, 9 and the chambers of the south wind: who does great things 10 past finding out; yea, and wonders without number. Lo, he goes 11 by me, and I see him not: he passes on also, but I perceive him not. Behold, he snatches away, who can hinder him? who will 12 say to him, What doest thou? GOD will not withdraw his anger: 13 the helpers of Rahav stoop under him. How much less shall 14
I answer him, and choose out my words to reason with him?
Whom, though I were righteous, yet would I not answer, but 15
I would make supplication to him who contends with me. If 16

I had called, and he had answered me, yet would I not believe that he had hearkened to my voice. For he crushes me with a 17 tempest, and multiplies my wounds without cause: he will not 18 let me take my breath, but fills me with bitterness. If I speak 19 of strength, lo, he is strong: and if of judgment, who shall set me a time to plead? Though I were just, my own mouth 20 would condemn me: though I were innocent, he would prove me perverse. Though I were innocent, yet would I not know 21 myself: I would despise my life. Therefore I said, It is all 22 one: he destroys the innocent and the wicked. If the scourge 23 slay suddenly, he would mock at the trial of the innocent.
The earth is given into the hand of the wicked: he covers the 24 faces of its judges; if not he, then who is it? Now my days are 25 swifter than a runner: they flee away, they see no good. They 26 pass away like the swift ships: like the vulture that swoops on the prey. If I say, I will forget my complaint, I will leave 27 off my sad countenance, and comfort myself: I am afraid of 28 all my pains, I know that thou wilt not hold me innocent.
I shall be condemned; why then do I labour in vain? If I wash 29,30 myself with snow water, and make my hands never so clean; yet shalt thou plunge me in the ditch, and my own clothes 31 shall abhor me. For he is not a man, as I am, that I should 32 answer him, and we should come together in judgment. There 33 is no umpire between us, who might lay his hand upon us both.
Let him take his rod away from me, and let not his fear terrify 34 me: for then I would speak, and not fear him; for I am not so 35 in myself. My soul is weary of my life; I will give free utter- 10 ance to my complaint; I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.
I will say to GOD, Do not condemn me; inform why thou dost 2 contend with me. Is it good to thee that thou shouldst oppress, 3 that thou shouldst despise the work of thy hands, and shine upon the counsel of the wicked? Hast thou eyes of flesh? or 4 seest thou as man sees? Are thy days as the days of man? are 5 thy years as man's days, that thou inquirest after my iniquity, 6 and searchest after my sin; although thou knowest that I am not 7 wicked; and there is none that can deliver out of thy hand?
Thy hands have made me and fashioned me together round 8 about; yet thou dost destroy me. Remember, I beseech thee, 9 that thou hast made me like clay; and wilt thou bring me back to dust? Hast thou not poured me out like milk, and 10 curdled me like cheese? Thou hast clothed me with skin and 11 flesh, and hast knit me together with bones and sinews. Thou 12 hast granted me life and favour, and thy providence has preserved my spirit. Yet these things hast thou hidden in thy 13 heart: I know that this is with thee. If I sin, then thou markest 14 me, and thou wilt not acquit me from my iniquity. If I be 15 wicked, woe is me; and if I be righteous, yet will I not lift up my head; for I am filled with disgrace, and I see my affliction.
If my head is lifted up proudly, thou huntest me like a lion: 16 and again thou dost work wonders against me. Thou renewest 17 thy witnesses against me, and increasest thy indignation upon me; thou dost bring fresh armies against me. Why then hast 18 thou brought me forth out of the womb? Oh, that I had perished, and no eye had seen me! I should have been as though 19 I had not been; I should have been carried from the womb to the grave. Are not my days few? cease then, and let me alone, 20 that I may take comfort a little, Before I go whence I shall 21 not return, to the land of darkness and the shadow of death, A 22 land of gloom, as darkness itself; and of the shadow of death, without any order, and where the light is as darkness.

Then answered Ẓofar the Na'amatite, and said, Should 1,2 not the multitude of words be answered? and should a man full of talk be accounted in the right? Should thy babble make 3 men hold their peace? and when thou mockest, shall no man make thee ashamed? For thou hast said, My doctrine is pure, 4 and I am clean in thy eyes. But oh that God would speak, and 5 open his lips against thee: and that he would tell thee the 6 secrets of wisdom, for wisdom is manifold! Know therefore that God exacts of thee less than thy iniquity deserves. Canst 7 thou find out the deep things of God? canst thou find out the purpose of the Almighty? It is as high as heaven; what canst 8 thou do? deeper than She'ol; what canst thou know? Its mea- 9 sure is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea. If he 10 pass by, or shut up, or call to judgment, then who can hinder him? For he knows vain men; and when he sees iniquity, shall 11 he then take no notice of it? But the stupid man shall be- 12 come wise, when a wild ass's colt, shall be turned into man!
If thou prepare thy heart, and stretch out thy hands towards 13 him; if iniquity be in thy hand, put it far away, and let not 14 wickedness dwell in thy tents. Surely then thou shalt lift up thy 15 face without blemish; and thou shalt be steadfast, and shalt not fear: because thou shalt forget thy misery, and remember 16 it as waters that pass away: and thy eye shall be clearer than 17 the noonday; its darkness shall be like the morning. And thou 18 shalt be secure, because there is hope; yea, thou shalt look about thee, and thou shalt take thy rest in safety. Also thou 19 shalt lie down, and none shall make thee afraid; for many shall entreat thy favour. But the eyes of the wicked shall fail, and 20 they shall not escape, and their hope shall turn to despair.

12

And Iyyov answered and said, No doubt but you are the 1,2 people, and wisdom shall die with you. But I have understand- 3 ing as well as you; I am not inferior to you; yea, who knows not such things as these? I am as one who is become a laughing 4 stock to his friend; that called upon God and he answered him; the just, the innocent man is a laughing stock. Contempt is 5 ready in the thought of him that is at ease, for those that are ruined, that slip with their feet. The tents of robbers prosper, 6 and they who provoke God are secure; they who bring their God in their hand. But ask now the beasts, and they shall teach 7 thee; and the birds of the sky, and they shall tell thee: or speak 8 to the earth, and it shall teach thee: and the fishes of the sea shall declare to thee. Who knows not among all these that the 9 hand of the Lord has done this; in whose hand is the soul of 10 every living thing, and the breath of all mankind? Does not 11 the ear try words as the palate tastes food? With aged men 12 is wisdom; and length of days brings understanding. With him 13 is wisdom and might, he has counsel and understanding. Be- 14 hold, he breaks down, and it cannot be built again: he shuts up a man, and there can be no opening. Behold, he withholds 15 the waters, and they dry up: then he sends them out, and they overwhelm the earth. With him is strength and sound wisdom: 16 the deceived and the deceiver are his. He leads counsellors 17 away bereft of counsel, and makes judges fools. He looses the 18 bond of kings, and binds their loins with a girdle. He leads 19 priests away bereft of dignity, and overthrows the mighty. He 20 removes the speech of the trusty, and takes away the understanding of the aged. He pours contempt upon princes, and 21 weakens the belt of the mighty. He uncovers deep things 22 out of darkness, and brings out to light the shadow of death.

He makes nations great and destroys them: he disperses nations, 23 and guides them. He takes away the heart of the chiefs of the 24 people of the land, and causes them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way. They grope in the dark without light, 25 and he makes them stagger like a drunken man. Lo, my eye 13 has seen all this, my ear has heard and understood it. What you 2 know, I know also: I am not inferior to you. Yet, I would 3 speak to the Almighty, and I desire to reason with God. But 4 you are forgers of lies, you are all physicians of no value.
O that you would altogether keep silent! and it should be your 5 wisdom. Hear now my reasoning, and hearken to the pleadings 6 of my lips. Will you speak wickedly for God? and talk deceit- 7 fully for him? Will you show him partiality? will you contend 8 on behalf of God? Will it be well for you if he should search 9 you out? or as one man deceives another, will you deceive him? He will surely reprove you, if you secretly show partiality. 10 Shall not his majesty make you afraid? and his dread fall upon 11 you? Your remembrances are like ashes; your bodies are like 12 bodies of clay. Hold your peace, let me alone, that I may speak, 13 and let come on me what will. For what? I will take my flesh 14 in my teeth, and take my life in my hand. Though he slay me, 15 yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain my own ways before him. This also shall be my salvation: for a hypocrite shall not 16 come before him. Hear diligently my speech, and let my decla- 17 ration be in your ears. Behold now, I have ordered my cause; 18
I know that I shall be vindicated. Who is he that will contend 19 with me? for then I would hold my tongue and die. Only do not 20 two things to me: then will I not hide myself from thee. With- 21 draw thy hand far from me: and let not thy terror make me afraid. Then call thou, and I will answer: or let me speak, and 22 thou answer me. How many are my iniquities and sins? let 23 me know my transgression and my sin. Why dost thou hide 24 thy face, and hold me for thy enemy? Wilt thou chase a driven 25 leaf? and wilt thou pursue the dry stubble? For thou writest 26 bitter things against me, and makest me inherit the iniquities of my youth. Thou puttest my feet also in the stocks, and 27 lookest narrowly at all my paths; thou settest thy print upon the heels of my feet. And he is consumed like rottenness; 28 like a garment eaten by moths. Man that is born of a woman 14 is of few days, and full of trouble. He comes forth like a flower, 2 and is cut down: he flees also like a shadow, and does not endure. And dost thou open thy eyes upon such a one, and 3 bringest me into judgment with thee? Who can bring a clean 4 thing out of an unclean? not one. Seeing his days are deter- 5 mined, the number of his months is with thee, thou hast appointed his bounds that he cannot pass; turn from him, that 6 he may rest, till he shall accomplish, as a hireling, his day.

For there is hope of a tree, if it be cut down, that it will sprout 7 again, and that its tender branch will not cease. Though its 8 root grow old in the earth, and its stock die in the ground; yet through the scent of water it will bud, and bring forth 9 boughs like a plant. But man dies, and is laid low; yea, man 10 perishes, and where is he? The waters fail from the sea, and 11 the river is parched, and dries up: but man lies down, and does 12 not rise: till the heavens be no more, they shall not awake, nor be raised out of their sleep. O that thou wouldst hide me 13 in She'ol, that thou wouldst keep me secret, until thy wrath is past, that thou wouldst appoint me a set time, and remember me! If a man die, shall he live again? all the days 14 of my service I should wait, until my reward should come.
Thou shouldst call, and I would answer thee: thou shouldst 15 have a desire to the work of thy hands. For now thou num- 16 berest my steps: dost thou not watch for my sin? My trans- 17 gression is sealed up in a bag, and thou dost daub my iniquity with wax. And surely the mountain falling crumbles away, 18 and the rock is removed out of its place. The waters wear the 19 stones: the torrents wash away the dust of the earth; so thou destroyest the hope of man. Thou prevailest for ever 20 against him, and he passes: thou changest his countenance, and sendest him away. His sons come to honour, and he knows 21 it not; and they are brought low, but he perceives them not.
Only when his flesh is on him does he feel pain, and while 22 his soul is within him does he mourn. Then answered 15 Elifaz the Temanite, and said, Should a wise man utter windy 2 knowledge, and fill his belly with the east wind? Should he 3 reason with unprofitable talk? or with speeches wherewith he can do no good? Yea, thou castest off fear, and thou dost 4 slight the prayer that is made before GOD. For thy mouth 5 utters thy iniquity, and thou choosest the tongue of the crafty.
Thy own mouth condemns thee, and not I: yea, thy own lips 6 testify against thee. Art thou the first man that was born? or 7 wast thou made before the hills? Dost thou listen in to the 8 council of GOD, and keep wisdom to thyself? What knowst 9 thou, that we know not? what understandest thou, which is not in us? With us are both the greyheaded and very aged 10 men, much older than thy father. Are the consolations of GOD 11 too small for thee? or the word which he spoke softly with thee? Why does thy heart carry thee away? and why do thy 12 eyes wink? that thou turnest thy spirit against GOD, and let- 13 test such words go out of thy mouth? What is man, that he 14 should be clean? and one born of a woman, that he should be righteous? Behold, he puts no trust in his holy ones; and 15 the heavens are not clean in his sight: how much less one 16 who is abominable and filthy? man, who drinks iniquity like water? I will tell thee, hear me; and that which I have seen 17

I will declare; which wise men have told from their fathers, 18 and have not hidden it: to whom alone the earth was given, 19 and no stranger passed among them. The wicked man travails 20 with pain all his days, through the number of years stored up for the tyrant. A dreadful sound is in his ears: in pros- 21 perity the destroyer shall come upon him. He does not believe 22 that he will return out of darkness, and he is waited for by the sword. He wanders abroad for bread, saying, Where is it? 23 he knows that the day of darkness is ready at his hand. Trouble and anguish make him afraid; they prevail against 24 him, as a king ready to the battle. For he stretches out his 25 hand against GOD, and behaves proudly against the Almighty. He runs upon him with neck armour, with the thick bosses 26 of his bucklers: because he has covered his face with his fat, 27 and has put collops of fat on his flanks. And he dwells in deso- 28 late cities, and in houses which no man inhabits, which are ready to become heaps. He shall not be rich, neither shall his sub- 29 stance continue, neither shall their produce bend to the earth. He shall not depart out of darkness; the flame shall dry up 30 his branches, and by the breath of his mouth shall he go away. Let him not trust in vanity, deceiving himself: for vanity 31 shall be his recompense. It shall be accomplished before his 32 time, and his branch shall not be green. He shall shake off 33 his unripe grape like the vine, and shall cast of his flower like the olive. For the company of hypocrites shall be 34 desolate, and fire shall consume the tents of bribery. They 35 conceive mischief, and bring forth vanity, and their belly 16 prepares deceit. Then Iyyov answered and said, I have 1,2 heard many such things: miserable comforters are you all. Shall windy words have an end? or what provokes thee that 3 thou answerest? Would I also speak as you do? if your soul 4 were in my soul's stead, would I join words together against you, and shake my head at you? I would strengthen you with 5 my mouth, and the moving of my lips should assuage your grief. Though I speak, my grief is not assuaged: and though 6
I forbear, what am I eased? But now he has made me weary: 7 thou hast made desolate all my company. And thou hast filled 8 me with wrinkles, which is a witness against me: and my leanness rising up against me bears witness to my face. He 9 tears me in his wrath, and hates me: he gnashes at me with his teeth; my enemy sharpens his eyes upon me. They have 10 gaped upon me with their mouth; they have smitten me upon the cheek scornfully; they gather themselves together against me. GOD has delivered me to the ungodly, and turned me 11 over into the hands of the wicked. I was at ease, but he broke 12 me asunder: he has also taken me by my neck, and shaken me to pieces, and set me up for his target. His archers com- 13 pass me round about, he cleaves my reins asunder, and does not spare; he pours out my gall upon the ground. He breaks 14 me with breach upon breach, he runs upon me like a giant. I have sewn sackcloth upon my skin, and have laid my horn 15 in the dust. My face is scalded with weeping, and on my eye- 16 lids is the shadow of death; though no injustice is in my hands; 17 and my prayer is pure. O earth, cover not my blood, and let 18 my cry have no pause. Even now, behold, my witness is in 19 heaven, and my testimony is on high. My friends scorn me: 20 but my eye pours out tears to GOD. O that a man might plead 21 his cause with GOD, as the son of man with his fellow! For 22 when a few years are come, then I shall go the way whence I shall not return. My spirit is broken, my days are extinct, 17 the grave is ready for me. Are there not mockers with me? 2 and does not my eye dwell on their provocation? Give now a 3 pledge, be surety for me with thyself: who else is there that will strike hands with me? For thou hast hid their heart from 4 understanding: therefore shalt thou not exalt them. They are 5 as one who invites friends to have a share, whilst the eyes of his children fail. He has made me also a byword of the 6 peoples; and I shall be a horror to every face. My eye also 7 is dim by reason of vexation, and all my members are as a shadow. Upright men are astonished at this, and the in- 8 nocent stirs up himself against the godless. Yet the righteous 9 holds on his way, and he that has clean hands grows stronger and stronger. But as for you all, return, and come now: for 10

I cannot find one wise man among you. My days are past, my 11 purposes are broken off, even the thoughts of my heart. They 12 change the night into day, saying, the light is near when the darkness is at hand. If I look to She'ol as my home: if I 13 spread my couch in the darkness: if I say to the pit, Thou art 14 my father; to the worm, Thou art my mother and my sister; where then is my hope? as for my hope, who shall see it? 15 Will they go down with me to the bars of She'ol? shall we 16 descend together to the dust? Then answered Bildad 18 the Shuhite, and said, How long will you make a perversion 2 of words? consider, and afterwards we will speak. Why are 3 we counted as beasts, and reputed vile in your sight? He 4 tears himself in his anger. Shall the earth be forsaken for thee? or shall the rock be removed out of his place? Yea, 5 the light of the wicked shall be put out, and the spark of his fire shall not shine. The light shall be dark in his tent, and his 6 candle over him shall be put out. The steps of his strength 7 shall be straitened, and his own counsel shall cast him down.
For he is cast into a net by his own feet, and he walks on a 8 pitfall. The trap shall take him by the heel, and the snare 9 shall prevail against him. The noose is laid for him in the 10 ground, and a trap for him in the way. Terrors shall make him 11 afraid on every side, and shall chase him at his heels: his 12 first born shall he plagued with hunger, and his wife beset with calamity. He will devour the limbs of his skin: the first- 13 born doomed to die will devour his own limbs. He shall 14 be cut off from the tent of his security; and shall he brought to the king of terrors. In his tent dwells that which is none of 15 his: brimstone is scattered on his habitation. His roots shall 16 be dried up beneath, and above shall his branch wither. His 17 remembrance shall perish from the earth, and he shall have no name in the street. He shall be driven from light into dark- 18 ness, and chased out of the world. He shall have neither son 19 nor offspring among his people, nor any remaining in his dwellings. They who come after him shall be astonished at 20 his day, as they who went before were affrighted. Surely such 21 are the dwellings of the wicked, and this is the place of him who knows not GOD. Then Iyyov answered and said, 19 How long will you vex my soul, and break me in pieces with 2 words? These ten times have you reproached me: you are not 3 ashamed that you slight me. And be it indeed that I have 4 erred, my error remains with myself. If indeed you will magni- 5 fy yourselves against me, and plead against me my reproach:

know now that GOD has overthrown me, and has compassed 6 me with his net. Behold, I cry out, Violence, but I am not 7 heard: I cry aloud, but there is no justice. He has fenced up 8 my way so that I cannot pass, and he has set darkness in my paths. He has stripped me of my glory, and taken the crown 9 from my head. He has destroyed me on every side, and I am 10 gone: and my hope he has uprooted like a tree. He has also 11 kindled his wrath against me, and he counts me to him as one of his enemies. His troops come together, and raise up their 12 way against me, and encamp round about my tent. He has 13 put my brethren far from me, and my acquaintances are wholly estranged from me. My kinsfolk have failed, and my 14 familiar friends have forgotten me. They who dwell in my 15 house, and my womenservants, count me for a stranger: I am an alien in their sight. I call my servant, and he gives me no 16 answer; though I entreat him with my mouth. My breath is 17 repulsive to my wife, and my cries to my own children. Yea, 18 young children despise me; I arise, and they speak against me. All my trusted friends abhor me: and they whom I love 19 are turned against me. My bone cleaves to my skin and to 20 my flesh, and I am escaped with the skin of my teeth. Have 21 pity upon me, have pity upon me, O my friends; for the hand of GOD has touched me. Why do you, like GOD, persecute me, 22 and are not satisfied with my flesh? Oh that my words were 23 now written! oh that they were inscribed in a book! that 24 with an iron pen and lead they were engraved in the rock for ever! For I know that my avenger lives, and that he who 25 outlives all things, will rise when I shall be dust.
But whilst I am still in my flesh, though it be after my skin is 26 torn from my body, I would see GOD: that I might see him for 27 myself: that my eyes might behold, and not another: in longing for that my reins are consumed within me. And if you should 28 say, Do we indeed persecute him? and is not the root of the matter found in me? be afraid of the sword: for wrath brings 29 the punishments of the sword, that you may know that there is judgment. Then answered Zofar the Na'amatite, and 20 said, Therefore my thoughts answer me, even because of my 2 agitation that is in me. I have heard the censure which insults 3 me, and the spirit of my understanding causes me to answer.
Knowst thou not this of old, since man was placed upon earth, 4 that the triumphing of the wicked is short, and the joy of the 5 hypocrite but for a moment? Though his excellency mount up 6 to the heavens, and his head reach the clouds; yet he shall 7 perish for ever like his own dung: they who have seen him shall say, Where is he? He shall fly away like a dream, and 8 shall not be found: yea, he shall be chased away like a vision of the night. The eye which saw him shall see him no more; 9 nor shall his place any more behold him. His children shall seek 10 to please the poor, and his hands shall give back that which he has robbed. His bones are full of his youth; yet shall it lie 11 down with him in the dust. Though wickedness be sweet in 12 his mouth, though he hide it under his tongue; though he spare 13 it, and forsake it not; but keep it still within his mouth: yet his 14 food in his bowels is turned, it is the gall of asps within him.

He has swallowed down riches, and he shall vomit them up 15 again: God shall cast them out of his belly. He shall suck the 16 poison of asps: the viper's tongue shall slay him. He shall not 17 see the rivers, the floods, the streams of honey and curd. That 18 which he laboured for he shall restore, and shall not swallow it down: from the riches of his trading he will have no enjoyment. Because he has oppressed and has forsaken the poor; 19 he has violently taken away a house which he did not build; because his greed knew no rest, he will not save anything over 20 of that which he coveted. None of his food shall be left; there- 21 fore shall his goods not prosper. In the fullness of his sufficiency 22 he shall be in straits: all the force of misery shall come upon him. When he is about to fill his belly, God shall cast the fury 23 of his wrath upon him, and shall rain it upon him into his flesh. He shall flee from the iron weapon, and the bow of brass 24 shall strike him through. It is drawn, and comes out of his 25 body; yea, the glittering blade comes out of his gall: terrors are upon him. Utter darkness is laid up for his treasures: a 26 fire not blown shall consume him; it shall go ill with him that is left in his tent. The heaven shall reveal his iniquity; and 27 the earth shall rise up against him. The increase of his house 28 shall depart, and his goods shall flow away in the day of his wrath. This is the portion of a wicked man from God, and 29 the heritage appointed to him by God. Then Iyyov ans- 21 wered and said, Hear diligently my speech, and let this be your 2 consolations. Suffer me that I may speak; and after I have 3 spoken, mock on. As for me, is my complaint to man? why 4 should I not be impatient? Turn to me, and be astonished, and 5 lay your hand upon your mouth. Even when I remember, I am 6 afraid, and trembling takes holds of my flesh. Why do the 7 wicked live, become old, yea, grow mighty in power? Their 8 seed is established in their sight with them, and their offspring before their eyes. Their houses are safe without fear, nor is 9 the rod of God upon them. Their bull genders, and does not 10 fail; their cow calves, and does not cast her calf. They send 11 forth their little ones like a flock, and their children dance.
They take the timbrel and lyre, and rejoice at the sound of 12 the pipe. They spend their days in wealth, and in a moment 13 go down to She'ol. Therefore they say to God, Depart from us; 14 for we desire not the knowledge of thy ways. What is the 15

Almighty, that we should serve him? and what profit should we have, if we pray to him? Lo, is their good not in their hand? 16 let the counsel of the wicked be far from me. How often is the 17 candle of the wicked put out? and when does their calamity come upon them? does he distribute sorrows to them in his anger? are they as stubble before the wind, and as chaff that the 18 storm carries away? GOD lays up his iniquity for the children: 19 let him rather reward him, that he may know it! Let his eyes 20 see his own destruction, and let him drink of the wrath of the Almighty! For what pleasure has he in his house after him, 21 when the number of his months is already complete? Shall any 22 teach GOD knowledge? seeing he judges those who are high.
One dies in his full strength, being wholly at ease and quiet. 23
His vessels are full of milk, and his bones are moistened with 24 marrow. And another dies in the bitterness of his soul, and has 25 never eaten of good things. They shall lie down alike in the 26 dust, and the worm shall cover them. Behold, I know your 27 thoughts, and the devices which you wrongfully imagine against me. For you say, Where is the house of the prince? 28 and where is the tent in which the wicked dwelt? Have you not 29 asked those who go by the way? and do not falsify their tokens; that the wicked man is reserved for the day of destruc- 30 tion; that they shall be led forth to the day of wrath. But who 31 shall declare his way to his face? and who shall repay him for what he has done? For he is brought to the grave, and 32 watch is kept over his tomb. The clods of the valley shall be 33 sweet to him, and every man shall draw after him, and there are innumerable going before him. Why then do you comfort me 34 in vain, seeing in your answers there remains falsehood? 22

Then Elifaz the Temanite answered and said, Can a man be 1,2 profitable to GOD? Surely he that is wise is profitable to himself!
Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that thou art righteous? or 3 is it gain to him, that thou makest thy ways perfect? will he 4 reprove thee for fear of thee? will he enter with thee into judgment? Is not thy wickedness great? and thy iniquities in- 5 finite? For thou hast taken pledges from thy brother for nought, 6 and stripped the naked of their clothing. Thou hast not given 7 water to the weary to drink, and thou hast withheld bread from the hungry. But like the mighty man, who has the earth; 8 and the honourable man who dwells in it, thou hast sent 9 widows away empty, and the arms of the fatherless have been broken. Therefore snares are round about thee, and sudden fear 10 troubles thee; or darkness, that thou canst not see; and abun- 11 dance of waters cover thee. Is not GOD in the height of heaven? 12 and behold the height of the stars, how high they are! And 13 thou sayst, What does GOD know? does he judge through the dark cloud? Thick clouds are a covering to him, so that he 14 sees not; and he walks in the circuit of heaven. Hast thou 15 marked the old way which wicked men have trodden? who 16 were cut down out of time, whose foundation was overflown with a flood: who said to GOD, Depart from us: and what can 17 the Almighty do for them? Yet he filled their houses with good 18 things: but the counsel of the wicked is far from me. The 19 righteous see it, and are glad: and the innocent laugh them to scorn, saying, Surely our adversaries are cut off, and the 20 remnant of them the fire consumes. Acquaint now thyself with 21 him, and be at peace: thereby good shall come to thee. Receive, 22 I pray thee, Tora from his mouth, and lay up his words in thy heart. If thou return to the Almighty, thou shalt be built up, 23 thou shalt put away iniquity far from thy tent. And thou shalt 24 hold gold as dust, and the gold of Ofir as the stones of the brooks. Yea, the Almighty shall be thy gold, and precious silver 25 to thee. For then shalt thou have thy delight in the Almighty, 26 and shall lift up thy face to God. Thou shalt make thy prayer 27 to him, and he shall hear thee, and thou shalt pay thy vows.

Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto 28 thee: and the light shall shine upon thy ways. When men have 29 humbled thee, and thou sayst, There is lifting up, then he shall save the humble person. He delivers the innocent man: and 30 thou shalt be delivered by the pureness of thy hands. 23

Then Iyyov answered and said, Even today my complaint 1,2 is bitter: my stroke is heavy because of my groaning. Oh that 3 I knew where I might find him! that I might come even to his seat! I would order my cause before him, and fill my mouth 4 with arguments. I would know the words which he would 5 answer me, and understand what he would say to me. Would 6 he contend with me in his great power? No; but he would give heed to me. There the upright might reason with him; 7 so should I be delivered for ever from my judge. Behold, I go 8 forward, but he is not there; and backward, but I cannot perceive him: on the left hand, where he works, but I cannot 9 behold him: he hides himself on the right hand, that I cannot see him: for he knows the way that I take: when he has tried 10 me, I shall come forth like gold. My foot has held fast to his 11 steps; his way have I kept, and not turned aside. Nor have I 12 gone back from the commandment of his lips, I have treasured the words of his mouth more than my necessary food. But 13 he is unchangeable, and who can turn him? and what his soul desires, even that he does. For he performs the thing that is 14 appointed for me and many such things are with him. There- 15 fore am I terrified at his presence: when I consider, I am afraid of him. For God makes my heart faint, and the Almighty has 16 affrighted me: because I was not cut off before the darkness, 17 nor did he cover the thick darkness from my face. Why 24 are not times of judgment treasured up by the Almighty? and why do those who know him never see his days? Some remove 2 the landmarks; they violently take away flocks, and feed them.
They drive away the ass of the fatherless, they take the 3 widow's ox for a pledge. They turn the needy out of the way: 4 the poor of the earth hide themselves together; behold, like 5 wild asses in the desert, they go forth to their work; rising betimes to work for food: the wilderness yields food for them for their children; they reap his corn in the field; and they 6 glean the vineyard of the wicked; they lie all night naked with- 7 out clothing, and they have no covering in the cold; they are 8 rock for want of a shelter. These pluck the fatherless from the 9 breast, and take a pledge of the poor, who go naked without 10 clothing; and they that carry the sheaf are hungry; they also 11 make the oil within the olive rows of the wicked; they tread the winepresses, and suffer thirst. Men groan from out of the 12 city, and the soul of the wounded cries out: yet GOD lays no blame on them. They are of those who rebel against the light; 13 they know not its ways, nor abide in its paths. The murderer 14 rising with the light kills the poor and needy, and in the night he is like a thief. The eye also of the adulterer waits for the 15 twilight, saying, No eye shall see me: and he disguises his face. In the dark they dig through houses; by day they shut 16 themselves up: they know not the light. For the morning is to 17 them even as deep darkness: for he was acquainted with the terrors of deep darkness. He was swift upon the waters; their 18 portion is cursed in the earth: no treader turns towards their vineyards. Drought and heat consume the snow waters: so 19 does She'ol those who have sinned. The womb shall forget 20 him; the worm shall feed sweetly on him; he shall be no more remembered; and wickedness shall be broken like a tree. He 21 preys on the barren childless woman: and does not good to the widow. And he draws the mighty away with his power: he 22 rises up, and no man is sure of life. Though it be given him 23 to be in safety, whereon he rests; yet his eyes are upon their ways. Go up a little, and he is no more: go down at all and 24 they are shut up: they wither like the top of an ear of corn.

And if it be not so now, who will make me a liar, and make my 25 speech nothing worth? Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, 25 and said, Dominion and fear are with him, he makes peace in 2 his high places. Is there any number to his armies? and upon 3 whom does not his light arise? How then can man be justified 4 with GOD? or how can he be clean that is born of a woman?
Behold even the moon has no brightness; and the stars are not 5 pure in his sight. How much less man, that is a worm? and the 6 son of man, who is a maggot? And Iyyov answered and 26 said. How hast thou helped him that is without power? how 2 hast thou saved the arm that has no strength? How hast thou 3 counselled him that has no wisdom? and how hast thou plentifully declared sound wisdom? To whom hast thou uttered 4 words? and whose spirit came from thee? The shades tremble; 5 the waters beneath with the inhabitants thereof. She'ol is 6 naked before him, and Avaddon has no covering. He stretches 7 out the north over the empty place, and hangs the earth upon nothing. He binds up the waters in his thick clouds; and the 8 cloud is not rent under them. He closes in the face of his 9 throne, and spreads his cloud upon it. He has compassed the 10 waters with bounds, at the boundary between light and darkness.
The pillars of heaven tremble and are astonished at his reproof. 11
He stirs up the sea with his power, and by his understanding 12 he smites through Rahav. By his wind the heavens were made 13 fair; his hand slew the slant serpent. Lo, these are parts of 14 his ways, and how terrifying is the thing that is heard of him; but the thunder of his power who can understand? And 27

Iyyov continued his discourse, and said, As GOD lives, who 2 has taken away my right; and the Almighty, who has embittered my soul; all the while my breath is in me, and the 3 spirit of GOD is in my nostrils; my lips shall not speak wicked- 4 ness, nor my tongue utter deceit. Far be it from me that I 5 should justify you: till I die I will not put away my integrity from me. My righteousness I hold fast, and I will not let it go: 6 my heart shall not reproach me as long as I live. Let my enemy 7 be as the wicked, and he who rises up against me as the unrighteous. For what is the hope of the hypocrite, though 8 he has gained, when GOD takes away his soul? Will GOD hear 9 his cry when trouble comes upon him? Will he delight himself 10 in the Almighty? will he always call up on GOD? I will teach you 11 concerning the hand of GOD: that which is with the Almighty will I not conceal. Behold, all you yourselves have seen it; 12 why then do you thus altogether breathe emptiness? This is the 13 portion of a wicked man with GOD, and the heritage of oppressors, which they shall receive of the Almighty. If his children 14 be multiplied, it is for the sword: and his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread. Those that remain of him shall be buried 15 by some other death: and his widows shall not weep. Though 16 he heap up silver as the dust, and prepare raiment as the clay; he may prepare it, but the just shall put it on, and the innocent 17 shall divide the silver. He builds his house like the moth, and 18 as a booth which the watchman makes. A rich man shall he 19 lie down, as though his wealth could not be summed up: he opens his eyes, and it is gone. Terrors overtake him like waters; 20 a tempest steals him away in the night. The east wind carries 21 him away, and he departs: and it hurts him out of his place.
It hurls itself at him, and does not spare: he would fain 22 flee out of its hand. Men shall clap their hands at him ,and 23 shall hiss him out of his place. Surely there is a mine for silver, 28 and a place for gold where they refine it. Iron is taken out of 2 the earth, and brass is molten out of the stone. He puts an end 3 to darkness, and searches out all perfection: the stones of darkness, and the shadow of death. He breaks open a watercourse 4 in place far from inhabitants, forgotten by foottravellers:
they are dried up; they are gone away from men. As for the 5 earth, out of it comes bread: and under it is turned up as it were fire. The stones of it are the place of sapphires: and it 6 has dust of gold. There is a path which no bird of prey knows, 7 and which the falcon's eye has not seen: the lion's whelps have 8 not trodden it, nor the fierce lion passed by it. He puts forth 9 his hand upon the rock; he overturns the mountains by the roots.
He cuts out channels among the rocks; and his eye sees every 10 precious thing. He binds the floods so that they do not trickle; 11 and the thing that is hidden he brings forth to light.

But where shall wisdom be found? and where is the place 12 of understanding? Man cannot know its price; nor is it found in 13 the land of the living. The depth says, It is not in me: and the 14 sea says, It is not with me. It cannot be gotten for gold, nor 15 shall silver be weighed for its price. It cannot be valued with 16 the gold of Ofir, with the precious shoham stone, or the sapphire. Gold and glass cannot equal it: and the exchange of it 17 shall not be for vessels of fine gold. No mention shall be made 18 of coral, or of crystal: for the price of wisdom is above rubies.

The chrysolithe of Kush shall not equal it, nor shall it be valued 19 with pure gold. Whence then does wisdom come? and 20 where is the place of understanding? Seeing it is hidden from 21 the eyes of all living, and kept close from the birds of the sky.
Avaddon and death say, We have heard a rumour of it with 22 our ears. GOD understands its way, and he knows its place. 23 For he looks to the ends of the earth, and sees everything 24 under the whole heaven; when he makes a weight for the winds; 25 and he weighs the waters by measure. When he made a decree 26 for the rain, and a way for the lightning of the thunder: then he saw it, and declared it; he established it, yea, and searched 27 it out. And to man he said, Behold, the fear of the LORD, that 28 is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding. 29

Moreover Iyyov continued his discourse, and said, Oh that 1,2
I were as in months past, as in the days when GOD preserved me; when his candle shone upon my head, and when by his 3 light I walked through darkness; as I was in the days of my 4 youth, when GOD shielded my tent; when the Almighty was yet 5 with me, when my children were about me; when I washed 6 my steps with butter, and the rock poured me out rivers of oil; when I went out to the gate through the city, when I pre- 7 pared my seat in the broad place! The young men saw me, and 8 hid themselves: and the aged arose, and stood up. The princes 9 refrained from talking, and laid their hand on their mouth.
The voice of the nobles was hushed, and their tongue cleaved 10 to the roof of their mouth. When the ear heard me, then it 11 blessed me; and when the eye saw me, it gave witness to me; because I delivered the poor that cried, and the fatherless, that 12 had none to help him. The blessing of him that was ready to 13 perish came upon me: and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy. I put on righteousness, and my justice clothed me, 14 as a robe and a diadem. I was eyes to the blind, and feet was 15 I to the lame. I was a father to the poor: and the cause 16 which I knew not I searched out. And I broke the jaws of the 17 wicked man, and plucked the prey out of his teeth. Then I said, 18 I shall die in my nest, and I shall multiply my days like the sand. My root shall be spread out to the waters, and the dew 19 shall lie all night upon my branch. My glory shall be fresh in 20 me, and my bow shall be renewed in my hand. To me men gave 21 ear, and waited, and kept silence at my counsel. After my 22 words they did not speak again; and my speech dropped upon them. And they waited for me as for the rain; and they opened 23 their mouth wide as for the latter rain. If I laughed at them, 24 they believed it not; and the light of my countenance they cast not down. I chose out their way, and sat as chief, and 25 dwelt as a king in the army, as one that comforts the mourners.
But now they that are younger than I have me in derision, 30 whose fathers I would have disdained to have set with the dogs of my flock. Indeed what could I gain from the strength of 2 their hands, in whom the stock has perished? For want and 3 famine they are solitary; they flee into the wilderness, into a gloomy waste and desolation. They cut up mallows by the 4 bushes, and roots of broom for warmth. They are driven forth 5 from among men, (they cry after them as after a thief;) to dwell in the clefts of the wadis, in holes of the earth, and 6 in the rocks. Among the bushes they bray; under the nettles 7 they huddle together. They are children of churls, yea, child- 8 ren of base men: they are whipped out of the land. And now I 9 am their song, yea, I am their byword. They abhor me, they 10 flee far from me, and spare not to spit in my face. Because he 11 has loosed my cord, and afflicted me, they have also cast off restraint before me. Upon my right hand rise the youthful rab- 12 ble; they push away my feet, and they raise up against me the ways of their destruction. They mar my path, they further 13 my calamity; they have no need for help. They come upon 14 me as through a wide breach: amid the crash they roll on.

Terrors are turned upon me: my dignity is pursued as by the 15 wind: and my welfare passes away as a cloud. And now my 16 soul is poured out within me; days of affliction have taken hold of me. My bones are pierced in me in the night season: 17 and my sinews take no rest. By the great force of my disease 18 is my skin changed: it binds me about as the collar of my coat.
He has cast me into the mire, and I am become like dust and 19 ashes. I cry to thee, and thou dost not answer me: I stand up, 20 dost thou then regard me? Thou art become cruel to me: with 21 thy strong hand thou opposest thyself against me. Thou liftest 22 me up to the wind; thou causest me to ride upon it, and the roar of the storm dissolves me. For I know that thou wilt bring 23 me to death, and to the house appointed for all living. Yet does 24 not one in a heap of ruins stretch out his hand? and in his disaster cry for help? Did not I weep for him that was in 25 trouble? was not my soul grieved for the poor? But when I 26 looked for good, then evil came: and when I waited for light, there came darkness. My bowels are in turmoil, and they do 27 not rest: days of affliction have came upon me. I go mourning 28 without the sun: I stand up, and I cry in the congregation.
I am a brother to jackals, and a companion to owls. My skin 29, 30 hangs down black from me, and my bones are burned with heat. Therefore my lyre is turned to mourning, and my pipe 31 to the voice of those who weep. I have made a covenant with 31 my eyes; why then should I look upon a virgin? For what 2 would be my portion from GOD above, and my heritage from the Almighty on high? Is not destruction due to the wicked? 3 and a strange punishment to the workers of iniquity? Does 4 he not see my ways, and count all my steps? If I have walked 5 with vanity, or if my foot hath hasted to deceit; let me be 6 weighed in an even balance, that GOD may know my integrity.
If my step has turned out of the way, and my heart walked 7 after my eyes, and if anything has cleaved to my hands; then 8 let me sow, and let another eat; yea, let my offspring be rooted out. If my heart has been deceived by a woman, or if I have 9 laid wait at my neighbour's door; then let my wife grind for 10 another, and let others bow down upon her. For that would 11 be a heinous crime; yea, it would be iniquity to be punished by the judges. For it is a fire that consumes to Avaddon, and 12 would root out all my increase. If I did despise the cause 13 of my manservant or of my maidservant, when they contended with me; what then shall I do when GOD rises up? and when 14 he remembers, what shall I answer him? Did not he who 15 made me in the belly make him? and did not one fashion us in the womb? If I have withheld the poor from their desire, 16 or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail; or have eaten my 17 morsel myself alone, and the fatherless have not eaten thereof; (for from my youth he was brought up with me, as with a 18 father, and I have guided her from my mother's womb;)

if I have seen any perish for want of clothing, or any poor 19 without covering; if his loins have not blessed me, and if he 20 were not warmed with the fleece of my sheep; if I have lifted 21 up my hand against the fatherless, even though I saw my help in the gate: then let my arm fall from my shoulder blade, and 22 my arm be broken from the bone. For destruction from GOD 23 was a terror to me, and by reason of his majesty I could do nothing. If I have made gold my hope, or have said to the 24 fine gold, Thou art my confidence; if I rejoiced because my 25 wealth was great, and because my hand had gotten much; if I beheld the sun when it shone, or the moon walking in 26 brightness ; and my heart had been secretly enticed, or my mouth 27 had kissed my hand: this also were an iniquity to be punished 28 by the judge: for I should have betrayed the GOD that is above.
Did I rejoice at the destruction of him who hates me, or did 29
I exult when evil found him? Indeed I have not suffered my 30 mouth to sin by wishing a curse to his soul. Have not the 31 men of my tent said, Oh that we had of his flesh! we cannot be satisfied? But the stranger did not lodge in the street: 32
I opened my doors to the traveller. Have I covered my trans- 33 gressions like Adam, by hiding my iniquity in my bosom? Did 34
I fear the great multitude, or did the contempt of families terrify me? but I kept silence, and went not out of the door.
Oh that one would hear me! here is my mark, let the Almighty 35 answer me! and would that my adversary would pen his writ!
Surely I would take it upon my shoulder, and bind it as a 36 crown to me. I would declare to him the number of my steps; 37 as a prince would I go near to him. If my land cry against me, 38 or its furrows complain together; if I have eaten its fruits 39 without money, or have caused its owners to sigh: let thistles 40 grow instead of wheat, and cockle instead of barley. The words of Iyyov are ended.

So these three men ceased to answer Iyyov, because he was 32 righteous in his own eyes. Then the wrath of Elihu the 2 son of Barakh'el the Buzite, of the family of Ram burned: against Iyyov his anger burned, because he justified himself rather than GOD. Also against his three friends did his anger 3 burn, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Iyyov. Now Elihu had waited to speak to Iyyov because they 4 were older than he. When Elihu saw that there was no answer 5 in the mouth of these three men, then his anger burned.

And Elihu the son of Barakh'el the Buzite answered and 6 said, I am young, and you are very old; therefore I was afraid, and durst not declare my opinion to you. I said, Days should 7 speak, and multitude of years should teach wisdom. But there 8 is a spirit in man: and the breath of the Almighty gives them understanding. The old are not always wise: nor do the aged 9 understand judgment. Therefore I said, Hearken to me; I also 10 will express my opinion. Behold, I waited for your words; I 11 gave ear to your reasons, whilst you searched out what to say.
Yea, I attended unto you, and, behold, there was none of you 12 that convinced Iyyov, or that answered his words. Beware 13 lest you say, We have found out wisdom: GOD will thrust him down, not man. Now he has not directed his words against me: 14 so that I will not answer him with your speeches. They are 15 amazed, they answer no more: they have left off speaking.
And shall I wait because they do not speak; because they stand 16 there, and answer no more? I also will answer my part, I also 17 will express my opinion. For I am full of words; the spirit 18 within me constrains me. Behold, my belly is like wine which 19 has no vent; it is ready to burst like new wineskins. I will 20 speak, that I may find relief: I will open my lips and answer.
Let me not, I pray you, respect any man's person, nor let me 21 give flattering titles to any man. For I do not know how to 22 flatter; or else my maker would soon take me away. But now, 33 Iyyov, I pray thee, hear my speeches, and hearken to all my words. Behold, now I have opened my mouth, my tongue has 2 spoken in my mouth. My words shall be of the uprightness of 3 my heart: and my lips shall utter knowledge in purity. The 4 spirit of GOD has made me, and the breath of the Almighty has given me life. If thou canst, answer me; set thy words in order 5 before me; stand up. Behold, I am towards GOD as thou art: 6 I also am formed out of the clay. Behold, my terror shall not 7 make thee afraid, nor shall my pressure be heavy upon thee.
Surely thou hast spoken in my hearing, and I have heard the 8 voice of thy words, saying, I am clean without transgression, 9 I am innocent; neither is there iniquity in me. Behold, he finds 10 occasions against me, he counts me for his enemy. He puts my 11 feet in the stocks, he marks all my paths. Behold, in this thou 12 art not right: I will answer thee, that GOD is greater than man. Why dost thou strive against him, seeing that none of 13 his words will answer you. Surely GOD speaks once, yea twice, 14 yet man perceives it not. In a dream, in a vision of the night, 15 when deep sleep falls upon men, in slumberings upon the bed, then he opens the ears of men, and with discipline seals their 16 instruction, that he may withdraw man from his purpose, and 17 hide pride from man. He keeps back his soul from the pit, and 18 his life from perishing by the sword. He is chastened also with 19 pain upon his bed, and the multitude of his bones with strong pain: so that his life abhors bread, and his soul dainty food. 20 His flesh is consumed away, that it cannot be seen; and his 21 bones that were not seen stick out. For his soul draws near to 22 the pit, and his life to the destroyers. If there be an angel over 23 him, an interpreter, one among a thousand, to declare to man what is right: then he is gracious to him, and says, Deliver him 24 from going down to the pit: I have found a ransom. His flesh 25 shall be smoother than a child's: he shall return to the days of his youth: he shall pray to GOD, and he will be favourable to 26 him: and he shall see his face with joy: for he will render to man his righteousness. He should then assemble a row of men, 27 and say, I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it profited me not. Thus he will redeem his soul from going into 28 the pit, and his life shall see the light. Lo, GOD does all these 29 things twice or three times with a man, to bring back his soul 30 from the pit, to be enlightened with the light of the living. Mark 31 well, O Iyyov, hearken to me: hold thy peace, and I will speak.

If thou hast anything to say, answer me: speak, for I desire to 32 justify thee. If not, hearken to me: hold thy peace, and I shall 33 teach thee wisdom. Furthermore, Elihu answered and said, 34 Hear my words, O wise men; and give ear to me, you who have 2 knowledge. For the ear tries words, as the palate tastes food. 3 Let us choose what is right: let us know among ourselves 4 what is good. For Iyyov has said, I am righteous: and GOD 5 has taken away my right: notwithstanding my right I am 6 counted a liar; my wound is incurable, though I am without transgression. What man is like Iyyov, who drinks up scorning 7 like water? who goes in company with the workers of iniquity, 8 and walks with wicked men. For he has said, It profits a man 9 nothing that he should be in accord with GOD. Therefore hear- 10 ken to me, you men of understanding: far be it from GOD, that he should do wickedness; and from the Almighty, that he should commit iniquity. For the work of a man shall he pay back to 11 him, and according to his ways will he cause to befall every man. Yea, surely GOD will not do wickedly, nor will the Al- 12 mighty pervert justice. Who has given him a charge over the 13 earth? or who has disposed the whole world? If he set his 14 heart upon man, if he gather to himself his spirit and his breath; all flesh shall perish together, and man shall return to dust. 15
If now thou hast understanding, hear this: hearken to the voice 16 of my words. Shall even one that hates right govern? and wilt 17 thou condemn him that is most just? Is it fit to say to a king, 18 Thou art base? and to princes, You are wicked? How much 19 less to him who does not respect the persons of princes, nor regards the rich more than the poor? for they all are the work of his hands. In a moment they die, at midnight the people 20 are shaken, and pass away; for they are removed and spirited away without hands. For his eyes are upon the ways of man, 21 and he sees all his goings. There is no darkness, nor deep gloom, 22 where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves. For he 23 will not lay upon man anything more, that he should enter into judgment with GOD. He shall break in pieces mighty men 24 without number, and set others in their stead. Surely he knows 25 their works, and he overturns them in the night, so that they are destroyed. He strikes them as wicked men in the open sight 26 of others; because they turned back from following him, and 27 would not have regard to any of his ways: so that they cause 28 the cry of the poor to come to him, and he hears the cry of the afflicted. When he gives quietness, who then can condemn? and 29 when he hides his face, who then can behold him? Whether against a nation, or against a man alike: that the hypocrite 30 reign not, lest the people be ensnared. For surely it is fitting 31 to say to GOD, I suffer, I will no more offend: that which I do 32 not see teach me: if I have done iniquity, I will do no more.

Shall he recompense it according to thy mind, when thou re- 33 fusest his judgment? shall he say, Thou shalt choose, and not I; and speak what thou knowst. Men of understanding will tell 34 me, and the wise man who hears me will say, Iyyov has spoken 35 without knowledge, and his words were without wisdom. Would 36 that Iyyov may be tried to the end because he answers like wicked men. For he adds rebellion to his sin; he strikes his fist 37 among us, and multiplies his words against GOD. Then Elihu 35 spoke, and said, Thinkst thou this to be right, that thou dost 2 say, My righteousness is more than GOD's? For thou dost say, 3 What advantage will it be to thee? and, What profit shall I have, more than if I had sinned? I will answer thee, and thy com- 4 panions with thee. Look to the heavens, and see; and behold 5 the clouds which are higher than thou. If thou hast sinned, what 6 doest thou against him? or if thy transgressions are multiplied, what doest thou for him? If thou art righteous, what givest thou 7 him? or what does he receive of thy hand? Thy wickedness 8 may hurt a man as thou art; and thy righteousness may profit the son of man. By reason of the multitude of oppressors the 9 oppressed cry: they cry out by reason of the arm of the mighty.
But none says, Where is GOD my maker, who gives songs in the 10 night; who teaches us by the beasts of the earth, and makes 11 us wiser by the birds of the sky? There, when they cry he does 12 not answer, because of the pride of evil men. Surely GOD will 13 not hear an empty cry, nor will the Almighty regard it.
Although thou sayst, Thou wilt not regard it, yet judgment is 14 before him; therefore trust in him. But now, because his anger 15 does not punish, and he does not heed the multitude of the words, therefore does Iyyov open his mouth in vain, and multi- 16 plies words without knowledge. Elihu also proceeded, and 36 said, Suffer me a little, and I will show thee; for I have yet 2 words to speak on GOD's behalf. I will fetch my knowledge 3 from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker. For 4 truly my words are not false: one that is perfect in knowledge is with thee. Behold, GOD is mighty, and despises not any: he 5 is mighty in strength of wisdom. He preserves not the life of 6 the wicked: but gives to the poor their right. He withdraws 7 not his eyes from the righteous: but with kings on the throne he establishes them for ever, and they are exalted. And if they 8 are bound in fetters, and are held in cords of affliction; then 9 he declares to them their work, and their transgressions when they behave arrogantly. He opens also their ear to discipline, 10 and commands that they return from iniquity. If they obey and 11 serve him, they shall spend their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasures. But if they do not obey, they shall perish by 12 the sword, and they shall die without knowledge. But the hypo- 13 crites in heart heap up wrath: they do not cry when he binds them. They die in youth, and their life ends in shame. He delivers the poor by means of his affliction, and opens their ears by oppression. He has even removed thee out of distress into a broad place, where there is no straitness; and that which is set on thy table is full of fatness. But thou art full of the judgment of the wicked: judgment and justice take hold on thee. But beware of wrath, lest he take thee away with his clenched fist: nor let the greatness of the ransom turn thee aside. Will thy riches avail, that are without stint, or all the forces of thy strength? Desire not the night, when people are cut off in their place. Take heed, regard not iniquity: for this hast thou chosen rather than affliction. Behold, GOD is exalted by his power: who teaches like him? Who has enjoined him his way? or who can say, Thou hast wrought iniquity? Remember that thou magnify his work, which men behold. Every man may see it; man may behold it afar off. Behold, GOD is great, and we know it not, nor can the number of his years be searched out. When he draws up small drops of water, they are distilled into a stream of rain; which the clouds do drop and pour down on man abundantly. Can anyone understand the spreadings of the clouds, or the noise of his tabernacle? Behold, he spreads his light about him, and covers the roots of the sea. For by these he judges the peoples; he gives food in abundance. He covers his hands with the lightning, and commands it where it shall strike. The noise of the storm tells of it; yea the cattle also of the rising tempest. At this also my heart trembles, and is moved out of its place. Hear attentively the noise of his voice, and the sound that goes out of his mouth. He directs it under the whole heaven, and his lightning to the ends of the earth. After it a voice roars: he thunders with the voice of his excellency; and he will not stay them when his voice is heard. GOD thunders marvellously with his voice; great things he does, which we cannot comprehend. For he says to the snow, Be thou on the earth; likewise to the small rain, and to the great rain of his strength. He seals up the hand of every man; that all men whom he has made may know his work. Then the beasts go into dens, and remain in their places. Out of the chamber comes the storm: and cold out of the scattering winds. By the breath of GOD ice is given: and the breadth of the waters is straitened. Also he burdens the thick cloud with an overflow: the cloud scatters lightning: and it is turned round about by his counsels: that they may do whatever he commands them upon the face of the world, his land. He causes it to come, whether for correction, or for his land, or for love. Hearken to this, O Iyyov: stand still, and consider the wondrous works of GOD. Dost thou know how GOD lays his command on them, and causes the lightning of his cloud to shine? Dost thou know the balancings of the clouds, the wondrous works of him who is perfect in knowledge? Thou whose garments are warm, when the earth is quiet because of the south wind? Canst thou with him spread out the sky, which is strong as a molten mirror? Teach us what we shall say to him; for we cannot order our speech by reason of darkness. Shall it be told him that I would speak? or should a man wish to be swallowed up? And now men see not the bright light which is in the clouds: 21 but the wind passes, and cleanses them. Gold comes out of the 22 north: about GOD is terrible majesty. The Almighty, (we cannot 23 find him out:) he is excellent in power, and in judgment, and in plenty of justice: he will not oppress. Men do therefore fear 24 him: he regards not any who are wise of heart. Then the 38 LORD answered Iyyov out of the storm wind, and said, Who 2 is this that darkens counsel by words with out knowledge? Gird 3 up now thy loins like a man; for I will demand of thee, and let me know thy answer. Where wast thou when I laid the 4 foundations of the earth? declare, if thou hast understanding.

Who determined its measurements, if thou knowst? or who 5 has stretched the line upon it? whereupon are its foundations 6 fastened? or who laid its corner stone; when the morning stars 7 sang together, and all the sons of GOD shouted for joy? or who 8 shut up the sea with doors, when it broke forth, and issued out of the womb? when I made the cloud its garment, and thick 9 darkness a swaddling band for it, and prescribed bounds for it, 10 and set bars and doors, and said, Hitherto shalt thou come, but 11 no further: and here shall thy proud waves be stayed? Hast 12 thou commanded the morning since thy days began; and caused the dayspring to know its place; that it might take hold of the 13 ends of the earth, that the wicked might be shaken out of it?
It is changed like clay under the seal; and they stand as a 14 garment. And from the wicked their light is withheld, and the 15 high arm shall be broken. Hast thou entered into the springs 16 of the sea? or hast thou walked in the recesses of the depth?
have the gates of death been opened to thee? or hast thou seen 17 the doors of deepest darkness? hast thou comprehended the 18 expanse of the earth? declare if thou knowst it all. Where is the 19 way where light dwells? and as for darkness, where is its place, that thou shouldst take it to its bound, and that thou shouldst 20 know the paths to its home? Thou knowst it because thou wast 21 then born, and the number of thy days is great. Hast thou 22 entered the treasuries of the snow? or hast thou seen the treasuries of the hail, which I have reserved against the time 23 of trouble, against the day of battle and war? By what way is 24 the light parted, or the east wind scattered upon the earth?
who has divided a watercourse for the torrent of rain, or a 25 way for the lightning of thunder; to cause it to rain on a land 26 where no man is; on the wilderness, wherein there is no man; to satisfy the desolate and waste ground; and to cause the bud 27 of the tender herb to spring forth? Has the rain a father? or 28 who has begotten the drops of dew? out of whose womb came 29 the ice? and the hoar frost of heaven, who has given it birth?
The waters are hidden as with a stone, and the face of the 30 deep forms a solid mass. Canst thou bind the chains of the 31 Pleiades, or loosen the cords of Orion? canst thou bring forth 32 Mazzarot in their season? or canst thou guide the Bear with his sons? knowst thou the ordinances of heaven? canst thou 33 establish its dominion in the earth? canst thou lift up thy voice 34 to the clouds, that abundance of waters may cover thee? canst 35 thou send lightnings, that they may go, and say to thee, Here we are? Who has put wisdom in the inward parts? or who has 36 given understanding to the birds? who can number the clouds 37 by wisdom? or who can refill the bottles of heaven, when the 38 dust grows into a mass, and the clods cleave fast together?

Wilt thou hunt the prey for the lion? or satisfy the appetite of 39 the young lions, when they couch in their dens, and abide in the 40 covert to lie in wait? Who provides for the raven his provision? 41 when his young ones cry to GOD, and wander for lack of food?
Knowst thou the time when the wild goats of the rock bring 39 forth? or canst thou mark when the hinds do calve? canst thou 2 number the months that they fulfil? or knowst thou the time when they bring forth? They bow themselves, they bring forth 3 their young ones, they send forth their offspring. Their young 4 ones grow strong; they grow up with corn; they go forth, and return not to them. Who has sent out the wild ass free? or who 5 has loosed the bands of the onager? whose house I have made 6 the wilderness, and the salt land his dwellings. He scorns the 7 tumult of the city, nor does he regard the shouts of the driver.
The range of the mountains is his pasture, and he searches after 8 every green thing. Will the wild ox be willing to serve thee, or 9 will he abide by thy crib? canst thou bind the wild ox with 10 ropes in the furrow? or will he harrow the valleys after thee?
wilt thou trust him, because his strength is great? or wilt thou 11 leave thy labour to him ? wilt thou believe him, that he will bring 12 home thy seed, and gather it into thy barn? The wing of the 13 ostrich waves joyously; but are they the pinions and plumage of the stork? For she leaves her eggs in the earth, and warms 14 them in dust, and forgets that the foot may crush them, or that 15 the wild beast may break them. She is hardened against her 16 young ones, as though they were not hers: though her labour is in vain of yet she is without fear; because GOD has deprived 17 her of wisdom, nor has he imparted to her understanding. At some 18 time she lifts up herself on high; she scorns the horse and his rider. Hast thou given the horse strength? hast thou clothed 19 his neck with power? Dost thou make him leap like a locust? 20 the glory of his nostrils is terrible. He paws in the valley, 21 and rejoices in his strength: he goes out to meet the battle.
He mocks at fear, and is not affrighted; nor does he turn back 22 from the sword. The quiver rattles against him, the glittering 23 spear and the javelin. He swallows the ground with fierceness 24 and rage: nor does he believe that it is the sound of the trumpet.
He says among the trumpets, Ha, ha; and he smells the battle 25 afar off, the thunder of the captains, and the shouting. Does 26 the hawk fly by thy wisdom, and stretch her wings towards the south? does the vulture mount up at thy command, and 27 make her nest on high? She dwells and abides on the rock, 28 upon the crag of the rock, and the strong place. From thence 29 she swoops down on the prey, and her eyes behold afar off.
Her young ones also suck up blood: and where the slain are, 30 there is she. Then the LORD answered Iyyov, and said, 40
Shall a reprover contend with the Almighty? he who reproaches 2
GOD, let him answer it. Then Iyyov answered the LORD, 3 and said, Behold, I am vile; what shall I answer thee? I lay 4 my hand upon my mouth. Once I have spoken; but I will not 5 answer: yea, twice; but I will proceed no further. Then 6 the LORD answered Iyyov out of the storm wind, and said, Gird up thy loins now like a man: I will demand of thee, and 7 declare thou unto me. Wilt thou also disavow my judgment? 8 wilt thou condemn me, that thou mayst be in the right? hast 9 thou an arm like GOD? or canst thou thunder with a voice like him? Deck thyself now with majesty and excellency; and array 10 thyself with glory and beauty. Cast abroad the rage of thy wrath: 11 and behold everyone that is proud, and abase him. Look on 12 everyone that is proud, and bring him low; and tread down the wicked in their place. Hide them in the dust together; 13 and bind their faces in the hiding place. Then I will also confess 14 to thee that thy own right hand can save thee. Behold now 15 behemot, which I made with thee; he eats grass like an ox.

Lo now, his might is in his lions, and his force is in the muscles 16 of his belly. He stiffens his tail like a cedar: the sinews of his 17 thighs are knit together. His bones are tubes of brass; his 18 limbs are like bars of iron. He is the beginning of the ways of 19 GOD: let him that made him bring near his sword to him!
Surely the mountains bring him forth food, where all the wild 20 beasts play. He lies under the thorny bushes, in the cover of the 21 reed, and fens. The thorny bushes cover him with their shadow; 22 the willows of the brook compass him about. Behold, he drinks 23 up a river, and hastens not: he trust that river will thrust some food into his mouth. Shall anyone take him with his eyes 24 open? or pierce through his nose with a snare? Canst thou draw 25 out livyatan with a hook? or press down his tongue with a cord? canst thou put a hook into his nose? or bore his jaw through 26 with a bridle ring? will he make many supplications to thee? 27 will he speak soft words to thee? will he make a covenant with 28 thee? to take him for thy servant for ever? wilt thou play with 29 him as with a bird? or wilt thou bind him for thy girls? will 30 the tradesmen heap up payment for him? shall they part him among the merchants? canst thou fill his skin with barbed irons? 31 or his head with fish spears? Lay thy hand upon him! thou wilt 32 no more think of fighting. Behold, the hope of him is in vain: 41 shall not one be cast down even at the sight of him? None is 2 so fierce that dare stir him up: who then is able to stand before me? Who has a claim on me from before, that I should repay 3 him? whatever is under the whole heaven is mine. I will hold 4 my peace at him; listen to his words, the report of his power, and his graceful speech. Who can uncover the face of his 5 garment? or who can come within his double bridle? who can 6 open the doors of his face? his teeth are terrible round about.
His scales are his pride, shut up together as with a close seal: 7 one is so near to another, that no air can come between them: 8 they are joined one to another, they stick together, that they 9 cannot be sundered. His sneezings flash forth light, and his 10 eyes are like the eyelids of the morning. Out of his mouth go 11 burning torches, and sparks of fire leap out. Out of his nostrils 12 goes smoke, as out of a seething pot and burning rushes. His 13 breath kindles coals, and a flame goes out of his mouth. In his 14 neck abides strength, and terror dances before him. The flakes 15 of his flesh are joined together: they are firm upon him; they cannot be moved. His heart is as firm as a stone; yea, as hard 16 the nether millstone. When he raises himself up, the mighty 17 are afraid: by reason of the crashings they are beside themselves.

Though the sword reaches him, it does not avail; nor the spear, 18 the dart, or the javelin. He esteems iron as straw, and brass as 19 rotten wood: the arrow cannot make him flee: slingstones are 20 turned with him into stubble: darts are counted as stubble; he 21 laughs at the shaking of a spear. His underparts are like sharp 22 potsherds: he spreads himself like a threshing sledge on the mire. He makes the deep to boil like a pot: he makes the sea 23 like a kettle. After him he leaves a shining wake; one would 24 think the deep to be hoary. Upon earth there is not his like, who 25 is made without fear. He beholds all high things: he is a king 26 over all the children of pride. Then Iyyov answered the 42 LORD, and said, I know that thou canst do everything, and that 2 no purpose of thine can be thwarted. Who is he that hides 3 counsel without knowledge? therefore I have uttered that which I did not understand; things too wonderful for me, which I knew not. Hear, I beseech thee, and I will speak: I will demand of 4 thee, and declare thou unto me. I have heard of thee by the 5 hearing of the ear: but now my eye sees thee. Wherefore I 6 abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes.
And it was so, that after the LORD had spoken these words to 7 Iyyov, the LORD said to Elifaz the Temanite, My anger burns against thee, and against thy two friends: for you have not spoken of me the thing that is right, like my servant Iyyov. Therefore 8 take for yourselves now seven bullocks and seven rams, and go to my servant Iyyov, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Iyyov shall pray for you: for to him I will show favour in doing you no disgrace, although you have not spoken of me the thing which is right, like my servant Iyyov. So Elifaz 9 the Temanite and Bildad the Shuḥite and Ẓofar the Na'amatite went, and did as the LORD commanded them: the LORD also accepted Iyyov. And the LORD restored the fortunes of Iyyov, 10 when he prayed for his friends: and the LORD gave Iyyov twice as much as he had before. Then all his brothers came to him, 11 and all his sisters, and all they who had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house: and they bemoaned him, and comforted him over all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him: every man also gave him a qesita, and everyone an earring of gold. So the LORD blessed the latter 12 end of Iyyov more than his beginning: for he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she asses. He had also seven sons and 13 three daughters. And he called the name of the first, Yemima; 14 and the name of the second, Qeẓi'a; and the name of the third, Qeren-happukh. And in all the land were no women found 15 so fair as the daughters of Iyyov: and their father gave them inheritance among their brothers. After this Iyyov lived a hun- 16 dred and forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, even four generations. So Iyyov died, being old and full of days. 17

THE song of songs, which is Shelomo's. Let him kiss me with 1,2 the kisses of his mouth: for thy love is better than wine. Thy 3 ointments are fragrant; for thy flowing oil thou art renowned: therefore do the virgins love thee. Draw me, we will run after 4 thee: the king has brought me into his chambers: we will be glad and rejoice in thee, we will praise thy love more than wine: sincerely they love thee. I am black, but comely, 5 O daughters of Yerushalayim, like the tents of Qedar, like the curtains of Shelomo. Do not gaze upon me, because I am black, 6 because the sun has scorched me: my mother's children were angry with me; they made me the keeper of the vineyards; but my own vineyard I have not kept. Tell me, O thou whom 7 my soul loves, where thou feedest, where thou makest thy flock to rest at noon: for why should I be like one who cloaks himself by the flocks of thy companions? If thou know not, O 8 thou fairest among women, go thy way forth by the footsteps of the flock, and feed thy kids besides the shepherds' tents.
I compare thee, O my love, to a mare of the chariots of 9 Par'o. Thy cheeks would be comely with rows of jewels, thy 10 neck with strings of beads. We will make thee necklets of gold 11 studded with silver. While the king was reclining at his board, 12 my nard sent forth its fragrance. My wellbeloved is to me a 13 bundle of myrrh that lies between my breasts. My beloved is 14 to me a cluster of henna in the vineyards of 'En-gedi. Be- 15 hold, thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair; thou hast doves' eyes. Behold, thou art fair, my beloved, yea, pleasant: 16 also our couch is green. The beams of our house are cedar, and 17 our rafters are of cypress. I am the tulip of the Sharon; the 2 daffodil of the vallies. Like the lily among thorns, so is my 2 love among the daughters. Like the apple tree among the trees 3 of the wood, so is my beloved among the sons. I sat down under his shadow with great delight, and his fruit was sweet to my taste. He brought me to the banqueting house, and his 4 banner over me was love. Let me lean against the stout trunks, 5 let me couch among the apple trees: for I am sick with love.
His left hand is under my head, and his right hand embraces 6 me. I charge you, O daughters of Yerushalayim, by the gazelles, 7 and by the hinds of the field, that you stir not up, nor awake my love, till it please. The voice of my beloved! behold, 8 he comes leaping upon the mountains, skipping upon the hills.
My beloved is like a gazelle or a young hart: behold, he 9 stands behind our wall, he looks in at the windows; he peers through the lattice. My beloved spoke, and said to me, Rise up, 10 my love, my fair one, and come away. For, lo, the winter is 11 past, the rain is over and gone; the flowers appear on the 12 earth; the time of the singing bird is come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land; the fig tree puts forth her green 13 figs, and the vines in blossom give their scent. Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away. O my dove, who art in the 14 clefts of the rock, in the secret places of the cliff, let me see thy countenance, let me hear thy voice; for sweet is thy voice, and thy countenance is comely. Take us the foxes, the 15 little foxes, that spoil the vineyards: for our vineyards are in blossom. My beloved is mine, and I am his: he feeds among the 16 lilies. Before the day cools, and the shadows flee away, turn, 17 my beloved, and be thou like a gazelle or a young hart upon the mountains of Beter. By night on my bed I sought him 3 whom my soul loves: I sought him, but I found him not. I will 2 rise now, and go about the city in the streets, and in the broad ways I will seek him whom my soul loves: I sought him, but I found him not. The watchmen that go about the city found 3 me: to whom I said, Have you seen him whom my soul loves?

Scarce had I passed from them, when I found him whom my 4 soul loves: I held him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother's house, and into the chamber of her who conceived me. I charge you, O daughters of Yerusha- 5 layim, by the gazelles, and by the hinds of the field, that you stir not up, nor awake my love, till it please. Who is this 6 coming out of the wilderness like columns of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all powders of the merchant? Behold it is his litter, that of Shelomo! sixty valiant men 7 are round about it, of the mighty men of Yisra'el. All girt with 8 swords, and expert in war: every man has his sword upon his thigh because of the fear by night. King Shelomo made 9 himself a palanquin of the timbers of the Levanon. He made its 10 pillars of silver, its back of gold, its seat of purple, the midst of it being inlaid lovingly, by the daughters of Yerushalayim.
Go forth, O daughters of Ẓiyyon, and behold king Shelomo with 11 the crown with which his mother crowned him on the day of his wedding, and on the day of the gladness of his heart.

Behold, thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair; 4 thou hast doves' eyes behind thy veil: thy hair is like a flock of goats, that cascade down from mount Gil'ad. Thy teeth 2 are like a flock of shorn ewes, which came up from the washing; all of which bear twins, and none of them miscarries.
Thy lips are like a thread of scarlet, and thy mouth is comely: 3 thy cheek is like a piece of a pomegranate within thy locks.
Thy neck is like the tower of David built with turrets, on which 4 there hang a thousand bucklers, all shields of mighty men. Thy 5 two breasts are like two fawns, twins of a gazelle, which feed among the lilies. Before the day cools, and the shadows flee 6 away, I will get me to the mountain of myrrh, and to the hill of frankincense. Thou art all fair, my love; there is no blemish 7 in thee. Come with me from Levanon, my bride, with 8 me from Levanon: look from the top of Amana, from the top of Senir and Ḥermon, from the lions' dens, from the mountains of the leopards. Thou hast ravished my heart, my sister, my 9 bride; thou hast ravished my heart with one of thy eyes, with one link of thy necklace. How fair is thy love, my sister, my 10 bride! how much better is thy love than wine! and the smell of thy ointments than all spices! Thy lips, O my bride, drop 11 as the honeycomb: honey and milk are under thy tongue; and the scent of thy garments is like the scent of Levanon. A 12 garden enclosed is my sister, my bride; a spring shut up, a fountain sealed. Thy shoots are an orchard of pomegranates, 13 with pleasant fruits, henna and nard. Nard and saffron, cala- 14 mus and cinnamon, with all trees of frankincense; myrrh and aloes, with all the chief spices: a fountain of gardens, a well 15 of living waters, and streams from Levanon. Awake, O north 16 wind; and come, thou south; blow upon my garden, that the spices thereof may flow out. Let my beloved come into his garden, and eat its choicest fruits." I am come into my garden, 5 my sister, my bride: I have gathered my myrrh with my spice; I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk. Eat, O dear ones, and drink; drink deep, O loving companions. I sleep, but my heart wakes: hark, 2 my beloved is knocking, saying, Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled: for my head is filled with dew, and my locks with the drops of the night. I have put off my coat; 3 how shall I put it on? I have washed my feet; how shall I soil them? My beloved put in his hand by the latchet of the door, 4 and my heart was thrilled for him. I rose up to open to my 5 beloved; and my hands dropped with myrrh, and my fingers with flowing myrrh, upon the handles of the lock. I opened to 6 my beloved; but my beloved had turned away, and was gone:

my soul failed when he spoke: I sought him, but I could not find him; I called him, but he gave me no answer. The watch- 7 men who went about the city found me, they struck me, they wounded me; the keepers of the walls took away my veil from me. I charge you, O daughters of Yerushalayim, if you find 8 my beloved, that you tell him, that I am sick with love.
What is thy beloved more than another beloved, O thou fairest 9 among women? what is thy beloved more than another beloved, that thou dost so charge us? My beloved is white and ruddy, 10 distinguished among ten thousand. His head is as the most fine 11 gold, his locks are wavy, and black as a raven. His eyes are like 12 doves by the water courses, washed with milk, and fitly set.
His cheeks are like a bed of spices, like banks of fragrant 13 flowers: his lips like lilies, dropping flowing myrrh. His hands 14 are like rods of gold set with emeralds: his belly is polished ivory overlaid with sapphires. His legs are pillars of marble, 15 set upon sockets of fine gold: his countenance is like the Levanon, excellent as the cedars. His mouth is most sweet: 16 and he is altogether lovely. This is my beloved, and this is my friend, O daughters of Yerushalayim. Where is thy beloved 6 gone, O thou fairest among women? where has thy beloved turned aside? that we may seek him with thee. My beloved 2 is gone down into his garden, to the beds of spices, to feed in the gardens, and to gather lilies. I am my beloved's, and 3 my beloved is mine: he feeds among the lilies.
Thou art beautiful, O my love, as Tirẓa, comely as Yerusha- 4 layim, terrible as an army with banners. Turn away thy eyes 5 from me, for they have overcome me: thy hair is like a flock of goats cascading down from Gil'ad. Thy teeth are like a 6 flock of sheep which go up from the washing, of which all bear twins, and not one of them miscarries. As a piece of a pome- 7 granate is thy cheek within thy veil. There are sixty queens, and 8 eighty concubines and young women without number. My dove, 9 my undefiled is but one: she is the only one of her mother, she is the choice one of her that bore her. The daughters saw her, and called her happy; and the queens and the concubines praised her. Who is she that looks out like the dawn, 10 fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners? I went down into the garden of nuts to see the 11 fruits of the valley, and to see whether the vine had blossomed, whether the pomegranates were in flower. Without my knowing 12 it, my soul set me among the chariots of a princely people. Return 7 return, O Shulammite; return, return, that we may look upon thee. What will you see in the Shulammite? as it were the dance at Maḥanayim. How beautiful are thy feet in sandals, O prince's 2 daughter! thy rounded thighs are like jewels, the work of the hands of an artist. Thy navel is like a round goblet, that never 3 lacks blended wine: thy belly is like a heap of wheat set about with lilies. Thy two breasts are like two fawns, the twins of a 4 gazelle. Thy neck is like a tower of ivory; thy eyes like the 5 pools in Ḥeshbon, by the gate of Bat-rabbim: thy nose is like the tower of the Levanon which looks toward Dammeseq. Thy 6 head upon thee is like the Karmel, and the hair of thy head like purple: a king is caught in its tresses. How fair and how 7 pleasant art thou, O love, for delights! This thy stature is like 8 a palm tree, and thy breasts are like clusters of grapes. I said, 9

I will go up into the palm tree, I will take hold of its boughs: may thy breasts be like clusters of the vine, and the scent of thy countenance like apples; and the roof of thy mouth like the 10 best wine, that goes down sweetly for my beloved, causing the sleepers' lips to murmur. I am my beloved's, and his desire is 11 towards me. Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field; 12 let us lodge in the villages. Let us get up early to the vine- 13 yards; let us see if the vine has flowered, if the grape blossoms have opened, if the pomegranates are in flower: there will I give thee my loves. The mandrakes give a fragrance, and 14 at our gates are all manner of choice fruits, new and old, which I have laid up for thee, O my beloved. O that thou wert 8 as my brother, that sucked the breasts of my mother! when I should find thee outside, I would kiss thee; and none would scorn me. I would lead thee, and bring thee into the house 2 of my mother who brought me up: I would cause thee to drink of spiced wine, of the juice of my pomegranate. His left hand 3 is under my head, and his right hand embraces me. I charge 4 you, O daughters of Yerushalayim, that you stir not up, nor awaken my love, until it please. Who is that, coming 5 up from the wilderness, leaning upon her beloved? I roused thee under the apple tree: there thy mother was in travail with thee: there she who bore thee was in travail. Set me as 6 a seal upon thy heart, as a seal upon thy arm: for love is strong as death; jealousy is cruel as She'ol: the coals thereof are coals of fire, which have a most vehement flame. Many 7 waters cannot quench love, nor can the floods drown it: if a man would give all the substance of his house for love, it would be utterly scorned. We have a little sister, and 8 she has no breasts: what shall we do for our sister in the day when she shall be spoken for? If she be a wall, we will build 9 upon her a battlement of silver: and if she be a door, we will enclose her with boards of cedar. I was a wall, and my breasts 10 were like towers: then was I in his eyes as one who finds content. Shelomo had a vineyard at Ba'al-hamon; he let out 11 the vineyard to keepers; everyone for its fruit was to bring a thousand pieces of silver. My vineyard, which is mine, is before 12 me: thou, O Shelomo, may have the thousand, and those that keep its fruit two hundred. Thou that dwellest in the gardens, 13 the companions hearken for thy voice: cause me to hear it.

Make haste, my beloved, and be thou like a gazelle or a young 14 hart upon the mountains of spices.

Now it came to pass in the days when the judges ruled, that 1 there was a famine in the land. And a certain man of Bet-leḥem in Yehuda went to sojourn in the country of Mo'av, he, and his wife, and his two sons. And the name of the man was 2 Elimelekh, and the name of his wife Na'omi, and the name of his two sons, Maḥlon and Kilyon, Efratites from Bet-leḥem in Yehuda. And they came into the country of Mo'av, and remained there. And Elimelekh, Na'omi's husband died; and she 3 was left, and her two sons. And they took wives for themselves 4 of the women of Mo'av; the name of the one was 'Orpa, and the name of the other Rut: and they dwelled there about ten years. And Maḥlon and Kilyon died, both of them; so that the 5 woman was bereft of her two sons and her husband. Then she 6 arose with her daughters in law, that she might return from the country of Mo'av: for she had heard in the country of Mo'av that the LORD had visited his people in giving them bread.
So she went out of the place where she was, and her two 7 daughters in law with her; and they took the road to return to the land of Yehuda. And Na'omi said to her two daughters 8 in law, Go, return each of you to her mother's house: the LORD deal loyally with you, as you have dealt with the dead, and with me. The LORD grant you that you may find rest, each of you 9 in the house of her husband. Then she kissed them; and they lifted up their voice, and wept. And they said to her, No, we 10 will return with thee to thy people. And Na'omi said, Turn back, 11 my daughters: why will you go with me? are there yet any more sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands?
turn back, my daughters, go your way; for I am too old to 12 have a husband. If I should say, I have hope, even if I should have a husband tonight, and should bear sons; would you 13 tarry for them till they were grown? would you, for them, refrain from having husbands? no, my daughters; for it grieves me much for your sakes that the hand of the LORD is gone out against me. And they lifted up their voice, and wept again: 14 and 'Orpa kissed her mother in law; but Rut held fast to her.
And she said, Behold, thy sister in law has gone back to her 15 people, and to her gods: go back after thy sister in law. And 16 Rut said, Entreat me not to leave thee, or to return from following after thee: for wherever thou goest, I will go; and where thou lodgest, I will lodge: thy people shall be my people, and thy GOD my GOD: where thou diest, I will die, and there 17 will I be buried: the LORD do so to me, and more also, if aught but death part thee and me. When she saw that she was stead- 18 fastly minded to go with her, then she left off speaking to her.
So the two of them went on until they came to Bet-leḥem. And 19 it came to pass, when they were come to Bet-leḥem, that all the city was astir at their arrival, and they said, Is this Na'omi? And she said to them, Call me not Na'omi, call me 20 Mara: for the Almighty has dealt very bitterly with me. I went 21 out full, and the LORD has brought me back empty: why then do you call me Na'omi, seeing the LORD has testified against me, and the Almighty has afflicted me? So Na'omi returned, and 22 Rut the Mo'avite woman, her daughter in law, with her, who returned out of the country of Mo'av: and they came to Betlehem at the beginning of the barley harvest. Now Na'omi 2 had a kinsman of her husband's, a man of wealth, of the family of Elimelekh; and his name was Bo'az. And Rut the Mo'avite 2 said to Na'omi, Let me now go to the field, and glean ears of corn after him in whose sight I shall find favour. And she said to her, Go, my daughter. And she went, and came, and 3 gleaned in the field after the reapers: and she happened to come to a part of the field belonging to Bo'az, who was of the kindred of Elimelekh. And, behold, Bo'az came from Bet- 4 lehem, and said to the reapers, The LORD be with you. And they answered him, The LORD bless thee. Then Bo'az said to 5 his servant that was set over the reapers, Whose maiden is this? And the servant that was set over the reapers answered 6 and said, It is the Mo'avite girl who came back with Na'omi out of the country of Mo'av: and she said, I pray you, let me 7 glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves: so she came, and has continued from the morning until now, scarcely spending any time in the hut. Then said Bo'az to Rut, Hearest 8 thou not, my daughter? Go not to glean in another field, nor go away from here, but keep close here to my maidens: let thy 9 eyes be on the field that they reap, and go after them: have I not charged the young men that they shall not touch thee?

and when thou art thirsty, go to the vessels, and drink of that which the young men have drawn. Then she fell on her face, 10 and bowed herself to the ground, and said to him, Why have I found favour in thy eyes, that thou shouldst take notice of me, seeing I am a stranger? And Bo'az answered and said to her, It 11 has been fully related to me, all that thou hast done to thy mother in law since the death of thy husband: and how thou hast left thy father and thy mother, and the land of thy birth, and art come to a people whom thou knewest not before.
The LORD recompense thy deed, and may a full reward be 12 given thee by the LORD GOD of Yisra'el, under whose wings thou art come to take refuge. Then she said, Let me find favour 13 in thy sight, my lord; for thou hast comforted me, and thou hast spoken gently to thy handmaid, though I am not even like one of thy handmaidens. And Bo'az said to her at the mealtime, 14 Come here, and eat of the bread, and dip thy morsel in the vinegar. And she sat beside the reapers: and he reached her parched corn, and she did eat, and was replete, and left. And 15 when she was risen up to glean, Bo'az commanded his young men, saying, Let her even glean among the sheaves, and do not reproach her: and let fall also some of the handfuls on 16 purpose for her, and leave them, that she may glean them, and do not rebuke her. So she gleaned in the field until even- 17 ing, and beat out what she had gleaned: and it was about an efa of barley. And she took it up, and went into the city: 18 and her mother in law saw what she had gleaned: and she brought it out, and gave to her what she had left over after she had eaten her fill. And her mother in law said to her, Where 19 hast thou gleaned today? and where hast thou worked? blessed is he who took notice of thee. And she related to her mother in law where she had worked, and said, The man's name where I worked today is Bo'az. And Na'omi said to her daughter in 20 law, Blessed is he of the LORD, who has not left off his steadfast love to the living and to the dead. And Na'omi said to her,

The man is near of kin to us, one of our nearest kinsmen. And 21 Rut the Mo'avite said, He said to me also, Thou shalt keep close by my young men, until they have ended all my harvest.
And Na'omi said to Rut her daughter in law, It is good, my 22 daughter, that thou go out with his maidens, and that they meet thee not in any other field. So she kept close to the maidens 23 of Bo'az to glean to the end of the barley harvest and of the wheat harvest; and dwelt with her mother in law. Then Na'omi 3 her mother in law said to her, My daughter, shall I not seek a home for thee, that it may be well with thee? And now is not 2 Bo'az of our kindred, with whose maidens thou wert? Behold, he winnows barley tonight in the threshingfloor. Wash thyself 3 therefore, and anoint thyself, and put thy raiment upon thee, and get thee down to the threshingfloor: but do not make thyself known to the man, until he has finished eating and drinking.
And it shall be, when he lies down, that thou shalt mark the 4 place where he shall lie, and thou shalt go in, and uncover his feet, and lay thee down; and he will tell thee what thou shalt do. And she said to her, All that thou sayest to me I will do. 5 And she went down to the threshingfloor, and did according to 6 all that her mother in law bade her. And when Bo'az had 7 eaten and drunk, and his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of corn: and she came softly, and uncovered his feet, and laid herself down. And it came to pass 8 at midnight, that the man was startled, and turned over: and, behold, a woman lay at his feet. And he said, Who art thou? 9 And she answered, I am Rut thy handmaid: spread therefore thy skirt over thy handmaid; for thou art a near kinsman. And 10 he said, Blessed be thou of the LORD, my daughter: for thou hast shown more loyalty in the latter end than at the beginning, inasmuch as thou didst not follow the young men, whether poor or rich. And now, my daughter, fear not; I will do to thee 11 all that thou requirest: for all the city of my people knows that thou art a virtuous woman. And now it is true, that 12
I am thy near kinsman: yet there is a kinsman nearer than I.
Tarry this night, and it shall be in the morning, that if he will 13 perform to thee the part of a kinsman, well; let him do the kins-man's part: but if he will not do the part of a kinsman to thee, then will I do the part of a kinsman to thee, as the LORD lives: lie down until the morning. And she lay at his feet until the 14 morning: and she rose up before one could recognize another person. And he said, Let it not be known that a woman came into the threshingfloor. Also he said, Bring the veil that thou 15 hast upon thee, and hold it. And when she held it, he measured six measures of barley, and laid it on her: and he went into the city. And when she came to her mother in law, she said, Who 16 art thou, my daughter? And she told her all that the man had done to her. And she said, These six measures of barley he 17 gave me; for he said to me, Do not go empty to thy mother in law. Then she said, Sit still, my daughter, until thou know how 18 the matter will fall: for the man will not rest quiet until he finishes the matter to day. Then Bo'az went up to the gate, and 4 sat down there: and, behold, the kinsman of whom Bo'az spoke came by; unto whom he said, Ho there, such and such a one!

turn aside, sit down here. And he turned aside, and sat down.
And he took ten men of the elders of the city, and said, Sit 2 down here. And they sat down. And he said to the kinsman, 3 Na'omi, who is come back out of the country of Mo'av, is selling a parcel of land, which was our brother Elimelekh's: and I 4 thought to advise thee of it, saying, Buy it in the presence of the inhabitants, and in the presence of the elders of my people.
If thou wilt redeem it, redeem it: but if thou wilt not redeem it, then tell me, that I may know: for there is none to redeem it besides thee; and I am after thee. And he said, I will redeem it. Then said Bo'az, On the day thou buyest the field from the 5 hand of Na'omi, thou must buy also from Rut the Mo'avite, the wife of the dead, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance. And the kinsman said, I cannot redeem it for my- 6 self, lest I harm my own inheritance: take my right of redemption for thyself; for I cannot redeem it. Now this was the 7 custom in former time in Yisra'el concerning redeeming and concerning exchanging, to confirm all manner of transactions; a man pulled off his shoe, and gave it to his neighbour: and this was the manner of attesting in Yisra'el. Therefore the kins- 8 man said to Bo'az, Buy it for thyself. And he drew off his shoe.
And Bo'az said to the elders, and to all the people, you are 9 witnesses this day, that I have bought all that was Elimelekh's, and all that was Kilyon's and Maḥlon's, from the hand of Na'omi. Moreover Rut the Mo'avite, the wife of Maḥlon, have 10
I acquired as my wife, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, that the name of the dead be not cut off from among his brethren, and from the gate of his place: you are witnesses this day. And all the people that were in the gate, 11 and the elders, said, We are witnesses. The LORD make the woman that is come into thy house like Raḥel and like Le'a, which two did build the house of Yisra'el; and be prosperous in Efrata, and be famous in Bet-leḥem: and let thy house be like 12 the house of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Yehuda, of the seed which the LORD shall give thee of this young woman. So Bo'az 13 took Rut, and she was his wife: and he went in to her, and the LORD gave her conception, and she bore a son. And the women 14 said to Na'omi, Blessed is the LORD, who has not left thee this day without a redeemer, that his name may be famous in Yisra'el. And he shall be to thee a restorer of thy life, and a nou- 15 risher of thy old age: for thy daughter in law, who loves thee, who is better to thee than seven sons, she has born him. And 16 Na'omi took the child, and laid it in her bosom, and became nurse to it. And the women her neighbours gave it a name, 17 saying, There is a son born to Na'omi; and they called his name
'Oved: he is the father of Yishay, the father of David.
Now these are the generations of Perez: Perez begot Ḥezron, 18 and Ḥezron begot Ram, and Ram begot 'Amminadav, and 19,20

How does the city sit solitary, that was full of people! how is 1 she become like a widow! she that was great among the nations, and princess among the provinces, how is she become a vassal! She weeps sore in the night, and her tears are on her 2 cheeks: among all her lovers she has none to comfort her; all her friends have dealt treacherously with her, they have become her enemies. Yehuda is gone into exile because of affliction, and because of great servitude: she dwells among the 3 nations, she finds no rest: all her persecutors overtook her within the straits. The ways of Ziyyon do mourn, because none 4 come to the solemn assembly: all her gates are desolate: her priests sigh, her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness. Her adversaries have become the chief, her enemies prosper; 5 for the LORD has afflicted her for the multitude of her transgressions: her infants are gone into captivity before the enemy. And from the daughter of Ziyyon all her splendour is departed: 6 her princes are become like harts that find no pasture, and they are gone without strength before the pursuer. Yerushalayim 7 remembers in the days of her affliction and of her miseries all her pleasant things that she had in the days of old, when her people fell into the hand of the enemy, and none did help her: the adversaries saw her, and gloated at her destruction. Yeru- 8 shalayim has grievously sinned; therefore she is become loathsome: all that honoured her despise her, because they have seen her nakedness: she herself also sighs, and turns backward. Her filthiness was in her skirts; she took no thought of her 9 last end; therefore she came down astonishingly: she has no comforter. O LORD, behold my affliction: for the enemy has magnified himself. The adversary has spread out his hand upon 10 all her pleasant things: for she has seen that heathen nations invade her sanctuary, those whom thou didst forbid to enter into thy congregation. All her people sigh, they seek bread; 11 they have given their pleasant things for food to relieve the soul: see, O LORD, and consider; how abject I am become. Is 12 it nothing to you, all you that pass by? behold, and see if there is any pain like my pain, which is done to me, with which the LORD has afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger. From above 13 he has sent fire into my bones, and it prevails against them: he has spread a net for my feet, he has turned me back: he has made me desolate and faint all the day. The yoke of my 14 transgressions is fastened on by his hand: they are knit together, and come up upon my neck: he has made my strength to fall, the LORD has delivered me into the hands of those against whom I am not able to rise up. The LORD has spurned 15 all my mighty men in the midst of me: he has called an assembly against me to crush my young men: the LORD has trodden the virgin, the daughter of Yehuda, as in a winepress. For these things I weep; my eye, my eye runs down with water, 16 because the comforter that should relieve my soul is far from me: my children are desolate, because the enemy has prevailed. Ziyyon spreads out her hands, and there is none to comfort 17 her: the LORD has commanded against Ya'aqov, adversaries round about him: Yerushalayim is like a menstruous woman among them. The LORD is righteous; for I have rebelled 18 against his word: hear, I pray you, all the peoples, and behold my pain: my virgins and my young men are gone into captivity. I called for my lovers, but they deceived me: my priests 19 and my elders perished in the city, while they sought food for themselves to relieve their souls. Behold, O LORD; for I am in 20 distress: my bowels are troubled; my heart is turned within me; for I have grievously rebelled: abroad the sword bereaves, at home it is like death. They have heard that I sigh: there 21 is none to comfort me: all my enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that thou hast done it: thou wilt bring the day that thou hast called, and they shall be like me. Let all 22 their wickedness come before thee; and do to them, as thou hast done to me for all my transgressions: for my sighs are many, and my heart is faint.

How has the LORD covered the daughter of Ziyyon with a 2 cloud in his anger, and cast down from heaven to earth the beauty of Yisra'el, and remembered not his footstool in the day of his anger! The LORD has swallowed up without pity 2 all the habitations of Ya'aqov: he has thrown down in his wrath the strongholds of the daughter of Yehuda; he has brought them down to the ground: he has profaned the kingdom and its princes. He has cut off in his fierce anger all 3 the horn of Yisra'el: he has drawn back his right hand from before the enemy, and he has burned against Ya'aqov like a flaming fire, which devours round about. He has bent his bow 4 like an enemy: with his right hand set like an adversary, he has slain all that were pleasant to the eye: in the tent of the daughter of Ziyyon, he has poured out his fury like fire. The 5 LORD was like an enemy: he has swallowed up Yisra'el, he has swallowed up all her palaces: he has destroyed his strongholds, and has increased in the daughter of Yehuda mourning and lamentation. And he has stripped his tabernacle, as if it 6 were a garden: he has destroyed his place of assembly: the LORD has caused the appointed seasons and sabbaths to be forgotten in Ziyyon, and has spurned in the indignation of his anger both king and priest. The LORD has cast off his altar, he 7 has abhorred his sanctuary, he has given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces; they have made a noise in the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn assembly.
The LORD has purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of 8 Ziyyon: he has stretched out a line, he has not withdrawn his hand from destroying: therefore he made the rampart and the wall to lament; they languish together. Her gates are sunk 9 into the ground; he has destroyed and broken her bars: her king and her princes are among the nations: there is no Tora; her prophets also find no vision from the LORD. The elders of 10 the daughter of Ziyyon sit upon the ground, and keep silence:
they have cast up dust upon their heads; they have girded themselves with sackcloth: the virgins of Yerushalayim hang down their heads to the ground. My eyes fail with tears, my 11 bowels are troubled, my liver is poured upon the earth, for the breach of the daughter of my people; because the children and the sucklings swoon in the broad places of the city. They say 12 to their mothers, Where is corn and wine? when they swoon like wounded men in the broad places of the city, when their soul is poured out into their mothers' bosom. What shall I take 13 to witness for thee? what shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Yerushalayim? what shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Ziyyon? for thy breach is great like the sea: who can heal thee? Thy prophets have seen for thee 14 vain and foolish visions: and they have not exposed thy iniquity, to restore thy captivity; but have prophesied for thee burdens of falsehood and deceit. All that pass by clap their 15 hands at thee; they hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Yerushalayim, saying, Is this the city that men call The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth? All thy enemies 16 have opened their mouth against thee: they hiss and gnash the teeth: they say, We have swallowed her up: certainly this is the day that we have looked for; we have found it, we have seen it. The LORD has done that which he devised; he has 17 fulfilled his word that he commanded in the days of old: he has thrown down without pity: and he has caused the enemy to rejoice over thee, he has raised up the horn of thy adversaries. Their heart cried to the LORD. O wall of the daughter of 18 Ziyyon, let tears run down like a river day and night: give thyself no rest; let not the apple of thy eye cease. Arise, cry out 19 in the night: in the beginning of the watches pour out thy heart like water before the face of the LORD: lift up thy hands towards him for the life of thy young children, that faint for hunger at the head of every street. Behold, O LORD, and con- 20 sider to whom thou hast done this. Shall the women eat their fruit, their cherished babes? shall priest and prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the LORD? Young and old lie on the ground in 21 the streets: my virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword; thou hast slain them in the day of thy anger; thou hast killed, and not pitied. Thou hast called as in the day of a 22 solemn assembly, my terrors round about, so that in the day of the LORD'S anger none escaped or remained: those that I have cherished and brought up my enemy has consumed.

I am the man who has seen affliction by the rod of his wrath. 3
He has led me, and brought me into darkness, but not into 2 light. Surely he is turned against me; he turns his hand against 3 me all the day. He has made my flesh and my skin to waste 4 away; he has broken my bones. He has built a mound against 5 me, and has beset me round about at head and hell. He has set 6 me in dark places, as those who are long ago dead. He has 7 hedged me about, so that I cannot get out: he has made my chain heavy. Even when I cry and call for help, he stops up 8 my prayer. He has enclosed my ways with hewn stone, he 9 has made my paths crooked. He is to me like a bear lying in 10 wait, and like a lion in secret places. He has turned aside my 11 ways, and pulled me in pieces: he has made me desolate. He 12 has bent his bow, and set me as a mark for the arrow. He has 13 caused the arrows of his quiver to enter into my reins. I am 14 become a derision to all my people; and their song all the day.

He has filled me with bitterness, he has sated me with worm- 15 wood. He has also broken my teeth with gravel stones, he has 16 pressed me down into the ashes. My soul is far removed from 17 peace: I have forgotten prosperity. And I said, My strength and 18 my hope are perished from the LORD. Remember my affliction 19 and my misery, the wormwood and the gall. My soul has them 20 still in remembrance, and is bowed down within me. This I recall 21 to my mind, therefore I have hope: that the LORD's steadfast love 22 has not ceased, and that his compassions do not fail. They are 23 new every morning: great is thy faithfulness. The LORD is my 24 portion, says my soul; therefore I will hope in him. The LORD 25 is good to those who wait for him, to the soul that seeks him.
It is good that a man should quietly hope for the salvation of 26 the LORD. It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his 27 youth. Let him sit alone and keep silence, because he has taken 28 it upon him. Let him put his mouth in the dust; perhaps there 29 may be hope. Let him offer his cheek to him who strikes 30 him; let him take his fill of insult. For the LORD will not cast 31 off for ever: but though he cause grief, yet will he have com- 32 passion according to the abundance of his steadfast love. For 33 he does not willingly afflict or grieve the children of men. To 34 crush under foot all the prisoners of the earth, to turn aside the 35 right of a man before the face of the most High, to subvert a 36 man in his cause, the LORD approves not. Who is he that says, 37 and it comes to pass, when the LORD commands it not? Out 38 of the mouth of the most High do not both good and evil come?
Why then does a living man complain, a man for the punish- 39 ment of his sins? Let us search and try our ways, and turn 40 back to the LORD. Let us lift up our heart with our hands to 41 GOD in the heavens. We have transgressed and have rebelled: 42 thou hast not pardoned. Thou hast covered with anger, and pur- 43 sued us: thou hast slain, thou hast not pitied. Thou hast 44 covered thyself with a cloud, so that prayer should not pass through. Thou hast made us offscouring and refuse in the 45 midst of the people. All our enemies have opened their mouths 46 wide against us. Fear and the pit are come upon us, deso- 47 lation and destruction. My eye runs down with rivers of water 48 for the breach of the daughter of my people. My eye trickles 49 down, and ceases not, without any intermission, till the LORD 50 look down, and behold from heaven. My eye affects my soul 51 because of all the daughters of my city. They chased me sore, 52 like a bird, those who hate me without cause. They have cut 53 off my life in the dungeon, and have cast stones upon me.
Waters flowed over my head; then I said, I am cut off. I called 54,55 upon thy name, O LORD, out of the nethermost pit. Thou hast 56 heard my voice: hide not thy ear at my sighing, at my cry.
Thou didst draw near in the day that I called upon thee: thou 57 didst say, Fear not. O LORD, thou hast pleaded the causes of 58 my soul; thou hast redeemed my life. O LORD, thou hast seen 59 my wrong: judge my cause. Thou hast seen all their vengeance 60 and all their devices against me. Thou hast heard their insult, 61 O LORD, and all their devices against me; the lips of those 62 who rose up against me, and their muttering against me all the day. Behold their sitting down, and their rising up; I am 63 their song. Render to them a recompense, O LORD, according 64 to the work of their hands. Give them sorrow of heart; thy 65 curse be on them! Pursue them in anger and destroy them 66 from under the heavens of the LORD.

How is the gold become dim! how is the most fine gold 4 changed! the hallowed stones are poured out at the top of every street. The precious sons of Ziyyon, comparable to fine 2 gold, how are they esteemed as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter! Even the jackals draw out the breast, 3 they give suck to their young ones: the daughter of my people is become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness. The tongue 4 of the sucking child cleaves to the roof of his mouth for thirst:
the young children ask bread, and no man gives it to them.
They that did feed on dainties are desolate in the streets: 5 they that were brought up in scarlet embrace dunghills. For the 6 doom of the daughter of my people is greater than the sin of Sedom, that was overthrown as in a moment, no hands being laid upon her. Her Nazirites were purer than snow, they 7 were whiter than milk, they were more ruddy in body than rubies, their polishing was as of sapphire: now their visage 8 is blacker than coal; they are not known in the streets: their skin is shrivelled upon their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick. Those slain with the sword are better than 9 those slain with hunger: for when pierced through, the former do ooze with the produce of the fields. Hands of compassionate 10 women have boiled their own children: they were their food in the destruction of the daughter of my people. The LORD has 11 accomplished his fury; he has poured out his fierce anger, and has kindled a fire in Ziyyon and it has devoured its foundations. The kings of the earth, and all the inhabitants of the 12 world, would not have believed that the adversary and the enemy would enter the gates of Yerushalayim. It was for the 13 sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, who shed the blood of the just in the midst of her, They wandered 14 blind through the streets, polluted with blood, so that none could touch their garments. Away! unclean! they cried at them; 15 away! away! do not touch. So they fled, and wandered away:
among the nations it was said, They shall no longer sojourn here. The anger of the LORD has divided them; he will no more 16 regard them: they respected not the persons of the priests, they were not gracious to the elders. As for us, our eyes do 17 yet fail for our vain help: in our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save. They hunt our steps, that we 18 cannot walk in our broad places: our end is near, our days are fulfilled; for our end is come. Our pursuers were swifter 19 than the vultures in the sky: they chased us upon the mountains, they lay in wait for us in the wilderness. The breath 20 of our nostrils, the anointed of the LORD, was taken in their pits, of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the nations. Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, that 21 dwellest in the land of 'Uz; the cup shall also pass over to thee: thou shalt be drunken, and strip thyself bare. The punish- 22

ment of thy iniquity is accomplished, O daughter of Ziyyon; he will no more carry thee away into exile: he will visit thy iniquity, O daughter of Edom; he will uncover thy sins.

Remember, O LORD, what is come upon us: consider, and behold our insult. Our inheritance is turned over to strangers, our houses to aliens. We are become orphans and fatherless, our mothers are like widows. We have drunk our water for money; our own wood is sold to us. We are pursued to our necks: we labour, and have no rest. We have given the hand to Mizrayim, and to Ashshur, to be satisfied with bread. Our fathers have sinned, and are no more; but we bear their iniquities. Servants rule over us: there is none to deliver us out of their hand. We get our bread with the peril of our lives because of the sword of the wilderness. Our skin is hot like an oven because of the burning famine. Women are ravished in Ziyyon, and maidens in the cities of Yehuda. Princes are hanged up by their hand: the faces of elders are not honoured. Young men drag the millstone, and youths stumble under the wood. The elders have ceased from the gate, the young men from their music. The joy of our heart is ceased; our dance is turned into mourning. The crown is fallen from our head: woe to us, that we have sinned! For this our heart is faint; for these things our eyes are dim. Because of the mountain of Ziyyon, which is desolate, foxes prowl over it. Thou, O LORD, art enthroned forever; thy throne is from generation to generation. Why dost thou forget us forever, why dost thou so long forsake us? Turn us to thee, O LORD, and we shall be turned; renew our days as of old: unless thou hast utterly rejected us; and art exceedingly angry against us.

The words of Qohelet, the son of David, king in Yerushalayim. 1
Vanity of vanities, says Qohelet, vanity of vanities ; all is vanity. 2
What profit has a man of all his labour wherein he labours 3 under the sun? One generation passes away, and another ge- 4 neration comes: but the earth abides for ever. The sun also 5 rises, and the sun goes down, and hastens to its place where it rises again. The wind goes towards the south, and veers to 6 the north; round and round goes the wind, and on its circuits the wind returns. All the rivers run into the sea; yet the sea is 7 not full; to the place where the rivers flow, thither they return.
All things are full of weariness ; man cannot utter it : the eye 8 is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing. That 9 which has been, it is that which shall be; and that which has been done is that which shall be done: and there is nothing new under the sun. Is there a thing whereof it may be said, 10 See, this is new; but it has already been in the ages before us.
There is no remembrance of former things; nor will there be 11 any remembrance of things that are to come among those who shall come after.
I Qohelet was king over Yisra'el in Yerushalayim. And I gave 12,13 my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning all things that are done under the heaven: it is a sore task that GOD has given to the sons of man to be exercised with. I have seen 14 all the works that are done under the sun; and, behold, all is vanity and a striving after wind. That which is crooked cannot 15 be made straight: and that which is wanting cannot be numbered. I spoke to my own heart, saying, See, I have acquired 16 great wisdom, surpassing all those who were before me in Yerushalayim: for my heart has seen much of wisdom and knowledge. And I gave my heart to know wisdom, and to know 17 madness and folly: I perceived that this also was a striving after wind. For in much wisdom is much grief: and he that in- 18 creases knowledge increases sorrow. I said in my heart, Come 2 now, I will try thee with mirth, therefore enjoy pleasure: and, behold, this also was vanity. I said of laughter, It is mad: and 2 of mirth, What does it achieve? I sought in my heart to stimu- 3 late my body with wine (yet guiding my heart with wisdom ;) and to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was good for the sons of men, which they should do under the heaven all the days of their life. I made great works for myself ; I built houses ; 4 I planted vineyards: I made gardens and orchards, and I planted 5 trees in them of all kind of fruits : I made pools of water, from 6 which to water a forest of growing trees : I acquired male and 7 female servants, and had servants born in my house; also I had great possessions of herds and flocks, more than all who were in Yerushalayim before me: I gathered also silver and gold, 8 and the treasure of kings and of the provinces: I acquired men singers and women singers, and the delights of the sons of men, women very many. So I was great, and increased more 9 than all that were before me in Yerushalayim: also my wisdom remained with me. And whatever my eyes desired I did not 10 withhold from them; I did not restrain my heart from any joy; for my heart rejoiced in all my labour: and this was my portion of all my labour. Then I looked at all the works that my hands 11 had wrought, and at the labour that I had laboured to do: and, behold, all was vanity and a striving after wind, and there was no profit under the sun. And I turned myself to behold wisdom, 12 and madness, and folly: for what can the man do who comes after the king? even that which has been already done. Then I 13 saw that wisdom excels folly, as far as light excels darkness.

The wise man's eyes are in his head; but the fool walks in 14 darkness: and I myself perceived also that one event happens to them all. Then I said in my heart, As it happens to the fool, 15 so it happens even to me; and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also is vanity. For of the wise man 16 as of the fool there is no enduring remembrance; seeing that which now is, shall, in the days to come, be entirely forgotten.
And how does the wise man die? just like the fool. Therefore I 17 hated life; because the work that is done under the sun was grievous to me: for all is vanity and a striving after wind.
And I hated all my labour in which I had laboured under the 18 sun: because I must leave it to the man who shall come after me. And who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? 19 yet shall he have rule over all my labour in which I have laboured, and in which I have shown myself wise under the sun. This also is vanity. Therefore I went about to cause my 20 heart to despair of all the labour which I took under the sun.
For there is a man whose labour is with wisdom, and with 21 knowledge, and with skill; yet he must leave it for a portion to a man who has not laboured in it. This also is vanity and a great evil. For what has a man of all his labour, and of the 22 striving of his heart, in which he labours under the sun? For 23 all his days are pains, and his work is a vexation; even in the night his heart takes no rest. This also is vanity. There is 24 nothing better for a man, than that he should eat and drink, and that he should make his soul enjoy good in his labour; but this also I saw, that it was from the hand of GOD. For who can 25 eat, or who can enjoy pleasure, more than I? Surely he gives to 26 a man that is good in his sight, wisdom, and knowledge, and joy: but to the sinner he gives the task of gathering and heaping up, that he may give it to one who is good before GOD.
This also is vanity and a striving after wind. To everything 3 there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:
a time to be born, and a time to die; 2 a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; a time to kill, and a time to heal; 3 a time to break down, and a time to build up; a time to weep, and a time to laugh; 4 a time to mourn, and a time to dance; a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; 5 a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
a time to seek, and a time to lose; 6 a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

What profit has the worker from his toil? I have seen the task, 9,10 which GOD has given to the sons of men to be exercised in it.
He has made every thing beautiful in his time: also he has set 11 the mystery of the world in their heart, so that no man can find out the work which GOD has made from the beginning to the end. I know that there is nothing better for them, than 12 to rejoice, and to do good in his life: also that it is the gift of 13 GOD that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labour. I know that, whatever GOD does, it shall be 14 forever: nothing can be added to it, nor anything taken from it: and GOD does it, so that men should fear before him. That 15 which is, already has been; and that which is to be has already been; and only GOD can find the fleeting moment. And more- 16 over I saw under the sun in the place of judgment, that wickedness was there; and in the place of righteousness, that iniquity was there. I said in my heart, GOD shall judge the righteous 17 and the wicked: for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work. I said in my heart, after the speech of the 18 sons of men, that GOD has chosen them out, but only to see that they themselves are but as beasts; that that which befalls 19 the sons of men befalls the beasts; even one thing befalls them both: as the one dies, so the other dies; yea, they have all one breath; so that a man has no preeminence over a beast: for all is vanity. All go to one place; all are of the dust, and all 20 return to dust. Who knows whether the spirit of man goes up- 21 wards, and the spirit of the beast goes downwards to the earth?
So I saw that there is nothing better, than that a man should 22 rejoice in his work; for that is his portion: for who shall bring him to see what shall be after him? So I returned, and con- 4 sidered all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and behold the tears of such as were oppresed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter. So I praised the dead that 2 are already dead more than the living that are yet alive; but 3 better than both of them is he who has not yet been, who has not seen the evil work that is done under the sun. Again, I 4 considered all labour, and every skill in work, that it comes from a man's rivalry with his neighbour. This also is vanity and a striving after wind. The fool folds his hands together, and 5 eats his own flesh. Better is a handful with quietness, than both 6 the hands full of labour and striving after wind. Then I retur- 7 ned, and I saw vanity under the sun. There is one alone, without 8 a companion; yea, he has neither son nor brother: yet is there no end of all his labour; neither is his eye satisfied with riches:
he may say, For whom then do I labour, and bereave my soul of good? This is also vanity; indeed, it is a sorry business. Two 9 are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labour. For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: 10 but woe to him that is alone when he falls; for he has not another to help him up. Again, if two lie together, then they 11 have warmth: but how can one be warm alone? And if one 12 prevail against him, two shall withstand him; but a threefold cord is not quickly broken. Better is a poor and a wise child 13 than an old and foolish king, who no longer knows how to take care of himself. For out of prison one came forth to reign; 14 whilst another in his royal power may become poor. I saw 15 all the living who wander under the sun — they were with the second child who was to rise up in his stead. There is no end 16 of all the people who come to acclaim the one who goes before them: yet they who come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and a striving after wind. Keep thy foot when 17 thou goest to the house of God; to draw near to hearken is better than to give the sacrifice of fools: for they consider not that they do evil. Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thy 5 heart be hasty to utter anything before God: for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore let thy words be few.

For a dream comes through a multitude of business; and a 2 fool's voice is known by a multitude of words. When thou 3 vowest a vow to God, do not defer to pay it; for he has no pleasure in fools: pay that which thou hast vowed. Better is 4 it that thou shouldst not vow, than that thou shouldst vow and not pay. Do not let thy mouth cause thy flesh to sin; nor 5 say before the angel, that it was an error: why should God be angry at thy voice and destroy the work of thy hands? For this 6 comes from the multitude of dreams and vanities and many words: but fear thou God. If thou seest the oppression of the 7 poor, and the violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, do not marvel at the matter: for there is a high one who watches over him that is high; and there are yet higher ones over them. Moreover, land has an advantage for every- 8 one: he who tills a field is a king. He who loves silver 9 shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loves abundance with increase: this is also vanity. When goods increase, they 10 who eat them are increased: and what good is there to the their owner, saving the beholding of them with his eyes ? The 11 sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much: but the repletion of the rich will not suffer him to sleep.
There is a sore evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, 12 riches kept for their owner to his hurt. But those riches perish 13 by evil adventure: and he begets a son, and there is nothing in his hand. As he came forth from his mother's womb, naked 14 shall he return to go as he came, and he shall take nothing for his labour, which he may carry away in his hand. And this also 15 is a sore evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go: and what profit has he that labours for the wind? All his days 16 also he eats in darkness, and he has much sorrow and sickness and wrath. Behold that which I have seen: it is good and 17 comely for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labour in which he toils under the sun all the days of his life, which GOD gives him: for it is his portion. Every man 18 also to whom GOD has given riches and wealth, and has given him power to eat of it, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labour; this is the gift of GOD. For he shall remember that 19 the days of his life are not many, in which GOD provides him with the joy of his heart. There is an evil which I have seen 6 under the sun, and it is heavy upon men: a man to whom GOD 2 has given riches, wealth, and honour, so that he lacks nothing for his soul of all that he desires, yet GOD does not give him power to eat of it but a stranger eats it: this is vanity, and it is an evil disease. If a man begets a hundred children, and lives 3 many years, so that the days of his years are many, and his soul is not content with the good, and also that he has no burial; I say, that an untimely birth is better than he. For it 4 comes in vanity, and departs in darkness, and its name is covered with darkness. Moreover it has not seen the sun, nor 5 known anything: this has more comfort than the other. For 6 though he live a thousand years twice told, yet he has seen no good: do not all go to one place? All the labour of man is for 7 his mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled. For what advan- 8 tage has the wise more than the fool? what has the poor man who knows how to make his way among the living? Better is 9 the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire: this is also vanity and a striving after wind. That which has been was 10 named long ago, and it is known that it is but man: nor may he contend with one who is mightier than he. Seeing there 11 are many things that increase vanity, what is man the better?

For who knows what is good for man in this life, all the days 12 of his vain life which he spends like a shadow? for who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun? A good 7 name is better than precious ointment; and the day of death than the day of one's birth. It is better to go to the house of 2 mourning, than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart. Sorrow 3 is better than laughter: for by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made glad. The heart of the wise is in the house 4 of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.
It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to 5 hear the song of fools. For as the crackling of thorns under a 6 pot, so is the laughter of the fool: this also is vanity. Surely 7 oppression makes a wise man mad; and a bribe destroys the heart. Better is the end of a thing than the beginning of it: and 8 the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit. Be not 9 hasty in thy spirit to be angry: for anger rests in the bosom of fools. Do not say, How was it that the former days were 10 better than these? for thou dost not inquire wisely concerning this. Wisdom is good with an inheritance: and by it there is 11 profit to them that see the sun. For wisdom is a defence, and 12 money is a defence: but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom gives life to those who have it. Consider the work of 13 GOD: for who can make that straight, which he has made crooked? In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of 14 adversity consider: GOD has made the one as well as the other, to the end that man should find nothing after him. All things 15 have I seen in the days of my vanity: there is a just man who perishes in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man who prolongs his life in his wickedness. Be not righteous overmuch; 16 nor make thyself overwise: why shouldst thou destroy thyself? Be not wicked overmuch, nor be foolish: why shouldst 17 thou die before thy time? It is good that thou shouldst take 18 hold of this: but do not withdraw thy hand from that either: for he that fears GOD performs them all. Wisdom strengthens 19 the wise more than ten rulers who are in a city. For there is 20 not a just man upon earth, that does good, and sins not. Also 21 take no heed to all words that are spoken; lest thou hear thy servant curse thee: for oftentimes also thy own heart knows 22 that thou thyself hast likewise cursed others. All this have I 23 proved by wisdom: I said, I will be wise; but it was far from me. That which is far off, and exceeding deep, who can find it 24 out? I cast about in my mind to know, and to search, and to 25 seek out wisdom, and the reason of things, and to know the wickedness of folly and foolishness which is madness: and I 26 find more bitter than death the woman, whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands are fetters: he who pleases GOD shall escape from her; but the sinner shall be caught by her. Behold, 27 this have I found, says Qohelet, counting one thing to another, to find out the sum, which yet my soul seeks, but I have not 28 found it: One man among a thousand I have found; but a woman among all those I have not found. Lo, this only have I 29 found, that GOD has made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions. Who is like the wise man? and who 8 knows the interpretation of a thing? a man's wisdom makes his face to shine, and the boldness of his face is changed. I 2 counsel thee to keep the king's commandment, and that in the manner of an oath of GOD. Be not hasty to go out of his pre- 3 sence: stand not in an evil thing; for he does whatever pleases him. For the word of a king has authority: and who may say 4 to him, What doest thou? He who keeps the commandment 5 shall feel no evil thing: and a wise man's heart discerns both time and method. For every matter has its time and method, 6 though the misery of man is great upon him. For he knows 7 not that which shall be: for who can tell him when it shall be?

There is no man who has power over the wind to retain the 8 wind; nor has he power over the day of death: and there is no discharge in that war; nor shall wickedness deliver those who are given up to it. All this have I seen, and have appointed my 9 heart to every work that is done under the sun: there is a time when one man rules over another to his own hurt. And so I 10 saw the wicked buried, and come to their rest; but those who had done right were gone from the holy place, and were forgotten in the city: this also is vanity. Because sentence 11 against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil. Though 12 a sinner do evil a hundred times, and his days are prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with those who fear GOD, who fear before him: but it shall not be well with the wicked, 13 and, like the shadow, he will not prolong his days; because he does not fear before GOD. There is a vanity which is done upon 14 the earth; that there are just men, to whom it happens according to the deeds of the wicked; again, there are wicked men, to whom it happens according to the deeds of the righteous: I said that this also is vanity. So I commend mirth, 15 because a man has no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be merry: for that shall accompany him in his labour during the days of his life, which GOD gives him under the sun. When I applied my heart to know wisdom, and 16 to see the business that is done upon the earth: (how one sees no sleep with one's eyes either by day or by night;) then I 17 beheld all the work of GOD, that a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun: because though a man labour to seek it out, yet he shall not find it; furthermore; though a wise man think to know it, yet he shall not be able to find it.

For all this I laid to my heart, and sought to clarify all this, 9 that the righteous, and the wise, and their deeds, are in the hand of GOD: no man knows whether love or hatred is in store: all is before them. All things come alike to all: there is one 2 event to the righteous, and to the wicked; to the good and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him who sacrifices, and to him who does not sacrifice: as is the good, so is the sinner; and he who swears, as he who fears an oath. This is an evil in 3 all things that are done under the sun, that there is one event to all: yea, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead. For to him that is joined to all the living 4 there is hope: for a living dog is better than a dead lion. For 5 the living know that they shall die: but the dead know nothing, nor do they have any more a reward; for the memory of them is forgotten. Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, 6 is now long perished; nor have they any more a portion forever in any thing that is done under the sun. Go thy way, eat thy 7 bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart; for GOD has already accepted thy works. Let thy garments be al- 8 ways white; and let thy head lack no oil. Live joyfully with the 9 wife whom thou lovest all the days of the life of thy vanity, which he has given thee under the sun, all the days of thy vanity: for that is thy portion in life, and in thy labour in which thou dost labour under the sun. Whatever thy hand finds 10 to do, do it with thy strength, for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in She'ol, whither thou goest. I re- 11 turned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, nor yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happens to them all. For man also knows 12 not his time: like the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and like the birds that are caught in the snare; so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falls suddenly upon them.

This wisdom have I seen also under the sun, and it seemed great 13 to me: there was a little city, and few men within it; and there 14 came a great king against it, and besieged it, and built great siegeworks against it: now there was found in it a poor wise 15 man, and he by his wisdom saved the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man. Then said I, Wisdom is better 16 than strength: nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard. The words of wise men heard in 17 quiet are better than the cry of him who rules among fools.
Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but one sinner destroys 18 much good. Dead flies cause the perfumer's ointment to give 10 off a foul odour: so does a little folly outweigh wisdom and honour. A wise man's heart inclines him to his right hand: 2 but a fool's heart to his left. Yea also, when a fool walks by 3 the way, his understanding fails him, and he reveals to everyone that he is a fool. If the spirit of the ruler rise up against 4 thee, do not leave thy place; for deference appeases great offences. There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, 5 when an error proceeds from the ruler: folly is set in great dig- 6 nity, and the rich sit in low place. I have seen servants upon 7 horses, and princes walking as servants upon the earth. He who 8 digs a pit shall fall into it; and whoever breaks through a hedge, a snake shall bite him. He who removes stones shall be 9 hurt by them; and he who chops wood shall be endangered by that. If the iron is blunt, and one does not whet the edge, then 10 he must put to more strength: but wisdom increases skill. If the 11 serpent bites and cannot be charmed, then there is no advantage in a charmer. The words of a wise man's mouth are 12 gracious; but the lips of a fool will swallow up himself. The 13 beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness: and the end of his talk is grievous madness. A fool also multiplies 14 words: yet no man can tell what shall be; and what shall be after him, who can tell him? The labour of fools wearies him- 15 self; for he does not know to get to the city. Woe to thee, O 16 land, when thy king is a child, and thy princes dine in the morning! Happy art thou, O land, when thy king is a man of 17 dignity, and thy princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness! By much slothfulness the beams col- 18 lapse; and through idleness of the hands the house leaks. A feast 19 is made for laughter, and wine makes life joyful: and money answers all things. Do not curse the king, no, not even in thy 20 thought; and do not curse the rich even in thy bedchamber:
for a bird of the sky shall carry the sound, and that which has wings shall tell the matter. Cast thy bread upon the waters: 11 for thou shalt find it after many days. Give a portion to seven, 2 and even to eight; for thou knowst not what evil shall be upon the earth. If the clouds are full of rain, they empty themselves 3 upon the earth: and if the tree falls towards the south, or towards the north, in the place where the tree falls, there it shall lie. He who observes the wind shall not sow; and he who 4 regards the clouds shall not reap. As thou knowst not what is 5 the way of the wind, nor how the bones grow in the womb of her that is with child: even so thou knowst not the works of GOD who makes all. In the morning sow thy seed, and in the 6 evening do not withhold thy hand: for thou knowst not which shall prosper, whether this or that, or whether they both shall 7 be alike good. Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing 8 it is for the eyes to behold the sun: for if a man live many years, let him rejoice in them all; yet let him remember the days of darkness; for they shall be many. All that comes is 9 vanity. Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth; and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thy heart, and in the sight of thy eyes: but know thou, that for all these things GOD will bring thee into judgment. There- 10 fore remove vexation from thy heart, and put away evil from thy flesh: for childhood and youth are vanity. Remember now 12 thy Creator in the days of thy youth, before the evil days come, and the years draw near, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them; before the sun, or the light, or the moon, 2 or the stars, are darkened, and the clouds return after the rain:

in the day when the keepers of the house tremble, and the 3 strong men bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows are dimmed, and the doors are shut in the street, when the sound of 4 the grinding is low, and one starts up at the voice of the bird, and all the daughters of music are brought low; when they are 5 also afraid of that which is high, and terrors are in the way, and the almond tree blossoms, and the grasshopper drags itself along, and the caperberry fails; because the man goes to his eternal home, and the mourners go about the streets; before the 6 silver cord is loosed, or the golden bowl is shattered, or the pitcher is broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern; and the dust returns to the earth as it was: and the 7 spirit returns to GOD who gave it. Vanity of vanities, says 8 Qohelet; all is vanity. And besides being wise, Qohelet also 9 taught the people knowledge; for he weighed, and sought out, and set in order many proverbs. Qohelet sought to find 10 out acceptable words: and words of truth written in proper form. The words of the wise are like spurs, and like nails well 11 driven in are the sayings of the masters of collections; they are given by one shepherd. And furthermore, my son, be admon- 12 ished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh. The end of the matter, when all is 13 said and done: Fear GOD, and keep his commandments: for that is the whole duty of man. For GOD shall bring every work into 14 judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.

Now it came to pass in the days of Aḥashverosh, (this is Aḥash- 1 verosh who reigned, from Hoddu as far as Kush,a hundred and twenty seven provinces:) that in those days, when the king 2 Aḥashverosh sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Shushan the capital, in the third year of his reign, he made a 3 feast for all his princes and his servants; the military power of Paras and Maday, the nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him: when he showed the riches of his glorious 4 kingdom and the honour of his excellent majesty many days, namely a hundred and eighty days. And when these days were 5 fulfilled, the king made a feast for all the people that were present in Shushan the capital, both for great and small, seven days, in the court of the garden of the king's palace: there 6 were hangings of white, of fine cotton, and blue, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple on silver rods and pillars of marble: the divans were of gold and silver, upon a pavement of alabaster, marble, pearl and precious stone. And they gave them 7 drink in vessels of gold, (the vessels being diverse from one another,) and royal wine in abundance, according to the king's bounty. And the drinking was according to the law; none did 8 compel: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure.

Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women, in 9 the royal house which belonged to king Aḥashverosh. On the 10 seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Bizzeta, Ḥarvona, Bigta, and Ava-gta, Zetar, and Karkas, the seven chamberlains who served in the presence of Aḥashverosh the king, to bring Vashti the 11 queen before the king with the crown royal, to show the people and the princes her beauty: for she was fair to look on. But 12 the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's commandment by his chamberlains: therefore the king was very wrathful, and his anger burned in him. Then the king said to the 13 wise men, who knew the times, (for so was the king's manner toward all that knew law and judgment: and the next to him 14 was Karshena, Shetar, Admata, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memukhan, the seven princes of Paras and Maday, who saw the king's face, and who sat the first in the kingdom;) What 15 shall we do to the queen Vashti according to law, because she has not performed the bidding of the king Aḥashverosh by the chamberlains? And Memukhan answered before the king 16 and the princes, Vashti the queen has not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the peoples who are in all the provinces of the king Aḥashverosh. For this deed 17 of the queen will be made known to all the women, so as to make their husbands contemptible in their eyes, when it shall be reported that the king Aḥashverosh commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not. And the 18 princesses of Paras and Maday, who have heard of the deed of the queen, shall be telling of it today to all the king's princes.
Thus shall there be contempt and wrath in plenty. If it please 19 the king, let a royal commandment go out from him, and let it be written among the laws of Paras and Maday, so that it be not altered, that Vashti come no more before king Aḥashverosh; and let the king give her royal estate to another who is better than she. And when the king's decree which he shall make shall 20 be published throughout all his kingdom, which is great, all the wives shall give honour to their husbands, both to high and low. And the saying pleased the king and the princes; and the 21 king did according to the word of Memukhan: for he sent let- 22 ters into all the king's provinces, into every province according to its writing, and to every people after their language, that every man should bear rule in his own house, and speak according to the language of his people. After these things, 2 when the wrath of king Aḥashverosh was appeased, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and what was decreed against her. Then the king's servants who ministered 2 to him said, Let fair young virgins be sought for the king: and 3 let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins to Shushan the capital, to the house of the women, to the custody of Hege the king's chamberlain, keeper of the women; and let their ointment be given them: and let the girl who pleases the 4 king be queen instead of Vashti. And the thing pleased the king; and he did so. Now in Shushan the capital there was a 5 certain Jew, whose name was Mordekhay, the son of Ya'ir, the son of Shim'i, the son of Qish, a Binyaminite; who had been 6 exiled from Yerushalayim with the captivity which had been carried away into exile with Yekhonya king of Yehuda, whom Nevukhadnezzar the king of Bavel had carried away into exile.

And he brought up Hadassa, that is, Ester, his uncle's daughter: 7 for she had neither father nor mother, and the girl was fair and beautiful; and when her father and mother were dead, Mor-dekhay took her for his own daughter. So it came to pass, 8 when the king's commandment and his decree were heard, and when many young girls were gathered together to Shushan the capital, to the custody of Hegay, that Ester was brought also to the king's house, to the custody of Hegay, keeper of the women. And the girl pleased him, and she obtained kindness 9 of him; and he speedily gave her her ointments, and her appointed rations, and the seven maids chosen to be given her, out of the king's house: and he advanced her and her maids to the best place in the house of the women. Ester had not made 10 known her people or her descent: for Mordekhay had charged her that she should not tell. And Mordekhay walked every day 11 before the court of the women's house, to know how Ester did, and what should become of her. Now when every girl's turn 12 was come to go in to king Aḥashverosh, after she had been twelve months under the regulations for the women, (for so were the days of their anointing, namely, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odours, and with other ointments of the women;) this is how the girl would come to 13 the king: whatever she desired would be given her to take with her out of the house of the women into the king's house: in the 14 evening she would go, and on the morrow she would return to the second house of the women, to the custody of Sha'ash-gaz, the king's chamberlain, who kept the concubines: she would come in to the king no more, unless the king delighted in her, and she were called by name. Now when the turn of 15 Ester, the daughter of Avihayil the uncle of Mordekhay, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in to the king, she requested nothing but what Hegay the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And Ester obtained favour in the sight of all those who looked upon her. So Ester 16 was taken to king Ahashverosh into his royal house in the tenth month, which is the month Tevet, in the seventh year of his reign. And the king loved Ester more than all the 17 women, and she obtained grace and favour in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti. Then the king made 18 a great feast for all his princes and his servants, Ester's feast; and he granted a remission of taxes to the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the state of the king. And when the virgins 19 were gathered together the second time, Mordekhay was sitting at the king's gate. Ester had not yet made known her 20 kindred or her people; as Mordekhay had charged her: for Ester carried out the bidding of Mordekhay, just as when she was brought up with him. In those days, while Mordekhay 21 sat in the king's gate, two of the king's chamberlains, Bigtan and Teresh, of those who kept the door, became disaffected, and sought to lay hands on the king Ahashverosh. And the 22 thing became known to Mordekhay, who told it to Ester the queen; and Ester reported it to the king in Mordekhay's name. And when inquiry was made of the matter, it was found 23 out; so that they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in the book of the chronicles in the presence of the king. After these things king Ahashverosh promoted 3 Haman the son of Hammedata the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes who were with him. And 2 all the king's servants, who were in the king's gate, bowed, and did obeisance to Haman: for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordekhay did not bow, or do him obeisance.

Then the king's servants, who were in the king's gate, said to 3 Mordekhay, Why dost thou transgress the king's commandment? Now it came to pass, when they spoke daily to him, 4 and he did not hearken to them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordekhay's words would stand: for he had told them that he was a Jew. And when Haman saw that Mordekhay did 5 not bow or do him obeisance, then Haman was full of wrath.
But he disdained to lay hands on Mordekhay alone; for they 6 had told him the people of Mordekhay: so that Haman sought to destroy all the Jews who were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahashverosh, the people of Mordekhay. In the first 7 month, that is, the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of king Ahashverosh, they cast Pur, that is, the lot, before Haman from day to day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar. And Haman said to king 8 Ahashverosh, There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of thy kingdom; and their laws are different from all people; nor do they keep the king's laws: therefore it is of no benefit to the king to tolerate them. If it please the king, let it be written that 9 they may be destroyed: and I will weigh out ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those who have the charge of the business, to bring it into the king's treasuries. And the 10 king took his ring from his hand, and gave it to Haman the son of Hammedata the Agagite, the enemy of the Jews. And the 11 king said to Haman, The silver is given to thee, the people also, to do with them as it seems good to thee. Then the king's 12 scribes were called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and it was written according to all that Haman had commanded to the king's satraps, and to the governors who were over every province, and to the rulers of every people; to every province according to its writing, and to every people after their language; in the name of king Aḥashverosh was it written, and sealed with the king's ring. And the letters were sent 13 by couriers to all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to annihilate, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, namely, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to take the spoil of them for plunder. The copy of the writing, to be given out as a law 14 in every province, was published to all the peoples, that they might be ready for that day. The couriers went out in haste 15 by the king's commandment, and the decree was given in Shushan the capital. And the king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city of Shushan was in consternation. When 4 Mordekhay perceived all that was done, Mordekhay rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried with a loud and a bitter cry; and came even before the king's gate: though none might 2 enter the king's gate clothed with sackcloth. And in every 3 province, wherever the king's commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing; and many lay in sackcloth and ashes. So Ester's maids and her chamberlains came and told 4 it her. Then was the queen exceedingly distressed; and she sent raiment to clothe Mordekhay, and to take away his sackcloth from him: but he would not accept it. Then Ester called 5 for Hatakh, one of the king's chamberlains, whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and gave him a message for Mordekhay, to learn what this was, and why it was. So Hatakh 6 went out to Mordekhay, to the broad place of the city, which was before the king's gate. And Mordekhay told him of all that 7 had happened to him, and of the sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for destroying 8 the Jews. Also he gave him a copy of the writing of the decree that was given at Shushan to destroy them, to show it to Ester, and to declare it to her, and to charge her that she should go in to the king, to make supplication to him, and to entreat him for her people. And Hatakh came and told Ester the words 9 of Mordekhay. Again Ester spoke to Hatakh, and gave him a 10 message for Mordekhay; All the king's servants, and the people 11 of the king's provinces, do know, that whoever, whether man or woman, shall come to the king into the inner court, who is not called, there is one law for him, namely to put him to death, except such to whom the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in to the king these thirty days. And they told Ester's words 12 to Mordekhay. Then Mordekhay commanded to answer Ester, 13 Do not think in thy heart that thou shalt escape in the king's house any more than all the other Jews. For if thou dost at all 14 remain silent at this time, then shall relief and deliverance arise to the Jews from elsewhere; but thou and thy father's house shall perish: and who knows whether thou art not come to royal estate for such a time as this? Then Ester bade them 15 return Mordekhay this answer, Go, gather together all the 16 Jews who are present in Shushan, and fast for me, and neither eat nor drink for three days, night and day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise, and so I will go in to the king, though it is against the law: and if I perish, I perish. So Mordekhay 17 went his way, and did according to all that Ester had commanded him. Now it came to pass on the third day, that Ester 5 put on her royal apparel, and stood in the inner court of the king's house, over against the king's house: and the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, opposite the gate of the house. And so it was, that when the king saw Ester the 2 queen standing in the court, she obtained favour in his sight: and the king held out to Ester the golden sceptre that was in his hand. So Ester drew near, and touched the top of the sceptre. Then the king said to her, What is thy wish, queen 3 Ester? and what is thy request? it shall be given thee even to half the kingdom. And Ester answered, If it seem good to the 4 king, let the king and Haman come this day to the banquet that I have prepared for him. Then the king said, Cause Haman 5 to make haste, that he may do as Ester has said. So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Ester had prepared. And 6 the king said to Ester during the wine drinking, What is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? even to half the kingdom it shall be performed. Then Ester 7 answered, and said, My petition and my request is — if I have 8 found favour in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition, and to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them, and I will do tomorrow as the king has said. Then Haman went 9 out that day joyful and with a glad heart: but when Haman saw Mordekhay in the king's gate, that he did not stand or stir for him, he was full of indignation against Mordekhay. Nevertheless Haman restrained himself: and when he came 10 home, he sent and called for his friends, and Zeresh his wife. And Haman recounted to them the glory of his riches, and the multi- 11 tude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king. Haman said moreover, Even Ester 12 the queen let no one come in with the king to the banquet that she had prepared but myself; and tomorrow also I am invited to her with the king. Yet all this avails me nothing, as long as 13

I see Mordekhay the Jew sitting at the king's gate. Then Zeresh 14 his wife and all his friends said to him, Let a gallows be made fifty cubits high, and tomorrow speak to the king that Mordekhay may be hanged on it: then go in cheerfully with the king to the banquet. And the thing pleased Haman; and he caused the gallows to be made. On that night the 6 king could not sleep, so he commanded the book of records of the chronicles to be brought; and they were read before the king. And it was found written, that Mordekhay had told 2 of Bigtana and Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains, the keepers of the door, who sought to lay hands on the king Ahashverosh. And the king said, What honour and dignity 3 have been done to Mordekhay for this? Then the king's servants that ministered to him said, Nothing has been done for him.
And the king said, Who is in the court? Now Haman was come 4 into the outer court of the king's house, to speak to the king about hanging Mordekhay on the gallows that he had prepared for him. And the king's servants said to him, Behold, Haman 5 is standing in the court. And the king said, Let him come in.
So Haman came in. And the king said to him, What shall be 6 done to the man whom the king delights to honour? Now Haman thought in his heart, To whom would the king delight to do honour more than to myself? And Haman answered the 7 king, For the man whom the king delights to honour, let the 8 royal apparel be brought which the king has worn, and the horse that the king rides upon, and on the head of which a royal crown is placed; and let this apparel and horse be deli- 9 vered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that they may array the man whom the king delights to honour, and bring him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaim before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delights to honour. Then the king said to Haman, 10 Make haste, and take the apparel and the horse, as thou hast said, and do so to Mordekhay the Jew, who sits at the king's gate: let nothing fail of all thou hast spoken. Then Haman took 11 the apparel and the horse, and arrayed Mordekhay, and brought him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delights to honour. And Mordekhay came back to the king's 12 gate. But Haman hastened to his house mourning, and having his head covered. And Haman told Zeresh his wife and all his 13 friends everything that had befallen him. Then his wise men and Zeresh his wife said to him, If Mordekhay, before whom thou hast begun to fall, be of the seed of the Jews, then thou shalt not prevail against him, but thou shalt surely fall before him. And while they were yet talking with him, the king's 14 chamberlains came, and brought Haman hurriedly to the banquet that Ester had prepared. So the king and Haman came 7 to drink with Ester the queen. And the king said again to 2 Ester on the second day at the wine drinking, What is thy petition, queen Ester? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? and it shall be performed even to half the kingdom. Then Ester the queen answered and said, If I have 3 found favour in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request: for we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to 4 be slain, and to be annihilated. But if we had been sold merely for bondmen and bondwomen, I would have held my tongue, since the affliction would not have equalled the king's damage. Then the king Ahashverosh 5 answered and said to Ester the queen, Who is he, and where is he, that durst presume in his heart to do so? And Ester 6 said, The adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman.

Then Haman was struck with terror before the king and the queen. And the king arising from the banquet of wine in his 7 wrath went into the palace garden: and Haman stood up to make request for his life to Ester the queen; for he saw that evil was determined against him by the king. Then the king 8 returned out of the palace garden to the place of the wine drinking; and Haman was fallen upon the divan whereon Ester lay. Then the king said, Will he even assault the queen in my own presence in the house? As the word went out of the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face. And Harvona, one of the 9 chamberlains, said before the king, Behold also, the gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman has made for Mordekhay, who had spoken good for the king, stands in the house of Haman.
Then the king said, Hang him on that. So they hanged Haman 10 on the gallows which he had prepared for Mordekhay. Then the king's wrath was pacified. On that day king Ahash- 8 verosh gave the house of Haman the Jews' enemy to Ester the queen. And Mordekhay came before the king; for Ester had told him what he was to her. And the king took off his ring 2 which he had taken from Haman, and gave it to Mordekhay.
And Ester set Mordekhay over the house of Haman.

And Ester spoke once more before the king, and fell down 3 at his feet, and besought him with tears to avert the mischief of Haman the Agagite, and his scheme that he had devised against the Jews. Then the king held out the golden sceptre towards 4 Ester. So Ester arose, and stood before the king, and said, If it 5 please the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the thing seem right before the king, and I be pleasing in his eyes, let an order be written to revoke the letters devised by Haman the son of Hammedata the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews who are in all the king's provinces: for how can I 6 endure to see the evil that shall befall my people? or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred? Then 7 the king Ahashverosh said to Ester the queen and to Mordekhay the Jew, Behold, I have given Ester the house of Haman, and him they have hanged upon the gallows, because he would lay his hand upon the Jews. Write also as you please about the Jews 8 in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring: but the writing which is already written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, cannot be revoked. Then the king's scribes 9 were called at that time in the third month, that is, the month

Sivan, on the twenty third day of the month; and an order was written, according to all that Mordekhay commanded, to the Jews, and to the satraps, and the governors and princes of the provinces, from Hoddu as far as Kush, a hundred and twenty seven provinces, to every province according to its writing, and to every people according to their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their language. And he wrote in the name of king Aḥashverosh, and 10 sealed it with the king's ring, and sent letters by couriers on horseback, riding on the swift horses used in the royal service, bred from the stud mares: by these the king granted the Jews 11 who were in every city to gather themselves together, and to stand up for themselves, to destroy, to slay, and to annihilate any armed force of any people or province that might assault them, with their little ones and women, and to plunder their goods; on one day in all the provinces of king Aḥashverosh, 12 namely, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar. The copy of the writing to be given out for a 13 commandment in every province was to be published to all the peoples, and that the Jews should be ready by that day to avenge themselves on their enemies. So the couriers who rode 14 on horseback, riding on the swift horses used in the royal service, went out, being hastened and pressed on by the king's commandment. And the decree was given at Shushan the capital.

And Mordekhay went out from the presence of the king 15 in royal apparel of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a wrap of fine linen and purple: and the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad. The Jews had light, 16 and gladness, and joy, and honour. And in every province, and 17 in every city, wherever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and a holiday.
And many of the people of the land became Jews; for the fear of the Jews fell upon them. Now in the twelfth month, that is, 9 the month Adar, on the thirteenth day of the same, when the king's commandment and his decree drew near to be put into execution, on the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them, (though it was turned to the contrary, that the Jews had rule over those who hated them;) the Jews 2 gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the king Aḥashverosh, to lay hands on such as sought their hurt: and no man could withstand them; for the fear of them fell upon all the peoples. And all the rulers of the 3 provinces, and the satraps, and the governors, and the royal officials, supported the Jews; because the fear of Mordekhay had fallen upon them. For Mordekhay was great in the king's 4 house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces: for the man Mordekhay grew greater and greater. Thus the Jews 5 smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and with slaughter, and destruction, and did as they pleased to those who hated them. And in Shushan the capital the Jews slew and 6 destroyed five hundred men, and they also slew 7

Vayzata, the ten 10
sons of Haman the son of Hammedata, the enemy of the Jews; but they did not lay their hands on the plunder. On that day 11 the number of those who were slain in Shushan the capital was brought before the king. And the king said to Ester the 12 queen, The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the capital, and also the ten sons of Haman; what have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? now what is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: and what more dost thou request? and it shall be done. Then Ester said, If it 13 please the king, let it be granted to the Jews who are in Shushan to do tomorrow also according to this day's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged upon the gallows. And the 14 king commanded it so to be done: and the decree was given at Shushan; and they hanged Haman's ten sons. For the Jews who 15 were in Shushan gathered themselves together also on the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and slew three hundred men at Shushan; but they did not lay their hands on the plunder. But 16 the other Jews who were in the king's provinces gathered themselves together, and stood up for themselves, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of their foes seventy five thousand, (but they did not lay their hands on the plunder,) on the 17 thirteenth day of the month Adar; and on the fourteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness. But the Jews who were at Shushan gathered to- 18 gether on the thirteenth of the month, and on the fourteenth of it; and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness. Therefore the Jews 19 of the villages, who dwell in the unwalled towns, make the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, and holiday, and of sending choice portions to one another.
And Mordekhay wrote these things, and sent letters to all the 20 Jews who were in all the provinces of the king Ahashverosh, both near and far, to enjoin upon them that they should keep 21 the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, year by year, as the days on which the Jews rested 22 from their enemies, and the month which was turned to them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning to holiday: that they should make them days of feasting and joy, and of sending choice portions to one another, and gifts to the poor. And the 23 Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordekhay had written to them; because Haman the son of Hammedata, 24 the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had schemed against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, (that is, the lot,) to consume them, and to destroy them; but when Ester came 25 before the king, he gave orders in writing that his wicked scheme, which he had devised against the Jews, should return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows. Therefore they called these days Purim after 26 the name of Pur. Therefore because of all the words of this letter, and of what they had seen concerning this matter, and what had befallen them, the Jews ordained, and took upon 27 them, and upon their seed, and upon all who joined themselves to them, that they should unfailingly keep these two days according to their writing, and according to their appointed time every year; and that these days should be remembered and kept throughout 28 every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, or the memorial of them perish from their seed.

Then Ester the queen, the daughter of Aviḥayil, and Mor- 29 dekhay the Jew, wrote with all emphasis, to confirm this second letter of Purim. And he sent letters to all the Jews, to the hundred 30 and twenty seven provinces of the kingdom of Aḥashverosh, in words of peace and truth, to confirm these days of Purim in 31 their times appointed, according as Mordekhay the Jew and Ester the queen had enjoined on them, and as they had decreed for themselves and for their seed, with regard to the fastings and the order of lamentation. And the decree of Ester con- 32 firmed these matters of Purim; and it was written in the book. 10 And the king Aḥashverosh laid a tribute upon the land, and upon the isles of the sea. And all the acts of his power 2 and of his might, and the full account of the greatness of Mordekhay, to which the king advanced him, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Maday and Paras? For Mordekhay the Jew was next to king Aḥashverosh, 3 and great among the Jews, and accepted by the multitude of his brethren, seeking the good of his people, and speaking peace to all his seed.

In the third year of the reign of Yehoyaqim king of Yehuda, 1 Nevukhadnezzar king of Bavel came to Yerushalayim, and besieged it. And the LORD gave Yehoyaqim king of Yehuda into 2 his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of GOD: which he carried into the land of Shin'ar to the house of his god; and he brought the vessels into the treasure house of his god.
And the king spoke to Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, 3 that he should bring some of the children of Yisra'el and of the king's seed, and of the nobles; youths in whom was no 4 blemish, but well favoured, and skilful in all wisdom, and discerning in knowledge, and perceptive in understanding, and such as had ability in them to stand in the king's palace, and whom they might teach the learning and the tongue of the Kasdim. And the king appointed them a daily provision of the 5 king's food and of the wine which he drank; that they should be thus reared for three years, and at the end of that time, they might stand before the king. Now among these were of 6 the children of Yehuda: Daniyyel, Ḥananya, Misha'el, and 'Azar-ya: to whom the chief of the eunuchs gave names: for he 7 gave to Daniyyel the name of Belteshazzar; and to Ḥananya, of Shadrakh; and to Misha'el, of Meshakh; and to 'Azarya, of 'Aved-nego. But Daniyyel purposed in his heart that he would 8 not defile himself with the portion of the king's food, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the chief of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself. Now GOD had 9 brought Daniyyel into grace and compassion with the chief of the eunuchs. And the chief of the eunuchs said to Daniyyel, 10 I fear my lord the king, who has appointed your food and your drink: for why should he see you looking more woebegone than other youths of your age? for then you should endanger my head to the king. Then Daniyyel said to the steward whom the 11 chief of the eunuchs has set over Daniyyel, Ḥananya, Misha'el, and 'Azarya, Put thy servants to the proof I beseech thee, ten 12 days; and let them give us vegetables to eat, and water to drink.
Then let our appearances, and the appearances of the youths 13 that eat of the king's food be observed by you; and as thou seest, so deal with thy servants. So he consented to them in this 14 matter, and put them to the proof for ten days. And at the 15 end of ten days they appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the youths who did eat the portion of the king's fare. So 16 the steward took away the food and the wine that they should have drunk; and gave them vegetables. As for these four youths, 17 GOD gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniyyel had understanding in all visions and dreams. Now 18 at the end of the days that the king had said he should bring them in, then the chief of the eunuchs brought them in before Nevukhadnezzar. And the king spoke with them; and among 19 them all was found none like Daniyyel, Ḥananya, Misha'el, and 'Azarya: therefore they stood before the king. And in all matters 20 of wisdom and understanding, that the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and conjurers who were in all his realm. And Daniyyel continued 21 to the first year of Koresh the king. And in the second 2 year of the reign of Nevukhadnezzar, Nevukhadnezzar dreamed dreams, wherewith his spirit was troubled, and his sleep was gone from him. Then the king commanded to call the magicians, 2 and the conjurers, and the sorcerers, and the Kasdians, to tell the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king.

And the king said to them, I have dreamed a dream, and my 3 spirit was troubled to know the dream. Then the Kasdians spoke 4 to the king in the language of Aram, O king, live for ever: tell thy servants the dream, and we will declare the interpretation. The king answered and said to the Kasdians, The thing is 5 gone from me: if you will not make known to me the dream, with its interpretation, you shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill. But if you declare the dream, 6 and its meaning, you shall receive of me gifts and rewards and great honour: therefore declare to me the dream, and its meaning. They answered again and said, Let the king tell his servants 7 the dream, and we will declare its meaning. The king answered 8 and said, I know for a certainty that you wish to gain time, because you see the thing is determined by me. But if you will 9 not make known to me the dream, there is but one law for you:
for you have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that you can declare its interpretation to me. The 10 Kasdians answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth who can declare the king's matter: for no king, lord, nor ruler, has asked such things at any magician, or conjurer, or Kasdian. And it is a hard thing that the king 11 demands, and there is none other that can declare it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.
For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and 12 commanded to destroy all the wise men of Bavel. And the decree 13 went forth that the wise men should be slain; and they sought Daniyyel and his companions to be slain. Then Daniyyel 14 answered with counsel and discretion to Aryokh the captain of the king's guard, who had gone forth to slay the wise men of Bavel: he answered and said to Aryokh the king's captain, 15 Why is the decree from the king so severe? Then Aryokh made the thing known to Daniyyel. Then Daniyyel went in, and desired 16 of the king that he would give him time, so that he might show the king the interpretation. Then Daniyyel went to his 17 house, and made the thing known to Hananya, Misha'el, and 'Azarya, his companions: that they would beg mercy from the 18 GOD of heaven concerning this secret; that Daniyyel and his companions should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Bavel. Then was the secret revealed to Daniyyel in a night 19 vision. So Daniyyel blessed the GOD of heaven. Daniyyel spoke 20 and said, Blessed be the name of GOD for ever and ever: for wisdom and might are his: and he changes the times and the 21 the seasons: he removes kings, and sets up kings: he gives wisdom to the wise, and knowledge to those who have understanding: he reveals the deep and secret things: he knows 22 what is in the darkness, and the light dwells with him. I thank 23 thee, O thou GOD of my father's, who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast made known to me now what we desired of thee: for thou hast now made known to us the king's matter.

Therefore Daniyyel went in to Aryokh, whom the king had or- 24 dained to destroy the wise men of Bavel: he went and said thus to him; Do not destroy the wise men of Bavel: bring me in before the king, and I will show the king the interpretation.
Then Aryokh brought in Daniyyel before the king in haste, and 25 said thus to him, I have found a man of the exiles of Yehuda, who will make known to the king the interpretation. The king 26 answered and said to Daniyyel, whose name was Belteshazzar, Art thou able to make known unto me the dream which I have seen, and its meaning? Daniyyel answered in the presence of the 27 king, and said, The secret which the king has demanded is one that the wise men, the conjurers, the magicians, and the astrologers cannot declare to the king; but there is a GOD in 28 heaven who reveals secret things, and makes known to the king Nevukhadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these; As 29 for thee, O king, thy thoughts came to thee upon thy bed, as to what should come to pass hereafter: and he who reveals secret things makes known to thee what shall come to pass. But 30 as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but in order that the interpretation shall be made known to the king, and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart. Thou, O king, didst see, and 31 behold a great image. This image, which was mighty, and whose brightness was surpassing stood before thee; and its form was terrible. This image's head was of fine gold, its breast and its 32 arms of silver, its belly and its thighs of brass, its legs of iron, 33 its feet partly of iron and partly of clay. As thou didst look, a 34 stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon its feet which were of iron and clay, and broke them to pieces.
Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, 35 broken in pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing floors; and the wind carried them away, so that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.
This is the dream; and we will state its meaning before the 36 king. Thou, O king, king of kings, to whom the GOD of 37 heaven has given the kingdom, the power, the strength, and the glory; and wherever the children of men dwell, the beasts 38 of the field and the birds of the sky, he has given them into thy hand, and has made thee ruler over them all; thou art this head of gold. And after thee shall arise another kingdom inferior 39 to thee, and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth. And the fourth kingdom shall be strong 40 as iron: because iron breaks to pieces and subdues all things:
and like iron that shatters, so shall it shatter and crush all these other. And whereas thou didst see the feet and toes, partly of 41 potters' clay, and partly of iron, so it shall be a divided kingdom ; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, just as thou didst see the iron mixed with miry clay. And as the toes of the 42 feet were partly of iron, and partly of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly brittle. And whereas thou didst see 43 iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men : but they shall not cleave one to another, just as iron does not mix with clay. And in the days of these kings 44 shall the GOD of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed : and the kingdom shall not be left to another people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever : just as thou didst see that a stone 45 was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold.

The great GOD has made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter : and the dream is certain, and the meaning of it sure. Then the king Nevukhadnezzar fell upon his face, and 46 bowed down to Daniyyel, and commanded that they should offer an offering and sweet odours to him. The king spoke to Daniyyel, 47 and said, Of a truth it is, that your GOD is the GOD of gods, and the LORD of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldst reveal this secret. Then the king made Daniyyel great, and 48 gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Bavel, and the chief prefect over all the wise men of Bavel. Then Daniyyel requested of the king, and he set Shadrakh, 49 Meshakh, and 'Aved-nego, over the affairs of the province of Bavel : but Daniyyel remained in the gate of the king.

Nevukhadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose 3 height was sixty cubits, and the breadth of which was six cubits : he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Bavel. Then Nevukhadnezzar the king sent to gather together 2 the satraps, the prefects, and the governors, the counsellors, the treasurers, the justices, the magistrates, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nevu-khadnezzar the king had set up. Then the satraps, the prefects, 3 and the governors, the counsellors, the treasurers, the justices, the magistrates, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together to the dedication of the image that Nevukhadnezzar the king had set up and they stood before the image that Nevukhadnezzar had set up. Then a herald cried aloud, To you 4 it is commanded, O peoples, nations, and tongues, that when 5 you hear the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, bagpipe, and all kinds of music, you fall down and worship the golden image that Nevukhadnezzar the king has set up : and whoever 6 does not fall down and worship shall be cast in that same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. Therefore at that time, 7 when all the people heard the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, and all kinds of music, all the peoples, nations, and tongues, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nevukhadnezzar the king had set up. Therefore at that time 8 certain Kasdians came near, and accused the Jews. They spoke 9 and said to the king Nevukhadnezzar, O king, live for ever. Thou, 10 O king, hast made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, and bagpipe, and all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the golden image: and whoever does not fall down and worship, he should be cast 11 into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. There are certain Jews 12 whom thou hast set over the affairs of the province of Bavel, Shadrakh, Meshakh, and 'Aved-nego; these men, O king, have not regarded thee: they do not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up. Then Nevukhad- 13 nezzar in his rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrakh, Meshakh, and 'Aved-nego. Then they brought these men before the king. Nevukhadnezzar spoke and said to them, Is it true, O 14 Shadrakh, Meshakh, and 'Aved-nego, that you do not serve my god, nor worship the golden image which I have set up?

Now if you are ready when you hear the sound of the horn, 15 pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, bagpipe, and all kinds of music, to fall down and worship the image which I have made; well and good: but if you do not worship, you shall be cast in that same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; and who is the god who shall deliver you out of my hands? Shadrakh, Meshakh, 16 and 'Aved-nego, answered and said to the king, O Nevukhadnez-zar, we have no need to answer thee in this matter. Behold, 17 our God whom we serve is able to deliver us; he can deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and out of thy hand, O king.
But if he does not, be it known to thee, O king, that we will 18 not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up. Then was Nevukhadnezzar full of fury, and 19 the expression of his visage was changed against Shadrakh, Meshakh, and 'Aved-nego: therefore he spoke, and commanded that they should heat the furnace seven times more than it was wont to be heated. And he commanded the most mighty men 20 that were in his army to bind Shadrakh, Meshakh, and 'Avednego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace. Then 21 these men were bound in their mantles, their tunics, and their hats, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. Therefore because the king's 22 commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceedingly hot, the flame of the fire slew those men who had seized upon Shadrakh, Meshakh, and 'Aved-nego. And these three men, Shadrakh, 23 Meshakh, and 'Aved-nego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. Then Nevukhadnezzar the king 24 was astonished, and rose up in haste, and spoke, and said to his counsellors, Did we not cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said to the king, True, O king.
He answered and said, Lo, I see four men unbound, walking 25 in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt; and the appearance of the fourth is like an angel. Then Nevukhadnezzar 26 came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spoke, and said, Shadrakh, Meshakh, and 'Aved-nego, servants of the most high God, come out, and come here. Then Shadrakh, Meshakh. and 'Aved-nego, came out of the midst of the fire.

And the satraps, the prefects, the governors, and the king's 27 counsellors, being gathered together, saw these men, upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was a hair of their head singed, nor were their mantles damaged, nor had the smell of fire passed over them. Then Nevukhadnezzar spoke, and said, Blessed be 28 the God of Shadrakh, Meshakh, and 'Aved-nego, who has sent his angel, and delivered his servants who trusted in him, setting aside the king's word, and yielding their bodies, that they might not serve or bow down to any god, except their own God.
Therefore I made a decree, That every people, nation, and 29 tongue, that speaks anything amiss against the God of Shadrakh, Meshakh, and 'Aved-nego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill: because there is no other God that can deliver after this sort. Then the king promoted Sha- 30 drakh, Meshakh, and 'Aved-nego, in the province of Bavel.

Nevukhadnezzar the king, to all the peoples, nations, and 31 tongues, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied to you.
I thought it good to report the signs and wonders that high 32 God has wrought towards me. How great are his signs! and 33 how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation.
I Nevukhadnezzar was at rest in my house, and flourishing in 4 my palace: I saw a dream which made me afraid, and the 2 thoughts upon my bed and the visions of my head troubled me.
Therefore I made a decree to bring in all the wise men of Bavel 3 before me, that they might make known to me the interpretation of the dream. Then came in the magicians, the conjurers, the 4 Kasdians and the astrologers, : and I told the dream before them; but they could not make known to me its interpretation. But at 5 the last Daniyyel came in before me, whose name was Belte-shazzar, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods: and before him I told the dream, saying, O Belteshazzar chief of the magicians, because I know that the 6 spirit of the holy gods is in thee, and no secret is too difficult for thee, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and its meaning. Thus were the visions of my head as I lay on my bed; 7 I saw, and behold a tree in the midst of the earth, and its height was great. The tree grew, and was strong, and its top reached 8 to the sky, and it was visible to the end of all the earth: its 9 leaves were fair, and its fruit abundant, and on it was food for all: the beasts of the field had shade under it, and the birds of the sky dwelt in its boughs, and all flesh was fed from it. I saw 10 in the visions of my head as I lay upon my bed, and, behold, a watcher and a holy one came down from heaven; he cried aloud, 11 and said thus, Hew down the tree, and cut off its branches, shake off its leaves, and scatter its fruit: let the beasts flee from under it, and the birds from its branches: but leave the 12 stump of its roots in the earth, in a band of iron and brass, amid the tender grass of the field. Let him be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth: let his heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's 13 heart be given to him; and let seven seasons pass over him. This 14 matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the sentence by the word of the holy ones: to the intent that the living may know that the most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever he will, and sets up over it the basest of men.

This dream I king Nevukhadnezzar, have seen. Now thou, O 15 Belteshazzar, declare its interpretation, seeing that all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known to me the interpretation: but thou art able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in thee. Then Daniyyel, whose name was Belteshazzar 16 was appalled for one hour, and his thoughts terrified him. The king spoke, and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or its interpretation terrify thee. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, the dream be for those who hate thee, and its interpretation for thy enemies. The tree that thou sawest, which grew, 17 and was strong, whose top reached to the sky, and which was visible to all the earth; the leaves of which were fair, and the 18 fruit of which abundant, and on it was food for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon the branches of which the birds of the sky had their habitation: it is thou, O king, 19 that art grown and become strong: for thy greatness is grown, and reaches to heaven, and thy dominion to the end of the earth.
And whereas the king saw a watcher and a holy one coming 20 down from heaven, and saying, Hew down the tree, and destroy it; yet leave the stump of its roots in the earth, in a band of iron and brass, amid the tender grass of the field; and let him be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, till seven seasons pass over him; this is the inter- 21 pretation, O king, and this is the decree of the most High, which is come upon my lord the king: That thou shalt be driven 22 from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and thou shalt be made to eat grass like oxen, and thou shalt be wet with the dew of heaven, and seven seasons shall pass over thee, in order that thou mayest know that the most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever he pleases.
And whereas it was commanded to leave the stump of the roots 23 of the tree; thy kingdom shall be sure for thee, after thou shalt come to know that the heavens do rule. Therefore, O king, let my 24 counsel be acceptable to thee, and break off thy sins by charity, and thy iniquities by showing mercy to the poor; that there may be an extension of thy tranqillity. All this came upon the king 25 Nevukhadnezzar. At the end of twelve months he was 26 walking in the palace of the kingdom of Bavel. The king spoke, 27 and said, Is not this great Bavel, that I have built by the might of my power as a royal residence, and for the honour of my majesty? While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a 28 voice from heaven, saying, O king Nevukhadnezzar, to thee it is spoken; The kingdom is departed from thee. And thou shalt be 29 driven from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: thou shalt be made to eat grass like oxen, and seven seasons shall pass over thee, in order that thou mayst know that the most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever he will. The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon 30 Nevukhadnezzar: and he was driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hair was grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws. And at the end of the days I Nevukhadnezzar lifted up 31 my eyes to heaven, and my understanding returned to me, and I blessed the most High, and I praised and honoured him who lives for ever, whose dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom is from generation to generation: and all the inhabi- 32 tants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and he does according to his will in the host of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth: and none can stay his hand, or say to him, What doest thou? At the same time my reason returned to me; and 33 for the glory of my kingdom, my majesty and splendour returned to me; and my counsellors and my lords sought to me and I was established in my kingdom, and still more greatness was added to me. Now I Nevukhadnezzar praise and extol and honour the 34 King of heaven, all whose works are truth, and his ways justice:

and he is able to abase those who walk in pride.

Belshazzar the king made a great feast for a thousand of his 5 lords, and drank wine before the thousand. Belshazzar, while he 2 tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which his father Nevukhadnezzar had taken out of the temple which was in Yerushalayim; that the king, and his lords, his wives, and his concubines, might drink from them. Then they 3 brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of GOD which was at Yerushalayim; and the king. and his lords, his wives, and his concubines, drank from them They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver of 4 brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone. In the same hour the 5 fingers of a man's hand appeared, and wrote over against the lampstand upon the plaster of the wall of the king's palace: and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote. Then the king's 6 colour changed, and his thoughts terrified him, so that the joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees smote one against the other. The king cried aloud to bring in the conjurers, the 7 Kasdians, and the astrologers. And the king spoke, and said to the wise men of Bavel, Whoever shall read this writing, and declare to me the meaning of it, shall be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall rule as the third in the kingdom. Then all the king's wise men came 8 in, but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the meaning of it. Then king Belshazzar was greatly 9 alarmed, and his colour changed, and his lords were perplexed.
Now the queen, by reason of the words of the king and his lords, 10 came into the banquet house: the queen spoke and said, O king, live for ever: let not thy thoughts affright thee, nor let thy colour change: there is a man in thy kingdom, in whom is the 11 spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of thy father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him; whom the king Nevukhadnezzar thy father, the king, I say, thy father, made chief of the magicians, conjurers, Kasdians, and astrologers; seeing that an excellent 12 spirit, and knowledge, and understanding to interpret dreams, explain riddles, and solve problems, were found in the same Daniyyel, whom the king named Belteshaẓẓar: now let Daniyyel be called, and he will declare the interpretation.

Then was Daniyyel brought in before the king. The 13 king spoke and said to Daniyyel. Art thou that Daniyyel who art of the children of the exiles of Yehuda, whom the king my father brought out of Yehuda? I have heard of thee, that the 14 spirit of the gods is in thee, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom is found in thee. And now the wise men, 15 the conjurers, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known to me its meaning: but they could not declare the interpretation of the thing: and I have 16 heard of thee, that thou canst give interpretations, and solve problems: now if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation of it, thou shalt be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt rule as third in the kingdom. Then Daniyyel answered and said before 17 the king, Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards to another; yet I will read the writing to the king, and make known to him the interpretation. O thou king, the most high God gave 18 Nevukhadneẓẓar thy father a kingdom, and greatness, and glory, and majesty: and because of the majesty that he gave him, all 19 peoples, nations, and tongues, trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew; and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he set up; and whom he would he put down. But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, 20 he was deposed from his kingly throne, and his glory was taken from him: and he was driven from the sons of men; and his 21 heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses: he was fed with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven; until he came to know that the most high God rules in the kingdom of men, and that he appoints over it whomever he pleases. And thou his son, O Belshaẓẓar, hast not 22 humbled thy heart, though thou knewest all this: but hast lifted 23 up thyself against the Lord of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou, and thy lords, thy wives, and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; and thou hast praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which do not see, hear, or know: and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are all thy ways, thou hast not glorified: then was the part of the hand sent from him; and 24 this writing was written. And this is the writing that was written, 25 Mene Mene Teqel Ufarsin. This is the interpretation of the 26 thing: Mene; God has numbered thy kingdom, and brought it to an end. Teqel; Thou are weighed in the balances, and art 27 found wanting. Peres; Thy kingdom is divided, and given to 28 Maday and Paras. Then commanded Belshaẓẓar, and they clothed 29

Daniyyel in scarlet, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him, that he should rule as the third in the kingdom. In that night Belshaẓẓar the king of the 30 Kasdians was slain.

And Daryavesh the Madian received the kingdom, being about 6 sixty two years old. It pleased Daryavesh to set over the king- 2 dom a hundred and twenty satraps, who should be over the whole kingdom ; and over these were three presidents ; of whom 3 Daniyyel was one: that these satraps might give account to them, so that the king should have no loss Then this Daniyyel became 4 distinguished above the presidents and satraps, because an excellent spirit was in him ; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm. Then the presidents and satraps sought to find 5 a pretext against Daniyyel concerning the kingdom ; but they could find no pretext or fault ; seeing that he was faithful, nor was any error or fault to be found in him. Then said these men, 6 We shall not find any pretext against this Daniyyel, unless we find it against him in connection with the law of his GOD.

Then these presidents and satraps came hurriedly to the 7 king, and said thus to him, king Daryavesh, live for ever. All 8 the presidents of the kingdom, the prefects, and the satraps, the counsellors, and the governors, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a firm decree, that whoever makes petition of any GOD or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, he shall be cast into the lion's den. Now, O king, 9 establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the law of Maday and Paras, which is unalterable.
Wherefore king Daryavesh signed the writing and the decree. 10
Now when Daniyyel came to know that the writing was signed, 11 he went into his house ; (now he had windows open in his chamber towards Yerushelem, and he kneeled upon his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his GOD, as he did aforetime.) Then these men came hurriedly, and 12 found Daniyyel praying and making supplication before his GOD.
Then they came near, and spoke before the king concerning 13 the king's decree ; Hast thou not signed a decree, that every man that shall make petition of any GOD or man within thirty days, save of thee, O king, shall be cast into the lions' den ?
The king answered and said, The thing is true, according to the law of Maday and Paras, which is unalterable. Then they 14 answered and said before the king, That Daniyyel who is of the children of the exiles of Yehuda, does not regard thee, O king, or the decree that thou hast signed, but makes his petition three times a day. Then the king, when he heard these words, was 15 much distressed, and set his heart on Daniyyel to rescue him :
and he laboured till the going down of the sun to rescue him.
Then these men came hurriedly to the king, and said to the 16 king. Know, O king, that it is the law of Maday and Paras that no decree or statute which the king establishes may be changed.

Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniyyel, and cast 17 him into the lions' den. Now the king spoke and said to Daniyyel, Thy GOD whom thou servest continually, he will rescue thee.
And a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; 18 and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that nothing might be changed concerning Daniyyel.
Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting: 19 nor were entertainments brought before him: and his sleep fled from him. Then the king arose very early in the morning, 20 and went in haste to the lions' den. And when he came to the 21 den, he cried out in a tone of anguish to Daniyyel: and the king spoke and said to Daniyyel, O Daniyyel, servant of the living GOD, is thy GOD, whom thou servest continually, able to rescue thee from the lions? Then Daniyyel said to the king, O king, live 22 for ever. My GOD has sent his angel, and has shut the lion's 23 mouths, that they have not hurt me: seeing that I was found innocent before him; and also before thee, O king, have I done no wrong. Then the king was exceedingly glad for him, and 24 commanded that they should take Daniyyel up out of the den.
So Daniyyel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he had trusted in his GOD.
And the king commanded, and they brought those men who had 25 accused Daniyyel, and they cast them into the lions' den, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and broke all their bones in pieces before they reached the bottom of the den. Then king Daryavesh wrote to all the 26 peoples, nations, and tongues, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied to you. I make a decree, That in every 27 dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the GOD of Daniyyel: for he is the living GOD, and steadfast forever, and his kingdom is one which shall not be destroyed, and his dominion shall be even to the end. He delivers and rescues, 28 and he works signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, who has delivered Daniyyel from the power of the lions. So this 29 Daniyyel prospered in the reign of Daryavesh, and in the reign of Koresh the Parsian.

In the first year of Belshazzar king of Bavel, Daniyyel had a 7 dream and visions of his head as he lay upon his bed: then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the matter. Daniyyel spoke 2 and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the four winds of the heaven stirred up the great sea. And four great beasts 3 came up from the sea, diverse from one another. The first 4 was like a lion, and had eagle's wings: I beheld till its wings were plucked off, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made to stand upon two feet like a man, and a man's heart was given to it. And behold, another beast, a second one, like a 5 bear, and it raised up itself on one side, and it had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth: and thus it was said to it, Arise, devour much flesh. After this I beheld, and lo another, like a 6 leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a bird; the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it.

After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast, 7 dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and broke in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet: and it was different from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns. I considered the horns, 8 and behold, there came up among them another little horn, before which three of the first horns were plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things. As I looked, thrones were 9 placed, and an ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of whose head was like the pure wool:
his throne was fiery flames, its wheels being burning fire.
A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: a thou- 10 sand thousands served him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: they sat in judgment, and the books were opened. I looked then because of the sound of the great 11 words which the horn spoke: and as I looked the beast was slain, and its body destroyed, and given to the burning flame.
And as for the rest of the beasts, their dominion was taken 12 away: yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time.
I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like a son of man 13 came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. And there was 14 given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all the peoples, nations, and tongues, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom one that shall not be destroyed. As for me Daniyyel, 15 my spirit was grieved in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head affrighted me. I came near to one of them that stood 16 by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and made known to me the meaning of the things. These great beasts, 17 which are four, are four kings, who shall arise out of the earth.
But the holy ones of the most High shall take the kingdom, 18 and possess the kingdom forever, even forever and ever. Then 19 I wished to know the truth of the fourth beast, which was different from all the others, exceedingly dreadful, the teeth of which were of iron, and its nails of brass; which devoured, broke in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet; and of 20 the ten horns that were on its head, and of the other horn which came up, and before which three fell; that horn which had eyes, and a mouth that spoke very great things, and which appeared greater than its fellows. I beheld, and the same horn 21 made war with the holy ones, and prevailed against them; until the ancient of days came, and judgment was given for the 22 holy ones of the most High; and the time came that the holy ones possessed the kingdom. Thus he said, The fourth beast 23 shall be a fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be different from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces. And the ten horns are 24 ten kings that shall arise out of this kingdom: and another shall rise after them ; and he shall be different from the former ones, and he shall subdue three kings. And he shall speak great words 25 against the most High, and shall wear out the holy ones of the most High, and think to change times and laws : and they shall be given into his hand for a season and seasons and half a season. But they shall sit in judgment, and his dominion shall 26 be taken away, to be consumed and destroyed to the end. And 27 the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the holy ones of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him. Here 28 is the end of the matter. As for me Daniyyel, my cogitations much affrighted me, and my colour changed : but I kept the matter in my heart.

In the third year of the reign of king Belshaẓẓar a vision 8 appeared to me, even to me Daniyyel, after that which appeared to me at the first. And I saw in a vision ; and it came to pass, 2 when I saw, that I was at Shushan the capital, which is in the province of 'Elam ; and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ulay. Then I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and, behold, there 3 stood before the river a ram which had two horns : and the two horns were high ; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last. I saw the ram pushing westward, and 4 northward, and southward ; so that no beasts might stand before him, was not there any that could deliver out of his hand ; but he did according to his will, and magnified himself. And as 5 I was considering, behold, a he goat came from the west across the face of the whole earth, and did not touch the ground : and the goat had a conspicuous horn between its eyes. And 6 it came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran at him in the fury of his power. And 7
I saw it come close to the ram, and it was enraged against him, and smote the ram, and broke his two horns : and the ram had no power to stand before it, but he cast him down to the ground, and trampled upon him : and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand. Therefore the he goat 8 grew very great : and when he was strong, the great horn was broken ; and instead of it came up four conspicious ones towards the four winds of heaven. And out of one of them came forth 9 a little horn, which grew exceedingly great, towards the south, and towards the east, and towards the land of beauty.
And it grew great, even to the host of heaven ; and it cast 10 down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and trampled upon them. Yes, it magnified itself even to the prince 11 of the host, and from him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down. And for an 12 appointed time it was flagrantly set against the daily sacrifice, and it cast down the truth to the ground ; and it practised, and prospered. Then I heard one holy one speaking, and another 13 holy one said to that certain one who spoke, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot ? And he said to me, For two thousand 14 and three hundred evenings and mornings; then shall the sanctuary be restored. And it came to pass, when I, even I 15 Daniyyel, had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning, then, behold, there stood before me what looked like a man.

And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ulay, who 16 called, and said, Gavri'el, make this man understand the vision.
So he came near where I stood and when he came, I was 17 afraid, and fell upon my face: but he said to me, Understand, O son of man: for the vision is for the time of the end. Now 18 as he was speaking with me, I fell into a deep sleep on my face towards the ground: but he touched me, and set me upright. And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what 19 shall be in the latter end of the indignation: for it is for the appointed time of the end. The ram which thou sawest having 20 two horns are the kings of Maday and Paras. And the rough he 21 goat is the king of Yavan: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king. As for the horn which was broken, 22 in place of which four others arose, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not with his power. And in the latter 23 time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and one who understands riddles, shall arise. And his power shall be mighty, but not 24 by his own power: and he shall destroy remarkably, and shall prosper, and practise, and shall destroy the mighty and the holy people. And through his cunning also he shall cause craft to 25 prosper in his hand, and shall magnify himself in his heart, and without difficulty he shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand. And the vision of the evenings and the mornings 26 which was told is true: but seal up the vision; for it refers to many days hence. And I Daniyyel fainted, and was sick certain 27 days; afterwards I rose up, and did the king's business; and I was astonished at the vision, but none understood it.

In the first year of Daryavesh the son of Aḥashverosh, of 9 the seed of Maday, who was made king over the realm of the Kasdians; in the first year of his reign I Daniyyel considered 2 in the books the number of the years, whereof the word of the LORD came to Yirmeya the prophet, that he would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Yerushalayim. And I set my 3 face to the LORD GOD, to seek by prayer and supplications. with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes: and I prayed to the 4 LORD my GOD, and made my confession, and said, O LORD, the great and dreadful GOD, keeping covenant and troth to those who love him, and to those who keep his commandments; we 5 have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, and have turned aside from thy precepts and from thy judgments: for we have not hearkened 6 to thy servants the prophets, who spoke in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers. and to all the people of the land. O LORD, righteousness belongs to thee, but to us confusion 7 of faces, as at this day; to the men of Yehuda, and to the inhabitants of Yerushalayim, and to all Yisra'el, who are near, and who are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass which they have trespassed against thee. O LORD, to us belongs confusion of face, 8 to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee. To the LORD our GOD belongs mercies 9 and forgiveness, for we have rebelled against him; for we have 10 not obeyed the voice of the LORD our GOD, to follow his Torot, which he set before us by his servants the prophets. Yea, all 11 Yisra'el have transgressed thy Tora, and have turned aside, so as not to obey thy voice; therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the Tora of Moshe the servant of GOD, because we have sinned against him. And he has 12 confirmed his word, which he spoke against us, and against our judges who judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven there has not been done the like of what has been done against Yerushalayim, as it is written in the 13 Tora of Moshe, all this evil is come upon us: yet we did not offer our prayer before the LORD our GOD, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth. Therefore the 14

LORD has watched over the evil, and brought it upon us: for the LORD our GOD is righteous in all his works which he has done: for we did not obey his voice. And now, O LORD our 15
GOD, who hast brought thy people out of the land of Miẓrayim with a mighty hand, and hast gotten thee renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly. O LORD, accord- 16 ing to all thy righteousness, I pray thee, let thy anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city of Yerushalayim thy holy mountain: because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Yerushalayim and thy people are become a reproach to all that are about us. Now therefore, O our GOD, hear the 17 prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, and cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is desolate, for the LORD'S sake. O my GOD, incline thy ear, and hear; open thy eyes, and 18 behold our desolations, and the city which is called by thy name: for we do not present our supplications before thee because of our righteousnesses, but because of thy great mercies.
O LORD, hear; O LORD, forgive; O LORD, hearken and act; delay 19 not, for thy own sake, O my GOD: for thy city and thy people are called by thy name. And whilst I was speaking, and praying, and 20 confessing my sin and the sin of my people Yisra'el, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my GOD for the holy mountain of my GOD; whilst I was still speaking in prayer, 21 the man Gavri'el, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, approached close to me in swift flight about the time of the evening sacrifice. And he made me understand, and talked with 22 me, and said, O Daniyyel, I am now come forth to give thee skill and understanding. At the beginning of thy supplications the 23 commandment went out, and I am come to declare it; for thou art greatly beloved: therefore look into the word, and consider the vision. Seventy weeks are decreed concerning thy people 24 and concerning thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end to sins, and to atone for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up vision and prophet, and to anoint the most holy place. Know therefore and understand, 25 that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Yerushalayim until an anointed prince, shall be seven weeks: then for sixty two weeks it shall be built again, with squares and moat, but in a troubled time. And after sixty two 26 weeks shall an anointed one be cut off, and none will be left to him: and the people of a prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and his end shall be with a flood, and to the end of the war desolations are decreed. And he shall 27 make a strong covenant with many for one week: and during half of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the offering to cease; and upon the wing of abominations shall come one who makes desolate, until the decreed destruction is poured out on the desolator.

In the third year of Koresh king of Paras a thing was revealed 10 to Daniyyel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the word was true, and for a long period ahead; and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision. In those days I 2 Daniyyel was mourning three full weeks. I ate no pleasant bread, 3 nor did meat or wine come into my mouth, nor did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

And on the twenty fourth day of the first month, as I was by the 4 side of the great river, which is Hiddeqel; I lifted up my eyes, 5 and looked, and behold a certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine gold of Ufaz: his body also was like 6 the beryl, and his face like the appearance of lightning, and his eyes like torches of fire, and his arms and his feet in colour like burnished brass, and the sound of his words like the voice of a multitude. And I Daniyyel alone saw the vision: for the men 7 who were with me did not see thee vision; but a great trembling fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves. So 8
I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my comely appearance was horribly changed, and I retained no strength. Yet I heard the sound of 9 his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, I was in a deep sleep on my face, and my face towards the ground. And, 10 behold, a hand touched me, which set me trembling on my knees and on the palms of my hands. And he said to me, O Daniyyel, 11 thou man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak to thee, and stand upright: for to thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word to me, I stood trembling. Then said he 12 to me, Fear not, Daniyyel: for from the first day that thou didst set thy heart to understand and to humble thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come because of thy words. But the guardian angel of the kingdom of Paras withstood me 13 twenty one days: but, lo, Mikha'el, one of the chief angels, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Paras. Now 14
I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days: for the vision is for days yet to come. And 15 when he had spoken such words to me, I set my face towards the ground, and I became dumb. And, behold, one in the likeness 16 of the sons of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spoke, and said to him that stood before me, O my lord, by reason of the vision my pains have come upon me, and I retain no strength. For how can the servant of my lord talk with this 17 my lord? for as for me, there remains now no strength in me, nor is there breath left in me. Then again came one in the likeness of 18 a man, and touched me and strengthened me, and said, O man 19 greatly beloved, fear not: peace be unto thee, be strong, and be resolute. And when he had spoken to me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me.

Then he said to me, Dost thou know why I have come to thee? 20
But now I will return to fight with the guardian angel of Paras:
and when I depart from him, lo, the guardian angel of Yavan shall come. But I will tell thee that which is inscribed in the 21 true record: and none stands fast with me against these, except your guardian angel, Mikha'el. As for me, in the first 11 year of Daryavesh the Madian, I stood up to confirm and to strengthen him. And now will I tell thee the truth. Behold, there 2 shall stand up yet three kings in Paras: and the fourth shall be far richer than all of them: and when he has grown strong through his riches, he shall stir up all against the kingdom of Yavan. And a mighty king shall stand up, who shall rule with 3 great dominion, and do according to his will. And when he shall 4 stand up, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided towards the four winds of heaven; and not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion with which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, and go to others besides those. And the 5 king of the south shall be strong, but one of his princes shall be stronger than he, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion. And at the end of years they shall join them- 6 selves together; for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall not retain the power of her arm; nor shall he stand, nor his arm: but she shall be given up, and they who brought her, and he who begot her, and he who strengthened her in those times. But from a branch of her roots shall one stand up in his 7 place: he shall come with an army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail: and he shall also carry captives into Miẓrayim 8 their gods, with their princes, and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he shall abstain for some years from attacking the king of the north. But he shall come into the 9 kingdom of the king of the south, and shall return to his own land. But his sons shall be stirred up, and shall assemble a 10 multitude of great forces: and one shall certainly come, and overflow, and pass through: then shall he return, and be stirred up, even to his fortress. And the king of the south shall be moved 11 with anger, and shall come out and fight with him, with the king of the north: and he shall set forth a great multitude; but the multitude shall be given into his hand. And when he has taken 12 away the multitude, his heart shall be lifted up; and he shall cast down tens of thousands: but he shall not prevail. For 13 the king of the north shall again set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come after certain years with a great army and with abundant supplies. And in those times 14 there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also the renegades of thy people shall exalt themselves to fulfil the vision; but they shall stumble. So the king of the north shall 15 difficulty even upon the fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, or his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them prey, and spoil, and riches: and he shall devise schemes against the strongholds, but only for a time. And he shall stir up his power and his courage against 25 the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand: for they shall devise schemes against him. For those who eat his food shall destroy him, and 26 his army shall overflow: and many shall fall down slain. And 27 both these kings' hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but it shall not prosper: for the end is yet to come at the time appointed. Then shall he return into 28 his land with great riches; and his heart shall be set against the holy covenant; and he shall work his will, and return to his own land. At the time appointed he shall return, and come towards 29 the south; but it shall not be at the latter time as it was at the former. For ships of Kittim shall come against him: therefore 30 he shall lose heart and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant, and do his will; he shall even return, and have an understanding with those who forsake the holy covenant. And arms shall stand up on his part, and they shall profane 31 sanctuary and fortress, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall set up the abomination that makes desolate. And 32 such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he seduce by flatteries: but the people who know their God shall be strong, and prevail. And they who understand among the people shall 33 instruct many: yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, some days. Now when they shall fall, 34 they shall receive a little help: but many shall join themselves to them with flatteries. And some of them of understanding 35 shall fall, to try them, and to refine, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for the time appointed. And the king shall do according to his will; and he 36 shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak astonishing things against the GOD of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that which is determined shall be done. Nor shall he regard the gods of his 37 fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all. But in his place he shall honour 38 the god of strongholds, and a god whom his fathers did not know shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and costly things. And he shall deal with the strongest 39 fortresses with the help of a foreign god; those whom he acknowledges, he will magnify with honour: and he shall make them rulers over many, and shall divide the land for a price. And 40 at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him:

and the king of the north shall come against him like a storm, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over. He 41 shall enter also into the land of beauty, and many countries shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand — Edom, and Mo'av, and the chief of the chidren of 'Ammon. He 42 shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the land of Miẓrayim shall not escape. But he shall have power over the 43 treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Miẓrayim: and the Lubbians and the Kushites shall follow in his train. But tidings out of the east and out of the north 44 shall affright him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to do away with many. And he shall plant 45 the tents of his palace between the seas and the holy mountain of beauty; yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.
And at that time shall Mikha'el stand up, the great chief angel, 12 who stands for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation till that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one who shall be found written in the book. And many of 2 those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.
And they who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the 3 firmament; and they who turn many to righeousness like the stars for ever and ever. But thou, O Daniyyel, shut up 4 the words, and seal the book, until the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased. Then I 5 Daniyyel looked, and, behold, there stood two others, the one on this side of the bank of the River, and the other on that side of the bank of the river. And one said to the man clothed in linen, 6 who was above the waters of the River, How long shall it be to the end of the wonders? And I heard the man clothed in linen, 7 who was above the waters of the River, when he lifted up his

Now in the first year of Koresh king of Paras, that the word of 1 the LORD by the mouth of Yirmeya might be fulfilled, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Koresh king of Paras, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying, Thus says Koresh king of Paras, The LORD GOD 2 of heaven has given me all the kingdoms of the earth; and he has charged me to build him a house at Yerushalayim, which is in Yehuda. Whoever is among you of all his people, let his GOD be 3 with him, and let him go up to Yerushalayim, which is in Yehuda, and build the house of the LORD GOD of YISRA'EL; (he is the GOD,) which is in Yerushalayim. And whoever remains in any place 4 where he sojourns, let the men of his place help him with silver, and with gold, and with goods, and with beasts, besides the free-will offering for the house of GOD that is in Yerushalayim. Then 5 rose up the chiefs of the fathers' houses of Yehuda and Binyamin, and the priests, and the Levites, with all them whose spirit GOD had stirred to go up to build the house of the LORD which is in Yerushalayim. And all they who were about them strengthened 6 their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with beasts, and with precious things, besides all that was willingly offered.
Also Koresh the king brought forth the vessels of the house 7 of the LORD, which Nevukhadnezzar had brought out of Yerushalayim, and had put them in the house of his gods; those 8 did Koresh king of Paras bring out by the hand of Mitredat the treasurer, and counted them out to Sheshbazzar, the prince of Yehuda. And this is the number of them: thirty basins 9 of gold, a thousand basins of silver, twenty nine knives, thirty 10 bowls of gold, silver bowls of a second sort four hundred and ten, and other vessels a thousand. And the vessels of gold and 11 of silver were five thousand four hundred. All these did Sheshbazzar bring, when the exiles were brought up from Bavel to Yerushalayim.
Now these are the children of the province who went up out 2 of the captivity, of those exiles whom Nevukhadnezzar the king of Bavel had carried away to Bavel, and they came back to Yerushalayim and Yehuda, everyone to his city. They came 2 with Zerubbavel, Yeshua, Nehemya, Seraya, Re'elya, Mordekhay, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvay, Rehum, and Ba'ana. The number of the men of the children of Yisra'el: the children of Par'osh, 3 two thousand one hundred and seventy two. The children of 4 Shefatya, three hundred and seventy two. The children of Arah, 5 seven hundred and seventy five. The children of Pahat-mo'av, 6 of the children of Yeshua and Yo'av, two thousand eight hundred and twelve. The children of 'Elam, one thousand two 7 hundred and fifty four. The children of Zattu, nine hundred 8 and forty five. The children of Zakkay, seven hundred and 9 sixty. The children of Bani, six hundred and forty two The 10,11 children of Bevay, six hundred and twenty three. The children 12 of 'Azgad, one thousand two hundred and twenty two. The 13 children of Adoniqam, six hundred and sixty six. The children 14 of Bigvay, two thousand and fifty six. The children of 'Adin, 15 of the priests: the children of Ḥovayya, the children of Haqqoẓ; the children of Barzillay, who took a wife of the daughters of Barzillay the Gil'adite, and was called after their name: these 62 sought their register among those who were reckoned by genealogy, but they were not found: therefore they were excluded from the priesthood as unfit. And the governor said to them, 63 that they should not eat of the most holy things, till there stood up a priest with Urim and with Tummim. The whole congrega- 64 tion together was forty two thousand three hundred and sixty, besides their men servants and women servants, of whom there 65 were seven thousand three hundred and thirty seven: and there were among them two hundred singing men and singing women. Their horses were seven hundred and thirty six; their mules, two 66 hundred and forty five; their camels, four hundred and thirty 67 five; their asses, six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

And some of the chiefs of fathers' houses, when they 68 came to the house of the LORD which is at Yerushalayim, offered freely for the house of GOD to set it up in its place: they gave 69 after their ability to the treasury of the work sixty one thousand drachmas of gold, and five thousand minas of silver, and one hundred priests' garments. So the priests, and the Levites, 70 and some of the people, and the singers, and the gatekeepers, and the temple servants, dwelt in their cities, and all Yisra'el in their cities. And when the seventh month was come, 3 and the children of Yisra'el were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together as one man to Yerushalayim. Then stood up Yeshua the son of Yoẓadaq, and his brethren 2 the priests, and Zerubbavel the son of She'alti'el, and his brethren, and they built the altar of the GOD of Yisra'el, to offer burnt offerings upon it, as it is written in the Tora of Moshe the man of GOD. And they set the altar upon its bases; 3 for fear was upon them because of the people of those countries: and they offered burnt offerings upon it to the LORD, burnt offerings morning and evening. And they kept the feast of booths, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt offerings 4 by number, according to the prescribed form, as the duty of every day required; and afterwards they offered the continual 5 burnt offering, both of the new moons, and of all the sacred appointed seasons of the LORD, and on behalf of everyone who willingly offered a free will offering to the LORD. From the first 6 day of the seventh month they began to offer burnt offerings to the LORD. But the foundation of the temple of the LORD was not yet laid. They gave money also to the masons, and to the carpen- 7 ters; and food, and drink, and oil, to those of Ẓidon, and of Ẓor, to bring cedar trees from the Levanon to the sea of Yafo, according to the grant that they had from Koresh king of Paras. Now in the second year of their coming to the 8 house of GOD at Yerushalayim, in the second month, began Zerubbavel the son of She'alti'el, and Yeshua the son of Yoẓadaq, and the remnant of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all they who were come out of the captivity to Yerushalayim; and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upwards, to superintend the work of the house of the LORD.

Then stood Yeshua with his sons and his brethren, Qadmi'el 9 and his sons, the sons of Yehuda, together, to superintend the workmen in the house of GOD: the sons of Ḥenadad, with their sons and their brethren the Levites. And when the builders 10 laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, they set the priests in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaf with cymbals, to praise the LORD, according to the form prescribed by David king of Yisra'el. And they sang responsively 11 in praising and giving thanks to the LORD; because he is good, for his steadfast love endures for ever towards Yisra'el. And all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid. But many of the priests and Levites and the chiefs of the 12 fathers' houses, old men who had seen the first house; when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; but many shouted aloud for joy: so that 13 the people could not distinguish the sound of the shout of joy from the sound of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the sound was heard afar off.

Now when the adversaries of Yehuda and Binyamin heard 4 that the children of the exiles were building the temple to the LORD GOD of Yisra'el; then they came to Zerubbavel, and to the 2 chiefs of the fathers' houses and said to them, Let us build with you: for we seek your GOD, as you do; and we have sacrificed to him since the days of Esar-ḥaddon king of Ashshur, who brought us up here. But Zerubbavel, and Yeshua, and the rest of 3 the chiefs of the fathers' houses of Yisra'el, said to them, You have nothing to do with us in building a house to our GOD; but we ourselves alone will build to the LORD GOD of Yisra'el, as king Koresh the king of Paras has commanded us. Then the 4 people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Yehuda, and frightened them off from building, and they hired counsellors 5 against them, to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Koresh king of Paras, until the reign of Daryavesh king of Paras. And 6 in the reign of Aḥashverosh, in the beginning of his reign, they wrote to him an accusation against the inhabitants of Yehuda and Yerushalayim. And in the days of Artaḥshasta, 7 Bishlam, Mitredat, Tave'el, and the rest of their companions, wrote to Artaḥshasta, king of Paras; and the writing of the letter was written in the Aramic script, and translated into the Aramic tongue. Reḥum the chancellor and Shimshay the 8 scribe wrote a letter against Yerushalayim to Artaḥshasta the king in this sort: then wrote Reḥum the chancellor, and Shim- 9 shay the scribe, and the rest of their companions; the Dinites, the Afarsatkhites, the Tarpelites, the Afarsites, the Arkevites, the Bavlites, the Shushankhites, the Dehites, the 'Elamites, and the 10 rest of the nations whom the great and noble Asnappar brought over, and placed in the cities of Shomeron, and the rest who are on this side of the river. And now, this is the copy 11 of the letter that they sent to him, to Artaḥshasta the king; Thy servants the men on this side of the river. And now,

Be it known to the king, that the Jews who came up 12 from thee to us are come to Yerushalayim; they are building the rebellious and the bad city, and have set up its walls, and joined the foundations. Be it known now to the king, that, if 13 this city is built, and the walls set up again, then they will not pay toll, tribute, and custom, and so the revenue of the kings will suffer damage. Now because we feel closely bound 14 to the king's palace, and it was not meet for us to see the king's dishonour, therefore we have sent and certified the king; that search may be made in the book of the records of thy 15 fathers: so shalt thou find in the book of the records, and know that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtful to kings and provinces, and that they have moved sedition within the same of old time: for which cause was this city laid waste. We make 16 known to the king that, if this city is rebuilt and its walls set up, by this means thou shalt have no portion on this side of the river. Then the king sent an answer to Reḥum the chan- 17 cellor, and to Shimshay the scribe, and to the rest of their companions who dwelt in Shomeron, and to the rest beyond the river, Peace. And now, the letter which you sent to us has been 18 plainly read before me. And I commanded, and search has been 19 made, and it is found that this city of old time made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition were made in it. And there have been mighty kings over Yerushalayim, who ruled 20 over all countries beyond the river; and toll, tribute, and custom, was paid to them. Therefore make a decree to cause these men 21 to cease, and that this city be not rebuilt, until a further decree is given from me. Take heed now not to be slack in this: why 22 should damage grow to the hurt of the kings? Now when 23 the copy of king Artaḥshasta's letter was read before Reḥum, and Shimshay the scribe, and their companions, they went up in haste to Yerushalayim to the Jews, and made them to cease by force and power. Then the work of the house of God 24 which is at Yerushalayim ceased. So it ceased until the second year of the reign of Daryavesh king of Paras.

Then the prophets, Ḥaggay the prophet, and Zekharya the son 5 of 'Iddo, prophesied to the Jews who were in Yehuda and Yerushalayim in the name of the God of Yisra'el, even to them. Then 2 rose up Zerubbavel the son of She'alti'el, and Yeshua the son of Yoẓadaq, and began to build the house of God which is at Yerushalayim: and with them were the prophets of God helping them.

At the same time came to them Tattenay, governor on this side of 3 the river, and Shetar-bozenay, and their companions, and said thus to them, Who has commanded you to build this house, and to make up this wall? We then spoke to them after this manner: 4 What are the names of the men who are engaged on this building? But the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, that 5 they could not cause them to cease, till the matter came to Daryavesh: and then they returned answer by letter concerning this matter. The copy of the letter that Tattenay, governor 6 on this side of the river, and Shetar-bozenay, and his companions the Afarsekhites, who were on this side of the river, sent to Daryavesh the king: they sent a letter to him, and in it was 7 written thus; To Daryavesh the king, all peace. Be it known to 8 the king, that we went into the province of Yehuda, to the house of the great God, which is built with great stones, and timber is laid in the walls, and this work goes on with diligence, and prospers in their hands. Then we asked those elders, and said 9 to them thus, Who commanded you to build this house, and to make up these walls? We asked their names also, to make known 10 to thee, that we might write the names of the men who were at their head. And thus they returned us answer, saying, We are 11 the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and build the house that was built these many years ago, which a great king of Yisra'el did build and set up. But because our fathers had pro- 12 voked the God of heaven to anger, he gave them into the hand of Nevukhadneẕẕar the king of Bavel, the Kasdian, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Bavel. But 13 in the first year of Koresh the king of Bavel the same king Koresh made a decree to build this house of God. And also 14 the vessels of gold and silver of the house of God, which Nevukhadneẕẕar took out of the temple that was in Yerushalayim, and brought into the temple of Bavel, these did Koresh the king take out of the temple of Bavel, and they were delivered to one, whose name was Sheshbaẕẕar, whom he had made governor; and he said to him, Take these vessels, go, carry them 15 into the temple that is in Yerushalayim, and let the house of God be built on its place. Then came the same Sheshbaẕẕar, 16 and laid the foundation of the house of God which is in Yerushalayim: and since that time even until now it has been in building, and it is still not finished. Now therefore, if it seem good to the 17 king, let search be made in the king's treasure house, which is there at Bavel, whether it be so, that a decree was made by Koresh the king to build this house of God at Yerushalayim, and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter.

Then Daryavesh the king made a decree, and search was 6 made in the house of the archives, where the treasures were laid up in Bavel. And there was found at Aḥmeta, the fortress that 2 is in the province of Maday, a roll, and therein was a record thus written: In the first year of Koresh the king, the same 3 Koresh the king made a decree, Concerning the house of God at Yerushalayim; let the house be built, the place where they offer sacrifices, and let its foundations be strongly laid; its height sixty cubits, and its breadth sixty cubits; with three 4 rows of great stones, and a row of new timber: and let the expenses be paid out of the king's house: and also let the golden 5 and silver vessels of the house of God which Nevukhadnezzar took out of the temple which is at Yerushalayim, and brought to Bavel, be restored, and brought back to the temple which is at Yerushalayim, every one to its place, and place them in the house of God. Now Tattenay, governor beyond the river, 6 Shetar-bozenay, and your associates, the Afarsekhites, who are beyond the river, keep far from hence · let the work of this 7 house of God alone ; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God in its place. Moreover I make 8 a decree as to what you shall do for the elders of these Jews for the building of this house of God : that of the king's goods, even of the tribute beyond the river, expenses be given with all diligence to these men so that they are not delayed. And that 9 which they have need of, both young bullocks, and rams, and lambs, for the burnt offerings of the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine and oil, according to the word of the priests who are at Yerushalayim, let it be given them day by day without fail : that 10 they may offer sacrifices of sweet savour to the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king, and of his sons. Also I have made 11 a decree, that whoever shall alter this word, let a beam of a timber be pulled down from his house, and let him be lifted up and impaled thereon ; and let his house be made a dunghill for this.

And may the God who has caused his name to dwell there 12 destroy all kings and peoples, that shall put to their hand to alter this, or to destroy this house of God which is at Yerushalayim.
I Daryavesh have made a decree ; let it be done with diligence.

Then Tattenay governor on this side of the river, Shetar- 13 bozenay, and their associates, according to that which Daryavesh the king had sent, so they did with diligence. And the elders of 14 the Jews built, and they prospered through the prophesying of Ḥaggay the prophet and Zekharya the son of 'Iddo. And they built, and finished it, according to the commandment of the God of Yisra'el, and according to the commandment of Koresh, and Daryavesh, and Artaḥshasta king of Paras. And this house was 15 finished on the third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Daryavesh the king. And the 16 children of Yisra'el, the priests and the Levites and the rest of the children of the exile, kept the dedication of this house of God with joy, and they offered at the dedication of this house 17 of God a hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs ; and for a sin offering for all Yisra el, twelve he goats, according to the number of the tribes of Yisra'el. And they set 18 the priests in their divisions, and the Levites in their courses, for the service of God, which is at Yerushalayim ; as it is written in the book of Moshe. And the children of the exile kept the 19 passover upon the fourteenth day of the first month. For the 20 priests and the Levites had purified themselves; all of them were pure ; and they killed the passover lamb for all the children of the exile, and for their brethren the priests, and for themselves.
And the children of Yisra el who were come back out of exile, 21 and all such as had separated themselves to them from the filthiness of the nations of the land, to seek the Lord God of Yisra'el did eat of it. And they kept the feast of unleavened 22 bread seven days with joy: for the LORD had made them joyful, and turned the heart of the king of Ashshur to them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of GOD, the GOD of Yisra'el. Now after these things, in the reign of 7 Artaḫshasta king of Paras, 'Ezra the son of Seraya, the son of 'Azarya, the son of Ḥilqiyya, the son of Shallum, the son of 2 Ẓadoq, the son of Aḥituv, the son of Amarya, the son of 'Azarya, 3 the son of Merayot, the son of Zeraḥya, the son of 'Uzzi, the 4 son of Buqqi, the son of Avishua, the son of Pineḥas, the son of 5 El'azar, the son of Aharon the chief priest: — this 'Ezra went 6 up from Bavel; and he was a ready scribe in the Tora of Moshe, which the LORD GOD of Yisra'el had given: and the king granted him all his request, according to the hand of the LORD his GOD upon him. And there went up some of the children 7 of Yisra'el, and of the priests, and the Levites, and the singers, and the gatekeepers, and the temple servants, to Yerushalayim, in the seventh year of Artaḫshasta the king. And he came to 8 Yerushalayim in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king. For upon the first day of the first month was the 9 beginning of the going up from Bavel, and on the first day of the fifth month he came to Yerushalayim, according to the good hand of his GOD upon him. For 'Ezra had prepared his heart to 10 seek the Tora of the LORD, and to do it, and to teach in Yisra'el statutes and judgments. Now this is the copy of the letter 11 that the king Artaḫshasta gave to 'Ezra the priest, the scribe, learned in the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of his statutes to Yisra'el. Artaḫshasta, king of kings, to 12 'Ezra the priest, a scribe of the law of the GOD of heaven, a perfect man. And now, I make a decree, that all they of the 13 people of Yisra'el, and of his priests and Levites, in my realm, who are minded of their own freewill to go up to Yerushalayim, may go with thee. For thou art sent by the king, and by his 14 seven counsellors, to inquire concerning Yehuda and Yerushalayim, according to the law of thy GOD which is in thy hand; and to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his 15 counsellors have freely offered to the GOD of Yisra'el, whose habitation is in Yerushalayim, and all the silver and gold that 16 thou canst find in all the province of Bavel, with the freewill offering of the people, and of the priests, offering willingly for the house of their GOD which is in Yerushalayim: that thou 17 mayst buy speedily with this money bullocks, rams, lambs, with their meal offerings and their drink offerings, and offer them upon the altar of the house of your GOD which is in Yerushalayim.

And whatever shall seem good to thee, and to thy brethren, to 18 do with the rest of the silver and the gold, that do after the will of your GOD. And the vessels that are given thee for the service 19 of the house of thy GOD, deliver before the GOD of Yerushalayim.
And what more shall be needful for the house of thy GOD, which 20 thou shalt have occasion to bestow, bestow it out of the king's treasure house. And I, even I Artaḫshasta the king, do make a 21 decree to all the treasurers who are beyond the river, that whatever 'Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the GOD of heaven, shall require of you, it be done with diligence, up to a hundred 22 talents of silver, and up to a hundred measures of wheat, and up to a hundred bats of wine, and up to a hundred bats of oil, and salt without prescribed limit. Whatever is commanded by 23 the God of heaven, let it be speedily done for the house of the God of heaven: for why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons? We also notify you, that as 24 regards any of the priests and Levites, singers, gatekeepers, servants, or ministers of this house of God, it shall not be lawful to impose toll, tribute, or custom, upon them. And thou, 'Ezra, 25 after the wisdom of thy God, that is in thy hand, appoint magistrates and judges, who may judge all the people that are beyond the river, all such as know the laws of thy God; and teach them who do not know them. And whoever will not do 26 the law of thy God, and the law of the king, let judgment be with diligence executed upon him, whether it be for death, or for banishment, or for confiscation of goods, or for imprisonment. Blessed be the LORD God of our fathers, which has 27 put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of the LORD which is in Yerushalayim: and has given me grace 28 before the king, and his counsellors, and before all the king's mighty princes. And I was strenthened as the hand of the LORD my God was upon me, and I gathered together out of Yisra'el chief men to go up with me.

Now these are the heads of their fathers' houses, and this is the 8 genealogy of those who went up with me from Bavel, in the reign of Artaḫshasta the king. Of the sons of Pineḫas, Gershom: 2 of the sons of Itamar, Daniyyel: of the sons of David, Ḫattush: 3 of the sons of Shekhanya, of the sons of Par'osh, Zekharya; and with him were reckoned by genealogy one hundred and fifty males. Of the sons of Paḫat-mo'av, Elyeho'enay the son 4 of Zeraḫya; and with him two hundred males. Of the sons of 5 Shekhanya, the son of Yaḫazi'el and with him three hundred males. And of the sons of 'Adin, 'Eved the son of Yonatan; and 6 with him fifty males. And of the sons of 'Elam, Yesha'ya the son 7 of 'Atalya; and with him seventy males. And of the sons of 8 Shefatya, Zevadya the son of Mikha'el; and with him eighty males. Of the sons of Yo'av, 'Ovadya the son of Yeḫi'el; and 9 with him two hundred and eighteen males. And of the sons of 10 Shelomit, the son of Yosifya; and with him one hundred and sixty males. And of the sons of Bevay, Zekharya the son of 11
Bevay: and with him twenty eight males. And of the sons of 12
'Azgad, Yoḫanan the son of Haqqatan; and with him a hundred and ten males. And of the sons of Adoniqam (who came in 13 the rear,) these were their names: Elifelet, Ye'i'el, and Shema'ya; and with them were sixty males. And of the sons of Bigvay, 14
'Utay and Zakkur; and with them were seventy males.

And I gathered them together at the river that runs to Ahava, 15 and we encamped there for three days: and I inspected the people, and the priests, but found there none of the sons of Levi.
So I sent for Eli'ezer, for Ari'el, for Shema'ya, and for Elnatan, 16 and for Yariv, and for Elnatan, and for Natan, and for Zekharya, and for Meshullam, chief men: and for Yoyariv, and for Elnatan, men of understanding. And I sent them with commandment to 17

Iddo the chief at the place Kasifya, and I told them what they should say to Iddo, and to his brother who were appointed at the place Kasifya that they should bring to us ministers for the house of God. And by the good hand of our God upon us they 18 brought us a man of discretion, of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Yisra'el ; and Sherevya, with his sons and his brothers, eighteen ; and Hashavya, and with him Yesha'ya of the 19 sons of Merari, his brethren and their sons, twenty ; also 20 of the temple servants, whom David and the princes had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty temple servants ; all of whom were mentioned by name. Then I 21 proclaimed a fast there, at the river of Ahava, that we might afflict ourselves before our God, to seek of him a safe journey for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance. For I 22 was ashamed to ask of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy on the road : because we had spoken to the king, saying, The hand of our God is upon all those who seek him for good ; but his power and his wrath are against all those who forsake him. So we fasted and besought 23 our God for this : and he listened to our entreaty. Then I 24 separated twelve of the chief of the priests, Sherevya, Hashavya, and ten of their brethren with them, and weighed to them the 25 silver, and the gold, and the vessels, the offering of the house of our God, which the king, and his counsellors, and his lords, and all Yisra'el there present, had offered : so I weighed into their 26 hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and of silver vessels a hundred talents, and of gold a hundred talents; also twenty 27 bowls of gold, of a thousand darics ; and two vessels of fine copper, precious as gold. And I said to them, You are holy to the 28 Lord ; the vessels are holy also ; and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering to the Lord God of your fathers. Watch, and 29 keep them, until you weigh them before the chief of the priests and the Levites, and chief of the fathers of Yisra'el, at Yerushalayim, in the chambers of the house of the Lord. So the priests 30 and the Levites took the weight of the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Yerushalayim to the house of our God. Then we departed from the river of Ahava on the 31 twelfth day of the first month, to go to Yerushalayim : and the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy, and of such as lie in wait by the way. And we came 32 to Yerushalayim, and abode there three days. Now on the fourth 33 day the silver and the gold and the vessels were weighed in the house of our God by the hand of Meremot the son of Uriyya the priest ; and with him was El'azar the son of Pinehas ; and with them was Yozavad the son of Yeshua, and No'adya the son of Binnuy, Levites ; the whole was counted and weighed : and 34 the weight of everything was recorded at that time. Also 35 the children of those who had been carried away, who were come out of the exile, offered burnt offerings to the God of Yisra'el, twelve bullocks for all Yisra'el, ninety six rams, seventy seven lambs, twelve he goats for a sin offering : all this was a burnt offering to the Lord. And they delivered the king's commissions to 36 the king's satraps, and to the governors on this side of the river :

and they furthered the people, and the house of GOD. Now 1 when these things were done, the princes came to me, saying,
The people of Yisra'el, and the priests, and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands, doing according to their abominations, even of the Kena'ani, the Ḥitti, the Perizzi, the Yevusi, the 'Ammoni, the Mo'avi, the Miẓri, and the Emori. For they have taken of their daughters for them- 2 selves, and for their sons: so that the holy seed have mingled themselves with the peoples of those lands: indeed, the hand of the princes and rulers has been chief in this crime. And when 3 I heard this thing, I rent my garment and my mantle, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down appalled.
Then everyone who trembled at the words of the GOD of Yisra'el, 4 because of the transgression of those who had been carried away gathered around me; and I sat appalled until the evening sacrifice. And at the evening sacrifice I arose from my fasting; 5 and my garment and my mantle being rent, I fell upon my knees, and spread out my hands to the LORD my GOD, and said, O my 6 GOD, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to thee, my GOD:
for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our guilt has mounted to the heavens. Since the days of our fathers we have 7 been exceedingly guilty to this day; and for our iniquities we, our kings, and our priests, have been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to plundering, and to utter shame, as it is this day. And now for a little 8 moment grace has been shown by the LORD our GOD, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a secure anchorage in his holy place, that our GOD may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage. For we were slaves; yet our 9 GOD did not forsake us in our slavery but gave us grace in the sight of the kings of Paras; to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our GOD, and to repair its ruins, and to give us a wall in Yehuda and in Yerushalayim. And now, O our GOD, what shall 10 we say after this? for we have forsaken thy commandments, which thou hast commanded by thy servants the prophets, 11 saying, The land, into which you go to possess it, is an unclean land through the uncleanness of the peoples of the lands, with their abominations, for they have filled it from one end to the other with their uncleanness. Now therefore do not give 12 your daughters to their sons, nor take their daughters to your sons, nor seek their peace or their welfare for ever: that you may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children for ever. And after all that which 13 has come upon us for our evil deeds, and for our great guilt, seeing that thou our GOD hast punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and hast given us such deliverance as this; should we again break thy commandments, and make marriages 14 with the peoples of these abominations? wouldst thou not be angry with us till thou wouldst consume us, so that there should be no remnant nor any to escape? O LORD GOD of Yisra'el, 15 thou are righteous: for we are left, a remnant that is escaped, as it is this day: behold, we are before thee in our guiltiness:
but we cannot stand before thee because of this. Now 10 when 'Ezra had prayed, and when he had made confession, weeping and casting himself before the house of GOD, there assembled to him out of Yisra'el a very great congregation of men and women and children: for the people wept very bitterly.

And Shekhanya the son of Yeḥi'el, one of the sons of 'Elam, 2 answered and said to 'Ezra, We have trespassed against our GOD, and have taken alien women of the peoples of the land: yet now there is hope in Yisra'el concerning this thing. Now 3 therefore let us make a covenant with our GOD to put away all such women, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those who tremble at the commandment of our GOD; and let it be done according to the Tora. Arise; for it is thy task: we also will be with thee: be of good 4 courage, and do it. Then 'Ezra arose, and made the chief 5 priests, the Levites, and all Yisra'el swear that they would do according to this word. And they swore. Then 'Ezra rose up 6 from before the house of GOD, and went into the chamber of Yoḥanan the son of Elyashiv: and when he came there, he ate no bread, nor drank water: for he mourned because of the transgression of the exiles. And they made proclamation throughout Yehuda and Yerushalayim to all the children of the exile, 7 that they should gather themselves together to Yerushalayim; and that whoever would not come within three days, according 8 to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be forfeited, and himself separated from the congregation of the exiles.

Then all the men of Yehuda and Binyamin gathered themselves 9 together to Yerushalayim within three days. It was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month: and all the people sat in the open place before the house of GOD, trembling because of this matter, and on account of the great rain. And 'Ezra the 10 priest stood up, and said to them. You have transgressed, and have taken alien women to increase the guilt of Yisra'el. Now 11 therefore make confession to the LORD GOD of your fathers, and do his pleasure: and separate yourselves from the peoples of the land, and from the alien women. Then all the congre- 12 gation answered and said with a loud voice, As thou hast said, so must we do. But the people are many, and it is a time of 13 much rain, and we are not able to stand outside, nor is this a work of one day or two: for we are many who have have transgressed in this thing. Let now our rulers of all the congre- 14 gation stand, and let all those who have taken foreign women in our cities come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and their judges, until the fierce wrath of our GOD for this matter is turned away from us. Only Yonatan the son 15 of 'Asa'el and Yaḥzeya the son of Tiqva stood out against this: and Meshullam and Shabbetay the Levite helped them. And the 16 children of the exile did so. And certain chiefs of the fathers' houses after the house of their fathers, and all of them by their names, were separated by 'Ezra the priest, and they sat down on the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter. And they 17 made an end of the whole matter of the men who had taken

NEḤEMYA 1

The words of Neḥemya the son of Ḥakhalya. And it came to pass in the month Kislev, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the capital, that Ḥanani, one of my brothers, came, he and certain men of Yehuda; and I asked them concerning the Jews who had escaped, who were left of the captivity, and concerning Yerushalayim. And they said to me, The remnant who are left of the captivity there in the province suffer much hardship and insult: and the wall of Yerushalayim is broken down, and its gates are burned with fire. And it came to pass, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days, and I fasted, and prayed before the God of heaven, and said, I pray thee, O LORD GOD of heaven, the great and terrible GOD, who keeps covenant and troth to those who love him and observe his commandments: let thy ear now be attentive, and thy eyes open, that thou mayst hear the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee now day and night, for the children of Yisra'el thy servants, and I will confess the sins of the children of Yisra'el which we have sinned against thee: both I and my fathers house have sinned. We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, or the statutes, or the judgments, which thou didst command thy servant Moshe. Remember, I pray thee, the word 8 that thou didst command thy servant Moshe, saying, If you transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the nations: but if 9 you turn to me, and keep my commandments, and do them; though your outcasts be at the utmost parts of heaven, from there will I gather them, and I will bring them to the place which I have chosen to set my name there. Now these are thy 10 servants and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power, and by thy strong hand. O LORD, I pray thee, let 11 now thy ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, who delight to fear thy name: and prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. For I was the king's cupbearer.

And it came to pass in the month Nisan, in the twentieth 2 year of Artaḫshasta the king, that wine was before him: and I took up the wine, and gave it to the king. Now I had not been beforetime sad in his presence. Wherefore the king said to me, 2 Why is thy face sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing else but sorrow of heart. Then I was very much afraid, and I 3 said to the king, Let the king live for ever: why should not my face be sad, when the city, the place of the tombs of my ancestors lies waste, and its gates are consumed with fire?

Then the king said to me, For what dost thou make request? 4
So I prayed to the GOD of heaven. And I said to the king, If it 5 please the king, and if thy servant have found favour in thy sight that thou wouldst send me to Yehuda, to the city of the graves of my ancestors, that I may rebuild it. And the king said 6 to me, (the queen also sitting by him,) For how long shall thy journey be? and when wilt thou return? So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a time. Moreover I said to the king, 7
If it please the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the river, that they may let me pass through until I come into Yehuda; and a letter to Asaf the keeper of the king's 8 forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the fortress of the temple, and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into. And the king granted me, according to the good hand of my GOD upon me. Then I came 9 to the governors beyond the river, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me. When Sanvallat the Ḫoronite, and Toviyya 10 the servant, the 'Ammonite, heard of it, it displeased them greatly that there was come a man to seek the welfare of the children of Yisra'el. So I came to Yerushalayim, and was there three 11 days. And I arose in the night, I and some few men with me; and 12
I told no one what my GOD had put in my heart to do at Yerushalayim: nor was there any beast with me, save the beast that I rode upon. And I went out by night by the gate of the valley, 13 even before the dragon's well, and to the dung gate, and viewed the walls of Yerushalayim, which were broken down, and its gates which had been destroyed by fire. Then I went on to 14 the fountain gate and to the king's pool: but there was no place for the beast that was under me to pass. Then I went 15 up in the night by the wadi, and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entered by the gate of the valley, and so returned.

And the rulers knew not where I had gone or what I had 16 done; nor had I as yet told it to the Jews, or to the priests, or to the nobles, or to the rulers, or to the rest who did the work. Then said I to them, You see the distress that we are 17 in, how Yerushalayim lies waste, and its gates are burned with fire: come and let us build up the wall of Yerushalayim, so that we no longer suffer insult. Then I told them of the hand 18 of my GOD which was good upon me; as also the king's words that had spoken to me. And they said, Let us rise up and build. So they strengthened their hands for this good work. But when Sanvallat the Ḥoronite, and Toviyya 19 the servant, the 'Ammonite, and Geshem the 'Arvian heard it, they laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, What is this thing that you do? will you rebel against the king?
Then I answered them, and said to them, The GOD of heaven, 20 he will prosper us; therefore we his servants will arise and build: but you have no portion, or right, or memorial, in Yerushalayim.

Then Elyashiv the high priest rose up with his brethren the 3 priests, and they built the sheep gate; they sanctified it, and set up its doors; even to the tower of the hundred they sanctified it, as far as the tower of Ḥanan'el. And next to him 2 the men of Yereḥo built. And next to them Zakkur the son of Imri built. But the fish gate did the sons of Sena'a build; 3 they also laid its beams, and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars. And next to them Meremot the son of Uriyya, the son 4 of Qoẓ repaired. And next to them Meshullam the son of Berekhya the son of Meshezav'el repaired. And next to them Ẓadoq the son of Ba'ana repaired. And next to them the Teqo'ites 5 repaired; but their nobles did not put their necks to the work of their LORD. And Yoyada the son of Paseaḥ, and Meshullam 6 the son of Besodya repaired the old gate; they laid its beams, and set up its doors, and its bolts, and its bars. And next 7 to them Melatya the Giv'onite and Yadon the Meronotite, the men of Giv'on and of Miẓpa repaired, as far as the seat of the governor beyond the river. Next to him 'Uzzi'el the son of 8 Ḥarhaya of the goldsmiths repaired. And next to him Ḥananya one of the perfumers repaired; and they restored Yerushalayim unto the broad wall. And next to them Refaya the son of 9 Ḥur, the ruler of the half district of Yerushalayim repaired.
And next to them Yedaya son of Ḥarumaf repaired, even over 10 against his house. And next to him Ḥattush the son of Ḥashav-neya repaired. Malkiyya the son of Ḥarim, and Ḥashshuv the 11 son of Paḥat-mo'av, repaired another section, and the furnace tower. And next to him Shallum the son of Halloḥesh, the 12 ruler of the half district of Yerushalayim repaired, he and his daughters. The valley gate did Ḥanun, and the inhabitants of 13 Zanoaḥ repair; they built it, and set up its doors, its bolts and its bars, and a thousand cubits on the wall as far as the dung gate. But the dung gate did Malkiyya the son of Rekhav, 14 the ruler of part of Bet-hakkerem repair ; he undertook to build it, and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars. But the fountain 15 gate did Shallun the son of Kol-ḥoze, the ruler of the district of Miẓpa repair ; he built it, and covered it, and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars, and the wall of the pool of Shelaḥ by the king's garden, as far as the stairs that go down from the city of David. After him did Neḥemya the son of 'Azbuq, the ruler of 16 the half district of Bet-ẓur repair, as far as a point opposite the the tombs of the house of David, as far as the man made pool, and as far as the house of the warriors. After him the 17 Levites repaired, Reḥum the son of Bani ; next to him Ḥashavya, the ruler of the half district of Qe'ila repaired for his area. After 18 him their brethren, Bavvay the son of Ḥenadad, the ruler of the half district of Qe'ila repaired. And next to him 'Ezer the son 19 of Yeshua, the ruler of Miẓpa, repaired another section over against the ascent to the armoury at the corner. After him 20 Barukh the son of Zakkay earnestly repaired another section, from the corner as far as the door of the house of Elyashiv the high priest. After him did Meromot the son of Uriyya the 21 son of Qoẓ repair another section, from the door of the house of Elyashiv even to the end of the house of Elyashiv. And 22 after him the priests, the men of the plain repaired. After him 23 Binyamin and Ḥashshuv repaired opposite their house. After him 'Azarya the son of Ma'aseya the son of 'Ananya repaired by his house. After him Binnuy the son of Ḥenadad repaired 24 another section, from the house of 'Azarya as far as the corner, and up to the turning. Palal the son of 'Uzay, opposite the 25 corner, and the tower which projects from the king's high house, that was by the court of the guard. After him Pedaya the son of Par'osh. Moreover the temple servants dwelt in the 'Ofel, as 26 far as a point opposite the water gate towards the east, and the projecting tower. After them the Teqo'ites repaired another 27 section, opposite the great projecting tower as far as the wall of the 'Ofel. From above the horse gate the priests repaired every 28 one over against his house. After them Ẓadoq the son of Immer 29 repaired opposite his house. And after him Shema'ya the son of Shekhanya, the keeper of the east gate, repaired. After 30 him Ḥananya the son of Shelemya, and Ḥanun the sixth son of Ẓalaf repaired another section. After him Meshullam the son of Berekhya repaired opposite his chamber. After him 31 Malkiyya one of the goldsmiths repaired as far as the house of the temple servants and of the merchants, opposite the muster gate to the corner of the battlement. And between the corner 32 of the battlement and the sheep gate the goldsmiths and the merchants repaired. But it came to pass, that when 33 Sanvallat heard that we were building the wall, he was angry, and greatly enraged, and he mocked the Jews. And he spoke 34 before his brethren and the army of Shomeron, and said, What are these feeble Jews doing ? will they restore things ? will they sacrifice ? will they make an end in a day ? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish seeing they are burned ? Now Toviyya the 'Ammonite was by him, and he said, 35

Even that which they build, if a fox go up, he shall break down their stone wall. Hear, O our GOD; for we are despised: and 36 turn their insolence upon their own head, and give them up for a prey in the land of captivity: and do not cover their 37 iniquity, and do not let their sin be blotted out from before thee: for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders.
So we built the wall; and all the wall was joined together to 38 half its height: for the people had a mind to work.

But it came to pass, that when Sanvallat, and Toviyya, and the 4 'Arvians, and the 'Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Yerushalayim were being repaired, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very angry, and 2 they conspired all of them together to come and to fight against Yerushalayim, and to cause confusion in it. Nevertheless we 3 made our prayer to our GOD, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them. And Yehuda said, The strength 4 of the bearers of burdens is failing, and there is much rubbish; so that we are not able to build the wall. And our adversaries 5 said, They shall neither know, nor see, until we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease.
And it came to pass, that when the Jews who dwelt by them 6 came, they said to us ten times, From all places where you shall return, they will be upon us. Therefore in the lower places 7 behind the wall on the bare face of the rock, I stationed the people; I stationed them according to their families, with their swords, their spears, and their bows. And I looked, and rose up, 8 and said to the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Be not afraid of them: remember the LORD, who is great and awe inspiring, and fight for your brethren, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses. And it 9 came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known to us, and GOD had brought their counsel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, everyone to his work. And it came to pass 10 from that time onwards, that the half of my servants did the work, and the other half of them held the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the coats of mail; and the rulers were behind all the house of Yehuda. They who built the wall, and they 11 who bore burdens, loaded themselves in such a way that with one of his hands each laboured in the work, and with the other hand he held a weapon. For the builders, everyone had his sword 12 girded by his side, and so he built. And he who sounded the shofar was by me. And I said to the nobles, and to the rulers, 13 and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, far from one another.

In whatever place you hear the sound of the shofar, rally 14 to us there: our GOD shall fight for us. So we laboured in the 15 work: and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning till the stars appeared. Likewise at the same time I 16 said to the people, Let everyone with his servant lodge within Yerushalayim, so that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labour in the day. So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my 17 servants, nor the men of the guard who followed me, none of us put off our clothes: everyone brought his weapon with him, even to the water.

And there was a great cry of the people and of their wives against their brethren the Jews. For there were those who said, We, our sons, and our daughters, are many : therefore let us get corn, that we may eat, and live. Some also there were who said, We have mortgaged our lands, our vineyards, and our houses, that we might buy corn, because of the dearth. There were also those who said, We have borrowed money for the king's tribute, and that upon our lands and vineyards. Yet now our flesh is as good as the flesh of our brethren, our children as good as their children : and, lo, we press our sons and our daughters into slavery, and some of our daughters are pressed into slavery already : nor is it in our power to redeem them ; for other men have our lands and vineyards. And I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words. Then I took counsel with myself, and I rebuked the nobles, and the rulers, and said to them, You make claims for debt, everyone of his brother ! And I held a great assembly against them. And I said to them, We after our ability have redeemed our brethren the Jews, who were sold to the heathen ; and will you nevertheless sell your brethren ? or shall they be sold to us ? Then they held their peace, and found nothing to answer. Also I said, That which you do is not good : ought you not to walk in the fear of our GOD because of the insult of the heathen our enemies ? I likewise, and my brethren, and my servants, have lent them money and corn : I pray you, let us release this debt. Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses, also the percentage of the money, and of the corn, the wine, and the oil, that you exact of them. Then they said, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them ; so will we do as thou sayst. Then I called the priests, and took an oath of them, that they should do according to this promise. Also I shook out my lap, and said, So GOD shake out every man from his house, and from his labour, who does not perform this promise, even thus may he be shaken out, and emptied. And all the congregation said, Amen, and praised the LORD. And the people did according to this promise. Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Yehuda, from the twentieth year even to the thirty second year of Artaḫshasta the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brethren have not eaten the bread of the governor. But the former governors who had been before me laid burdens upon the people, and had taken of them for bread and wine, besides forty shekels of silver ; even their servants bore rule over the people : but I did not do so, because of the fear of GOD. For I also continued in the work of this wall, nor did we buy any land : and all my servants were gathered there to the work. Moreover there were at my table a hundred and fifty of the Jews and the rulers, besides those who came to us from among the nations who were round about us. Now that which was prepared for one day was one ox and six choice sheep ; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine : yet for all this I did not demand the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy upon this people. Remember me, my GOD, 19 for good, according to all that I have done for this people.

Now it came to pass, when Sanvallat, and Toviyya, and Ge- 6 shem the 'Arvian, and the rest of our enemies, heard that I had built the wall, and that there was no breach left in it; (though at that time I had not set up the doors upon the gates;) then 2 Sanvallat and Geshem sent to me, saying, Come, let us meet together in one of the villages in the plain of Ono. But they thought to do me mischief. And I sent messengers to them, 3 saying, I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down:
why should the work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you? So they sent to me four times after this sort; and I 4 answered them after the same manner. Then Sanvallat sent his 5 servant to me in like manner the fifth time with an open letter in his hand: in which was written, It is reported among the 6 nations, and Gashmu says it, that thou and the Jews think to rebel: for which cause thou didst build the wall, that thou mayst be their king, according to these words. And thou hast also 7 appointed prophets to proclaim of these at Yerushalayim, saying, There is a king in Yehuda: and now shall it be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together. Then I sent to him, saying, There are no 8 such things done as thou sayst, but thou dost invent them out of thy own heart. For they all would have us afraid, saying, 9 Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it shall not be done. (Now therefore, strengthen my hands.) Afterwards I came 10 to the house of Shema'ya the son of Delaya the son of Mehetav'el, who was shut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the house of GOD, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slay thee; yea, in the night they will come to slay thee. And I said, Should such a man as I flee? 11 and who such as I could go into the temple and live? I will not go in. And, lo, I perceived that GOD had not sent him; but that 12 he pronounced this prophecy against me: for Toviyya and San-vallat had hired him. For this cause was he hired, that I should 13 be afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might taunt me. My GOD, 14 remember Toviyya and Sanvallat according to these their works, and also the prophetess No'adya, and the rest of the prophets, who would have put me in fear. So the wall was finished in the 15 twenty fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty two days. And 16 it came to pass, that when all our enemies heard that, all the nations that were about us were afraid and were much cast down in their own eyes: for they perceived that this work was done by our GOD. Moreover in those days the nobles of Yehuda 17 sent many letters to Toviyya, and the letters of Toviyya came to them. For there were many in Yehuda sworn to him, because 18 he was the son in law of Shekhanya the son of Araḥ; and his son Yehoḥanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berekhya. Also they spoke of his good deeds before me, and 19 reported my words to him. And Toviyya sent letters to put me in fear.

Now it came to pass, when the wall was built, and I had set up 1 the doors, and the gatekeepers and the singers and the Levites were appointed, that I gave my brother Ḥanani, and Ḥananya the 2 ruler of the palace, charge over Yerushalayim: for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many. And I said to them, 3 Let not the gates of Yerushalayim be opened until the sun is hot; and while people are still standing there, let them shut the doors, and bar them: and appoint watches among the inhabitants of Yerushalayim everyone in his watch, and everyone to be over against his house. Now the city was large and great: but 4 the people in it were few, and the houses were not yet built. And 5 my God put into my heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy.
And I found a register of the genealogy of those who came up at the first, and found written there, These are the children 6 of the province, who went up out of the captivity, of the exile, whom Nevukhadneẕẓar the king of Bavel had carried away, and came back to Yerushalayim and to Yehuda, everyone to his city, who came with Zerubbavel, Yeshua, Neḥemya, 'Azarya, 7 Ra'amya, Naḥamani, Mordekhay, Bilshan, Misperet, Bigvay, Ne-ḥum, Ba'ana. The number of the men of the people of Yisra'el: the children of Par'osh, two thousand one hundred and seventy 8 two; the children of Shefatya, three hundred and seventy two; 9 the children of Araḥ, six hundred and fifty two; the children 10,11 of Paḥat-mo'av, of the children of Yeshua and Yo'av, two thousand eight hundred and eighteen; the children of 'Elam, 12 one thousand two hundred and fifty four; the children of Zattu, 13 eight hundred and forty five; the children of Zakkay, seven 14 hundred and sixty; the children of Binnuy, six hundred and forty 15 eight; the children of Bevay six hundred and twenty eight; 16 the children of 'Azgad, two thousand three hundred and twenty 17 two; the children of Adoniqam, six hundred and sixty seven; 18 the children of Bigvay, two thousand and sixty seven; the 19,20 children of 'Adin, six hundred and fifty five; the children of Ater 21 of Ḥizqiyya, ninety eight; the children of Ḥashum, three hundred 22 and twenty eight; the children of Beẕay, three hundred and 23 twenty four; the children of Ḥarif, one hundred and twelve; the 24,25 children of Giv'on, ninety five; the men of Bet-leḥem and Netofa, 26 one hundred and eighty eight; the men of 'Anatot, one hundred 27 and twenty eight; the men of Bet-'azmavet, forty two; the men 28,29 of Qiryat-ye'arim, Kefira, and Be'erot, seven hundred and forty three; the men of Rama and Geva, six hundred and twenty one; 30 the men of Mikhmas, one hundred and twenty two; the men 31,32 of Bet-el and 'Ay, one hundred and twenty three; the men of 33 the other Nevo, fifty two; the children of the other 'Elam, one 34 thousand two hundred and fifty four; the children of Ḥarim, 35 three hundred and twenty; the children of Yereḥo, three hun- 36 dred and forty five; the children of Lod, Ḥadid, and Ono, seven 37 nine hundred and thirty. The priests: the children of Yeda'ya, 39 of the house of Yeshua, nine hundred and seventy three; the 40 children of Immer, one thousand and fifty two; the children 41 of Pashḥur, one thousand two hundred and forty seven; the 42 children of Ḥarim, one thousand and seventeen. The Levites: 43 the children of Yeshua, of Qadmi'el, and of the children of Hodeya, seventy four. The singers: the children of Asaf, one 44 hundred and forty eight. The gatekeepers: the children of 45

Shallum, the children of Ater, the children of Talmon, the children of 'Aqquv, the children of Ḥatita, the children of Shovay, one hundred and thirty eight. The temple servants: the children 46 of Ziḥa, the children of Ḥasufa, the children of Tabba'ot, the 47 children of Qeros, the children of Si'a, the children of Padon, the children of Levana, the children of Ḥagava, the children of 48 Salmay, the children of Ḥanan, the children of Giddel, the 49 the children of Gaḥar, the children of Re'aya, the children of 50 Reẓin, the children of Neqoda, the children of Gazzam, the 51 children of 'Uzza, the children of Paseaḥ, the children of 52 Besay, the children of Me'unim, the children of Nefishesim, the children of Baqbuq, the children of Ḥaqufa, the children 53 of Ḥarḥur, the children of Baẓlit, the children of Meḥida, 54 the children of Ḥarsha, the children of Barqos, the children 55 of Sisera, the children of Temaḥ, the children of Neẓiaḥ, 56 the children of Ḥatifa. The children of the servants of Shelomo: 57 the children of Sotay, the children of Soferet, the children of Perida, the children of Ya'ala, the children of Darqon, the 58 the children of Giddel, the children of Shefatya, the children of 59 Ḥattil, the children of Pokheret of Ẓevayim, the children of Amon. All the temple servants and the children of the servants 60 of Shelomo were three hundred and ninety two. And 61 these were they who went up from Tel-melaḥ, Tel-ḥarsha, Keruv, Addon, and Immer: but they could not tell their father's houses, nor their seed, whether they were of Yisra'el. The 62 children of Delaya, the children of Toviyya, the children of Neqoda, six hundred and forty two. And of the priests: 63 the children of Ḥavaya, the children of Qoẓ, the children of Barzillay, who took one of the daughters of Barzillay the Gil'adite to wife, and was called after their name. These sought 64 their register, that is, the genealogy, but it was not found:
therefore they were excluded from the priesthood as unfit.
And the Tirshata said to them, that they should not eat of the 65 most holy things, until there stood up a priest with Urim and and Tummim. The whole congregation together was forty two 66 thousand three hundred and sixty, besides their men servants 67 and their women servants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred and thirty seven: and they had two hundred and forty five singing men and singing women. [This verse is inserted in some versions: Their horses, seven hundred and thirty six: their mules, two hundred and forty five:] their camels, four hundred and thirty five: six thousand seven 68 hundred and twenty asses: and some of the chiefs of 69 the fathers' houses gave for the work. The Tirshata gave to the treasury a thousand drachmas of gold, fifty basins, five hundred and thirty priests' garments. And some of the chiefs of 70 the fathers' houses gave to the treasury of the work twenty thousand drachmas of gold, and two thousand and two hundred minas of silver. And that which the rest of the people gave 71 was twenty thousand drachmas of gold, and two thousand minas of silver, and sixty seven priests' garments. So the priests, and 72 the Levites, and the gatekeepers, and the singers, and some of the people, and the temple servants, and all Yisra'el, dwelt in their cities: and when the seventh month came, and the children of Yisra'el were in their cities, then all the people 8 gathered themselves together as one man into the open place that was before the water gate; and they spoke to 'Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the Tora of Moshe, which the LORD had commanded to Yisra'el. And 'Ezra the priest brought the 2 Tora before the congregation both of men and women, and all those who could hear with understanding, upon the first day of the seventh month. And he read therein facing the open place 3 which was before the water gate from morning until midday, before the men and the women, and those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the book of the Tora. And 'Ezra the scribe stood upon a platform of wood, 4 which they had made for the purpose, and beside him stood Mattitya, and Shema, and 'Anaya, and Uriyya, and Ḥilqiyya, and Ma'aseya, on his right hand: and on his left hand, Pedaya and Misha'el, and Malkiyya, and Ḥashum, and Ḥashbaddana, Zekhrya, Meshullam. And 'Ezra opened 5 the book in the sight of all the people; (for he was above all the people;) and when he opened it, all the people stood up: and 'Ezra blessed the LORD, the great GOD. And all the 6 people answered, Amen, Amen, lifting up their hands: and they bowed their heads, and worshipped the LORD with their faces to the ground. Also Yeshua, and Bani, and Sherevya, 7 Yamin, 'Aqquv, Shabbetay, Hodiyya, Ma'aseya, Qelita, 'Azarya, Yozaved, Ḥanan, Pelaya, and the Levites, caused the people to understand the Tora: and the people stood in their place. So 8 they read in the book, in the Tora of GOD distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading. And 9 Neḥemya, who is the Tirshata, and 'Ezra the priest the scribe, and the Levites who taught the people, said to all the people,

This day is holy to the LORD your GOD; do not mourn, or weep.
For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the Tora.
Then he said to them, Go your way, eat sumptuously, and drink 10 sweet beverages, and send portions to those for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy to our LORD: for the joy of the LORD is your strength. So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, 11 Hold your peace, for the day is holy; and do not be grieved. And 12 all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood the words that were declared to them. And on the 13 second day, the chiefs of the fathers' houses of all the people, the priests, and the Levites, were gathered to 'Ezra the scribe, in order to study the words of the Tora. And they found written 14 in the Tora which the LORD had commanded by the hand of Moshe, that the children of Yisra'el should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month: and that they should publish 15 and proclaim in all their cities, and in Yerushalayim, saying, Go out to the mountain, and fetch olive branches, and branches of wild olive, and myrtle branches, and palm branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written. So the people 16 went out, and brought them, and made themselves booths, every one upon the roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of GOD, and in the broad place of the water gate, and in the broad place of the gate of Efrayim. And all the 17 congregation of those who were come back out of the captivity made booths, and dwelt in the booths: for since the days of Yeshua the son of Nun to that day the children of Yisra'el had not done so. And there was very great gladness. Also day by day, 18 from the first day to the last day, he read in the book of the Tora of GOD. And they kept the feast seven days; and on the eigth day was a solemn assembly, according to the prescribed form.

Now on the twenty fourth day of this month the children of 9 Yisra'el were assembled with fasting, and with sackcloth, and with earth upon them. And the seed of Yisra'el separated them- 2 selves from all foreigners, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers. And they stood up in their 3 place, and read in the book of the Tora of the LORD their GOD one fourth part of the day; and another fourth part they confessed, and prostrated themselves before the LORD their GOD.

Then upon the stairs of the Levites stood Yeshua, and 4 Bani, Qadmi'el, Shevanya, Bunni, Sherevya, Bani, and Kenani; and they cried with a loud voice to the LORD their GOD. Then 5 the Levites, Yeshua, and Qadmi'el, Bani, Ḥashavneya, Sherevya, Hodiyya, Shevanya, and Petaḥya said, Rise up and bless the LORD your GOD from everlasting to everlasting, and let them bless thy glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise. Thou are LORD alone; thou hast made heaven, the 6 heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth, and all things that are in it, the seas, and all that is therein, and thou dost preserve them all; and the host of heaven worships thee. Thou 7 art the LORD the GOD, who didst choose Avram, and didst bring him out of Ur of the Kasdim, and didst give him the name of Avraham; and didst find his heart faithful before thee, and didst 8 make a covenant with him to give the land of the Kena'ani, the Ḥitti the Emori, and the Perizzi, and the Yevusi, and the Girgashi, to give it to his seed, and thou hast performed thy words; for thou art righteous: and thou didst see the affliction of our 9 fathers in Miẓrayim, and didst hear their cry by the sea of Suf; and didst show signs and wonders upon Par'o, and on all his 10 servants, and on all the people of his land: for thou didst know that they dealt arrogantly against them. So didst thou make for thyself a name, as it is this day. And thou didst divide the sea 11 before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land, and thou didst throw their pursuers into the deeps, like a stone into the mighty waters. And thou didst lead 12 them with a pillar of cloud by day; and with a column of fire by night, to give them light on the way wherein they should go.

And thou didst come down upon mount Sinay, and didst speak 13 with them from heaven, and gavest them right judgments, and true Torot, good statutes and commandments: and thou didst 14 make known to them thy holy sabbath, and didst command them precepts, statutes, and Tora, by the hand of Moshe thy servant:
and thou didst give them bread from heaven for their hunger, 15 and didst bring forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and didst promise them that they should go in to possess the land which thou hadst sworn to give them. But they and 16 our fathers dealt arrogantly, and hardened their necks, and did not hearken to thy commandments. And they refused to obey; 17 nor were they mindful of thy wonders that thou didst do among them; but they hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage: but thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and great in love; so thou didst not forsake them. Even when 18 they had made for themselves a molten calf, and had said, This is thy God who brought thee up out of Miẓrayim, and had committed great blasphemies; yet thou in thy manifold mercies 19 didst not forsake them in the wilderness: the pillar of cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; nor did the column of fire by night, to show them light, and the way in which they should go. And thou didst give thy good spirit 20 to instruct them, and didst not withhold thy manna from their mouth, and didst give them water for their thirst. For forty 21 years thou didst sustain them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing; their clothes did not grow old, and their feet did not swell. And thou didst give them kingdoms and nations, 22 and didst allot it to them piecemeal: so that they possessed the land of Siḥon, and the land of the king of Ḥeshbon, and the land of 'Og king of Bashan. Their children also thou didst multi- 23 ply like the stars of heaven, and didst bring them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it. So the children went in and 24 possessed the land, and thou didst subdue before them the inhabitants of the land, the Kena'anim, and didst give them into their hands, with their kings, and the peoples of the land, so that they might do with them as they pleased. And they took 25 fortified cities, and a fat land, and possessed houses full of all goods, wells already hewn, vineyards, and oliveyards, and fruit trees in abundance: so they did eat, and were sated, and became fat, and delighted themselves in thy great bounty. Nevertheless 26 they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy Tora behind their backs, and slew thy prophets who forewarned them to turn them to thee, and they committed great blas- 27 phemies. Therefore thou didst deliver them into the hand of their enemies, who vexed them: and in the time of their trouble, when they cried to thee, thou didst hear them from heaven;
and according to thy manifold mercies thou didst give them rescuers, who rescued them out of the hand of their enemies.
But after they had rest, they did evil again before thee: there- 28 fore thou didst leave them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried to thee, thou didst hear them from heaven; and many times didst thou deliver them according to thy mercies; and 29 didst forewarn them, that thou mightest bring them back to thy Tora: yet they acted presumptously, and hearkened not to thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, (which if a man do, he shall live by them;) and they turned a stubborn shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear. Yet many years didst thou bear with them, and didst 30 forewarn them by thy spirit in thy prophets: yet they would not give ear: therefore thou didst give them into the hand of the peoples of the lands. Yet for thy great mercies' sake thou 31 didst not utterly consume them, or forsake them; for thou art a gracious and merciful GOD. Now therefore, our GOD, the 32 great, the mighty, and the terrible GOD, who keepest covenant and troth, let not all the trouble seem little before thee, that has come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all thy people, since the time of the kings of Ashshur to this day.

Yet thou art just in all that is brought upon us; for thou hast 33 done right, but we have done wickedly: nor have our kings, 34 our princes, our priests, and our fathers, kept thy Tora, or hearkened to thy commandments and thy testimonies, with which thou didst testify against them. For they have not served 35 thee in their kingdom, and in thy great bounty that thou didst give them, and in the large and fat land which thou didst give before them, nor did they turn from their wicked works. Behold, 36 we are servants this day, and as for the land that thou didst give to our fathers to eat its fruit and its bounty, behold, we are servants in it; and its rich yield goes to the kings whom 37 thou hast set over us because of our sins: also they have power over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress.

And because of all this we make a firm covenant, and write it; 10 and our princes, Levites, and our priests, set their seal to it. Now 2 everyone having knowledge, and having understanding, join 30 with their brethren, their nobles, and enter into a curse, and into an oath, to walk in the Tora of God, which was given by Moshe the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of the Lord our Lord, and his judgments and his statutes; and that we will not give our daughters to the 31 peoples of the land, or take their daughters for our sons; and 32 if the peoples of the land bring in wares or any grain on the sabbath day to sell, that we will not buy it of them on the sabbath, or on the holy day: and that we will forego the produce of the seventh year, and the exaction of every debt. We 33 also lay ordinances on ourselves, to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a shekel for the service of the house of our God; for the showbread, and for the continual meal offer- 34 ing, and for the continual burnt offering, of the sabbaths, of the new moons, for the appointed seasons, and for the holy things, and for the sin offerings to make atonement for Yisra'el, and for all the work of the house of our God. And we 35 have cast lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people, for the wood offering, to bring it to the house of our God, according to our fathers' houses, at times appointed, year by year, to burn upon the altar of the Lord our God, as it is written in the Tora: and to bring the firstfruits of our ground, 36 and the firstfruits of all fruit of all trees, year by year, to the house of the Lord: also the firstborn of our sons, and of our 37 cattle, as it is written in the Tora, and the firstlings of our herds and of our flocks, to bring to the house of our God, to the priests who minister in the house of our God: and that 38 we shall bring the firstfruits of our dough, and our offerings, and the fruit of all manner of trees, of wine and oil, to the priests, to the chambers of the house of our God; and the tithes of our ground to the Levites; for they, the Levites receive the tithes in all the cities of our tillage. And the priest the son 39 of Aharon shall be with the Levites, when the Levites take tithes: and the Levites shall bring up the tithe of the tithes to the house of our God, to the chambers, into the treasure house. For the children of Yisra'el and the children of Levi 40 shall bring the offering of the corn, of the new wine, and the oil, to the chambers, where are the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests who minister, and the gate keepers, and the singers: and we will not forsake the house of our God. And 11 the rulers of the people dwelt at Yerushalayim: the rest of the people also cast lots, to bring one of ten to dwell in Yerushalayim the holy city, and nine parts to dwell in other cities.

And the people blessed all the men, who willingly offered to 2 dwell in Yerushalayim. Now these are the chiefs of the 3 province who dwelt in Yerushalayim: but in the cities of Yehuda everyone dwelt in his possession in their cities: Yisra'el, the priests, and the Levites, and the temple servants, and the children of the servants of Shelomo. And at Yeru- 4 shalayim dwelt certain of the children of Yehuda, of the children of Binyamin. Of the children of Yehuda: 'Ataya the son of 'Uzziyya, the son of Zekharya, the son of Amarya, the son of Shefatya, the son of Mahalal'el, of the children of Pereẓ; and Ma'aseya the son of Barukh, the son of Kol-ḥoze, the son 5 of Ḥazaya, the son of 'Adaya, the son of Yoyariv, the son of Zekharya, the son of the Shilonite. All the sons of Pereẓ who 6 dwelt in Yerushalayim, were four hundred and sixty eight men at arms. And these are the sons of Binyamin; Sallu the 7 son of Meshullam, the son of Yo'ed, the son of Pedaya, the son of Qolaya, the son of Ma'aseya, the son of Iti'el, the son of Yesha'ya. And after him Gabbay, Sallay, nine hundred and 8 twenty eight. And Yo'el the son of Zikhri was their overseer: 9 and Yehuda the son of Senu'a was second over the city.

Of the priests: Yeda'ya the son of Yoyariv, Yakhin, Seraya 10,11
the son of Ḥilqqiyya, the son of Meshshullam, the son of Ẓadoq, the son of Merayot, the son of Aḥituv, ruler of the house of God. 12 And their brethren who did the work of the house were eight hundred and twenty two: and 'Adaya the son of Yeroḥam, the son of Pelalya, the son of Amẓi, the son of Zekharya, the son of Pashḥur, the son of Malkiyya, And his brethren, heads of fa- 13 thers' houses, two hundred and forty two: and 'Amashsay the son of 'Azar'el, the son of Aḥzay, the son of Meshillemot, the son of Immer, and their brethren, mighty men of valour, a hun- 14 dred and twenty eight: and their overseer was Zavdi'el, the son of Haggedolim. Also of the Levites: Shema'ya the 15 son of Ḥashshuv, the son of 'Azriqam, the son of Ḥashavya, the son of Bunni; and Shabbetay and Yozavad, of the chief of the 16 Levites, had the oversight of the outside work of the house of God. And Mattanya the son of Mikha, the son of Zavdi, the 17 son of Asaf, was the principal to begin the thanksgiving in prayer: and Baqbuqya the second among his brethren, and 'Avda the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Yedutun. All the 18 Levites in the holy city were two hundred and eighty four.

Moreover the gate keepers, 'Aqquv, Talmon, and their 19 brethren who kept the gates, were a hundred and seventy two. And the residue of Yisra'el, of the priests, and the Levites, 20 were in all the cities of Yehuda, everyone in his inheritance. But 21 the temple servants dwelt in 'Ofel: and Ẓiḥa and Gishpa were over the temple servants. The overseer also of the Lev- 22 ities at Yerushalayim was 'Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Ḥashavya, the son of Mattanya, the son of Mikha, of the sons of Asaf, the singers, over the business of the house of God.
For it was the king's commandment concerning them, and a 23 certain portion for the singers, as every day required.

And Pataḥya the son of Meshezav'el, of the children of 24 Zeraḥ the son of Yehuda, was at the king's hand in all matters concerning the people. And for the settlements, with their fields, 25 some of the children of Yehuda dwelt at Qiryat-arba, and in its hamlets, and at Divon, and in its hamlets, and at Yeqavẓe'el, and in its hamlets, and at Yeshua, and at Molada, and at Bet- 26 pelet, and at Ḥaẓar-shu'al, and at Be'er-sheva, and in its hamlets, 27 and at Ẓiqlag, and at Mekhona, and in its hamlets, and at 'En- 28,29 rimmon, and at Ẓor'a, and at Yarmut, Zanoaḥ, 'Adullam, and 30 their settlements, Lakhish, and its fields, 'Azeqa, and its hamlets. And they dwelt from Be'er-sheva as far as the valley of Hinnom. And the children of Binyamin from Geva, at Mikhmash, 31 and 'Ayya, and Bet-el, and in its hamlets, and at 'Anatot, Nov, 32

'Ananya, Ḥazor, Rama, Gittayim, Ḥadid, Ẓevo'im, Nevallat, Lod, 33,34,35
Ono, Ge-ḥarashim. And of the Levites, certain sections in 36 Yehuda were attached to Binyamin. Now these are the 12 priests and the Levites who went up with Zerubbavel the son of She'alti'el, and Yeshua: Seraya, Yirmeya, 'Ezra, Amarya, 2 Mallukh, Ḥattush, Shekhanya, Reḥum, Meremot, 'Iddo, Ginne- 3,4 toy, Aviyya, Miyyamin, Ma'adya, Bilga, Shema'ya and Yoyariv, 5,6 Yeda'ya, Sallu, 'Amoq, Ḥilqiyya, Yeda'ya. These were the chiefs 7 of the priests and their brethren in the days of Yeshua. Moreover 8 the Levites: Yeshua, Binnuy, Qadmi'el, Sherevya, Yehuda, and Mattanya, who was over the thanksgiving, he and his brethren.
Also Baqbuqya and 'Unni, their brethren, were over against 9 them in the duty watches. And Yeshua begot Yoyaqim and 10 Yoyaqim begot Elyashiv, and Elyashiv begot Yoyada, and Yo- 11 yada begot Yonatan, and Yonatan begot Yaddua. And in the 12 days of Yoyaqim were priests, heads of fathers' houses; of Seraya, Meraya, of Yirmeya, Ḥananya; of 'Ezra, Meshullam; 13 of Amarya, Yehoḥanan; of Melikhu, Yonatan; of Shevanya, 14 Yosef; of Ḥarim, 'Adna; of Merayot, Ḥelqay; of 'Iddo, Zekhar- 15,16 ya; of Ginneton, Meshullam; of Aviyya, Zikhri; of Minyamin, 17 of Mo'adya, Piltay; of Bilga, Shammua; of Shema'ya, Yeho- 18 natan; and of Yoyariv, Mattenay; of Yeda'ya, 'Uzzi; of Sallay, 19,20 Qallay; of 'Amoq, 'Ever; of Ḥilqiyya, Ḥashavya; of Yeda'ya, 21
Netan'el. The Levites in the days of Elyashiv, Yoyada, and 22 Yoḥanan, and Yaddua, were recorded chiefs of the fathers' houses: also the priests, to the reign of Daryavesh the Par-sian. The sons of Levi, the chiefs 23 of the fathers' houses were written in the book of the chronicles, even until the days of Yoḥanan the son of Elyashiv. And the 24 chiefs of the Levites: Ḥashavya, Sherevya, and Yeshua the son of Qadmi'el, with their brethren over against them, to praise and to give thanks, according to the commandment of David the man of GOD, section by section. Mattanya, and Baqbuqya, 25
'Ovadya, Meshullam, Talmon, 'Aqquv, were gatekeepers, standing guard at the storehouses of the gates. These were in 26 the days of Yoyaqim the son of Yeshua, the son of Yozadaq, and in the days of Nehemya the governor, and of 'Ezra the priest, the scribe. And at the dedication of the wall 27 of Yerushalayim they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Yerushalayim, to keep the dedication with gladness, both with thanksgiving, and with singing, with cymbals, with harps, and with lyres. And the sons of the singers 28 gathered themselves together, both out of the district round about Yerushalayim, and from the settlements of the Netofati; 29 also from the house of Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geva and 'Azmavet: for the singers had built themselves settlements round about Yerushalayim. And the priests and the Levites 30 purified themselves, and purified the people, and the gates, and the wall. Then I brought up the princes of Yehuda upon the 31 wall, and appointed two great companies that gave thanks and went in procession. One went on the right hand upon the wall towards the dung gate: and after them went Hosha'ya, 32 and half of the princes of Yehuda, And 'Azarya, 'Ezra, and 33 Meshullam, Yehuda, and Binyamin, and Shema'ya, and Yir- 34

meya, and certain of the priests' sons with trumpets; namely, Zekhar- 35 ya the son of Yonatan, the son of Shema'ya, the son of Mattanya, the son of Mikhaya, the son of Zakhur, the son of Asaf:
and his brethren, Shema'ya, and 'Azar'el, Milalay, Gilalay, Ma- 36
'ay, Netan'el, and Yehuda, and Ḥanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of God, and 'Ezra the scribe before them.
And at the foundation gate, they went up straight before them by 37 the stairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above the house of David, even to the water gate eastward. And the 38 other company of those who gave thanks went to meet them, and I after them, and half of the people upon the wall, above the tower of the furnaces to the broad wall; and above the gate of 39 Efrayim, and by the old gate, and by the fish gate, and the tower of Ḥanan'el, and the tower of the hundred, as far as the sheep gate: and they stood still in the gate of the guard.
So the two companies of those who gave thanks in the house 40 of God stood, and I and the half of the rulers with me: and the 41 priests; Elyaqim, Ma'aseya, Minyamin, Mikhaya, Elyo'enay, Zekharya, and Ḥananya, with trumpets; and Ma'aseya, and She- 42 ma'ya, and El'azar, and 'Uzzi, and Yehoḥanan, and Malkiyya, and 'Elam, and 'Ezer. And the singers sang loud, Yizraḥya being their overseer. And they offered great sacrifices that day, and 43 rejoiced: for God had made them rejoice with great joy: the women also and the children rejoiced: so that the joy of Yerushalayim was heard from afar off. And on that day were some 44 appointed over the chambers for the treasurers, for the heave offerings, for the firstfruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them out of the fields of the cities the portions assigned by the Tora for the priests and Levites: for Yehuda rejoiced over the priests and the Levites who ministered. And they kept the ser- 45 vice of their God, and the service of the purification, as did the singers and the gatekeepers, according to the commandment of David, and of Shelomo his son. For in the days of David 46 and Asaf of old there were chiefs of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving to God. And all Yisra'el in the days of 47 Zerubbavel, and in the days of Neḥemya, gave the portions of the singers and the gatekeepers, as every day required: and they gave the holy portions to the Levites; and the Levites gave the holy portions to the children of Aharon.

On that day they read in the book of Moshe in the hearing of 13 the people; and therein was found written, that the 'Ammonite and the Mo'avite should not come into the congregation of God forever; because they did not meet the children of Yisra'el with 2 bread and with water, but hired Bil'am against them, that he should curse them: but our God turned the curse into a blessing.
Now it came to pass, when they had heard that Tora, that they 3 separated from Yisra'el all the mixed multitude. And before 4 this, Elyashiv the priest, having the oversight of the chamber of the house of our God; being allied to Toviyya, prepared for 5 him a great chamber, where they had previously put the meal offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the corn, the new wine, and the oil, which were given by commandment to the Levites, and the singers, and the gatekeepers; and the heave offerings of the priests. But in all this 6 time I was not at Yerushalayim: for in the thirty second year of Artaḫshasta king of Bavel, I came to the king, and after certain days I obtained leave of the king: and I came to Yerushalayim, 7 and understood of the evil that Elyashiv did for Toviyya, in preparing him a chamber in the courts of the house of GOD.

And it vexed me very much: so I cast all the household arti- 8 cles of Toviyya out of the chamber. Then I commanded, and 9 they cleansed the chambers: and I brought back there the vessels of the house of GOD, with the meal offerings and the frankincense. And I perceived that the portions of the Levites had 10 not been given them: for the Levites and the singers, who did the work, were fled everyone to his field. Then I contended 11 with the rulers, and said, Why is the house of GOD forsaken?
And I gathered them together, and set them in their place. Then 12 all Yehuda brought the tithe of the corn and the new wine and the oil to the treasuries. And I made treasurers over the trea- 13 suries, Shelemya the priest, and Ẕadoq the scribe, and of the Levites Pedaya: and next to them was Ḫanan the son of Zakkur, the son of Mattanya: for they were counted faithful, and their office was to distribute to their brethren. Remember 14 me, O my GOD, concerning this, and do not wipe out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my GOD, and for its service. In those days I saw in Yehuda some treading winepresses 15 on the sabbath, and bringing in sheaves of corn, and lading asses; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Yerushalayim on the sabbath day: and I forewarned them on the day on which they sold food. There 16 dwelt men of Ẕor there also, who brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath to the children of Yehuda, and in Yerushalayim. Then I contended with the nobles of Yehuda, 17 and said to them, What evil thing is this that you do, and profane the sabbath day? Did not your father do thus, and did not our 18
GOD bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? and yet you bring more wrath upon Yisra'el by profaning the sabbath.

And it came to pass, that when the gates of Yerushalayim 19 began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: and I set some of my servants at the gates, so that no burden should be brought in on the sabbath day. So the merchants and sellers of all kinds of ware 20 lodged outside Yerushalayim once or twice. Then I forewarned 21 them, and said to them, Why do you lodge about the wall? if you do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time on, they came no more on the sabbath. And I commanded the 22 Levites, that they should cleanse themselves, and that they should come and guard the gates, to keep the sabbath day holy. Remember me, O my GOD, concerning this also, and spare me according to thy abundant love. In those days also I 23 saw Jews who had married wives of Ashdod, of 'Ammon, and of Mo'av: and their children spoke half in the speech of 24 Ashdod, and could not speak in the language of Yehuda, but according to the language of various other peoples. And I 25 contended with them, and cursed them, and beat some of them, and pulled out their hair, and made them take oath by GOD, saying, You shall not give your daughters to their sons, nor take their daughters to your sons, or for yourselves. Did not 26 Shelomo king of Yisra'el sin by these things? and even though among many nations there was no king like him, who was beloved of his GOD, and GOD made him king over all Yisra'el:

nevertheless the foreign women cause even him to sin. Shall 27 we then hearken to you to do all this great evil, to transgress against our GOD in marrying foreign wives? And one of the 28 sons of Yoyada, the son of Elyashiv the high priest, was son in law to Sanvallat the Ḥoronite: therefore I chased him from me. Remember them, O my GOD, because they have defiled 29 the priesthood, and the covenant of the priesthood, and of the Levites. Thus I cleansed them from all foreigners, and appointed 30 duty watches for the priests and the Levites, everyone in his business; and for the wood offering, at the times appointed, 31 and for the firstfruits. Remember me, O my GOD, for good.

Yefet; Gomer, and Magog, and Maday, and Yavan, and Tuval, and Meshekh, and Tiras. And the sons of Gommer; Ashkenaz, 6 and Difat, and Togarma. And the sons of Yavan; Elisha, and 7 Tarshisha, Kittim, and Rodanim. The sons of Ḥam; Kush, 8 and Miẓrayim, Put, and Kena'an. And the sons of Kush; Seva, 9 and Ḥavila, and Savta, and Ra'ma, and Savtekha. And the sons of Ra'ma; Sheva, and Dedan. And Kush begot Nimrod: 10 he began to be mighty upon the earth. And Miẓrayim 11 begot Ludim, and 'Anamim, and Lehavim, and Naftuḥim, and 12 Patrusim, and Kasluḥim, (of whom came to the Pelishtim,) and Kaftorim. And Kena'an begot Ẓidon his firstborn, and 13
Ḥet, and the Yevusi, and the Emori, and the Girgashi, and the 14,15
Ḥivvi and the Arqi, and the Sini, and the Arvadi, and the 16 Ẓemari, and the Ḥamati. The sons of Shem; 'Elam, and 17 Ashshur, and Arpakhshad, and Lud, and Aram, and 'Uẓ, and Ḥul, and Geter, and Meshekh. And Arpakhshad begot 18 Shelaḥ, and Shelaḥ begot 'Ever. And to 'Ever were born two 19 sons: the name of the one was Peleg; because in his days the earth was divided: and his brother's name was Yoqtan. And 20 Yoqtan begot Almodad, and Shelef, and Ḥaẓarmavet, and Yeraḥ, and Hadoram, and Uzal, and Diqla, and 'Eval, and 21,22 Avima'el, and Sheva, and Ofir, and Ḥavila, and Yovav. All 23 these were the sons of Yoqtan. Shem, Arpakhshad, 24 Shelaḥ, 'Ever, Peleg, Re'u, Serug, Naḥor, Teraḥ, Avram; the 25,26,27 same is Avraham. The sons of Avraham; Yiẓhaq, and 28 Yishma'el. These are their generations: The firstborn of 29
Yishma'el, Nevayot; then Qedar, and Adbe'el, and Mivsam, Mishma, and Duma, Massa, Ḥadad, and Tema, Yetur, Nafish, 30,31 and Qedema. These are the sons of Yishma'el. Now the 32 sons of Qetura, Avraham's concubine: she bore Zimran, and Yoqshan, and Medan, and Midyan, and Yishbaq, and Shuaḥ.
And the sons of Yoqshan; Sheva, and Dedan. And the 33 sons of Midyan; 'Efa, and 'Efer, and Ḥanokh, and Avida, and Elda'a. All these are the sons of Qetura. And Avraham 34 begot Yiẓhaq. The sons of Yiẓhaq; 'Esav and Yisra'el.

The sons of 'Esav; Elifaz, Re'u'el, and Ye'ush, and Ya'lam, and 35
Qoraḥ. The sons of Elifaz; Teman, and Omar, Ẓefi, and 36
Ga'tam, Qenaz, and Timna, and 'Amaleq. The sons of 37 Re'u'el; Naḥat, Zeraḥ, Shamma, and Mizza. And the 38 sons of Se'ir; Lotan, and Shoval, and Ẓiv'on, and 'Ana, and Dishon, and Eẓer, and Dishan. And the sons of Lotan; 39 Ḥori, and Homam: and Timna was Lotan's sister. The 40 sons of Shoval; 'Alyan, and Manaḥat, and 'Eval, Shefi, and Onam. And the sons of Ẓiv'on; Ayya, and 'Ana. The sons 41 of 'Ana; Dishon. And the sons of Dishon; Ḥamran, and Eshban, and Yitran, and Keran. The sons of Eẓer; Bilhan, 42 and Za'avan, and Ya'aqan. The sons of Dishan; 'Uz, and Aran.

Now these are the kings who reigned in the land of 43

Edom before any king reigned over the children of Yisra'el;
Bela the son of Be'or: and the name of his city was Dinhava.
And when Bela was dead, Yovav the son of Zeraḥ of Boẓra 44 reigned in his place. And when Yovav was dead, Ḥusham of 45 the land of the Temani reigned in his place. And when Ḥusham 46 was dead, Hadad the son of Bedad, who smote Midyan in the field of Mo'av, reigned in his place: and the name of his city was 'Avit. And when Hadad was dead, Samla of Masreqa 47 reigned in his place. And when Samla was dead, Sha'ul of 48 Reḥovot by the river reigned in his place. And when Sha'ul 49 was dead, Ba'al-ḥanan the son of Akhbor reigned in his place.
And when Ba'al-ḥanan was dead, Hadad reigned in his place: 50 and the name of his city was Pa'i; and his wife's name was Mehetav'el, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Me-zahav.
Hadad died also. And the chiefs of Edom were; chief Timna, 51 chief 'Alva, chief Yetet, chief Aholivama, chief Ela, chief Pinon, 52 chief Qenaz, chief Teman, chief Mivẓar, chief Magdi'el, chief 53,54
'Iram. These are the chiefs of Edom. These are the sons 2 of Yisra'el; Re'uven, Shim'on, Levi, and Yehuda, Yissakhar, and Zevulun, Dan, Yosef, and Binyamin, Naftali, Gad and Asher. 2

The sons of Yehuda; 'Er, and Onan, and Shela: which 3 three were born to him of the daughter of Shua the Kena'anite woman. And 'Er, the firstborn of Yehuda, was evil in the sight of the LORD; and he slew him. And Tamar his daughter in law 4 bore him Pereẓ and Zeraḥ. All the sons of Yehuda were five.
The sons of Pereẓ; Heẓron, and Ḥamul. And the sons of 5,6 Zeraḥ; Zimri, and Etan, and Heman, and Kalkol, and Dara: five of them in all. And the sons of Karmi; 'Akhar, the 7 troubler of Yisra'el, who transgressed in the devoted property.

And the sons of Etan; 'Azarya. And the sons of 8,9 Heẓron, that were born to him; Yeraḥme'el, and Ram, and Keluvay. And Ram begot 'Amminadav; and 'Amminadav begot 10
Naḥshon, prince of the children of Yehuda; and Naḥshon begot 11
Salma, and Salma begot Bo'az, and Bo'az begot 'Oved, and 12
'Oved begot Yishay, and Ishay begot his firstborn Eli'av, and 13
Avinadav the second, and Shim'a the third, Netan'el the fourth, 14 Radday the fifth. Oẓem the sixth, David the seventh: whose 15,16 sisters were Ẓeruya, and Avigayil. And the sons of Ẓeruya; Avshay, and Yo'av, and Asa-el; three. And Avigayil bore 17
'Amasa: and the father of 'Amasa was Yeter the Yishme'elite.

And Kalev the son of Heẓron, begot children by 'Azuva 18 his wife, and by Yeri'ot: her sons are these; Yesher, and Shovav, and Ardon. And when 'Azuva was dead, Kalev took to 19 him Efrat, who bore him Ḥur. And Ḥur begot Uri, and Uri 20 begot Beẓal'el. And afterwards Heẓron went in to the 21 daughter of Makhir the father of Gil'ad, whom he married when he was sixty years old; and she bore him Seguv. And 22 Seguv begot Ya'ir, who had twenty three cities in the land of Gil'ad. And he took Geshur, and Aram, with Ḥavvot- 23

ya'ir, from them, with Qenat, and its hamlets, sixty cities. All these belonged to the sons of Makhir the father of Gil'ad.
And after Ḥezron had died in Kalev-efrata, then Aviyya, Ḥezron's wife bore him Ashhur the father of Teqoa. And the sons of Yeraḥme'el the firstborn of Ḥezron were, Ram the firstborn, and Buna, and Oren, and Oẓem, and Aḥiyya. Yeraḥme'el had also another wife, whose name was 'Atara; she was the mother of Onam. And the sons of Ram the firstborn of Yeraḥme'el were, Ma'aẓ, and Yamin, and E'qer. And the sons of Onam were, Shammay, and Yada. And the sons of Shammay; Nadav, and Avishur. And the name of the wife of Avishur was Avihayil, and she bore him Aḥban, and Molid. And the sons of Nadav; Seled, and Appayim; but Seled died without children.
And the sons of Appayim; Yish'i, And the sons of Yish'i; Sheshan. And the children of Sheshan; Aḥlay. And the sons of Yada the brother of Shammay; Yeter, and Yonatan: and Yeter died without children. And the sons of Yonatan; Pelet, and Zaza. These were the sons of Yeraḥme'el. Now Sheshan had no sons, but only daughters. And Sheshan had a slave, a Miẓrian, whose name was Yarḥa. And Sheshan gave his daughter to Yarḥa his slave to wife; and she bore him 'Attay. And 'Attay begot Natan, and Natan begot Zavad. and Zavad begot Eflal, and Eflal begot 'Oved, and 'Oved begot Yehu, and Yehu begot 'Azarya, and 'Azarya begot Ḥeleẓ, and Ḥeleẓ begot El'asa, and El'asa begot Sismay, and Sismay begot Shallum, and Shallum begot Yeqamya, and Yeqamya begot Elishama. Now the sons of Kalev the brother of Yeraḥme'el were, Mesha his firstborn, who was the father of Zif; and the sons of Maresha the father of Ḥevron. And the sons of Ḥevron; Qoraḥ, and Tappuaḥ, and Reqem, and Shema. And Shema begot Raḥam, the father of Yorqe'am: and Reqem begot Shammay. And the son of Shammay was Ma'on: and Ma'on was the father of Bet-ẓur. And 'Efa, Kalev's concubine, bore Ḥaran, and Moẓa, and Gazez: and Ḥaran begot Gazez.
And the sons of Yohday; Regem, and Yotam, and Geshan, and Pelet, and 'Efa, and Sha'af. Ma'akha, Kalev's concubine, bore Shever, and Tirḥana. She bore also Sha'af the father of Madmanna, Sheva the father of Makhbena, and the father of Giv'a: and the daughter of Kalev was 'Akhsa. These were the sons of Kalev the son of Ḥur, the firstborn of Efrata; Shoval the father of Qiryat-ye'arim, Salma the father of Bet-leḥem, Ḥaref the father of Bet-gader. And Shoval the father of Qiryat-ye'arim had sons; Haro'e, and half of the Menuḥot. And the families of Qiryat-ye'arim; the Yitri, and the Puti, and the Shumati, and the Mishra'i; of them came the Ẓare'ati, and the Eshta'uli. The sons of Salma; Bet-leḥem, and the Netofati, 'Atrot-bet-yo'av, and half the Manaḥti, and the Ẓor'i. And the families of the scribes who dwelt at Ya'beẓ; the Tir'atim, the Shim'atim, the Sukhatim. These are the Qinim who came of Ḥamat, the father of the house of Rekhav.

Now these were the sons of David, who were born to him in Ḥevron; the firstborn Amnon, of Aḥino'am the Yizre'elite woman; Daniyyel, of Avigayil the Karmelite woman: the third, Avshalom the son of Ma'akha the daughter of Talmay king of Geshur: the fourth, Adoniyya the son of Ḥaggit: the fifth, Shefatya of Avital: the sixth, Yitre'am by 'Egla his wife. These six were born to him in Ḥevron, and there he reigned seven years and six months: and in Yerushalayim he reigned thirty three years. And these were born to him in Yerushalayim, Shim'a, and Shovav, and Natan, and Shelomo; four, of Bat-Shua the daughter of Ammi'el. and Yivḥar, and Elishama, and Elifelet and Noga, and Nefeg, and Yafia, and Elishama, and Elyada, and Elifelet: nine. These were all the sons of David, besides the sons of the concubines, and Tamar their sister.

And Shelomo's son was Reḥav'am, Aviyya his son, Asa his son, Yehoshafat his son, Yoram his son, Aḥazyahu his son, Yo'ash his son, Amaẓyahu his son, 'Azarya his son, Yotam his son, Aḥaz his son, Ḥizqiyyahu his son, Menashshe his son, Amon his son, Yoshiyyahu his son And the sons of Yoshiyyahu were, the firstborn Yoḥanan, the second Yehoyaqim, the third Ẓidqiyyahu, the fourth Shallum And the sons of Yehoyaqim: Yekhonya his son, Ẓidqiyya his son And the sons of Yekhonya; Assir, She'alti'el his son, and Malkiram, and Pedaya, and Shen'aẓar, Yeqamya, Hoshama, and Nedavya. And the sons of Padaya were, Zerubbavel, and Shim'i: and the sons of Zerubbavel, Meshullam, and Ḥananya and Shelomith their sister: and Ḥashuva, and Ohel, and Berekhya, and Ḥasadya, Yushavḥesed; five. And the sons of Ḥananya, Pelatya, and Yesha'aya: the sons of Refaya, the sons of Arnan, the sons of 'Ovadya, the sons of Shekhanya. And the sons of Shekhanya; Shema'ya: and the sons of Shema'ya; Ḥattush, and Yig'al, and Bariaḥ, and Ne'arya, and Shafat, six. And the sons of Ne'arya; Elyo'enay, and Ḥizqiyya, and 'Azriqam; three. And the sons of Elyo'enay were, Hodavyahu, and Elyashiv, and Pelaya, and 'Aqquv, and Yoḥanan, and Delaya and 'Anani; seven. The sons of Yehuda; Pereẓ, Heẓron, and Karmi, and Ḥur, and Shoval. And Re'aya the son of Shoval begot Yaḥat, and Yaḥat begot Aḥumay, and Lahad. These are the families of the Ẓora'ti.

And these were of the father of 'Etam; Yizre'el, and Yishma, and Yidbash: and the name of their sister was Haẓẓelelponi; and Penu'el the father of Gedor, and 'Ezer the father of Ḥusha. These are the sons of Ḥur, the firstborn of Efrata, the father of Bet-leḥem. And Ashshur the father of Teqoa had two wives, Ḥel'a and Na'ara And Na'ara bore him Aḥuzzam, and Ḥefer, and Temeni, and Aḥashtari. These were the sons of Na'ara. And the sons of Ḥel'a were, Ẓeret, and Ẓoḥar, and Etnan. And Qoẓ begot 'Anuv, and Ẓoveva, and the families of Aḥarḥel the son of Harum. And Ya'beẓ was more honourable than his brothers; and his mother called his name Ya'beẓ, saying, Because I bore him with pain. And Ya'beẓ called on the GOD of Yisra'el, saying, Oh that thou wouldst bless me indeed, and enlarge my border, and that thy hand might be with me, and that thou wouldst keep me from harm, that it may not hurt me! And GOD granted him that which he requested.

And Keluv the brother of Shuḥa begot Meḥir, who was the father of Eshton. And Eshton begot Bet-rafa, and Paseaḥ, and Teḫinna the father of 'Ir-naḫash. These are the men of Rekha.

And the sons of Qenaz; 'Otni'el, and Seraya: and the 13 sons of 'Otni'el: Ḫatat. And Me'onotay begot 'Ofra: and 14 Seraya begot Yo'av, the father of the Ge-ḫarashim; for they were craftsmen. And the sons of Kalev the son of Ye- 15 funne; 'Iru, Ela, and Na'am: and the sons of Ela, even Qenaz.
And the sons of Yehallel'el; Zif, and Zifa, Tirya, and Asar'el. 16
And the sons of 'Ezra were, Yeter, and Mered, and 'Efer, and 17 Yalon: and she conceived Miryam, and Shammay, and Yishbaḫ the father of Eshtemoa. And his wife Yehudiyya bore Yered 18 the father of Gedor, and Ḫever the father of Sokho, and Yequti'el the father of Zanoaḫ. And these are the sons of Bitya the daughter of Par'o whom Mered took. And the sons 19 of the wife of Hodiyya the sister of Naḫam, the father of Qe'ila the Garmite, and Eshtemoa the Ma'akhatite. And the 20 sons of Shimon were, Amnon, and Rinna, Ben-ḫanan, and Tilon. And the sons of Yish'i were, Zoḫet, and Ben-zoḫet. The 21 sons of Shela the son of Yehuda were, 'Er the father of Lekha, and La'ada the father of Maresha, and the families of the house of the linen workers, of the house of Ashbea, and Yoqim, and 22 the men of Kozeva, and Yo'ash, and Saraf, who ruled in Mo'av, and Yashuvi-leḫem (But the records are ancient.) These were the 23 potters, and those who dwelt among plantations and hedges: there they dwelt, occupied with the king's work. The 24 sons of Shim'on were, Nemu'el, and Yamin, Yariv, Zeraḫ and Sha'ul: Shallum his son, Mivsam his son, Mishma his son. 25
And the sons of Mishma; Ḫammu'el his son, Zakkur his son, 26 Shim'i his son. And Shim'i had sixteen sons and six daughters; 27 but his brothers had not many children, nor did all their family multiply, like the children of Yehuda. And they dwelt at Be'er- 28 sheva, and Molada, and Ḫaẓar-shu'al. and at Bilha, and at 29
'Eẓem, and at Tolad, and at Betu'el, and at Ḫorma, and at 30 Ẓiqlag, and at Bet-markavot, and Ḫaẓar-susim, and at Bet- 31 bir'i, and at Sha'arayim. These were their cities until the reign of David. And their settlements were, 'Etam, and 'Ayin, Rim- 32 mon, and Tokhen, and 'Ashan; five cities: and all their settle- 33 ments that were round about the same cities as far as Ba'al.
These were their habitations, and their genealogy. And Mesho- 34 vav, and Yamlekh, and Yosha the son of Amaẓya. And Yo'el, 35 and Yehu the son of Yoshivya, the son of Seraya, the son of 'Asi'el, and Elyo'enay, and Ya'aqova, and Yesholaya, and 36
'Asaya, and 'Adi'el, and Yesimi'el, and Benaya. and Ziza the 37 son of Shif'i, the son of Allon, the son of Yedaya, the son of Shimri, the son of Shema'ya; these mentioned by their names 38 were princes in their families: and the house of their fathers increased greatly. And they went to the entrance of Gedor, 39 as far as the east side of the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks. And they found rich, good pasture, and the land was 40 wide, and quiet, and peaceable; for they of Ḫam had dwelt there of old. And these written by name came in the days of 41 Yeḫizqiyyahu king of Yehuda, and smote their tents, and the Me'unim who were found there, and destroyed them utterly unto this day, and dwelt in their stead: because there was pasture there for their flocks. And some of them, of the sons of 42 Shim'on, five hundred men, went to mount Se'ir, having as their leaders Pelatya, and Ne'arya, and Refaya, and 'Uzzi'el, the sons of Yish'i. And they smote the remnant of 'Amaleq who had 43 escaped, and dwelt there to this day. Now the sons of 5 Re'uven the firstborn of Yisra'el, (for he was the firstborn; but, since he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given to the sons of Yosef the son of Yisra'el: but not so as to have the birthright attributed to him by genealogy. For Yehuda pre- 2 vailed over his brothers, and of him came the chief ruler; though the birthright was Yosef's:) the sons of Re'uven 3 the firstborn of Yisra'el were, Ḥanokh, and Pallu, Ḥezron, and Karmi. The sons of Yo'el; Shema'ya his son, Gog his son, Shim'i 4 his son, Mikha his son, Re'aya his son, Ba'al his son, Be'era his 5,6 son, whom Tilgat-pilneser king of Ashshur carried away into exile: he was prince of the Re'uveni. And his brothers by their 7 families, when the genealogy of their generations was reckoned, were the chief, Ye'i'el, and Zekharyahu, and Bela the son 8 of 'Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Yo'el, who dwelt in 'Aro'er, as far as Nevo and Ba'al-me'on: and eastward he in- 9 habited as far as the entrance of the wilderness from the river Perat: because their cattle had multiplied in the land of Gil'ad.

And in the days of Sha'ul they made war with the Hagri'im, 10 who fell by their hand: and they dwelt in their tents throughout all the east land of Gil'ad. And the children of Gad 11 dwelt opposite them, in the land of the Bashan as far as Salkha: Yo'el the chief, and Shafam the next, and Ya'nay, and Shafat 12 in the Bashan. And their brethren of the house of their fathers 13 were, Mikha'el, and Meshullam, and Sheva, and Yoray, and Ya'kan, and Zia, and 'Ever; seven. These are the children 14 of Aviḥayil the son of Ḥuri, the son of Yaroaḥ, the son of Gil'ad, the son of Mikha'el, the son of Yeshishay, the son of Yaḥdo, the son of Buz; Aḥi the son of Avdi'el, the son of Guni, 15 chief of the house of their fathers. And they dwelt in Gil'ad in 16 the Bashan, and in its hamlets, and in all the pasture lands of Sharon, to their limits. All these were reckoned by genealogies 17 in the days of Yotam king of Yehuda, and in the days of Yarov'am king of Yisra'el. The sons of Re'uven, and the Gadi, 18 and half the tribe of Menashshe, of men at arms, able to bear shield and sword, and to draw the bow, and skilful in war, were forty four thousand seven hundred and sixty, who went out to war. And they made war with the Hagri'im, with Yetur, 19 and Nafish, and Nodav. And they were helped against them, 20 and the Hagri'im were delivered into their hand, and all that were with them: for they cried to God in the battle, and he granted their entreaty: because they put their trust in him. And 21 they took away their cattle; of their camels fifty thousand, and of sheep two hundred and fifty thousand, and of asses two thousand, and of men a hundred thousand. For there fell down 22 many slain, because the war was from God. And they dwelt in their stead until the exile. And the children of the half 23 tribe of Menashshe dwelt in the land: they increased from Bashan to Ba'al-ḥermon and Senir, and to mount Ḥermon. And 24 these were the heads of the houses of their fathers, 'Efer, and Yish'i, and Eli'el, and 'Azri'el, and Yirmeya, and Hodavya, and Yaḥdi'el, mighty men of valour, famous men, and heads of the houses of their fathers. And they transgressed against 25 the God of their fathers, and went astray after the gods of the peoples of the land, whom God destroyed before them. And the 26 God of Yisra'el stirred up the spirit of Pul king of Ashshur, and the spirit of Tilgat-pilneser king of Ashshur, and he carried them away, namely the Re'uveni, and the Gadi, and the half tribe of Menashshe, and brought them to Ḥalaḥ, and Ḥavor, and Hara, and to the river Gozan, to this day. The 27 sons of Levi; Gershon, Qehat, and Merari. And the sons of 28 the men who served with their sons. Of the sons of the Qehati; Heman the singer, the son of Yo'el, the son of Shemu'el, the 19 son of Elqana, the son of Yeroḥam, the son of Eli'el, the son of Toaḥ, the son of Ẓuf, the son of Elqana, the son of Maḥat, 20 the son of 'Amasay, the son of Elqana, the son of Yo'el, the 21 son of 'Azarya, the son of Ẓefanya, the son of Taḥat, the son 22 of Assir, the son of Evyasaf, the son of Qoraḥ, the son of 23 Yiẓhar, the son of Qehat, the son of Levi, the son of Yisra'el, and his brother Asaf, who stood on his right hand, Asaf the 24 son of Berekhyahu, son of Shim'a, the son of Mikha'el, the 25 son of Ba'aseya, the son of Malkiyya, the son of Etni, the son 26 of Zeraḥ, the son of 'Adaya, the son of Etan, the son of Zimma, 27 the son of Shim'i, the son of Yaḥat, the son of Gershom, the 28 son of Levi. And their brethren the sons of Merari stood 29 on the left hand: Etan the son of Qishi, the son of 'Avdi, the son of Mallukh, the son of Ḥashavya, the son of Amaẓya, the 30 son of Ḥilqiyya, the son of Amẓi, the son of Bani, the son of 31 Shemer, the son of Maḥli, the son of Mushi, the son of Merari, 32 the son of Levi. And their brethren the Levites were 33 appointed to all manner of service of the tabernacle of the house of GOD. But Aharon and his sons offered upon the altar of the 34 burnt offering, and on the altar of incense, for all the work of the most holy place, and to make atonement for Yisra'el, according to all that Moshe the servant of GOD had commanded.

And these are the sons of Aharon; El'azar his son, 35
Pineḥas his son, Avishua his son, Buqqi his son, 'Uzzi his son, 36 Zeraḥya his son, Merayot his son, Amarya his son, Aḥituv his 37 son, Ẓadoq his son, Aḥima'aẓ his son. Now these are their 38,39 dwelling places throughout their encampments in their borders, of the sons of Aharon, of the families of the Qehati: for theirs was the lot. And they gave them Ḥevron in the land of Yehuda, 40 and its pasture lands round about it. But the fields of the city, 41 and its farmsteads, they gave to Kalev the son of Yefunne.

And to the sons of Aharon they gave the cities of refuge, 42 Ḥevron, and Livna with its pasture lands, and Yattir, and Eshtemoa, with its pasture lands, and Ḥilen with its pasture 43 lands, Devir with its pasture lands, and 'Ashan with its pasture 44 lands, and Bet-shemesh with its pasture lands: and out of the 45 tribe of Binyamin; Geva with its pasture lands, and 'Allemet with its pasture lands, and 'Anatot with its pasture lands. All their cities throughout their families were thirteen cities.

And to the rest of the sons of Kehat, were given by lot, out of 46 the family of that tribe, out of the half tribe, the half of Mena-shshe, ten cities. And to the sons of Gershom according 47 to their families out of the tribe of Yissakhar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naftali, and out of the tribe of Menashshe in the Bashan, thirteen cities. To the 48 sons of Merari were given by lot, according to their families, out of the tribe of Re'uven, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zevulun, twelve cities. And the children of Yisra- 49
'el gave to the Levites these cities with their pasture lands.

And they gave by lot out of the tribe of the children of 50 Yehuda and out of the tribe of the children of Shim'on, and out of the tribe of the children of Binyamin, these cities, which are mentioned by names. And some of the families of 51 the sons of Qehat had cities of their borders out of the tribe of Efrayim. For they gave to them the cities of refuge, Shekhem 52 in mount Efrayim with its pasture lands; and Gezer with its pasture lands, and Yoqme'am with its pasture lands, and Bet- 53 ḥoron with its pasture lands, and Ayyalon with its pasture 54 lands, and Gat-rimmon with its pasture lands: and out of the 55 half tribe of Menashshe; 'Aner with its pasture lands, and Bil'am with its pasture lands, for the family of the remnant of the sons of Qehat. To the sons of Gershom were given 56 out of the family of the half tribe of Menashshe, Golan in the Bashan with its pasture lands, and 'Ashtarot with its pasture lands: and out of the tribe of Yissakhar; Qedesh with 57 its pasture lands, Daverat, with its pasture lands, and Ramot 58 with its pasture lands, and 'Anam with its pasture lands:

and out of the tribe of Asher; Mashal with its pasture 59 lands, and 'Avdon with its pasture lands, and Ḥuqoq with its 60 pasture lands and Reḥov with its pasture lands: and out 61 of the tribe of Naftali, Qedesh in the Galil with its pasture lands, and Ḥammon with its pasture lands, and Qiryatayim with its pasture lands. To the rest of the children of Merari 62 were given out of the tribe of Zevulun, Rimmono with its pasture lands, Tavor with its pasture lands: and on the other side of 63 Yarden by Yeriḥo, on the east side of the Yarden, were given them out of the tribes of Re'uven, Bezer in the wilderness with its pasture lands, and Yahza with its pasture lands, and Qede- 64 mot with its pasture lands, and Mefa'at with its pasture lands:
and out of the tribe of Gad; Ramot in the Gil'ad with its 65 pasture lands, and Maḥanayim with its pasture lands, and 66 Ḥeshbon with its pasture lands, and Ya'zer with its pasture lands. Now the sons of Yissakhar were, Tola, and Pu'a, 7 Yashuv, and Shimron, four. And the sons of Tola; 'Uzzi, and 2 Refaya, and Yeri'el, and Yaḥmay, and Yivsam, and Shemu'el, heads of their father's houses, that is, of Tola; were valiant men at arms in their generations: their number in the days of David was twenty two thousand six hundred. And the sons of 3
'Uzzi; Yizraḥya: and the sons of Yizraḥya; Mikhal, and 'Ovadya and Yo'el, Yishshiyya; five: all of them chief men. And with 4 them, by their generations, after the houses of their fathers, were bands of soldiers for war; thirty six thousand men: for they had many wives and sons. And their brethren among all 5 the families of Yissakhar, valiant men at arms, reckoned in all by their genealogies, eighty seven thousand. The sons of 6 Binyamin; Bela, and Bekher, and Yedi'a'el; three. And the sons 7 of Bela; Ezbon, and 'Uzzi, and 'Uzzi'el, and Yerimot, and 'Iri; five; heads of the houses of their fathers, mighty men at arms; and were reckoned by their genealogies, twenty two thousand and thirty four. And the sons of Bekher; Zemira, and 8 Yo'ash, and Eli'ezer, and Elyo'enay, and 'Omri, and Yeremot, and Aviyya, and 'Anatot, and 'Alemet. All these were the sons of Bekher. And the number of them, after their genealogy by 9 their generations, heads of the houses of their fathers, mighty men at arms, was twenty thousands two hundred. And 10 the sons of Yedi'a'el; Bilhan: and the sons of Bilhan; Ye'ush, and Binyamin, and Ehud, and Kena'ana, and Zetan, and Tarshish, and Aḥishaḥar. All these were the sons of Yedi'a'el, by 11 the heads of their fathers, mighty men at arms, seventeen thousand two hundred, fit to go out to war and battle. And Shuppim, 12 and Ḥuppim, the children of 'Ir, and Ḥushim, the sons of Aḥer. The sons of Naftali; Yaḥẓi'el, and Guni, and Ye- 13 ẓer, and Shallum, the sons of Bilha. The sons of Menash- 14 she; Asri'el, whom she bore: (but his concubine, the Arammian woman, bore Makhir the father of Gil'ad: and Makhir 15 took to wife one of the family of Ḥuppim and Shuppim, a sister, whose name was Ma'akha;) and the name of the second was Ẓelofḥad: and Ẓelofḥad had daughters. And Ma'akha the wife 16 of Makhir bore a son, and she called his name Peresh; and the name of his brother was Sheresh; and his sons were Ulam and Reqem. And the son of Ulam; Bedan. These were the sons 17 of Gil'ad, the son of Makhir, the son of Menashshe. And his 18 sister Hammolekhet bore Ishhod, and Avi'ezer, and Maḥla. And 19 the sons of Shemida were, Aḥyan, and Shekhem, and Liqḥi, and Ani'am. And the sons of Efrayim; Shutelaḥ, and 20 Bered his son, and Taḥat his son, and El'ada his son, and Taḥat his son, and Zavad his son, and Shutelaḥ his son, and 'Ezer, 21 and El'ad, whom the men of Gat that were born in that land slew, because they came down to take away their cattle. And 22 Efrayim their father mourned many days, and his brothers came to comfort him. And he went in to his wife, and she conceived, 23 and bore a son, and he called his name Beri'a, because evil had befallen his house. (And his daughter was She'era, who built 24 both the lower and the upper Bet-ḥoron, and Uzzen-she'era.)

And Refaḥ was his son, and Reshef, and Telaḥ his son, and 25 Taḥan his son, La'dan his son, 'Ammihud his son, Elishama 26 his son, Non his son, Yehoshua his son. And their posses- 27,28 sions and habitations were, Bet-el and its hamlets, and eastward Na'aran, and westward Gezer, with its hamlets; and Shekhem and its hamlets, as far as 'Azza and its hamlets: and by the borders of the children of Menashshe, Bet-she'an 29 and its hamlets, Ta'nakh and its hamlets, Megiddo and its hamlets, Dor and its hamlets. In these dwelt the children of Yosef the son of Yisra'el. The sons of Asher; Yimna, and 30 Yishva, and Yishvi, and Beri'a, and Seraḥ their sister. And the 31 sons of Beri'a; Ḥever, and Malki'el, who is the father of Birzayit. 32 And Ḥever begot Yaflet, and Shomer, and Ḥotam, and Shua their sister. And the sons of Yaflet; Pasakh, and Bimhal, and 'Ashvat. 33
These are the children of Yaflet. And the sons of Shemer; Aḥi, 34 and Rohga, and Ḥubba, and Aram. And the sons of his brother 35 Helem; Zofaḥ, and Yimna, and Shelesh, and 'Amal. The sons 36 of Ẓofaḥ; Suaḥ, and Ḥarnefer, and Shu'al, and Beri, and Yimra, Beẓer, and Hod, and Shamma, and Shilsha, and Yitran, and 37
Be'era. And the sons of Yeter; Yefunne, and Pispa, and Ara. 38

And the sons of 'Ulla ; Araḥ, and Ḥanni'el, and Riẓya. All these were the children of Asher, heads of their father's houses, choice and mighty men at arms, chiefs of the princes. And the number reckoned by genealogy of those who were apt for war and battle was twenty six thousand men. 39,40

Now Binyamin begot Bela his firstborn. Ashbel the second, and Aḥraḥ the third, Noḥa the fourth, and Rafa the fifth. And the sons of Bela were, Addar, and Gera, and Avihud, and Avishua, and Na'aman, and Aḥoaḥ, and Gera, and Shefufan, and Ḥuram. And these are the sons of Eḥud: these are the heads of the fathers' houses of the inhabitants of Geva, and they were exiled into Manaḥat: and Na'aman, and Aḥiyya, and Gera, he exiled them, and begot 'Uzza, and Aḥiḥud. And Shaḥarayim begot children in the field of Mo'av, after he had sent away Ḥushim and Ba'ara his wives. And he begot of Ḥodesh his wife, Yovav, and Ẓivya, and Mesha, and Malkam, And Ye'uẓ, and Sokhya, and Mirma. These were his sons, heads of the fathers' houses. And of Ḥushim he begot Avituv, and Elpa'al. The sons of Elpa'al; 'Ever, and Mish'am, and Shemed, who built Ono, and Lod, with its hamlets: Beri'a also, and Shema, who were heads of the fathers' houses of the inhabitants of Ayyalon, who drove away the inhabitants of Gat: and Aḥyo, Shashaq, and Yeremot, and Zevadaya, and 'Arad and 'Eder, and Mikha'el, and Yishpa, and Yoḥa, the sons of Beri'a; and Zevadya, and Meshullam, and Ḥizqi, and Ḥever, and Yishmerary, and Yizli'a, and Yovav, the sons of Elpa'al; and Yaqim, and Zikhri, and Zavdi, and Eli'esenay, and Ẓilletay, and Eli'el, and 'Adaya, and Beraya, and Shimrat, the sons of Shim'i; and Yishpan, and 'Ever and Eli'el, and Avdon, and Zikhri, and Ḥanan, and Ḥananya, and 'Elam, and 'Antotiyya, and Yifdeya, and Penu'el, the sons of Shashaq; and Shamsheray, and Sheḥarya, and 'Atalya, and Ya'areshya, and Eliyya, and Zikhri, the sons of Yeroḥam. These were heads of the father's houses, by their generations, chief men. These dwelt in Yerushalayim. 8 2,3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11,12 13 14 15,16 17 18 19 20,21 22 23,24 25 26,27 28

And at Giv'on dwelt the father of Giv'on; whose wife's name was Ma'akha: and his firstborn son 'Avdon, and Ẓur, and Qish, and Ba'al, and Nadav, and Gedor, and Aḥyo, and Zekher. And Miqlot begot Shim'a. And these also dwelt opposite their brethren in Yerushalayim, with their brethren. And Ner begot Qish, and Qish begot Sha'ul, and Sha'ul begot Yehonatan, and Malki-shua, and Avinadav, and Eshba'al. And the son of Yehonatan was Meriv-ba'al; and Meriv-ba'al begot Mikha. And the sons of Mikha were, Piton, and Melekh, and Ta'rea, and Aḥaz. And Aḥaz begot Yeho'adda; and Yeho'adda begot 'Alemet, and 'Azmavet, and Zimri; and Zimri begot Moẓa, and Moẓa begot Bin'a: Rafa was his son, El'asa his son, Aẓel his son: and Aẓel had six sons, whose names are these, 'Azriqam, Bokheru, and Yishma'el, and She'arya, and 'Ovadya, and Ḥanan. All these were the sons of Aẓel. And the sons of 'Eseq his brother were, Ulam his firstborn, Ye'ush the second, and Elifelet the third. And the sons of Ulam were mighty men at arms, 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 archers, and had many sons, and sons' sons, a hundred and fifty.

All these were of the sons of Binyamin. So all Yisra'el 1 were reckoned by genealogies; and, behold, they were written in the book of the kings of Yisra'el; and Yehuda was carried away to Bavel for their transgresson. Now the first inhabitants 2 who dwelt in their possessions in their cities were, the Yisra'- elites, the priests, Levites, and the temple servants. And in Ye- 3 rushalayim dwelt some of the children of Yehuda, and some of the children of Binyamin, and some of the children of Ef-rayim, and Menashshe: 'Utay the son of 'Ammihud, the son of 4
'Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, of the children of Perez the son of Yehuda. And of the Shiloni; 'Asaya the first- 5 born, and his sons. And of the sons of Zerah; Ye'u'el, and their 6 brethren, six hundred and ninety. And of the sons of Binyamin; 7 Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodavya, the son of Senu'a, and Yivneya the son of Yeroham, and Ela the son of 8
'Uzzi, the son of Mikhri, and Meshullam the son of Shefatya, the son of Re'u'el, the son of Yivniyya; and their brethren, 9 according to their generations, nine hundred and fifty six. All these men were chiefs of the fathers in the houses of their fathers. And of the priests; Yeda'ya, and Yehoyariv, and 10 Yakhin, and 'Azarya the son of Hilqiyya, the son of Meshullam, 11 the son of Zadoq, the son of Merayot, the son of Ahituv, the ruler of the house of GOD; and 'Adaya the son of Yeroham, 12 the son of Pashhur, the son of Malkiyya, and Ma'asay the son of 'Adi'el, the son of Yahzera, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemit, the son of Immer; and their brethren, heads of the 13 houses of their fathers, a thousand seven hundred and sixty; very able men for the work of the service of the house of GOD.
And of the Levites; Shema'ya the son of Hashshuv, the son of 14
'Azriqam, the son of Hashavya, of the sons of Merari; and 15 Baqbaqqar, Heresh, and Galal, and Mattanya the son of Mikha, the son of Zikhri, the son of Asaf; and 'Ovadya the son of 16 Shema'ya, the son of Galal, the son of Yedutun, and Berekhya the son of Asa, the son of Elqana, who dwelt in the settlements of the Netofati. And the gatekeepers were; Shallum, and 'Aqquv, 17 and Talmon, and Ahiman, and their brethren: (Shallum being the chief;) who were hitherto stationed at the king's gate east- 18 ward; they were gatekeepers for the camp of the children of Levi. And Shallum the son of Qore, the son of Evyasaf, the son 19 of Qorah, and his brethren, of the house of his father, the Qor-him, were over the work of the service, keepers of the threshold of the tabernacle: and their fathers, being over the camp of the LORD, were keepers of the entry. And Pinehas the son 20 of El'azar was the ruler over them in time past, and the LORD was with him. And Zekharya the son of Meshelemya was 21 keeper of the door of the Tent of Meeting. All these who were 22 chosen to be keepers in the thresholds were two hundred and twelve. These were reckoned by their genealogy in their settle- 23 ments, whom David and Shemu'el the seer did establish in their office of trust. So they and their children had the oversight of the gates of the house of the LORD, the house of the tabernacle, by watches. On the four sides were the gatekeepers; 24 east, west, north, and south. And their brethren, who were in 25 their settlements, were to come in every seven days from time to time to be with them. For these Levites, the four chief gate- 26 keepers, were in an office of trust, and were appointed over the chambers and treasuries of the house of God. And they lodged 27 round about the house of God, because the charge was upon them, and they had the duty of opening it every morning. And 28 certain of them had the charge of the vessels of service, that they should bring them in by number and out by number.

Some of them also were appointed to oversee the vessels, and 29 all the instruments of the sanctuary, and the fine flour, and the wine, and the oil, and the frankincense, and the spices.
And some of the sons of the priests made the ointment of the 30 spices. And Mattitya, one of the Levites, who was the first- 31 born of Shallum the Qorḥite, was entrusted with that which was prepared in the pans. And other of their brethren, of the 32 sons of the Qehati, were over the showbread, to prepare it every sabbath. And these were the singers, chiefs of 33 the fathers' houses of the Levites, dwelling in the temple chambers free from other duties: for they were employed in that work day and night. These were chiefs of fathers' houses of 34 the Levites, chief men by their generations; these dwelt in Yerushalayim.

And in Giv'on dwelt the father of Giv'on, Ye'i'el, whose wife's 35 name was Ma'akha: and his firstborn son 'Avdon, then Ẓur, 36 and Qish, and Ba'al, and Ner, and Nadav, and Gedor, and Aḥyo, 37 and Zekharya, and Miqlot. And Miqlot begot Shim'am. And 38 they also dwelt opposite their brethren in Yerushalayim, with their brethren. And Ner begot Qish; and Qish begot 39 Sha'ul; and Sha'ul begot Yehonatan, and Malki-shua, and Avinadav, and Eshba'al. And the son of Yehonatan was Meriv- 40 ba'al; and Meriv-ba'al begot Mikha. And the sons of Mikha 41 were, Piton, and Melekh, and Taḥrea, and Aḥaz begot Ya'ra; 42 and Ya'ra begot 'Alemet, and 'Azmavet, and Zimri; and Zimri begot Moẓa; and Moẓa begot Bin'a; and Refaya his son, El'asa 43 his son, Aẓel his son. And Aẓel had six sons, whose names 44 were these, 'Azriqam, Bokheru, and Yishma'el, and She'arya, and 'Ovadya, and Ḥanan: these were the sons of Azel.

Now the Pelishtim fought against Yisra'el; and the men of 10 Yisra'el fled from before the Pelishtim and fell down slain on mount Gilboa. And the Pelishtim followed hard after Sha'ul, 2 and after his sons; and the Pelishtim slew Yonatan, and Avinadav, and Malki-shua, the sons of Sha'ul. And the battle went 3 hard against Sha'ul, and the archers hit him, and he was in dread because of the archers. Then Sha'ul said to his armour- 4 bearer, Draw thy sword, and pierce me with it; lest these uncircumcised ones come and abuse me. But his armourbearer would not; for he was much afraid. So Sha'ul took a sword, and fell upon it. And when his armourbearer saw that Sha'ul 5 was dead, he fell likewise on the sword, and died. So Sha'ul 6 died, and his three sons, and all his house died together. And 7 when all the men of Yisra'el who were in the valley saw that they fled, and that Sha'ul and his sons were dead, then they forsook their cities, and fled: and the Pelishtim came and dwelt in them. 8 And it came to pass on the morrow, when the Pelishtim came to strip the slain, that they found Sha'ul and his sons fallen on mount Gilboa. 9 And when they had stripped him, they took his head, and his armour, and sent into the land of the Pelishtim round about, to carry tidings to their idols, and to the people. 10 And they put his armour in the house of their gods, and fastened his head in the temple of Dagon.

11 And when all Yavesh-gil'ad heard all that the Pelishtim had done to Sha'ul, 12 they arose, all the men at arms, and took away the body of Sha'ul, and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Yavesh, and buried their bones under the terebinth in Yavesh, and fasted seven days. 13 So Sha'ul died for his transgression which he committed against the LORD, against the word of the LORD, which he did not keep, and also for asking counsel of a medium, to make inquiry; 14 and he inquired not of the LORD: therefore he slew him, and turned the kingdom over to David the son of Yishay.

11 Then all Yisra'el gathered themselves to David to Ḥevron, saying, Behold, we are thy bone and thy flesh. 2 And moreover in time past, even when Sha'ul was king, thou wast he who didst lead out Yisra'el and bring them in: and the LORD thy GOD said to thee, Thou shalt be shepherd over my people Yisra'el, and thou shalt be ruler over my people Yisra'el. 3 Therefore all the elders of Yisra'el came to the king to Ḥevron; and David made a covenant with them in Ḥevron before the LORD; and they anointed David king over Yisra'el, according to the word of the LORD by Shemu'el. 4 And David and all Yisra'el went to Yerushalayim, which is Yevus; where the Yevusi were, the inhabitants of the land. 5 And the inhabitants of Yevus said to David, Thou shalt not come here. Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Ẕiyyon, which is the city of David. 6 And David said, Whoever smites the Yevusi first shall be chief and captain. So Yo'av the son of Ẕeruya went first up, and became the chief. 7 And David dwelt in the stronghold; therefore they called it the city of David. 8 And he built the city round about, even from the Millo round about: and Yo'av repaired the rest of the city. 9 So David grew greater and greater: for the LORD of hosts was with him.

10 These also are the chiefs of the mighty men whom David had, who held fast to him in his kingdom, together with all Yisra'el, to make him king, according to the word of the LORD concerning Yisra'el. 11 And this is the number of the mighty men whom David had; Yashov'am, the son of Ḥakhmoni, the chief of the captains: he swung his spear over three hundred slain at one time. 12 And after him was El'azar the son of Dodo, the Aḥohite, who was one of the three mighty men. 13 He was with David at Pas-dammim, and there the Pelishtim were gathered together to battle, where there was a plot of ground full of barley; and the people fled from before the Pelishtim. 14 And they set themselves in the midst of that plot, and delivered it, and slew the Pelishtim; and the LORD saved them by a great deliverance. Now three of the thirty captains went down 15 to the rock to David, into the cave of 'Adullam; and the host of the Pelishtim encamped in the valley of Refa'im. And David 16 was then in the stronghold, and the garrison of the Pelishtim was then at Bet-leḥem. And David longed, and said, Oh that 17 someone would give me water of the well of Bet-leḥem, that is by the gate, to drink! And those three broke through the 18 host of the Pelishtim, and drew water out of the well of Bet-leḥem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: but David would not drink of it, but poured it out to the LORD, and he said, far be it from me before my GOD, that 19

I should do this thing: shall I drink the blood of these men that have put their lives in jeopardy? for with the jeopardy of their lives have they brought it. Therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mightiest. And Avshay the brother 20 of Yo'av, he was chief among the three: and he swung his spear over three hundred slain, and had a name among the three. Of the three in the second rank he was most honourable; 21 therefore he was their captain: but he attained not to the first three. Benaya the son of Yehoyada, the son of a valiant 22 man of Qavẓe'el, who had done many acts; he slew two lion-hearted men of Mo'av: and he went down and slew a lion in a pit in a time of snow.. And he slew a Miẓrian man, a man of great 23 stature, five cubits high; and in the Miẓrian's hand was a spear like a weaver's beam; and he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Miẓrian's hand, and slew him with his own spear. These things Benayahu the son of Yeho- 24 yada did, and he had a name among the three mighty ones. Behold, he was renowned among the thirty, but did not at- 25 tain to the first three: and David set him over his guard.

And the valiant men of the armies were 'Asa'el the brother of 26 Yo'av, Elḥanan the son of Dodo of Bet-leḥem, Shammot 27 and Yoshafat the Mitnite, 'Uzziyya the 'Ashteratite, Sha- 44 ma and Ye'i'el the sons of Ḥotam the 'Aro'erite, Yedi'a'el 45 the son of Shimri, and Yoḥa his brother, the Tiẓite, Eli'el 46 from Maḥavim, and Yerivay, and Yoshavya, the sons of El-na'am, and Yitma the Mo'avite, Eli'el, and 'Oved, and Ya'asi'el 47 of Meẓovaya.

Now these are they who came to David to Ẓiqlag, while he yet 12 kept himself shut up because of Sha'ul the son of Qish: and they were among the mighty men, his helpers in war. They 2 were armed with bows, and could use both the right hand and the left in slinging stones and shooting arrows from the bow; they were of Sha'ul's brethren of Binyamin. The chief was Aḥi- 3
'ezer, then Yo'ash, the sons of Shema'a the Giv'atite; and Yezi'el, and Pelet, the sons of 'Azmavet; and Berakhah, and Yehu the 'Antotite, and Yishma'ya the Giv'onite, a mighty 4 man among the thirty, and over the thirty; and Yirmeya, and 5 Yaḥazi'el, and Yoḥanan, and Yozavad the Gederatite, El'uzay 6 and Yerimot, and Be'alya, and Shemaryahu, and Shefatyahu the Ḥarufite, Elqana, and Yishshiyyahu, and 'Azar'el, and Yo- 7
'ezer, and Yashov'am, the Qorḥites, and Yo'ela, and Zevadya, 8 the sons of Yeroḥam of Gedor. And of the Gadi there separated 9 themselves to David into the stronghold to the wilderness men of might, and men of war apt for battle, who could handle shield and spear, whose faces were like the faces of lions, and who were as swift as the roes upon the mountains; 'Ezer 10 the first, 'Ovadya the second, Eli'av the third, Mishmanna the 11 fourth, Yirmeya the fifth, 'Attay the sixth, Eli'el the seventh, 12 Yoḥanan the eighth, Elzavad the ninth, Yirmeyahu the tenth, 13,14 Makhbannay the eleventh. These were of the sons of 15 Gad, captains of the host: the least was over a hundred, and the greatest over a thousand. These are they who went over 16 the Yarden in the first month, when it had overflowed all its banks; and they put to flight all those of the valleys, both towards the east, and towards the west. And there came of 17 the children of Binyamin and Yehuda to the stronghold, to David. And David went out to meet them, and answered and 18 said to them, If you are come peaceably to me to help me, my heart shall be knit to you: but if you are come to betray me to my enemies, seeing there is no wrong in my hands, then let the God of our fathers see, and rebuke you. Then the 19 spirit came upon 'Amasay, who was chief of the captains, and he said, Thine are we, David, and on thy side, thou son of Yishay: peace, peace be to thee, and peace be to thy helpers; for thy God helps thee. Then David received them, and made them captains of the band. And some of Menashshe 20 deserted to David, when he came with the Pelishtim against Sha'ul to battle: but they did not help them: for the lords of the Pelishtim took counsel and sent him away, saying, He will desert to his master Sha'ul to the jeopardy of our heads. As he 21 went to Ẓiqlag, there deserted to him of Menashshe, 'Adnaḥ, and Yozavad, and Yedi'a'el and Mikha'el, and Yozavad, and Elihu, and Ẓilletay, captains of the thousands that were of Menashshe.
And they helped David against the troop of raiders: for they 22 were all mighty men at arms, and they were captains in the host. For at that time day by day men came over to David 23 to help him, until it was a great host, like the host of God.

And these are the numbers of the bands of the 24 armed troops who came to David to Ḥevron, to turn the kingdom of Sha'ul over to him, according to the word of the LORD. The children of Yehuda who bore shield and spear 25 were six thousand eight hundred, armed troops. Of the 26 children of Shim'on mighty men at arms for the war, seven thousand one hundred. Of the children of Levi four thou- 27 sand six hundred. And Yehoyada was the leader of the 28 house of Aharon, and with him three thousand seven hundred; and Ẓadoq, a young mighty man at arms, and of his 29 father's house, twenty two captains. And of the children 30 of Binyamin, the kindred of Sha'ul, three thousand: for hitherto the greatest part of them had kept their allegiance to the house of Sha'ul. And of the children of Efrayim were 31 twenty thousand eight hundred, mighty men at arms, famous throughout the houses of their fathers. And of the half 32 tribe of Menashshe eighteen thousand, who were expressly named, to come and make David king. And of the children 33 of Yissakhar, men who had understanding of the times, to know what Yisra'el ought to do; the heads of them were two hundred; and all their brethren were at their commandment. Of 34 Zevulun, such as went out to battle, expert in war, with all weapons of war, fifty thousand; and who ranged themselves with undivided loyalty. And of Naftali a thousand cap- 35 tains, and with them with shield and spear thirty seven thousand. And of the Danites expert in war twenty eight 36 thousand six hundred. And of Asher, such as went forth 37 to battle, expert in war, forty thousand. And on the other 38 side of the Yarden, of the Re'uveni, and the Gadi, and of the half tribe of Menashshe, with all manner of weapons of war for the battle, a hundred and twenty thousand. All these men 39 of war, ranged in battle order, came with a perfect heart to Ḥevron, to make David king over all Yisra'el: and all the rest also of Yisra'el were of one heart to make David king. And 40 there they were with David three days, eating and drinking: for their brethren had prepared for them. Also their neighbours 41 as far as Yissakhar and Zevulun and Naftali, brought bread on asses, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen, and provisions of meal, cakes of figs, and bunches of raisins, and wine, and oil, and oxen, and sheep in abundance: for there was joy in Yisra'el. And David consulted with the captains of thou- 13 sands and hundreds, and with every leader. And David said 2 to all the congregation of Yisra'el, If it seem good to you, and that it be of the LORD our God, let us send abroad to our brethren everywhere, who are left in all the land of Yisra'el, and with them also to the priests and Levites who are in their cities that have pasture lands that they may gather themselves to us: and let us bring back the ark of our God to us: for 3 we did not inquire at it in the days of Sha'ul. And all the con- 4 gregation said that they would do so: for the thing seemed right in the eyes of all the people. So David gathered all Yis- 5 ra'el together, from Shiḥor of Miẓrayim as far as the entrance of Ḥamat, to bring the ark of God from Qiryat-ye'arim. And 6 David went up, and all Yisra'el to Ba'ala, that is, to Qiryat-ye'arim, which belonged to Yehuda, to bring up from there the ark of God the Lord, who dwells above the keruvim, by whose name it is called. And they carried the ark of God in a new 7 cart out of the house of Avinadav: and 'Uzza and Aḥyo drove the cart. And David and all Yisra'el played before God with all 8 their might, and with singing, and with lyres, and with lutes, and with timbrels, and with cymbals, and with trumpets. And 9 when they came to the threshing floor of Kidon, 'Uzza put out his hand to hold the ark; for the oxen shook it. And the anger 10 of the Lord burned against 'Uzza, and he smote him, because he put his hand to the ark: and there he died before God. And 11 David was vexed, because the Lord had broken out upon 'Uzza: so that place is called Pereẓ-'uzza to this day. And David was 12 afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the ark of God home to me? So David did not bring the ark to himself 13 to the city of David, but carried it aside into the house of 'Oved-edom the Gittite. And the ark of God remained with the 14 family of 'Oved-edom in his house for three months. And the Lord blessed the house of 'Oved-edom and all that he had.

Now Ḥuram king of Ẓor sent messengers to David, and timber 14 of cedars, with masons and carpenters, to build him a house.
And David perceived that the Lord had confirmed him king 2 over Yisra'el, for his kingdom was highly exalted, for the sake of his people Yisra'el. And David took more wives at 3 Yerushalayim: and David begot more sons and daughters.
Now these are the names of his children whom he had in 4 Yerushalayim; Shammua, and Shovav, Natan, and Shelomo, and Yivḥar, and Elishua, and Elpelet, and Noga, and Nefeg, 5,6 and Yafia, and Elishama, and Be'elyada, and Elifelet. And 7,8 when the Pelishtim heard that David was anointed king over all Yisra'el, all the Pelishtim went up to seek David. And David heard of it, and went out against them. And the Pelishtim came 9 and made a raid in the valley of Refa'im. And David inquired 10 of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Pelishtim? and wilt thou deliver them into my hand? And the Lord said to him, Go up; for I will deliver them into thy hand. So they came up 11 to Ba'al-peraẓim; and David smote them there. Then David said, God has broken through my enemies by my hand like a bursting flood of waters: therefore they called the name of that place Ba'al-peraẓim. And they left their gods there and David 12 gave command, that they should be burned with fire.

And the Pelishtim once again made a raid in the valley. 13
So David inquired again of God; and God said to him, Do not 14 go up after them; turn away from them, and come upon them opposite the bakha trees. And let it be, when thou shalt hear a 15 sound of marching in the tops of the bakha trees, then thou shalt go out to battle: for GOD has gone out before thee to smite the camp of the Pelishtim. David therefore did as GOD 16 commanded him: and they smote the camp of the Pelishtim from Giv'on as far as Gezer. And David's renown went out into 17 all the lands; and the LORD brought the fear of him upon all nations. And David made houses for himself in the city of 15 David, and prepared a place for the ark of GOD, and pitched for it a tent. Then David said, None ought to carry the ark 2 of GOD but the Levites: for the LORD has chosen them to carry the ark of GOD, and to minister to him forever. And 3 David gathered all Yisra'el together to Yerushalayim, to bring up the ark of the LORD to its place, which he had prepared for it. And David assembled the children of Aharon, and the 4 Levites: of the sons of Qehat; Uri'el the chief, and his 5 brethren a hundred and twenty: of the sons of Merari; 6

'Asaya the chief, and his brethren two hundred and twenty:
of the sons of Gershom: Yo'el the chief, and his brethren 7 a hundred and thirty: of the sons of Elizafan; Shema'ya 8 the chief, and his brethren two hundred: of the sons of 9 Hevron; Eli'el the chief, and his brethren eighty: of the 10 sons of 'Uzzi'el; 'Amminadav the chief, and his brethren a hundred and twelve. And David called for Zadoq and 11 Evyatar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uri'el, 'Asaya, and Yo'el, Shema'ya, and Eli'el, and 'Aminadav, and he said to 12 them, You are the chiefs of the fathers' houses of the Levites: sanctify yourselves, you and your brethren, that you may bring up the ark of the LORD GOD of Yisra'el to the place that I have prepared for it. For because you did not do so at first, the 13 LORD our GOD made a breach upon us, because we did not seek him according to the prescribed form. So the priests and the 14 Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD GOD of Yisra'el. And the children of the Levites bore the ark 15 of GOD upon their shoulders the bars being upon them, as Moshe had commanded according to the word of the LORD.

And David spoke to the chiefs of the Levites to appoint their 16 brethren to be the singers with instruments of music, lutes and lyres and cymbals, playing loudly to raise sounds of joy.
So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Yo'el; and of his 17 brethren, Asaf the son of Berekhyahu; and of the sons of Merari their brethren, Etan the son of Qushayahu; and with them their 18 brethren of the second degree, Zekharyahu, Ben, and Ya'azi'el, and Shemiramot, and Yehi'el, and 'Unni, Eli'av, and Benayahu, and Ma'aseyahu, and Mattityahu, and Eliflehu, and Miqneyahu, and 'Oevd-edom, and Ye'i'el, the gatekeepers. So the singers, 19 Heman, Asaf, and Etan, were appointed to sound with cymbals of brass; and Zekharya, and 'Azi'el, and Shemiramot, and Ye- 20
hi'el, and 'Unni, and Eli'av, and Ma'aseyahu, and Benayahu, with lutes to 'Alamot; and Mattityahu, and Elifelehu, and Miqne- 21 yahu, and 'Oved-edom, and Ye'i'el, and 'Azazyahu, with lyres to the Sheminit to lead. And Kenanyahu, chief of the Levites, 22 was over the song: he was master in the song, because he was skilful. And Berekhya and Elqana were gatekeepers for 23 the ark. And Shevanyahu, and Yoshafat, and Netan'el, and 24

'Amasay, and Zekharyahu, and Benayahu, and Eli'ezer, the priests, did blow on the trumpets before the ark of GOD: and 'Oved-edom and Yeḥiyya were gatekeepers for the ark. So 25
David, and the elders of Yisra'el, and the captains over the thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the house of 'Oved-edom with joy. And it 26 came to pass, when GOD helped the Levites who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, that they offered seven bullocks and seven rams. And David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, 27 and all the Levites who bore the ark, and the singers, and Kenanya the master of the song with the singers: David also had upon him an efod of linen. Thus all Yisra'el brought up the ark of the 28 covenant of the LORD with shouting, and with the sound of the shofer, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, making a noise with lutes and lyres. And it came to pass, as the ark of the cov- 29 enant of the LORD came to the city of David, that Mikhal the daughter of Sha'ul looking through a window saw king David dancing and playing: and she despised him in her heart. So 16 they brought the ark of GOD, and set it in the midst of the tent that David had set up for it: and they offered burnt sacrifices and peace offerings before GOD. And when David had made an 2 end of offering the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD. And he distributed 3 to every one of Yisra'el both men and women, to every one a loaf of bread, and a good piece of meat, and a cake of raisins. And he appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the 4 ark of the LORD, and to invoke, and to thank and praise the LORD GOD of Yisra'el. Asaf the chief, and next to him 5 Zekharya, Ye'i'el, and Shemiramot, and Yeḥi'el, and Mattitya, and Eli'av, and Benayahu, and 'Oved-edom: and Ye'i'el with lutes and with lyres; but Asaf was to sound the cymbals; and 6 Benayahu and Yaḥazi'el the priests with trumpets continually before the ark of the covenant of GOD. Then on that day David 7 first delivered this psalm (to thank the LORD) into the hand of Asaf and his brethren.

Give thanks to the LORD, call upon his name, make known his 8 deeds among the peoples. Sing to him, sing psalms to him, talk 9 of all his wondrous works. Glory in his holy name:let the heart 10 of those who seek the LORD rejoice. Seek the LORD and his 11 strength, seek his face continually. Remember his marvellous 12 works that he has done, his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth; O seed of Yisra'el his servant, you children of Ya'aqov, 13 his chosen ones. He is the LORD our GOD; his judgements are on 14 all the earth. Be mindful always of his covenant; the word 15 which he commanded to a thousand generations; which he 16 made with Avraham, and of his oath to Yiẓḥaq; and he con- 17 firmed the same to Ya'aqov for a law, and to Yisra'el for an everlasting covenant, saying, To thee will I give the land of 18 Kena'an, the lot of your inheritance; when you were but a few 19 men in number, of little account and sojourners there: when 20 they went from nation to nation, and from one kingdom to another people; he suffered no man to do them wrong: but he 21 reproved kings for their sakes, saying, Do not touch any 22 anointed, and do my prophets no harm. Sing to the LORD, all 23 the earth; announce his salvation from day to day. Declare his 24 glory among the nations; his marvellous works among all peoples. For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised: and 25 he is to be feared above all gods. For all the gods of the peoples 26 are idols: but the LORD made the heavens. Honour and majesty 27 are before him; strength and gladness are in his place. Ascribe 28 to the LORD, you families of the peoples, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength. Ascribe to the LORD the glory due to his 29 name: bring an offering, and come before him: worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness. Tremble before him, all the earth: 30 the world also is established, so that it shall not be moved. Let 31 the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice: and let it be said among the nations, The LORD reigns. Let the sea roar, and the 32 fulness thereof: let the field rejoice, and all that is in it. Then 33 shall the trees of the wood sing for joy at the presence of the LORD, because he comes to judge the earth. O give thanks to 34 the LORD; for he is good; for his steadfast love endures forever. And say, Save us, O GOD of our salvation, and gather us 35 together, and deliver us from the nations, that we may give thanks to thy holy name, and glory in thy praise. Blessed be 36 the LORD GOD of Yisra'el for ever and ever. And all the people said, Amen, and praised the LORD. So he left there before 37 the ark of the covenant of the LORD Asaf and his brethren, to minister before the ark continually, as every day's work required: and 'Oved-edom with their brethren, sixty eight; and 38

'Oved-edom the son of Yeditun and Ḥosa to be doorkeepers:
and Ẓadoq the priest, and his brethren the priests, before the 39 tabernacle of the LORD in the high place that was a Giv'on, to offer burnt offerings to the LORD upon the altar of the burnt 40 offering continually morning and evening, and to do according to all that is written in the Tora of the LORD, which he commanded Yisra'el; And with them Heman and Yedutun, and the 41 rest who were chosen, who were expressly named, to give thanks to the LORD, because his steadfast love endures forever; and with them Heman and Yedutun with trumpets and 42 cymbals for making a loud sound, and with musical instruments of GOD. And the sons of Yedutun were posted at the gate. And all the people departed every man to his house: and 43 David returned to bless his house. Now it came to pass, 17 as David sat in his house, that David said to Natan the prophet, Lo, I dwell in a house of cedar wood, but the ark of the covenant of the LORD remains under curtains. Then Natan said to 2 David, Do all that is in thy heart; for GOD is with thee.

And it came to pass the same night, that the word of GOD 3 came to Natan, saying, Go and tell David my servant, Thus says 4 the LORD, Thou shalt not build me a house to dwell in: for I have 5 not dwelt in a house since the day that I brought up Yisra'el to this day; but have gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another. Everywhere where I have walked 6 among all Yisra'el, did I speak a word to any of the judges of Yisra'el whom I commanded to be shepherds to my people, saying, Why have you not built me a house of cedar wood?

Now therefore thus shalt thou say to my servant David, Thus 7 says the LORD of hosts, I took thee from the pasture, from following the sheep, that thou shouldst be ruler over my people Yisra'el: and I have been with thee wherever thou hast 8 walked, and have cut off all thy enemies from before thee, and have made thee a name like the name of the great men who are on the earth. And I will ordain a place for my people Yisra'el, 9 and I will plant them, and they shall dwell in their place, and shall be moved no more; nor shall the children of wickedness waste them any more, as at the beginning, and ever since the 10 time when I commanded judges to be over my people Yisra'el. And I will subdue all thy enemies. Moreover I declare to thee that the LORD will build thee a house. And it shall come to 11 pass, when thy days are fulfilled when thou must go to be with thy fathers, that I will raise up thy seed after thee, who shall be of thy sons; and I will establish his kingdom. He shall build 12 me a house, and I will establish his throne for ever. I will be his 13 father, and he will be my son: and I will not take my steadfast love away from him, as I took it from the one who was before thee: but I will settle him in my house and in my kingdom forever: and his throne shall be established for evermore. 14
According to all these words, and according to all this vision, 15 did Natan speak to David. And David the king came and 16 sat before the LORD, and said, Who am I, O LORD GOD, and what is my house, that thou hast brought me so far? And as though 17 this was too little in thy eyes, O GOD, thou hast also spoken of thy servant's house for a great while to come, and hast regarded me as a man of high degree, O LORD GOD. What more 18 can David say to thee concerning the honour done to thy servant? for thou knowst thy servant. O LORD, for thy servant's 19 sake, and according to thy own heart, hast thou done all this greatness, in making known all these great things. O LORD, 20 there is none like thee, nor is there any GOD besides thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears. And who is 21 like thy people Yisra'el, a singular nation on the earth, whom GOD went to redeem to be his own people, to make thee a name of greatness and awesomeness, by driving out nations from before thy people, whom thou didst redeem out of Mizrayim? For 22 thy people Yisra'el didst thou make thy own people forever; and thou, LORD, didst become their GOD. Therefore now, LORD, 23 let the thing that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant and concerning his house be established forever, and do as thou hast said. So let it be established, that thy name may be mag- 24 nified forever, saying, The LORD of hosts, the GOD of Yisra'el, is a GOD to Yisra'el: and let the house of David thy servant be established before thee. For thou, O my GOD, hast told thy 25 servant that thou wilt build him a house: therefore thy servant has found in his heart to pray before thee. And now, LORD, thou 26 art GOD, and hast promised this goodness to thy servant: and 27 now it has pleased thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may be before thee forever: for thou, O LORD, hast blessed it, and it shall be blessed forever. Now after this it came 18 to pass, that David smote the Pelishtim, and subdued them, and took Gat and its hamlets out of the hand of the Pelishtim. And 2 he smote Mo'av; and Mo'av became David's servants, and brought tribute. And David smote Hadar'ezer king of Ẕova as 3 far as Ḥamat, as he went to set up his dominion by the river Perat. And David took from him one thousand chariots, and 4 seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: and David lamed all the chariot horses, but reserved from them enough for a hundred chariots. And when Aram of Darmeseq 5 came to help Hadar'ezer king of Ẕova, David slew of Aram twenty two thousand men. Then David put garrisons in Aram 6 of Darmeseq; and the people of Aram became David's servants, and brought tribute. Thus the LORD preserved David wherever he went. And David took the shields of gold that were on the 7 servants of Hadar'ezer, and brought them to Yerushalayim.

Likewise from Tivḥat, and from Kun, cities of Hadar'ezer, 8 David took very much brass, with which Shelomo made the brazen sea, and the pillars, and the vessels of brass. Now 9 when To'u king of Ḥamat heard how David had smitten all the host of Hadar'ezer king of Ẕova; he sent Hadoram his son to 10 king David, to inquire of his welfare, and to congratulate him, because he had fought against Hadar'ezer, and smitten him; (for Hadar'ezer had wars with To'u;) and he had with him all manner of vessels of gold and silver and brass. These also did 11 king David dedicate to the LORD, with the silver and the gold that he carried away from all these nations; from Edom, and from Mo'av, and from the children of 'Ammon, and from the Pelishtim, and from 'Amaleq. Moreover Avshay the son of 12 Ẕeruya slew of Edom in the valley of salt eighteen thousand.
And he put garrisons in Edom; and all Edom became David's 13 servants. Thus the LORD preserved David wherever he went.
So David reigned over all Yisra'el, and executed judgment and 14 justice among all his people. And Yo'av the son of Ẕeruya was 15 over the host; and Yehoshafat the son of Aḥilud, was recorder.
And Ẕadoq the son of Aḥituv, and Avimelekh the son of Evya- 16 tar, were the priests; and Shavsha was scribe; and Benayahu 17 the son of Yehoyada was over the Kereti and the Peleti; and the sons of David were chief ministers about the king.

Now it came to pass after this, that Naḥash the king of the 19 children of 'Ammon died, and his son reigned in his stead.
And David said, I will deal loyally with Ḥanun the son of 2 Naḥash, because his father dealt loyally with me. And David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. So the servants of David came into the land of the children of 'Ammon to Ḥanun, to comfort him. But the princes of the children of 3 'Ammon said to Ḥanun, Thinkst thou that David honours thy father, that he has sent comforters to thee? are not his servants come to thee to search, and to overthrow, and to spy out the land? So Ḥanun took David's servants, and shaved them, 4 and cut off their garments in the middle to their hips, and sent them away. Then there went certain persons, and told David 5 how the men had been treated. And he sent to meet them: for the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, Tarry at Yeriḥo until your beards are grown, and then return.

And when the children of 'Ammon saw that they had made 6 themselves odious to David, Ḥanun and the children of 'Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire for themselves chariots and horsemen out of Aram-naharayim, and out of Aram-ma'akha, and out of Ẓova. So they hired thirty two thou- 7 sand chariots, and the king of Ma'akha and his people; who came and encamped before Medeva. And the children of 'Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battle. And when David heard of it, he sent Yo'av, 8 and all the host of the mighty men. And the children of 'Ammon 9 came out, and ranged themselves in battle before the gate of the city: and the kings that were come were by themselves in the field. Now when Yo'av saw that the battle was set against 10 him before and behind, he chose out of all the choice men of Yisra'el, and ranged them against Aram. And the rest of the 11 people he delivered into the hand of Avshay his brother, and they ranged themselves against the children of 'Ammon. And 12 he said, If Aram is too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if the children of 'Ammon are too strong for thee, then I will help thee. Be of good courage, and let us prove strong for 13 our people, and for the cities of our GOD: and let the LORD do that which is good in his sight. So Yo'av and the people that 14 were with him drew near before Aram to the battle; and they fled before him. And when the children of 'Ammon saw that 15 Aram had fled, they likewise fled before Avshay his brother, and entered the city. Then Yo'av came to Yerushalayim.

And when Aram saw that they were put to the worse before 16
Yisra'el, they sent messengers, and brought out the men of Aram who were beyond the river: and Shofakh the captain of the host of Hadar'ezer went before them. And it was told 17
David; and he gathered all Yisra'el, and passed over the Yarden, and came upon them, and ranged himself against them. So David put the battle in array against Aram, and they fought with him. But Aram fled before Yisra'el; and David slew of 18 Aram seven thousand charioteers, and forty thousand footmen, and killed Shofakh the captain of the host. And when the ser- 19 vants of Hadar'ezer saw that they were put to the worse before Yisra'el, they made peace with David, and became his servants: and Aram was not willing to help the children of 'Ammon any more. And it came to pass, at the time of the return of 20 the year, at the time when the kings go out to battle, that Yo'av led forth the power of the army, and ravaged the country of the children of 'Ammon, and came and besieged Rabba. But David remained at Yerushalayim. And Yo'av smote Rabba, and destroyed it. And David took the crown of their king from 2 off his head, and found it to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it; and it was set upon David's head: and he also brought very much spoil out of the city. And he 3 brought out the people who were in it, and set them to work with saws, and with harrows of iron, and with axes. Even so did David deal with all the cities of the children of 'Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Yerushalayim.

And it came to pass after this that there arose war at Gezer 4 with the Pelishtim; at which time Sibbekhay the Ḥushatite slew Sippay, that was of the children of the Rafa; and they were subdued. And there was war again with the Pelishtim; and Elḥanan the son of Ya'ir slew Laḥmi the brother of Golyat the Gittite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

And yet again there was war at Gat, where there was a man of great stature, whose fingers and toes were twenty four, six on each hand, and six on each foot: and he also was the son of the Rafa. And he insulted Yisra'el, so Yehonatan the son of Shim'a, David's brother, slew him. These were born to the Rafa in Gat; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants. And an adversary angel stood up against Yisra'el, and provoked David to number Yisra'el. And David said to Yo'av and to the rulers of the people, Go, number Yisra'el from Be'ersheva to Dan; and bring the number of them to me, that I may know it. And Yo'av answered, The LORD make his people a hundred times so many more as they are: but, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? why then does my lord require this thing? why will he be a cause of trespass to Yisra'el? But the king's word prevailed against Yo'av. So Yo'av departed, and went throughout all Yisra'el, and came to Yerushalayim. And Yo'av gave the sum of the number of the people to David. In all Yisra'el there were one million one hundred thousand men that drew sword: and Yehuda was four hundred and seventy thousand men that drew sword. But he did not count Levi and Binyamin among them: for the king's word was abhorrent to Yo'av. And GOD was displeased with this thing; therefore he smote Yisra'el.

And David said to GOD, I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing: but now, I pray thee, take away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly. And the LORD spoke to Gad, David's seer, saying, Go and tell David, saying, Thus says the LORD, I offer thee three things: choose one of them, that I may do it to thee. So Gad came to David, and said to him, Thus say the LORD, Choose, either three years famine; or three months to be driven away before thy foes, while the sword of thy enemies overtakes thee; or else three days of the LORD's sword, namely, pestilence in the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the border of Yisra'el. Now therefore consider what word I shall bring back to him who sent me. And David said to Gad, I am in great distress: let me fall rather into the hand of the LORD; for very great are his mercies: but let me not fall into the hand of man. So the LORD sent a plague upon Yisra'el: and there fell of Yisra'el seventy thousand men. And GOD sent an angel to Yerushalayim to destroy it: and as he was about to destroy, the LORD beheld, and he relented of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed, It is enough, now hold thy hand. And the angel of the LORD stood by the threshing floor of Ornan the Yevusite. And David lifted up his eyes, and saw the angel of the LORD standing between the earth and the heaven, with a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Yerushalayim. Then David and the elders, who were clothed in sackcloth, fell upon their faces. And David said to GOD, Is it not I 17 who commanded the people to be numbered? so that it is I who have sinned and done very wickedly; but as for these sheep, what have they done? let thy hand, I pray thee, O LORD my GOD, be on me, and on my father's house; but not on thy people, that they should be plagued. Then the angel of 18 the LORD commanded Gad to say to David, that David should go up, and set up an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Ornan the Yevusite. And David went up at the saying of 19 Gad, which he spoke in the name of the LORD. And Ornan 20 turned back, and saw the angel; and his four sons with him hid themselves. Now Ornan was threshing wheat. And as David 21 came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and went out of the threshing floor, and bowed himself to David with his face to the ground. Then David said to Ornan, Grant me the place 22 of this threshing floor, that I may build an altar on it to the LORD: thou shalt give it me for the full price: that the plague may be stayed from the people. And Ornan said to David, 23 Take it to thee, and let my lord the king do that which is good in his eyes: lo, I give thee the oxen also for burnt offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the meal offering; I give it all. And king David said to Ornan, 24 No; but I will surely buy it for the full price: for I will not take that which is thine for the LORD, nor offer burnt offerings without payment. So David gave to Ornan for the place six 25 hundred shekels of gold by weight. And David built there an 26 altar to the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called upon the LORD; and he answered him from heaven by fire upon the altar of burnt offering. And the 27 LORD commanded the angel; and he put up his sword again into its sheath. At that time when David saw that the LORD 28 had answered him on the threshing floor of Ornan the Yevusite, then he sacrificed there. But the tabernacle of the LORD, which 29 Moshe made in the wilderness, and the altar of the burnt offering, were at that time in the high place at Giv'on. And 30 David could not go before it to inquire of GOD: for he was terrified because of the sword of the angel of the LORD. Then 22 David said, This is the house of the LORD GOD, and this is the altar of the burnt offering for Yisra'el. And David com- 2 manded to gather together the strangers who were in the land of Yisra'el and he set masons to hew dressed stones to build the house of GOD. And David prepared iron in abundance for 3 the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the joinings; and brass in abundance without weight; and cedar trees in abun- 4 dance: for the men of Ẓidon and of Ẓor brought much cedar wood to David. And David said, Shelomo my son is young 5 and tender, and the house that is to be built for the LORD must be exceedingly magnificent, of fame and of glory throughout all lands: I will therefore now make preparation for it. So David provided abundant materials before his death. Then he 6 called for Shelomo his son, and charged him to build a house for the LORD GOD of Yisra'el. And David said to Shelomo, 7 My son, as for me, it was in my mind to build a house to the name of the LORD my GOD: but the word of the LORD came to 8 me, saying, Thou hast shed blood abundantly, and hast made great wars: thou shalt not build a house to my name, because thou hast shed much blood upon the earth in my sight. Behold, 9 a son shall be born to thee, who shall be a man of tranquillity; and I will give him rest from all his enemies round about: for his name shall be Shelomo, and I will give peace and quietness to Yisra'el in his days. He shall build a house for my name; 10 and he shall be my son, and I will be his father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Yisra'el forever.

Now, my son, the LORD be with thee; and prosper thou, and 11 build the house of the LORD thy GOD, as he has said of thee.
Only the LORD give thee wisdom and understanding, and give 12 thee charge over Yisra'el that thou mayst keep the Tora of the LORD thy GOD. Then shalt thou prosper, if thou takest heed 13 to fulfil the statutes and judgments which the LORD commanded Moshe for Yisra'el: be strong, and of good courage; do not dread, or be dismayed. Now, behold, in my trouble I have pre- 14 pared for the house of the LORD a hundred thousand talents of gold, and a million talents of silver; and brass and iron without weight; for it is in abundance: and timber and stone have I prepared; and thou mayst add to it. Moreover there are 15 workmen with thee in abundance, hewers and workers of stone and timber, and all manner of skilful men for every manner of work. Of the gold, the silver, and the brass, and the iron, there is no account. Arise therefore, and be doing, and the 16
LORD be with thee. And David commanded all the princes of 17
Yisra'el to help Shelomo his son, saying, Is not the LORD your 18
GOD with you? and has he not given you rest on every side?
for he has given the inhabitants of the land into my hand; and the land is subdued before the LORD, and before his people.
Now set your heart and your soul to seek the LORD your GOD; 19 arise therefore, and build the sanctuary of the LORD GOD, to bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and the holy vessels of GOD, into the house that is to be built to the name of the LORD.

So when David was old and full of days, he made Shelomo his 23 son king over Yisra'el. And he gathered together all the 2 princes of Yisra'el, with the priests and the Levites. Now the 3 Levites were numbered from the age of thirty years and upwards: and their number by their polls, man by man, was thirty eight thousand. Twenty four thousand of these were to oversee 4 the work of the house of the LORD; and six thousand were officers and judges: and four thousand were gatekeepers; and four 5 thousand praised the LORD with the instruments which I made for praise. And David divided them into sections accord- 6 ing to the sons of Levi; Gershon, Qehat, and Merari.

Of the Gershoni there were: La'adan, and Shim'i. The 7,8 sons of La'adan; the chief was Yeḥi'el, and Zetam, and Yo'el three. The sons of Shim'i; Shelomit, and Ḥazi'el, and 9 Haran; three. These were the chief of the fathers' houses of La'adan. And the sons of Shim'i were, Yaḥat, Zina, 10 and Ye'ush, and Beri'a. These four were the sons of Shim'i.

And Yaḥat was the chief, and Ziza the second: but Ye'ush and 11 Beri'a had not many sons; therefore they became a father's house in one reckoning. The sons of Qehat; 'Amram, 12 Yiẓhar, Ḥevron, and 'Uzzi'el; four. The sons of 'Amram; 13 Aharon and Moshe: and Aharon was separated, that he should be sanctified as most holy, he and his sons forever, to burn incense before the LORD, to minister to him, and to bless in his name forever. Now concerning Moshe the man of 14 GOD, his sons were named of the tribe of Levi. The sons 15 of Moshe were, Gershom, and Eli'ezer. Of the sons of Gershom, 16 Shevu'el was the chief. And the sons of Eli'ezer were, Reḥavya 17 the chief. And Eli'ezer had no other sons; but the sons of Reḥavya were very many. Of the sons of Yiẓhar; Shelo- 18 mit the chief. Of the sons of Ḥevron; Yeriyyahu the first, 19 Amarya the second, Yaḥazi'el the third, and Yeqam'am the fourth. Of the sons of 'Uzzi'el; Mikha the first, and Yish- 20 shiyya the second. The sons of Merari; Maḥli, and Mushi. 21
The sons of Maḥli; El'azar, and Qish. And El'azar died, and had 22 no sons, but only daughters: and their brethren the sons of Qish took them to wife. The sons of Mushi; Maḥli, and 'Eder, 23 and Yeremot, three. These were the sons of Levi according to 24 the houses of their fathers; the heads of father's houses, as they were counted by number of names by their polls, who did the work for the service of the house of the LORD, from the age of twenty years and upwards. For David said, The LORD GOD 25 of Yisra'el has given rest to his people, that they may dwell in Yerushalayim forever: and also to the Levites that they 26 shall no more need to carry the tabernacle, nor any vessels of it for its service. For by the last ordinances of David the 27 Levites were numbered from twenty years old and above:
because their station was at the side of the sons of Aharon 28 for the service of the house of the LORD, in the courts, and in the chambers, and in the purifying of all holy things, and the work of the service of the house of GOD; both for the show- 29 bread, and for the fine flour for a meal offering, and for the unleavened cakes, and for that which is baked in the pan, and for that which is fried, and for all manner of measure and size; and to stand every morning to thank and praise the LORD, and 30 likewise at evening; and whenever burnt sacrifices are offered 31 to the LORD on the sabbaths, on the new moons, and on the appointed seasons, by number, according to the order commanded to them, continually before the LORD: and that they 32 should keep the charge of the Tent of Meeting, and the charge of the holy place, and the charge of the sons of Aharon their brethren, for the service of the house of the LORD. The 24 divisions of the sons of Aharon. The sons of Aharon; Nadav, and Avihu, El'azar, and Itamar. But Nadav and Avihu died be- 2 fore their father, and had no children: therefore El'azar and Itamar executed the priest's office. And David and Ẓadoq of 3 the sons of El'azar, and Aḥimelekh of the sons of Itamar, divided them up according to their offices in their service. And 4 there were more chief men found of the sons of El'azar than of the sons of Itamar; and thus they were divided. Among the sons of El'azar there were sixteen heads of fathers' houses and among the sons of Itamar eight for the houses of their fathers. Thus were they divided by lot, one sort with another; for there 5 were officers of the sanctuary, and officers of GOD, among the sons of El'azar, and of the sons of Itamar. And Shema'ya 6 the son of Netan'el the scribe, one of the Levites, recorded them in the presence of the king, and the princes, and Ẓadoq the priest, and Aḥimelekh the son of Evyatar, and the heads of the fathers' houses of the priests and Levites: one father's house being chosen for El'azar, and one chosen for Itamar.

Now the first lot fell to Yehoyariv, the second to 7 Yeda'ya, the third to Ḥarim, the fourth to Se'orim, the fifth 8,9 service to come into the house of the LORD, according to the form prescribed to them by the hand of Aharon their father, as the LORD GOD of Yisra'el had commanded him. And the rest 20 of Reḥavyahu, the chief was Yishshiyya. Of the Yiẓhari; Shelo- 22 mot: of the sons of Shelomot; Yaḥat. And the sons of Yeri- 23 yyahu: Amaryahu the second, Yaḥazi'el the third, Yeqam'am the fourth. Of the sons of 'Uzzi'el; Mikha: of the sons of Mikha; 24 Shamir. The brother of Mikha was Yishshiyya: of the sons 25 of Yishshiyya; Zekharyahu. The sons of Merari were Maḥli 26 and Mushi: the sons of Ya'aziyyahu; Beno. The sons of Merari 27 by Ya'aziyyahu; Beno, and Shoham, and Zakkur, and 'Ivri. Of 28 Maḥli came El'azar, who had no sons. Concerning Qish: the 29 son of Qish was Yeraḥme'el. And the sons of Mushi; Maḥli, 30 and 'Eder, and Yerimot. These were the sons of the Levites according to the houses of their fathers. These also cast lots in 31 the same manner as their brethren the sons of Aharon, in the presence of David the king, and Ẓadoq, and Aḥimelekh, and the heads of the fathers' houses of the priests and Levites; the head of each father's house in the same manner as his younger brother. And David and the chaptains of the host 25 separated for the service certain of the sons of Asaf, and of Heman, and of Yedutun, who should prophesy with lyres, with lutes, and with cymbals: and the number of the workmen according to their service was: of the sons of Asaf; Zekhur, 2 and Yosef, and Netanya, and Asar'ela, the sons of Asaf, under the hands of Asaf, who prophesied according to the order of the king. Of Yedutun: the sons of Yedutun; Gedalyahu, and 3 Ẓeri, and Yesha'yahu, Ḥashavyahu, and Mattityahu; six, under the hands of their father Yedutun, who prophesied with a lyre, to give thanks and to praise the LORD. Of He- 4 man: the sons of Heman; Buqqiyyahu, Mattanyahu, 'Uzzi'el, Shevu'el, and Yerimot, Ḥananya, Ḥanani, Eli'ata, Giddalti, and Romamti-'ezer, Yoshbeqasha, Malloti, Hotir, and Maḥazi'ot: all 5 these were the sons of Heman the king's seer according to the word of God, who bade to lift up his horn. And God gave to Heman fourteen sons and three daughters. All these were 6 under the hands of their father for song in the house of the LORD, with cymbals, lutes, and lyres, for the service of the house of God, according to the king's order to Asaf, Yedutun, and Heman. So the number of them, with 7 their brethren who were instructed in the songs of the LORD, all who were skilful, was two hundred and eighty eight. And 8 they cast lots, watch against watch, the small and the great alike, the teacher together with the pupil. Now the first 9 lot came out for Asaf to Yosef: the second to Gedalyahu; he with his brethren and sons were twelve: the third to 10 Zakkur, his sons and his brethren, twelve: the fourth to 11

Yiẓri, his sons, and his brethren, twelve: the fifth to 12 Netanyahu, his sons, and his brethren, twelve: the sixth 13 to Buqqiyyahu, his sons, and his brethren, twelve: the 14 seventh to Yesar'ela, his sons and his brethren, twelve.
the eighth to Yesha'yahu, his sons, and his brethren, twelve: 15 the ninth to Mattanyahu, his sons, and his brethren, 16 twelve: the tenth to Shim'i, his sons, and his brethren, 17 twelve: the eleventh to 'Azar'el, his sons, and his breth- 18 ren, twelve: the twelfth to Ḥashavya, his sons, and his 19 brethren, twelve: the thirteenth to Shuva'el, his sons, 20 and his brethren, twelve: the fourteenth to Mattityahu, 21 his sons, and his brethren, twelve: the fifteenth to Yere- 22 mot, his sons, and his brethren, twelve: the sixteenth, 23 to Ḥananyahu, his sons, and his brethren, twelve: the 24 seventeenth to Yoshbeqasha, his sons, and his brethren, twelve: the eighteenth to Ḥanani, his sons, and his 25 brethren, twelve: the nineteenth to Malloti, his sons, 26 and his brethren, twelve: the twentieth to Eliyyata, his 27 sons, and his brethren, twelve: the twenty first to Hotir, 28 his sons, and his brethren, twelve: the twenty second to 29 Giddalti, his sons, and his brethren, twelve: the twenty 30 third to Maḥazi'ot, his sons, and his brethren, twelve: the 31 twenty fourth to Romamti-'ezer, his sons, and his brethren, twelve. Concerning the divisions of the gatekeepers: of 26 the Qorḥi was Meshelemyahu the son of Qore, of the sons of Asaf. And the sons of Meshelemyahu were, Zekharyahu the 2 firstborn, Yedi'a'el the second, Zevadyahu the third, Yatni'el the fourth, 'Elam the fifth, Yehoḥanan the sixth, Elyeho'enay 3 the seventh. And 'Oved-edom had sons, Shema'ya the firstborn, 4

Yehozavad the second, Yo'aḫ the third, and Sakhar the fourth, and Netan'el the fifth, 'Ammi'el the sixth, Yissakhar the se- 5 venth, Pe'ulletay the eighth: for GOD blessed him. Also 6 to Shema'ya his son were sons born, who ruled throughout the house of their father: for they were mighty men at arms.
The sons of Shema'ya; 'Otni, and Refa'el, and 'Oved, Elzavad, 7 whose brethren were strong men, Elihu, and Semakhyahu. All 8 these of the sons of 'Oved-edom: they and their sons and their brethren, able men for strength for the service, were sixty two of 'Oved-edom. And Meshelemyahu had sons and brothers, 9 strong men, eighteen. Also Ḫosa, of the children of Me- 10 rari, had sons; Shimri the chief, (for though he was not the firstborn, yet his father made him the chief;) Ḫilqiyyahu the 11 second, Tevalyahu the third, Zekharyahu the fourth: all the sons and brothers of Ḫosa were thirteen. Among these were the 12 divisions of the gatekeepers, among the chief men, having watches in the same manner as their brethren, to minister in the house of the LORD. And they cast lots, the small as well 13 as the great, according to the houses of their fathers, for every gate. And the lot eastward fell to Shelemyahu. Then for 14 Zekharyahu his son, a wise counsellor, they cast lots; and his lot came out northwards. To 'Oved-edom southwards; and to 15 his sons the house of Asuppim. To Shuppim and Ḫosa west- 16 wards, with the gate Shallekhet, by the causeway that goes up, ward against ward. Eastwards were six Levites, northwards 17 four a day, southwards four a day, and towards Asuppim two and two. At Parbar westwards, four at the causeway, and two 18 at Parbar. These are the divisions of the gatekeepers, among 19 the sons of Qoraḫ, and among the sons of Merari. And of the 20 Levites, Aḫiyya was over the treasures of the house of GOD, and over the treasures of the holy things.
The sons of La'dan; the sons of the Gershoni belonging to La'- 21 dan, the heads of father's houses, of La'dan the Gershonite, were Yeḫi'eli. The sons of Yeḫi'eli; Zetam, and Yo'el his brother, who 22 were over the treasures of the house of the LORD. Of the 'Am- 23 rami, and the Yiẓhari, the Hevroni, and the 'Ozzi'eli: and 24 Shevu'el the son of Gershom, the son of Moshe, was ruler of the treasures. And his brethren by Eli'ezer; Reḫavyahu his son, 25 and Yesha'yahu his son, and Yoram his son, and Zikhri his son, and Shelomot his son. This Shelomot and his brethren were 26 over all the treasures of the dedicated things, which David the king, and the heads of the fathers' houses, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the captains of the host, had dedicated. Out of the spoils won in battles did they dedicate 27 to maintain the house of the LORD. And all that Shemu'el the 28 seer, and Sha'ul the son of Qish, and Avner the son of Ner, and Yo'av the son of Ẕeruya, had dedicated; and whoever had dedicated anything, it was under the hand of Shelomit, and of his brethren. Of the Yiẓhari, Kenanyahu and his sons were for 29 the outward business over Yisra'el, for officers and judges.
And of the Ḫevroni, Ḫashavyahu and his brethren, men 30 at arms, one thousand seven hundred, had the oversight of Yisra'el on this side of the Yarden westward in all the business of the LORD, and in the service of the king. Among the Ḥevroni 31 was Yeriyya the chief, among the Ḥevroni, according to the generations of his fathers. In the fortieth year of the reign of David they were sought for, and there were found among them mighty men at arms at Ya'zer of Gil'ad. And his brethren, men 32 at arms, two thousand seven hundred heads of fathers' houses, whom king David made rules over the Re'uveni, the Gadi, and the half tribe of Menashshe, for every matter pertaining to GOD, and for the affairs of the king. Now the children 27 of Yisra'el after their number, namely, heads of fathers' houses and captains of thousands and hundreds, and their officers who served the king in any matter of the divisions, who came in and went out month by month throughout all the months of the year; in every division were twenty four thousand. Over 2 the first division for the first month was Yashov'am the son of Zavdi'el: and in his division were twenty four thousand. Of the 3 children of Perez the chief of all the captains of the host for the first month. And over the division of the second 4 month was Doday an Aḥohite, and his division, and Miqlot the ruler: in his division were twenty four thousand. The 5 third captain of the host for the third month was Benayahu the son of Yehoyada, a chief priest: and in his division were twenty four thousand. This is that Benayahu, who was the mighty one 6 of the thirty, and over the thirty: and in his division was 'Am-mizavad his son. The fourth captain for the fourth month 7 was 'Asa'el the brother of Yo'av, and Zevadya his son after him: and in his division were twenty four thousand. The 8 fifth captain for the fifth month was Shamhut of Yirzaḥ: and in his division were twenty four thousand. The sixth captain 9 for the sixth month was Ira the son of 'Iqqesh the Teqo'ite: and in his division, were twenty four thousand. The seventh 10 captain for the seventh month wes Ḥelez the Pelonite, of the children of Efrayim: and in his division were twenty four thousand. The eighth captain for the eighth month was Sib- 11 bekhay the Ḥushatite, of the Zarḥi: and in his division were twenty four thousand. The ninth captain for the ninth 12 month was Avi'ezer the 'Antotite, of the Benyemini: and in his division were twenty four thousand. The tenth captain for 13 the tenth month was Maharay the Netofatite, of the Zarḥi: and in his division were twenty four thousand. The eleventh 14 captain for the eleventh month was Benaya the Pir'atonite, of the children of Efrayim: and in his division were twenty four thousand. The twelfth captain for the twelfth month was 15 Ḥelday the Netofatite, of 'Otniel: and in his division were twenty four thousand. Furthermore over the tribes of 16 Yisra'el: the ruler of the Re'uveni was Eli'ezer the son of Zikhri: of the Shim'oni, Shefatyahu the son of Ma'akha: of the Levites, Ḥashavya the son of Qemu'el: of the sons of 17 Aharon, Ẓadoq: of Yehuda, Elihu, one of the brothers of 18

David : of Yissakhar, 'Omri the son of Mikha'el : of Zevulun, 19 Yishma'yahu the son of 'Ovadyahu: of Naftali, Yerimot the son of 'Azri'el: of the children of Efrayim, Hoshea the 20 son of 'Azazyahu : of the half tribe of Menashshe, Yo'el the son of Pedayahu: of the half tribe of Menashshe in Gil'ad, 21 Yiddo the son of Zekharyahu: of Binyamin, Ya'asi'el the son of Avner: of Dan, 'Azar'el the son of Yeroḥam. These were 22 the princes of the tribes of Yisra'el. But David did not take the 23 number of them from twenty years old and under: because the LORD had said he would increase Yisra'el like the stars of the heavens. Yo'av the son of Ẕeruya began to count, but he did 24 not finish, because there fell wrath for it against Yisra'el; nor was the number put in the account of the chronicles of king David. And over the king's treasures was 'Azmavet the 25 son of 'Adi'el: and over the storehouses in the fields, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the towers, was Yehonatan the son of 'Uzziyyahu : and over those who did the work of 26 the field for the tillage of the ground was 'Ezri the son of Keluv: and over the vineyards was Shim'i the Ramatite: 27 over the increase of the vineyards for the wine cellars was Zavdi the Shifmite : and over the olive trees and the sycamore 28 trees that were in the low plains was Ba'al-ḥanan the Gederite:
and over the cellars of oil was Yo'ash : and over the 29 herds which fed in the Sharon was Shirtay the Sharonite: and over the herds that were in the valleys was Shafat the son of 'Adlay : and over the camels was Ovile the Yishme'elite : 30 and over the asses was Yeḥdeyahu the Meronotite : and 31 over the flocks was Yaziz the Hagrite. All these were the stewards of the property which belonged to king David.

And Yehonatan David's uncle was a counsellor, a wise man, 32 and a scribe: and Yeḥi'el the son of Ḥakhmoni was with the king's sons: and Aḥitofel was the king's counsellor: and Ḥu- 33 shay the Arkite was the king's companion : and after Aḥitofel 34 came Yehoyada the son of Benayahu, and Evyatar : and the general of the king's army was Yo'av. And David as- 28 sembled all the princes of Yisra'el, the princes of the tribes, and the captains of the companies that served the king by divisions, and the captains over the thousands, and captains over the hundreds, and the stewards over all the property and possessions of the king, and of his sons, with the officers, and with the mighty men, and with all the men at arms to Yerushalayim.
Then David the king stood up upon his feet, and said, Hear me, 2 my brethren, and my people: As for me, I had it in my heart to build a house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and for the footstool of our GOD, and I had made ready for building: but GOD said to me, Thou shalt not build a house for 3 my name, because thou hast been a man of battles, and hast shed blood. Yet the LORD GOD of Yisra'el chose me before all 4 the house of my father to be king over Yisra'el forever : for he has chosen Yehuda to be the ruler; and out of the house of Yehuda, the house of my father; and among the sons of my father he took pleasure in me to make me king over all Yisra'el: and of all my sons, (for the LORD has given me many 5 sons), he has chosen Shelomo my son to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Yisra'el. And he said to me, 6 Shelomo thy son, he shall build my house and my courts: for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father. More- 7 over I will establish his kingdom forever, if he be constant to do my commandments and my judgments, as at this day. Now 8 therefore in the sight of all Yisra'el the congregation of the LORD, and in the hearing of our GOD, observe and seek out all the commandments of the LORD your GOD: that you may possess this good land, and leave it for an inheritance for your children after you forever. And thou, Shelomo my son, know 9 thou the GOD of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind: for the LORD searches all hearts, and understands all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou seek him, he will be found by thee; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off forever. Take heed now; for the LORD has chosen 10 thee to build a house for the sanctuary: be strong, and do it. Then David gave to Shelomo his son the pattern of 11 the porch, and of its houses and of its treasuries, and of its upper chambers, and of its inner rooms, and of the place of the ark with its covering, and the pattern of all that he had by 12 the spirit, of the courts of the house of the LORD, and of all the chambers round about, of the treasuries of the house of GOD, and of the treasuries of the holy things: also for the 13 divisions of the priests and the Levites, and for all the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and for all the vessels of service in the house of the LORD. He gave of gold by weight 14 for things of gold, for all instruments of all manner of service; silver also for all instruments of silver by weight, for all instruments of every kind of service: both the weight for the candle- 15 sticks of gold, and for their lamps of gold, by weight for every candlestick, and for its lamps: and for the candlesticks of silver by weight, for the candlestick, and for its lamps, according to the use of every candlestick. And by weight he gave gold for 16 the tables of showbread, for every table; and likewise silver for the tables of silver: also pure gold for the forks, and the basins, 17 and the jars: and for the golden bowls by weight for every bowl; and likewise by weight for every bowl of the silver bowls: and 18 for the altar of incense refined gold by weight; and gold for the pattern of the chariot, that is the keruvim, that spread out their wings, and cover the ark of the covenant of the LORD. All this, 19 said he, is put in writing by the hand of the LORD who instructed me, all the works of this pattern. And David said to Shelo- 20 mo his son, Be strong and of good courage, and do it: do not fear, or be dismayed: for the LORD GOD, my GOD, will be with thee; he will not fail thee, or forsake thee, until thou hast finished all the work for the service of the house of the LORD. And, 21 behold, the divisions of the priests and the Levites, for all the service of the house of GOD: and there shall be with thee for all manner of workmanship every willing skilful man, for any manner of service: also the princes and all the people will be wholly at thy commandment. And David the king said 29 to all the congregation, Shelomo my son, whom alone GOD has chosen, is yet young and tender, and the work is great: for the palace is not for man, but for the LORD GOD. Now I have 2 prepared with all my might for the house of my GOD the gold for things to be made of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and the brass for things of brass, the iron for things of iron, and wood for things of wood; Shoham stones, and stones to be set, glistering stones, and coloured stones; and all manner of precious stones, and marble stone in abundance. Moreover, 3 because I have set my affection on the house of my GOD, I have given of my own private treasure, of gold and silver, to the house of my GOD, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house, three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of 4 Ofir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, with which to overlay the walls of the houses: the gold for things of gold, 5 and the silver for things of silver, and for all manner of work to be made by the hands of artificers. And who then is willing to consecrate himself this day to the LORD? Then the chief of 6 the fathers' houses and princes of the tribes of Yisra'el, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with the rulers of the king's work, offered willingly, and gave for the service of the 7 house of GOD five thousand talents and ten thousand darics of gold, and ten thousand talents of silver, and eighteen thousand talents of brass, and one hundred thousand talents of iron. And they with whom precious stones were found gave 8 them to the treasure of the house of the LORD, by the hand of Yeḥi'el the Gershonite. Then the people rejoiced, for having 9 offered willingly, because with a perfect heart they offered willingly to the LORD: and David the king also rejoiced with great joy. Wherefore David blessed the LORD before all 10 the congregation: and David said, Blessed be thou, LORD GOD of Yisra'el our father, forever and ever. Thine, O LORD, is the 11 greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in heaven and on earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O LORD, and thou art exalted as head above all. Both riches and honour come of thee, and thou 12 reignest over all; and in thy hand is power and might; and in thy hand it is to make great, and to give strength to all.

Now therefore, our GOD, we thank thee, and praise thy glori- 13 ous name. But who am I, and what is my people, that we 14 should be able thus to offer willingly after this sort? for all things come of thee, and of thy own have we given thee.
For we are strangers before thee, and sojourners, as were all 15 our fathers: our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is no abiding. O LORD our GOD, all this store that we have 16 prepared to build thee a house for thy holy name comes of thy hand, and is all thy own. I know also, my GOD, that thou 17 triest the heart, and hast pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of my heart I have willingly offered all these things: and now I have seen thy people, who are present here, offering joyfully and freely to thee. O LORD GOD of Avraham, 18 Yiẓḥaq and of Yisra'el, our fathers, keep this forever in the imagination of the thoughts of the heart of thy people, and direct their hearts to thee: And give to Shelomo my son a per- 19 fect heart, to keep thy commandments, thy testimonies, and thy statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the palace, for which I have made provision. And David said to all 20 the congregation, Now bless the LORD your GOD. And all the congregation blessed the LORD GOD of their fathers, and bowed down their heads, and prostrated themselves before the LORD, and the king. And they sacrificed sacrifices to the LORD, and 21 offered burnt offerings to the LORD, on the morrow after that day, a thousand bullocks, a thousand rams, a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Yisra'el: and they did eat and drink before the LORD on that 22 day with great gladness. And they made Shelomo the son of David king the second time, and anointed him to the LORD to be the chief governor, and Ẓadoq to be priest. Then Shelomo 23 sat on the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Yisra'el obeyed him. And all 24 the princes, and the mighty men, and all the sons likewise of king David, submitted themselves to Shelomo the king. And the LORD magnified Shelomo exceedingly in the sight 25 of all Yisra'el, and bestowed upon him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Yisra'el.

Thus David the son of Yishay reigned over all 26 Yisra'el. And the time that he reigned over Yisra'el was forty 27 years; seven years he reigned in Ḥevron, and thirty three years he reigned in Yerushalayim. And he died in a good old 28 age, full of days, riches, and honour: and Shelomo his son reigned in his stead. Now the acts of David the king, first and 29 last, behold, they are written in the book of Shemu'el the seer, and in the book of Natan the prophet, and in the book of Gad the seer, with all his reign and his might, and the times that went 30 over him, and over Yisra'el, and over all the kingdoms of the CHRONICLES II countries. And Shelomo the son of David was strengthened 1 in his kingdom, and the LORD his GOD was with him, and magnified him exceedingly. Then Shelomo spoke to all Yisra'el, to the 2 captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every governor in all Yisra'el, the heads of the fathers' houses. So Shelomo, and all the congregation with him, went to the 3 high place that was at Giv'on ; for there was the Tent of Meeting of GOD, which Moshe the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness. But the ark of GOD David had brought up from 4 Qiryat-ye'arim to the place which David had prepared for it : for he had pitched a tent for it at Yerushalayim. Moreover the 5 brazen altar, that Beẓal'el the son of Uri, the son of Ḥur, had made, he put before the tabernacle of the LORD : and Shelomo and the congregation sought to it. And Shelomo went up there 6 to the brazen altar before the LORD, which was at the Tent of Meeting, and offered a thousand burnt offerings upon it. In 7 that night did GOD appear to Shelomo, and said to him, Ask what I shall give thee. And Shelomo said to GOD, Thou hast 8 shown great steadfast love to David my father, and hast made me to reign in his stead. Now, O LORD, let thy promise to David 9 my father be fulfilled : for thou hast made me king over a people like the dust of the earth in multitude. Give me now wisdom 10 and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people : for who can judge thy people that is so great ?

And GOD said to Shelomo, because this was in thy heart, and 11 thou hast not asked riches, wealth, or honour, nor the life of thy enemies, nor even hast thou asked long life ; but hast asked wisdom and knowledge for thyself, that thou mayst judge my people, over whom I have made thee king : wisdom and knowl- 12 edge are granted to thee ; and I will give thee riches, and wealth, and honour, such as none of the kings who have been before thee have had, nor shall any after thee have the like. Then 13 Shelomo came to the high place that was at Giv'on to Yerushalayim, from before the Tent of Meeting, and reigned over Yisra'el. And Shelomo gathered chariots and horsemen : 14 and he had one thousand four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he placed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Yerushalayim. And the king made silver and 15 gold to be in Yerushalayim as common as stones, and cedar trees he made as common as the sycamore trees that are in the lowland for abundance. And the horses that Shelomo had were 16 exported from Miẓrayim ; and from Qeve the merchants of the king would collect them, from Qeve, at a set price. And they 17 fetched up, and brought forth out of Miẓrayim a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty : and so they brought horses for all the kings of the Ḥittim, and for the kings of Aram, by their means. And Shelomo determined 18 to build a house for the name of the LORD, and a royal house for himself. And Shelomo counted seventy thousand men to 2 carry burdens, and eighty thousand to hew in the mountain, and three thousand six hundred to oversee them.
And Shelomo sent to Ḥuram the king of Ẓor, saying, As thou 2 didst deal with David my father, and didst send him cedars to build him a house to dwell in, even so deal with me. Behold, I 3 build a house to the name of the LORD my GOD, to dedicate it to him, and to burn before him sweet incense, and for the continual showbread, and for the burnt offerings morning and evening, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the appointed seasons of the LORD our GOD. This is an ordinance for ever to Yisra'el. And the house which I build is great : for 4 great is our GOD above all gods. But who is able to build him a 5 house, seeing the heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain him ? who am I then, that I should build him a house, except as a place to burn incense before him ? Send me now 6 therefore a man skilled for work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and in purple, and crimson, and blue, and who has skill to engrave with the skilful men that are with me in Yehuda and in Yerushalayim, whom David my father did provide. Send me also cedar trees, cypress trees, and algum 7 trees, out of the Levanon : for I know that thy servants know how to cut timber in the Levanon ; and, behold, my servants shall be with thy servants, to prepare me timber in abundance : 8 for the house which I am about to build shall be great and wonderful. And, behold, I will give to thy servants, the hewers 9 who cut timber, twenty thousand measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand measures of barley, and twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.

Then Ḥuram the king of Ẓor answered in a writing, which he 10 sent to Shelomo, Seeing that the LORD has loved his people, he has made thee king over them. And Ḥuram said, Blessed is the 11 LORD GOD of Yisra'el, who made heaven and earth, who has given to David the king a wise son, endued with prudence and understanding, who might build a house for the LORD, and a royal house for himself. And now I have sent a skilful man, 12 endued with understanding, Ḥuram-avi, the son of a woman of 13 the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Ẓor, skilful to work in gold, and in silver, in brass, in iron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in fine linen, and in crimson; also to engrave any manner of engraving, and to work all kinds of artistic work; to do whatever shall be put to him, with thy skilful men, and with the skilful men of my lord David thy father. Now therefore the wheat, and the barley, the oil, and the 14 wine, which my lord has spoken of, let him send to his servants:
and we will cut wood out of the Levanon, as much as thou shalt 15 need: and we will bring it to thee on rafts by sea to Yafo; and thou shalt carry it up to Yerushalayim. And Shelomo 16 numbered all the strangers who were in the land of Yisra'el, after the numbering wherewith David his father had numbered them; and they were found to be a hundred and fifty three thousand six hundred. And he set seventy thousand of them to 17 be bearers of burdens, and eighty thousand to be hewers in the mountain, and three thousand six hundred overseers to set the the people to work. Then Shelomo began to build the house of 3 the LORD at Yerushalayim in mount Moriyya, where the LORD appeared to David his father, in the place that David had prepared in the threshing floor of Ornan the Yevusite. And he 2 began to build on the second day of the second month, in the fourth year of his reign. Now, these are the foundations which 3 Shelomo laid for the building of the house of GOD. The length by cubits after the ancient measure was sixty cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits. And the porch that was in the front of 4 the house, the length of it was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the height was a hundred and twenty:
and he overlaid it within with pure gold. And the greater house 5 he covered with cypress wood, which he overlaid with fine gold, and set on it shapes of palm trees and chains. And he garnished 6 the house with precious stones for beauty: and the gold was gold of Parvayim. And he overlaid the house, the beams, the 7 posts, and its walls, and its doors, with gold; and engraved keruvim on the walls. And he made the most holy place, 8 the length of which was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and its breadth twenty cubits: and he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to six hundred talents. And the 9 weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. And he overlaid the upper chambers with gold. And in the most holy place 10 he made two keruvim of figured work, and overlaid them with gold. And the wings of the keruvim were twenty cubits long: 11 the wing of the one was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was likewise five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other keruv. And the wing of the other keruv 12 was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was five cubits also, joining to the wing of the other keruv. The wings of these keruvim spread themselves out to 13 twenty cubits: and they stood on their feet, and their faces were inward. And he made the veil of blue, and purple, 14 and crimson, and fine linen, and worked keruvim on it.

Also he made before the house two pillars of thirty five 15 cubits high, and the capital that was on the top of each of them was five cubits. And he made chains in the inner 16 sanctuary, and put them on the heads of the pillars; and made a hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chains. And he 17 set up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left; and called the name of that on the right hand Yakhin, and the name of that on the left Bo'az. And 4 he made an altar of brass, twenty cubits its length, and twenty cubits its breadth, and ten cubits its height. Also he made 2 a molten sea of ten cubits from brim to brim, round in compass, and five cubits its height; and a line of thirty cubits did circle it round about. And under it was the likeness of oxen, which 3 did circle it round about: ten in a cubit, compassing the sea round about. Two rows of oxen were cast with it, when it was cast. It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking towards the 4 north, and three looking towards the west, and three looking towards the south, and three looking towards the east: and the sea was set above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward. And the thickness of it was a handbreadth, 5 and the brim of it like the work of the brim of a cup, like the petals of a lily; and it received and contained three thousand bats. He made also ten lavers, and put five 6 on right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them: such things as belonged to the burnt offering they washed in them; but the sea was for the priests to wash in. And he made 7 ten candlesticks of gold according to their prescribed form, and set them in the temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left. He made also ten tables, and placed them in the 8 temple, five on the right side, and five on the left. And he made a hundred basins of gold. And he made the court of the 9 priests, and the great court, and doors for the court, and overlaid their doors with brass. And he set the sea on the right side of 10 the east end, over against the south. And Ḫuram made 11 the pans, and the shovels, and the basins. And Ḫuram finished the work that he was to do for king Shelomo for the house of God; the two pillars, and the two bowls, with the capitals that 12 were on the top of the two pillars, and the two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals which were on the top of the pillars; and four hundred pomegranates on the two wreathen 13 chains; two rows of pomegranates on each wreath, to cover the two bowls of the capitals which were upon the pillars. He made 14 also bases, and he made lavers upon the bases; one sea, and 15 twelve oxen under it. The pans also, and the shovels, and the 16 forks, and all their instruments, did Ḥuram his father make for king Shelomo for the house of the LORD of burnished brass. In the 17 plain of the Yarden did the king cast them, in the clay ground between Sukkot and Ẕeredata. Thus Shelomo made all these 18 vessels in great abundance: for the weight of the brass was not found out. And Shelomo made all the vessels that belonged 19 to the house of GOD, the golden altar also, and the tables upon which the showbread was set; and the candlesticks with their 20 lamps, that they should burn after the prescribed form before the inner sanctuary of pure gold; and the flowers, and the lamps, 21 and the tongs, of gold, and that perfect gold; and the snuffers, 22 and the bowls, and the spoons, and the firepans, of pure gold: and the entry of the house, its inner doors for the most holy place, and the doors of the outer house, namely the temple, were of gold.

Thus all the work that Shelomo did for the house of the LORD was 5 finished: and Shelomo brought in all the things that David his father had dedicated; and the silver, and the gold, and all the vessels he put in the treasures of the house of GOD. Then 2 Shelomo assembled the elders of Yisra'el, and all the heads of the tribes, the heads of the fathers' houses of the children of Yisra'el, to Yerushalayim, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Ẕiyyon. So all the men of 3 Yisra'el assembled themselves to the king on the feast, namely, that of the seventh month. And all the elders of Yisra'el came; 4 and the Levites took up the ark. And they brought up the ark, and 5 the Tent of Meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the tent, these did the priests and the Levites bring up. And king Shelomo, 6 and all the congregation of Yisra'el who were assembled to him before the ark, sacrificed sheep and oxen, which could not be counted or numbered for multitude. And the priests brought in 7 the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, to the inner sanctuary of the house, to the most holy place, under the wings of the keruvim: for the keruvim spread out their wings over the 8 place of the ark, and the keruvim covered the ark and its poles from above. And they drew out the poles of the ark, so that the 9 ends of the poles were visible from the ark before the sanctuary; but they were not seen outside. And there it is to this day. There 10 was nothing in the ark except the two tablets which Moshe put there at Ḥorev, when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Yisra'el, when they came out of Miẕrayim. And it came 11 to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place: (for all the priests that were present had sanctified themselves, and did not then keep to their duty watches: also the Levites who 12 were the singers, all of them of Asaf, of Heman, of Yedutun, with their sons and their brethren, clothed in white linen, having cymbals and lutes and lyres, stood at the east end of the altar, and with them a hundred and twenty priests sounding the trumpets:)

and it came to pass when all at once the trumpeters and the 13 singers sounded a note in unison, in praise and thanksgiving to the LORD; and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of music, and praised the LORD, saying, For he is good; for his steadfast love endures for ever: that then the house, the house of the LORD, was filled with a cloud; so that the priests could not stand to 14 minister by reason of the cloud: for the glory of the LORD had filled the house of GOD. Then said Shelomo, 6
The LORD has said that he would dwell in the thick darkness.
But I have built a house of habitation for thee, and a place for 2 thee to dwell in for ever. And the king turned his face, and blessed 3 the whole congregation of Yisra'el: (and all the congregation of Yisra'el stood:) and he said, Blessed is the LORD GOD of Yisra'el, 4 who has with his hands fulfilled that which he spoke with his mouth to my father David, saying, Since the day that I brought 5 my people out of the land of Mizrayim I chose no city among all the tribes of Yisra'el to build a house in, that my name might be there; nor did I choose any man to be a ruler over my people Yisra'el: but I have chosen Yerushalayim, that my name might 6 be there: and have chosen David to be over my people Yisra'el.
Now it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for 7 the name of the LORD GOD of Yisra'el. But the LORD said to David 8 my father, Since it was in thy heart to build a house for my name, thou didst well in that it was in thy heart: Yet thou shalt 9 not build the house; but thy son who shall come out of thy loins, he shall build the house for my name. The LORD has performed 10 his word which he has spoken: for I am risen up in the place of David my father, and I sit on the throne of Yisra'el, as the LORD promised, and I have built the house for the name of the LORD GOD of Yisra'el. And in it I have put the ark, in which is the 11 covenant of the LORD, that he made with the children of Yisra'el.
And he stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all 12 the congregation of Yisra'el, and spread out his hands: for 13 Shelomo had made a bronze scaffold, five cubits long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the court: and upon it he stood, and kneeled down upon his knees before all the congregation of Yisra'el, and spread out his hands towards heaven, and said, O LORD GOD of Yisra'el, there 14 is no GOD like thee in the heaven, or on the earth; who keepest covenant and troth with thy servants, who walk before thee with all their hearts: thou who hast kept with thy servant David 15 my father that which thou hast promised him; and hast spoken with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thy hand, as it is this day. Now therefore, O LORD God of Yisra'el, keep with thy ser- 16 vant David my father that which thou didst promise him, saying, There shall never fail thee a man before me to sit upon the throne of Yisra'el; if only thy sons take heed to their way to walk in my Tora, as thou hast walked before me. Now then, O LORD GOD' 17 of Yisra'el, let thy word be verified, which thou hast spoken to thy servant David. But will GOD indeed dwell with mankind on 18 earth? behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house which I have built! Have consider- 19

ation therefore to the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O LORD my GOD, to hearken to the cry and the prayer which thy servant prays before thee: that thy eyes may be open upon 20 this house day and night, upon the place of which thou hast said that thou wouldst put thy name there; to hearken to the prayer which thy servant prays towards this place. Hearken therefore 21 to the supplications of thy servant, and of thy people Yisra'el, which they shall make towards this place: hear from thy dwelling place, from heaven; and when thou hearest, forgive. If a man 22 sin against his neighbour, and an oath be laid upon him to make him swear, and the oath come before thy altar in this house; then 23 hear from heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, by requiting the wicked, by recompensing his way upon his own head; and by justifying the righteous, by rewarding him according to his righteousness. And if thy people Yisra'el be smitten before 24 the enemy, because they have sinned against thee; and they return and confess thy name, and pray and make supplication before thee in this house; then hear from the heavens, and forgive 25 the sin of thy people Yisra'el, and bring them back to the land which thou didst give to them and to their fathers. When 26 the heaven is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee; if they pray toward this place, and confess thy name, and turn from their sin, when thou dost afflict them; then hear from heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and 27 thy people Yisra'el, that thou teach them the good way, in which they should walk; and send rain upon thy land, which thou hast given to thy people for an inheritance. If there should be 28 dearth in the land, if there should be pestilence, if there should be blight, or mildew, locust, or caterpillar; if their enemies besiege them in the cities of their land; whatever sore or whatever sickness there be: then whatever prayer or whatever 29 supplication shall be made by any man, or by all thy people Yisra'el, (for everyone shall know his own trouble and his own grief,) and he spread out his hands towards this house: then 30 hear from heaven thy dwelling place, and forgive, and render to every man, whose heart thou knowst, according to all his ways, (for thou alone knowst the hearts of the children of men:) that 31 they may fear thee, to walk in thy ways, so long as they live on the land which thou didst give to our fathers. Likewise 32 concerning the stranger who is not of thy people Yisra'el, but is come from a far country for thy great name's sake, and thy mighty hand, and thy outstretched arm; if they come and pray in this house; then hear from the heavens, from thy dwelling 33 place, and do according to all for which the stranger calls to thee; that all peoples of the earth may know thy name, and fear thee, as do thy people Yisra'el, and may know that this house which I have built is called by thy name. If thy people go 34 out to war against their enemies by the way that thou shalt send them, and they pray to thee towards this city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name; then 35 hear from the heavens their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause. If they sin against thee, (for there is no 36 man who does not sin) and thou art angry with them, and deliver them over to the enemy, and they carry them away captives to a land far off or near; yet if they take thought in the land 37 where they are carried captive, and turn and pray to thee in the land of their captivity, saying, We have sinned, we have done amiss, and have dealt wickedly; if they return to thee with all 38 their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, where they have been carried away captives, and pray towards their land, which thou didst give to their fathers, and towards the city which thou hast chosen, and towards the house which I have built for thy name: then hear from the heavens, from thy 39 dwelling place, their prayer and their supplications, and maintain their cause, and forgive thy people who have sinned against thee.

Now, my GOD, let thy eyes, I pray thee, be open, and thy ears 40 attentive to the prayer that is made in this place. Now 41 therefore arise, O LORD GOD, into thy resting place, thou, and the ark of thy strength: let thy priests, O LORD GOD, be clothed with victory, and let thy pious ones rejoice in goodness. O LORD 42 GOD, do not turn away the face of thy anointed: remember the faithful love of David thy servant. Now when Shelomo 7 had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the LORD filled the house. And the priests could not enter into 2 the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD had filled the LORD's house. And when all the children of Yisra'el 3 saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD upon the house, they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and prostrated themselves, and praised the LORD, saying, For he is good; for his steadfast love endures for ever. Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices 4 before the LORD. And king Shelomo offered as a sacrifice 5 twenty two thousand oxen, and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep: so the king and all the people consecrated the house of GOD. And the priests stood at their posts: the Levites also with 6 the instruments of music of the LORD, which David the king had made to praise the LORD, because his steadfast love endures for ever; with the praises of David in their hands; and the priests sounded trumpets before them, and all Yisra'el stood. Moreover Shelomo hallowed the middle of the 7 court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered burnt offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the brazen altar which Shelomo had made was not able to contain the burnt offerings, and the meal offerings, and the fat. Also 8 at that time Shelomo kept the feast for seven days, and all Yisra'el with him, a very great congregation, from the entrance of Ḥamat to the wadi of Miẓrayim. And on the eighth day they 9 made a solemn assembly: for they kept the consecration of the altar for seven days, and the feast for seven days. And on 10 the twenty third day of the seventh month he sent the people away to their tents, glad and merry in heart for the bounty that the LORD had bestowed on David, and to Shelomo, and to Yisra'el his people. Thus Shelomo finished the house of the 11 LORD, and the king's house: and all that came into Shelomo's heart to make in the house of the LORD, and in his own house, he carried out successfully. And the LORD appeared to 12 Shelomo by night, and said to him, I have heard thy prayer, and have chosen this place to myself for a house of sacrifice. If I shut 13 up the heaven so that there is no rain, or if I command the grasshopper to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people; if my people, who are called by my name, shall humble 14 themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin, and I will heal their land. Now my eyes shall be open 15 and my ears be attentive to the prayer that is made in this place. For now I have chosen and sanctified this house, that my name 16 may be there for ever: and my eyes and my heart shall be there perpetually. And for thee, if thou wilt walk before me, as David 17 thy father walked, and do according to all that I have commanded thee, and shalt observe my statutes and my judgments; then I 18 will establish the throne of thy kingdom, as I have covenanted with David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man to be ruler in Yisra'el. But if you turn away, and forsake my 19 statutes and my commandments, which I have set before you, and shall go and serve other gods, and worship them: then I 20 will pluck them up from my land which I have given them; and this house, which I have sanctified for my name, I will cast out of my sight, and will make it to be a proverb and a byword among all nations. And this house, which is high, shall 21 be an astonishment to every one who passes by it; so that he shall say, Why has the LORD done thus to this land, and to this house? Then they will say, Because they forsook the LORD God of their 22 fathers, who brought them out of the land of Miẓrayim, and laid hold of other gods, and worshipped them, and served them: therefore he brought all this evil upon them.

And it came to pass at the end of twenty years, during which 8 Shelomo had built the house of the LORD, and his own house, that the cities which Ḥuram had given Shelomo, Shelomo built 2 them, and caused the children of Yisra'el to dwell there. And 3 Shelomo went to Ḥamat-ẓova, and prevailed against it. And he 4 built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the store cities, which he built in Ḥamat. And he built the upper Bet-ḥoron, and the lower 5 Bet-ḥoron, fortified cities, with walls, gates, and bars; and Ba'alat, 6 and all the store cities that Shelomo had, and all the chariot cities, and the cities of the horsemen, and all that Shelomo desired to build in Yerushalayim, and in the Levanon, and throughout all the land of his dominion. As for all the people 7 who were left of the Ḥitti, and the Emori, and the Perizzi, and the Ḥivvi, and the Yevusi, who were not of Yisra'el; of their 8 children, who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Yisra'el did not wipe out, Shelomo raised a levy of them until this day. But of the children of Yisra'el of whom 9 Shelomo did not make servants for his work, (for they were men of war, and chiefs of his captains, and captains of his chariots and horsemen,) even of these were the chiefs of king Shelomo's officers, two hundred and fifty, who bore rule over the people. 10

And Shelomo brought up the daughter of Par'o out of the city of David to the house that he had built for her: for he said, My wife shall not dwell in the house of David, king of Yisra'el, because the places to which the ark of the LORD has come are holy. 11
Then Shelomo offered burnt offerings to the LORD, on the altar of the LORD, which he had built before the porch, after a certain rate every day, offering according to the commandment of Moshe, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the appointed seasons, three times in the year, on the feast of unleavened bread, and on the feast of weeks, and on the feast of booths. And according to the form prescribed by David his father, he set the divisions of the priests to their service, and the Levites to their charges, to praise and minister before the priests, as the duty of every day required: the gatekeepers also by their divisions at every gate: for so had David the man of GOD commanded. And they did not depart from the commandment of the king to the priests and Levites concerning any matter, or concerning the treasures. So all the work of Shelomo was accomplished from the day of the foundation of the house of the LORD, until it was finished. So the house of the LORD was completed. Then Shelomo went to 'Ezyon-gever, and to Elot, at the sea side in the land of Edom. And Huram sent him by the hands of his servants ships, and servants that had knowledge of the sea; and they went with the servants of Shelomo to Ofir, and took from there four hundred and fifty talents of gold, and brought them to king Shelomo. 12 13 14 15 16 17 18
And when the queen of Sheva heard of the fame of Shelomo, she came to prove Shelomo with hard questions at Yerushalayim, with a very great retinue, and camels that carried spices, and gold in abundance, and precious stones: and when she was come to Shelomo, she spoke to him of all that was in her heart. And Shelomo answered her all her questions: and there was nothing hidden from Shelomo which he did not tell her. And when the queen of Sheva had seen the wisdom of Shelomo, and the house that he had built, and the food at his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their apparel; his cupbearers also, and their apparel; and his ascent by which he went up into the house of the LORD; there was no more spirit in her. And she said to the king, It was a true report which I heard in my own land of thy acts, and of thy wisdom: but I did not believe their words, until I came, and my eyes had seen it: and, behold, the one half of the greatness of thy wisdom was not told me: for thou dost exceed the fame that I heard. Happy are thy men, and happy are these thy servants, who stand continually before thee, and hear thy wisdom. Blessed be the LORD thy GOD, who delighted in thee to set thee on his throne, to be king for the 9 2 3 4 5 6 7 8

LORD thy GOD: because thy GOD loved Yisra'el, to establish them for ever, therefore he made thee king over them, to do judgment and justice. And she gave the king a hundred and 9 twenty talents of gold, and of spices great abundance, and precious stones: nor was there any such spice as the queen of Sheva gave king Shelomo. And the servants also of Ḥuram, and 10 the servants of Shelomo, who brought gold from Ofir, brought algum trees and precious stones. And of the algum trees the 11 king made steps for the house of the LORD, and for the king's palace, and lyres and lutes for singers: and there were none such seen before in the land of Yehuda. And king Shelomo gave 12 to the queen of Sheva all that she desired, whatever she asked, besides that which she had brought to the king. So she turned, and went away to her own land, she and her servants.

Now the weight of gold that came to Shelomo in one 13 year was six hundred and sixty talents of gold, besides that 14 which the traders and merchants brought. And all the kings of 'Arav and the governors of the country brought gold and silver to Shelomo. And king Shelomo made two hundred targets of 15 beaten gold: six hundred shekels of beaten gold went to one target. He made three hundred shields of beaten gold also: 16 three hundred shekels of gold went to one shield. And the king put them in the house of the forest of the Levanon. And 17 the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold. And there were six steps to the throne, with a 18 footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne, and arms on each side of the place of the seat, and two lions standing by the arms: and twelve lions stood there on the one side and 19 on the other upon the six steps. There was not the like made in any kingdom. And all the drinking vessels of king Shelomo 20 were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of the Levanon were of pure gold: none were of silver; it was not valued in the least in the days of Shelomo. For the king's 21 ships went to Tarshish with the servants of Ḥuram: once every three years came the ships of Tarshish bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks. And king Shelomo surpassed all 22 the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom. And all the kings 23 of the earth sought the presence of Shelomo, to hear his wisdom, that GOD had put in his heart. And they brought every man 24 his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and garments, harness, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year.

And Shelomo had four thousand stalls for horses and 25 chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen; whom he bestowed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Yerushalayim. And 26 he reigned over all the kings from the river as far as the land of the Pelishtim, and to the border of Miẓrayim. And the king 27 made silver in Yerushalayim as common as stones, and cedar trees he made as common as the sycamore trees that are in the lowland for abundance. And they brought horses to Shelomo 28 out of Miẓrayim and out of all lands. Now the rest of the acts of 29

Shelomo, first and last, are they not written in the book of Natan the prophet, and in the prophecy of Aḥiyya the Shilonite, and in the visions of Ye'do the seer against Yarov'am the son of Nevat? And Shelomo reigned in Yerushalayim over all Yisra'el for forty 30 years. And Shelomo slept with his fathers, and he was buried in 31 the city of David his father : and Reḥav'am his son reigned in his stead. And Reḥav'am went to Shekhem : for all Yisra'el 10 came to Shekhem to make him king. And it came to pass, when 2 Yarov'am the son of Nevat, who was in Miẓrayim, where he had fled from the presence of Shelomo the king, heard it, that Yarov'am returned out of Miẓrayim. And they sent and called him. So Yarov'am and all Yisra'el came and spoke to Reḥav'am saying, Thy father made our yoke hard : now therefore ease thou somewhat the grievous servitude of thy father, and his heavy yoke that he put upon us, and we will serve thee. And 5 he said to them, Come back to me after three days. And the people departed. And king Reḥav'am took counsel with 6 the old men who had stood before Shelomo his father while he still lived, saying, What counsel do you give me to return answer to this people ? And they spoke to him, saying, If thou 7 art kind to this people, and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be thy servants for ever. But he forsook 8 the counsel which the old men gave him, and took counsel with the young men who were brought up with him, and who stood before him. And he said to them, What advice do you give that 9 we may return answer to this people, who have spoken to me, saying, Ease somewhat the yoke that thy father did put upon us ? And the young men who were brought up with him spoke 10 to him, saying, Thus shalt thou answer the people who spoke to thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it somewhat lighter for us ; thus shalt thou say to them, My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins. For whereas 11 my father put a heavy yoke upon you, I will add to your yoke : my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions. So Yarov'am and all the people came to 12 Reḥav'am on the third day, as the king had spoken saying, Come back to me on the third day. And the king answered them rough- 13 ly ; and king Reḥav'am forsook the counsel of the old men, and he 14 answered them after the advice of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to it : my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions. So the king did not hearken to the people : for it was brought 15 about by God, that the Lord might perform his word, which he spoke by the hand of Aḥiyyahu the Shilonite to Yarov'am the son of Nevat. And when all Yisra'el saw that the king would 16 not hearken to them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David ? and we have no inheritance in the son of Yishay : every man to your tents, O Yisra'el : and now, David, look to thy house. So all Yisra'el went to their tents. But as for the children of Yisra'el who dwelt in 17 the cities of Yehuda, Reḥav'am reigned over them. Then king 18

Reḥav'am sent Hadoram who was over the tribute; and the children of Yisra'el stoned him with stones, that he died. But king Reḥav'am made speed to mount his chariot, to flee to Yerushalayim. And Yisra'el rebelled against the house of 19
David to this day. And when Reḥav'am was come to 11 Yerushalayim, he gathered of the house of Yehuda and Binyamin a hundred and eighty thousand chosen men, who were warriors, to fight against Yisra'el, that he might bring the kingdom back to Reḥav'am. But the word of the LORD came to Shema'- 2 yahu the man of GOD, saying, Speak to Reḥav'am the son of 3 Shelomo, king of Yehuda, and to all Yisra'el in Yehuda and Binyamin, saying, Thus says the LORD, You shall not go up, 4 or fight against your brethren: return every man to his house: for this thing was done by me. And they obeyed the words of the LORD, and returned from going against Yarov'am. And 5 Reḥav'am dwelt in Yerushalayim, and built cities for defence in Yehuda. For he built Bet-leḥem, and 'Etam, and Teqoa, and 6,7 Bet-ẓur, and Sokho, and 'Adullam, and Gat, and Maresha, and 8 Zif, and Adorayim, and Lakhish, and 'Azeqa, and Ẓor'a, and 9,10 Ayyalon, and Ḥevron, which are in Yehuda and in Binyamin, fortified cities. And he strengthened the fortresses, and put 11 commanders in them, and stores of food, and of oil and wine. And in every city he put shields and spears, and made them 12 exceedingly strong. And Yehuda and Binyamin were on his side. And the priests and the Levites who were in all 13 Yisra'el resorted to him out of all their districts. For the Levites 14 left their pasture lands and their estates, and came to Yehuda and Yerushalayim: for Yarov'am and his sons had cast them out from serving as priests to the LORD: and he ordained for 15 himself priests for the high places, and for the satyrs, and for the calves which he had made. And after them out of all the 16 tribes of Yisra'el such as set their hearts to seek the LORD GOD of Yisra'el came to Yerushalayim, to sacrifice to the LORD GOD of their fathers. So they strengthened the kingdom of Yehuda, 17 and made Reḥav'am the son of Shelomo strong for three years: for three years they walked in the way of David and Shelomo.

And Reḥav'am took for himself to wife Maḥalat the 18 daughter of Yerimot the son of David, and Avihayil the daughter of Eli'av the son of Yishay; and she bore him children; Ye'ush, 19 and Shemarya, and Zaham. And after her he took Ma'akha the 20 the daughter of Avshalom; who bore him Aviyya, and 'Attay, and Ziza, and Shelomit. And Reḥav'am loved Ma'akha the 21 daughter of Avshalom more than all his wives and his concubines: (for he took eighteen wives, and sixty concubines; and begot twenty eight sons, and sixty daughters.) And Reḥav'am 22 made Aviyya the son of Ma'akha the chief, to be prince among his brethren: for he thought to make him king. And he dealt wisely, 23 and dispersed of all his children throughout all the districts of Yehuda and Binyamin, to every fortified city: and he gave them provisions in abundance. And he sought many wives. And 1 it came to pass, when Reḥav'am had established the kingdom, and had strengthened himself, he forsook the Tora of the LORD, and all Yisra'el with him. And it came to pass, 2 that in the fifth year of king Reḥav'am, Shishaq king of Miẓrayim came up against Yerushalayim, because they had transgressed against the LORD, with twelve hundred chariots, and sixty 3 thousand horsemen: and the people were without number who came with him out of Miẓrayim; the Luvim, the Sukkiyyim, and the Kushim. And he took the fortified cities which pertained 4 to Yehuda, and came to Yerushalayim. Then came 5 Shema'ya the prophet to Reḥav'am, and to the princes of Yehuda, who were gathered together to Yerushalayim, because of Shishaq, and he said to them, Thus says the LORD, You have forsaken me, and therefore I have abandoned you to the hand of Shishaq. Whereupon the princes of Yisra'el and the king 6 humbled themselves; and they said, The LORD is righteous.

And when the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, the 7 word of the LORD came to Shema'ya, saying, They have humbled themselves, therefore I will not destroy them, but I will grant them some deliverance; and my wrath shall not be poured out upon Yerushalayim by the hand of Shishaq. Nevertheless they 8 shall be his servants; that they may know my service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countries. So Shishaq king 9 of Miẓrayim came up against Yerushalayim, and took away the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, he took all: he carried away also the shields of gold which Shelomo had made. Instead of which king Reḥav- 10 'am made shields of brass and committed them to the hands of the officers of the guard, who kept the entrance of the king's house. And when the king entered into the house of the LORD, 11 the guard came and fetched them, and brought them back into the guard chamber. And when he humbled himself, the wrath 12 of the LORD turned from him, so that he did not destroy him altogether: and also in Yehuda things went well. So king 13 Reḥav'am strengthened himself in Yerushalayim, and reigned:
for Reḥav'am was forty one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned for seventeen years in Yerushalayim, the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Yisra'el to put his name there. And his mother's name was Na'ama an 'Ammonite woman. And he did evil, because he did not set 14 his heart to seek the LORD. Now the acts of Reḥav'am, 15 first and last, are they not written in the book of Shema'ya the prophet, and of 'Iddo the seer concerning genealogies? And there were wars between Reḥav'am and Yarov'am continually.
And Reḥav'am slept with his fathers, and was buried in the 16 city of David: and Aviyya his son reigned in his stead.

Now in the eighteenth year of king Yarov'am Aviyya began 13 to reign over Yehuda. He reigned three years in Yerushalayim. 2 And his mother's name was Mikhayahu the daughter of Uri'el of Giv'a. And there was war between Aviyya and Yarov'am. And 3 Aviyya set the battle in array with an army of valiant men of of war, four hundred thousand chosen men: and Yarov-

'am ranged himself in battle against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, mighty men at arms. And Aviyya 4 stood up upon mount Ẓemarayim, which is in mount Efrayim, and said, Hear me, thou Yarov'am, and all Yisra'el; ought you not to 5 know that the LORD GOD of Yisra'el gave the kingdom over Yisra'el to David for ever, to him and to his sons by a covenant of salt? Yet Yarov'am the son of Nevat, the servant of Shelomo 6 the son of David, rose up, and rebelled against his lord. And 7 there gathered about him worthless men, wicked people, and they strengthened themselves against Reḥav'am the son of Shelomo, when Reḥav'am was young and tender-hearted, and could not withstand them. And now you think to withstand the 8 kingdom of the LORD in the hand of the sons of David; and you are a great multitude, and there are with you golden calves, which Yarov'am made you for gods. Have you not cast out the 9 priests of the LORD, the sons of Aharon, and the Levites, and have made yourselves priests after the manner of the nations of other lands? so that whoever comes to consecrate himself with a young bullock or seven rams, may become a priest of what are no gods. But as for us, the LORD is our GOD, and we have not for- 10 saken him; and the priests who minister to the LORD are the sons of Aharon, and the Levites do their work: and they burn 11 to the LORD every morning and every evening burnt sacrifices and sweet incense: and set out the showbread upon the pure table; and the candlestick of gold with its lamps to burn every evening: for we keep the charge of the LORD our GOD; but you have forsaken him. And, behold, GOD himself is with us at our 12 head, and his priests with sounding trumpets to sound an alarm against you. O children of Yisra'el, do not fight against the LORD GOD of your fathers; for you shall not prosper. But Yarov- 13
'am had set an ambush party to come on them from behind: so they were in front of Yehuda and the ambush party was behind them. And when Yehuda looked back, behold, the battle 14 was before and behind: and they cried to the LORD, and the priests sounded with the trumpets. Then the men of Yehuda gave 15 a shout: and as the men of Yehuda shouted, it came to pass, that GOD smote Yarov'am and all Yisra'el before Aviyya and Yehuda. And the children of Yisra'el fled before Yehuda: and 16 GOD delivered them into their hand. And Aviyya and his people 17 slew them with a great slaughter: so there fell down slain of Yisra'el five hundred thousand chosen men. Thus the children 18 of Yisra'el were brought under at that time, and the children of Yehuda prevailed, because they relied upon the LORD GOD of their fathers. And Aviyya pursued after Yarov'am, and took 19 cities from him, Bet-el with its hamlets, and Yeshana with its hamlets, and Efrayim with its hamlets. Nor did Yarov'am recover 20 strength again in the days of Aviyyahu: and the LORD struck him, and he died. But Aviyyahu grew mighty, and married 21 fourteen wives, and begot twenty two sons, and sixteen daughters. And the rest of the acts of Aviyya, and his ways, and his 22 sayings, are written in the commentary of the prophet 'Iddo. So 23 Aviyya slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Asa his son reigned in his stead. In his days the land was quiet for ten years. And Asa did that which was 1 good and right in tne eyes of the LORD his GOD : for he took away 2 the altars of the foreign gods, and the high places, and broke down the pillars, and cut down the asherim : and he commanded 3 Yehuda to seek the LORD GOD of their fathers, and to carry out the Tora and the commandment. Also he took away out of all 4 the cities of Yehuda the high places and the sun images : and the kingdom was quiet before him. And he built fortified cities 5 in Yehuda : for the land had rest, and he had no war in those years ; because the LORD had given him rest. Therefore he said 6 to Yehuda, Let us build these cities, and make about them walls, and towers, gates, and bars, while the land is yet before us ; because we have sought the LORD our GOD, we have sought him, and he has given us rest on every side. So they built and prospered. And Asa had an army of men who bore targets 7 and spears, out of Yehuda three hundred thousand ; and out of Binyamin, who bore shields and drew bows, two hundred and eighty thousand : all these were mighty men at arms. And there 8 came out against them Zerah the Kushite with an army of a million men, and three hundred chariots; and he came to Mare-sha. Then Asa went out against him, and they ranged the battle in 9 the valley of Zefata at Maresha. And Asa cried to the LORD his 10 GOD, and said, LORD, it is nothing with thee to help, whether with many, or with those who have no power : help us, O LORD our GOD ; for we rely on thee, and in thy name we go against this multitude. O LORD, thou art our GOD ; let not man prevail against thee. So the LORD smote the Kushim before Asa, and 11 before Yehuda ; and the Kushim fled. And Asa and the people 12 who were with him pursued them to Gerar : and the Kushim were overthrown, so that they could not recover themselves ; for they were destroyed before the LORD, and before his host ; and they carried away very much spoil. And they smote all the 13 cities round about Gerar ; for the fear of the LORD came upon them : and they spoiled all the cities ; for there was very much spoil in them. They smote also the tents of cattle, and carried 14 away sheep and camels in abundance, and returned to Yerushalayim. And the spirit of GOD came upon 'Azaryahu the son of 15

'Oded : and he went out to meet Asa, and said to him, Hear me, 2 Asa, and all Yehuda and Binyamin ; The LORD is with you, while you are with him ; and if you seek him, he will be found by you ; but if you forsake him, he will forsake you. Now for a 3 long time Yisra'el has been without the true GOD, and without a teaching priest, and without Tora. But when they in their trouble 4 did turn to the LORD GOD of Yisra'el and sought him, he was found by them. And in those times there was no peace to him 5 who went out, nor to him who came in, but there were great vexations upon all the inhabitants of the countries. And they 6 were broken in pieces ; nation against nation, and city against city : for GOD did vex them with all manner of adversity. Be 7 strong therefore, and let not your hands be weak : for your work shall be rewarded. And when Asa heard these words, and 8 the prophecy of 'Oded the prophet, he took courage, and put away the disgusting idols out of all the land of Yehuda and Binyamin, and out of the cities which he had taken from mount Efrayim, and renewed the altar of the LORD, that was before the porch of the LORD. And he gathered all Yehuda and Binyamin, 9 and the strangers with them out of Efrayim and Menashshe, and out of Shim'on : for they deserted to him out of Yisra'el in great numbers, when they saw that the LORD his GOD was with him.

So they gathered themselves together at Yerushalayim in 10 the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa. And 11 they offered to the LORD at the same time, of the spoil which they had brought, seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep. And they entered into a covenant to seek the LORD GOD 12 of their fathers with all their heart and with all their soul ; that 13 whoever would not seek the LORD GOD of Yisra'el should be put to death, whether young or old, whether man or woman. And 14 they swore to the LORD with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with trumpets, and with shofarot. And all Yehuda rejoiced 15 at the oath : for they had sworn with all their heart, and sought him with their whole desire ; and he was found by them : and the LORD gave them rest round about. And also Ma'akha the 16 mother of Asa the king, did he remove from being queen, because she had made a monstrous image for an ashera : and Asa cut down her image, and ground it, and burnt it in the wadi Qidron. But the high places were not taken away out of Yisra'el : 17 nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect all his days. And he 18 brought into the house of GOD the things that his father had dedicated, and that he himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels. And there was no more war until the thirty fifth 19 year of the reign of Asa. In the thirty sixth year of the 16 reign of Asa Ba'sha king of Yisra'el came up against Yehuda, and built Rama, so as to prevent anyone from going out or coming in to Asa king of Yehuda. Then Asa brought out silver 2 and gold out of the treasures of the house of the LORD and of the king's house, and sent to Ben-hadad king of Aram, who dwelt at Darmeseq saying, There is a league between me and thee, as 3 there was between my father and thy father : behold, I have sent thee silver and gold ; go, break thy alliance with Ba'sha king of Yisra'el that he may depart from me. And Ben-hadad hear- 4 kened to king Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Yisra'el ; and they smote 'Iyyon, and Dan, and Avel-mayim, and all the store cities of Naftali. And it came to pass, 5 when Ba'asha heard it, that he left off building Rama, and let his work come to a halt. Then Asa the king took all Yehuda ; 6 and they carried away the stones of Rama, and its timber, with which Ba'asha was building ; and with it he built Geva and Miẓpa. And at that time Ḥanani the seer came to Asa 7 king of Yehuda, and said to him, Because thou hast relied on the king of Aram, and not relied on the LORD thy GOD, therefore the host of the king of Aram has escaped out of thy hand. Were 8 not the Kushim and the Luvim a huge host, with very many chariots and horsemen ? yet, because thou didst rely on the LORD, he delivered them into thy hand. For the eyes of the LORD run 9 to and fro throughout the whole earth, to show himself strong on behalf of those whose heart is perfect towards him. In this thou hast done foolishly: therefore from henceforth thou shalt have wars. Then Asa was angry with the seer, and put him in 10 a prison house; for he was in a rage with him because of this thing. And Asa oppressed some of the people at the same time.

And, behold, the acts of Asa, first and last, lo, they are written 11 in the book of the kings of Yehuda and Yisra'el. And Asa in the 12 thirty ninth year of his reign was diseased in his feet, until his disease became severe: yet in his disease he did not seek the LORD, but the physicians. And Asa slept with his fathers, and 13 died in the forty first year of his reign. And they buried him in 14 his own tomb, which he had made for himself in the city of David, and laid him on a bier which was filled with sweet odours and divers kinds of spices prepared by the perfumer's art: and they made a very great burning for him. And Yehoshafat 17 his son reigned in his stead, and strengthened himself against Yisra'el. And he placed forces in all the fortified cities of 2 Yehuda, and set garrisons in the land of Yehuda, and in the cities of Efrayim, which Asa his father had taken. And the LORD 3 was with Yehoshafat, because he walked in the first ways of his father David, and did not seek the Be'alim; but he sought the 4 GOD of his father, and followed his commandments, and not like the doings of Yisra'el. Therefore the LORD established the king- 5 dom in his hand; and all Yehuda brought tribute to Yehoshafat; and he had riches and honour in abundance. And his heart was 6 lifted up in the ways of the LORD: moreover he took away the high places and the asherim out of Yehuda. Also in the 7 third year of his reign he sent to his princes, to Ben-ḥayil, and to 'Ovadya, and to Zekharya, and to Netan'el, and to Mikhayahu, to teach in the cities of Yehuda. And with them he sent Levites, 8 Shema'yahu, and Netanyahu, and Zevadyahu, and Asa'el, and Shemiramot, and Yehonatan, and Adoniyyahu, and Toviyyahu, and Tov-adoniyya, Levites; and with them Elishama and Yehoram, priests. And they taught in Yehuda, and had the book of 9 the Tora of the LORD with them, and went about throughout all the cities of Yehuda, and taught the people. And the fear of the 10 LORD fell upon all the kingdoms of the lands that were round about Yehuda, so that they made no war against Yehoshafat.
Also some of the Pelishtim brought Yehoshafat presents, and 11 tribute of silver; and the 'Arvi'im brought him flocks, seven thousand seven hundred rams, and seven thousand seven hundred he goats. And Yehoshafat grew exceedingly great; 12 and he built castles and store cities in Yehuda. And he had much 13 business in the cities of Yehuda: and men of war, mighty men of valour, were in Yerushalayim. And these are the numbers 14 of them according to the houses of their fathers: Of Yehuda, the captains of thousands; 'Adna the chief, and with him mighty men of valour three hundred thousand. And next to him 15 was Yehoḥanan the captain, and with him two hundred and eighty thousand. And next to him was 'Amasya the son of 16 Zikhri, who volunteered for the service of the LORD; and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of arms. And 17 of Binyamin; Elyada a mighty man at arms, and with him armed men with bow and shield two hundred thousand. And 18 next to him was Yehozavad, and with him a hundred and eighty thousand ready prepared for the war. These waited 19 on the king, besides those whom the king put in the fortified cities throughout all Yehuda. Now Yehoshafat had 18 riches and honour in abundance, and he allied himself by marriage with Aḥ'av. And after certain years he went down 2 to Aḥ'av to Shomron. And Aḥ'av killed sheep and oxen for him in abundance, and for the people that he had with him, and persuaded him to go up with him to Ramot-gil'ad. And Aḥ'av 3 king of Yisra'el said to Yehoshafat king of Yehuda, Wilt thou go with me to Ramot-gil'ad? And he answered him, I am as thou art, and my people are as thy people; and we will be with thee in the war. And Yehoshafat said to the king of Yisra'el, 4 Inquire, I pray thee, of the word of the LORD to day. Therefore 5 the king of Yisrael gathered together prophets, four hundred men, and said to them, Shall we go to Ramot-gil'ad to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for GOD will deliver it into the king's hand. But Yehoshafat said, Is there not here a 6 prophet of the LORD besides, that we might inquire of him? And 7 the king of Yisra'el said to Yehoshafat, There is yet one man, by whom we may inquire of the LORD: but I hate him; for he never prophesied good to me, but always evil: he is Mikhayehu the son of Yimla. And Yehoshafat said, Let not the king say so.

So the king of Yisra'el called for one of his officers, and said, 8 Fetch quickly Mikhayehu the son of Yimla. And the king of 9 Yisra'el and Yehoshafat king of Yehuda sat each of them on his throne, clothed in their robes, and they sat in a threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Shomeron; and all the prophets prophesied before them. And Ẓidqiyyahu the son of 10 Kena'ana had made for himself horns of iron, and he said, Thus says the LORD, With these thou shalt push Aram until they are wiped out. And all the prophets prophesied in the same sense, 11 saying, Go up to Ramot-gil'ad, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king. And the messenger that went 12 to call Mikhayehu spoke to him, saying, Behold, the words of the prophets declare good to the king with one assent; let thy word therefore, I pray thee, be like one of theirs, and speak thou good. And Mikhayehu said, As the LORD lives, even what my GOD 13 says, that will I speak. And when he was come to the king, the 14 king said to him, Mikha, shall we go to Ramot-gil'ad to battle, or shall I forbear? And he said, Go up, and prosper, and they shall be delivered into your hand. And the king said to him, How 15 many times shall I adjure thee that thou say nothing to me but the truth in the name of the LORD? Then he said, I saw all 16 Yisra'el scattered upon the mountains, like sheep that have no shepherd: and the LORD said, These have no master; let them return therefore every man to his house in peace. And the king 17 of Yisra'el said to Yehoshafat, Did I not tell thee that he would not prophesy good to me but only evil? And he said, 18 Therefore hear the word of the LORD; I saw the LORD sitting upon his throne, and all the host of heaven standing on his right hand and on his left. And the LORD said, Who will entice 19 Ah'av king of Yisra'el, that he may go up and fall at Ramot-gil'ad? And one spoke saying after this manner, and another saying after that manner. Then the spirit came for- 20 ward, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will entice him. And the LORD said to him, With what? And he said, 21

I will go out, and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.
And he said, Thou shalt entice him, and thou shalt also prevail: go out, and do so. Now therefore, behold the LORD has put a 22 lying spirit in the mouth of these thy prophets, and the LORD has spoken evil against thee. Then Zidqiyyahu the son of 23 Kena'ana came near, and smote Mikhayehu upon the cheek, and said, Which way did the spirit of the LORD go from me to speak to thee? And Mikhayehu said, Behold, thou shalt see on that day 24 when thou shalt go into an inner chamber to hide thyself. Then 25 the king of Yisra'el said, Take Mikhayehu, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Yo'ash the king's son; and say, Thus says the king, Put this fellow in the prison, and 26 feed him with scant bread and with scant water, until I return in peace. And Mikhayehu said, If thou at all return in peace, 27 then the LORD has not spoken by me. And he said, Hearken, all you people. So the king of Yisra'el and Yehoshafat the 28 king of Yehuda went up to Ramot-gil'ad. And the king of Yisra'el 29 said to Yehoshafat, I will disguise myself, and will go to the battle; but do thou put on thy robes. So the king of Yisra'el disguised himself; and they went to the battle. Now the king of 30 Aram had commanded the captains of the chariots that were with him, saying, Do not fight with small or great, but only with the king of Yisra'el. And it came to pass, when the captains 31 of the chariots saw Yehoshafat, that they said, It is the king of Yisra'el. Therefore they surrounded him to fight: but Yeho-shafat cried out, and the LORD helped him; and GOD drew them away from him. For it came to pass, that, when the 32 captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Yisra'el, they turned back from pursuing him. And a certain 33 man drew his bow at a venture, and smote the king of Yisra'el between the joints of the armour: so he said to the driver of his chariot, Turn thy hand, and carry me out of the host; for I am badly wounded. And the battle increased that day: but 34 the king of Yisra'el propped himself up in his chariot against Aram until evening: and about the time of sunset he died.

And Yehoshafat the king of Yehuda returned to his house 19 in peace to Yerushalayim. And Yehu the son of Ḥanani the seer 2 went out to meet him, and said to king Yehoshafat, Shouldst thou help the wicked, and love those who hate the LORD?
therefore wrath is come upon thee from before the LORD.
Nevertheless there are good things found in thee, in that thou 3 hast taken away the asherot out of the land, and hast directed thy heart to seek GOD. And Yehoshafat dwelt at Yerushalayim: 4 and he went out again among the people from Be'er-sheva to mount Efrayim, and brought them back to the LORD GOD of their fathers. And he set judges in the land throughout all the 5 fortified cities of Yehuda, city by city. And he said to the judges, 6 take heed what you do: for you do not judge for man, but for the LORD, who is with you in the judgment. And now let the 7 fear of the LORD be upon you; take heed and do it: for there is no iniquity with the LORD our GOD, nor respect of persons, nor taking of gifts. Moreover in Yerushalayim did Yehoshafat 8 set certain Levites, and priests, and heads of the fathers' houses of Yisra'el, for the judgment of the LORD, and for controversies.

And they returned to Yerushalayim. And he charged them, 9 saying, Thus shall you do in the fear of the LORD, faithfully, and with a perfect heart. And whatever cause shall come to 10 you from your brethren who dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, concerning Tora and commandment, and statutes and judgments, you shall warn them not to trespass against the LORD, so as to bring wrath upon you, and upon your brethren: this do, and you shall not trespass. And, behold, 11 Amaryahu the chief priest is over you in all matters of the LORD; and Zevadyahu the son of Yishma'el, the ruler of the house of Yehuda, for all the king's matters: also the Levites shall be officers before you. Deal courageously, and the LORD shall be with the good.

And it came to pass after this, that the children of Mo'av, 20 and the children of 'Ammon, and with them some of the Me'u-nim, came against Yehoshafat to battle. Then there came some 2 that told Yehoshafat, saying, There comes a great multitude against thee from beyond the sea from Aram; and, behold, they are in Ḥazeẓon-tamar, which is 'En-gedi. And Yehoshafat 3 was afraid, and set himself to seek the LORD, and proclaimed a fast throughout all Yehuda. And Yehuda gathered themselves 4 together, to ask help of the LORD: even out of all the cities of Yehuda they came to seek the LORD. And Yehoshafat stood 5 in the congregation of Yehuda and Yerushalayim, in the house of the LORD, before the new court, And said, O LORD GOD of our 6 fathers, are not thou GOD in heaven? and dost thou not rule over all the kingdoms of the nations? and in thy hand is there not power and might, so that none is able to withstand thee?
Are thou not our GOD, who didst drive out the inhabitants of 7 this land before thy people Yisra'el, and didst give it to the seed of Avraham thy friend for ever? And they dwelt in it, 8 and have built thee a sanctuary there for thy name, saying, If, when evil come upon us, sword, judgment, or pestilence, or 9 famine, we stand before this house, and in thy presence, (for thy name is in this house,) and cry to thee in our affliction, then thou wilt hear and help. And now, behold, the children 10 of 'Ammon and Mo'av and mount Se'ir, whom thou wouldst not let Yisra'el invade, when they came out of the land of Miẓrayim, but they turned from them, and did not destroy them; behold, they rewarded us, by coming to cast us out of 11 thy possession, which thou hast given us to inherit. O our GOD, 12 wilt thou not judge them? for we have no might against this great company that comes against us; nor do we know what to do: but our eyes are upon thee. And all Yehuda stood before 13 the LORD, with their little ones, their wives, and their children.

Then upon Yaḥazi'el the son of Zekharyahu, the son of 14

Benaya, the son of Ye'i'el, the son of Mattanya, a Levite of the sons of Asaf, came the spirit of the LORD in the midst of the congregation; and he said, Hearken, all Yehuda, and you inhabitants 15 of Yerushalayim, and thou king Yehoshafat, Thus says the LORD to you, Do not be afraid or dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is not yours, but GOD's. To morrow go 16 down against them: behold, they come up by the cliff of Ziẓ; and you shall find them at the end of the wadi, before the wilderness of Yeru'el. You shall not need to fight in this battle: 17 take up your positions, stand still, and see the salvation of the LORD with you, O Yehuda and Yerushalayim: do not fear, or be dismayed; tomorrow go out against them: for the LORD will be with you. And Yehoshafat bowed his head with his face to the 18 ground: and all Yehuda and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim fell before the LORD, prostrating themselves before the LORD. And 19 the Levites, of the children of the Qehatim, and of the children of the Qorḥim, stood up to praise the LORD GOD of Yisra'el with a loud voice on high. And they rose early in the morning, 20 and went out into the wilderness of Teqoa: and as they went out, Yehoshafat stood and said, Hear me, O Yehuda, and you inhabitants of Yerushalayim; Believe in the LORD your GOD, so shall you be established; believe in his prophets, so shall you prosper. And when he had consulted with the people, he ap- 21 pointed singers to the LORD, who should praise in the beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army, and who should say, Give thanks to the LORD; for his steadfast love endures for ever. And when they began to sing and to praise, the LORD 22 set an ambush against the children of 'Ammon, Mo'av, and mount Se'ir, who were come against Yehuda; and they were routed. For the children of 'Ammon and Mo'av rose against the 23 inhabitants of mount Se'ir, utterly to slay and destroy them: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Se'ir, they all helped to destroy one another. And when Yehuda came 24 to the watchtower in the wilderness, they looked upon the multitude, and, behold, they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and none had escaped. And when Yehoshafat and his people 25 came to take away their spoil, they found among them abundance of riches with the dead bodies, and precious jewels, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away: and they were three days in gathering the spoil, it was so much. And on the fourth day they assembled them- 26 selves in the valley of Berakha; (for there they blessed the LORD: therefore the name of that place was called, The valley of Berakha, unto this day.) Then they returned, every man 27 of Yehuda and Yerushalayim, and Yehoshafat at their head, to go back to Yerushalayim with joy; for the LORD had made them rejoice over their enemies. And they came to Yerushalayim 28 with lutes and lyres and trumpets to the house of the LORD. And the fear of GOD was on all the kingdoms of those countries, 29 when they had heard that the LORD fought against the enemies of Yisra'el. So the realm of Yehoshafat was quiet: for his GOD 30 gave him rest round about. And Yehoshafat reigned over 31 Yehuda: he was thirty five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned for twenty five years in Yerushalayim. And his mother's name was Azuva the daughter of Shilḥi. And he 32 walked in the way of Asa his father, and did not depart from it, doing that which was right in the sight of the LORD. But the 33 high places were not taken away: for as yet the people had not directed their hearts to the GOD of their fathers. Now the 34 rest of the acts of Yehoshafat, first and last, behold, they are written in the records of Yehu the son of Ḥanani, which are inserted in the book of the kings of Yisra'el. And after this 35 Yehoshafat king of Yehuda joined himself with Aḥazya king of Yisra'el, who did very wickedly: and he joined himself with 36 him to make ships to go to Tarshish: and they made the ships in 'Eẓyon-gever. Then Eli'ezer the son of Dodavahu of 37 Maresha prophesied against Yehoshafat, saying, Because thou hast joined thyself with Aḥazyahu, the LORD will destroy what thou hast done. And the ships were wrecked, so that they were not able to go to Tarshish. Now Yehoshafat slept with his 21 fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David.

And Yehoram his son reigned in his stead. And he had brothers, 2 the sons of Yehoshafat, 'Azaryahu, and Yeḥi'el, and Zekharyahu, and 'Azaryahu, and Mikha'el, and Shefatyahu: all these were the sons of Yehoshafat king of Yisra'el. And their father gave them great gifts of silver, and of gold, and of precious things, 3 with fortified cities in Yehuda: but he gave the kingdom to Yehoram; because he was the firstborn. Now when 4 Yehoram was taken over the kingdom of his father, and had strengthened himself, he slew all his brothers with the sword, and also some of the princes of Yisra'el. Yehoram was thirty two 5 years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Yerushalayim. And he walked in the way of the kings of 6 Yisra'el, as did the house of Aḥ'av: for he had a daughter of Aḥ'av to wife: and he did that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD. But the LORD did not desire to destroy the house of 7 David, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and as he promised to give a lamp to him and to his sons for ever.
In his days Edom revolted from under the dominion of Yehuda, 8 and made themselves a king. Then Yehoram went out with his 9 princes, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and smote the men of Edom who surrounded him, and the captains of the chariots. So Edom revolted from under the 10 hand of Yehuda to this day. Then also did Livna revolt from under his hand; because he had forsaken the LORD GOD of his fathers. Moreover he made high places in the mountains of 11 Yehuda and caused the inhabitants of Yerushalayim to go astray, and drew Yehuda away. And there came a writing 12 to him from Eliyyahu the prophet, saying, Thus says the LORD GOD of David thy father, Because thou hast not followed the ways of Yehoshafat thy father, nor the ways of Asa king of Yehuda, but hast followed the way of the kings of Yisra'el 13 and hast made Yehuda and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim to become unfaithful, like the unfaithfulness of the house of Aḥ'av, and thou hast also slain thy brothers of thy father's house, who were better than thyself: behold, with a great 14 plague will the LORD smite thy people, and thy children, and thy wives, and all thy goods: and thou shalt have great sickness 15 by disease of thy bowels, until thy bowels fall out by reason of the sickness day by day. And the LORD stirred up against 16 Yehoram the spirit of the Pelishtim, and of the 'Arvim who were near the Kushim: and they came up into Yehuda, and 17 broke into it, and carried away all the substance that was found in the the king's house, and his sons also, and his wives; so that there was not a son left him, except Yeho'aḥaz, the youngest of his sons. And after all this the LORD smote him in 18 his bowels with an incurable disease. And it came to pass, that 19 in process of time, after the end of two years, his bowels came out by reasons of his sickness: so he died in great agony. And his people made no burning for him, like the burning of his fathers. Thirty two years old was he when began to reign, 20 and he reigned in Yerushalayim for eight years, and departed joyless. And they buried him in the city of David, but not in the tombs of the kings. And the inhabitants of Yerushalayim 22 made Aḥazyahu his youngest son king in his stead: for the band of men that came with the 'Arvim to the camp had slain all the eldest. So Aḥazyahu the son of Yehoram king of Yehuda reigned. Forty two years old was Aḥazyahu when he began 2 to reign, and he reigned one year in Yerushalayim. And his mother's name was 'Atalyahu the daughter of 'Omri. He also 3 walked in the ways of the house of Aḥ'av: for his mother was his counsellor to do wickedly. So he did evil in the sight of the 4 LORD like the house of Aḥ'av: for they were his counsellors after the death of his father to his destruction. He also followed 5 their counsel, and went with Yehoram the son of Aḥ'av king of Yisra'el to war against Ḥaza'el king of Aram at Ramot-gil'ad: and the Arammim smote Yoram. And he returned to 6 be healed in Yizre'el because of the wounds which were given him at Rama, when he fought with Ḥaza'el king of Aram. And 'Azaryahu the son of Yehoram king of Yehuda went down to see Yehoram the son of Aḥ'av at Yizre'el, because he was sick. And the destruction of Aḥazyahu came from GOD in that he went 7 to Yoram: for when he was come, he went out with Yehoram against Yehu the son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed to cut off the house of Aḥ'av. And it came to pass, that, when 8 Yehu was executing judgment upon the house of Aḥ'av, he found the princes of Yehuda, and the sons Aḥazyahu's brothers, who attended Aḥazyahu, and he slew them. And he sought 9 Aḥazyahu: and they caught him, (for he was hid in Shomeron,) and they brought him to Yehu: and when they had slain him, they buried him: Because, said they, he is the son of Yehoshafat, who sought the LORD with all his heart. So the house of Aḥazyahu had no one able to hold the kingdom. But when 10

'Atalyahu the mother of Aḥazyahu saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal seed of the house of Yehuda. But Yehoshav'at, the daughter of the king, took Yo'ash 11 the son of Aḥazyahu, and stole him from among the king's sons who were slain, and put him and his nurse in a bedchamber. So Yehoshav'at, the daughter of king Yehoram, the wife of Yehoyada the priest, (for she was the sister of Aḥazyahu,) hid him from 'Atalyahu so that she could not slay him. And 12 he was with them hid in the house of God for six years: and 'Atalya reigned over the land. And in the seventh year 23 Yehoyada strengthened himself, and took the captains of hundreds, 'Azarya the son of Yeroḥam, and Yishma'el the son of Yehoḥanan, and 'Azaryahu the son of 'Oved, and Ma'aseyahu the son of 'Adayahu, and Elishafat the son of Zikhri, into league with him. And they went about in Yehuda, and gathered the Levites 2 out of all the cities of Yehuda, and the heads of the fathers' houses of Yisra'el, and they came to Yerushalayim. And all the 3 congregation made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And he said to them, Behold, the king's son shall reign, as the LORD has said of the sons of David. This is the thing that you 4 shall do; A third part of you who come in on the sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, shall be on duty at the gates; and 5 a third part shall be at the king's house; and a third part at the bottom gate: and all the people shall be in the courts of the house of the LORD. But let none come into the house of the LORD, 6 except the priests, and those of the Levites who minister; they may go in, for they are holy: but all the people shall keep the LORD's charge. And the Levites shall surround the king, every 7 man with his weapons in his hand; and whoever else comes into the house, he shall be put to death: but be with the king when he comes in, and when he goes out. So the Levites and all 8 Yehuda did according to all the things that Yehoyada the priest had commanded, and every man took his men who were due to come in on the sabbath, with those who were due to go out on the sabbath: for Yehoyada the priest did not dismiss the duty watches. And Yehoyada the priest delivered to the captains 9 of hundreds spears, and large and small shields, that had been king David's, which were in the house of God. And he set all 10 the people, every man having his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the temple to the left side of the temple, along by the altar and the temple, by the king round about. Then they brought 11 out the king's son, and put upon him the crown, and gave him the Testimony, and made him king. And Yehoyada and his sons anointed him, and said, Long live the king. Now when 12

'Atalyahu heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people into the house of the LORD: and she looked, and behold, the king stood at his pillar at the 13 entrance, and the princes and the trumpeters by the king: and all the people of the land rejoiced, and sounded trumpets, also the singers with instruments of music leading the celebration. Then 'Atalyahu rent her clothes, and cried, Treason, Treason.

Then Yehoyada the priest brought out the captains of 14 hundreds who were set over the host, and said to them, Bring her out between the ranks: and whoever follows her, let him be slain with the sword. For the priest said, Do not slay her in the house of the LORD. So they laid hands on her; and when she 15 was come to the entrance of the horse gate by the king's house, they slew her there.

And Yehoyada made a covenant between him, and between all 16 the people, and between the king, that they should be the LORD'S people. Then all the people went to the house of the Ba'al, and 17 broke it down, and broke his altars and his images in pieces, and slew Mattan the priest of the Ba'al in front of the altars. And 18 Yehoyada appointed the offices of the house of the LORD under the hand of the priests the Levites, whom David had given charge over the house of the LORD, to offer the burnt offerings of the LORD, as it is written in the Tora of Moshe, with rejoicing and with singing, as ordained by David. And he set the gatekeepers 19 at the gates of the house of the LORD, so that no one who was unclean in anything should enter in. And he took the captains 20 of hundreds, and the nobles, and the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought down the king from the house of the LORD: and they came through the upper gate into the king's house, and set the king upon the throne of the kingdom. And all the people of the land rejoiced: and the city 21 was quiet, after they had slain 'Atalyahu with the sword.

Yo'ash was seven years old when he began to reign, and he 24 reigned for forty years in Yerushalayim. And his mother's name was Ẓivya of Be'er-sheva. And Yo'ash did that which was right in 2 the sight of the LORD all the days of Yehoyada the priest.
And Yehoyada took for himself two wives; and he begot sons 3 and daughters. And it came to pass after this, that Yo'ash was 4 minded to repair the house of the LORD. And he gathered the 5 priests and the Levites, and said to them, Go out to the cities of Yehuda, and collect money of all Yisra'el to repair the house of your GOD from year to year, and see that you hasten the matter.
But the Levites did not hasten it. And the king called for 6 Yehoyada the chief, and said to him, Why hast thou not required of the Levites to bring in out of Yehuda and out of Yerushalayim the tax of Moshe the servant of the LORD, and of the congregation of Yisra'el, for the tabernacle of the Testimony? For the sons of 7
'Atalyahu, that wicked woman, had broken up the house of GOD; and they had also bestowed all the dedicated things of the house of the LORD upon the Be'alim. And at the king's commandment 8 they made a chest, and placed it outside at the gate of the house of the LORD. And they made a proclamation through Yehuda and 9 Yerushalayim, to bring in to the LORD the tax that Moshe the servant of GOD laid upon Yisra'el in the wilderness. And all the 10 princes and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had made an end. Now it came to pass, that 11 whenever the chest was brought to the king's officers by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, the king's scribe and the high priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it back to its place. Thus they did day by day, and they gathered a great sum of money. And the king and Yehoyada gave it to such as did the 12 work of the service of the house of the LORD, and hired masons and carpenters to repair the house of the LORD, and also workers in iron and brass to mend the house of the LORD. So the workmen 13 worked, and the work prospered in their hand, and they restored the house of GOD to its proper condition, and strengthened it And when they had finished it, they brought the rest of the 14 money before the king and Yehoyada, and of it were made vessels for the house of the LORD, vessels for service and for offering, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD continually all the days of Yehoyada. But Yehoyada grew old, and was 15 full of days, and he died ; a hundred and thirty years old was he when he died. And they buried him in the city of David among 16 the kings, because he had done good in Yisra'el, both towards GOD, and towards his house. Now after the death of 17 Yehoyada the princes of Yehuda came, and prostrated themselves before the king. Then the king hearkened to them. And 18 they left the house of the LORD GOD of their fathers, and worshipped asherim and idols : and anger came upon Yehuda and Yerushalayim for this their crime. But he sent prophets to them, 19 to bring them back to the LORD ; and they forewarned them : but they would not give ear. And the spirit of GOD came 20 upon Zekharya the son of Yehoyada the priest, and he stood above the people, and said to them, Thus says GOD, Why do you transgress the commandments of the LORD, though you cannot succeed ? because you have forsaken the LORD, he has also forsaken you. And they conspired against him, and stoned 21 him with stones at the commandment of the king in the court of the house of the LORD. Thus Yo'ash the king did not remem- 22 ber the faithful love which Yehoyada his father had shown him, but he slew his son. And when he died, he said, May the LORD see and revenge. And it came to pass at the end of 23 the year, that the host of Aram came up against him : and they came to Yehuda and Yerushalayim, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all their spoil to the king of Darmeseq. Though the army of Aram came with 24 a small company of men, the LORD delivered a very great host into their hand, because they had forsaken the LORD GOD of their fathers. So they executed judgment against Yo'ash. And 25 when they were departed from him, (for they left him in great diseases,) his own servants conspired against him for the blood of the sons of Yehoyada the priest, and slew him in his bed, and he died : and they buried him in the city of David, but they did not bury him in the tombs of the kings. And these are they 26 who conspired against him ; Zavad the son of Shim'at an 'Ammonite woman, and Yehozavad the son of Shimrit a Moavite woman. Now concerning his sons, and the greatness of the burdens laid 27 upon him, and the repairing of the house of GOD, behold, they are written in the commentary of the book of the kings. And Amaẓyahu his son reigned in his stead. Amaẓyahu was 25 twenty five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty nine years in Yerushalayim. And his mother's name was Yeho'addan of Yerushalayim. And he did that which was right 2 in the sight of the LORD, but not with a perfect heart. Now it 3 came to pass, when the kingdom was established to him, that he slew his servants who had killed the king his father. But he 4 did not slay their children, but did as it is written in the Tora, in the book of Moshe, where the LORD commanded, saying, Fathers shall not die for children, nor shall children die for fathers, but every man shall die for his own sin. Moreover 5 Amaẓyahu gathered Yehuda together, and made them captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, according to the houses of their fathers, throughout all Yehuda and Binyamin: and he numbered them from twenty years old and upwards, and found them three hundred thousand choice men, able to go out to war, that could handle spear and shield. He hired also 6 a hundred thousand mighty men at arms out of Yisra'el for a hundred talents of silver. But there came a man of God to him, 7 saying, O king, let not the army of Yisra'el go with thee; for the LORD is not with Yisra'el, with all these children of Efrayim.

But if thou wilt go, and even if thou engage valiantly in the 8 battle: God shall make thee fall before the enemy: for God has power to help, and to cast down. And Amaẓyahu said to the man 9 of God, But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the army of Yisra'el? And the man of God answered, The LORD is able to give thee much more than this.
Then Amaẓyahu separated them, namely that army that was 10 come to him out of Efrayim, and bade them go home again: so that their anger burned strongly against Yehuda, and they returned home in great anger. And Amaẓyahu strength- 11 ened himself, and led his people, and went to the valley of salt, and smote ten thousand of the children of Se'ir. And another 12 ten thousand did the children of Yehuda carry away alive captive, and brought them to the top of the rock, and they cast them down from the top of the rock, so that they all were broken in pieces.

But the soldiers of the army which Amaẓyahu sent back, 13 so that they should not go with him to battle, fell upon the cities of Yehuda, from Shomeron as far as Bet-ḥoron, and smote three thousand of them, and took much spoil. Now it came to 14 pass, after Amaẓyahu was come from the slaughter of the Adomim, that he brought the gods of the children of Se'ir, and set them up to be his gods, and prostrated himself before them, and burned incense to them. So that the anger of the LORD burned 15 against Amaẓyahu, and he sent to him a prophet, who said to him, Why hast thou sought after the gods of the people, who could not deliver their own people out of thy hand? And it came 16 to pass, as he talked with him, that the king said to him, Have we made thee of the king's counsel? forbear; why shouldst thou be smitten? Then the prophet ceased, and said, I know that God has determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkened to my counsel. Then Amaẓyahu 17 king of Yehuda took advice, and sent to Yo'ash, the son of Yeho'aḥaz, the son of Yehu, king of Yisra'el, saying, Come, let us see one another in the face. And Yo'ash king of Yisra'el sent to 18 Amaẓyahu king of Yehuda, saying, The thistle that was in the Levanon sent to the cedar that was in the Levanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by a wild beast that was in the Levanon, and trampled down the thistle.
Thou sayst, Lo, thou hast smitten Edom; and thy heart has lifted 19 thee up to boast: stay now at home; why shouldst thou meddle with evil, that thou shouldst fall, thou, and Yehuda with thee?
But Amaẓyahu would not hear; for it came of God, that he might 20 deliver them into the hand of their enemies, because they sought after the gods of Edom. So Yo'ash the king of Yisra'el went up ; 21 so they looked one another in the face, both he and Amaẓyahu king of Yehuda, at Bet-shemesh, which belongs to Yehuda. And 22 Yehuda was beaten before Yisra'el, and they fled every man to his tent. And Yo'ash the king of Yisra'el took Amaẓyahu king 23 of Yehuda, the son of Yo'ash, the son of Yeho'aḥaz, at Betshemesh, and brought him to Yerushalayim, and broke down the wall of Yerushalayim from the gate of Efrayim to the corner gate, four hundred cubits. And he took all the gold and the 24 silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with 'Oved-edom, and the treasures of the king's house, together with the hostages, and returned to Shomeron. And Amaẓ- 25 yahu the son of Yo'ash king of Yehuda lived after the death of Yo'ash son of Yeho'aḥaz king of Yisra'el fifteen years. Now 26 the rest of the acts of Amaẓyahu, first and last, behold, are they not written in the book of the kings of Yehuda and Yisra'el ? Now after the time that Amaẓyahu turned away from 27 following the Lord they made a conspiracy against him in Yerushalayim ; and he fled to Lakhish : but they sent to Lakhish after him, and slew him there. And they brought him upon 28 horses, and buried him with his fathers in the city of Yehuda.

Then all the people of Yehuda took 'Uzziyyahu, who was 26 sixteen years old, and made him king in the place of his father Amaẓyahu. He built Elot, and restored it to Yehuda, after the 2 king slept with his fathers.
Sixteen years old was 'Uzziyyahu when he began to reign, and 3 he reigned for fifty two years in Yerushalayim. And his mother's name was Yekholya of Yerushalayim. And he did that which 4 was right in the sight of the Lord, according to all that his father Amaẓyahu had done. And he sought God in the days Zekharyahu, 5 who had understanding in the visions of God : and as long as he sought the Lord, God made him prosper. And he went forth 6 and warred against the Pelishtim, and broke down the wall of Gat, and the wall of Yavne, and the wall of Ashdod, and built cities about Ashdod, and among the Pelishtim. And God helped 7 him against the Pelishtim, and against the 'Arvim who dwelt in Gur-ba'al, and the Me'unim. And the 'Ammonim rendered tribute 8 to 'Uzziyyahu, and his name spread abroad to the entrance of Miẓrayim ; for he strengthened himself exceedingly. Moreover 9 'Uzziyahu built towers in Yerushalayim, at the corner gate, and at the valley gate, and at the angle of the wall, and fortified them. And he built towers in the desert, and dug many wells : 10 for he had much cattle, both in the lowland, and in the plains :
he had farmers, and vinedressers in the mountains, and in the Karmel : for he loved the soil. Moreover 'Uzziyyahu 11 had a host of fighting men, who went out to war by bands, according to the number of their account by the hand of Ye'i'el the scribe and Ma'aseyahu the ruler, under the hand of Ḥanan-yahu, one of the king's captains. The whole number of the heads 12 of the fathers' houses of the mighty men at arms was two thousand six hundred. And under their hand was an army, three 13 hundred and seven thousand five hundred, who made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy. And 'Uzziyya- 14 hu prepared for them throughout all the host shields, and spears, and helmets, and coats of mail, and bows, and stones for slinging.

And in Yerushalayim he made engines, invented by skilful men, 15 to be on the towers and upon the bulwarks, to shoot arrows and great stones. And his name spread far abroad; for he was marvellously helped, till he was strong. But when he was strong, 16 his heart was lifted up to his destruction: for he transgressed against the LORD his GOD, and went into the temple of the LORD to burn incense upon the altar of incense. And 'Azaryahu the 17 priest went in after him and with him eighty priests of the LORD, who were men of valour: and they withstood 'Uzziyahu 18 the king, and said to him, It is not for thee, 'Uzziyyahu, to burn incense to the LORD, but for the priests the sons of Aharon, who are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary; for thou hast trespassed; for it shall not be for thy honour from the LORD GOD. Then 'Uzziyyahu was angry, and had a censer 19 in his hand to burn incense: and while he was angry with the priests, the ẓara'at broke out on his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD, beside the incense altar. And 'Azaryahu 20 the chief priest, and all the priests, looked upon him, and, behold, he was diseased in his forehead, and they thrust him out quickly from there; and he himself hastened to go out, because the LORD had smitten him. And 'Uzziyyahu the king was afflicted with 21 ẓara'at to the day of his death, and dwelt in the house of separation, being diseased; for he was cut off from the house of the LORD: and Yotam his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land. Now the rest of the acts of 22
'Uzziyyahu, first and last, did Yesha'yahu the prophet, the son of Amoẓ, write. So 'Uzziyyahu slept with his fathers, and they 23 buried him with his fathers in the field of burial which belonged to the kings; for they said, He is diseased: and Yotam his son reigned in his stead. Yotam was twenty five years old 27 when he began to reign, and he reigned for sixteen years in Yerushalayim. And his mother's name was Yerusha, the daughter of Ẓadoq. And he did that which was right in the sight of the 2 LORD, according to all that his father 'Uzziyyahu had done: but he did not enter into the temple of the LORD. and the people still acted corruptly. He built the high gate of the house of the 3 LORD, and on the wall of the 'Ofel he built much. And he built 4 cities in the mountains of Yehuda, and in the forests he built castles and towers. And he fought with the king of the children 5 of 'Ammon, and prevailed against them. And the children of 'Ammon gave him in the same year a hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. So much did the children of 'Ammon pay to him, also in the second year, and the third. So Yotam became 6 mighty, because he directed his ways aright before the LORD his GOD. Now the rest of the acts of Yotam, and all his wars, and his 7 ways, lo, they are written in the book of the kings of Yisra'el and Yehuda. He was twenty five years old when he began to reign, 8 and reigned for sixteen years in Yerushalayim. And Yotam slept 9 with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Aḥaz his son reigned in his stead. Aḥaz was twenty years old 1 when he began to reign, and he reigned for sixteen years in Yerushalayim: but he did not do that which was right in the sight of the LORD, like David his father: for he followed the 2 ways of the kings of Yisra'el, and made also molten images for the Be'alim. Moreover he burnt incense in the valley of the 3 son of Hinnom, and burnt his children in the fire, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Yisra'el. And he sacrificed and burnt 4 incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree. So that the LORD his GOD delivered him into the 5 hand of the king of Aram; and they smote him, and carried away a great multitude of them captives, and brought them to Darmeseq. And he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Yisra'el, who smote him with a great slaughter.

For Peqaḥ the son of Remalyahu slew in Yehuda a 6 hundred and twenty thousand in one day, who were all valiant men; because they had forsaken the LORD GOD of their fathers.

And Zikhri, a mighty man of Efrayim, slew Ma'aseyahu 7 the king's son, and 'Azriqam the governor of the house, and Elqana who was next to the king. And the children of 8 Yisra'el carried away captive of their brethren two hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and took also away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Shomeron.

But a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was 9
'Oded: and he went out before the army that came to Shomeron, and he said to them, Behold, because the LORD GOD of your fathers was angry with Yehuda, he has delivered them into your hand, and you have slain them in rage that reaches up to heaven. And now you purpose to keep under the children 10 of Yehuda and Yerushalayim to be bondmen and bondwomen to you: but are there not with you, even with you, crimes against the LORD you GOD? Now hear me therefore, and release 11 the captives whom you have taken captive of your brethren: for the fierce wrath of the LORD is upon you. Then certain 12 of the heads of the children of Efrayim, 'Azaryahu the son of Yehoḥanan, Berekhyahu the son of Meshillemot, and Yeḥizqiyyahu the son of Shallum, and 'Amasa the son of Ḥadlay, stood up against those who came from the war. And they said to 13 them, You shall not bring in the captives here: for whereas we have offended against the LORD already, you intend to add more to our sins and to our guilt: for our trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Yisra'el. So the armed 14 men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the congregation. And the men who were expressly named 15 rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all who were naked among them, and dressed them, and shod them, and gave them to eat and to drink, and anointed them, and carried all the feeble ones of them upon asses, and brought them to Yereḥo, the city of palmtrees, to their brethren: then they returned to Shomeron. At that time king Aḥaz sent 16 to the kings of Ashshur to help him. For again the Adomim 17 had come and smitten Yehuda, and carried away captives. And 18 the Pelishtim had invaded the cities of the coastal plain, and of the south of Yehuda, and had taken Bet-shemesh, and Ayyalon, and Gederot, and Sokho with its hamlets, and Timna and its hamlets, and Gimzo and its hamlets: and they dwelt there. For 19 the LORD brought Yehuda low because of Aḥaz king of Yisra'el; for he caused disorder in Yehuda, and transgressed greatly against the LORD. And Tiglat-pilne'eser king of Ashshur came to 20 him, and distressed him, but did not strengthen him. For Aḥaz 21 took away a portion out of the house of the LORD, and out of the house of the king, and of the princes, and gave it to the king of Ashshur: but he did not help him. And in the 22 time of his distress he trespassed still more against the LORD: this is that king Aḥaz. For he sacrificed to the gods of Darmeseq, 23 who smote him: and he said, Because the gods of the kings of Aram help them, I will sacrifice to them, that they may help me. But they were the ruin of him, and of all Yisra'el. And 24 Aḥaz gathered together the vessels of the house of GOD, and cut in pieces the vessels of the house of GOD, and shut up the doors of the house of the LORD, and he made himself altars in every corner of Yerushalayim. And in every city of Yehuda 25 he made high places to burn incense to other gods, and provoked to anger the LORD GOD of his fathers. Now the rest of his acts 26 and of all his ways, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Yehuda and Yisra'el. And Aḥaz slept 27 with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, in Yerushalayim: but they did not bring him into the tombs of the kings of Yisra'el: and Yeḥizqiyyahu his son reigned in his stead.

Yeḥizqiyyahu began to reign when he was twenty five 29 years old, and he reigned twenty nine years in Yerushalayim. And his mother's name was Aviyya, the daughter of Zekharyahu. And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, 2 according to all that David his father had done. He in the first 3 year of his reign, in the first month, opened the doors of the house of the LORD, and repaired them. And he brought in the 4 priests and the Levites, and gathered them together into the east street, and he said to them, Hear me, you Levites, sanctify 5 yourselves now, and sanctify the house of the LORD GOD of your fathers, and carry out the filth from the holy place. For our 6 fathers trespassed, and did that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD our GOD, and forsook him, and turned away their faces from the habitation of the LORD, and turned their backs. Also they shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, 7 and did not burn incense or offer burnt offerings in the holy place to the GOD of Yisra'el. So that the fury of the LORD came 8 upon Yehuda and Yerushalayim, and he delivered them to horror, to astonishment, and to hissing, as you see with your eyes. For lo, our fathers fell by the sword, and our sons and our 9 daughters and our wives are in captivity for this. Now it is in 10 my heart to make a covenant with the LORD GOD of Yisra'el, that his fierce wrath may turn away from us. My sons, be not now 11 negligent: for the LORD has chosen you to stand before him, to serve him, and that you should minister to him, and burn incense. Then the Levites arose, Maḥat the son of 'Ama- 12

Shim'i: and of the sons of Yedutun; Shema'ya, and 'Uzzi'el. And 15 they gathered their brethren, and sanctified themselves, and came, according to the commandment of the king, by the words of the LORD, to cleanse the house of the LORD. And the priests 16 went into the inner part of the house of the LORD, to cleanse it, and they brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the LORD into the court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took it, to carry it outside into the wadi of Qidron. Now they began on the first day of the first month 17 to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month they came to the porch of the LORD: so they sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days; and on the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end. Then they went in to Ḥizqiyyahu the 18 king, and said, We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, and the altar of burnt offering, with all its vessels, and the showbread table, with all its vessels. Moreover all the vessels, 19 which king Aḥaz in his reign did cast away in his transgression, we have prepared and sanctified, and behold, they are before the altar of the LORD. Then Yeḥizqiyyahu the king rose 20 early, and gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD. And they brought seven bullocks, and seven 21 rams, and seven lambs, and seven he goats, for a sin offering for the kingdom, and for the sanctuary, and for Yehuda. And he commanded the priests the sons of Aharon to offer them on the altar of the LORD. So they killed the bullocks, and the 22 priests received the blood, and sprinkled it on the altar: likewise, when they had killed the rams, they sprinkled the blood upon the altar: and they slaughtered the lambs, and they sprinkled the blood upon the altar. And they presented the he 23 goats for the sin offering before the king and the congregation; and they laid their hands upon them: and the priests killed 24 them, and they made a sin offering with their blood upon the altar, to make atonement for all Yisra'el: for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all Yisra'el. And he set the Levites in the house 25 of the LORD with cymbals, with lutes, and with lyres, according to the commandment of David, and of Gad the king's seer, and Natan the prophet: for so was the commandment of the LORD by his prophets.
And the Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the 26 priests with the trumpets. And Ḥizqiyyahu commanded 27 to offer the burnt offering upon the altar. And when the burnt offering began, the song of the LORD began also with the trumpets, and with the instruments of David king of Yisra'el. And all the congregation prostrated themselves, and the singers 28 sang, and the trumpeters sounded: and all this continued until the burnt offering was finished. And when they had made 29 an end of offering, the king and all who were present with him bowed down, and prostrated themselves. Moreover Yeḥizqiyyahu 30 the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praise to the LORD with the words of David, and of Asaf the seer. And they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped. Then Yeḥizqiyyahu answered and said, 31

Now you have consecrated yourselves to the LORD, come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of the LORD. And the congregation brought in sacrifices and thank offerings; and all who were of a willing heart brought burnt offerings. And the number of the burnt offerings, which the 32 congregation brought, was seventy bullocks, a hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD. And the consecrated things were six hundred oxen 33 and three thousand sheep. But the priests were too few, so 34 that they could not flay all the burnt offerings: so that their brethren the Levites did help them, till the work was ended, and until the other priests had sanctified themselves: for the Levites were more upright in heart than the priests in sanctifying themselves. And also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with 35 the fat of the peace offerings, and the drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the house of the LORD was 36 firmly established. And Yeḥizqiyyahu rejoiced, and all the people, because of what GOD had prepared for the people: for the thing was done suddenly. And Yeḥizqiyyahu sent to all 30 Yisra'el and Yehuda, and wrote letters also to Efrayim and Menashshe, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Yerushalayim, to keep the passover to the LORD GOD of Yisra'el. For the king had taken counsel, and his princes, and all the 2 congregation in Yerushalayim, to keep the passover in the second month. For they could not keep it in its time, because 3 the priests had not sanctified themselves sufficiently, nor had the people gathered themselves together to Yerushalayim. And 4 the thing pleased the king and all the congregation. So they 5 established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Yisra'el, from Be'er-sheva as far as Dan, that they should come to keep the passover to the LORD GOD of Yisra'el at Yerushalayim. for they had not done it for long as it was written. So 6 the runners went with the letters from the king and his princes throughout all Yisra'el and Yehuda, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, You children of Yisra'el, turn back to the LORD GOD of Avraham, Yiẓḥaq, and Yisra'el, and he will turn again to the remnant of you, who have escaped out of the hand of the kings of Ashshur. And be not like your 7 fathers, and like your brethren, who trespassed against the LORD GOD of their fathers, who therefore gave them up to desolation, as you see. Now be not stiffnecked, as your fathers were, but 8 yield yourselves to the LORD, and enter into his sanctuary, which he has sanctified for ever: and worship the LORD your GOD, so that the fierceness of his anger may turn away from you. For if you return to the LORD, your brethren and your 9 children shall find compassion before those who led them away captive, so that they shall come back into this land: for the

LORD your GOD is gracious and merciful, and he will not turn away his face from you, if you return to him. 10 So the runners passed from city to city through the country of Efrayim and Menashshe as far as Zevulun: but they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them. 11 Nevertheless certain men of Asher and Menashshe and of Zevulun humbled themselves, and came to Yerushalayim. 12 The hand of GOD was also upon Yehuda to give them one heart to do the commandment of the king and of the princes, by the word of the LORD. 13 And there assembled at Yerushalayim a numerous concourse to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great congregation. 14 And they arose and took away the altars that were in Yerushalayim, and all the altars for incense they took away, and cast them into the wadi of Qidron. 15 Then they killed the paschal lamb on the fourteenth day of the second month: and the priests and the Levites were ashamed, and they sanctified themselves, and brought in the burnt offerings into the house of the LORD. 16 And they stood in their place according to the form prescribed for them, according to the Tora of Moshe the man of GOD: the priests sprinkled the blood, which they received from the hand of the Levites. 17 For there were many in the congregation who were not sanctified: therefore the Levites had the charge of the killing of the paschal lambs for every one who was not clean, to sanctify them to the LORD. 18 For a multitude of the people, many of Efrayim, and Menashshe, Yissakhar, and Zevulun had not cleansed themselves, so that they did eat the passover otherwise than it was written. But Yeḥizqiyyahu prayed for them, saying, The good LORD pardon 19 every one who directs his heart to seek GOD, the LORD GOD of his fathers, though he be not cleansed according to the purification of the sanctuary.

20 And the LORD hearkened to Yeḥizqiyyahu, and healed the people. 21 And the children of Yisra'el who were present at Yerushalayim kept the feast of unleavened bread for seven days with great gladness: and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day, singing with loud instruments to the LORD.

22 And Yeḥizqiyyahu spoke encouragement to all the Levites who displayed good sense in the service of the LORD: and they did eat the food of the festival for seven days, offering peace offerings, and giving thanks to the LORD GOD of their fathers.

23 And the whole assembly took counsel to keep another seven days: and they kept another seven days with gladness. 24 For Ḥizqiyyahu king of Yehuda did give to the congregation a thousand bullocks and seven thousand sheep; and the princes gave to the congregation a thousand bullocks and ten thousand sheep: and a great number of priests sanctified themselves. 25 And all the congregation of Yehuda, with the priests and the Levites, and all the congregation that came out of Yisra'el, and the strangers who came out of the land of Yisra'el, and who dwelt in Yehuda, rejoiced. 26 So there was great joy in Yerushalayim: for since the time of Shelomo the son of David king of Yisra'el there was not the like in Yerushalayim. 27 Then the priests the Levites arose and blessed the people: and their voice was heard, and their prayer came up to his holy dwelling place, to heaven. Now when all this was finished, all Yisra'el 1 that were present went out to the cities of Yehuda, and broke the images in pieces, and cut down the asherim, and broke down the high places and the altars out of all Yehuda and Binyamin, in Efrayim also and Menashshe, until they had destroyed them all. Then all the children of Yisra'el returned, every man to his possession, to their own cities. And Yeḥizqiyyahu 2 appointed the duty watches of the priests and the Levites after their divisions, every man according to his service, the priests and the Levites for burnt offerings and for peace offerings, to minister, and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the tents of the LORD. He appointed also the king's portion of 3 his substance for the burnt offerings, that is, for the morning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the appointed seasons, as it is written in the Tora of the LORD. Moreover he commanded the 4 people who dwelt in Yerushalayim to give the portion of the priests and the Levites, that they might adhere firmly to the Tora of the LORD. And as soon as the commandment came 5 abroad, the children of Yisra'el brought in abundance the firstfruits of corn, wine, and oil, and honey, and of all the increase of the field; and they brought in the tithe of all things in plenty.

And concerning the children of Yisra'el and Yehuda, who dwelt 6 in the cities of Yehuda, they also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the tithe of holy things which were consecrated to the LORD their GOD, and laid them up by heaps. In the 7 the third month the heaps began to pile up, and in the seventh month they were finished. And Yeḥizqiyyahu and the 8 princes came and saw the heaps, and they blessed the LORD, and his people Yisra'el. Then Yeḥizqiyyahu questioned the 9 priests and the Levites concerning the heaps. And 'Azaryahu the 10 the chief priest of the house of Ẓadoq answered him, and said, Since the people began to bring the offerings into the house of the LORD, we have had enough to eat, and have left plenty: for the LORD has blessed his people; and that which is left is this great store. Then Yeḥizqiyyahu commanded to prepare 11 chambers in the house of the LORD; and they prepared them.
And they brought in the offerings and the tithes and the dedica- 12 ted things faithfully: over which Kananyahu the Levite was ruler, and Shim'i his brother was second. And Yeḥi'el, and 13
'Azazyahu, and Naḥat, and 'Asa'el, and Yerimot, and Yozavad, and Eli'el, and Yismakhyahu, and Maḥat, and Benayahu, were overseers under the hand of Kananyahu and Shim'i his brother, at the commandment of Yeḥizqiyyahu the king, and 'Azaryahu the ruler of the house of GOD. And Qore the son of Yimna the 14 Levite, the gatekeeper towards the east, was over the freewill offerings of GOD, to distribute the offerings of the LORD, and the most holy things. And next him, were 'Eden, and Minyamin, 15 and Yeshua, and Shema'yahu, Amaryahu and Shekhanyahu, in the cities of the priests, faithfully entrusted to give their portions to their brethren by divisions, old and young alike; besides 16 their duty to register the males for their service in their charges according to their divisions, from three years old and upward, including everyone who entered into the house of the LORD for the service of each day; and to register the priests by the 17 houses of their fathers, and the Levites from twenty years old upwards, in their charges by their divisions; they had also the 18 duty of registering them by genealogy with all their little ones, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, through all the congregation: for in their office of trust they sanctified themselves in holiness. Also for the sons of Aharon the priests, who 19 were in the fields of pasture land belonging to their cities, in every city, there were men who were expressly named, to give portions to all the males among the priests, and to all who were reckoned by genealogies among the Levites. And thus did 20 Yeḥizqiyyahu do throughout all Yehuda, and he did that which was good and right and true before the LORD his GOD. And in 21 every work that he began in the service of the house of GOD, and in the Tora, and in the commandment, to seek his GOD, he did it with all his heart, and he prospered.

After these things and these deeds of integrity, Sanḥeriv king of 32 Ashshur came, and entered into Yehuda, and encamped against the fortified cities, and thought to win them for himself. And 2 when Yeḥizqiyyahu saw that Sanḥeriv was come, and that he intended to fight against Yerushalayim, he took counsel with his 3 princes and his mighty men to stop the water of the springs which were outside the city: and they helped him. So a great 4 many people were gathered together, who stopped up all the springs, and also the wadi that ran through the midst of the land, saying, Why should the kings of Ashshur come, and find much water? Also he took courage, and built up all the wall that was 5 broken, and raised it up to the towers, and another wall outside that, and he strengthened the Millo in the city of David, and made weapons and shields in abundance. And he set captains of 6 war over the people, and gathered them together to him in the road place at the gate of the city, and spoke encouragement to them saying, Be strong and courageous, be not afraid or dis- 7 mayed on account of the king of Ashshur, or on account of the multitude that is with him: for there are more with us than with him: with him is an arm of flesh; but with us is the LORD 8 our GOD to help us, and to fight our battles. And the people took confidence from the words of Yeḥizqiyyahu king of Yehuda.

After this Sanḥeriv king of Ashshur sent his servants to 9 Yerushalayim, (for he himself laid siege to Lakhish, and all his power with him,) to Yeḥizqiyyahu king of Yehuda, and to all Yehuda who were at Yerushalayim, saying, Thus says Sanḥeriv 10 king of Ashshur, On what do you trust, that you stand siege in Yerushalayim? Is not Yeḥizqiyyahu persuading you to give 11 yourselves over to die by famine and by thirst, saying, The LORD our GOD shall deliver us out of the hand of the king of Ashshur?
Has not the same Yeḥizqiyyahu taken away his high places and 12 his altars, and commanded Yehuda and Yerushalayim, saying,
You shall worship before one altar, and burn incense upon it?
Do you not know what I and my fathers have done to all the 13 peoples of other lands? were the gods of the nations of those lands in any way able to deliver their lands out of my hand?

Who among all the gods of those nations which my fathers 14 utterly destroyed, could deliver his people out of my hand, that your GOD should be able to deliver you out of my hand? Now 15 therefore let not Ḥizqiyyahu deceive you, or persuade you in this manner, and do not believe him: for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of my hand, and out of the hand of my fathers: how much less shall your GOD deliver you out of my hand? And his servants spoke yet more 16 against the LORD GOD, and against his servant Yeḥizqiyyahu.
He also wrote letters to insult the LORD GOD of Yisra'el, and to 17 speak against him, saying, As the gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people out of my hand, so shall the GOD of Yeḥizqiyyahu not deliver his people out of my hand.
Then they cried with a loud voice in the language of Yehuda to 18 the people of Yerushalayim who were on the wall, to affright them, and to terrify them; that they might take the city. And 19 they spoke against the GOD of Yerushalayim, as against the gods of the peoples of the earth, which were the work of the hands of man. And for this Yeḥizqiyyahu the king, and the 20 prophet Yesha'yahu the son of Amoz, prayed and cried to heaven. And the LORD sent an angel, who cut off all the 21 mighty men at arms, and the leaders and captains in the camp of the king of Ashshur. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he was come into the house of his god, his own offspring slew him there with the sword. Thus the LORD 22 saved Yeḥizqiyyahu and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim from the hand of Sanḥeriv the king of Ashshur, and from the hand of all other, and guided them on every side. And many brought 23 tribute to the Lord to Yerushalayim, and presents to Yeḥizqiyyahu king of Yehuda: so that he was magnified in the sight of all nations from thenceforth.
In those days Yeḥizqiyyahu fell mortally sick, and he prayed to 24 the LORD: and he spoke to him, and he gave him a sign. But 25 Yeḥizqiyyahu did not pay back according to the benefit done to him; for his heart was proud: therefore wrath came upon him, and upon Yehuda and Yerushalayim. Nevertheless Yeḥizqiyyahu 26 did humble himself for the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim, so that the wrath of the LORD did not come upon them in the days of Yeḥizqiyyahu. And Yeḥiz- 27 qiyyahu had very much riches and honour: and he made himself treasuries for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all manner of choice vessels; storehouses also for the increase of corn, and wine, and oil; and 28 stables for all manner of beasts, and folds for sheep. Moreover 29 he provided cities, and possessions of flocks and herds for himself in abundance: for GOD had given him very great substance. This same Yeḥizqiyyahu also stopped up the upper 30 watercourse of Giḥon, and brought it straight down to the west side of the city of David. And Yeḥizqiyyahu prospered in all his works. Howbeit in the matter of the ambassadors of the princes 31 of Bavel, who sent to him to inquire of the wonder that was done in the land, GOD left him, to try him, that he might know all that was in his heart. Now the rest of the acts of Yeḥizqiyyahu, 32 and his goodness, behold, they are written in the vision of Yesha'yahu the prophet, the son of Amoz, and in the book of the kings of Yehuda and Yisra'el. And Yeḥizqiyyahu slept with his 33 fathers, and they buried him in the ascent of the tombs of the sons of David: and all Yehuda and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim did him honour at his death. And Menashshe his son reigned in his stead. Menashshe was twelve years old 33 when he began to reign, and he reigned for fifty five years in Yerushalayim: but he did that which was evil in the sight of the 2 LORD, like the abominations of the nations, whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Yisra'el. For he built again the 3 high places which Yeḥizqiyyahu his father had broken down, and he reared up altars for the Be'alim, and made asherot, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served them. Also he 4 built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, In Yerushalayim shall my name be for ever. And he built altars 5 for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD. And he caused his children to pass through the fire in 6 the valley of the son of Hinnom: also he practised divination, and sorcery, and witchcraft, and dealt with mediums, and with wizards: he did much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger. And he sat up a carved idol, the image which he 7 had made, in the house of GOD, of which GOD had said to David and to Shelomo his son, In this house, and in Yerushalayim, which I have chosen before all the tribes of Yisra'el, will I put my name for ever: nor will I remove the foot of Yisra'el again 8 from out of the land which I have appointed for your fathers; if only they will take heed to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole Tora and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand of Moshe. So Menashshe made Yehuda and the 9 inhabitants of Yerushalayim to go astray, and to do worse than the nations, whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Yisra'el. And the LORD spoke to Menashshe, and to his 10 people: but they would not hearken. So that the LORD brought 11 upon them the captains of the host of the king of Ashshur, who took Menashshe among the thorns, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Bavel. And when he was in affliction, he be- 12 sought the LORD his GOD, and humbled himself greatly before the GOD of his fathers, And prayed to him: and he received 13 his entreaty, and heard his supplication, and brought him back to Yerushalayim into his kingdom. Then Menashshe knew that the LORD was GOD. Now after this he built a wall outside the city 14 of David, on the west side of Giḥon, in the wadi, to the entrance by the fish gate, and he built it round the 'Ofel, and raised it to a very great height, and put captains of war in all the fortified cities of Yehuda. And he took away the strange gods, and the 15 idol out of the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mountain of the house of the LORD, and in Yerushalayim, and cast them out of the city. And he repaired the altar of 16 the LORD, and sacrificed on it peace offerings and thank offerings, and commanded Yehuda to serve the LORD GOD of Yisra'el. Nevertheless the people still sacrificed in the high places, albeit 17 to the LORD their GOD only. Now the rest of the acts of 18

Menashshe, and his prayer to his GOD, and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the name of the LORD GOD of Yisra'el, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Yisra'el.
His prayer also, and how it was accepted, and all his sins, and 19 his trespass, and the places on which he built high places, and set up asherim and carved idols before he humbled himself: behold, they are written among the sayings of the seers. So 20 Menashshe slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.
Amon was twenty two years old when he began to reign, and 21 he reigned two years in Yerushalayim. But he did that which was 22 evil in the sight of the LORD, as did Menashshe his father: for Amon sacrificed to all the carved idols which Menashshe his father had made, and served them; and he did not humble 23 himself before the LORD, as Menashshe his father had humbled himself; but Amon trespassed more and more. And his servants 24 conspired against him, and slew him in his own house. But the 25 people of the land slew all those who had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Yoshiyyahu his son king in his stead.
Yoshiyyahu was eight years old when he began to reign, and 34 he reigned in Yerushalayim for thirty one years. And he did 2 that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and followed in the ways of David his father, declining neither to the right hand, nor to the left.
For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was still young, 3 he began to seek after the GOD of David his father: and in the twelfth year he began to purge Yehuda and Yerushalayim of the highplaces, and the asherim, and the carved idols, and the molten images. And they broke down the altars of the Be'alim 4 in his presence; and the sun images, that were on high above them, he cut down; and the asherim, and the carved idols, and the molten images, he broke in pieces, and made dust of them, and strewed it upon the graves of those who had sacrificed to them. And he burnt the bones of the priests upon their altars, 5 and cleansed Yehuda and Yerushalayim. And so he did in the 6 cities of Menashshe, and Efrayim, and Shim'on even to Naftali, in their ruins round about. And when he had broken down the 7 altars and the asherim, and had beaten the carved idols into dust, and cut down all the sun images throughout all the land of Yisra'el, he returned to Yerushalayim. Now in the eighteenth 8 year of his reign, when he had purged the land, and the house, he sent Shafan the son of Aẓalyahu, and Ma'aseyahu the governor of the city, and Yo'aḥ the son of Yo'aḥaz the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his GOD. And when they came to 9 Ḥilqiyyahu the high priest, they delivered the money that was brought into the house of GOD, which the Levites who kept the doors had gathered from the hand of Menashshe and Efrayim, and from all the remnant of Yisra'el, and from all Yehuda and Binyamin; and they returned to Yerushalayim. And they put 10 it in the hand of the workmen who had the oversight of the house of the LORD, and they gave it to the workmen who were employed in the house of the LORD, to repair and mend the house: to the carpenters and builders they gave it, to buy hewn 11 stone, and timber for couplings, and to make beams for the houses which the kings of Yehuda had destroyed. And 12 the men did the work faithfully: and their overseers were Yaḥat and 'Ovadyahu the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zekharya and Meshullam, of the sons of the Qehatim, to supervise it; and other of the Levites, all who had skill in instruments of music. Also they were over bearers of burdens, and they 13 had control over all who were employed in the work in any manner of service: and of the Levites there were scribes, and officers, and gatekeepers. And when they brought out the money 14 that was brought into the house of the LORD, Ḥilqiyyahu the priest found a book of the Tora of the LORD given by Moshe.

And Ḥilqiyyahu answered and said to Shafan the scribe, I have 15 found a book of the Tora in the house of the LORD. And Ḥilqiyyahu delivered the book to Shafan. And Shafan carried the book to 16 the king, and further brought the king word back, saying, All that was committed to thy servants they are doing. And they 17 have poured out the money that was found in the house of the LORD, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and into the hand of the workmen. Then Shafan the scribe told 18 the king, saying, Ḥilqiyyahu the priest has given me a book. And Shafan read it before the king. And it came to pass, when the 19 king had heard the words of the Tora, that he rent his clothes.
And the king commanded Ḥilqiyyahu, and Aḥiqam the son of 20 Shafan, and 'Avdon the son of Mikha, and Shafan the scribe, and 'Asaya a servant of the king's, saying, Go, inquire of the LORD 21 for me, and for those who are left in Yisra'el and in Yehuda, concerning the words of the book that is found: for great is the wrath of the LORD that is poured out upon us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to do according to all that is written in this book. And Ḥilqiyyahu, and they 22 whom the king had appointed, went to Ḥulda the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Toqhat, the son of Ḥasra, keeper of the wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Yerushalayim in the second quarter:) and they spoke to her to that effect. And she said to 23 them, Thus says the LORD GOD of Yisra'el, Tell the man who sent you to me,
Thus says the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, 24 and upon its inhabitants, namely, all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Yehuda:
because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense 25 to other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore my wrath shall be poured out upon this place, and shall not be quenched. And as for the 26 king of Yehuda, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, so shall you say to him, Thus says the LORD GOD of Yisra'el concerning the words which thou hast heard; Because thy 27 heart was submissive, and thou didst humble thyself before GOD, when thou didst hear his words against this place, and against its inhabitants, and didst humble thyself before me, and didst rend thy clothes, and weep before me; I also have heard thee, says the LORD. Behold, I will gather thee to thy 28 fathers, and thou shalt be gathered to thy grave in peace, and thy eyes shall not see all the evil that I will bring upon this place, and upon its inhabitants. So they brought back word to the king. Then the king sent and gathered together all the 29 elders of Yehuda and Yerushalayim. And the king went up into the house of the LORD, and all the men of Yehuda, and 30 the inhabitants of Yerushalayim, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people, old and young: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in the house of the LORD. And the king stood in his place, and made 31 the covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant which are written in this book. And he caused 32 all who were present in Yerushalayim and Binyamin to stand to it. And the inhabitants of Yerushalayim did according to the covenant of GOD, the GOD of their fathers. And Yoshiyyahu 33 removed all the abominations out of all the territories that belonged to the children of Yisra'el and he enforced all that were present in Yisra'el to serve the LORD their GOD. And all his days they departed not from following the LORD, the GOD of their fathers. Moreover Yoshiyyahu kept a passover to 35 the LORD in Yerushalayim: and they killed the paschal lamb on the fourteenth day of the first month. And he set the priests 2 in their watches, and encouraged them to the service of the house of the LORD, and he said to the Levites who taught all 3 Yisra'el, who were holy to the LORD, Put the holy ark in the house which Shelomo the son of David king of Yisra'el did build; you need no longer carry it upon your shoulders: serve now the LORD your GOD, and his people Yisra'el, and prepare 4 yourselves by the houses of your fathers, according to your divisions, according to the writing of David king of Yisra'el, and according to the writing of Shelomo his son. And stand in 5 the holy place according to the sections of the families of the fathers' houses of your brethren the people, and according the division of the families of the Levites. So kill the paschal lamb, 6 and sanctify yourselves, and prepare your brethren, that they may do according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moshe. And Yoshiyyahu gave to the people, 7 of the flock, lambs and kids, all for the paschal offerings, for all who were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bullocks: these were of the king's substance. And his princes gave willingly to the people, 8 to the priests, and to the Levites. Ḥilqiyya and Zekharya and Yeḥi'el, rulers of the house of GOD, gave to the priests for the paschal offerings two thousand six hundred small cattle, and three hundred oxen. And Kananyahu, and Shema'yahu, and 9 Netan'el, his brethren, and Ḥashavyahu, and Ye'i'el, and Yozavad, chiefs of the Levites, gave to the Levites for paschal offerings five thousand small cattle, and five hundred oxen. So the service 10 was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the Levites in their divisions, according to the king's commandment. And 11 they killed the paschal lambs, and the priests sprinkled the blood from their hands, and the Levites flayed them. And before 12 they gave them to the divisions of the fathers' houses of the people, they set aside the burnt offering, to offer to the LORD, as it is written in the book of Moshe. And so they did with the oxen. And they roasted the paschal lamb with fire according 13 to the ordinance: but the other holy offerings they boiled in pots, and in cauldrons, and in pans, and carried them swiftly among all the people. And afterwards they made ready for 14 themselves, and for the priests: because the priests the sons of Aharon were busy offering the burnt offerings and the fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the sons of Aharon. And the singers the sons 15 of Asaf were in their place, according to the commandment of David, and Asaf, and Heman, and Yedutun the king's seer; and the gatekeepers were posted at every gate; they might not depart from their service; for their brethren the Levites prepared for them. So all the service of the LORD was prepared on the 16 same day, to keep the passover, and to offer burnt offerings upon the altar of the LORD, according to the commandment of king Yoshiyyahu. And the children of Yisra'el who were present 17 kept the passover at that time, and the feast of unleavened bread for seven days. And there was no passover like that kept in 18 Yisra'el from the days of Shemu'el the prophet; nor did any of the kings of Yisra'el keep such a passover as Yoshiyyahu kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Yehuda and Yisra'el that were present, and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim. In the 19 eighteenth year of the reign of Yoshiyyahu was this passover kept. After all this, when Yoshiyyahu had prepared the temple, 20 Nekho king of Miẓrayim came up to fight against Karkemish by Perat: and Yoshiyyahu went out against him. But he sent 21 ambassadors to him, saying, What have I to do with thee, thou king of Yehuda? I come not against thee this day, but against the house with which I am at war: for GOD commanded me to make haste: forbear from meddling with GOD, who is with me, so that he does not destroy thee. Nevertheless Yoshiyyahu 22 would not turn his face from him, but he sought an opportunity to fight with him, and he did not hearken to the words of Nekho from the mouth of GOD, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo. And the archers shot at king Yoshiyyahu; and the king 23 said to his servants, Get me away; for I am grievously wounded.

So his servants took him out of that chariot, and put him in 24 the second chariot that he had; and they brought him to Yerushalayim, and he died, and was buried in the tombs of his fathers. And all Yehuda and Yerushalayim mourned for Yoshi-yyahu. And Yirmeyahu lamented for Yoshiyyahu: 25 and all the singing men and the singing women spoke of Yoshiyyahu in their laments to this day, and made them an ordinance in Yisra'el: and, behold, they are written in the laments. Now the rest of the acts of Yoshiyyahu, and his good- 26 ness, according to that which was written in the Tora of the LORD, and his deeds, first and last, behold, they are written in the book 27 of the kings of Yisra'el and Yehuda. Then the people of 36 the land took Yeho'aḥaz the son of Yoshiyyahu, and made him king in his father's stead in Yerushalayim. Yeho'aḥaz was twenty 2 three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned for three months in Yerushalayim. And the king of Miẓrayim 3 deposed him at Yerushalayim and mulcted the land a hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold. And the king of Miẓrayim 4 made Elyaqim his brother king over Yehuda and Yerushalayim, and turned his name to Yehoyaqim. And Nekho took Yeho'aḥaz his brother, and carried him to Miẓrayim. Yehoyaqim was 5 twenty five years old when began to reign, and he reigned for eleven years in Yerushalayim: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD his GOD. Against him came up Nevukhad- 6 neẕẕar king of Bavel, and bound him in fetters, to carry him to Bavel. And Nevukhadneẕẕar carried some of the vessels of the 7 house of the LORD to Bavel, and put them in his temple at Bavel.

Now the rest of the acts of Yehoyaqim, and his abominations 8 which he did, and that which was found in him, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Yisra'el and Yehuda: and Yehoyaqim his son reigned in his stead. Yehoyaqim was 9 eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned for three months and ten days in Yerushalayim: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD. And at the return of the year, king 10 Nevukhadneẕẕar sent, and brought him to Bavel, with the goodly vessels of the house of the LORD, and made Ẕidqiyyahu his brother king over Yehuda and Yerushalayim. Ẕidqiyyahu 11 was twenty one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned for eleven years in Yerushalayim. And he did that which was 12 evil in the sight of the LORD his GOD, and did not humble himself before Yirmeyahu the prophet speaking from the mouth of the LORD. And he also rebelled against king Nevukhadneẕẕar, who 13 had made him swear by GOD: and he stiffened his neck, and hardened his heart from turning to the LORD GOD of Yisra'el.
Moreover all the chiefs of the priests, and the people, trans- 14 gressed very much according to all the abominations of the nations; and polluted the house of the LORD which he had hallowed in Yerushalayim. And the LORD GOD of their fathers 15 sent to them by his messengers, from morning till night; because he had compassion on his people, and on his dwelling place: but they mocked the messengers of GOD, and despised his words, 16 and scoffed at his prophets, until the wrath of the LORD mounted against his people, till there was no remedy. So he brought upon 17 them the king of the Kasdim, who slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion either upon young men, or virgins, old men, or feeble: he gave them all into his hand. And all the vessels of the house of GOD, 18 great and small, and the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king, and of his princes; all these he brought to Bavel. And they burnt the house of GOD, and broke down the 19 wall of Yerushalayim, and burnt all its palaces with fire, and destroyed all its choice vessels. And those who had escaped 20 from the sword he carried away into exile to Bavel; where they were servants to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Paras: to fulfil the word of the LORD by the mouth of Yirme- 21 yahu, until the land had made good her sabbaths: for as long as she lay desolate she kept sabbath, to fulfil seventy years.

22 Now in the first year of Koresh king of Paras, so that the word of the LORD spoken by the mouth of Yirmeyahu might be accomplished, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Koresh king of Paras, that he made a proclamation throughout all of his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying, 23 Thus says Koresh king of Paras, The LORD GOD of heaven has given me all the kingdoms of the earth; and he has charged me to build him a house in Yerushayim, which is in Yehuda. Whoever is among you of all his people — the LORD his GOD be with him, and let him go up!

התנ"ך בהוצאת קורן ירושלים בא כדי להחזיר עטרה ליושנה

התנ"ך השלם הראשון יצא לאור בשנת רמ"ח (1488) בשונצינו. כל המדפיסים בזמן ההוא היו יהודים. החל בשנים 1514/17 החלו נוצרים להדפיס את ספרי המקרא, והגדיל מכולם המדפיס הוניציאני הנודע דניאל בומברג.
מ־דורתו השניה רפ"ה/ו (1524/25), הידועה בשם "מקראות גדולות", יצאה לאור בתבנית גדולה עם פירושים ועניני מסורה, ובתבנית קטנה בלי פירושים, והיא יסוד לכל מהדורה חדשה כמעט עד ימינו, לרבות המהדורות שנדפסו בידי יהודים.

מאז יצאו הוצאות רבות של ספרי התנ"ך על ידי מדפיסים נוצריים, ולאחרונה על ידי החברה המיסיונרית "חברת מפיקי כתבי הקודש בבריטניה ובשאר הארצות".

התנ"ך שבהוצאת קורן, ירושלים תשכ"ב, עיקר סגולתה באות שנוצרה במיוחד לשמה, שהוגהה בדיוק רב עפ"י המסורה ע"י מומחים בני סמכא, ונדפסה בתיקונים ובשיפורים טכניים חשובים.

האות תוכננה במיוחד על פי מסורה קדומה והיא מצטיינת במקוריותה. היא נוחה ביותר לקריאה, הואיל והוכנה על סמך ניסיונותיהם של מדעני האופטיקה, וההבדלים שבין האותיות הדומות זו לזו (ב־כ, ג־נ, ס־ם ועוד) מובלטים היטב.
מהדורה זו החזירה לאות ל את צורתה המקורית: היא נדפסה בכל מקום עם צווארה הארוך. ברוב הספרים שנדפסו בדורות האחרונים שובשה האות ל וקולקלה צורתה האופינית. כדי להקטין את הרווח שבין השורות, מטעמים מסחריים, כפפו המדפיסים את צווארה ל, או שאף התיזו את ראשה כשהיה צורך לשים טעם מעליה.

סידור הניקוד והטעמים הוא מן הבעיות החמורות בהדפסת התנ"ך, הואיל וההרכבה של שלוש היחידות — האות, הניקוד והטעם — ליחידה אחת היא בעיה טכנית, שלא עלה בידי הטכניקה של הדפוס להתגבר עליה. ההוצאה עשתה הכול כדי להתגבר על קושי זה. בשיטה מיוחדת המכוונת לכך הצליחה ההוצאה לסדר את הנקודות והטעמים עם האותיות בנאמנות, בדיוק ובאמנות, שלא הגיעו אליהם כתבי־יד וספרי־דפוס עד כה. הובלט ההבדל בעובי הסימנים בין התנועות לבין הטעמים. סימני התנועות עבים יותר והטעמים דקים יותר מאשר בהדפסות הרגילות. שיפור זה מקל הרבה את לימוד הקריאה לתלמידים ואת עצם הקריאה לקטן ולמבוגר כאחד.

בכל הדפוסים הרגילים נדפסו האותיות שׁ — שׂ כשבא חולם לפניהן או אחריהן — והן פגומות, ועל ידי כך אינן ניתנות לקריאה נכונה לפי צורתן, ורק מתוך ידיעת המלה ומתוך הקשר הדברים מנחש הקורא מה לפניו.

למשל הסימן שׁ מציין את האות שׁ כשלעצמה (שָׁמַר), וגם את הצירוף חולם ואות שׁ אחריו (יִדְרשׁוּן, ישעיהו נח, ב; הוחסר כאן החולם של ר, ורק מתוך ניחוש ניתנת המלה לקריאה).
הסימן שׁ מציין גם את אות שׁ כשלעצמה (שָׁנָא), וגם את האות שׁ המנוקדת חולם חסר ו"ו (שׂנָא, דברים ד, מב; עֲשׂה, בראשית נ, כ; וְלַשׂרָקָה, בראשית מט, יא. מניין ידע הקורא כי האות שׁ מנוקדת חולם? — רק על ידי ניחוש).

הסימן שׁ (שהוא כלאיים של ש – ש יחד) מציין גם שׁ (ימנית) המנוקדת חולם (שְׁמֹרִי), וגם שׂ (שמאלית) שיש חולם לפניה (נִשְׂאֵי), גם שׂ (שמאלית שיש חולם לפניה ולאחריה (הָעֹשֵׂת — מי יודע לקרוא מלה זו, שיש בה שלוש אותיות ללא ניקוד ?).

בתנ"ך קורן נמצא

שָׁמַר · יְדַרְשׁוּן · שָׁנֵא · שִׂנְאָה · עֲשֹׂה · וְלַשֹּׁרֵקָה · שִׁמְרִי · נִשְׂאֵי · הָעֹשֵׂת

— ואי אפשר להשתבש. והוא הדין גם בכתבי־יד קדמונים ובדפוס היהודי הראשון (שונצינו).

במיוחד הקפידה ההוצאה לדייק בהוכחנה שבין סימן ו, המציין את ו ההגויה בחולם, ובין סימן וֹ, המציין חולם השייך לאות שלפניו (מָצוֹת — מַצּוֹת).

אף השווא שתחת ך הושם בגובה הראוי לו, כשאר התנועות.

הפתח הגנובה הוזזה לצד ימין, כראוי, כדי לסמן את הקריאה הנכונה: את התנועה לפני האות ה, ע, ח שבסוף התיבה. גם זה נעשה כדוגמת כתבי־היד הקדמונים.

הטעמים תלישא גדולה, תלישא קטנה, זרקא, סגול ופשטא מקומם בכתב אינו מעל להברה המוטעמת אלא התלישא הגדולה בתחילת האות הראשונה של התיבה, ושאר הטעמים האמורים בקצה האות האחרונה של התיבה. ע"י כך עלול הקורא לטעות בהטעמתה הנכונה של המלה, ומשום כך נהגו הדפוסים להדפיס שני סימני פשטא במלה שטעמה מלעיל, האחד מעל ההברה המוטעמת והשני בסוף התיבה. בהוצאתנו זו הלכנו בעקבות ר' וולף היידנהיים בוזומשיו והדפסנו טעמים כפולים גם בזרקא, בסגול ובתלישא קטנה כשהמלה טעמה מלעיל, ובתלישא גדולה, כשהמלה טעמה מלרע.

השתפרה צורתם של סימני הניקוד והטעמים, המקלה הרבה על קריאה נוחה ונכונה. נעשו הבדלים עדינים בין הטעמים הדומים זה לזה, כגון, פשטא וקדמא, מהפך ויתיב. והעיקר — נשמרו במהדורה דקדוקי המסורת לפי טעמו של יהודי, שהתנ"ך הוא בית חייו.

סימון הכתיב והקרי תוקן במהדורה זו באופן יסודי ויעיל ביותר.
הכתיב מסמן כיצד כתובה המלה בגוף המקרא, והקרי — כיצד היא נקראת; על־כן מסומן הכתיב בפנים המקרא בלי ניקוד, ובצד הגליון באותה השורה נדפסה המלה, כפי שהיא נקראת. הקורא ידע בנקל להבחין בין הכתיב לקרי, שכן מלה שלא נוקדה — אין לקראה, והמלה כפי קריאתה נמצאת ממש לצדה (אך לא בפנים).

בהוצאות האחרות נדפס הקרי ללא ניקוד ובאותיות קטנות בתחתית הגליון, והניקוד הוכנס לתוך הכתיב. כתוצאה מכך נקבלת המלה צורה משונה ומשמעות מסולפת, או שחסרה היא משמעות בכלל. על כל פנים קשה לקראה ואין צורך להביא כאן דוגמאות לכך.

שם הוי"ה בא בספר בלא ניקוד, כדי למנוע חילול השם על ידי קריאה לא נכונה, לפי הניקוד.

המהדורה מדויקת עפ"י המסורה, בעיון ובבדיקה מדוקדקת, עד כמה שיד אדם מגעת, וכל כך על יסוד חוות דעתם של בעלי המסורה ושל המדקדקים והמפרשים ועל פי מה שמצוי ברב כתבי־היד והדפוסים המוסמכים ולא כהעתקה משועבדת לדפוס או לכתבי־יד מסוים.

גם חלוקת התנ"ך לפרשיות היא לפי המסורה. כלומר, התנ"ך אינו מחולק, כמקובל בדפוסים, שיצאו על ידי הנוצרים ובעקבותיהם לפי "קפיטלים", אלא לפי פרשיות פתוחות וסתומות לפי המסורה. סימון "הקפיטל" ומספרו של הפסוק בתוך ה"קפיטל" נשתרש בכל הספרות היהודית ואי אפשר לבטלו כיום לחלוטין, ולכן הובא גם במהדורה זו, אבל לא בהבלטה, אלא לצד המקרא כלפי פנים. החלוקה לפסקאות אינה לפי "קפיטלים" אלה.

לעומת זאת הובא סימון החלוקה היהודית המקורית בהבלטה, כלומר, בראש העמוד ובצד הרחב (החיצוני) של הגיליון. כאן מסומן גם בפעם הראשונה הסדר במספרים. והרי דוגמה אחת מרבות: הפרק הראשון שבתורה מסתיים לפי החלוקה הנוצרית אחרי פסוק לא ("ויהי ערב ויהי בקר יום הששי"), ולא כהלכה אחרי "אשר ברא א' לעשות". לפי החלוקה המסורתית מתחיל סדר ב' כראוי "אלה תולדות השמים והארץ".

THE TRANSCRIPTION OF HEBREW NAMES

A special feature of the present English Bible which makes it unique among printed Bibles in the English language, is the systematic adoption of the Hebrew forms of Biblical personal and place names. Hitherto, the English reader has been accustomed to such Hellenized forms as Eve, Isaac, Moses, etc.; he will now encounter for the first time the Hebrew forms, Ḥavva, Yiẓḥaq, Moshe, etc.

The system of transliteration adopted is based (with some variations) on that recommended by the Hebrew Language Academy of Israel. The sign ' represents the letter 'Ayin, a stop consonant articulated against the uvula. In the Greek forms of Hebrew names it is sometimes wrongly represented as a 'g', thus Gaza, and Gomorrah, instead of 'Azza and 'Amora. The sign ' represents the Alef, a simple glottal stop, as heard in all English words beginning with a vowel. The underlined forms of the ẓ and ḥ as in the name Yiẓḥaq, represents the Hebrew consonants ẓadi and ḥet respectively, the former being pronounced almost like the ts in 'habits', and the latter resembling the 'ch' in the Scottish 'loch'. The 'kh' in Shekhem has a similar guttural sound, but is articulated somewhat deeper down in the throat.

By rejecting proper names and titles based on the Greek and Latin, the editors and publishers of this new English-Hebrew edition signify their desire to return to a more authentic reading of the Jewish Scriptures.

THE ENGLISH TRANSLATION

is not essentially new: it is rather a thoroughly corrected, modernized and revised version of those Anglo-Jewish Bibles which have long been accepted for home and synagogue use throughout the English-speaking world. As a basis for this edition, the 'Jewish Family Bible' of M. Friedlander, published with the sanction of the Chief Rabbi of the British Empire, Dr. N. M. Adler in 1881, was selected. That version had two important merits: it was faithful to the Masora, or received Hebrew text, and it retained as much as Jewish sentiment permitted of the unsurpassed language and rhythm of the 'Authorized Version' of 1611. These advantages have been preserved in the present version.

In addition to the text of Friedlander, a comparison was made with the interesting nineteenth century Jewish Bible of Isaac Lesser, and with other later translations. As a result many fresh readings have been adopted. The language of the older versions has been modernized where it was felt that the ancient linguistic and grammatical forms would cause difficulty for the present-day reader. Also many points of detail have been corrected in the light of modern scholarship, or as a result of fresh application to the Targumim and the classical Jewish commentators.

THE DIVISIONS OF THE TEXT

A primary aim of the present Bible has been to offer a rendering of the English Bible which would match both in its spirit and in its outer appearance, the Hebrew text printed opposite. This text, that of the 'Koren Bible' first published in Jerusalem in the year 5722 (1962), is unique among Hebrew printed Bibles in rejecting Greek titles, Latin numerals, and Chapter divisions based on non-Jewish authority. Chapter divisions are relegated to the margin, whilst the text itself is divided up according to the traditional system of petuḥot (open line divisions) and setumot (closed spaces) as found in the ancient Hebrew manuscripts. The English text is now presented for the first time in this same form.

"KETIV" AND "QERI": In all other editions there are sources of misreading. The error is made by printing the vowel-points of the "qeri" in the "ketiv" form. Thus such words are read incorrectly. For example, in the Book of Esther, the "be'omram" is printed with vowel-points in the text, and is thus read "be'omram"; the correct reading is, however, "ke'omram". Or, in the Ten Commandments (Va'etḥannan) the vowel-points are printed in all other editions in the word "mẓvtv" and read, therefore, "miẓvotav" instead of "miẓvotay". Or, in Bereshit 8, 17 "havẓe", a word which does not exist, instead of "hayẓe"; etc.
In the Koren Tenakh, the "ketiv" always appears in the text without the vowels and the "qeri" with the proper vowels, at the outer margin of the pertinent line, and guarantees therefore the correct reading.

THE NAME OF THE LORD: In all other editions the name of the LORD JHVH is printed with nikkud (vowels) which may mislead the reader to read this name as it is strictly forbidden to do. This name of the LORD has to be read in the form of "Adonoot". In the Koren edition the name is printed without vowels: this eliminates the possibility of the forbidden reading and emphasizes the holiness of this name.

THE PATTERN OF THE PAGE: It is printed similarly to a Sefer Tora, according to the Masora, as to "petuḥa" and "setuma" and to all the other masoretic rules.

THE CHAPTERS AND SEDARIM: The "sedarim", based on the Masora, are for the first time marked and numbered (on the outer margin of the page); also the divisions for "aliyot" and "parshot hashshavua".
The chapters, introduced by Gentiles, are also noted (on the inside margin of the page), because of their universal acceptance as a reference method.
PROOFREADING: World-known Bible authorities have been occupied for decades correcting errors that have become part of the printed Bible throughout the ages. Based on these investigations, the Koren Tenakh is free of these blemishes.

IN WHAT DOES THE KOREN TENAKH DIFFER FROM ALL THE OTHERS ?

THE LETTER : It excels in its originality, beauty and easy readability.

THE LETTER "SHIN" : In the Koren Tenakh it is printed so that the reader is enabled to distinguish eight variations of the "shin" and "sin" (s, sh, os, so, oso, sho, osho) without having to guess or depend on the context of the sentence. In other editions there exist for all these variations three signs only.

THE LETTER "LAMED" : It is always uniform ; its "head" is not "cut off" or "bent", as in many printings.

ACCENTS AND VOWELS : They are for the first time arranged properly. The differentiation between them (heavy signs for the vowels, thin signs for the accents) makes the reading easier — especially for children. Differentiations are also made for the accents "pashto-qadmo" and "mapaḫ-yetiv" which in all other editions have the same signs.
All vocals appear in their proper places ; the lower vocal signs are in the middle of the letter or at the "foot", if the letter extends downwards ; in the case of a "pataḫ ganuv" the sign is at the right of the letter.
The vocal "ḫolam" appears between the letters. Thus the confusion which exists elsewhere between "o" and "vo" when "vav-ḫolam" is concerned (the point ON the "vav" means the sound expressed by "o" and AFTER the "vav" means "vo") can be avoided.
